Crockett County folks are just not livin' right. Last week's rains and floods were all around, but we only eked out .32 of an inch. Of course, that's somewhat better than nothing, but just barely.

The weather has changed some though, the mid-day sun just burns what skin it touches and doesn't go right through your clothes and sear you like it did two weeks ago. If one gets up and out before daylight, there's a barely cool breeze and a smell of fall. So this all goes to show that sooner or later this sizzling summer is going to end.

About the incomplete sentences in the story about the minnow warriors, we apologize. It has been called to our attention by readers near and far. We could explain that we had a Monday holiday that week and that, in effect, what we did was put out a daily, but we won't. We always put out a daily when we have a Monday holiday.

We could blame it on being short-handed, but we won't. Our make-up man left us, and with having to lay out the paper and write the headlines, we had no time for re-read, much less re-write. We are going to replace him as soon as we find someone who knows "make-up" is not something you do to your face every morning; that "lay-out" does not mean staying out all night; that "flush right and flush left" is not an ambidextrous toilet. Anyone knowing what these terms mean, needing a job where you really work, wanting to do something besides collect a pay-check and answer the phone, may apply at the Stockman office, forthwith.

Now, back to the incomplete sentences. I just wanted to see if you were all on your toes after our grammar lesson the week before, that's all.

We've had some complaints about our cut-lines (that is the captions underneath pictures). Some say they can't read them; others say they are hard to decipher. I say they are unsightly, but it saves us lots of money. When silver went sky high last January, our film did too. When silver crashed, our film failed to fall a cent. So when we ran out of the wide film, we just decided to improvise and use the one-column blackface. It really isn't hard to read if you set your mind to it. Just read up and down each column like you do the newspaper. Now see, isn't that easy.

We had one letter from a subscriber in Uvalde. I think he was complaining about the cut-lines. I have no way of knowing for sure, 'cause I couldn't read his handwriting.

Hoover contest winner

H.O. Hoover won the Stockman football contest this week. Entries picked up this week with more interest being shown. The entries were graded Monday after the mail was picked up. Entries must be received in the Stockman office before 5:00 p.m. Fridays. Each week's contest will appear in Wednesday's edition of the Stockman and the deadline will be the following Friday. Contestants should fill in a score for the tie-breaker. The winning entry will receive $10 each week.

Drilling rigs like this are the life-blood of Crockett County's economy. The oil and gas industry has outdistanced livestock as the leading industry in the county and continues to grow.

Lions edged by South San Antonio West

By James Pagan
The South San Antonio West Cougars came to town Friday night and met a fired up bunch of Ozona Lions. The Cougars won 14-13 when the final whistle blew, but it was after the battle and after trailing the Lions 13-0 in the fourth quarter. Both Cougar touchdowns came on Lion fumbles in the final period of the game.

The Lions will host the Brackett Tigers Friday night, and expect an exciting game. The much improved Lion team will be facing a team more its own size than in the previous two games. If they play the kind of heads-up football they played against the Cougars, their first win of the season may well be in the offing.

Neither the Cougars nor the Lions could manage to score in the first half of play here Friday night. The deepest penetration by either team came when Ernest Badillo recovered a Cougar fumble on their 40-yard line.

The Lions drove down to the Cougar 2-yard-line, but missed their chance to score when they fumbled the ball, bringing up a 0-0 halftime.

In the third quarter an exciting punt return by Johnny Rodriguez of 70 yards put the Lions in business on the Cougar 20. With 9:15 left in the third quarter, Kim Tambunga punched it in for the score from three yards out. Rudy Martinez added the PAT, giving the Lions a 7-0 lead.

The Lions struck again in the third quarter with 2:33 remaining on the clock. Aldo Delgado intercepted a Cougar pass and ran 80 yards for the touchdown. The PAT was no good, but the Lions had a 13-0 lead at the end of the period.

The fourth quarter was a disaster for the Lions when they saw their lead dwindle and vanish. With 9:21 left in the game the Cougars recovered a Lion fumble on the Lion 45, and drove down to score. The PAT was good and the Cougars had 7 points on the scoreboard.

On the ensuing kickoff, the Lions fumbled again. This proved their undoing. From the 45-yard-line of the Lions, the Cougars drove down to score from a yard out and the PAT was good.

Trailing by a point, the Lions fought back and with only 40 seconds remaining attempted a 25-yard field goal for the win. The Cougars blocked it, and that was the ballgame.

4-H clubs to organize

The Crockett County 4-H Club will have a club meeting Monday, September 22, 7:30 at the Civic Center. All 4-H members are urged to attend. All youth 9 to 19 are welcome to come and join 4-H.

The 1980-81 4-H officers and delegates will be elected for the coming year.

Kim Tambunga scores the Lions first touchdown of the year against the South San Antonio West Cougars here Friday night.

How Crockett County got out of the mud

By Evert White
Rain has always been a comparatively scarce commodity in this traditionally dry West Texas area. In fact, there has been more dry weather than wet, by a large majority, in West Texas, but the occasional prolonged "wet spells" that are known in these parts were more frequent, or seemed so, in the twenties when muddy roads were a problem to small communities.

Time was when Ozona folk drew deep breaths of apprehension when the always welcome rains seemed to hang on. Supplies, groceries, fuel, dry goods and all the necessities of life, were received the only available route—overland by truck or auto or freight wagon. When it rained too long, the roads got muddy, and the longer it rained the muddier the roads got—until finally there was no way a motor vehicle could negotiate them and the freight wagon was too slow to be of much help.

The result was that more frequently than one can now imagine, Ozona ran out of supplies, or got dangerously short. Besides the muddy roads, the flooding draws the roads had to cross were effective in stopping traffic, even if for a matter of a few hours. The road to Barnhart crossed Johnson draw or its tributaries six or more times between the two towns. And the road to Sonora, and thence through Eldorado to San Angelo, was beset with as many or more hazards. Sometimes travelers took the only alternative available to them—they laid down right-of-way fences and took out across pastures, taking advantage of the untrammelled turf to give them traction, at least, for a time.

A newly organized Lions Club, made up of gungho young business men of Ozona realized the handicap to the growth of the community posed by bad roads. They began beating the drums, but the old timers paid little attention. And the county government, traditionally, frowned on anything that could cost money. Realizing that they must get the attention of the older group and if possible make it look like the movement was theirs. Mr. N.W. Graham, though older was of the same progressive mind as the young Lions, and he was asked to make a talk before the club on the need for paved roads in Crockett county. The speech was duly reported in the local newspaper, albeit with maybe an unusual amount of space allocated to covering the speech.

It soon transpired that talk increased and interest multiplied. Some state and federal help would be available if the county came thru with its part of the funds. A petition signed by more than the required number of qualified voters was presented to the Commissioners Court. The order calling the election was framed by Judge

Chas. E. Davidson, county judge and an outspoken opponent of the proposed bond issue because "the county simply can't afford it." The election was held on Dec. 21, 1929, and 253 voters voted for the bond issue and the levy of a tax in payment thereof. Twenty-seven opposed the proposal. Consequently the Commissioners Court began the legal processes of issuing the bonds. But the prospects for getting out of the mud in Crockett county faded when the Attorney General's office disapproved the bonds because "the order calling the election was faulty."

A new petition was presented to the court asking it again to call an election to issue road bonds to pave the two principal road outlets for Ozona. Knowing the judge's feelings toward the bond proposal, backers of the plan, headed by Mr. Graham, Mr. Will Baggett and Mr. Monroe Baggett, went to San Angelo and employed Mr. Henry Jackson, leading lawyer of that city, to draw up the election order—though that process entailed only the opening of the lawbook to the statute governing bond elections and copying the form verbatim.

When the new petition was presented to the court, Judge Davidson haltingly suggested a change here and there. "Judge," Mr. Will Baggett intoned, "We have spent $100 of our own money to get Judge Jackson to draw up this order and we want it passed by this court JUST LIKE IT'S WRITTEN." It was and the voters again approved the proposal in a countywide election held April 21, 1930. This time the vote was 253 for and 11 against. And the bonds won speedy approval by the Attorney General.

A week or so later, I had occasion for a friendly casual meeting with the judge. "Well," Judge Davidson said, "You young fellers beat me." And then, hesitating, he added "And I'm glad you did."

It later came to pass that the state and feds assumed the road indebtedness of Texas counties and Crockett county never had to pay off the $375,000 bond issue.

Gas & oil makes healthy economy

The gas and oil industry plays a big part in the health of the economy in Crockett County as evidenced by survey prepared by J.A. Nettles of Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Assn., and released last week for the year of 1979. This year, 1980, has seen an even bigger jump in gas and oil activities in the county.

Last year 419 workers were employed by the industry, bringing a payroll of $5,907,876 to the county's economy.

Production of crude oil was 4,893,794 barrels at a value of $61,221,363. Natural gas production was 93,303,594 MCF (thousand cubic feet) at a value of $111,031,277. Total value of the gas and oil produced in the county amounted to $172,252,640.

Oil companies made royalty payments of $21,531,580 to mineral owners in the county. State production taxes were paid in the amount of $11,143,529, of this amount, $2,816,183 was paid on crude oil and $8,327,346 on natural gas.

Estimated drilling expenditures were $90,263,879 for the year. Of this amount, $17,014,597 was spent on dry holes.

Of the 313 wells drilled in the county in 1979, 23 were wildcats. The wildcats made 2 oil wells, 4 gas wells and 17 dry holes. From the 313 wells drilled in the county, 90 were oil wells, 164 were gas wells and 59 were dry holes.

At the end of the year, the county had nine natural gasoline processing plants with a capacity of 190.2 MMcf per day.

CAPITOL UPDATE

John Tower

U.S. SENATOR for TEXAS
142 RUSSELL OFFICE BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

Recent Senate committee hearings confirmed that the Administration's grain embargo has had a minimal effect on the Soviet Union, while dealing a hammer blow to the American farmer.

The President's purpose in imposing an embargo on grain sales to the Soviet Union was to punish the Soviets for their invasion and subjugation of Afghanistan. We were told depriving the Russians of feed grains would have a devastating impact on their meat production. In fact, the impact has been so slight, the average Russian is giving up not more than the equivalent to two hamburgers a month. Brezhnev probably isn't giving up that much.

For the farmer, the embargo meant plummeting prices, which began to rise again only as a result of a drought-which diminished production to such an extent many farmers will see scant benefit from the recent increases.

Therefore, we must conclude the only real victims of the embargo are American farmers. Aid promised by the Administration to minimize the damage to American agriculture has been slow and inadequate. Obviously, the embargo must be lifted immediately.

But the embargo raises even larger questions which cry for answers. A number of my colleagues and I have called for joint hearings of the Senate Agriculture, Banking and Foreign Relations committees to examine these critical issues. We are concerned that the decision to embargo grain as an instrument of foreign policy apparently was made without thinking through the implications for the future.

We want to ask Administration officials: Have trade suspensions proven to be an effective tool of foreign policy? I know of no instance in which they have been.

Does the Administration intend to make future use of trade suspensions to help carry out its foreign policy? If not, it seems unfair that the American farmer has been singled out to bear the economic brunt of our policies.

What effect does the use of food as a foreign policy tool have on agricultural production and distribution here and abroad? Agricultural exports are about the only bright spot in our balance of payments situation. I wonder if the Administration considered the critical role these exports play in keeping the dollar stable internationally.

Wouldn't it be better to use the phenomenal productivity of our farmers in a positive way to support U.S. foreign policy interests?

I am not satisfied that the Administration looked at these questions when it decided to respond to the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan with the grain embargo. After all, the President declared the invasion the worst act of aggression since World War II. Was the embargo our only alternative to war? That seems to be the Administration's view. Does the President plan to continue it indefinitely-despite the evidence it hasn't worked? The American farmer needs to know.

Agriculture is of critical importance to the general well-being of our people and the economic health of our nation. The American farmer has fought drought, flood and misguided federal policy, and still is a marvel of productivity and patriotism. To use him as a pawn in an international chess game is a disgrace. To do it without a well-thought out plan-with consequences and probable effectiveness thoroughly examined-is worse.

I promise you that those of us in the Senate who are concerned about these critical issues will probe and press until we get satisfactory answers.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Ozona Stockman,

Having been at college for 2 1/2 weeks now, I am terminally homesick. I felt it was an absolute necessity to write and tell you that after I had received "the paper," I was convinced I might live another week or two. Thank you so much for making my week.

Sincerely,
Peri Pennington

Dear Kitty:
It was a pleasant surprise to receive the Stockman and find the article regarding my selection as Educator of the Month.

Ozona has meant so much to me and my family and we will always consider it as our home town.

We enjoy receiving the Stockman each week, although it makes us homesick for the good old days.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

AUSTIN — Labor Day traditionally opens the last act of the campaign drama in Texas, and last week the players hit the stage running. The top Democrats began traveling across the state for President Jimmy Carter . . . and Republican Gov. Bill Clements stumped around for Ronald Reagan and various candidates for the Legislature.

In Corpus Christi the Governor pepped up a fundraiser for Ken Riley, running against incumbent Democrat Bill Harrison which was later called the most successful fundraiser in South Texas history by GOP officials.

United Democrats
Texas Democrats have been fussing and fighting since before the primary, but they now vow they are unified solidly behind Carter and will work to see him re-elected.

That's probably a relief to Carter, who has said he needs Texas to win in seven weeks.

In a two-day blitz starting at Houston, the top leaders traveled in groups of twos and threes to all areas of the state. The group included Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, former Atty. Gen. John Hill, Comptroller Bob Bullock, Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong, Jim Hightower, State Rep. Paul Ragsdale, Mexican-American Democrats leader Marc Campos, and others. Armstrong said he's never seen the party "this ready this early."

Meanwhile, the Texas Democratic Party announced it will not contest the placing of Independent candidate John Anderson on the ballot, saying a preliminary check indicated Anderson had enough valid signatures on his ballot petition.

Behold the Prosecution
Some public officials have more troubles than simple re-election bids as several are entering and leaving through the courtroom doors.

The most dramatic case remains, of course, the Brilab trial of House Speaker Bill Clayton, which was delayed because of the Jewish holiday Rosh Hashanah last week. Clayton's case was thought to have received a blow when a federal judge last week overturned a ruling giving immunity to a key witness for Clayton.

Bullock, Wayne Cleared
A Travis County grand jury returned a "no-bill" against former Deputy Comptroller Ralph Wayne alleged to have used state employees and equipment for his personal business.

District Atty Ronald Earle said the investigation of Comptroller Bullock and his office is now closed. The probe was on-going some three years. A relieved Bullock said he believed he was treated fairly by Earle and the jury.

Next, A Senator
The next state official to stand before that grand jury may be State Sen. Gene Jones of Houston, alleged to have used state employees and equipment in setting up

The past week in OHS was another busy week for everyone. You might say it was because a lot of people were looking forward to the last Friday night's game. The Lions played against South San Antonio West, a 4-A school. The score was 14-13. The Lions played a close and outstanding game. Brackett just better watch out this Friday. The Freshmen and JV teams also did a great job last Thursday against McCamey. The JV score was 34-24 and the Freshmen score was 18-8. Both teams won. Their next game will be against Big Lake. We hope all the teams keep up the great work. Cross country track is under way. The first meet will be this Saturday in San Angelo. Coach Deaton will be taking nine girls. Good Luck girls!

FAMOUS WORDS
Ismael C., "Oh no, not Saudi Arabia announced it would increase the price of its oil from $28.00 to $32 a barrel in the near future. Saudi Arabia provides America with about 25% of the oil imported to this country. The OPEC countries are scheduled to meet in Vienna, Austria, this week and two of the main topics of discussion will be the price of oil and the amount of production. Most people think that production will be cut back to reduce the current glut on the world market. If that action is taken, prices will probably start rising again. Also, the OPEC countries may try to set up automatic price increases every quarter based on inflation, the gross national products and the fluctuation of major currencies.

More Paper Now Recycled
WASHINGTON -- Paper recycling has come a long way from the era of Boy Scouts collecting old newspapers. Today more than 200 cities have separate trash pickup systems for newspapers, and more than 300 paper mills use some waste-paper in making new paper.

The U.S. Census Bureau says about 13.1 million tons of wastepaper--most of it used corrugated, miscellaneous paper, and old newspapers--were recycled last year.

The American Paper Institute, which represents the mills and manufacturers, estimates that 15.6 million tons of wastepaper were recycled.

Recycling depends on the market demand for reusable paper. In prosperous times, all forms of raw materials are needed; and paper mills, which often grown their own timber, supplement with wastepaper.

In a sagging economy, the mills cut back on purchases, and wastepaper is left out. Federal tax laws and transportation rates generally favor the use of virgin timber.

The one market that has increased drastically in the last 10 years is wastepaper sold for export. In 1970, about 400,000 tons were shipped to foreign manufacturers; last year about 2.2 million tons were exported, primarily to Japan, Korea, Canada, and Mexico.

Incentives for increased recycling in this country can be written into regulations that step up the demand for recycled paper products.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

With the late afternoons becoming cooler, outdoor living will be more enjoyable as the fall weeks approach. Usually we have pleasant weather, beautiful fall flowers, and colorful foliage throughout our area. There are plenty of garden chores to be done this month, especially the dividing and transplanting perennials and for moving broad-leaf evergreens. This gives plants time to develop good new root growth before cold weather slows them down. Special attention should be given to crowded iris, daylilies and other types of perennials. Deciduous plants that are to be moved before their leaves drop should be treated like evergreens, and lifted only with a root ball of dirt. September is the month to start a compost pile if you haven't already done so. Be careful not to use diseased leaves or other plant material.

If you like or have a place for vines, do notice the beautiful queen's wreath and the white clematis that starts blooming in August.

You may need to rearrange, add new plants and prune hanging baskets if you plan to keep them displayed indoors. Remember they need water more frequently than usual because they dry out quickly. Apply enough water each time for some to drain through. Good drainage is essential. If soil remains water logged, the plants will die. Feed plants as needed with liquid fertilizer by directions on product about every two weeks. To keep plants looking well groomed, pinch back new growth frequently to encourage branching and thickening growth. Remove spent flowers and dead foliage at least once a week. Control insect and disease of plants when necessary.

Weeds are beginning to mar the beauty of our city, so make an effort to help clean in front of places of businesses, alleys, and vacant lots. Too, these weeds will cause many to have hay fever. Please do your part.

Miss Perner and Mr. Pierce are married

Miss Nora Luann Perner became the bride of Mr. Joe Sellers Pierce V, in a candle-lit ceremony September 6, at 7 p.m. in the Ozona United Methodist Church with Rev. Larry Bailey, pastor, officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Sam Perner, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pierce IV, and Mrs. Elizabeth Thornton of Panama City, Florida.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of silk organza and beaded Alencon lace. The peaked Empire bodice featured a high beaded neckline, fronted with a wide border of beaded lace.

The long candlestick sleeves repeated the beaded lace detailing and a band of the lace rimmed the top of the deep flounce at the hemline. The slim skirt flowed into back fullness to form the chapel-length train. She carried a cascade bouquet of miniature white orchids and stephenotis, centered with a Cattleya orchid. Her three-tiered veil of silk illusion was caught with a beaded lace cap.

Maid of honor was Lynn Maness. She wore a floor-length gown of leaf green with a pale green floral overdrap of filmy chiffon. She carried a nosegay of white roses and hydrangeas with green and white streamers laced with ivy.

William Edward Bissett of Lubbock attended the bridegroom as best man. Candlelighters were Anita Adair of Wellman, and the

Tuesday Acts 24:10-16
Wednesday Romans 4:13-18
Thursday Romans 5:1-5
Friday Romans 8:18-28
Saturday Romans 15:4-13

Today your boy's world is a wonderful place of trees and blue sky, puppy dogs and best friends. Perhaps his greatest decision is which tree to climb and how high to go.

But it won't always be so. As he grows, his choices must grow in scope and seriousness also.

Just as you today can't choose for him which tree to climb and how high; so also, as he grows in wisdom and stature, you cannot choose for him the proper values and goals for his life. But you can guide and direct him in the ways you have found to be good and right.

Attend the church or synagogue of your choice and take your child with you.

Crockett County Care Center News

by Joan Nicholas-Director of Activities & Social Care

Winner of the gift certificate donated by Clayton's Village Drug for bingo was Tomasa Ramos after a play-off with Virginia Russell and Vera Miller who received second prizes.

We are sorry that Eunice Graham is having such a siege in the hospital, and we have missed her and hope she will be back with us soon. Louise McWilliams was having tests in San Angelo for a few days, but she is back and socializing again.

Since the weather has become somewhat cooler, some of us are taking regular walks together. Those exercising so far are Paul Cavin, Nila Turnell, Evie Kaeding, Maude Pettit, Bertha Miller, Lydia Patrick and Virginia Russell. Bernarda Aguirre has been out riding in her wheelchair.

We were very pleased that Clara Mayes joined us in Bible class last week. We began by reading the sermon from Grit entitled "Our Challenge" by the Rev. Charles R. Loss. The text was taken from John "I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day; the night cometh, when no man can work."

We followed this with our first lesson in the new book for the current quarter, "God: The Covenant Maker"; the next study is "God's Covenant and Abraham," and during the quarter we will travel through the Old Testament on the subject of the covenant, then go into the New Testament in like manner.

In reading and discussion we had a lively session. After our usual jokes and printed humor we turned to a story entitled "A Day at the Abusement Park" by Maynard Good Stoddard. No, the above is not a typographical error-it is intended to read "abusement." It was about a grandfather who, upon the persuasion of his wife on how good it would be for him, undertook to accompany his grandchildren to the amusement park. His description of the horrors of the day on the various rides and so forth, was quite graphic, and did prompt a great deal of laughter in our group. Ah! the joys of being a grandparent!

Playing dominoes this Monday were: in the morning, Evelyn Bryant and Louise McWilliams. Louise won. In the afternoon Evelyn and Louise played with Paul Cavin and Maude Pettit and Paul won, Evelyn was runner-up.

I was chatting with Evie Kaeding on Monday afternoon and she had a very interesting story to tell. Now, we think it pretty marvelous today when a doctor takes a finger that has been severed, replaces it on the victim and it heals successfully. Some seventy years ago, Evie was hoeing feed and severed her big toe to where it was hanging by only skin. It was bleeding profusely "in sports" as she describes it, and her mother first staunch-ed the flow with "cobwebs from the top of the house." She then replaced the toe, poured sugar over it followed by turpentine and bound it up in sheeting. She then made a toe section from a cigar box, and another section was made from the same box in which she placed her heel, and bound it up again.

The doctor was out of town (had gone to Angelo in the buggy). The next day he partially undid the wrapping and decided all was OK and wrapped it and Evie to this day has a big toe that functions very well. I would say she is a lucky lady and wouldn't advise anyone to bypass the doctor in a similar situation!

WOMAN'S LEAGUE OFFICERS-Installed as officers for the 1980-81 season were Mrs. Pleas Childress, III, president; Mrs. Lane Scott, first vice-president; Mrs. Jeffrey Sutton, second vice-president; Mrs. Joe Pierce IV, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Billy Carson, recording secretary; Mrs. Gary Vannoy, treasurer; Mrs. Bobby Aycock, public relations, and Mrs. H.O. Hoover, parliamentarian.

SHEEP AND GOAT NEWS

Fall is just around the corner—the season for beautiful wool/mohair fashions. Why not win some valuable prizes while adding a lovely and practical addition to your wardrobe. Make It Yourself With Wool competition is gearing up for the annual fashion and sewing contest. State Director, Mrs. E.S. (Jean) Herring of Junction, has announced plans for nine district contests in November at various locations. The State Contest will be held at Kerrville's Inn of the Hills, Dec. 6 and the national finals will be in San Antonio Jan. 25-28, 1981.

Make It Yourself With Wool is primarily a wool/mohair promotion and is sponsored by the American Sheep Producers Council, Texas Sheep & Goat Raisers' Association, Woman's Auxiliary to the Texas Sheep & Goat Raisers' and through donations from interested friends of the sheep and goat industry. The purpose is to focus attention on the beauty and versatility of wool and/or mohair; to encourage use of these incomparable fabrics or yarn in sewing, knitting or crocheting fashionable garments; to offer young experts the opportunity to compete for valuable prizes and win recognition for their sewing skills.

More than a sewing, knitting or crocheting contest, it is a fashion competition. Judges look for coordination of Parents influence success in school

If your child is having trouble adjusting to school, parental attitudes may be one possible problem, the Texas Medical Association (TMA) says.

Sometimes parents are afraid to let new people care for their children. Children pick up such signals and become anxious also. Parental stress about busing or other problems also can make a child feel uncomfortable if parents push such attitudes too much.

Doubts and fears of parents and children can be eased by visiting the school and talking with the teacher. Such discussions can familiarize everyone with the child's schedule and upcoming activities. A visit also can give parents an early opportunity to inform the teacher about the child's special abilities, problems or complicating situations such as a recent family divorce that may have upset the child.

Another important discussion can be between parent and child. It can help to reassure the child that he or she can handle new circumstances just as in the past. Getting frequent updates about the child's progress and attitudes can help parents keep in touch with problems.

Persistent problems may mean the child has a learning disorder. To find out about possible problems quickly, tests can be done to find hearing, sight or learning handicaps that can cause the child years of frustration and failure if undetected, TMA says. The teacher often can give recommendations about available testing.

No matter what the cause of poor performance in school, it is important to help the child before troubles last too long. Help may be something as simple as aiding the child with homework. Or it may involve getting medical attention. But TMA urges parents to take action to help keep the child from falling far behind in class.

State pecan pest situation varies

The pecan pest situation is varied over Texas, with pecan weevils appearing on the scene in some locations and walnut caterpillars popping up in other areas.

"There's no major problem at this time with any of these pests, but growers need to keep their guard up in case of any outbreaks," cautions John N. Cooper, pecan pest management agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "Rains the past week have caused some increase in weevil emergence from previously dry soils," says Cooper. "Some weevil activity has been reported from Tom Green to Bowie County, including central and north central areas."

As far as walnut caterpillars are concerned, there has been some activity in the Seguin, San Saba, Gonzales and San Angelo areas. The third generation of the insect pest remains a potential problem through October, mainly in the area from Tyler to Waco and south to San Antonio.

"These caterpillars can cause widespread defoliation of pecan trees," points out Cooper. Control measures should be taken if an average of 10 colonies are found per acre. Look for white egg masses on the underside of pecan leaflets. Reddish-brown larvae (worms) hatch about two weeks after eggs are laid. Fully grown worms are about 2 inches long and are black with white stripes running the length of the body. The worms feed 20 to 25 days before pupating (inactive stage in the soil before becoming a moth), causing most of their damage the last three or four days."

Since beneficial insects often hold down the number of walnut caterpillars, Cooper recommends using a biological control agent, Bacillus thuringiensis, where treatments are necessary. Insecticides used to control other pecan pests such as casebearers, aphids and hickory shuckworms will also control walnut caterpillars.

The nation's poor generally get as much or more medical care than other economic groups, the National Center for Health Statistics says. In 1977 each member of families earning under $5,000 annually saw a doctor about six times yearly. The same U.S. government study showed that people with higher incomes had slightly fewer visits. Debra Says

By Debra Price

You can make your own new "space-stretching" storage-in fact, a whole "beehive" of space-with just a little knowhow, a few simple tools and a few pieces of lumber.

Among the most "handy" storage additions are drawer dividers and extra shelves.

Drawer dividers are a relatively simple matter-with very rewarding benefits. To make dividers, cut a piece of paper the same size as the bottom of the drawer for a pattern.

Mark the spaces required for articles you want to store. With this pattern, measure the length of wood needed, and determine where to place the partitions.

Drawers are easier to clean if you make the dividers removable, so, if you want to, make a frame and let the dividers fasten to it. That way, everything will be removable when cleaning time arrives.

Another space-stretching storage idea is the addition of cabinet shelves to existing cabinets.

For example, you can make removable shelves for double-deck plate storage. Cabinet shelves are generally 1 1/2 inches deep.

Measure your cabinet size before buying lumber--and before cutting it or having it cut.

Next, decide what size your shelves will be.

If you decide, for instance, to put a shelf above the plates, cut two pieces of shelving 1x11 1/2x5 inches. These pieces will be the "legs" of your new shelf.

Then cut one piece 1x 11 1/2 x the-desired-length-length.

Nail the top board to the five-inch pieces.

Historians believe fire was discovered some 400,000 years ago.

Paint the new shelves to match your cabinets, or cover them with wallpaper, shelf-paper or self-sticking plastic-coated paper.

If you make the shelving removable, it can move with you and serve the family's storage needs for many years to come.

Discovery completed in county

Sioux Natural Gas Co., Midland, completed as a Devonian discovery and proposed field designation of Howards Creek for its No. 1 University "16-33", 5/8-mile southwest of Canyon and 1/2-mile west-southwest of Pennsylvania production in the Howards Creek field of Crockett County, 2 1/4 miles southwest of the University 30-32 (Fusselman 8300 gas) field and 19 miles west of Ozona, for a calculated, absolute open flow of 3.6 million cubic feet of dry gas daily.

Production was through perforations at 8,453-755 feet, which had been acidized with 30,000 gallons.

The following tops were picked on kelly bushing elevation of 2,362 feet: San Andres, 1,258 feet; Canyon, 6,263 feet; Strawn, 8,450 feet; Devonian, 8,600 feet; Simpson, 8,817 feet and Ellenburger, 9,280 feet.

Drilled to 9,350 feet, with 5 1/2-inch casing set at 9,337 feet, it is plugged back to 9,125 feet.

Location is 1,311 feet from the north and 1,980 feet from the east lines of 16-33-University.

Ozonans attend history meet

Seven members of the Crockett County Historical Commission attended a regional conference in the Junior League Building at Fort Concho, San Angelo, on Friday, September 12. During the all-day meeting participants were reminded that county historians must lead the way to preservation and restoration of historical buildings and sites in their areas. Far too many such landmarks are being neglected or destroyed.

Crockett County was awarded the prize for most members present. Those attending were Mrs. P.L. Childress, Mrs. Joe Clayton, Mrs. Violene Stanton, Mr.

and Mrs. Lee Graves and Mr. and Mrs. R.A. Harrell.

Historical preservation in each local community is a visible reminder of those pioneers who planned and built the foundations for present generations. They are a challenge to continue such solid progress.

Participants in the conference included Truett Latimer, executive director of the Texas Historical Commission, Anice Road, director of programs, Claire Williams, director of research, Stan Kline, restoration consultant, Bill Wright, Texas Historical Foundation and Dick Lees, with El Paso Products Co. of Odessa.

Museum receives donation

George and Arthur Kyle, along with their sister, Kaye Alexander, recently donated a silver dollar to the Crockett County Museum. The silver coin was minted in 1891 at the Carson City, Nevada mint. It might well have been used in Crockett County during its first year of existence.

The trio, children of Mrs. Arthur Kyle and the late Mr. Kyle, donated the coin in memory of their grandparents, Walter Kyle and Minnie Brady Kyle, early settlers of Ozona. A stone mason, Mr. Kyle worked on the first courthouse, bank and school buildings.

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS GENERAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 4, 1980

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 35 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Legislature to permit banks to establish and operate un-manned teller machines within the county or city where the banks are located and to share the use of teller machines on a basis consistent with anti-trust laws, if it finds such operation will serve the convenience of the public. The Legislature has already passed enabling legislation (H.B. 1510) for this proposed amendment.

stitutional requirement that the county commissioners court sit as a board of equalization would be eliminated, and elected officials of the county or governing body of the taxing unit would be prohibited from serving as members of the board of equalization.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment requiring a single appraisal and a single board of equalization within each county for ad valorem tax purposes."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 97 proposes a constitutional amendment that would grant the State and the accused the right to an interlocutory appeal from the following trial court rulings in criminal cases: pretrial rulings on the constitutionality of a statute; on a motion to quash, dismiss, or set aside an indictment; and on a motion to suppress evidence.

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 18 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the Legislature to authorize the conduct of bingo games by certain specified groups for charitable purposes, subject to the limitations that operation of the games must be approved in local option elections and that all proceeds must be spent in Texas.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to authorize bingo games on a local option election basis if the games are conducted by a church, synagogue, religious society, volunteer fire department, nonprofit veterans organization, fraternal organization, or nonprofit organization supporting medical research or treatment programs and if the proceeds are to be spent in Texas for charitable purposes of the organizations."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 98 proposes a constitutional amendment that would require a single appraisal of all property subject to ad valorem taxation and would provide for a single board of equalization within each county. The constitutional

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 86 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the Legislature to authorize the Governor to exercise fiscal control over the expenditure of certain appropriated funds, subject to any conditions and limitations provided by law and subject to the approval of a budget execution committee that would be composed of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Chairman and Vice-chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, and Chairman and Vice-chairman of the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to grant the governor power to exercise fiscal control over the expenditure of appropriated funds as provided by law."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the Governor who appointed a previously confirmed official to remove that official from office subject to the advice and consent of the Senate; and if the Legislature is not in session, to call a special session of the Senate which may last no longer than 2 days for consideration of the removal.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to authorize the governor to remove appointed officers with the advice and consent of the senate."

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 121 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize counties with a population of 5000 or less to construct and maintain private roads if they impose a reasonable charge for the work. The Legislature by general law may limit this authority. Revenue received from private road work may be used only for the construction, including right-of-way acquisition, or maintenance of public roads.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing counties with a population of 5000 or less to perform private road work."

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 36 proposes a constitutional amendment that would change the jurisdiction and authority of the State's appellate courts. The amendment would change the name of the Courts of Civil Appeals to Courts of Appeal and provide that these courts have intermediate appellate jurisdiction over both criminal and civil cases. The amendment would change titles for the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court to Justices and would require members of the Supreme Court to be attorneys licensed in this state while holding office.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to change the name of the Courts of Civil Appeals and the names and qualifications of the justices of the Supreme Court and to prescribe the jurisdiction and authority of the appellate courts."

PROPOSITION NO. 9 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 54 proposes a constitutional amendment which defines separate property owned by either spouse as all property, both real and personal, of a spouse owned or claimed before marriage, and that acquired afterward by gift, devise or descent. Persons about to marry and spouses, without the intent to defraud pre-existing creditors, may by written instrument from time to time partition between themselves all or part of their property. Spouses may exchange a community interest in property owned or to be acquired for a community interest in other community property. The amendment would allow spouses to agree in writing that income or property arising from any separate property is to be separate property rather than as community property as it would be in the absence of an agreement. The amendment proposes that a gift from one spouse to another is presumed to include all income or property deriving from such gift.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment allowing spouses to agree that income or property arising from separate property is to be separate property."

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By Jerry Lay

One of the most incredible football afternoons of all-time occurred Oct. 16, 1976 when these 3 things happened...First, Tony Franklin of Texas A&M kicked the longest field goal (64 yards) in the 108-year history of college football. Then later in the same game, Franklin broke that record with a 65-yard field goal. Then in another game on that same day, Ove Johanson of Abilene Christian broke both those records with a 69-yard field goal. Thus, the 3 longest field goals in the history of college football up to that time were all kicked on the same afternoon.

We thought you'd enjoy seeing the teams (with their nicknames) that played in the National Football League the first year the league was in operation, 1921. The NFL in its inaugural season had: the Akron Pros, Buffalo All-Americans, Canton Bulldogs, Chicago Staleys, Chicago Cardinals, Cincinnati Celts, Cleveland Indians, Columbus Panhandles, Dayton Triangles, Detroit Herolds, Green Bay Packers, Rochester Jeffersons and Rock Island Independents. Amazingly of all those teams, ONLY the Green Bay Packers survive today with the same nickname in the same city.

I bet you didn't know... When you are ready to shop for a new car or pickup come by L-B Motor Co. and we will help you and give you the deal of the year. Also see our used cars..we have a large selection to pick from.
