Presbyterians to have bake sale

The First Presbyterian Church will have a bake sale Saturday.

It will begin at 8:30 a.m. in front of The Hayloft on the south side of the square. The sale will continue until all baked items are sold.

"This is a great opportunity to stock up on baked items and favorite summer goodies to take on trips, have when relatives or friends come to visit, or simply for you and your family," said a church spokesman.

Proceeds from the bake sale will be used for the First Presbyterian Church general budget.

Donations of bake sale items are welcome. Call 864-2498 or 864-8923.

Juniors to sell spirit flags

Haskell High School juniors will be selling Indian Spirit Flags until July 5. Flags are 3'x5".

The juniors' goal is to have a flag at every business and home so they may be displayed on the days of football and basketball games and during the track season.

Class members say that several area towns have these flags and it is very impressive to drive through these towns and see all of the flags flying.

Those wishing to purchase flags for business or homes should contact one of the following juniors or sponsors:

Missy Davis 864-2720; Kyle Darden 864-3797; Julie Nanny 864-2403; Glenda Drinnon 864-3147.

Distribution in Sagerton will be Wednesday (July 13) between 10 and 11 a.m. at Faith Lutheran Church.

Bible school begins Monday

"Champions for Jesus" is the theme of the First Christian Church Vacation Bible School which begins Monday. It will continue through Friday, July 15.

At workshop

Gena Decker and Christi Bartley proudly display the plaque they received as runnerup in Theme Development at the yearbook workshop held at Midwestern State University.

Yearbook editors attend workshop

Two Chieftain yearbook staff members, Christi Bartley, editor, and Gena Decker, assistant editor, recently attended the Taylor Publishing Co. workshop at Midwestern State University in Wichita Falls.

During the three-day workshop, the girls reviewed basic yearbook production and learned advanced production. Ideas for a theme, feature stories, layouts, cover and division pages for the 1989 Chieftain were explored.

The final day of the workshop involved presenting a skit for competition. The prize of eight free pages of color went to the group from Graham. Other prizes awarded included the best theme development prize. The Haskell girls placed runnerup in this category.

Pat Quattlebaum, sponsor of the Haskell High School publication, accompanied the two girls to the workshop. "I always like to take students to the workshop because they get a more thorough understanding of what they are trying to do in yearbook production," she said. "We also get a head start on next year's book. And the students seem to enjoy themselves; Taylor makes it a fun experience."

Veteran benefits boost local economy

Veterans Administration expenditures in Haskell County during fiscal year 1987 were estimated at $716,379.

That figure was released by Stephen L. Lemons, VA regional office director in Waco. This included $679,149 for compensation and pension, $1,210 for adjustment and vocational rehabilitation and $36,020 for insurance and indemnities.

"The money VA expended in Haskell County went directly into the local economy, Lemons said.

He noted that Texas veterans received $1,040,076,680 as compensation for disabling injuries or diseases incurred while in the armed forces, or as pensions for wartime veterans with limited incomes; $95,632,799 for readjustment and vocational rehabilitation benefits; and $98,685,050 for insurance and indemnity payments.

Baseball tourney set July 22-24

A semipro baseball tournament is planned in Haskell for the weekend of July 22-24.

Representatives of interested teams should contact Mike Cook at 864-2226. Deadline for entries is July 13.

The tournament is being sponsored by Haskell Teenage Baseball.

Singing School

Students begin arriving Sunday

Students will begin arriving Sunday for the 23rd annual Haskell Singing School, hosted by the Haskell Church of Christ, 510 N. Ave. E.

Each year, more than 100 students, ages 10 and above, come from all parts of the country to spend a week in intensive training while learning to read music, write songs and lead congregational singing.

This year's students have registered from as far away as Tacoma, Wash., and the states of Virginia, Oklahoma, Colorado and Texas.

Holland Boring Sr. has served as director of the school since its beginning and Bob Connel, former minister of the church in Haskell, has served as instructor for each year's school. Other instructors are Paul Epps and Tom Chapin.

Activities of the week will include classroom instruction in the morning, afternoon and evening.

Special activities also are planned, including the get-acquainted fellowship Sunday night after services, combined devotionals and court house singing on Friday night. Students stay in the homes of local church members and are fed and housed for the week.

Thursday night (July 14) will be a special youth night with 100 to 200 area youth attending. A special invitation is extended to the youth of Haskell to attend youth night. Jim Hackney, minister of Midtown

Church of Christ in Fort Worth and former resident of Weinert, will be featured speaker.

The public is invited to visit the school at any time, and especially during the closing program Saturday night (July 16) from 4 to 6 p.m.

Keynoter

State Treasurer Ann Richards, left, last week was named keynote speaker of the Democratic National Convention. Here she is congratulated by Railroad Commissioner John Sharp, Dukakis Texas chairman, and State Rep. Charles and Kay Finnell of Holliday. Richards has twice served as featured speaker for the Finnell Fish Fry.

June rainfall measures 3.98

Haskell received almost 4 inches of rain during the month of June.

Sam Herren, official weather recorder, reported Friday that June rainfall came to 3.98 inches, far above the normal June total of 2.33 inches.

For the year to date, however, rainfall still is considerably below normal. Through the first half of the year, the moisture total was 7.83 inches, Herren said. The normal is 11.15 inches.

Temperatures during the month of June ranged from a crisp 58 degrees on June 5 to a sweltering 109 on June 8.

Andy Anderson gets hole-in-one

Andy Anderson celebrated his 68th birthday by scoring a hole-in-one at the Haskell Country Club last Thursday (June 30).

It came on the par 3, 160-yard No. 3 hole.

Anderson says he has proof of his accomplishment: "I dug up the hold and pole and had them mounted in my home."

Moisture improves conditions

By Steve Davis
Extension Agent-Entomology
June 30

Generally, attitudes have improved 100 percent with last weekend's moisture. A new "lease on life" has been granted to local growers, even though they were taken down to the wire.

Boll weevil trap numbers are down in Fisher and Jones counties from last week. We do not have enough information from the remaining counties to determine a weekly average at this time. Growers should be prepared for the worst and get ground rigs out of moth balls in preparation for early season insect control. Boll weevil emerging from overwintering habitat will be guaranteed a home with cotton development as it is.

Fleahoppers have begun to invade some edges of cotton fields where white weeds are plentiful--no square loss has been noted yet, however. Fleas will be a potential problem for three to four weeks and fruiting form percentages will need to be monitored closely.

Should it become necessary to treat early for weevils and fleas, it is wise to choose something other than a Pyrethroid. The resistance factor exhibited by Tobacco Budworms is scary in isolated areas of South Texas and Arkansas. We may not have a pocket of resistance in the Rolling Plains, but why tempt fate? There are several products (Organophosphates and Carbamates) that will do an excellent job on early season pests and will not promote resistance.

Bollworm meggs have been found in area cotton fields. One field west of Rotan and several north of Anson have had a small number of eggs for the last two weeks. However, beneficials seem to have them under

Students do well on TEAMS tests

For the most part, Haskell students did well on the Texas Educational Assessment of Minimum Skills (TEAMS) tests administered during the past school year.

Tests were given to students in grades 1, 3, 5, 7, 9 and 11.

Tests for juniors were in two categories, math and language arts. Haskell juniors scored well above the state average. In math, 86 percent of the Haskell juniors passed the test, compared to a state average of 75. In language arts, 97 percent of the Haskell students mastered the test, compared to 89 percent statewide.

All other students took three-part tests, math, reading and writing.

Ninth graders here fell below the state average in math, 71-83, and reading, 77-79, but well above the state norm in writing, 85-87.

Here is how Haskell students in other grade levels fared (first number representing the percent of local students who passed the test, the second number being the state average):

Seventh grade: Math 96-91; reading, 84-87; writing 89-88.

Fifth grade: Math 89-89; reading 82-88; writing 84-79.

Third grade: Math 95-91; reading 88-84; writing 81-76.

First grade: Math 88; reading 91; writing 92 (state averages not available).

Campbell family has annual reunion

The annual reunion for descendants of Will and Ida Elizabeth Campbell was held July 3-4 at Mineral Wells State Park. Forty-two family members were present, with 19 unable to attend.

Those present included Charlie and Eureka Campbell. Six of their seven children were there, Duward and Gwen Campbell and their family from Haskell; Kathy, Mike and Tracie Rea and Kristen and Chris Grand.

Janis and Loyd Klose of Abilene and their family, Kellie, Jamie and Doug Austin and Kaleb Smith.

Larry and Welda Campbell and their family, Shane, Shawn and Shannon from Hodges.

Brenda and Kenneth Sanders of Weinert, their boys, Kregg, Kent and Kole.

Debbie and Dave Engle and Jeff from Stillwater, Okla.

Reda Gary Thomas, Eden and Jullian from Haskell.

W. L. and Effie Campbell from Breckenridge.

Odell and Fern Campbell from Haltom City and their family, Linda Wheeler, Jennifer and Bruce Love, Leah and Robin.

Engaged

Judy Feemster of Knox City announces the engagement of her daughter, Cyndy, to Dennis Carver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Carver of Rochester. The bride-elect also is the daughter of E. H. Feemster of Haskell. Cyndy is a 1988 graduate of Knox City High School. Carver, a Rochester High School graduate, is employed by Carver Oilfield Service. The wedding is planned for July 30 in the First United Methodist Church in Knox City.

My thanks to you who came to help me celebrate my birthday. Your friendship means a lot to me. Thanks also for all the cards I received. To my daughter & grandsons, thanks for making the occasion possible.

Some are eligible for phone discounts

Reduced telephone rates went into effect July 1 for older disabled Texans who live in poverty, according to state officials who worked out the plan with telephone company representatives in response to recent legislation.

Under Tel-assistance Service, phone companies offer a 65-percent reduction in basic monthly local charge. The reduced rate does not apply to installation, touch-tone, custom calling, long distance or similar charges.

"The program was established by the Legislature, which required all 66 telephone companies that serve Texas consumers to participate," said Marlin W. Johnston, commissioner of the Texas Department of Human Services.

The Texas Public Utility Commission is responsible for rules governing participation by telephone companies. The human services department will take applications for the service and determine eligibility. The department will furnish telephone companies with a monthly list of eligible Texans.

To be eligible, a person must live in Texas, be the head of a household, be at least 65 years old, be disabled and have income at or below the federal poverty level. The 1988 poverty level for a one-person household is $480.83 per month. The income limit for a two-person household is $644.16; a three-person household, $807.50; and a four-person household, $970.83. For each additional person, add $163.33 per month.

A person may have only one telephone line and may not have optional extended area service. People without telephone service must pay installation charges.

Johnson said application forms will be mailed to potentially eligible Texans in the department's files. Telephone companies will mail information about Tel-assistance service to all customers starting in September.

Application forms and information are available by calling toll free 1-800-343-8353.

Commentary

Ann Richards for vice president?

AUSTIN—When it became official that state Treasurer Ann Richards will deliver the keynote speech to the National Democratic Convention, the Capitol gristmill immediately began to link her future to the White House.

The fiery Texas lady who keeps

Once Dukakis and Jesse Jackson work out their relationship, then Hightower, who endorsed Jackson early on, will surely receive a starting lineup assignment.

She's A Tough Cookie

Most party leaders agree Ann Richards is a tough cookie who can play hardball with the big boys of Texas politics. In fact, she can probably reach as many diverse groups as any politician around.

A roomful of bankers feel comfortable with her as she moves among them. And she can move a lesbian-gay caucus to tears with a speech about AIDS support.

Why do women voters like her? Because she's dead serious about their issues, and not just the major ones. She rose out of the women's movement and continues to strengthen those ties.

Serious, Not Offensive

Unlike Geraldine Ferraro, or how some perceived Ferraro, Richards knows when to soothe with softness and compassion, when to break the heaviness with comic relief.

She's serious, not overly offensive.

Does she have weaknesses? How will the rest of the nation accept her regional accent which some label a Texas drawl?

Maybe they'll like it. Perhaps they'll love it. Maybe they'll be offended. Richards is used to all three.

One thing is certain, the words she speaks will not be an apology for being Texan.

$2 Billion School Boost

Education Commissioner W.N. Kirby last week unveiled a proposal calling for a $2 billion per year boost in state funding for public schools and the use of state funds for the first time to construct new schools.

The plan was submitted to State Board of Education members as a potential alternative to a court ruling last year that the state's $11 billion-a-year public school finance system is unconstitutional.

Kirby acknowledged that his "blue sky" proposal probably requires more money than lawmakers would be willing to spend. He said the plan "would go a long way toward meeting the requirements of the court order" by state District Judge Harley Clark.

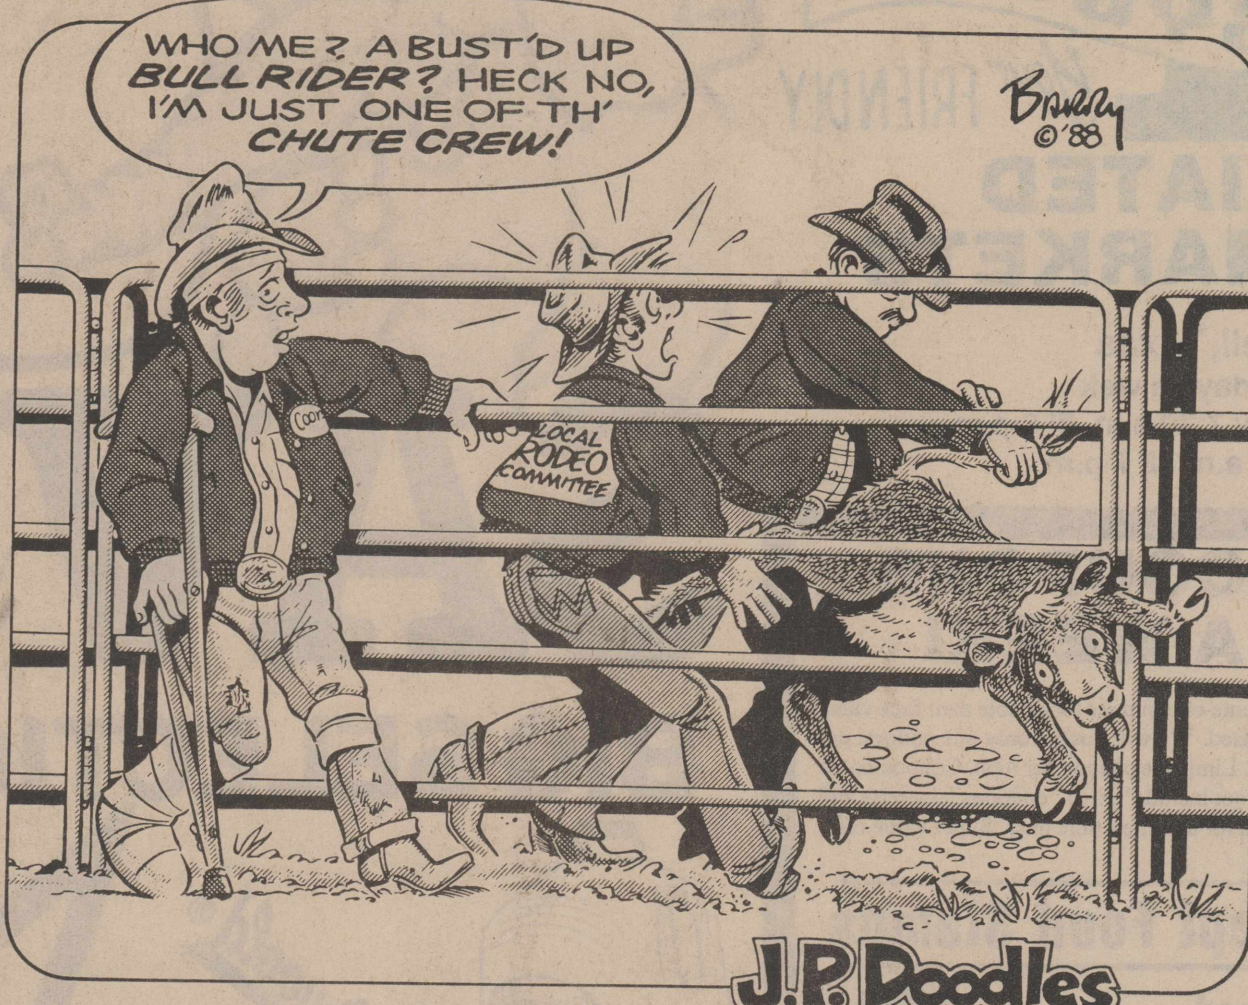

The state has appealed Clark's decision to the 3rd Texas Court of Appeals, and the matter is expected to wind up before the state Supreme Court by year's end.

Staff Disciplined

Sen. Richard Anderson announced last week that one employee has left "by mutual agreement" and several others have been reprimanded in connection with reports that his office billed the state for hundreds of phone calls to campaign consultants.

The Marshall Democrat said that he has also taken other steps to "see that such a mistake is never repeated in my office."

Ask VA

Q: Does the Veterans Administration help veterans find lenders for VA-guaranteed mortgages?

A: No. Veterans must make their own arrangements for loans through the usual lending channels, such as banks, savings and loan associations and mortgage loan companies. Real estate brokers will ordinarily assist a veteran in finding a lender.

Q: I am a single veteran and receive a pension from the VA. I was recently convicted of a misdemeanor and sent to prison. What effect will this have on my VA pension?

A: Your VA pension will be discontinued beginning 61 days after imprisonment, but benefits can be reinstated when you are released.

Just when was the "Great Depression"?

Most people who are old enough to remember call all of the 1930s the era of the Great One.

When I was a kid in the 30s, people referred to the depression as having been from 1929 to 1933. My history book verified these dates.

I think those dates were established by the Democrats who blamed Herbert Hoover for the mess, thus using those years he was President. Many Democrats felt the depression ended when FDR took office in '33, although most of them were no better off than before.

Republicans, of whom there were few in those days, saw it differently. I can recall presidential candidate Thomas E. Dewey in 1944 referring the "the seven years of depression between 1933 and the beginning of World War II."

Truth is, there was enough depression for everyone--Democrats and Republicans alike. Few will argue that the depression didn't start with the great stock market crash in October 1929, and stayed around until America started gearing up for that other Big One, WWII.

Life may have been a lot harder back in the old days, but it was surely a lot simpler.

An "80-years-ago" item in The Free Press a couple of weeks ago told of J. L. Baldwin and G. C. Nance of Rule buying a 20-horsepower automobile to haul passengers between Rule and Haskell for a fee of $1.

To do such a thing today, one would need a permit, a franchise, an occupational license, a special driver's license, a state tax permit, a federal employment number and tons of liability insurance, just to name a few items.

Then this week, a "70-years-ago" item mentions that J. J. Oates, who was seriously injured by the Orient train was able to come to town for the first time since the accident.

The article doesn't say, but I presume he was struck by the train. Bet he didn't get a thing from the railroad. Today, such a thing ought to be worth 5 or 10 million.

Smokers who saw cigarettes go up 40 cents a carton the other day may be justified in feeling that the increase is to offset costs of court cases and judgements against tobacco companies.

A headline in Friday's Dallas Morning News: "Texans Don't Want More Taxes".

So... What else is new?

There are a lot of ways to expend calories, and most of them are bad. Therefore, I like this exercise and calorie reduction plan I've seen in a number of newspapers lately:

1. Beating around the bush: 75 calories.
2. Jogging your memory: 125 calories.
3. Jumping to conclusions: 100 calories.
4. Passing the buck: 25 calories.
5. Grasping at straws: 75 calories.
6. Beating your own drum: 100 calories.
7. Throwing your weight around: 50 to 300 calories, depending on your weight.
8. Dragging your feet: 100 calories.
9. Pushing your luck: 500 calories.
10. Making mountains out of molehills: 500 calories.
11. Spinning your wheels: 175 calories.
12. Flying off the handle: 225 calories.
13. Beating head against the wall: 150 calories.
14. Running around in circles: 350 calories.

"Face it. Your feet are talking about you. According to anthropologist Dr. Helen Fisher, the way you walk can tell people about your mood and your personality. For instance, she warns, listless walkers are often regarded by muggers as easy targets because they appear submissive."

That's what it says in a "news" release which came across this desk a few days ago.

You are reading The Haskell Free Press and we thank you.

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

state money safe and drawing interest would be an excellent vice presidential nominee, her supporters say. Some observers contend that after national delegates hear her speech, they'll think so, too.

Richards, who enjoys great support among Texas women, would naturally be expected to broaden that appeal to women voters in other states. Dead serious about women's issues, she smooths her approach with humor that can match Jim Hightower's.

She would also add a home-grown Texas element to counter Vice President George Bush's residency claim, as well as a Southern appeal to balance Mike Dukakis' Northern base.

Here in Texas, Richards appeals to many in the banking and business communities; she is a favorite among minority leaders.

Gubernatorial Option

So far, Richards has publicly expressed only her goal to run for governor in 1990.

The speculation regarding a place on the national ticket does not come from her office; it comes from Democrats who want a Texan in the White House.

They point out how New York's Mario Cuomo set the Democratic Party on fire with his stirring keynoter in 1984, instantly creating for himself a sizeable degree of national popularity.

The Cuomo phenomenon may not easily be duplicated, but Richards was instantly elevated in the eyes of Texas Democrats in her quest for the governor's mansion.

Texas Connections

Certainly, her selection underscores how serious Dukakis considers Texas in the presidential sweepstakes. When Richards delivers her speech, the entire nation will realize the Texas connection.

Richards was an early Dukakis endorsee; her likely gubernatorial opponent in 1990, Attorney General Jim Mattox, only recently climbed on the late train.

The connection list continued to grow when Land Commissioner Garry Mauro was tapped to lead Texas on the platform national committee.

control. Entomologists from the San Angelo area are reporting that growers are having to treat bollworms that are defoliating terminals. A 40-percent worm infestation with a 40-percent fresh egglay has been reported. It is significant to note that most of the cotton being treated is pre-square.

Bollworm and budworm moth traps have been monitored closely the last week and have shown a peak in numbers coinciding with the full moon. Therefore, the next peak should come the latter part of July.

I have received several calls regarding flying ant swarms. These swarms are due to reproductive forms leaving their overwintered nests and seeking new places of residence. Other than being a nuisance, they are of no real concern and chemical treatments are usually not justified unless they decide to build a new nest close to, or inside, human structures.

--Letters to the Editor--

Dear Haskell: I am writing on behalf of a young lady whom most of you will never meet. I am also writing on behalf of a church most of you will never attend. I am writing to each of you because over the years I have seen the people of Haskell come to the unselfish support of those in physical, emotional and spiritual need whether close tie or stranger.

For the past year, I have been a volunteer in the music department at Iglesia Bautista El Calvario, a small Spanish Baptist church in the community of Bryan. During that time, I have come in contact with many wonderful people. One in particular is a bright, young Christian lady by the name of Cindy Ramirez. Cindy is 17 years old and is the oldest of six children.

Last week Cindy was rushed to a Galveston hospital critically ill, suffering from a kidney infection which has resulted in swelling covering two-thirds of her body. The swelling on the brain has caused blindness and loss of most motor functioning.

The family simply cannot absorb the medical costs that will exceed into the thousands. She remains in the Galveston hospital until further testing.

I am writing to each of you without consent or knowledge of El Calvario. But because the Ramirez family has had an impact on my life I am writing this letter because I believe in Haskell's love and support of those in need.

Please send any contribution and/or letter of support to:

Iglesia Bautista El Calvario, c/o

Cindy Ramirez, 1001 East 29th Street, Bryan, Texas 77803.
No amount of financial support is too small.

BREAST CANCER DETECTION UNIT AVAILABLE TO AREA WOMEN

FRIDAY, JULY 15, 1988

HASKELL, TEXAS

A Service of

HASKELL MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

CALL 864-2621 FOR APPOINTMENT

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women in the United States will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as the result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate.

A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

Appointments may be made by calling 864-2621.

The Mobile Breast Cancer Detection Unit will be in Haskell on Friday, July 15th.

The American Cancer Society has established guidelines for a mammography in asymptomatic women. (Women who have no symptoms of disease). Those guidelines have been adopted by the American Academy of Family Physicians, American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, and The American College of Radiology. Those guidelines are:

- I. 35-40 years of age - One baseline mammogram.
- II. 40-50 years of age - A mammogram every 1-2 years depending on breast type and risk factor.
- III. 50 years of age and over - An annual physical examination and annual mammogram.
- IV. Asymptomatic women under 50 years of age with significant high risk factors should be examined at appropriate intervals. These risk factors include previous breast cancer and family history of cancer.

V. A symptomatic woman should have a mammogram at any age when she experiences a mass, nipple discharge, skin changes or unexplained breast pain.

A screening mammogram is an x-ray of the breast using extremely low dosages of radiation (usually comparable to dental x-rays) and is designed to find very early cancers.

A female technologist who is highly trained in mammography will perform the examination.

The charge for the screening mammogram is $50.00. The Unit accepts cash, check, VISA, MasterCard and American Express.

For more information or to make an appointment call 864-2621.

Holiday driving dangerous

TAX PLANNING

Written By
Gerald Rodgers, CPA

TRAVEL AND ENTERTAINMENT EXPENSES

Generally, business travel remains fully deductible, but business meals and entertainment are only 80% deductible. (There are exceptions. Certain meal and entertainment expenses remain 100% deductible.)

It is the employer's reimbursement policy that determines whether it's the employee or the employer who must reduce meal and entertainment expenses by 20% before taking a deduction on the tax return.

If the employee accounts for his expenses to his employer and is then reimbursed for them, the employee does not report the reimbursement as income nor does he report the expenses as deductions. The employer in this case deducts the reimbursement he paid the employee after making a reduction for 20% of meals and entertainment.

If the employee is reimbursed but doesn't provide an accounting to his employer, he must treat reimbursements as income on his tax return. After making the 20% adjustment on meals and entertainment, the employee can deduct the balance in arriving at his or her adjusted gross income. In other words, he need not itemize to get his deduction. The employer in this case deducts the entire reimbursement paid to the employee.

Where an employee is not reimbursed by his employer for business expenses, he must adjust his meal and entertainment expenses for the 20% nondeductible portion. Then his expenses can only be claimed if he itemizes and only to the extent such expenses along with other miscellaneous itemized deductions exceed 2% of his adjusted gross income. In this case, the employer gets no deduction.

Don't let a tan kill you

Summer's here and suddenly parts of your body that haven't seen sun since last October are exposed to intense radiation.

Be careful out there, advises Dr. Dudley Goetz, dermatologist at Texas College for Osteopathic Medicine in Fort Worth. The best way to treat sunburn is to avoid it. Let your skin get used to the sun gradually, in 15-minute exposures at first. Wear protective clothing when you can.

And use a sunscreen. There are many good ones on the market. A number 15 sunscreen is protection enough for most people, says Dr. Goetz.

The deep tans on healthy young bodies look neat. But as those young bodies get older, the tanned skin ages more rapidly than protected skin. And damage done by tanning can lead to skin cancer.

Sun damage to skin can sneak up on you. So Dr. Goetz's advice is to use a sunscreen--and a little common sense.

Cut your energy bills with propane.

You can save a lot of energy and money by using propane gas. Compared to electricity, propane is a much more efficient fuel for heating your home, cooking, clothes drying, and water heating.

A recent study by the Department of Energy (DOE) reveals that a home using propane for heating, cooking, and clothes drying, costs half as much as a home with the same electric features.

Propane gas is clearly a cut above the other energy sources -- for efficiency, comfort, and economy. Call your nearby propane gas dealer to find out how to cut into your energy expenses.

AT&T ANNOUNCES UPCOMING PRICE CHANGES FOR SOME TEXAS INTRASTATE SERVICES

AT&T announces the following price changes for some of its Texas intrastate services. These changes, which more closely reflect the actual costs incurred by AT&T in providing these services, will become effective on August 1, 1988.

- SDN (Software Defined Network) Schedule A prices will be reduced 1.5% during the initial 30-second period. Schedule B prices will be reduced 16.4% overall. Schedule C prices will be reduced 4.2% overall.
- WATS 80 service prices for both the initial 80-hour usage period and the additional usage period will increase 5%.
- The monthly prices for some of AT&T's Analog Channel Services will increase between $7.05 and $25 per channel termination for Analog services.
- The monthly prices for some Dataphone Digital Service (DDS) will decrease up to $9.65. Other DDS monthly prices will increase up to $18.35. Overall, AT&T's DDS monthly prices will increase less than 1%.

The combined effect of these price changes is expected to produce approximately $3.4 million in annual revenue, which is approximately 0.3% of AT&T's annual revenue for all Texas intrastate services.

If you have questions regarding these price changes, please call your AT&T Account Executive, or our business consultants toll-free at 1-800-222-0400. AT&T's tariffs reflecting these changes will be filed with the Public Utility Commission of Texas on July 1, 1988, with an effective date of August 1, 1988.

Persons who have questions regarding this tariff filing may also contact the Public Utility Commission of Texas in writing, at 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757, or by calling the Public Information Office at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227 or (512) 458-0221 for teletypewriter for the deaf.

NOTICE
The United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has adopted requirements that all public water systems notify their customers about lead exposure.

This notification is intended to educate and inform consumers on this issue in light of the fact that your drinking water may be a potential source of lead exposure. This is being done even though your water system is not in violation of the current standard. There are also other potential sources of lead contamination in the environment.

The following specific language is required by EPA in this notice:

The United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) sets drinking water standards and has determined that lead is a health concern at certain levels of exposure. There is currently a standard of 0.050 parts per million (ppm). Based on new health information, EPA is likely to lower this standard significantly.

Part of the purpose of this notice is to inform you of the potential adverse health effects of lead. This is being done even though your water may not be in violation of the current standard.

EPA and others are concerned about lead in drinking water. Too much lead in the human body can cause serious damage to the brain, kidneys, nervous system, and red blood cells. The greatest risk, even with short-term exposure, is to young children and pregnant women.

Lead levels in your drinking water are likely to be highest:

1. if your home or water system has lead pipes, or
2. if your home has copper pipes with lead solder, and
- if the home is less than five years old, or
- if you have soft or acidic water, or
- if water sits in the pipes for several hours.

Ways to avoid potential lead exposure are to "flush" faucets before use and to use cold water for drinking and cooking. You may wish to have your home tap water tested for lead content by a competent laboratory. You may also wish to check to see if lead pipes, solder, or flux were used in your home plumbing.

The City of Haskell monitors the water system on a regular basis for any potential health hazard as does the North Central Municipal Water Authority from whom the city's water is obtained.

If you have any questions regarding this notice or desire further information, please call the City of Haskell at 864-2333. 27c

--Weinert--

By Myrtle Plemister
We have not had as much rain as many of those in neighboring areas, but what we had has changed old dry, dusty, Weinert into a "Garden spot", with green everywhere. Having no early rains limited our wild flowers, but now the country roads are lined with lovely sunflowers and other wild flowers.
The cotton crops are really growing, and the outlook is good for an abundant harvest at this time. The milo is also doing well.

Many from Weinert attended the Stamford rodeo, and we had an entry in the wild bull riding. But a delayed exit of the bull, caused Todd Hackney to have to ride after most of the spectators had gone from the grounds. Better luck next time, Todd!
Marcus Plemister enjoyed a couple of nights as night watchman, as he kept Randy Plemister company at the Heads or Tails booth at the rodeo barn.

Our birthday people this week include Gracie Griffis, Marcus Plemister, Sandra Nichols, Daisy Horan, and Michael Adams. Happy Birthday, All.

Congratulations are extended to Jerry and Wanda Hester, and to Russell and Hazel Rainey who will be celebrating wedding anniversaries.

Eddie Sanders was honored on his 74th birthday with a family dinner on Friday.

Eddie will enter Ft Worth on Tuesday, July 5th for back treatment. Our prayers are extended on his behalf.

"Scooney" Vojkufka is recuperating at home, following surgery in Haskell Hospital last week. He is doing well and was able to attend worship services on Sunday.

Bertie Alexander had a spell with her heart last week, but is doing well. Her daughter-in-law, Sue Alexander, came up from San Antonio to be with her for a few days. That kind of attention makes any mother feel better.

Lt. Col. W.B. Guess, Jr., who is stationed at Kelly A.F.B. in San Antonio, came down from Tinker A.F.B. in Oklahoma City to see his mother, Mrs. W.B. Guess the past two weekends. He was on T.D.Y. duty at Tinker.

Congratulations are due to Kim Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Brockett, who has just purchased the Omar and Gwen Care Home in Munday, and has moved there with her children, Reneau, Jimmy and Justin.

Kim has accepted a job with Dr. Tom Hairgrove, who recently purchased the Veterinary Clinic in Munday, previously owned by Dr. Stewart. We are happy for Kim, and wish her well.

Dacia, Joseph, Deshea and Geoffrey Plemister have been visiting relatives for several days, while their mother, Mrs. Randy Plemister, recuperates from surgery. They spent some time in Rochester with the Bill Hesters; in Avoca with the Wayne Plemister's; and in Weinert with great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Plemister.

Other guests in the Plemister home were Wayne and Linda Plemister, with Missy, of Avoca; Lola and F.D. Williams of Harlingen; Jennifer Pollostro with Emily Jean, of Phoenix, Arizona; and Ray Forehand of Haskell.

Recent guests in the Pud Brockett home included Mark and Darla Coffman, with Drew and Jordan of Bridgeport; Mrs. Ruth Coffman, of Goree; Courtney Reeves, of Lubbock and Pete and Ina Brockett, with Reneau, Justin and Jimmy.

David and Tabitha Crump are spending the week with their grandparents in Blue Grove, Texas.

Eric and Susan Turnbow of Wichita Falls spent a few days in the home of Eric's parents, Woody and Georgia Turnbow. Eric has volunteered for service in the U.S. Navy, and will be leaving soon for training.

Greg Turnbow is spending the summer months helping his father on the farm.

Rance Parrott, son of Cindy and Stacy Parrott, of Wichita Falls, was honored on his second birthday with a party hosted by his grandparents, Jerry and Doris Walker.

Other family members present included his brother, Justin, his aunt, Deena Hacker of Knox City, and uncle, Barry Walker of Weinert.

Bob and Melanie Wood entertained his brothers family, Mike and Cindy Wood, with their two children of Dallas, for the 4th of July weekend, and also his mother, of Canyon, Texas, was a guest in their home.

Retith and Coy Keahey of Rule, and Richard and Edith Davis of Haskell were in Weinert and attended worship services at the Church of Christ on Sunday night.

Willie and Ida Farrel were in Olney last week for a visit with Ida's sister, Maxine and Roy Boling. They are helping with Ida's brother, Garth Garrett who is in very poor health.

All roads will lead to the Classic Inn July 9-10, when the Plemister clan gathers for their annual family reunion.
