Recent rains have helped everybody's disposition around here, and we are grateful no matter how late in the season they came. We are also lucky Tuesday's rain storm left the hail behind it. We had unverified reports of golf ball size hail in Big Lake and Reagan County. Hope the reports were exaggerated.

We will be having our annual graduation edition next week. If we have missed contacting any of you who want to congratulate the seniors of 1980 with an ad in the Stockman, give us a call. It came around so suddenly this year we don't even have the names of all the graduates this week.

Having graduation ceremonies at the football field is going to be a great improvement in seating spectators this year. However, I understand the auditorium is being readied, in case of rain. The possibility seemed remote last month, but this month it seems to be a probability. At any rate, if it should rain May 23, the exercises will be conducted at the auditorium as usual.

I want to congratulate the telephone company. For the first time in years, it rained on Tuesday and the phones kept working. This is really a "happening." We are so used to having the phone service go out every-time the wind changes, we've begun just taking it for granted.

Worn out equipment is usually blamed for the poor telephone service here in Ozona. We had understood there would be no new equipment until the mid-eighties, but after Tuesday we decided they might have had a change in plans.

If they wait until the mid-eighties, a town messenger will have to be employed to get messages back and forth across town. We've wondered if that time had not already come to pass.

When the Cuban refugees first began arriving, we were surprised at the government's attitude. When they began coming by the thousands we were shocked. However, we have now figured it out. Our theory is we are being invaded by the Cubans. Castro plans to take over the country without firing a shot, and ironically we are helping him. What is the world coming to?

Earl Berry funeral here Mon.

Funeral services for Earl Berry, 84, were held Monday at 10:00 a.m. in Ozona Church of Christ with burial at 1:00 p.m. in Fairmount Cemetery under the direction of Sheppard Funeral Home.

Mr. Berry died at 4:45 p.m. Friday in Odessa Medical Center, where he was transferred from Crockett County Hospital, after suffering a fall at his home here.

He was born Jan. 29, 1896, in San Angelo. He was married to Olive Willis July 10, 1934, in Carlsbad, N.M. He was a longtime employee of the Wayne West Ranch Co. as a rancher. He was also a member of the Ozona Church of Christ.

Survivors include his wife of Ozona; one son, Oliver Earl Berry of San Angelo and three grandchildren.

The Crockett County Commissioners Court met in regular meeting Monday, and dispensed with a full agenda before adjourning at noon. Raymond Davee met with the court to ask if there were any changes in the Parks and Wildlife regulations for the year. The court asked that antlerless deer permits be issued again this year as in the past. Davee pointed out another change involving fur-bearing animals. This year there will be no green pelts allowed after the season closes. This rule outlaws keeping green pelts in deep freezers.

Von Parker gave the road department report and noted that recent rains have helped the road situation in the county considerably. He also reported the right-of-way was finished for the Harrell Ranch Road. The court voted to build a fence with a fire lane at the dump ground and commence using the fill agreed upon in the contract. The R.A. Harrells donated a large area of land for enlarging the dump ground and authorized fill for same.

In charge of the opening program was the Chapter Conducting Team members. They were Mike Couch, Jack Thompson, Dan Bean, Cindy Reavis, Allen Dews and Will Mason.

Jeffrey Young presented the Chapter Sweetheart, Rea Lynn Dews with a plaque and announced she had been chosen District Sweetheart and represented the chapter in the Area Contest in San Angelo last weekend.

in return for a caliche road to their ranch house.

Parker suggested the county sell the remaining maintainer and loader, as they are no longer needed and have been updated by new equipment. The two pieces of equipment will be put out for bids and the bids opened at the meeting next month.

At 11:00 a.m. bids were opened for the purchase of an asphalt spreader for the road department. Only one bid was submitted from Wilson Equipment Co. in the amount of $16,500. The bid was accepted.

The court raised paving costs on private property from $1 to new paving to $2 and from 65c to $1 for seal.

Bob Falkner and R.B. Babbitt met to ask the court to contribute more monies to the Little League and Senior League programs. Babbitt said when he came here several years ago the program had around 60 boys participating and now the leagues had 140 to 150 boys for the season. The court agreed to up the $500 it now pays for the season to $1,000.

Tax assessor-collector Tom Stokes met with the court on the matter of taxes. The court was organized as a Board of Equalization and all commissioners signed the oath. They will meet July 9, as the formal board. Stokes called the court's attention to personal property taxes and submitted a list. The court took no action.

Louis Amonette, Adult Probation Officer met with the court and discussed renewal of the juvenile services contract. There will be a 5% increase on the $3,090 the county paid last year. The contract will be renewed in September. Amonette said 41 juveniles were handled in 1979 and so far this year, a total of 30 have been processed.

The Child Welfare board was discussed. It was suggested the juvenile officer be appointed along with the clergy and several others. Judge Johnny Jones agreed to contact those named.

It was reported the McCamey fire department would make no more fire runs in Pecos or Crockett County unless the two counties came up with several thousand dollars in subsidy. The court determined the department had only made five calls in Crockett County in the past 4 or 5 years. The $2,000 authorized for last year was rescinded and all discussion tabled until further notice.

Steve Kenley was officially appointed county fire marshal by the court. It was explained that in cases of arson, it was necessary Kenley be appointed by the court in order that he might give testimony in court.

The court upped the $225 allowance per man for fire school to $300, with a limit of 6 men per school.

Glenn Rumley, new administrator for Crockett County Hospital, and James Conaway met with the court to give the hospital report. Mr. Rumley said several changes had been made at the hospital. He told the court if the patient load stays at its present level, the hospital will pay its way in time. The drug system is being changed and Rumley said this would up the accountability by 110%. He said the local hospital made $127 on drugs last year, and the hospital where he was administrator made $90,000 with the same number of patients. He feels the system here was badly mismanaged, but says the new system will show a dramatic increase in drug revenues.

Rumley said his last hospital budget was $1 million and showed a profit of $27,000 at the end of the year. He said it can be done here. It's going to cost some money Rumley said, but it will be worth it. He said everything depends on what kind of hospital the community, hospital board and court want, a first aid station or a top notch facility.

Rumley said the IBM computer at the hospital may not be able to handle the load and that he had an appointment with one of the company's programmers this week to see if it could be worked out. Dick Kirby, county auditor, asked that the computer be moved to his office if it could not be used

B.W. Stuart brought up charges for doctors' office. Commissioner Stuart recommended that all doctors pay rent on the clinic offices or that none pay rent. This discussion grew out of the fact Dr. Joe Logan, who has been in the clinic with his dental office for over 25 years, has been paying rent during that time, and medical doctors have not. The court decided to give the offices rent-free some time ago to entice physicians to locate here.

After some discussion, Stuart made a motion to discontinue Dr. Logan's rent. Commissioner Castro made the second and Stuart, Castro and DeHoyos voted to pass the motion. Commissioner Jack Williams and Judge Jones voted "against."

When Commissioner Stuart tried to make the motion retroactive to the first of the year, the motion died for lack of a second.

The court adjourned and went to the clerk's office to see a micro-filming projector in action.

Members of the court seemed impressed with Rumley's report and pledged to assist him in every way. The Memorial Day holiday was changed for county employees from May 30, to May 26.

David Weant, county clerk, discussed the cost of micro-filming records in his office. He reported that the cost would be between $32,500 and $45,000, and asked that it be put in the budget.

He also reported the clerk's office had taken in $12,000 more this year than in the first three months of last year.

Weant also read the civic center report, which asked for air-conditioner repair, roof repair, dishwasher repair, and the purchase of several items, including 20 long tables, 100 folding chairs, 5 card tables, new flags and poles for the stage, and several other items, including the painting of the trim on the outside of the building. No action was taken.

OSHA, EPA PROPOSALS SHOULD BE SHELVED

By Edwin Feulner

In the present hyper-inflationary economy it's hard to believe the Carter Administration is still pushing several costly new "environmental" schemes that will tack billions onto the cost of doing business in the U.S., will fuel inflation, and will make American businesses less competitive here and abroad — while doing little or nothing to improve the health or safety of the American public.

The first program has been kicking around since 1977, and involves the Occupational Safety and Health Administration's attempts to protect American workers from cancer-causing agents found in the workplace. The OSHA rules, now being challenged in federal court, could become the most expensive government regulations ever put into effect — costing tens of billions of dollars in capital and annual compliance costs.

The hitch is that all this money is being thrown at a problem that exists largely in the minds of the environmental lobby. For the most part the scientific and health communities have rejected the notion of an "epidemic" of cancer, let alone one that can be traced to chemicals found in the workplace.

While they are good-intentioned, the underlying flaw in the OSHA rules, according to Heritage Foundation environmental policy analyst Lou Cordia, is that they will likely result in the "blacklisting" of certain substances, on the basis that they are "suspected" of being carcinogenic. This opinion was echoed by American Industrial Health Council representative Robert Barnard, who warned the New York Academy of Sciences recently that present regulatory policy could result in a "tyranny of lists," with hundreds and even thousands of relatively harmless substances coming under the regulatory gun. He noted, for example, that the government had recently added black pepper to its list of suspected carcinogens.

The other expensive proposal — costing additional billions — has to do with creation of an environmental "Superfund" to deal with hazardous waste dumps and spills. It's not as "super" as it sounds.

The assumption here is that our landscape is littered with abandoned dumps overflowing with poisonous chemical ooze. It's an assumption that also doesn't jibe with fact.

Carl Gosline, director of the chemical industry's Hazardous Waste Technical Center, reported on the extent of the hazardous waste problem at the recent National Governors' Association meeting.

At the moment, he said, there are numbers varying between 151 "problem" sites, according to EPA, up to 32,254 potentially hazardous sites, also according to EPA. A survey of 47 states completed in February, however, shows the numbers to be much smaller. The survey showed some 4,196 disposal sites, including only 431 "potentially hazardous sites," and 174 orphan sites for which no responsible owner can be found. The survey also showed that most industrial states already have funds for cleaning up spills and dumpsites. Gosline said the chemical industry supports the idea "that some general revenue monies should be provided to fund containment or cleanup of old, orphan failing dumpsites, where the owner is not financially viable or the contributors are unknown." The amount needed, however, would appear to be in the $200-300 million range, not billions, as proposed by the Administration.

With inflation roaring out of control, I think we need to take a serious look at the need to spend billions solving "problems" that largely don't exist. It's the kind of luxury we no longer can afford.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Governor Bill Clements endorsed Ronald Reagan for president following Reagan's Texas primary victory over Texan George Bush, thus fueling speculation that Clements may get the tap for vice president this summer.

A Reagan-Clements ticket would go a long way in bringing Bush's supporters to the polls in November. Clements has played the peacemaker between the Reagan and Bush factions in Texas.

Illinois Sen. John Anderson, the man who might run for president as an Independent, sent his team to Texas last week to gather over 40,000 signatures needed to get his name on the Texas ballot.

Anderson has not shown enough strength in the primaries to indicate he can actually win the presidency, and his candidacy is generally considered by voters as a politically healthy alternative to Reagan and Jimmy Carter. The big question is: will he siphon off more voters from President Carter or from Reagan? Can he muster enough support to throw the election into the U.S. House of Representatives?

Texas Attorney General Mark White is expected to rule soon whether voters in the May primary are eligible to sign Anderson's petition. Both Secretary of State George W. Strake, a Republican, and Gary Mauro, executive director of the Texas Democratic Party, claim their primary voters are ineligible.

Another Speaker Candidate
 Goliad State Rep. Tim Von Dohlen held a press conference last week to say he is running for House speaker next January, if Bill Clayton has to step down because of his Brilab woes.

Von Dohlen, a Clayton team member of high standing, promised he would not use his position as chairman of the redistricting committee to win votes in the speaker's race.

Already in the race are Reps. Gib Lewis of Fort Worth, John Bryant of Dallas, Bill Caraway of Houston, Lynn Nabers of Brownwood, Bennie Bock of New Braunfels and Wayne Peveto of Orange.

Clayton Still Hopeful
 Clayton told reporters he had anticipated the candidacies of his former team players, but that he expects to be cleared of the Brilab scandal and re-elected to a fourth term as speaker.

Clayton is being investigated for allegedly accepting a bribe in connection with securing a state insurance contract.

The federal grand jury will reconvene in mid-June to avoid muddying the waters of the run-off election, and prosecutors expect then to win an indictment against Clayton, to the dismay of other legislators who fear it will prompt voters to "clean house" by voting out all incumbents.

Thus, from the moment of his indictment, Clayton will become a political liability to all legislators, and he must act speedily to clear himself of any charges. Clayton, well aware of his predicament,

For Seniors this is their last week of school and for the Lions Roar Staff, this is the last Lions Roar that will appear in the Stockman. The 1979-80 school year is coming to an end and while Seniors are taking their last look, Juniors are eagerly waiting to get their Senior rings. As the graduating class of 1980, we will always remember the fun, the growing pains, the excitement, and the teachers and coaches. Not only will we remember the teachers and coaches for their teaching, but we will also remember them for the example that they set for us as adults and individuals. We thank you for all that you have done for us, but mainly we thank you for the patience it took to endure us during our years in OHS! Thank you and good luck with the Juniors!

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

What a change in our greetings and facial expressions after the wonderful showers the first of May. The country-side seemed to take on a fresh green only a few days afterward, and this week even more beauty is showing up.

Some of the native shrubs and trees should be showing off their blooms this month in our area. The mountain laurel (Sophora secundiflora) is probably the most popular of our native evergreen shrubs. Some of you that have built your homes on the hillside may be lucky to have one or more in your landscape. Be sure to take care of it. It is one of the plants disappearing along with the redud and many flowers. Do not confuse this with East Mountain Laurel which has white to bluish blossoms with stripes on the inside. It will not do well here unless grown in a container in acid soil and partial shade. Our Mountain Laurel has great fragrant clusters of violet-colored blossoms. Have you noticed the striking red blooms on the Ocotillo and red yucca in the village park. And soon the Sensia should be showing blooms after a rain.

Many more potted plants were being planted after the rains and many places had almost sold out. It isn't too late to plant seed of many annuals and perennials for the summer and fall.

Too, the rain will encourage many to plant more vegetable gardens which have been so popular and useful for several years.

Everyone loves roses and this past week it has been proven. Most every home in our city has had some kind of rose growing in its garden. Though the freeze, deer and drought damaged some, they have provided many colors and varieties to be enjoyed. Plan to plant new one's this fall if you haven't this spring.

If you need an attractive and excellent ground cover try the dense, spreading growth habit of carpet bugleweed (Ajuga reptans). It has bright-blue flower spikes in early summer. Plant ajuga where it will be shaded during the hottest portion of the day. There are many places to use it, base of a retaining wall and corners.

Folks who think they would be happier living someplace else probably wouldn't but their neighbors might.

Picture Pretty

Pretty as a picture, isn't she? She looks "downright" angelic. Yet, five minutes from now, she may be a little bundle of fury!

Children change faster than the wind. They haven't learned to hide their feelings. But while grown-ups may present a better camouflage to the world, there are few of us without inner conflicts. And these conflicts can be serious.

It would be a lonely world if we had to keep all our problems to ourselves.

We don't. God never intended that we should have to solve all our difficulties single-handed. Remember, He established His church on earth for US. In that Church we will find understanding fellowship, and the faith to work out our own destinies.

Take your problems to Church. Pray that you will find a solution to them. Talk them over with your minister. And what seems a maze today may become a straight road tomorrow.

THRIFTWAY

Crockett County Care Center News

by Joan Nicholas - Director of Activities & Social Care

We had two tables of dominoes on Tuesday afternoon last week. At table No. 1 Maudie Pettit won high with Paul Cavin in second place. At table No. 2 Leona Harris came in first with Evelyn Bryant next.

Bingo winner for the week was Juana Hernandez receiving the gift certificate donated by Watson's Department Store. Second prizes were won by Gertrude Daniels, Bernarda Aguirre, Evelyn Bryant, and Alma Laxson.

The theme for our Bible study was "Living in Love" and the text was I John 4:7-21. We discussed the feeling that some of us have upon growing older and entering a nursing home; the lesson helped bring out how much we can still contribute entitled "Murder in the White House," (fiction of course). She recounts that in spite of the demands on her father as president, he always had time for the family and had a keen sense of humor. She also noted "he never lost his temper."

She named her mother, Bess, as being the stabilizing force in the family who Truman called "The Boss."

A lovely birthday party, honoring Bernarda Aguirre, was enjoyed by everyone

Monday afternoon. Bernice Phillips and Velma Marley were co-hostesses. Velma told me that Jim Marks contributed some of the punch that was served; Patti Jones donated a lovely corsage. Bernarda had several friends come by to help her celebrate. Thank you everyone.

Judging by the candy and gifts that are floating around, and pretty flowers still being worn, everyone must have had a pretty nice Mothers Day on Sunday.

We are happy to say that all our "family" is together again after a few visits to the hospital. We trust we have bid adieu to that pesky bug forever.

Geronimo Garcia, who has been with us the last few months, has now returned home to Alpine and our good wishes go with him.

Everyone enjoyed sharing the pretty floral arrangements from the Arledge-Baggett wedding.

Last Thursday night we again welcomed Jamie Knox, Don Kilgore, Ollie and Jean Ann Sudduth when they brought the band back for in this life no matter where we are, through the love of God and thereby our love for each other. There is still much that can be fulfilling in our lives which may seem minimal to us, but indeed could perhaps be more important than that which we have given of ourselves in the years past.

Part of our reading and discussion on Thursday centered around an item in "Grit" concerning Margaret Truman Daniels, the former president's daughter. We learned that she tours the country on a campaign for toy safety. Also she is putting the finishing touches on a new novel she has written another session. Glad that Lottie Lee Baker came along, also Lou Ann Knox, and the Sudduth's little boy. The music sounded so good!

We expect to see Charlie Beard and the "Broken Strings" this Wednesday night when they travel over from Big Lake to entertain us. I believe one member of the band comes all the way from San Angelo.

Staff members are really glad now that the new sterilizer is installed as it makes the work load much lighter, and it is very efficient. This is the equipment recently donated by the Auxiliary. Thank you again!

Tillmans host for luncheon and bridge

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tillman hosted an all-day bridge and luncheon at their lovely new ranch home near Junction Wednesday. Several cars of Ozonans left at 9:00 a.m. for the all day affair. They presented Mrs. Tillman with a large brass platter as a housewarming gift.

Evert White won high for the day, Mrs. Cuatro Davidson, second high; Mrs. Robert Cox, third, and Mrs. George Bunker, bingo.

Others attending from Ozona were Mrs. Evert White, Mrs. Hugh Childress, Mrs. Joe Couch, Mrs. Sidney Mills, Mrs. James Dockery, Mrs. Larry Braden, Mrs. Dwight Childress, Mrs. Douglas Moore, Mrs. Byron Williams, Mrs. Jack Williams, Mrs. Charles Williams, Mrs. John R. Hunnicutt, Mrs. C.O. Walker, Mrs. Joe Clayton, Mrs. Kirby Moore, Mrs. Billy Carson, Mrs. Henry Miller, Mrs. Ann Mayfield, Mrs. Arthur Kyle, Mrs. Bob Bailey, Mrs. Gene Williams, Mrs. Clay Adams, Mrs. Gene Perry, Mrs. Brock Jones, Mrs. Beecher Montgomery and Mrs. Charlie Black.

Also taking part in the day's activities were the Tillman's son, Mark Tillman, and their daughter, Mrs. Joe (Ann) Jones.

Girl Scout day camp registration is set

Grades first and second will register at the Community Center from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. The third, fourth, and fifth grades will register at the Intermediate School from 3:00 to 5:30 p.m. in the library. The Jr. High girls will register at the Jr. High School from 3:00 to 5:30 p.m. Parents are requested to accompany their daughters to sign the health forms.

The 1980 Day Camp will be held at the Bill Baggett Ranch from June 2 to the 11. The camp will be closed on the weekend. Transportation will be available for the campers to and from camp. The bus leaves from the Jr. High promptly at 8:30 and returns at 3:00.

Welfare funds needed 465 checked at Health Fair here

The Crockett County Local Welfare Association is in need of funds. The association was organized in 1954, for the purpose of extending emergency aid to persons whose needs came within the limits of the Assn's care and stipulations, with special attention to transients.

For years, the association has had regular subscribers, clubs, organizations, churches and individuals have donated each year. The fund is used to help transients in need of help with meals, gasoline and other minor expenses.

The fund is controlled by the Sheriff's office. In order to continue the program more contributions are needed. There has never been a door-to-door solicitation for this organization, Ozonans have donated on their own each year. Contributions need to be made now in order to keep the fund in existence. Send donations to Welfare Fund, care of Sheriff's Department.

Debra Says
By Debra Price

Mobile homes increase in popularity as costs of conventional housing continue their upward spiral.

While difference in initial cost tends to be the big attraction, other cost-related factors are ever-present on the minds of those looking for affordable housing.

Percentage-wise, mobile home prices are rising more rapidly than conventional housing, but in actual dollars, the gap has grown wider.

Between 1974 and 1978, the average price of a new house increased from $38,900 to $62,500—a 61 percent hike.

During the same period, average cost of a new mobile home increased 71 percent—from $9,300 to $15,900.

The move to the owned site is a trend gathering momentum among mobile home owners.

Approximately 60 percent of the new mobile home owners are permanently erecting them on owned tracts of land, either in residential subdivisions or on individual sites.

Owners often find they can own their own site for less than the cost of rental space in a park.

Liberalization of mobile-home financing has spurred additional interest by making it possible to finance the mobile home and the land at a lower interest rate with a single mortgage.

Lower down payments and longer-term mortgages also add to the attractiveness of the mobile home-on-site package.

The age-old question of whether a mobile home will appreciate in value is still being kicked around.

Increasingly, mobile home buyers are becoming aware that locating the unit on an owned site balances gain or loss in the unit's value against appreciation in value of the land.

But, several recent studies indicate that indeed, mobile homes can and are appreciating in value in certain areas.

The way lenders view the mobile home has tremendous influence on assessed value and other lending practices.

The majority of lenders continue to make use of the book-value approach in determining the amount of the loan advanced on used mobile homes.

This approach is often inappropriate in assessing the value of permanent hous-

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By Jerry Lay

Did you know that in all the years of the Indianapolis 500-mile auto race, Nobody has Ever led the race from start to finish... Closest anyone ever came was Billy Arnold in 1930.. He led for all but 2 laps.

One of the most unusual nicknames for any team in big league baseball is the "Dodgers"... and do you know how that nickname came into being?...The name was first applied to the Dodgers when they were in Brooklyn, years before they moved to Los Angeles.. When trolleys were introduced in Brooklyn, people there were called "trolley dodgers" because so many trolleys rumbled down their streets..The Brooklyn baseball team was then named the "Trolley Dodgers"...After a while, they shortened it to simply "Dodgers."

Here are figures which show how big a change there's been in baseball over the years in the use of relief pitchers..In 1901, teams used relief pitchers in only 12% of all big league games..By 1930, that figure was up to 50%..And last year, relief pitchers were used in over 75% of all games..Fewer than 25% of all starting pitchers went the route.

I bet you didn't know... L-B. Motor Co. will help you when you are ready to select a new car or pickup. Come by soon and get ready for that summer vacation!
