Fire damages Rule school

A Saturday night fire destroyed the east wing of the Rule High School building and caused limited damage to other parts of the school complex.

Destroyed were the science lab, the library, three classrooms and the administrative offices, all housed in the east wing. There was some damage from water and smoke to the cafeteria and lunchroom.

Also destroyed or damaged were school memorabilia, including photographs, trophies and a stuffed bobcat, the school's mascot. Books in student lockers were badly damaged.

The school's computer lab, located in a building next to the high school, received some smoke and water damage, but the 20 computers and the software were not damaged.

There was no school Monday for high school students. Classes were resumed Tuesday morning with high school classes being held in the elementary and junior high buildings.

Superintendent Tom Kutch said Wednesday that the school is not in any critical need. He expressed his appreciation to the fire departments of neighboring towns, law enforcement officers and the many volunteers who came to the school's aid. "There was a tremendous outpouring of help," he said.

Cause of the fire has not been determined. A state fire marshal arrived Sunday, but no results of his investigation have been released.

The brick building, constructed in 1950, housed about 52 students in grades 9 through 12.

The fire was reported at 7:50 p.m. Saturday and was under control by 11. Fire departments from Haskell, Rochester, Knox City, Paint Creek, Sagerton, Hamlin and Anson assisted Rule firefighters and law enforcement personnel.

Kutch said that textbooks would be replaced through the state schoolbook depository in Austin. Other books will be covered by insurance.

A decision on whether to rebuild the school will not be made until insurance and fire marshal reports are completed.

Because of the fire, the Rule homecoming Oct. 16-17 will have to be held at another location.

Kurt Sloan, winner of the F. W. Martin Memorial award, with Mrs. Mary Martin.

Rochester youth gets 4-H award

Kurt Sloan of Rochester is recipient of the 1992 F. W. Martin Memorial Achievement award.

The award is given annually to a deserving 4-H girl or boy to honor the life and achievements of Frank Martin, who served as Haskell county agent from 1944 to 1967.

The winner was revealed at the annual Haskell County 4-H awards program Sept. 19. Mrs. F. W. Martin presented Sloan with an engraved individual plaque and his name has been added to a large plaque which hangs in the county extension office.

Kurt is the 17-year-old son of Dickie and Shirley Sloan of Rochester and is a senior at Rochester High School. He has been a member of his local 4-H club for nine years, during which time he has excelled in swine, leadership and showmanship projects.

His mother said he had two older brothers in 4-H and as a youngster, he couldn't wait until he could join 4-H and show animals as his brothers did. He has shown swine in local, county and state livestock shows. His most exciting time in the show ring was at the 1992 Houston Livestock Show where he had a first-place Duroc.

Kurt serves his club as County Council delegate. He also is one of Haskell County's three delegates to the 1992-93 district 4-H Council. He has held the offices of vice president, treasurer and reporter for his local club. He shares his knowledge and skills with other 4-H'ers by serving as a junior 4-H leader.

Active in school activities, Kurt is senior class vice president, FFA president and band vice president. He serves on the yearbook staff and competes in UIL math, science, typing and one-act play events. He has been named Who's Who for math science, agriculture, athletics, band and history.

He is co-captain of the Rochester football team and also competes in basketball and track. Last year he was all-district in football, second team all-state and was named to the all-state academic team. He received honorable mention honors in basketball, and in track he was a regional qualifier in hurdles and a member of the sprint relay team. He serves as an usher at the Rochester First United Methodist Church.

The Martin award was established in 1977. Winners are chosen on their achievement in 4-H activities, citizenship, leadership, scholastic excellence and service to their club, school, community and church.

Haskell County agents compile a list of 4-H members considered worthy of the award. Mrs. Martin makes the final decision after conferring with 4-H leaders, school officials and other interested individuals.

Over 600 attend reunion

More than 600 attended the Weinert Homecoming Saturday as ex-students and residents gathered for one of their most successful reunions.

The day started with a parade which contained approximately 50 entries, making it the largest parade ever.

The class of 1958 with its "Swinging With Elvis" float was first-place winner in the float competition. Second place went to the class of 1968 with its "Blue Jeans and White Shirts" entry and third place to the Women of Weinert for their "Happiness Is Making a Quilt."

The Weinert Gin's "Cotton Pickin'" float was selected as the most original. The Judge's Award went to the "1980 Brats," children of the 1980 graduates. Jacky Sanders, class of 1963, was recognized in the Classy Car division for his 1957 Chevrolet convertible.

'Hungry' Hawley invades Haskell Friday night

The Haskell Indians go up against another "hungry" team Friday night when they play hosts to the Hawley Bobcats in a district 7-2A contest they need to win.

Just like last week when winless Winters was all fired up for the Indians, the Bearcats can be expected to go all out to get on the winning track after losing their first five games of the season.

Indian coach Walter Hargrove said he is sure the Bearcats think they can win this one. But he also feels sure his Indians feel they can win too.

Although they are winless, the Bearcats have an experienced team.

They have several starters back from last year's team.

While the loss to Winters was disappointing to Hargrove and his team, the coach said his team is "still OK." He pointed to the Indians' three deep penetrations in the second half after the Blizzards had taken a substantial lead. "They got the momentum going for them early by taking advantage of our turnovers," the coach said.

Hargrove took nothing away from Winters. "They're the best team we've played," he said. "They're going to beat some more district teams."

Webelos patrol gets top award

Webelos Den 1 of Cub Scout Pack 136 won the Presidential Award following competition Saturday at the district Camporee at McMillon.

The Haskell group won six blue ribbons and three more ribbons to beat out competing Cub Scouts from Knox City, Aspermont and Hamlin for the best overall den.

The local Webelos won either a blue or a red ribbon in every event.

Blue ribbons were awarded for flint and steel, knot tying, lashing, signaling, trail signs and compass bearings.

Red ribbons were won in compass course, distance estimating and a teamwork event.

Boys competing were Matt Arendall, John Mark Hodgkin, Jason Shaw, Craig Cunningham, Kevin Patton and Brent Watson.

Leaders of the Webelos den are Kenneth Patton, Randy Shaw and Larry Cunningham.

Rainfall still above normal

September rainfall in Haskell was less than one-third the normal amount for that month, but the year's moisture total remains well ahead of ordinary.

Sam Herren, official weather recorder, reported that rainfall last month totaled 1.04 inches. This compares with a normal of 3.30 inches for September.

But for the year, Haskell has received 24.60 inches, well above the normal of 19.55 for the first nine months of the year, Herren said.

There was a wide range of temperatures during the month. Highest was on Sept. 21 when the mercury climbed to a summer-like 97 degrees. Lowest was on Sept. 27 with a 48-degree reading.

Hooray!

Haskell third-graders celebrate the end of TAAS tests with a gigantic chocolate cake. TAAS tests were given Sept. 22-24 in grades 3, 7 and 11 all over Texas. Grades 4, 8 and 10 will be tested in May. Beginning in May of 1994, TAAS will be given only in grades 4, 8 and 10.

Champions

Cross country team wins first at meet

The Haskell Maidens brought home the first-place trophy Saturday from the Graford Invitational Cross Country Meet.

Team members were Tréci Burson, Jennifer Comedy, Charissa Huff, Tonya Burson, Heather Hobgood, Nacole Lefevre and Heather Stewart.

The girls competed against a total of 123 runners made up of girls from 1A, 2A and 3A schools. Burson, who placed fifth, and Comedy, who placed 10th, also received individual medals for placing in the top 10.

On Sept. 19, the Maidens competed in the Jim Ned cross country meet and placed fifth overall. Running for the Maidens were Jennifer Comedy, who placed seventh, Tonya Burson, Veronica Gonzales, Rebecca Unger and Sarah Mullen.

Next week the Maidens will run in the Archer City cross country meet and then will take a week off to prepare for the district meet in Anson on Oct. 21.

Fans are urged to continue to support and encourage the athletes as they work toward the goal of being district cross country champions.

Mrs. Medford hostess to homemakers

On Oct. 5, six members of the Paint Creek Homemakers Club met in the home of Dolores Medford.

They read the TEHA prayer and creed. Each answered roll call by answering "What is your family doing to preserve the environment?"

Dolores read the minutes and gave the treasurer's report and Frances Fischer gave the council report.

The club voted on the Paint Creek Sunshine chairman, Mabel Overton, and also voted on the standing 4-H committee for Haskell County, composed of Dorthay Wells, chairman, Frances Fischer and Dolores Medford.

The program was "Reduce Toxic Chemical Use" and members watched a VCR tape on things everyone can do to remove toxic chemical from their homes and shops.

Members also worked on the programs for information day which will be Oct. 17 at the Haskell bank community building.

Refreshments were served by Peggy Burnett.

Next meeting, the first Monday in November, will be a pot luck lunch at the extension office in Haskell.

Baptist WMU to meet in Weinert

Woman's Missionary Union of Haskell-Knox Baptist Association will meet in the 82nd annual session Tuesday, Oct. 13, at the First Baptist Church in Weinert.

The theme will be "Lead On!" and the session will begin at 9:45 a.m. with the call to order given by Mrs. A. D. May, director.

Mrs. Helen Patterson of Munday will bring Prayer Patterns, and reports will be heard from local WMU directors, council officers, and special committees.

Weinert First Baptist is arranging special music, and guest speakers for the morning will be Garry and Sharlotte Wester, missionaries to Ecuador, now home on furlough following their first tour of service as church planters.

Garry's grandfather, Brother Jack Wester, will be fondly remembered as a former Baptist pastor and teacher in Haskell-Knox Association. The Garry Westers are furloughing in Roby, near Charlotte's parents, the Perry Thomsons, until January 1993.

Both the Westers graduated from Angelo State University in 1978, and Garry earned a master of theology from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1985. He pastored Red Springs Baptist Church until their appointment by the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention in November 1987.

Following a year of language study in Costa Rica, the Westers went to Machala, Ecuador, where he has been involved in starting and developing new churches, and Sharlotte has been teaching their two children, Tara, 13, and Daniel, 8, in a home schooling program. She also is involved in developing and teaching Bible classes for women and children.

All interested persons are invited to be a part of this annual WMU meeting, and WMU members are especially urged to make plans to attend. Lunch will be served by the host church following the meeting.

The members of the Freshman Class would like to express our sincere appreciation to the parents and sponsors for helping us with the Brisket Supper last Thursday. A special "Thank you" to Jim and Paula Everett, and Jim Burson for cooking the briskets and to Cecil's for slicing them. The Brisket Supper was a tremendous success, and we couldn't have done it without your help and support. Thank you.

Gene Overton attends reunion of WWII battalion

Merritt E. (Gene) Overton, former major in the United States Army, along with other former members of the 819th Tank Destroyer Battalion, were honored Oct. 2 in Fort Chaffee, Ark.

More than 40 former officers and enlisted men of the 819th were in attendance as the unit was welcomed home by the commander of Fort Chaffee, Col. Cannava.

Overton, former company commander of "B" Company, and Robert Dauterman, former company commander of "A" Company, then laid a memorial wreath, followed by a 21-gun salute, taps and a missing man fly over by the Arkansas National Guard.

The unit was then treated to a tour of the base, which included a visit to the billets in which the unit was housed and a meal in the post mess hall.

A sergeant from the Fort Chaffee NCO Training Center briefed those attending on present-day NCO training and had on display some of the TO&E equipment used by the unit during its tour of duty.

Overton was accompanied at the memorial service by his wife, Mabel, and sons, Wallar and Mike.

The 819th was activated more than 50 years ago, on June 1, 1942, at the then Camp Chaffee and was specifically organized and trained to engage General Rommel's German army in the African desert. It had an original contingency of 24 officers and 80 enlisted men. The ten-Lt. Overton was company commander of "B" Company, one of the three line companies of the unit.

The battalion trained in Camp Bowie near Brownwood where it was built to full strength of approximately 1,000 officers and enlisted men before moving to Shell Camp in Fort Hood for advanced training. On July 21, 1943, the unit moved to Camp Ibis, Calif., on the Mojave Desert for desert training and then to Camp Stoneman, Calif., prior to its deployment overseas.

In March 1944, the unit found itself in defense of the Hawaiian Islands for almost a year, and on Jan. 17, 1945, it sailed for the Palaus Islands near the Philippines where some of the fiercest fighting in the Pacific occurred.

The unit was given the mission of island defense as well as securing the islands for a launching site for the planned attack on the Island of Japan.

The battalion had the additional mission of preventing the Japanese from re-supplying neighboring occupied islands, causing their eventual surrender. While in the Palaus Islands, the war with Japan ended and the unit was deactivated after its return to the United States.

After the unit's return to the States, it was learned that the unit's mission upon the invasion of Japan was to secure an airstrip in Japan with an estimated loss of 90 percent of the unit.

TAX PLANNING

Written By Richard E. Rodgers, CPA

HOW TO CUT YOUR 1992 TAX BILL

Review your 1992 tax situation while there is still time to take actions that could cut your tax bill. Here are some options to consider:

- If you have shares in an S corporation that will have a 1992 loss, review your tax basis before year-end. Insufficient basis will limit your loss deduction, but you can rectify the situation before year-end with shareholder loans to the company or contributions to capital.
- If you're planning to purchase equipment for your business, consider doing so before year-end. You can then expense up to $10,000 of your equipment purchase. Be aware, however, of the expensing limitations: your deduction will be limited if you have less than $10,000 of business income, if your equipment purchases for the year exceed $200,000, or if your purchase is an automobile.
- Take advantage of the tax deferral available in retirement plans. If a 401(k) is available to you at work, make as large a contribution as possible. If you're self-employed, look into setting up a Keogh plan before December 31st. And if you qualify for a deductible IRA contribution, you have until April 15, 1993, to establish an IRA and make a 1992 contribution.
- Avoid any tax underpayment penalties by reviewing your tax withholding or tax estimates now. Penalties for underwithholding earlier in the year can be corrected by increasing your withholding before year-end. If you make quarterly tax estimates, be aware that taxpayers who earn more than $75,000 and whose 1992 income is $40,000 or more than their 1991 income are subject to new rules this year. Get details, and make adjustments while there is still time to avoid or minimize penalties for underpayment.

To the people of Haskell: In times of distress and grief brought on by natural disaster, it is wonderful to be supported by people who care and are willing to share time, prayer, gifts and presence with those who are recovering.

Thank you for sharing with us in our time of need; you have truly blessed us. We hope that we may repay your generosity by helping other communities during future times of crisis.

Weinert reunion

Editor: I would like to say thank you to everyone who worked so hard to make the Weinert Homecoming such a success.

Those who cleaned the building and yards, decorated the auditorium, worked so hard on the floats and parade, made the corsages for the class of 1942 and enlarged our pictures to put in the auditorium, registered all the people and sent out all the invitations.

For everything each one of you did, I say thank you from my heart.

It was a beautiful parade and I know my entire class felt so honored on our 50th anniversary.

Also to my family, my daughter, son-in-law, granddaughter, great-grandchildren, four brothers and two sisters for coming to make my day extra special. I love you all.

4-H week

Editor: Some of my best memories while growing up in Paint Creek in Haskell County were associated with my 4-H club activities. In fact, I would suggest that our 4-H work helped instill in every member of our club a sense of responsibility and dedication. These are qualities that I have tried to carry with me into adult life, and ones I hope to pass on to my children, Sydney and Griffin.

National 4-H Week, Oct. 4-10, gives us a time to reflect on a program that brings a practical learning experience to the youth of America. The cornerstone of this youth organization, "learning by doing," has withstood the test of time.

Today, one out of every 10 Texas youngsters is involved in 4-H, and many of their learning experiences revolve around animals. Whether it's raising a pen of rabbits or feeding and grooming a market steer for the show ring, these young people are learning a strong sense of satisfaction and commitment that comes with tending and caring for an animal.

But today, we also find that more than two-thirds of our children live in an urban setting, and so 4-H has changed with our shifting population trends. Nowadays, you might find a group of youngsters in downtown Dallas tending to a roof top garden, or kids in Houston working with natural resource or wildlife programs. Or it may be that group of youngsters in Austin learning leadership skills and group planning on a county recreational team.

4-H embodies all that is right with our country's young people---embodies their hopes and dreams for the future. But what's more, 4-H is helping them turn their hopes and dreams into fact and reality.

Texas agriculture is proud to take this opportunity to salute 4-H and all the extraordinary people who make it a shining success.

Rick Perry
Commissioner
Texas Department of Agriculture

Approximately 200 Haskell County 4-H Club members are joining nearly 500,000 other 4-H club members in Texas in celebrating National 4-H Week, Oct. 4-10.

Anyone interested in information about becoming involved in a 4-H club and/or a special project of some type, may contact the Haskell County extension office, 101 S. Ave. D in Haskell.

Two county agents serve the county and are able to assist with questions and requests. Agents are Lou Gilly, county extension agent-home economics, and Max Stapleton, county extension agent-agriculture. Phone numbers are 864-2546 and 864-2658 respectively.

Haskell County has six community 4-H clubs with approximately 50 volunteer leaders who work with various phases of the 4-H organization.

The clubs, and the main contact person(s) for each:

Haskell: Kay Smith and Christie Stapleton.

Paint Creek: Kim Crawford and Darlene Walton.

Rochester: Karen Smart.

Rule: Susan Kittley and Mikeana Jeffrey.

Sagerton: Helen Lammert.

Weinert: Mary Murphy and Alice Yates.

Membership is open to all youth ages 9 to 19 (8 if in the third grade).

4-H can make it happen

With the many problems facing this nation, it is refreshing to see young people ready and willing to help bring about solutions to these pressing concerns.

Enthusiasm and optimism have always been admirable qualities of American youth. Their vigor inspires all of us to do a better job in coping with problems.

Youthful exuberance, combined with the guidance and experience of adults, provides an unbeatable combination. The results of that cooperation are evident in the 4-H program in Haskell County.

Four-H members from all economic, ethnic and social backgrounds are helping clean up and protect the environment and natural resources. The youth work to conserve energy, assist in agricultural production and help improve health and nutrition habits of the community. In the process, 4-H'ers develop good citizenship and leadership traits and acquire skills that will help them in later life.

Youthful enthusiasm and energy, combined with adult guidance and support and working together in a common purpose: That's the 4-H story today. County extension agents support the efforts of 4-H'ers, their parents, their leaders and alumni "to make the best better."

County extension agents encourage young people who have plenty of enthusiasm as and adults who may wish to volunteer their time and talents to get involved in 4-H and help "make it happen."

Information on 4-H programs and activities is available at the county extension office in Haskell.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap or national origin.

Flu still danger to older Americans

Seven in 10 older Americans are leaving themselves open to a physical assault that could put them flat on their backs, or even kill them.

Influenza, a contagious lung disease which affects more than 5 million seniors annually, can lead to serious health problems and sometimes death. Unfortunately, only 309 percent of those non-institutionalized older adults take the vaccine to ward of this potentially life-threatening disease.

"The optimal period to receive a flu shot is between Oct. 15 and Nov. 15, before the peak of the season," said Samuel Kuna, MD, president for the Texas Thoracic Society, the medical section of the American Lung Association of Texas. "Despite common misperception, the vaccine is safe and does not cause a mild case of influenza."

Besides senior citizens, others at high risk from the flu are those with chronic heart or lung disease, including children with asthma.

Booster Club

The Indian Booster Club met Monday. Coach Hargrove congratulated the Maidens' cross country team on its first-place finish at the Graford Invitational run this past weekend. Their next meet is this Saturday at Archer City.

Coach Hargrove noted the team played very hard in last week's game against Winters. Preparations have begun in earnest for the game against Hawley, and there are no major injuries.

Lawns need feeding in the fall just as much as in the spring. Cool-season grasses, bluegrass and fescue and ryegrass snap out of their summer doldrums in late summer when cool nights come.

Grass blades turn greener and new growth appears. The lawn then needs nitrogen and other nutrients. Fall feeding also helps grass roots grow stronger and helps top growth compete with weeds. Bermuda may rest in the fall and turn brown, but it doesn't mean it is paralyzed until spring. It stores its food after the top is browned by frost. If the lawn is fed in late summer, the grass will have that much more food to store. It helps the grass to survive cold weather.

Plant herbs to fill bare spots in your yard. Sage and thyme are hardy throughout Texas.

Shasta daisies, daylilies and spider lilies are some of the perennials that can be divided and replanted in early fall.

Although it is still too early to plant spring-flowering bulbs, early shoppers get the best selection. Buy now, and store bulbs in the vegetable bin of your refrigerator. Plant in November when the soil has cooled.

To help rid your beds or garden of insects, build a toad house. Toads eat loads of insects, but they need a cool place on hot days. Place a clay pot upside down, raising the rim with a rock for a doorway.

Don't forget your birds; they eat insects all day. Attract the wrens, martins and bluebirds with birdhouses.

It's a little early for chrysanthemums to bloom here in Haskell, but to keep them in the yard year round, cut the plants back to a six-inch height after they finish blooming. Then after the ground has frozen, add several inches of mulch. Then in early spring remove the mulch. As the plants grow next spring, pinch to encourage branching.

From now through December, continue selecting materials for winter arranging. Keep an eye out for weathered wood, dried grass, and flowers, seeds and seed pods, and pine cones. Dried vegetables, such as okra and gourds, are nice to use in decorating your house, and some of them you can paint and glue glitter on them for Christmas decorating. Okra pods are great for table decorations.

Tiger Cubs visit fire station

The Tiger Cub group of Haskell Pack 136 met Tuesday, Sept. 22 at 5:30 p.m. at the Haskell Fire Dept.

Tiger and partner, A. J. and Randy Shaw, were hosts for the monthly meeting. Their big idea for this month is "Prepare for Emergencies". This topic was chosen in preparation for Fire Prevention Week.

Randy led the group on a tour of the fire station and the boys enjoyed looking at all the gear stored on the fire trucks. He took the parents and boys for a ride on the fire truck.

After returning to the station, A. J. handed out a list of the emergency phone numbers for Haskell to be posted by the telephone and discussed how to use them. Randy helped the boys try on his fire coat and hat.

Partners will continue to work in their Tiger Cub book on the "Prepare for Emergencies" big idea during the upcoming weeks.

Tigers and partners attending were Adam and Dickie Greenwood, Ross and Tom Hargrove, Scott and Debbie Kennedy, Bobby and Robin Loyd, A. J. and Randy Shaw, Thomas and Alicia Tidrow, C. J. Villegas and Mickey Holloway; and Tiger Cub Coordinator, Lisa Shaw.

The evening meal, served to 410, was catered by Dairyland of Jacksboro.

The evening program included music by Deborah MacKay of Daingerfield, daughter of Butch and Sue Sanders Cox (class of 1960). The quilt, made by the Women of Weinert, was won by Rosa Valdez of O'Brien.

Perry calls for census correction

Agriculture Commissioner Rick Perry has urged the U.S. Bureau of the Census to adjust its population count for Texas, saying an undercount will cost the state millions of dollars in federal funds.

In a letter to Dr. Barbara Bryant, director of the bureau, Perry said that results of the survey will help correct any any previous deficiencies in the undercount of Texas residents during the 1990 census.

A follow-up survey has identified an undercount of 2.763 percent in Texas which represents more than 480,000 Texans.

"Given the importance that correct population estimates have for our state and local governments in the allocation of federal funds, I believe there is full justification for this adjustment," Perry said.

Population estimates are calculated from the base year annually for each state and biennially for cities and counties.

Two graduate at Southwest

Two Haskell County residents were among the 1,137 Southwest Texas State University students who were awarded degrees in summer commencement ceremonies Aug. 14-15.

They were: Gloria Bateman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Santos Navarrette of Rule, who received an associate of applied sciences in respiratory therapy; and Bruce Geilhausen, son of Robert and Lowell Anne Baker of Haskell, who received a bachelor of science in criminal justice.

Thank you for reading The Haskell Free Press.

Dear Reader,

If you or someone you know is having emotional distress and behavioral difficulties in trying to cope with developmental stages and tasks, a counselor could help you. IN OTHER WORDS, with problems such as grief, divorce, child-rearing problems, anger, trouble at home, a career decision, or insecurity about getting older are becoming such problems that you cannot think what to do, come for counseling so you can handle the problem wisely.

A counselor listens, furnishes needed information, helps you decide what is best for you; and if necessary, refers you to others who can assist you.

The problems listed above are not psychological disorders, but over a period of time they can make you sick; or if you are already ill, these problems can keep you from getting well.

In Texas, mental health professionals are licensed by state boards and governed by strict codes. Licensed professional counselors are not psychiatrists or clinical psychologists.

We use couches only for sitting and do not give tests that betray your wildest sexual fantasies. Tests that are given pertain to identifying the problem, making a career choice, assessing depression, college adjustment and daily stress.

I do have licenses to treat clients who abuse drugs and alcohol and to practice marriage and family therapy; however, if I find your problem is outside my level of expertise, I will refer you to a recognized professional in that field.

You may use health insurance or Medicare to pay my counseling fees.

I close with a reminder from Proverbs 16:20—He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good: and whoso trusteth in the Lord, happy is he.

I would like to take this opportunity to say a big "Thank You" to everyone who took part in the Weinert Homecoming Parade. As usual, the people in Weinert, our patrons, and ex-students came through with flying colors. They put in a lot of time and effort to make this parade exceptional every homecoming. I would also like to say "Thank You" to some friends who took their time to participate simply because they were asked:

- The Haskell Indian Band
- Rolling Plains Farm Supply
- Bailey Toliver Chevrolet Olds
- Bill Wilson Motor Co.
- Medford Buick-Pontiac-GMC
- Quality Implement Co.

Everyone works together to make my job so much easier, so thank you very much and let's do it again in two years.

 Congratulations to the Danny Kittley family upon the birth of a son, Benjamin Ollie Kittley at 10:20 a.m. on Sept. 24 weighing 8 lbs. 1 1/2 oz. He was 19 inches. (Additional information will be elsewhere in the newspaper).

 We were certainly saddened this past Saturday night to hear of the terrible fire at the Rule High School. Three of your correspondent's grandchildren graduated from that school, and two more will do so. A fire is always bad, take it from one who knows, for a few years ago my parents' home in Hamlin was gutted by fire, in which two small children died.

 Quite belated "Happy Birthday" is sent to Trey Kittley, Eric Robinson, Dela Faye McLain, J. R. Barbee, Audrey Westmoreland, Beth Kittley, Shannon Kittley, Melvin Sharp and Alma Counts, all of Rule. Belated anniversary greetings are sent to Jack and Ruth Wilcox, also to Jerry and Molly Cannon.

 It was good to see the following Rule people at Wal-Mart on Sat.,

Oct. 3: Bertha McQuinn, Audrey and Buford Westmoreland. Also, visited briefly with Margaret Jones of Haskell, who had come to Stamford with Vida White. However, didn't have the privilege of seeing Vida White.

 Get well wishes are sent to J. C. Halliburton of Rochester, Hoyt and Earlene Whitworth as they continue with their convalescence. Also, get well wishes are sent to Ruth Moore of Rule, who has recently been hospitalized at the Haskell hospital, as well as Hazel Wofford of Sagerton. Jere Kittley seems to be doing fine following her recent eye surgery.

 At a party recently enjoyed visiting with cousins: Arnold and Doris McLemore, also, Bernice and Carl Lunn. Then, Thelma and Joe Mathis, also the John Watsons of Haskell, "Toad" Brown of Hamlin, Herbert Rinn of Rule and many others.

 Food for thought: "The greatest discovery of my generation is that human beings can alter their lives by altering their attitudes of mind." By William James.)

-BIRTHS-

Danny and Nikki Kittley and son, Luke, are happy to announce the arrival of their new son and brother, Benjamin Ollie Kittley.

Paternal great-grandparents are Blanche and Taylor Sego of Rochester and maternal great-grandparents are Vicky and Parnell Anderson of Stamford.

Grandparents are Ken and Nelda Lane of Haskell.

 Gil and Norma Richardson of Haskell are proud to announce the birth of their daughter, Emily Diane, born Sept. 14 at 1:49 a.m. at Hendrick Medical Center in Abilene. She weighed 7 pounds, 12 ounces and was 20 1/2 inches long. She is welcomed home by a brother, Bryan, 2 1/2.

Maternal grandparents are Tom Senter of Stephenville and the late Vera Senter. Paternal grandparents are A. C. Richardson Jr. of Haskell and Becky Tubbs of Anson.

Paternal great-grandparents are A. C. Richardson Sr. of Ennis and Geneva G. Richardson of Itasca. Paternal great-great-mother is Mrs. J. E. Gilmore of Itasca.

FHA chapter shows increase in membership

The Haskell chapter of Future Homemakers of America began the school year with a 60-percent increase in paid membership from last year which qualifies the chapter for a championship FHA award. A drawing was held for a red and white FHA tote bag which was won by Christy Cadenhead.

At the second meeting members voted to order a set of videos concerning the YES program (Youth Exchanging with Seniors), attend Youth Day at the State Fair Oct. 3 and to sell Tupperware for the fund-raiser this year.

This past Saturday, 19 FHA members joined thousands of other FHA, FFA and 4-H members of Texas for a great time at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas. Mrs. Wanda Thompson, chapter advisor, her husband, Kenny, Mrs. Marjane Cunningham and Mr. Philip Martin also attended. The weather was perfect and everyone had a great time at the exhibits, shows and rides on the midway.

The next scheduled meeting is the Holiday Delight program with Lisa Hoff of West Texas Utilities on Monday, Nov. 9. Because of the remodeling being done in the homemaking department the program will be at the First National Bank building.

One student has completed the first level of Power of One for FHA. Brandi Britt did her project during the first six weeks.

67 attend annual Jenkins reunion

The second annual Jenkins family reunion was held Sept. 12 at the Civic Center. Sixty-seven people were present.

Traveling farthest was JoNell (Jenkins) Cowart of Anchorage, Alaska. Other family members who traveled a great distance to attend the reunion were Charles and Carol Jenkins of Ferndale, Wash.

Highlights of the reunion were the family cookbook, the family tree, the display table of pictures and family heirlooms and the auction.

Luann (Hill) King did a marvelous job on the cookbooks. The recipes and pictures in the cookbook are highly valued due to the fact that some were mother's/grandmothers' recipes and the pictures were of the old home place in Weinert and of Grandma and Grandpa Jenkins and Granny Dallam. Those who weren't present this year will be able to get one next year as there were a few left over.

The family tree is well on the way to completion due to the efforts of Mary (Jenkins) Stroble, Paula Thompson and Juanita (Jenkins) Miller. Paula extended her hand and talents to the effort with beautiful hand lettering of all the names. She worked tirelessly through most of the day. It is hoped the tree will be complete at the next reunion.

Many of those attending brought pictures, posters and family heirlooms to show on tables set up for that purpose. This was a favorite for most who attended as it jogged many old memories. Family members were encouraged to bring something for the display tables again next year.

After a fine meal, the day ended with the auction. Sue (Jenkins) Hayley served as auctioneer, while Joe Stroble showed items for bid and Glenn Hayley recorded each purchase. Items for bid ranged from homemade wall hangings to home canning, to garage sale type knick knacks.

Artist Darrell Jenkins of Ferndale, Wash., sent one of his wood carvings made from Washington red cedar. The carving depicted a sailboat and was signed by the artist. Although Darrell couldn't attend, proud father Charles Jenkins contributed his son's art work to the reunion auction.

Another unique item was a clock made by Frank Jenkins. The clock contained wood which came from the barn of the old Jenkins home place. Frank used the wood to fashion a rustic looking barn with clock hands on the front.

The highlight of the auction, however, was a beautiful hand crocheted afghan that caught the eye of many of the bidders. It was made and donated by Evora Briley and was taken home by Johnnie (Jenkins) Gothard.

Attending the reunion were Mack and Dorothy Hill and Mary Frances Dryman of La Marque; Bobby and Barbara Jenkins of Waco; Paul (Dewey) Thompson of Borger; Dorothy Jan Dewey of Fritch; Frank and Roberta Jenkins, Melvin and Juanita Miller and David Miller, all of Haskell.

Ocey Jenkins, Odessa Erwin, Morris and Mary Jenkins of Rochester; Analene Kite, J. R. Jenkins, Olen and Ola Mae Jenkins and Ray and Evora Briley of Abilene; Floy Mae and David Jenkins of Dalhart; Joe Nell Cowart of Anchorage, Alaska; Harlan and Jimmie Weinert of Weinert.

Charles, Lisa and Chuck King of San Antonio; Charles and Carol Jenkins of Ferndale, Wash.; Marilyn Reeves of Amarillo; Archie and Zuleka Jenkins of Olney; Kelly Hall, Jack and Sharron Fluckinger and Nancy Jenkins of Odessa.

Reba Harrell of Lubbock; Bennie and Luan King of Sonora; Jimmie and Frances Bowen of Rule; Mike, Micha, Joshua, Aaron and Teresa New of Haskell; Mike Gilbert of Graham; Walter, Beth, Logan and Ethan Turnbow and Joan Jenkins of Weatherford; Vivienne Stone of Midland.

Bulah May of Hamlin; Eldine Bowman and Wayne Jenkins of Arlington; Eron McGuire of Knox City; Glenn and Sue Hayley of Deer Park; Joe and Mary Stroble of Houston; Peggy, Jamie and Eric Brown of Munday; T. H. and Johnnie Gothard of San Angelo; and Geneva Thompson of Tyler.

PHARMACY NEWS

By Elbert Johnson, Registered Pharmacist

Avoiding Colds: The most common way of spreading cold viruses is by touch. These viruses can survive for several hours on hands, handkerchiefs, tissues, and hard, nonporous surfaces. People who are under stress also appear to be more susceptible to colds. Thus, among the steps to take to reduce your chances of catching a cold are: frequent hand washing, trying to keep your hands from your nose and eyes, trying to control daily stress.

Blizzards cool off Indians

A banner hung in the Winters football stadium Friday: "Play Like a Champion Tonight."

And that's exactly what the hometown team did, as the Blizzards handed the Haskell a 29-0 licking and dropped the Indians from their short-lived perch atop the district 7-2A standings.

The loss moved the Haskell district record to 1-1 (3-2 for the season) while Winters improved to 1-1 in district and 1-4 overall.

Winters dominated the game, especially in the first half when they held the Indians to 30 yards in total offense and a single first down. During the same two periods, the Blizzards were piling up 123 yards and 11 first downs.

The Indians improved in both offense and defense in the second half, but by that time the damage already had been done.

Winters broke the scoring ice at the 3:59 mark of the first period when Jim Calcote scored from the 1-yard line to top off a 44-yard drive on the Blizzards' second possession. At this point, the Blizzards had run 15 plays while Haskell had managed only three.

The Blizzards scored again at the 8:21 mark of the second period when Calcote went over again from a yard out on the second play after Winters had returned a recovered fumble to the Haskell 4.

A half minute before the first half ended, the Blizzards' John Belew passed 7 yards to Adrian Albarado for another touchdown to cap a 13-play, 73-yard drive. This brought the score to 20-0.

In the third period, the Blizzards' Brock Guevera intercepted a Haskell pass on the 48 and returned to the Indian 27. The Blizzards drove to the 1-yard line, but after a penalty set them back to the 6, Jamey West booted a 24-yard field goal to make the score 23-0.

Haskell's offense finally came alive after the field goal, but on three successive possessions, the Indians were stopped in the shadows of the goal.

After Jonathan Tatum returned the kickoff to the 49, the Indians began a 10-play drive which carried to the Winters 6, from where a 3-yard loss and two incomplete passes snuffed it out. Big plays in the drive were an 11-yard keeper by Mart Guess and a 13-yard pass from Guess to Tommie Isbell.

Winters could gain only 6 yards in three plays and was forced to kick to its own 43. A 15-yard penalty against Winters and an 18-yard run by Cody Josselet moved the Indians to a first down at the 10. Guess then made 5 yards to the 5. But after two incomplete passes, his fourth-down pass was intercepted in the end zone.

After three plays, the Blizzards moved from the 20 to the 27 and then a short 18-yard punt and a 5-yard penalty put the Indians back in business on the 40. Guess passed 25 yards to Joseph Rodriguez for a first down at the 15. Two more passes fell incomplete, a completion to Isbell netted less than a yard and another incompletion gave the ball back to Winters.

On their next possession, the Indians failed to connect on any of three passing attempts. They had the ball two more times, but lost it each time on an interception.

Winters' final touchdown came in the final two minutes when Calcote broke loose on a 53-yard scamper.

Josselet, who carried only four times, wound up as the Indians' leading groundgainer with 26 yards. Guess had 21 yards in 8 carries. Justin Lisle, who had averaged over 100 yards through the first four games, was held to 16 yards in 13 carries. Guess was 7 for 23 for 73 yards in the passing department and suffered four interceptions.

4-H club elects officers

Other officers are Jennifer Comedy, vice president; Kaki Stapleton, secretary-treasurer; J. J. Comedy, reporter; and Tonya Burson, council delegate.
