City of Haskell gets $30,376 in tax rebate

Haskell's 1.5-percent sales tax generated $30,376.94 for the city this week when a check in that amount was received from the state comptroller.

The check represented the city's portion of sales taxes remitted to the comptroller in January from December sales, as well as those from businesses filing quarterly returns for the last quarter of 1992.

This week's rebate represented a 20.3-percent increase over last year's rebate for the same period. It brought receipts for the first two months of 1993 to $45,618.74, or 17.26 percent more than the $38,904.91 for the first two months of last year.

Haskell's four other cities, each with a 1-percent local tax rate, also received rebates this month with O'Brien's rebate being up by 31.16 percent and Weinert's by 15.12 percent. Rochester posted a 43.91-percent decrease and Rule's rebate was down by 18.34 percent.

Rule's $2,328.20 rebate compared with $2,850.94 last year; Rochester's was $766.37, compared to $1,366.42 last year; O'Brien got $598.91, compared to $456.64 last year; and Weinert's $473.77 was ahead of last year's $411.53.

For the first two months of 1993, rebates to O'Brien are up by 31.16 percent, Rule by 15.23 percent and Weinert by 15.12 percent. Rochester is down by 15.39 percent.

Altogether, the five Haskell County communities have received $52,200.02 in rebates in the first two months of 1993. This compares to $45,066.24 for the same period last year.

In Jones County, Stamford's $42,444.13 rebate this month reflected a 6.61 increase over last year's $39,811.97, while Anson showed an increase of 34.41 percent with $17,274.73, compared to $12,852.18 last year, and Hamlin decreased from $17,957.67 to $16,714.95. Stamford, Anson and Hamlin all have a 1.5 city tax rate.

Methodist sets 'Heritage Day'

Next Sunday (Feb. 28) has been set aside by the First United Methodist Church as "Heritage Day".

Planned not only as a time to remember those faithful members who have gone on before, it is a special day to honor all the living older members, and to celebrate their continued contribution of faithfulness to the welfare and purposes of the church.

At the 10:50 a.m. worship service, all those age 65 or older will have reserved seating, ushered by the youth. Memories and testimonies will be shared, favorite old hymns sung, and a special gift presentation will be made by the younger children.

At noon, the honored group will be special guests at a church-wide fish fry dinner, hosted and prepared by the young adults of the church. Tables will feature antique glassware and memorabilia. An added attraction will be a "Guess Who?" photo gallery display featuring pictures of the honorees taken during their early lives.

The special Heritage Day celebration is one of the programs planned by the church's Vision team, chaired by Dr. Tom Hairegrove.

Indians play Friday night in Ballinger

Haskell meets San Saba Friday night in Ballinger in a bi-district playoff game.

The game will begin at 7:30 in the new Ballinger gymnasium. Admission will be $4 for adults and $2 for students. District passes will be honored, one per person.

The Indians finished second in district 7-2A while posting a 23-7 regular-season record. San Saba, champion of district 8-2A, posted a 24-6 season record and was 14-0 in district play.

The winner of Friday night's contest will meet the winner of the Eldorado-Anthony playoff game next Tuesday, March 2.

District 7-2A champion Stamford will meet Dublin in Mineral Wells at 7:30 p.m. today (Thursday).

Two Haskell County teams will be playing in a playoff doubleheader in Seymour Friday night. Rochester (23-4) will meet Vernon Northside at 6:30, and Paint Creek (16-11) meets Chillicothe (15-7) at 8 o'clock.

Both district 7-2A girls' teams bit the dust in bi-district play last weekend. Dublin defeated Jim Ned, 46-38, and Winters bowed to Goldthwaite, 47-45.

JV Indians end with 20-win streak

Exciting, quickness, hustle, teamwork, fun to watch.

All those words, and a lot of others, describe the 1992-93 Haskell Indian junior varsity basketball team.

The JV Indians completed the season with an impressive 22-3 record and an amazing 20-game winning streak.

After winning their first two games, the Indians dropped their next three, two of them to varsity teams. They lost to the Quanah varsity by 6 points and to the Newcastle varsity by 1 point. Their only loss to a JV team was a 3-point overtime loss to Seymour.

Then came the 20-game winning streak, which included a first-place finish in the Haskell JV Tournament, and most important, the district 7-2A championship.

Members of the team were Casey Larned, Cody Cypert, Cody Cooley, Justin Lisle, Shannon Meeks, Frankie Macias, Mik Everett, Keiland Riley, Quintin Billington, Corey Green, Patrick Middleton, Joseph Thigpen, Jeremy Futch, Jose Abila and Keith McDonald, who moved to Andrews during the year.

The team was coached by Alan Phillips.

Big winners

Haskell Cub Scouts were big winners in the district Pinewood Derby contests in Sweetwater Saturday. Winners included, from left, Adam Greenwood, second place, Tiger division; A. J. Shaw, first place in Tiger division, Best Design in Tiger division and fourth-place sweepstakes; Ross Bullinger, first place in Wolf division and second place sweepstakes; Jason Shaw, Best Design in Webelos; and Brent Watson, third place in Webelos. ## Seniors eligible for Fling

Haskell County citizens 55 and older are eligible to attend the 15th annual Spring Fling at Lake Brownwood and experience spring and nature at its best "Deep in the Heart of Texas."

Lou Gilly, county extension agent-home economics, said four different four-day schedules are available: April 6-9, April 13-16, April 20-23, and April 27-30.

Sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Spring Fling offers classes in leather working, oil painting, woodworking, stained glass and other projects. Educational programs on topics such as horticulture, photography, nutrition, finances and other current interests are a popular highlight.

Boat rides and fishing on Lake Brownwood add popularity to the stay. Lighted tennis courts, horseshoes, billiards, volleyball, shuffleboard, dominoes and card and table games are other popular activities.

A special "Rock Around the Clock" theme provides a festive atmosphere. Thursday's theme party features exciting activities and entertainment.

Each week's attendance is limited to 165 participants and the fee is nominal. For more information, call Mrs. Gilly at 864-2546.

State to rebuild US 380 near Rule

US 380, from Rule to the Stonewall County line, will be reconstructed, the Texas Department of Transportation has announced.

The department said the 5.9-mile section of the existing 20-foot asphalt roadway with no shoulders will be rehabilitated with new material added to widen the roadway to two 12-foot travel lanes, and two 8-foot shoulders. No new right-of-way will be required.

The state is now making an environmental impact study. No starting or completion dates were announced.

Open Letter

We are asking the people of Haskell to support the Haskell Indians in the basketball playoffs.

Please fly your Indian flags and wear black and gold on game days. Decorate your windows and yards. Put up signs on your marquees and attend the ball games.

Please give our players and coaches words of encouragement. We think our community needs to pull together and support our kids.

We deeply appreciate the support of the people of Haskell. With sincere thanks,

The Varsity Indians' Moms

Mrs. Medford hostess to Homemakers

Five members were present when the Paint Creek Homemakers Club met Feb. 1 at the home of Dolores Medford.

Dorthay Wells, president, called the meeting to order. Everyone read the TEHA prayer and answered roll call with "Who gave you your first box of Valentine candy?"

A "thank you" card was read from Joetta Burnett, who is retiring as Haskell County Extension secretary to enjoy helping Charles with farm work, visit grandchildren and work with crafts in all her "leisure time."

Dolores read the minutes and gave the treasurer's report. She also gave the Council report.

The program, given by Peggy Burnett, was a book review on "Hagar," whose author is Lois T. Henderson. It was very interesting about Hagar, a woman of the Bible. Lois T. Henderson has written several books on women of the Bible.

Plans were made for Tri-County Rally Day in Knox County on March 31.

Refreshments were served by Peggy, using a Valentine theme. Present were Dolores, Frances, Dorthay and Lorene.

Next meeting will be March 1.

Hobby Club

Hobby Club still going strong

Yes, the Rochester Hobby Club has seen many a wonderful hour for the ladies in the Rochester vicinity. This is a picture taken in 1980.

This club was organized in Rochester when members started meeting in an empty grocery store on the north side of town. All kinds of handwork was done---crochet, knit, piecing quilts, embroidery, quilting, tatting.

Also, bake sales are held to make money for different organizations. Bazaar and white elephant sales are customary every so often during the year.

Club members always have something of handmade value for sale in the club house. Donations have been sent to the Rehab, the ambulance services, and the rest homes in surrounding towns.

Eighteen quilts were quilted in 1992. They have two in the frames now. They quilt every Tuesday, all day.

PHARMACY NEWS

By Elbert Johnson, Registered Pharmacist

Avoid Pinhole Glasses Ruse: Pinhole glasses are advertised as being able to eliminate the need for corrective lenses if they are worn a short time every day. In fact, these glasses simply block peripheral light rays, allowing in only central rays, which are more easily focused by the eye. (The same effect can be achieved with squinting.) There is no evidence that this will have any lasting effect on vision, and vision is dimmed and the field of view is restricted while wearing pinhole glasses.

BY WENDELL FAUGHT

A news story says it will take $250 million to "re-build" Somalia. Didn't know it was ever "built."

If you live in El Paso County, your marriage has twice as good a chance to survive as it would if you lived in Dallas, Tarrant or Bexar counties.

In 1991, there were 32 percent as many divorces as there were marriages in El Paso County, by far the lowest ratio of the state's six super counties (500,000 or more population).

By contrast, Dallas County had 68 percent as many divorces as marriages, Tarrant County 65 percent and Bexar County 63 percent. In Harris County, the percentage was 56 and in Travis County 52.

With its 52 percent, Travis County was the only one of the super counties to be below the state average, 54 percent.

While the Texas Department of Health recorded 178,640 marriage licenses in 1991, the state also granted 96,878 divorces. The year before, the numbers were 178,613 and 93,850.

The most numerous age group of both men (48,962) and women (53,115) who married in 1991 was 20-24 years. Divorces were most common among the 25-29 age group for women (20,384) and among the 30-34 age group for men (19,638).

The largest number of divorces concluded marriages of less than five years (32,694). Some marriages lasted less than a year before divorce (4,588).

Among adolescents and teens, 552 girls and 31 boys younger than 15 were married. Among those 65 and older, 1,897 women and 3,551 men were married. Divorces involving those 65 and older included 1,014 women and 1,856 men.

About half (47.6 percent, or 46,088) of the divorces in 1991 involved no children, while 24.5 percent (23,746) involved one child. The number of children involved in divorces was 89,161.

--Paint Creek--

by Mabel Overton
Superintendent and Mrs. Morgan are in Austin for several days where Mrs. Morgan is giving a report on the Gifted and Talented Program in small school.

Ray and Amelia Perry were at A&M for three days last week attending a County Commissioner's Conference. Coming back home, they decided to come by Glen Rose and try to see H. B. Cowan. He was Paint Creek's first agriculture teacher. He left Paint Creek for army service at mid-term right after Pearl Harbor was bombed. He was a 2nd. Lt. since he had graduated from Texas A&M. Ray found him in the back of a grocery store where he had a small office, and was helping people with their income tax. He told Ray to tell the Paint Creek folks "Hello" for him.

Marcus Overton and I went to see Cooper High School's Senior play Thursday evening. It was "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying". William Overton, head of Cooper High School's Drama Dept. was the Director, Designer and Choreographer for the musical. I thought it was real good. I found out the next day that David Berryman, who was in charge of the sound system for the play, is Mrs. Henrietta Segó's grandson.

Steffi Overton and I went back to Abilene Saturday night for the third and last performance.

Thursday evening in the lunchroom, Paint Creek is going to have a Spaghetti Supper to honor the basketball team. Afterward, there will be a Pep Rally for the boys.

Friday night, Paint Creek plays Chillicothe in Seymour for the Bi-District championship. That game is at 7:30.

Gene and I attended an honors meeting of the Masonic Lodge in Haskell Monday night. Wallar and Mike Overton were to receive their 25 year pin, but neither could be there. So their daddy received the pins for them.

Scouts who were in Paint Creek Troop 48 and went to Camp Tonkawa every summer would have enjoyed seeing Paul Gothard at the Masonic meeting. Paul's daddy, Dwight Gothard received three Masonic pins. Paul teaches at Barnhart, Texas.

The Paint Creek Fire Dept. had a basketball tournament last Friday and Saturday. Teams from Haskell, Hamlin, Aspermont, and Merkel played. Paint Creek won first and Aspermont won 2nd. The fire department made money for the department.

Emmie Overton and Mabel Overton attended the funeral of Emmie's uncle Herman Klose at the Sagerton Lutheran Church. That is one of the prettiest churches in this area. I had never seen it until Sunday. It is not so large, but they have a beautiful church.

Paint Creek played Trent at McMurry last Friday and won giving us 2nd place in district.

Cincinnati, Ohio, was named in 1790 by General Arthur St. Clair, the first governor of the territory, to honor the Society of the Cincinnati, an organization of Revolutionary War Army officers.

Engagement of couple announced

D. M. Baylor of Crowell and Kay Baylor of Waco have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Tracy Karen, to Carlton West Pierce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Pierce of Old Glory.

A June 12 wedding is planned at the First United Methodist Church in Crowell.

The bride-elect is a 1990 graduate of Crowell High School and is attending McMurry University where she is majoring in elementary education.

The prospective bridegroom is a 1989 graduate of Rule High School. He will graduate from McMurry in May with a major in secondary education.
