The National Scout Jamboree is held every four years and attracts scouts from all over the world. This year's site for the Jamboree is Fort A.

P. Hill, Va. Scouts also will tour Washington, D. C., and Philadelphia, Pa.

Twenty-nine scouts from the Chisolm Trail Council will be attending the Jamboree and seven are representing Haskell, Scoutmaster Perry said.

Haskell faces new landfill regulations

The new regulations concerning sanitary landfills were discussed at the regular Thursday night council meeting.

The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and the Texas Department of Health are making preparations to enforce new rules at all landfills. Most of these requirements will have a direct effect on the City of Haskell's landfill.

The following is a list of the regulations as currently submitted:

- Daily cover of all trash
- Gas control
- Open burning prohibited
- 24-hour access control
- Extensive drainage control to control run-off
- No discharge of water from site
- No liquids allowed
- Prevention of hazardous wastes
- Post-closure will be for 30 years
- Financial assurances
- Some landfills will require liners to control groundwater contamination
- Monitoring of groundwater

These rules will be strictly enforced at all landfills. The last State legislature passed a bill that charges an additional 50 cents a ton fee to be used for enforcement of these regulations. This fee will cost the City of Haskell an additional $2,000 annually.

The bill also mandates a solid waste management plan and encourages cooperative efforts between local governments in siting and disposal of solid wastes. The Regional Council of Governments has been charged to coordinate these management plans. The emphasis seems to be regional landfills.

Several local communities have indicated they will close their landfills prior to the Sept. 1, 1989. Their trash will be hauled to Abilene or another regional landfill. The City of Haskell has no plans to close its landfill. The City has been using this site since 1984 and very little land has been used.

The solid waste disposal is not just a local problem. The EPA is coordinating the national efforts. Some of the proposed programs will be incentives to recycle; new requirements regarding packaging of merchandise; waste to energy sites; and composting of yard waste.

Texas Chiefs Set Open House

Third Annual Fly-In takes off Sunday

The third annual Texas Chiefs Model Airplane Club Open House and Fly-In will get underway Sunday, July 2, at 8 p.m. at the Haskell Model Airport.

This year's event will feature a 7-11 Scramble Fun-Fly, a tailgate swap meet, contests and demonstrations.

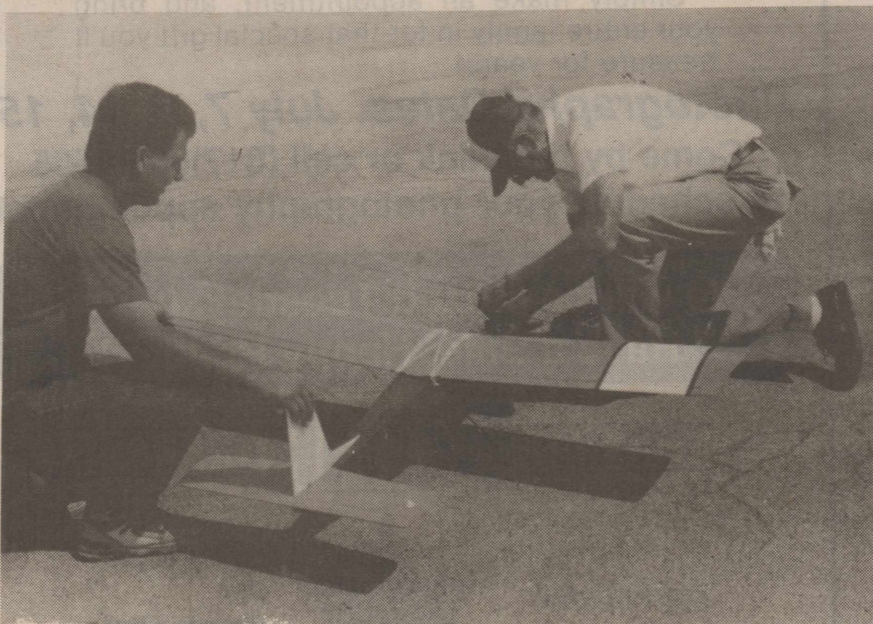

Pilots will race against the clock in the scramble, perform dare-devil maneuvers for spectators and sell or trade items in the tailgate swap.

A contest awarding both the prettiest and the ugliest model airplanes will be voted on by spectators.

The pilot experiencing the worst crash of the day will receive a prize. A prize also will be given to the pilot who traveled the farthest distance to attend the fly-in.

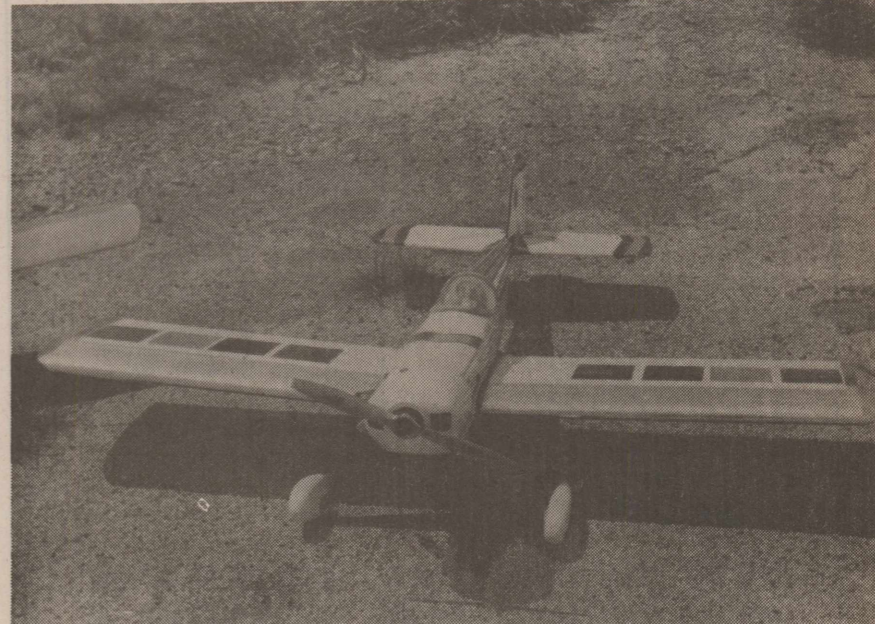

A raffle will be held for a radio control set and kit and drawings will be held all day for other merchandise.

The field, located three miles east of Haskell on U. S. Hwy 380, will be open Saturday afternoon for practice flying and early arrivals.

Stand by for take-off

Dragon Lady

"Dragon Lady" is the name of this model airplane built and designed by club member Bill Nemir. Airplanes like this will attract spectator votes in the "prettiest model" contest.

Texas Cowboy Reunion celebration opens Friday

The Texas Cowboy Reunion, considered the world's largest amateur rodeo, will mark its 59th annual celebration June 30, July 1, 3 and 4 with nightly rodeos, dances and other colorful traditions.

Since there has never been a Sunday show, nightly performances will be Friday, Saturday, Monday and Tuesday in order to follow tradition with a Fourth of July celebration.

The Rocking K Championship Rodeo Company from Lawton, Okla., provided a competitive show last year with their rodeo stock and will be at the TCR again this year.

TCR contestants are mostly working cowboys from the large and small spreads in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

Several changes incorporated last year, including steer riding for the youngsters, should be a big hit again.

The world famous Hardin-Simmons Cowboy Band will continue in tradition by providing the musical entertainment at the rodeo performances that begin with the colorful grand entry at 8 p.m. each night.

Bill and Nancy McEnaney of Rossville, Tenn., having performed at nearly every major rodeo throughout the United States, have been contracted to entertain the crowds with trick riding, roping and comedy for additional excitement, surprise and humor.

The downtown parade will kick off events for the 59th annual TCR on Friday, June 30, at 3 p.m. The theme for the parade is "CLOWNS-enthusiasm, energy, entertainment".

Jody Nix with the "The Texas Cowboys" will be the official parade marshal. Nix is the son of West Texas legend, Hoyle Nix, and took over his band after the senior Nix's death in 1985.

The Texas State Society selected Nix to ride and play country music on the TEXAS float in the inaugural parade and was selected to play for President and Mrs. Bush at the inaugural ball.

Over 35 of the country's top Western Artists will have their work displayed in the 16th annual Stamford Art Foundation Exhibit and Sale.

The Gallery is open until 9 p.m. each evening of the rodeo for selling and viewing with benefits going to the West Texas Rehabilitation Centers in Abilene and San Angelo.

The Oldtimers Association has scheduled for the first time an Arts and Crafts Show in conjunction with the TCR July 1-4 in the Roundup Hall and Bunkhouse.

The Cowboy Country Museum, on the square in Stamford, contains many items of the area's heritage and offers a glimpse of yesterday. Hours are 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. Monday through Friday with special hours for rodeo visitors.

Following the rodeo each night, Jody Nix and "The Texas Cowboys" will provide music for listening and dancing pleasure on the slab at the TCR grounds.

For more information, you can contact Texas Cowboy Reunion at (915) 773-3614 or the Stamford Chamber of Commerce at (915) 773-2411.

Hartsfield Realty links with Homeowners Marketing Services

Hartsfield Realty of Haskell has joined Homeowners Marketing Services (HMS), the nation's leading supplier of real estate support services with more than 15,000 Member-Broker locations in 44 states.

Through HMS membership, Hartsfield Realty will begin to offer home buyers and sellers in the Haskell area a variety of services, including home warranties, and REFNET, a national referral system offering assistance to families moving out of town.

"We're very pleased to be joining the HMS network," Hess Hartsfield of Hartsfield Realty said. "Becoming affiliated with a national company like HMS opens up a lot of opportunities for us. The most notable benefit is that we'll be offering one of the most comprehensive home warranty coverages available."

HMS began providing home warranties in 1980, and in eight years has grown at an amazing rate. Recently, it was listed by Inc.

"HMS' resources are unlimited. In addition to the consumer services they offer, we also get how-to advertising and public relations guides. It's like adding a marketing staff to our business without incurring the cost," Hartsfield said.

Jarred-Hoover wed in double-ring ceremony Rodriguez-Hernandez united in marriage

Diana Michelle Jarred became the bride of Mark Alan Hoover on Saturday, June 24. Dr. Dean Mathis of Hobbs, N.M., officiated the double-ring ceremony at East Side Baptist Church in Haskell.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jarred of Haskell. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hoover of Hobbs, N.M.

The vows were exchanged under a white lattice arch interwoven with tendrils of ivy. The altar was framed in candlelight from fan and spiral candelabras. Diamond votive lights, nestled in ivy, illumined the piano and organ. Royal blue bows accented arrangements of white roses and blue bouquets beside the brass candleabra. A matching brass candlestand held a sculptured unity candle with matching side candles.

The guests were registered by Barbara Hoover in the foyer of the church at an antique table covered with a hand crocheted cloth.

A selection of classical music was played by Gracie and Carol Evins. As the candles were lighted, Roy Martin sang, "Flesh of My Flesh". Kevin Walker sang, "Only God Could Love You More", as the grandparents and parents of the couple were seated.

During the ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer", was sung by the bride's father and the groom's father sang "The Wedding Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose an Alfred Angelo original gown of white satin with schiffli embroidery. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline accented with a small ruffle of schiffli lace and finished with white, hand-rolled satin and organza roses. The front of the bodice featured a panel of lace sprinkles with seed pearls and rhinestones.

The puffed sleeves were trimmed with lace and accented with white roses. Small satin buttons closed the back. The antebellum waistline finished with embroidered appliques held the full skirt which was circled with a wide satin ruffle that flowed to a triple scalloped cathedral train. The ruffle extended to the waistline in the back and was held with matching white roses. Large lace appliques adorned the front of the skirt and the train. Her satin headband held a pouf of silk illusion accented with white roses, lilies of the valley and pearls. The veil sprinkled with seed pearls and finished with a hand-rolled hem flowed to a cathedral length train.

The bride wore a cameo necklace which belonged to her great-grandmother, Louise Rousseau. Her garter was fashioned from antique lace with blue ribbon. She carried a cascading bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley, enhanced with pearls and iridescent ribbon atop a white Bible borrowed from the groom's mother.

The groom wore a full dress gray shadowweave tuxedo from the Pierre Cardin collection. The groomsmen wore matching gray tuxedos with gray cummerbunds. All wore boutonnieres of white roses.

Lynn Denton of Haskell was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Daphne Rosson of Amarillo and Susan Jarred, sister of the bride. The attendants' royal blue floor-length gowns were designed with sweetheart necklines which mirrored the bride's gown. The antebellum waistlines were caught in the back with large bows finished with matching roses. They carried lace fans decorated with white roses, pearl sprays and ribbon streamers.

Stephanie Reed, cousin of the groom, was the flower girl and carried a lace basket decorated with white roses and bows.

Cody Stone, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer. He was dressed as the groomsmen and carried a lace pillow with a rose design finished with a lace double ruffle.

The brother of the groom, Craig Hoover, was the best man. Groomsmen were Greg Nolan of Clovis, N.M., and Darin Adkinson of Hobbs, N.M. Ushers were Cole Callaway, Craig Hanson and Ruben Mora.

The mother of the bride chose a deep blue dress featuring a sequined orchid at the waist. The skirt softly draped to a tea length. The groom's mother wore a blue crepe waltz-length

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church of the ceremony. Following the southern tradition symbolizing the unity of the families, a single cake was served. Its three-tiers featured clusters of roses between arches and was topped by a pair of hand-blown glass swans. The serving table was covered by a royal blue cloth with a lace overlay. Punch was served from a crystal punch bowl belonging to the bride's grandmother. Other appointments were of silver. Serving at the reception were Kristi Brister, Nicole Cothron, Julie Nanny and Bette Villarreal.

A rehearsal luncheon was hosted by the groom's parents on Saturday at the Pizza Barn.

The bride is a graduate of Haskell High School and attends Wayland Baptist University, majoring in psychology.

The groom is a graduate of Hobbs High School and attended Wayland Baptist University. He is currently serving in the U.S. Marine Corps.

The couple was honored with several pre-nuptial parties which included a shower in Hobbs, N.M. on March 12. A formal shower was given June 1 at East Side Baptist Church. A lingerie party was hosted by Mrs. Lynn Denton, June 22, at the First National Bank Community Room.

Volunteers make summer sparkle for ECC

By Marsha G. Whittemore
Haskell third-grade students celebrated the end of school by what has become an annual affair with Experienced Citizens Center members.

Eighty-three children strong, they presented "Invasion of the Quarter Snatchers", Time and Place: May 1989, Typical Town, USA, a musical about "video game fever." The students were accompanied by their teachers, Melodee Christian, Pam Gibson, Martha Jarred and Jean Raughton.

The ECC would like to say a special "Thank You" to these children for sharing their program and to the teachers for the special effort afforded.

The ECC continues its strive in helping others; but also in seeing others happy. The members enjoy special programs that make up a large part of the year's calendar requirement. Programs such as: transportation, instruction, education, health, telephone resurranse, home delivery, congregat meals, escort and entertainment. All is accomplished through the efforts of volunteers.

The value of possessions is said to be the joy reflected in the face of another . . . and is certainly true for ECC members. Volunteers serve in all facets of the center and make it sparkle.

Salad suppers are the favorite: with music, playing games or giving plays. The salad supper of the month is hosted by one of the volunteer serving teams: Red, Yellow or Green, and everyone is invited. In choosing their program for the month, special care and concern for all members is the first priority.

The Green team, with captains Olevia Leonard and Rene Vojkufka, host January's "birthday party", serving hot stew and cornbread. Erlinda Mayfield and Melanic Wood of Weinert volunteered their time and resources decorating the tables in each month's theme. About 100 guests were seated at their "birthday table."

The music was provided by Chet Forchard and his son, Kenney, of Weinert. Mr. Forehand is principal of Weinert School.

The Yellow team, captains Ruby Letz and Jess Leonard, host the May 13 salad supper. Almost 90 were present to hear country music by a Mineral Wells trio: singer, Sheila Helton; bass guitarist, Dee Ashley; and lead guitarist, Bobby Hart. Sheila is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Turner of Rochester and the niece of Juanita Bevel. Ashley and Hart have shared their music with members several times in evening programs.

Bobby Hart, trooper of the Mineral Wells DPS, has given awareness programs during ECC noon hour since January 1986. Through films and talks he has made the members aware of many things concerning their safety and health. And because of his ever-pressing concern for the young people, he has stressed to the members an awareness for the safety of their own children and grandchildren in today's drug and satan relayed crimes. He asked for support of the law officers as the drug epidemic ranges in the lives to the young and asked that people not give up on the officers in their battle.

Over the past six years, ECC members, as others, have become more painfully aware that the summers coming up do not hold freedom for the young people as it once did. Be aware of children! A new rise in crime of children have stolen the moments of summer's freedom from them. It is up to the neighbors to watch over the children no matter whose child; that they, too, may one day share in the development and progress of Haskell County.

Around town

Thank you for reading The Haskell Free Press.

Haskell third-graders presented "Invasion of the Quarter Snatchers" to ECC members. It was a musical about "video game fever."

--Rule--

by Vicky Anderson
Twenty-five campers, counselors and teachers left Sunday morning on the Church of Christ bus for a week at Quartz Mountain Christian Camp near Lone Wolf, Okla. Camp Director, John Greeson and wife Orheana took the group to camp.

Our sympathy is extended to the family of former resident A. C.

Denson, who was buried in Stamford this past Thursday. A sister, Lonell McCandless is a Rule resident.

Malcolm Herttenberger will enter Humana Hospital in Abilene on Monday, June 26, for heart by-pass surgery. We wish him a speedy recovery.

On June 19 Mildred Howard and Valeta Mullins of Hamlin met your writer in Stamford where they had a birthday luncheon. Mildred's birthday was the 16th of June, Valeta's was the 19th and Vicky's the 22nd of June.

Lawrence Camp was admitted to Hendrick Medical Center on Sunday, the 25th for scheduled surgery on Monday. We wish him well.

The City of Rule is justifiably proud of Wes Kittley, ACU track coach, who was recently named Coach of the Year. We trust everyone saw the nice feature article about Wes in the Sunday Abilene Reporter-News.

Best wishes to Delanie Camp for a speedy recovery. She was recently hospitalized in the Haskell hospital.

Steve Ezzell was honored on the 25th at Haskell Nursing Center on his 95th birthday. The party was hosted by his daughter, Ruth Wilcox and other family members. Steve, we hope you have many more good years.

Chad Stulir of Duncan, Okla. was a visitor in Rule recently. Kevin Saffel returned home with him on Sunday, the 25th, for a week's visit.

A few weeks ago Mrs. Dorothy

Pike along with a daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Boyles of Aspermont and another daughter, Juanita Galloway of San Antonio took a 4,800 miles trip. The group first visited Mrs. Pike's sister-in-law, Leona Lomier in Fresno, Calif. who is a twin sister of Mr. Pike. They then went to Lemon Cove and visited a brother-in-law, Ralph Pike. Next, they went to San Francisco where they visited Rosalie Pike and children. The group then went to Emmett, Idaho and visited a niece, Juanita McCorkle. Their last stop was at Yellowstone Park in Wyo. where they saw many pretty sights. They covered 4,800 miles on this trip.

Our best wishes and prayers are with Eanis Webb as he undergoes heart tests in Abilene this week. Also with Dovie Anderson as she undergoes further hearing tests in Fort Worth.

Hadaway chosen as outstanding student

Trina Fry selected to tennis team

Trina Fry has been selected to play on Tarleton State University's varsity tennis team as a No. 2 player for doubles and singles.

Dr. Craig Clifford, TSU tennis coach, added Fry to his 12 member women's team for 89-90.

The TSU men's and women's teams were the 88-89 Conference Champions out of seven colleges and universities across Texas.

Fry will be attending TSU in Stephenville with the Dick Smith Arts and Science major's scholarship and the Women's Western Golf Foundation Scholarship.

She won the Women's Singles Title at the Second Annual Tarleton Tennis Classic held in Stephenville June 24 and 25.

She defeated TSU volleyball coach Mrs. Hart 7-6, 6-4 and then went on to defeat TSU varsity players Murrey (1-6, 6-0, 6-2) and Chism (6-2, 7-5) on Saturday and Sunday.

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as a result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate. The cost is only $50⁰⁰.

A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

Students continue study of historical Texas

The Haskell Gifted and Talented students continued their study of Texas this week.

A special treat was a visit on Monday to Lamshead Ranch in Albany. Watt Matthews took the students on a tour of his ranch, including stops at Reynolds Bend, the Stone Ranch and the one room schoolhouse.

The students visited with cowboys from the Matthews and Nail ranches and enjoyed a chuckwagon lunch prepared by Lawrence and Sonya Clayton from Abilene.

On Friday of last week, the group learned about the western frontier of Texas and the Indian wars by visiting Fort Richardson. The hospital, powder magazine, officer's quarters and barracks illustrated a soldier's life during the late 1800's. The museum further explained this important time in Texas history.

Texas' cultural aspects were evident in the visit to Snyder's Diamond M Museum and Scurry County Museum. The students were taught "museum manners" as they viewed original Dalhart Windberg and N. C. Wyeth paintings.

The group was impressed by the historic Paramount Theatre. Theatre manager Ed Allcorn explained that the theatre had been restored as it was when it opened in 1930. He also demonstrated the cloud machine for the students.

The modern military was the subject of a visit to Dyess Air Force Base where students viewed a guard dog demonstration, C-130's making parachute drops and B-1 bombers landing and taking off.

This week the group also plans to visit Ft. Phantom, Ft. Griffin, the Ranching Heritage Center and go see the Fandangle.

People believe if a spider swings down in front of you, you will hear good news.

Aloha

Pictured above are Edith Davis of Haskell, Michael Boykin of Texas City and Helen Boykin of Welnet. The three enjoyed a spring break vacation of a week in Hawaii. They spent four days on the island of Oahu and three days on Maui.

A BIRTHDAY MESSAGE

... to all off us!

Beginning a new year, America is another year older, an occasion we'll be celebrating this coming fourth of July, the 213th anniversary of our independence!

Since our founding, this country of ours has drawn strength from the blend of hard-working, independent-thinking people who have reached our shores, coming from all over the world and laboring against formidable obstacles to obtain their goals. In search of an ideal - equality among men, freedom to act according to their beliefs and a better way of life - they and we are continuing in that goal the attainment of a better and happier land for us all.

STATEMENT OF INTENT TO LOWER RATES

Brazos Electric Power Cooperative, Inc. ("the Cooperative") hereby publishes NOTICE that it has filed with the Public Utility Commission of Texas a Statement of Intent and Petition for Authority to Change (REDUCE) Rates, with a proposed effective date of July 17, 1989, pursuant to the provisions of Article 1446c, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes and the Commission's Substantive Rules. There were five brothers and one sister in the original family group, and they all were in attendance. The party was hosted by Weldon and Nova Walling.
