Maidens nearing crown

Haskell's Maidens are just two victories away from claiming the second-half championship of district 7-2A to go with their first-half title.

The Maidens blasted Albany here Tuesday night to the tune of 54-27 to bring their second-half record to 4-0 and up their season mark to 19-5.

Four Maidens scored in double figures as Haskell won with ease. Missy Davis scored 16 points, Dala Harris and Joy McKeever 11 each and Sheila Unger 10.

In the nightcap of Tuesday's twinbill, the Indians overcame a shaky start to paste an 83-61 defeat on the Lions of Albany. After being behind 18-14 after one quarter of play, the Indians scored 50 points in the next two periods, 25 in each.

Dusty Meeks scored 23 points, Chan Guess 17, Brad Bevel 13 and Sam Beakey 12 as the Indians boosted their season record to 20-3 while staying unbeaten in district play.

The Haskell teams will play in Hamlin Friday night. Then next Tuesday, both teams will be facing their stiffest district opposition when the Hawley teams come to Haskell.

Like Haskell, both the Hawley boys and girls are unbeaten in the second half of district play. Haskell teams won victories during the first round of competition. The Indians also defeated Hawley in the Wylie tournament. After defeating Anson Tuesday night, Hawley has a season record of 21-4, having lost twice each to Haskell and Class 1A power Eula. The Hawley girls have an 18-6 season mark.

For the Maidens, the Hawley game will be their last of the district season. A win would give them first place in both halves of the district season. Bi-district playoffs are scheduled for Feb. 16-17.

The Indians will still have two district games left after the Hawley game, against Stamford and Anson.

Board selects interim supt.

Students to push 'no smoking'

This year, Valentine's Day may mean more than candy and lace hearts.

The American Heart Association and the Texas Association of Student Councils have developed an anti-smoking program called "Save a Sweet Heart" which began the first week in January. And the Haskell Student Council is participating in the program.

Highlight of the program is a day of no smoking on Valentine's Day, called Save a Sweet Heart (SASH) Day.

Two weeks before SASH Day, the Student Council will start hanging posters in the halls, classrooms and the cafeteria. These posters show happy, attractive non-smokers enjoying life while smokers look on. This is the opposite of the carefree and successful image of smokers portrayed in most cigarette advertisements.

Pledging starts Feb. 13. Smokers promise not to smoke on SASH Day, and non-smokers promise not to start smoking within the following year. Teachers are also encouraged to pledge. Buttons are distributed to everyone who pledges. Signups will be in the foyer by the office. Students are being asked to encourage their friends to participate.

Paint Creek pair attends drug workshop

A drug abuse workshop, held at Region 14 Education Center Jan. 25, was attended by Betsy McManamon, cooperative librarian, and Rita Cockerell, library aide for Paint Creek ISD.

Carol Burson, Drug Free Schools Coop, was the coordinator of the one-day workshop which focused on the library staff's role in the prevention of drug and alcohol abuse in the schools.

Mrs. Burson opened the workshop by giving an updated background on the most common and dangerous illegal substances, and on the issues especially related to use of these substances by children and young adults. She pointed out that much more is known about the bad effects of these drugs today than was known a few years ago, and that this current information needs to be in all materials intended for students, in school libraries and in drug prevention programs.

Valuable guidelines were given for selecting accurate, up-to-date library materials on this subject and on "purging" the library collection of inaccurate/inappropriate materials.

Other topics included library campaigns that can be conducted, an outline of school and community programs for drug prevention, and information on how libraries can aid prevention efforts of other school personnel.

Information also was given on materials available to schools through Region 14 and other sources.

A life every 32 seconds

(First in a series)

This is the first in a series of articles sponsored by the American Heart Association, written to answer some common questions about the major types of heart and blood vessel (cardiovascular) disorders.

In them you will learn (1) what the major disorders are, (2) how many Americans are affected, (3) how victims of these diseases are diagnosed and treated, and (4) what can be done about these diseases.

While these articles are offered for education, please don't use the information to try to diagnose individual cases. Every case is unique and only a doctor is qualified to make a diagnosis and prescribe treatment.

A Life Every 32 Seconds

What's the No. 1 killer in America? Millions of people believe it's cancer. And they're wrong.

Cardiovascular disease holds that deadly distinction.

FACT: In 1985 heart and blood vessel diseases killed nearly 1 million Americans, almost as many as cancer, accidents, pneumonia, influenza and all other causes of death combined.

FACT: Almost one in two Americans dies of cardiovascular disease.

FACT: Of the current U.S. population of about 239 million, nearly 65 million--more than one in four--suffer some form of cardiovascular disease.

Make no mistake. Cancer and other diseases are a real threat. But it's important to keep things in perspective. In 1985, about 460,000 Americans died of cancer. In 1986, nearly 6,100 Americans died of AIDS. That's tragic, but the tragedy is compounded if Americans' attention is focused on these diseases at the expense of a disease that claims more than twice as many victims. Cardiovascular diseases are killers.

One reason cardiovascular diseases sometime may be underestimated is the perception that they're diseases of the elderly. But that's a gross generalization--and one contradicted by about 200,000 deaths every year. Because about 200,000 victims of heart and blood vessel diseases each year are under age 65. Using a methodology developed by the Centers for Disease Control. Total Cardiovascular Disease accounted for 2,040,000 years of potential life lost in 1985, ranking second behind injuries (2,308,000) and ahead of cancer (1,803,000).

Cardiovascular diseases demand attention. Too many people are dying. And many deaths may be preventable--by lowering blood pressure, stopping smoking, reducing the amount of cholesterol in the blood, knowing the warning signs. Education is vital.

Death rates from heart attack, stroke and other cardiovascular diseases are declining. Advances in medical treatment and the fact that many people have adopted healthier lifestyles in recent years have undoubtedly contributed. But there's still a long way to go and no time for complacency. Because someone dies--from cardiovascular disease--every 32 seconds.

(In the next article, we will discuss "The Heart and How it Works".)

AT&T ANNOUNCES PRICE CHANGES FOR LONG DISTANCE CALLS WITHIN TEXAS

AT&T announces April 1, 1989, price changes for Long Distance Service (MTS) within Texas. AT&T's prices for long distance calling within Texas will be increased by two cents per minute for calls under 82 miles in distance and one cent per minute for calls that are 82 miles or greater in distance. AT&T's current discounts of 25% for evening calls and 40% for night and weekend calls will remain in effect. The price increases are expected to produce approximately $22.8 million, which is nearly 2.9% of AT&T's annual revenues for Texas Long Distance Service.

This represents the first AT&T price increase for long distance calls within Texas. AT&T's long distance prices for calls within Texas have been reduced overall by about 12% since 1986.

The Long Distance Service price changes will also impact AT&T's PROSM WATS Texas offering, which offers subscribers a 10% discount on all long distance calls within Texas. These price changes are expected to produce approximately $661,000, or about 3.5% of the annual revenues for AT&T's PROSM WATS Texas offering.

Prices for AT&T's REACH OUTSM Texas offering will also change. The price for initial hour usage will increase from $12.55 to $12.95; the additional hour price will increase from $11.40 to $12.00. These price increases are expected to produce approximately $364,000, or about 2.1% of the annual revenues for AT&T's REACH OUTSM Texas offering.

AT&T's tariffs implementing these changes will be filed with the Public Utility Commission of Texas on March 1, 1989, with an effective date of April 1, 1989. The combined price increases are expected to produce approximately $23.9 million, which is approximately 2.4% of AT&T's annual revenues for all Texas intrastate services.

If you have questions regarding these price changes please call AT&T's service consultants at 1-800-222-0300 for residential customers or 1-800-222-0400 for business customers. Persons who have questions regarding this tariff filing may also contact the Public Utility Commission of Texas in writing, at 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 450N, Austin, Texas 78757, or by calling the Public Information Office at 512-458-0223, or 512-458-0227, or 512-458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

City OKs dam

Haskell City Council members last Thursday approved the construction of a dam at Avenue H between North and South 1st Streets and construction work on the project got underway this week. Action followed a public hearing during which several persons offered comments on the proposal. The Council then voted 4-1 to go ahead with the project. In other action during Thursday's meeting, the Council selected the First National Bank to continue as depository of city funds and heard departmental reports from city administrator Robert Baker. In his reports, the administrator told of a recent trip he made with the mayor to a Council of Governments meeting in Abilene during which a request for additional paving funds was made, and of the progress being made on the two soccer fields. Baker also told councilmen that bids on the street project will be opened at 3 p.m. on Feb. 9. If the low bidder is acceptable to the Department of Commerce, the paving project should get underway about 45 days later.

TAX PLANNING

Written By
Richard E. Rodgers, CPA

PROS AND CONS OF NONDEDUCTIBLE IRA'S

You cannot deduct contributions to an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) if: (1) you are married and either spouse is an active participant in an employer-maintained retirement plan, and your income exceeds $50,000 or (2) you are single, you are an active participant in an employer-maintained retirement plan, and you income exceeds $35,000. Partial deductibility is allowed for marrieds with income from $40,000 - $50,000 and for singles with income from $25,000 - $35,000.

If an IRA contribution will be partially or fully nondeductible for you, consider these pros and cons in deciding whether to make a contribution.

Pros of Using a Nondeductible IRA:

- The earnings on your IRA will compound tax-free until withdrawn.
- The withdrawal restrictions may encourage you to save money for retirement that you might otherwise spend.

Cons of Using a Nondeductible IRA:

- Nondeductible contributions are not subject to income tax upon withdrawal because you've already paid tax on them. However, if you have a mixture of deductible and nondeductible IRA funds, withdrawals are considered a pro rata withdrawal of each. You cannot designate a withdrawal as coming just from the nondeductible (and therefore nontaxable) funds. Withdrawals from any IRA before you're 59 1/2 are subject to a 10% penalty tax.
- Your after-tax return on investments outside an IRA may prove better than the return on your tax-deferred IRA.
- You will have to file yearly status reports on your IRA with your tax returns, and you will be responsible for keeping complete records on nondeductible contributions.

Discuss your particular situation with your own tax advisor before making a nondeductible contribution to your IRA.

Will Trammell top winner in Scout's Pinewood Derby

Will Trammell, a Wolf scout, had to challenge his brother, Jason, a Tiger Cub, to win the overall championship at the Pinewood Derby race Saturday.

To culminate the race, winners in each division raced against each other for the grand championship. Taking first in their divisions were Cory

Wood, Webelos; Daniel Payne, Bear; and the Trammel brothers.

Following several races, Payne and Wood were eliminated, and Jason and Will had to compete against each other.

The boys' cars were evenly matched and many races were run before Will's car finally gained the advantage.

Trophy winners in artistic designs were: John Mark Hodgins, best looking; Trey Rodgers, most creative; Jaki Ragsdon, most authentic; Joe Salinas, most unique.

Ribbons were given to second- and third-place derby winners.

In the Tiger Cub division, Mitchell Cox placed second and Evan Everett third.

In the Wolf division, Jason Hobgood and Erik Everett placed second and third, respectively.

In the Bear division, Brandon Rodella placed first and John Abila third.

In the Webelos division, Marcus Overton placed second and Joseph Andress third.

The Kiwanis Club sponsors Pack 136 and the club provided judges for the race. Judges were Bob Baker, Conrad Roewe and Clayton Fowler.

"We really appreciated the help from the Kiwanians, the den leaders and parents who were drafted from the audience to help as line judges," said Ms. Pat Mickler, wife of the cubmaster.

A third track, plus bracketing of each race, helped decrease the time for the races.

"We had 72 cars entered and lots of parents and friends in attendance. We thank the school for the use of their facilities," said Jim Bob Mickler, cubmaster.

ELECTRIC BILL

REDUCE THE POOR

Cut your energy bills with propane.

You can save a lot of energy and money by using propane gas. Compared to electricity, propane is a much more efficient fuel for heating your home, cooking, clothes drying, and water heating.

A recent study by the Department of Energy (DOE) reveals that a home using propane for heating, cooking, and clothes drying, costs half as much as a home with the same electric features.

Propane gas is clearly a cut above the other energy sources — for efficiency, comfort, and economy. Call your nearby propane gas dealer to find out how to cut into your energy expenses.

PCA assesses 1988 farm year

Farmers and ranchers in the Rolling Plains had a "fair to good" year in 1988, according to John S. Rike III, president of Rolling Plains Production Credit Association. The same could be said for the PCA which reported the largest annual increase in loan volume of any PCA in Texas, excluding those associations merged into one entity.

Rolling Plains PCA's net income for the fourth quarter of 1988 was $490,345. That compares to a net gain of $364,350 for the same period in 1987. During the fourth quarter, the PCA was refunded 70 percent of the $766,000 it had paid to the Farm Credit System Financial Assistance Corporation (FAC) earlier in the year. Under the provisions of the Agricultural Credit Act of 1987, all financially strong Farm Credit institutions were required to pay a one-time assessment to support the nation's ailing Farm Credit institutions.

The FAC assessment was also partly responsible for a comparative decrease in net income for all of 1988. However, the unrefunded 30 percent of the assessment accounted for a $230,000 drain on PCA's income. The association realized earnings of $247,926 in 1988, down from 1987's $690,645 gain. In addition, the year-end total was affected by the fact that no significant sales of acquired property occurred in 1988. Acquired property sales accounted for a $370,000 addition to 1987 earnings. With these two offsetting factors, 1988 gains compare favorably with those in 1987.

The Rolling Plains PCA has a history of capital strength and earning ability which enables the association to finance any size operation. Rike cites several factors for this strong position, including borrower members who are good managers and operators, and a hard working, dedicated staff. "All of our employees were raised on farms and ranches or in farming communities in the Rolling Plains area," said Rike. "The association's board of directors is made up of farmers and ranchers and agri-businessmen. They understand first-hand the credit needs of agriculture in the Rolling Plains."

The association specializes in short- and intermediate-term financing for livestock, crops and equipment. Loans are also made to ag-related businesses performing on-farm services. The entity's small loan program cuts down on paper work for commitments less than $100,000, and it works with the Farmers Home Administration on subordination and guaranty loans. Term loans for real estate purchases or refinancing are offered, and the PCA has a new fixed rate operating loan program.

Rike said moisture and insect control hold the keys to profitability for area agricultural producers in 1989. During 1988, fair pasture and good prices helped area ranchers and farmers make progress with livestock, but crop production was down due to lack of rain and insect problems. "Without more moisture, pasture grass could be depleted, and growing conditions will worsen," said Rike. Three subsequent mild winters are responsible for an upsurge in the boll weevil population. If an extended period of cold weather does not occur this winter, the buildup of insects will cause serious problems for the 1989 cotton crop.

Rolling Plains PCA stands ready with special lending programs to assist farmers and ranchers in its 17-county territory.

The Indian Dancers of the Order of the Arrow will provide entertainment. Following the entertainment, awards will be given and several Cub Scouts will be promoted to Boy Scouts.

Sunday, Feb. 5, all Tiger Cubs and Cub Scouts will attend the First Christian Church for Scout Sunday. Services begin at 11 a.m., but scouts are requested to meet at the church about 10:50.

At 2 p.m., the Northern District Pinewood Derby race will be held in Stamford at the high school activities gym. It is located on the north side of the football field.

Hobby Club

Helen Cox served as hostess to 17 members and two visitors of the Rochester Hobby Club at the Jan. 17 meeting.

A delicious meal of stew, cornbread and many desserts was enjoyed. The fellowship seemed a special blessing as the holidays had prevented some members from visiting and all being together until this meeting.

Tuesday, Jan. 24, was an extra day for quilting. Modelle Barton's beautiful antique "fan" (made by her mother Mrs. Manley) was completed with Modelle putting in the last stitches as a sentimental gesture.

The very unusual miniature "log cabin" (made by Lena Caroline Carmack in the early 1900s) should be finished soon. Now the club's star quilt, king size, is in the frames. This beautiful quilt will be for sale.

Blanche Corley is to be hostess for the club's Feb. 7 meeting. New members and visitors are always welcome.

Grandson takes part in Scout program

Eric Sawey, son of Karen and Jim Sawey of Fort Worth and grandson of Otto and Gertie Wittenborn of Haskell, was a member of the eight-boy contingent representing the Boy Scouts of America at the 14th Central American International Camporee.

The camporee was held Jan. 23-29 at the Iztaeu National Training Grounds just outside San Jose, Costa Rica.

Eric is 14 years old and a freshman at Paschal High School in Fort Worth. He is a Star Scout in Troop 97, sponsored by Saint Andrews Catholic Church.

Boy Scouts from ages 11 to 17 were chosen for this trip on the basis of their rank, age, responsibility and recommendations from their scoutmasters and district executives.

Theme of the camporee was "Friendship Without Boundaries." Objective of the gathering was: to live an experience which helps establish a friendship without boundaries, which in turn contributes to the peace between nations.

Scouts (boys) and Guides (girls) from 10 Central and South American countries were invited to attend the inter-American event. The camporee was designed to unite all the guides and scouts who participate by following a quote from Lord Baden Powell, the founder of scouting: "We are our countries' goodwill ambassadors. Our mission is to make others happy."

The contingent departed D/FW Airport Jan. 22. Each scout took as part of his allowed luggage a large box containing part of $8,000 in new camping equipment which they were to leave with the Costa Rican scouts as a goodwill gesture. The equipment is a contribution from the Boy Scouts of America's "For Friendship" program.

During their eight-day stay in Costa Rica, Eric and the other boys were to spend three days as guests of the family of a Costa Rican scout. During their stay with the host family, they were to tour San Jose and surrounding areas to learn about Costa Rican culture. The other five days were spent at the camporee camping with boys and girls from the 10 Latin American countries.

The scouts were to return to D/FW Tuesday afternoon of this week.

Save and freeze bits of chicken and vegetables, such as carrots, celery, potatoes and onions to make a chicken pie.

Haskell native named ag teacher

Ricky Moeller, a native of Haskell, has been employed as vocational agriculture teacher for the Munday Independent School District.

Moeller, a 1984 graduate of Haskell High School, received an associate in science degree from Howard Junior College and a degree in agricultural education with a minor in animal science from Tarleton State University.

While at Howard Junior College, he was a member of Phi Theta Kappa, the Student Government Association and was named outstanding agricultural student in 1985-86.

At Tarleton State he was a member of Student Government for two years, Alpha Zeta Fraternity two years and Tarleton Ag Council which he served as both vice president and president.

He was an active member of the Collegiate FFA for three years, was twice named to Who's Who Among Colleges and Universities and Distinguished Students, received the Tarleton Service Award and served on the Student Government executive committee.

His wife, Kristi, a native of Coahoma, is completing her elementary education degree through Tarleton State University.

Moeller is the son of Ernest and Zella Mae Moeller of Haskell.

--Weinert--

by Myrtle Plemister

We measured 6 tenths of an inch of rain this week, and the two days of moist weather were enjoyed very much. The wheat is looking good, but we still need more rain.

We have no sick to report, for which we are grateful.

Our birthday people this week includes Heather Guess, Daniel Earle, Joey Frazier, Betty Sanders, Kim Stewart, Amy Castillo, Helen Turnbow, Chet Forehand, and Jody Ejems. Happy birthday, all!

Celebrating wedding anniversaries will be Harvie and Lenora Griffis and Buck and Helen Turnbow. Congratulations! There will be lots of parties in Weinert this week.

Time and space prevents listing all those who made the trip to Munday on Sunday afternoon to help Pud and Susie Brockett celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary. Suffice it to say, Weinert "turned out" to honor this gracious and good couple, and congratulate their children who were all raised here.

Pete and Imo Brockett hosted the party in their home.

Heather Guess was honored on Sunday with a birthday party hosted by her parents for the 11th birthday with all her Weinert relatives as guests. Special guest was her aunt, Christy Herricks of Graham.

Boy Scouts

Congratulations to Cory Wood, son of Bob and Melanie Wood for winning first place in his Webeles division at the Pinewood Derby care race held in Haskell on Saturday, January 28.

Cory will advance to the district race which will be in Stamford on February 5 at 2 p.m.

We congratulate all our Scouts who built cars, and entered the derby. You are all winners.

The scouts Blue and Gold Awards Banquet will held Saturday night in Haskell. Sunday, Feb. 5 is National Boy Scout Day; and all the Weinert scouts will attend church together at the First Christian Church in Haskell.

Our sympathy is extended to the Sargent family, especially to the Johnny Sargents, and to the Harlan family, upon the untimely death of Kelly Sargent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Sargent, who was killed in a car wreck last week. Besides her parents, she is survived by a three month old daughter. The Sargents are former residents of Weinert.

Attending the memorial services in Amarillo from Weinert were Ricky and Karen Harlan.

Weinert also extends sympathy to Irene Logsdon and family, whose husband, Justin Puschel, passed away last week and was buried in Haskell on Jan. 20.

The Logsdon family are former Weinert residents, and Irene's niece, Mrs. Nelta Reeves still resides here. Nelta and T.E. attended the memorial services, as did many others from Weinert.

Out of town. Supt. H. L. Guess is in Austin this week attending the Mid-winter Superintendents conference.

Ted and Faye Jetton were in Holliday for a visit in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Young.

D. I. and Mattie White were in Ft. Worth visiting in the home of their daughter, Jim and Sue Hackney, and granddaughter, Tolanda.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Murphy accompanied their children to Jayton on Saturday for the tumbling event held there, and in which their son, Lane, won first place in his division, and their daughter, Shawna, won first place in her division. Congratulations to each of you.

They were accompanied by their grandmother, Alice Yates.

The children are part of the Haskell Lone Star Tumblers, and will advance to other competition.

Todd and Angela Herricks flew their grandfather, Roy Herricks, to Lovington, New Mexico last week for a visit with Roy's sister, Pearl, and Heather, who has been quite ill.

Roy reported beautiful trip, a lovely day for flying, and recommends it as "a way to go."

Our children had no entries in the County Stock Show, but we had some winners anyway, as the W. R. Hager's grandchildren, Justin and Heather Stewart o Haskell won grand champion and reserve champion. Congratulations, Hagers! Justin is 10 years old and Heather is 12.

Extension Club members who helped at the concession stand for the county stock show were Alice Yates, Betty Sanders, Debbie Crump, Faye Jetton and Jimmy Weinert.

Visitors: Bobby and Barbara Jenkins of Waco were in town and visited in the home of Doris and Jerry Walker.

Other guests of the Walkers were their daughter, Cindy Parrott, with Justin and Rance of Wichita Falls.

Butch and Sidney Pharr of Cisco spent the weekend in the W.R. Hager home and attended the Haskell County Stock Show with them on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Merchant and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wester of Haskell visited friends in Weinert on Tuesday night.

Dinner guests at the Marvin Plemister home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Plemister, with Lee, Laura and Lincoln of Avoca; Missy Plemister, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Plemister with Dacia, Joseph, Deshea and Geoffry; Roy Forehand and Sandy Horton of Haskell. Ricky Plemister came in the afternoon.

The occasion was a celebration of the "renewal" or "revival" of the Weinert Church of Christ, which as you know, has been semi-dormant for several weeks and Sunday was the new beginning of services.

Wayne, with his family, came for the day, and was guest speaker at the Bible Class and also for the worship hour.

For Bible class, the study was the introduction to the book of James, which will be the study text for the next few weeks.

For his revival topic, Wayne used Hebrews 12:12 and following verses, as he commended those present for their decision to renew their commitment to the Lord by continuing to meet in Weinert.

He ended his dissertation by using Hebrews 13:12 and following verses, urging the members to remember this is their 50th year for the Weinert Church and as they have sent out countless numbers of young men and women to th mission field, so they can continue to do so, with God's help.

The church services are to be: Bible study at 10 a.m.; Communion at 10:45; song service and preaching at 11 a.m. and at 6 p.m. Visitors are always welcome.

Chesley Forehand will be the speaker on February 5 and Weldon Walling of Knox City will speak Feb. 12.

Weinert Extension Club will meet Feb. 7 in the home of Alice Yates at 2 p.m. with Jimmy Weinert and Agnes Winchester bringing the program entitled "Financial Record Keeping" and "Taxes". Visitors are always welcome.

Have a nice day!
