Spotlight on Crockett County

Crockett County will be spotlighted in "Permian Journeys," a video travel-log presenting a sampler of over 120 Permian Basin attractions. Visitors are invited to see this unique film featuring 45 area towns during the Permian Basin Fair & Exposition, September 10-14 at Ector County Coliseum, Odessa.

The travel-log, sponsored and produced by El Paso Products Company of Odessa, a major petrochemical producer, will be shown in the company's booth. President J. Virgil Waggoner stated, "We began this project to assist our own employees in planning family oriented, fuel saving recreational trips within easy drive of home. We found the area offers so much that we decided to share our discoveries with all the Fair visitors."

Attractions included are Ozona, Fort Lancaster and the Joe Chandler Guest Ranch.

The fifth annual fair is an area wide event, attracting over 70,000 visitors each year. Events include a chili cook-off, beard growing contest, carnival rides, beauty pageant, plus displays of judged entries in arts & crafts, livestock, pies & pastries and canned competition.

Loeffler appoints chairmen

Congressman Tom Loeffler, 21st Congressional District, announced the names of his chairmen in eleven more counties today, making the Loeffler reelection campaign solidly organized in all thirty-two counties of the 21st Congressional District.

Named to serve in Crockett County were Mr. and Mrs. Pleas Childress, III. Pleas is a rancher. He has resided in Ozona all his life with the exception of his college years when he attended New Mexico State University and East Texas State, from which he graduated. Sandra owns her own professional photography business. They have two children, Martin and Julie.

Little rain for Ozona

While Central Texas was getting drenched Sunday and Monday, Ozona only got enough drizzle Sunday to measure .02 of an inch.

San Angelo experienced flash floods from several inches of rain Tuesday, but only a sprinkle fell on Ozona. However at 4:30 Tuesday a heavy shower began falling, leading residents to hope it would continue into the night.

North is winner

David North was the winner of the football contest for the opening week of the season. He picked winners in all but two out of the ten games.

The same contest which appeared in last week's paper is in this edition. The deadline for returning your entry will be 5:00 p.m. on Friday afternoon in the Stockman office.

SELF SERVE TEXACO. Weldon Maness will open this new self service facility in the near future. The new, modern facility is located at the intersection of Hwy. 163 and 14th Street, the access road to I-10. Maness has operated a station on Hwy 290 for years, and will keep that business open as well as the new one shown here.

Court adopts budget and sets annual tax rate

The Crockett County Commissioners Court met Monday to adopt the budget for 1981 and set the tax rate. Based on 40% of market value, the total tax rate will be $2.67 per $100 valuation. Broken down, the tax will be allocated $1.37 to school, $1.20 to county and 10c for state. The rate is down 20c from that of last year due to a 20c reduction in the school tax rate.

Total valuations for tax purposes is up in the county this year, due to increased oil prices. Valuations for the county are estimated at $200 million. Valuations for the school are estimated at $192 million, as University lands are not taxed for school purposes.

Estimated tax revenue for the county is $2,400,000 and for the school $2,630,000. Homeowners and landowners will pay 20c less on the $100 valuation than they paid last year, in spite of the 14% tax increase.

A large contingent of hospital employees was on hand to meet with the court, plus Hospital Administrator Glen Rumley, Dr. Patrick Dwyer and Dr. Don Carlisle. Members of the hospital staff were on hand to show support for the hospital budget.

Judge Johnny Jones asked for the hospital report first, and Rumley told the court collections were up 122% for the month. He reported expenses to date of $729,863; accrued charges of $570,244, and deposits of $389,000. Charges for the month were $67,035, according to the report, and collections were $81,930. All in all, it was the best monthly hospital report received by the court in years.

Some concern was expressed about the number of employees at the hospital. Rumley claimed 39 employees and the payroll book listed 54. A survey of other hospitals in the area indicate they are run more efficiently with fewer employees and some concern was expressed in this area.

Dr. Dwyer asked the court to approve a larger budget for the hospital. The budget calls for $876,400 for the hospital and $478,500 for the care center, which is the largest budget ever submitted for the two facilities. Dr. Dwyer said the present budget is a shoestring budget and he feels taxes should be raised to accommodate a larger budget. He also inquired about the possibility of a hospital district.

Judge Jones explained there is a limited amount of money in the general fund, which is being used now to bail the hospital out monthly. Also, that once the tax rate is set, the county is locked in for the coming year. Judge Jones explained the court must look after the welfare of the entire community and was responsible for the final decision. He also pointed out there were no participants at the budget hearing held last week. In order to raise taxes, the court is required by law to publish notices, hold hearings, and go through a time-consuming procedure. He said work on the budget had been going on for three months and the final decision must be made. The court is disinclined to vote for a hospital district, the judge said, because it is still taxing the public.

Dr. Dwyer said he felt the people of Crockett County do not pay a lot of taxes in view of what they get from the hospital. He did ask that the present budget be approved. Judge Jones asked for other comments. Dr. Carlisle said the hospital is giving better service than it ever has and he thanked the court for the support given to the hospital.

Bob McKinzie, tax representative with Continental Oil Co., said from the monthly report he gathered Rumley was turning the hospital situation around and his company could not be more delighted. He also said if the public does not support the hospital it is unfair to expect the major taxpayers to foot the bill.

Judge Jones said he felt it all boiled down to getting the patient charged correctly, getting the bill to the patient on time and getting the money back to the hospital. "As long as we are paying and not collecting, it is bad for all concerned," he closed.

Rumley asked for the court's support in collecting bad debts. He said there are many who can afford to pay but will not and legal action is the only recourse. He was reassured by members of the court.

However, in spite of the good monthly report, the court authorized the county auditor to transfer $100,000 to the hospital account from the general fund, and $35,000 to the care center. The transfer of funds from the general fund to date is $275,000 to the hospital fund and $100,000 to the care center fund. Unless collections increase dramatically, these funds will not operate the facilities for the remainder of the year. Bids were opened at 11 o'clock for a dozer-loader for the road department to replace the piece of equipment that was destroyed by fire several weeks ago. Case Machinery of Abilene bid $63,000; Giraud of San Antonio bid $59,994 on a Case loader. Holt Machinery bid a Catapillar at $70,785, and Ingram of San Antonio bid a foreign made machine at $65,700.

A lengthy discussion followed with Don Williams of Holt and Hugo Chavez of Giraud making presentations on their equipment. In the end the court voted to accept the low bid from Giraud. The budget was approved at an all-time high of $3,945,126. Of this amount, taxes will account for $2,400,000 and revenue from other departments in the county will make up the remainder. The general fund will receive $1,225,891 to operate in 1981. Allocated to the Road and Bridge Fund will be $305,220; to the road and bridge special, $295,370, and to Farm and Market, $583,800. A total of $876,400 has been budgeted for the hospital and $478,500 for the care center. Jail bond sinking fund will get $15,293, while the hospital sinking fund will get $8,750, and the Farm to Market sinking fund, $18,495.

Midland College to offer EMT courses

Midland College will have an Emergency Medical Technician class in Ozona starting September 22nd. The class will meet in the Crockett County Hospital Dining Room on Mondays and Tuesdays from 7 P.M. till 10 P.M. Those completing the classes and passing State testing will be certified by the Texas Department of Health as Emergency Medical Technician Basic and will receive 6 hours college credit. The classes will be taught by Ozona EMS Schools with lectures by Dr. Don Carlisle, Dr. Pat Dwyer and Dr. Robert Owensby. The class is also sponsored by Crockett County Hospital. The class will cover vital signs, external heart massage, bleeding and shock, fractures and wounds, medical emergencies (heart attack, stroke, diabetic coma, insulin shock, epilepsy and convulsions, poisoning, communicable disease, and unconscious patients), emergency childbirth, lifting and moving patients, extraction of patients from automobiles, environmental emergencies, and ambulance operations. For more information call 392-3557 or 392-3578.

Upgrade of sewer plant approved

Crockett County Water Control and Improvement District No. One has received preliminary approval from the Texas Department of Health for proposed improvements to the Ozona Sewage disposal system.

It is planned to move the treatment facility approximately one mile southwest of the present facility, constructing a new pipeline, lift station and stabilization pond system. Final treatment will be by cropland irrigation. Dan Glass of Sterling City is the engineer for the project. Cost of the project will be around $150,000 and construction will begin before the end of this year, according to water district officials.

The first sewer system was built in the late 30s and was county owned until turned over to the water district in 1941, shortly after the district was organized. This proved to be a wise move by the county fathers, since under the capable management of Bill Cooper, long-time manager of the water district, the system has been expanded until today it reaches every home in Ozona. Unlike the period of the beginning, not a single open pit toilet now exists in Ozona.

Plans for moving the system further from populated areas have been in the offing for several years. Complaints about odor from residents in the south side of Ozona escalated when the interstate right-of-way was cleared and they moved or built homes even closer to the plant.

The Board of Directors of the district authorized a study to use a federal government plan and apply for a federal grant. A group of engineers from Austin conducted the initial study, which indicated the federal regulations and requirements for such a plant would bring the cost to over 1/2 million dollars. Further, they found the cost of operation of such a facility under federal regulations would be prohibitive. Since the plant was operating efficiently, it was so far down on the priority list it would have been years before it even came up for review.

With plans submitted and preliminary approval given by the State Health department, Mr. Cooper said there should be no problem in completing the project.

School enrollment sees rise

Ozona school enrollment picked up last week following the Labor Day holiday. Opening day there were 1061 students enrolled and last week that number had jumped to 1082.

Enrollment increased by 8 students in the Primary School. Kindergarten closed the week with 112 students, first grade, 87, and second grade 93, for a total of 292.

Intermediate school enrollment was up from 262 to 266. There were 81 students in third grade, 94 in fourth grade and 91 in fifth grade.

Junior High had an increase of 5 students, up to 230 from 225 on opening day. Sixth graders numbered 80, seventh graders, 69, the same number as on opening day, and eighth graders up to 81.

High school enrollment increased by 4 students from 290 to 294. This number includes 99 freshmen; 74 sophomores, 71 juniors and 50 seniors.

Superintendent of Schools Foy Moody said in past years the enrollment figures have increased by October 1, and he expects a record enrollment this year.

The general fund will receive $1,225,891 to operate in 1981. Allocated to the Road and Bridge Fund will be $305,220; to the road and bridge special, $295,370, and to Farm and Market, $583,800. A total of $876,400 has been budgeted for the hospital and $478,500 for the care center. Jail bond sinking fund will get $15,293, while the hospital sinking fund will get $8,750, and the Farm to Market sinking fund, $18,495.

The court approved the budget as set forth by County Auditor Dick Kirby. Federal Revenue Sharing funds, estimated at $100,000, were budgeted by the court earlier in the year.

In other business, the court voted to close the road between the Catholic Church and Parish Hall for two and a-half hours each day and to widen the road which goes by the Primary School so vehicles can pass by and gain access to Hwy 163 without turning around and creating the bad traffic jam which has plagued the facility since the beginning of school.

Broncos smash Lions in opener

The Ozona Lions opened their 1980 football season with a 30-0 thumping at the hands of the Sonora Broncos.

The Lions will host the South San Antonio West Cougars Friday night with kick-off time at 8:00 p.m. The team is coached by Ozona alumnus Gary Sutton. The Cougars outweigh the Lions by about 20 pounds per man.

Three first half fumbles by the Lions proved to be their downfall as the Broncos converted each fumble into a touchdown.

The first score came with 6:59 left in the first quarter, with Rex Surber going in from 1 yd. out. David Creek, the Sonora quarterback, passed to Rex Surber for the 2 points after touchdown, making it 8-0 Broncos.

The second Bronco touchdown came with 6:04 left in the first quarter with David Creek passing to Allen Stewart for 27 yds. David Creek added the PAT, making it 15-0.

In the 2nd quarter, with the Lions deep in their own territory, Kim Tambunga, Lion halfback, was tackled in his own end zone by a host of Broncos for a safety, making the score 17-0.

The Broncos added one more score in the second quarter as David Creek ran 2 yards for a touchdown, with 3:17 left. David Creek added the PAT, making it 24-0 Broncos.

The only other score in the game came in the third quarter as David Creek passed to Johnny Doan for 31 yards and a score. The PAT was missed making it 30-0.

The only scoring threat for the Lions came in the third quarter when Varlyn Aldridge passed to Aldo Delgado for 55 yards down to the Broncos 30 yd. line, but the Lions could not move any closer.

The rest of the second half was mainly a defensive struggle. Outstanding on defense for the Lions was Louis Bunger and Ernie Borrego.

Ozona had 8 first downs to Sonoras 18, 26 yards rushing to 156 for the Broncos. The Lions had 61 yards passing to 148 for Sonora. Ozona was 2-8 and Sonora 8-11 on passes and punt averages were 3 for 35 for Sonora and 4 for 35 for the Lions. Both teams lost 3 fumbles. The Broncos had 7 penalties with a total of 80 yards and Ozona 4 for a total of 30.

GOVERNOR'S REPORT

by William F. Clements Jr.

A bill to provide for tightly-restricted electronic surveillance-wiretapping-in felony narcotics cases will be a fundamental part of the complete law enforcement package that I will submit to the Legislature next January.

I respect and fully support the right of individual privacy, and the legislation I will offer will protect that basic right of law-abiding citizens.

An effective wiretap law is essential to the success of state and law enforcement officers, however, in detecting, apprehending and prosecuting the criminals who mastermind and finance the narcotics traffic.

Texas, with 644 miles of coastline and 1200 miles of border with Mexico, is a major trans-shipment state in the drug traffic. Drug use in the United States generates $50 billion to $60 billion a year, and drug operations in Texas alone constitute a $3 billion annual business.

Two thirds of the heroin which comes into the United States moves through Texas. Drugs generate a major amount of other crime, and take a terrible toll in human lives. We are long overdue in providing our law enforcement officers with tools to stop this traffic.

The U.S. Supreme Court has upheld constitutionality of the federal wiretap law which was passed by Congress 12 years ago. Twenty-four states and the District of Columbia have adopted wiretap legislation since 1968, and none have repealed them.

I propose a state law patterned after the federal act but with even more stringent limitations. Under my proposal, wiretaps would be permitted only in felony narcotics cases. These safeguards against invasion of privacy would be written into the act:

—The Texas Department of Public Safety alone could install, operate and monitor wiretaps.

—Only nine judges in Texas—one in each of the nine administrative judicial districts named by the presiding judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals—could authorize the taps on finding they are necessary to get information in cases where there is probable cause to suspect felony narcotics involvement.

—Just 30 days of surveillance would be permitted by initial court orders, with additional 30-day extensions possible after judges review progress reports on the taps.

—Those whose communications were interrupted would have to be notified within 90 days after surveillance is terminated. Notifications also would be required where a wiretap is denied.

—Information obtained from an illegal wiretap would not be admissible in court.

—Illegal wiretapping would be punishable by two to 10 years imprisonment and fines up to $5,000. Civil damages could be recovered in event of illegal taps.

I am convinced that this legislation would give law officers an important new weapon which could be used after other investigative techniques have been tried unsuccessfully.

There is plenty of support for such a measure. Polls indicate more than two-thirds of Texans favor this added enforcement tool to combat the drug traffic. Eighty-one per cent of Republican primary voters this year endorsed it. My proposal also has backing of the Texas District and County Attorneys Association, the Sheriffs' Association of Texas, Texas Police Association, Texas Chiefs of Police Association, Texas Association of Police Attorneys, Organized Crime Prevention Council, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, Ross Perot's War on Drugs Committee, and the Mayors' Advisory Committee of Texas Municipal League. Some of our outstanding newspapers also have endorsed a Texas wiretap bill.

I cannot argue that wiretapping will solve the drug problem. But without it, our efforts to detect and prosecute the top financiers and traffickers of narcotics will continue to be hampered. It's time for Texans to start using all the tools we have available to combat a growing menace to our society.

EMCY TRAT Children apparently have always had toys. The remains of dolls and toy animals have been found in the burial mounds of ancient Persia and in early Greek Ruins. But only recently have specialists come to understand that toys play an important role above and beyond pure fun. Experts say toys actually serve as unprinted "textbooks" in helping children learn how to deal with life. To encourage such creative play, Fisher-Price—now in its 50th year—suggests parents look for toys that challenge the child, stimulate his imagination, and offer opportunities for social interaction with parents and other children.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS By Lyndell Williams TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—A new tax revolt may be brewing in Texas. At the grassroots level, taxpayers are upset with local tax increases—and their complaints are communicated to the State Capitol along with the question: what happened to the promised tax relief?

In 1978 voters approved the Tax Relief Amendment which authorized the Legislature to follow up in 1979 with tax relief legislation. Taxpayers were expecting to benefit from new tax breaks this year, but they are enraged to find their property valuations are going up, in most places.

For the average taxpayer, no explanation is readily available, which adds to the frustration. As a general rule, when the taxpayer inquires at the local tax office, he is told the blame lies with the Texas Legislature, a charge which many legislators are quietly preparing to throw back into the faces of local officials.

Another scapegoat is the newly-enacted property tax reform law, also known as the Peveto Bill, after its author, Rep. Wayne Peveto of Orange. The Peveto Bill was already somewhat of a legend on the day of its passage last season. Peveto had worked on the property tax code reform for six years, researching and polishing after each defeat until it was finally approved by two House votes and one Senate vote last year.

The bill was hailed as both a blessing and a curse at the same time. Governor Clements listed it as his foremost legislative achievement of the session, and it had the backing of several labor groups as well. Other legislators felt the reform might cause confusion which would inevitably lead to higher taxes, not lower taxes.

The Peveto Bill definitely contains some advantages for taxpayers, notably a provision for a local referendum to roll-back taxes and provisions for truth-in-taxation. The controversial part is the creation of a central property appraisal district for each county. Each county is required to create one by 1982, and many counties are already setting up such offices.

The central appraisal board will value local property for all local taxing entities, such as school boards, city councils, county commissioners' courts, etc. These central appraisal boards must also evaluate all property at 100 percent by 1982, but may choose the option of valuing at 100 percent this year.

Many new boards opted to go to 100 percent evaluation this year, and the results are startling. When taxpayers open their notices, they are shocked, in many cases, to find the value of their property has been driven up considerably. Their first reaction is to wonder how much higher their property taxes will be this year . . . and they begin to seek the answer.

The answer is this: the amount of tax will depend on the tax rate set by local officials. Although the property valuation is hiked, actual taxes can be kept at last year's dollar figure if local officials opt to drop the tax rate low enough.

Here's the rub: in this period of inflation, local governments are as hard-pressed to meet rising costs as local homeowners. To acquire extra revenue, local governments cannot go out and moonlight . . . they must raise taxes, and that is not a popular action these days.

Hence, the tendency by some local officials, not all, to place the blame on the Legislature. Unfortunately, legislators are up for re-election in two months, and they do not like being saddled with what they feel is an undesired stigma.

They have, up to now, avoided throwing the charge back on local officials, much out of sympathy for fellow elected officials. However, activity in Capitol offices indicates several legislators are preparing to fight back.

As one solon put it, the legislature did its best to cut taxes in 1979. Now it's the time for local officials to tighten the belt and hold down spending.

And it may happen that spending will be held down. It's easier for a taxpayer to attend a city council or school trustee meeting than to wait four months and travel to Austin to argue with the Texas Legislature.

These past few weeks have been very busy for nearly everybody in OHS. The cheerleaders have been busy trying to get the spirit up to get everyone to support the Lions. Last Friday was the Lion's first game against Sonora. Even though Sonora won with a score of 30-0, the Lions played a good game. The Lions are planning on doing better against San Antonio this Friday. We'd like to wish them good luck and hope everyone goes out to back them up. The JV and freshmen team played their first game last Saturday morning with Sonora. The score was tied 0-0. They play a good defensive game. The freshmen lost a hard fought game to Sonora with a score of 9-8. We would also like to wish both the JV and freshmen teams well in their upcoming games.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

Fall color starts with chrysanthemums so you know it's fall when mums begin their spectacular show. Visit and see them at their finest at botanical and private gardens as you travel this year. These flower colors are brilliant hues of autumn, ranging from vivid to pastels and white. But color isn't all chrysanthemums have to offer, for flower forms and sizes are also varied. There are mums that look like daisies, some with 1-inch fluffy blossoms, and near magnolia-size flowers on others.

Although it's late in the season, you can still find mums at garden centers. Plant them now, even if they are in bloom; then expand your collection at planting time next spring. First be sure to purchase early while supplies are best. You will need to consider color, plant shape, and flower form.

When classified by plant shape they are either cushion or upright. Cushion mums form low, tight mounds of foliage, later hidden by the densely clustered flowers with plants usually 12 to 18 inches tall. Upright types are usually tall 18 to 36 inches and bear their flowers on stalks that rise above the foliage.

A more specific classification is based on flower form. Although there are over a dozen types, the following are the most popular and readily available at nurseries-pompon, spoon, decorative, single-flowered, anemone and standard.

The cushion mums are at their best when grown in masses either alone or planted in combination with annual bedding plants, such as marigolds, solives, and ageratum.

Since mums are perennials, a good use of the cushion types is an anchor plants for flower borders. For example, use mums, iris, and daylilies to establish the contours of the border; then fill in the design with tender annuals for additional seasonal colors.

The taller, upright mums are prized as cut flowers. However, they can be planted in clumps to add height and color to dense, all-green ground cover plantings, such as spreading cotoneasters and creeping junipers.

One caution is to avoid colors that clash with the house or other architectural features. Chrysanthemums are not carefree, however if you plant them correctly, they shouldn't be too demanding once they are well established.

Mums need full sun and rich, well-drained soil. Dig planting beds at least 12 inches deep, and work compost or similar organic matter into the soil at the rate of about 1/2 bushel per square yard of bed. An even supply of moisture is essential to good flowering-especially now that buds are forming.

Symbol of Safety

You never mistake the meaning of a Church spire.

Even to those who are cold to the ideals for which the Church stands, that finger of faith always points to something that is comforting, reassuring, safe.

The very presence of a Church, whether in a crowded city street or on a quiet country road, is a benediction to all, including those who are not conscious of worship.

Such an influence, with what it means to those who open their hearts to truth, is worthy of a second thought. It merits acceptance as a refuge. It commands confidence as a port in time of storm.

The Church deserves your support — your membership — because it affords real protection for the family whose welfare it is your duty to defend and whose proper upbringing is your solemn obligation.

Crockett County Care Center News

by Joan Nicholas-Director of Activities & Social Care

Dominoes winner this Monday was Blanche Fortune. Others playing were Maude Pettit, Bertha Miller, and Evelyn Bryant. In Toss Across last week, Gertrude Daniels won over Juana Hernandez.

Several joined in crafts on Tuesday morning when we made recipe holders from felt flowers and tops from spray cans. We will finish them this week. Each resident or family member will provide a favorite recipe and then they will be ready to give as gifts or may be sold.

In Bible class we finished up the last lesson for the quarter before going into the new book. We studied Part VII in "Understanding the Faiths of Our Times" from "Mature Years" and learned about the Christian Church of Christ, Church of Christ the Scientist, the Church of Jesus of Latter-day Saints and the Adventists.

Some of us were surprised to learn that while the Christian Church and the Churches of Christ are two distinctly different denominations, their history is closely linked. Alexander Campbell, the founder of these denominations, came to Pennsylvania from Scotland where he and his father had been associated with the Seceder branch of the Presbyterian Church, but had withdrawn from this church and formed a Christian association. A similar association had developed under another Presbyterian minister, Varton W. Stone, in Kentucky and the two groups united in 1832. Stone's group called themselves "Christians", while Campbell's group were "disciples". Within this joint group there grew a conservative element which eventually separated themselves from the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), calling themselves the Churches of Christ.

The class really has enjoyed this informative series as we are indeed an ecumenical group with members from many faiths united in a common quest. There were, as usual, lots of compliments flying around on Thursday afternoon about the volunteers who rolled and combed hair all morning. This is hard and tiring work and the ladies do such a great job they deserve a special mention. The regulars are: Hazel Storms, Blanca Castro, Ruth Dorris, Maria Vitela and Blanche Walker. Kathy Storms worked all summer but is now back in school, of course.

In reading and discussion Thursday afternoon we read "Summers We'll Never Forget" which set a "remember when" discussion into motion. Nila Turnell talked of early days in McCullough County. In addition to jokes we read from Grit some excerpts from Kathryn Crosby's new book about her late husband Bing. Again "Yesteryear" provided much light entertainment. We enjoyed the way Mr. Pierce so delicately described the pre-sewer era and I, for one, never would have known about the mechanics involved in caring for privies! When we came to the part about the old boy who, in alighting from a horse-drawn vehicle, in a hurry to go, was cast down rather unceremoniously by a clothesline in his path, Verna Talley laughed 'till the tears flowed!

Bingo winner for the week was Paul Cavin. He received a gift certificate donated by Watsons but only after a play-off with Hilario Cortez who then received a prize.

We thank Mrs. Post for a number of copies of "Mature Years", flowers, and "Ideals". We appreciated sharing another floral tribute brought in by Bernice Jones. There are more flowers here this week, but I don't find a name in the book. We thank you anyway!

It was birthday party time once more. Celebrating this month were Maude Pettit, Leona Harris and Bertha Miller (2 84's and an 88). Polly Eppler baked a fine cake and Maxine's flowers gave each lady a pretty peach carnation to wear. Numerous gifts were unwrapped and special guests were Olive Berry, Ethel Miller and Mrs. David McWilliams, Autumn and Amber. Liz Mary Pipes was the Auxiliary hostess and she was assisted by Mattie Cooper, Alice Ross, and Mena Dowdy. There was piano music and picture-taking. Amid much merriment the ladies put their ribbon bows atop their heads for a picture. One of the honorees received some beautifully scented lotion and jokingly commented she was going to catch herself a man! Another received some beautiful pajamas which she held up against her and broke into a dance. Yes, we have lots of infectious laughter out here!

Texas PCA to meet

Texas Production Credit Association directors join other agricultural leaders in San Antonio September 12 for the annual PCA Directors' Conference.

Texas PCA participants include Chairman Aubrey DeLong of Mertzon; Fred Campbell, Paint Rock; J. Burney Ligon, vice chairman, Fort Stockton; Clifton Simcik, San Angelo; R.B. Ferguson, Big Lake; and Lee Russell, president, San Angelo.

According to Chairman DeLong, the conference is designed to bring PCA directors up-to-date on services provided to PCAs by the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Texas, source of most PCA loan funds.

Discussion leader is James Rogers, the Credit Bank's senior vice president. Also scheduled on the program is Melvin Sims, president of Growmark Inc. His topic deals with effective directorship. A special feature of this year's conference will be the Directors' Seminar scheduled September 11. Conducted by Louis A. Allen Associates, Inc., the seminar will feature director's roles as Association leaders and a systematic approach to leadership.

Texas PCA has farmer-rancher members in Coke, Crane, Crockett, Culberson, El Paso, Hudspeth, Irion, Kimble, Menard, Pecos, Reagan, Reeves, Schleicher, Sterling, Sutton, Terrell, Tom Green, Upton and Ward counties and has loans outstanding totaling more than $20 million.

Keith Dean Dragoo of Belize City, Belize, in the British Honduras in Central America, has been a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Dragoo.

State Fair Rodeo is roughest and toughest

The roughest, toughest, most professional cowboys in the United States will be competing in the 1980 State Fair Championship Rodeo held during the first week of the State Fair of Texas, October 3 through 19. More than 500 daredevil bronco busters, bull riders, steer wrestlers, calf ropers and fearless cowgirl barrel racers will be competing for more than $75,000 in prize money.

The State Fair of Texas has one of the top ten purses on the Professional Rodeo Cowboy Association's (PRCA) circuit and is one of the last major rodeos before the National Finals Rodeo is held in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma during December. At the National Finals, the top 15 contestants in each event for the past year will compete for world championship titles. The contestants qualify based on purse money they win throughout the 1980 season thereby enticing the top cowboys in the world to compete at the State Fair Championship Rodeo as the race for the finals comes to a close.

Rodeo producer Tommy Steiner will supply first-rate rodeo bucking stock while master of ceremonies Don Endsley's professional style of announcing will delight new rodeo fans and satisfy the demands of the rodeo veteran.

The color and pageantry of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Musical Ride will be this year's featured entertainment.

The Musical Ride, featuring a full troop of 32 men and horses, is a breathtaking display of intricate figures and movements, set to music, and highlighted by the RCMP Force's regimental colors of royal blue and yellow set off by the scarlet color of the tunics.

The Championship Rodeo at the State Fair of Texas offers exciting entertainment for the entire family. The rodeo kicks off on Saturday, October 4 at 8:00 p.m. and continues nightly through the finals October 12. Tickets are $5.50 for reserved seats and $7.50 for box seats and will admit the holder to the Fairgrounds the day of the performance. Tickets will be sold through all Rainbow Ticket Outlets, 214/521-3670 and go on sale September 16.

SHEEP AND GOAT NEWS

The Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association has scheduled its fall directors meeting for Sat., Sept. 27 at the Sonora Junior High School.

The one-day meeting will start with registration at 8:30 a.m. Committee meetings will begin on a split schedule at 9:00, followed by the general session at 1:30. Sutton County directors and their wives will host an informal reception Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vestel Askew.

Topics of greatest interest will include an update on imported lamb, including the latest developments in the industry's efforts to gain equal footing in our own market with lamb exporting countries. It's a problem that has plagued the domestic sheep producer for some time, and has all the earmarks of getting worse if we're unable to take effective corrective action.

We'll also feature a further report on Texas amendment No. 7, which would allow private landowners to hire county road work done where other services are not available. This measure had the support of the last legislative session and will go to the voters in November. TS&GRA is supporting the amendment, which could help not only the victims of poor private roads, but other county taxpayers whose share of the public roadwork outlay could be reduced by private roadwork income. It's an economy-minded idea whose time has clearly come.

The meeting should also offer up-to-date information on the status of toxic collar research, particularly relating to progress on a Texas A&M/Fish & Wildlife Service joint research project. To stave off some congressional action that would have forced it to deal an honest hand for a change, EPA has loudly proclaimed its willingness to allow meaningful 1080 research. That was just before it turned down collar research requests from the Texas and New Mexico departments of agriculture. How EPA deals with the A&M/FWS study should be interesting.

Woman's Auxiliary president Nelda Mayfield has scheduled a business meeting and mini-workshop for 9:30 a.m. Saturday morning. All and all, the TS&GRA directors meeting should be able to provide information of interest to all wool and mohair producers.

PBCA cites waste in Texas' Department of Energy pecan crop progresses

The Permian Basin Petroleum Association has criticized the Department of Energy almost since the time it was created. The following are some examples of the waste, inefficiency and non-productivity we've been talking about.

It was recently disclosed at a Congressional Hearing that 85 percent or 10 billion, 200 million dollars, of DOE's 12 billion dollar budget is spent on outside consultants—not employed by the agency. By doing this, DOE is admitting their own 20,000 employees don't know what's going on and they have to rely on outside help. Why not hire people who do know something about the energy business and save the taxpayers 10 billion dollars. What do the 20,000 employees of DOE do? According to 'First Monday' Magazine, 10 million dollars worth of the strategic petroleum reserve periodically cannot be accounted for. Three hundred thousand dollars were wasted when DOE destroyed eight million copies of a gasoline mileage guide because they were bound in the wrong covers. According to the DOE Inspector General, 126,000 pieces of mail are lost each year by the Department. By the way, those pieces of mail had the correct names and addresses on them. DOE employees have made personal long distance phone calls costing the taxpayers $500,000. One employee called a "Dial a Dirty Joke" number in St. Louis 42 time in two hours.

Americans have reduced their gasoline consumption by about 8 percent this year. The Federal Government has increased its use of gasoline by 10.7 percent. The Department of Energy needs to be abolished.

The rig count last week was 334. One year ago it was 277.

OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

There are no problem marriages, only problem people married to each other. The root of the problem is our relationship with God. If we do not begin there in our relationship with our mates, there is no hope for a happy marriage. Thus our elders have invited Brother Tate to hold our Family Seminar. They also have decided to follow this up with the showing of the film study, "Focus on the Family." by James C. Dobson. These will be shown on 7 consecutive Wednesday nights starting October 29, and going through December 5. Our elders understand, as we should also, that the family with Christ as its center is the foundation of our society.

VICA officers elected

The Vica Organization which consists of 17 Auto Mechanics students held a meeting Wednesday night to elect officers for the club. Alfred Enriquez was elected President, Aldo Delgado was elected Vice President, Johnny Rodriguez was elected Reporter, Robert Tambunga was elected Parliamentarian, Ruben Perez was elected Sgt. of Arms, and Frank Galvan was elected Secretary.

The club planned a breakfast for the teachers and themselves Tuesday morning. Serving started at 6:30 a.m. As some of you may recall last year some of the club members went on a trip to Dallas for state competition.

We are asking for all the support we can get. We as officers believe that the Vica Club can succeed and accomplish many individual goals.

Debra Says

By Debra Price

One of the easiest energy-saving measures a homeowner can take is the installation of weatherstripping and the application of caulking—to tighten up the house.

At least that's what the experts say.

Install weatherstripping and apply caulking to prevent heat loss in the winter and heat infiltration during summer months.

First, find the "trouble spots" in your home where air moves in and out—wasting as much as 37 percent of your heating or cooling money.

Usually these unwanted openings are found around doors and windows, electrical and plumbing connections, and where different materials are joined together.

Weatherstripping and sealing materials can be applied easily and economically by the homeowner. Only a few common tools are required.

For the job, you'll need a hammer, scissors, a screwdriver, caulking gun, steel measuring tape, weatherstripping and sealing material.

Weatherstripping is available by the foot—or in handy kits complete with the seal and suitable fasteners for a single door or window.

Weather-seals may be made of a variety of materials.

Some are surface mounted and will be clearly visible after installation, while others will be concealed when the door or window is closed.

Four basic types of weatherstripping are available for application by the homeowner—pliable gaskets, rigid strip gaskets, spring-metal strips and threshold weatherstripping.

Pliable gaskets—Flexible gaskets of vinyl, rubber and felt are attached with adhesive, brads or staples to the door and window stops.

When the door or window is closed, the edge presses lightly against the gasket.

Pliable gaskets are highly visible. Don't try to paint them away, either! Painting gaskets may cause them to harden.

Rigid Strip Gaskets—Rigid strip gaskets usually are made of tubular vinyl attached to a metal strip, or they're made of a felt-type material glued to a wood strip.

Attach both types with nails or screws to door and window stops.

Rigid strip gaskets are visible, too. You can apply paint to the wood or metal strip, but don't paint the gasket itself.

Spring-Metal Strips—Attach strips of bronze, aluminum or copper with brads to door and window frames.

Use this type weatherstripping on either double-hung or casement windows. Spring-metal weatherstripping provides good draft control, but it may make doors hard to open and close.

Installation is not difficult, but take care not to kink or bend the metal strips.

Threshold Weatherstripping—You can stop drafts and blowing moisture at the bottom of outside doors by using door-bottom weatherstripping.

It's usually packaged in easy-to-install kits along with fasteners and complete instructions.

Among the most common types of threshold weatherstripping are metal and felt or vinyl strips attached to the bottom of the door.

These strips of felt or vinyl compress against the threshold to keep drafts and moisture out.

This type of weatherstripping is inexpensive and easy to install.

If that still doesn't solve the draft problem underneath a door, check the threshold itself.

A badly worn threshold may be the problem. If so, replace the worn one—and consider a metal unit if the old one was wood.

Some metal units have a raised vinyl inset that will compress against the bottom of the door to form a seal, making weatherstripping on the door unnecessary.

Metal threshold units are available for doors of varying widths.

Follow these pointers for successful application of caulking or sealing materials:

Apply sealing material only to a clean, dry surface.

Remove old, dried sealing materials—and clean the area with a solvent to remove grease or other substances that would prevent a tight bond.

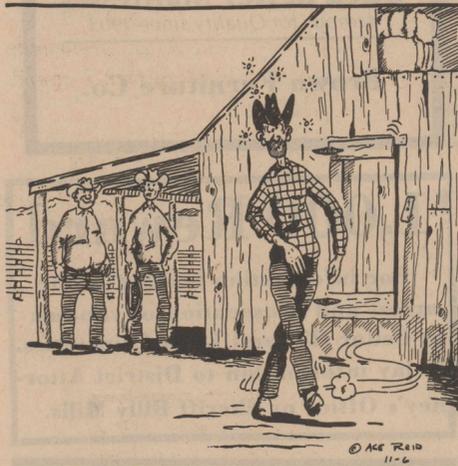

Deposit sealing material at the bottom of the seam, so it fills without bubbling.

Never apply sealing material to a porous surface alone—prime before application.

Never skim.

BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW Here's a surprising football fact..Despite Chuck Noll's phenomenal success in coaching the Pittsburgh Steelers in recent years, it's not Noll, but Don Shula of Miami who has the best winning percentage among all active coaches in the National Football League..Going into this season, Shula, in his NFL career, has won 72% of all games he's coached..Red Miller of Denver is 2nd, having won 67% of all his games..Noll is 3rd at 65%..Bud Grant of Minnesota is 4th at 64% and Chuck Knox of Buffalo is 5th at 63%..Also, surprisingly, Tom Landry of Dallas ranks only 7th, having won 61% of all the NFL games he's coached. ***

Amazingly, Notre Dame has had only 4 losing seasons in football IN THIS CENTURY..The only losing seasons the Irish have had since 1900 were 1933, 1956, 1960 and 1963. ***

One of the strangest pennant races in big league baseball history happened in the National League in 1964..Philadelphia was in first place 134 days that season, then didn't finish first-while St. Louis was never in first place on any day in 1964 till Sept. 29, and they won the Pennant! ***
