Ozonans have safe holiday

A rash of fender-benders occurred Friday and Saturday, but for the most part the Memorial Day holiday weekend was safe for travelers around Ozona. There were no major traffic accidents in the vicinity.

Two were taken to Crockett County Hospital by ambulance at 2:30 p.m. Friday after a head on crash on Avenue AA, 300 feet north of Ramos Street. A Ford pickup driven by Ismael Castro was in a head on collision with a Chevrolet pickup driven by Carmela Madieretta. The crash sent the Ford careening down the hillside and heavily damaged. The two drivers were treated and released from the hospital.

Later in the day, a Ford pickup driven by Encarnacion Fierro was in collision with a Chevrolet pickup driven by Felicitia Ramirez at the intersection of Hwy 163 and I-10. There were no injuries.

Officers investigated a hit and run at the intersection of Hwy 163 and Santa Rosa. A vehicle belonging to Julian Ramirez was hit by another vehicle which left the scene. There were no witnesses.

Another pickup-car collision occurred Saturday at the intersection of Hwy 163 and 137, when a 1969 White Cadillac driven by Marium Baucum Maness was in collision with a Chevrolet pickup driven by Worth Ewing Allen. There were no injuries.

Historical marker cites water system

The latest Official Texas Historical Marker to be dedicated in Crockett County is the Ozona Water System marker and is located atop Waterworks Hill. The marker was dedicated in ceremonies by the Crockett County Historical Society April 25.

Crockett County Judge John R. Jones dedicated the marker. W.D. (Bill) Cooper, to whom much of the system's development may be credited, responded on behalf of the Water Board Members.

The marker, a 27x42 inch official marker with post, is lettered as follows:

OZONA'S WATER SYSTEM

This site was selected for the Crockett County seat in 1891 because of a producing water well (200' NW). Joe Moss, who drilled for water throughout the area, dug the well for E.M. Powell (1847-1925), railroad surveyor, financier and land developer. Powell laid out the town, donated the water well, windmill, storage cistern and land for public buildings. Immediately the Commissioners Court designated the well site as County property. Residents hauled water home by hand, on horseback and by wagon delivered barrels of water door-to-door.

As a result of Ozona's rapid growth by 1900, Judge Charles E. Davidson organized locally-owned "Ozona Improvement Company." The business drilled more wells and laid a pipeline in town. This hilltop, a familiar site of windmills and sprawling storage tanks, was called "Waterworks Hill! In a few years power equipment was added to provide electricity and ice. A municipal water district was formed in the late 1930s under the guidance of Joe North. Ozona has not suffered from a decrease in its water supply during times of drought. Its water system utilizes the vast underground limestone formations in which moisture is stored."

Sanchez services in Del Rio

Funeral services for David Sanchez, 24, were held in Del Rio last Wednesday in St. Joseph Catholic Church.

Mr. Sanchez drowned in a flash flood which claimed three other lives the previous Sunday night near Comstock. He was born Jan. 3, 1955, in Ozona. He was a builder. Survivors include his wife, Sharon Sanchez, of Del Rio; a son, David Jesse Sanchez, of Del Rio; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesus C. Sanchez of Del Rio; two brothers Antonio Sanchez of Ozona and Fernando Sanchez of Del Rio; and three sisters, Mrs. Chris Rios of Del Rio, Naricella Dunn of Kingsville and Susanna Vanquez of Ozona.

High winds, rain, hail, mar weekend

High winds, hail, rain and noisy electrical storms highlighted the Memorial Day holiday in Ozona. Three separate storms hit the city late Sunday and Monday morning. Lightning knocked out electrical services to some sections of town at various times.

During the worst of the electrical storms Sunday night lightning struck a valve at the Shell Plant north of Ozona, igniting escaping gas and lighting up the north end of town. It was no problem and things were under control at the plant. However, when the fire alarm went off residents found themselves in a state of panic. The operator on duty at the DPS switchboard received some 72 calls during a short period of time asking it it was a weather alert.

During that time, rain and hail was lashing the town along with roaring winds, accompanied by unusually loud claps of thunder. Also, the area was under a tornado warning. However, the fire siren has no signal system set up to be used for weather emergency alerts at this time. So residents hearing the fire siren system should be aware it is merely calling the firemen for a fire between the hours of 6 a.m. and 10 p.m., no matter the weather conditions.

The Ozona Fire Department, along with Oscar Kost of the Ozona Television System, has set up a system whereby department personnel can break in on all cable channels and make announcements about pending bad weather should the need arise any hour of the day or night. Some time ago, when the system was installed, a public alert was planned by sounding the fire siren from three to five minutes, constantly to let the public know of a pending emergency. This was to enable residents to turn television sets on and obtain the information. However, this system has never been tested. Possibly, after Sunday's storm, further work will be done and a definite system announced.

Heavy rain began to fall in late afternoon Sunday under dark, threatening skies, then came the hail and electrical storm. After a lull without a breeze stirring, the storm returned in all its fury and made a repeat performance. It was impossible to distinguish the roaring wind from that of a tornado and the wind whipped rain cut visibility to zero, making it impossible to see a funnel.

Monday morning clouds returned and by 9 a.m. another rain and hail storm was in progress. The storm lasted over a longer period of time, but was not as severe as Sunday's storm.

Fortunately the hail was small, and there was no known property damage. Of course, limbs were blown from trees and the hail damaged tender plant life. Reports on rainfall ranged from 1.11 inches at the Water District office to 1.50 inches on both the east and west hills.

The storms which roamed the area Sunday night and into Monday were isolated and there was no general rainfall reported for the county. Some ranches received up to 2 inches and some nearby received only a trace.

J. Coates services here Wed.

Funeral services for John Coates, 58, were held Wednesday afternoon at 5 p.m. in Ozona United Methodist Church with burial in Cedar Hill Cemetery under the direction of Sheppard Funeral Home.

Mr. Coates died Tuesday night on his way to Crockett County Hospital, after becoming ill at his ranch home.

He was born Jan. 17, 1921, in Ozona, where he was a lifelong resident and a rancher. He was married to Catherine Childress Sept. 5, 1943 in Ozona.

Survivors include his wife, of Ozona; two sons, Fletcher Coates of Ozona and Hugh Coates of Brackettville; two brothers, D.F. Coates and Roy Coates, both of Ozona; two sisters, Gladine Kost of Ozona and Mrs. Phillip Schneemann of Fort Stockton; and two grandchildren.

Grimmer services in Iowa

Funeral services for W.J. (Bill) Grimmer, 82, were held Sunday at 2:00 p.m. in Winfield United Methodist Church in Winfield, Iowa.

Mr. Grimmer died Friday afternoon of an apparent heart attack while fishing on his Iowa farm with his children.

He was born July 21, 1897 in Medina, Texas. He was

Drowning victim found in river

The discovery of the body of Larry Elliott in Devils River north of Comstock late Thursday afternoon brought to a close the story of tragedy which wiped out half the Elliott family and cost the life of a Del Rio man who tried to help during a flash flood Sunday night, May 20.

Elliott's body was found some 200 yards from the flood scene where the flooded draw emptied into Devil's River. Masonic services were held Friday afternoon at graveside in Iraan for Elliott.

The roaring floodwaters also claimed the lives of the two Elliott boys, Brad and Byron, in addition to that of David Sanchez, who had tried to help the Elliotts battle the rising water.

Four people survived the tragedy, Elliott's wife, Martha, their three-year-old daughter and two relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sparling of Tulsa, Okla. The four survived a harrowing ride in the swirling flood waters with the vehicle staying afloat from an air bubble trapped inside. They spent the entire night inside the vehicle which came to rest about a quarter of a mile from the road in high water. Mrs. Elliott went for help at dawn when the waters had run down.

Reports indicated the Sanchez vehicle made it across the draw and came back to assist the Elliotts when their vehicle stalled. Elliott and the two boys along with Sanchez were mooring the vehicles together when the Elliott vehicle broke loose and floated downstream. The four victims apparently tried to help the others and were swept away by rushing waters.

The bodies of Sanchez and the two boys were recovered tied to nearby trees shortly after the alarm was given. However, searchers spent three days searching for Elliott before the body was spotted by a plane Thursday afternoon.

Elliott was born Oct. 7, 1945, in Coleman. He was married to Martha K. Burt June 15, 1963, in Iraan. He was a member of the Ozona Church of Christ and Masonic Lodge No. 747 in Ozona.

Survivors include his wife and daughter, Debbie, of Ozona; one sister, Ruth L. Barker of Alpine; three brothers, James Louis Elliott of Odessa, Bobby Wayne Elliott of Poreland and Charles Edward Elliott of Midland; his mother, Mrs. J.C. Elliott of Odessa; and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Annie Jones of Odessa.

Services for Elliott boys

Funeral services for Bradley Steven Elliott, 15, and Byron Ray Elliott, 13, were held Thursday at 10:00 a.m. in Ozona Church of Christ with Bill Morrison officiating. Graveside services were held at 1:00 p.m. in Iraan.

The brothers died late Sunday night near Highway 163 in Val Verde County as a result of a drowning accident.

Byron Ray Elliott was born July 17, 1966, in Odessa.

He was a sixth-grade student in the Ozona School system.

Bradley Steven Elliott was born Aug. 7, 1964, in Hobbs, N.M. He was a freshman in Ozona High School.

Survivors include their mother Martha Burt Elliott of Ozona; a sister, Debbie Elliott of Odessa; their paternal grandmother, Mrs. J.C. Elliott of Odessa; and several aunts and uncles.

Mrs. Post completes 10th year of column

Mrs. Bailey Post, who has been a household word to Ozona and area gardeners for years, completes her tenth year of writing the weekly "Tips for Gardeners," in this week's issue. Mrs. Post has never missed a week of writing the column for the Ozona Garden Club and has been a faithful contributor.

An expert gardener as well as an expert on native plants, Mrs. Post always has time, or takes time, to advise anyone who asks on gardening problems. During the years she has landscaped the parks and many of the public buildings in Ozona. She has served the community in numerous capacities since moving here July 1, 1955, from Stamford. Mr. and Mrs. Post moved to Ozona when he accepted the position of Crockett County Hospital Administrator, a post he held until his retirement in 1970.

The Posts built a new home on Henderson Drive, and landscaped it. After living there for ten years, they built a new home on Cedar Drive and used native plants to landscape the grounds. They now live in Holiday Terrace Apartments where Mr. Post oversees the plantings and grounds.

Mrs. Post, although modest about her talents, is a National Flower Show Judge, serving as Master Judge in the National Council of Garden Clubs. She is a past president of the Ozona Garden Club and a pillar of the club. She is active in the Ozona United Methodist Church where she is chairman of the Altar and Grounds Committee and serves as director of the Community Center Board.

She is also a talented flower arranger, and has collected blue ribbons in shows throughout the area, as well as assisting area clubs with annual shows and judging.

Mrs. Post, Myrtle as she is affectionately known to Ozonans, is best known for her ready help in identifying plants or spotting a solution to a gardening problem.

She had planned to retire from her weekly column at the end of a ten year tenure, but was prevailed upon by members of the Garden Club and the Stockman staff to continue, "at least for awhile," she said. She said she felt her column has become "just the same old thing every week." Many Stockman subscribers read Mrs. Post's column religiously and have come to depend on it.

"POLITICAL GIMMICKRY" OR COMMON SENSE?

By Edwin Feulner

The Washington Post recently quoted President Carter as denouncing the drive to balance the federal budget by constitutional amendment as "political gimmickry." This makes perfect sense if the desire for an orderly, common-sense existence can be dismissed as pure politics.

What apparently wasn't "political gimmickry" was Carter's own campaign promise in 1976 to — you guessed it — balance the budget. After a couple of years in office, he seems to have abandoned his pledge. The idea, however, helped him get elected, and if he has forgotten, the American people haven't.

According to the President, the proposed amendment is "flawed" and "harmful" and "would truly be a sham." Let us put aside his own political intentions in such a statement. Instead we and the President, in considering a balanced budget, should look at the alternative.

The alternative, of course, is to do what Washington is doing — continue our present fiscal policy. The President says he will try to eliminate the federal debt through "prudent, responsible and equitable spending reductions." But how is this going to work?

Unlike the household of John Q. Public, the federal government is not required to balance its budget. When each and every one of us engage in deficit spending—as we find ourselves forced to do more and more in these inflationary times—we realized the day of reckoning will find us and the debts will have to be paid. The federal government, on the other hand, can blithely spend and spend, knowing it can pass on its debts to future generations through deficit spending and by printing bogus currency.

Congress, presented with such an infinite ledger, can't resist the temptation. Programs begun now will be paid for in the future. The vista for expansion seems endless and more government growth inevitable. This is brought home to us when we realize our government, since 1961, has been in deficit 19 times, produced a surplus only once, and during the past four years racked up a $193.4 billion debt.

As Dr. Alvin Rabushka of the Hoover Institution said at a recent Heritage Foundation-sponsored Capitol Hill briefing, "I find it curious that the notion of a constitutional requirement to balance the federal budget is regarded in some quarters as a radical proposal, an unwanted limitation on the flexibility of the federal government to use fiscal policy in pursuit of economic goals. It is curious because until well into the twentieth century, no one thought an unbalanced budget virtuous."

A balanced budget radical? Maybe. The sentiments expressed may be about as radical as those of the American Revolution.

Such grassroots movements on spending limitations, including California's Proposition 13, are articulations of a strong, deep desire on the part of the American people to slow down, practice economy, and limit endless, unmanageable spending—a desire to get back to a few old-fashioned virtues.

Perhaps it is old-fashioned to want to balance your budget. It also makes a lot of common sense.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — For awhile some thought they were hiding out in a Winnebago Mobile Home. Not a likely place to find a state senator with only a week left in the session.

And some people had the sneaking suspicion that the 12 missing senators were spread from Mexico to Las Vegas, from Houston to five minutes driving time from the State Capitol Building.

But wherever they were, 12 senators were not in the Texas Senate last week—at least four and a half days of that week.

What that meant, of course, is that the Senate, left without a quorum, had to close its doors and put a halt to the business. The 12 missing senators had set out to do just that.

"Spoiled Children"

The 19 remaining senators described their absent colleagues as "deserters," and accused them of being "on strike." Even Gov. Bill Clements threw in his two cents worth by saying they were acting like spoiled children and needed a good spanking.

The whole episode, charged Sen. Carl Parker of Port Arthur, had been caused by Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby and his parliamentary slight of hand in an attempt to get SB 1149—basically an election bill—passed by the Senate. The bill was labeled a "Trojan Horse" by Sen. Lloyd Doggett and few disagreed.

Hobby's plan was to get SB 1149 (that would have put the secretary of state in charge of funds now ruled over by county party chairmen) out of the Senate and into the House where it could be substituted. The substitute, so the plan would go, would be a measure providing for a split presidential primary. That primary, in March and separate from the regular state primaries, would cost the taxpayers $5 to $7 million. But besides that, backers of the idea were quick to point out, it would give Texas one of the earliest presidential primaries and would enable the state to have more clout over critical national issues such as energy. Not so, said the absent senators.

And when Hobby announced that he would abandon the traditional order of business, it was obvious, the missing senators charged, that what was at stake was political hides and not the influence of the state on national matters.

Help Connally

Who the split presidential primary would help and who it would hurt is a complicated story. Most agree that a split primary, non-binding as to party, would enhance the presidential hopes of John Connally. Others say a presidential primary on the same day as the regular state primaries would probably endanger the seats of some incumbent conservative Democrats.

What some called a "desperation move" on Hobby's part meant that it would take only a majority vote to bring up a bill in the Senate, instead of the traditional two-thirds. It was the first time Hobby had ever used such a tactic since becoming lieutenant governor in 1973. The last time anyone could remember the Senate going to a majority vote was in 1961.

When the 12 senators learned of Hobby's intentions, they decided the only thing left to do—the filibuster, which they had tried against SB 1149, had proven to be ineffective—was to abandon the Senate chamber.

Call on Senate

Hobby retaliated by putting a call on the Senate—the first since 1969. The Senate Sgt.-at-Arms, the Department of Public Safety and the Texas Rangers were called in to locate and return the truant senators.

Understandably, Hobby had started calling the group, "The Killer Bees." And when a statewide search failed to turn up even one of the hiding senators, almost every newspaper sang out with the same refrain: "Where are the Killer Bees?"

Hobby was more than just irritated that state police couldn't locate "12 prominent citizens of the state." Those 12—The Killer Bees—were Sens. Doggett, Babe Schwartz, Ron Clower, Parker, Bob Vale, Raul Longoria, Gene Jones, Chet Brooks, Glenn Kothmann, Oscar Mauzy, Bill Patman and Carlos Truan.

At one point during the search for the senators, the DPS nabbed a man they thought was Gene Jones at his home in Houston. Only after the man had been helicoptered back to Austin, did troopers learn that they had grabbed the wrong man—Gene Jones' brother, Clayton Jones.

Clayton said, innocently of course, he went along just to get to ride on a helicopter. But it was later learned, that while one Jones (the right one) was slipping out the back door, another Jones (the wrong one) was being escorted out the front door by the DPS.

Deal Finally Struck

While the police chased Senators and the news media chased the police, Hobby and the Killer Bees quietly began negotiations. When the senators returned (to a packed senate gallery and chamber, to some boos and many cheers), it was clear what deal had been struck. The Killer Bees had forced Hobby to return to the two-thirds rule.

As soon as the Killer Bees took their seats, the Senate rushed back into action and passed more than 20 bills in one afternoon and evening. One of those bills was SB 1149. The measure was approved on second reading 17-14, meaning that if the "nos" stood pat on the third and final reading of the bill,

You can't get anywhere unless you start!

Hobby wouldn't even have enough votes to bring the legislation up for consideration.

Later, the Killer Bees admitted that nine of them had hidden out in a cramped garage apartment not more than five miles from the Capitol Building. Jones (Gene) had left the "bunker," as the Killer Bees called it, because of claustrophobia. Brooks offered the excuse that bad weather had kept him away from the Capitol (but, yes, he did agree with the Killer Bees' position on a split presidential primary), and Longoria had stayed in seclusion somewhere in South Texas.

you and the LAW
PRESENTED BY THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Q: My daughter's been dating a boy for three years. Now she's decided to marry him. Can my daughter get married without my permission?

A: A person who is 18 years old or older does not need a parent's consent to marry. If the person is 14-17 years old, the parent's consent is required. In the event the parents are divorced, the parent who was given custody of the child must give permission before the child may marry.

Q: I've been told that banks are the only institutions that have a legal right to demand a service charge for a check that has bounced. If this is true, what gives grocery stores and other businesses the right to charge for bad checks? And, is there any ceiling on the amount businesses can charge for returned checks?

A: Texas law contains no provisions regulating the charges made for bad checks. State law regulates the amount of interest which is charged for credit, but the amount of service charges—such as the charge for a returned check—is not interest and therefore not covered by consumer credit laws.

Q: The tenants in one of my rent houses have been littering the property with trash and generally have proven to be undesirable. We didn't have them sign a lease. How much notice am I required to give them before I can have them evicted? What happens if they refuse to move?

A: If your tenants pay monthly, you need to give at least 30 days written notice. If the tenants fail to move when the advance notice expires, you can file suit for eviction in a justice of the peace court. Enforcement of any court order would be the responsibility of the sheriff.

Q: My wife and I are considering giving some stock this year to one or more of our grandchildren. What procedures are involved?

A: Your stock may be transferred to your grandchildren by writing a letter to the transfer agent named on the face of the stock certificate. Enclose in the letter your stock certificate with your signature, which must be co-signed by a member of the New York Stock Exchange or the officer of a national bank. Also, enclose the name and address of the person to be given the stock and that person's social security number. Registered mail can be used to assure the transfer agent has received the stock.

Q: My husband left me a year ago and moved to another state. I have no money to pay for a divorce. I'm elderly and ill and my friends urge me to borrow money to obtain a divorce since my husband is completely irresponsible and I might be held liable for his debts and any other problems he gets into. What should I do?

A: A wife may be liable for her husband's debts. Creditors attempting to collect a husband's debts would have to obtain a court judgment to be met by a levy against the wife's property, depending on the amount of the wife's property eligible for such a levy. A divorce would relieve the wife of further liability. Legal aid offices or lawyer referral services could help resolve problems concerning legal fees.

Little League games

Crawford Garage was still undefeated in Little League play last week and emerged as the top contenders for the title with a 7-0 record for the season. Ozona Oil lagged a distant second with 3 wins and 2 losses. Ozona National, Broadway Gulf and Moore Oil had identical 2-3 records while Crockett Automotive had 1 win and 5 losses.

Monday's first game saw Broadway Gulf win over Crockett Automotive 7-3. Stevie Sanchez was the winning pitcher and Dino Tambunga the loser. James Fierro had two doubles for Broadway Gulf and Chayo Flores singled twice for Crockett Automotive.

In the second game Ozona Oil beat Moore Oil 20-1. Ozona Oil won on forfeit in the second inning after Moore Oil walked 20 players. Winning pitcher was Raul Delgado and losing pitcher was Diron Holt.

Tuesday night Moore Oil beat Crockett Automotive 13-6. Nahium Estrado was the winner and Sam Hightower took the loss. Chayo Flores had a triple and a single to lead the winners and Diron Holt got two hits for the losers.

In the second game Crawford Garage managed to remain undefeated 8-7 over Ozona National. Tray Cole was the winning pitcher and Al Ramirez the loser. Ed Borrego had two home runs and a single to lead the winners.

Thursday night's first game saw Broadway Gulf victorious over Ozona National 16-12. Winning pitcher was James Fierro. Jimmy Layman led the hitting for the Gulfers with a double. John Clark had a triple and a single for the Bankers.

In the second game Crawford Garage downed Ozona Oil 11-5. Joe Carrona doubled and singled for Crawford and Raul Ozigado had a double for the Oilers.

Monday night's game was cancelled due to a wet field.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

Each year thousands of people are killed and crippled in automobile accidents, hundreds more are injured in plane crashes, and thousands are treated for cancer caused by the sun's rays, yet no one suggests that the automobile or plane be banned or that we be constantly protected from the sun's rays. Why, then, can't we apply the same logic to the Three Mile Island incident? We had a major threat posed to life and health for quite a few days, but the threat was contained. We need, and will have, better safeguards on nuclear power plants, but we also desperately need the power those plants can produce just as badly as we need automobiles and planes.

Instead of listening to the anti-nuclear or pro-nuclear arguments, let us leave these problems to the people who have the technical expertise to deal with them. This most certainly does not include movie actors and actresses, the Jane Fondas or the Ralph Naders. It does include our nuclear physicists and the scientific community who are not only knowledgeable in the field but are just as concerned with life, health, and the environment as you and I are.

The prime difference between these people and the radicals is that they recognize the "whole" problem and are searching for the "whole" solution. Let's you and I support them in their efforts. We have been sold too many scary stories these past few years. Let's not buy another one and end up as a second or third rate nation, suffering from lack of energy because we were too timid to develop all the potential available.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

After having been a little part of our weekly Stockman since May 29, 1969, I'm feeling a bit reluctant to continue my Garden Tips. It seems that each week and month is a repetition of the same month of the year before and after thinking it over and checking my clippings each week, I am urging you to water, prune, or plant something.

Too, since we are living in an apartment, I am not keeping up so well with the growing and experimenting I did previously.

Before moving to Ozona in July, 1955, I had become interested in Texas wild flowers and native shrubs and trees. I was thrilled to find so many beautiful plants of both down here, especially in years when there was ample rainfall. I notice many of you have chosen to use them in your native landscape or along with nursery plants.

We have never regretted moving to Ozona, for we came here to make it our home to retire in and have grown to love your city, and appreciate all the kindness you have shown us these twenty-four years. And to Kitty and her crew for being so understanding and patient with reading my long-hand in spelling some of the botanical names of flowers and plants.

And now a few hints that would keep our city beautiful, and one to be proud of by everyone here now, and our young people of today 25 years from now. If every home and business in Ozona would clean and groom their grounds—all old cars removed from streets and lots to a place provided for them outside of city limits, and not allow oil wells to mar its beauty and clean air as some other towns have had to endure.

Even so, for awhile I will continue to remind you of all the garden chores to do and when, and try to keep up with the new plants that will grow well in our area. Should you have a problem that I don't mention, give Kitty the request or call me.

Make successive plantings of gladiolus every two weeks through June to provide continuous blooms throughout the summer. One of the best ground covers that forms a dense, trailing habit is the carpet bugleweed (ajuga reptans). It provides a show of bright-blue flower spikes in early summer. It can also be used for a garden border. The dark, glossy-green foliage, which is evergreen turns bronzy green in winter. It can be grown in almost any soil and spreads by mean of creeping stolens, but grows faster with a more even coverage in a rich, well-drained, slightly sandy soil. You do have to keep it under control if used for a border by keeping runners clipped off becomes too wide. It is available in several different colors and leaf foliage and tolerates a fair amount of shade.

MRS. DEAN SHAW

Miss Krzywicki and Mr. Shaw married in Houston

Miss Linda Marie Krzywicki became the bride of Dean Alvin Shaw in a Saturday afternoon ceremony in Sharpstown Baptist Church in Houston, May 26, with Rev. Joe Cruise, Jr. of Jacksonville, officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shaw and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Krzywicki of Houston.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional gown with a chapel train adorned with heavy lace. The bodice of silk organza featured short sleeves and a high neckline adorned with lace and seed pearls. A Juliet cap held the shoulder-length veil which was outlined with matching lace. She carried a bouquet of white peonies and carnations nestled in an arrangement of baby's breath and light blue silk flowers.

Matron of honor was Karen Ziska of Huntington, Pa. Bridesmaids were September Whisenant of Sweetwater, Karen Krzywicki and Eileen Krzywicki, sisters of the bride, of Houston. Teresa Shaw, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the bride's book.

The matron of honor wore a pale yellow floral organza gown and the other attendants were pale blue floral organza gowns. They carried nosegays of peonies, carnations and blue silk flowers.

Best man was Forest Henderson. Groomsmen and ushers were Sam Armstrong of Wichita Falls, Ronald Shaw, brother of the bridegroom, George Allen, Michael and Gary Krzywicki, brothers of the bride.

Wedding music was presented by the Cruise Family of singers.

The altar was flanked with candelabra and greenery and the pews were marked with white peonies. A reception followed the wedding at Ramada Inn, Southwest.

After a trip to Dallas, the couple will be at home at 1617 Comarron in Portland. The bridegroom, a graduate of Ozona High School and Texas Tech School of Architecture is employed by a Corpus Christi architecture firm in Corpus Christi. The bride, a graduate of Sharpstown High School received her BA degree in Physiology from Texas Tech. Attending from Ozona were Mr. and Mrs. D.F. Coates, Jr., Miss Rhonda Yeager, Mrs. Forest Henderson, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wilson. The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bridegroom's parents at the Ramada Inn, Southwest.

Miss Pennington receives degree from A.C.U.

Sarita Fawn Pennington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald C. Pennington of Ozona was among 562 to graduate from Abilene Christian University Sunday, May 6.

She received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Education. Recently nearly 200 ACU students outstanding in their field of study were recognized as part of the Parents Day Luncheon program which took place on the ACU campus.

Fawn was among those receiving certificates of recognition.

She has been active in the ACU Big Purple Marching Band for eight semesters, nominee for Band Sweetheart, and a member of the "Flying Cats," ACU gymnastics team, serving as secretary of that organization. She has been a member of the ACU Theater and participated in several productions including the Homecoming Musical "The King and I."

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Pennington and daughter, Peri attended the graduation exercises.

Debra Says

by Debra Price

Teenagers can "think" food and "plan" fun during the summer to shape up.

"Think" milk group foods and choose to make milk shakes with plain or non-fat milk, vanilla flavoring, a little sugar and lots of ice instead of eating a banana split piled high with scoops of ice cream.

Remember, a malted milk contains approximately 500 calories and a regular milk shake contains 400 calories.

Compared to these, a glass of fruit juice contains about 100 calories.

"Think" fruit-and-vegetables group foods--and use less butter or margarine on baked potatoes.

Use less fat in seasoning vegetables, and use less salad dressing on salads.

Choose fruit juice with lots of ice as a quick refresher instead of a frosted punch.

Or, eat a plain apple rather than a slice of apple pie.

"Think" bread-and-cereal group foods--and use less butter or margarine on bread.

Drink tea without sugar or add only a teaspoon of sugar to sweeten it slightly.

Choosing activities that burn up more calories will help in losing weight.

Walking at a normal speed uses 1.8 calories per minute compared with brisk walking that requires about 3.5 calories, while hard swimming uses 8.7 calories per minute.

Lo-Cal Recipes. Try some of the following LO-CAL Recipes.

FRENCH DRESSING
3 tablespoons salad oil
1/2 cup wine vinegar
2 tablespoons chili sauce
1 teaspoon dried mixed herbs

1/2 teaspoon paprika
1/8 teaspoon minced garlic, dry
1/8 teaspoon pepper

Place all ingredients in a bottle or jar and shake. Let stand at least 2 hours before using. Store in the refrigerator. 1 tablespoon has 25 calories.

BROWN GRAVY

3 cups water
2 teaspoons flour
4 bouillon cubes
1 tablespoon parsley flakes
Combine all ingredients in a saucepan, stirring until the flour is dissolved. Boil until thickened, stirring frequently. 1 cup is 27 calories.

Imagine a new Plymouth

Volare Premier 4-Door Sedan

The popular compact Plymouth Volare continues in 1979 to provide economy and comfortable driving qualities for families who want the traditional values of American-built cars.

Interiors have been upgraded, mechanical changes provide improved cold-engine starting, and a variety of exterior color combinations, interior trims, options, and decor packages allow owners to equip their cars to their needs.

"The 1979 Volare is an outstanding value. It has a reasonable purchase price, and owners do not have to give up six-passenger roominess and bigger-car riding qualities to get economy.

"Another part of the Volare's value is the wide choice it gives the owner in ordering the equipment needed and in determining how the car will look. The buyer has great flexibility. The car can be as sporty as required or as standard, and still have the comfort and the low cost of operation and maintenance that make the Volare a very practical car for most families.

A man alone in a field... making the field ready for spring planting... perhaps is closer to God than he realizes.

The field didn't "just happen." The earth didn't "just happen." Those fruit trees, laden with blossoms, didn't choose to bloom just because they wanted to look pretty.

Stop and think about it. In the natural order of life, little is left to chance. There is a precision about the very rotation of the earth itself. There is a miracle embedded in each blade of grass.

All about us is the unmistakable evidence of Creation, by a Master Hand. The man in the field is, in some ways, closer to this creation than many of us, yet he too may very well be unaware of it. We can all capture or recapture this awareness by going to church regularly.

daughter; we miss her when she leaves.

Last week's bingo certificate, donated by Watson's Department Store, was won by Ola Mills after a play-off with Juana Hernandez and Elvira Pena, both of whom received second prizes. In dominoes, table No. 1 Eleanor Yeager won, with Ola Mills second, and table No. 2 winner was Mike Pena with Swede Lundgren in second place.

During Bible Class, Ann presented recordings of readings from Ephesians, enjoyed by everyone present.

Since we lost our television on Monday morning due to the storm, but were lucky enough to have electricity, we used the tape player with music of the thirties and forties. Hank Poeller always amazes me by remembering so many of the words. By the way, Hank is my "Official Morning Greeter." He is usually in the lobby first, and then he calls everyone by name as they come in, and this really means so much to the other residents to have a nice, cheery "Good Morning" loud and clear, and a kind inquiry to follow. I have watched the faces light up. Thanks Hank!

We welcome and appreciate so much two new volunteers—Karen Childress, who is polishing the ladies' nails on Thursdays after supper, and Lola Rios who was joined the beauty shop crew. We also thank the families who have brought in the flower arrangements at various times.

And now, I just must mention our BIG NEWS of the week, and we hope that everyone, as they enter the main door to the Center, will look to the wall opposite. There they will see an attractive certificate from the State Health Department in brown and gold stating in large letters "SUPERIOR FACILITY", then underneath it reads: "Crockett County Care Center, Ozona, Texas. This ICF III facility was rated on May 18, 1979 on the basis of how well it provides care and services for its residents as required by State and Federal Regulations." Signed: RAYMOND T. MOORE, M.D. COMMISSIONER OF HEALTH.

Now, perhaps this may not seem to indicate anything other than routing to some of you, but believe me, such a rating is extremely hard to come by, especially in a small town nursing home.

The fact is that this award was won by the sincere effort, work and devotion to duty, not only of department heads, but equally by every nurse, aide, kitchen worker, cook, housekeeping, laundry, and maintenance employee, because without the team effort of each and every one, we would not, and could not have been honored in this way. And, you volunteers out there—you had a special part in this, too, because without the many hours you put in, and which you documented in the volunteer book, we would not have received full bonus points on the volunteer program. All of this together goes to make up a "SUPERIOR FACILITY."

Senior League action

In senior league baseball action Monday night Circle Bar defeated Mayfield Construction 7-5. David Landin was the winning pitcher and Ruben Perez got the loss. The win brought Circle Bar's record to 2-4 on the season. Mayfield Const. also stands 2-4.

In the late game, Ozona National beat Mayfield Shell 13-3. Pitchers for the bank were Diego and Hector Leal. Albert Borrego took the loss for Shell. The Bankers are undefeated while Shell has a 2-4 record.

Senior League games are played each Tuesday and Thursday nights with the first game starting at 6:30. George Ybarra is president of the senior league which is for boys and girls 13 through 15 years of age.

Summer program set at Community Center

The pre-school program at the Ozona Community Center is now out for the summer, but the Center will still have an active program during the next three months. Grants from the Ozona Woman's League, the Rotary Club, plus an out of state source, mixed with volunteer labor has enabled the Center to obtain a new playground. During the summer months, young children up through the early grades of elementary school are invited to make use of this new facility. We will have supervision available from 10-12 and from 1-5, Monday through Friday, beginning Monday, June 11. We invite parents to bring their children and remain with them if they would like. There is a water fountain, but refreshments will not be available.

Along with the playground recreation program, we are planning a story hour for young children a couple of times a week. In addition to reading stories to the children, we will have some occasional puppet shows.

If there is sufficient interest, from July 9 through August 10, we will offer a remedial reading course for children who will be in our pre-school program this next year or for those going on into Kindergarten at the public school. Anyone interested in enrolling their child in this program needs to contact the director, Sam Emanuel, as soon as possible.

The Extension Service will again offer several project opportunities during late July and early August. Specific courses and dates will be announced at a later date.

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW
Did you know there was once a man who led the major leagues in home runs one season—yet never hit one ball out of the park or over the fence all year!...His name was Tommy Leach and he played for the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1902...He led the National League in homers that year—but every one of his home runs was an inside-the-park homer!...He never hit one over the fence—yet he wound up being the home run champion.

Ever wonder how far a golfer walks when he plays 18 holes?...Someone has figured out that the average golfer walks between 5 and 6 miles during an 18-hole round.

The Olympics have been held in the United States 4 times so far in history...Do you know when and where in the U.S.?...The winter Olympics were at Lake Placid in 1932 and at Squaw Valley in 1960...The summer Olympics were held in St. Louis in 1904 and in Los Angeles in 1932.

I bet you didn't know...L-B Motor Co. is the place to go to select the perfect car. If we don't have it we will order it for you.
