85 attending singing school

Haskell Church of Christ is host this week to its 29th annual Singing School.

Eighty-five students arc attending the school, coming from Colorado, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas, as well as Texas. Some students have been coming eight or nine years.

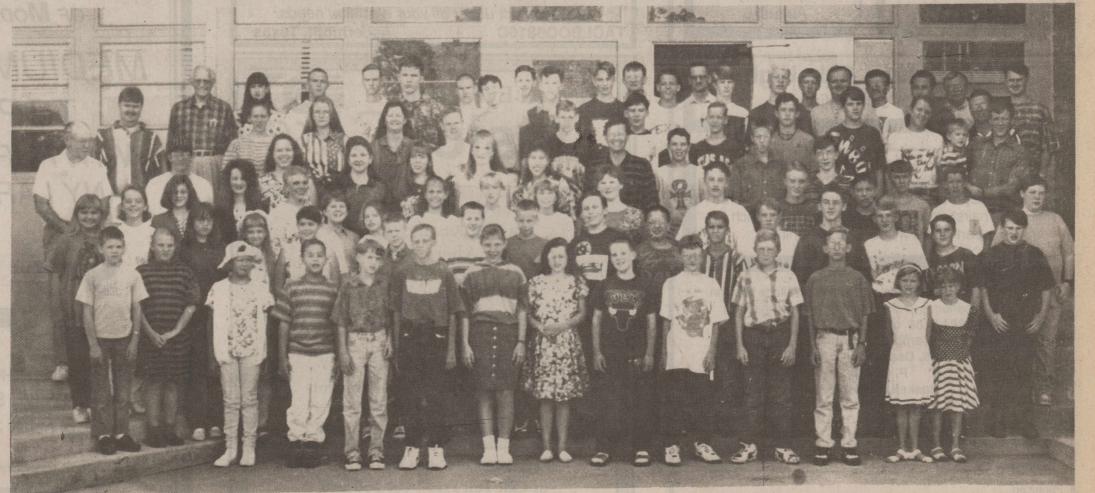

During the school, students stay in homes of church members. Some homes have as many as eight or 10 students staying with them, making for a unique experience of closeness and fellowship.

Main focus of the school is on song writing. Each student will be involved in writing a song. Advanced students will write their own songs, including lyrics, melody and harmony. Beginning students will write a song in a committee.

Time is also spent on voice lessons, music theory and studying the real meaning of Christian songs and worship. Tom Chapin is director of the school, along with four other instructors. One of them, John Connel, was originally a student at the school. Others are Gene Chapin, Paul Epps and Bob Connel.

Mrs. Rob Goodenough

Roewe, Goodenough exchange vows

Julie Ann Roewe and Robert Charles Goodenough were united in marriage June 11 at the First Baptist Church in Haskell. Randy McLelland performed the doublering ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Conrad and Betty Roewe of Haskell. The groom is the son of Linda Goodenough-Cheek of Amarillo.

Wedding vows were exchanged in front of a heart-shaped candelabra in the center, with spiral candelabrum on each side. The ivory candles were decorated with green ivy and peach bows. Large white bows were used as pew markers. Two large arrangements of peach gladiolus were placed on each side of the altar.

Organist was Nelda Lane, Ellen Rieger was pianist and Karen

Woody Key of Amarillo sang, "I Will Be Here." Christye Gannaway of Haskell and Russell Smith of San Angelo sang "Nobody Loves Me Like You Do," "The Father Says I Do," "Household of Faith" and "Doubly Good to You."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a magnificent candlelight gown styled with silk and lavishly trimmed with pearls and Alencon lace. The sweetheart neckline was edged in scalloped lace with pearls. The fitted bodice was styled with a basque waistline and adorned in Alencon lace and pearls. The back of the bodice exemplified a V-back cut. The leg-o-mutton sleeves portrayed a beautifully poufed upper arm and a fitted lace forearm. At the back waistline, there was a peplum which set the image for a chapel length train.

The Alencon lace flowed down the back at the skirt and train, and flowed into a hemline. Her twolayered fingertip length veil was trimmed with a fish line edge. A soft elegant look was exemplified by sprays of flowers on one side of the headpiece. In her shoe, the bride carried a six-pence given to her by Mrs. Opal Adkins. She carried a cascading bouquet of white roses, gardenias, stephanotis and baby's Dan Fouts and Tom Fouts of Haskell were candlelighters. Ushers were Lyle Fouts of Haskell, Claude Sutton of Amarillo and Kevin Crousen of Lubbock. Groomsmen, ushers and candlelighters wore black Christian Dior tuxedos with teal and black paisley vests.

A reception at Macias Ballroom followed the ceremony. The sitdown dinner featured fish and

The bride's and groom's cake were served by Stephanie DeBoom, Kathy Burroughs, Meredith Johnson, Debbie Carter, Shana McKenzie, Stacie Tippett, Shanna Briggs and Michelle Shilling, all members of the Hardin-Simmons Cowgirl basketball team. The newlyweds left the reception on a Haskell Fire Department fire

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's family at the First Baptist Church Family Activity Center. It was catered by Joe Allen's Barbeque.

Following a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, S.C., the couple is living in Abilene.

The bride graduated from Haskell High School and Western Texas College. She received her BA degree from the University of Texas in Arlington and her master's of education degree from Texas Tech University. She is women's head basketball coach at Hardin-Simmons University.

The bridegroom graduated from Tascosa High School and earned his BA degree from Texas Tech University. He is a teacher and coach at Wylie High School.

Wayne and Kelly Hutchinson of Archer City are proud to announce the birth of their son, Hagen Layne, born at Wichita General Hospital June 22 at 1:08 p.m., weighing 8 pounds, 6 ounces. He was 20 1/2 inches long.

Continued from page 1 looking for someone who could replace Roy Thomas---we've found him. I know him and I know what he can do for our basketball program."

Thomas, who hired Rike as an assistant coach four years ago, resigned from TJC in May to become head coach at North Carolina A&T University, an NCAA Division I school.

Rike certainly is no stranger to the Apache program. He played for Thomas from 1985-87, graduating with his associate's degree in health and kinesiology. After TJC, Rike played for Sam Houston State University and West Texas State University where he received his bachelor's degree in physical

He returned to TJC in 1990 as a graduate assistant to Thomas while earning a master's degree in physical education at the University of Texas at Tyler.

Rike left TJCV last summer to become an assistant coach at the Louisiana Tech University, but a head coaching change left him unsure of his future. Ironically, Thomas hired Rike as an assistant at North Carolina A&T six weeks ago and he had already spent much of his time on the road recruiting for Thomas while awaiting word from the TJC administration.

Thomas said Thursday he considered Rike a member of the family and wished him well.

"The main thing about Fred is that he works hard and when he played for me, he played hard," Thomas said. "There's no doubt about it, I think he'll do a good job for them. He has the opportunity now to take the program from where it is and go from there."

Returning to TJC as head coach fulfills a dream Rike has held since his playing days, he said, but added that he doesn't expect his familiarity to Apache fans to bring any more pressure than that of being a head coach.

"I'm not one to worry about what other people think," Rike said. "You have to be thick-skinned to be a coach. I've always been one to respond well under pressure."

The pressure he faces stems from the Apaches' .732 winning percentage since 1947, when former Apache head coach and athletic director Floyd J. Wagstaff began his 28-year reign. Wagstaff built at 743-225 record at TJC, making him the winningest junior college coach in the country until recently.

Since then, only Thomas remained at the helm longer than 3 1/2 seasons. From 1983 through the past season, Thomas' teams accumulated a 218-96 record, including 19-9 last season.

Donnie Prater, who coached Rike at Tulia High School, remembered his point guard as a player who liked to bring his teammates up to another level. Rike, who averaged 28 points a game, was Most Valuable Player of the South Plains All-Star game and was an all-stater.

"Fred, when he played for us, was a leader," Prater said. "He took an interest in developing other players. He tried to bring them up

"He had great work habits. Fred has really matured. I can just tell by talking to him on the phone that he's really grown and matured. He's got lots of outstanding experience."

Russell Watson, a guard on the 1991-93 teams, said Rike's background should serve him well. "I think he'll do real well," Watson said. "First of all, he knows what to expect because he's played here and coached here. Being a player always helps. And the fact that he went to a junior college and went on to get his degree and his master's is good."

Chris Foreman, Watson's running mate at guard in 1991-92, said he hoped Rike would make a strong head coach. "I hope he attacks the job like a man," Foreman said. "I wish I could talk to him. I'm happy for him because he took a tough fall with that Louisiana Tech thing.

"I feel he deserves this, and I wish him the best of luck. I hope he goes in and does what needs to be done to continue the winning tradition at TJC."

PHARMACY NEWS

By Elbert Johnson, Registered Pharmacist Heart Disease Risks in Women:

Scientists are finding that diagnostic and treatment modalities for heart disease may be less effective in women than in men. Women have a higher rate of false-positives and false-negatives in stress tests, and both angioplasty (in which a balloon is inflated in a blocked artery in an attempt to clear it) and coronary bypass surgery have worse outcomes. This may be because women with heart disease generally are sicker than men and because instrumentation for angioplasty may be too large for women's smaller arteries, thus causing more damage than benefit.

Joy McKeever and Brad Bevel were married Saturday, July 2, at East Side Baptist Church.

Joy is the daughter of Eddie and Billie McKeever of Haskell. Brad is the son of James and Lela Bevel, also of Haskell.

The bride's maternal grandmother is Ruby Cockerell of Rochester and her paternal grandfather is Leo McKeever of Haskell, formerly of Stamford. The groom's maternal grandmother is Lela Clark of Harlingen, and Neat Bevel of Haskell is his paternal grandmother.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore an original satin gown designed with a sweetheart neckline, finely detailed poet sleeves and a heavily beaded and sequined bodice with a back lace peplum. The cathedral train was lavishly detailed with lace motifs. The finger tip veil was customed designed with pearls and lace.

She carried a bouquet of white, navy and burgundy roses, baby's breath and English ivy. In the center of the bouquet was a locket given to the bride by the groom on her 16th birthday. The bouquet, bridal veil and floral arrangements were fashioned by the bride's sister, Jan Sorrells.

For something old and blue the bride wore the garter worn by her mother and sister in their weddings; something new was her wedding dress; something borrowed was a pearl necklace belonging to Pam Mathis and pearl earrings belonging to Susan Cockerell, Joy's aunt. The bride wore pennies in her shoes from the years of the couple's hirths served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Teresa Unger of Lubbock, Kelly Ashworth of Weatherford, Okla., and Jan Sorrells, sister of the bride, from Houston.

Junior bridesmaids were Janel Reed, of LaVernia, niece of the groom, Trac Mathis of Haskell and Stacie Sorrells of Houston, niece of the bride. Flower girl was Kaycie Sorrells of Houston, niece of the bride.

The bride's attendants wore tea length, burgundy and navy flowered dresses and carried burgundy Bibles with bookmark flower sprays. They each wore sterling silver lockets which were gifts from the bride.

The groom wore a black longtailed Nashville tuxedo jacket, white shirt and black tie with Wranglers and boots.

Berl Bevel of Natalia served as his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Jeff Martin of Stephenville, James Rike of Lubbock and Shannon Truesdell of Graham. Junior groomsmen were Chase DeMeritt of Rochester, cousin of the bride; Anthony Reed of LaVernia, nephew of the groom; and Chase Cockerell of Seymour, cousin of the bride. Ring bearer was Charlie Smith of Haskell. The groom's attendants wore Nashville tuxedo jackets, white tuxedo shirts, burgundy ties, Wranglers and boots. Their boutonnieres were burgundy

Ushers were Walt Stone of Stanton, Marc Andrade of Munday and Kirk High of Fort Worth. Their attire was identical to the groomsmen except they wore short-tailed Branson tuxedo jackets.

Soloist, Mark Young of Merkel, sang "Nobody Loves Me Like You Do," "Everything I Do, I Do for You," and "I Cross My Heart." Organist was Teresa New, and pianist was Nelda Lane.

Tenille Mathis of Haskell and Kristi Reed of LaVernia, niece of the groom, presided at the registery

Following the wedding ceremony the parents of the bride hosted a reception in the church fellowship hall. Guests entered through an archway of burgundy and navy balloons. While wedding pictures were made, guests enjoyed a buffet of fruits, cheeses, finger snacks and iced tea. Appointments included baskets, balloons and ice sculptures.

Members of the houseparty were Teresa Rodriquez Chavez of Haskell, Vicky Chavez of Wichita Falls, Dalyn Gilly Griffith of Paint Creek, Loutina Hadaway of Haskell, Leiza Morales McTasney of Maumelle, AR, Lori Alvarez Rodriquez of Arlington and Sheree Dumas Smith of Midland.

The bride's table was covered with a ruffled burgundy cloth with a white lace topper and was highlighted with a pitcher of burgundy roses and crepe myrtle. The four-tiered wedding cake was decorated with burgundy and navy roses and was crowned with a ceramic wedding couple framed by a wooden heart accented with burgundy and navy flowers and wheat. A basket of burgundy and navy silk roses filled with bird seed also decorated the table.

The groom's table was covered with a denim cloth with a burgundy and navy saddle blanket runner. The centerpiece was a cowboy boot filled with flowers. The groom's cake was a chocolate confection decorated with farm animals. Mints in the shape of cowboy hats were served from a ceramic western hat. Miniature feed sacks filled with bird seed were momentos for guests.

The groom graduated in December 1993 from Tarleton State University with a degree in agriscience services and technology. The bride received a degree in Pharmacy from Southwestern State University in Weatherford, Okla.

After a honeymoon in Montega Bay, Jamaica, the couple will live in Perrin where he is an agriscience teacher at Perrin-Whitt High School and she is employed By Eckerd Drugs.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at Haskell National Bank community room.

Pre-nuptial parties included a kitchen shower in Weatherford, Okla., hosted by Joy's pharmacy sorority sisters, in the home of Mary Page.

A bridal shower honoring Joy was given in the home of Jill Druesedow on June 4. It was hosted by Cathy Bartley, Gwen Campbell, Louetta Davis, Glenda Drinnon, Charlene Dumas, Lou Gilly, Dalyn Griffith, Jerry Ann Harris, Grace Hannsz, Doris Jean McMeans, Frances Rodriquez, Kay Smith, Jane Smith, Charlene Therwhanger, Doris Watson and Dala Young.

A "Honey Do" shower was given in Brad's honor on Sunday, June 19, by Mr. and Mrs. John Sam Rike and Mr. and Mrs. Max Stapleton

The faculty and staff of Perrin-Whitt High School hosted a hamburger supper for the bridal couple on June 24.

On the eve of the wedding, a lingerie shower was given in the bride's honor by Dala Young. Members of the wedding party and Joy's friends from high school and college attended.

The bridesmaid's luncheon for the bride and her attendants was hosted by Betty Murphree and Pam Mathis and was given in the Murphree home in Stamford.

Another successful promotion reported

By Ed Walling Haskell Business Association

The Haskell Business Association would like to thank each and everyone who came downtown Saturday.

The Haskell Country Squares square dancers did a fantastic job. If you didn't make it down, they also did some line dancing. If you would like to join their club, contact Leon Jones, president, at 864-2512.

The cowboy group which performed did a super job. There were many people in town and they were telling me that the Last Desperados did a great job.

We want to thank our special sponsors again: Sport About, Hassen's of Haskell, KVRP Radio, The Carousel, Heads or Tails Western Wear, Holden-McCauley Funeral Home, Brian Burgess State Farm Insurance, Lane-Felker, Richardson's Case/IH True Value, Barbara's, The Drug Store, First National Bank, Haskell National Bank and Country Daizie.

The Little Britches Rodeo went well with many entries. We would like to thank the Haskell Horse Club for helping and Debra Bartley for bringing her pony for rides.

Business Association members who also helped included Ruthie Watson, Rick Phemister and Barbara Harris. Coupons were donated by Dairy Queen, Double A Drive-In and the Sonic, all of Haskell. Judges were Christie Stapleton, Nelda Lane and Mayor Ken Lane. Thanks to them.

Junior high twirlers sold cold drinks for the Business Association. Winners of the certificates were James Isbell of Hemet, Calif., Boggs & Johnson Furniture, and Frances Bowen of Haskell, The Drug Store.

Winner of the cow chip throwing contest was Jeremy Casillas of Haskell. His chip flew through the air for 77 feet. Nick Goss came in second at 72 feet and Ken Lane was third with 67 feet.

The association would like to thank the booths that set up: Haskell Volunteer Fire Department, Haskell Kiwanis Club, Haskell Country Squares, Abundant Life

Foursquare Church, First Assembly of God Youth, LULAC, Steve and Frankie Cothron and the Haskell Hospital Auxiliary.

The City of Haskell has moved the stage downtown many times for our activities and they cannot be thanked enough for this job. When we need their help they are always there.

Thanks again for your time and support for keeping "Haskell Alive". Start making plans for the upcoming promotion on Aug. 6 which will be The Sons of the Confederate Army.

See you Aug. 6 and let's continue on keeping "Haskell Alive! Past, Present and Future".

Delegates report on Girls State

By Amy Cunningham and Brandi Briles

We were among 586 junior girls chosen to attend the 50th session of Texas Bluebonnet Girls State.

As we packed the required items, plus 20 or 30 extra, in three large bags while making frantic phone calls to each other, we had only one question on our minds: "How do you pack for 11 days of who knows what?"

After hearing numerous horror stories, we set off apprehensively to face unknown territories, unfamiliar faces, 11 days without the TV or a telephone and sharing a bathroom with strangers in a boys' dorm.

After driving six hours, we finally reached our destination--Texas Lutheran College. After being greeted by energetic JC's, helpful staff members and perky senior counselors, we shouted, "Mom, lock the doors and take us home."

But as the story unfolded over the next 11 days, we acquired the knowledge of government, dirty politicians, made friends, gained appreciation for our country, ate unusual, but edible cuisine.

Hard metal chairs, rainy days, five hours of sleep, singing songs and beautifying our cities became a way of life. In this scheduled environment they expected us to develop the strength, by running a mile at 6:45 a.m. every morning, to take a stand for our beliefs in campaigns and House and Senate sessions.

Soon, we realized what an honor it was to be chosen to represent Haskell. We then became involved in many of the activities around us and even found ourselves becoming energetic, helpful and perky.

Before we knew it the 11 days were over and it was time to pack. As we were packing, we discovered those were not as easy to pack as when we came. "How," we wondered, "do you fit friendships, love of country, belief in yourself, determination, hard work, memories and everything we bought at the Girls State Store into a bag?"

As we thought about our situation we realized you never pack the things learned at Girls State. You carry them in your heart and live them everyday to make this country a better place.

Upon our return to Haskell, we've been asked by many people, "What did ya'll think of Governor Richards' speech?"

Our reply: "You just had to be there!"

The bride is the daughter of Melvin and LaVerne Hill of Haskell. The bridegroom's parents are Billy and Maurice Searcey of Gould, Okla.

Phylecia Bailey was organist and Ellen Rieger was pianist. Brenda Edins of Hamilton, sister of the bride, sang "The Parent's Prayer", and Andy and Lori Hill of Clyde, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, sang a duet, "I Will Be Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a designer gown by Mori Lee of silk shantung with a sweetheart neckline, a pearl beaded bodice covered with Alencon lace dipping to a low-V in front and a bow on the lower back. The leg-of-mutton sleeves were covered with Alencon lace decorated with pearl beads and iridescent. Pearl pendants dangled from the neck and under the puffs of the sleeves.

The full skirt was accented by a lace inset in front of Alencon lace medallions. It was trimmed all around the bottom with identical lace and accents flowing to a cathedral length train.

For something old and borrowed the bride carried the white satin Bible her mother carried at her parents' wedding and wore a sixpence belonging to her father in her shoe. Something new were the pearl earrings that were a gift from the groom and something blue was the garter. She carried a large bouquet of cascading fresh flowers including bridal pink roses, white roses, stephanotis, Queen Anne's lace and English ivy with white satin ribbon streamers. A white satin bow was tied around a white satin Bible and was nestled into the top of the bride's bouquet.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Brenda Edins of Hamilton. Bridesmaids were Vicky Scott of Austin, sister of the bride; Lori Hill of Clyde, sister-in-law of the bride; and Linda Hill of Hollis, Okla., sister-in-law of the bride. Junior bridesmaid was Rebecca Hill of Hollis, the bride's niece.

Bridal attendants wore tea length dresses of black georgette with scoop neck, draped white georgette collar with white silk rose at center of collar with fitted bodice and full skirt and butterfly sleeves. They carried large nosegays of fresh flowers including bridal pink roses, white roses, white stock and Queen Anne's lace with white satin bows and ribbons and English ivy streaming down.

Laurel Hill of Clyde, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and Colby Crawford of Altus, Okla., nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

Kenny Searcey of Lake Dallas served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Mark Bassel of Dallas, cousin of the groom; Robert Williams of Gould; and Craig Crawford of Altus, brother-in-law of the groom. The groom and groomsmen wore black tuxedos with tails, and white rose boutonnieres.

Ushers were Andy Hill of Clyde and Chris Hill of Haskell, both brothers of the bride. Candlelighters were Sean Edins of Hamilton, nephew of the bride, and Chris Hill of Haskell, brother of the bride.

A reception in the fellowship hall of the church, hosted by the bride's parents, followed the wedding ceremony. Guests were registered by Anna Rieger. The bride's table was covered with a white lace tablecloth with a large centerpiece of the bride's and bridesmaids' bouquets.

The bride's three-tier cake was embellished with white icing filigrees and decorated with fresh white roses, Queen Anne's lace and English ivy with a large topper of fresh white roses, stephanotis, Queen Anne's lace and English ivy on one side and the bridal portrait and silver punch service on the other. There was a large food table of sandwiches, fruit, cheese and dins

The groom's table was covered in an ecru lace tablecloth and was decorated with the bridal couple's engagement portrait and a wheat bouquet for a centerpiece. The groom's cake was German chocolate, decorated with a monogrammed "S" in chocolate icing. An antique silver sugar bowl, belonging to the groom's grandmother that sat on the groom's table at her wedding, sat next to a silver coffee service.

The bride is a 1982 graduate of Haskell High School and attended Hardin-Simmons University. The bridegroom is a 1982 graduate of Gould High School and a 1986 graduate of Oklahoma State University with a degree in Agricultural Economics. He farms and ranches near Gould.

Following a wedding trip to Branson, Mo., the newlyweds are making their home in Gould.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner May 13 at the Family Activity Center of the church. The dinner was catered by Flora Pace.

Showers for the couple were April 17 at the First Baptist Church fellowship hall in Haskell, and at the First Baptist Church Family Activities Center in Hollis, Okla., on April 16.

Fred D. Kendrick, 82, of Brad, formerly of Haskell, died Saturday in a Mineral Wells hospital.

Funeral services were Tuesday morning at Edwards Funeral Home Chapel with Wayne Hunter officiating. Burial was in Willow Cemetery in Haskell.

Mr. Kendrick was born in Haskell and grew up in this area, attending school in the Rose community. He married Pauline Miller in Haskell Dec. 13, 1930.

He was employed by Ivan Denment Road Construction Co. His job took him to Amarillo where he lived 15 years prior to moving to Brad when he retired in 1974. He was a Methodist.

Survivors include his wife; a daughter and son-in-law, Freddye and A. C. Brewer of Odessa; a son and daughter-in-law, J. M. "Skip" and Jeanette Kendrick of Vega; a sister, Eva Speer of Haskell; four grandchildren; and two greatgrandchildren.

Ethel Hill

Ethel Lorene Hill of Haskell died Sunday in Pecos. She was 86.

Funeral services were Wednesday morning at East Side Baptist Church with the Revs. Johnny Thomason and David Page officiating. Burial was in Willow Cemetery, directed by Holden-McCauley Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Howard Hill Jr., David Ray Hill, Bobby Hill, John Hill, Brian Hill and Patrick O'Rielley. Honorary pallbearers were Mike Hill, Steve Hill, Chris Hill, Andy Hill and Scott Hill. All pallbearers and honorary pallbearers were grandsons.

Mrs. Hill was born Jan. 2, 1908, in Childress and had lived in Haskell since October 1945. A

This is a good time to start cuttings. Use a slip about 4 inches long. Remove all the leaves except those at the top. Plant in sand and keep moist.

Spring is the most colorful season. We all enjoy the flowering trees. For a mass of display of summer color, eye-filling and soulthrilling, it is hard to beat petunias. Within a short time the mums will be coming spreading their beauty.

Sunflowers are like beanstalks. We can take a fat seed, drop it in a hole and within days, a shoot pushes up and quickly grows tall and strong. The flower is a 10-inch yellow disk, the very reflection of one called "Sunspot." It has 10-inch flowers that stand on plants only 2 feet tall. The birds will enjoy the seeds and you will enjoy toasted or roasted sunflower seeds from your

This is an interesting fact. A type of net used for ballet costumes and window displays is spread over the plants to keep the grasshoppers and other insects away.

It is vital in our area to mulch plants. A good mulch serves many purposes, some are: water conservation, weed control, appearance of the yard, and Pine straw is a good mulch for shrubs. Grass clippings, which have weeds and seeds removed, are good for flowering annuals and vegetables. In November the clippings can be worked into the ground. Then they will be good humus next season.

David Bordousky, research scientist, shows sesame plots to a group of students from Haskell, Aspermont and Rochester.

Summer students take field trip

On June 24, the JTPA summer students from Haskell and Stonewall counties traveled to the Texas A&M Research Station in Munday.

David Bordousky welcomed students and teachers and also introduced the other presenters.

Dr. Jerry Cox, scientist, told students that "science is fun." He talked of many places he had traveled and showed some green house plants which he had brought from Africa

Bordousky showed students some alternate crops which are being planted in the area to see if they will survive. Some were the black bean from Korea and sesame plants.

Traveling on to the field, the students were shown the good bugs such as lady beetles and spiders. Roxanne Montandon informed the students of research with these insects, and how they can aid farmers by destroying aphids in crops. This way the farmers would not need to use so much insecticide spray.

Malinda DeLos Santos said, "It was interesting and educational."

Attending with the students were Richard Holloway, John Foster, Cathy Bartley and Elaine Davis.

Poets invited to enter contest

Fifty-one prizes will be awarded in a national poetry competition sponsored by the International Library of Famous Poets, open to all.

A handsome book prize will be awarded to the finalist in each state. The grand prize winner, chosen from among the 50 finalists, will receive a cashier's check for $1,000.

To enter, send one poem 20 lines or less to: National Poetry Competition, 421 N. Rodeo Dr., Suite 455, Beverly Hills, CA 90210.

Entries must be postmarked by midnight, Aug. 15.

Opera House show Saturday

The Opera House in Anson will present a variety of country-western music at the Third Saturday Musical this Saturday.

There is no admission charge and concessions will be available. Donations are used to pay utilities and maintenance.

Acteens attend national meet

Nine Acteens and three sponsors from First Baptist Church in Rule attended the National Acteen Conference June 21-24 in Birmingham, Ala.

The convention, sponsored by the Southern Baptist Woman's Missionary Union and held every five years for girls in grade 7 through 12, attracted more than 13,000 girls and sponsors. Over 1,700 were registered from Texas.

A procession of flags of 126 countries where Southern Baptist missionaries live and work led to a challenge for the girls to commit themselves to take the Christian message to others.

To show their concern for others, the girls brought over 5,000 teddy bears and over 7,000 pairs of canvas shoes for their missionaries to distribute to the needy where they work.

The Rule contingent included Lindsay Pike, Deborah Wilson, Megan Jones, Hollie Smith, Stephanie Stegemoeller, Denise Wilson, Sara Kittley, Isabel Baez and Allison Pike. Sponsors were Keri Farrell, Joy Jones and Stewart Farrell.

Burson retires in Lubbock

Travis Burson retired July 1 from the U.S. Postal Service. He began his postal career in Lubbock in April 1973.

He was given a retirement party by his co-workers on June 18.

A retirement ceremony and dinner was given in his honor at the Lubbock General Mail Facility on June 22. He was presented with a retirement certificate by the plant manager, John Levacy Jr., along with a plaque and certificate of achievement. He also received an engraved pocket watch a glass dome from his fellow employees on Tour 2.

Travis had retired from the U.S. Air Force as a non-commissioned officer, serving honorably from 1952 to 1973, prior to moving to Lubbock.

Multi-Risk/Replacement Cost Protection for Farm & Irrigation Equipment

• Take a minute to think about the tremendous investment you have in Farm Equipment: Tractors, Cultivators, Combines, Planters, and more. Then consider what it would cost to replace any one of your units at today's prices.

 If insured on a Farm Blanket, aged equipment suffers a deduction for depreciation -- unless you are protected with a Replacement Cost Provision.

 You want the broadest coverage available on your most expensive equipment -- but most policies don't offer you this protection.

 The perils of Fire, Lightning, Wind, Tornado, Collision, Upset, Overturn, Vandalism, Theft, and Flood are available again, most policies don't protect your equipment for all of the above perils.
