

Church youth plan car wash

Young people of East Side Baptist Church will have a car wash Saturday to help raise funds for summer camp and the evangelist conference.

Cars will be washed at Kwik Kar Wash at 600 NE 1st St., beginning at 9 a.m.

Use of facilities at the car wash is being donated by Cecil Hindman, owner.

There will be no charge for washing cars, but donations will be accepted.

Incumbents file for city election

Two incumbents had filed as candidates in the upcoming city election as of mid-afternoon Monday.

Greg Melton filed for mayor and Jill Druessedow filed as a candidate for the City Council.

So far, no one has filed for the council seat now held by Claude Payne.

Filing period will close next Wednesday, March 21. The city election will be May 5.

Incumbents file for School Board

Hollis Calloway and Roger Moeller have filed for re-election to the Haskell School Board.

The filing period will remain open through March 21. The school election is May 5.

Deadline today for nominations

Today (Thursday) is the deadline for nominations for Rule's Outstanding Man and Woman of the Year.

Nominations for the Chamber of Commerce honor may be made at the City Hall in Rule.

Winners will be announced at the annual Rule Chamber of Commerce banquet, scheduled for 7 p.m. April 3 in the school cafeteria. Tickets are on sale this week at $7 each.

"Sword and Shield," a musical group from Knox City, will provide the entertainment. The group has been together for two years and plays all original compositions, most of which are contemporary, but the group has started to expand by playing some secular music as well.

Commodities given out today

Surplus food commodities will be distributed today (Thursday) in Rule and Haskell. They will be distributed Tuesday in Rochester.

Rule recipients will receive their commodities today between 9 and 10 a.m. at the Church of Christ. Distribution in Haskell will be between 8 and 10 a.m. at the Experienced Citizens Center.

Commodities will be distributed in Rochester between 8 and 9 a.m. Tuesday at the fire station.

Sales tax receipts take another drop

Sales tax receipts in Haskell took another dip this week when the City of Haskell received its check from the state comptroller for its share of taxes collected in January.

The check, in the amount of $8,202.40, was down by 16.53 percent from the check for $9,827.11 received for the same period last year.

For the first three months of this year, Haskell has received $38,160.11, or 14.2 percent less than it received for the first three months of 1989 when collections were $44,478.19.

Only other Haskell County city to receive a check this month was Rule, which got a check for $1,199.02.

Neighboring Stamford saw its tax rebate drop this month to $12,057.15, down slightly from last year's $12,241.49. But for the year, Stamford is nearly 25 percent ahead of a year ago, having received $55,175.86 in the three months this year compared to $44,220.00 last year.

Statewide, tax rebates to all cities was up nearly 13 percent over those of March of last year.

Shrimp peel set at club Saturday

The Haskell Country Club will host a shrimp peel from 7 to 9 p.m. Saturday. Cost will be $10 per person.

Money raised will go to help install an automatic sprinkler system for the golf course. Currently, the only way to water the greens and fairway is by screwing in sprinkler heads by hand.

The money, along with some donations, will enable the club to put pop-up sprinklers on each green, pop-up sprinklers on one fairway, plus the automatic timer.

Census workers needed here

Census workers are needed for Haskell, Stonewall and Jones counties. Interested persons may call the district office in Abilene

Last year the country club made some major improvements on the golf course. Four new water hazards were installed, some of the cart paths were re-done and grass was planted in barren areas.

Members of the country club are striving to make the golf course No. 1 in this area.

Anyone interested in buying a ticket for the shrimp peel should contact Harvey Croft by noon Friday.

A dance will follow the shrimp peel.

(915) 674-8600. A test for prospective census workers was given in Haskell Wednesday and another test will be given next week.

Moeller wins Perry leads field in state race

Haskell County voters elected a new county clerk and gave a hearty endorsement to a local candidate for state commissioner of agriculture in Democratic and Republican primaries Tuesday.

Former County Clerk Rhonda Moeller won the Democratic nomination for that office by a scant 8-vote margin over Woodrow Fraizer, who has held that office for nine years. Her victory, by a vote of 649-641, is tantamount to election since she will face no Republican foe in November's general election.

Rick Perry, the Haskell state representative running as a Republican for state commissioner of agriculture, carried his home county by a landslide, getting 245 votes to only 6 for Gene L. Duke and 5 for Richard McIver. Early unofficial returns statewide gave Perry 226,127 votes to 149,894 for McIver and 108,251 for Duke. Perry's vote represented 47 percent of the total, throwing him into the April 10 runoff with McIver, whose vote was 31 percent of the total.

For the most part, Haskell County voters went along with the state winners.

Clayton Williams, who won the Republican nomination for governor without a runoff, received 195 votes in Haskell County. Kent Hance had only 24 and Tom Luce got just 13. Four other candidates received 21 votes between them.

In the Democratic primary, Jim Mattox was the favorite here, getting 514 votes to Ann Richards'

474. Those two will meet in the runoff for the Democratic nomination. Former Gov. Mark White received 174 Haskell County votes.

Jim Hightower, the ag commissioner, was an easy winner in the Democratic primary here. He received 652 votes, John Earl Smith got 170, Dan Pustejovsky got 149 and the other four Democratic candidates split 245 votes.

Robert Krueger trounced Clint Hackney, 897-256, in Democratic voting here for railroad commissioner.

John Odam was the choice of Haskell County Democrats for attorney general, getting 754 votes to Dan Morales' 397.

Tom Bowden defeated Nikki Van Hightower, 495-315, in local voting for state treasurer.

In Republican voting in Haskell County, J. E. "Buster" Brown was the top vote-getter for attorney general with 82. Pat Hill got 57, Bobby Steelhammer 32 and Tex Lezar 9.

For comptroller of public accounts, Warren G. Harding was a runaway favorite here with 123 votes to only 38 for Jon Hall and 6 for Irby Max Ford.

Kay Bailey Hutchison received 129 votes here for state treasurer and Charlotte Boylan got 43.

Grady Yarbrough received 74 votes for commissioner of the general land office, to 58 for Wes Gilbreath and 27 for William James John.

Beau Boulter received 143 votes for railroad commissioner while Ted Lawson got 54.

Cook wins Demo race

John Cook of Breckenridge apparently won the Democratic nomination for District 64 state representative Tuesday.

Early returns from seven of the eight counties in the district gave Cook 6,564 votes, to 2,540 for Mike Smiddy of Mineral Wells and 2,042 for Ken Lane of Haskell.

Cook's vote total represented 59 percent of the votes cast.

Haskell County voted for Lane, giving the local radio station owner 557 votes to 366 for Cook and 70 for Smiddy.

If the vote holds up, Cook will be the Democratic nominee for the position being vacated by Rick Perry of Haskell.

Turnbow, Meinzer marry Saturday

Gina Turnbow Meinzer

Gina Turnbow and Tyke Meinzer were united in marriage in the East Side Baptist Church in Haskell on Saturday, March 10 at 6 p.m. The Rev. Jimmy Rogers of Olney officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Melvin L. Turnbow of Haskell and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Meinzer of Knox City.

The center of the altar held a heart arch decorated with a white satin bow, white doves and greenery. Heart candelabras covered in greenery accented each side. Pew markers of lace and burgundy satin ribbon completed the setting.

The bride's maid of honor was Loutina Hadaway of Haskell. Bridesmaids were Leann Whittemore of Arlington, Tamala Ivy of Anson and Sharon Bird of Haskell, sisters of the bride.

Best man was Matt Reid of San Angelo. Groomsmen were Kevin Leach of Haskell, Wayne Hutchinson of San Angelo and Steve Rutherford of Houston.

Ushers were Terry Bartley of Knox City and Jamie Montgomery of Bryan.

Tim Skiles of Cisco, nephew of the groom, and Damon Drinnon of Anson, nephew of the bride, served as candlelighters. The bride's nephew, Mitchell Drinnon of Anson, was ringbearer and Megan Bird of Haskell, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

The ring bearer wore a Pierre Cardin white shadowweave full dress tux and the flower girl wore a white lace, knee-length dress accented with a headpiece of wine entwining ribbon and roses. Music was provided by Teresa New of Haskell, and she also sang, "To Me," "You Needed Me" and "You're the Inspiration."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and mother of Haskell. She was escorted down the aisle by her father. She wore an original gown designed by Phyllis of Bianche of embroidered silk organza in white. The fitted bodice with crown collar and long traditional sleeves were embroidered in patterns of flowers. An extra band of embroidery and silk flowers were added at the neckline and the same repeated on the sleeves.

The full trumpet skirt that was in tiers in the back was enhanced with extra embroidery at the hemline that was in dainty scallops.

She wore a luxurious veil of imported English illusion. The headband held silk flowers, lace, sequins and pearls. The puffed top was trimmed in pearls. She carried a nosegay bouquet of burgundy and white roses, sequins, pearls and a lace handkerchief, belonging to her mother. The bouquet was trimmed with French white ribbon.

In keeping with tradition, the bride wore a gold wedding band belonging to the groom's mother. Diamond ear studs, a gift of the groom, was something new. Something borrowed was a lace handkerchief, belonging to the bride's mother, carried in the bride's bouquet. She wore a blue garter and a sixpence in her shoe.

The bride presented a La Vanta rose to her mother and the groom's mother.

Her maids wore identical T-length burgundy satin dresses. The fitted bodice had a sweetheart neckline and puffed sleeves, fitted at the waist. An open back and burgundy bow accented the waistline. They each carried a hand bouquet of burgundy roses with an exquisite bow of gray and burgundy streamers.

The groom wore a white dynasty full dress tux with tails, a white wing-tipped pleated shirt, with a white bow tie and white cummerbund. He wore a La Vanta burgundy rose with baby's breath as a boutonniere. The best man and groomsmen wore Pierre Cardin grey shadowweave tuxedos with white wing-tip shirts, burgundy bow ties and burgundy pleated cummerbunds. The bride's and groom's fathers wore Pierre Cardin grey shadowweave tuxes with burgundy bow ties and cummerbunds. They each wore a burgundy rose for a boutonniere.

The bride's mother chose a mauve T-length dress of satin with an overlay of matching sheer chiffon, enhanced with sequin edging and matching pearl accessories. The groom's mother wore a baby blue, two-piece, crepe dress. She also chose pearl accessories. Their ensembles were complimented with corsages of burgundy roses accented with ribbon and greenery.

Cozi Ivy of Anson registered guests at the wedding. The bride's mother hosted the reception in the fellowship hall of the church. Dala Harris of Abilene, Gena Decker of Wichita Falls and Sharla Jetton of Abilene served at the bride's table. Christi Clayton of Lubbock and Dawn Scott of Denton served at the groom's table.

The bride's bouquet marked the heart-shaped table covered with a white satin, linen cloth and lace skirting. The three-tiered heart wedding cake was ornamented by roses in a blending color. Punch was served from a crystal punch bowl. The centerpiece of white and burgundy carnations accented the scene and other silver appointments carried out the decor of the table.

A heart-shaped chocolate cake topped with burgundy roses was served from the groom's table where silver appointments were used. Coffee was served from a crystal coffee urn. A silver three candle table candelabra with decorative candles and greenery formed the centerpiece. The heart-shaped table was covered with white linens and lace skirting.

Tim Skiles and Damon Drinnon passed out rice bags at the reception.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at the fellowship hall of the church.

The bride graduated from Haskell High School and American Commercial College in Abilene. She is employed by Merchants Fast Motor Lines in Abilene.

The groom graduated from Knox City High School and attended Texas Tech University in Lubbock. He is employed by the Haskell County ASCS.

After a wedding trip to New Mexico, the couple will reside in Abilene.

Pre-nuptial courtesies included a bridal shower in the fellowship hall of East Side Baptist Church. Hostesses were Lena Tidwell, Willie Faye Tidrow, Linda Wallace, Lou Gilly, GERAL DARDEN, Marie Elmore, Nelda Jetton, Louetta Davis, Sheila McMeans, Kay Morris, Debra Bartley, Di Anna Shortes, Maxine Grand, Linda Short, Linda Iley, Jerry Ann Harris and Sue McGee.

A recipe shower was held in the home of Louetta Davis. Hostesses were Mrs. Davis and Loutina Hadaway.

A bridal shower was held in the home of Sandra Chambers. Hostesses were Glenna Benson, Romona Helms, Sharon Rutherford, Carolyn Sloan, Paula Cartar, Patsy Gonzales, Wanda Phipps, Dorothy Jean, Leatrice Reeves, Sandra Chambers, Sequoyah Reynolds, Jean Thomas, Ruth Leach and Ann Underwood.

Cavazos shakes up lawmakers

AUSTIN--Capitol halls more than murmured last week after four liberal lawmakers walked out in protest of a joint session address by U.S. Secretary of Education Lauro Cavazos.

Cavazos, a native of Corpus Christi and former president of Texas Tech University, told legislators gathered to equalize public school funding that more money is not the solution to education woes — and that basic changes in the system are needed.

The majority of lawmakers, Democrats ready to follow Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby's massive new reforms?", questioned one. Besides the pressure lawmakers feel to raise taxes during an election, some also resent the futility of the situation. Gov. Bill Clements has promised to slam-dunk into the trash basket any new tax bills.

Clements put a $200 million lid on new spending for schools because they can take the money from other agencies.

All they're going to get for bumping the lid is a sore head, and some political careers could die in the ballot box.

Velvet Gloves Off

They finally made Ann Richards angry enough to take off the velvet gloves, but she replaced them with the boxing variety and zinged her tormentors with a couple of well-placed shots.

For weeks, her gubernatorial opponents, Mark White and Jim Mattox, thrashed her for dodging the issue of past drug abuse.

Turning the guns on them, Richards questioned how White could afford a $1.3 million mansion in Houston so soon after stints as attorney general and governor.

As for Mattox, she said he should make public whether he received $200,000 in profit from a real estate investment with Danny Faulkner, a Garland developer whose racketeering trial ended in mistrial.

Appointments For Sale

Mattox mainly went about his campaign business, but an angry White, answering the charges that "he lined his pockets" while governor, released his income tax filings for the past 16 years.

White is now fighting charges that he enriched himself as governor by appointing individuals to key boards who steered millions of dollars in business to companies that hired White's former Houston law firm.

White and Mattox have been saying that Richards cannot win in November, but she found an unlikely ally last week, who all but defused the drug issue.

Clayton Williams, at this point the GOP frontrunner, said he thinks Richards has answered the question and that they ought to lay off her on that. He said he won't use it as an issue. Of course, someone else may bring it up.

Other Highlights

- If elected attorney general, Sen. Buster Brown, R-Lake Jackson, said he would try to remove U.S. District Judge William Wayne Justice from the federal case involving Texas' crowded prisons.

- Three of every four Texans believe abortion is a private issue, according to a poll by the Texas Abortion Rights Action League.

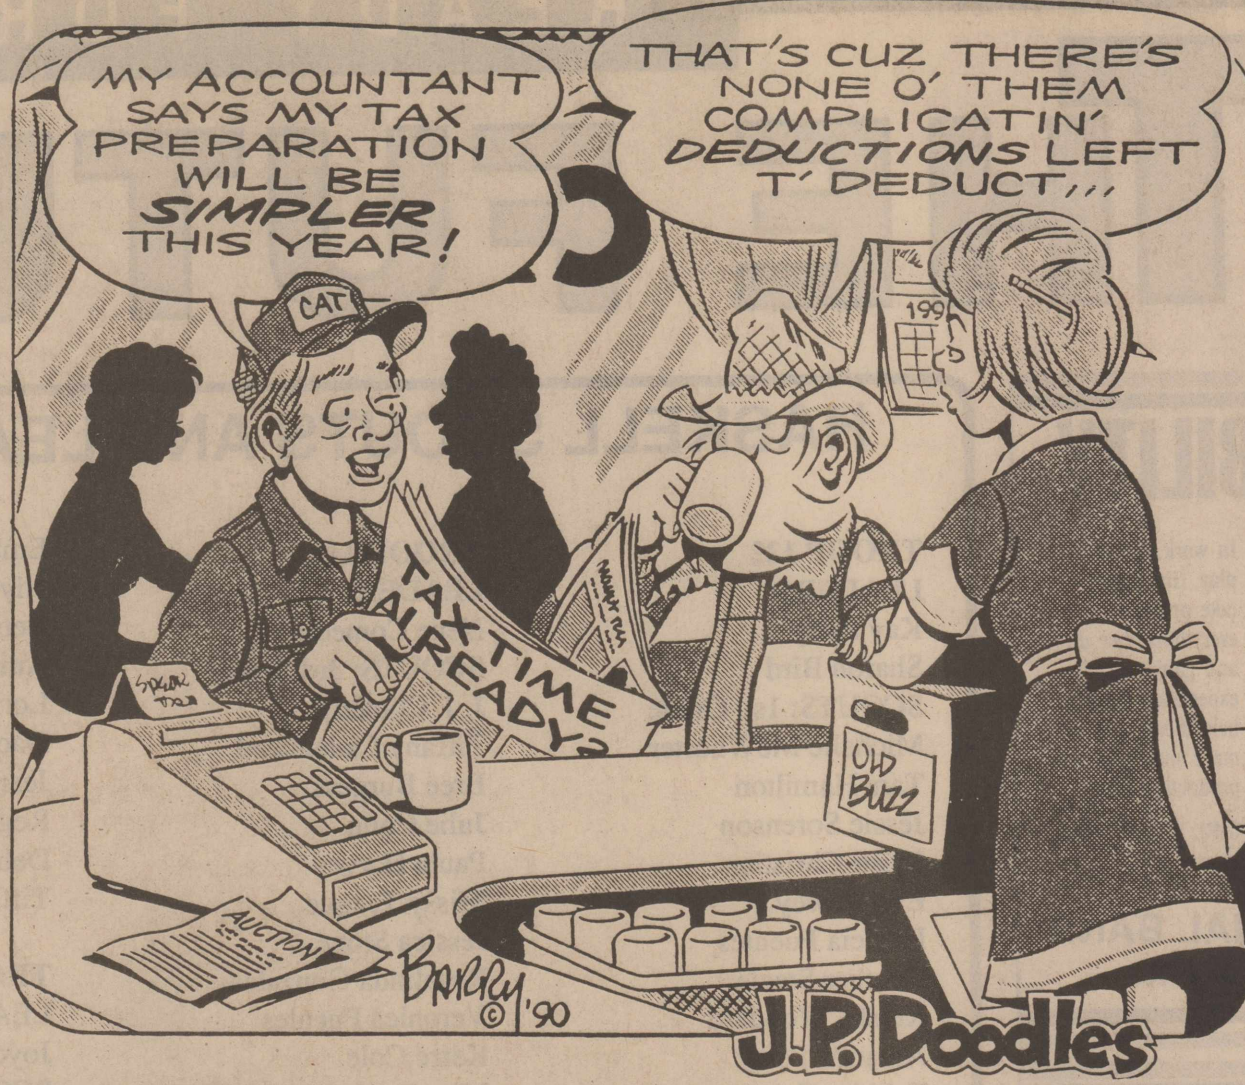

- State Rep. Doyle Willis, D-Fort Worth, filed a bill to bar counties from hiring members of hate groups.

Listed among those in Who's Who in Texas High Schools will be Paul Kuenstler, Buster Gholson, Hassell Hunter, Leatrice Wheeler, Wanda Dulancy and Jean Conner from Haskell High School.

60 Years Ago March 20, 1930

The importance of the poultry industry in Haskell County is furnished by the statement of Hollis Atkeison, proprietor of the M System Store, who states that on last Saturday over one thousand dozen eggs--1,167 dozen to be exact--were purchased by his store.

Bill Whiteker, student in John Tarleton College, spent the weekend with home folks here.

Dr. Ben F. Ammons spent the weekend with his brother, Dr. E. M. Ammons of Munday.

In our announcement column this week will be found the name of T. R. Odell of Throckmorton as a candidate for the office of representative of the 113th district which is composed of Haskell, Throckmorton and Baylor counties.

80 Years Ago March 12, 1910

Miss Hancock entertained a host of friends Saturday night in her home.

The Commissioners Court has adopted an order calling for sale of the Haskell County school lands. The land will be sold only to actual settlers in tracts of 160 acres.

We have a letter from W. T. Jones at Fort Stockton, stating that Pecos County would vote on local option the 15th. He is also interested in the election to be held here. If the pros win he wants us to telegraph him; if we lose, let it go and he will find out all to soon.

A well known lecturer and scientist, Wm. B. Petty, will speak at the North Ward School Monday and will also present some demonstrations. Included will be Radium Liquid Air and Wireless Telegraphy.

90 Years Ago March 17, 1900

The trustees are having the school well cleaned and a new and substantial curbing put about it.

Miss Lura Hale left Monday for Farmersville where she will remain for some time.

Several of our citizens attended the cattlemen's big convention at Fort Worth this week. We ascertained the following names of those who went: M. S. Shook, W. T. Hudson, F. M. Morton, J. S. Boone, S. S. Cummings, A. B. Carother, R. H. McKee and J. L. Jones, the latter accompanied by his wife.

Support Haskell

Editor: Let's ask ourselves some questions about ourselves:

1. Why do we live in Haskell?
2. Do we want to see Haskell a ghost town?
3. Do we support Haskell every way we can?
4. Do we love the town of Haskell?
5. Are we loyal citizens of Haskell?
6. Do we want to see Haskell

Thanks

Editor: The Haskell Student Council and National Honor Society would like to extend our sincere thanks to all of our friends who have helped us achieve our trip to Washington, D.C.

Without your generosity this educational experience would only be a dream.

We, as students, appreciate the interest and support you, as townspeople, have given to our school. We are very excited about our trip and cannot wait to share our experiences with you.

Again, thank you for your contributions.

grow?
7. Do we want business in Haskell?

8. Do we pay taxes in Haskell?

9. Do we need school?

10. Do we need a hospital and doctors?

If you answered "no" to most of these questions, it is now time to make a change to improve ourselves to be a "yes" person.

We, as a community, need to unite together as one. One person cannot carry the load by him or herself. If we do not change our ways to promote Haskell, we will be waking up in the "twilight zone" of disaster. We make Haskell what it is today for tomorrow's future; the town does not make us. "Have a goal in your soul."

Let's have a positive attitude to make Haskell number 1. Let's forget the past and have a better outlook for tomorrow.

Quote of the week comes from Clayton Williams: "I'm not going to Austin to get rich. I'm already rich."

-o-

A county judge in this area is getting some flack for personally handing out surplus food commodities.

It reminds me of some old ways of politicking that took place years ago when I was living in Oklahoma.

County commissioners carried pads of grocery order blanks. They would write in the name of a constituent, along with an amount, and pass them out to the bearer.

They would be taken to a grocery store and redeemed for the stated amount in groceries. The grocer would send the order forms to the county for re-imbursment.

Locals of German ancestry may be interested in a new book, German-American Names, authored by George F. Jones, professor emeritus at the University of Maryland.

It gives an A-to-Z dictionary of German-American names, giving spellings, meanings and variants of 12,700 names. There are explanations of the meanings of names that derive from German or its dialects. It also deals with the Americanization of some names and with names that many would never have thought of as German.

For 25 bucks and $2.50 postage and handling, you can get a copy from the Genealogical Publishing Co., 1001 N. Calvert, Baltimore, Md. 21202.

Do you remember what you weighed when you were 18? Or 22 or 26?

If you are now approaching or beyond your middle years, you may have rosy memories of your former weight, concluding that there is some magic ideal weight that you should maintain all your life.

Surprise! More than 10 years of research by Dr. Reubin Andres and his colleagues at the Gerontology Research Center of the National Institute on Aging leads us to a very different conclusion.

The findings, confirmed recently in the Framingham, Mass., Heart Study and the Harvard University Alumni Study, show this: People who gain a moderate amount of weight steadily throughout their adult lives have lower mortality rates than people who gain no weight at all.

In other words, if your weight was within normal limits when you were a young adult, it is normal, healthy and conducive to a longer life to gain some weight as you age.

How much? The researchers say about six pounds per decade appears to be optimum unless you have diabetes or cardiovascular disease or a family history of heart problems.

-o-

Texas won't be getting any more of us Okies if a candidate for governor of the Sooner state has his way.

Steve Lewis kicked off his campaign with a news conference last week at the Texas-Oklahoma border on Interstate 44 south of Lawton. He explained that he chose the location because of what the Texas-Oklahoma border symbolizes.

"This is not just a border between states--it is the line that many of our young people have had to cross in order to find an opportunity to make a decent living," said the candidate.

-o-

Jones County's squabble with Abilene on the annexation issue reminds me of a situation in Oklahoma back in the mid-50s.

Oklahoma City was annexing property left and right--to such an extent that it had become the nation's second largest city in area.

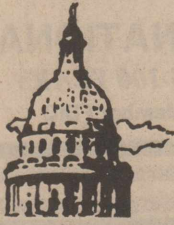

Citizens of Edmond, then a small town to the north, became fearful that Oklahoma City's appetite might extend into their territory. So the City Council of Edmond adopted a resolution calling for the annexation of Oklahoma City.

It was in jest, of course. But the bluff must have worked. There's still an Edmond.

tax and spending plan, found themselves squeezed between their leadership and Texas Republicans in the White House.

Protest Walkout

Incensed, state Sen. Carl Parker, D-Port Arthur, led the protest walkout and had plenty to say outside.

Parker will quarterback Hobby's bill through the Senate, and if Secretary Cavazos shot his new spending plan full of holes in his speech, Parker more than paid him back in media barbs.

Parker thinks Cavazos has back-shot every public school kid in the state.

Party Crasher

Sen. Carlos Truan, D-Corpus Christi, did more than that: he crashed the secretary's post-speech press conference to say:

"I feel betrayed and I feel embarrassed that the secretary of education — a minority from Texas — would not take a more aggressive position regarding the needs of education."

Others, including Sen. Hector Uribe, D-Brownsville, and Rep. Eddie Cavazos, D-Corpus Christi, echoed Truan's jabs, and Parker summed his anger: "That wasn't a speech for education; that was an apology for Republican policy."

Secretary Cavazos, who said he had given the speech dozens of times, including congressional committee meetings, commented that "no one has been angry with me until this came up the other day."

"It saddens me — not because it was a personal attack — but because people I have so much respect for take that kind of tactic, in front of television cameras and reporters."

Bump The Lid

Some Democratic members privately agreed with Cavazos, but few will openly oppose Hobby and Speaker Gib Lewis.

"If money were the answer, then why are we in this jam so soon after we passed two billion plus dollars for the H.B. 72

by Vicky Anderson
 Going to Austin this past weekend to attend the state basketball playoff games were Pam Bowles, Elaine Holcomb, Barb Melin, Lou Landes, Suzie Wilson and Lori Landes.

 The Rule High School auditorium was filled to overflowing for the program at Open House the night of March 6. The elementary students gave such an enthusiastic, rousing rendition of "Texas Our Texas", "Beautiful, Beautiful Texas", "Bluebonnets, Bluebonnets", "Just Like a Sleeping Giant", "Have You Ever Been To Texas in the Spring?", and "I'm An Old Cowhand". Students told the history of the Texas Lone Star flag, the State tree of Texas; the pecan, and the State flower, the bluebonnet. Refreshments were served to the public in the cafeteria, and then everyone toured the classrooms to view the handiwork of the students. Our congratulations to the teachers and students for a fine program.

 Our most sincere sympathy is extended to the family of W. S. "Skinny" Cole, who died at the age of 88 on the night of March 5. Sympathy is also sent to the family of former Hamlinite, Fannie Johnson of Odessa, who died the night of March 5th, two days after her 93rd birthday. Her family had just helped her celebrate her birthday two days before her death at an Odessa Nursing Home.

 If you missed the hamburger supper and night of one act plays at the Haskell Civic Center the night of March 9th, then it was your loss. Rule's performance of "Blithe Spirit" and Rochester's "Meet Me in St. Louis" were both well-done and all enjoyed the program. Too, Randy McLelland of Haskell gave us great between-plays entertainment. The zone competition of the plays will be performed in Aspermont the night of March 22.

 Teachers and students alike will be enjoying a well-deserved, spring-break next week from the 19-23.

Sympathy is extended to Joyce Howell, whose sister, Bernice Fuller Keen was buried last week. Mrs. Howell and Mrs. Keen grew up near Hamlin in the Dovie Community. Joyce is one of the wonderful pink ladies who work at the Stamford Memorial Hospital.

 Incidentally, while on the subject of helpful, caring people I fear that we too often take for granted the hard-working, compassionate nurses, especially those at nursing homes. This fact was brought home to me just recently while visiting the nursing homes at Haskell. Let's give those fine nurses a little praise for the great job they perform.

 Congratulations to Linna and R. T. Taylor of Avoca on their 63 years of wedded bliss. Linna's weekly news article is a joy to read as are the ones from Sagerton, Old Glory and Weinert, Ericksdahl and Rockdale. We also enjoy "Shooter" Dabney and David Epley's columns in the Twin Cities News.

 Visitors of Dovie Anderson over the weekend were her sister, Patsy Watson and husband, Edward Watson from Ft. Worth. They attended worship services with Dovie on Sunday.

Rule students get spring break

Students of Rule School will be out for spring break March 19-23. Classes will resume at 8:25 a.m. on March 26.

 Guests in the Saffel home on Friday night were V. Mullins from Hamlin and your writer. Mrs. Mullins came especially to attend the OAP night at Haskell. On Saturday morning the ladies accompanied by Susan and Julie Saffel went to Abilene. Heavy rain was encountered just outside of Rule, also half-way between Stamford and Anson was a heavy downpour. However, once we reached Anson, there was no more rain, except occasional sprinkling. After a sumptuous meal at Casa Ole, the group went to see: "Driving Miss Daisy".

 Deepest sympathy is sent to Anne Petty whose father, Roy Watts, died this past week.

Club has program on conservation

Guest Night was celebrated by the Progressive Study Club March 8 in the Community Room.

Mary Kaigler, president, called the meeting to order and asked the Paint Creek Boy Scouts to introduce themselves. Then other guests were introduced.

Oleta Cornelius called the roll and most members answered with an endangered species since the program theme was "Conservation."

Sandy Forehand introduced her son, Don Horton, who is employed by the City of Carrollton as landscape supervisor. He graduated from Texas Tech with a bachelor of science degree. Sandy added that Don had worked at Philmont Boy Scout Camp for five years.

Don broadened the conservation horizons by saying that 50 acres are deforested every minute and there are very few laws to prevent such. This causes silt to build up. Carrollton has to dredge two lakes often. People are warned to eat no fish from the Trinity River. Urbanization has caused so much land to be taken and has created the need for more parks since people need to escape and get away from the city.

The management problems are great. Tree planting has become a world activity. Don handed out a pamphlet telling about Carrollton's Jubilee Trees, a program of donating a tree which began in 1988 to celebrate the city's 75th year and is to continue to the 100th year. Don's presentation was completed by his showing a number of slides of beautiful Texas parks, which now number 105. Two have been added recently. Earth Day, April 22, began years ago by a small boy as a class project. Today it calls us to think globally and act locally.

"To waste, to destroy our natural resources, to skin and exhaust the land instead of using it to increase its usefulness will result in undermining in the days of our children the very prosperity which we ought by right to hand down to them amplified and developed." (A quote from a message to Congress by Theodore Roosevelt in 1907 and selected by yearbook chairman Jimmie Weinert, was made more meaningful to everyone by Don's remarks.

The Mesquite District Convention will be in Sweetwater March 16-17.

Other guests were Scout Master Waller Overton, Mrs. Waller Overton, Mrs. Gene Overton and Angie Cone of Paint Creek, several members of the Forehand family and a number of husbands of club members.

Hostesses Nedra McCauley, Sharee Gardner, Helen Fouts, Nancy Toliver and Mary Kaigler served cake squares, olives, nuts, punch and coffee.

Weinert club has program on stress

Weinert Extension Homemakers met March 5 in the home of Alice Yates.

Betty Sanders, president, called the house to order.

Nine members answered roll call with "What I do when I have stress." The hostess read poem, "The Garden of Behavior." Minutes were read by the secretary and approved as read. The treasurer's report was given. Alice Yates gave the Council report.

Tri-County Rally Day will be March 28 in Benjamin. Everyone needs to go and participate.

The club voted to send Myrtle Phemister as TEHA delegate for the district meeting at Rotan April 11. Alice Yates is alternate.

There will be a 4-H clothing Fashion Show May 20 at Paint Creek.

The program for the day was "Life in a Pressure Cooker," presented by Myrtle Phemister and Faye Jetton. This was all about stress and the effects of it, and the ways to cope with it.

Refreshments were served by the hostess. Those attending were Cordie Cunningham, Agnes Wincheter, Henrietta Rueffer, Myrtle Phemister, Betty Sanders, Alta McGuire, Faye Jetton, Jimmie Weinert and a guest, Mildred Offut.

--Obituaries--

James H. Strain

James H. Strain Sr., 87, died Saturday at his home in Haskell.

Funeral services were Monday morning at the First United Methodist Church with the Rev. Kenney Kirk officiating. Burial was in Willow Cemetery, under direction of Holden-McCauley Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Steve Strain, Kent Strain, Craig Strain, Randy Lloyd, Wendel Lloyd, Larry Richardson and Bobby Schroeder.

Born Aug. 30, 1902, in Blue Springs, Miss., Strain moved to Haskell in 1936 and had been a farmer and rancher since 1937. He was co-owner/operator of International Harvester from 1936 to 1957.

He moved to Colorado City in 1940 and back to Haskell in 1944. In 1959, he founded J. H. Strain and Sons Highway Construction Co. The Chamber of Commerce named him Citizen of the year for 1979-80. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church.

He married Victoria Alice Mayes in Carlsbad, N. M., Oct. 31, 1929. She preceded him in death Oct. 8, 1989.

Survivors include two sons, James Strain and Ernest Strain, both of Abilene; a daughter, Doris (Mrs. Herman) Lloyd of Abilene; three sisters, Mary Collins of Longview, Nannie Lou Grimes of Mineola and Mrs. Jesse Moore of Oklahoma City; a brother, W. W. Strain of San Angelo; eight grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

Eugene Gonzales

Graveside services were held Monday afternoon at Willow Cemetery for Eugene Gonzales Jr., infant son of Eugene and Christine Gonzales.

The baby died Friday in Hendricks Medical Center in Abilene.

Burial was in Willow Cemetery, under direction of Holden-McCauley Funeral Home. Sr. Encarnacion Juste, M.M. B., officiated.

He also is survived by his grandparents, Ofilia Salazar and Mr. and Mrs. Geronimo Gonzales, all of Haskell.

-Hobby Club-

Helen Cox was hostess for 17 members and six guests at the March 6 meeting of the Rochester Hobby Club.

Much visiting was enjoyed and quilting was accomplished. Plans were made for the club to have a bake sale a week before or just before Easter. Orders may be called in ahead of time.

Blanche Corley is to be hostess for the March 20 meeting.

TAX PLANNING

Written By
James E. Rodgers, CPA

DEALING WITH THE IRS

The average taxpayer probably doesn't care how many divisions there are within the IRS or how the work gets allocated to the various departments. But if you're a taxpayer who has reason to correspond with the service, there are a few things to keep in mind.

The two main units you will have contact with are the audit branch and the collection branch. The audit branch is responsible for examining tax returns and determining the correct income tax. The collection branch has several duties, one of which is the collection of unpaid taxes. Contact from the IRS can be done by phone, correspondence, or in person.

It is important to take any contact from the IRS seriously and to respond at once. What may seem like an almost casual first contact from a "lower level" employee of the IRS should be treated by you as a significant event. Also, don't ignore computer-generated notices from the IRS.

Keep a record of all contacts with the IRS including dates, IRS employee names, telephone numbers, and written correspondence to and from the IRS. It is difficult for any accountant to assist you in dealing with the IRS unless a complete chain of events and appropriate correspondence identification numbers are maintained.

If the IRS requests items such as cancelled checks, bank statements, receipts, or other documentation, send copies. Keep the originals in your records; you may need them again.

Use certified mail or return receipt requested when sending documentation to the IRS and when mailing anything with a deadline.

The IRS can and does make mistakes so don't assume that their notices or calculations are always correct. Have any IRS notice reviewed by your accountant so that you do not pay more tax than you legitimately owe.

Bikers pedal 310 miles from Austin

Boosted by a 19-miles-per-hour tailwind, a quartet of bicyclists arrived in Haskell Monday to conclude a 310-mile trek from Austin.

Doyle High, Shawn Lane, Matt Lane and High's friend Bill Sandlin of Oklahoma City, completed the three-day trip at about 2:30 p.m. David Tidwell made the first two days with them, but had to leave to go to work Monday.

The five left Austin about 8 Sunday morning and pedaled 120 miles in about eight hours to San Saba where they spent the night. The next day, they were slowed by rain, but were able to reach Coleman, 85 miles from San Saba, to spend the night.

Helped by the tailwind Monday, they were able to make up for time lost the previous day and reach Haskell, 105 miles from Coleman, far ahead of schedule.

-Green Thumb-

By Gladys O'Neal

If your African Violet isn't blooming properly, make sure it is getting the correct amount of light. Too much light or too little light can interfere with flower production. A plant receiving insufficient light will have dark-green leaves supported on long, weak stems. Too much light will give the leaves a yellow appearance. In the winter it would be best to place the violet plant in a south or west-facing window, in a east or north facing window during the summer.

People are saying the aphids are on their plants. If you have these little sucking insects, infestations cause distorted growth and leave a sticky residue that will bring disease and ants. You can control with alcohol and water in a spray, or insecticidal soap, malathion, Diazinon, or Orthene applied by the label directions.

If your old garden hose has sprung a few too many leaks, don't use it; make additional holes with an ice pick and you will have a nice soaker.

Pour a little household bleach on weeds that crop up between flagstones or in gravel.

Control garden snails or slugs without dangerous chemicals by filling a shallow pan with beer and leaving it overnight. The beer attracts the pests, which will then crawl in the pan and drown.

A good spray for indoor plants is to take 5 drops of dishwashing soap to a quart of tepid water and spray the leaves once a week.

If you have those pesky white mealy bugs, carefully dab the affected areas with a cotton-tipped swab soaked in alcohol. Do lightly when touching the leaves, because the alcohol will burn the leaves.

Cooled water from boiled eggs, potatoes or vegetables is great for plants. It is loaded with minerals.

Cats hate citrus fruit, so put orange peelings where you don't want cats.

If you have trouble with ants, put cucumber peels where they enter; the ants will leave.

My friend, Ernestine Herren, brought me a sack of wildflower seeds and I am so anxious to plant them. She and Sam have a beautiful meadow of wildflowers. Once established, most of these will spread slowly into generous clumps. I have several troublesome spots to convert into a pretty garden. If I can get them to grow, I will think of it as a fascinating side of our heritage.

If you are an organic gardener, add manure to the garden now. Fresh manure needs time to decompose to prevent burning of tender plants or transplants.

Happy gardening everybody! I hope I have helped with these little hints and ideas.

Dealing with pressure program topic

The Paint Creek Home Extension Club met March 5 in the homemaking department of Paint Creek School.

Dolores Medford, president, called the meeting to order and guided the day's program.

A reading, "Do You Just Belong?" was given by Ann Sinclair. Mabel Overton read several "sayings" by Will Rogers.

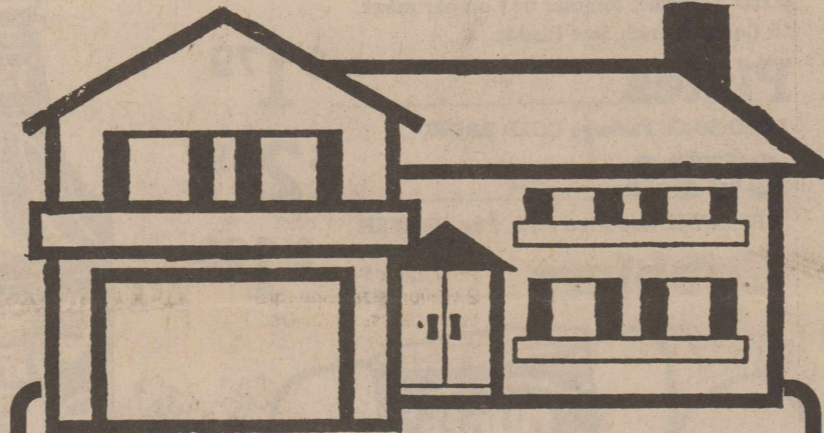

Roll call was answered with "What I do when I have the blues." In business action, the club voted to donate to the Haskell County Library for repairs to the building.

The program, "Life In a Pressure Cooker," was on stress and was given by Ann Sinclair. Everyone enjoyed the program and agreed that it was important to be able to recognize and deal with the stress and pressures that occasionally come in our daily lives.

The meeting was adjourned and refreshments in the St. Patrick's Day theme were served by Mabel Overton. Next meeting will be April 2.

HHS Track teams to run at Wylie

Haskell track teams opened the season Saturday with impressive showings in the Anson Relays.

This Saturday, the Indians and Maidens will be in Wylie for the Bulldog Relays.

Coach Walter Hargrove's Indians finished second behind 3A Breckenridge in the 16-team field at Anson, despite some tough luck.

Roger Roewe took first in the discuss (148) and Joe Ray Comacho won first in the 3200 meters (10:23.19).

Coach Kerry Gartman's Maidens ran a strong fifth with first places by Regina Dever in the 400 meters (62.38) and the 1600-meter relay team of Sheila Unger, Dever, Holly Hobgood and Missy Davis.

For the Indians, Jonathan Dever was second in the long jump (21-3), Roewe was third in the shot (46-7 1/2) and Rodney Johnson was third in the triple jump (42-1).

Also winning points for the Indians were Comacho in the 800, Harper Stewart in the intermediate hurdles and pole vault, Dever in the 400, Johnson in the triple jump, Jeremy Fuentes in the 200 and 400 and the mile relay team of Dever, Comacho, Johnson and Carlos Mendoza.

Johnson ran a 10.8 in the 100 in the preliminaries but was disqualified in the finals. The sprint relay team of Fuentes, Dever, Johnnie Billington and Johnson missed a baton exchange on the last leg and failed to qualify. Billington pulled a hamstring in the preliminaries after he had qualified for the 200.

Erik Harvey will replace Billington this week on the sprint relay team. The Indians also will be without the services of Johnson and Stewart who will be taking a school trip to Washington.

Also finishing in the top 3 for the Maidens were Dever in the 100 (13.25) and Missy Davis in the 300 hurdles (51.79). Unger was fourth in the 800 (2:37.25) and fifth in long jump (16-1).

Weinert 4-H has program on bike safety

Betty Raynes presented a demonstration on bicycle care and maintenance when the Weinert 4-H Club met Wednesday afternoon (March 7) for its monthly meeting.

She showed the boys and girls how to fix flats, inflate tires, adjust seats and handlebars and oil chains.

Also discussed at the meeting were the upcoming method demonstration, "Share The Fun," and illustrated talk contests.

NOTICE OF TARIFF CHANGE TO CENTRANET® SERVICE

GTE Southwest Incorporated gives notice of its proposed tariff changes to CentraNet® service, which is a Central Office-based service that provides PBX-type features to multi-line business customers and is currently being offered in all company wire centers where such facilities exist to provide the service.

The Public Utility Commission of Texas approved a generic tariff for CentraNet® service up to 100 lines in Docket No. 7652. The proposed tariff revision would establish specific rates for CentraNet® service involving 101 to 400 lines. Other proposed revisions involve the rate applicable to changes, additions, or deletions to the data bases and a new rate is proposed for additional trunks.

The names of the three CentraNet® packages have changed from Standard, Premium, and Deluxe to CentraNet® 1000, CentraNet® 2000, and CentraNet® 3000, respectively. Direct Call Pickup has been added to the three CentraNet® packages while Multiple Call Park and Shared Speed Call 30 have been added to CentraNet® 2000, and Speed Call 30 and Call Forward Busy/No Answer Split have been added to CentraNet® 3000. Flexible Night Answer and Automatic Route Selection also have been added as new optional features.

The proposed changes and new service offerings have been assigned Docket No. 9251, and pursuant to Section 43(d) of the Public Utility Regulatory Act will become effective June 23, 1990. Rates for service will be applicable to customers who subscribe to the service as well as existing customers. Therefore, there will be no effect on any other rates of the company. The company's gross annual revenues will increase by approximately $399,600, or less than one percent annually.

The proposed rates are on file with the Public Utility Commission of Texas, and are available for public inspection at the offices of GTE Southwest Incorporated. Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission. The deadline to intervene in this docket is 3:00 p.m., April 9, 1990.

A request to intervene, participate, or for further information, should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas, 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227 or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Weight Loss Pill 'Baffles' Scientists

WASHINGTON - Scientists are baffled by a new weight loss formula that causes people to lose weight even though they don't change the way they normally eat.

Studies published in respected scientific journals such as The British Journal of Nutrition say that cyamopsis tetragonolobus, an ingredient often used to thicken ice cream, can cause permanent weight loss without dieting or exercise. Although several explanations for the weight loss are suggested, the most likely according to scientists, is that the ingredient seems to "trap" high calorie fat particles, decreasing their absorption in the intestines.

Scientists at National dietary Research, an organization committed to the research and development of nutritional solutions to world-wide health problems, have successfully isolated and incorporated cyamopsis tetragonolobus into an improved formula that greatly enhances the potential for weight loss over the ingredient alone. Called Food Source One, the revolutionary new formula provides a three-way scientifically designed process to help prevent calorie absorption.

The mechanism by which Food Source One works to decrease body weight is a complicated process called nutri-bonding. When chewed and swallowed immediately before meals, high calorie fats are replaced with lower calorie nutrients, thereby providing optimum nutrition and a minimum number of fat calories as explained in an instruction sheet that accompanies the tablets. The instruction sheet should be followed for optimum results.

Food Source One is unlike any other product on the market and is available immediately because it is not a drug and only contains natural ingredients already known to be safe. Physicians and pharmacists are praising Food Source One as a natural, drug free alternative for the treatment of obesity.

Food Source One is available at:

Shower honors Hutchinson

Miss Debbie Hutchinson was honoree March 3 at a miscellaneous gift shower hosted in the fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church in Weinert.

Receiving guests were Mrs. Woody Turnbow, with her mother, Mrs. Lester Hutchinson; the groom's mother, Mrs. Mack Newbury of Junction; the groom's two grandmothers, Mrs. Carolyn Trimble and Mrs. Bonnie Newbury, both of Junction; and Debbie's two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Dieter Hutchinson of Haskell and Mrs. Wayne Hutchinson of Weinert.

Special guests included aunts Jean Curd of Arlington, Grace Hutchinson, Christine Meers and Joan Hutchinson, all of Munday, and cousins Holly Hutchinson, Angela Herricks and Doris Smith of Medina. Extra special guest was niece Lauren Hutchinson of Haskell.

A western theme was used in the decorations and red, white and blue were the bride's chosen colors. Red punch was served in red cups, dipped with a dipper from a crock jar on a table covered with a blue denim cloth.

Decorations of wooden cutouts of cactus, coyotes and cowboys were used as centerpieces, and cookies baked in shapes of boots, stars and Texas were served from baskets onto red bandana plates with bandana napkins.

The honoree, hostess and guests were dressed in western wear and the wedding set for March 17 in Junction will be solemnized in a western setting.

Messenger-Curfew engagement revealed

Rick and Barbara Messenger have announced the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Jennifer Arlinda Messenger, to Lester Reese Curfew of Austin.

The bride-to-be is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Messenger of Haskell and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Muhle of Rocheter.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Spud

Curfew of Crane.

The wedding will be June 16 at the Crane Christian Church and the couple will reside in Austin.

Jennifer is a senior at Dickinson (N.D.) High School and is employed by G. R. Hergerger's Inc. Reese is a student at the University of Texas in Austin and is employed by NASA and Helmreich Organizational Psychology, Inc.

Gardeners program on daffodils

Members of the Haskell Garden Club met Thursday in the Community Room. Mollie Carlisle presided in Linda King's absence.

The roll call was answered with naming favorite bulbs. Several brought beautiful horticulture consisting of three species of daffodils and branches of fruit blossoms.

Lorene Dewey read the minutes of the previous meeting. The district convention was discussed and members learned their club had won a state award. The district convention will be in Stamford April 6-7.

Members voted to give a donation to the "Save the Library" fund.

Mollie Carlisle gave an interesting talk on "Dancing Daffodils." They are one of the first flowers of spring coming in many different colors and species determined by the size of the trumpets. Two that do well in this area are the King Alfred and the Mt. Hood. Once planted, they will come up for years. It is good to sometimes plant a ground cover over them to hide the ugliness in the garden, and they will not be disturbed. Use a low nitrogen fertilizer and bone meal when you plant them. Always plant daffodil or any bulbs in the fall.

Refreshments were served to 14 members by the hostesses, Leon Pearsy. All who are interested are urged to attend this program. It will be given by an authoritative person.

Mrs. King honored at shower

Mrs. Kerry King, nee Traci Landes, was honoree at a brunch and wedding shower, hosted in the lovely country home of Sandra Nichols on Saturday, March 3.

In the receiving line with Mrs. Nichols and the bride were the bride's mother, Mrs. Ronnie Landes of Rule; the groom's mother, Mrs. Jerry King of Munday; the bride's two grandmothers, Mrs. Ludora Neeley of Rule and Mrs. Dorothy Landes of Rotan; also the groom's grandmothers, Mrs. Margurite King and Mrs. Bob Brown, both of Munday.

Special guests included aunt Patsy King and Deena King of Munday, Beverly Landes of Rotan and Leticia Reyes of Rotan.

Kerry and Traci were united in marriage in Rule on Feb. 10. They are both students at Western Texas College in Snyder.

Buying a Center Pivot vs. Buying a Valley and a Good Dealer.

One thing is for sure, a good dealership doesn't cost a penny more, yet a poor one can cost you a bundle. That's something to think about, because if hardware is all you measure, you're missing the vital link — us, your Valley dealer.

That link is why the cheapest product is not necessarily the best buy. Through thick and thin, good and bad economic times, the biggest bargain in irrigation is a good dealership. One with staying power, factory-trained service, and parts. It means service and parts you can depend on for many, many years.

So don't just compare equipment when you buy your next system. Compare dealers. We're ready to talk when you are.

Valley Dominates the Field.

World Fellowship topic for program

Members of Beta Chi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society International met March 4 in the First United Methodist Church of Aspermont.

Jackye Leonard, president, called the meeting to order and welcomed guests, Gean Moody, Carmen Camp and Mary Johnson, and members.

Susan Pope, music chairman, accompanied by Martin Martin, led the "Delta Kappa Gamma Song." Alta McGuire, secretary, read the minutes of the December meeting and a letter from Cecil Klump, whose recently deceased wife Maxine was a Beta Chi member.

One purpose of the society is to advance the professional interest and position of women in education, so members are encouraged to apply for scholarships. Applications from Alice Jones and Phyllis Reed were read. Each listed her qualifications and the reasons for attending college during the 1990 summer session. A Red-Rose Salute, a lovely framed certificate, was presented to Alice Jones who has rendered a special service by preparing and mailing the newsletter prior to each meeting.

Three membership committee members, Vida White, Katrina Robinson and Mary Sawyers, presented applications for several new members. Ballots containing the names were handed out. All were elected to active membership. Initiation will be at the April meeting in Haskell which will be under the direction of Ida Jo Owens, ceremonial chairman.

Mrs. Gene Moody, World Fellowship chairman, was guest speaker. World Fellowships are granted to women from foreign countries who desire to study in the United States and Canada. Many of these are working toward advanced degrees and stay as long as three years.

Mrs. Moody, who spent a year in England, emphasized how her life was enriched by the experience. Often the recipients will stay in homes of Delta Kappa Gamma members. This stimulates personal and professional growth, one purpose of the society.

Women in war-torn countries are aided. Mrs. Moody told how a German educator came after World War II. There are three World Fellowship students at the University of Texas now. One is from Paris. One from Costa Rica is at Texas A&M. All are working toward PhDs. Mrs. Moody encouraged members to make memorials to state and world scholarship funds. The amount of each grant has been increased.

Carmen Camp encouraged members to attend the state convention in Lubbock June 14-16 and the area workshop in Snyder Sept. 8. Women cannot experience "a genuine spiritual fellowship" unless they attend meetings.

Members from Aspermont, Old Glory and Sagerton were hostesses. They served a variety of cake squares, Kool Whip, coffee and blue lemonade.

County girl is winner in pageant

On March 3, Erica Hollingsworth competed in "Our Diamond Miss Pageant" in Abilene at the Ramada Inn.

She was a triple-crown winner, winning in Glamour Girl, Modeling and Talent. She will compete at the state pageant in June.

Erica also competed in the "Little Miss Shamrock" sponsored by KTAB and the Mall of Abilene for the Muscular Dystrophy Association on March 10 where she placed first runnerup.

Erica is the granddaughter of Jo Wimberly and the great-granddaughter of May Belle Wimberly, both of Haskell.

Rule committee continues planning

Mmbers of the Rule Community Memorial Foundation met Feb. 27 to discuss and further develop plans for the community memorial monument.

Committee reports indicate that $34,000 of the toal $40,000 goal has been received with plans being made to provide opportunities and to encourage those who have not made gifts to do so.

The monument is well into being carved and will probably be delivered in late March. Constuction plans and arrangements were discussed at length. Landscaping was discussed, as was the potential government grant.

A proposal to publish a souvenir memorial dedication booklet was tabled pending determination of costs.

Dedication plans and providing an appropriate program were main topics of the meeting, having representatives of the Homecoming Committee, Chamber of Commerce and Jubilee Celebration present.

Since the dedication ceremony is an encroachment on the Homecoming Day activities, the foundation decided to let the Homecoming Committee determine the advisability of having a joint Jubilee-Homecoming-Dedication Day. The Homecoming Committee later decided to hold Jubilee on another date, scheduling homecoming and dedication for Oct. 20. Further plans will be announced at a later date.

With the reality of the monument nearing, interest and enthusiasm continues to mount. All members of the community are encouraged to attend the next meeting scheduled for March 27 at 7:30 p.m. at the Lions Club building to join in and have a part in the making of this community project.

Knox OES meets Monday

Knox chapter 119 OES will meet Monday (March 19) at 7:30 p.m. for a stated meeting and friendship program.

Order of the Eastern Star Chapter members of the area are invited to attend.

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as a result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate. The cost is only $60.00. A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

RAILROAD COMMISSION OF TEXAS OIL AND GAS DIVISION
DISTRICT 7B
DATE OF ISSUANCE: March 8, 1990
CASE NO. 106,910
NOTICE OF APPLICATION
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Applicant, TKP Petroleum Inc., P. O. Box 64664, Lubbock, TX 79464, has made application for a spacing exception permit under the provisions of 16 Texas Administrative Code §3.37 (Railroad Commission Statewide Rule 37). Applicant seeks exception to the lease line distance requirement to drill Well No. 1, FCSF Unit Lease, 40 Acres, Red River CSL LGE 71, Lot 12 Survey, Rule (5000), Wildcat and Haskell County Regular Fields, Haskell County, being in the townsite of Rule, Texas
The location of this well is as follows:
254' from northwest line and 483' from most northerly south line of lease.
2195' from north line and 1730' from east line of survey. Field Rules for the Rule (5000) and Wildcat Fields are 467/1200, 40 Acres. Field Rules for the Haskell County Regular Field are 330/933, 20 Acres.
This well is to be completed at an approximate depth of 5999 feet.
PURSUANT to the terms of Railroad Commission Statewide Rule 37(h) (2) (A), this permit may be granted administratively if no protest to the application is received. An offer of mineral interest owner and lessee is entitled to request a hearing on this application. They must be prepared to appear at the hearing either in person or by qualified representative and protest this application through cross-examination or presentation of a direct case subject to all applicable rules of evidence. If a hearing is called, the burden of proof of the need for an exception is placed on the applicant. A protestant should be prepared, however, to establish your standing to protest as an affected person, if challenged. If you have questions regarding why the applicant is seeking this exception, contact the Applicant's representative, Thomas K. Payne, President, at (806) 799-1888. If you have any questions regarding standing or other matters, please contact the Commission at (512) 463-6718.
If you wish to request a hearing on this application, you must fill out, sign and mail or deliver to the Austin office of the Railroad Commission of Texas Notice of Intent to Appear in Protest. A copy of the intent to appear in protest must also be mailed or delivered on the same date to applicant at the address shown above. This intent to appear in protest must be RECEIVED in the Railroad Commission's Austin Office by April 19, 1990. If no protest is received by said date, the requested permit will be granted administratively, to be effective the following day. 11-14c

--Weinert--

by Myrtle Phemister
We are enjoying the nice cool weather, the intermittent showers, the sweet clean air, and the color "green". Things are "lookin' good."
We have had over 2 inches of rain the past few days, with no storms, and only a bit of lightning in our area.

Our health is generally good, with no new or severe illness to report, and no new babies or weddings, yet.

Birthday balloons will fly this week for Timmy Perez, Mildred Offutt, Joyce Robertson, Linda Mahan, Rick Hacker and R. S. Sanders. Happy birthday, all!

Basking in the sun and enjoying the sand, sea and surf in Hawaii this week are four Weinert ladies, Tina and Tinka Herricks, and Jeanna and Karen Byrd who are making good use of the spring break from school.

Laurie Hester is home for spring break, and will enjoy sleeping late if neighbors will forego early telephone calls.

Kent Sanders is home from A&M for a few days, and is happy the ground is too wet to plow.

Visiting in the home of Donnie and Shelia Harbers last week were his parents, Doc and Finley Harbers of Yoakum. The new baby got more spoiling!

J. C. and Naomi Henderson, of Burleson, nephew of Ab Henderson, were on vacation, and stopped by for a visit with Francis Mahan last week.

They appreciated (as we all do) the clean neat cemetery where their uncle Ab is buried.

Jo Luker of San Angelo and Jackie Sims of Texarkana are in town for a visit with their sister, Helen and Buck Turnbow.

Joe Garrett of Abilene was up for a visit with his sister, Ida and Willie Farrel, but took ill quite suddenly and was rushed through the rain storm to the emergency room at Humana where he is recuperating.

Visiting in the home of Ted and Faye Jetton were his nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wheeler of Bakersfield, California, who lived in Weinert when he was a small boy.

They are visiting relatives in this area before making the move to Bangkok, Thailand, for a six year tenure with his Union Oil and Gas Co.

Mrs. Erma Liles and Margurite King attended memorial services in Baird on March 12 for Mrs. Juanell Snyder of Moran, former Mesquite District Federated Club President.

Marvin and Myrtle Phemister were in Rockdale on Monday to attend memorial services for Marvin's cousin, Oval Shaw, father of Bill Shaw of Haskell.

Attending the annual rattlesnake round-up in Sweetwater is something a lot of people enjoy, and among them this year were Betty and Bob Raynes, and Donald and Gracie Griffis with Edwin and Frieda Fly of Rochester.

The flea market was rained out on Sat., but is classed as one of the largest in Texas. All the events makes it a great time to visit Sweetwater.

Linda and Donald Mahan were in Mineral Wells for a visit in the homes of their children, Michelle Saddler and Leonard Mahan on Sat.

Len is assistant manager for McDonald's there, and is enjoying being the chief cook.

Doneta and Jerry Don Hudgens with Bryce and Caleb were in Lubbock for a visit with Doneta's father, Louis Dale, who is recovering from a stroke. He is doing very well.

Several from Weinert were in Munday for the weekend to attend the seminar presented by the Munday Church of Christ.

Theme of the seminar was Joy in Christ and some of the topics discussed included "Prescription for Stress", "Living Beyond Worry", "The advantage of being a Christian" and "Costly Concern."

Dale Huff, of Haskell, John Scott and Maxie Boren of Ft. Worth, Mark Embree, Seymour, Stan Harvey, Stamford and Bob Willye of Knox City were out-of-town speakers who helped the local minister, Larry Fitzgerald with the program.

Erma Liles was a special guest at the Texas breakfast in Stamford on Sat., March 10 hosted by the Pierian Federated Club.

Other special guests were Margurite King of the Knox City club and Louise Massey, incoming District President of Mesquite District.

Theme of the program was "This Old House" and a miniature city of Stamford, including the post office and town hall were handmade and used as a decorative display at the breakfast.

Weinert school celebrated public school week last week and on Wed. hosted the parents of students to a lunch in the school cafeteria, where Kathi Hutchinson and Sarah Guess really out-did themselves preparing food for this last of "parents-day" in Weinert. Next year our students will be going elsewhere to school.

Raymon and Janie Boykin with Shelly of Vernon was in town Friday evening for a visit with his mother, Helen Boykin.

Cindy Parrott with Rance and Justin of Wichita Falls spent the weekend with her parents, Jerry and Doris Walker, and Justin stayed for a few days during his spring break from school.

Barry Walker of Abilene was home also, and reports he's enjoying his new job there.

The women are continuing to enjoy an hour of Christian fellowship as they put household duties on hold, step over denominational ties, and meet with friends at the Church of Christ each Wed. at 9:30 a.m. for a period of devotion and study of New Testament women.

Jeanette Phillips conducted the class last week for a study of the Canaanite women and Nancy Whittemore will introduce us to Mary this Wed. We have reserved a chair for you.

All roads will lead to Junction on Sat. as we help Debbie Hutchinson and Jamey Newbury tie the wedding knot. Congratulations.

The First Baptist Youth Dept. will host a banquet for the Adult I Class on Sat. night at 7 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

Have a nice day!

A CENTURY of VISION

by Pauline Couch
Vice-President & Cashier (Retired)

Haskell National Bank has been a trend setter since its inception in 1890. In 1923, a very young girl appeared on the roster of employees - a rare event, indeed, at that time! Nettie McCollum, whose name has become synonymous with Haskell National Bank, began a long career that was to last until her retirement December 31, 1968 - a span of forty-five years. She served twenty-five of those years as an officer, being the first woman to attain that rank as an employee. She was the only female employee for many years, and carved her niche among fellow co-workers. O. E. Patterson was Vice President, and acting C. E. O. at the beginning of her employment. Nettie was selected as Woman of the Year at the Chamber banquet in 1964, and is still active in the Baptist Church and Garden Club. She was an important stepping stone in helping to build Haskell National Bank's strong foundation, and tradition of pride and responsible service to the Community, and it's progress.

Accepting awards with Nettie McCollum are: Desmond Dulaney - 1964 Stemiwinder Award, and Abe Turner, Community Service Award.
