

Brad Bevel gets ag scholarship

Brad Bevel has accepted an agriculture department scholarship to attend Howard College in Big Spring. "We feel fortunate to have signed Brad with our school," said Lynn Walling, chairman of the Agriculture Department. "He is a very knowledgeable young man with a good background in agriculture and livestock judging, having come from one of the stronger programs in this area. We anticipate that Brad will become a valuable member of our collegiate livestock judging team, and because of his leadership abilities will be a leader among our student body."

He plans to be an agriculture education major and will transfer to Tarleton State University to complete his degree.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bevel, he is a 1989 graduate of Haskell High School. He was a standout player on the Indians' championship basketball teams.

Sales tax rebate drops by 8 percent

Sales tax rebates to the City of Haskell amounted to $19,936.99 this month.

The figure represents a drop of 8.12 percent from the $21,699.68 received for the same period in 1988.

For the year to date, Haskell has received $109,262.29, just 1.32 percent more than the $107,837.87 received for the comparable period last year.

Statewide, cities received an average of 7.4 percent more income from sales taxes this month than in August 1988 and for the year their receipts are up by 9.7 percent, figures which indicate that Haskell is not keeping pace with state averages.

All other Haskell County cities showed increases this month. Their rebates (with last year's figures in parenthesis) were:

- Rule: $2,262.31 ($2,431.51);
- Rochester: $1,356.12 ($954.80);
- Weinert: $549.01 ($296.75);
- O'Brien: $214.28 ($177.70).

Collectively, the five towns of the county have received $160,563.63 in the first eight months of this year. This is considerably more (by 22.23 percent) than the $131,358 received last year, but much of the increase is reflected by windfall receipts in Rochester and Weinert due to collections of delinquent taxes.

Neighboring Stamford's check this month was in the amount of $24,967.92, up 16.08 percent over a year ago. For the year, Stamford stands at $132,107.05 nearly 17 percent ahead of last year's figure of $112,940.70.

Stamford's increase is probably due in large measure to a large new retail store opened this year, as other Jones County towns of Anson, Hamlin and Hawley all show declines for the month and for the year.

This month's checks represent taxes collected from monthly filers in June and by quarterly filers in the second quarter.

Board proposing 8% School tax rate increase result of several factors

By Don Comedy Publisher

Haskell School Superintendent Bill Stewart was hired shortly before legislative officials announced that the new appropriations bill for the next two years would not cost Haskell ISD any additional local funds. Quite a comforting thought for a new Superintendent, but as is often the case it was too good to be true.

The final legislation adopted calls for the local district to receive about $5,000.00 less in funds than last year. The same legislation also requires Haskell ISD to spend about $90,000.00 in teacher pay raises, almost $15,000.00 in career ladder payments and a decrease in the price differential index (a factor applied to state funding based on local costs and other factors). In addition to these reductions in state payments to the district, local revenues also decreased when the value of property in the district were reduced by almost $3 million.

The reduction in local values came from loss of oil and mineral values, reduced business inventories and lowered agriculture values. As local values decrease, the effective tax rate increases to allow a taxing body to raise the same amount of money as in years past. Last year the school district charged .89 cents per $100 of value to raise about $585,000.00. To raise the same amount this year would require a tax rate of .91 cents per $100 of value. The two cent increase would be required to balance the decrease in values.

Haskell ISD boardmembers have proposed a tax rate of .98 cents which will raise approximately one half of the State mandated increases which were not state funded. The balance of the

Renovations will not affect rate

Recent renovations at Haskell ISD have nothing to do with a proposed tax increase according to Supt. Bill Stewart.

The renovations will include: roofing and guttering of Jr. High, High School, Auditorium, Old Gym, High School Cafeteria and Elementary Reading Laboratory; new heating, cooling, insulation, wiring, floor covering and lowering of ceilings in the Jr. Hi and High School building and paving and seal coating of parking lots; also the purchase and installation of a portable building for early childhood and K-3 Resource and closing a gym area for elementary PE.

Total estimated costs of the construction is $354,363.00 and will come from surplus funds.

budget will come from surplus funds.

Stewart said that the board will be happy to discuss this year's budget and tax rate with any interested persons at a public hearing scheduled August 24, at 7 p.m.

The district currently has approximately $600,000.00 in surplus funds which, while a large amount, represents only about two months of operating capital. This year's budget of just over $3 million, represents an increase of less than 4% over last year's total and a large portion of the increase covers mandatory teacher pay raises career ladder payments.

Of the total taxable property in Haskell ISD, over 10% is in homesteads owned by persons over 65 years old. The tax rate on that property can not be raised by state law. Freezing the rates on this property reduces local income by about $68,000.00 per year or about the same amount as the proposed increase in the tax rate.

Another sizable decrease in state funds to local district comes from a fund called the experienced teacher allotment. Last year, Haskell ISD received $88,000.00 and this year will receive nothing since the experience teacher allotment was completely removed from the funding bill this year.

Church conducts Bible study series

"The Work of Thy Hands," a series of devotional Bible studies, will be held on Wednesday evenings at the First Christian Church, 107 N. Ave. F, beginning Aug. 6. The program will begin at 7.

Dusty Garison, minister, said the title of the series is taken from Psalm 8, which says, "When I consider the heavens, the work of thy hands, what is man that you care about him? O Lord our Lord, how majestic is thy name in all the earth." Garison said that each study will develop a theme "related to the beauty and majestic of the universe and our place within that universe as beings created in God's image."

The public is invited to attend.

New pastor and family

The First Baptist Church of Weinert has welcomed its new pastor, the Rev. Donny Harbers, along with his wife, Sheila, and their children, Lanona and Dustin. He is the former youth and music director at the First Baptist Church in Rotan.

Griffis, Waggoner marry in Weinert

Donna Gaye Griffis and Randall Glenn Waggoner were united in marriage at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, August 5, in a candlelight ceremony at the First Baptist Church in Weinert. The Rev. Steve Peace, pastor of First Baptist Church in Rotan, former pastor of Weinert Baptist Church, officiated the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Griffis of Weinert. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M.L. Waggoner of Munday. H.D. Griffis of Weinert is the bride's grandfather.

The couple exchanged vows before a brass archway entwined with Lily of the Valley and flanked by two matching seven branch candelabras. Wooden pew markers holding votive candles and accented with Lily of the Valley decorated the pews. The white unity candle and two side candles were placed atop a brass stand and accented with Lily of the Valley.

Paula Leonard of Beford, sister of the groom, registered wedding guests at a table covered with white satin and mauve overlay. The table was decorated with a handmade unity candle decorated with glitter, gold wedding bands and teal and mauve flowers. Briana Alexander of Munday, the bride's cousins, handed out programs to guests.

Sandy King, organist, and Karen Harlan, pianist, presented traditional and popular wedding music preceding the ceremony. Lyndle Reeves, Cindy Guess and Joe Nelson, vocalists, sang the couple's chosen songs of Just You and I, The Rose, Thru The Eyes of Love, My Only Love, Parents Prayer, Honestly, Wind Beneath My Wings, The Lord's Prayer and To Me.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a formal gown of white satin with satin embroidered Sposabella lace designed by Illustra Bridal Designs of Wichita, Kansas. Sposabella lace, pearls, and iridescent sequins embellished the basque bodice which featured a Sabrina neckline and plunged to a deep V in back. Sheer insets and appliques of Sposabella lace, seed pearls and iridescent sequins detailed the long semi-fitted sleeves which came to a point at the wrist. Lace applique inserts and scalloped lace accented the full skirt which flowed to a chapel train detailed with lace applique inserts. Inserts of lace extended from the waist to the scalloped lace hem of the train.

Her fingertip veil and blusher of illusion were caught to a band covered in satin embroidered Sposabella lace embellished with sequins and seed pearls. A leaf cluster of iridescent lace surrounded by seed pearls and accented with crystal beads and pearl streamers adorned the side of the headpiece.

She carried a cascading bouquet of white and mauve satin roses, stephanotis and teal magnolias with seed pearls, greenery and white picot streamers. Honoring the tradition of something old, the bride wore her grandmother's gold wedding band. Her wedding dress was new and she borrowed her mother's pearl necklace and earrings. She wore the traditional blue garter, a gift to her from her sister, Derinda Lamed. A sixpence was placed in her shoe for good luck.

Serving as her sister's matron of honor was Derinda Lamed of New Braunsfel. She wore a floor-length dress of teal bridal satin designed with a sweetheart neckline and elbow length puffed sleeves. Tiered ruffles fell from the waist in the back and a self-bow accented the back waistline.

Maid of honor was Darla Griffis of Lubbock, sister of the bride. Her dress of rose colored bridal satin was designed like that of the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Darlene Therwanger of Megargel, Kim Stewart of Munday, Michelle Johnson of Wichita Falls and Gina Foster of Haskell. Their dresses, also designed like that of the matron of honor, were in alternating colors of teal and rose. Matching pearl necklaces and earrings, a gift from the bride, and a pearl bow in their hair, completed the ensemble. They carried white lace fans with teal and mauve satin roses accented with mauve tipped honeysuckle, baby's breath, mauve and teal picot ribbons, white seed pearls and white and teal satin rosettes.

Brittany Alexander of Munday, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl. Her floor length teal satin dress was designed like the bridal attendants and she wore a white satin bow in her hair. She accessorized her dress with a pearl necklace, a gift from the bride. She dropped rose petals from a white satin basket trimmed with white lace and ribbons.

The groom wore a classic full dress sterling cable shadowweave tuxedo from the Pierre Cardin collection with rose colored tie and cummerbund. His boutonniere was teal and mauve roses with seed pearls and baby's breath. Members of the groom's party included best man Joe Nelson of Riveria. Jeff Franz of Alice, Larry Vincent of Kingsville, Todd Meers of Munday, Phil Johnson of Wichita Falls, and Brett Kimmel of Lubbock, served as groomsmen. They wore single breasted sterling cable shadowweave tuxedos. Their ties and cummerbunds were in alternating colors of teal and rose and their boutonniers were teal and mauve roses accented with seed pearls and baby's breath.

Ringbearers were Trisha Horan of Weinert, cousin of the bride and Cameron Nelson of Riveria. Trisha wore a rose colored dress designed like the bride's attendants and carried a heart shaped white satin pillow trimmed in lace and ribbons, which held the groom's ring. Cameran was dressed as the male attendants and carried a square shaped white satin pillow trimmed in lace and ribbons, which held the bride's ring.

Guests were ushered by Johny Larned of New Braunsfel, brother-in-law of the bride, Neil Waggoner of San Angelo, and Michael Waggoner of Munday, brothers of the groom. Candles were lit by Shannon King of Rochester and Brad Stulir of Duncan, Oklahoma, cousins of the bride. All were attired as the groomsmen.

The bride's mother chose a street length dress of mauve crepe designed with a straight skirt and long sleeves. The permanent-pleated bodice was accented with diamond shaped medallions of crystal beads and seed pearls. The groom's mother wore an ivory silk street length dress with blousing bodice, elbow length sleeves and straight skirt. They wore corsages of teal satin roses accented with seed pearl centers, mauve baby's breath and mauve ribbon.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church following the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with a floor-length white cloth and beaded lace overlay. The corners were delicately shirred and held by clusters of pearl and crystal beads. Lilies, poppies, and greenery, placed in a temple jar served as centerpiece for the table. The three-tiered Italian cream wedding cake was set atop a flowing teal fountain and decorated with fresh flowers and baby's breath. A porcelain bride and groom in a garden setting, accented with lace, pearls, roses and ribbons, accented the top of the confection. Appointments were in brass and crystal. Ann Horan and Dianne Carroll of Weinert and Ursula Richards of Lubbock served the fruit slush punch and cake.

The groom's table was covered in a floor-length mauve cloth with a runner of teal. A fruit cascade with fresh flowers formed the centerpiece of the table which was appointed in brass and crystal. German chocolate cake, topped with a cluster of chocolate dipped grapes, and coffee were served by Bonnie Waggoner of Tuscola, cousin of the groom and Holly Hutchinson of Munday.

Tara Alexander of Munday, the bride's cousin, distributed rice bags from a white wicker basket trimmed with lace, ribbons, gold wedding bands and a nose-gay of the bride's chosen colors.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at the Shamrock Restaurant in Munday.

Following a wedding trip to the Grand Bahama Islands, the couple will reside in Lubbock. Donna is a 1984 graduate of Weinert High School and is currently a senior elementary education major at Texas Tech University. Randy, a 1980 graduate of Munday High School, is a senior secondary education major at Texas Tech. Both Donna and Randy are employed by the Dana Palmer Corporation in Lubbock.

Guests were present from New Braunsfel, Waco, Lubbock, Dallas, Garland, Riveria, San Angelo, Bedford, Megargel, Kingsville, Alice, Rotan, Tuscola, Duncan, Oklahoma; Rochester, Haskell, Abilene, and Munday.

Pre-nuptial courtesies included a bridal shower on Saturday, July 22 in the Fellowship Hall of Weinert First Baptist Church and a lingerie shower on August 3 in the home of Doris Carroll in Weinert.

Shadow length gives sun warning

Here's an easy-to-use rule for safety in the sun: When your shadow is shorter than you are tall, the sun can burn. So cover up.

The "shadow method" is easy to remember and works any place and for all seasons. It is based on the principle that the closer the sun comes to being directly over a person's head, the stronger are its burning ultraviolet (UV) rays.

"During the summer, most people can sunburn after 20 to 30 minutes of continuous exposure to midday sun," says Dr. Eva Singletary, assistant professor of general surgery at The University of Texas M.D. Anderson Cancer Center.

The atmosphere, and especially its ozone layer, absorbs most of the dangerous UV radiation from the sun, but the small amount that does reach the ground can cause sunburn around midday. By the late afternoon, when a person's shadow length on a level surface is equal to his or her height, enough of the harmful UV rays are blocked for sunlight to be relatively safe from causing sunburn.

"It's especially important to avoid being exposed to the midday sun because the effects of harmful UV exposure add up," says Dr. Singletary.

Repeated overexposure to the ultraviolet rays of the sun is the principal cause of skin cancer, Dr. Singletary says. No one is immune. Anyone who is out in the sun needs to protect himself from the sun's direct rays by using sun block preparations, and wearing hats, long-sleeved shirts and long pants as often as possible.

Lobbyists' role being questioned

AUSTIN—Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower may have illegally spent $58,000 in state funds to hire professional lobbyists during the regular legislative session.

According to reports, Hightower still pays monthly salaries to the two lobbyists, former state rep-crat Ann Richards, and former Secretary of State Jack Rains, Republican, both candidates for governor.

Campaign Maneuvering

Railroad Commissioner Kent Hance said he will be a candidate for governor on the Republican ticket, joining Clayton Williams and Rains in that field.

Still undecided is Boone Pickens, who said his odds are 50-50.

Two Houston Democrats, party activist Karen Friend and Nikki Van Hightower, are considering races for state treasurer.

Slave-Made Steel?

Civil rights leader Gary Bledsoe said the costliest highway project in Texas history will use South African steel made by slave labor there.

He called on the state highway department to cancel contracts with two companies which will use 3.1 million pounds of the South African steel.

Highway department officials said they cannot restrict the source of materials. A new state law which limits foreign steel in highway projects was passed after the contracts were approved.

Bledsoe also urged Gov. Bill Clements to name the first black ever to the state police licensing commission to ease local tensions.

Faulty Management

A state auditing team reported that faulty management by ex-chancellors of the controversial American Educational Complex in Killen brought the college to the brink of ruin.

Among the irregularities reported at the AEC in recent years:

- The college collected more than $5 million in excess local taxes related to a college construction bond issue;
- Questionable and excessive travel expenses rung up by one ex-chancellor;
- A weak board of directors apparently had one split vote in 23 years, and failed to scrutinize the chancellor's decisions.

One ex-chancellor still has $125,000 salary due the next fiscal year and is a lobbyist for the college.

Other Highlights

- The Racing Commission and Department of Public Safety will investigate charges of sabotage, payoffs and deception which may delay awarding a dog track license in Galveston County.

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Representatives Doc Arnold and Lynn Nabers, from his state agency appropriations.

At issue is whether Arnold or Nabers ever "lobbied," or solicited votes in the Legislature, on Hightower's behalf.

Under state law, lobbyists are defined as people "who, by direct communication with government officers, engage in efforts to persuade members of the legislative or executive branch to take specific actions."

Also unclear is whether state law prohibits the hiring of professional lobbyists, or whether one may hire them for non-lobbying purposes while they lobby for others.

Hightower's spokesman said Arnold and Nabers are paid only to monitor agency legislation and answer questions, not to solicit lawmakers' votes.

Lobby Lists Found

But Arnold listed Hightower's Department of Agriculture as one of many clients in his lobbyist report filed with the secretary of state's office. Nabers' list also named several clients, but did not include the agency. Both lobby for those clients.

State law prohibits state money being used to hire professional lobbyists to influence the outcome of an election or legislative matter.

Spirit of the Law

In part, the spirit of the law is to keep state agencies from diverting their appropriations to pay lobbyists to persuade legislators to appropriate more tax money to the agency.

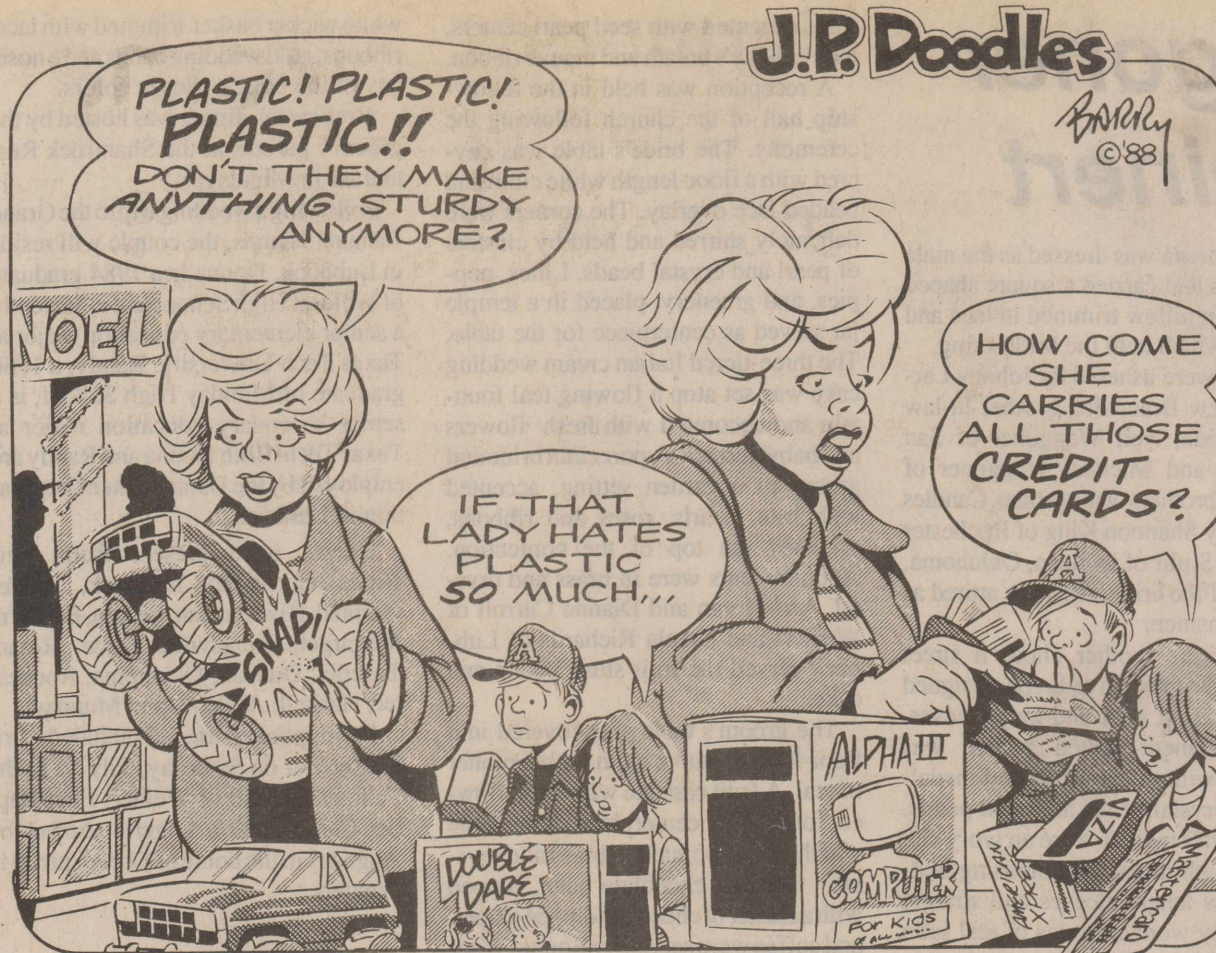

The law was authored by the late Bill Healy, powerful chairman of the House Appropriations Committee. Healy was tired of state agencies hounding lawmakers for bigger budgets at taxpayers' expense.

Other Misuses Questioned

Hightower was also recently mentioned in news reports questioning several state officials' use of tax dollars to promote their political image in election campaign style.

Attorney General Jim Mattox was ripped by two potential opponents for his public information brochure they charge is a blatant campaign gimmick.

The critics were fellow Demo-

'On the road again'

By K. B. Lane

Guess what? I'm moving again! In a matter of days I will be packing my "stuff" and leaving for Raider Land. The thought of having to load and unload boxes is already causing nightmares!

My parents are so ecstatic that I am leaving they have placed a "porch for rent" ad in the paper and have thrown a celebration party in my honor.

The celebration was called "Thank Goodness, KB's going back to Tech". Do not let that title fool you because they have thoroughly enjoyed me this summer.

Although I have yet to understand why each time I tell Mom and Dad they are going to miss me when I am gone, they look at each other and grin.

I will have the last laugh when our yard becomes overrun with pepper plants and they have no one to blame.

Lucky for me, a new adventure awaits as I return to Texas Tech. I will be living in a house with three other girls. (Not to worry, it has two bathrooms.)

Each of us will probably take on specific duties whether it be house cleaning or yardwork. However, one job that I have been banned from is cooking.

And I can't understand why! Just because I thought you use Bisquick to make cornbread is no reason to exile me from the kitchen. Can I help the fact cooking is like a foreign language to me?

One of my roommates loves to tell the story of when I asked if I had to spray the pan while making toast so the bread would not stick. At the time, I thought she would never stop laughing.

After that episode she asked, "What are you doing?" everytime I got within two feet of the kitchen.

So whenever I got hungry and wanted "real" food, I would start banging pots and pans on the kitchen counter. She was on the scene in a flash!

Earlier this summer, I was invited to a bridal luncheon. As a gift, guests were to cook their favorite food and give the recipe and container to the bride-elect.

I panicked! There was no way I could make broccoli and rice even if I wanted to. I racked my brain long and hard until

I found a solution. This is the recipe I gave to the future bride.

Ingredients:

- 1 car.
- 1 set of car keys
- 1 bakery
- Plenty of cash
- 1 cookie sheet

Directions:

Get in your car and start the ignition with the car keys. Now, drive to the bakery at medium speed. Once there, choose as many cookies as the cookie sheet will hold. Pay the cashier with your money. Drive back home. Once there, arrange the cookies in a decorative fashion on the cookie sheet. Cover with plastic until ready to serve. Never tell the cookies are not homemade.

She loved it and I was excused because she knew I did not cook. The luncheon guests asked me, "How are you going to find a husband if you can't cook?"

The answer was too easy, "Marry a chef!"

The Sunday School teacher was asked by a student, "What did Eve do when Adam came in late?"

Immediate answer from another student: "She counted his ribs."

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as a result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate. The cost is only $60.00. A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

BY WENDELL FAUGHT

"Wouldn't it be something if we could copy camaraderie between strangers in a hospital ICU waiting room and transfer it to the streets outside?" . . . Blackie Sherrod, Dallas Morning News.

By a wide margin, Texans apparently prefer "The Lone Star State" on their license plates.

Forty-four percent of those responding to a Dallas Morning News survey chose that slogan.

Second-place winner: No slogan at all.

Of more than 1,000 respondents, 451 chose "The Lone Star State."

Others:

No slogan: 75.

Bluebonnet State: 24.

Don't Mess With Texas: 21.

Alamo State: 13.

The Friendship State: 9.

Texas 'Nuff Said: 7.

A State of Mind: 7.

Super Collider State: 7.

Deep in Your Heart: 6.

The Friendly Lone Star State: 6.

Remember the Alamo: 6.

Texas Proud: 6.

While only nine people opted for the previously recommended "The Friendship State," a number of other suggestions incorporated the "friendship" adjective or derivatives thereof. In addition, to "The Friendly Lone Star State," mentioned above, there were these suggestions:

Friendly Bluebonnet State, The Friendly Folks, The Friendly Oil State, Friends, Friends Forever, Friendship, Friendship and Happiness, Friendly Texans, 99% Friendly, That's a Friend State, Tejas Means Friendship, The Big Friendly State, Big on Friendship, Where Friendship Is and The Amigo State.

Some respondents suggested macho slogans: Go Back Where You Came From, I'll Show You State, Love It or Leave It, Love It or Take I-35 North, Rude 'N Crude, Yankee Go Home State.

Other suggestions offered less than tourist-attracting slogans: For Sale, For Sale or Lease, The Crooked State, Guaranteed by FDIC and FSLIC, Home of the FSLIC, Road Kill State, The S&L State, The S&L Turnover State, Starvation State, The Pork Barrel State, Move to Texas and Save a Realtor.

Still other suggestions: Better Than Oklahoma, The Party State, Prison Proud, Room Enough to Spit, Secede, Upper Mexico, Waltz Across Texas.

Gun show in Abilene

The Texas Gun & Knife Association will have its second Abilene show for 1989 on Aug. 26-27 at the Abilene Civic Center. Celebrating its 10th anniversary, the association presents shows to cities all across Texas and New Mexico.

Collectors and exhibitors throughout the area come to buy, sell and trade some of the most unique guns, knives and accessories ever made. In addition, the show offers a great selection of wildlife art, historical artifacts, Indian and military memorabilia, "Texana" items and fine displays of gold and silver jewelry at unbeatable prices.

Times for the show will be 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday (Aug. 26) and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday.

Farmers to discuss arsenic

In 1988 several cloth manufacturers in the Carolinas and one in Texas were fined by the EPA for having too much arsenic in their waste water. These mills are presently not purchasing any Texas grown cotton as a result of this.

In order to control the amount of arsenic residue in Texas-grown cotton, it is essential for growers to not use more than the labeled rate of arsenic acid to prepare their cotton crop for harvest. The maximum labeled rate is three pints per acre.

An educational meeting will be held in Haskell Aug. 22, beginning at 10 a.m., in the Civic Center, entitled "How to make three pints of arsenic acid do a satisfactory job of preparing your cotton for harvest." It is being sponsored by the cotton harvest aid manufacturers. All cotton growers and chemical applicators are urged to attend.

Of the approximately 5 million acres of cotton grown in Texas each year, arsenic acid is essential to some 2 million acres of production.

Growers are urged to attend the meeting and to urge their friends to be there. Coffee and doughnuts will be served. The meeting will be over by noon.

Woman, child missing

Mary Hernandez, 26, and her son Abel Hernandez, 7, both of Rochester have been missing since they boarded a bus in Mathis, Texas on August 3rd.

Mrs. Hernandez, formerly Mary Villa of Rochester, and her son, Abel, a second grader in the Rochester Schools, left Rochester Saturday afternoon, July 29th en route to her aunt's house in Mathis, which is in South Texas.

Mary and Abel arrived in Mathis at her aunt's and were last seen boarding a bus at 11:15 a.m. Thursday in Mathis on their way back to Rochester.

No one has seen or heard from the pair since that day, according to Mary's husband, Andy Hernandez.

Mary, who is 5'5", 165 lbs., has black hair and brown eyes and is a diabetic who takes in-ulin daily. Abel Hernandez is about 4 feet tall with black hair and brown eyes. Abel has a flat-top haircut.

Mary also has two daughters, Amanda, 10, and Felicia, 3. They were left at home with their father when Mary and Abel left.

Mr. Hernandez said the girls were crying and asking if their mother is coming home soon.

If anyone has any information on Mrs. Hernandez or her son, Abel, please call the Sheriff's Department in Haskell at 864-2345.

Sonshine Patch to begin Aug. 29

Fall semester of the Sonshine Patch school begins Aug. 29 at the Haskell Church of Christ annex. Classes will be each Tuesday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Goal of the school is to train and aid in the development of pre-school children between 2 and 4-years-old.

Older children are taught how Bible stories apply to them and their daily activities. Lessons are prepared on visual and auditory perception, fine motor development, reading, math, and language development.

Activities are designed to develop an awareness in preschool children so that the development of skills will come more readily by the time they reach kindergarten age.

Sessions are conducted without competitive measures. The sessions encourage children to want to learn, not discourage them by making the children feel unknowledgable. Sonshine Patch offers fun for children as they enjoy a game-type atmosphere.

Another important function of the school is teaching children to be happy away from their parents and to get along and be happy with other children.

Sonshine Patch leaders believe it is important to be in constant communication with parents. In order to let parents know how the children's time is spent, a monthly newsletter and a weekly note on activities will be sent to parents.

Fees for enrollment in Sonshine Patch are to be paid in full the first Tuesday of every month. The fee will be $30 per month with a $5 deduction for payment by the first Tuesday of the month. This fee will be paid regardless of days absent for illness and other reasons.

The fee for two children in the same family will be $50 per month with a $5 deduction for payment by the first Tuesday of the month.

For more information about the school or to enroll a child, parents may go by the Church of Christ

WTC classes begin Aug. 30

Western Texas College in Snyder will begin fall semester classes for day and evening students on Aug. 30, following registration on Aug. 28-29.

Each Tuesday, classroom activities teach Bible lessons with application stories, songs and finger fun. Other classes teach language, art, music, and science. Learning center time in all classes is structured to help children learn numbers, colors, shapes, patterns and manipulative activities to aid in the development of fine and gross motor skills.

Physical awareness is taught to every age group. Also, indoor and outdoor play is provided.

Since children develop socially by being associated with other children, the Sonshine Patch provides the students with extensive opportunities to participate in field trips, holiday parties, birthday celebrations and other exciting activities.

TAX PLANNING

Written By
Gerald Rodgers, CPA

NEW MEDICARE TAX IN 1989

If you are 65 or older or disabled, a new law, the Medicare Catastrophic Coverage Act of 1988, will have a direct impact on you. The new law took effect January 1, 1989, and increases the tax bill for any individual who is Medicare eligible and has an income tax liability of $150 or more for the year.

The new law provides for an unlimited number of covered hospitalized days after a $564 deductible in 1989. In 1990, Medicare will pay for covered medical services after a deductible of $1,370. In 1991, up to half the cost of prescription drugs on an outpatient basis will also be covered.

The new Medicare tax works like this. The Medicare-eligible taxpayer computes his income tax liability and divides it by $150. This fraction is then multiplied by a "supplemental premium" ($22.50 in 1989, $37.50 in 1990, $39.00 in 1991, $40.50 in 1992, and $42.00 in 1993) resulting in the Medicare tax. The tax cannot exceed $800 for single taxpayers in 1989. That limit increases annually to $850 in 1990, $900 in 1991, $950 in 1992, and $1,050 in 1993. Limits for married couples who are both Medicare eligible are double these amounts. For 1989, this means that the maximum Medicare tax bite for an elderly couple could be as high as $1,600!

For instance, if a husband and wife are both eligible for Medicare and have $65,000 of taxable income, their 1989 tax liability will be $14,332. Their tax of $14,332 is divided by $150, and that number is multiplied by $22.50. The result is $2,150; since that exceeds the limit, the couple will pay the maximum Medicare "supplemental premium" of $1,600.

It's important to note that the new tax applies to taxpayers who are Medicare eligible, whether they actually receive benefits or not.

One of 21 Lt. Rogers died in World War II

Lt. Marshall J. Rogers, MD, is one of 21 Rule community citizens who gave their lives in the service of their country, and whose memories are being honored by a community memorial monument planned by the citizens of Rule.

By Jack Westbrook

Marshall Johnson Rogers was born Sept. 2, 1916, to Dr. and Mrs. M. W. Rogers in Rule. He was given as his middle name his mother's maiden name.

Marshall grew up in Rule, being blessed with a good home and good guidance from the finest of parents. He joined early the First Baptist Church where he was nurtured. Marshall attended and graduated from Rule grammar and high schools, compiling an outstanding record as a student and citizen. He gained and kept the respect and esteem of the elders of the community, accumulating many staunch friends in his young life.

In 1933, he entered Hardin-Simmons University, attending for two years. He then finished his pre-medical studies at the University of Texas in Austin. He received his medical doctorate from Baylor Medical School in Dallas in 1942. He was a member of the Phi Beta Pi Medical Fraternity at Baylor, serving as the chapter president for one term.

Upon graduation he was commissioned as a lieutenant, junior grade, in the U.S. Naval Reserve, being sent to Jacksonville (Fla.) Navy Hospital for his internship. On completion of this phase of his training, he was assigned as a medical officer and acting chaplain on the mine sweeper/layer USS Keokuk.

The Keokuk went to the Mediterranean Sea for an 18-month tour and then was sent to the Pacific theater of operations. It was during this time that he was promoted to lieutenant, senior grade. Lt. Rogers, with the crew of the Keokuk, saw much action in both the Mediterranean and Pacific.

On Feb. 21, 1945, the Keokuk was with an armada of ships assigned to the shelling of Iwo Island. They were under attack when a Japanese kamikaze plane dived onto the deck of the Keokuk, exploding and causing extensive loss of life, great damage and destruction. The Keokuk was not sunk, but 40 to 50 of its crew were killed in the action. Lt. Rogers was on duty and was one of those who were killed in the catastrophe. He was buried at sea as was the custom and tradition of the Navy during wartime.

Marshall's death came as a tragic blow to the family, his mother, father and sisters never fully recovering from the loss. The community of Rule mourned his death with memorial services, a personal loss to each member of the community.

Dr. Marshall J. Rogers is presently survived by two sisters, Mrs. M. M. Crawford of Wichita Falls and Mrs. Frances R. Campbell of Rule.

No imagination is adequate to realize the trials that Lt. Rogers experienced in his tours of duty, let alone those days of intensive shelling Iwo Island. The Battle of Iwo was one of the fiercest actions of the war in the Pacific. We are all in awe and humbled by the magnitude of his sacrifice during his service and the final and ultimate giving of his life.

In no way can his country repay him for his gift--the young and unfulfilled life that was dedicated to the service of his fellow man. We can only hold his memory in the highest of honor, continuing the eternal quest for freedom in which he was involved that led to his death.

By his sacrifice, let no man believe that freedom is a gift. Let that myth be put to rest. The freedom that has been gained through his and the sacrifices of others has to be perpetuated by the loss of blood, giving of sweat, toiling and continuing sacrifices.

The girl was arguing with her father. "But Dad, don't you believe that two can live as cheaply as one?" "I certainly do," he said. "Right now, Mother and I are living on less than you do."

The fourth Kretschmer reunion was held Saturday, Aug. 12, at the Haskell Lodge in the Irby community.

Registration began at 3:30 p.m. After some visiting for a couple of hours, the business meeting was opened by Joe Kretschmer, president.

Families were grouped and counted according to heritage. The Richard and Martha Kretschmer family had two persons present, Bertha and Carl Opitz had 15 there, Herman and Mary Kretschmer had 18 present and Gus and Annie Kretschmer were the largest group with 31. Seven visitors were there. A total in attendance was estimated to be 75.

After some discussion, the reunion was decided to be held on the second Saturday of August in 1990 at the same location and to begin at the same time.

After more discussion, new officers were decided upon. These will be the following: Kenneth Dudensing of Sweetwater, president; Rickey Moeller of Munday, secretary-reporter; and Milbert Opitz of Haskell, treasurer. An entertainment committee was also formed by Renee Belyeu and Donnie Moeller for the next reunion.

--Weinert--

By Myrtle Plemister

The weather has been delightful in our part of the big country, with cool breezes, scattered showers, over-cast skies at times, and lower temperatures.

We hope the insects are not too busy incubating as this kind of weather often spell danger to cotton.

Several farmers are contracting their cotton, already, as the price is good at this time.

Weinert was not through with tragedy and grief, as the untimely death of Raymond Mathison came last week.

Raymond was busy making a flower bed at his daughter's new home, where he died suddenly, with a massive heart attack.

Our sincere sympathy to Bernice, his wife, to Sandra and to "T" his grandson, and to our whole community, as we grieve our loss! He was a quiet, good, industrious man, friendly, considerate and kind, and we are all grieved at his passing.

We must ask, haven't we suffered enough, Lord?

We welcome Donnie and Shelia Harber, with their children, Lanona and Dustin to Weinert and we hope their stay here will be pleasurable and fulfilling and for an extended length of time.

Donnie will serve as pastor for the First Baptist Church, and from the sound of the horn he plays each evening he may also become a part of the "future" Weinert band. Welcome to Weinert.

Our prayers are for Doris Walker, who underwent a biopsy test at Hendricks Hospital on Monday, after a mamagram returned a "suspicious notice". She received a good report.

Our other sick are still improving, and Herschel Alexander made a trip to his mothers home for a visit with sister Audra and Bob Schindler of Abilene, and to "test" Audra's new "wok" vegetable dish she concocted.

We will see birthday candelers this week as Cory Wood, Lucas Pena, Gloria Castillo, Jeremy Hager and Jeremy Ruiz celebrate. Happy Birthday!

And congratulations to H. L. and Sarah Guess who will be celebrating an anniversary on Thursday, Aug. 17.

Tabitha and Malori Mahan will be spending some time with their grandparents, the Leonard Mahans, as their father is hospitalized with leukemia in M. D. Anderson hospital in Houston. Their baby sister is with their mother, who remains at his bedside.

Doris and Dale Carroll, with Denise and Douglas are spending several days at Lake Greeson, Ark., in their camper.

They will be visiting with Bob and Betty Carol of Nashville, and later attend their family reunion in Oklahoma.

Bob and Melanie Wood, with Cory and Zackry are spending their vacation time in California this week.

Visitors to our community includes Cindy and Mitch Murrell of Irving, who stopped by Cindy's grandmother's home, Mrs. Mildred Guess, for the weekend.

The Murrells had been vacationing in New Mexico, and arrived in Weinert in time to attend the memorial services for neighbor, Raymond Mathison.

Dottie Walgamott of Weatherford, Okla., is spending a few days in Weinert as a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Forehand, Shannon and Kinney.

The Forehands met Dottie and her family in Vernon for lunch and an hour of getting acquainted.

Mr. Walgamott is a professor at the pharmacy school where Shannon is a student.

Pamela and Tim Marshall, with Sarah, were guests in the home of her grandmother, Francis Mahan, as was Margie Jordan, Pamela's mother, of Hamilton.

Pamela is also a pharmacy students in Weatherford College and is now a senior, looking forward to her internship.

Wanda and Scooney Vojkufka hosted a surprise birthday party for Dwanna Klose of Haskell last week, and everyone kept the secret well.

Decorations were red, white and blue, and the festive tone of the party was emphasized by the lovely birthday cake and the "Scooney grilled" hamburgers.

Added to the surprise were the in-extinguishable candles some prankster had placed on the cake.

Out of town guests included the honoree's husband Wilbert Klose, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Guess, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Wilfong and Pauline Couch, all of Haskell.

Mr. John Earp was hosted to a birthday party in his 92nd birthday in the home of a son, Johnny and Marilyn Earp, with all their children and grandchildren.

John shares the same birthday as his eldest son, Hood, and Hood with his wife, Earlene of Pampa, were present for the celebration, as were all their children and grandchildren.

Also present were Darleen and Alfon Dunning of Lubbock with all their children and grandchildren. Darlene is John's youngest child, and "papa's pet" the boys say.

Wanda and Melvin Vojkufka were present to share the company and the hostess duties.

Congratulations John, and Weinert wishes for many more for you, and continued good health.

Carroll Reunion

The descendants of Woody and Nancy Lee Carroll met at Lake Texoma for their annual reunion with 75 signing the registry.

Bobby Danner of Shawnee, Okla., was in charge of affairs, and accepted the honor of doing the event for the coming year, 1990.

Oldest one present was L. L. Carroll of Haskell, with Barbara Levholt of Durham, N.C. having come the farthest distance.

There were five children born to the original family: Anna, Stella, Norene, Delbert and Leonard. Delbert and Anna are deceased, but their descendants were present at the gathering and four states, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Texas and North Carolina were represented.

Edna Boykin of Nashville, Ark., and Cayce Reed of Haskell were guests of the family.

Attending from Weinert were Dale and Doris Carroll, with Dianne, Denise and Douglas.

An interesting note was that Woody Carroll was born Wood; Reed, but he was adopted and his name was changed when his own parents died.

Woody and Georgia Turnbow have returned from a tour of the Eastern states, with final destination being Groton, Conn., where they spent several days in the home of their son, Seaman Apprentice Eric Turnbow, his wife Susan, and daughter, Lindsey, when the grandparents had a grand time getting acquainted with.

Eric is stationed at the Navy corps there, and at the present time enrolled in Submarine school.

While there, the family were privileged to tour the submarine, Nautilus, and were awed with the size and technology the ship is equipped with.

On their way up, they took the Northern route, and returned by the Southern route, and stopped in Weatherford for a visit in the home of their daughter, Twyla Sorrells and her family.

Mildred Affutt, with Myrnie and Eddie Sanders take this opportunity to announce the approaching marriage of their granddaughter, Tammie Denise Offutt, daughter of Shirley and Wayne Offutt, of Wichita Falls, to Brent Durwood Proffitt III.

The wedding vows will be exchanged at the Evangel Temple Assembly of God Church on Sept. 23 at 3 o'clock in the afternoon in Wichita Falls.

Weinert faculty will assemble on the morning of Aug. 18 to begin the school year, 1989-90, and for a period of in-service before the children register on Aug. 28.

Mrs. David (Shirlene) Sikes has accepted the position of school secretary and is in training at the school office. We are happy for her, and hope she will have a good year.

Have you heard? Your reporter moved Leta and Jack Sellers of Rule Knox City with one slip of her pen!

Today she has moved them back to Rule, where they belong!

Scoutmaster Bobby Cass is making an appeal for adult leaders, especially in Weinert.

He would love to have a den Mother or Dad, for the Weinert boys who are enrolled in Cub Scouts. The ages of the boys are second and third graders, and 5 to 9 boys will constitute a "den".

He's a great guy, a former "Weinertite" - please say "yes" to him and make his day!

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON TAX INCREASE

The HASKELL ISD will hold a public hearing on a proposal to increase total tax revenues from properties on the tax roll in 1988 by .8 percent. Your individual taxes may increase at a greater or lesser rate, or even decrease, depending on the change in the taxable value of your property in relation to the change in taxable value of all other property.

The public hearing will be held on AUGUST 24 at 7:00 P.M.

FOR the proposal: MR. MIKE GUESS, MS. ANITA PERRY, MR. ROGER MOELLER, MR. TERRY BLANKS, MR. BOB AYCOCK

AGAINST the proposal: NONE

PRESENT and not voting: NONE

ABSENT: MR. BILL PERRY, MR. HOLLIS CALLAWAY

The statement above shows the percentage increase the proposed rate represents over the EFFECTIVE tax rate that the unit published on JULY 27, 1989. The following table compares taxes on an average home in this taxing unit last year to taxes proposed on the average home this year. Again, your individual taxes may be higher or lower, depending on the taxable value of your property.

	Last Year	This Year
Average home value	30,220	30,480
General exemptions available (amount available on the average home, not including senior citizen's or disabled person's exemptions)	5,000	5,000
Average taxable value	25,220	25,480
Tax rate	.8924	.9827 (proposed)
Tax	225.06	250.39 (proposed)

Under this proposal taxes on the average home would INCREASE by $ 25.33 or 11.25 percent compared with last year's taxes.

Comparing tax rates without adjusting for changes in property value, the tax rate would INCREASE by $.0903 per $100 of taxable value or 10.12 percent compared to last year's tax rate. These tax rate figures are not adjusted for changes in the taxable value of property.

The Weinert Independent School District today announced its policy for free and reduced price meals for children unable to pay the full price of meals served under the national school lunch program. The office has a copy of the policy, which may be reviewed by any interested party.

The following household size and income criteria will be used for determining eligibility:

Family size	Yearly	Monthly	Weekly
1	$10,175	$ 848	$196
2	13,690	1,141	264
3	17,205	1,434	331
4	20,720	1,727	399
5	24,235	2,020	467
6	27,750	2,313	534
7	31,265	2,606	602
8	34,780	2,899	669

Each Additional Family Member $ 3,515 $ 293 $ 68

Children from households whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free or reduced price meals.

Application forms are being sent to all homes with a letter to parents or guardians. To apply for free or reduced price meals, households should fill out the application and return it to the school. Additional copies are available at the Principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application will be used for the purpose of determining eligibility and may be verified at any time during the school year by school or other program officials.

For school officials to determine eligibility, households receiving food stamps or AFDC must list the child's name, their food stamp or AFDC case number and the signature and name of an adult household member. Households not receiving food stamps or AFDC must list: names of all household members; Social Security numbers of all adult household members or a statement that the household member does not possess one; total household income and the amount and source of the income received by each household member; and the signature of an adult household member certifying that the information provided is correct.

Applications may be submitted at any time during the year. Under the provisions of the free and reduced price policy the superintendent will review applications and determine eligibility. Parents or guardians dissatisfied with the ruling of the official may wish to discuss the decision with the determining official on the informal basis. Parents wishing to make a formal appeal may make a request either orally or in writing to H. L. Guess, Box 8, Weinert, TX 76388 or telephone at 673-8211 for a hearing on the decision.

Households that list a food stamp or AFDC case number must report when the household no longer receives these benefits. Other households approved for benefits are required to report increases in household income of over $50. per month or $600. per year and decreases in household size. Also, if a household member becomes unemployed or if the household size increases the household should contact the school. Such changes may make the children of the household eligible for benefits if the household's income falls at or below levels shown above.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for school meal benefits. If a household wishes to apply for benefits for foster children living with them, the household should contact the school for more information.

The information provided by the household is confidential and will be used only for purposes of determining eligibility and verifying data.

In the operation of child feeding program administered by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, no child will be discriminated against because of race, color, sex, national origin, age or handicap. If any member of a household believes they have been discriminated against, they should write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

--Rule--

By Vicky Anderson

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Dunham have returned to their home in Troy, Idaho, after visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dunham and Cecil Lewis. While in Rule, they went with the Bill Dunhams to Fort Worth where they visited the Ken Youngs and the N. L. Trammells.

Travis and Lorene Boyd have returned to Rule from Lorenzo where he was minister for many years. He has also been a past minister of the Rule Church of Christ. Luncheon was held for them at the Ennis Webbs this week. An old-fashioned pounding is planned for them this Wednesday night after prayer meeting at the Rule Church of Christ. Everyone is invited after the services on Wednesday night.

Congratulations are extended to Shelia Towell who was one of the 408 students at ACU to receive degrees during spring commencement ceremonies. She was a Magna Cum Laude graduate, receiving a bachelor of business administration degree in general business. She is the daughter of Mrs. Geretha Franklin of Rule.

Visiting with long time schoolmate and old fellow traveler, Lucille Connally of Hamlin, was the undersigned this past Friday. Also, along were Nikki Powell of Seymour, friend of granddaughter, Lezli Jenkins and another granddaughter, Susan Saffel.

Nikki is the granddaughter of ex-Hamlinite, Pauline Lock McKinley. Next week the correspondent will not be with you as I will be near Chicago with daughter and granddaughter, Tori Jenkins. However, a very nice lady, Faye Dunham, has consented to do the column for me. She was once correspondent for the Abilene Reporter News and Haskell Free Press for many years, as well as being a teacher in the Rule schools for 26 years.

Wanted: Articles that can be auctioned off when the Rule Chamber of Commerce, the Rule Lions Club and the Rule Volunteer Fire Department combine efforts to raise money for the Rule Volunteer Fire Department.

The auction will be part of the Labor Day activities at the Slim Sorrells Park in Rule on Sept. 4. Please help in this effort. All proceeds will go to the Fire Dept.

There will be other activities, starting at 5 p.m. Hamburgers, fries, ice cream and cold drinks will be sold. Please contact A. B. Arnett if you have anything to donate for the auction.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. Mildred Chambers last week: Mr. and Mrs. Rick Lauchner, Nathan and Emily of Odessa; Mrs. Wayne Porter, Tara, Valerie, Donna, Amber, Magen and Jonathan of Dalhart, Mr. and Mrs. Richard, Elizabeth, Kimberly and Trey of Paducah; Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Chambers and Jay of Graham; Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Fouts of Levelland.

The Rule Chamber of Commerce met Aug. 9 at the Bluebonnet Cafe for its regular monthly meeting. Nine people were present, including one new member, Alan Beard.

Plans for the Fund Raiser of the Rule Volunteer Fire Dept. were discussed. It was decided that donations be asked for from merchants and individuals for the auction to be. This fund raiser event will be at the park on Labor Day, Sept. 4.

A new feature has been added to the Rule Jubilee to be held Oct. 7. There will be a Miss Jubilee Contest from the high school girls. Votes will be by ticket sold, and the winner will receive a $500 scholarship. These same tickets will be used for the drawing for gifts from the merchants.

Anyone wanting to have a booth for their arts and crafts should contact Donna Saffel. Out-of-town booth holders will be charged $10.

It was good to see Lamar Casey, Buford Westmoreland and Lawrence Camp able to be out this week. In about a month, Lamar is scheduled to undergo open heart surgery in Lubbock. Best wishes and prayers go with him through his coming operation.

When embracing opportunity, give it a big hug!

Celebrate anniversary

Botch and Doris Burson celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday at the Haskell National Bank Community Room. They were married Aug. 13, 1939. A surprise visitor was their son, Ronnie Burson of Sunland, Calif. Also present was their daughter, Rosalee Melton of Garland.

During a time like this we realize how much our friends really mean to us...

Your expression of sympathy will always be remembered by the family of E2 Stephon Brockington, Henrietta Ray, Vernon Jones and family.

Love-it.
