Full Agenda For Commissioners Court

The Crockett County Commissioners Court met Monday in the first regular meeting of the new year with all commissioners present. Byron W. Stuart, newly elected commissioner of Precinct 2, was sworn in and attended his first meeting of his first term. He replaced Bill Black, who finished his last term of office in December. A full agenda was on tap for the court, which is usual in the first meeting of a new year. Besides hearing reports from various county entities, new members were appointed to boards, the salary schedule for county employees was approved, and the final plans were approved for the new fire station. Von Parker, County Road

Superintendent, met with the court and reported the loss of a good deal of pavement in the county due to the hard freezes and ice, especially pavement which has not been sealed. He reported the building of a new road cost between $7,000 and $8,000 per mile while the sealing of existing pavement ran in the neighborhood of $2,000 per mile. The court suggested he salvage what pavement he could by sealing it, and said they would give him a report next month on where they planned to pave in each precinct when the weather permits. The court also authorized Parker to get bids on a grader and pickup to be submitted at the next meeting.

George Ybarra met with the court and asked that grass be planted on the senior league park infield. Stuart was delegated to oversee the piping of a water line to the area. Some discussion was held about practice fields for the various ball clubs as several have been eliminated by the school construction. The court agreed to do some work on more practice fields before the teams start workouts.

Judge Johnny Jones read a letter to the court from District Judge Troy Williams, which suggested the remodeling of the men's restroom in the courthouse, plus some other additions along with judge's chambers; recommendations for the county clerk to attend a school annually for the purpose of keeping up with changing laws, a strong suggestion that the court give serious consideration to the building of a new courthouse in the near future while the tax burden would fall on the oil companies rather than the land owner. The court agreed to meet in the rest room following the meeting and decide what must be done. There was no discussion on the other suggestions.

Steve Kenley, Dorris Haire and Dee Keilers met with the court and presented the final plans for the new fire station which is to be located on county property on Ave. J, across from the Red Apple drive in. The all steel building would be 105X70 feet, have a 4-room apartment, a 1-bedroom relief apartment, an engine room with bays for ten vehicles, a dispatch room and a meeting room. The architect did not submit a cost estimate with the plans, but when questioned, Judge Jones said the court had placed a ceiling of $175,000 on the total cost and he felt sure the architect had kept this in mind when designing the facility. Also, that $140,000 had been allocated for the new station in the budget which was approved in September.

Some lengthy discussion followed about just when the court approved the building of the facility. It was finally decided it was approved with the budget. However, Judge Jones reminded members of the court that actual approval would come with the acceptance of a bid, as well as the knowledge of the cost and suggested that the court approve the plans with some minor changes and get advertisements for bids out. He also asked that any objections be voiced at that time.

After a lengthy discussion, pro and con, the court approved the plans with some

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Historic inauguration ceremonies for Texas' first Republican governor in more than a century top Austin's political and social calendar for next week.

Bill Clements will take the oath of office at noon January 16 on the familiar flag and bunting-draped platform at the south steps of the capitol.

Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, a Democrat launching his third term, will share the inaugural festivities with Clements, but there is no doubt who will be in the spotlight.

Legislators launched their 66th biennial session here January 9; and agendas of both House and Senate already are stacked high.

Clements put the finishing touches on his top level executive staff just before lawmakers began their own preliminary organization, which included re-election of House Speaker Bill Clayton by representatives.

Legislators usually mark time while awaiting recommendations of the incoming governor. They may be listening a little more attentively this time, since the overwhelmingly Democratic House and Senate haven't looked to a Republican in the statehouse before.

Inaugural festivities for Clements will open with GOP fund-raising events Monday at Austin Municipal Auditorium.

A breakfast, prayer service, oath-taking ceremonies, a barbecue on the capitol grounds, parade, Young Texans celebration, inaugural symphony concert and five inaugural balls make up the Tuesday program.

Cuts Ordered

The State Insurance Board ordered cuts in workers compensation rates which may save businessmen $60 million a year.

Reductions effective February 1 average 5.3 per cent statewide. They are the first in a decade for coverage insuring workers against injuries received on the job.

Contractors will receive a 7.6 per cent cut and oil companies 8.8 per cent. The premium decrease for manufacturing firms is only four per cent, however, and other category including commercial firms will average a 4.3 per cent cut.

Shipbuilders and ship repair yards are an exception. Due to accident experience, their rates will jump 25 per cent, the maximum allowed.

Texas Trial Lawyers Association indicated they may appeal the board order, on grounds it allows too much for company expenses and taxes, and too little for claim payment.

White Takes Over

Mark White Jr. took the oath of office as Texas 44th attorney general January 1, promising a tough but open and fair administration.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe was among a large group of officials who turned out for the New Year's Day ceremony. Briscoe predicted White "will make the best attorney general Texas ever had."

Other new officials moving into their offices included Supreme Court Associate Justice Franklin A. Spears and Court of Criminal Appeals Judge Sam Houston Clinton.

White said bulk of the attorney general's legal staff will be retained, although he stirred some unrest by handing dismissal slips to about 30 employees.

Courts Speak

Texas Court of Criminal Appeals upheld the involuntary manslaughter conviction of a Houston man although he did not actually kill anyone.

In other cases, the court: —Overturned a Kleberg County marijuana conviction due to insufficient evidence.

—Reversed a Cameron County heroin conviction where a trace of the drug was found in a balloon held in a woman's mouth.

—Upheld three consecutive life sentences given a Dallas man for aggravated robbery and attempted murder.

—Affirmed an 80-year-sentence of a Corpus Christi man in a shooting death.

Southeast Texas health care agencies filed suit in Austin to prevent establishment of the first Texas hospital for terminally-ill cancer patients serving Jefferson, Orange, Hardin, Newton and Jasper counties.

AG Opinions

A sheriff's no-longer-active investigative report on a fatal fire is public, though the criminal history record of the deceased victim is not, former Attorney General John Hill held.

In other recent opinions before he left office, Hill concluded:

The preliminary work program for an audit of a state agency is exempted from public disclosure.

The state and political subdivisions are not prohibited from establishing a plan or system for sick leave payments to employees.

A county commissioners court may adopt through an administrative board rules and regulations regarding use of county parks. Fees may not be charged for use of county parks in absence of bonded debt.

A legislator may not be employed by the federal government, but is not prohibited from entering contracts with the federal government.

Short Snorts

Arson for profit is the fastest-growing crime in Texas. An increase is expected.

Gov. Briscoe requested Small Business Administration designation of Lee, Pecos, Stephens, Upshur and Wood counties as disaster areas for assistance due to drought.

Lower Rio Grande Valley citrus growers worked to salvage as much fruit as possible following a freeze in the area.

Fifty-five Texas refineries processed 154,361,996 barrels of crude oil and hydrocarbon blends during October.

The Railroad Commission denied a motion by railroad attorneys to present oral arguments on a four per cent general rate increase request.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

I have written many "kudos to the Ozona Volunteer Fire Department" through years past, even from the days when Joe North was chief, while sitting behind the publisher's desk of this newspaper.

But never have I been so personally enthusiastic about pitching bouquets at the feet of these unselfish men who go so far to serve their community. What brings about this overwhelming personal desire to laud the Ozona VFD members was an early morning experience late last week when I awoke to find my house fast filling with an acrid smoke. After searching under and behind every appliance, every closet, the basement furnace and all, I was unable to locate the source of the smoke invasion. Frustrated and fearful, I called the Fire Department.

It was a short few minutes before they arrived, set up smoke exhaust fans and went about ferreting out the source of the smoke, a burned out motor in the central heating unit.

I apologized profusely at waking them up (it was 6 a.m.) and their facetious reply was "that's what we get paid for." (They don't get paid at all.) But they are the most faithful of any who serve the people of Crockett County. These men, most of them busy business men and all with responsibilities of their own, jump at the sound of the alarm and race to the fire station to man the remarkably efficient equipment they have talked the county into providing.

They all have acquired great knowledge of fire fighting methods and in rescue and resuscitation service. They are dedicated, competent, resourceful and unselfish men and their service is not only comforting to the people but of real monetary value to the community through saving of property loss and insurance premiums.

Now, through the generosity of the present publisher of this paper, Kitty Montgomery, I would once again shout my admiration and gratitude to these men who so faithfully serve this community we all love. Thanks, fellows:

Evart White

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

Perhaps our coldest weather of the winter came last week, anyway we hope it was. If no rain, evergreens especially should have a good soaking now. If you have planted new shrubs or trees, be sure they don't dry out too much at any time.

Pruning can be started now on established shrubs and trees. Cut out all dead and unwanted limbs to help enhance the beauty of the plant. They will put out new growth and cover the severe pruning. Some of these are the photinia, which grows very fast, wax leaf ligustrum, pyracantha, pittosporum, hollies and other overgrown evergreens-Finish this pruning by March first before new growth begins. If you have an old fig tree that is over-grown and want to rejuvenate the plant, try a severe pruning. Select 3 to 8 vigorous, widely spaced stems to serve as leaders. Remove all other stems and prune the leaders back about halfway. There after, head back the bush each spring just before growth begins. At this time, remove 1/2 to 1/3 the length of the previous seasons growth.

Also prune late flowering shrubs between now and March first. This will encourage thicker, more attractive shrubs. Exauplas, abelia, althaea, butterfly bush, crepe myrtle, elaeagnus, flowering willow, mallow hibiscus, vitex, tamarix (salt cedar) and others.

Some have asked if they should remove the burlap before planting balled and burlaped plants purchased at nurseries. Unless it has been treated with a preservative, which is rare, the burlap need not be removed. It may be loosened around the trunk and rolled back so that you can see how deep to set the plant. If you do remove the burlap, be very careful not to break the ball of soil around the plant. Balled plants should never be lifted by the trunk or top growth. Always place one hand under the ball, being careful not to break the ball.

Debra Says

by Debra Price

Start the New Year with a weight-control program that combines physical activity with eating regular meals of lower-caloried foods.

Weight is lost when a person becomes more physically active or cuts down on the amount of food eaten, or both.

Experts estimate that almost one-fourth of the United States population is overweight to the degree that it actually shortens their lives.

People are continually looking for a quick-weight-loss scheme to lose pounds overnight. Although many of these schemes are available on the market today, some are extremely dangerous.

After these fads fail, they are soon forgotten and the chronic overeater returns to gorging at the table.

People who eat small, frequent meals are more apt to lose weight than those who eat only one meal a day. Eating only one big meal a day makes dieters tired, irritable and unable to stay with the diet. Small meals give extra energy, let dieters feel satisfied, and they stimulate muscle formation while they depress fat formation.

TOOLS and SKILL

Because I've never been a handyman I admire those who are.

The few times I've tried to repair anything I made a horrible discovery. People like me not only lack skill . . . we don't even have the tools. There's a ruthless logic in that. If you have no idea how to use a drill press, you're not likely to get one for Christmas.

Sometimes I see a parallel in the spiritual demands of life. Living constructively in our society requires faith in God and the ability to express one's convictions in meaningful relationships, in acts of kindness and love.

So we have become a church-going family. The children are benefiting from moral and religious training. We are devoting our Sundays to acquiring the tools and skill so needed in our time.

Pre-Columbian Slide Show At Civic Center

A program of slide presentations of ancient ruins in Mexico, Central and South America, will be presented January 13, at 7 p.m. at the Civic Center. The public is invited to attend at no charge. The slide show will be narrated by Dr. Rodney Dotson.

Rodney N. Dotson, M.D., presently practicing in San Angelo, Texas has over the past twenty years made fifteen trips to Latin American countries where he visited pre-Columbian archeologic ruins dating as far back as 2,000 year B.C. to 500 years A.D.

His first trip was in 1955 associated with C.S.U. to archeologic ruins of South Mexico. His last expedition of one month ago was to Machupichu in Peru where he spent the month of April.

During the interval he has spent a total of five years living in various Latin American Countries from Argentina to the Islands of the Caribbean. Also, he made two trips to Spain where he was privileged to get some color slides of the Papyrus Codigos in the "Museo de Las Americas" that the first Spaniards brought which explain the origin of the Indians.

Doctor Dotson is fascinated with the high degree of civilization that Indians had 2,000 years ago and has a selection of slides that is comparable with those of the famed "Chariot of the Gods" in quality and type.

His areas of interest are their advances in medicine (from their local anesthetics to complicated brain surgery), their advances in astronomy; agriculture where they added such things as potatoes, tomatoes, squash and etc. to the conquerors tables.

Eating rare ground meat is risky because the grinding process results in many surfaces on which bacteria may grow, warns a foods and nutrition specialist. Frequent handling during preparation causes active bacteria growth if proper sanitation is not practiced.

Recycle Poinsettias For Christmas '79

With a little luck and plenty of tender loving care, that poinsettia plant you received for Christmas can be brought into flower for Christmas, 1979.

While the plant you produce won't be of the same quality as the one you received, it can be a rewarding experience to produce attractive poinsettias for next Christmas if you have the facilities and are willing to make the effort, says Everett Janne, landscape horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Once the colorful bracts of the poinsettia are no longer attractive, gradually reduce watering until the soil is dry. Supply just enough water to prevent the stems from shriveling. Store the dormant plant in a cool, well ventilated place at 60 degrees F. or above, suggests Janne.

About mid-April, cut the stems back to six inches above the ground and repot the plant into a container that is one to two inches larger in diameter than the original pot. Use a good potting mix-one made up of two parts soil, one part peat moss and one part perlite by volume or one of the commercially prepared potting mixes. Water the plant thoroughly and place in a sunny window, keeping it at 70 to 75 degrees F. When new growth begins, fertilize the poinsettia every two weeks with a water soluble, complete fertilizer, advises the Texas A&M University System specialist. Use the rate recommended for pot plants on the label of the fertilizer container.

Once the danger of frost is past, move the plant outdoors where it will receive moderate shade in mid-after-

Hospital Board In Meeting

The Crockett County Hospital Board of Directors met last week in the first meeting of the year at the Care Center dining room.

Financial information was reviewed and bills approved for payment. During December the hospital loss was $8,175.68. Included in this figure was the purchase of laboratory equipment in the amount of $2,662.82. The Care Center loss for the same period was $5,335.21.

It was reported the new Xerox copier has been installed and is in operation. The new ambulance is in service and was used heavily during the recent holiday period.

Present for the meeting were Steve Sessom, Matt Guiterrez, Sue Arledge, Gary Vannoy, Dr. and Mrs. Don Carlisle, Dr. R.M. Owensby, Harold Taylor and Dub O'Bryant.

noon. As growth develops, cut or pinch back the top, leaving three or four leaves on each shoot. Repeat this procedure each time the plant sends out new shoots until mid-August. Then bring the plant indoors and set it near a sunny window where the temperature will remain between 65 to 70 degrees F.

Continue to water and fertilize but take care not to overwater since the plant requires less moisture indoors, cautions Janne. As the plant puts on new growth, it will require additional water, especially once the heating system is turned on.

To have the plant in full bloom by Christmas, keep it in complete darkness from 5 p.m. to 8 a.m. starting the first week in October and continuing until Thanksgiving. Janne points out that flowering will be delayed if the plant receives any supplemental length during this period.

The poinsettia will set flower buds only after being exposed to the short day (10 hours of light or less) for about 10 weeks. In the daytime the plant must be near a sunny window for maximum growth and development of bracts and flowers. Continue to apply fertilizer until mid-December, then reduce applications to one-half the normal amount.

The greatest mistake made by most people in caring for poinsettias is not initiating the short day treatment at the right time.

Annual Fire Dept. Report

The Ozona Fire Department answered 123 calls during 1978. Local firemen put in over 1900 man hours on these calls which included 38 grass fires, 20 fires in structures, 7 trucks, 15 cars, 8 investigations, 3 rescues, and 32 other calls. 2919 miles were driven and 385,421 gallons of water was used.

The number of calls were up 16% over the previous four-year average, but well below the 209 calls of 1977. Units were called out of the county to assist neighboring departments 5 times during the year. The Ozona Fire Department asked and received help from area departments on 7 occasions. There were only 8 false alarms during 1978.

Capital Ideas

Congress And Our Cash
Congress is currently considering a resolution that could resolve some of our balance-of-trade problems in the years to come.

CONGRESS COULD NOW HELP make our balance of trade better in the future.

This legislation would enable private companies to move ahead with mining investments under the seas. The ocean bed holds a vast supply of metals that will be essential to the industrial economies of the world in the future, but considerable development of technology and billions of dollars will be required to make available those metals, the majority of which the U.S. must import. This investment will only happen if the legal climate encourages it.

In the face of this, the U.N. Conference on the Law of the Seas has been painfully slow, and the texts now being considered would create a climate sharply hostile to private investment.

The legislation Congress is looking at would provide a legal framework for private companies, such as Sun Company, to move ahead with ocean-mining research programs. Its quick passage would strengthen the hand of U.S. negotiators at the U.N.

There is an urgent national need to move ahead on ocean mining. By the time the technology is developed, experts say, metals from the ocean will be vital.

Activities Program Director

This week we had a crowd in the dining room for the domino games—four tables in fact. Table No. 1, Ignacio Rios was the winner, with Mike Pena a close second. Others playing were Swede Lundgren and Paul Cavin. At table No. 2 the winner was Verna Talley, and other players were Evelyn Bryant, Inez Jennings and Opal Eversole who was in second place. Eleanor Bradford beat me at table No. 3. In forty-two, Lorene Cade and Nita DePriest were winners. Others playing were Edd Cade and Frances Tolson.

Celebrating birthdays this month are Edd Cade (20th); Nautie Tatum (21st), Mary Lou Simpson (27th), and Hank Poeller (29th). The party will be next Monday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. Family members are invited, of course.

We had a good get-together in the Day Room, Thursday afternoon, enjoying the humor of Erma Bombeck out of the daily paper. I also read a cute piece on suggestions by four and five-year-olds in answer to the question "How do you cook a turkey?" There were some gruesome ideas listed. I think the one we enjoyed the most, however, was the 5-yr. old boy who said he would cook his turkey in the oven for thirty days, "but" he added as an afterthought "you could fry it, but the feathers might get in the way!" Also priceless was the child who would keep his turkey in the freezer first, with a cover over him so that he wouldn't get cold!

We then passed on from turkey to Cary Grant in an article taken from Modern Maturity magazine entitled "A day with Cary Grant," and learned to our amazement that Cary much prefers to wear old crumpled jeans which completely destroyed the debonair image most of us have of him. We also discovered he is a very young seventy-five years of age with a daughter age twelve. He retired from film making in 1966.

Each resident was invited to share a New Year's resolution with the group, and here are some of them: to improve my attitude and be better satisfied; to keep warm; to be a better woman; to help my family in every way; to be more considerate of others; to keep walking, dressing myself and my independence as long as I can; to sleep more; to live one day at a time; to accept what cannot be changed; to live by the Golden Rule.

Last week's Bingo winner was Paul Cavin and runner up was Gertrude Daniels. Volunteers for the week were: Nana Fierro, Martha Flores, Blanche Walker, Angelita Pena, Mickie Arredondo, Doris Karr, Liz Mary Pipes, and Georgia Kirby. Thank you ladies.

Eunice Graham is back from the hospital, and L.D. Long has returned home. Good luck to both of you.

By way of a postscript—as I was driving east on I.S. 10 Monday evening, I saw broken down on the access road near the Circle Bar Corral, a red double-decker London bus. I glanced at it casually, then remembering where I was did a fast double take. On its side was a hand painted canvas banner inviting all and sundry to "Try British Bangers." I was tempted to drive across the median, illegally, to ask the poor bloke on his back viewing the under regions of the vehicle's stalled innards, if he had any bangers for sale, but pushed the temptation to one side thinking they might prove expensive if a DPS member should catch my indiscretion. "What are bangers?" Why, good old English pork sausages, what else? Unique and delicious.

Now! If anyone has information as to what an old London bus was doing out in the middle of nowhere advertising British Bangers, it might make an interesting story for my group. Any comments, please?

LITTLETON IMPROVES

Lowell Littleton is in Methodist Memorial Hospital in Houston where he is undergoing speech therapy after suffering a stroke at his home here January 1. At mid-week the bank president's condition was reported as "good." There seemed to be no after effects from the illness except the speech impairment. If improvement continues as expected, he will return to Ozona in approximately three weeks. He is in Room 662-A in the Houston facility.

Weekly Fur Report

There have been quite a number of European, Japanese and Canadian buyers in New York this past week eager to buy wanted American wild furs. While there has been some price resistance noted these foreign buyers seem to realize that prices in the open market are definitely lower than prevailed at Fur Auctions in Canada and Europe. Also, because of the high prices, more of these foreign buyers are going to the country buyers to find a better price. Buyers of some articles feel that prices are getting close to being too high as on Bobcat and if prices rise anymore they will quit using this article. Coyote and fox have also about reached their peak. Prices should remain steady with a slight drop maybe at the end of few season.

Synthetic Suede Care

Easy-care "knowhow" makes synthetic suede one of today's "main attractions" in fashion, says Nancy Brown a clothing specialist.

Synthetic suede combines the plushness of suede with the easy-care properties of synthetic blends.

Suede look-alikes will machine wash and dry--and they boast resistance to wrinkling, shrinkage, spotting and fraying.

But be careful, she warns. Miss Brown is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Laundrying and drying instructions vary, so read care labels and follow instructions.

When sudsing suede synthetics by hand, take care during the rinse not to squeeze or wring the items.

To remove excess moisture, roll the garment in a towel. Lay it flat or hang it to dry.

Synthetic suede travels easily due to its wrinkle resistance.

For touching up, iron it. Using a low-heat setting, press it on the wrong side--and use a press cloth.

Brush it lightly in one direction to restore the nap.

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By Jerry Lay
Here's the story about how the famous Notre Dame "Victory March" was written... (This is the song that starts out "Cheer, Cheer For Old Notre Dame")... It has become the best known football tune of all-time--and, actually, it was written by a priest, in 1909... One at a game that season, Father Michael Shea decided Notre Dame should have an appropriate song. At the time, they didn't have one. After the game, Father Shea went to a piano in a nearby building, but someone was using the piano... So, Father Shea then went to the Sacred Heart Church on campus and composed the song on the organ at the church! His brother, John Shea, then wrote the words... And thus, football's most famous fight song was written on a church organ.

Did you know football fields were not always 100 yards long from goal line to goal line?.. When football started, the field was 140 yards. Then, they shortened it to 110 yards in 1880. The present rule making the football field 100 yards was not put into effect till 1912.

I bet you didn't know. We've got the car of your choice and the salesman to help you choose the right one. Come by L-B Motor Co. now.

Texas Sheep

Goat News

Don't let those carcasses lie there! The Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association is again asking producers to collect and save carcasses of lambs and kids killed by predators.

Operation Dead Lamb is going again, and the industry desperately needs the information that those carcasses can reveal about predation. Specifically, the Association is seeking carcasses of lambs and kids killed by eagles, but any suspected predator kill is welcomed.

We are asking that carcasses be bagged, frozen and delivered to any of the collection centers listed below, where they will be held for necropsy.

Last year's Dead Lamb project was a most definite success, and we're hoping to have even more carcasses collected and autopsied this year. (This is not to suggest that we wish anyone to suffer more predation, heaven forbid, just that we expect samples from a greater percentage of the predation that's going to occur anyway.)

For those who may have missed last year's results—a quick rundown:

Of 80 carcasses examined through July 26, 1978, more than half were confirmed predator kills and another 21 were suspected predator kills. In the latter case, predation usually could not be confirmed because not enough of the carcasses remained after mutilation to satisfy the stringent criteria requirements employed.

Of the 80 carcasses, fully 24 were determined by critical autopsy to have been killed by eagles. Another 21 were suspected eagle kills but again were so severely mutilated that too little evidence remained to offer positive proof.

Of the 35 remaining carcasses, 18 were mammal kills and 17 died of miscellaneous causes, usually disease or severe weather exposure.

What does it all mean? Well, for one thing, it means that there are a heck of a lot more lambs and kids killed by eagles than the eagles' staunch friends and protectors would have the public believe. In this limited number of cases alone, well over half the samples were either confirmed or strongly suspected eagle kills—and this based on extremely stringent criteria.

Eagle excusers may argue that the results were weighed in favor of eagle kills because that's what the collectors (the ranchers themselves) were looking for, and that they doubtless passed over other carcasses that, if collected, would have raised the percentage of non-eagle kills. Those same excusers, however, constantly maintain that ranchers are too ignorant to tell predator kills from disease losses, much less eagle kills from mammal kills.

They can't have it both ways—either ranchers are ignorant and this is a good random sampling, or ranchers were selective in their collections, proving that they've known exactly what they were talking about all along.

The point is, it proves something—and such proof is what the industry must have if it is going to protect itself against continually escalating interference from possibly well-meaning but grossly misinformed non-producers. The government won't help with the solution because the government is most of the problem. To be part of the solution, take suspected kills to:

Flavil's Grocery & Market, 1705 N. Milam, Uvalde 78801; D&W Processing, Menard 76859; Del Rio Locker Plant, 515 Pecan, Del Rio 78840; Kountry Korner Food Store, Hwy 90 and FM 163, Comstock 78837; Branding Iron Smoke House, Sonora 76850; Priour-Varga Wool Warehouse, Rocksprings 78880; Bernhard's Ingram Locker, Ingram 78025; Ray Siegmund, District Extension Agent, 1710 N. Front St., Fort Stockton 79735; Drs. Dale Wade & Charles Livingston, San Angelo Research & Extension Center, Rt. 1, Box 950, Hwy. 87 North, San Angelo 76901.

Each carcass will be tagged upon receipt at the collection point, listing date, location of find, predator suspected, lamb/kid owner, etc. This information is needed for accuracy of the final report.

Save Waistline By Planning

Avoid a waistline disaster when eating out by planning in advance.

Remember, extra calories do count and they do show on you, she points out.

Miss Haggard is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

So, keep the following suggestions in mind:

When eating lunch out regularly, plan smaller morning and evening meals.

When eating a late evening meal out, eat a light snack such as a piece of fruit, a small cube of cheese or a couple of crackers earlier in the evening to curb appetite.

Read menus carefully selecting entrees that are broiled, baked or grilled. Avoid items which are prepared with breading, sauces and gravies. Remove breading from fried meats and discard.

Select plain vegetables. Cut baked potatoes in half and eat only one portion. Limit butter or margarine to one pat and season to taste. Decline sour cream, cheese and bacon bits.

Green salads are an excellent slimming choice. Ask for dressing on the side. Use only enough to lightly moisten and flavor the salad. Better yet, request vinegar or lemon juice for the salad.

Limit intake of extra bread servings by asking that the server not leave bread baskets on the table.

Instead of cocktails try a fruit or vegetable juice.

Ask that plates be removed immediately after finishing and do not return to buffet lines for seconds.

When eating at fast food establishments, select the smaller burger or fish dinner.

Remove batter from fried chicken to save calories.

Thin crust pizza is lower in calories than thicker crust pizza.

Texas Screwworm Cases Up

Eleven lab confirmed Texas screwworm samples in December brought the 1978 case count to 1236, says a U.S. Department of Agriculture spokesman. Of this number, 35 cases were in Crockett County.

Dr. Robert B. Miller is veterinarian in charge of sterile fly distribution for the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) Screwworm Eradication Program. He compares the 1978 total to 39 in 1977, to 29,241 in 1976, and to 90,980 in 1972.

"The Program proved its effectiveness in 1978 by eliminating an outbreak centered in Live Oak County and avoiding a threatened one in Starr County. Biggest Program achievement in Texas during the year," says Miller, "was preventing a large population in West Texas from heavily infesting the South Texas area where this warm weather parasite can survive the winter."

Miller says much of the credit for effectiveness of the Program in 1978 is due to Texas ranchers and veterinarians. "Without their prompt submission of samples taken from wounds, and care to prevent screwworm infestations, the situation would have been much more severe," observes the veterinarian.

New tools to use in the fight against this parasite of all warm blooded animals will be available in 1979, says Miller. A new strain of screwworm flies is now growing in the APHIS insectary. Distribution of the first sterilized flies of this strain is expected in late January.

The Program has received a permit for localized use of a Screwworm Adult Suppression System (SWASS) in certain severe situations. This is a wafer like pellet impregnated with a chemical attractant and with an insecticide which kills adult screwworm flies when they come to it.

In addition, a series of traps along the border area of South and West Texas will be operated all year long by Texas Animal Health Commission and APHIS personnel. These will serve as an "early warning" system of any possible screwworm build up.

proved the final plans with some alterations, and asked County Auditor Dick Kirby to try to get the bids in and have all the legal work done by the March meeting, when the court will accept a bid or reserve the right to reject all bids and send the plans back to the drawing board. The high rate of inflation was mentioned and it was the opinion of the court that speed in the matter was necessary if costs were to be held down.

Three new board members were appointed to the hospital board. Retiring members are board chairman Steve Sessom, Pon Seahorn and Matt Guterrez. Jesus Castro recommended Bekie Diaz, Stuart suggested Chester Wilson and Williams nominated Dennis Clark from a list submitted by the hospital board. All were approved. Betty Huffman was approved as a replacement for Carolyn Clayton on the Youth Center-Civic Center board, otherwise the board remains the same. Members of the Park Board were also reappointed.

The court approved a service provided by Pritchard and Abbott to send notices, as required by a new law, to taxpayers whose taxes go up $100 above those of the prior year. The tax firm offers the service at 10c per notice.

The salary schedule was discussed at length and the court decided in the future department heads must make recommendations to the court about salaries before the budget is drawn up for the next year. County Judge Johnny Jones pointed out that the court could not tell officials who they could hire nor how much they could pay personnel and the only way they had of regulating salaries was through the budget. County Clerk Leta Powell informed the court she had hired Bud Meinecke as deputy clerk at a starting salary of $730, as provided in the budget as of the beginning of the year. Kirby went over the schedule and told the court the salaries had been raised 6% across the board. The schedule was approved.

County holidays for the year were set up and bonds of newly elected officials were approved.
