Signup time near for county farmers

Signup period for the U.S. Department of Agriculture's 1989 wheat, feed-grain and upland cotton programs will begin Dec. 19 and continue through April 14 of next year.

Signup dates for the 1989 rice and extra long staple cotton programs will be announced later.

Secretary of Agriculture Richard E. Lyng announced that from Dec. 19 through Feb. 3, producers may declare their intentions to plant from 10 to 25 percent of each program crop's permitted acreage to soybeans or sunflowers and still protect that program crop's acreage base history.

Planting intentions under this special signup will be reviewed to ensure that the price for 1989-1990-crop soybeans is expected to remain above 115 percent ($5.49 per bushel) of the prior year's loan rate ($4.77). Any limitations or prohibitions concerning this planting option will be announced in February. No program benefits other than soybean price support loans will be made available to producers with respect to this acreage.

In addition, any portion of a farm's acreage base (FAB), minus the soybean base included in the FAB, may be exchanged for oats for the 1989 crop year. Any acreage exchanged in 1989 will be considered planted to the original program crop for determining the FAB or crop acreage base in future years, but will not result in an increase in the program bases. Program benefits for such planted acreage will be those normally applicable to oats.

During the farm program signup, wheat and feed grain producers may request 40 percent, and upland cotton and rice producers 30 percent of their estimated deficiency payments. These payments will be all in cash. Advance payments will be limited to the producer's intended program acreage. The estimated rates will be announced before signup starts.

For wheat and feed grains, producers may elect to participate in an optional acreage diversion program, known as O/92, under which they devote all or a portion of the wheat or feed grain permitted acreage to conserving uses (CU) and receive deficiency payments on an acreage not to exceed 92 percent of the crop's permitted acreage. The deficiency payment rate on the CU acreage will not be less than the estimated deficiency payment to be announced before signup.

Rice and upland cotton producers may participate in the 50/92 program.

Signup will be conducted in the county offices of USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Rochester musicians

Wayne Hester and Kyle Hollingsworth of Rochester performed at halftime of the Texas Tech-Lamar football game.

Steer band students featured at Tech

Haskell County was represented by two Rochester students who performed with the Texas Trombone Band and the recent Texas Tech University "Goin' Band from Raiderland!" in a halftime performance at the Texas Tech-Lamar football game.

Taking part in the activities were Wayne Hester, a senior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Wayne Hester, and Kyle Hollingsworth, a seventh-grader, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Hollingsworth. Both are trombone players in the Rochester Steer Band. "The Little Band with the Big Country Brand."

The day started at 9:10 a.m. with a trombone clinic given by M/Sgt. Chris Matten of Washington, D. C., trombonist with the United States Air Force Brass Quintet. He holds a bachelor of music degree from the Eastman School of Music and a master of music degree from the University of Texas.

The clinic was followed by a performance of the Texas Tech Trombone Ensemble which will be performing at the Texas Music Educators' Association convention in February.

After an inspiring performance by the Tech Trombone Ensemble, the Texas Trombone Band was divided

Haskell teams play in Graham tourney

Haskell basketball teams play with the big boys and girls this week in the Graham Invitational Tournament.

The Indians open tournament play today (Thursday) at 5:30 p.m. against 3A Bowie and the Maidens take the floor immediately after that game to take on 3A Graham at 7. The Bowie Jackrabbits won last week's Wichita Falls Fantasy of Lights Tournament. They defeated Paducah in the finals, snapping the Dragons' 51-game winning streak.

Teams participating in the tournament include Graham, Iowa Park, Olney, Archer City, Mineral Wells, Eastland, Bowie and Haskell. Iowa Park and Mineral Wells are 4A schools, Graham and Bowie are 3A and the others are 2A. Archer City, of course, is the defending state 2A champion, and is the team which defeated the Indians in the semifinals of the state tournament last spring. Semifinals of the Graham tournament will be Friday. Finals will be played Saturday.

Next Tuesday, the Maidens will travel to Anson for their second district contest, while the Indians will travel to Vernon. The Wylie Lions Club Tournament will be next week, Dec. 8-10.

On Tuesday of this week, the Indians were scheduled to play Wylie here and the Maidens opened their district campaign here against Stamford.

The Indians brought their record to 2-0 last Tuesday with a 58-52 victory over Merkel. Dusty Meeks scored 24 points to pace the Haskell scoring attack. The Maidens saw their record drop to 0-2 as they lost 49-47 to the Lady Badgers.

Top winner

Pecan Show Thursday

The sixth annual Haskell County Pecan show will be Thursday, Dec. 1, at the Haskell National Bank Community Room.

The Pecan Show and Pecan Bake Show will be open to the public from 1 to 4 p.m. Baked good will go on sale at 3:30 p.m. Money made from the bake sale helps finance the Bake Show each year.

Everyone is invited to come by between 1 and 4 p.m. Thursday to see the displays of all the pecan varieties grown in Haskell County and displays of baked goods made with these pecans.

into sections for rehearsal. Out of the 233 Texas high school trombone players participating in the band, the top 30 were placed on first part. Hester was in this group.

At 11 a.m., a cookout at the band rehearsal field, courtesy of the Tech Band Alumni Association, was held for all the trombone band participants. There was a short concert by the Tech band before a combined rehearsal with the "Goin' Band from Raiderland!" and the Texas Trombone Band took place on the practice field.

The field at halftime was a rainbow of colors as each student was wearing his high school uniform. The musical performance, which was flawless, found the 30,000-plus spectators giving a thunderous standing ovation to the combined bands, with an awesome total of 700 performing members.

Advisory meetings planned

During the coming week several area schools will be conducting Parent Advisory Committee meetings for each of their special programs--- Chapter I Regular, Chapter I Migrant, Chapter II, Vocational, English as a Second Language, Special Education, Library and Lunchroom.

All parents of students in special programs, as well as elected members of the committees, are invited to attend. The agenda will include a review the programs in each of the schools and election of officers for the coming school year.

By Gladys O'Neal

We're feeling a nip in the air and that brings thoughts of all the best of autumn. The humidity is less and so is the haze in the air. We're beginning to see a sprinkling of yellow, orange and red brightening the landscape. So let's gather materials for a n arrangement.

Mabel Overton, a wonderful friend from Paint Creek, called me a couple of weeks ago and said, "gather up some friends and we'll go to our ranch and get some nice fall material for centerpieces." I called and four of us went. It was cloudy and a perfect day. We found many pretty leaves, foliage, and even rocks.

You'll become a keen observer of nature while looking for just the right branch, flower or pod.

An arrangement can be a simple branch in a vase of a complex assemblage of several specimens of plants, rocks and shells and driftwood.

Scale is always an important consideration in any design. Of course, you need to think about whether the arrangement is too large or small for its position in your home. It is best not to use so much foliage that the arrangement is too compact. The effect should be light and airy.

If you use sumac, which we see between Fort Worth and Graham and other places, the short-lived foliage drops to emphasize velvety seed heads as pretty as the leaves. When one branch fades, replace it with a fresh one; your arrangement will be everchanging. You can prolong their life by cutting off an inch of stem and letting them soak in a bucket of water overnight before arranging.

With luck, you may have a few remnants of summer, such as zinnias and spider daisies or other flowers.

Our truest sign of harvest is the variety of berries, bittersweet, holly and nandina for our area. Use small pumpkins and gourds, bunch grapes, apples, pomegranates, crabapples and peppers, both the ornamental and edible kinds. The purplish seeds of Johnson grass are beautiful and often go unnoticed.

Once you have collected all these treasures, don't be afraid to dive in and try an arrangement, even if you barely know which end of a vase is up. Have fun, learn as you go, and you may be surprised how well your arrangement turns out.

Just remember, it doesn't have to be critiqued; no one else has to like it. You will be saluting autumn in your own way.

Carry an open-ended eyeglass case in your purse to store pens, pencils, fingernail files, small scissors.

Hance warns of import oil tax

AUSTIN—Texas' man in Vienna, Railroad Commissioner Kent Hance, last week warned that Texas, Alaska and other oil states could convince the rest of the nation to support a tariff on imported oil if OPEC let prices drop as low as $10 a barrel.

Hance made his statements

Hubbard's plan to step down. Hubbard won't seek re-election, but instead will support the promotion of Secretary-Treasurer Joe Gunn to the top spot.

Gunn is a veteran to the ways of the Legislature and will get his chance to shine this session lobbying for labor issues.

College Merger

Texas A&M University regents voted last week to merge three South Texas universities under its system umbrella.

If lawmakers approve, the University System of South Texas, which includes Texas A&I University, Corpus Christi State University and Laredo State University, will be strengthened by A&M dollars and enhance the level of higher education there.

Also under way is a proposal to merge Pan American University in Edinburg and Brownsville into the University of Texas System.

Legislators hope the merger will settle a lawsuit filed last year by the Mexican-American Legal Defense and Educational Fund which alleges the Hispanic region hasn't received equitable higher education funding.

Dead on Arrival

Thirteen Texas senators, pledged last week to block any legislation making English the state's official language.

"It's dead on arrival," said Sen. Chet Edwards, D-Duncanville, at a Capitol news conference.

Edwards was joined at the press conference by Sen. Carlos Truan, D-Corpus Christi, and Sen. Hugh Parmer, D-Fort Worth.

"To designate Texas as 'English only' is simply unnecessary at best, and divisive at worst," Edwards said. "It's time for Texas to pull together, not be pulled apart."

Under Senate rules, 11 senators can block legislation from passing in the 31-member chamber.

Other Highlights

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said he will block 10 organizations in the Houston-Beaumont area from sponsoring bingo games due to numerous violations of state law.

Meanwhile, Bullock sponsored a Thanksgiving meal for the poor and homeless on the Capitol grounds with food donated by 23 Austin businesses and served by the comptroller's staff.

Texas' chief appraiser, Sam McAnally of Brady, was named one of four regional vice presidents of the nation's largest farm and ranch appraisal organization.

In 1963, McAnally, a retired Air Force colonel, became the youngest accredited appraiser in Texas, and has been the state's chief appraiser since 1978.

Medical fund

The Trinity Baptist Church has established a medical fund for Ed Howeth. Contributions to the fund may be made with Mary Dewey at Haskell National Bank.

while monitoring the closed-door talks between Iran and Iraq which threaten to flood the market with more oil, a move that would stall the recovering Texas economy.

Hance said West Texas intermediate oil, the nation's benchmark, might fall to $10 unless OPEC moved to bolster prices.

He was in Vienna, Austria with Louisiana state Sen. Samuel Nunez, who commented that stability at $10 is better than instability at $20.

Texas currently produces about 2 million barrels a day, approximately 25 percent of U.S. production.

Consumers Nervous

A Texas Poll showed consumers lost confidence in the Texas economy during the price fall, indicating how sensitive Texans are to the oil market.

According to the survey, 39 percent of respondents expected good times for Texas businesses in 1989, compared to 47 percent in a similar summer poll.

Thirty-nine percent said they will be worse off, compared to 43 percent during the summer survey.

Coming Issues

Sleeping with one eye open during the oil price fall were members of the next legislative session, who will go into session in the black for the first time in years.

Among the top issues lawmakers will tackle are school finance and workers' compensation insurance costs.

The cost of workers' comp insurance rose 74 percent in the last three years, and will go up another 19 percent in 1989.

Economic development efforts have been adversely affected by the high rates. One lawmaker said workers' comp costs in Missouri are $175 per employee compared to $750 per worker in Texas.

The 71st Legislature is expected to look at the worker safety program, as well.

Texas labor will also have a new look this session, with long-time AFL-CIO president Harry

D. B. Rives of the southwest side was a caller at our office Thursday and stated that on 80 acres he had picked four bales of cotton and would probably get two more. The worms and early freeze did it. Ordinarily he would have made from 40 to 60 bales of cotton.

Help wanted

Editor: As an anomaly researcher, I am currently compiling data on general phenomena within the state of Texas, however, I have found it exceedingly difficult to obtain information from communities with a population of 5,000 or less via newspaper clipping agencies.

By way of this letter, I would like to solicit your help regarding my quest. Do you have any info on phenomena which has occurred or is occurring around your vicinity? I realize this may be somewhat of an unorthodox request, but the following will give you some idea of what I'm looking for:

UFOs, bigfoot sightings, animal mutilations, ghosts, mystery lights, etc.

Basically anything unexplained or highly unusual, be it physical or spiritual, would suffice. If you have any newspaper clips or know of someone with raw data, please let me know.

James Crocker

Thanks

Editor: Boys Scouts and leaders of Troop 136 would like to take this opportunity once again to thank the people in this community for their support in our food drive.

By giving, you have practiced one of scouting's ideals, the "Good Turn Daily". The many boxes of food were given to the Ministerial Alliance, and the food has already started to help the needy of this community.

Crime

Editor: The United States is now the most dangerous society on earth. According to the U.S. Justice Department's current report on crime, 83 percent of our population will be victimized by violent crime at least once in their lifetime and 99 percent will be victimized by theft or property crime.

One American is murdered every 25 minutes, raped every seven minutes, robbed every 59 seconds, assaulted every 49 seconds, burglarized every nine seconds. In the past 15 years, our attempts to deal with this terror have mostly failed, leaving us with both the world's highest rate of incarceration and its highest rate of criminal violence.

In Texas, we know that the rising incidence of violent crime is closely linked to the problems of alcohol and drug abuse. More than 80 percent of all inmates entering the Texas Department of Corrections are high school dropouts and 83 percent of them have abused drugs. At least half of the inmates on death row are there because they allowed drugs or alcohol to seize control of their lives. And many urban police departments estimate that at least 90 percent of all reported burglaries and robberies can be directly tied to alcohol and drug abusers with degrees in crime.

Clearly, the time has come to rethink our approach to reducing crime. I believe that one of the most effective measures we can take is to tackle the problem of alcohol and drug abuse and make it socially unacceptable. But because this goal of prevention requires an attitudinal change, the traditional approach of teaching substance identification and emphasizing the dangers of abuse is simply not enough. What is needed instead is a creative program that addresses value decisions, self-esteem, respect for the law, and methods of resisting peer pressure. And the program must begin with our children--before they become involved with those substances.

That is precisely what Project DARE (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) is designed to do. Developed five years ago in Los Angeles, DARE is a cooperative effort between law enforcement agencies and local school districts to provide comprehensive education to fifth-grade students.

DARE programs are currently being tested or implemented in 24 Texas cities, including Arlington, Atlanta, Austin, Bedford, Burleson, College Station, Corpus Christi, Eden, Eules, Fort Worth, Gatesville, Georgetown, Hereford, Houston, Hurst, Irving, La Porte, Midland, McAllen, San Angelo, San Antonio, Stafford, Texarkana and Waco.

The concept is simple and effective. As part of their regular school-day curriculum, students are taught special skills to help them stand up to the temptations of alcohol and drugs. The first of the 17 lessons

You can take comfort in Natural Gas.

Trusting gas for your home is a natural. After all, Lone Star Gas Company has been faithfully serving its customers for more than 75 years. Through the years, we have worked to earn your trust by providing safe, dependable natural gas.

Do you know why gas has a strong odor? Because we have added a harmless odorant to the gas that lets you know it's there. This is for your safety, so if you ever smell the strong odor of gas in your home, follow these rules:

- 1 Do not switch anything electrical on or off. Do not use your own telephone (telephones use small amounts of electricity). Do not strike a match, and do not do anything that might cause a spark.
- 2 Have everyone leave the house immediately, leaving doors open for ventilation.
- 3 Go to the nearest telephone and call Lone Star Gas Company. Wait until we have found the cause before returning to your home.

Since gas lines run underground, you should also take precautions against disrupting these lines, particularly if you plan to:

- 1 Put in a new fence.
- 2 Install an underground sprinkler system.
- 3 Perform any major landscape renovation.

Before you dig, call your local Lone Star Gas office. If you smell a gas odor while you're outside, immediately contact Lone Star Gas.

In our continuing effort to provide better, safer service, local Lone Star Gas offices are ready to answer any questions that contractors may have concerning the location of gas lines in their areas.

The safety record for natural gas is impressive, and peace of mind is an important part of what natural gas has to offer. By following these simple rules, you can take even greater comfort in natural gas.

given each semester acquaints students with the role of the police and teaches them specific safety practices. In subsequent lessons, the children learn to resist peer pressure, manage stress, make positive decisions, find alternatives to drug abuse, and form support systems.

Because the sophistication level of fifth-graders regarding substance abuse is sometimes more advanced than that of classroom teachers, all DARE instructors are uniformed police officers, selected on the basis of patrol experience and a sincere interest in children. The credibility the officers provide by teaching their classes in uniform is a key element missing from other programs.

Participating officers are given a rigorous 84-hour training course during which they learn counseling strategies, classroom management, and teaching techniques prepared by school district personnel.

Each officer is then assigned to five elementary schools, reporting to a different campus every day of the week. They teach the basic DARE lessons to their fifth-grade students, spending the remainder of the school day with the kindergarten through fourth grades. In this way, it is possible for one officer to present weekly programs at five different schools during a semester year while giving younger students a taste of what to expect when they enter the fifth grade.

Inservice training guarantees that the instructors' skills remain sharp. They hold bi-weekly meetings to discuss and solve classroom problems, and attend annual week-long seminars to refresh their training and refine the curriculum. Their work extends beyond the classroom, as well. Recess is spent on the playground with the students, helping them to get to know the officers as friends. Time is also set aside to discuss the concerns of principals and teachers. And for parents, an evening session provides information on symptoms of drug use, ways to improve family communication, and counseling resources.

The program is funded through a variety of methods: direct appropriations from local government, a combination of state and federal law enforcement grants, corporate support and private donations.

The major costs include transportation, room and board for the two-week training course in Los Angeles. The promotional materials needed--student workbooks, visual aids and informational pamphlets for parents--may take the form of in-kind contributions from private citizens or ad agencies and other businesses eager to help fight alcohol and drug abuse in their communities.

By now it should be obvious that there will never be enough money or police officers to stop the flow of drugs coming into the country, the availability of alcohol or the growing crime rates that inevitably ensue. The only way to begin repairing our social fabric is by educating future generations. Project DARE is a preventive program based on the premise that if we reduce the demand, the supply will also diminish.

That's why I have recently produced public service announcements to encourage elementary students to enroll in DARE programs in their local schools and to urge parents, teachers and community organizations to get behind the efforts of their police and sheriff's departments in supporting this outstanding program.

I believe that DARE should be present in every school system in Texas. We can talk as long as we like about stricter laws or longer sentences for offenders. We can say that the strong cooperation between local schools and local law enforcement required to make a success of such programs is an insurmountable obstacle.

And we can warn that DARE represents a major investment we can ill afford in these tough financial times. But until attitudes change, until the abuse of alcohol and drugs is made socially unacceptable to our children, the price Texas communities pay each year to confine prisoners, replace stolen property and heal ruined lives will be far greater.

If you worked as hard as a heat pump
you wouldn't last 10 years either.

Electric heat pumps overwork themselves trying to do two different jobs. Pumping all summer, trying to keep the house cool. Then pumping all winter, trying to keep the house warm. No wonder heat pumps wear out at an early age (usually 7 to 10 years).

An efficient, economical propane gas furnace will last twice as long. That means long term comfort and savings.

Adolescence time of major changes

By Lou Gilly
Haskell County Extension Agent
Home Economics
(This is the first in a series of articles developed for teenagers under advisement from the Home Economics Committee of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.)

Adolescence is a time of major change. It is a period of transition from the small, protected world of the child to the ever-increasing larger world of the adult.

Today's youth are maturing physically earlier than did their parents. Because of these physical changes, along with social and emotional changes, societal pressures and the groping for security and stability, most teens are either facing the following challenges or have a friend facing these challenges:

Self Concept: 7 out of 10 youth dislike themselves; 32 percent are critical of their own personality.

Teen Loneliness and Suicide: About 5,000 young people commit suicide each year; 500,000 others attempt suicide.

Substance Abuse: Use of cocaine by high school students has doubled since 1979; 25 percent of high school students drink more than once per week; drunk driving is the leading cause of death for young people 16 to 24 years old; 8,000 youth a year go to the emergency room with drug/alcohol-related problems.

School: School is teenagers' No. 1 problem; 60 percent say they study to pass, not to learn; 54 percent say that teachers do not care about students.

Pregnancy and Sexuality: An estimated 11.6 million teens are sexually active; 50,628 between 15 and 19 and 1,088 under 14 in Texas become pregnant; teens have 31 percent of the abortions and 50 percent of the illegitimate children; almost all teens want more information on intercourse, birth control, VD and AIDS.

Friends: 88 percent of teens surveyed said they will continue to see friends even if parents do not approve; 72 percent say if their parents disapprove of a friend it is because they are considered to be a "bad influence"; teens seldom perceive their friend as "pressuring" them into decisions, that is, they do not recognize peer pressure.

Family: Loss of their parents is the No. 1 fear, twice as strong as the fear of their own death; in general, teens want parents' help on concerns about jobs, college, school and siblings; they want parents' help about drugs, alcohol, sex or trouble with friends.

(Each of these challenges will be the topic of following weekly articles.)

Hobby Club

The Rochester Hobby Club had 18 members and nine guests present for the Nov. 15 regular meeting.

A very delicious and enjoyable noon meal---a bountiful feast of many of the various foods God has provided for mankind---was served as a special Thanksgiving.

Happy Birthday was sung to Ira Short, Truett Kuenstler, Evelyn Rogers, Fay and Emily Wilson.

The quilting of Ruth Underwood's "Dutch Doll" was finished. Now Oleta Fitzgerald's very pretty, king size "Colonial Girl" quilt is in the frame.

Christmas decorations

City of Haskell work crews put up the Christmas decorations in Haskell the week before Thanksgiving.

STATEMENT OF INTENT TO LOWER RATES

Brazos Electric Power Cooperative, Inc. ("Brazos") hereby publishes NOTICE that it has filed with the Public Utility Commission of Texas a Statement of Intent and Petition for Authority to Implement a Temporary Reduction in Rates pursuant to the provisions of Article 1446c, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes and the Commission's Substantive Rules. Brazos is seeking an interim order to implement the lower rates effective with Brazos' billing cycle for December 1988. If approved, the proposed temporary rate reduction would result in a reduction of anticipated revenues by $10,000,000, or 5.58% for the twelve months ending September 30, 1988. All customers of Brazos, which serves only at wholesale, are affected.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION OF TEXAS, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas, 78757. Further information may also be obtained by contacting Brazos at (817) 750-6500 or by calling the PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION CONSUMER AFFAIRS DIVISION at (512) 458-0223, or (512) 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221, TELETYPEWRITER FOR THE DEAF.

Heating advice given

The heating season is not far away and Lone Star Gas Co. recommends a heating system efficiency and safety check be made before cold weather arrives.

All natural gas heaters should be adjusted properly to ensure the most efficient and safe operation. Here are a few steps most consumers can take.

- Check, replace or clean filters now and at regular intervals during the heating season.
- Check the main burner or burners and the pilot light for a blue flame. A yellow flame indicates an air mixture adjustment may be needed.
- Clean dust and dirt from the air registers.
- Check the exhaust vents for proper venting of exhaust gases.
- Check to make sure the heater has an adequate fresh air supply for efficient combustion.

If adjustments or repairs are needed, a qualified heating contractor or a Lone Star Gas representative should be contacted.

If your gas furnace is several years old, it should be inspected by a professional each year.

Today's natural gas furnaces are much more efficient than those sold just a few years ago. Many older units will operate at 60 percent efficiency. Newer models are much more efficient, with some rated at over 95 percent. A new high-efficiency gas furnace will often pay for itself in just a few years.

Thank you for reading The Haskell Free Press.

Garden Club marks harvest ritual event

The Garden Club met Nov. 10 in celebration of a Harvest Ritual. Molly Carlisle presided in the absence of the president, Linda King.

Lorene Dewey called the roll with each answering what they were most thankful for. Mrs. Dewey read the minutes which were approved.

Mary Bischofhausen, treasurer, reported the finances as very favorable.

The Fall District Convention at Coleman was reported by Juanita Rhea. A New Mexico woman showed beautiful Southwestern motifs in her arrangements using Christmas decorations. She had interesting names for each arrangement. She also used many Madonnas with unusual ideas.

For our Harvest Ritual, members brought cornucopias using fruit and vegetables with flowers. Callie Robison gave "four thousand years of vegetables" and the Thanksgiving story. Three hundred and 18 years ago a small group first set this day apart as a day of thanksgiving for God's mercy and the gift of it.

Mollie Carlisle told about her Floribunda roses, spider mums and daisy mums. She also brought from Houston Chinese Tallow tree branches for each member to have seeds.

Bernadine Blankenship told about her arrangement using Biblical fruits and vegetables, grapes, pomegranates, apples, cucumbers and onions using scriptures Number 11:5-6, and First Kings 7:18-20.

Bernadine quoted the 100th Psalm as a conclusion to the program.

Hostesses, Molly Carlisle and Lorene Dewey, served delicious refreshments.

50th anniversary

Children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Lusk of Plainview honored them on their 50th wedding anniversary with a plane trip to Houston for the weekend. They were married Nov. 24, 1938, in Seymour. Their children are Glynn Lusk of Pampa and Jean Lindemann of Amarillo. Grandchildren are Tim Lindemann of Thorndale, Teri Kammerer of Houston, Bob Lusk of Houston, Steve Lusk of Lubbock and step-grandchildren Matt, Ross and Holly Hinton of Pampa.

Change in earnings should be reported

People in the Haskell area should promptly report any changes that may affect their monthly benefits, Glyn Hammons, Social Security manager in Abilene, reminds.

People who do not report may become overpaid and have to return some of the money later. Also, they may have to pay a penalty.

The most common cause of overpayments---in six out of 10 cases---is too much earnings from work.

Some payments must be withheld from a person under 70 whose 1988 earnings exceed a certain amount: $8,400 if the person is 65 through 69; or $6,120 if the person is under 65. If a person goes over the limit, $1 in benefits is withheld for each $2 of annual earnings above the limit. Also, there is a monthly test that applies in the first year of retirement.

There are different rules, which include medical considerations, if a person works while getting disability checks.

A person should let Social Security know if he or she starts or stops working or if 1988 earnings will be higher than reported earlier. A person should do this any time during the year there is a change. The easiest way to report is by phone.

Also, Social Security should be notified of certain other changes that often lead to overpayments such as:

- Death or marriage,
- Medical improvement of a disabled person,
- A student 18 or over stops attending school full time; and
- A parent or other payee no longer has custody of a child or other beneficiary.

--Weinert--

by Myrtle Plemister

Weinert extends its sympathy to Thelma Boone at the demise of her brother, R. T. Landess, whose memorial services were held last week in Haskell.

Our sympathy also to Rene Vojkufka, Ima Stewart, Jona Caddell and Edward Alexander, whose sister, Willie Fisher, died in Stockton, California. Her memorial services were held on Tuesday, Nov. 29th in that city.

Weinert school resumed on Monday after a Thanksgiving holiday that brought many visitors to our area, where visiting and cotton stripping intermingled for a few days.

The E. S. McGuires hosted their children, Becky Fry of Bowie; Budge and Nancy McGuire with Karen and Jo Beth of Keller; and Tommy and Selina McGuire with Brooke and Brandon of Haskell.

The Ed Murphy family entertained Ed's mother, Narene Murphy of Garland, and his brother, Tom also of Garland.

Other guests with the Murphys and Yates were Ricky and Linda Wade with Taylor of Kermit.

Mary and Beverly James of Arlington were here to visit her parents, Helen and Floyd Stout.

Twyla and Tommy Scrells, with Luke, Levi and Tabitha were up from Weatherford for Thanksgiving at her parent's home, the Woody Turnbows, and later visited the Grays and Turnbow in Haskell.

Shirley and Wayne Offutt, with Marty, Tammy and Cindy, had time off for a visit with their parents, Mildred Offutt and Eddie and Myrnie Sanders.

Janice and Randy Boatwright of Brady were home for Thanksgiving with her parents, R. S. and Betty Sanders.

Crystella and Bob Raynes hosted all their children, and most of their grandchildren for Sunday dinner when 39 of them gathered at the Raynes home.

Donnie Moeller, with daughter, Amy of Mesquite spent a few days with his parents, Willie and Betty Moeller. Beth Bacon was also a guest for the weekend.

Melvin and Wanda Vojkufka hosted their children, Mel and Bob Wood, with Cory and Zach; Jona and Glenn Caddell, and their mother, Rene Vojkufka for Thanksgiving day.

Randy and Lisa Plemister, with Dacia, Joseph, Deshea and Geoffry came for a visit with his grandparents and attended church services with them on Wednesday night.

John and Laverne Mayfield had all their children home. Mr. and Mrs. Arch Mayfield of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. Ricketts of Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. Dewayne Rimmer with Adrean of DeSoto.

Felix Seballos, with sons Andy and Aaron, of Abilene were guests in her parents home. Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Castillo.

Johnny and Marilyn Earp shared Thanksgiving dinner with her parents, Francis and Check Smith of Goree, and the Earp's son, Johnny Boy of Munday.

Mabel Derr entertained her daughter, Ann and Bob Therwhanger, her sister, Rita and Chan Hughes all of Munday and her granddaughter, Teresa Therwhanger of Abilene.

Ted and Faye Jetton hosted 33 of their family on Sunday, with all their children and most of their grandchildren and great-grandchildren present.

Coming the farthestmost was Sandra and Don Stafford, with Kim Sauer and Brianne of Great Falls, Montana, and Brett and Tiny Frantz with Amanda of Searcy, Ark.

Brenda Lawrence, with Brent and Donnell, of Abilene were Thanksgiving guests of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Chet Forehand and Kenny.

Others present were the Forehand's children, Shannon of Weatherford, Okla., Mark and Kim Stewart with Payden, and Virgil Conner, Jean's father of Haskell.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Griffis hosted their family with dinner at the Weinert Cafe on Thursday. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Terry Alexander of Munday, with Terra Kay, Brianne and Brittany. Mr. and Mrs. Danny Owens with David and Danette, also of Munday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Alexander were honored on their wedding anniversary with a dinner hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Tiffen Mayfield, Mondy and Mitch.

Mr. and Mrs. D. I. White hosted the Church of Christ with a "stew-chili cornbread" super on Sunday night. It was also a going-away party for the minister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Plemister who moved Monday to Edinburg.

The church members will be attending worship services at Munday or Haskell until January 15th.

Word has been received that Mrs. Jiggs Raynes, former residents, has been hospitalized in Great Bend, Kansas in very serious condition. Our prayers are with the family at this time.

Not everyone celebrated Thanksgiving at home. Edward and Zella Alexander were in Diebold, near Lufkin, to visit their grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Haynes, with Kevin, Randy and Julie. Steve took them, with his parents, Barney and Edna Haynes, on a sight-seeing tour of the "Piney" woods and the saw mills in the area. Steve is manager of a trucking fleet. On the trip, they visited with Ruth and Jack Boykin of Irving, Billy Jack and J. W. McKennon of Overton, Zella's sister and brothers.

Buck and Helen Turnbow were in Stanton for a visit in the home of their daughter, the Gene Perry's.

Sandra Nicholson, with T, and her parents Bernice and Raymond Mathison, spent Thanksgiving with Lucicle Wickson and other relatives in Brownwood. Dan McIntire of Corpus Christi was also present, and accompanied them to Weinert to help with Sandra's outdoor Christmas decorations. (We enjoy them Sandra.)

Feba and Thurman Stout were in Weatherford for a visit in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Bledsoe. All the family was present.

Francis Mahan spent the week in Odessa in the home of her daughter, Ruby LaRoque, and visited other relatives also.

Mr. and Mrs. Pud Brockett were in Munday in the home of their son, Pete and Imo Brockett.

R. S. and Betty Sanders were in Winters in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ras Gideon.

Cotton harvest steady

By USDA
Nov. 25

This was a happy Thanksgiving week. With the first freeze coming late this year, cotton harvesting has been slow but steady. This has allowed the USDA Cotton Classing Office in Abilene to keep up with sample receipts, at least to the point where personnel were able to be off Thanksgiving day.

Sample receipts this week were 47,700 while 42,500 were graded, according to B. B. Manly Jr., area director. The season total has passed 200,000 samples classed and Manly figures that to be about 40 percent of the crop.

Harvesting and ginning to the south should be nearing 90 percent complete with those to the north and west reporting to be 40 to 50 percent in some places. Blowing sand and heavy dews in much of the area, together with new areas of harvest, have resulted in a slight drop overall in grades.

Grade 31 or better made up 46 percent as compared to 49 percent last week. Mike average was up with a 40. Staple length average was 32, uniformity was 79 and the grams per tex was 24. Samples reduced on account of bark was 21 percent.

There was very little market activity this week.

Marlis Peters at birthday party

--Haskell Nursing Center--

By Sondra Davis
Activity Director

Happy Thanksgiving to everyone. If any 4-H group, Girl Scouts or Boy Scouts would like to adopt a grandparent, especially for the holidays, please contact me as soon as possible.

As we settled into a routine this week we enjoyed a Thanksgiving outing Thursday, Nov. 15. Bro. Paul Cheatum from East Side Baptist, brought the church bus to the nursing center and gave us a ride to East Side for a time of fellowship and singing with Bro. Paul. His wife, Lisa, played the piano. Their little daughter, Courtney, also entertained us.

Bro. Paul brought an inspiring devotional and the ladies from Sunshine Club at East Side provided us with a delicious Thanksgiving meal. Louise Chambers joined us on the outing and took three residents in her car. There were 10 residents who enjoyed the outing. Thanks again to Bro. Paul for driving the church bus for most of us.

Monday, Nov. 21, we had 10 residents who came to the resident council meeting. The activities for December were discussed. Everyone entered into the discussion and planning for the Christmas season.

Tuesday, Nov. 22, we had a surprise birthday party for Marlis Peters who is director of nurses. The residents took time from exercises to sing Happy Birthday to Marlis and have their picture taken with her. That afternoon the residents and staff helped Marlis celebrate with birthday cake, cookies and punch.

Tax workshop set for Abilene

Haskell area residents are invited to participate in a Tax Practitioner Workshop Dec. 5-6 in Abilene.

The general workshop, sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service, is one of 28 general workshops being held in major Texas cities. Fifteen advanced workshops also will be offered.

General workshops will concentrate mostly on personal taxes. The advanced workshops' emphasis will be on business tax problems.

The tax practitioner educational program has been highly successful. Last year, about 6,000 people participated in the statewide series. These practitioners reported filing more than 636,000 tax returns.

Additional information and brochures explaining more about the program are available at the Haskell County Extension Service in Haskell, 101 S. Ave. D, phone 864-2546 or 864-2658.

Heartburn relief requires attention

Nearly everyone experiences heartburn now and then. Temporary relief may be found in antacids. But if you suffer from heartburn more now than then, you may be able to change some habits to better control the problem, says the Texas Medical Association.

Heartburn is a form of indigestion. It usually is described as a burning sensation in the chest, which can last for many minutes, and it typically occurs after meals.

What causes heartburn is "gastroesophageal reflux," the backup of stomach contents into the lower esophagus. It happens because there is too much pressure in your stomach or because the sphincter, a muscle band that separates the esophagus from the stomach, loosens during the digestive process.

Don't overeat, and watch what you eat. Some foods that often are associated with heartburn are fried and fatty foods, tomato products, citrus fruits and juices, chocolate and coffee. Avoid putting extra pressure on your abdomen. Don't wear tight clothing, especially waist-pinching belts.

Don't lie down after eating. Many people find it helps them relieve heartburn if they stay upright for several hours after eating. Also, try sleeping with the head of your bed elevated about six inches.

Sometimes, certain over-the-counter drugs and prescription drugs can promote heartburn. Ask your doctor if you think that may be contributing to your problem.

Communities and communication

Communication and leadership are two vital ingredients for successful revitalization of rural communities, says a Chamber of Commerce official.

Honey C. Dowdy, executive director of the Caldwell chamber, said that nothing can be accomplished without communication between civic organizations and people willing to take leadership roles.

Dowdy was a key speaker in the "Revitalizing Communities in Rural Texas" session held in conjunction with the recent State Extension Conference at Texas A&M.

Many rural communities are in serious trouble. Jobs are disappearing, citizens are moving away and the tax base is shrinking. Goal of the session was to provide training for extension faculty on revitalizing their communities.

Dowdy said there are many advantages in living in rural communities, including knowing everyone, their interests and how they interrelate.

"However, in many smaller towns, the downtown areas are losing businesses and the young people are going to urban areas," Dowdy said.

To have a dynamic revitalization program, communities have to be aggressive in attracting new businesses and helping existing businesses stay alive, she said.

Health clinic termed successful

The cholesterol and blood pressure clinic sponsored by the National Rural Electric Women's Association area members and administered by the American Red Cross was termed an overwhelming success, according to Mrs. Joyce Turner, NREWA Key Woman, and wife of cooperative director Sam Turner.

Mrs. Doris Baucum, RN and wife of cooperative director Jimlee Baucum, helped throughout the screening. Other wives, Mrs. Evelyn Youngquist, Mrs. Erna Peiser, Mrs. Adeline Spitzer and Mrs. Verlene Corzine, as well as employees of the cooperative helped with the health clinic.

A large crowd took advantage of the clinic to have their blood pressure checked as well as their cholesterol checked. Red Cross personnel were able to give a reading for each one attending within three minutes of taking the blood sample.

Swing Rocker in Solid Oak

Something Old, Something New. Swingers are Something Beautiful from Tell City.

Tell City recreates one of the best things about the good old days, the swinger in great-grandmother's parlor. The same charm. The same relaxing back-and-forth movement of a front porch glider. Now with Tell City care and quality built in. Here are swingers just like the old-timers. Only better. These are Tell City.

Here, an original swinger, straight out of an 1895 catalog.

BREAST CANCER DETECTION UNIT AVAILABLE TO AREA WOMEN

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1988

HASKELL, TEXAS

A Service of

HASKELL MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

CALL 864-2621 FOR APPOINTMENT

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women in the United States will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as the result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate.

A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

Appointments may be made by calling 864-2621.

The Mobile Breast Cancer Detection Unit will be in Haskell on Friday December 16.

The American Cancer Society has established guidelines for a mammography in asymptomatic women. (Women who have no symptoms of disease). Those guidelines have been adopted by the American Academy of Family Physicians, American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, and The American College of Radiology. Those guidelines are:

- I. 35-40 years of age - One baseline mammogram.
- II. 40-50 years of age - A mammogram every 1-2 years depending on breast type and risk factor.
- III. 50 years of age and over - An annual physical examination and annual mammogram.
- IV. Asymptomatic women under 50 years of age with significant high risk factors should be examined at appropriate intervals. These risk factors include previous breast cancer and family history of cancer.

V. A symptomatic woman should have a mammogram at any age when she experiences a mass, nipple discharge, skin changes or unexplained breast pain.

A screening mammogram is an x-ray of the breast using extremely low dosages of radiation (usually comparable to dental x-rays) and is designed to find very early cancers.

A female technologist who is highly trained in mammography will perform the examination.

The charge for the screening mammogram is $50.00. The Unit accepts cash, check, VISA, MasterCard and American Express.

For more information or to make an appointment call 864-2621.

Undeliverable mail goes to Dead Letters

The United States Postal Service operates seven Dead Letter Branches across the country. Each of the centers is continuously bombarded with "mail", both letters and parcels and items "loose in the mail."

Mail in the mail stream which has a nonreadable address or items loose in the mail with no identification is sent to the Dead Letter Centers. At these locations the mail or items will be forwarded to the proper persons if they are identified or will be held for 90 days before being destroyed or auctioned.

"There is a way that you can keep your mail from ever going to a Dead Letter Center," says Lola Gholson, officer in charge of the Haskell Post Office. "Here are some tips for keeping your mail alive and flowing":

--Always include a return address. On parcels, write it outside and include it inside, too, in case the wrapping is damaged.

--Double check addresses for accuracy, and make sure adequate postage is attached. Include apartment numbers when applicable, and always use ZIP codes.

--If your handwriting is poor, print or type names and addresses.

--Write identification on film canisters, photographs and any other objects that could become separated from the packaging.

--Do not use felt-tip markers or pencils in addressing mail. The ink in felt-tip markers washes away if it gets wet.

--Do not overload envelopes. Find envelopes or containers adequate to handle the contents. Securely pad or shield objects that could break through the packaging.

--Put a strip of tape over metal fasteners on envelopes that could catch other mail or cut the hands of the person handling it.

--And finally, firmly secure any flaps or labels that could tear off.

"These are but a few things you can do to insure that your mail does not end up in the Dead Letter Branch," said Gholson.

Paint Creek to discuss asbestos

There will be a meeting in the cafeteria of Paint Creek school Dec. 6 to notify parents, students and all support personnel who are employed by the school of the existence of any asbestos materials in the school. The meeting begins at 7 p.m.

Almost every school building in Texas has asbestos of some type in their buildings. Asbestos has been used in many products. The most common usage is the type that has been blown on the ceilings for acoustical purposes. The second most common type is used in thermal insulation that is applied to pipes in boiler rooms and assorted equipment. These two types cause most concern.

The Paint Creek school has completed the required inspection of its facilities; therefore, the purpose of the Dec. 6 meeting is to make everyone aware of the inspection report.

As required by law, a copy of the management plan is on file in the superintendent's office. The document may be examined upon request.
