Teacher appointed to council

Newest member of the Haskell City Council is Jill Druesedow.

Her appointment to the unexpired term of Larry McMillin was made at Tuesday's (April 11) meeting of the City Council. Mayor Greg Melton recommended her appointment and the council approved the recommendation. McMillin had one year left on his two-year term.

Mrs. Druesedow, an English and journalism teacher at Haskell High School, became the second woman ever to serve on the City Council. (Franciene Johnson was a councilwoman, and later mayor).

Married to Gary Druesedow, the 39-year-old educator is the mother of two sons, Harrison, 10, and Dawson, 7.

She is a native of Odessa and holds bachelor and master degrees in education from Midwestern State University. She taught at Wichita Falls High School (1972-76) and Stamford High School (1976-80) before she began her teaching duties at Haskell in 1980.

She was the first television newswoman in a 100-mile radius of Wichita Falls when she was with KFDX-TV in that city. As an English and journalism teacher at Wichita Falls, she was the youngest department chairman in that school system.

She also taught English seven years (1976-83) at the Haskell extension of Western Texas College, and was a correspondent for the Abilene Reporter-News from 1977 to (Continued on page 2)

The Chisholm Trail Northern District includes 13 packs.

Becky McFadden shared "Scouter of the Year" honors with two area leaders.

Marvin McFadden was co-winner of the district "Award of Merit."

Haskell leaders took all five Den Leader Training awards. They went to Charlotte Arendall, B. McFadden, Billy Tatum, Pat Mickler and Mary Dewey.

Dewey also received recognition for being chairman of the pack with the most popcorn sales and Scout Show ticket sales.

The Rev. Kenny Kirk, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, received a special award for being the newest member while Wallar Overton received the oldest Scout award.

Haskell also received the national Camping award, Membership Roundup Goal award and Rechartering (125 club) award.

Special recognition plaques went to Kay Perry for scouting support; Mickler for cubmaster work; and Darold Roberson for coordinating the local pack and the Kiwanis Club.

Scout leaders from Haskell and their spouses hosted the banquet. Pat Mickler chaired the event.

Absentee balloting now open

Absentee voting for the school and city elections opened Monday and will continue through May 2.

Voters may cast absentee ballots by personal appearance at the school administration building and at City Hall.

Both elections will be May 6.

Three men are candidates for the two positions to be decided in the school election. Mike Guess and Pat Henry, incumbents, filed for re-election. The third candidate is Be Aycock.

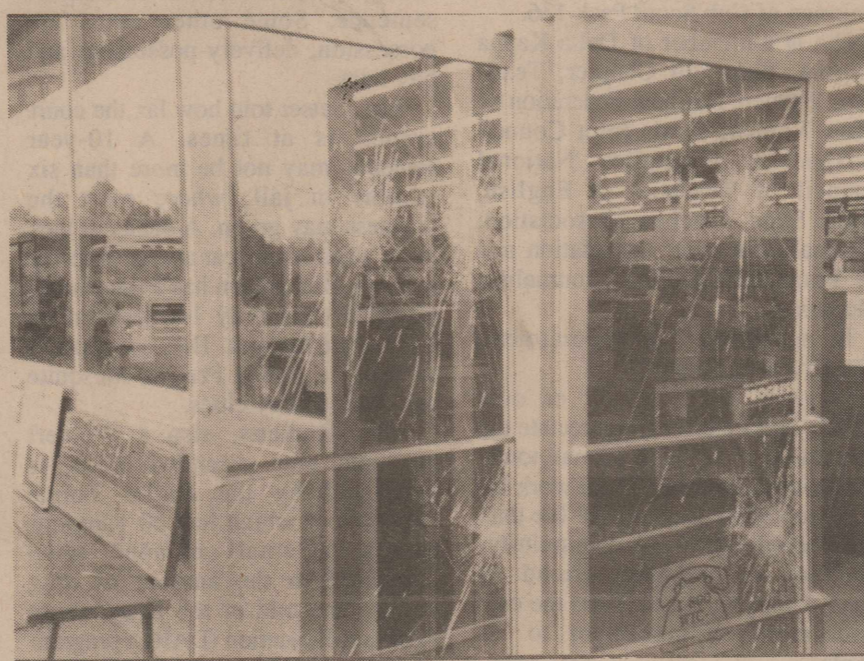

In the city election, six men are seeking three seats on the City Council. Incumbents Jerry Stocks and Darrell Smith both are candidates for re-election. Other candidates are Johnny Campbell, Tony Burson, Kip Nemir and Bill Anderson. A third incumbent, Robert Kramp, did not file for re-election.

Absentee voting is being encouraged. Any voter is eligible to cast an absentee ballot, and is not required to state a reason as in past years.

Reward offered for apprehension of glass breakers

The City of Haskell Tuesday offered a $500 cash reward for information leading to the identity and apprehension of the persons responsible for thousands of dollars worth of glass breakage late Sunday night or early Monday morning.

Thirty-one vehicles suffered smashed windshields and/or windows and two businesses sustained broken windows in what was probably the most widespread act of vandalism in the city's history.

Most certainly, few, if any, incident ever created such an outcry of public outrage.

Except for a couple of vehicles at one residence south of town whose windows were smashed, the damage was confined within the city of Haskell. There appeared to be no pattern of destruction as damage was reported from all areas of the city.

The glass breakage at the businesses was at M System and Modern Way. WW Motors apparently was the only other business hit, but damage there was to the windshields of cars parked on the used car lot. Most of the other cars damaged were parked at homes.

Haskell County Sheriff Johnny Mills said officers had retrieved a half of a baseball bat at M System and another half of a bat at a residence on North Avenue C. They were sent to Abilene in hopes that fingerprints could be found on them.

Anyone with information on the vandalism spree is urged to contact the sheriff's or police department in Haskell. In announcing the $500 reward, the City emphasized that the identity of anyone submitting information will be kept confidential.

--Leo Jeffery Walls, two indictments for forgery possession with intent to pass.

--Arturo Gutierrez for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.

--Jesus Ayala Hernandez for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.

--Alejandria Rocha for securing execution of document by deception.

Joel Nanny was foreman of the grand jury.

Other jurors were Mary Lou Landes of Rule, Jerry Walker of Weinert, Dale Carroll of Weinert, Carlos Andreda of Haskell, Adam Garcia of Rochester, Betty Raynes of Weinert, Susan M. Turner of Rochester, Betty Roewe of Haskell, Chester Lamb of Haskell, Oleta Baird of Rule and Lynn Dudensing of Sagerton.

300 expected here for Cub Olympics

Scouts from 13 packs throughout the Chisholm Trail District will gather in Haskell Saturday for the annual Cub Olympics.

"We expect at least 300, and we may have as many as 500," said Cubmaster Jim Bob Mickler.

Registration will be from 1:30 to 2:15 p.m. Opening ceremonies will begin at 2:30 p.m.

The activities will take place on Haskell's three football fields. Mickler explained that because of the type of events, no track is necessary.

Haskell's Pack 136 will host the area scouts. The Kiwanis club will sponsor a concession stand.

A planning meeting to organize the local teams and train the parent volunteers was held Wednesday at the field house.

City changes insurance

The City Council last Tuesday accepted the low bid of Hartford Insurance Co. to provide health insurance for city employees.

City administrator Robert Baker said the bid of $97.11 monthly per employee is about $40 per employee lower than the premium now being paid for city insurance.

At last week's council meeting, the city also approved a request to send policeman Steve Grand to a crime prevention school in Abilene May 22-26. Baker said his certification in conducting security and fire checks would enable Haskell homeowners to qualify for insurance discounts.

Baker also told the council that a good water well has been dug at the RV park. The 32-foot well will pump 50 gallons per minute and Ervin Frierson will build a pump house, the administrator said. He also announced to the council that Koch Oil Co has donated pipe for goals at the soccer field.

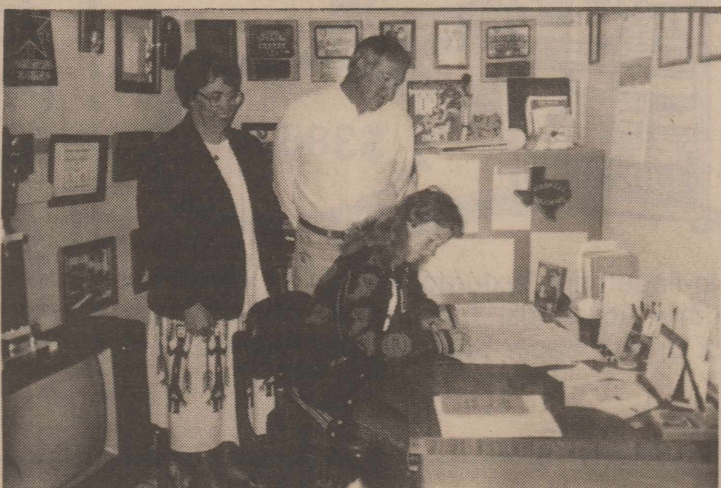

The council postponed until after the city election the appointments to the ambulance and training center boards and the park committee, all becoming vacant on the resignation of councilman Larry McMillan.

Lions sell brooms next Tuesday

The annual mop and broom sale of the Haskell Lions Club will be Tuesday (April 25) on the southwest corner of the courthouse square. Hours will be from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Advance orders may be placed by contacting a member of the club or by calling Bob Cass at 864-8918.

Joy McKeever signs with UTA

Joy McKeever inks letter as Billie McKeever, her mother, and Coach George Martin look on.

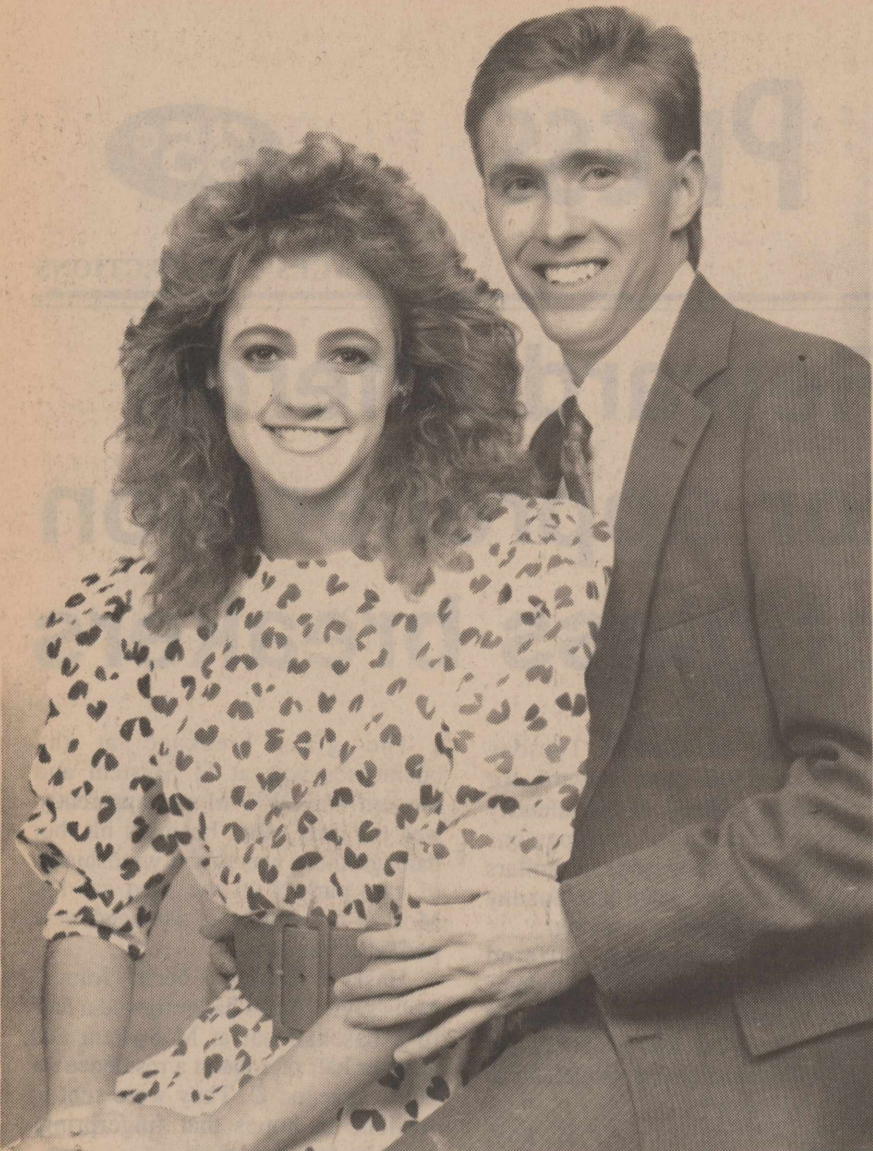

Haskell Maiden track sensation Joy McKeever last Wednesday signed a letter of intent to attend the University of Texas at Arlington on an athletic scholarship.

Monte Stratton, track coach at that division I school, came to Haskell to get McKeever's signature.

McKeever has been a standout on the Maiden track team all four years of her high school career. She qualified for the state track meet in the 100-meter hurdles as a freshman and junior and is well on her way of doing so again this season. She also runs on the Maiden relay teams and competes in the high jump and triple jump.

In basketball, she was twice named to the Abilene Reporter-News all-area team. She also is a cheerleader and an honor student.

Engaged

Suzie Gilliam and Larry Gilliam, both of Lubbock, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Kelli Liane, to Albert Eugene Sherman. He is the son of Norma Sherman and Hank Sherman, both of Haskell. The couple will be married July 29 at the First Baptist Church in Haskell.

Headstream board elects new officers

New officers of the Headstream Memorial Center Advisory Board are Raja Hassen, chairman; Jane Short, treasurer; and Kathy Castaneda, secretary.

They were elected at a board meeting held March 28 at the Outreach Center in Haskell.

Sarah Meinzer, director, provided a brief history of the center, noting the late Aubrey Headstream and his wife, Marjorie, were instrumental in the success of the center. She also reviewed the activities and various projects sponsored by the center staff and board members during the past year.

She described the mental health and substance abuse services provided through the center and mentioned the pending addition of a psychiatrist to the Outreach staff.

Board members addressed the need for additional space in an effort to provide needed services, and several options were discussed. Public education was identified as a primary concern of the board and it was agreed by all that future efforts will be made to increase public awareness of the services available.

1983. She has served on the alumni board of directors of Midwestern State University (4 years), on the Governor's Committee on Status of Women (1973) and as Texas Press Women state convention coordinator (1977). She was president of district 9 of the Texas Press Women and was vice president of the Texas Classroom Teachers Association of Wichita Falls (1973-76).

In Haskell, she has been vice president of the Progressive Study Club, president of the Texas State Teachers' Association of Haskell County and district publicity director of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. She also served as secretary of the Abilene chapter of the Texas Joint Council of Teachers of English.

Twice she has been chosen outstanding club woman by the Progressive Study Club and twice named to the Outstanding Young Women in America. She serves on the board of directors of the Haskell Little League and is publicity chairman of Cub Scout Pack 136.

She is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma, Beta Chi Chapter, Texas Press Women, National Federation of Press Women, Texas Joint Council of Teachers of English, National Council of Teachers of English, Texas State Teachers Association, National Education Association and the Texas Association of Journalism Educators.

In accepting her appointment, Mrs. Druessedow said:

"I grew up in a city of over 90,000, and I can truly appreciate the advantages of living in a small town. As a council member, I will work for the preservation of quality of life that is the heartbeat of our community. Neighbor to neighbor, friend to friend, I support Haskell and the city government's commitment to its people.

"Whether the service is public, civic or professional, my commitment will be to encourage these services by providing an atmosphere conducive to progress."

-BIRTHS-

Dickie and Melissa Greenwood are proud to announce the birth of their daughter, Shannon Leigh, born at 1:34 p.m. April 13 at Stamford Memorial Hospital. She weighed 8 pounds, 6 3/4 ounces and was 18 1/2 inches long.

Grandparents are Adela Nierdieck of Sagerton and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Greenwood of Rochester. Big brother Adam awaited the happy arrival of his sister.

Allen and Donna Chestnut announce the birth of a son, Aaron Casey, born Saturday, April 15, at Stamford Memorial Hospital. He weighed 7 pounds, 12 ounces.

Proud grandparents are Pat Rowan of Haskell, Don Rowan of Grand Prairie and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Chestnut of Marlow, Okla.

Study club has program on drugs

The Progressive Study Club met April 13 in the community room. The program, "Crime Prevention--With Designs on Development: Dealing with Drugs," was directed by Nelda Lane. President Reatha Mullins called the meeting to order and asked Jennifer Burgess to introduce the guests.

Mrs. Lane introduced guest speakers, Kimberly Guess Setser and Evelyn Mayfield Ricketts. Both are assigned to the narcotics division. They are cousins and have worked together.

Mrs. Setser, a Weinert High School graduate, who attended Hardin-Simmons University, is employed by the Richardson Police Department. She has worked in the youth detention division and as a patrolman but has been an undercover narcotics agent since 1987.

Her goal is to find drug dealers. Waiters and waitresses are innocent looking dealers, also a pet shop owner. She told how she made an inquiry to purchase drugs at a car wash and a man immediately took her to a place. A delivery case, such as selling to an officer, carries a higher sentence. Some other cases are possession, delivery-possession and buy bust.

Mrs. Setser told how lax the court system is at times. A 10-year sentence may not be more than six months in jail, where even the business may go on. A dealer is hurt more when home, car and/or property is taken. Richardson has a population of 85,000 but only 140 policemen. Twelve are females. They are allowed to work in Grand Prairie, Mesquite and other nearby cities.

Mrs. Ricketts, also a Weinert graduate who attended HSU, is employed by the Dallas Police Department which has 60 narcotics agents, a small number when compared to the amount of drug traffic. She told of the Drug Abuse Resistant Education (DARE) program to inform children what inhalants such as spray paint and glue will do to them.

She presented slides which showed how drugs are manufactured, their characteristics, how they can be detected and how they can be passed in the most innocent-looking ways, such as the bottom of a Pringle can. Dogs also are used to detect drugs. Drug paraphernalia also were on display. Mrs. Ricketts assured her superiors that it was safe for her to share information and displays to club members and guests.

Anita Herren gave the federation report and announced the Texas Federation of Women's Club spring convention will be May 5-7 at the Marriott Mandalay Hotel in Irving.

After the social hour, a brief business session was held. The president announced that several first and second awards had been won at the spring convention in Abilene. Pat Quatilebaum requested and received a donation to aid the third annual after-graduation party for Haskell County high school and college youth.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Alex Mayfield, Evelyn's parents; Mr. and Mrs. Rebus Guess, Kim's parents; and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hummel of Sterling, Ill, uncle and aunt of Kim.

Hostesses were Donna Cole, Nedra McCauley, Thula Perry, Mildred Berry, Margaret Jones and Oleta Cornelius.

--Weinert--

by Myrtle Plemister
The weather in Weinert was beautiful on Monday and made us forget the severe wind we have endured the past few days, and the late freeze we experienced last week. We had 3 tenths of an inch of rain, and we need much more to revitalize the wheat and get things green and growing. The old mesquites are still cautious about things, so we may have more cold in store for us. The birds are here, though, and who wants to write when there are red birds to watch and mockingbirds to listen to? ***

Revival:
April 23 through the 28th at 8 p.m. each day, the Weinert Baptist Church invites everyone to be their guest as Dr. E. Wilford Howell preaches for a revival.

Dr. Howell, a native of Rule, received his education at Hardin Simmons and at the Southwestern Theological Seminary before spending twenty years as a missionary to Nigeria, Africa. He will use many African illustrations throughout the weeks revival, and one night will show pictures of Africa.

Ford Cole, music director for FBC of Haskell, will direct the singing, and urges everyone to attend and take part.

Visitors:
Arch and Eddie Lou Mayfield of Plainview were in Weinert to visit with his parents, J. A. and Laverne Mayfield, and to welcome his aunt and uncle, Lavera and Bud Hummel of Sterling, Illinois and their daughter, Jeanie Kay Rhodes, with son, Max of Norman, Oklahoma.

Other guests in the Mayfield home were their daughters, Evelyn Ricketts of Dallas, and Alexia Rimmer, with Adrienne Wynn of DeSoto.

While here, Evelyn participated in a drug abuse program presented to the Progressive Study Club in Haskell, with the help of Kimberly Guess, a cousin. The girls were interviewed for a radio program by Joel Fox of KVRP.

On Saturday night the family gathered in the home of H. L. and Sarah Guess and were joined by all the Rith and Rin here, with Chan and Rita Hughes of Munday and Cindy Murriel of Arlington, who spent the weekend with her grandmother, Mildred Guess.

On Sunday, a group motored to Abilene where Alexia sang at the Westminster Presbyterian Church in memory of Uncle Bo Furrh. They later visited with Uncle Bo's family, wife, Mary, and daughter Keith Louise Dodd, before parting to go their separate ways home.

Faye Crawford and Sue Alexander of San Antonio with Audra and Bob Schindler of Abilene, were weekend guests of their mother, Bertie Alexander.

Bertie hopes all her children will be home for Mother's Day when she will be celebrating her 87th birthday.

Alicia Sherman, Shannon Stephens and Cathy Rowan with son Bryan Joseph, all of Haskell, were guests in the home of the Leonard Mahans on Sunday, and attended worship services at the Church of Christ.

Dr. Troy Culpepper of Haskell was pulpit speaker at the Weinert Baptist Church on Sunday. He will serve as interim pastor for the church here until one is called to replace Donnie Crump, who has moved to Crowell to pastor the church there.

Mr. and Mrs. Queston Greer of Snyder are here to help Rex and Tina Herricks while Tinka is recuperating from a back injury she incurred in a freak accident while changing bed linens. (No more will she be changing sheets that will be Rex's task?)

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Shulve of Salina, Kansas were visitors to Weinert for the weekend and Steve was guest speaker on Sunday at the Foursquare Gospel Church.

Out of town:
The Weinert Home Extension Club members were in attendance at the District meeting of Texas Extension Homemakers Association held at the Haskell Civic Center last week.

The Weinert Club was responsible for all the decorations and they used the Bluebonnet theme throughout, with baskets of handmade bead bluebonnets on the tables, and containers of real ones elsewhere.

Invocation was given by Alice Yates and all the county members dressed in blue denim skirts, white blouses and red bandana neckerchiefs served as hostesses. 175 ladies from 21 counties were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ulmer of Sagerton hosted the staff and Board of Directors of the Soil and Water Conservation District to the Sagerton Hee Haw program on Friday night.

It was the 19th anniversary of the community program, and the amateurs are beginning to act and look like professional comedians.

Those attending from Weinert were Mr. and Mrs. David Sikes and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Plemister.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Sanders were in Brady for the weekend in the home of their daughter, Janice and Randy Boatright. Janice teaches in the Brady school, and Randy runs the Davenport drilling rig.

Donald and Gracie Griffis attended the Texas Cotton Ginners Association convention held at the Lubbock Civic Center last week.

They were accompanied by Bobby and Betty Raynes, and Donald and Bobby entered the golf tournament held on Wednesday before the convention started. They won no prizes, but Donald's name was drawn for $100.00 during the convention.

While in Lubbock they visited at Texas Tech with their daughter, Donna and Darla.

Congratulations:
To Cal and Peggy Leuning, former pastor of the Foursquare Church, now residing in North Hollywood, California upon the birth of their first son, Rayan George, 8 lbs. 20 inches tall, who arrived on April 13th to bless the family, along with sisters, Heather and Jennifer.

Congratulations to Tina Herricks for the Gold and Bronze medals she helped her school win at the recent track meet. Tina won first in the sprint in district, and 3rd in the mile relay; she was 5th in all-around. Her team is qualified to compete at regional. She is a sophomore student at Rochester, and the daughter of Rex and Tinka Herricks.

Alton and Mildred Sanders returned Sunday night from an inspirational Lay Renewal weekend held at the First Baptist Church in Burleson April 14-16th.

On April 9 through 11th they were in Hobbs, N.M. with the Belvue Baptist Church there, also for a Lay Renewal weekend. Mildred serves as director for the children, and Alton is director of music. They were accompanied by Cindy Guess and Heather as youth directors at the Hobbs renewal.

Congratulations to Kenny Forehand and the Munday Moguls who won the District Track meet held at Knox City on Friday, girls and boys, also.

Kenny won 5th in the 2 mile. We are proud of him.

Congratulations to Mark and Kim Stewart who have purchased a home in Munday and will be moving soon. We regret their leaving Weinert!

Their home here is up for sale, and we hope a family with several elementary students will purchase it.

Our birthday people this week includes Kenny Forehand, Tina Herricks, Erma Liles, Thelma Edwards, Debbie Crump and Doris Walker. Happy birthday, all!

Food for thought: Four things come not back—the spoken word, the sped arrow, the past life, and the neglected opportunity!

SPOUSES - GET INVOLVED

I highly recommend that spouses who haven't already done so learn everything possible about their family's financial affairs. Know the whereabouts and the significance of all important papers. Learn why certain insurance policies were purchased and whether they are still adequate.

For those of you married to a business or professional person, learn the framework of the business or office operation. You should understand the general filing system of the business and know the whereabouts of the general ledger, the banking records, the corporate record book (if appropriate), and special business agreements. You should understand any buy-sell agreements between partners and any lease commitments on equipment or real estate. You should know the whereabouts of all real estate deeds and mortgage or buy-sell agreements. Take the opportunity to sit in on meetings with your spouse, his or her business associates, and professional advisors.

In your spouse's absence, you may be called on to run the business, at least temporarily, or you may be involved in negotiations for the sale of the business. The more you know about all aspects of the business, the better equipped you are to make decisions.

At least once a year, take time to review all the family assets and liabilities with your spouse. During this season review all the backup documents. This annual session is for all spouses regardless of the nature of your business or field of employment.

If you haven't done so already, start an annual financial review with your spouse. I'm sure you will find it informative; you may even find it interesting.

Indians race to 7-2A championship

Haskell takes 11 first places

Practically the entire Haskell boys' track team qualified for the regional meet Friday when the Indians sailed to their fourth consecutive district 7-2A championship.

So dominate were the Indian performers that they took 11 first places in the 15-event meet, a half-dozen seconds and a third.

They won first place in every event except the pole vault, shot, 800 and 1600, and first or second in every event except the pole vault and the 1600 run, the only two events they didn't enter.

When all the scoring was tallied, Coach Walter Hargrove's defending state champions had 194 points, more than double the 83 accumulated by runnerup Albany. Anson was third with 69, followed by Hawley with 68, Jim Ned with 48, Hamlin with 25 and Stamford with 23.

Winning first places were:
--Dusty Meeks in the high jump (6-0).

--Rodney Johnson in the long jump (20-5 1/4).

--Roger Roewe in the discus (157-2).

--Joe Ray Comacho in the 3200 (10:18.28).

--Josh Reid in the 100 hurdles (15.34).

--Derrick Billington in the 100 (11.0).

--Jonathan Dever in the 400 (51.43).

--Johnnie Billington in the 200 (23.17).

--Reid in the 300 hurdles (40.02).

--The 400-meter relay team of Johnson, Dever and the Billingtons (43.31).

--The 1600-meter relay team of Reid, Johnson and the Billingtons (3:27.94).

Also qualifying for the regional meet with second-place finishes were:

--Paul Harvey in the shot put.

--Dever in the long jump (20-1 1/4).

--Eric Mullin in the discus (134-0).

--Comacho in the 800 (2:03.4).

--Johnson in the 100 (11.1).

--Jeremy Fuentes in the 200 (23.56).

Thus, the Indians ran 1-2 in the long jump, discus, 100 and 200. They were 2-3-4 in the shot put where Roewe and Bo Watson followed Harvey.

The regional meet will be April 28-29 at Abilene Christian University.

This Friday, the Indians will compete in the regional qualifiers' meet in Breckenridge. Field events are scheduled to begin at 2:30 p.m. and the running events at 3:30.

First play day to be Sunday

The year's first playday of the Haskell Horse Club will be Sunday, beginning at 2:30 p.m.

There will be barrels for 8 and under novice, 8 and under regular, 9-12 and 13-18. There also will be open barrels, flags and poles and practice roping.

This will be a jackpot playday.

Student finished training course

David LeeRoy McGhee of Haskell will be graduated from the correctional officer training course at Western Texas College in a program tonight at the Snyder school.

Michael Moore, director for the Texas Department of Corrections southern region, will be guest speaker for the graduation program.

Maiden coach undergoes surgery

Haskell-Maiden coach George Martin underwent surgery in Abilene Monday morning to correct a back ailment which has kept him "sidelined" for the past few weeks.

McKeever, Dever, relay teams win for Maidens

Joy McKeever, Regina Dever and the two relay teams of the Haskell Maidens won first places in last Friday's district 7-2A track meet in Hamlin.

All earned the right to compete in the April 28-29 regional meet at Abilene Christian University.

McKeever won her fourth consecutive district championship in the 100-meter hurdles, finishing in a time of 14.37, one of the best times posted this season by a performer in any classification.

Dever took her championship in the 400-meter run with a time of 61.85.

The 800-meter relay team won in a time of 1:46.95 and the 1600-meter relay team posted a 4:06.68 time. Competing on both teams were McKeever, Sheila Unger, Teresa Unger and Dever.

As a team, the Maidens came in second behind Albany in the scoring for the district championship. Albany had 145 points, Haskell 114. Other teams and their point totals included Hamlin 87, Stamford 81, Jim Ned 60, Hawley 39 and Anson 32.

The first-place finishes by the two individuals and the two relay teams accounted for all of the Maidens' regional qualifiers, as they failed to have a second-place finisher.

However, the Maidens picked up a half-dozen third-place finishes, including:

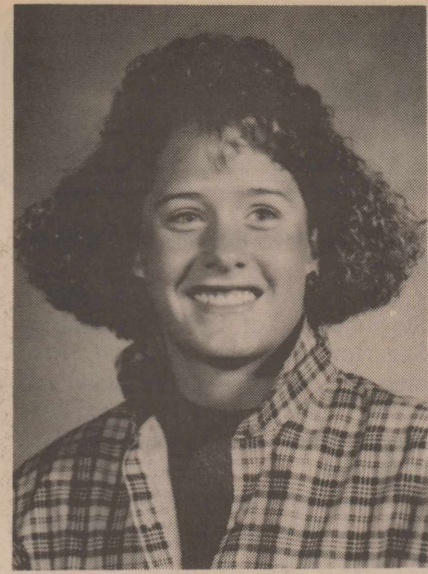

--Missy Davis in the discus (80-7), and the shot (27-6).

--Sheila Unger in the long jump (15-9 1/4).

--McKeever in the high jump (4-10).

--Gloria Castillo in the 3200 (13:48.63).

--Jana Payne in the 1600 (6:17.34).

Ranae Josselet

Ranae Josselet has big season in basketball

Ranae Josselet, 5'-4" sophomore guard, helped spearhead Dimmitt's region 1 3A runnerup this past basketball season. She is the daughter of Joe and Pam Josselet and the granddaughter of Hope Josselet and Inez Mobley of Haskell.

She poured in a game high 17 points as the Bobbies came from behind to down regional tourney semifinal foe Abilene Wylie 51-38. She finished the season averaging 11 points, four steals, four rebounds and seven assists per game.

Josselet has been a starter for the Bobbies during her freshman and sophomore years and was elected all-district each season. She was voted to the all-regional tournament team and was chosen sophomore player of the year.

DID YOU KNOW?

The word "ye" in such expressions as "Ye Olde Shoppe," is pronounced like the word "the." The letter "y" in Anglo-Saxon indicated the same "th" sound as apparent in the current spelling.

Before going to Africa, Dr. Howell pastored churches in Oklahoma and Texas. He then served as a Southern Baptist missionary to Nigeria, West Africa, from 1943-64.

While in Africa he was district missionary to a group of 50-60 churches, a director of city missions and the promotion and evangelism secretary for the Nigerian Baptist Convention. He also served as the first secretary of the Foreign Mission Board there.

NORTH SIDE OF SQUARE - STAMFORD

Clements opposes cigarette tax boost

AUSTIN--Donning bright plaid coats, lawmakers last week feted Gov. Bill Clements' 72nd birthday, but nothing was louder than his threat to veto a proposed cigarette tax.

Meanwhile, after House liberals stymied a bill to limit the political ambitions of future attorneys as far as I know, he has no authority whatsoever. He has no jurisdiction. He has no purpose in being down there--except perhaps to get in front of a television camera."

Mattox' office responded he was invited by the Cameron County sheriff days before the murder scene was discovered.

"It's just one more thing Bill Clements doesn't understand...surprise, surprise," jibed Mattox' press secretary.

Another press staffer said, "Mattox was trying to do this quietly. He wasn't trying to get press out of it." No one, absolutely no one, believed that.

Ironically, Mattox' visit to Matamoros occurred at the same time his allies in the House stilled a bill they labeled "anti-Mattox."

The bill would limit the AG to a single six year term and bar him from holding another political office until two years after quitting that one.

The bill's sponsor, Rep. Stan Schlueter, D-Killeen, denied the bill targets Mattox, who will be long gone by the time it ever becomes law, but said the AG's office has become the most powerful in the state, a political monster which daily faces conflicts of interest. He vowed to come up with the 20 votes needed for passage.

Wildlife Overhaul

The embattled Texas Parks & Wildlife Department, reeling from stories of favoritism and illegalities in providing fish and wildlife stock to private citizens, is going to overhaul that program.

The nine-member board will hold public hearings to dispel any impressions that one must be a legislator to qualify for stocking.

The agency has been rocked in recent weeks by a series of revelations of privileges for public officials, including the agency's chairman and House Speaker Lewis, apparently at taxpayers' expense.

50 Percent Funding

Comptroller Bob Bullock said the state should get back to the "50 percent level" of funding local school districts, and that new money for schools should go to poor districts.

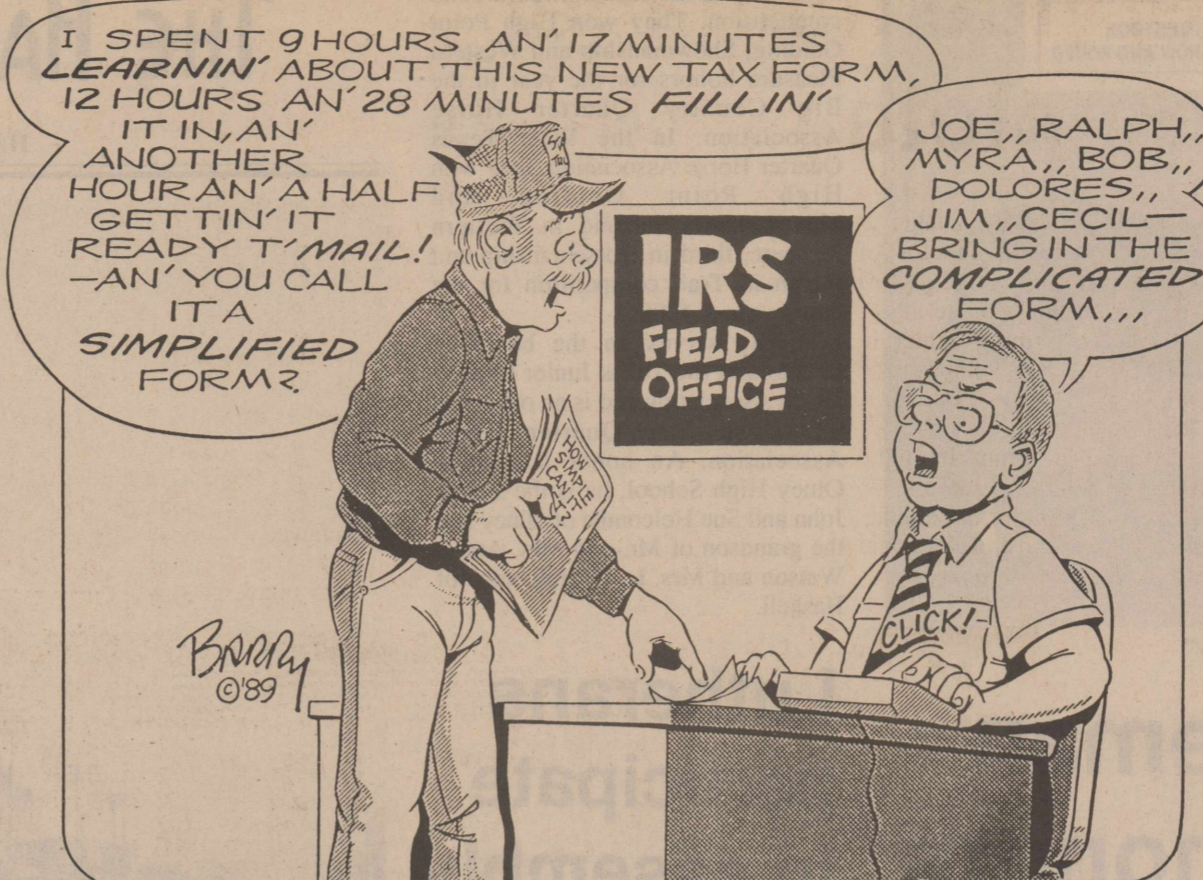

Bullock said he does not favor taking from rich districts to give to the poor, the so-called "Robin Hood approach," but he does oppose state increases to rich districts.

"People say this is an ethnic problem, an Hispanic problem. But there are more poor school districts in East Texas and the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex than along the border," he said.

Ask VA

Q: Are veterans with a service-connected disability seeking Veterans Administration medical care exempt from the VA's Means Test?

A: All veterans with service-connected illnesses or disabilities are provided non-cost care regardless of income. Certain other veterans also are exempt from the congressionally-instituted Means Test, including former prisoners of war, veterans exposed to radiation or herbicides, and veterans of the Spanish-American War, the Mexican Border period and World War I.

He was the first German to settle in this section of the country and was a pioneer farmer. He had nothing but a large family and some ponies and an old wagon, but he took up a section of school land and succeeded in farming from the start. He helped to prove what crops could be successfully grown and has done as much as any living man to prove the agricultural possibilities of West Texas. Mr. Bolander has raised a large self-sustaining family, the kind of people who make a country.

Gun control groups play on emotions

Editor: I am sure most of your readers who keep up with current events are aware of the recent happening in Stockton, Calif., concerning the killings of five innocent children and following suicide of the psychopathic killer, Patrick Purdy.

Purdy is another prime example of our failed criminal justice system. Before this tragic incident, Purdy was arrested for soliciting sex, possession of narcotics, dangerous weapons charges, attempted robbery and receiving stolen property---and released on all counts. His most serious charge from all these accounts was a misdemeanor. One has to ask the question, "What was Purdy doing on the streets?"

Most of the before mentioned information is somewhat available. However, what most of you have not been told is that Purdy was able to purchase guns on five different occasions despite California's 15-day waiting period for gun purchases, which accurately illustrates the ineffectiveness of waiting periods.

Of course the pro-gun control groups have again seized upon the emotions and media hype generated by the Purdy incident to pursue more gun control legislation. President Bush and others have decided it is their inherent right to decide who can own or import a semi-automatic weapon. Other legislation is also pending in Washington and in Austin that if passed would grant various governments all over the country the Editor: Once again, the support from the Haskell area for the Girl Scout program has been overwhelming. We have just finished our 1989 cookie sale, and once again the community has helped us supersede our gal. Now, even more opportunities will be offered to girls.

Girl Scouts

Girl Scouting is the largest organization in this country for women. It represents a world of opportunity and a vast array of experience for each person involved. It's young women making choices. It's girls growing up, learning to be leaders as they enter the 21st century. It's little girls, learning the importance of developing values and a sense of self-worth as they interact with their peers. Cookies help make these opportunities happen.

All proceeds from the Girl Scout cookies sold in our area stay in our area. Our Council uses the money to purchase equipment, maintain camp, and provide camperships and special program opportunities for our girls.

Individual Girl Scout troops keep a certain portion of the proceeds and decide themselves how to spend the money they have earned. The money will be spent on activities ranging from community service projects to visiting the Ramses exhibit in Dallas.

For Girl Scouts, the cookie sale is a very special learning experience. Participating in the sale teaches girls about business and how to meet the public. It builds their self-confidence. On behalf of the West Texas Girl Scout Council, I thank you---the community which continually supports the Girl Scout program and makes it successful. You make Girl Scouting what it is today.

Good people

Editor: There is so much bad happening in our town, and in the news, I want to say there are still good people who do good things and no one knows about them.

There is a man in Rule who I do not know personally, but I know the good he is doing. Mr. Leon Biffel, with some men he has gotten to help him, is cleaning the Pinkerton Cemetery. If you have been by the cemetery in the last 40 years you know it was a disgrace to our county.

Mr. Biffel has no family buried there. He just didn't want to see a cemetery left in that condition. So thanks to all you men who are working at the Pinkerton Cemetery and a big thank you to Mr. Biffel.

Another good person who does good things is our commissioner, Mr. Bud Turnbow. He helps the old and disabled and no one knows the good he does. He sawed a tree down for us last week and several times has hauled for several of us. So a big thank you to Mr. Turnbow.

Does anyone else know some good people who do good things? Why not say so?

Thank you, God, for good people.

BY WENDELL FAUGHT

Did you know that Paducah really is the "Crossroads of America"?

I've seen that slogan but never understood what it meant until I saw this piece in Patty Adams' column in the Paducah Post the other day:

"One of only two places in the United States where three U.S. highways (coast to coast and border to border) intersect is right here in Paducah. Highway 83 runs from north to south from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico at Brownsville. Highway 70 runs east and west from the Atlantic in North Carolina to the Pacific at San Francisco. Highway 62 winds from New York to El Paso/Juarez."

-o-

"Finished this day---and I hope to God it's good."

That's how John Steinbeck ended his day's work on Oct. 26, 1938. Just five months earlier, he had begun what would be his masterpiece, The Grapes of Wrath.

Steinbeck wrote not from an outline, but from a passionate conviction to put into words the story of the Joad family's epic journey from the Oklahoma dust bowl to the "promised land" of California during the height of the Great Depression.

When it was published in April 1939, The Grapes of Wrath was both widely praised and damned for its blunt naturalism and its depiction of the courage, nobility and enduring strength of the common man. Even after winning a Pulitzer Prize in 1940, the controversy surrounding its radical vision did not abate. Today it is the second most banned American book in schools and libraries (Catcher in the Rye is the first).

Dorothy Parker called The Grapes of Wrath "the greatest American novel I have ever read." And the citation accompanying the Nobel Prize awarded Steinbeck in 1962 described the novel as his "great work... the epic chronicle."

After all these years, that judgment still stands.

If you are still irritated by the recent time change, just tell yourself you are helping save lives.

An article in the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal the other day said the Department of Transportation estimates that daylight saving time saves more than $28 million in traffic accident costs and prevents more than 1,500 injuries and 20 deaths. It didn't attempt to explain how this is done.

Don't you wonder how people are always coming up with figures like these?

-o-

If you were born in a Volkswagen, the German carmaker will give your parents three $100 savings bonds. You must have a doctor's letter to prove it.

Volkswagen estimates that 400 American babies were born in Volkswagens between 1964 and 1988.

The company says it regrets it can't extend the offer to those conceived in a VW.

-o-

I have yet to talk to anyone who gets anything but irritated from those messages on telephone answering machines.

Therefore, it's difficult to believe that Elvin Martin's idea will not bomb.

He's an entrepreneur from New York who is putting together a tape of nothing but answering-machine announcements. He is selling a cassette of what he considers the most creative messages---everything from voices that sound like Richard Nixon and Ronald Reagan to the voice of a woman who says she's in the shower and you can hear the shower running in the background.

And it's only $8.95.

We don't always realize how much we depend on electricity until we're faced with an outage!

"A power outage can occasionally occur during turbulent weather. When it does, WTU will take the proper steps to assure your power is restored as quickly as possible."

When you have an outage, here's what you should do, CHECK WITH YOUR NEIGHBORS to see how widespread the outage is. If your house is the only one affected, CHECK YOUR BREAKER BOX. If the trouble is not on your side of the meter, CALL YOUR LOCAL WTU OFFICE with the following information: your name, address, the time of outage and the area affected, if known. Your assistance will help WTU to quickly restore the electricity you depend upon.
