76 planes participate in air show

It just gets better. The third annual Haskell Fly-In and Pilots Breakfast Saturday morning was the biggest yet.

Seventy-six aircraft participated in the air show at the Haskell Municipal Airport. (Last year there were 49). The city sold 1,650 gallons of aviation fuel to the pilots.

And this year's crowd of spectators was much larger. Haskell firemen, who prepared the breakfast, served 302 participants and spectators, more than double the 140 head count of last year.

The air show was a joint project of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce and the City of Haskell.

Rike signs letter with Clarendon Junior College

James Rike signed a letter of intent Friday to play basketball for Clarendon Junior College.

The 6'-4" Haskell senior chose the Clarendon school after being recruited by McMurry College, West Texas State University, Wayland Baptist University, Cisco Junior College and Frank Phillips Junior College.

He said he chose Clarendon partially because of his chance to improve in the tough Western Junior College Athletic Conference in which the school competes.

Consensus All-American Larry Johnson of NCAA champion UNLV played with Odessa College in the same conference. Howard College, another member, was ranked No. 2 in the nation last season.

Other conference members are South Plains College, New Mexico

Military Institute, New Mexico Junior College, Western Texas College and Frank Phillips Junior College.

Rike led the Haskell Indians to three consecutive regional tournaments and one trip to the state tournament. He was all-district for four years.

In his senior year, Rike averaged 28 points and 10.5 rebounds per game. He was first-team all-state by both the Texas Sports Writers Association and the Texas Association of Basketball Coaches. He was chosen most valuable player in district 7-2A and TABC first team all-region. The Abilene Reporter-News named him the Area Player of the Year.

An honor student at Haskell High School, he also was named to the academic all-state team.

Rike is the son of John Sam and Mary Rike.

Another rodeo set this weekend

Haskell Horse Club will sponsor another open rodeo Friday and Saturday of this week.

Cowboy Recreation Rodeo Co. of Iowa Park, which produced the club's open rodeo May 11-12, will again be the producer.

The Haskell sponsoring group decided to take advantage of an open date the producer had, brought about when a scheduled rodeo at Munday had to be cancelled because of a conflict.

Rodeo events will include bull riding, saddle bronc riding, bareback riding, calf roping, steer wrestling and girls' barrel racing. There also will be team roping and junior barrels.

Extra attractions will include ranch bronc riding and a calf scramble for children.

Each evening's performance will begin at 8 o'clock. Admission will be $4 for adults and $2 for children under 12.

Graduation

105th class has 34 members

Thirty-four diplomas were awarded Friday evening in the 105th annual commencement of Haskell High School at the First Baptist Church.

Harper Stewart, honor student, led the invocation after the class of 1990 entered to the processional by Susan Pope and Phylecia Bailey.

Following the welcome by Missy Davis, honor student, the class sang "Up Where We Belong."

Kyle Darden then gave the salutatory address. Highest ranking girl, Missy Phemister, dedicated a musical tribute to the parents and Nelson Coulter sang "Thanks Again."

In his valedictory address, Davis Chapman challenged the graduates to meet the promise and problems of the future with courage and conviction. Principal Gerald McCoy recognized the honor students and assistant principal Diego Melton, along with representatives of various church and civic groups, presented academic scholarships to numerous graduates.

The class of 1990 sang, "That's What Friends Are For" and Superintendent Bill Stewart gave a brief address before calling each senior's name as school board president Mike Guess presented the diplomas.

As they accepted their diplomas, each class member handed Mr. Guess a piece of the rope barricade from school, symbolizing their new freedom and the accompanying responsibilities. After singing the school song and the benediction by honor student Marty Trussell, the class exited to the recessional.

Juniors leading the processional and recessional were Rod Jeter, Becky Cline, Erik Harvey and Tiffany Bradford. Serving as ushers were Corie Brzozowski, Amanda Diaz, Sheila Unger, Tiffany Williams, Chad Gibson, Nole Hadaway, Craig Hanson and Rusty Stocks.

Sponsors of the class of 1990 were Glenda Drinnon, Cathy Bartley, Margaret Chafin and Walter Hargrove.

Weinert School has final program

By Myrtle Phemister

The Weinert School has the scene of a special recognition service Sunday as patrons shared a "pot luck" lunch at the noon hour with an assembly at 2 p.m. in the school auditorium. This was the final school program for the Weinert School.

Those being honored were the school faculty, staff, school board and the graduating eighth-grade class.

H. L. Guess has served the school as superintendent for the past 24 years. He is retired.

Chesley Forehand has served as principal and coach for the past 23 years, with an exceptional record of winning teams. He is a graduate of Weinert School and of Abilene Christian University. He will be coach at Rochester ISD next year.

Other teachers honored included Mrs. Darlene Bellinghausen, Mrs. Janet Frazier, Mrs. Jeanie Forehand, Mrs. Deena Hacker, Mrs. Donita Hudgens, Mrs. Mary Murphy and Mrs. Caron Yates.

School at Weinert has been continuous since its first organized effort in 1907, and many changes have been wrought in the 83 years of its existence, having gone from a one-room hut to the very large facility it is today, and only low enrollment caused the demise of the school.

There were 27 students enrolled in the eight grades and pre-kindergarten classes this year.

At the program, Wanda Vojkufka served as master of ceremonies and her tears, and ours, were hidden in her blithe presentation and memories she recalled as she welcomed guests. Invocation was given by Hal Guess, after which Tiffen and Erlinda Mayfield recognized the honorees.

The staff who have served so faithfully includes Bill Briscoe, custodian, bus driver, mechanic and you name it; Kathi Hutchinson and Sarah Guess, lunch room workers, friends, nurses, counselors, confidant for all; Mrs. Shirlene Sikes and Mrs. Karen Harlan, secretaries; Mrs. Georgie Turnbow and Mrs. Andrea Estrada, aides and librarians.

Heather Guess, accompanied by her mother at the piano, sang "Wind Beneath My Wings."

The school board included Elmer Adams, Julian Estrada, Stanley Hager, Jerry Hester, Jerry Don Hudgens, Sandra Nichols and Bob Wood.

Two graduating eighth-graders were Daniel Castorena and Christy Horan.

Joe Yates gave the commencement address and response, and Mrs. Elmer Adams led the benediction after the group had held hands and wept as Cindy Guess sang the song, "Friends."

The school song and yell were led by several ex-cheerleaders present at the service, and the group was dismissed in that happy atmosphere.

Myrtle Phemister, oldest ex-student present, announced the Weinert Homecoming will be held at the school on Oct. 6-7 with Durwood Bruton as president of the Homecoming Committee. A poem she composed was included on the program, a souvenir for each one present as the final service became a memory.

The high school was contracted to the Munday ISD two years ago, and at an election this year, Weinert School was consolidated with Haskell ISD. Students will all be bussed to Haskell in September, with the exception of those students who wish to transfer to Munday or to Rochester ISD.

Weinert teachers and staff have applied for positions at the area schools, and some have already been accepted.

This is a sad time for the community, but Weinert is optimistic about the future and plans are in the making for projects that will keep the community united in that famous (or infamous) "Weinert Spirit."

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Schaake

Sunne Lea Carey weds Scott Schaake

Sunne Lea Carey and Scott Schaake exchanged wedding vows May 12 in the Chapel on the Hill at Abilene Christian University. Dale Huff of Haskell officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott L. Carey of Fort Stockton. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Schaake of Haskell.

The Haskell Church of Christ Singers sang "Just You and I," "Longer" and "Follow Me" at the beginning of the wedding.

During the ceremony, Doris Wright, a friend of the bride, sang, "Wind Beneath My Wings" for the parents and "Whither Thou Goest." A solo, "The Vows Go Unbroken," was sung by Troy Gailey with background from the singers. The traditional recessional was sung, followed by "The Lord Bless You and Keep You" as the guests exited.

The bride was escorted by her father and given in marriage by both her parents. She wore a candlelight satin gown with a fitted bodice and high lace collar accented with pearls. Lace and pearl appliques on the bodice extended to the drop waist, enhanced with pearls and lace.

The puffed sleeves were accented with a circle of lace surrounded by satin. The satin and lace sleeves tapered to a Victorian tip at the wrist. The train was attached to the waist with a bow and drape with lace appliques. The skirt, ending in a cathedral length train, was enhanced with lace around the edge.

The cathedral length veil was held by a circle of satin roses and silk flowers attached to a satin covered headband. Streams of pearl and baby's breath were attached to the headpiece.

Something old was a small satin covered Bible carried by the bride's mother in her wedding. Something new was the bride's dress which was made by her mother. Something borrowed was a gold necklace belonging to the bride's grandmother, and something blue was her garter.

Tracey Casey of Fort Stockton served as her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Debbie Bedell of Amarillo, and Becky Stubblefield of Lubbock, sisters of the groom, and Kriste Burnett of Lubbock, cousin of the bride. Flower girl was Kenzie Bedell and ring bearer was Chase Bedell, niece and nephew of the groom.

The bride's attendants wore teal length dresses of naive taffeta with a dropped waist. The V back was accented with a bow. The flower girl's dress was peach taffeta. They carried bouquets of silk carnations and roses with peach and teal ribbon.

Best man was Tim Johnson of Fort Worth. Groomsmen were Joey Swinney of Haskell, Blake Bedell of Amarillo, brother-in-law of the groom, and Sam Harris of College Station.

The groom, groomsmen and ring bearer wore silver shadow tuxedos by Christian Dior. The groom wore a matching silver shadow cummerbund and bow tie. The groomsmen wore peach cummerbunds and bow ties.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the rotunda.

The bride's table was covered with a peach eyelet embroidery tablecloth. The three-tiered cake was decorated with spring flowers and a crystal dove. Doris Wright and Kim Payne served at the bride's table.

The groom's table was covered with a candlelight linen cloth. Serving coffee and German chocolate cake were Michell Rawlings and Heather Osborne.

The bride graduated from Abilene Christian University with a major in psychology and is employed by West Texas Rehabilitation Center. The groom will be an August graduate of ACU.

Following a wedding trip to San Antonio, the couple are at home in Abilene.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's prents at the Quality Inn in Abilene.

The houseparty for the reception consisted of Jan Watson of Abilene, Jody Rowden, Ruby Crowell, Frances Tedford and Doris Everett of Fort Stockton. Assisting from Haskell were Donice Jennings and Peggy Middlebrook.

Girls Staters

Local delegates to Girls State met last week in the home of Nancy Plunkett to discuss their upcoming trip. Loutina Hadaway, left, who was a delegate last year, gave them some pointers. This year's delegates are Kim Kluting of Aspermont, Sheila Unger and Tiffany Bradford. Girls State is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Farewell

Using air to create art, Lanona Harbers and T. J. Yates, blow colored bubbles onto a banner for their Weekly Reader Writing Pals in Boca Raton, Fla. The Weinert pre-kindergarten and kindergarten students have visited back and forth through the mail with pre-kindergarten students at a private academy. The banner, approximately 4x12 feet, bade the Writing Pals farewell and wished them a summer full of bubbles, balloons, smiles, hugs and other fun things.

Child Welfare Board

The Haskell County Child Welfare Board met May 15 in the jury room.

Laurie Fouts, who has replaced Linda Haynes as Haskell County child protective service person, also was present.

Brian Burgess, chairman, called the meeting to order. There was a discussion concerning the continuing of the child abuse hotline number stickers in the school rooms, which have been furnished by Brian Burgess Insurance Co., and hotline number cards for junior high and high school students, which have been furnished by a board member donation. Billie McKeever, Haskell High counselor and board member, is to be contacted.

Secretary Mary Martin reported on the Child Welfare Regional Council meeting at Spindletop Office, Abilene. The program was given by Abilene Police Department officer Lee Reed. He showed slides and lectured on cults and ritualistic abuse.

There are many cults, those devoted to a person or idea, with members estimated to number from 7 to 9 million. There are many festivals that involve ritualistic crime, killing self, parents, teachers and/or children.

The use of numbers, signs and symbols and the reverse of such is very common. There is protection under "freedom of religion." The occult is a secret organization.

Mrs. Martin also showed a list of many people involved in the Region 04 Foster/Adoptive Parent Advisory Council and Council on Adoptable Children. She serves as a liaison to the new organization.

50th anniversary

Members of the 1940 graduating class of Haskell High School gathered in Haskell last weekend to celebrate the 50th anniversary of their graduation.

Confederate Air Force is moving

The Confederate Air Force, an organization dedicated to restoring and flying World War II aircraft, voted April 9 to move its headquarters to Midland from Harlingen.

Its new headquarters includes 52 acres of land, hangers, headquarter facilities and a museum at Midland International Airport. It also includes 32,000 square feet of office space and dry, salt free atmosphere, perfect for preserving the more than 140 planes. These planes include Royal Air Force, Luftwaffe, Imperial Japanese Navy and American transports and trainers.

The CAF Museum has the highest attendance of any museum in Texas. The annual October air show draws more than 100,000 visitors. Midland's recovering economy is expected to be boosted by $30 to $40 million yearly.

Suzie Redwine Lundy actively participated in securing the CAF move to Midland. She will act as task force chairman for the move. Lundy is director of the Visitors and Conventions Bureau of the Midland Chamber of Commerce.

Pirate mascot

The new Pirate mascot at Paint Creek was introduced for the first time at the May 11 awards banquet. The silent, but prideful Pirate, will be attending football games next season, helping cheerleaders keep the spirit level rising. Cheerleaders for 1990-91 will be Monica Howeth, head cheerleader, and Francine Barnes, Tina Ott and April Sanders, mascot.

-Sagerton-

Martha Macon of Abilene spent her vacation in the home of Eunice Guinn in Sagerton.

She was entertained at the Cliff House, Pizza Hut, in Stamford and also enjoyed meeting friends at the VIP Senior Citizens Center on Tuesday.

Eunice Guinn, Martha Macon and John L. Brooks visited in the home of Vera Mae Denson Wednesday afternoon.

Parenting meetings scheduled monthly

Becoming a parent is one of the most natural things in the world; being an effective parent is quite another story. Raising children to be happy, productive people is not a skill people are born with. Although adults want and try to be good parents, it takes knowledge and support from others to help them do the best job possible.

Parents of children of all ages, as well as couples planning to have children in the future, are invited to participate in the monthly parents' meetings at the First Baptist Church in Haskell.

The group meets on the second Sunday of each month at 7 p.m. in the family activity center located south of the church on 3rd Street.

They vary in length, depending on the lesson topic and the amount of discussion generated. Parents are encouraged to attend together and bring their children. The gym at the center is open for children to play. Babies are welcome at the meetings.

The meetings are co-sponsored by the First Baptist Church and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service's Haskell County office. Randy McLelland, Baptist youth director, and Lou Gilly, county extension agent-home economics, provide the leadership for the meetings.

Next meeting will be Sunday, June 10.

BY WENDELL FAUGHT

Chrysler Corp. Treasurer Is Said To Plan to Quit
It was a headline in Friday's Wall Street Journal.

And, although the Journal is considered one of the country's first-class editorial products, that headline effort probably would get an F in a journalism class.

Nevertheless, it illustrates the difficulty copy editors often have in writing a heading for a story when they are restricted by type size and column width.

But after nearly a half century in this business, I still can't explain to some irritated mother why we didn't use the headline she had written for her daughter's wedding.

While speaking of headlines, here's one that appeared in last week's Crosbyton County News-Chronicle:

"Here's Another Attempt to Tell Ralls FFA Banquet Story"

Between that headline and the story which followed was an explanation that part of last week's story had been omitted.

I remember doing something like that one time. Only trouble was that the second story was even more fouled up than the original.

Residents of the 24th congressional district of Texas favor raising the taxes of the well-to-do if taxes need to be raised, a reduction of the amount earmarked for Star Wars, using the "peace dividend" to reduce the budget deficit and taking retaliatory economic measures against Japan.

Those are some of the things revealed by 10,678 respondents to a questionnaire mailed out by Congressman Martin Frost.

If taxes need to be raised, nearly 75 percent think that taxes for those earning more than $200,000 should be increased from 28 percent to 33 percent.

Sixty-five percent believe the Strategic Defense Initiative (Star Wars) should be greatly reduced.

Seventy percent think the United States can make significant reductions in its defense budget in light of recent developments in Eastern Europe.

Fifty-seven percent think any "peace dividend" should be used to reduce the budget and 74 percent want to increase import duties or impose quotas on Japan.

Seventy-seven percent want the Federal government to create a special tax free savings program for American families to be used for the cost of college for their children and 78 percent believe in a seven-day waiting period to purchase handguns.

Among items on the questionnaire, the respondents did not approve of:

*A national sales tax: 81 percent opposed.

*A tax on the value of stocks and other securities: 54 percent.

*Financing congressional campaigns: 67 percent.

Announcement is made this week of the filing of the name of Dennis P. Ratliff, Haskell attorney, as a candidate for representative of the 113th district, composed of Haskell, Throckmorton and Baylor counties.

Overshadowing all other events for the past week in Haskell is the fact that the Haskell High School Band brought home the first prize, a beautiful silver loving cup that is on display in one of the downtown windows, from the band contest that took place at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Abilene last weekend. Prof. Joe Meacham is cause for every citizen of Haskell to fill with pardonable pride.

Mr. and Mrs. John Oates and Mrs. Hill Oates visited in Dallas last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Theron Cahill and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Couch attended the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention in Abilene last week.

The 1930 scholastic census for Haskell County shows a total of 4,955 children of school age, a gain of 119 over last year. Common school districts have 2,718 scholastics, with the remainder listed in the independent school district as follows: O'Brien 177, Weinert 193, Sagerton 181, Rochester 393, Rule 476, Haskell 817.

Teacher to attend
Arizona workshop

Marcia Talkmitt, Slaton High School physical science, chemistry and physics teacher, has been selected as one of 30 teachers from seven southwestern states to participate in the technology-based Chemistry Teachers Workshop July 15-Aug 3 at Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff.

The workshop is under a federal grant program through the National Science Foundation.

Selection of participants was based on enthusiasm, quality of chemistry content in present teaching situation and a need to stimulate more students to pursue the study of chemistry/science at the post-secondary level.

Mrs. Talkmitt, a 1977 graduate of Rule High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brass of Rule and the granddaughter of Ora Johnston of Rochester. She is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University.

The general chemistry workshop will feature morning and afternoon model instruction showing participants how to use modern teaching/learning strategies, state-of-the-art video and computer technologies, chemical demonstrations, microscale chemistry, etc. in an integrated manner.

One of the goals of the workshop is to encourage radical change in the methodology of instruction in general chemistry to increase student success and interest.

Instructors will be master teachers and Presidential award winners Imogene Bennett and David Byrum. Leading the workshop will be Dr. John M. DeKorte, professor of chemistry and director of the Southwest Regional Program for Excellence in Precollege Chemical Education and winner of the Burlington Northern Award for teaching.

"I feel this workshop will benefit our school as much as it will me," said Mrs. Talkmitt. "I will be taught how to apply for federal and industrial grants for our school and will already have my 'foot in the door' since I was chosen for a federal funded National Science Foundation program through this chemistry workshop."

"Grant providers will know our school through this program and should be able to help us develop a stronger science and math program throughout our district. I am honored having been chosen."

Safe Boating Week to be observed

Texas' more than 4.5 million boaters are being urged to "Know Before You Go" to help ensure that one of the state's favorite family recreation activities remains safe and enjoyable for all.

June 3-9 has been designated Texas Safe Boating Week by Gov. Bill Clements in an effort to draw attention to the fact that boating is more fun when proper safety precautions are followed.

"We're urging everyone to 'Know Before You Go' this summer summer, said Keith Hannsz of Haskell Marine. "Boating is more fun when everyone takes a little time to go over a checklist of safe boating practices and regulations before getting out on water."

Hannsz pointed out that free boater education instruction is available from a variety of sources. The Texas Parks & Wildlife Department (TPWD) offers the voluntary "Better Boating Course" to all interested persons and similar courses are offered by the U.S. Power Squadrons and the U.S.

Coast Guard Auxiliary. In addition, TPWD has published "Commandments of Boating Safety," an easy-to-understand guide to proper boating procedures and "Boating in Texas," a comprehensive pocket guide detailing everything you need to know about getting maximum enjoyment out of boating trips.

Both of these brochures were developed in conjunction with the Boating Trades Association of Texas, a group of boat dealers, manufacturers, marina operators and others in the marine industry who have been working to promote boating in Texas for more than 30 years.

For information on the Texas Better Boating course or to receive either TPWD publication, call toll free 1-800-792-1112.

Haskell couple to celebrate 50th

In honor of the 50th wedding anniversary of J. C. and Dorothy Halliburton, their children and grandchildren are inviting their friends and relatives to a reception Sunday, June 10, from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Haskell National Bank Community Building.

Their children are Artie of Houston, David and Claire of Rule. They have five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Dorothy is the daughter of the late Jim (J.A.) and Willie Rose of Haskell. She was born in Haskell and is a lifelong resident of Haskell County. She graduated from Haskell High School in 1940. She is a homemaker and for 29 years a beautician. She operates her beauty shop at her home.

J.C. is the son of the late John and Maggie Halliburton of Rochester. He was born in Gainesville and has lived in Haskell since coming to this county in 1919. He attended school at Foster Community School. He served in the U.S. Air Force during World War II.

When Dorothy and J. C. married June 8, 1940, at Rule the ceremony was performed by Oattie Johnson minister of the Church of Christ Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were the couple's attendants at the Johnsons home. He began farming and then went into the service for three years. He farmed afterwards for many years and was later employed by Haskell county for 14 years. He is now employed by Normal Anderson Supply Co. of Munday.

Local enumerator helps in ag survey

Although some of us may have trouble getting from "here" to "there," Dwanna Klose of Haskell has no problem finding her way as she travels the back country roads with only a stock tank or windmill as a landmark. In fact, the less travelled highways and byways of Texas provide many of the short cuts Klose needs as part of her job as a field enumerator with the Texas Agricultural Statistics Service.

Beginning June 1, Klose will once again fill up the gas tank and log many travel miles as she begins interviewing farmers and ranchers in Haskell County for a national agricultural survey. 1990 may be the year to count people, but Klose is going to be busy counting livestock and collecting data on crop acres.

Information gathered on this confidential survey will be used to make state and national estimates of crop acres, livestock inventories and grain stocks, information that is vitally important to the producers in Haskell County, Klose noted.

"These estimates are a working tool farmers and ranchers can use in their production, marketing and investment decisions and are the only unbiased information source available," state statistician Dennis Findley reported.

Survey information will be extremely important this year in measuring crop and livestock losses from the severe flooding across north and east Texas.

Field enumerators provide a basic link in the data collection service of the Texas office since they are the primary personal contact Texas producers have with the agency. Currently there are over 100 field enumerators working on farm and ranch surveys across the state. Most of the enumerators have an agricultural background and are familiar with the many day-to-day problems facing Texas producers. "Like the farmers and ranchers they are interviewing, our enumerators also deal with low prices and severe weather conditions at harvest and mother cows that wait until 3 a.m. to calve," Findley added.

The June Agricultural Survey is the largest of a series of surveys conducted throughout the year by the Texas office. The random sample of producers selected for this survey represent a broad cross section of Texas agriculture, and producers selected for this survey represent other operators of similar size and type.

"Our field enumerators will be putting in some long hours during the next two weeks," Findley reported, "but their hard work is the only way to provide Texas producers with accurate, reliable agricultural information."

FmHA accepting loan applications

Applications for emergency farm loans for losses caused by flooding and tornadoes are being accepted at the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) office in Haskell, Larry McDaniel, supervisor, said last week.

Haskell County is one of 12 Texas counties recently named by Clayton Yeutter as eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from the flooding and tornadoes.

McDaniel said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business or $500,000, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest rate is 4.5 percent.

"As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30-percent loss of production to be eligible for an FmHA emergency loan," McDaniel said. Farmers participating in the PIK or Federal Crop Insurance programs will have to figure in proceeds from those programs in determining their loss.

"Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until Jan. 11, 1991, but farmers should apply as soon as possible," McDaniel said. "Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possibly over into the new farming season."

FmHA is a credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It is authorized to provide disaster emergency loans to recognized farmers who work at and rely on farming for a substantial part of their living. Eligibility is extended to individual farmers who are U.S. citizens and to farming partnerships, corporations or cooperatives in which U.S. citizens hold a majority interest.

The FmHA office in Haskell is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Unemployment here far below average

Unemployment in Haskell County in April was 2.8 percent, according to the Texas Employment Commission. This compares with a statewide rate of 6.0 percent.

Commission figures listed a total labor force of 3,553 in Haskell County with exactly 100 unemployed, meaning there were 3,453 employed.

There were 499,200 Texans out of work in mid-April, an increase of 26,700 over the previous month. But the number of Texans holding jobs also rose. A total of 7,887,000 Texans were counted in the current labor force.

Job growth occurred in numerous areas. There were 26,000 more nonfarm salaried jobs in the state and gains were widespread. Mining was the only major industry which showed no over-the-month increase.

Largest growth was concentrated in trade and government, with more than moderate gains in transportation and services. Manufacturing, however, continued to perform sluggishly, losing a modest number of jobs and remaining below its year-ago level in April.

Unemployment rates among the 27 Metropolitan Statistical Areas for which data are currently available generally followed the statewide trend, as most areas had moderately higher rates in April compared to March. The majority of the MSAs continued to have current rates which were well below those recorded in April 1989.

MSAs with the lowest unemployment rates in April included Bryan-College Station (3.4), Lubbock (4.2), Austin (4.4), Victoria (4.5) and Fort Worth-Arlington (4.8). (Arlington ranked 13th with 5.4.)

Border areas continued to record the highest unemployment rates. These included McAllen-Edinburg-Mission (19.5), Laredo (11.0), Brownsville-Harlingen (10.7), El Paso (10.2) and Beaumont-Port Arthur (7.3).

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR WASTE DISCHARGE PERMIT RENEWAL
CITY OF WEINERT, P. O. Box 265, Weinert, Texas 76388 has applied to the Texas Water Commission for renewal of Permit No. 11018-01 which authorizes a discharge of treated domestic wastewater effluent at a volume not to exceed an average flow of 40,000 gallons per day. The wastewater treatment facilities are approximately 3500 feet southwest of the intersection of State Highway 617 and State Highway Spur 203; approximately 1500 feet south of State Highway 617 in Haskell County, Texas. The effluent is discharged into an unnamed ditch; thence to an unnamed tributary of Lake Creek; thence to Lake Creek; thence into the Brazos River in Segment No. 1208 of the Brazos River Basin.

In accordance with the Texas Surface Water Quality Standards, the Commission staff must determine the existing uses for the receiving water in the area of the proposed discharge. The uses for the unclassified receiving waters of the unnamed ditch and of the unnamed tributary of Lake Creek are intermittent streams with no significant aquatic life uses. The designated uses for Segment No. 1202 are high quality aquatic habitat and contact recreation. The effluent limitations in the draft permit will maintain and protect the existing instream uses. All determinations are preliminary and subject to additional review and/or revisions.

The Executive Director of the Texas Water Commission has prepared a draft permit which, if approved by the Commission, will specify conditions and limitations generally the same as those currently enforced by the existing permit except that effluent limitations for minimum dissolved oxygen concentration have been added. It is proposed that the expiration date of the renewed permit be specified as midnight, five years after date of Commission approval.

Legal Authority:
Section 26.028 of the Texas Water Code and 31 TAC Chapter 305 of the Rules of the Texas Water Commission.

No public hearing will be held on this application unless an affected person who has received notice of the application has requested a public hearing. Any such request for a public hearing shall be in writing and contain (1) the name, mailing address and phone number of the person making the request; and (2) a brief description of how the requester, or persons represented by the requester, would be adversely affected by the granting of the application. If the Commission determines that the request sets out an issue which is relevant to the application, or that a public hearing, would serve the public interest, the Commission shall conduct a public hearing, after the issuance of proper and timely notice of the hearing. If no sufficient request for hearing is received within 30 days of the date of publication of the notice concerning the application, the permit will be submitted to the Commission for final decision on the application.

Requests for a public hearing on this application should be submitted in writing to Claire P. Arenson, Assistant Chief Hearings Examiner, Texas Water Commission, P. O. Box 13087, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711, Telephone (512) 463-7905. Information concerning any technical aspect of this application can be obtained by writing Louis C. May slipped away from us with the busy noise of farm machinery all around, as we baled hay, gathered wheat, planted cotton and the other farm activities associated with this time of year.
We are very dry, even though we had excessive rainfall earlier this year. The wheat is dry, testing low enough moisture to be stored without mechanical drying, but the price is too low, bringing $3.04 per bushel, in June. (I'm sure flour, bread, and Total will come way down in price by July?)!

Our sick are doing well, recovering slowly, and we have no new illness to report.

Our sympathy to Ila Scott Moody, whose brother died last weekend, and Ila was unable to attend memorial services in Odessa. Linda, Scotty and young Dwight Moody spent some time with her mother, Lucicle Adams, and other relatives before going to Odessa.

Sympathy is extended to Anita Herren and her family at the sudden death of her husband, R. W. Herren on Sunday.

Our sympathy to Angie Castello and Andrea Estrada and their families at the death of their father last week.

Erma Liles was in Vernon for Memorial Day visiting with her 86 year old aunt, Mrs. Alma Kiesling and some cousins there. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Paris Barton.

The Ed Murphy family attended a family reunion held in Brownwood during the Memorial Day holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Harbers were in Yoakum for a family visit and to attend the graduation exercises at Yoakum High School where Donnie's niece, Marsha Otto received her certificate of graduation.

A special dedication service was held at the First Baptist Church on May 27 with the dedication of four infants and their parents.

Kayla Denae Harbers, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Harbers and attended by her brother, Dustin, and her sister, Lanona was one of those dedicated.

Travis Lee Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brian Adams was one of those dedicated. He was attended by sister Mandy, grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Adams and great grandmother, Lucicle Adams.

Kendall Allen King, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. King was attended by grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Jerry King, great grandmother, Mrs. Bill King and aunt, Patsy King.

Jordan MacKenzie Hacker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rick Hacker, was attended by grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Walker and cousins, Justin and Rance Parrott of Wichita Falls.

The First Baptist Church will host an ice cream fellowship on Sunday evening to honor Mr. and Mrs. Steve Peace of Rotan who have been called to a church in Houston. He will be guest speaker here at the 7 p.m. worship service.

The Baptist VBS will be June 4-

8 at 8:30 a.m. to 11:00 each day, all children are invited.

Ralph Paczkowski, from Stuttgart, Germany is in our area for a few days visit with friends he made while he was an exchange student in the Weinert school. While here he will be staying with his sponsoring family, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Bellinghausen, and he will remain until July 7th, when he will return home. He will enter Lake Constance University in the fall.

Several of his classmates from Weinert, the 1986 graduating class, happened to be in town last weekend, and they all gathered at Lake Stamford for a special get together at the lake cabin of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hutchinson.

Mr. and Mrs. DeWayne Felty honored their daughter with a family get together to celebrate her birthday on May 26. A special guest was her maternal grandmother, Nita Wood of Coleman, who came for the weekend.

Wanda Vojkufka and Patsy King were in Abilene last week to attend a notary public workshop which is required for their job.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Plemister with Laura and Lincoln of McAllen were weekend guests in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Plemister, as were Mr. and Mrs. David Plemister.

On Friday, they all attended the graduation exercises of the Haskell school, held at First Baptist Church there in which Wayne's daughter, Missy Plemister, was a graduating senior, and received honors for being the highest ranking girl. David's sons, Marcus and Greg Plemister, were also in attendance.

They all attended a family reception honoring Missy after the graduation. She returned to McAllen with her father on Sunday for a week's visit in his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, of Georgetown, South Carolina a former minister for the Weinert Church of Christ were guests of the Marvin Plemisters on Monday, and renewed acquaintances after an absence of almost thirty years. The Wilson's lived in Weinert in 1960, later moving to Arkansas and other Eastern states.

Eager participation was displayed on Sunday as more than a hundred people gathered at the Weinert school for its final school program for all time.

A meal that would have fed three or four hundred people was spread in the cafeteria at noon, as the crowd enjoyed a pot-luck lunch together.

At 2 p.m. they retired to the auditorium for a special recognition service with ex-students in charge. Faculty, staff, school board and graduating eighth graders were each honored and presented with a certificate of appreciation.

Bill Whitaker, Abilene Reporter-News columnist came for an interview with patrons, and toured the facility while he was there, taking notes for a future column.

No bitterness or dismay was registered. Weinert people are practical, well-adjusted and able to deal with inevitable change in things they have no control over. It was a memorable day.

Visiting with their parents, Bob and Crystella Raynes, were their daughters and their spouses, Mary Nell Colthrop, Seymour, Patsy Shawyer, Holliday, Roberta Jenkins of Haskell who also were in attendance at the school program.

Christy Herricks of Graham and Bill Little of Olney spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Guess.

Mrs. Leonard Mahan with Donald attended graduation exercises in Novice on Friday night where her niece, Christy Maples, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Maples was one of the graduates, and a nephew, Bryan West was also a graduate.

The Mahan children, Len, and Michelle Sadler with Megan and Malorie of Mineral Wells were in town for the school program on Sunday.

Donald returned to Mineral Wells with them.

Jeanie Kay Rhodes, with son Max, of Norma, Oklahoma was in town for a visit with aunts and uncles, the J. A. Mayfields, Clyde Mayfields, H. L. Guess's and Mabel Derr, and visited in Janet Frazier's kindergarten room, on Thursday, being the last visitor ever in the Weinert school.

The Rhodes were accompanied to Weinert by a friend, Maureen Bannon, recently of New York City, and now a graduate student at Oklahoma State University. Maureen's parents are from Ireland, and she is an interesting person.

Jeanie Kay, with the help of Hal Guess, cleaned out her parents and grandmother Guess' possessions from "Ma" Guess' home, as Johnny Earp has recently purchased the home. He also bought "Ma" Derr's home here.

Alexia Rimmer with Adrienne and Elyse, of DeSoto, were guests of her parents, the J. A. Mayfields also.

Henrietta Rueffer was honored on her 80th birthday with a surprise party hosted by her daughter and grandchildren in the Lutheran fellowship hall with many from Weinert were in attendance.

Congratulations, Henrietta.

Congratulations to D. I. White and Mattie White who will be honored on their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception in their honor in the community room of the Haskell National Bank on Sat. afternoon, June 2, hosted by their children and grandchildren.

Congratulations to Floyd and Alta McGuire, Dieter and Leisa Hutchinson, Bobby and Ann Therwhanger, and to all who chose June for that wedding day.

We will sing the birthday song to Kregg Sanders; Joseph Felty, Samson Castorena, Chunkie Castorena and Ted Jetton. Happy birthday, all!

Cable to add programs

Harmon Cable Communications has announced plans to add the new services to its basic channel lineup in Haskell, beginning July 1.

Arts & Entertainment (A&E), Country Music Television (CMT) and a Community Bulletin Board (CBB) will be the new services.

Arts & Entertainment is a variety service that is divided into four programming segments: drama, documentaries, comedy and performing arts. Heartwarming stories and spine-tingling mysteries are collected in all new A&E drama series such as "All Creatures Great and Small" and the weekly "Agatha Christie Hour."

A&E's documentaries seek out the historic, the famous and the adventurous--true life stories to satisfy every taste. Viewers will see all the best in A&E's exclusive comedy series such as "An Evening at the Improv."

Country Music Television features nonstop videos of both the biggest and newest stars in country music, as well as many country music legends. Interview clips are interspersed with the videos daily so viewers can learn more about their favorite stars. Once a month CMT features "Stan Hitchcock Presents" where Hitchcock talks with some of the country's top artists as they share what they've been up to, their future plans and occasionally some songs. CMT also features a weekly "Breakout Video," a video chosen because it is rapidly making a break for the top of the chart, news features and information on the hottest country artists.

The Community Bulletin Board will be a channel devoted to providing Harmon Cable customers with local and regional information. CBB will offer local school and government news and details as well as local announcements and civic organization schedules.

"We are excited about the new programming opportunities we will be bringing our customers," said Gigi Barnett, Harmon Cable system manager.

The year 1909 marked an incredible "happening" in the history of the City of Haskell. A Street Car Line! This three mile stretch of rails, with a single gasoline operated car and a ten cent fare, began at the old depot site, extended west to the corner of the town square that housed Grissom's Department Store, and Haskell National Bank, then veered north through the Shook Addition (Highway 277), then back east to the Hemphill Lake (Present Country Club Area). This "ahead of its time" idea was the brain child of M. R. Hemphill, who had wisely considered the attractions of a band stand and recreation facilities at the end of the ride to the lake. A clear forerunner of America's love affair with "Theme Parks"!

Meanwhile, Haskell National Bank was keeping pace with the times. One little historical footnote to an era passed can be garnered from a directive issued in 1910, stating the "Directors had ordered two wooden closets be erected on the alley behind the bank building, and connected with the sewer". Unlike the "little train that tried"—whose novelty appeal lasted about a year, Haskell National Bank was laying firmly placed tracks for its long trip into the future—with strong hands at the throttle.
