County goes for Clinton

Haskell County voters followed the national trend Tuesday in giving Bill Clinton the nod for president of the United States.

In Haskell County, the Arkansas governor received 1438 votes. President George Bush received 852 and Ross Perot got 562.

Clinton carried all Haskell County boxes except those in precinct 1 (Catholic Church), precinct 7 (O'Brien) and precinct 9 (Paint Creek).

Although he won by a healthy margin, Clinton got just barely over 50 percent of the local vote.

His 1438 vote total was just 24 more than the combined vote for Bush and Perot.

Closest race locally in Tuesday's voting was in the race for railroad commissioner where Democrat Lena Guerrero barely edged Republican Barry Williamson, 1258-1242. Libertarian Richard N. Draheim Jr. got 47 votes in Haskell County.

Incumbent State Senator Steve Carriker, who narrowly won reelection over Tom Haywood, outpolled his Republican opponent, 1501-1047 in local voting.

Congressman Charles Stenholm was a runaway winner over Jeannie Sadowski in Haskell County. The incumbent Democrat received 2040 votes to Sadowski's 513.

Only Republican to carry Haskell County was Craig Enoch, who received 989 votes in the race for Supreme Court Justice, place 1, while Oscar Mauzy got just 411.

For place 2 on the Supreme Court, Haskell County went for Rose Spector over Eugene Cook, 1537-870, and for place 3, Jack Hightower won easily over John D. Montgomery, 1777-637.

In the three races for judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals, Charles Baird beat Joseph Devany 1624-580 for place 1, Morris Overstreet beat Sue Lagarde 1711-557 for place 2, and Pete Benavides beat Lawrence Meyers 1406-817 for place 3.

There were no contested races among local candidates whose names appeared on Tuesday's ballot. There were 48 write-in votes for David Epley as commissioner of precinct 1. Billy Wayne Hester easily won, however, with 647 votes.

The Haskell Maiden cross country team competes Saturday in the regional meet in Lubbock.

They will run at 9:30 a.m. in Mae Simmons Park for the right to compete in the state meet in Georgetown the following Saturday.

Recognized

Police Chief Tom Paul Barnett and his wife, Lee, read the plaque presented to him Monday by Ruby Turner of the City Council during a party in honor of the longtime officer.

City pays tribute to police chief

Haskell city officials and employees paid tribute Monday afternoon to long-time Chief of Police Tom Paul (Bull) Barnett.

Barnett, who has been police chief 35 years, was presented with a plaque and a distinguished service medal, after which those attending the party enjoyed refreshments.

City councilor Ruby Turner presented the plaque to Barnett as she thanked him "for taking care of us all these years."

The veteran policeman joined the city police force in 1955. That same year he was appointed chief and has served in that capacity since except for two years in the late 1970s when he was a deputy sheriff.

Barnett recalled that he was appointed by Mayor Courtney Hunt and has served under eight other mayors.

A Haskell native, he attended Haskell High School. After serving two years in the Army, he returned to Haskell County and worked a while as city marshal in Rochester before joining Haskell police force. "I've never done anything else," Barnett said of his profession.

In 1953, he married Lee Dabow of Berlin, Germany. He had met her when he was in the Army in Germany. They were married in the Pinkerton church. She has been employed as a secretary at Haskell High School for the past 17 years.

The Barnetts have two daughters and three sons. The daughters are Gail Shea of Tuscola and Joan Adams of New Braunfels. Sons are Paul Barnett and Fred Barnett of San Angelo and Tom Barnett of Snyder.

Juniors take orders

The junior class is taking orders for submarine sandwiches until Nov. 16.

Six sandwiches may be bought for $10. They will be made and delivered Nov. 21.

Sandwiches will have two meats, ham and turkey, and three kinds of cheese on a submarine bun.

Indians still in running

The fat lady still hasn't stood up to sing in district 7-2A, so the Haskell Indians still cling to an outside chance at a piece of the championship and a slightly better chance at a playoff berth.

But to gain either, they must get by arch-rival Stamford here Friday night in the district finale.

It's been a few years since the Indians have gone into the final district game with stakes like this. And it's been a few years, five to be precise, since they've beaten the Bulldogs.

Stamford, 4-2, is in a four-way tie for first place in the district, while Haskell, 3-3, is just one game back. Under the right circumstances, the district could end in a six-team log jam for first place, with both of Friday night's participants being among the elite. For this to happen, the Indians would have to win and count on Jim Ned to beat Winters, Hawley to beat Rotan and Anson to upset Hamlin.

All kinds of scenarios are possible, depending on this week's results.

To some extent, Stamford controls its own destiny, as far as gaining a first-place tie is concerned. A victory over the Indians would assure them of no worse than a tie for first.

The Bulldogs, 6-3 for the season, defeated Clyde and Merkel and lost to Albany in pre-district play. In the district, they hold victories over Rotan, Anson, Hamlin and Hawley and have lost to Jim Ned and Winters.

The Indians, 5-4 for the season, defeated Munday and Knox City and lost to Seymour in pre-district. In 7-2A play they have beaten Anson, Hawley and Jim Ned and have lost to Winters, Rotan and Hamlin. Of their four losses, three were by one touchdown.

Stamford's offense is led by junior tailback Chris Gardner, whom Haskell coach Walter Hargrove describes as "a big play man." Gardner turned two busted plays into touchdowns to win the Hamlin game and his kickoff return paved the way for the Bulldogs' win over Anson.

Quarterback Jody Lefevre and fullback David Fernandez are others in the talented Bulldog backfield. On defense, the leader is middle linebacker Dusty Acosta.

7-2A race tangled

Winters, Hamlin, Rotan and Stamford are locked in a four-way tie for first place in district 7-2A as the district's eight teams go into the final week of the regular season. Each has a 4-2 district record.

If Jim Ned had not had to forfeit its victory over Hawley a few weeks back, Jim Ned would be making it a five-way tie.

And if you think that sounds complicated, just think about how the standings could be after the final games are played this Friday.

The race could end in a six-way tie under the right circumstances this week.

If Haskell beats Stamford, Jim Ned defeats Winters, Anson beats

Hamlin and Hawley upsets Rotan, then every team in the district except Anson and Hawley would be tied for first place with identical 4-3 records.

In that scenario, only a Hawley victory over Rotan would be much of a surprise.

If Haskell, Jim Ned, Winters and Anson all come through, but Rotan wins over Hawley as expected, Rotan would be district champion while Haskell, Hamlin, Stamford and Jim Ned would be tied for second place.

Each of the teams now tied for first place is assured of no worse than a tie for first if it wins this week.

Wanda Dulaney resigns position

Wanda Dulaney has announced her retirement as manager of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce. Her announcement came Tuesday night at the monthly meeting of the chamber's board of directors.

Her retirement will be effective Dec. 18, said Conrad Roewe, chamber president.

Miss Dulaney became chamber manager in January 1981 following three years as manager of the Taylor County Red Cross. Prior to that, she was public information director of the Dallas County Red Cross from 1953 to 1976, after serving seven years as executive secretary of the Haskell County Red Cross. She was awarded the Matrix Award for being chosen as the top public information director in Dallas.

She originated and has continued as coordinator of the night Christmas parade in Haskell. She also originated the Country Dinner Theater, writing and directing the plays and shows that were presented by members of the chamber's board.

In her capacity as chamber manager, she has worked closely with the Haskell Business Association, particularly in the areas of publicity and promotion.

A Haskell native and a graduate of Haskell High School, Miss Dulaney is a member of the Haskell Rotary Club and serves on the board of directors of that organization.

The chamber of commerce will begin immediately to accept applications for the vacated position. Application forms may be picked up at the chamber office at 112 1/2 N. Ave. E, or from chamber officers: Conrad Roewe, president; Andy Gannaway, first vice president; Sam Watson, second vice president; and Elbert Johnson, treasurer.

Early voting heavy

It has to be a record. County Clerk Rhonda Moeller said Monday that her office recorded 470 votes in the early voting period for the general election. That's better than 11 percent of the total voting strength of 4141.

Of these, 373 voted in person and another 97 by mail. Only one voter who requested a mail-in ballot had not returned the ballot as of Monday morning.

Citizens to work in park Nov. 14

All Haskell citizens are encouraged to participate in Park Beautification Day on Saturday, Nov. 14.

Activities, scheduled from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., will include planting trees, cleaning of the creek and tree trimming.

The program is being sponsored by the Park Committee of the City of Haskell.

Sophs to serve baked potatoes

Haskell sophomores will serve baked potatoes with all the trimmings prior to the Haskell-Stamford football game Friday. The meal also will include tea and a dessert.

Serving will be from 5 to 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. Takeouts will be available.

Tickets are $3.50. Purchasers of a meal ticket will be eligible to win the game ball of the Haskell-Stamford game.

School fire was intentional

The state fire marshal's office has determined that the Oct. 3 Rule school fire was intentionally set.

Mike Davis, with the fire marshal's office in Austin, and Don Turk, an inspector from Duncanville, will be in Rule this week to work with local law enforcement officials in conducting a criminal investigation.

The fire damaged three classrooms, the science lab, auditorium, administration offices, the library and cafeteria.

Classes were canceled the day after the fire, but have been running smoothly since.

Mrs. Weinert top club woman

Jimmie Weinert

The Haskell County Extension Homemakers' "Club Woman of the Year" is Jimmie Weinert.

Mrs. Weinert joined the Weinert Extension Homemakers' Club five years ago and has been an active member since. She has served her club as both vice president and president.

Also, for the past four years in her local club she has served on the quilt committee to construct a quilt to donate to the Rehab Center. This year, she helped her club start a highway cleaning and beautification program for the Weinert community.

On the county level, Mrs. Weinert served as the Council Council chairman for the 1990 and 1991 Council years and on the livestock show concession stand committee from 1988 until present. In 1990 and again in 1992, she was elected as one of Haskell County's three delegates to the State Texas Extension Homemakers Association meetings.

Mrs. Weinert is a member of the First United Methodist Church in Haskell where she has taught both children and adult Sunday School classes. She is an active member of the Progressive Study Club and the Haskell County Retired Teachers' Association.

Mrs. Weinert taught at Haskell Elementary School for 16 years after receiving a degree from McMurry University at age 46.

She enjoys piecing and quilting quilts, traveling and working with children. She and her husband, Harlan, have two children, Jan Schutts of Soper, Okla., and Mike Gilbert of Graham. They have five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Weinert was presented a special engraved tray in recognition of her selection as "Club Woman of the Year" at the annual Haskell County Extension Homemakers Information Day held Oct. 17.

Spencer Malaise

Grandson celebrates birthday

Robert Spencer Malaise celebrated his second birthday recently in the home of his grandparents, Nancy and Gene Plunkett of Haskell. Robert Spencer and his parents, Rebecca and George Malaise, reside in Midland.

Sesame Street was the theme of the party with a Big Bird birthday cake.

Friends and family helping celebrate were Candace Brister and her mother, Debbie; Brennan Medford and his mother, Emily; Caitlin and Caleb Summer and their mother, Dottie; Ross Hairgrove and his mother, Peggy; Jane Boon and Beunis Thigpen, all of Haskell; Ima Lee and Joe Smith, great-grandparents of Rule; Kathy and Sid Parker, aunt and uncle, and Sara, cousin, of Graham.

Stamford Co-op women have health program

"Health-Wise for Life" was the theme of an Oct. 26 meeting of the Texas Rural Electric Women's Association in Stamford.

Each person attending was given a book, "Health-Wise for Life," when the group gathered in the community room of Stamford Electric Cooperative.

Mrs. J. F. Dozier, Stamford Electric Cooperative's Key Woman, led the program, which began with each participant giving old time remedies used by their families years ago.

The program progressed to the differences between children's ailments and the problems and disabilities of adults. It was apparent that children's diseases were temporary while adults' would be with them for the rest of their lives.

"Health-Wise for Life" gave information on symptoms, when to consult a doctor, and various cautions about each disease. Benefits of proper and timely care were reviewed in the book. Mrs. Dozier showed the audience how to use the book.

Headstream clients enjoy luncheon

On Oct. 30, the clients at Headstream Memorial Center enjoyed a birthday luncheon at Trinity Baptist Church. The group expressed its appreciation to Trinity Baptist for letting them use the kitchen, and also The First Assembly of God for previous parties.

Helped by the clients bringing food and helping prepare it, Dirk Barrington put together a delicious "hobo stew." Travis Solomon made the cornbread and the birthday cake was furnished by The Sweet Shop.

While the stew was cooking, the group played a game called "Quizzard" and had a lot of fun seeing who could buzz the buzzer first with the right answer.

Audie M. Stocks was honored Friday with a retirement party at the WTU Paint Creek power station. He has retired after 35 years with the plant. He was chairman of the Power Plant Safety Committee for 10 years. A host of fellow employees from the surrounding area attended the party. Many people plan for what might happen—fire, burglary, injury, and accidents. Now more and more people are planning for what will inevitably happen. It simply makes good sense to prepare for that which we can not avoid.

Pre-need funeral arranging allows one to control the type of service they would prefer, select a means of financing it, freeze the prices at today's price, and save loved ones the anguish of deciding these matters at a later date. Really it is the loving thing to do for your family.

Humidifier Update: Room humidifiers are not all equal. Evaporative humidifiers, which create mist from a moving belt in a reservoir, are hard to clean. Steamers or vaporizers are noisy and use lots of electricity. Cool-mist humidifiers, which impel water against a screen, emit bacteria and molds. Ultrasonic humidifiers, which use high-frequency vibrations, produce very fine mineral particles that can cause respiratory problems. A new "wicking" humidifier has a filter to trap mineral dust, is less likely to emit bacteria and molds, and is much easier to clean.

Cancer takes 28,000 lives in Texas

Cancer ranked second only to heart disease as the leading cause of death in Texas in 1990, claiming the lives of 28,483 Texans, according to an article in the September issue of Texas Medicine.

Texas Department of Health statistics show 15,622 men and 12,861 women died of cancer in 1990.

Lung cancer was the leading cause of cancer death among both men and women. Nearly 1,700 died of prostate cancer, while breast cancer was the second leading cause among females. White females experienced higher rates of lung cancer than Hispanics and blacks, but black females had the highest rates of breast cancer.

Corn is king

Corn is grown on more farms in the United States than any other crop. In 1990, corn ranked third among farm commodities in cash receipts, with a value of $13.7 billion.

The only commodities with higher cash receipts than corn in 1990 were cattle and calves and dairy products. Corn's 1982 record cash receipt of $21 billion has yet to be surpassed.

Dora Bergstrom and her son, Dr. Arvie Bergstrom from Los Angeles, California returned from their trip to Europe two weeks ago, but I haven't been able to talk to her until yesterday. They had a wonderful time, and saw all the things one wants to see in Europe. They flew to Berlin, and saw the Wall, or where it had been. After Berlin, they went to Florence, Italy, then to Madrid, Spain. They rented a little car, and she said the traffic is something. The streets had seven lanes, and everybody drives real fast. The little cars would go 50 miles an hour in town, and maybe a 100 on the highways. She thought they were traveling terribly fast, but cars were still passing Arvie. Besides the fast cars, they have these little mopeds.

I may not have gotten her trip in order, but I think she said they went to Spain, and from Rome to Nice. She loved the big cathedral in Rome. Then to Monte Carlo, and they went to the little Cathedral where Princess Grace is buried. She is buried in the Cathedral. They had a train ride, and the guide told them all about the area, and the people. They saw the French Riviera at night, and she said that was beautiful.

Oh yes, she said Arvie was able to show her where he was stationed in the army when they were in the city of Hof. Hof is up near Berlin. Dora liked Florence, Italy, and Monte Carlo best. They were in Europe for a month.

I went to Allen last weekend to see Mike and Linda's family, and to hear our youngest granddaughter sing in an operetta her school was giving. I haven't spent such a whirlwind weekend in a long time, and I thoroughly enjoyed it. Friday night we saw Allen play Lewisville. Lewisville won, but Allen's pep squad won the half-time. Saturday morning we went to a farm show where we saw old, old farm equipment. Some of those pieces of machinery were older than my daddy had when we were kids, and readers, that is old old. I had never seen threshers and balers, and tractors like them. They also had a petting zoo, and the children and their pets that we could hold and pet. Our Brooke had her rabbits there, and there was a goat, and a litter of 11 puppies, and it all was fun.

Saturday afternoon we went to the operetta "East of the Sun" and heard Brooke sing. Saturday night one of their neighbors had a party for the neighborhood, and that was fun. Mike has a new hot tub, and we surely enjoyed that. Sometimes we all were in it at once. Hot tubs are good for old, tired bones. I loved it.

Coming home I stopped at Throckmorton, as I always do, to buy a newspaper with Essie Sims column in it. She must have retired, because the Nursing Home News was written by a Mrs. Hester King. She wrote as if she had just been writing for a short time. I should have gone by to see Essie, but I had been gone all weekend, and was anxious to get home.

plain talk

BY WENDELL FAUGHT

Good as any:
Don Comedy said he conducted a yard-sign poll the other day as he jogged in an affluent Grapevine neighborhood.

The result:
Clinton-Gore: 2,
Bush-Quayle: 3,
For-Sale-by-Owner: 7.

My neighbors in Abilene had two signs in their yard--one for Perot and one for Bush. I took that to mean that the two voters in the family were backing different candidates.

End of an era:
Unless we elect a 70-year-old-older candidate in 1996, we've seen the last World War II veteran as president.

Eisenhower, Kennedy, Johnson, Nixon, Ford, Reagan and Bush all were veterans of that conflict (Carter was a midshipman at the Naval Academy during WWII, but did serve in the Navy during the Korean War).

Thus, World War II ties the Civil War as the conflict which produced the most presidents. Civil War veterans were Andrew Johnson, Grant, Hayes, Garfield, Arthur, B. Harrison and McKinley.

All told, 25 of the 41 men who have served as president were military veterans. The first 18 were Army veterans, and then six of the remaining seven were Navy vets.

In the first 100 years, 11 of our presidents had been generals, but since then, only one (Eisenhower).

Glad I didn't send in a contribution to Bob Bullock's 1994 re-election campaign, even though I was "invited" to do so.

A letter this week from the lieutenant governor apologizes for the "erroneous" solicitation.

"The solicitation you received was a mistake," wrote Bullock. "It was a mass mailing to individuals who were coded 'friendly' on our computer system and I apologize. I'm also embarrassed."

Apology accepted.

Election trivia quiz:

What two candidates represented a major parties in five national elections?

Answer: Republican Richard Milhous Nixon was elected vice president in 1952 and 1956; lost as a candidate for president in 1960, was elected president in 1968 and re-elected in 1972. Democrat Franklin D. Roosevelt lost as a candidate for vice president in 1924 and was elected president in 1932, and re-elected in 1936, 1940 and 1944.

Geography teachers should rebel at the thought of the University of Texas joining the Pacific Coast conference, something which was rumored this week.

It's bad enough that baseball has St. Louis in the Eastern division and Atlanta in the Western division, not to mention the NFL alignment which finds Phoenix and Dallas in the East and Atlanta in the West.

And maybe math teachers should also be heard. The Pacific Coast conference is called the "Pac 10" and there was no mention in this week's story that it would change to the "Pac 12" if Texas and Colorado are admitted.

Far fetched? Well, the Big 10 conference has not changed its name since admitting Penn State as its 11th member.

Nowadays, when I go into a barber shop or one of those upscale hair salons, the first question is: "How do you want it cut?"

And for at least 15 years, I've been dumbfounded when that question was asked. Why do they have to make this once-simple chore so complicated?

Until I was 12 or 14, there was only one kind of a haircut for a boy. You had sides cut to expose the skin and "took a little off the top." When a boy reached about 16, he usually had his sideburns left and the back tapered, with "a little off the top" if needed.

The latter is still my style, but I never know how to say it.

But the other day in Abilene, a female barber came to my aid. After I tried to explain how I wanted my hair cut, she said, "Oh, you want an old-fashioned barber shop haircut." Now I know how to order.

Nona Norwood has returned home after an extended visit with her son, Troy, who has been hospitalized for quite some time. We understand that he is now improving, and has been moved from ICU to a private room. Best wishes are sent to him for a speedy recovery.

Ruth Moore has recently had a pacemaker installed, and is due to come home soon. Our get-well wishes are also sent to this fine lady. May your convalescence be uneventful, Ruth.

***

Gary Casey is also on the recovery list as he recuperates following recent hand surgery. Get well soon, Gary.

At the Experienced Citizen Center in Haskell this past Monday, sat at a table with Margaret Jones of Haskell, Coy Keahey and Harold Woods of Rule. We had asked Mr. Woods about his recent illness. It seems he had endocarditis, and had to receive millions of units of penicillin while hospitalized in Humana in Abilene. He looks remarkably well for all he has been through.

It was nice to visit with all those people at the Center, Surely have missed getting to drop by there often, but do enjoy the VIP Community Center in Stamford, also.

***

Birthday greetings are extended to Bert Cox, who was 98, and Willard Cox who was 77. Their birthdays were celebrated on Saturday, Oct. 31 at the Philadelphian Club in Rule. We feel sure that a record crowd were there to help in the celebration.

***

Belated happy birthdays are sent to Bobby Kittley, whose birthday was Nov. 1, and to granddaughter #3, who was fifteen on the 4th, also, to Cody Clevenger of Abilene, who was five that same day.

***

On the 8th a happy birthday is wished Brenda Pace and on the 9th for Jay Beakley and John Howard of Hamlin.

***

Sincere sympathy is sent to Jack Wilcox upon the loss of his sister.

***

At Stamford's downtown "Thrift Store" recently enjoyed visiting with Frances Bounds and was happy to finally meet Lois Boothe, mother of former resident Dr. Richard L. Boothe, now of Oklahoma.

***

Another get well wish is sent to Dr. Harry Lee Haynes, whom we understand is hospitalized in Big Spring at this time. Also, to Wiley B. Harrison of Stamford.

***

It was good to have a brief visit this past Monday with John and Orheana Greeson of Rule. We wish the best for Leigh Ann as tests are being done to determine the cause of her problem.

Recycling Nature's Energy

It's there all around you — in the form of sun-heated air.

And there's no better way to be partners with nature than to harness that energy with a quiet, clean, energy-efficient electric heat pump.

Since natural sun-heated air is abundant even on coldest winter days, by simply moving or "pumping" that heat into or out of your home, you enjoy maximum comfort year round at a minimum cost.

Recycling . . . naturally rewarding.

Easy, naturally!

Easy, economically, too! Pay for your new electric heat pump with WTU's new bank finance plan and get a rebate that can be applied to your loan or monthly electric bill!

Spent a most delightful evening in Rule this past Monday, watching "Hats off to Minnie Pearl" with Ruth Wilcox. Then, spent the night in Rule with a daughter and granddaughter in order to be there to show our house to a lady the next morning.

***

It was great to see many Rule friends while there early in the week. Spoke with Dovie Anderson at ECC in Haskell, also Cleo Gann and Kenny Tanner, Jason Tanner and Robert Saffel at the grocery store. Had a nice visit with former neighbor, Wanda Saffel, also Lorene Boyd, Brenda Pace, although most of the visits were too brief. At Campbell Insurance Agency it was nice seeing Donna Saffel, Sandra Sedberry and Kathy Teichelman. At Casey's Country Kitchen got to see Lou Dell, Tina, Cathy and Lavada; and at The Drug Store Cafe saw Elizabeth and Mary where I enjoyed a hamburger and chocolate pie.

***

Food for thought: "You cannot do a kindness too soon, because you never know how soon it will be too late." (Borrowed from Rule's Church of Christ bulletin.)

Indians bow to Hamlin

Hamlin's Jason Pearce threw a 59-yard scoring pass to Corey Mitchell with 2:05 to play Friday night to give the Pied Pipers a 20-14 victory over the Haskell Indians.

It was a tough loss for the Indians who had come from behind to tie the score at 14-all early in the fourth period.

Hamlin's first two touchdowns had come within a 23-second span in the second quarter to erase an early 7-0 Indian lead.

The Indians had scored first on a beautiful 39-yard scoring pass from Mart Guess to Jonathan Tatum midway through the second period. Jason Torres' extra point kick put Haskell out front, 7-0.

On their next possession, the Indians drove from their own 32 to the Hamlin 38, mainly on the strength of three Guess passes, 15 yards to Joseph Rodriguez, 18 yards to Tommie Isbell and 6 yards to Tatum, and despite a 10-yard penalty. But after two running plays netted just 2 yards, Guess was sacked for a 9-yard loss to the 47 and the Indians had to punt.

On the first play after that, Hamlin's Wayland McGee broke loose on a 65-yard touchdown run. Derek Moore's extra point tied the score at 7 at the 3:21 mark of the second period.

Torres returned the ensuing kickoff from his 8 to the 45. On the first play from that point, Hamlin's Cody Ledesma picked up a Haskell fumble behind the line of scrimmage and ran in for a touchdown. Moore's kick put Hamlin out front, 14-7, with the clock reading 3:21.

That score stood until the 9:52 mark of the final period when Guess threw another beauty to Tatum, good for 67 yards and a touchdown. Torres' kick tied the score.

The two teams exchanged possessions twice before Hamlin took over a third time on its own 41 with 2:21 to go. On first down, Pearce threw incomplete, but then hit Mitchell for the 59-yard touchdown. The extra point attempt was no good as the snap was fumbled, but Hamlin was out front by 6 points.

With the clock reading 2:05, Haskell had one more chance. Following an out-of-bounds kickoff, the Indians took over on their own 30. Guess passed 10 yards to Tatum and then threw incomplete. Justin Lisle's 8-yard run was wiped out by a 10-yard penalty and on the next play, Haskell lost the ball on a fumble at the 37.

Hamlin then ran out the clock.

Rice

Rice is grown on an estimated 12,000 U.S. farms, nearly all of which are located in just six states.

Arkansas accounted for 43 percent of U.S. rice production in 1991, California 17 percent, Louisiana 16 percent, Texas 13 percent, Mississippi 8 percent and Missouri 3 percent.

Tiger Cubs enjoy crafts

The Tiger Cub den of Haskell Scout Pack 136 met Oct. 20 in the Scout Hut.

Tiger and partner, Thomas and Alicia Tidrow, were hosts for the monthly meeting. Their big idea for this month is "Family Games, Tricks, Puzzles." Their idea was just in time for Halloween.

Alicia and Thomas helped Tigers and partners make Halloween treat sacks with jack o' lanterns on the front made of felt and jiggle eyes. They also instructed the group in making Halloween pencil tops out of Halloween pencils, fuzzy balls, pipe cleaners and jiggle eyes.

Partners will continue to work in their Tiger Cub book on the big idea during the coming weeks.

Attending the meeting were Alicia and Thomas Tidrow, Tammy and Ryan Flanary, Peggy and Ross Hairgrove, Debbie and Scott Kennedy, Robin and Bobby Loyd, Randy and A. J. Shaw, Mickey Holloway and C. J. Villegas, and Tiger Cub coordinator, Lisa Shaw.

Hero

Jonathan Tatum hauls in a pass from Mart Guess in Friday night's game at Hamlin. The Guess-to-Tatum combo produced both Indian touchdowns in their 20-14 loss.

Big gain

Tommie Isbell gets 17 yards after catching a Mart Guess pass against Hamlin Friday night.

15 yards

Joseph Rodriguez catches this Mart Guess pass for a 15-yard gain in second-quarter action in the Haskell-Hamlin game Friday.

TAX PLANNING

Written By James E. Rodgers, CPA

IRS SIMPLIFIES PAYROLL DEPOSITS

If you own a business and you withhold payroll taxes from employees, get ready for some good news: the current system of payroll tax deposits is about to be replaced, and the new system will make your life less complicated.

Beginning January 1, 1993, you will be allowed to deposit payroll taxes and withholdings either monthly or semiweekly. Monthly depositors are required to deposit employment taxes and withholding accumulated within a calendar month by the fifteenth of the following month. Semiweekly depositors will make deposits on Wednesday or Friday depending on their payday.

Another welcome change: your deposit schedule (or "status") will generally stay the same for an entire year. Your status for each year will be determined by the total amount of deposits that you reported to the IRS for the prior July 1 through June 30.

Example: Your deposit status for 1993 will be determined by the total amount of deposits that you reported from July 1, 1991, through June 30, 1992. (This is referred to as the "lookback period.") You will be a monthly depositor for 1993 if you deposited $50,000 or less during the lookback period. Otherwise, you will be a semiweekly depositor.

If the new system still seems complicated, you will be relieved to know that you don't have to determine your own deposit status. The IRS will inform you of your status before the beginning of each year. And the new rules provide a transition period, so if you prefer, you can continue to make your deposits under the old rules through the end of 1993.

What about exceptions to these general rules? For most business owners, exceptions are mercifully few. Nonetheless, there are exceptions. Give us a call. We would be happy to discuss these new rules with you.

A Service of Transamerican Diagnostic Services
(Providing Mammography Services for over 5 years)

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women in the United States will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as the result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate.

A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

Guidelines For Screening Mammography Established by the American Cancer Society.

I. 35-40 years of age - One baseline mammogram.

II. 40-50 years of age - A mammogram every 1-2 years depending on breast type and risk factor.

III. 50 years of age and over - An annual physical examination and annual mammogram.

IV. Asymptomatic women under 50 years of age with significant high risk factors should be examined at appropriate intervals. These risk factors include previous breast cancer and family history of cancer.

V. A symptomatic woman should have a mammogram at any age when she experiences a mass, nipple discharge, skin changes or unexplained breast pain.

A screening mammogram is an x-ray of the breast using extremely low dosages of radiation (usually comparable to dental x-rays) and is designed to find very early cancers.

A female technologist who is highly trained in mammography will perform the examination.

The charge for the screening mammogram is $70.00. The Unit accepts cash, check, Visa, Mastercard and American Express.

Paint Creek students hear sex education presentation

On Tuesday, Pat Socia, national consultant for Project Sex Respect presented "Walking the Freedom Road," a hard-hitting program about teens and sex to students at Paint Creek.

Socia was back in the Big Country for the fourth time this year by popular demand of school personnel, parents, and most importantly, kids.

Socia's presentation, typically humorous, tastefully blunt, and filled with current correct information, is endorsed by experts in the medical community worldwide. She tells young people very clearly that casual sex is in no way OK, but is an unreasonable health risk with both social and emotional penalties.

"So why do kids want to hear her? Because she tells us the truth" is the answer thousands of students have consistently given.

Carol Burson of Region 14 Education Service Center commented, "We bring Pat Socia back to the Big Country again and again not because of the many requests of parents and school personnel but because young people in regional meetings have consistently told us that they want the kids in their schools to hear Pat Socia. They believe she cares enough to tell them the truth."

Socia's message and the information available through Project Sex Respect is not a "just say no" approach. It is a well-researched, scientifically valid delivery of accurate information related to sexuality, disease prevention and social and emotional health.

Ms. Socia's presentation attacked the myths created and promoted by today's media. She destroys the "safe sex myth" through knowledge of how diseases are transmitted and how inadequate and antiquated the current "protective" devices are against both pregnancy and disease.

She also was very frank with young people about how typical human behavior in the heat of sexual passion discounts the possible effectiveness of any protective device.

"There is a price for sex outside of marriage," she said. "I wouldn't trade a puff of pleasure for the total personal commitment of a mutually faithful marriage relationship. Even if there were total disease protection, the total self can still be ravaged when sex becomes a meaningless act."

Ms. Socia's presentation was not, however, a lesson in morality. It was a lesson on a health standard for saving lives. Sexually transmitted diseases are now dwarfing the enormous problems of teen pregnancies by leaps and bounds. In the U.S. alone, 100 people a day die of AIDS. Two years from now, after an additional 324,000 cases of AIDS have been diagnosed, 300 people a day will be dying.

According to the Centers for Disease Control, over 6,000 teenagers contract a sexually transmitted disease every day. By the end of 1992, it is projected that one out of every four people will have one of at least 50 sexually transmitted diseases, including AIDS. What many people do not realize is that many diseases besides AIDS are also incurable and life threatening.

Young people at Paint Creek received a clear message from Pat Socia that the devastation of casual sexual involvement is avoidable and that it is never too late to start over.

38 donate blood

By Brian Burgess

Excellent turnout! Thirty-eight citizens came to give blood at last Tuesday's Haskell County Red Cross Bloodmobile.

They were not paid a dime to give up an hour of their time, have a big needle stuck in them and a pint of blood drained out. (To insure a safe blood supply the Red Cross does not offer any payment or gifts to donors.)

Why would these folks do such a thing? Because they care; because life is sacred, even the lives of folks they have never met. I have to say it again, these donors are, in the truest sense of the word, heroes. Please read their names and thank them. It may be your life, or the life of someone you know, that is saved because of their unselfish donation of time and blood.

Olen King leads our donors with 95 pints (almost 12 gallons) given to the Red Cross. He gave some 60 pints more than that before the Red Cross started collecting blood in Haskell.

Bill Swinney (47 pints) is a 5-gallon club member; Randy McLelland (35 pints) and Brian Burgess (32) have given 4 gallons; Catherine Bartley (28 pints), Robert Bartley (27 pints), Robbie Peiser (27 pints), Kenny Thompson (26 pints), Harlan Weinert (26 pints) Mike New (25 pints) and Lois Howard (24 pints) are 3-gallon donors.

Two-gallon club members are Ronnie Bailey, 23; Donna Cole, 21; Jean Kemp, 21; Gwen Unger, 18; Jill Druessedow, 17; Kim Crawford, Linda King, Sammy Larned and Kim Breckel, 16 pints each.

Those who have given one gallon or more include Florence, Peden, 15 pints; Albert Thane, 15; Verda Calloway 14; Wayne Cadenhead, 14; Wanda Thompson, 13; Conrad Roewe, 13; Joe Waldrop, 11; Yuvi Cadenhead, 11; Jerry Don Klose, 11; Dale Fischer, 10; Bill Blankenship, 9; Christyne

Green, Betty Raynes and Dixie Waldrop, 8 each.

Other donors are Kristen Grand, 6 pints; Frank Jenkins, 3; Helen Wheatley, 3; and Betty Rudd, 1.

What do we need to make the Bloodmobile more successful?

(1) Professional volunteers to take the Bloodmobile on as a personal project. We had no volunteers who could take blood pressure, pulse and temperature. That slowed down the processing and collection since a Red Cross nurse had to leave her duties to do vital signs. Please call 864-3250 if you're willing to help an hour or two, three or four times a year.

(2) We need four or five people who would be responsible for calling our donor list before each bloodmobile. It would be great if a service club or Sunday School class would take this job. Ask your group if they will do this community service project three or four times a year. If five people call, the list can be covered in less than one hour.

(3) We need new blood donors. Many of our long-time dependable donors have moved or can no longer give due to health conditions. If you have never given and are at least 17 years of age, weigh between 110 and 350 pounds, please donate blood at least once a year. The Red Cross has nowhere to get blood except from people. It cannot be manufactured. Only God knows how to make it. Only you can choose to give it.
