

Mr. Muleshoe ...

By J. M. FORBES

I REMEMBER:

Cal Farley sitting by himself on the porch of the Legion Home, quickly going over what he intended to say; Mrs. St. Clair dashing gallantly on her mount into the rodeo arena, a horse-woman if I ever saw one; and Mrs. St. Clair passing up all our prominent guests to take over and make the youngsters of the Reese Air Force band feel at home, the kids insisted on her sitting in their section at the luncheon;

Old Chief Jones introducing the Army first, ahead of his beloved Marine Corps representatives. All in the interest of "inter-service relations" Ray Keeling dismounting hurriedly and without his consent from the hurricane deck of a bronc that suddenly "broke in two" the very clever way in which Cal Farley, while pretending not to do so, put a lasting impression of Boys Ranch into the minds of his listeners.

Remembering further: Myron Pool sits a horse like a veteran, must've been raised up in West Texas...the beautiful, attractive floats must have presented a problem to the judges...that tiny kid with the claw hammer suit riding a bicycle in the kids parade Friday...Ollie Jones letting out that fearful war whoop which could have been heard in Lariat or Bovina.

The aplomb and poise of our young ladies who were candidates for Miss Muleshoe title...surely no community has more fine attractive young ladies than Muleshoe...Elizabeth and Dorothy left too big a gap between their entry and the next in front, claimed they couldn't get old Dobbin to step out any better...

Another horsewoman who must have grown up on a ranch, Mrs. Grace Benton...hope Bob King was using technical or film while shooting motion pictures of this wonderful, wonderful parade, getting coloring of these beautiful horses, and of those elaborate floats...have heard much comment on Chevrolet's float and many others, of course.

Bud Holton opines we should next year divide parade entry prize money making different classes, such as organizations and commercial floats.

Muleshoe received really generous publicity on the first annual Will Rogers Memorial Roundup from newspaper and radio people...couldn't have been better. We had some top notchers in each profession here with us that day.

Next year, we'll go to work on this event plenty in advance, but we did a tremendous job this year in the little time we had to work.

Had you ever thought that long before the last parade entry filed down Main the first components, including the Air Force band, had fallen out at the high school and vehicles had reached the rodeo ground, it was that long. The parade moved promptly; when the clock said 4 the parade committee chairman, Chief Jones, said "move" and it moved with a minimum of confusion.

After the parade all of us newspapermen got together and decided upon what figure we would use in estimating the crowd. Some guessed 7,500 to 10,000 but a compromise was reached on 6,000. It's nearly impossible to guess very close to a crowd that was scattered from here to yonder, down side streets, watching from autos, etc. You can say it was the biggest crowd ever to attend an event in Muleshoe and not be out of line.

Intended for this column last week was the piece about there being no one to do the work except me and you. H. D. King brought it in and he should have received credit. The boys got in a hurry and grabbed it up and used it without benefit of explanation or foreword.

Col. W. S. Williams, in a letter to The Amarillo Times, thanking those who helped to get seats around the courthouse lawn: This is my thought for the day: Speak well of the country in which you live until you are ready to leave it, and you will be doing an honor to yourself and others.

Colonel, that is a pertinent piece of advice, a good thought. And I believe you might extend it and speak well of the community you came from, too. I have no right to gripe and say sour things; it might discourage others.

FARM FAMILY OF THE MONTH — Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bamert were selected by the Muleshoe Junior Chamber of Commerce as the farm family of the month and were honored Monday night at a program at which Don Jones was the principal speaker.

JayCees Select Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bamert As Farm Family Of Month

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bamert were honored by the Muleshoe Junior Chamber of Commerce as the Farm Family of the Month Monday night with Don Jones of the Lubbock Experiment Station as principal speaker of the evening.

Listed below are the factors which led to their selection:

1. A good program of Soil and Water Conservation practices are steadily being initiated on the farm.
2. A good number of Soil Building practices, such as Crop Rotation consisting of both Summer and Winter Legumes. The results of Alfalfa in a crop Rotation system may be witnessed on the farm on a cotton field following alfalfa. Hairy Vetch is also used as a winter cover crop on the farm.
3. A well diversified farming program is being carried out on the farm.
4. A good job of Farm Management is evident on the farm, in that the majority of the products produced on the farm are fed to livestock on the farm.
5. Some of the outstanding accomplishments on this farm are: First, a plot of 13.0 acres of "Kentucky 31" Irrigated pasture, seeded on a plot of land in the fall of 1949. Before seeding this pasture the land was Bench Leveled, to permit proper irrigation.

Bailey County Fair To Be Staged On Friday and Saturday, Oct. 5 and 6

Nickels Acquires Copley Gin

Consummation of a deal whereby Guy Nickels and Sons became owners of the Copley Gin was effected Monday of this week. Actually the sale had been effective some time and the new owners have already carried out a large program of repair and improvement. The deal was made through the Eddie Lane Real Estate firm.

Guy Nickels told The Journal he will have one of the most modern gin plants in this section of the country in the remodeled gin, which among other improvements has new cleaning machinery.

Nickels and Sons own the Lariat Gin at Lariat, near Muleshoe. He has operated gins in this section for many years.

Rufus Gilbreath sold the gin to Nickels after acquiring the interest of A. W. Copley a short time ago.

Bailey Wildcat Waits On Orders

The daily papers said Sunday that the Phillips No. 1-A Stevens, Bailey County wildcat, had reached a total depth of 8,232 feet. The hole was said to be bottomed in granite and operators were "waiting on orders."

The venture was scheduled to 9,000 feet. It is section 24, block B, MB & B survey, about 20 miles southwest of Muleshoe and a mile or so east of Stegall.

Plans are being made for the biggest fair in the history of Bailey County, Ed White, vocational ag. teacher in charge of directing the event, announced this week. The fair will be staged on Friday and Saturday, October 5 and 6.

Entries will be crop exhibits, livestock, ladies' department, farm machinery, flower show, and club exhibits.

A new attraction this year will be booths for 4-H Club and FHA girls. These will select 15 items to be displayed in the booth from a list of 30 items and the booth winning first prize will be awarded $30. Second prize will be $25, third, $20 and fourth, $15.

The FHA and 4-H Club boys will have a similar arrangement where they may place 15 crop exhibits and prize money will be the same as the girls' exhibit.

Because of space limitations this year, there will be no community booths. Ladies may enter any items of cooking, baking, sewing or handcraft they have made in the last 12 months in the exhibits. Ribbons only will be given in this event.

Any kind of crop may be entered in the open class crop exhibits. Ribbons only will be awarded here. Implement dealers in Muleshoe will have exhibits of their farm machinery at the fair.

Also planned at the fair will be concession stands, a carnival, two football games and other events.

Neal D. MacAllister, formerly with Phillips Chemical Co., makers of anhydrous ammonia, has become general manager of the Western Fertilizer Co., of Muleshoe, distributors of the fertilizer in this territory. MacAllister assumed his duties this week. The Western Fertilizer Co. not only distributes anhydrous ammonia, but mixes its own fertilizers, under the brand of WESTCO, here in Muleshoe, also handles insecticides and herbicides. H. D. and Robert King, owners of the company, said Mr. MacAllister will have sole direction of its activities, leaving them free for other duties in connection with their organization.

They operate the King Bros. Grain & Seed Company with elevator and storage facilities here and with storage facilities at Brownwood and San Angelo.

John McFarland will continue with the company as retail sales manager.

Mr. MacAllister and his family, Mrs. Christine MacAllister, and their two daughters, Karen, 2, and Sandra, 6 months, have moved to Muleshoe and are residing at West 8th and Avenue F.

The Joshua Blocher Reward Fund started growing today. Because of a rush of business affairs, no one had been able to start working on the matter until now.

Mrs. Inez Bobo, cashier of the Muleshoe State Bank, is custodian of the fund and is keeping an accurate record of all contributions and contributors. Pat Bobo, local attorney has drawn up a contract that will govern this offer of a reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons guilty of the murder of Joshua Blocher, aged Bailey Co. citizen.

FARM MEETING TO BE HELD TUES.

Water District Vote Sept. 29

Voting on the establishment of an underground water conservation district will be September 29. All farmers are urged to find out about the conservation district they can, so they will understand how to vote.

Further information will be carried in The Journal next week, September 13.

A meeting of persons from several counties involved was held at Littlefield last Thursday night and was attended by the following Bailey County men: Bill Millen, Troy Actkenson, Jesse Osborn and H. E. Schuster.

Work On Grade School Is Begun

Work on an addition to the grade school in Muleshoe has begun and foundations have been poured under the direction of Johnny Johnson who is supervising construction. Three new class rooms and a room to house an additional heating unit will be built.

This addition was provided for in a bond issue recently voted by the people.

The bond issue also provided funds to remodel the junior high school building, which work has been completed.

FOUR NEW VOLUMES FOR LIBRARY SHELVES

Four new volumes recently added to the shelves of the Muleshoe Library are: Sagebrush Lawman, by W. F. Bragg; The Way of a Heart, by Rebecca Marsh; Trail Herd, by Chuck Stanley; Prelude To Summer, by Ann Carter.

Members of the Muleshoe Mules football squad will have the benefit of two weeks of intensive training under Coaches Bailey and Hedges when they entertain their first 1951 season contest here Friday night, September 7, against the Olton Mustangs. The game will be played in Benny Douglass Stadium with the opening whistle to sound at 8 p. m.

Training began August 27. The coaches put the boys through six or seven hours a day during their camp and are continuing their strenuous schedule of training this week. Every effort is being made to have the boys in tip top physical and mental condition.

The Mules will be the best dressed grid outfit ever to represent Muleshoe high school, with new gold suits trimmed in purple, new helmets, etc.

Football will be offered to the younger boys in the junior high school and in the grades, also, and teams representing these schools will play a regular schedule.

Coach Bailey has pointed out the difficulties of this year's campaign. The Mules will play a schedule of 10 games; three of these are on successive weekends against Littlefield, Levelland, and Brownfield, all formidable opponents and rated high in the district.

Reserve seat tickets are on sale at the Western Drug, school officials announced. The full schedule of games follows:

- Sept. 7 - Olton here.
- Sept. 14 - Hereford there.
- Sept. 21 - Crosbyton there.
- Sept. 28 - Tulla here.
- Oct. 5 - Sundown here.
- Oct. 12 - Springlake here.
- Oct. 19 - Littlefield here.
- Oct. 26 - Levelland there.
- Nov. 8 - Brownfield there.
- Nov. 9 - Open.
- Nov. 16 - Morton here.

On the eve of the first game it was learned that Odell Spivey, a badly needed back, is ineligible to play and has been dropped from the roster. This was a blow because Spivey is a clever runner and a veteran player. Coach Bailey announced the following line-up to start the Olton game:

- Left End — Bill Willis.
- Left Tackle — Lloyd Kriegel.
- Left Guard — David Taylor.
- Center — Johnny Ladd.
- Right Guard — Robert Waggoner.
- Right Tackle — Dewayne Burkhead.
- Right End — Bob King.
- Quarterback — Freddy Harvey.
- Right Half — Aubrey Heathington.
- Left Half — Roald Johnson.
- Fullback — Bobby Seid.

Five Teams In Whirlwind Drive Will Wind Up C. of C. Membership Drive

An intensive two-hour drive to complete the Chamber of Commerce membership and financial campaign will be staged between 8 and 10 o'clock Friday morning by a corps of volunteer workers who will seek to enlist the active support of every business and professional man in Muleshoe.

The board of directors this week adopted a budget of $10,000 for the fiscal year. Of this amount 60 percent has already been pledged and the sponsors of the clean-up drive anticipate that the budget will be fully subscribed by the business, civic, and rural leaders of Bailey County.

"We fully intended to have this phase of our work completed during the month of August," President Myron Pool stated. "But when the directors voted that our organization should do everything possible to promote the Will Rogers Memorial Round-Up, we knew that the final details of financing and organization would have to be shelved until the Round-Up was over."

Treasurer Jeff Peeler pointed out that the results of the Round-Up promotion had proved beyond a question of a doubt the importance of an active chamber of commerce in this community. "By acting as a coordinating agency, our Chamber of Commerce was able to see that countless details of organization were taken care of by some sponsoring body, and it was only through the cooperation of many civic clubs that we were able to stage the largest program of its kind ever held in Bailey County."

With sufficient funds to carry on our work, we shall be able to lend much to community growth and development," he concluded, "and we feel that everyone interested in civic improvement and the growth of Muleshoe will want to have a part in sponsoring."

Members of the finance committee were emphatic in their assurance that once the budget was raised that this would be the only time that membership pledges would be solicited this year. "We know that there are many demands made on our businessmen and merchants," they pointed out, "but we feel that they will all appreciate this opportunity to serve their city and county in this short intensive drive to complete our campaign."

The five teams which will bring this drive to a swift conclusion Friday are: W. Q. Casey and Morris Childers; Loyd Roberts and Houston Hart; Lee Pool and John Gammons; Jeff Peeler and Harvey Bass; Jim Cox and Herb Cavin.

Babson's Labor Day Message

Gloucester, Mass., Aug. 31 — Some days ago a spider built a small web in a corner of my piazza. Much against Mrs. Babson's wishes I insisted it must not be disturbed. For nearly two weeks that poor spider went without food. Finally a small butterfly from my garden flew by and got his legs caught in the web. After an hour of desperate struggle, the butterfly gave up. The spider then got a meal of fresh blood.

Employers and Labor Troubles
The butterfly had all my grounds to freely fly about; it had plenty to eat, and was very attractive. The poor spider could only crawl about; but it was a worker. It made wonderful webs. Now let me explain how this butterfly-spider episode illustrates a fundamental law of nature which all businessmen, especially Republicans and Isolationists, should recognize.

Take labor troubles, for example. Most employers, like the butterfly, can afford to travel anywhere; they need not worry about food or shelter; they can have almost everything they want. This is not true of most wageworkers. Hence, they build webs or unions to "bleed" their employers. Employers do not like labor unions any more than the butterflies like the spider webs; but it's natural now that labor will use this and other methods to harass employers until the workers share more equally with the employers. Wise are those employers who recognize this and devise methods to benefit both wageworker and owners.

Politics and World Peace
Butterflies are "Republicans" with property or privileges; while Democrats are largely wageworkers. Instinctively, by nature's law, there is a conflict and always will be. The Democrats are jealous of the Republicans and devise subsidies, minimum wages and high taxes to suck the blood out of the Republican butterflies. It is well for the Republicans to fight these subsidies and destroy the "webs". It, however, is foolish for them to get high blood pressure over any conflict between the "Haves" and the "Have Nots." The conflict has been going on for generations and will continue for generations to come for the ultimate benefit of everyone.

It is too bad that we suffer from wars; but can there be world peace as long as one nation, like the United States, has a surplus of everything while other nations are starving? Communism is a spider's web to catch the butterflies. "Appeasement" is an unpleasant word, but

A NEW FREE LAND

The following is by the Hon. S. B. Pettengill, former Congressman from Indiana, whose syndicated column, "Inside Your Congress," appear in sixty newspapers:

"Wouldn't it be grand if there were some state left—Colorado say, or Texas—to which old-fashioned Americans could immigrate, as our pioneer fathers did in covered wagon days? A state where elbow grease is honored and sweat earns its own reward; one where monuments are still erected to men who treat federal bureaucracies as Ethan Allen did when his "great beech seal"; a state where a man can plow to suit himself; a state where a man does not have to join a union in order to eat, but can if he wants to; one that has a legislature of its own to write laws congenial to the people directly involved; a state whose wealth is not drained off in taxes to buy the votes and voters in distant provinces; a state it may be the best way to prevent communist spiders from building webs! Women know that brushing down a cobweb does no good unless the spider is killed. But after brushing down the web, if a little sugar and dried blood is kept nearby, the spider will not build another web so long as the food lasts. Yet, the continued brushing down or killing the spider may be better. I don't know.

Have We Too Much Legislation?
Some will say that this law of nature is contrary to Jesus' teachings; but remember that when Jesus gave the Sermon-on-the-Mount He gave it to His disciples who were all in the same economic group, although neither butterflies nor spiders! In fact, the only time Jesus talked to a real "republican - employer - isolationist" was when He told the troubled rich young ruler to give all his goods to the poor and forget it. St. Paul supplemented this by commanding that ALL (rich and poor) should work or starve. Thus, can either side today base their positions on Bible teachings?

Perhaps I should not have written this column. I usually get into trouble when discussing political or social problems. But with the spider and butterfly conflict before my eyes, I could not resist the temptation! I feel, however, that there is need in this world for all living creatures and all groups of people. God also apparently planned the world to use conflict as the stairway by which civilization climbs. If so, we should not interfere too much with God's plans. Remember that we must now spray the trees and vegetables because our fathers shot the birds! We perhaps have brought all our troubles on ourselves. Let us reform ourselves from now on.

THINGS STILL ABOUT THE SAME
Sand Hills Philosopher Misses Out For Two Weeks On World News

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm is his typical self this week, writing more and solving less than anybody we know.

Dear editor:
I was laid up a couple of weeks with a little sickness and got behind on the news, but it's a funny thing when I started reading the papers again this week I couldn't even tell I missed anything the weather was still the chief topic of conversation, everybody was wishing for cooler weather, traffic accidents was about as prevalent, livin' costs was still goin' up, inflation is still about to wreck civilization accordin' to the people who want a job controlin' it, and the Korean truce talks are at about the same stage.

It's the latter that gets me. As I understand it, they've been talkin' about what they'd talk about if a truce meetin' was arranged, and if they're any further now than they were six weeks ago, I can't tell it. where industry and farming live hand in hand, where men believe that wealth comes from work and not from the Bureau of Engraving; a state free from the civil war of vast pressure groups fighting to despoil each other; where the Constitution says no one can hold office for life; where "out of debt" is a badge of honor; where the fear of crackdowns by government does not hang like a black cloud over the land; a state where free men despise the sycophants of refuge royalty; a state where men grow tall." Scottish Rite Bulletin.

"J. A."

In a case of a war, though, the matter is a little different, and it seems to me some way ought to be found to make some progress toward a truce. But don't ask me for a suggestion. I don't have one. I been a victim of long-drawn-out conversations all my life. I been talkin' with my wife for years and if we ever settled anything I'm blamed if I can think what it was.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Labors For the Lord
"I must work the works of him that sent me." (John 9:4.) Read Philippians 1:19-26.

One Sunday while on board a steamer on our way to the United States, the group of church scholarship students aboard had a morning devotion. The preacher, after reading the Scripture, reminded us of our responsibilities as church scholarship students, who were given a chance to study there. "Our present opportunity," he said, "has not been granted as a reward for past achievement nor for the mere furtherance of knowledge, but for the future service toward God and men."

The words hit me by the head like a thunderbolt. I should have known it before. Yes, I thought I knew it. It was not until then however, that my eyes were really opened to the important bearing of the words. My mind had still been roving about the phantoms of personal fame and worldly success.

To be humble in the presence of our Lord and our fellow men and to make our lives those of service and sacrifice are the essentials for our deeds and efforts. Is everything we do each day for His glory?

PRAYER
Lead us not into temptation of worldly fame, O Lord. Strengthen us rather for the service that Thou dost expect from us. Make us always responsive to Thy call. Help us to prepare constantly for our duty as Christians. In the name of Jesus, who labored to fulfill Thy will. Amen.

SOUTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

37 YEARS OF GOOD CITIZENSHIP AND PUBLIC SERVICE

How long since you lifted the hood of a car, and took a good look at what's beneath?

We like to have folks do that with a Buick.

You'll find that broad bonnet isn't put there for show. It's packed with horsepower—high, wide and handsome—more horsepower than normal drivers will ever use in full. And—if you're up to date on modern features—you'll find that this bonnet is packed with these too.

Do you know, for example, that every new engine introduced or previewed in recent years is built on the valve-in-head principle?

Score one for Buick. No Buick engine has ever been built in any other way.

Do you know what it takes to make full use of high compression? A valve-in-head engine!

Score two: Buick has been stepping up compression ratios for years.

But Buick has blazed one trail which other engines still haven't followed—don't ask us why.

Every Buick has a Fireball Engine which, as we've said before, is like having a string of comets by the tail.

Fact is, in every flame-packed cylinder there is a comet—rolled into a swirling ball by a special turbo-top piston—touched off by a flashing spark every 5 inches you travel in a Buick.

That's why we're proud to show folks that Buicks have a Fireball Engine—and prouder still to have them take one of these thrilling performers out on the road.

Want to try it? Come in and see us soon.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

The secret of Fireball Power is in the use of dome-and-dip design of the piston shown above.

Here's the piston inside the cylinder. As it moves down, the fuel charge rushes in—sets up a swirl when it hits the piston top.

The piston moves up—compresses the swirling fuel into the comet shape shown here. "Compression ratios" are simply a measure of how much the fuel is compressed.

The ball of fuel is compressed around the spark plug—lets loose its pent-up charge when the spark is fired—delivering a higher percentage of power from each charge of fuel.

Pictured here in the background is the generator starter which is a part of the enormous turbine generator to be installed at plant X. This turbine generator is so large that it is necessary to ship broken down from General Electric's factory in Schenectady, New York. On the left in the background is the turbine generator foundation which is under construction. To the right in the background is the boiler unit in Plant X which is under construction.

X will be the largest single power plant on the integrated system, and its capacity alone will be greater than was the entire system capacity in 1943.

The new generator, manufactured by the General Electric Company at their Schenectady works, was shipped to Amherst, the nearest rail point to the power plant site. Because of its huge size, the turbo-generator was shipped "broken down."

The entire unit weighs 257,000 pounds, with the largest single weighing 199,000 pounds. When the machine is installed, it will be 53 feet in overall length, 14 feet wide and 15 feet high.

Plant X will be the Southwestern Public Service Company's 11th base-load power plant. It will be tied into the integrated system by a 115,000 volt line, with the connections at the Tuco Plant, near Abernathy, and the Clovis, New Mexico Plant.

The system generating capacity will be more than 400,000 kilowatts when the first Plant X unit goes on the line. The entire system capacity in 1943 was 112,000 kilowatts.

The plant is located close to the geographic load center for Southwestern's 45,000 square mile service area. The load growth in the Plains Division has been one of the largest in the entire system, another factor contributing to the plant's location.

Material delays have moved the completion date for the plant back one month, but it is anticipated that it will be in operation before peak loads are on the line next summer.

New Generator Arrives At Plant X

Plant X, Southwestern Public Service Company's super-power plant located 4 miles south of Earth and 9 miles north of Amherst, moved one step nearer completion recently with the arrival at the plant site of the huge 50,000 kilowatt turbo-generator.

The new 50,000 kilowatt machine will be the largest single unit installed on the Southwestern Public Service Company System. It will be, until it is followed a year later by Plant X's second unit, the 100,000 kilowatt generator. When the two machines are both on the line, Plant

Texas Farm And Ranch Land Prices Rose About 12% During Past Year

Texas farm and ranch land prices rose an average of 12 percent during 1950, according to a study made by the USDA and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

An average increase from $44.44 per acre to $49.50 was found in a survey made by John H. Southern, agricultural economist with the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, and Joe R. Motheral, associate professor of agricultural economics and sociology with the experiment station.

From studying 24 representative counties, the economists found that the number of land transfers had increased by 20 percent during 1950, and the acreage changing hands increased by more than 50 percent.

A substantial decline in the average selling price occurred in the Panhandle wheat area, the Edwards Plateau and Central Basin, and the Northeast sandy lands, and a slight drop occurred in the High Plains and Trans-Pecos grazing area.

The largest increases occurred in the Grand Prairie, with 49 percent; the Rolling Plains, with 4 percent; and the North-central grazing area, with 31 percent. Gains of 20 percent or more occurred in seven other areas.

The economists report that since 1939, the beginning of the rise in land prices, a narrowing of the price spread between the "best" and the "poorest" land has been noted in most areas of the state.

In a special study made of the 1950 land market in Jones, Ellis and Nacogdoches counties, Southern and Motheral found that farmers who owned other land were the chief buyers of land, as has been the case throughout the World War II and post war periods.

The number of sales increased 60 percent in Ellis county over the 1949 level and acreage sold nearly doubled. In Jones and Nacogdoches counties there was little difference in the number of sales and acreage sold during 1949 and 1951.

The average price of land in Jones county increased $21 per acre over 1949, an increase of about one-third. A slight drop in the average price occurred in Nacogdoches county, while prices in Ellis county continued a steady increase that has been underway since 1942.

"Two factors dominating the 1950 land market in Texas were the threat of war and the program administered by the Veterans Land Board," said the economists. "Land prices were quick to respond to the influence of the sudden outbreak of hostilities in Korea, and they continued to climb for the second straight year."

Under the program administered by the Veterans Land Board, approximately 4,000 farms were bought, and more than $20 million were spent for land by the Board.

The results of this study are given in Progress Report 1389, available from the Publications Office, College Station, Texas.

Sinking Smut ... Healthy Wheat ... Loose Smut

FOR A BETTER CROP

Control of smut is one of the important jobs in producing a good crop of quality grain. The Texas-Oklahoma Wheat Improvement Association, cooperating with crop improvement associations and state extension services of the winter wheat belt is urging farmers to combat smut diseases by careful selection and preparation of seed for planting.

Sinking smut or bunt is the most destructive of the wheat smuts and occurs everywhere wheat is grown. It is characterized by the formation of smut balls in place of wheat kernels, balls filled with hundreds of thousands of smut spores which have the odor of decaying fish. Seed treatment with seed disinfectants is the recommended control.

Loose smut of wheat spores are scattered and lodge on healthy plants at blossoming time. These spores germinate and enter the developing kernels in which they remain dormant until the next season. As the infected kernels sprout, the smut parasite begins to grow and continues inside the stem, becoming localized in the head before it emerges. Each wheat kernel is displaced by a mass of smut spores. Hot water seed treatment is the only control measure known, except for the use of smut-free seed and smut-resistant varieties.

No suction line is required, and no horsepower is spent in turning long shafts raising lengths of rod or cycling water through jets. Priming is never required in the submersible pump, as all operating elements are under water.

...Ease in installation is an outstanding feature of the Fairbanks-Morse Submersible Pump. It is only necessary to add the required lengths of drop pipe to lower the unit to the proper setting and thus complete the installation. "Pop" Krohne, Glider Pilot, Alights Here After Soaring From Odessa

"Pop" Krohne, probably the oldest active glider pilot in the U. S., brought his sailplane, the Comet, down on Muleshoe airport at 3:50 p. m. Tuesday after soaring here from Odessa, where he started his flight at 11:20 a. m. Pop flew over the municipal golf course and said one player's eyes got "as big as saucers" when he just cleared the course.

Mr. Krohne had decided he had gone about as far as he could on his attempted flight to Lake Texoma. The thermals were playing out on him; cool air arising from the irrigated ground in this neighborhood were not helping him properly.

The Comet is an experimental model with a 50 foot wing spread. Pop has revamped it to suit his own ideas and by next year plans to revamp it still further. All exterior surfaces have received 17 coats of paint, with handrubbing between each coat, and it is as slick as the proverbial eel all over. Pop designed his own "bubble" of plexiglass.

Mr. Krohne was trying for a diamond for his "Golden C" pin; he didn't make it, but he packed up the glider and took it back to Odessa and will take off again when the weather is hot enough. There are only 27 Golden C pins in existence. One must fly a distance of more than 187 miles without coming down and must fly at least 5 consecutive hours to get this pin. Pop has flown a distance of 226 miles. Mrs. Krohne soars also. She started for Muleshoe as soon as she received a phone call from him here and they spent the night at a local tourist court.

They live at Maitland, Fla., which is a suburb of Orlando. Mr. Krohne farms 800 acres and his principal crop is permanent grass seeds. He said he had five combines going on the farm now. Mr. Krohne thinks West Texas is ideal for gliding.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

Man is as indispensable to God as God is to man, declares the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon titled "Man" to be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 9. "Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, and my servant whom I have chosen; that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he; before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me" (Isaiah 43:10). Mary Baker Eddy brings out the point in these words from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," which will be included in the Lesson-Sermon: "God, without the image and likeness of Himself, would be a nonentity, or Mind unexpressed. He would be without a witness or proof of His own nature. Spiritual man is the image or idea of God, an idea which cannot be lost nor separated from its divine Principle."

The Golden Text is from Romans, and reads, "As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God."

Army Is Busy

DALLAS, Sept. 3 — Supported by contributions totaling $1,500, 000 from the people of Texas, the Salvation Army in 1950 conducted a far-reaching welfare and evangelistic program which brought direct benefits to thousands of people in need throughout the state. Lt. Col. John A. Morrison, Texas Divisional Commander of the Salvation Army, reported today. Much of the money came through Community Chests and from local fund campaigns. Through the Salvation Army's Family Welfare Service, 675,477 articles of clothing were distributed to families in need, 15,305 grocery orders were provided, 3,800 were helped with rent, 61,847 were provided with shoes, and 17,233 were provided with articles of furniture, Colonel Mor-

A House Useful And Graceful

This house of unusual design has many attractive features, yet is compact and inexpensive to construct. The living room and dining room are arranged so that they can be used together for large groups, though the living room itself is large enough to accommodate quite a number of guests without crowding. The kitchen has been located to offer much convenience. It gives an eating place for many meals, yet these meals in no way would interfere with normal activity in the area in which food is prepared. The large pantry opening into the kitchen will provide an abundance of food storage space. Note the space provided for a washing machine, hot water heater, and ironing equipment. The screened back porch also serving as a passageway, has a convenient closet for brooms, mops, cleaning materials, etc. Note all the closet space in the bedroom area. The study, also, has a closet for storage of materials or equipment. There is a closet at the front entrance for coats or clothing of callers. The inviting large porch adds to the general attractiveness of this house. It will serve as an excellent place for leisure hours during the warm months. This house can be very easily and attractively built with either frame construction or masonry. We suggest in our plans that it be on concrete masonry construction with a dark grey cement asbestos roof. You can obtain blueprints for this MULESHOE JOURNAL Farm & Ranch plan No. 4917 and a handy list of materials by which you can figure your construction cost accurately. HONOR GUARD for the parade Thursday at the first annual Will Rogers Memorial Roundup in Muleshoe was made up of Marines from the Marine Headquarters in Dallas. They were followed in the parade by the Reese Air Force Base band from Lubbock.

Round-Up Is Successful

The first annual Muleshoe Will Rogers Memorial Roundup was an unqualified success, physically, spiritually, and financially. While all the reports are not in, enough have been said today that no debt of any kind will be left over.

It was the biggest crowd in Muleshoe and Bailey County history, and it was perhaps the most notable instance of the complete cooperation of every organization, men and women, in staging a community wide event.

Everyone concerned expressed their complete satisfaction. From the all-service club luncheon Thursday noon until the final rodeo performance Friday night everything went off exactly as planned, on time, and with full participation. The parade Thursday afternoon was as fine as anyone would wish, visitors saying it was one of the best to be staged anywhere in the Plains and Panhandle area this year; the second day's parade of the kiddies was equally interesting. Muleshoe had some distinguished visitors during the Roundup. The Reese Air Force Band took part, a party of Marine officers and non-commissioned officers participated, many newspaper and radio figures were on hand, and many persons not in an official capacity were present. It was estimated the crowd at parade time Thursday was around 6,000.

Plan For Next Year

Mistakes were made and those who have helped with the Roundup are determined that these shall be corrected so that next year's event will eclipse the first staging of the Roundup.

Some figures might be of interest: Paid admissions to the rodeo, $3,054; Bleacher seats, $259.50; Net on programs, $223; JayCees concession stand gross, $422; Roping Club stand, net, $75; Lions beauty pageant, gross $90; gross from both dances, $275.

Merchants of the town contributed liberally toward purchase of additional seats, which now belong to the community and may be removed to other sports sites in future. In addition the Chamber of Commerce now owns the lumber horses that supported the tables used in the luncheon.

So, the community will have a distinct start on the Roundup next year; will have the experience gained in this event; will have the record of successful cooperation to form a nucleus and nothing can prevent the Roundup from growing from year to year.

More than 40 floats were entered in the parade, which was thousands of yards long from start to finish. Sheriff's posse and riding groups from Crosbyton, Hereford, Floydada, Levelland, Littlefield, and Portales, N. M., were entered in the cavalcade, besides the Muleshoe Roping club and school band, the Reese Air Force band and a Marine color guard. The Hockley county Sheriff's posse from Levelland won first prize.

Miss Kirk, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Kirk of Muleshoe and an employe of the Muleshoe State bank, walked off with the title only after the judges asked for a second review of the entrants. The 18-year old blue eyed and brown haired beauty will represent the city at other events throughout the region during the next year. She was sponsored by the local chapter of the American Legion.

Clovis Girl Also Honored

Sharing the spotlight with "Miss Muleshoe" was Wilma Vaughn, 20 year old Clovis, N. M., cowgirl who was crowned queen of the rodeo. She was introduced following the initial grand entry into the arena at 8 p. m.

In the parade the float of the Muleshoe Junior Study club was judged first and received a $50 prize. The Garden Club was second, the Half Century club third, the Muleshoe Floral company float, fourth, and the Epsilon Chi Alpha float, fifth.

Three visiting Marine officers served as judges in the Miss Muleshoe contest. They were Col. Albert F. Metz, Lt. Col. Quinton J. Johns, and Major E. L. Bale, Jr., all of Dallas. Miss Kirk won over ten other contestants representing Muleshoe organizations and business firms. Other entries were Gay Sanders, Dorothy Gore, Joy Snider, Wilma Sowder, Ann Weyer, La Quentis Whatley, Sondra Wagon, Fatsy Boone, Minnie Ola Cox, and Joyce Blackburn.

Judges for the Muleshoe Roping Club selected Miss Wilma Vaughn, of Clovis, as the rodeo queen. Both were presented during the rodeo performance as were the winning floats.

Roundup Report Heard By Rotary

A resume of the Will Rogers Memorial Roundup was heard at the Rotary Club Tuesday. Al Hall, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, expressed the thanks of all to the club, the Lions, JayCees, ladies organizations, business firms and individuals.

He said that without the cooperation of all the event could not have attained the success it reached.

Joe Foster, of the Sudan club was a guest. Another guest was Mr. Lancaster, manager of the Bailey County Electric Cooperative.

League Champs To Be Determined Here Sunday

The play off for the championship of the Capitol League will be held here Sunday when the Muleshoe and Springlake teams vie for the championship honors. Muleshoe eliminated Anton in the semi-finals and Muleshoe and Springlake each split one game.

Muleshoe won the first game by beating the Springlake nine 22 to 9. Last Sunday the Springlake team won with the final score of 18 to 8.

The first place winner will receive an award of $200 and the second place team will receive $100. Strott Walker, manager of the Muleshoe team, invited everyone out Sunday to root for the home team.

Kruger Crowned Champion Mule Shoe Pitcher

Roy N. Kruger, of West 3rd street in Muleshoe, is the champion mule shoe pitcher of the world. He won this title last Friday after two grueling days of eliminations and was awarded a trophy by the Muleshoe Lions Club in token thereof.

Mr. Kruger entered the tournament with the expressed intention of winning it, and came through like a champion. Homer Sanders, Jr., was in charge of the contest for the Lions.

It was a part of the first annual Will Rogers Memorial Round-Up program and it is planned as a regular feature each year.

ROUND-UP VISITORS

Out-of-town visitors attending the Will Rogers Memorial Round-Up last week and visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hanover were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Evetts and daughter of Portales, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sanders, and children of Portales, and Mr. and Mrs. Baker Johnson of Goodland,

Lions Hear Student

Gerhard Leifsting, of Holland, an exchange student to the United States under the Marshall Aid plan, was guest speaker at the regular weekly luncheon of the Lions Club Wednesday noon. Leifsting is presently staying at the George Wuerflein farm near Muleshoe to observe methods and procedure on American agriculture.

Before coming to Muleshoe he spent two months on a farm in Missouri and two months on a chicken farm in Indiana. From Muleshoe he will go to a farm in California.

Leifsting compared the size of Holland as approximately 1-15 as large as Texas. Holland has a total area of 15,000 square miles and has more than 10,000,000 people, or 725 people per square mile.

In comparing the school systems, he revealed that Holland had one of the highest scholastic ratings in the world. Before a student can graduate from high school, he must have four years each of Dutch, French, German, and English, and must have four years of science.

He gave the organization of the government with Queen Juliana of the House of Orange on the throne. The real operation of the government is done by the ministers. At present, the Catholic party is in control of the government.

Leifsting compared farming and agriculture in Holland to that of the United States. Principal crops are wheat, rye, and potatoes. The average rainfall is 40 inches per year.
