Chamber honors Chapman

Long time Haskell attorney Ben Charlie Chapman is recipient of Haskell's Most Outstanding Citizen award from the Haskell Chamber of Commerce.

Presentation of the annual award was the highlight of the chamber's 58th annual banquet Saturday night.

Chapman, former 39th district judge, former district attorney and former county attorney was recognized for his many years of service to the community.

Now 90, Chapman still practices law with the Adkins, Chapman and Fouts law firm in Haskell. He grew up in Rochester and graduated from law school at Cumberland University in Lebanon, Tenn., in 1930.

He was elected county attorney in 1933, district attorney in 1937 and district judge in 1942. He served 30 years as district judge. He is the father of present district judge Charles Chapman.

He is an active member of the First Presbyterian Church. He headed the local chapter of the American Red Cross for several years, including the World War II era.

In addition to the Outstanding Citizen award, the chamber paid tribute to three former Haskell businesses which played significant roles in the history of the business community. Wallace Cox Jr., whose grandfather founded Jones-Cox & Co. in 1905, was presented a plaque for his work in the business which closed in 1990. Other plaques went to Edna Mae Lyles, who operated Lyles Jewelry for 58 years until it closed last year, and to Opal Adkins and Veta Furrh, who owned The Personality Shoppe in Haskell from 1946 until 1993.

Jerry Larned, a 1956 Haskell High School graduate who is now superintendent of schools at Monahans, was the banquet speaker.

Newly elected officers and directors of the chamber were introduced at the banquet. Andy Gannaway is president; Sam Watson, first vice president; Doris McMeans, second vice president; and Elbert Johnson, treasurer. New directors are Rex Pittman, Steven Foster, Shane Hadaway and Bobby Hobgood.

Judge Ben Charlie Chapman receives Haskell's Outstanding Citizen award Saturday night from Chamber of Commerce president Andy Gannaway.

Everyone is welcome to this unique experience.

The Haskell Ministerial Alliance's annual Good Friday service will be in Friday at the First Presbyterian Church, beginning at 7 p.m.

J. C. Amburn, pastor of the First Assembly of God, will deliver the evening message. David Page, pastor of East Side Baptist Church, will be in charge of the special music.

The public is invited.

An ample variety of baked items will be available.

Only two positions will be decided in the Republican runoff.

Runoff races are between Patricia (Pat) Lykos and Don Wittig for Attorney General, and between Sam Bayless and Sharon Keller for Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, Place 2.

Houston exhibitors

These Haskell County 4-H and FFA students were among the 660 exhibitors selected to advance to the swine show at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Feb. 25-March 3. Their prize-winning pigs were selected from a total of 3,701 entries, shown through a sift at Brenham prior to advancing to Houston. From left, they are Melvinlee Kreger, Brittany Bartley and Amy Cunningham; and Danny Kreger, foreground. Others, not pictured, included Justin Sanders, Ryan Byrd and Cody Byrd.

Indian nine drops non-district game

The Haskell Indian baseball team remained unbeaten in district 7-2A play after last week, but the Indians dropped their third non-district game of the season.

In a game played Friday at Olney, the Cubs scored four runs in the second inning and made that cushion stand up for a 4-3 victory over the Indians.

Haskell got a run in the third and two more in the fifth, but was unable to overtake the Cubs.

The Indians got 6 hits while Olney was collecting 7.

"Our pitching and defense were all right, but we just had too many strikeouts," said Coach Johnny Kinzy.

Brian Brzozowski went the first two innings for the Indians, giving up 4 hits and 4 runs, two of them unearned. Shannon Meeks came on in the third and went the final 4 innings, holding the Cubs scoreless while allowing 3 hits. He struck out 5.

Jason Torres had 2 hits and 2 runs-batted-in for the Indians. Brzozowski's double was the Indians' only extra base hit.

The Indian record now stands at 7-3 (4-0 in district) with two of the three losses coming by a single run. The Indians have played only two of their 10 games at home.

On Tuesday afternoon, the Indians were to have played Hawley here in a district contest. On Friday, they have a non-district date at Clyde and next Tuesday (April 5), they will be at home to face Jim-Ned, the district's second-place team with a 3-1 record through last week.

Rule Bike-A-Thon to benefit research

There will be a Wheels for Life Bike-A-Thon in Rule on April 8 from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m.

Volunteer workers and riders are needed for the bike-a-thon to raise funds for the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in its battle against childhood cancer and other catastrophic childhood diseases.

Riders will ask sponsors to make donations based on each mile completed.

All riders turning in money will receive certificates. Those raising $30 or more will receive a certificate and a special St. Jude T-shirt. When $75 or more is raised, the rider will receive a sports bag in addition to the certificate and T-shirt.

Drawings will be held during the bike-a-thon with prizes donated by the merchants of Rule. There will be refreshments.

A $50 savings bond, donated by the Farmers National bank of Rule, will be awarded to the person who raises the most money.

"The real prize, though, is the pride everyone can take in giving children a chance to live a normal life."

For details on riding or sponsoring a rider or volunteering to help, call Amanda Anderson, 997-2292, or Judy Andrews, 997-2593.

Candidates file for school, city elections

The names of five candidates for three seats on the Haskell School Board and names of three candidates for two City Council positions will be on the ballots for the upcoming school and city elections.

The filing period for the May 7 elections closed last Wednesday.

Latest candidate to file for the school board was Belia Abila, who will oppose incumbent Tom Hairgrove for position 4.

Incumbent Tiffen Mayfield is being opposed by David Middleton for position 5. The only candidate filing for position 3 was Randy McLelland. Bill Perry, position 3 incumbent, did not file for re-election.

School Board members are elected at large.

Nick Jimenez was the latest candidate to file for City Council. Other candidates include David Davis and incumbent Ruby Turner. The two receiving the greatest number of votes in the city election will be elected. Incumbent Kim Nemir did not file for re-election.

Ken Lane is the lone candidate for mayor, to succeed Pat Henry who is not seeking a second term.

It will be one of the least spirited city campaigns in recent years. Last year, 11 candidates ran for three City Council seats. In 1992, the city had two candidates for mayor and seven aspirants for the council.

Early voting for both the school and city elections will begin April 18 and continue through May 3.

--Library Notes--

By Joan Strickland

The Haskell Garden Club donated two forsythias and a crepe myrtle bush to our library landscape. Boy Scout Troop 136 planted them this past week.

I would like to thank Mrs. Lorene Dewey and her son, Tom, for assisting the Boy Scouts and their leaders in this endeavor. The boys in Troop 136 are Landon Terry, Sammy Bagot, Caleb Brown, Kevin Patton, Levi Terry, Matt Perry, John Mark Hodgkin, Dawson Druessedow, Craig Cunningham, Brent Watson, Jason Trammell, Ben Pace, Tim Dewey, Jonathan Gholson, Ross Pittman, Dustin Threet and John Adamson. Scout leader Paul Brown, Leland Terry, Sam Watson and assistant leader Kenneth Patton.

We have received books for parents of young children from the Department of Education for parents wanting to help their children learn how to read, stay healthy, help with math skills, science, history and how to learn responsible behavior.

Also a new set of books on self esteem for young people and a set of books on study skills, writing papers, studying for tests and how to make better grades, and a three-volume set of Forces of Change (Shaping the Future of Texas) from State Comptroller John Sharp. We also have a few new biographies for grades 7-12 and the new Texas Bluebonnet Books for 1994 have arrived. A student may check out one Bluebonnet only until they have time to circulate.

Spring cleaning is going strong. People are weeding out their magazines and bringing them to the library. We have a very wide selection for our patrons to choose from.

The children are being so good in sharing their room with the newly formed genealogical society. We have a microfilm and microfilm reader in the genealogy section now. Word must be spreading about the information we have acquired as we have travelers stop in daily and look through our information for long lost ancestors in and around Haskell County. Mrs. Ernestine Herren has just added the 1993 burials in the Willow Cemetery and other burials in the county, and the Clark Family Cemetery has also been added to the Haskell Cemetery Book.

Plans are to paint our foyer on April 14-15. So please try to keep these dates in mind and come to the back door. We will be locked up front and have signs to please use rear door but if you can remember it will save you steps.

It appears someone got out without signing for an audio tape. The tape that is missing is a Star Trek audio tape and if you have it pleased return it as it needs to circulate to Menard. We are financially responsible for these extension tapes and books and I would hate to lose our privilege of borrowing from the Big Country Library System. Please check and see if you got out with a tape and return it as soon as possible. I know we get busy at times and it can be quite hectic when we have several checking out at once. Sometimes this happens, but we really must get Abilene property back in on the proper dates.

I would like to take this space to thank Mr. Tex Little from Rule for donating over 200 paperback westerns in the last few months. Tex never comes to the library without donating books or money to feed the "Kitty Kan" every trip. The old western books will be weeded and donated to the county jail.

Come and get an entry form for the McWorld Environmental Stamp Design Contest. You must be 8-13 in order to enter. We have the entry forms as well as your local post office.

Donations to the library:

In honor of Mr. Ray R. Overton and Mrs. Kathryn Rike Post.

In memory of Mrs. Artie Mae Burkett, Peggy Chapman, Georgia Fouts, Winnie Hiebert, Bessie Fouts, Walter Fischer, Kyle Wilfong, Leslie Tibbets, Margaret Deil and Lyndon Adams.

Paint Creek history books in honor of the Overton family and in honor of S. L. and Emma Dell Daniel.

Health scholarship offered again

For the third year, Outreach Health Services is offering its Bettye J. Wallace Scholarship program to area high schools.

Under the program, a $500 scholarship will be available to a graduating senior from Haskell High School.

The scholarship was established to honor the memory of Bettye Wallace, co-owner of Outreach Health Services, who died in 1991. She was a music educator in Roscoe, Crosbyton, Dallas and other Texas school districts before leaving teaching in 1971 to devote her time and energies to the health and welfare of others through her relationship with Smith's Nursing Service in Garland and co-founding Outreach Health Services.

Scholarships will be awarded to graduating seniors who plan to enter a health-related course of study at an institution of higher learning. Competing students will present a written essay of no more than 300 words on the topic, "Why Home Health Care Is Important to My Community."

Additional information and application packets are available from Billie McKeever, curriculum director, and Christye Gannaway, counselor.

The Sahara Desert covers about 3.5 million square miles, an area roughly equal to that of the United States.

Easter. Not All Bunny Business!

By midwinter the commercial Easter symbols are all around us: candy eggs, sugar chicks, chocolate rabbits, plastic baskets filled with plastic grass. Images of the Great Rabbit who gets credit for this important annual delivery to our kids.

These are good, gooey traditions, but there's more to Easter than sugar and plastic. This year, give your children something real and sustaining. In the United Methodist Church, they will learn that it is Christ - not an imaginary rabbit - who gives us the Easter gift which really matters: abundant life in Him. Life which one day sees us through death and into eternity.

Come home to a family who cares about you. Celebrate the Easter gift of life with us at the United Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Carver

Conner, Carver wed in Rochester

Dara Lynn Conner and Christopher Clay Carver exchanged marriage vows Saturday, March 12, at 1 p.m. at the First Baptist Church of Rochester.

The Rev. Truett Kuenstler of Rochester officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by Billy Hardin and her grandfather, LeeRoy McGhee, the bride is the daughter of Ms. Lynda Straw of Haskell. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Carver of Rochester.

The altar was decorated with a brass archway adorned with emerald greenery intertwined with white shimmering ribbon and a large bow of the same. The archway was accented with a swag of mauve stargazer lilies and teal gypsophila. On either side of the archway were fan-shaped stands of mauve and white gladiolus and teal gypsophila. Dual wicker baskets containing pink azalea trees decorated the sides of the altar.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Carol Conner of Haskell. Bridesmaids were Misses Jennifer Smart and Mindy Ballard of Rochester.

The bride's cousin, Miss Mykel McGhee of Rochester, and the bridegroom's niece, Miss Candace Carver of Knox City, were the flower girls.

Vernon Speck of Rochester was the best man. Groomsmen and ushers were David Carver of Knox City and Dennis Carver of O'Brien, brothers of the bridegroom.

Miss Stacy McGhee, cousin of the bride, and Miss Danielle Bass registered the guests.

Music for the ceremony was provided by Kevin Conner, brother of the bride, and Mrs. Darryl McGhee, aunt of the bride.

The bride wore a traditional white gown of lavishly ornamented satin. The gown was accented by a formal Queen Anne neckline and covered with paillettes and pearls. The Basque-waisted bodice was fitted with princess seams and decorated with iridescent sequins and tiny seed pearls. The long tapered sleeves were ornamented with lace appliques and beads. An open heart shaped back was embellished with strands of pearls and accented with a large bow. Her V-shaped crown was made of pearls and nylon veiling.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of bridal white roses, German status, and pearl steams tied with shimmering white lace.

For something borrowed, the bride wore a diamond drop necklace belonging to Mrs. David Carver, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. For something blue, she wore a handmade garter accented with tiny western charms; for something new, she wore her wedding gown; and for something old, she wore the wedding ring of her grandmother, Mrs. LeeRoy McGhee. In her shoe, the bride had pennies dating from the years the groom and she were born.

The bride presented both mothers with a long stem rose and a kiss during the ceremony.

The bride's attendants wore graduated length gowns of teal satin. The fitted bodices were fashioned with a deep ruffle around the neckline and accented with a self bow in the front. They carried bouquets of mauve stargazer lilies accented with gypsophila and tied with mauve and teal ribbon.

The flower girls wore matching tea length dresses of white moire taffeta. The dresses had sweetheart necklines embellished with satin embroidery appliques with tiny pearls and paillettes. The dresses were accented by rows of ruffles and a large bow in the back. The girls carried white baskets adorned with mauve ribbons and lace and were filled with mauve rose petals.

The bridegroom wore a white western cut tuxedo with white jeans. The belt buckle he wore was given to him by the bride.

The groomsmen wore short black tuxedo coats with black jeans and white tuxedo shirts accented with teal ties.

The mother of the bride wore a teal and white dress accented with ruffles and poet sleeves. The mother of the bridegroom wore a dusty rose suit with a cutaway jacket and a tiny pleated skirt.

The reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Receiving the guests were the bride and groom and their parents.

White organdy covered the bride's table, which held a stacked cake decorated with lattice and ruffled icing and accented with strands of pearls. Pink fruit punch, mixed nuts, pink rose and teal leaf mints were served from silver appointments by Misses Charlie McGhee and Stacy McGhee, cousins of the bride.

A teal full-length cloth draped the groom's table, which featured chocolate boots and hat. Mixed nuts, chocolate mint cowboy hats, and a clear flavored punch were served from pewter appointments by Miss Shelly Windom, sister of the bride, and Miss Danielle Bass.

Both the wedding cake and the groom's cake were made by Mrs. David Carver, sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

Caleb Carver and Brody Roberson, both nephews of the bridegroom, distributed tiny feed bags filled with birdseed from tree bark baskets. Casey Carver, nephew of the bridegroom, distributed mauve silk roses filled with birdseed from a decorated wicker basket. They all wore matching teal western shirts made for them by the sister of the groom, Mrs. Danny Roberson.

The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at The Branding Iron in Rochester.

The bride is a 1992 graduate of Rochester High School and is employed by Mickey's House in Rochester. The bridegroom is a 1993 graduate of Rochester High School and is employed in farming in Rochester.

Following a wedding trip to Ruidoso, the couple will live in Rochester.
