

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bailey

Reed, Bailey marry June 14

Holly Deann Reed and Michael David Bailey were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony June 14 at the Haskell Church of Christ.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Elaine Reed and the late Charles Reed of Haskell. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Sonnamaker of Haskell and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Bailey of Bedford.

Randy McLelland, youth minister of the First Baptist Church, performed the ceremony before an arch draped with English ivy, mauve bows and pink parchment flowers. Flanked on each side of the arch were heart shaped candelabras with white candles entwined with English ivy and pink bows. The pews were marked with aisle candelabras accented with mauve candles and pink bows.

The Church of Christ Singers sang traditional wedding music and favorite songs of the bride and groom. Featured soloist was Sheila McMeans who sang "To Me" and Troy Gailey who sang "The Vows Go Unbroken."

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her brother, Keith Reed.

The bride wore a traditional wedding gown of white taffeta and Alencon lace, a Morie Lee of New York original.

The princess style gown was lavishly trimmed in pearls and sequins and featured a Queen Anne neckline closed in the back with small white satin buttons. Camelot sleeves, accented with hand clipped Alencon lace, pearls and sequins, were fitted at the wrist. A large multi-pouf bow with sequins and pearls were at the waistline in the back. The long flowing skirt was softly gathered to the bodice at the back to flow into a full court train accented with Alencon lace and pearls. Her headdress was of silk, pearls and lace with a Rouche of English illusion.

The bride's bouquet was made of pink roses, mauve carnations and baby's breath with entwined loops of pearls.

Diane Reed, sister-in-law of the bride, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Shanna Mueller and Sherry Mueller. Their dresses were of pink and mauve flowered polished cotton, accented by a fitted bodice, puff sleeves, V pouff bows at the back of the dropped waists. Each attendant carried a long stemmed pink carnation with baby's breath and tulle.

Alexis Lynnanne Reed, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a pink tea length dress and carried a lace basket of flowers which she dropped as she walked ahead of the bride.

Paul Harvey was best man. Groomsmen were Monty Puschel of Abilene, brother of the groom, and Terry Bailey of Abilene, brother of the groom.

Male attendants wore white tuxedos with white wing-tip shirts, mauve bow ties and mauve cummerbunds with mauve boutonnières. The groom wore a white cut-away tuxedo with tails and white accessories.

Candlelighters were Roger Roewe and Josh Reid, both of Haskell. Ushers were Cayce Reed, brother of the bride, and Bo Watson.

The reception was held in the church annex. The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth over mauve and decorated with a beautiful pink, mauve and black flower arrangement. The cake was three tiered, accented with pink and mauve roses. Punch was served from a mauve fountain. Diane Reed and Shanna Mueller presided at the bride's table.

The groom's table was covered with white linen cloth with a mauve overlay. His cake was a double-heart shaped German chocolate. Appointments on the groom's table were silver. Serving at the groom's table was Sherry Mueller.

After a wedding trip to Galveston, the couple are making their home in Haskell.

The bride, a spring graduate of Haskell High School, is employed by Friends Forever. The groom is employed by J's Well Service in Rule.

TAX PLANNING

Written By
Richard E. Rodgers, CPA

ALIMONY PAYMENTS

The federal income tax laws regarding the deductibility of alimony payments were substantially changed in the Tax Reform Act of 1984. The current rules which generally apply to all agreements entered into after December 31, 1984, are described in this article.

If alimony or separate maintenance payments are made under a decree or written instrument incident to divorce or separation, they will be includable in the income of the receiving spouse and deductible by the paying spouse.

Such payments are deductible from gross income even if you choose not to itemize your deductions.

To be deductible, the payments must be in cash. The written instrument or decree must not designate that the payments are excludable from the income of the receiving party or to be treated as nondeductible by the paying party. The payments must be received by or directly for the benefit of the receiving spouse. Liability for such payments or any substitute payments cannot extend beyond the death of the receiving spouse.

Any portion of a payment that is specified as support for the couple's minor children is not includable in the income of the receiving party, nor is it deductible by the payor.

In order to ensure that the payments deducted as alimony are not disguised property settlements, the regulations provide certain limitations on the term of payment and the fluctuation in the amount of annual payments. If your tax return is examined and the Internal Revenue Service determines that the deductions you claimed were really property settlements, you will be taxed accordingly. Any deductions which the payor is disallowed will create a corresponding tax benefit to the receiving party.

Even though taxes may not be foremost in the minds of those getting divorced, the tax consequences make it worthwhile to address this issue.

--Letters to the Editor--

Stenholm

Editor: On June 21, I cast the toughest vote in my 12 years as the elected representative for the 17th District of Texas.

In response to the Supreme Court's ruling that burning the American flag is protected by the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution, the U.S. House of Representatives decisively voted to respect the court's decision and did not amend the Bill of Rights. I voted for the Bill of Rights and against a constitutional amendment, and would like to take this opportunity to discuss my vote.

The reason this vote was so tough is because it makes me very angry when I see anyone, especially an American, exhibiting disrespect for our great nation. No adjectives are adequate to capture the temperature-raising, blood-pounding rage I feel when I think of a flag being burned.

Regardless of my emotions toward those who would defile the flag, I believe that the U.S. Constitution protects those few individuals who in their demented way must express their contempt for the government that gives them those rights. Conservative Justice Anthony Kennedy stated it best when he wrote, "It is impoignant but fundamental that the flag protects those who hold it in contempt."

I know that some people do not agree with the position I have taken on this issue, and that some will call my position un-American or un-patriotic. I disagree, but I respect their right to that opinion, and to disagree with their elected representative. That is a right which is uniquely American because of the Bill of Rights.

I deeply respect and am indebted to the thousands of men and women who have sacrificed their lives defending America's gleaming shores from oppression, intolerance and ignorance. Did they die protecting the flag? If they did, was it for a piece of cloth or for what that cloth symbolized to them? Did they not die to ensure that their children and their children's children would live in a free land protected by the Bill of Rights?

This is not an attempt to apologize or make an excuse for my vote against amending the constitution for the flag. I believe that the position I have taken is the correct one, and I believe it is the position the majority of my constituents have taken after reflecting on what the flag, and even more importantly, the Bill of Rights means to us all.

Phemister reunion
June 22-24

Descendants of Virgil and Ida (Henry) Phemister met June 22-24 in the Seven Oaks Hotel in San Antonio for their 50th annual reunion with 47 in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Perry and their family hosted the event, and had many interesting and exciting events planned for each age group.

There were four generations present. The eldest person present was Alma Phemister Terrell of San Antonio, and the youngest was one-year-old Nicky Pollastro of Austin, grandson of Lola Williams.

The first event was a picnic, held in the Joske Pavillion in Brackenridge Park on Friday night, followed by a baseball game at the lighted field in the park, in which the Phemister "Pharm-hands" lost by three points to the "S.A. Yokels." (The loss was attributed to the fact the Boykin boys were late in arrival.)

On Saturday, there was an early trek to the golf course to get ahead of the two conventions that were scheduled at the hotel for that weekend.

The swimming pools, the tennis courts and the many shopping centers attracted a large group of the relatives, as San Antonio offers so much to see and do.

Lola Williams hosted and directed the children in a "get-acquainted with cousins" program, and a panel discussion of "Telling it like it was" by the older generation.

A catered dinner in the El Antonio room was enjoyed on Saturday night, and the same room was the scene for the early morning devotion and worship period on Sunday.

In a business meeting, the family voted to meet at the same place in 1991, with the date to meet being set for July 19-21. The Perrys will again be in charge of the arrangements.

After a Sunday lunch at the cafeteria, the group parted to go their separate ways home. Plans are already on the "drawing board" for next year, for a more organized and better attended reunion with hopes more of the 126 descendants will be present.

The group's African missionary family, Mr. and Mrs. Wimon Walker and children, will be home and he will be in charge of the Sunday worship service.

Robert Tipton returned to Weinert with his grandparents, the Marvin Phemisters, for a few days visit in their home.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES

The following procedures represent steps to be taken by each short-listed community to insure adequate public notice of the potential of being selected as a prison site. The Board of Criminal Justice has tentatively set July 10, 1990, as the date for final selection of prison sites. The meeting will likely be held in Austin beginning at 10:00 a.m. The procedures for soliciting public input will be as follows: 1. Each finalist community will be afforded 15 minutes to present support for its proposal and an equal 15 minutes will be afforded to opposing comments. 2. Persons attending the meeting will be given the opportunity to register their attendance and indicate whether they support or oppose the siting of a prison in their community. 3. Persons wishing to address comments to the Board will be asked to complete an information card indicating their name, address, county of residence, and whether they desire to speak for or against the proposed site. Due to the overall time limitation of 15 minutes for support and 15 minutes for opposition for each community, it is suggested that persons with similar viewpoints coordinate their presentations prior to the meeting. Information cards have been provided to each short-listed community and will be available at the Board meeting.

Well, they are now eligible for parole.

The case became famous since it resulted in the longest prison term ever assessed by a jury.

Still, under Texas law the maximum sentence in terms of parole eligibility is 60 years. In most cases, convicts become eligible for release after serving one-fourth of their sentences.

If parole is approved, the brothers could be freed within three weeks.

I've never been one to try to capitalize too often on these "2 for 1" advertising gimmicks.

But Saturday night, I did. I clipped one from the Abilene newspaper, which offered two enchilada dinners for the price of one at an Abilene Mexican food restaurant.

As advertised, the second order of enchiladas was free. But a glass of water cost $1.05.

Bug Report

By Red Chedester
Entomologist

Adult fleahoppers are about one-eighth inch long and pale green. Nymphs resemble adults but lack wings and are light green. They move very rapidly when disturbed.

Adults move into cotton from weed hosts when cotton begins to square. Both adults and nymphs suck sap from the tender portion of the plant, including small squares. Squares are susceptible to damage from the pinhead size through the one-third grown stage.

Management and decision making: The decision to apply insecticide should be based on the number of fleahoppers present, the squaring rate and the percent square set. During the first three weeks of squaring, the economic threshold is 25 to 30 fleahoppers per 100 terminals combined with less than 75 percent square set.

At 80 degrees, eggs hatch in about 11 days, and the young nymphs feed on tender vegetation. They usually molt five times and require 14 to 15 days to mature into the reproductive adult cotton fleahopper.

Usually, there are six to eight generations per year. Of these, only one to three occur in the cotton field. Early in the spring, fleahoppers build up large numbers on alternate weed hosts like silverleaf nightshade or whiteweed.

Sunday morning, June 24, John and Orheana Greeson took a group for a week's camping at Quartz Mountain Christian Camp near Lone Wolf, Oklahoma. Campers were Danny Kreger, Eric Robinson, Michael Murray, Justin Halliburton, Justin Sanders, Austin Boger, C. W. Porter of Hobbs, N.M.; Christy Porter, Amy Hisey, Lezli Jenkins, Kayla Allison, Sheila Porter of Hobbs, N.M., and Angie Guadalucazar. Counselors from Rule: Angela Hisey and Jason Halliburton; teacher: Orheana Greeson and camp director, John Greeson. Traveling to help get the campers there were: Ronnie, Jo Ellen and Tori Jenkins; Bobby, Cheryl and Gena Robinson; Ed, Charlene, Jeffrey and Jennifer Murray; Bertha McQuinn, Vicky Anderson, Charlotte, Jackie and Johnny Ike Westbrook; and Stephanie Pepper of Knox City.

There were thirty-eight campers attending from Stamford. Counselors from Stamford were Dorman and Xan Holub with their sons, Kim Kainer, Leigh Ann Greeson, Matt Stockstill, Missy Phemister, John and Tom Walker, Justin Harvey, Dusty Morrow, Greg Bryan, Tiffany Proctor and Lauri Jones. Helping to take that group were Roger Detamore, Vance and Vicki Proctor. The camp is from June 24-29. Groups from many other congregations also attended.

The Tarbet family will be having a reunion in Rule on Sat. and Sun., June 30-July 1. They plan to conduct morning worship services as well as teaching adult classes with T. R. Tarbet doing the preaching.

Beth and Shannon Kittle are planning a special secret pal revealing party soon. More news later about this.

Don't forget this Sunday, July 1st, the children of Travis and Lorene Boyd are hosting a reception honoring their parents on their 50th wedding anniversary from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Fellowship Room of the Rule Church of Christ. No gifts, please.

On Sunday, June 24th the family of the late Joseph and Sarah Allen held a reunion, which was hosted at the home of Herbert and Ruth Williams. A covered luncheon was served at noon to L. C. Williams, Jr., his wife, son, daughter and 10 grandchildren; Mildred Lemmons, daughter; Dianna and granddaughter, Mandy of Dallas; Frances Williams Cain, her husband and son Marvin R. Cain, Jr., and two girls of Amarillo; Thelma Williams Becktold of Shawnee, Okla., her two daughters of Oklahoma City, a son: A. D. Becktold and wife, Carlotta, one grandson from Joplin, Missouri; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frazier of Hawley and two children; Irvin Williams of Wichita Falls; Judy Williams of Rochester along with her five children and three grandchildren; also Richard and Helen Alis and Melinda Sabearon and children of Sweetwater.

About four weeks ago Brad and Gwen Place of Tulsa, Oklahoma came for his mother, Mary Place and then went to San Angelo, Lubbock and Denver, Colorado. There they picked up their grandchildren, Claire and Jess. The group spent two weeks in Tulsa, and brought Mary home on June 22.

On June 25, yours truly headed for cooler country with her cousin from Hamlin, Valeta Mullins. First, they planned to go to Minot AFB in North Dakota to visit Kevin and DeDe Saffel; also to pick up Susan, who has been visiting her brother. More details about the trip will be forthcoming.

Congratulations to Travis and Lorene Boyd upon their 50th wedding anniversary on July 4th. That will be the 48th anniversary of the Andersons. Many more happy years are wished for the Boyds.

Travis Boyd and Owen Aikin filled in for John Greeson on Sunday and Wednesday nights while he was in Oklahoma conducting the Christian camp at QMCC.

Perry itinerary hectic over 4th

Texas Agriculture Commissioner candidate Rick Perry was to take part in three traditional 4th of July activities in the state Wednesday.

Perry, his wife, Anita, and children were to be in Pecos for the West of the Pecos Rodeo parade at 10 a.m. Following the parade, the Perry family was scheduled to be at the noon barbecue at the Posse Barn, next to the rodeo arena.

Wednesday afternoon, Perry was to be back in his home district to participate in the "Fourth at the Fort," an annual celebration at Fort Belknap in Young County. He was to speak at 4 p.m.

That evening, Perry will travel to Stamford to participate in the Texas Cowboy Reunion. He will ride in the rodeo's grand entry, beginning at 8 p.m.

Perry, a state representative from Haskell, is a fifth generation farmer and rancher. If elected, the Republican will be the first farmer and rancher to hold the office of commissioner in 40 years.

Public invited to church showing "Caught," the newest film from Billy Graham's World Wide Pictures, will be shown at 6 p.m. July 8 at the East Side Baptist Church. The true-to-life dramatic story portrays the power of one person caring for another.

An 18-year-old American, Tim Devon, goes to Amsterdam in search of the father he has never known. His mother reluctantly admits he was born illegitimately out of a college romance between her and a Dutch exchange student.

In this city, far from his home, he slips into the self-destructive drug culture, but is encountered by a single, caring person—a person of deep faith. The person, Rajam Prasad, found a way to share Christ's message of love, hope and forgiveness in a way that Tim could not ignore.

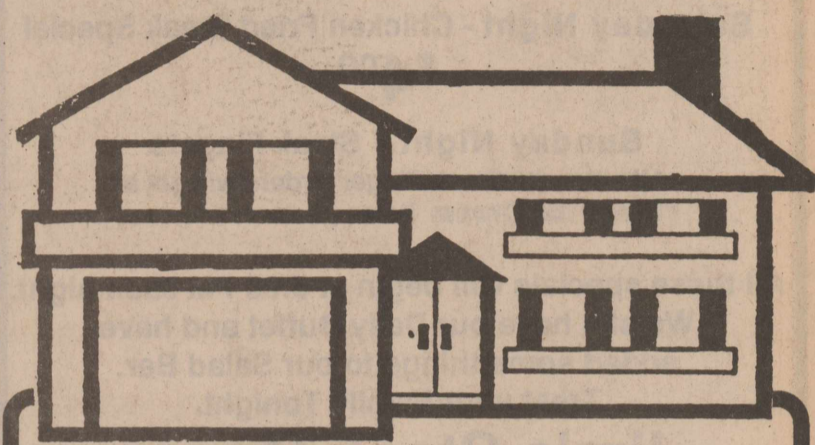

Vast audiences who have witnessed the film's premiere in movie theaters around the world have been gripped by its central focus on their friendship which was forged out of danger and desperation.

Deeply moved by the warmth of the film with its many moments of humor, Billy Graham said "Caught" is certainly the most outstanding film yet produced by World Wide Pictures.

"Caught" rings a challenge to all; in reality, one caring person can have an immeasurable impact on the life of another lonely, disillusioned, desperate person. The public is cordially invited to attend the showing.

--Weinert--

by Myrtle Phemister

June was a nice vacation month for your correspondent, but I hope you missed the Weinert News!

It is dreadfully dry and hot in Weinert, can hardly believe just a few weeks ago we were wishing for dry weather.

The cotton is growing fast in our area, and most has been plowed over; things are looking good!

We regret seeing the moving vans around town. Rick and Deena Hacker have moved to Benjamin where she has accepted a position with the school faculty there.

Mike and Peggy Adams have purchased a home in Haskell and moved today to that city.

In the near future, Chesley and Jeanie Forehand, with Kenny, will move to Rochester where he has accepted the position of football coach. Congratulations Rochester! We think you have a prize!

Anita Garza, with her children, has moved to Munday. We regret to lose all these families.

Though we have no school, we do have four churches, a great water system, sewage, cable TV, paved streets, nice store and cafe, 3 mechanic shops, 2 beauty shops, friendly people and a choice of homes to purchase. The welcome mat is out for anyone desiring a quite, friendly place to reside.

Edna Boykin and Betty Carroll of Nashville, Ark. were Weinert visitors on Sat. and Sun. and spent the time with relatives and friends.

We missed an opportunity to congratulate some of our very special people on their anniversary during June, so will do it now. Congratulations, belated, to Alton and Mildred Sanders; Ricky and Karen Harlan; Mondy and Debra Mayfield; Gilbert and Sophia Jimenez; David and Shirlene Sikes; and Bill and Joyce Robertson. And Happy birthday, you June "bugs". During this week, congratulations go to Woody and Georgia Turnbow; H. H. and Juanita Grimes, Jerry and Wanda Hester; and Russel and Hazel Rainey.

Birthday balloons will fly for Eddie Sanders, Julian Estrada, Shannon Forehand, Samuel Brueggeman, Laurie Hester, Angie Castillo, Gracie Griffis, Marcus Phemister, Sandra Nichols, Daisy Horan, and Michael Adams. Happy birthday!

Our sick are recovering well at this time. Clyde Mayfield is home following a hip replacement surgery, and gets around on a walker.

Myrnie Sanders had knee surgery on Monday of last week. She is better.

Bennie and Robert Horan continue to improve.

Faye Brian is recovering from colon surgery in Ft. Worth several days ago, and is doing well.

Our prayers are for all our sick, that they may have a quick and complete recovery.

Francis Mahan returned safely from her flight to Phoenix, Arizona where she attended the Allen-Maples reunion hosted in the home of her son, James and Joy Mahan.

Over a hundred relatives were in attendance for the three day get-together. Francis reported James barbecued 60 pounds of meat, and she prepared seventeen pies for the occasion, plus all the other food others provided.

Leonard and Linda Mahan were unable to go to Phoenix, but did spend some time in Mineral Wells and Coleman with other relatives.

Our sympathy is extended to Hellen Stout at the death of her uncle, Steven Feike, of Sardenia, Ohio. Hellen and Floyd attended the memorial services, and stayed ten days with her aunt, helping with matters that had to be attended to. They were in Ohio during the recent flood, but were not in that vicinity.

Recent visitors in the home of Bertie Alexander were her son's wife, Peggy Alexander and Peggy's parents, Jack and Dora Wood all of Veneta, Oregon and a friend, Bertha Wood of Lubbock.

Other guests included Audra and Bob Schindler of Abilene, and Lois and Vernon Cates of Moran.

Beth Bacon of Mesquite is spending her vacation in Weinert with the Moeller and Brueggeman families. She is the bride-elect of Donnie Moeller, and they are planning a September wedding.

The Weinert Extension Club members have completed their quilt they make and donate for the annual Rehab telethon.

The club met on June 28th in the home of Myrtle Phemister for the July 3 meeting. Next meeting will be August 7, hosted by Mrs. Gus Rueffer.

The fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church was the scene on June 25 for a bridal shower honoring Miss Amy Castello, bride-elect of Barry Walker.

Decorations of country blue and mauve colors were used, the bride's chosen colors.

In the receiving line with Miss Castello were her mother, Angie Castello, and the groom's mother, Doris Walker.

Refreshments of finger sandwiches, chips and dips, cookies and punch were served to those attending the party. Wedding plans are for July 14.

Hostesses included Joyce Robertson, Georgia Turnbow, Laverne Mayfield, Sandy King, Betty Raynes, Mary Murphy, Gail White, Jeanie Stout, Wanda Hester, Marilyn Earp, Erlinda Mayfield, Alice Yates, Mildred Sanders and Linda Adams.

Teen Time 1990 is in progress at the First Baptist Church and all teens are invited to attend. Services are from 7 to 9 p.m., July 3, 4, and 5th. Cindy Guess is coordinator of youth activities.

RUEFFER REUNION

Irby Hall was the scene of the semi-annual family reunion of the descendants of the Henry Karl and Beate Rueffer family, with approximately 65 registered guests on June 30.

The states of Oklahoma, New Mexico, South Dakota and Texas were represented, and the afternoon was spent renewing old acquaintances and meeting new family members.

A covered dish dinner was served at 6 p.m. Later, the family and friends danced to the music provided by the Texas Rhythm Boys.

Those attending from Weinert were the Gus Rueffers and the Henry Rueffer families.

Lawrence and Catherine Schonerstedt of Decatur spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Rueffer.

STOUT REUNION

Thurman and Feba Stout and Floyd and Hellen Stout attended the Stout reunion held in the school house at Blossom, Texas, on June 30 with 65 family members in attendance.

On their way to Blossom, Thurman and Feba stopped over in Weatherford for a visit in the home of their daughter, Mr and Mrs. Phil Bledsoe.

"DECISIONS MADE EARLY"

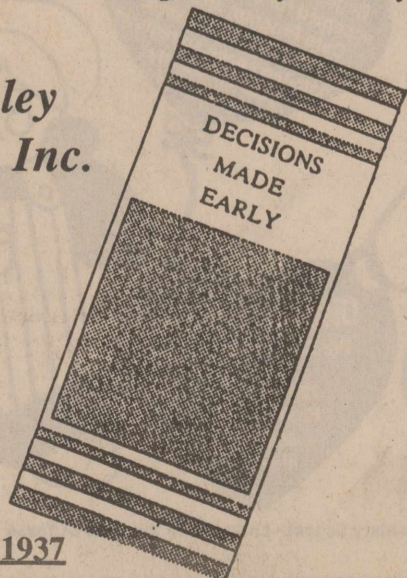

Many people plan for what might happen—fire, burglary, injury, and accidents. Now more and more people are planning for what will inevitably happen. It simply makes good sense to prepare for that which we can not avoid.

Pre-need funeral arranging allows one to control the type of service they would prefer, select a means of financing it, freeze the prices at todays price, and save loved ones the anguish of deciding these matters at a later date. Really it is the loving thing to do for your family.

Simply come by or call and we will come by to see you.

This 16-page, full-color cookbook is filled with recipes combining the finest ingredients from all over the world with versatile, mild-flavored farm-raised catfish in some surprising and exotic dishes.

Recipes include Mexican Catfish Salad; Russian Catfish Pirozhki; Catfish with Cabernet and Green Peppercorns; and Greek Style Catfish in Filo.

To explore these and other recipes, send $2.00 (check or money order) to: CATFISH: THE WORLD TOUR, The Catfish Institute (TCI), PO Box 327, Dept. P, Belzoni, MS 39038.

You don't need a passport to discover the flavor secrets of this Moroccan dish:

- MOROCCAN CATFISH COUSCOUS
- 1/4 cup slivered almonds
 - 2 tablespoons olive oil
 - 1 medium onion, chopped
 - 2 cloves garlic, minced
 - 2 medium carrots, cut on the diagonal
 - 1 medium zucchini, cut in half lengthwise, then into 1-inch strips
 - 1 small red bell pepper cut into strips
 - 4 Mississippi Prime farm-raised catfish fillets, cut into 2-inch strips
 - 1 cup canned chickpeas, drained
 - 1-3/4 cups chicken stock
 - 1 teaspoon ground coriander
 - 1/2 teaspoon cayenne pepper (or to taste)
 - 1 cup couscous (or rice)

Place almonds on a baking sheet and toast in a 350 degree oven for 8-10 minutes until golden brown, then set aside. Heat oil in a large heavy skillet, add onions and cook over medium heat until softened, about 5 minutes. Add garlic, carrots, peppers, seasonings, chicken broth and 2 cups water. Bring to a boil and cook for five minutes. Reduce heat, add catfish, chickpeas and zucchini, and simmer for 12-15 minutes until catfish flakes easily with a fork. Prepare couscous (rice) according to package directions. Mound the prepared couscous (rice) on a large serving platter making a well in the center. Fill the well with catfish and vegetables, reserving some of the cooking broth, and sprinkle with toasted almonds. Serve remaining cooking broth separately to be spooned over individual servings. Serves 4 to 6.

Rule woman is poetry winner

Vicky Anderson of Rule has received notification from the "World of Poetry" of Sacramento, Calif., that she is to receive a presentation of the "Golden Poet Award" for 1990, along with a commemorative trophy.

Formal presentation is scheduled Aug. 27 at the Las Vegas (Nev.) Hilton, as part of a three-day convention which will feature Bob Hope, Joan Rivers, Pearl Bailey, Red Buttons and William Shatner.

At the presentation ceremony, Mrs. Anderson and other recipients will read their poems. During the evening, the recipients will join the spectacular "Golden Poets Parade." Local and national television crews will be present and the program will be telecast by satellite to more than 200 stations around the country.

At that time, poems will be tied to a big, colorful helium-filled balloon and "airmailed" with hundreds of others as a love letter to the world.

Highlight of the convention will be the "Convention Poetry Contest," during which a grand prize of $15,000 will be given to one of the poets with Red Buttons crowning the "World of Poetry Laureate for 1990." The winner will be inducted into the World of Poetry Hall of Fame.

Mrs. Anderson's winning poem is entitled, "My Beloved Dorothy" and is about her late sister, Dorothy Crow Massey.

This is the sixth year that Mrs. Anderson has received the Golden Poet award, although she has never been able to attend the conventions. She hopes to do so this year.

Mrs. Anderson is a retired accredited records technician, having worked 32 years in medical records departments at Stamford Memorial Hospital, Anson General Hospital and Herrick Clinic of Farmington, N.M.

Students attend range camp

Four Haskell County students attended a range camp at the Clear Fork River at Lueders June 19-20.

Attending were Shawn Babour of Paint Creek, Andrew Sikes of Weinert and Jennifer Comedy and Wesley Alsbrook of Haskell. They were among 16 attending.

The Soil Conservation Districts of Jones and Haskell counties sponsored the camp. The ag departments from Lueders, Avoca, Anson and Haskell assisted with the camp.

Students studied soils, wildlife and plants during the two-day camp. They also enjoyed volleyball, fishing and water sports.

A CENTURY of VISION

by Pauline Couch
Vice-President & Cashier (Retired)

The picture, above, was made in the 1922-1925 era of Haskell National Bank, and Haskell County. The early day decor of banks presented a much different design than modern day structures. The closed-in areas were built with security in mind—possibly a carry-over from the desperado days of the Jesse James gang. Pictured in the teller window is O. E. Patterson, who came to Haskell National Bank originally, about 1921, and remained until 1940.

The year 1919, was a miracle year in Haskell County, for crops, and paying old debts. The County, and Haskell National Bank entered the new decade of 1920 on a high note—but, the price of cotton fell for awhile. (De ja vue?) However there was about a nine year period of prosperity, and all the banks and merchants were thriving before the Great Depression years of the late Twenties and Thirties—almost ruined the nation's economy. Many merchants who had managed to stay in business began to fold in 1931, and the following years. Two banks—the one in Sagerton, and the one in Weinert had to close their doors—never to re-open. Farmers State Bank in Haskell also failed, but later re-opened as Farmers & Merchants State Bank, (This bank was later merged with Haskell National Bank).

The Great Depression brought about the infamous Franklin D. Roosevelt proclamation in 1933, for the closing of all the nation's banks for a period of time. (The Bank Holiday) An intensive reorganization of the whole banking system was undertaken, and when they were allowed to re-open, many, many more rules and regulations had been instigated—mainly for the protection of the customer. (One very important depositor aid was the insurance coverage by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation—F.D.I.C.)—which has protected depositors from that time. It also became much more difficult to secure a charter to establish a new bank, requiring much additional Capitol structure.

Haskell National Bank underwent many operative changes, with O. E. Patterson becoming Vice President and acting C. E. O. In 1933, and raising the Capitol stock to $50,000.00. It was a hard re-building process, but the "Old Reliable" hung on, and began to make steady progress, emerging into the "Forties" with an encouraging increase in Assets.
