She's an American

Haskell woman finally becomes citizen

By Wendell Faught

That beaming smile on Martina Medford's face these days is for good reason.

She's an American.

Years of frustration for the German-born Haskell housewife and mother ended July 29 when she took the oath of allegiance and was sworn in as a citizen of her adopted country.

She was 7 when she came to America, and that's when she began dreaming of becoming an American citizen. She had no idea it would take so long.

In addition to the usual red tape involved in such a procedure, there were other obstacles. She moved a lot, living in Fort Worth, Andrews, Iraan, Weatherford and in Singapore and Australia, and then in Colorado and again in Weatherford before she established a permanent home base in Haskell. Her father was an oil field worker and the family seemed to always be on the move.

"It seems like every time I started proceedings, we'd move and I would have to start all over, dealing with different people," she recalls. "And, then I was out of the country about three years when we lived in Singapore and Australia."

She credits State Rep. Rick Perry of Haskell and his aide, Dusty Garrison, with expediting proceedings during her final and successful efforts. They enlisted the help of U.S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen to cut through the red tape and make her dream a reality.

Mrs. Medford was born in Berlin in 1964. Her mother, Karin, married an American serviceman, Ronnie Gregg, and they moved to Fort Worth when she was 7. A sister, Carmen, three years older, remained in Berlin with her grandmother.

A short time later they moved to Andrews where Martina started to school and learned English. Two years later they moved to Iraan for a year and a half and then to Weatherford where she lived until she was in 10th grade.

From Weatherford, they moved to Singapore for six months and to Australia for two and a half years while her father was with a drilling rig in Thailand.

Australian schools only go to the 10th grade, so Martina took correspondence courses from Richardson (Texas) High School and earned her high school diploma. She also attended secretarial and computer schools in Australia.

She and her parents moved back to Weatherford for about six months and then to Haskell in 1983.

It was here that she met, and later married, Jeff Medford in 1984. He is an employee of West Texas Utilities Co. at its Paint Creek power plant in 1984. They have a two-and-a-half-year-old son, Jesse Ray.

And it is here that she established roots in the middle of the country she has loved since she was 7. But it's been different since July 29. It's her country now.

Clear sailing

No one is anywhere close to Derrick Billington as he approaches the goal line with an 86-yard touchdown return of the opening kickoff against Hamlin Friday. Billington had a field day against the Pied Pipers, scoring five touchdowns and rushing for 316 yards.

Indians play Albany there Friday night

It's second and long for the Haskell Indians as they travel to Albany Friday night in search of their second consecutive district 7-2A victory.

Haskell is hoping the real Indians show up for this one, the Indian team which blasted Hamlin 34-0 last Friday and not the team that fell flat against Rotan the previous week.

Both teams boast 3-3 records, but the Indians are one-up in the district race. The Lions dropped their 7-2A opener last week to Stamford, 29-13, although they had several big plays. Other losses have been to well-regarded Baird and Eastland, and wins have come over Throckmorton, Knox City and Cisco.

Coach Nelson Coulter thinks Albany has a good team and the Indians will have to play a good game to win. He's impressed with both their offensive and defensive lines. The Lions are a young team. Offensive starters consist of only two seniors, eight juniors and a sophomore. There's more experience on defense where five seniors start.

Albany will have a lot of incentive. Not only is it homecoming in Albany, but the Lions know their playoff hopes will be virtually gone if they drop another game. A revenge factor might also be present since the Lions probably felt they had the district's best team last year, but a 13-12 loss to Haskell knocked them out of the playoffs. (Haskell and Albany tied for second place, but the Indians advanced by virtue of that victory over the Lions.)

Since its return to the district in 1986, the Indians and Lions have split a couple of humdingers. In 1986, Albany won 6-2 after giving up an intentional safety in a game that ended with the Indians a scant six inches from a touchdown.

The coach was pleased with the showing of the Indians against Hamlin. Not only was the offensive effort the best of the season, but the defense was superb in recording the shutout.

Haskell to be exam site

Haskell High School has been designated as a testing center for the ACT college entrance exam.

Students may take their exams in Haskell on the national test dates of Dec. 10, 1988, and April 15, 1989.

Area students, as well as those of Haskell, are encouraged to register to take the test here. The code number to use when registering to test in Haskell is 8417.

School officials said that by testing in a familiar locale and not having to get up so early and make a long drive to a testing site, students should improve their scores.

They also said they are happy for the opportunity to give local students advantages sometimes denied to those of rural areas.

City sales taxes soar

Local sales tax receipts this month increased by 20.01 percent over the amount for the same period last year.

This month's check from the state comptroller was for $10,176.69, compared to $8,480.15 a year ago.

For the year, Haskell has received $128,741.84, a healthy 9.44 percent increase over the $117,637.99 for the same period in 1987.

Comptroller Bob Bullock said Friday that a surge in sales tax rebates reflects increasing economic growth and stability.

Rule was the only other county city to receive a rebate check this month. It was for $1,568.26, down from $1,792.99 for the same month last year. But Rule's year-to-date total of $21,004.56 is 11.14 percent ahead of last year.

All Haskell County cities, Haskell, O'Brien, Rochester, Rule and Weinert, have received a combined $155,366.21 in sales tax rebates so far this year. For the same period last year, the rebates totaled $144,301.74.

In neighboring Jones County, Stamford received $8,905.18 this month, down slightly from the $8,954.46 received last year. But for the year to date, Stamford stands at $131,829.00, or 5.97 percent above the $124,397.42 of a year ago.

This month's checks represent taxes collected by monthly filers in August and reported to the comptroller's office by Sept. 20.

Kiss a pig

Pat Quattlebaum "won" the Kiss-a-Pig contest at Haskell High School. Helping her perform the task is Kyle Darden.

Kiss-a-pig contest conducted at school

The Haskell High School Student Council recently sponsored a Kiss-a-Pig Contest.

Main purpose of the contest was to promote school spirit and to have a little fun.

Four contestants from among the high school personnel were selected and agreed to compete in the contest. They were Gerald McCoy, principal of the secondary school; Christie Stapleton, Spanish teacher; Pat Quattlebaum, English teacher; and Coach Nelson Coulter.

Posters were put up in the halls, and decorated money jars were placed in the foyer by the office. Votes were made by placing money inside the jar for the selected individual. The candidate with the most total money was declared winner of the contest.

During the pep rally, the Student Council members escorted each contestant onto the floor. President Bo Watson thanked each contestant and named the winner of the contest. Mrs. Quattlebaum received the most votes and won the honor of kissing a pig.

The Student Council is now sponsoring a little red wagon float contest to promote school spirit. Many of the high school clubs, classes and organizations are planning to enter the contest. The group with the winning float will be awarded a prize. The decorated wagons will be featured in a parade through the school and displayed at the Stamford pep rally Oct. 21.

Members of this year's Student Council are Bo Watson, Christi Bartley and Derrick Billington, seniors; Kyle Darden and Missy Davis, juniors; Jason Hall and Tiffany Bradford, sophomores; Misti Bartley and Chris Tanner, freshmen; Joseph Rodriguez, eighth grade; and Teresa Diaz, seventh grade. Sponsor of the group is Susan Pope.

Sidelines Indians bomb Pipers, 34-0

Haskell won the toss and deferred the option to the second half, but Hamlin chose to defend the north goal with a brisk wind to its back. The logic backfired when Derrick Billington returned the opening kickoff 86 yards for a touchdown.

In the second half, Haskell chose to receive and the Pipers elected to go against the wind, apparently so they would have the wind in the fourth quarter.

That plan also backfired. The Indians took the second half kickoff and marched 69 yards for a score. They had two other third-quarter possessions and scored each time.

On Haskell's three fourth-period possessions, the Indians were stopped at the Hamlin 29 after driving from their own 18, scored on Derrick Billington's 50-yard run, and drove to Hamlin's 20, from where Guess's 37-yard field goal attempt fell short.

Billington's 316 rushing yards on 29 carries averaged out just short of 10.9 yards per carry.

He now has 907 yards in 124 rushing attempts for the year, an average of 151 yards per game and 7.3 per rush.

His only sub-100-yard game was in the opener against Munday when he had 99 yards. He got 131 against Seymour, 113 against Merkel, 128 against Electra and 120 against Rotan before last week's 316.

Having a long touchdown run called back against Hamlin is somewhat of a habit with the Indians. Last year, Chan Guess had an 80-yard punt return erased by a clipping penalty.

Haskell's superior speed showed up several times in the game. Shane Osborne brought down Hamlin's Kyle Jeffrey at the Indian 17 after the Piper quarterback had run 32 yards in the fourth quarter and appeared headed for a touchdown.

Fred Shaw, playing nose guard, made a number of good stops before he was injured early in the third period. Paul Harvey and Roger Roewe had outstanding defensive games, as did Rodney Johnson and Josh Reid. Alberto Alvarez intercepted a pass in the fourth quarter, Hamlin's only turnover. Osborne made two jarring tackles on kickoffs.

Haskell's victory Friday was its first in four home games. But the Indians are 2-0 on the road.

Trent, considered the best 6-man team in the area, is coached by Doug Gore. He was coach at Rocheter a couple of years ago when the Steers made a run at the state championship.

Another former Rochester coach is not doing so well. Rocky French, who followed Gore at Rochester, is 0-6 as head coach at Seymour.

Boosters see film; plan burger supper

Haskell Indian Booster Club members viewed the film of the Hamlin game Monday night. Coach Coulter was very pleased at the outcome of the game as well as the athletes and fans.

A hamburger supper will be held Thursday, Oct. 20, in the high school cafeteria. Tickets can be purchased this week from any athlete. Prices are $3.50 per ticket and $2 for an extra hamburger. Serving will be from 5 to 7 p.m.

The Indians will play Friday night in Albany. Let's join them and support our team.

Derrick Billington returned the opening kickoff 87 yards for a touchdown and then added four more scores during the game as the Haskell Indians bombed the Hamlin Pied Pipers 34-0 in the district 7-2A opener here Friday night.

The 167-pound Haskell speedster was superb. For the night, he rushed 29 times for 316 yards, including runs of 53, 50, 50, 31 and 22 yards. He also had an 87-yard touchdown run erased by a penalty, the fourth long scoring run he's had wiped out this season.

While Billington's heroics were the highlights of the game, credit must go to the entire Indian team which turned in a great performance. The Indian defense held the Pipers at bay. Hamlin's deepest penetration was to the Haskell 13 in the fourth quarter after the Indians already had the victory sewed up. The Pipers reached the Indian 35, 36, 44 and 48 yard lines, but other than that, they never crossed midfield.

Billington's kickoff return and Chan Guess' conversion staked the Indians to a 7-0 lead before the game was 20 seconds old. That was all the scoring in the first half, although the Indians threatened on several occasions.

But once the second half opened, the Indians were unstoppable. They marched 69 yards in 10 plays to score following the second-half kickoff with Billington getting the touchdown on an 11-yard run. Their next possession came at the 50 following a Piper punt, and after two incomplete passes, Billington took it all the way. Their third second-half possession started at their own 24 and it took them 11 plays to drive it into the end zone. Billington ran one yard for the score. Guess converted after all three third-period touchdowns to help put the Indians out front 28-0 at the three-quarter mark.

The final Haskell touchdown came at the 4:41 mark of the fourth quarter with another 50-yard scamper by Billington. Roger Roewe had set up the field position by sacking Billy Brown at the 50 for a 16-yard loss on a fourth-down play. Billington got his fifth touchdown on Haskell's first play from that point. A high snap from center prevented the Indians' extra-point attempt and Guess was denied a conversion for the first time this season. (He is 10-for-10 in kicking and 1-for-1 in passing.)

JVs

The JV Indians host the Albany Lions here tonight (Thursday) at around 8.

Last week the Indians were defeated by the Hamlin Pied Pipers, 18-8.

Noah Gonzales managed the only touchdown for the Tribe.

Going into last week's game, the Indians had two players sick and a few were hurt.

"We had a good chance to score before the half and didn't get the ball in the end zone. That's what broke our back," Coach Randy Stone said.

7th grade

The seventh-grade Warriors will play the Albany Lions at 4:45 p.m. today at Indian Field.

The Warriors lost to Hamlin 34-8 last week with Brian Brzozowski running in the Warriors' only score.

"The Warriors were intimidated by Hamlin's size," Walter Hargrove, seventh-grade coach, said.

Hamlin's fine quarterback Kyle Jeffrey was the main gun in his team's offense. He got off several good runs but could never break one. His 32-yard run in the fourth quarter propelled the Pipers to the Indian 17 and it appeared the visitors were going to avoid a shutout. But after Jeffrey made 4 to the 13 and threw incomplete, Hamlin faced a third down at the 18. Roewe broke through to smear Jeffrey for a 5-yard loss to the 18. Then Billington broke up Jeffrey's fourth-down pass.

Haskell had a number of good marches which didn't result in scores. On their first play from scrimmage, Billington raced 53 yards from his own 31 to the Hamlin 25, but a couple of plays later the Indians coughed up the ball on a fumble, their only turnover of the night.

On their first possession in the fourth quarter, they moved from their own 18 to the Hamlin 29 where the drive stalled.

Billington wasn't the only offensive gun. Jonathan Dever gained 51 yards on just seven carries and Rodney Johnson added 17 on three carries. Guess picked up crucial yardage time and again with keepers and options and connected on six of 10 passes.

Rochester runs past Goree for 4th win

Rochester bested Goree 52-6 Friday night in a game called under the 45-point rule at 2:20 in the third quarter.

The Steers scored 22 points in the first quarter on Kevin Conner's 4-yard run and Corky Speck's runs of 7 and 17 yards.

A 34-yard pass from Brad Bevel to Morgan Walker brought another touchdown early in the second period. After getting a safety on an end zone tackle, the Steers scored again when Conner returned the ensuing Goree kickoff 50 yards. Down 38-0, Goree finally managed a touchdown on a 5-yard run by Gary Dickson.

Walker passed 24 yards to Jeffrey Hollingsworth for a third-period touchdown and then Ross Shaver ran 5 yards for still another score to end the game. Denny Tibbitts converted after the first six touchdowns.

The win boosted Rochester's record to 4-2 overall and 1-1 in district play. This week the Steers play at Patton Springs.

8th grade

The eighth-grade Warriors face the Albany Lions here tonight (Thursday). Game time will be about 6:30.

The Warriors brought their season record to 1-2 with a hard-fought 34-14 loss to the Hamlin Pied Pipers last week.

Mark Jones scored on a five-yard run for one of the Warriors' touchdowns.

Jones later returned a kickoff for 80 yards for the Warriors' second score.

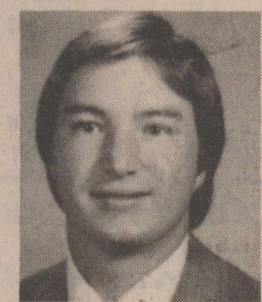

Cody Josselet was successful with the 2-point conversion.

Although the Warriors played fairly good defense, they were unable to stop the Pipers early.

Jones had two interceptions for the only Piper turnovers.

TAX PLANNING

Written By
Richard E. Rodgers, CPA

MEDICARE TAX IN 1989

If you are 65 or older or disabled, a new law, the Medicare Catastrophic Coverage Act of 1988, will have a direct impact on you. The new law takes effect January 1, 1989, and will increase the tax bill for any individual who is Medicare eligible and has an income tax liability of $150 or more for the year.

The new law provides for an unlimited number of covered hospitalized days after a $564 deductible in 1989. In 1990, Medicare will pay for covered medical services after a deductible of $1,370. In 1991, up to half the cost of prescription drugs on an outpatient basis will also be covered.

The new Medicare tax works like this. The Medicare-eligible taxpayer computes his income tax liability and divides it by $150. This fraction is then multiplied by a "supplemental premium" ($22.50 in 1989, $37.50 in 1990, $39.00 in 1991, $40.50 in 1992, and $42.00 in 1993) resulting in the Medicare Tax. The tax cannot exceed $800 for single taxpayers in 1989. That limit increases annually to $850 in 1990, $900 in 1991, $950 in 1992, and $1,050 in 1993. Limits for married couples who are both Medicare eligible are double these amounts. For 1989, this means that the maximum Medicare tax bite for an elderly couple could be as high as $1,600!

For instance, if a husband and wife are both eligible for Medicare and have $65,000 of taxable income, their 1989 tax liability will be $14,332. This tax of $14,332 is divided by $150, and that number is multiplied by $22.50. The result is $2,150; since that exceeds the limit, the couple will pay the maximum Medicare "supplemental premium" of $1,600.

It's important to note that the new tax applies to taxpayers who are Medicare eligible, whether they actually receive benefits or not.

BY WENDELL FAUGHT

Fear not for the extinction of the middle class. We have too many of 'em.

Today we have the upper middle class, the plain old middle class and the lower middle class.

Should storm clouds gather, we can always create another division.

At least one new word crops up every presidential election year. Like "gaffe", a new way of saying "screw up".

Dan Quayle says Grandma Pulliam told him he could be anything he wanted to be.

I might be able to say that to my grandchildren if I didn't have a car payment . . . and owned the Indianapolis Star and the Arizona Republic.

As mentioned before in this hallowed space, today's inventors don't get much attention. Today's products are products of the laboratories of the IBMs, Proctor & Gambles, etc. The individuals involved are seldom known.

It hasn't always been that way. Early products usually were named for the inventor or the producer. Through following generations, names of many of these entrepreneurs have become household words.

In his book, "The Branding of America," Ronald Hambleton revives memories of some of the people we now know as products.

If you have a Bigelow carpet, eat Kraft's products, shave with a Gillette or Schick, drive a Ford or a Buick, sew with a Singer or write a letter on a Remington portable, you have benefitted from a person whose name adorns the product.

Levi Strauss, for example was a real person whose product has become the universal garment for men, women and children of all ages. It all started with a single pair of pants carved out of a piece of tent canvas by an industrious young immigrant during the California gold rush.

Over the years, the business founded on that pair of pants has generated more wealth than any prospector ever took out of the gold fields.

There are other examples: The misery of hungry children prompted Gail Borden to invent a process to keep milk sweet.

Herbert Steinway was the head of the family that created the modern American concert piano.

Gustavus Franklin Swift had his own butcher shop by age 10, but really became famous when he made the refrigerated railway car a commercial reality.

Lewis Bergman Maytag was into agriculture equipment manufacturing, but his company changed the domestic washing machine forever. By 1923 the company abandoned all other manufacturing to concentrate on washers. Within five years, Maytag had cornered 60 percent of the American market.

There really was a John Deere. He is given credit for being the first man to use steel in a commercially successful plow.

Walter Chrysler began his career as a railroad man, working for Union Pacific, and later managed both Buick and Nash before starting his own company from the ruins of the Maxwell Automobile Co.

Some did not foresee their accomplishments:

David Dunbar Buick was a plumber whose invention was the process of fusing porcelain onto cast iron, but he left the automobile company that bears his name.

Louis Chevrolet was a famous race car driver and he was so unhappy with the car he designed and built that he walked away from it less than four years after it went into production.

George Eastman may have been the forerunner in the present-day trend to name products with generic words. The camera/photo process magnate always felt the letter "K" was lucky for him. He stayed up late many nights trying to figure out the best-sounding, pronounceable name that would begin and end with his favorite letter. The word "Kodak" was the result.

Not all entrepreneurs lived happily ever after. David Dunbar Buick died a poor man. George Eastman was extremely wealthy, but had trouble with life. A bachelor and devoted to his mother, he became despondent after her death, and eventually committed suicide.

Hospitality

The following letter was received this week by the Haskell Chamber of Commerce:

To the Chamber of Commerce: Yesterday I experienced something exciting in the work of our Chamber of Commerce and the good things they are doing.

Your Welcoming Committee came to our place of business to "welcome" us to Haskell. The Reedy Company has been in operation since Aug. 1, 1988.

Upon being advised that the Welcoming Committee was to be here Friday afternoon, I called the owners of the corporation to come and be here for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Reedy, along with two of the boys came for this and they were astounded! Having opened five other locations like this one, all of them in West Texas, they could not believe the hospitality of the citizens here. More times than one, they've commented on the clean surroundings we have here and the friendly people they have met in this short time.

In all their past openings, they have never been recognized as newcomers to the city and certainly have not been greeted by a group like you have here.

I am proud to be a part of the business organization of our city and proud that we are members of this Chamber of Commerce.

I do hope that in some way I can fit into your organization and be a part of the good thing for our friendly and industrious city.

Hobby Club

Shelly Speck was hostess to 17 members and three guests at the Rochester Hobby Club's Sept. 20 meeting. The sack lunches and desserts were appetizing and especially enjoyed along with lots of fun and visiting.

Quilting was done on the club's "Spider Web" and Ruth Underwood's "Dutch Doll."

The club extends its sympathy to Jennie Mae's loss of her brother, Bailey Foster.

The meeting was the club's last time to meet in the Hobby Club building since it is to be demolished in order to make room for the new post office.

The building formerly belonged to the N. B. Webb family (who came to Rochester in 1909) and was given to the town of Rochester but was rejected because of much needed repair. In about 1965 a group of women were given the building. In order to make repairs, the women went to work and worked for 10 years in repairing to make it suitable for use. The club's first meeting in the building was March 6, 1975, and has been a very welcome boon to the Hobby Club.

The club now meets in the back of Home State Bank and will until further arrangements can be completed.

Tennie Mae Short was hostess for the Oct. 4 meeting. There were 15 members and one guest present.

Our thanks go to Bob Easterling for the complimentary hamburgers. They were delicious and much appreciated.

Happy birthday was sung to Ethel Dabney, Lola Mae Underwood, Blanche Corley and Bill McGuire.

Johnnie Love has completed a very beautiful handcrafted cut-out ecru linen tablecloth--so lovely.

--Obituaries--

John E. Bowers

Funeral services for John E. Bowers, 81, longtime resident of Haskell, were held Wednesday at the Trinity Baptist Church. He died Thursday (Oct. 6) at Winslow Convalescent Center on Bainbridge Island.

Interment was in the family plot at Willow Cemetery.

He was born Nov. 18, 1906, in Solomon, Kansas, the son of Burton L. and Ruth Rough Bowers. He served in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers as a first lieutenant in France during World War II and retired after 22 years of service. He then was active in ranching and law enforcement in the Laredo area and made his home in Haskell.

He was a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Disabled American Veterans.

Survivors include two sons, Marlin Bowers of Seattle and Mark L. Bowers of Renton; a daughter, Mrs. Larry (Peggy) Pickard of Poulosbo; five grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and a nephew. He was preceded in death by his wife, Thelma, in January 1983.

Local arrangements were handled by Holden-McCauley Funeral Home.

Evening study hall offered this week

An evening study hall is being offered this week on Monday through Thursday nights in the Haskell Secondary School lunch room. Study times are from 7 to 9 each evening.

The program is designed to aid students with their homework and to offer a quiet place for studying for six-weeks' tests. Adult volunteers and school staff will be present each night.

Billie McKeever, school counselor, came up with the idea for the evening study halls. "We hope the students will take advantage of this extra study time," she said. "Maybe it will help relieve some of the pressures of six-weeks' tests and worries about eligibility."

The evening study halls are being sponsored by the National Honor Society of Haskell High School. Members of this group will be volunteering some of their time to help their peers with their studies.

Members of the National Honor Society are Chan Guess, Dalyn Gilly, Penny Peden, Kacye Nemir, Loutina Hadaway and Joy McKeever. Sponsor is Susan Pope.

Reedy Company new owner of oil company

The Reedy Company, Inc. has announced its acquisition of Walling-Rieger Oil Company, effective Aug. 1.

The company is a family owned petroleum distributor located in Abilene and surrounding counties.

Owner G. V. Reedy is a former employee of Exxon Company, USA and he says, "We chose to come to this area because we like West Texas and West Texas people."

The Haskell operation is managed by B. J. Ray, lifelong resident of Haskell who has over 35 years experience in the wholesale gas and oil business. He is assisted by Clayton Pannell and Billy Seelke, both of Haskell.

"It is the goal of the Reedy Company to continue to provide our customers with the same high quality products and personal service that has been characteristic of this business over the past 55 years," said Ray.

4-H opportunities available to youth

Haskell County young people with a desire to learn more about their world have the opportunity to participate in a fast-growing organization--4-H.

The 4-H program offers a variety of activities for youth who are in the third grade through 19 years of age, said Lou Gilly, county 4-H program coordinator with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Young people can get involved in project groups, special interest groups or service groups that appeal to their interests.

While 4-H meetings cover a variety of subjects and activities and are held periodically, project groups work on one specific subject and last only until the project is completed.

Project subjects may include gardening, auto repair, raising and caring for an animal, safety and clothing, said Mrs. Gilly. These project groups are usually directed by a volunteer leader.

Special interest groups are a vital part of the 4-H program and may deal with such subjects as drugs, dating, etiquette and ecology. These group studies help youth learn more about the world in which they live and help them to better adapt to changing environments, said Mrs. Gilly.

Service groups work to help improve the community and may engage in fund raising projects for the needy and disadvantaged or work on neighborhood beautification or with underprivileged youth.

"The 4-H program is a good way to get involved in today's world," said Mrs. Gilly.

For more information on the action-oriented youth program, contact the county extension office, 864-2546 or 864-2658.

BREAST CANCER DETECTION UNIT AVAILABLE TO AREA WOMEN

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1988

HASKELL, TEXAS

A Service of

HASKELL MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

CALL 864-2621 FOR APPOINTMENT

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women in the United States will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as the result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate.

A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

The Mobile Breast Cancer Detection Unit will be in Haskell on Friday October 14.

The American Cancer Society has established guidelines for a mammography in asymptomatic women. (Women who have no symptoms of disease). Those guidelines have been adopted by the American Academy of Family Physicians, American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, and The American College of Radiology. Those guidelines are:

- 35-40 years of age - One baseline mammogram.
- 40-50 years of age - A mammogram every 1-2 years depending on breast type and risk factor.
- 50 years of age and over - An annual physical examination and annual mammogram.
- Asymptomatic women under 50 years of age with significant high risk factors should be examined at appropriate intervals. These risk factors include previous breast cancer and family history of cancer.

A symptomatic woman should have a mammogram at any age when she experiences a mass, nipple discharge, skin changes or unexplained breast pain.

A screening mammogram is an x-ray of the breast using extremely low dosages of radiation (usually comparable to dental x-rays) and is designed to find very early cancers.

A female technologist who is highly trained in mammography will perform the examination.

The charge for the screening mammogram is $50.00. The Unit accepts cash, check, VISA, MasterCard and American Express.

For more information or to make an appointment call 864-2621.

Appointments may be made by calling 864-2621.
