Suzie Everett filed just before the deadline. In listing the candidates in last week's edition of the Stockman, George Ybarra's name was left out of the list. Ybarra, longtime employee of the Texas Highway Department, was among the first to file for a spot on the board. Other candidates include R.J. Everett, Jr., the only incumbent to file; Dick Webster, Cecil Buckner, Fred Buie, Joe Couch, and Henry Sellers.

Board members whose terms are up include Everett, John L. (Sonny) Henderson and Gene Perry. Henderson and Perry did not file for re-election.

Ozona Lions capture top spot at Cactus Relays

Ozona's Lions came from behind Saturday in Iraan, to win the Cactus Relays with a big 119 point total. Big Lake was second with 85 points. The Lions were behind after the field events where Big Lake scored 46 points to only 17 for Ozona. However, a strong performance by the Lion runners brought the point total up and the Owls were left far behind.

First place finishes included

Sellers is School Board candidate

Henry (Hank) Sellers has authorized the Stockman to announce his intention to be a candidate for a spot on the April 5, school board election for three trustees.

Mr. Sellers is forty-five years of age, has resided in Ozona for three years, and is engaged in ranching in Crockett County, assisting in the operation of the Ralph Watson Ranch. He is a graduate of George W. Brackenridge High School, San Antonio, Texas, holds the Bachelor of Music degree in voice and music education from Trinity University, and the Master of Music degree in music history from Texas Christian University. He is a military veteran, having served in the U.S. Army as a personnel management specialist from 1954-1957. Sellers is married to the former Wanda Carden, member of a pioneer Crockett County ranch family and a graduate of Ozona High School. Mrs. Sellers holds degrees from Trinity University and the University of Texas at Austin. The couple has two children, Mark, age eleven and a fifth grade student at Ozona Intermediate School, and Catherine, age six and a kindergarten student at Ozona Primary School. The family resides at 1204 Avenue C. Mr. and Mrs. Sellers raise registered quarter horses, and they are members of the American Quarter Horse Association and the Palomino Horse Breeders of America.

Sellers was for many years a teacher in the Texas public schools. He has served as the choral director at Lamesa High School, Seminole High School, and Robert E. Lee High School of Midland. During his tenure at Midland Lee, the school's choral music program received national and international recognition as one of the finest in the United States. In 1974 the Lee High School Choir, under Sellers' direction, was one of fifteen high school choirs in the United States selected by audition to participate in the international festival, "Youth and Music in Vienna, 1974." A national panel of prominent music educators rated the Lee Choir first among the fifteen choirs selected, and the citizens of Midland contributed the money to finance the choir's two-week trip to Vienna for participation in the festival and subsequent concertizing in Austria.

Immediately prior to moving to Ozona, Sellers was Director of Choral Activities and Assistant Professor of Music at Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos. There he taught choir, undergraduate and graduate conducting and music education, and assisted in the ed Johnny Rodriguez in the 880-yd. dash with a time of 2:05.42, and Randy Ramos in the 440-yd. dash with a time of 52.09. Rodriguez also won the mile run with a time of 4:51.28. Fred Garza won the 330-yd. intermediate hurdles with 41.40, and the mile relay team of Ramos, Felix Flores, Rudy Martinez and Garza, came in first with a time of 3:34.8.

Other Lions getting points for the team were Joe Rebelez, who placed second in the shot put with a toss of 49' 1 1/4" and Santiago Lopez placed sixth with 41' 11". Fred Garza got a fourth place in the long jump with 19' 3 1/4" as did Varlyn Aldridge in the pole vault with 11'.

The 440-yd. relay team of Ramos, Flores, Ernie Borrego and Larry Payne placed fourth with a time of 45.42. In the 120-yd. high hurdles Fred Garza was second with 15.34 and Kelly Buckner placed fifth with 16.8. Kim Tambunga got a third place in the 100-yd. dash with a time of 10.8, and Rudy Martinez was fourth in the 440-dash with a time of 52.67. Placing behind Garza in the intermediate hurdles were Ernie Borrego, second, and Kelly Buckner, fifth.

Larry Payne was fourth in the 220-yd dash with a time of 23.67.

Gen. Tele. asks rate increases

General Telephone Company of the Southwest has filed application with the Texas Public Utility Commission for a rate increase which will, if approved, increase monthly telephone rates for both homes and businesses in Ozona.

The monthly rate of $7.95 for a residential one-party one telephone, would be increased to $9.21. The existing business one-party, one telephone would be increased from $16.65 to $21.37.

Set Board of Equalization

Commissioners in regular meeting

Crockett County Commissioners Court met Monday in regular meeting and set July 9, as the date to sit as the Board of Equalization. The board will convene in the court room at 9:00 a.m.

The court spent the most part of the day with routine matters, including discussing bills and approving them for payment.

Sheriff and Mrs. Billy Mills met with the court and requested a raise in the per day cost of feeding jail prisoners. The court authorized an increase from $3.50 to $5 per prisoner, per day.

Von Parker met with the court and gave the monthly road department report. He asked for a new ice machine for the department. He also told the court several pieces of old equipment and vehicles should be put out for bids. Bids on these pieces will be accepted at the April court meeting.

Bids were accepted from A.E. Morris and Bobby Vargas to paint and repair smoke damage at the Civic Center. Vargas had the low bid.

Jim Hearne appeared before the court representing the airport, to discuss the building of new hangars. The court approved two requests for large hangars, subject to some changes. After some discussion, the court adopted a resolution as follows: "All construction of hangars at the airport must begin within 60 days after Commissioners Court approval and construction must be finished within 90 days after beginning."

Sonny Kirklen, hospital administrator, gave the hospital report and discussed new equipment being studied by the hospital staff for future needs. The court approved a transfer from general funds of $55,000 to the hospital fund and $20,000 to the care center fund.

Bill Cooper presented an agreement reached by the R.A. Harrells and the court to enlarge the dump ground and provide cover dirt. The court agreed to accept a 500-foot strip of land adjacent to the present dump ground with dirt for cover, in exchange for building a road on the east side of the Harrell ranch, subject to some stipulations. The agreement will double the size of the dump ground.

It was announced the Parks and Wildlife Department will hold a public hearing at 2 p.m. March 12, on proposed changes on limits and regulations in hunting and fishing in the county.

The court voted to remove the stop light from in front of the old junior high school building and replace it with flashing school zone signs.

The court adjourned at mid-afternoon.

Webster asks place on School Board

Dick Webster has authorized the Stockman to announce his candidacy for a seat on the Crockett County School Board. A native of Maine, Mr. Webster is a graduate of Hallowell, Maine High School and attended Colby Junior College while a resident of Maine.

Webster served in the Air Force for a period of six years, one of which was spent in Korea. He moved to Ozona in 1955 while associated with General Telephone Company, and became manager of the local Flying W Motel 22 years ago, holding that position today.

Having a keen interest in the local community, Webster has in the past served as secretary of the Lions Club for several terms, as president of the Hospital Board, is a long time director of the Ozona Country Club, which he has also served as president. In addition, he was a Little League baseball coach and manager for several years, and an active Mason.

Mr. Webster is married to the former Mary Alexander, of Bronte, and has raised and educated his two children, Ricky and Sheri, locally.

In announcing his candidacy for the school board post, Webster stated that he is not running against anyone, nor does he have a desire to make any drastic changes in the school system. "Ozona has been very good to my family and me, and I want to offer my time and services to the schools as a means of partial repayment. It is my opinion that we have a fine school system in Ozona, and I want to do what I can to assure that it continues to be so."

LION TRACKSTERS, 1980—Showing off their championship trophies after winning the Cactus Relays in Iraan Saturday, the team is sure to be a strong contender this weekend when they host the Ozona invitational track meet. Team members and their coaches are shown. Head coach Rip Sewell was not available when the picture was taken.

America Turned Sideways

by John W. Fisher

Almost every week, one of the OPEC countries announces an increase in the price of oil. And this behavior shouldn't surprise us: Seven years after the 1973 oil embargo, America still doesn't have a sensible, coherent, national energy policy.

The overall policy of wavering extends to almost every aspect of our economy.

America desperately needs but does not have a sound fiscal policy.

A sound fiscal policy simply means that the federal government spends only a reasonable share of the national income, and that politicians realize that, in spite of all our wishes, money is limited.

What happens when government overspends at the level we've seen over recent years?

Inflation grinds away at the purchasing power of the dollar.

Business enterprises are not modernized—because the millions of dollars necessary cannot be acquired or because the interest on that money is so high that it does not make sense to borrow it.

America desperately needs but does not have a sound regulatory policy.

All of us are drowning in a sea of government regulations. Yes, we need regulation—to protect the natural resources, the air, and water we all own in common from the excesses of individuals and businesses alike.

Last week Clayton told reporters that if he is indicted he will seek a speedy trial to clear his name before the 1981 Legislature convenes in mid-January.

If he is not granted a trial by January, he will not seek a fourth term as Speaker, Clayton said.

city, the factories, the toys your children play with. This country paid $103 billion in 1979 alone to comply with regulations. No one can count the lost productivity or the strangled initiative created by countless forms—in triplicate.

Now, I don't believe in crying doom. And if the occasion arose, I would be inclined to tell Chicken Little that the sky is not falling.

America has a strong reserve of courage and initiative and productive spirit on which to draw. It is not for nothing that we are a nation descended in one way or another from pioneers. It is not for nothing that our ancestors tamed the West or that our generation walked on the moon.

We can turn this country around again. To do so, we need:

- Increased productivity. Each of us has to produce more to earn a day's pay because a nation's income is measured not only in its stores of gold but in the productivity of its people. For example, check the amount of time wasted by coffee and other breaks in work schedules.
Control over government spending. Let's make money available for business and individuals alike.
Control over government regulations. The economy must function while the environment is being protected in an evolutionary rather than revolutionary manner.
Sensible government policies. Policies must be predictable over the long term so that Americans can plan for the future. Policies should make investment a sensible decision again. Only in this fashion will Americans have the products we want and need.

Americans will face some tough challenges in the '80s at home and abroad. But challenges are a way of life. We have faced them before—when the American flag wore only 13 stars and stripes, and in every generation since. I have confidence that the American spirit and her free enterprise system together will prevail.

Mr. Fisher is chairman, National Association of Manufacturers.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS
By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Gov. Bill Clements told a press conference last week he definitely will not call a special session of the Legislature this year, because the House of Representatives would be too involved in electing a new Speaker to attend to his special issues.

Some people say the Governor has long been looking for an excuse to back away from his promise to call the session, and the current dilemma of Speaker Bill Clayton gives Clements an easy way out.

Clayton will face a federal grand jury on March 17 to answer allegations he took a $5,000 bribe in his chambers this fall. The three-term Speaker's political future will depend on his statements in the courtroom.

Several candidates have already filed to run for his chair, should Clayton be indicted, and more are sure to follow if the indictment comes down.

Last week Clayton told reporters that if he is indicted he will seek a speedy trial to clear his name before the 1981 Legislature convenes in mid-January.

If he is not granted a trial by January, he will not seek a fourth term as Speaker, Clayton said.

Meanwhile, the list of speaker candidates is growing weekly, although most are declining to say whether they will run in '81 or '83.

Rep. Wayne Paveto, D-Orange, was the latest to file but at least half a dozen others have either filed or announced for speaker.

They include Reps. John Bryant of Dallas, Gib Lewis of Fort Worth, Bennie Bock of New Braunfels, Al Brown of San Antonio, Tom Uher of Bay City, Tim Von Dohlen of Goliad and Lynn Nabers of Brownwood. All but Nabers and Von Dohlen have officially filed. Other names mentioned include Bill Caraway of Houston and Dan Kubiak of Rockdale.

Mondale Visits Austin
Vice President Mondale addressed the Texas AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education last week, announcing the administration's campaign team and vowing that minorities will play a role in Carter's reelection.

Sen. Lloyd Bentsen is chairman of the Carter-Mondale campaign in Texas. Mondale told the 1,200-member audience that a compromise windfall profits tax has been agreed on that will produce about $224 billion over the next 10 years from oil companies' income.

Connally To Quit?
Heading into the week-end's presidential primary in South Carolina, Republican candidate John Connally's son said his father may withdraw from the race if his campaign does not improve dramatically in four upcoming southern primaries.

Connally needs to finish first or a strong second in at least a couple of the primaries, and South Carolina is regarded as one of his best shots.

The younger Connally, John III, also said his father and fellow Texan George Bush are feuding and that Connally was upset with Bush's remarks that Richard Nixon's still-secret Watergate tapes could incriminate Connally, who was Nixon's treasury secretary.

Computerized Redistricting
The Texas Legislative Council voted last week to buy a computer system to help redraw legislative districts after the 1980 census. It will cost $514,000 and many are hopeful it will cut down on the amount of gerrymandering which will take place.

The Legislature will redraw state legislative and congressional districts during the final 30 days of the 1981 Legislature. The system selected will allow legislators to draw a map on a computer screen and then determine, based on the data, the demographics of the district.

White Raps Clements
Attorney General Mark White fired a couple of hard salvos at the economic policies of Clements and the Governor's handling of the oil well blowout still going in the Gulf of Mexico. White criticized Clements' demand for a five percent reduction in state employees by saying "with rape, robbery, murder and drug smuggling increasing, do you want to cut our law enforcement by five percent?"

Public Notices
The Cemetery Association advises the public that cemetery deeds are non-transferable and cannot be sold by one individual to another. This transfer of ownership must take place at the County Clerk's office and new deeds must be issued. David Weant, secretary Crockett Co. Cemetery Assn.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

After the beautiful warm days of February, March really did roar in like a lion. I'm sure most of the fruit will be missing this year as many trees were in full bloom for the severe freeze.

As flowers begin to fade on spring bulbs, remove the flower stalk. Do not cut the foliage however, as it produces food for the development of a new bulb. Hide the foliage by tucking it beneath over-hanging shrubbery or by planting annuals in the bed.

Now that the little catkins are beginning to show on stems of the pussy willow, you can cut the branches to cure in glycerin mixture or root in water. Place branches in water to root, and after a few weeks when roots are strong plant your cuttings outdoors in a sunny place where they can get plenty water. They grow fast into a tree about 15 feet high and need fairly good soil. Put sand, perlite or some similar plant medium that won't pack around the tender roots. Keep moist until well established.

March is the last month recommended for planting and transplanting trees unless balled and burlapped.

All dead leaves should be removed from iris plants and fed if you haven't fertilized earlier.

It is time to start grooming your place for the Spring cleanup and paint-up. Our city has several spots with tall, dry weeds that are unsightly and could be a fire hazard. Please help get our beautiful city clean.

Since the dormant season is about to end, finish making any landscape changes that involve planting or transplanting woody ornamentals. These warm spring days gives the urge to start putting out bedding plants, but remember frost time is not over yet.

Try to finish most of your pruning by the middle of March, especially roses.

If no rain soon, shrubs, trees and grass need a good soaking for our soil is really dry down deep.

Her fiancé is a graduate of Fort Stockton High School and is employed by a Fort Stockton company.

Hospital updates and adds services

The Crockett County Hospital has been completely updated in the past few months and the staff is proud of its progress. Besides having three physicians on the staff, for the first time in 20 years, the Operating Room has been put back in use as well as the O.B. room and nursery.

The patient load has also seen a tremendous increase in recent months. Hospital capacity is 24 beds and lately it has been filled to capacity most of the time.

The emergency room is completely equipped with life-saving devices and all essential materials to treat the emergency patient up to the point of blood transfusions. However, fluids are available to stabilize the patient until blood is made available.

For minor treatment the hospital has an in-patient or out-patient treatment room where doctors can perform various examinations, plus dressing changes and physicals.

The operating room has been back in service for the past month. Physicians perform various surgery under local anesthesia. The OR is completely equipped with disposable linens and updated surgical materials and comes up to the standard of any other operating room in this area. All surgical trays have been replaced and instruments updated.

Along with emergency room and surgery, the hospital is upgrading its orthopedic equipment and has recently completed the O.B. room.

The O.B. room is the pride of the hospital staff. The room is completely equipped for delivery of babies, including disposable linens, new delivery traps, isolettes, monitor, and all the necessities for delivery.

Inhalation therapy at the hospital consists of IPPB machines, an ultra sonic nebulizer machine, three croup tents, humidifiers and spirometers.

Various other improvements have been made at the hospital and the staff invites the community to visit the facilities. However, since they stress total patient care, anyone or group wishing to visit should make arrangements for a tour before going to the hospital.

Trying to stretch your 1980 food dollar? Texas fish can help.

A nutritious and inexpensive way to level spiraling food prices a bit is by eating more Texas fish.

Fish supplies high-level protein with practically no waste.

Since fish steaks and fillets contain few bones and no fat, you pay for only what you eat, and when cooked properly fish has practically no shrinkage.

Baking is one of the easiest ways to cook fish, and the following baked-fish recipe makes delicious use of many of the fine native species.

"Fish Au Gratin" is a cheesy casserole featuring a light spicy flavor achieved with parsley, paprika and a dash of pepper.

For more seafood ideas, request recipes at no charge by just sending a postcard to Seafood Recipes, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Room 442, Kleberg Center, Texas A&M University, College Station, Tx 77843.

FISH AU GRATIN

2 pounds fish steaks or fillets

1 1/2 teaspoons salt

Dash pepper

1/4 cup flour

2 tablespoons grated onion

1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed cream of celery soup

1 cup grated cheese

2 tablespoons chopped parsley

Paprika

Remove skin and bones as necessary and cut fish into serving-size portions. Add seasoning to flour. Roll fish in flour and place in a well-greased, shallow, 1 1/2 quart casserole. Add onion to soup and spread over fish. Top with cheese and parsley. Sprinkle with paprika. Bake at 350 degrees for 25 minutes or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Makes six servings.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE

Winners in Duplicate Bridge Club play Sunday afternoon at the Country Club were Mrs. Ann Mayfield and Evert White, first; Mrs. Evert White and Mrs. Sidney Millsbaugh, second; and Mrs. Sherman Taylor and Mrs. J.J. Marley, third. Saturday play was called off.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Littleton were in Dallas Saturday to attend the wedding of Danny Ku. A Chinese wedding feast featuring 9 courses was held following the traditional wedding at the First Baptist Church.

PHONE NEWS TO THE STOCKMAN.

Mrs. James Dockery, Bud Meinecke and Shannon Dockery were in Houston Saturday for the wedding of Susan Meinecke and Robert Lanzini. Shannon was maid of honor. Other Ozonans attending were Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Montgomery. They were joined by Bill and Elsie Berfeld of Conroe, former County Agent and music teacher in Ozona.

Here's where I am, God

Know why there are so many public phones in airports? Everybody has to let someone know where he is . . .

Yes, we are dependent on one another for all kinds of support: "Please pick me up" or "I'll meet you in an hour" or "I'm finished here and moving on" or "What are my new instructions?"

One of the truths our churches stress is that we are dependent on God for support. We need a quality of support that is far above that which we have come to expect from one another.

Next Sunday when you see people on their way to church remember why there are so many phones in airports. Millions of us pray to God . . . to let Him know just where we are . . . to ask His support in fulfilling our present mission . . . or discovering our next.

Crockett County Care Center News

by Joan Nicholas — Director of Activities & Social Care

Due to circumstances beyond my control I could not write the column last week, but we're back, and first of all I would like to acknowledge the volunteer service performed by the following over the past weeks:

We thank all of our church ministers, members of the Charlie Beard Band and the VFW Ladies Auxiliary of Big Lake; also the ladies of Ozona's Jerusalem Bautista Church. Also Doris Karr, Mattie Cooper, Maudie Couch, Marilyn Cox, Grace Dorsey, Charlotte Harrell; the Jamie Knox band members—Don and J.D. Kilgore, Curtis Steele, Junior McCartney, Ollie Sudduth and Jamie. Georgia Kirby, Sophie Kyle, Ann McCartney, Velma Marley, Wanda Marley, Liz Mary Pipes, Jim Payne, Alice Ross, Catharine Russell, Lola Rios, Marge St. Clair, Judy and Jose Sanchez, Hazel Storm, Alma Wilson, Blanche Walker and Sadie Whitehurst.

Thanks also to all those who have brought in the hosiery "eggs" and hats. To Anna Huffstедler who donated a permanent and some hair rinse.

This past Friday Bernarda Aguirre won the gift certificate and there were several in second place. Bernarda also won the February "losers" certificate. Both weeks Mary Pender has won dominoes. Juana Hernandez beat Bernarda at Toss-Across, however it was Bernarda's first attempt at this game.

News of comings and goings is that Ruby Cooksey was discharged to return to her home town of Christoval. Alma Laxon has been with us a week and Bertha Miller moved in this past weekend. We welcome these ladies. We also had a nice visit with a former resident, Ola Mills, who came out to see us. Geronimo Garcia is presently in our hospital and we wish for him a speedy recovery.

In Bible class we started using a new study guide for the current quarter, and in the series "Understanding the Faiths of our Time" we read about the Presbyterian Church. Continuing in the book of John we read about Nicodemus. In reading the discussion group, Thursday afternoon, we all had a good laugh over one of Erma Bombeck's witty columns—the one where she had to write a check for seven cents' worth of gas that she spilled on her shoe when attempting to fit the wrong nozzle in her tank.

Anecdotes from "Grit" and a story from the Readers Digest plus a lot of chatter filled the rest of the time. Mary Pender told of the time when she and her late husband were out car riding in the country when they spotted a rabbit. Her husband aimed the gun across Mary in the passenger seat, pulled the trigger. He got the rabbit, but, having failed to wind the window down first, Mary was showered with glass! The moral of this story is not to have your windows so clean that they can't be seen!

Our entertainment this week was furnished by Jamie Knox and his musicians. This time we had two fiddles and three guitars since Junior McCartney and Curtis Steele joined Don, J.D. and Jamie and, as usual, the music was great and enjoyed by a packed lobby.

The March birthday party was held this Monday afternoon. Honorees were Clara Mayes, Juana Hernandez, Nila Turnell, and Tomasa Ramos. Eddy Arnold brought a delicious cake and Veva Vargas furnished the rest, and was assisted in serving by Casiana Fierro. The ladies wore pretty apricot colored carnation corsages sent over by Maxine's Flowers.

While I was gone on Tuesday, Alma Wilson took over the crafts session and residents made the cutest little mice with shells and with a magnet at the base so that notes and memos may be affixed to any metal surface. They are in the display cabinet in the lobby.

Loeffler receives GOP policy award

Congressman Tom Loeffler (R-Tx) Feb. 27, received the Republican Policy Award for his efforts to "lower taxes, limit government spending, reduce excessive regulation, and support a strong national defense."

Awarding Loeffler a certificate for "support of these basic principles during the First Session of the 96th Congress," Congressman Bud Shuster (R-Pa), Chairman of the House Republican Policy Committee, said: "On key vote after key vote, Tom Loeffler voted consistently on the House Floor to defeat the big spending, big deficit, high tax initiatives of the majority party. I am proud to serve with him in the House and wish to advise those who he serves that they have a tireless and effective fighter representing them in Congress."

Accepting the award, Loeffler suggested that it was "time for the Federal Government to get its hands out of the taxpayers' pockets," and added:

"Those free spenders in Congress must be made to realize that the American public will soon be shouldering the highest peacetime tax burden in the nation's history. Despite the collection of all those tax dollars," he said, "the capabilities of our national defense are in serious question. In all too many instances, Congress wastes money on useless programs while refusing to honor that most fundamental constitutional requirement: providing for a defense posture so strong as to guarantee the national safety and security. Never has this been more apparent to more people than as a consequence of the course of world events which many of us believe could have been avoided. The leadership has weakened our economy at home and our ability to defend our vital interests abroad."

Loeffler assured the people of the 21st Congressional District of Texas he would fight—and vote—to balance the Federal budget, reduce taxes and strengthen our now seriously-threatened defense posture."

The following persons have authorized the Stockman to announce their candidacy for a place on the school board, subject to the election of three trustees for the Crockett County CCSD in April:

- FOR CROCKETT COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD
- JOE B. COUCH
- HENRY SELLERS
- DICK WEBSTER

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to express our sincere thanks for all the comfort and love that we received in the loss of our loved one. Our thanks for all the flowers and food that we received during this time of sorrow. With the Lord Jesus, the love and compassion that was received from all was very comforting. May God Bless you all for your generosity and prayers.

Joe Galvan named to head MH Wildcats slated in county fields

Joe Galvan of Ozona was named Mental Health Bellringer chairperson announced John Stevens, President of the Mental Health Association in Texas.

"The Bellringer Chairperson is a vital part of making our organization work," said Stevens.

The Mental Health Association in Texas is a voluntary citizens organization, funded entirely by private contributions. The association needs the donations from the Bellringer in order to continue its work.

"This year the Association's major goal is to improve the care for the discharged long term mentally disabled," said Stevens.

The association is promoting self-help groups for former patients and for families of persons with mental health problems. The association is also working to see that housing opportunities are available in communities for discharged patients.

J. Cleo Thompson, Dallas, will drill the No. 1 Parker, a 9,000-foot gas wildcat, 1 3/8 miles west-southwest of the opener and lone producer in the Parker-Harrell (Ellenburger) field, 3/8-mile northwest of an 8,207-foot failure and 13 miles northeast of Ozona.

Location is 660 feet from the north and 1,980 feet from the west lines of 85-GH-GC&SF.

The discovery was finalized May 14, 1977, for a calculated, absolute open flow of 2,025,000 cubic feet of gas daily from open hole at 8,740-785 feet, the plugged back depth.

The failure, Shell Oil Co. No. 1 Jones, was abandoned July 24, 1964, after extensive tests through Canyon perforations at 7,944-8,128 feet.

Michaelson Producing Co. Midland, will drill the No. 2 Strauss-Pluger, a 2,700-foot oil wildcat, one mile south-west of the four-well Weger, Southwest (Grayburg-San Andres oil) field of Crockett County, 12 miles south of Big Lake.

Location is 330 feet from the south and 990 feet from the east lines of 8-10-GG &SF. Ground elevation is 2,530 feet.

The field produces at 2,475 feet.

Supplemental feeding effective for cattle

Visual appraisal of an animal's nutritional status is only effective where a systematic health and nutrition program is followed, said Dennis B. Herd, beef cattle specialist--nutrition for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

He said symptoms of protein, energy, vitamin and mineral deficiencies and symptoms of various parasite and disease problems are almost impossible to recognize by visual appraisal alone.

Herd suggests a program which: 1) considers the cost-benefit ratio of nutrient supplementation, and 2) makes it possible to use cow condition as a measure of energy adequacy without being confused by vitamin, mineral or protein deficiencies.

He said this system assumes that parasites and diseases in cattle have been controlled and are not the cause of poor condition. However, if diseases or parasites are a problem, animal health practices will be needed in conjunction with improved feeding.

Answers to feeding range supplements differ by ranches, so one feeding plan will not fit all needs. Herd said the goal of supplements is to increase profits by balancing costs against increased returns.

The approach Herd suggests is in four steps. First, feed salt and an eight to 12 percent phosphorus supplement of similar calcium content-free choice--all year, unless minerals are included in a complete supplement.

Next, he said it is wise to inject or feed vitamin A if cattle go for more than four to six months without green pasture or pickings.

Third, feed enough protein to maintain a six percent plus protein ration for maintenance of rumen function and feed intake. When in doubt about the amount and type of supplement to feed with low-quality forage, feed a dry pregnant cow 0.4 pounds of actual supplemental crude protein or the equivalent of one pound of 40 percent protein supplement per day. Feed a lactating cow 0.8 pounds of actual crude protein or the equivalent of two pounds of a 40 percent protein supplement per day.

Finally, use cow condition or fatness as a guide to additional feeding. Loss of weight or condition suggests the need for more pounds of supplement to furnish needed energy. Protein content of supplements can be decreased in proportion to the increased level of supplemental feeding, Herd added.

Normally, growing replacement heifers and cows nursing calves need energy supplementation plus protein. Heifers nursing first calves, Herd said, need five to 10 pounds per day of a 14 to 16 percent supplemental feed, or else rebreeding is often poor.

Wells set for county fields

C.F. Lawrence & Associates Inc., Midland, will drill the No. 4 Bean "A" as a location west stepout to the two-well Leonard oil area of the Betty (Leonard and Grayburg oil) field of Crockett County, 12 miles north of Ozona.

Location is 2,110 feet from the south and 2,640 feet from the east lines of 127-UV-GC&SF. Contract depth is 1,300 feet.

The field has two Grayburg wells on schedule, however, neither show to be producing at this time.

Dameron Petroleum Corp., Midland, will drill the No. 1 B.E. Dunlap-Sec. 12, Blk. 1 as a 2 3/4-mile north-northwest outpost to Canyon gas production in the American multipay field of Crockett County, 33.3 miles southwest of Ozona.

Loeffler asks revision of predator program

Calling predator control an issue of critical importance not only to the Nation's farmers and ranchers, but ultimately to the American consumer as well, Congressman Tom Loeffler (R-Tx) on March 6, introduced legislation revising and strengthening the 1931 predator control program.

"Livestock losses as a result of predator damage have been a problem of long-standing," Loeffler said in introducing the measure jointly with the Vice-Chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, Congressman Kika de la Garza (D-Tx).

"In 1978 alone, predators were responsible for 58% of sheep and lamb losses and a staggering 72% of goat and kid losses in Texas," Loeffler asserted. "In addition, the USDA has estimated that during 1977, the economic impact of losses due to predation totaled $59 million in 16 Western states.

"Ultimately, it is the consumer who pays for these losses in higher prices for food and fiber."

Loeffler pointed to recent policy directives by the Secretary of the Interior and expressed concern about the impact those directives would have on what recent environmental studies have shown to be a responsible program for predator control.

As a result of the Secretary's directives, Loeffler said, he believed it important for Congress to amend the 1931 program.

"It is my view that this legislation reflects the desire of concerned agricultural and environmental groups to resolve this critical problem once and for all," Loeffler concluded.

The Loeffler bill: --authorizes the Secretaries of Interior and Agriculture to jointly develop an animal damage control program which --allows the use of existing, effective predator control techniques,

--provides for extensive research of compound 1080, and alternative toxicants; emphasizing selective and "environmentally preferred" toxicants

--authorizes field research to determine the effectiveness of animal husbandry techniques in reducing predator losses, and;

--establishes an ad hoc committee to assess the predator control program and to make recommendations to the Secretaries of Interior and Agriculture.

supervision of student teaching.

In addition to his teaching experience, Sellers has conducted church choirs and community choruses in Lamesa, Seminole, and Midland, and in 1972-73 was conductor of the Midland-Odessa Symphony Chorale. He has served as clinician, guest conductor, adjudicator, and lecturer in Texas, New Mexico, and Oklahoma, and he is a past member of the board of directors of the Midland-Odessa Symphony Orchestra and the Midland Community Concerts, Inc. In 1977, Sellers was honored by having his master's degree thesis published in the Choral Journal, national magazine of the American Choral Directors Association.

"The greater part of my adult life has been devoted to public education," Sellers said. "I feel that my educational and professional background, two degrees and sixteen years of teaching experience at the high school and university level, qualify me to serve competently and effectively as a school board trustee. Most of my teaching experience has been in West Texas school districts with resources and needs similar to those of Ozona, and my connection with Ozona and knowledge of the county date from 1966," he added.

"I believe that the next decade will be one of unusual challenge for public education in Texas, and I am very pleased to place myself at the disposal of the school patrons of Crockett County," Sellers stated. "If elected to the board of trustees, I will bend every effort to serve with enthusiasm, energy, fairness, and sensitivity to the needs of the school system and the citizens," Sellers said.

Mrs. Robert Schlessner and her daughter, Laura, of Baltimore, Md. will be houseguests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Littleton next week. Mrs. Schlessner is fine arts editor for the Baltimore Sun.

Sports Fans

By Jerry Lay

Here's one of the most incredible records in sports. There's a major-league basketball team that's not had a losing season for 53 consecutive years...What college is it?...The University of Kentucky has not had a losing season in basketball since 1927—and no other team in any major sport has ever come close to that record.

There's an interesting story why a total of 10 pins are used in bowling today instead of some other number...Originally, the game had only 9 pins, but several states outlawed what was called "bowling at 9-pins" because of betting connected with the game at that time...So, to get around the law, bowlers added a 10th pin, changed the name of the game from "bowling at 9-pins" to "bowling at 10-pins" and were legally allowed to bowl...And that's why bowling has 10 pins today.

Here's an oddity...Even though Oscar Robertson scored more total points in the history of the National Basketball Association than anyone except Wilt Chamberlain, Robertson never led the NBA in scoring in ANY season.

I bet you didn't know... Spring is the time for new things...come by L-B Motor Co. and select that new Oldsmobile, Cadillac, Pontiac, Buick or Chevrolet.
