Mr. Muleshoe ...

By J. M. FORBES

Only person I can think of who, as a class, might object to elimination of the party convention system in politics are the professional politicians, the men who hold the reins over their parties in the state. A preferential primary to indicate the people's true sentiment might be entirely foreign to their way of doing things for these many years.

Yet it seems the only fair way to do if the politicians really want us to take part in public affairs, as they have been saying vociferously this year. I have had about as much to do with the selection of delegates this year as you had with the writing of Genesis. These delegates will select, or help select, supposedly, our Democratic candidate for President. Actually, they, too, are subject to politics at the national convention and will, themselves, hence more or less to the line, since to take independent action would be tantamount to throwing away influence and any power an individual delegate might have.

Anyone who talks to delegates who attended our party conventions must become convinced that the convention system is one of the most undemocratic institutions we have. Let the voice of the people be heard, don't let some hepped up politician claim that he speaks for the millions. Let the millions speak directly.

According to this man it will rain Monday at 3 o'clock. He says it always rains about 15 minutes before it's too late and 3:15 will be too late for rain to help his cotton.

The right of eminent domain, it seems, is a principle that is deeply rooted in American law, equity, custom and maybe it goes back to the Constitution. Can the right of eminent domain be abridged, limited, defined, curtailed, added to, modified, or clarified? This column doesn't know but thinks we might try.

An article which appeared in a recent issue of the Saturday Evening Post, written by a man who himself was "eminent domain" good and proper, is enlightening.

When a railway company wanted right of way for a new line to the town in which I was living, I thought their right to cut across private owned property was all OK, since it was for the best interest of most people that the new line be built. Sometimes, after many moons have waxed and waned, the shoe gets on the other foot.

500 Acres Castor Beans In Bailey Are Up To A Good Stand Is Report

Castor beans on about 500 Bailey County acres are up and off to a fair start, Travis Winter, PMA administrative officer announced today.

He said those who have the beans are well pleased with the way they came up after planting and the way they are growing off. Some farmers found the beans came up more readily than cotton.

Winter pointed out that 500 acres constitutes a fair experiment with castor beans, and further that the farms where they are now growing are well scattered and a full observation of soils, and other elements will be possible.

Bailey County men who have castor bean crops and the amount of acreages are: Guy Sanders, 12 1/2; Raymond Gaede 26; George Stotts 40; E. A. Bundrant 12 1/2; Leonard Gandy 100; J. P. Wedel 20; Gravin Long 7 1/2; Robert M. Walker 10; C. E. Moore 6; Gordon Murrah 31; C. R. Mayhugh 10; W. T. Bovell

7 1/2; J. C. Metcalf 15; O. E. Lee 40; Frank Mooney 20; Lewis Scoggins 20; W. T. Millen 50; Tolbert Coleman 7 1/2; Alex Darricek 10; H. E. and Jack Schuster 25.

Mr. Winter said he thinks there is still time to plant castor beans if desired, saying that they likely would be all right planted up to June 15 or 20 but later planting likely would yield less beans.

BABSON DISCUSSES

Salaried Workers

Babson Park, Mass., May 30.—I am much concerned about the financial plight of some white-collar workers. I am talking about small business managers, schoolmasters, bookkeepers, sales clerks, doctors, and the clergy. These have been our community leaders. They have represented much of what has been best in our communities. To destroy them financially is to destroy an important segment of our American way of life; and that is what is happening.

MIDDLE CLASS LIVING STANDARDS DECLINE

This is the group of people who from 1935 to 1939 earned salaries ranging from $2,500 to $3,500. Only last week I talked with a salaried executive of one company. In 1939 he was making $3,000 per year. Raises since that time have brought his salary to $4,000. In 1932 he took out insurance policies which would pay $500 per year toward each child's education. The college to which he planned to send his children then cost $950 per year. Today the charges are $1,500.

With inflation and increased taxes, this man cannot afford the education he had planned for his children without going into debt. It is this segment of our population whose bank accounts have shrunk, who have been forced to cash in war bonds and insurance policies—not for television sets and new cars—but to pay the food, clothing, and shelter bills. Yet, this executive is probably getting pay above what the average reader of this column receives.

HERE'S WHAT HAPPENED

The 1935-39 $2,500 a year male school teacher would need much more today to maintain his 1935-39 living standards. How many school committees have raised their teachers as much as they should? The result is that our teachers have constantly had to pull in their belts for the education of their children, hospitalization, and their old age. This explains why there is a shortage of teachers. Those teachers whose salaries have increased most are the young college instructors, who have had an average rise from $1,900 in 1940 to about $3,000 today—an increase of 58%. This unfortunate situation is not wholly due to inflation. Some of the troubles are due to the school teachers and parents themselves. They have failed to install into the youth a love for work and a desire to be of real service. Our communities are now suffering from this neglect of fundamental training. Perhaps the school teachers are themselves partly to blame for their present predicament.

SALARIED WORKERS VS. WAGE EARNERS

Wage earners, on the other hand, through group pressure—namely, labor unions—have gained ground fast. During the 1935-39 period, manufacturing workers earned, as a group, about $23 per week. Today they make about $66 per week. This represents an increase of approximately 187% in wage earnings. Now I don't begrudge these workers this increase—not at all. They're not going to live too riotously even at $66. I am glad they have benefited. By way of contrast, however, the most fortunate college professor in a relatively small number of colleges has received an increase of only 40% during the same period.

What I am concerned about is that those white collar workers in our community who, by the nature of their training and experience, have been our leaders have not received the same kind of treatment as the production line workers. Does this mean that the only way to get the problem recognized is through group pressure? If top management does not realize the inequities to this group of workers, I am afraid they are inviting disaster.

LOOKING INTO THE FUTURE

Perhaps the one consoling factor for the white collar worker is that commodity prices and federal taxes will probably not increase further in 1952. This, however, is small encouragement for a substantial block of our most solid citizens. On the other

SAND HILLS PHILOSOPHER

Wants To Drop Johnson Grass Seed On Enemy Country Instead Of Germs

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm won't get anywhere with his idea this week, mainly because all farmers aren't as lazy as he is.

Dear editor:
The onswep of civilization, I noticed from a copy of The Journal I pulled off my face after a gust of wind wrapped it around my head yesterday as I came up the lane toward my house out here, has now reached the point where bacteriological warfare is getting more and more possible, and there is a general hue and cry against the idea.

Germ warfare is devastating, and it throws the whole conception of war out of joint. Trainin to perfection on how to fire a bazooka is poor defense against an enemy attack of athletes foot at the hands of enemy trained bacteria. Knowin how to trigger an atom bomb is no defense against a stealthy attack of cold hand, all should realize that raising wages is not the cure for the disease or the answer to the problem. Too many white collar workers have lost interest in their work and are trying to do as little as possible rather than as much as possible. Only when employers and all their workers forget themselves and again earnestly co-operate for the good of everyone will the inflation problem be solved.

TODAY'S meditation

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

THE HOLY SPIRIT
Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you. (Acts 1:8.) Read Luke 11:13.

We are plainly told what that new power meant to the disciples and to the world about them.

Like them, we know what we should do and what we should be. What we mostly lack is the power to live this out. Luke tells us where this power can be secured, for we learn that "If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him." If we let His Holy Spirit instead of our wills govern all our thoughts and actions, we become new creatures filled with a new power.

caused the apostles, mostly very ordinary men, to turn the world upside down. The early Church prayed for and was dependent upon this power. It is the same power for which our Church needs to pray today and of which it needs always to be possessed.

PRAYER
Loving heavenly Father, in the name above every other name known to mankind, we pray that Thou wilt give each of us the gift of Thy indwelling Holy Spirit. Only so shall ye be enabled to do our part to make the Christian Church of today a mighty power. In our precious Saviour's name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
By the power of the Holy Spirit we become new creatures after God's own pattern. J. Elliott Monfries, (Tasmania)

This is the same power which which there are ceiling prices. A ceiling was established last January after potato prices had passed the parity price by 5 cent. It was the first time in three and a half years that potatoes had ever reached parity.

Meanwhile, the Department of Agriculture was viewing the potato situation calmly despite the excitement around the Price Stabilization Agency offices. The supply was short, but the department said it could be met by a production increase in the early producing states.

The early state growers would have stepped up production and over come the shortage, but for the fact that a ceiling was clamped on prices. Had there been no ceiling, prices would have jumped for a short period, but a large new crop would have sent them tumbling. The Agriculture Department now predicts that because of the ceiling price total spring planting will be the smallest since 1867.

The Office of Price Stabilization has given the housewife price ceilings, but in doing so has taken away her potatoes.

Miss Joyce Gwyn, Mr. Joe Walker Are Wed In Progress Baptist Church

MRS. JOE WALKER

The Progress Methodist Church was the scene Sunday night at eight o'clock of the marriage of Miss Joyce Gwyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Gwyn, and Mr. Joe Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Walker of Floydada.

Rev. Carrol M. Jones read the double ring ceremony before an altar of white gladioli flanked with candelabra.

Miss Gwyneth Bigham at the piano accompanied Beth Walker, sister of the groom, as she sang, "I Love Thee", "Thine Alone" and "The Lords' Prayer" as a musical benediction.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace over satin fashioned with a sweetheart collar. The fitted bodice and slender waist was emphasized by a deep point in the center. The long fitted sleeves ended in points over the hands. Her fingertip illusion veil of silk illusion fell from a hat trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli surrounded with white stephanotis on a white prayer book.

Serving the bride as maid of honor was Miss LaRue Black of Waco. Bridesmaids were Misses Betty Brotherton of Littlefield and Patsy Huff of Canadian. Junior bridesmaids and candle-lighters were Shirley Walker of Floydada and Donna Kaye Actkinson. The attendants wore identical dresses of white organza over taffeta fashioned with low necklines and immense skirts. Dutch lace caps and organza gauntlets completed the costumes. They carried bouquets of yellow daisies with yellow streamers.

best man and ushers were Charles Cox of Matadore, Jackie Jarrett of Floydada, Harvey Reeves of Shamrock and Jack Teague of Dimmitt. The aisle mat was unrolled by Carter Taylor of New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell.

The mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of brown lace with light brown accessories and a corsage of yellow iris. Mrs. Walker, mother of the groom, wore a navy crepe dress with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The serving table was decorated with yellow daisies and yellow tapers. A crystal punch bowl and a three tiered cathedral cake completed the decor.

Serving were Mona McDorman, Mrs. James McDorman of Farwell, and Mrs. Carl Jarrett of Floydada. Members of house party were Mesdames Roland Bigham, Eugene Black, Troy Actkinson, Carrol Jones, Tommie Brown of Hawaii, and Misses Sue Actkinson, Doris Richardson of Borger and Barbara Jones.

For her trip to Sante Fe, the bride wore a gray linen suit with accessories of orchid and black.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker will reside here in Muleshoe.

The bride is a graduate of Muleshoe High School and West Texas State College at Canyon where she was a member of Kappa Tau Phi Sorority.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Floydada High School and West Texas State College at Canyon where he was a member of Alpha Sigma Xi Fraternity.

BUILDING NEW HOME
Mr. and Mrs. Morris Douglass are building a new home in the Lenau addition and rapid progress is being made in its construction.

HE GOT ELIMINATED

Sam Fox, Muleshoe shotmaker, got eliminated in the Clovis city tourney Saturday and thereby went glimmering any hope the local golfing fraternity had of garnering honors in that tournament. Fox had won two matches and seemed headed for the higher reaches of his flight when he was cut down in the semi-finals.

Fox was paired with Wilbur Leveque in the finals of the Muleshoe Scotch tournament at the same time and was to play that match this week. Several other Muleshoe golfers took part in the Clovis tournament.

Insurance --- WHICH SHOULD YOU BUY?

HERE'S WHAT --- HERE'S WHY ---

MUTUAL?

RECIPROCAL?

LLOYDS?

Stock Companies DO Guarantee Payment Of Losses --- Backed By The Capital Of Stockholders.

Mutuals, Reciprocal & Lloyds May Not Have Capital To Guarantee Loss Payments --- There Are No Capital Stockholders.

STOCK COMPANIES

A stock company takes all your risk for one fixed premium payment. Your safety and security are guaranteed by the company's capital, and when you buy this class of insurance, you are never subject to assessment.

The operation of stock companies is carefully regulated by state and federal laws which are thorough in their application. Your interests are protected at every point. There is no class of insurance so sound as stock company insurance.

Stock companies are carefully managed. Those in charge are usually heavy investors in the company's capital and are, therefore, interested in the success and progress of the organization. They are operating a business at their risk for your protection. The stock company plan, together with the exacting laws governing the operation of these companies, and the strict supervision by the various state insurance departments, make stock insurance the most sound and dependable class of insurance known.

RECIPROCAL COMPANIES

In reciprocal insurance individuals (usually called subscribers) simply exchange insurance with each other. Each subscriber agrees with every other policyholder, to take part of each individual risk. In this way you, as a subscriber, enter into a contract to insure the other subscribers, in return for their agreement to insure you.

If losses prove heavy, and the expense of operation high, so that the original payments which you and the other subscribers have made are insufficient to pay the claims, you are liable for an assessment to make up the deficit.

The laws governing reciprocals are lax. In fact, many states are almost without laws regulating such organizations. The result is that members of reciprocals are practically without the valuable protection afforded by state and federal supervision and control.

Change In Insurance Regulation Slated

AUSTIN, May 15. — County mutual fire insurance companies will have to observe stricter regulations—designed to protect their policyholders—to write new policies in Texas after May 31.

The State Board of Insurance Commissioners issued a report yesterday highly critical of operations of all but a few of the 51 county mutual fire insurance companies now operating in Texas.

It said 10 other such firms have become insolvent and are now in receivership, with 50,000 policyholders under obligation to pay additional premiums to meet the companies' liabilities.

Regulations were tightened on reserve funds, agents' commissions, and managerial contracts for companies that want to do business after May 31.

THE ABOVE ARTICLE FROM THE LUBBOCK AVALANCHE JOURNAL FRIDAY, MAY 16, 1952

SUMMARY

Summed up, there is only one class of sound insurance, and that is good, strong, stock company insurance, in a company which offers its protection on a basis of quality, rather than price.

One price prevails among companies of this kind, because they base the cost of their insurance on actual experience and knowledge of the business.

If you place your insurance on a basis of sound business principles, rather than on a basis of cost, relationship, good fellowship or sympathy,—then, when misfortune knocks at your door, good, old, stock company insurance will prove to be your best friend and you will never suffer disappointment, financial loss or neglect.

MUTUAL COMPANIES

In most mutual insurance you become a member of the mutual in which you buy a policy. Should the losses and expenses of operation exceed the premiums which you (together with the other members of the mutual) have paid, you will be compelled to pay such additional assessments as may be found necessary to meet the excess of losses and expenses; there being no capital in a mutual to guarantee the payment of these items.

Consequently a mutual policy, instead of an asset, may and frequently does become a heavy liability. You may find yourself confronted with the necessity of paying an assessment when you can least afford it.

As a policyholder in a mutual, you become a member in a complicated business, operated at your risk for the benefit of those promoting the company; and unless you are entirely familiar with the business of insurance and want to spend considerable time defending your interests, you will do well to diligently avoid this class of insurance.

LLOYDS

A Lloyds insurance organization is different from a Stock Company, a Reciprocal and a Mutual Company. Its policies are signed by a certain number of subscribers or underwriters. They take the place, so to speak, of stockholders of a Stock Company. A Lloyds is not a corporation. Each subscriber or underwriter assumes a definite percentage of liability of each risk written. Policyholders of a Lloyds are not subject to assessment. The strength of a Lloyds policy rests entirely upon the honesty and financial worth of the subscribers or underwriters. Do you have the time and facilities to personally investigate the moral and financial standing of a large group of people?

GM Builds New 'Two-Way' Plant in Texas

Construction work has begun on the new General Motors "dual purpose" plant (above) at Arlington, Texas, where GM's Buick-Oldsmobile-Pontiac Assembly Division will build a Grumman-designed airplane for the United States Navy and assemble passenger cars simultaneously. The flexible layout of the plant will permit combined aircraft-automotive operations or it can be converted in a matter of days to either total aircraft or total automotive production, depending upon military requirements. The "dual purpose" plant idea was first proposed a year ago by C. E. Wilson, GM president, as a means of maintaining strong military and civilian production levels without disruption of plant facilities or working forces. Most of the Buick, Oldsmobile and Pontiac cars produced in the Arlington plant will be for distribution in Texas.

event to elect a new Governor in Texas.

Delegations from Yarborough for Governor Clubs all over north-east and central Texas are planning to attend. Caravans from Limestone and Freestone Counties, from Shelby and Houston Counties, from Kaufman and Anderson and Smith are going to gather under the oaks of the Athens square where Governor O. M. Roberts, the Old Alcalde, once held district court for Henderson County.

Judge Yarborough, a former district judge and overseas veteran of World War II, has expressed the wish to meet as many of his friends as possible. He says he wants to shake their hand and let them look him in the eye. "The people will choose the next governor and I want them to look me over before they make up their minds," the well known attorney and civic leader said.

"I'm Sold On Quonset"

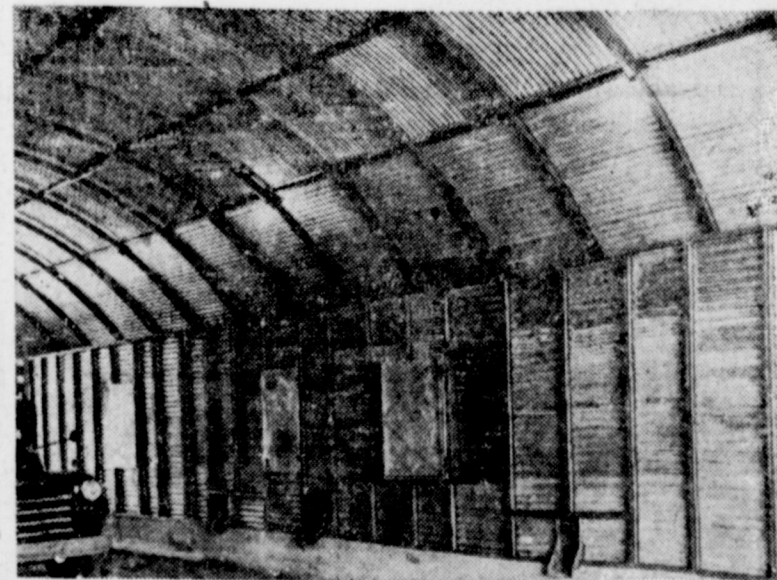

—MR. GRADY HALBERT
Foard City, Texas

"It's seldom that you find all-purpose equipment that will do a specialized job, but that's exactly how I feel about my new Quonset," states Mr. Grady Halbert, who farms 1/2 mile west of Foard City.

"My Quonset was constructed exactly as I designed it to fit my special purpose. I have 3,000 cubic feet of grain storage bins built into my 32' x 60' Quonset to take care of my grain and seed production, and I still have plenty of room left to take care of all my equipment storage and shop space. I consider the Quonset Steel Building a valuable asset to any farmer."

Why are women's purses bigger than men's?

Remember all those cartoons you've seen of a wife going through her sleeping husband's trouser pockets? They may give you a clue why some women's purses are bigger.

But we're inclined to think that there are other and better reasons why more women than men own stock in so many of America's largest companies.

For one thing, women are practical, thrifty, and inclined to do something sensible about their future finances and those of the family. Forgive us, mister, but the facts speak for themselves:

Women have outnumbered men share owners of telephone stock since 1900. The big food companies have a predominance of women share owners. Ditto the country's largest auto maker. And, at last count, 116,800 women owned shares in General Electric as against 83,000 men.

Big business, as it turns out, is a woman.

About 2,100 of these women—and men—turned out this spring to attend the G-E annual meeting and eat a box lunch in one of our largest factory buildings. If you'd like a report of what was said and done, just let us know. A card asking for "Report of the Sixtieth Annual Meeting," Dept. 6B, General Electric, Schenectady, N. Y., will do the trick.

A group of neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Davis Tuesday night, June 3, honoring them with a surprise party. Ice cream and cake were served and many nice gifts were presented to the Davis family. Many sent gifts who were unable to attend.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lawrence, 1001 Lamar. The tiered wedding cake centered the lace draped serving table. Miss Lawrence and Miss Berggren presided at the punch bowl and Miss Springstube secured names for the guest book.

Mrs. Adams attended school at Progress and was graduated from Amarillo High School. She attended Amarillo College and is now employed by the General Electric Supply Corporation of Amarillo. Her grandmother is Mrs. Clemmie Dearing of Muleshoe.

Mr. Adams was graduated from Amarillo High School and received his degree from West Texas State College, Canyon. He is serving in the Army and will report on May 26 at Fort Holabird, Md.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES
Complete peace and harmony in our daily affairs is the natural and normal result of acknowledging God as the only creator. This point is stressed in the Lesson-Sermon titled "God the Only Cause and Creator" to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, June 8. The Golden Text asks: "Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us?" (Malachi 2:10).

Man's relationship to his creator is emphasized in the following Psalm to be read from King James Version of the Bible: "The Lord is high unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth" (Psalms 145:18).

Further explaining the allness of God, good, are these words from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "There is but one primal cause. Therefore there can be no effect from any other cause and there can be no reality in ought which does not proceed from this great and only cause. Sin, sickness, disease, and death belong not to the Science of being. They are the errors which presuppose the absence of Truth, Life, or Love" (p.207).

VISITORS FROM HOUSTON
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. "Bud" Ward and son, Allen, of Houston visited here briefly Monday morning with W. Q. Casey and Homer Sanders, Sr., and families on their way to Glenwood Springs, Colo., for a vacation. Mr. Ward is connected with the National Bank of Commerce, a Jesse Jones Institution in Houston. He is a member of the city council in Houston's new suburb, Bellaire.

The local men met him at a recent convention and Ward and family accepted their invitation to visit here. The whole family were enraptured with the Plains of Texas.

REMINGTON Portable typewriters carried in stock at The Journal. Also adding machines.

ATTENDING CONVENTION
Pat Bobo and Myron Pool have been in San Antonio the past week attending the Democratic Convention there. They will return Friday and bring Pat Bobo's mother to Muleshoe from Midland.

Politics Topic At Rotary Club Session Tuesday

Bailey County's delegates to the Republican and Democratic state conventions, held last week in Mineral Wells and San Antonio, respectively, brought some highlights of the two meetings to members of the Rotary Club and their guests at the noon luncheon Tuesday.

Pat Bobo and Myron Pool told of the Democratic convention which they attended at delegates; Harry Walker, Republican delegate to the GOP convention from Bailey County discussed his party's meeting.

Bobo and Pool told of the harmony which existed in the Democratic convention. They said practically all counties were represented by the so-called Shivers group, which desired an unstructured delegation to the national convention. The two men attended the 19th Congressional District pre-convention caucus, and succeeded in securing the election of Otha Dent, of Lamb County as a delegate to the na-

JUNE IS DESIGNATED DAIRY MONTH IN TEXAS

Governor Shivers has designated June as "Dairy Month" in Texas.

He called attention to the dairy industry's contribution of $4,000,000,000 to the commerce of the state last year, when about 500,000 persons earned a livelihood from production, processing, distribution and sale of dairy products.

The governor said the dairy industry annually observes the month of June as "a period in which the values of milk and dairy products may be emphasized because June is the month when nature's bounty is most abundant and dairy herds achieve their greatest and best production".

Aims, Program Of Work, Policies Of West Texas C of C Are Outlined

Many people of this section especially business and professional people, are regular paying members of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, but few are well acquainted with its organization and with its aims, objects, and program of work.

Therefore The Journal editors felt that to reprint in brief from a speech made here at a regular meeting of the WTCC by Fred Husbands, the general manager, would be informative. We'll run a part of it in this week's paper, part in the following issues.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is an organization of business firms and business men serving an area of 132 counties, from Gainesville to Denton, Fort Worth, Cleburne, Waco, Johnson City, Kerrville, Del Rio and everything north and west of a line between those points.

It was organized in 1917 and has provided the leadership for many regional problems in that rich area since that time. It is composed of 5,600 members and is the largest organization of its kind in the country.

Its objectives might be said to lie in two categories—service and projects. It is presently in the second year of a reorganized approach to its responsibilities—with a grass roots level operation.

A year ago it had a staff of five employees—today it has twenty employees in three offices, the headquarters office at Abilene, a branch office at Plainview and another at Fort Worth.

It is operated and governed in strict accordance with the most thoroughly democratic principles, with 150 affiliated communities, 180 directors from these communities, each selecting its own directors, an executive committee of 10 district vice presidents, five directors-at-large, the president, treasurer, executive vice president and general manager, and the president of the Chamber of Commerce Managers Association of West Texas as an ex-officio member of that group.

Its staff is composed of eight men who are thoroughly qualified by experience and education to handle the responsibilities assigned to them in working with good leadership in the chairmanship of the committees of the WTCC.

Based upon the expressed wishes of the members assembled in district meetings and at the last two annual conventions, a practical and worthwhile program of work is in operation by the organization. Its work has been classified into the following principal fields of effort: water resources, taxation and legislation, industrial development, education, high-ways community services, Mexican relations for tourist and trade development, public information and tourist development, agriculture and livestock, and public relations and membership.

I should like to briefly review for you some of the work which was done last year and some of the specific objectives under way and to be activated this year.

Last year the first problem which confronted the new organization was to protect the water rights of the municipalities which were under attack in the legislature at Austin.

With the assistance and cooperation of a number of people all over West Texas, the efforts to destroy the water rights of municipalities were resisted successfully and we still have today the same legislative rights which have been in effect since 1931.

With the full expressed support of the WTCC board of directors and its water committee in favor of local control for underground water, the WTCC provided the campaign manager and publicity direction for the High Plains Water District when it was organized into a local control district last fall with some 13 counties comprising nearly 5 million irrigated acres in the South and High Plains area of West Texas.

The danger of federal control of all water resources was seen by the WTCC water committee last year when it sounded a warning that the report of the President's Water Resources Committee recommended that the Federal government should take control of all water resources, taking away state rights on surface water and the rights of the property owner on underground or sub-surface water.

Those Paramount Rights
The WTCC water committee also sounded a warning that the new doctrine of "paramount rights" as laid down by the courts in the tidelands case would certainly be applied to the appropriation of inland waters as well.

The truths in those two matters have since been proven, when most of you will remember that the federal government attempted to dispossess the property owners in the Santa Margarita River Case in California of their water rights which most of them had owned with the land for more than 75 years and in some cases more than 100 years. The federal government sought to take, without compensation, the water rights of those people on the basis of "paramount rights."

The Bureau of the Budget has a bill which was submitted as written by the President's Water Resources Committee, on which our committee sounded a warning last year, a bill that will provide the federal government with complete authority and domination of the water resources of this entire country. Needless to say, the WTCC is active in the fight to prevent this bill from receiving favorable consideration from the hands of Congress.

It was found that the work proposed by the Soil Conservation Service for watershed control of run-off water, through the construction of small dams in the watersheds of our streams, might conflict with the laws of the state of Texas if the federal law under which they were constructed did not clearly recognize the authority of the state over the water which would be impounded in those dams. The WTCC water committee requested that the agriculture committee of the U. S. Congress make specific provisions for the clear recognition of the state laws so that this work would not be attempted in conflict with those state laws.

More Funds For Water Study

In an effort to provide for a better water situation in our state, the WTCC favors more authority and funds for the State Board of Water Engineers in order that it may make ample provision for the flow gauge station on West Texas streams, quality analysis, siltation analysis and topographic mapping on the watersheds. This work is presently very, very inadequate and absolutely essential if the proper conservation of water is to be attempted, as good dam sites are scarce and ample data must be available in order that proper planning can enter into the construction of surface water reservoirs in our West Texas streams.

In the field of taxation and legislation, our purpose is to help our membership be better informed about tax and legislative matters so that the business men of West Texas can be more active in taking a constructive position on matters in the field of good active citizenship. Businessmen need more encouragement to express themselves intelligently on many matters affecting our free enterprise system and our democratic government at national, state and local levels.

County Tax Surveys
We offer a service in providing county tax surveys, ten were made last year, more are offered this year to businessmen in those counties which are interested in knowing more about the fiscal operations of county government so that more economy might be attempted in local government. Awards are made by the WTCC to those county governments which meet rigid requirements in economy and businesslike management of county affairs.

An education for Citizenship program is offered for a better understanding by high school seniors of the responsibilities of citizenship and the free enterprise system of business. A one-day program is scheduled on the campus of a college or university with high school seniors from schools within a radius of 75 or 100 miles of the particular college. In the morning there are two speakers who can do a good job of presentation and discussion of the two subjects mentioned above and in the afternoon thirty or thirty-five conferences are arranged with business and professional men and women so that these high school seniors may learn more about job opportunities in private business.

Picture of a Pair who just waked up

4-door, 6-passenger Special Sedan.

HERE in the driveway is a Buick. It has just arrived. It belongs to this proud young couple. They've just "arrived" too.

They've arrived at a discovery—the discovery that owning a Buick instead of a "low-priced car" isn't so much a matter of money.

It's a matter of knowing the facts of life. Buick prices are closer to the prices of smaller, less powerful, less distinguished cars than most people think.

Why don't you check into this?

You'll find you could pay $300 to $400 more — and still not match the horsepower of this nimble beauty.

You could pay hundreds of dollars more — and still not get any more interior room, or richer fabrics.

But that's only part of the story.

The big thing about any car is the way it goes. So you ought to find out how this car rides the road—the freedom from bobble and sway that cost a million real dollars to develop.

You ought to sample the way Dynaflo Drive* feeds the power — with a steady swoop and unbroken smoothness in city traffic, on hills, or out on the open road.

And you ought to know how it feels to touch off that Fireball 8 Engine. With all its might, this high-compression valve-in-head gets a lot of miles from a gallon of gas.

We'll tell you this—because a lot of folks have told us this: No matter what car you're driving now—no matter what cars you've looked at—they'll never seem the same after you try this one.

Just give us a chance to prove it — and you'll have a lot of fun.

Masonic Hall Is Scene Of Impressive Eastern Star Installation Ceremony

A very beautiful and impressive candlelight installation ceremony was held by Muleshoe Chapter No. 792, Order of Eastern Star Monday evening, June 2, at 8 o'clock in Masonic Hall.

The installing officers were: Worthy Matron, Mrs. Wynnie Dunn; Worthy Patron, J. E. Mills; Secretary, Mrs. Jane Beavers of Ft. Worth; Chaplain, Margaret Collins; Marshal Opal Brooks, Lubbock; and Organist, Ruth McCarty.

While the organist played softly, music appropriate for the occasion. Mrs. Margaret Epting and Mrs. Isabell Wilkerson lighted the candles.

The address of welcome was given in a very gracious manner by Miss Elizabeth Harden. The response by Mrs. Lura Rundell of Bovina. The Hall, with its lighted tapers, red carnations and greenery, was a beautiful flower garden, into which the Rainbow Girls very lovely in their pastel formal, executed their drill, terminating in a cross at the Altar. As the girls knelt in this living cross, the lovely old Hymn "The Old Rugged Cross" was sung by the audience.

To the strains of "The Star Spangled Banner," the United States Flag was presented by Herbert Potter; the splendid tribute was given by Mrs. Margaret Epps after which the audience sang this Grand Anthem. The Texas State flag was presented by Connie Gupton; Mary Farley gave the tribute, and Mrs. Juanita Roberts sang, very beautifully, "The Eyes of Texas." Buck Creamer presented the Eastern Star flag; the tribute was given by Mrs. Ada Thomson and "Star of The East" was sung by Mrs. Truma Griffiths.

As the organist softly played "The Rosary," Mrs. Hattie Griffiths, the Bible-bearer, entered, holding the open Bible and reciting the Twenty-Third Psalm, in a very impressive manner. She slowly approached the altar, placing the Bible thereon. The O. E. S. officers and drill contributed greatly to the program. Mrs. Truma Griffiths and Mrs. Jean Cox sang the beautiful Twenty-Third Psalm, after which the following officers were installed.

Worthy Matron, Viola Layne; Worthy Patron, R. J. Klump; Worthy Associate Patron, Frank Hinkson; Conductress, Willie Belle Mathis; Secretary, Hattie Ray Jones; Treasurer, Lola Bray; Chaplain, Lou Green; Marshall, Lorene Thomson; Ada, Juanita Roberts; Ruth, Anna Lucy McAdams; Esther, Bertha Johnson; Martha, Beth White; Electa, Mildred Wingo; Musician, Inez Kennedy; Warden, Louise Mills; Sentinel, Callie Smith.

After Mrs. Viola Layne was escorted to her station in the East by her husband, C. E. Layne and her daughter, Mrs. Spencer Beavers. She accepted her new office in a very charming and gracious manner, with a few well chosen words. The newly installed Worthy Patron made a very appropriate address. Several comments of appreciation and commendation were made by visiting members. Mr. Layne and Mrs. Spencer Beavers were introduced to the assembly, and the members of visiting chapters were requested to introduce themselves and give the name of their chapter. The Chapters of Bovina, Friona and Lubbock were represented, and one visitor was from San Louis Obispo, Calif.

The Junior Past Matron, Bettie Burkhead, was presented the Past Matron's jewel and she responded very graciously. The installing officers presented Mrs. Viola Layne with a beautiful white Bible and she thanked them very charmingly for their lovely gesture. Mrs. Margaret Collins, with a few well chosen words, presented Bettie Burkhead with a gift from the Past Matrons.

As a finale to this very inspiring program, the audience sang "My Faith Looks Up To Thee"; the benediction was given by Ray Griffiths. About one hundred were served delicious refreshments by Miss William Edd Jones and her committee in the banquet room.

SAILED FOR ENGLAND

Staff Sgt. Arthur L. Rush of Roswell sailed for England Tuesday. He has been stationed at Roswell with the Air Force. While he is away Mrs. Rush and baby will stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Creamer.

Mrs. Gatewood Of Germany Speaks To Bible Class

The Ladies Bible class of the Church of Christ which meets every Wednesday morning at 9 had a special treat this week when Mrs. Otis Gatewood of Frankfurt, Germany, talked to the class.

Mrs. Gatewood, wife of Otis Gatewood who with other ministers of the Church of Christ pioneered in the work of helping the German people after the war by giving them food and clothing and in preaching to them, is here visiting her sister-in-law and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Garrett.

The Gatewoods have spent 5 years in Germany and yet in such a short time she marvels at the customs in the states—so many automobiles, so few there, so many beautiful individual homes where in Germany they live in crowded apartments. The super-market here compared with their very small grocery stores with their limited supplies consisting of little more than sausages and sauer kraut, are very different. Germany is very crowded, the population of Frankfurt being 500,000 and occupying the space of a city here that has a population of 60,000.

Their Sundays and holidays are spent walking in the mountains and during their vacations they

HOME ON LEAVE

VISITED RELATIVES

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Leveque visited last week in Springfield, Colo., with his father, her father and other relatives.

Many, if not most of the congregations in Germany were begun directly or indirectly by the boys in the service.
