Supper will be served from 5:30 to 6:45 p.m. and the singing program will start at 7.

Tickets are priced at $5 each and may be purchased at Johnson's Pharmacy, Lane-Felker, Haskell National Bank or from any member of the Civic Center Board. Tickets also will be available at the door.

Sponsored by the Civic Center Board, the event is being staged as a fund-raiser to purchase a stage curtain at the Civic Center. Members hope to have the curtain in place in time for the homecoming Oct. 20-21.

Parade to kick off Bible School

Bicycles, helium balloons and fire trucks will be the order of the day Saturday for the Vacation Bible School Parade of the First Baptist Church of Haskell.

Kids who want to be part of a parade, ride bicycles or ride in the fire truck should be at the parking lot of the church by 9 a.m. Saturday.

A movie of the parade will be made and then shown at the Bible School commencement on Sunday evening, July 2.

Refreshments will be served to all after the parade and pre-registration will take only about 30 minutes. The parade and all other activities will be over about 11:30 a.m.

"All children of Haskell are invited," reminded the Rev. Jimmy Turner, pastor.

A T-ball team picture will be taken at 6 p.m. Friday at the Little League field.

Trophies will be presented, and a team picture will be taken at that time.

Haskell now has Western Union

Haskell's newest business service is Western Union, located at Doyle High's Drug Store. The center is one of 11,000 located in the United States alone.

Money may be transferred any where in the continental United States in 15 minutes or less. Service also is available to Canada, Guam, Mexico, The Philippines, Puerto Rico, U.S. Virgin Islands and other overseas points.

Along with money transfers, messages may be sent, each at a standard fee. Western Union also provides mailgrams or telegrams to almost any designation in the world, making communication almost instant.

Ladelle Opitz calls it a career

Ladelle Opitz cleaned off her desk at Haskell National Bank for the last time Friday.

It was her final day of work at the institution she has served as vice president and internal auditor. She's retiring.

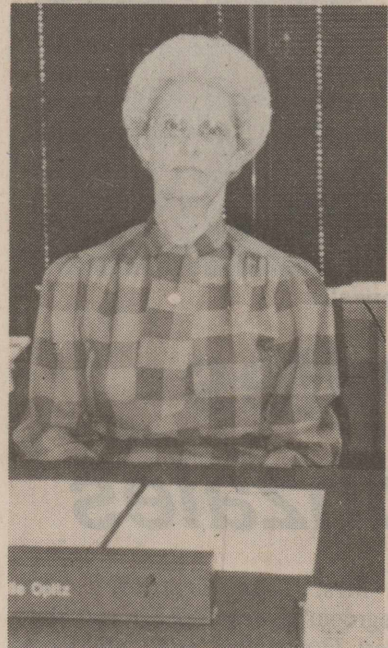

Actually her retirement is effective June 30, but a two-week before-retirement vacation moved her last working day up to Friday.

Mrs. Opitz started to work at Haskell National on the day after Christmas in 1967, beginning as a file clerk. A short time later, she became a bookkeeper, and still later, a teller. She became the internal auditor in 1982 and was elected a vice president of the bank in 1987.

She's seen a lot of changes in the business. Not only has the bank grown greatly through those years, but there "are more regulations to comply with all the time," she says.

A Haskell native, Mrs. Opitz graduated from Haskell High School in 1942. Her first job after that was with the Triple A (now ASCS). She worked for Haskell National in the "old building" and for John Deere before re-joining the bank in '67.

Mrs. Opitz says she is looking forward to retirement. Her husband, Milbert E. Opitz, has been retired a couple of years. "We hope to be able to see more of our children and grandchildren," she said. She also said there are "a lot of things I want to do at home." And she added, she will enjoy doing yard work and garden work, and doing more work with Trinity Lutheran Church to which the Opitzes belong.

Mr. and Mrs. Opitz are parents of a son and two daughters, and grandparents of five.

Son Dennis R. Opitz is a CPA in Fort Worth. He and his wife, the former Lochie Foote of Haskell, have three sons. Daughter Christi Gardner is a pharmacist in Burleson. She and her husband Dan have a daughter. A second daughter, Betsy Langford, teaches in Rochester. She and husband Scott are parents of a son.

Coach Martin takes Big Spring job

George Martin has been named head coach and head coordinator of the girls' basketball program at Big Spring.

He will be leaving Haskell in mid-July for his new duties with the Class 4A school with a high school enrollment of 1,150.

In addition to coaching the varsity, Martin will be coordinator of Big Spring's girls' basketball program, which includes eight teams from middle school to varsity.

Big Spring competes in a district which includes Sweetwater, Andrews, Snyder, San Angelo Lake View, Monahans, Pecos and Fort Stockton.

Martin spent five seasons as Haskell Maiden basketball coach and four years as girls' track coach. His basketball teams won three district championships and two bi-districts while making the playoffs each year.

His first Maiden team in 1984-85 went 17-9, followed by season records of 24-6, 25-6, 22-8 and 20-8. His five-year record here showed 108 victories and 37 defeats.

In addition, his Maiden track team won two district championships and consistently sent contestants to the state meet. During the fall he served as a line coach for the Indian football team.

Martin came to Haskell from Colorado City where he spent five years as girls' athletic coordinator, coaching basketball, volleyball and track. Earlier, he was girls' basketball coach at Sweetwater for two years, athletic director at Buffalo Gap one year and a junior high coach at Merkel. His overall record as a basketball coach is 312-159.

He is originally from Brownwood where he was an all-state end on the 1965 state championship football team. He played football as an outside linebacker at Cisco Junior College before transferring to McMurry where he obtained his degree in 1970.

Mrs. Martin is the former Terri Stiewert of Haskell so the Martins always have had strong ties to Haskell. Both of their sons, Scottie, a senior-to-be, and Stacey, a freshman, were born in Haskell. "This always has been our home," Martin said.

The coach expressed his appreciation for the support he received in Haskell.

Ham radio It's fun... and important

By K. B. Lane

"CQDX, CQDX, calling CQDX, this is Kilo Germany Five November Whiskey, Kilo Germany Five November Whiskey, calling CQDX, CQDX and standing by."

Ham radio operator Don Comedy, one of the seven licensed operators in Haskell County, sits at a desk covered with radio equipment in an office turned "shack" (a place where Hams keep their equipment).

Using the standard International Telecommunication Union phonetic alphabet, he tries to contact another Ham operator in a foreign country.

"CQ" means to call for any station to make contact and "DX" means long-distance communication, or making contact with stations in foreign countries.

"Kilo Germany Five November Whiskey or (KG5NW)" is Comedy's call sign. Call signs are issued to Ham radio operators by the Federal Communications Commission.

The first letter of a Ham operator's call sign indicates his/her country origin.

Ham radio is a form of Amateur Radio, a noncommercial communications service of hobbyists worldwide. It is licensed and controlled by the FCC as well as international groups.

Amateurs use special frequencies and are licensed to use stations such as radio, TV and computer-based systems to communicate, according to the American Radio Relay League (ARRL). The ARRL is the national non-profit association of radio amateurs.

Ham radio operators are probably most often noted for their role in public service. They provide life-saving emergency communication during disasters such as tornadoes, earthquakes and hurricanes.

"During disasters when telephones and other regular means of communication are out, Hams take over and do the job," Comedy said.

A recent example was hurricane Gilbert. Within two hours after the disaster, a highly effective network was set up and Hams were able to communicate requests 24-hours later, he said.

Most Hams would agree Amateur Radio is a very important aspect to public service, but they would also agree that it is an enjoyable hobby.

"There is something about Ham radio everyone will enjoy, no matter what his or her hobby is," Comedy said.

Haskell Ham operator Charlie Woods said a friend got him interested in Amateur Radio and he has been enjoying it for 20 years.

There are five levels of amateur license. The first level is novice, followed by technician, general, advanced and amateur extra.

Each level varies in the degree of knowledge required to obtain the license and the frequency privileges granted.

Comedy is licensed as amateur extra class and thus enjoys a much wider range of privileges of operating modes and frequencies. His daughter, Jennifer, has just received her novice license.

Miss Comedy said she likes Ham radio and has talked with several other girls, also named Jennifer, across the U. S.

Haskell Ham radio operators Bob Cass, Randy Shaw and Bruce Toney are all classed as technicians. Charlie Woods is general and Lee Lane, who received his license June 1, is a novice.

Besides making contacts and ragchewing (chatting) with other stations, Hams also are involved in handling traffic (passing messages by radio throughout the country), contesting and DXing.

"DXing", contacting fellow amateurs in foreign lands, is probably the most fascinating aspect of Ham radio. A DXer's goal is to make at least one contact in each of the 321 countries recognized by the ARRL.

In order for a contact to be confirmed, the DXer must receive a QSL card (a postcard) from the Ham in that particular country.

Awards are given to DXers after working a certain number of countries, but one cannot be misled that this is strictly a weekend hobby. DXers with 20 years of experience are still missing several countries.

Eugene B. Tilton, author of "DX Power: Effective Techniques for Radio and Amateurs", describes a DXer, "There is no aspect of Amateur Radio quite like DXing. Its devotees are the most fanatic, dedicated and stubborn Amateur Radio operators on earth. They are also the most self-possessed in their attitudes, because they consider DXing to be the elite phrase of the hobby."

Although Comedy never admits he is an avid DXer, it is obvious as he displays a stack of QSL cards he has received from the almost 250 countries he has contacted.

"The first 100 countries are easy, it's the next 100 that decide whether or not a person is really a DXer," Comedy said.

People young and old all over the world enjoy communicating with each other through Amateur Radio. A sense of brotherhood and goodwill exists among Hams even when their nations are politically opposed.

Comedy sits in his shack and says goodbye to a new contact he has made. "I've enjoyed visiting with you. 73. (goodbye) This is KG5NW."

Radio operators schedule Field Day

Ham radio operators from Haskell, Aspermont, Knox City and Stamford, along with Hams across the United States will participate in Field Day scheduled for June 24-25.

Sponsored by the American Radio Relay League, Field Day is an annual contest held for Amateur Radio operators.

The purpose of Field Day is to contact as many stations as possible in a period of 27 hours under abnormal situations. Points are awarded based on the number of valid contacts made and the type of power source used.

According to Field Day rules, the power source cannot be commercially generated. Therefore local participants will set up a station using make-shift equipment.

Working under these conditions, Hams have the opportunity to prepare themselves better for emergency situations that could arise during disasters. It also allows Hams to demonstrate their capabilities to the public.

Participants will set up their station on the Haskell County Courthouse lawn and begin competition at 1 p.m. Saturday and end at 4 p.m. Sunday.

Ham radio operator Bob Cass said, "I'm really looking forward to Field Day. I hope people drop by and see what we are doing."

Other Haskell Ham operators taking part in Field Day are Charlie Woods, Randy Shaw, Don and Jennifer Comedy, Lee Lane and Bruce Toney.

Sewing classes offered

The United Sewing Agency in Haskell is offering a class sponsored by TSTI Sweetwater to train persons to become production sewing machine operators.

No experience is necessary and the class is offered free to the public, Robert Musgrove, Associate Dean of TSTI Sweetwater, said.

Students will be taught how to operate single needles and zig-zaggers and learn safety precautions and trouble-shooting under the instruction of Eunice Koehler of Haskell.

The training class will be offered from 9 a.m. until noon beginning Monday, June 26, at the United Sewing Agency on US Hwy 380. The class will last five weeks.

The maximum number of students for a class is 12. If the morning class is filled and enough interest is shown, an afternoon session will be offered from 3-6 p.m., Musgrove said. Students participating in the class will have the opportunity to work half a day at the factory after the first week of training, Jim Vinyard, general manager of United Sewing Agency said.

Upon completion of the course, students will receive certificates as production sewing machine operators. United Sewing Agency will employ those students who apply and qualify, Vinyard said.

Haskell United Sewing Agency presently has 40 employees and Vinyard said he needs at least 100 employees.

"If a person is willing to learn, then we have a job for him or her," Vinyard said.

Deadline for registration is June 23. Interested persons should contact Jim or Margaret Vinyard at 864-8162.

Gifted and Talented students prepare to leave on trip

The Meinzer house (old jail) in Benjamin

On the lawn of the Knox County courthouse in Benjamin

The museum at Copper Breaks State Park

Gifted students study area history

Haskell Gifted and Talented students began their summer program Monday, June 19.

Their study of Texas started with a visit to Benjamin and the Knox County Courthouse and the old Knox County Jail, now restored and the home of the Wyman Meinzer family.

Sarah Meinzer recounted some of the history of the jail which was built in 1887. Students were also interested in Wyman Meinzer's wildlife photographs and wildlife mounts.

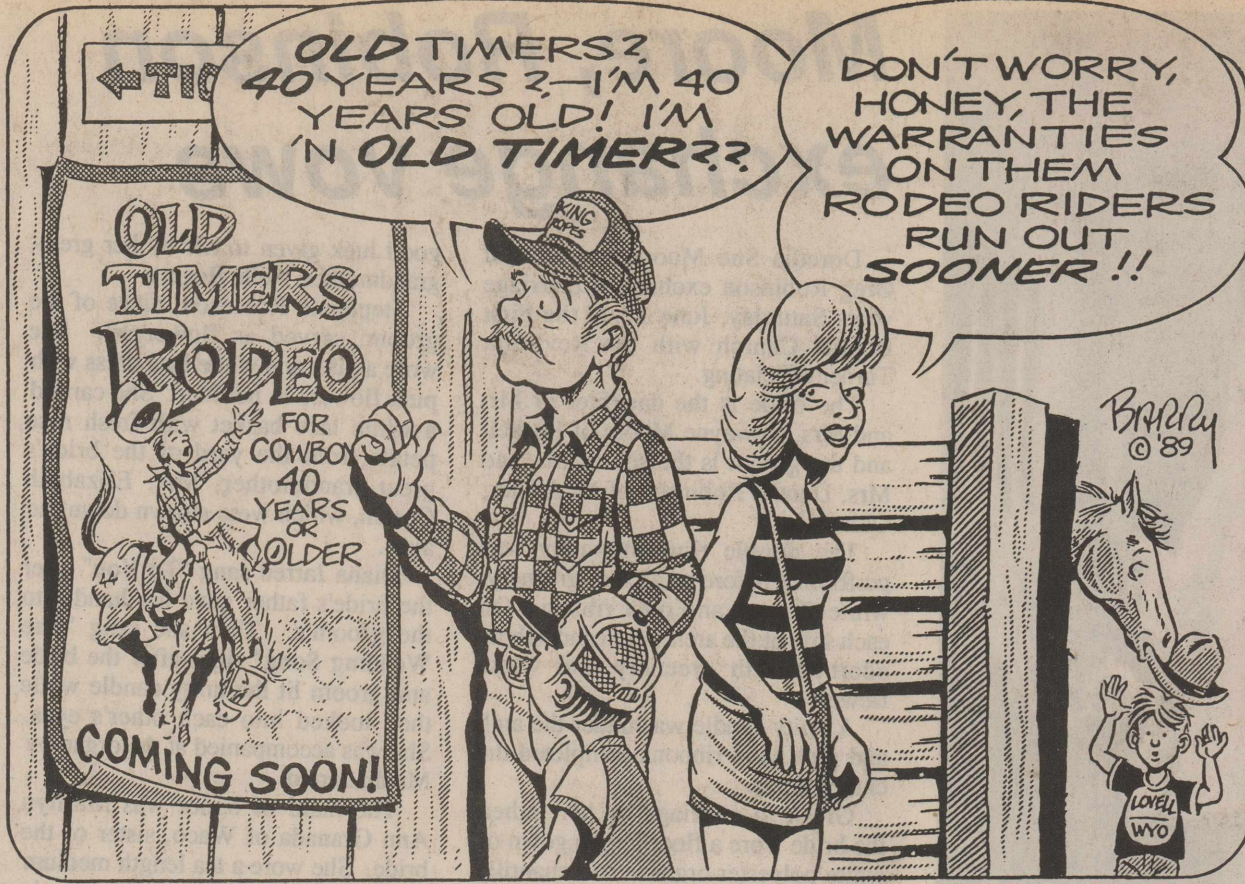

The group then journeyed to Copper Breaks State Park. They toured the museum there and watched a slide show about the park.

Then they ate a picnic lunch at the Kiowi campgrounds and trekked over a hiking trail and observed various forms of wildlife.

Tuesday was spent studying local history and included local sites such as the courthouse, Jones and Cox Co., the fire station, Haskell National Bank and the Labriere house.

The students also watched films on Texas history and prepared for other visits to historic sites.

On the agenda for this week are tours of the Paramount Theatre, Dyess Air Force Base, museums in Snyder and Fort Richardson and Fort Belknap.

The expense-paid trip was awarded the Weinert youth by the IOOF and Rebekah lodges of Haskell and Rule.

Installation of a ground storage reservoir with a capacity of 600,000 gallons, erection of a 150,000 gallon elevated tank, and improvements to mains and hydrants in the city's water system are among major recommendations made in a report of the State Board of Insurance to the City of Haskell.

The art of sunbathing

By K. B. Lane

The art of sunbathing. I have decided that sunbathing is an art. One that I have yet to master.

I envy girls who only bring one towel, a bottle of oil and lie ever so gracefully in a lounge with their bodies so evenly tanned.

It does not matter whether I am going to the pool, the lake or my backyard, I look like I am moving rather than trying to catch some rays!

And no matter how hard I try to get an even tan by rotating my body every 30 minutes, it does not work.

I end up looking like a set of whitewall tires because of the white streaks down the sides of my legs.

I used to imagine all my freckles would grow into one big freckle and I would be tan for the rest of my life.

It hasn't happened yet.

Unfortunately, I can never make it to any destination in one trip. It is impossible to carry a lounge, blanket, table, cooler, radio, beachbag, and a towel all at once.

A friend once told me I should invest in the "U-Haul" company. Maybe she was right.

By the time I unfold my lounge, cover it with the blanket, place the table on my left, the cooler on my right and the radio at my head, I've already lost 30 minutes of prime time sun and I have not even begun to unpack my beachbag.

Next, I plop down in the chair, kick off my flip-flops and begin emptying my bag. It contains: four different types of suntan products, an oil, a cream, a low sunscreen protection lotion and a high sunscreen protection lotion; a brush, a mirror, a watch, a book, lip sunscreen, a comb, a pack of gum, a visor, mosquito repellent, a spray water-bottle, and extra batteries.

One never knows what one might need.

When I am sunbathing with my friends, they just watch in horror as I unpack my essentials. They roll their eyes and ask, "Why do you bring so much stuff?"

I respond, "I'm advertising for U-Haul."

The next process is the oiling of my body. Oil is applied to my limbs, cream is smeared on my hands, the high sunscreen protection lotion goes on my face and the low sunscreen protection lotion is saved until I start turning pink.

After my body is oiled, radio blasting, diet coke at my side, visor adjusted and area sprayed for mosquitoes, the phone rings.

"K. B., it's for you."

I bet those girls who have only one bottle of oil and a towel also have an answering service!

Nonetheless, I get up and answer my call. But, when I return I find the sun is steadily sinking in the West.

By now I can't decide which is more depressing, having to pack up all my things or take a bath and wash all my tan (which is actually dirt plastered on the oil on my body) away.

I bet those girls that lie ever so gracefully in their loungers go to tanning salons!

Boy, do they not know what fun they're missing.

How does one make more money and be successful too?

Here's what Chris Marrou, managing editor and anchorman with KENS-TV in San Antonio has to say on the subject:

It was after hearing a co-worker complain last week about money that I realized I knew the Secret of Success, not because of my own brilliance, but because I had done a series of reports on the subject a few years ago. I interviewed some of the wealthiest people in San Antonio, and what each told me about success was remarkably similar to what the others said.

Let me warn you first that the popular ideas of what is needed for success are way off the mark. Like these:

1. It's not what you know; it's who you know.
2. You can't get anywhere without an education.
3. It takes money to make money. If you believe that stuff, you're probably sitting around moaning that other people have all the luck. Those are misconceptions.

1. No matter how many friends they have, incompetent people don't get very far in a free-enterprise world because their mistakes cost other people money. (If you know what you're doing, acquaintances can help—but so does advertising.)

2. You can't get anywhere without knowledge which you may or may not learn in school.

3. Most rich people learned how to make money by getting rich. That's why they can do it again, and it seems as if only the rich make money.

Another reason you may not be a big success is that you don't really want to do it. Back in the 1970s, I used to get job offers from TV stations in bigger cities. They were always No. 2 or No. 3 in the news ratings in their town. Every time I sat down with the general manager of a station, I would ask, "Is being No. 1 the most important thing to you?" No one ever answered "yes." They would go on about how they wanted to make a good showing, or to make their presence felt, or be a good part of the community, but none of the second- or third-place stations said being No. 1 was the most important thing.

If you want to be a success at what you do, here are the real rules:

1. Do something you enjoy.
2. Don't be afraid to take risks.
3. Don't accept failure.

That's it. Follow those rules, and you'll be a bigger success in a year than you are today, and still bigger a year after that.

First, if you do something you enjoy, you'll work harder at it and pay more attention to it. Getting to know your chosen field and working at it will show you the opportunities before others find them.

Second, you'll never get anywhere if you don't take chances. Taking a chance forces you to commit yourself. Suddenly, your reputation, career and money are on the line.

Third, the successful person views setbacks as just setbacks, not ultimate failure. Most of us give up when we hit one roadblock. Successful people have learned to go around and over dozens of them on their way to success. Bernard Baruch got rich and went broke twice before making it as one of the top financiers in this country. Henry Ford went broke in the car business years before he produced the Model T, and the first tape recorder produced by Sony was a hunk of junk.

Good luck!

LETTERS

Editor: We would like to tell the people of Haskell how lucky we are to have our police force and fire boys watch over us during stormy weather.

They are out there watching for us while we are safe at home or in the storm cellar. We should tell them how much we appreciate them and what a good job they are doing.

One fire boy is not able to be out watching clouds anymore and he misses it. He had to retire for health reasons, but he is still watching over his friends and neighbors. He calls them and lets them know a cloud is coming up. This is Chester Hodgkin and wife, Lillian. We appreciate them.

So boys, we are behind you and think you are doing a super job.

Folks, let's let these boys and girls hear from you.

JUNE IS BUSTIN' OUT ALL OVER - WITH... GREAT FOOD BUYS!

Baseball season coming to an end

Trophy presentation, a hamburger supper and a coaches' softball game will conclude the regular Little League season Friday.

Festivities will begin at 6 p.m. Friday with presentation of trophies and the announcement of the sportsmanship trophy for both a major and minor team.

Charcoal-grilled hamburger and hot dogs will be sold before and during the activities.

The evening will conclude with the ever-popular softball game between the major and minor coaches.

"The addition of the T-ball coaches to the roster promises to make the evening even more competitive," said Jill Druesedow, T-ball coordinator.

There is no admission charge.

"We really appreciate the work of our umpire, Coach Holloway, this season," said Hugh Peiser, president of the Little League board.

"Also, I want to thank the many parents who volunteered their time to work with the kids as coaches, help in the concessions stand or to serve on the board. Our organization couldn't exist without them, and I want to say 'thank you!'" Peiser said.

Although the regular season play is over, there are two tournaments coming up. The all-star area tournament will be held the week of July 10 and the all-star district tournament July 17.

"Again we'll need volunteer help for these events. These tournaments will bring revenue to our town, and we want to be good hosts. Let's make our visitors feel welcome," Peiser said.

Practice for the local all-star team will begin June 26.

A cartoon is so called from cartone, an early word for cardboard on which they were drawn centuries ago to serve as models for larger works of art or craftsmanship.

The Erwin Family would like to express our gratitude to all of our many friends who shared with us in our sorrow. Thank you for the food.

The Erwin Family

You folks in Paint Creek, Haskell, Rule, Abilene, Allen, Midland and Albany are the greatest!

Gene has had cards, letters, phone calls and visits from almost everyone we know. Thank You!

He is fine. He had 20 staples holding the incision together, and 11 of them were removed last Monday. He'll have the others out sometime this week. He is moving around fairly well with the help of a walker. (He really isn't built to hop on one foot, though). He is so grateful that he broke his leg and not his head.

Thank all of you for caring, for not letting Gene get lonesome in the hospital and for being our friends. We love you.

Safe Deposit Boxes . . .

that come in many sizes are available in our vault. It's the lowest price you will ever pay for the security of your valuables.

What SHOULD & SHOULD NOT be in your Safe Deposit Box

What you keep in your safe deposit box is your business. However, since many people are uncertain about what a box should contain, here are some suggestions that might prove helpful.

What should be kept in a Safe Deposit Box . . .

All documents that would be difficult if not impossible to replace such as birth certificates, automobile title, service records, insurance policies, passports, unused travelers checks, marriage certificates and family records. Included, also, should be contracts, leases, deeds, trust documents, stocks, bonds and other securities. A safe deposit box is also a good place for jewelry, stamps, rare coins and family treasures. Your will should be kept in your safe deposit box and a copy in your home, office, or with your attorney.

Remember, these suggestions are intended to act as a guide only, and you can keep anything within reason in your box, provided it will fit. Keys should be kept in a safe place for if lost, the box must be drilled open by a locksmith, in the presence of the owner. And that is expensive.

What should not be kept in a Safe Deposit box .

Since many boxes are sealed upon the death of the owner, they should not contain documents which will be needed immediately, such as a deed to a cemetery lot, instructions on funeral arrangements, etc. Leave out jewelry, bonds made out to bearer, heirlooms and other property which do not belong to the renter of the box, because future ownership might be questioned. Large amounts of cash do not belong in a safe deposit box since its presence could be construed as an indication of criminal activity or an intention to evade income tax. It makes better sense to keep funds in an insured savings account where they are readily available, earn a good return and are constantly growing.

STATEMENT OF INTENT TO LOWER RATES

Brazos Electric Power Cooperative, Inc. ("the Cooperative") hereby publishes NOTICE that it has filed with the Public Utility Commission of Texas a Statement of Intent and Petition for Authority to Change (REDUCE) Rates, with a proposed effective date of July 17, 1989, pursuant to the provisions of Article 1446c, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes and the Commission's Substantive Rules. Pursuant to a May 11, 1989 order of the Commission in anticipation of this filing, the Cooperative has implemented a $23,000,000 annual revenue reduction effective with the Cooperative's billing cycle for April 1989. If approved, the PERMANENT RATE REDUCTION would result in a reduction of anticipated revenues by $21,508,032, or approximately 10.8 percent for the twelve months ending December 31, 1988. All customers of the Cooperative, which serves only at wholesale, are affected.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. BRAZOS ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE

--Weinert--

By Myrtle Phemister
The "West Texas" wind has harassed us all year in this area, and has caused the farmers on the "sand" a lot of extra work. Each day we ask for a calm day, no wind, just a breeze to cool our face as we enjoy the summer weather.

Father's Day in Weinert brought several visitors to town, but it also took many of us to other places, such as lakes, parties and re-unions.

The family of Bob and Crystella Raynes met at Stamford Lake where Bobby and Betty hosted a Father's Day get-together for 42 of family members, with five of the Rayne's children present.

Only Dorothy and Bill Jetton of Brownwood were unable to be present.

Mary Nell Colthrop of Seymour, with nine of her family; Patsy Lee Shawyer of Holliday, with five of hers; Delores Stewart of Munday, with five family members; Roberta Jenkins of Haskell with eight. All helped Bobby and Betty and their nine to host the event.

Games of volleyball preceded the fish fry Frankie Jenkins hosts annually, and water skiing and boating prevented some from helping Bobby barbecue the ribs on Sunday, but everyone enjoyed honoring their dad on his special day.

Pud Brockett and Susie were in Munday in the home of Pete and Imo Brockett for a gala Father's Day celebration.

Some out-of-town relatives were Coleen and W. C. Nance, with granddaughter, Shannon Nance of Houston, and "Jo-Boy" Coffman and family of Goree. There were 30 family members in attendance.

Becky Fry of Bowie and her son, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy McGuire, with Brooke and Brandon of Haskell, were weekend guest of Ernest and Louise McGuire for Father's Dy activities.

Couilla and George Cunningham of Ransom Canyon, spent the weekend with her parents, Clyde and Otie Mayfield, and they all attended the wedding of Mondy Mayfield, held in Bowie on Friday night.

They all shared a quiet Father's Day with her brother Tiffen and Erlinda Mayfield on Sunday, before returning home.

Recent guests of Harlan and Jimmie Weinert were his sisters, Nadine Denton of Ft. Worth, Jo Ella Perkins of Houston and his aunt, Beatrice Weinert, also of Houston.

Scott and Michelle Sadler with Malori and Tabitha, of Mineral Wells spent Friday night with her parents, Leonard and Linda Mahan. Scott has been seriously ill with leukemia but the disease is in remission after extensive therapy and he is doing well at this time.

Linda Mahan was at Lake Coleman in the home of her mother, Wanda and Harold Lawson for the weekend. Donald has been at his grandmother's home for several days and returned home with his mother on Sunday night.

Willie and Ida Farrel, with Hellen and Floyd Stout were in Throckmorton on Friday where they met Maxine and Roy Boling and they all enjoyed a dinner together.

Alton and Mildred Sanders attended the 35th wedding anniversary of Donald and Sue Story on Saturday in Newcastle.

The Story's are former Weinert residents, and their three children, Bill, Donna and Debbie attended school here where their father served as coach. He now serves as coach at Newcastle.

Sue has graduated from Hardin-Simmons University and is now a resource teacher for the Newcastle I.S.D.

Their children are all married, Bill lives in New Castle, as does Donna, who is a nurse and commutes to Graham Hospital. Debbie lives in Olney. Congratulations to the Storys.

We welcome our newest residents, Todd and Angela Herricks.

Amanda Sanders of Merkel, and Kerri Sanders of Hamlin have returned to their homes after spending the week with grandparents, Alton and Mildred Sanders.

Charlene and Bill Harlan of Houston spent last week with her mother and father, Florence and J. T. Alexander. Florence has been quite ill, but is improved in health at this time.

They reported a call from Leon Stice, formerly of Weinert, now of Big Lake, who sent regards to all his friends here.

Joe and Janet Frazier toured Central Texas for a few days of fun and frolic and visited a host of relatives on the tour, before returning to Weinert to the "quiet" life of country living.

Wayne and Linda Phemister, with Laura of Avoca, Ricky and Geoffrey Phemister of Haskell and Ruth Watson, also of Haskell, were guests of the Marvin Phemisters, and Marcus on Sunday evening. Marcus returned to Avoca to spend a few days with his uncle and family.

Word that Jimmy Alexander is recovering from by-pass heart surgery is good news to his family and friends who pray for a quick and complete recovery. Jimmy resides at 4666 Sierra Madre in Wichita Falls. Send him a card.

Approximately 23 members of the Four-square Gospel Church were in attendance at the first session of the summer Bible camp held at Whispering Oaks in Buffalo Gap.

Among those were Doneta Hudgens and Bryce, Tinka and Tina Herricks, with Tiffany Kimmel of Lubbock, Rene Vojkukfa and Cory Wood, Sandra Chambers with her daughters, Donna Byrd, with her children; and Shirley Hudgens.

Rene spent a lot of time on the road as she transported Cory back to Haskell for his last pee-wee game of the season on Tuesday in which he was star pitcher. She returned again on Thursday in order to attend the wedding of a nephew in Bowie.

DeAlyce Wood of Canyon, mother of Bob Wood, was also in the crowd cheering for the "Owls". She spent several days in Weinert in the home of Bob and Melanie Wood, Zachary and Cory before returning to her home in Canyon.

Bertie Alexander enjoyed a visit with her son, Thomas of San Antonio, last week. They spent one day in Moran and Gorman visiting Bertie's sisters.

Bertie took very ill on Thursday and her daughter, Faye Crawford of San Antonio is spending a few days with her as she recuperates.

Anne Hernie of Santa Rosa, Calif., is spending the week with her sister-in-law, Francis Mahan.

Ted and Faye Jetton were in Lubbock on Friday for the funeral services for her nephew, Harbis Allison, who was interred in the Lubbock cemetery there. Our sympathy to his wife, Claudia, and to the other relatives.

The birthday balloons will fly this week for Angela Johnson, Andrew Sikes, Donald Mahan and Sheila Castorena.

The Extension Club has the "Rehab" quilt in the frames at the school house, and are busy quilting in their spare time. This is the club's annual gift to the West Texas Rehab center, and the quilt this year was handmade by Jimmy Weinert.

Congratulations to Donna Griffis and Randall Waggoner whose forthcoming marriage will be solomenized August 5, at Weinert Baptist Church.

The Pleasant Valley school reunion will be held Saturday night, June 24, in the Weinert Community Center.

Visiting will begin at 4 p.m. Salad supper will be enjoyed at 7 p.m. and a recognition-business meeting will follow. Tell your neighbor and attend.

Two get degrees at Texas A&M

Two students from Haskell were among 2,257 Texas A&M University graduates who were awarded diplomas during commencement ceremonies May 12-13.

The degrees, presented at four separate ceremonies featuring commencement speakers that included President George Bush, were presented to undergraduate and graduate students and to new veterinarians receiving the DVM degree from the A&M College of Veterinary Medicine.

Graduates included Clifton Dean Brister, BS degree in biochemistry; and Paul Chambers Cox, BS in health education.

A person traveling the 93 million miles to the sun would take 21 years if flying at 500 miles per hour.

Blackwell family to have reunion

The family of Claude and Pearl Blackwell will meet June 23 and 24 at the Lions Building on the east side of the square in Stamford.

The children of James Capps and Madelyn (Blackwell) Capps of Ruidoso, N.M., will honor them with a 55th anniversary party.

All friends and acquaintances are welcome to attend between 2:30 and 4 p.m. Saturday (June 23).

Rule schedules benefit softball

A benefit softball game between members of the Rule Lions Club and the Rule Volunteer Fire Department is scheduled for next Friday (June 30).

It will be played at Rule Little League Field, beginning at 8 p.m.

Proceeds from the game and the concession sales will go to the fire department.

On June 13, 1948, a Los Angeles resident named Jack O'Leary caught a fit of hiccoughs. It was not until June 1, 1956---about 160 million hiccoughs later---that the fit ended.

Stealing electricity is against the law!

Stealing electricity is a felony.

Some people tamper with their electric meters to avoid paying for the energy they use. Stealing electricity is a felony offense in the state of Texas and violators will be prosecuted. West Texas Utilities' Current Diversion Department is working hard to help combat the growing problem of energy theft.

Energy theft is dangerous.

Not only is service theft a crime, but it is also very dangerous. Serious injuries can result from meter tampering.

A crime against you!

When someone steals electricity, they are not only stealing from WTU — they are also stealing from you, as a rate-payer. Just as shoplifting increases the cost of items you buy in the store, power theft increases the cost of your electric service.

WTU will prosecute.

Because we are concerned about the dangers and costs resulting from meter tampering, West Texas Utilities will prosecute energy thieves.
