

Mr. Muleshoe . . .

By J. M. FORBES

Since you last heard from me: They have named the Muleshoe celebration the Will Rogers Memorial Roundup and I hold it to be appropriate since Will, who was one of the most loved Americans who ever lived, spent a lot of time around Muleshoe during his life.

And it is not only appropriate but it seems to be meeting with favor from every quarter, never has a similar event received so much complimentary mention from so many sources. Any people who honor the memory of Will Rogers do honor unto themselves, likewise.

And since you heard from me they have hired Al Hall to run the Chamber of Commerce. The men of Muleshoe just couldn't rest until they hired a full time manager and I challenge any man to say he's rested since Al has been here. Now, heah, suh, us local people are used to a little leisure, suh. This is down south and we ain't used to be jumping from one meeting right into another without no rest in between, especially in hot weather. Well, Al will get an idea right in the middle of a cup of coffee and bounce his listeners right out to executing it.

By the way, they have that Will Rogers film here now and if I were YOU, why I'd make arrangements to see it. It's worth going miles and miles to see and you can see it here, for free, and with little effort. Do see it, while it's here.

Will be back in a minute, must run to a committee meeting: Al has a new idea.

And during the time the dratted printers have been leaving my highly readable stuff out of the paper, the oil situation has changed swiftly and anyone who would have the temerity to stand up and say Bailey County will never be an oil field has more temerity than I have. There are several little straws in the wind in this week's paper that I venture to say you ought to read. Remember, one well is approaching a depth where if there is pay dirt it will be struck soon, and other developments are in the air. More ventures may be tried before 1951 fades into history. Where there's smoke, there's fire; and where hard headed business men spend money, they expect to get some back, for which piece of logic you don't owe the paper anything extra.

This writer, who has been compared by the unthinking to the absent minded professor, has always driven a two door car. Now he has a 4 door and invariably grabs the back door handle when he wants the front door handle. Tother morning he went even further and got into the back seat, prepared to drive hastily away to the office. He leaped out and looked all around to see which neighbors were looking.

The incident, however, reminded a lady relative that she was forever putting the bowl of sugar into the refrigerator when clearing things away in the kitchen.

Am sure that if I only had time I could think up something more interesting to write than the above, but, excuse me, Mr. Hall just phoned and said this time it was a joint meeting of three committees and would I like to sit in and I know I won't get back in time to write any more for this week's paper, so I'll see you next week, right after the committee meeting.

Well, Al, a little kidding, but what Muleshoe has needed for a long, long time, is a bigger and better Chamber of Commerce, a manager like you, who has enthusiasm and ideas, and knows how to get men and women to work at improving their community.

So here's to more and better committee meetings!

Memory Of War Dead To Be Honored In Service During Roundup

REV. GADDY

Progress Begins Revival Sunday

Rev. C. C. Morgan, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Progress announces a revival meeting beginning Sunday, August 24. The meeting will continue through September 2.

Rev. Jerrel Gaddy, pastor of the Kinney Ave. Baptist Church, Austin, will be the evangelist. Services will be held daily at 11:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Kelley Magnolia Consignee Here

J. W. Kelly, recently of Borger, is the new consignee for the Magnolia Petroleum Company in Muleshoe. Auditors were to be here today to complete transfer of the dealership from E. J. Smith to Mr. Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly have moved here to make their home. She will be associated with him in the office and in the conduct of the business. Mr. Kelly has had a long experience in this work.

The Smiths are moving to Lubbock and he will be associated with an automobile agency there. They expressed keen regret at moving away from Muleshoe, since they have made many friends here in the months they resided in Muleshoe.

A memorial service for those men who lost their lives in World War II or in the Korean conflict will be held here during the Will Rogers Memorial Roundup under auspices of Ben Richardson Post American Legion, of Muleshoe. Members of the Post arranged details of the service at their meeting Tuesday night.

The service will be held at the conclusion of the first rodeo performance, Thursday night, August 30.

A lighted device will be employed and it is said to be very effective in the service to honor the memory of the dead. A firing squad will fire a salute and taps will sound during the ceremony.

Randy Johnson, commander, said the Post is anxious that names of all who lost their lives shall be honored, and to this end he urged that parents or other near relatives of those who died in these conflicts supply information. Every effort will be made to obtain the names of each person who gave his life.

The Post hopes that relatives of each man will attend the service. It is requested that names be turned in to Mr. Johnson at the Goodrich Store.

Johnson To Head Legion Post

Randolph Johnson was elected commander of Ben Richardson Post, American Legion, of Muleshoe at the annual election of officers held Tuesday night in the Legion Home.

Other officers chosen are: 1st vice-commander, Martin Oliver; second vice-commander, Dee Brown; adjutant, A. S. Stovall; finance officer, Rudolph Wiede-bush; chaplain, O. E. Bowman; service officer, Homer S. Sanders, Jr.; and sergeant-at-arms, Sikie Watkins.

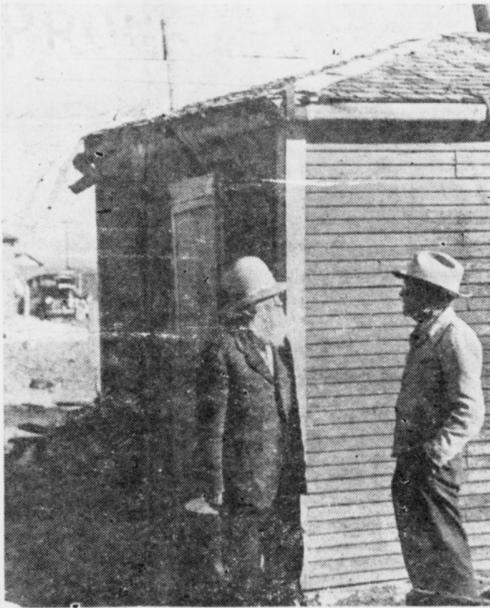

Members of the house committee are Woodie Lambert, Harold Newsom, Robert Prather, and Buddie Blackman.

The Post planned its float for the parade which will be a big feature of the coming Will Rogers Memorial Roundup. The Legion entry will feature a casket reprieve, accompanied by uniformed firing squad, and bugler.

To Have Queen Candidate
Members of the Legion also voted to enter a candidate for Roundup Queen.

BATTERED AND BRUISED BODY of Joshua Blocher was found Wednesday afternoon about 2 o'clock on the Harold Mardis farm 11 miles southwest of Muleshoe in a cotton field. The body was lying on its right side facing the road just behind the first row of cotton. His clothes were tattered and torn and he was barefooted. He had been missing since Saturday night or early Sunday morning.

"UNCLE JOSH" AND A. P. STONE — Pictured talking in front of his one room shanty at Progress is Joshua Blocher and A. P. Stone. Josh, with his long white beard, was a familiar sight along the highways to many motorists. Josh made several trips to Muleshoe each week.

ONE ROOM SHANTY where Blocher had lived in Progress number of years. Note the pile of debris around the cabin which had been collected over a period of years. The chimney is leaning to one side and the sign, "This Is Progress" has almost faded from the board fastened to the front of the cabin. (Photos by the Muleshoe Journal)

Body Discovered Wednesday 11 Miles Northwest Of Muleshoe

The bruised and battered body of Joshua Blocher, known to many of Bailey County as "Uncle Josh", was found about 2 p. m. Wednesday afternoon in a cotton field on the Harold Mardis farm about 11 miles northwest of Muleshoe. The body was discovered by Cecil and Clifford Mardis as they were driving along the road on a tractor returning to their home from an irrigation well on the farm.

He was lying on his right side between the first and second rows of cotton from the road. His clothes were tattered and torn and his shirt was covered with dried blood. His shoes were missing and one shoe was found a few feet from the body.

Late Wednesday night the Bailey County Sheriff's department composed of Sheriff Hugh Freeman and Deputies Bill Boothe and Garland Freeman were pushing an intensive investigation. They are being assisted by Capt Raymond Waters, and "Razz" Renfro, Texas Rangers from Lubbock. Clues of the slayer were very few.

Two sets of footprints were found leading from the road across the barnditch and to the spot where Josh's body was discovered. One set of prints was larger than the other. Investigating officers this week found $190 in small bills concealed in fruit jars in his one-room shack. Authorities, however, believe that he did not have a great amount of money as his only means of livelihood was from income received from a small amount of rent property and from the sale of lots in the town which he platted almost fifty years ago.

At an autopsy performed last night, Dr. L. T. Green determined that death was caused from shock and exposure after he had been beaten about the head with a sharp instrument and tossed in the cotton field. He had three gashes cut in his scalp from blows which caused concussion. He had two cuts on his shoulder at the base of his neck. One was one and one-half inches long and the other was about two inches long. Exact time of his death has not been determined.

An intensive search, spreading into New Mexico, has been held for Blocher since he was discovered missing Sunday morning. Monday a number of volunteers who were acquainted with him began the search and as the day wore on the theory that the slight grey-bearded semi-recluse might have met with foul play began to gain ground among the searchers.

It is also believed that Blocher was alive when he was left in the field. This was substantiated by the elder Mardis who said the man had apparently thrashed about and knocked down cotton stalks. He may have crawled far as eight feet, Mardis said.

At the inquest Justice of the Peace, R. J. Klump returned a verdict of death from shock and exposure and said it was definitely a case of murder.

Thursday morning the sheriff's department continued their investigation of the clues in hopes of soon being able to apprehend the murderer of an old helpless and aged man who never harmed anyone.

HAD BEEN IN GOOD SPIRITS
Justice of the Peace Klump said after his verdict that Blocher had been in his office only a week ago and seemed in "good spirits" at the time.

It was not known whether Blocher's attackers got any money. Freeman said. The man's shoes were found about five feet from his body indicating Blocher may have been thoroughly searched for money. Tracks indicating a car had stopped on the road recently were found, the elder Mardis said.

Loyal Roberts of the Muleshoe Funeral Home said Wednesday night he believed Blocher had died before daybreak Tuesday. Only survivors were a niece and a brother in Kansas who had not been contacted late Wednesday night, he said. Blocher's whereabouts from late Saturday until his body was found had not been traced, officers said.

Blocher was reported to have derived support from property and rent houses in Progress, which is about midway between Muleshoe and Farwell near the Texas-New Mexico line. No other means of livelihood was known.

A widely held belief that the old man had secreted a considerable amount of money in his attracted robbers, searchers speculated. Officers denied that Blocher had much money but recalled that a little more than two years ago, he told of being attacked by "two fellers" who took $13 and a pocket knife from his pocket.

Blocher lived alone in a cluttered little cabin which sits less than 50 feet from US highways 70 and 84. The highways bisect the town which Blocher platted (Continued on Back Page)

Reese AFB Band To Lead Parade Aug. 30

Reese Air Force Base band will lead the parade Thursday afternoon, August 30, to inaugurate Muleshoe two-day Will Rogers Memorial Roundup and Cal Farley will address a joint meeting of service clubs of the city Thursday noon.

These two items stand out in the swiftly developing preparations for the big event, which, because of its name and the purpose behind that name, has been publicized by radio and press far and near over the Southwest.

Capt. L. Mankin, Reese public relations officer, readily promised the band when approached early this week.

Cal Farley is an outstanding speaker and an outstanding Panhandle citizen. Long a business man of Amarillo, Mr. Farley in recent years has devoted most of his time and lots of money to the development of the famed Boys Ranch. Invitation to him to speak here was extended by Earl Ladd, long time friend, on behalf of the city.

Arrange For 250 Dinners
Preparations are being made to feed around 250 persons at the all-service club luncheon, which will be staged at 12 noon in the American Legion Home. Many out of town dignitaries of Oklahoma, New Mexico, and Texas are being invited to be here that day and the luncheon will honor these visitors.

Representatives of press and radio are being invited.

Other developments came thick and fast:

The Roping Club redoubled its effort to present two high class performances, and to enlarge seating arrangements.

The parade committee continued to receive notice of intentions to enter floats.

Lion Oil Company Takes On A Big Oil Deal - Old VVN Ranch In Bailey

MIDLAND, Aug. 9 — Lion Oil Company, through its division office of Midland has taken oil and gas leases on a block of 33,716.15 acres in central-west Bailey County on the northwest side of the South Plains of west Texas.

The leases were taken from J. L. Birdwell of Lubbock, who owns the surface and one half of the minerals under the land, and from San Salvador Development Co. Inc. and the Caprock Minerals and Royalty Co., both of New York City. San Salvador and Caprock are affiliates of Stone and Webster of New York.

San Salvador owns four tenths of the minerals. Birdwell owns the other five tenths.

Lions contract with Birdwell calls for the company to pay him $1.00 per acre on the entire block for a seismograph shooting option on the property. The shooting must be completed within 10 months from July 20, 1951 when the seismograph work is completed. Lion has the right to designate three blocks, blocks A, B, and C; blocks A and B are to be of 10,000 acres each and block C is to cover the other 13,716.15 acres of the property. In order to hold the leases on the three (Continued on Back Page)

Babson Discusses

College Scholarships

Babson Park, Mass., Aug. 10. — I have recently received from a devoted father the copy of a letter which he wrote his son on graduation. In it he says:

LINCOLN VS. LAND
"Mother and I are proud of the record you have made in school and college, especially by your continued faith in God and constant association with the Church and the things it stands for. Now I have been thinking of what to give you as a graduation present. Mother wants me to give you a fine Lincoln Convertible car; but I just don't feel it is right to do so.

"Hence, instead of giving you the car, I am enclosing a deed to forty acres of good land worth three times the cost of the car. Land and labor are the basis of all wealth, especially in this day of inflation. Land is more desirable than money. Land will keep getting more valuable if you give it half the attention you would give a car. If you take care of your land, son, it will take care of you. I cannot object to your having a Lincoln, as I have two; but I earned the money with which I bought mine and I want you to do likewise."

PRESENT UNFAIR CONDITIONS
During the summer I have talked with several high school principals. They tell me that some of their highest and hardest working students have not the money to go to college. They can get partial scholarships, but unless they can live at home they just can't swing it. On the other hand, students who are much less deserving go to college with an automobile and a spending allowance.

Large corporations which send employment managers to colleges to hire the "best" would do far better to the high schools and set their students by their high school record and then help finance these students through college. These corporations are now doing their picking four years late!

Importance Of Summer Work
Of one thing I am certain, namely, that high school students use their summers of great importance. I have about come to the conclusion that I will employ only those who have worked every summer during high school and college. Those who have earned at least half their college tuition and board are to be preferred. The best young people to hire are those who have earned their entire way through college, with the help of scholarships and summer work.

Home Training Important
A person can do too much for his children or grandchildren. Unless a young person has learned to love work, something is wrong. It may have been careless school or home training, or giving the boy or girl too much money. Certainly more high school young people are harmed by having too much money, rather than too little money.

It is easier for a parent with money to say "yes" rather than refuse; but isn't this pure selfishness on the part of the parent or grandparent? Sometimes I think that families lacking money are more fortunate than those possessing it. Certainly this whole educational and home training problem is topsy-turvy.

Helping The Worthy
The best way to help young people is to give them opportunities to work and earn money. If they stick to the job or themselves find a better one then they will come out okay. I sometimes think a young person will do better in a job which he or she finds without family help. But idleness is dangerous to all concerned.

Next to giving young people good opportunities to work, perhaps the best way to help them is to say to the high school principal: "I want to help some worthy student who is anxious to go to college but who must help his family and hence thinks he can't do so." Let me add that I, myself, would like to help two or three such students who would immediately write me.

What About Trust Funds
I believe in Trust Funds for children and grandchildren; but they should serve as insurance in case of sickness, old-age or hard luck. They should not result in making it unnecessary for the beneficiary to work, save and be a useful citizen. The love of work is a blessing.

Instead of arranging for the young person to get all the income when 26 years of age, it may be better to make him co-trustee with the bank but to move the 26 years up to 40 years. Trustees, however, should have power to use part of the accumulated income to help in case of need.

NOTE:
I apologize for a mistake made in my release of July 6 on taxation. I should have said the Revenue Act of 1948 allows a marital deduction of 50 percent of the adjusted gross estate provided that much or more goes to the surviving spouse. This 50 percent would include life insurance which, although it passes by contract rather than by will, is now viewed by the Internal Revenue Bureau as being part of the decedent's estate for estate tax purposes when the insured has paid the premiums, owns the policies and the other prescribed requirements which I mentioned have been fulfilled. In other words, I understand that the $40,000 limitation has temporarily been removed.

BIG CARELESS WEED

Raymond Precure, farmer north of town, is given up to be one of the best careless weed growers in the county. Fibber McGee was showing one last week that he alleges came from the Precure farm. It filled a pickup and had a trunk larger than lots of folks' Chinese elm trees, and a heavy axe was used to fell it. Two hogs, not too large, could have eaten on this one weed for a week or two and there would still have been some leftovers. However, claims McGee, Mr. Precure has 1200 acres covered with weeds like this - McGee says that, not The Journal.

Under our capitalistic system, capital goes to work every morning expecting to be paid, just like the workers. I'll try again to explain it, but at the moment that's as clear as I can make it.

Doctor: "Well, nurse, how is the patient?"
Nurse: "I gave him the figs you ordered, doctor, but he keeps asking for dates."

SAND HILLS PHILOSOPHER

He Isn't Worried About Austerity For The U. S. He's Seen It Before

Editor's note: For this hot weather, the Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm is writing pretty seriously. It's the heat, no doubt.

Dear editor:

I was out here yesterday sitting around in the shade waiting for cooler weather, some people want to do something about the weather but I find waiting is the best plan, seems like it's been hotter this summer than it's ever been before, but I felt the same way about last summer and the summer before and will feel the same about next summer, and a little whirlwind not stirring up more air than the fourteenth candidate on a ticket for governor passed by and dropped a lot of trash near me, including a copy of the Muleshoe Journal and since I needed something to fan with I picked it up and after I got through fanning after decidin the amount of breeze I generated wasn't worth the effort it took, glanced over it and noticed an article sayin the United States is in for a period of austerity.

That is, with more and more been spent for defense, with more and more money goin for taxes to pay for it, with more controls loomin, etc., the American people may not be able to keep up prosperity indefinitely and harder times may arrive, the experts contend, addin that with all this soft livin we ben havin there's some doubt whether we could stand up to austerity.

Personally, I ain't worried. It's true this country has more comforts than any country on earth, but it's also true at one time we had the fewest, and neither condition has gotten the best of us. I know a few people right now who ain't got no bed of roses, and I know a lot who can remember nickel cotton and two-bit corn. There's one thing about Americans, they can stand hard times as well as prosperity, or prosperity as well as hard times, and I know people now who started out pretty prosperous but have wound up broke, but they seem to be gettin along about as well as anybody else, and I know some prosperous people now who, if the bottom should fall out, will fall out with it, carrying a few creditors along, but people who say Americans have ben ruined by soft livin just don't know Americans.

Why, I ben takin things easy out here for years and I got just as much strength of character as I started out with and about the same amount of money and, like the rest of the country, a few more debts.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Christ-Possessed Lives
"a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth." (Luke 12:15). Read Luke 12:13-21.

An American engineer was surveying the resources of an area of tropical Africa. He had lived for many weeks in the mud thatched huts of the natives. He had eaten from their three-legged rice pots, endured the smoke of the wood fire in the huts. He had slept upon a bamboo rod bed softened somewhat by rice straw and banana leaves. The natives were neither rich in gold nor rich in God.

When he returned to his own country, he commented to a friend that despite the fact that these natives did not worship God, the simplicity and crudeness their primitive life was not without its favorable side. He suggested that modern living based upon an abundance of things may be a disatisfying waste. Life does not consist in gathering piles of wealth or possessing power and comfort. Gadgets do not necessarily produce peace of mind.

Jesus said long ago, "A man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth", but in whether or not he is "rich toward God."

PRAYER

Almighty God, we know that our attention is centered in what possesses us. Grant that we may center our hearts and minds upon Thee, the Creator and Redeemer of life. Teach us to love Thee to the end that we may prove rich toward Thee. We ask this in the name and spirit of our blessed Christ. Amen.

Watermelon Rind Preserves

Watermelons are in plentiful supply in most parts of Texas. They are so luscious looking and so good when they are red ripe and cold. Since watermelon cannot be frozen very satisfactorily and if you want to preserve some for future use, it may be done by making watermelon rind preserves.

Select melons which have a thick rind. Trim off the outer green skin and the pink flesh, and use only the greenish white parts of the rind. Cut the rind into one-half or one inch cubes and weigh. Then soak the cubes for three and one-half hours in lime water (2 quarts water and 2 tablespoons lime-calcium oxide.) Next, drain and place the cubes in clear water for one hour. Again, drain off the water and boil for one and one-half hours after fresh water has been added. Then drain.

For each pound of watermelon rind (weight before soaking) use one pound of sugar (2 cups) and one quart of water. Make a syrup, then add the rind and boil for one hour. As the syrup thickens add one-half lemon thinly sliced for each pound of fruit.

When the syrup begins to thicken and when the melon is clear, the preserves are ready for the jars. Pack the preserves into hot sterilized jars, add enough syrup to cover the preserves and seal.

Watermelon preserves have a tasty flavor and can be used for sandwich spread, to add taste to salads, or go with the breakfast toast.

The Child From One To Six
"How old is the baby?"

"He's nearly a year old, and before you know it he won't be a baby any more. I hate to see him grow up."

Mothers and fathers who talk like this do not realize how important to the child's future is the growing up that he does between the first birthday and the sixth. They may have to give the baby the best of care and the older children the best of schooling, but they do not understand

Osborn Elected Director Of Water District Board, Election Scheduled

Following a hearing at Plainview Thursday, the State Board of Water Engineers unanimously ordered an election at which people of the High Plains of Texas will vote whether they want to regulate water under their land.

A temporary board of directors was named to serve until the election, when the residents of the 21-county 10,649,17 square mile area vote on creation of the district and name a board of directors.

W. O. Fortenberry of New Deal Lubbock county, led the proponents of the district. He is president of the High Plains Water Users and Conservation association. His group submitted to the Board of Engineers the names of five men to serve as temporary directors.

Appointed were E. C. Hatton, Lubbock; A. C. Chesher, Littlefield; Jesse Osborn, Muleshoe; Tom McFarland, Hereford; and Tom Bostic, Plainview.

Date for the election will be set later. Eligible to vote are residents who have rendered property.

The vote will be on a district wide basis with the decision based on a local option basis. In other words, the total vote over the entire district will determine if by a simple majority such a district will be set up, but if a municipality should vote opposite to the county in which it was situated then that municipality would not participate in the district or vice versa.

The district would cover all or portions of these counties: Armstrong, Bailey, Briscoe, Castro, Cochran, Crosby, Deaf Smith, Dickens, Floyd, Garza, Hale, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Swisher, and Terry.

The proposed district would include all of Hockley county with the exception of an area in the northwestern part and another in the southwestern part.

Under the powers granted by a legislative act, the district could make and enforce rules for the conservation and recharging of underground water;

Make and enforce rules to prevent waste of the underground water.

Require spacing of wells;

Require records of wells;

Acquire lands for erection of dams and install pumps and equipment necessary to recharge the underground reservoir;

Enforce its rules by injunction secured in court.

The district is authorized to levy a tax, not to exceed 50 cents on the $100 valuation. Such evaluation would be on existing county records.

Fortenberry said creation of the district would bring no "burdensome tax".

Roosevelt Co. Fair Has Full Time Manager

The Roosevelt County Fair to be held in Portales the last week in September, has a full time manager this year, according to Ray Bonner, president of the association.

The manager is Franklin Reynolds, who recently resigned as editor of the County Wide News at Littlefield, to return to his New Mexico home. He has already entered upon his duties as fair manager, Bonner said.

This year for the first time, Bonner announced, a division for sheep has been included in the program, with J. R. Schlenker as superintendent.

Other livestock divisions include those for dairy cattle beef cattle, an all-breeds horse show, swine, poultry and rabbits.

W. G. Vinzant, county agent and fair secretary, said that 4-H and FFA members from over the entire West Texas and Eastern New Mexico areas may enter their hogs and calves in the junior livestock department, but that these animals may be sold through the sale which follows, since this sale is limited to the entries of the Roosevelt county boys and girls. Vinzant explained, however, that the boys and girls from outside the county may use the facilities of the fair to sell their animals at private treaty.

A carnival has been contracted for the fair, Bonner said.

Fair week in Portales is also the week for the amateur rodeo sponsored annually by the Mounted Patrol of which Hubert Hatch is captain. This rodeo is held at the fair grounds arena.

The Roosevelt County Fair has long been recognized as having the best dairy show in New Mexico, and this year Reynolds said he expects this department to be far superior to any previous year. Ben McAllister is superintendent of the dairy cattle.

Buchanan, formerly county agent in Bosque county, assumed duties with the Farm Bureau on July 15 and is presently meeting with the boards of directors in the 40 counties of his area. Buchanan will make his headquarters at Lamesa.

Marvin Carter, director of organization for Texas Farm Bureau Federation, in assigning Buchanan to this area, stated that the organization was adding four additional fieldmen to its staff this month. The state will be divided into seven areas. Buchanan's territory has 20 organized counties, with a membership last year of 7,545. The 40 counties comprising his area are: Bailey, Borden, Castro, Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Floyd, Gaines, Garza, Hale, Hockley, Lamb, Lynn, Lubbock, Parmer, Swisher, Terry, Yoakum, Andrews, Brewster, Crane, Crockett, Culberson, Ector, El Paso, Glass-

Longhorn Leatherneck Platoon— Again the United States Marine Corps is offering the men of Texas the opportunity of enlisting as a group. As their forerunners the North Texas Marine Recruit Company pictured above, this select group of Texans will enlist together, train together, and return home on leave together. The group to be known as the "LONGHORN LEATHERNECK PLATOON" will be limited to seventy-five men, and will depart from Dallas on the 24th of August.

Marine Corps To Form Longhorn
Leatherneck Platoon Of Texas Recruits

DALLAS, TEXAS —Major E. L. Bale, Jr., Officer in Charge of the Dallas Marine Recruiting Office, has announced that the Marines are again offering young Texans an opportunity to enlist in the Marines as a group, with the formation of the LONGHORN Leatherneck Recruit Platoon.

The Longhorn Leatherneck Platoon will be composed entirely of Texans, who will enlist together, travel together, train together, and return home on leave together.

Unlike its forerunner the North Texas Marine Recruit Company, the Longhorn Leatherneck Platoon will be restricted to 75 men. "Young men who meet the exacting requirements for service with the Marines may apply for enlistment with the Longhorn Leathernecks", the Major said. "However, men with previous Marine Corps service are not eligible, because they are not required to undergo marine recruit training again," he added.

The group will be sworn-in, in Dallas on the 24th of August, and will be transferred to the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, California the same evening.

"Because of the limited size of the Longhorn Leatherneck Platoon, interested young men are advised to apply immediately, in order to assure themselves a place in the platoon," Major Bale pointed out.

Residents of Muleshoe may apply for enlistment with the Longhorn Leathernecks at the Marine Corps Recruiting Office located at room 200 Post Office Building, Lubbock.

Bailey County Oil Situation Gets Attention Of Section Wide Press

The developments in the Bailey County search for oil has attracted widespread attention in recent days. The following lines written by the oil editor of The Lubbock Avalanche are interesting to local people:

Several recent developments in the South Plains oil picture warrant mentioning:

Most spectacular, but only time will determine the importance, is the shooting option on the J. L. Birdwell ranch of west-central Bailey county taken by Lion Oil company.

Lion must spend $50,000 on geophysical work on the 33,716-acre block and begin a wildcat within the next 12 months.

Bailey county still is virgin oil country, with only a few deep wildcats having tested through the entire prospective pay zones. A number of other seismograph crews are reported working in the county, and doubtless several other wildcats will be spotted and drilled long before Lion actually begins its test.

Phillips Petroleum company No. 1-A Stephens, located 20 miles southwest of Muleshoe in west-central Bailey, is the only drilling wildcat in the county. It was cutting below 7,200 feet in Wolfcamp dolomite last week on a possible 9,200-foot granite contract. No commercial shows have been logged in any section thus far drilled.

Every Room Is A Corner Room

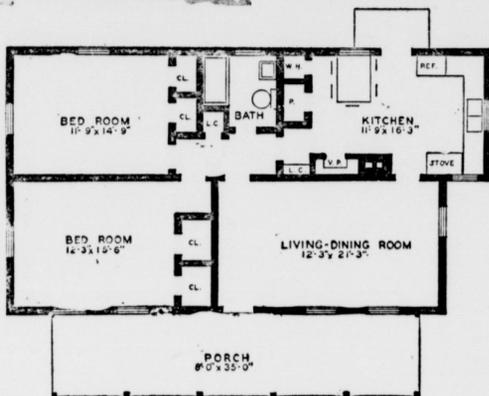

Here is a low-cost house of simple construction designed for comfortable living. It is attractive house, compactly arranged, with pleasing horizontal lines.

A large amount of usable wall space in the bedrooms permit desirable furniture arrangement. The two large closets in the hall, the lower section of which can be used as a dirty clothes hamper.

The kitchen is arranged so that it will be unusually cool, the window by the sink and stove a cheerful spot for eating, and the windows by the sink and stove provide an abundance of light where it is always needed. The large pantry, a small ventilated pantry, a linen closet and a water heater closet provide an abundance of storage space.

If more work space is needed or a screened porch wanted at some later date, the back door is placed so that this can be easily arranged by using shed roof construction. This will provide a large amount of space very economically and in no way detract from the appearance of the house or necessitate any alteration in the kitchen.

A centrally located chimney will serve a living room heater and also the stove in the kitchen if a wood or coal kitchen range is used. If you want a fireplace for living room heat, it would be convenient to use the space now shown as a ventilated pantry and that shown as a chimney for storage.

The long front porch is a pleasant place to spend summer afternoons and evenings.

You can obtain blueprints for this THE MULESHOE JOURNAL FARM & RANCH-SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST Plan No. 4708 and a handy list of materials by which you can figure your construction cost accurately. Send $1 to Building Editor, FARM & RANCH-SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST, Dept. L-36, Nashville, Tenn. Order by number. Plan No. 4807. Blueprints are adequate for any farm carpenter or for any farmer handy with tools.

Changes Benefit Older Workers

Many employed wage earners over 75 years of age have applied for Old-Age and Survivors insurance benefit payments, according to John G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock, Texas Social Security Office.

While Mr. Hutton is greatly surprised at the comparatively large number of insured persons in this age group, his office has no way of knowing the total number. The reason for this lack of information is that many insured workers who have passed their seventy-fifth birthday have not applied for benefit payments. "They do not yet realize that they and their dependents can now have these monthly payments," he says.

SAFETY

The words "In God We Trust" were put on pennies for the guidance of those who use such coins as substitutes for fuses.

Regardless of the amount of his earnings. Between the ages of 65 and 75, the insured person may now have $50 a month in work covered by Social Security.

Hutton says it has been found that most people are reluctant to stop working at any age if they are still in good health. He further points out that this new provision for insured people over age 75 will be an incentive to continue in gainful work.

He urges all insured workers aged 75 or older, and who have not yet applied for benefit payments to do so without delay. Each payment can be made for as many as six months, but failure to make application at the Lubbock Office promptly may result in the loss of one or more benefit payments to the worker and his dependents.

They Like it a Million!

Last week Buick set a proud record. The millionth Dynaflo Drive* was delivered to a happy owner.

That's a new peak in popularity for modern drives which take you from a standing start to any cruising speed desired with a smooth, unfaltering swoop of power.

"The biggest advance since the self-starter" is what the motorwise press called this Buick development back in 1948—and now a million owners can tell you how right that proved to be.

Here, they found, was a basically different way of delivering power. It was the first drive to get completely away from any gears which function in a series of fixed stages—the first to apply supercharging principles that did new tricks with spinning oil.

And how folks loved it!

They loved the freedom from strain in traffic. And the new "sweetness" of ride which every passenger could enjoy.

They loved the command it gives them of every traffic situation—and the relaxation it contributes to a long day's drive.

They loved its extra safety in slippery going, and the improved control in mud and snow.

As they piled up experience, they loved the unexpected savings of rear tire wear and the reduced strain on all driving parts, from engine to differential.

And finally—they loved what it does for the value of a Buick, as reflected in the extra dollars that Dynaflo* adds to the resale price of a car.

Have you sampled this driving sensation?

Dial Telephones In About 6 Weeks

Muleshoe's dial telephone system will be ready for use in 6 to 7 weeks. That is the prediction made this week by company men and technicians here to install the new exchange, G. D. Shelley district manager of the Southwestern Associated Telephone Co., Lubbock, Joe Gott, Dallas, central office equipment supervisor for the company, and G. C. Mobley, Littlefield, equipment supervisor for the Littlefield exchange and nearby territory, were here to see the work get underway.

In direct charge of the work of installing the equipment is V. C. Shultz, who has moved his family here temporarily.

Mobley predicts that all types of service will be improved when the dial system is in use. He said that instead of three lines to Lubbock, Muleshoe now will have 8, including lines that go direct to Dallas, Amarillo, etc., without the necessity of going through Lubbock. He said telephone communication with Dallas ought to be almost instantaneous excepting in extreme rush periods.

TO CALIFORNIA

E. O. Baker left Saturday night for a few days visit with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lowery Mallory, in California. Mrs. Baker, who has been visiting there for some time will return home with him.

When junior high school pupils report for classes September 3, they will find a spic and span, modern, attractive building awaiting them, in fact, the remodeling and redecoration job carried out on the building this summer has put more convenience and comfort into it than it had when it was completed in 1926.

The job of remodeling has been carried out by the Muleshoe board of trustees with Johnnie Johnson, a former trustee and an experienced builder in direct charge. The work is nearing completion.

Partitions have been torn out and old wooden laths have been replaced with metal laths; the students will find new hardwood floors have replaced the old, unsightly pine floors that were getting pretty well worn; and they will find that every classroom is more airy, more attractive, more convenient and much more comfortable.

Two shades of light green paint have been used in redecorating the walls, giving more light and making attractive surroundings for study. Above all that The Journal man noticed when he visited the building in company with Jeff Peeler, member of the board, was that there is virtually a new entrance. This has been achieved by placing a floor above a portion of the old lunch room, which will give space for lockers that formerly adorned the entrance hall. Three arches lead from the entrance hall into this locker room. The floor space for this room was gained in the transformation and at very little cost.

Another big improvement has been the additions to and modernizing of the boys rest rooms and the girls rest rooms. These sub-standard facilities have been modernized and every patron of this school may well be proud and thankful that this work has been done.

The principal of the school, Troy Perkins, now has a business office and a private office, separated by a partition, yet giving him ready access to what's going on.

All woodwork has been given a new coat of paint. One large room has been fitted up for a library. The electric wiring has been completely redone and the heating system has been brought up to date throughout the building.

All in all, the face lifting job has placed a new value on the school's property, and it has placed the building in such condition that no patron need apologize for it. And the trustees report that the extensive work, and it was extensive, has been carried out with such dispatch that the cost will not exceed, may even be less than, the estimate they made before the work was started.

The people of the district authorized the work when they voted bonds last spring in the sum of $75,000, part of which money is to be used for building three additional class rooms for the grade school. This part of the work will be rushed, also, but it will not be completed until after the beginning of school.

blocks Lion is required to start drilling an Elenburger wildcat at some point on block A within 12 months from July 20, 1951. If Lion elects to start a well on block A, the company is to pay Birdwell $25,000 cash or $5.00 per acre, for his one-half interest in block A of 10,000 acres.

in 1908, a year after he moved from his native Kansas to Texas. A neighbor, R. L. Brooks, was accustomed to looking in on Blocher at frequent intervals. He discovered the frail 5-foot, 6-in., 80 pound man was missing Sunday morning. Brooks had last seen him Saturday evening.

Blocher is well-known as the sage of Progress whose vitriolic tongue unmercifully lashes those who would make light of his small town.

Blocher laid out Progress around 300 lots but the town never had more than a few hundred residents at the most. It had a post office at one time but "them devils in Muleshoe worked a scheme and took it away from us", according to Blocher.

Although the old man feuded with neighboring towns, he had no real enemies, friends said, and if he met with foul play the motive was probably robbery.

The above photos were taken by a Journal photographer late Wednesday afternoon, quickly developed and printed by Cline Studio and rushed to the engravers at Clovis and cuts were made in time to be printed in today's edition.

Publicity has been clearing through the office of Al Hall, C. of C. manager, and has been widely used. Papers as far away as Tulsa have used news releases, and radio stations have been generous with their notices.

A full program, with something doing virtually every minute has been outlined.
