School board renews contracts

The Haskell CISD Board of Trustees met Feb. 18 and recognized Daisy Cothron for winning the Stamford Electric Co-operative speech contest. The board also recognized Coach Mark Coffman and the 96-97 Haskell boys basketball team for winning District 9AA.

The order for the May 3rd trustee election was approved. Positions for re-election include single member district place 4 currently held by Tiffen Mayfield, single member district place 5 currently held by Mike Jordan, and single member district place 7 currently held by Dr. Tom Hairgrove.

Haskell trustees approved support for assisting the city and county in installing new bleacher seating at the rodeo and baseball field. Approval was also given for building a restroom/concession stand, subject to mutual agreement in placement of the restroom/concession stand facility.

Recommendations for administrative staff and athletic director were given. Contracts for Billie McKeever, assistant superintendent; Greg Melton, high school principal; Jim Lisle, elementary principal; Bryan McCulloch, assistant high school principal; and Dewayne Gray, athletic director, were extended through June 30, 1999.

Indians on way to Regional playoffs

By Don Comedy

A fired-up Haskell Indian team gave up the first two points against Mason Tuesday night and then jumped out to an 18-5 lead by the end of the first quarter in their 74-50 win. The Tribe increased the lead to 30-10 by the midway point of the second period and maintained a lead of almost 20 points throughout the game to earn a spot in the Regional Tournament this weekend in Stephenville.

Game times and opponents for Regional were not available at press time Wednesday.

The Mason Punchers couldn't handle the Tribe's fast break and tough rebounding. Matthew McCord, Carl Riley and Gavino Ortiz often times put the ball under the Indian basket before most of the Mason players got down court. Gavino's quick hands also caused numerous Mason turnovers while the rebounding of Casey Burgess and Jason Briles consistently gave the Tribe a second or third attempt at a basket and almost never allowed Mason that luxury.

McCord, Riley and Ortiz had 17, 15, and 12 points for the Tribe with Burgess and Briles had 10 and 7. Greg Rodriguez added 4 and Eric Guadaluca had 2.

Indians defeat Nocona 67-44 to win Bi-District

The Haskell Indians won the Bi-District playoff held Friday night against Nocona 67-44.

Matthew McCord and Casey Burgess combined efforts leading the Indians in points scoring by 23 and 20, respectively. Adding 10 points was Jason Briles, followed by Gavino Ortiz with 6, Carl Riley with 4, Bobby Ortiz and Ryan Nanny with 2 points each.

Haskell stands 26-3 for the season and advanced to the area around on Tuesday night facing Mason.

Hospice is Study Club program topic

President Kim Meredith welcomed members and guests for the Feb. 13 meeting of the Haskell Progressive Study Club in the Haskell National Bank Community Room and then led the group in the pledge to the American and Texas flag.

Mona Gibson introduced Lana Cunningham of Abilene, representing Hendrick Hospice Care. She began her talk with the scripture from I Corinthians 2:9. Going into the program for the evening, Nursing-Then and Now, Cunningham spoke of how nursing has improved throughout the years. Women in the nursing field began as very minor workers. They were given such jobs as cleaning, changing beds and feeding patients. However, they became increasingly important in all aspects of the medical field. Their care for patients now involves the whole body, physical, mental and social.

Hospice is a program that is continually helping those in a difficult situation, such as the terminally ill, and their families as well as the patient. It does not focus on recovery through medical treatment, but instead helps people cope with the physical and emotional pain of dying from a clearly terminal illness. Many families have benefited from the kindness shown them during this difficult time. Their level of service is not provided by medicare. They also help with some medical equipment needed by patients, medicine not normally provided by medicare, nursing, spiritual support, home care chaplain, pain control, and dignity and comfort. Hospice offers a quality of life not provided for by medicare.

Developed in England, it started with 200 active volunteers. It does things for people, not to them, helping people cope with a physical and emotional pain of dying from a clearly terminal illness.

In the business meeting that followed, a thank you was read from the Child Welfare Board for donations received from the club. A letter from Haskell National Honor Society asking for a donation to help in financing their trip to Washington during spring break, March 15-19 was read. A motion to donate $100 carried. Following discussion, a motion was made to donate $750 to Haskell Civic Center that carried.

Guests present were Lana Cunningham of Abilene and Nathan Meredith of Haskell.

Members were reminded to bring their items for M.D. Anderson Project to March meeting.

St. Georges, Henshaw marry in Hawaii

Brady Charles Henshaw and Melanie St. Georges were married Jan. 15, in Waipio Valley, Hawaii. The valley, once called "valley of the kings," was once the religious and political center of Hawaii. King Kamehameha was born there and thousands lived there. Today, only a few families live in the valley with 2,000 feet lava walls covered with trees and shrubs and waterfalls. The valley remains a sacred and holy place.

The wedding party entered the valley on horseback. At the alter, Leroy Montana and Linda Waldron officiated. Danny Alomonte sang a sacred song about the valley. Scott Anderson served as best man, Shannon Anderson served as matron of honor, Melita and Saige Anderson were flower girls. The Andersons are from Kona, Hawaii.

The couple honeymooned in the TreeHouse in Waipio Valley, a hotel with rooms built high in the trees, complete with skylight and an incomparable view of the jungle.

Parents of the bride are Barbara St. Georges, Albuquerque and Joseph St. Georges, Downingtown, PA.

The groom's parents are Hyrum and Jean Richards, San Angelo and Bob Henshaw, Casper, WY.

Henshaw's grandparents are Iola Henshaw, Haskell and the late Chick Henshaw, Lois Redwine, Odessa and the late Charley Redwine.

The couple is at home in Albuquerque, N.M.

Legal Matters

by Dan Morales, Attorney General

The original intent of Title IV-D, the child support enforcement section of the Social Security Act, was to reduce welfare costs of Title IV-A, the Aid to Families with dependent Children (AFDC) program.

Because we are in the business of collecting child support, we focus primarily on those fathers who do not honor their child support obligations. And, unfortunately, those fathers who shoulder their responsibilities and support their children are often overlooked.

Times are changing

When someone hears about a child being raised in a single-parent home, it is almost second nature to believe the child resides with his or her mother. However, this can no longer be assumed. The fact is that many fathers are effective primary caregivers to their children.

But we should not stop there. There are many fathers who do not have custody of their children but still love, care and financially provide for them. There are non-custodial parents who pay child support faithfully and see their children on a regular basis.

My office knows that not all non-custodial parents are bad guys. We empathize with non-custodial parents who tell us they are frustrated when they pay their child support and know that it is not being used for their children's benefit. Some fathers who pay child support on time, month after month, tell us that there are times when they are tempted not to pay because they are paying without the benefit of seeing their children.

Sometimes, at the expense of breaking a court order for visitation and/or custody, custodial parents deny non-custodial parents access to their children. Just like refusing to pay court-ordered child support, this is breaking the law.

Our office has the legal authority to take enforcement action against parents for non-payment of child support. However, we do not have the legal authority to enforce visitation and custody, nor can we mandate how the money is to be spent. These issues must be taken up directly with the court.

Fathers are needed

Even when children are unable to live with their fathers, they still require the emotional and psychological support that fathers provide. Mothers and fathers have different gifts to give their children and one parent can never replace the other.

Having the love of both parents provides a stabilizing environment for children—a necessity in growing up feeling wanted and safe. Every child deserves that start in life. It is parents forming a partnership to raise their children—whether or not they reside in the same household. It is a child waking up every day without having to question the love and involvement of both parents.

Saluting fathers

Over the years the Office of the Attorney General has realized the need to aggressively pursue those who refuse to pay child support while encouraging those who do pay. We will continue to be tough, but at the same time we want to acknowledge those who are doing the right thing. We do not want good fathers feeling like unsung heroes. If you are a father who has chosen to be a part of his children's lives, you are the person we want to acknowledge. You have our admiration and our respect.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

On Sept. 30, the 1991 law that determines how highway funds are spent will expire. Earlier this month, I joined several Senators in introducing the Integrity Restoration Act of 1997, to continue our highway program, but also to give Texas a fair shake.

For years, Texas has been contributing far more to the federal Highway Trust Fund than it has received in return. In fact, between 1992 and 1996, Texas got back only 77 cents of each dollar that we contributed to the trust fund. By comparison, Massachusetts received $2.49 for every dollar paid in gas taxes. That's more than just unfair: it's highway robbery.

That is why Texas and other so-called donor states—those that typically provide more money to the highway trust fund than they get back—have formed a coalition called STEP-21 (Streamlined Transportation Efficiency Program for the 21st Century). The basic objectives of STEP-21, through the enactment of our bill, are to ensure that each state receives a minimum of 95 percent of its share of payments to the trust fund, and to give states a bigger say in how the money is spent.

In addition to promoting our fair formula proposal, I will also be working to end the diversion of gasoline tax revenues from financing infrastructure to subsidizing big government. Since its creation in 1956, the Highway Trust Fund's primary source of revenue has been the federal gasoline tax, which had been used exclusively for transportation infrastructure. Then, in 1993, President Clinton and the Congress permanently raised the gas tax by 4.3 cents per gallon and diverted the proceeds—some $4.6 billion per year—to support other government spending.

A gas tax used to fund these other, non-highway programs is inherently unfair to Texans, who often must drive long distances to work or to buy groceries, but now have to pay higher taxes just to get to the store. By directing these revenues to the highway trust fund, we will be able to assure a fairer distribution by increasing the amount of money dedicated specifically for highways.

Yours respectfully,
Phil Gramm

permits. And, under the bill, Texas would recognize right-to-carry permits issued by other states.

A number of state and local municipal and nursing groups oppose the bill.

Counterfeit Trademark Bill

Selling counterfeit goods bearing trademarks meant to make them appear genuine would be a crime under legislation passed by the Senate last week.

"Organized crime syndicates as well as certain terrorist groups are utilizing counterfeit goods to raise money for their various causes," said Sen. Ken Armbrister, D-Victoria.

The goods range from purses and watches to electronic equipment, he said, adding that the sales are a problem primarily in the Dallas and Houston areas. An estimated $10 million to $25 million in counterfeit goods are warehoused in the Houston area, Armbrister said. The bill, which now goes to the House for consideration, would create a range of criminal penalties and provide for seizure of counterfeit goods.

Cashless Welfare Bill Filed

Rep. Harvey Hilderbran, R-Kerrville, filed a bill that would create a cashless welfare system.

Hilderbran, chairman of the House Human Services Committee, said the measure is intended to ensure that benefits given to welfare recipients are used on behalf of children in families on the welfare rolls.

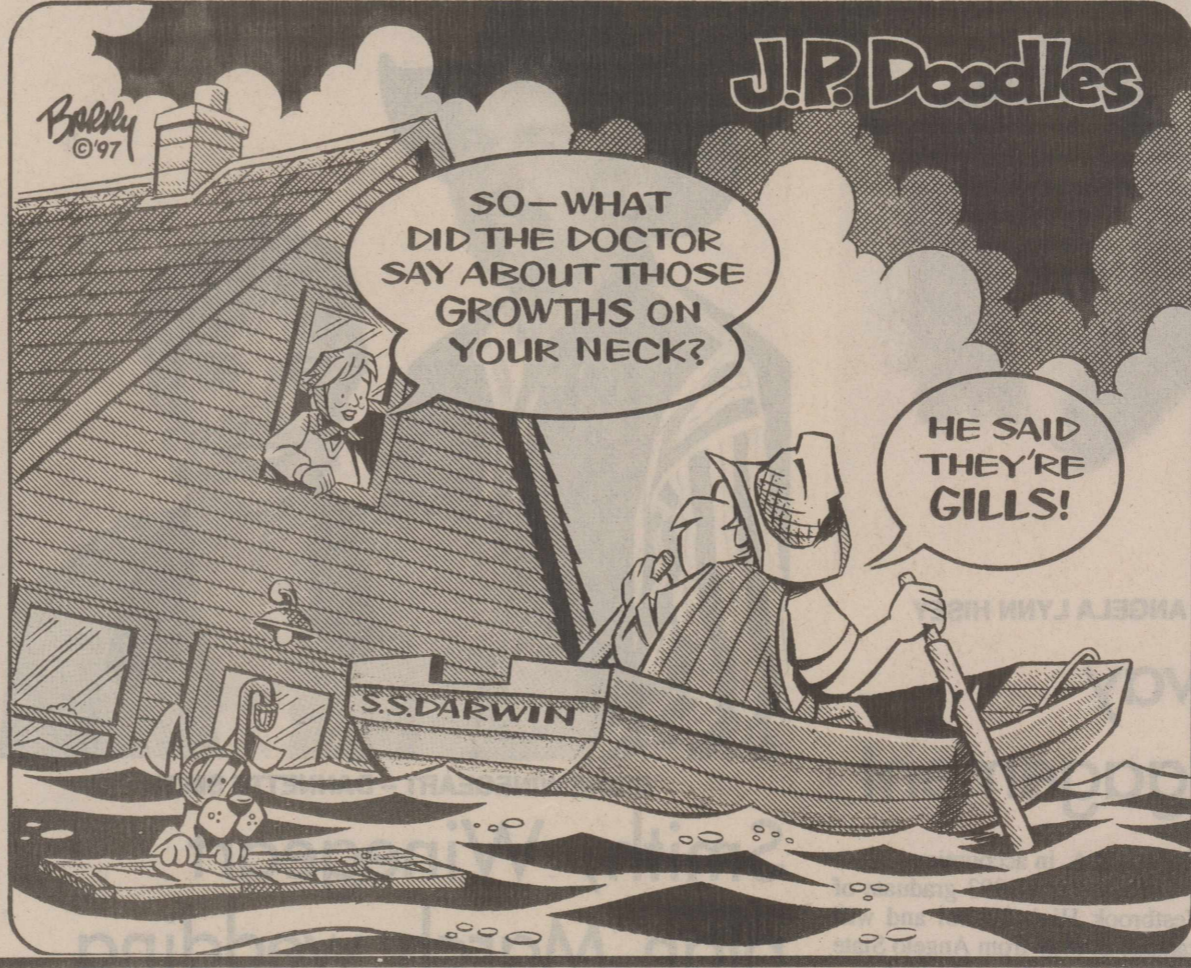

The bill would expand the list of items welfare recipients can buy with their monthly welfare checks. But it also would make it impossible for recipients to get cash with the Lone Star Card.

"If the recipients could not get cash with the card," Hilderbran said, "they could not use their money to buy cigarettes or alcohol."

Other Capital Highlights

State Sen. Drew Nixon, R-Carthage, was charged last week with soliciting prostitution on Austin's South Congress Avenue after police said he offered an undercover officer $35 to have sex. Nixon was one of 82 people arrested in one day, as part of a sting operation. Nixon spent one night in jail and was released on $750 bail.

Agents from the Internal Revenue Service Seized the Austin home of prominent atheist Madalyn Murray O'Hair and loaded two moving vans with her furniture and other possessions. O'Hair disappeared 18 months ago, leaving more than $260,000 in unpaid federal taxes.

Texas Senate Review

On Mon., Feb. 17, the Texas Senate honored long time Congressman Kika de la Garza who after 44 years of representing Texas and South Texas retired from the United States Congress.

Congressman de la Garza served in the Texas House of Representatives for 11 years and the US Congress for 32 years. As chairman of the Agricultural committee, he was the first Hispanic to chair a major congressional committee and was the longest serving chairman of that committee. "The Rio Grande Valley and Texas are both very proud of their native son," said Senator Eddie Lucio of Brownsville, author of the resolution. "I guess we can sum it all up in his long and distinguished career by saying, Kika de la Garza has been a bridge builder of opportunities for so many, in education, health care, and economic development."

In other Senate activity, Dallas Sen. John Carona sponsored Senate Bill (SB) 231 which excludes any convicted felon from having their name listed for possible jury duty.

Laredo Sen. Judith Zaffirini sponsored SB 264 and SB 305. SB 264 deals with the adoption of procedures for an advisory committee to review treatment methods for persons with mental illness. SB 305 changes the structure and composition of the interagency council on early childhood intervention. All three bills passed without objection and now head to the House of Representatives.

Also sponsored by Sen. Brown was SB 329. This legislation makes it a criminal offense to intentionally give false information to a peace officer or to any law enforcement personnel conducting an investigation. Both bills were passed by the Senate.

In a touching memorial to the life of a "true Texas hero", a concurrent resolution was passed by the Texas Senate on Wed., Feb. 19. Senate Concurrent Resolution (SCR) 26 commemorated the life of Pam Lychner, a courageous, spirited woman who founded the criminal justice reform organization, Justice for All. "I have repeatedly said in public that I can't think of any one person that has had a greater impact in improving the criminal justice system, particularly as it relates to crime victims, than Pam," said Sen. John Whitmire of Houston, author of the resolution Lychner and her two daughters were victims of the TWA flight 800 crash in July of 1996. The Senate adjourned in her memory that day.

Sen. Judith Zaffirini of Laredo sponsored SB 280. The bill insures that teachers and librarians receive Texas public schools credit for out of state or private school teaching. This legislation constructs a set of guidelines that specify what is considered a year of experience for salary purposes in order to insure that these educators receive an adequate salary.

Finally on Thurs., Feb. 20, Senator Rodney Ellis of Houston sponsored SB 266, a bill that establishes the Capital Access Program. The bill makes it possible for financial institutions to make loans to small and medium-sized businesses and to nonprofit organizations. The loans would be secured by the Texas Department of Commerce. The bill was passed unanimously by the Senate.

High school recruits sought for Bobwhite Brigade summer camps

The Bobwhite Brigade is seeking 30 top high school recruits for its next two quail camps this summer. The camps are at the Crooked River Lodge near Abilene, June 22-26, and the Pineywoods Conservation Center near Lufkin, July 27-31. Both offer a hands-on learning experience for Texas youth interested in the outdoors.

Each camp offers a 4-day curriculum designed to make quail experts of its members. Cadets are given intensive training on quail biology and management by leading Texas wildlife scientists. After graduation, each member is expected to present educational programs in his or her home county.

Camp graduates consistently rate the Brigade as the best youth camp they've ever attended, said Dr. Dale Rollins, San Angelo-based extension wildlife specialist and originator of the Bobwhite Brigade concept.

Most return home from the hardest week of work they've ever seen through, then work through the coming year for the chance to return as assistant counselors.

Rollins said no matter what the cadets future profession choice is, it's important that they develop the ability to think, plan, and present their ideas to others. A major component of the Brigade involves developing the communication skills necessary to tell others about wildlife conservation and management. To that end, cadets are taught to write news releases, present educational programs, and to present themselves on television and radio.

Though the Texas Agricultural Extension Service is a major camp sponsor, applicants are not limited to Extension's 4-H youth program. Any high school age student with at least a B grade average is eligible.

Prospective applicants should contact their local county extension office for the necessary paperwork or write: Bobwhite Brigade, TAEX, 7887 US Highway 17 North, San Angelo, Texas 76901-9714. Applications also may be obtained via the Internet by contacting Dr. Rollins at drollins@tam.u.edu. Additional information on the Bobwhite Brigade is available on the World Wide Web at

Student in the News

Named to the Dean's List for the fall, 1996 semester at Western Texas College in Snyder was Colin Joweth of Haskell. To be honored, students must have a 3.5 or better grade point average and take at least 15 hours of course work.

<http://texnat.tamu.edu/specpgms/bwbrigad/bwbmain/htm>. All applications must be postmarked no later than April 1. All applicants will be evaluated by a steering committee in early April. The committee will select 30 cadets and two alternates for each of the two camps. Successful applicants will be notified soon after the selection process.

Camp tuition is $200 per cadet. The cost covers meals lodging and supplies. Cadets are encouraged to solicit all or part of the tuition fee from their local Soil and Water Conservation District, bank, civic group, or conservation organization. The Bobwhite Brigade will help locate sponsors if requested.

Major camp sponsors include: Quail Unlimited, Texas

Agricultural Extension Service, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, and USDA Natural Resource Conservation Service.

Free water testing offered March 10-14

About 95% of this country's rural residents use ground water to supply their drinking water and homestead needs. Wells should be designed to provide clean water. If improperly constructed or maintained, however, they can allow bacteria, pesticides, fertilizer or oil products to contaminate ground water. These contaminants can put family and animal health at risk.

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Natural Resources Conservation Service will be sponsoring free water tests for bacteria at the Seymour Aquifer Project in Haskell.

The water samples will be taken the week of March 10-14. Seymour Aquifer employees will come to your home to take the sample to reduce the chance of cross contamination of the water sample.

If you are interested in having your house well tested for bacterial contamination please call the Seymour Aquifer Project office at (817) 864-3583 or 864-3334.

Irby accepts position at FBC, Brownwood

Paul Irby resigned this last Sun., Feb. 23, as youth minister at East Side Baptist Church. Irby has served in Haskell since Aug. of 1992. He has accepted a position as the Minister to Students at First Baptist Church, Brownwood. His main responsibilities will include the coordination of ministry activities involving teenagers and their families as well as ministry with University students. The Irbys last Sun. in Haskell will be March 2.

Paul, his wife Laurie, and daughter Ashton leave Haskell with bitter sweet feelings. They look forward to the new possibilities at Brownwood but have strong emotional ties here in Haskell. Laurie has been a kindergarten teacher in the Haskell CISD since the fall of 1993 and has worked as the cheerleader sponsor for the last 3 years. Her parents, Jerry and Wanda Hester, reside in Weinert and work in Haskell. The Irbys look forward to a continued relationship with all the people they have grown to love in Haskell.

East Side Baptist Church will host a city-wide reception in honor of the Irbys from 2:00-3:00 p.m. on March 2 in the Fellowship Hall of East Side Baptist Church. The public is invited to attend.

This Week's Devotional Message: FAITH EXPLAINS THE MEANING OF KNOWLEDGE AND WISDOM

On the surface, many words in our language seem to convey the same meaning, and yet there is often a subtle distinction between their exact definitions. A good example of this is the difference between knowledge and wisdom. Knowledge is mainly the accumulation of facts, figures or whatever; whereas a major function of wisdom is to provide a restraining influence upon our rash impulses, by pointing out the disadvantages of which we would not otherwise have been aware. Throughout the Bible are many statements that clarify this subtle difference, and the wisdom gained at the Church of your choice will show you when it is safe to proceed, and when to apply the brakes to your impulsive actions; thereby preventing disastrous results that without the benefit of wisdom would have been inevitable.

Food for thought

"At that time Jesus answered"
Matthew 11:25

This is a singular way in which to commence a verse—"At that time Jesus answered." If you will look at the context you will not perceive that any person had asked Him a question, or that He was in conversation with any human being. Yet it is written, "Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father."

When a man answers, he answers a person who has been speaking to him. Who, then, had spoken to Christ? His Father. Yet there is no record of it; and this should teach us that Jesus had constant fellowship with His Father, and that God spake into His heart so often, so continually, that it was not a circumstance singular enough to be recorded. It was the habit and life of Jesus to talk with God.

Even as Jesus was, in this world, so are we; let us therefore learn the lesson which this simple statement concerning Him teaches us. May we likewise have silent fellowship with the Father, so that often we may answer Him, and though the world wotteth not to whom we speak, may we be responding to that secret voice unheard of any other ear, which our own ear, opened by the Spirit of God has convinces us, or to acknowledge the mercy which God's providence has given, or to express assent to the great truths which God the Holy Ghost has opened to our understanding.

What a privilege is intimate communion with the Father of our spirits! It is a secret hidden from the world, a joy with which even the nearest friend intermeddeth not. If we would hear the whispers of God's love, our ear must be purged and fitted to listen to His voice. This very evening may our hearts be in such a state, that when God speaks to us, we, like Jesus, may be prepared at once to answer Him.

Johnson attends National Silver-Haired Congress

Franciene Johnson of Haskell has returned from the National Silver-Haired Congress held in Washington, D. C. Feb. 8-14. The Congress was in its first inaugural session after being enacted by Congress in 1994.

Among the resolutions passed during the Congress was one that was written and introduced by Mrs. Johnson.

The resolution concerned ensuring rapid access for senior citizens to new pharmaceutical technology by lowering the cost of prescription drugs. The resolution states that currently drug manufacturers offer large price discounts to non-community pharmacies, hospitals, HMOs and mail order services. These discounts from the higher charges because of fixed incomes, lack of prescription coverage and inability to purchase drugs from sources other than their are not offered to local community retail pharmacies.

Johnson's resolution emphasized the fact that the elderly suffer most local community pharmacies.

The Silvered-Haired Congress passed the resolution requiring drug manufacturers to offer the same discounts to all purchasers on the same terms, thus easing the burden on the elderly, the poor and the uninsured.

We are reminded of the old gospel hymn this week as we receive the Showers of Blessing. At the time of this writing, Friday morning, almost three inches of rain have fallen and it's still raining. How thankful we are for the wonderful rain with no flooding or tornadoes.

Jill Brown and her Lady Bobcats of Rule are to be congratulated upon winning the District Championship in basketball. They played well during the season and worked hard to accomplish this feat. Sagerton girls playing on the team were Stephanie and Michelle Stegemoeller and Jennifer Lehrmann. The boys from Sagerton who played on the Rule team were Michael and Jeremy Hertel and Brian Lehrmann. We're proud of all of our students. Congratulations to Jennifer Lehrmann for being selected best all around player in District basketball.

Bob and Alice Gasterby visited with Pastor and Marie Zell last weekend. Mrs. Gasterby is an Aunt of Pastor Zell.

Michelle Stegemoeller won 5th place at the pig show in San Antonio last weekend, making the sale with her York medium-weight

fig. She was the only entry from Haskell County qualifying for the sale. A large contingent from here will be going to the Stock Show in Houston and reports of any winnings will be forthcoming. The Clayton Stegemoeller, Steven Lehrmann and Johnny Manske families will be involved in this show. We wish them well.

Stephanie Stegemoeller, daughter of Clayton and Paula was in Lubbock recently to compete in a computer science competition. She won first place and made the highest small school score in the competition. Last weekend she and Jennifer Lehrmann, daughter of Steven and Karen entered a computer programming contest in Abilene. They each headed a team of three with Stephanie's team placing third and Jennifer's team placing 5th. Congratulations, girls!

Members of the Methodist Church met Wed. night for their regular monthly supper, featuring a Mexican pileup. Members present were Delbert and Joyce LeFevre, Jack and Peggy Tabor, Alvin and Ev Ulmer, G.W. and Ophelia LeFevre, Andrea Kitley, Frances Clark, Hazel Letz, Johnny and Sue Guinn, Charles and Dorothy Clark and the Pastor, Daniel Ramey Robin and Matthew. Pastor Jeff Zell and Marie from Faith Lutheran were guests.

The Friendship Club met at Faith Lutheran Church Thurs. noon for their regular monthly fellowship. The Happy Birthday Song was sung for Clay and J.B. Toney. Those enjoying the hearty meal and fellowship were Delbert and Joyce LeFevre, J.B. and Dorothy Toney, Minnie Monse Isabell Mrazek, Alvin and Ev Ulmer, Ed Fouts, Michelle and Clay Toney, Leona Schonstedt, Larry LeFevre, Joe and Dorothy Clark, Bubba Mrazek, Arndud Arias Romo, Gasstavo Arias Romo, Frances Clark and Pastor Zell.

Nineteen men enjoyed breakfast and early morning fellowship at Faith Lutheran Church Friday morning. Marvin Stegemoeller of Rochester, Marchel Nauert of Aspermont and Lewis Corzine were the cooks for the day.

Everyone is reminded of the first performance of the U.I.L. one act play of Rule High School to be given at the Haskell Civic Center on March 3 beginning at 6:00 p.m. Other schools from Haskell County to perform are Haskell, Pain Creek, and Rochester. The Ruler play this year is Little Women with Stephanie and Michell Stegemoeller in it.

The monthly community meeting and supper will be held at the community center on Tuesday night, March 4 at 6:00 p.m. The meal will feature a potato bake and ladies of the community are asked to bring a dessert. It would be a good idea to call in a reservation to Dorothy and Joe Clark so that adequate, but not over abundant food can be prepared. We'll look for you on the first Tues. night of March.

GENEVA ANN MCNIEL

McNiel to participate in program

Geneva Ann McNiel, a 12 year old sixth grader at Reynolds Elementary in Stamford, was chosen to participate in the Miss National Pre-Teen Achievement Program in Waco April 14-16. McNiel is an honor roll student.

She lives in Stamford with her grandmother, Geneva T. McNiel, and sister, Debra. She is the daughter of the late Evelyn McNiel and LeRoy Diaz of Richwood. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Gabino Diaz of Haskell.

The program is designed to recognize outstanding young ladies ages 9-12 who are good students and to encourage them to pursue their education and career goals.

During the two-day event, candidates participate in rehearsals and make friends with girls from all over the state. They are judged on academics, achievements, poise, personality and communication skills.

Living history to echo through Copper Breaks Park March 1-2

Musket volleys and artillery fire will shatter the quiet at Copper Breaks State Park as costumed reenactors bring to life a military camp on the Texas frontier during the Civil War. The living history campsite program will feature camp life, drills, and maneuvers, equipment displays, and live fire demonstrations, from 1 p.m. Sat., March 1 until dark, and begin Sun. morning, March 2, until noon.

In addition to the living history on Sat., park ranger Bob Hopkins will demonstrate flintknapping, the ancient art of making stone tools, at 7 p.m. in the park's outdoor amphitheater.

From buttons to bullets, the smallest detail of the costumes, tents, camp tools, and other elements will reflect the materials used by Civil War-era soldiers. Visitors to the park will witness a detachment of the 5th Texas Company A Partisan Rangers, Provost Marshalls from Vernon and a detachment of the Confederate States of America Signal Corps from Wichita Falls as they set up camp, discuss their equipment, and demonstrate their weapons.

All campsite program activities are free with regular park admission of $2 for adults and $1 for senior citizens. Children 12 and under are admitted free. Special rates are available for groups.

American Heart Association offers exercise tips for seniors

These exercise tips for older Americans are offered by the American Heart Association:

If you have a family history of heart disease, check with your doctor first. It's a good idea to have a physical examination and take a graded exercise test before you start an exercise program.

Pick rhythmic, repetitive activities that challenge the circulatory system and exercise at an intensity appropriate for you.

Pick activities that are fun, that suit your needs and that you can do year-round. Wear comfortable clothing and footwear appropriate for the temperature, humidity and activity.

If you decide that walking is a great activity for you, choose a place that has a smooth, soft surface; that does not intersect with traffic; is well-lighted and safe. Many older Americans walk at area shopping malls.

Find a companion to exercise with you if it will help you stay on a regular schedule and add to your enjoyment. Because muscular adaptation and elasticity is generally slowed with age, take more time to warm up and cool down while exercising. Make sure you stretch slowly.

Start exercising at a low intensity, especially if you have been mostly sedentary, and progress gradually.

If you plan to be active more than 30 minutes, then try to drink some water every 15 minutes, especially when exercising in hot, humid conditions. As you age, your sense of thirst tends to decrease and you can't completely rely on your internal sense of thirst.

Annual Spring Fling set during April

Experience spring and nature at it's best this year "Deep in the Heart of Texas". That's what folks 50 and over will be doing at the Texas 4-H Center on Lake Brownwood when several hundred will enjoy the annual Spring Fling during April says Lou Gilly, Haskell County Extension Agent—Family & Consumer Sciences.

Sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, two weeks are offered from which men and women alike may choose: Spring Fling I—April 8-11, Spring Fling II—April 15-18.

Opportunities include "hands-on" learning centers where one can learn leather working, oil painting, woodworking, stained glass and other exciting projects. Educational programs on topics such as horticulture, photography, nutrition, finances and other current interests are a popular highlight.

Boat rides (weather permitting) and fishing on Lake Brownwood add popularity to your stay. Lighted tennis courts, horseshoes, billiards, volleyball, shuffleboard, dominoes, and card and table games are all popular activities.

A special "Put Some 'Spring' in your Step" theme featuring a costume contest (utilizing flowers) on Thursday afternoon will provide a festive atmosphere to the event. Thursday's theme party will feature some exciting activities and entertainment.

Spring Fling '97! Are you 50 or older? Then its for you! Each week is limited to 165 participants at a nominal fee. Get away and learn to make the most of the best years of your life. Call your county Extension office today at either 817-864-2658 or 864-2546.

Comedy attends archery camp

Jennifer Comedy of Texas A&M University, Bryan, was one of 19 top intercollegiate archers attending the annual College All-American Camp during the week of Jan. 6-10. The camp is held at the United States Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, CO. Camp participants represented eight National Archery Association College Club programs.

During the week, the All-Americans devoted time to strength conditioning, physiology testing, biomechanics, EMG biofeedback and heart monitoring, high-speed videos and equipment tuning. They attended lectures on sports psychology, injury prevention, nutrition, stress management, mental focus and the FITA Olympic Round (F.O.R.)

Three of the camp participants came directly from the World Indoor Trials in Salt Lake City, UT, where they qualified to represent the United States in this year's World Indoor Championships in Istanbul, Turkey...Lori Mitchell (Arizona State University); Jo Malahy (James Madison University); and Shane Parker (North Carolina State University.)

Comedy is the daughter of Don and Nene Comedy of Haskell.
