Torres to keep Hamilton

During a called meeting of the Haskell City Council, Friday, July 16, permission was granted to Haskell Police Officer Joe Ray Torres to take permanent possession of his police partner K9 Officer Hamilton. Torres, who is moving to Leander, agreed to pay the City $500.00 for the dog. K9 Officer Hamilton recently won a medal in the Texas Police Games in Abilene.

In other business, the Council appointed Billie McKeever, Superintendent of Haskell CISD, to the Board of the Economic Development Corporation of Haskell. She will be replacing Sam Toliver, who is resigning at the end of his two year term. Toliver served as vice-president of the Board. A new vice-president will be named later.

Board Secretary-Treasurer Randy Hise was re-appointed by the Council to another term on the board.

Those presently serving on the Board are Bobby Hobgood, President; Randy Hise, Secretary-Treasurer; Bill Thomas; Sam Bitner; Billie McKeever, and Monty Montgomery, Director of the Economic Development Corporation of Haskell.

New wheelchair accessible van delivered to ECC

by Mary Kaigler

After a year and a half of waiting, since the first paper work was put in place to obtain a grant from the Texas Department of Transportation, the Haskell Experienced Citizen's Center has now received the boon of a new van.

Coming at a time when the financial situation of the Center is experiencing a strain on its operating budget, the new vehicle was received none too soon, according to Florence Peden, manager. "Thank goodness we made it through before the two old vans broke down, requiring extensive repairs and big mechanical bills," she said.

The fifteen passenger, wheelchair accessible, 1999 Ford Econoline Wagon, costing a total of $40,785.00 was made possible by the 80% Texas Department of Transportation grant of $32,400.00, augmented by Haskell County paying the other 20% ($8,385.00). When one of the older vans is sold, the county will recoup some of their expenditure in that amount.

Equipped with one wheel chair lift and two wheel chair tie-downs, the new van will greatly facilitate the transportation of handicapped citizens, as well as anyone over 60 years-old having no means of transportation. Anyone wishing to ride the van need only call the Center before 9:30 a.m. to be picked up and brought back to their home after lunch.

The remaining older van will be kept and stripped of its back seats, making it usable for transporting supplies from the the Abilene Food Bank.

Up until recently, the Haskell Center was on the southern edge of the regional territory serviced by the Food Bank in Wichita Falls. Orders to that location had to be made in advance, leaving manager Florence Peden no choice but to accept food items without seeing them and being able to check them personally, (which she did not want to do). Now, being allowed (after a request was made) to drive to the Abilene Food bank to choose and pick up foods, Peden said, "will mean a tremendous savings to the Center in expenses. Last month 50% of our food came from the Food Bank. I really believe, that being allowed to go to the Abilene location, instead of driving or having it shipped from Wichita Falls, is going to be the Center's salvation."

Gilly attends AAFCS meeting in Seattle

Lou Gilly, Haskell County Extension Agent-Family and Consumer Sciences, attended the 90th Annual Meeting and Exposition of the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences (AAFCS) in Seattle, Washington, June 26-29.

At the meeting, Gilly joined approximately 1,200 professionals in the family and consumer sciences field to explore the 1999 Annual Meeting theme "Invest in Families: Maintaining a Healthy Lifestyle." Attendees participated in panels, roundtables, lectures and workshops to learn how they can address the complexities of today's most pressing concerns—with an emphasis on issues facing families.

"This was a very worthwhile meeting. I gained much valuable and inspirational information that will help me with programming efforts in Haskell County. The experience of interacting with FCS professionals from across the nation was a great boost for me at this stage of my career," Gilly says.

Founded in 1909, the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences is a not-for-profit organization of more than 13,000 members dedicated to improving the quality of individual and family life through programs that educate, influence public policy, disseminate information and publish research findings.

August 6-8 declared sales tax holiday for many school clothing purchases

by Lt. Gov. Rick Perry

School buildings are mostly empty. Family vacations are underway. Texas temperatures are rising. The Rangers and Astros lead their divisions. It's definitely summertime in the Lone Star State.

Summer is in full swing, but Texas families might want to start thinking about their back-to-school shopping. Why? Thanks to Senate Bill 441, which the Legislature passed and Governor Bush signed earlier this year, Texas families will enjoy 72 hours of tax-free shopping in early August.

On August 6, 7 and 8 Texans will enjoy the first-ever Texas sales tax "holiday." Items of children's and adult clothing and non-athletic shoes, costing less than $100 will be completely exempt from state and local sales taxes. Texas leaders estimate this sales tax holiday will save Lone Star State consumers $69.2 million.

Athletic shoes and clothing commonly used as everyday wear, such as football jerseys, baseball caps, or running shoes costing less than $100, will be exempt. But items used exclusively for athletic purposes, such as golf shoes or football pants, are not eligible for the sales tax break. In addition, jewelry, handbags, wallets and formal wear are not exempt.

Sales tax holidays conducted in other big states have proven to be good news for retailers and consumers alike. Since January 1997, New Yorkers have saved $81.6 million thanks to three sales tax holidays. Florida's $50 sales tax holiday conducted last August saved families $15.1 million.

Texas' August 6-8 sales tax holiday is part of a package of pro-consumer tax relief measures aimed at putting money back into the pockets of Texas families.

The Legislature also eliminated sales taxes on over-the-counter medications and up to $25 per month in Internet access charges. Altogether, state leaders cut consumer, sales, business and property taxes by nearly $2 billion this year allowing citizens to keep more of their hard-earned money.

State leaders used the record $6.4 billion budget surplus wisely. We funded record increases in public school funding, a $3,000 pay raise for school teachers, human service and criminal justice needs and then returned nearly $2 billion to the people in the form of tax cuts.

Going back to school is often stressful for children and parents alike. Back to school shopping can be a taxing and expensive experience. Fortunately, our state leaders have made things easier by cutting taxes. So as your summer vacation comes to a close and the 1999 school year looms on the horizon, remember that you have 72 hours of tax-free shopping on August 6, 7 and 8.

Backyard trampolines pose potential dangers

Do you have a potential killer in your backyard? Trampolines are popular pieces of backyard play equipment, but that popularity has led to an increase in injuries. In the early 1990s, the number of injuries to children from trampolines nearly tripled—reaching near epidemic levels, according to a survey conducted at a Utah medical school. About two-thirds of the injuries happened on the trampoline itself, while a substantial percentage involved a fall from the trampoline. Common trampoline injuries include fractures and spinal damage. Some of these injuries can be severe, requiring hospitalization or surgery.

Some doctors are calling for a ban on trampolines, especially those used at home. Doctors at UT Southwestern say one of the reasons trampolines are so dangerous is that trampolines allow children to jump very high, making the distance to the ground greater if they fall. Even if they land on the trampoline, landing at the wrong angle or on the wrong part of the body can cause injury. If you have a backyard trampoline, don't allow children to use it without supervision. Only one person should jump at a time. But it's best to limit trampoline jumping to a gymnastics class where safety precautions are taken, children are instructed in proper use of the trampoline and instructors are trained in safety procedures.

NBC Report Indicates Many Hearing Aid Patients are Wearing Outdated Technology

A recent report on the NBC Evening News* stated that within the last three years there have been dramatic advancements in hearing instrument technology. If you are currently wearing hearing aids that are more than three years old, they may contain outdated circuitry. The national television report went on to say that replacing the older technology with newer, advanced technology may result in an increased level of customer satisfaction.

Amy Arp, Keith Bowles united in double ring ceremony

Amy Lynn Arp and Gregory Keith Bowles of Paducah exchanged vows in a double ring ceremony Sat., June 26 at First United Methodist Church with the Rev. Archie Echols officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Winfred and Nina Arp of Levelland. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Williams of Paris and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Arp of Ropesville. Great grandmother is Mrs. Roma Scott of Iowa Park.

The groom is the son of Donnie and Pam Bowles of Rule. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bowles and Mrs. Novice Pittcock, all of Rule.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. She wore an elegant full length sheath gown of Venice lace designed by Mary's. The lace was accented with pearls and sequins. The sleeveless gown featured a wedding band collar and triangle keyhole in the back. The mid cathedral train fell from a cluster of rosettes at the waistline and was accented with appliques of Venice lace. To complete her ensemble, she chose a handmade veil of pearls and lace tiara. She carried a bouquet of cymbidium orchids and greenery a top a small white Bible and lace handkerchief that was given to her by her maternal grandmother, Maybelle Williams.

For bridal tradition, the bride wore her paternal grandmother's, the late Doris Arp, wedding rings for something old. She borrowed a pearl bracelet from her aunt, Jane Jones. For something blue she wore a blue garter. Her wedding dress and veil was something new. She wore pennies in her shoes minted in the year of their birthdays.

The groom wore a black western cut tux with tails with a white tie and vest and black Wranglers. He wore a boutonniere of a white rose accented with fresh greenery.

The maid of honor was Suezanna Wade of Whitharral, friend of the bride. Bridesmaids were Michelle Ott of Dallas and Whitney Seago of Abilene. They wore matching A-line navy blue floor length dresses with matching scarves flowing on their neck. Each girl carried three rose colored Gerbers and greenery tied with navy blue ribbon.

The best man was Nathan Bowles of Rule, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Scott Stephens of O'Brien and Timmie Campbell of Rule. They wore black western cut tuxes with blue and black vest and ties and black Wranglers.

Serving as flower girl was Amber Neighbors of Big Spring, cousin of the bride. She wore a navy blue and white stripe dress with a navy blue bow at the waist with white patent shoes and lace socks. She carried a white lace basket with bows and little cowboy hats on the sides filled with pink rose petals.

The ring bearer was Colton Pittcock of Palestine. He wore a black western cut tux with vest and tie and black Wranglers. He carried a white satin pillow with rope and cowboy hat on it.

Greg Arp of Plano and Josh Arp of Levelland, brothers of the bride, were ushers and candle lighters.

Registering guests was Stacy Russell of Wolfforth, friend of the bride. The registry table had a black ceramic boot filled with spring flowers, the guest book with a plum pen, western style programs and a candle in a black wrought iron holder.

Tara Powell, friend of the bride, sang "Keeper of the Stars" accompanied by Kim Townsend on guitar. "To Make You Feel My Love" was sang by Kim Townsend while the mothers were being seated. Greg and Josh Arp lit the spiral candles after all the guests were seated. The mother of the bride was escorted in by Greg Arp and Josh Arp, brothers of the bride, followed by Winfred Arp.

Pam Bowles, mother of the groom, was escorted in by her son, Keith Bowles, followed by Donnie Bowles.

After both set of parents were seated Misty Haynie sang "The Parents' Prayer" accompanied by Steven Brock and Kim Townsend. The parents lit the bride and groom's candle which accented the unity candle.

Misty Haynie, accompanied by Steven Brock and Kim Townsend, sang "To Me" as the bride and groom lit the unity candle. After vows were exchanged and the couple were pronounced man and wife they left the church to "I'm From the County" by Tracy Byrd.

The church was decorated with a fifteen branch and two spiral branch candelabras accented with greenery and navy blue bows. The altar was also adorned with two large spring bouquets. The aisles were marked with navy blue bows with rope entwined in them.

A reception followed the ceremony. The bride's table featured a three-tiered white cake with blue tulle and rope entwined along the edges with fresh flowers between each layer. A cowboy and cowgirl with a rope heart background topped the cake. Tandra Nichols, friend of the bride, made the cake. Crystal bowls with mints and nuts were an addition to the table along with a crystal punch bowl and mock champagne. The bride's bouquet accented the bridal table. Serving at the bride's table were Jane Jones, Shara Helmbeck and Robin Arp.

The groom's table featured a chocolate cake with strawberries atop it. A State Trooper Poem along side a picture of the groom in his state trooper car accented his table along with a crystal bowl with nuts, mints and chocolate covered strawberries. Serving at the groom's table were Ashley Russell and Meredith Middlebrooks.

The bride graduated from Levelland High School, South Plains College and Eastern New Mexico with a teaching degree. She coached 8th grade girls basketball at Abilene Wylie for the past two years.

The groom graduated from Knox City High School, South Plains College and attended Midwestern University. He attended Department of Public Safety School in Austin and graduated April, 1999. He is a State Troop at Paducah.

MR. AND MRS. KEITH BOWLES

The couple will reside in Paducah after a wedding trip to Playa del Carmen, Mexico.

Showers were held in Abilene, Levelland, Rule and Knox City.

The rehearsal supper was a barbecue supper held at the County Line in Lubbock.

Food for thought

"The fruit of the light consists in all goodness and righteousness and truth." Ephesians 5:9

One morning I rose early, had my devotions and started making a special breakfast for my family. I was stirring the muffin mix, singing and feeling great when my sleepy-eyed son, Karl, wandered into the kitchen. He grabbed a box of cereal and an empty bowl and headed for the table.

"Hey, Karl, just a second. We're not having cereal this morning. We're going to sit around the table together and have a big breakfast with muffins."

"I don't like muffins, Dad," he mumbled, opening the cereal box.

"Wait, Karl," I insisted, starting to get annoyed. "We're going to sit around the table together and have a big breakfast with muffins."

"But I don't like muffins, Dad,"

he repeated.

I lost it. "Karl, we're going to sit around the table together and have a big breakfast with muffins!" I barked. Karl closed the cereal box, threw it in the cupboard, and stomped back to his room. My great idea had suddenly turned to shambles. I had to spend the next several minutes apologizing to Karl for my outburst.

Like me, I'm sure you have suffered your share of blocked goals. You had this great plan to do something wonderful for God, your church, your family, or a friend. Then your plan was thrown into disarray by hectic daily events over which you had no control. You didn't get your way at the board meeting. Your child decided to be the lead guitarist in a rock band instead of becoming a doctor like you planned.

When you base your life on the success of plans that are subject to people and circumstances, your life will be one long, emotional roller coaster ride. And the only way to get off the roller coaster is to walk by faith according to the truth of God's Word. Who you are must not be dependent on the cooperation of others or favorable circumstances. Decide to become the spouse, parent, leader or worker God wants you to be. No one can block that goal except you.

Mother of the bride is Mary Fierro.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Nick Jimenez, Sr. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Jimenez of Weinert. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Avila of Haskell are the maternal grandparents.

Music was provided by Cindy Guess of Weinert, pianist; Richard Rodriguez of Abilene, guitarist; and Sandra Perez of Clyde, vocalist. The groom performed a solo of "Si Quiere Dios." Best man, John Adam Avila of Haskell, accompanied him on accordion.

The bride wore a white satin formal length gown. The bodice was heavily adorned with white pearls stitched upon lace and embroidered accents. The gown was designed with a circular scalloped neckline and short sleeves. The full satin skirt led to the cathedral length train with white pearls and lace cut outs.

The bridesmaids wore formal length gowns designed in navy blue satin. The bodice was accented with navy beads.

The groom wore a white penguin tailed tuxedo designed by Perry Ellis.

The groomsmen wore black and white Perry Ellis tuxedos.

They will reside in Lubbock.

Summertime climate right for athlete's foot

The warm, moist climate that makes outdoor activities enjoyable during the summer also provides the perfect breeding ground for the fungi that causes athlete's foot.

Athlete's foot refers to a common fungal infection that can cause feet to itch, burn and sting.

"Athlete's foot is contagious and can be passed through direct contact, or contact with items such as shoes, stockings and public showers or pool surfaces," says Dr. Amit Pandya, associate professor of dermatology at UT Southwestern.

To avoid contamination, Pandya suggests:

- Always dry feet thoroughly.
- Apply anti-fungal powder once a week.
- Avoid wearing the same athletic shoes on consecutive days.
- Wear socks made of natural material such as cotton and wool.
- Avoid going barefoot in public places.
- Do not wear someone else's shoes.

Local girls attend Girls State

Three Haskell girls who attended as citizens of the American Legion Auxiliary Bluebonnet Girls State, which was held June 15-24 in Seguin, at Texas Lutheran University, were elected as officers in the organization.

Amber Futch, daughter of Terry and Kathy Futch, was named Precinct Chairperson. Delinda Strickland, daughter of Linda Strickland, was elected County Deputy. Brandy Gardner, daughter of Roland and Sharee Gardner, was elected County Attorney.

Girls State was organized as a National Americanism activity in 1937 by the American Legion Auxiliary. Non-partisan and non-political, the purposes of the Girls State program are to provide citizenship training for girls of high school age, to afford them an opportunity to live together as a self-governing group and to inform them of the duties, privileges, rights and responsibilities which they will assume when they become adults. They learn the problems of government by simulating the duties of city, county, and state officials. Each year citizens of Girls State are selected at local levels from students who have just completed their junior year in high school.

Joyce Kilgore receives certificate

Joyce Kilgore of Haskell was awarded a Certificate of Completion for her satisfactory participation in job search seminar classes conducted by Lori Bunton of Jobs Plus and funded by the Welfare to Work program.

When Joyce first applied with WTW, she assumed that because she has no high school education, her opportunities would be limited. However, through the job search seminar, she has discovered talents and interests that she can develop and take to the work place. Now her goal is to find a job in the clerical or computer fields and continuing her education.

Jobs Plus and Welfare to Work are working together in this area to help people get off the welfare roles and into jobs that lead to career.

Jobs Plus conducts the seminars that help people to identify the talents and interests that they have.

In addition, the classes cover how to complete an application that stands out from the rest, how to dress for an interview, how to successfully interview and how to retain a job.

The Welfare to Work program provides such services as help with transportation and child care expenses while the customer is actively working with the Welfare to Work program in a job seminar and while they look for a job. The Welfare to Work program also offers assistance for short term housing, counseling and work related expenses.

Jacqui Turner-Waldon is the Welfare to Work case manager for Knox, Haskell, Throckmorton, Stonewall and Jones counties and will be happy to answer any questions about the Welfare to Work program.

If you are interested or have questions contact Jacqui at: 1-800-457-5633.

This Week's Devotional Message:

IF GOD WANTS YOU TO FIND IT, IT WON'T BE LOST

A woman accidentally threw away a rather large check. It had gotten mixed up with some mail order forms which she discarded in a plastic trash bag that she and her husband deposited at the county dump later that day. After discovering that the check was missing and spending a sleepless night, they returned to the dump early the next morning. They got permission to look around from the caretaker, who helped them by bulldozing the mountain of debris one layer at a time. They finally located their trash bag among the dozens exactly like it and then found the check—not even wrinkled. As we learn at our House of Worship, our destiny is in the hands of the Lord, and we can never lose anything as long as He wants us to find it.

Three attend Farm Bureau seminar

Attending the Texas Farm Bureau's 36th annual Citizenship Seminar in San Angelo June 14-18 were Tiffany Loving, Levi Terry and Ashley Medford.

Sponsored by the Haskell County Farm Bureau, they were among approximately 350 high school junior and senior students from over 150 counties across the state.

The seminar provides the students with a better understanding of their American heritage and the capitalistic free enterprise system, according to Joe Wheatley of Haskell, county FB president.

The students were welcomed to the seminar by Dr. James Hindman, president of Angelo State University. "Farm Bureau—Your Host" was presented by Bob Stallman, president of Texas Farm Bureau.

Rob Hinnant (TFB Field Representative), Stephanie Simon (1998 Miss TFB), and Brooke Snoddy, the 1998 TFB Speech contest winner, presented a program on "Farm Bureau Youth Activities."

The students also participated in a program called "Congressional Insights," which allowed them to simulate a Congressional office and election.

Regular eye check-ups can help you keep your vision

A regular check-up could help you keep your vision.

Although glaucoma is a major cause of blindness, doctors at UT Southwestern say with early diagnosis, glaucoma-related blindness can be prevented.

Glaucoma occurs when the flow of fluid from the eye is restricted. That causes pressure to build up in the eye and the increased pressure can damage the optic nerve, which can lead to blindness. Older people, those with a family history of the disease, people with high blood pressure, African Americans and people with diabetes are at increased risk for developing glaucoma.

The best way to detect glaucoma early enough to avoid blindness is with a comprehensive annual eye exam. A test for glaucoma should be part of any eye exam and can be done easily in your optometrist's office. Everyone should start having exams every year after age 40. If you have one of the risk factors for glaucoma, talk to your optometrist or ophthalmologist about starting regular eye exams earlier.

Avoid toxic plants

Few things are as aesthetically pleasing as a beautiful garden. But many common flowers are toxic if eaten and could pose a threat to young children.

"Be cautious about which plants you choose to plant in your yard," says Dr. Greene Shepherd, a clinical toxicologist and instructor of emergency medicine at UT Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas. "A child can put something in his or her mouth when your back is turned for only a minute."

Azaleas, caladiums, chrysanthemums, daffodils, hyacinth, hydrangea, iris, jonquils, morning glories, mums and periwinkles are all potentially harmful flowers. So stick with begonias, crape myrtles, gardenias, geraniums, honeysuckle, impatiens, marigolds, petunias, roses and zinnia, all of which are considered safe.

Call the Texas Poison Center Network at 1-800-POISON-1 (1-800-764-7661) for more information.
