Sales tax rep. to visit here

State Comptroller Bob Bullock will have a representative from his San Angelo office in Ozona on January 22, 1981 to assist local taxpayers and answer questions about state taxes.

Bullock said Enforcement Officer Steve Mercer will meet with local taxpayers in the Law Library at the County Courthouse Annex from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m.

"If Ozona area merchants, or anyone else for that matter, have any questions about state taxes or need help in preparing state tax forms, Mr. Mercer will be there to assist them," Bullock said.

"We're trying to cut the red tape in this office, and we believe these face to face sessions with taxpayers help do just that," Bullock added.

The San Angelo office, headed by Bill Teaver, serves San Angelo and surrounding counties.

SWEARING IN of the first County Attorney in several years took place this week. Tom Cameron, left, is sworn in by County Judge Johnny Jones. The duties of county attorney have been handled by the district attorney's office for the past several years. However, Cameron moved here from Waco, ran unopposed in the Democratic Primary and was elected in the general election in November without an opponent. He took office January 1, in a new office on the top floor of the courthouse annex.

Lionettes start year with win

Lionettes started the new year with a 50-46 victory over Sonora Saturday night. The win puts the Lionettes 9-4 for the season.

Ozona obtained a 6 pt. lead at the first of the game and never got behind. The half time score was 24-20 with the Lionettes still ahead. The Lionettes got hot in the third quarter scoring 14 pts. and allowing Sonora only 5 pts. Ozona led by 13 pts. going into the fourth quarter but allowed Sonora to come within 4 pts. by the end of the game.

Lori Clayton led the scoring with 18 pts. Lana Cole was also in the double figures with 13 pts. Other Lionettes putting pts. on the scoreboard were Molly Womack 6 pts, Kaye Thompson 6 pts, Elsa Fierro 5 pts, and Tilly Kramer 2 pts.

The Lionettes played a district game Tuesday in Eldorado and will compete in Eldorado's tournament this weekend.

W-2 forms to go out by Feb. 2

Employees who have not received their Wage and Tax Statements (Form W-2) from their employers must still file their tax returns by April 15, the Internal Revenue Service advises.

To avoid delays in receiving the W-2, employees should furnish their employers with a current address, the IRS says. If employees do not receive the statement by February 2, they should first contact their employer. After February 15, 1981, the employee should ask for help by calling the IRS toll-free number listed in the telephone directory.

The IRS reminds taxpayers that they must have a W-2 form from every employer they worked for during the year. Even if an employee is unable to get a W-2 before the filing deadline of April 15, a timely return must be filed. Report all income and attach a statement explaining the tax computations for the missing wage and tax information, the IRS says.

Museum complex is being planned

Plans were discussed at a meeting of the Crockett County Historical Commission at the home of its chairman, Mrs. R.A. Harrell, Monday afternoon for moving and relocating the old Emerald House, the former Deland home, to the proposed museum complex site in the fairgrounds park.

Lee Graves and Bill Cooper were named to jointly supervise the preparation and moving of the house with the help of an architect and expert house movers to be employed at a later date. Mr. Graves has had experience in moving and restoration of pioneer structures in connection with his work with the Texas Tech ranch development of recent years.

The group voted to work toward the development of a museum complex at the park site, including the ultimate construction of an attractive native rock building as the center of the complex to house a complete Crockett County Museum, with ample room for display, for work-room area and for storage. Such a structure would probably be located in the most visible spot on the proposed site, visible from U.S. Highway 290 and Interstate 10 alike.

The Crockett County Historical Society, the governing body of the Crockett County Museum, and the Historical Commission are working together in the movement to attract enough financial help from Crockett County citizens and other sources to bring about realization of the museum project. A donation of $24,500 has been made to the fund, a town lot valued at $75,000 has been donated to be used in development of the museum complex, and at least one $100,000 gift may soon be forthcoming.

Possible additions to the planning committee were discussed, with special emphasis on an effort to bring in leaders from the Mexican-American segment of the population to assist in the development of the project. A community wide effort will be necessary if the full potential is to be realized--the development of an attractive museum site that will draw visitors from a wide area in the years to come. Present for the Monday afternoon meeting were Mr. and Mrs. R.A. Harrell, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Graves, Mrs. Joe Clayton, Mrs. Fred Hagelstein, Ted White, Evert White, Bill Cooper and John Stokes.

Museum gets property gift

Further impetus to the plan for creation of a museum complex in the area of the fairgrounds park on the east side was given just before the New Year with the gift of a town lot in Ozona to be used in any way desired for benefit of the museum project.

The gift, with an appraised value of $75,000, was made by two public spirited Ozonans, joint owners of the property. Gene Perry and Jack Wilkins, owners of the vacant lot where the former S.B. Phillips two-story frame home stood until it was destroyed by fire, gave the property unconditionally to the Crockett County Historical Commission to help promote the realization of the museum dream.

Capps services Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Madge C. Capps, 74, were held Saturday at 4:00 p.m. in Ozona Church of Christ with burial in Cedar Hill Cemetery under the direction of Sizemore Funeral Home.

Mrs. Capps died at 9:30 a.m. Friday, Jan. 2, in Odessa Medical Center Hospital following an illness. She was born Madge Connor, Feb. 3, 1906 in Coleman County. She was a member of the Ozona Church of Christ. She married Walter Capps August 18, 1923 in Norton. He preceded her in death Feb. 1980.

Survivors include a daughter, Dorothy Armentrout of Odessa; a daughter-in-law, Mary Capps of Ozona; four sisters, Lorena B. Nixon of Coleman, Jane Hawkins of Voss, Nancy Holstead of Bossier City, La. and Elizabeth Goodwin of Hobbs, N.M.; two brothers, Richard Connor of Houston and F.G. Hardin of El Paso, seven grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

What use will be made of the gift has not yet been determined by the group promoting the museum plan but it will ultimately become a valuable contribution to the project, leaders declare.

The "Emerald House," Ozona's oldest residential structure, formerly the Deland home, moved to Ozona from the 1890's townsite of Emerald, east of Ozona, has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. R.A. Harrell and donated by them to the Museum complex. Plans are now under way to move the house to the park area at a spot to be determined, there to form a part of what promoters hope will be an attractive museum building which will form the centerpiece of the complex.

In addition to the town lot and the Emerald house, the museum project has received an additional cash donation of approximately $20,000 and the promise of a possible $100,000 additional gift if proper tax credits can be established.

The lot in the 1200 block of Ave. E. is located next door to Crockett Automotive on the south.

OFF WITH THE OLD, ON WITH THE NEW-Kyla Marrs, the newest member of the Ozona Stockman staff replaces the 1980 bank calendar with the brand new 1981 edition. The scene is a flower-banked highway along a river with mountains in the background. The colorful calendar has been a service of Ozona National Bank for many years and the business community depends on it.

'TRANSITION' ADVICE FOR CONSERVATIVES

By Edwin Feulner

Senator Edward Kennedy has just offered conservatives the sincerest form of flattery — imitation.

According to THE WALL STREET JOURNAL, the Senator is thinking of starting a private think-tank to generate new ideas for liberal programs. One suspects the inspiration for this scheme comes from the success conservative think-tanks have had in providing intellectual ammunition in the battle of ideas.

Senator Kennedy isn't the only one who has noticed the conservative intellectual revival. Senator Daniel Patrick Moynihan of New York laments that the best new ideas are coming from "the right" these days. And Ralph Nader understudy Mark Green recently went through great contortions in an essay in THE WASHINGTON POST to say that the conservatives' "new ideas" aren't new at all. (Criticism of that sort is yet another form of flattery.)

Media moguls also are paying attention — as you'll see if you flip through your favorite news magazine or newspaper, where you're likely to find at least one article on conservative think-tanks. Times certainly have changed!

It was only yesterday that the phrase "conservative intellectual" would have provoked derisive laughter in establishment political and academic circles. Now, the liberals envy us our think-tanks and our thinkers.

What's going on? The answer is: nothing less than a revolution. For the past few decades, the intellectual establishment in this country was predominantly — even exclusively — liberal. So, for the most part, was the government. The liberals in academia and the liberals in government made an unhappy marriage (unhappy for the rest of us, that is). The academics thought up new programs for the government, and the government put those programs into effect — in the process, creating grants and jobs for the academics, and usually, more problems.

With nearly all the major institutions of American society in happy liberal accord, the liberal thinkers got lazy. They couldn't help it. Conservatives, however, had the incentive to try harder — to propose constructive alternatives rather than merely attack liberal programs. Now, their work is paying off.

I'm not bringing this up just to kick the liberals while they're down. For one thing, I don't expect them to stay down for long. I'm sure Senator Kennedy will indeed come up with his think-tank, or something like it, and Senator George McGovern with his so-called "Committee for Common Sense," or whatever it is he's cooked up. And politicians and academics on the left will work very hard at becoming lean and mean once again.

However, the rise and fall of American liberalism is a useful morality tale for American conservatives. This is not a particularly ideological country. Americans, a practical people, are interested in programs that work, not just those that sound good. If conservatives are to stay in power, they must remain as clear-sighted and alert as they were when they were out of power. It is not enough to rely on the voters' allegiance to the abstract principles we hold dear, admirable though those principles may be. We must show them we are "doers," as well as "thinkers."

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF...

YOU REPLACED YOUR USUAL COFFEE BREAK DOUGHNUT WITH A BANANA? OFFICE EMPLOYEES DID JUST THAT IN AN EXPERIMENT AT A LARGE CITY OFFICE. TEST RESULTS PUBLISHED IN THE JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN DIETETIC ASSOCIATION SHOWED AN INCREASE IN OFFICE MORALE AND ENERGY AND A SHARP DROP IN ILLNESS, COMPLAINTS AND FATIGUE.

UNLIKE DOUGHNUTS, WITH THEIR REFINED INGREDIENTS AND HIGH SUGAR AND OIL CONTENT, BANANAS ARE A NATURAL SOURCE OF VITAMINS AND MINERALS, THEY ARE HIGH IN FIBER WHICH NUTRITIONALISTS RECOMMEND FOR GOOD HEALTH AND DIGESTION, AND AN EXCELLENT SOURCE OF POTASSIUM.

AND, BANANAS ARE FAT-FREE AND LOW IN CALORIES (ONLY ABOUT 101 CALORIES PER MEDIUM SIZED FRUIT).

WHY DO PEOPLE EAT MORE BANANAS THAN ANY OTHER FRUIT? THE ANSWER IS SIMPLE. "AS A SNACK, IT'S A NATURAL."

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

AUSTIN — Last session the Legislature almost passed a bill which would have allowed low-level nuclear waste dumps in Texas.

This session the bill will probably sail through, although the waters may get a bit choppy.

And sometime in the future, probably not this year, the Legislature will approve waste dumps for high-level nuclear waste.

In fact, it may be virtually impossible to stop creation of nuclear waste dumps in the Lone Star State because all three of the national dumps have now been closed to out-of-state users.

Illinois just put the final touches on enforcement of its new state law banning out-of-state waste at its site. Earlier, waste dumps in South Carolina and Nevada were closed to out-of-state dumpers, including Texas.

Texas currently produces low-level nuclear waste at hospitals and laboratories. When the nuclear power plants at Bay City and Glenrose are completed, high-level waste will be generated. Facing stark reality, Texans will have to set aside a place to store its nuclear offal.

Not When, But How?

The important question to Texas citizens is not if or when Texas will create the nuclear dump site, but "how?" What legal safeguards will be approved, and will they be sufficient to protect citizen health from radioactivity? For politicians who must vote on the controversial issue, the key question is where to put the dump?

It seems only right that if Texas generates nuclear waste for the benefit of its citizens, then it must accept the responsibility of storing the hazardous nuclear waste somewhere within its borders. But should Texas allow other states to dump their nuclear trash here, possibly to the harm of Texans?

"Bad Ol' Bill"

The nuclear dump bill which passed the House but failed in the Senate last session was regarded by many as one of the worst bills of the lot. The sorest point was a $200 fine for improper dumping or packaging of nuclear waste, which one legislator called "an open invitation to out-of-state waste producers to come dump their trash in Texas."

Considering that $200 is the maximum fine for throwing your beer cans and candy wrappers out the car window, he might have a point. Waste producers who ship their improperly packaged nuclear material by truck through Texas cities and towns ought to be slapped with something more than a fine equal to littering.

"Somewhere in West Texas" is the site most often mentioned for any Texas nuclear dump. Few legislators would be willing to allow a nuclear dump in their home district. Besides the potential for harm to health and life, it is generally assumed that property values in the area will go down. Dump sites might also appear closer to power plants than West Texas. The location will be an intriguing guessing game, and political futures will hinge on the outcome.

Census Decision

Texas may be able to begin the redistricting process this session, thanks to a ruling by the U.S. Supreme Court last week which cleared the way for the Census Bureau to report its population figures to Congress.

Justice Potter Stewart had issued an emergency order overriding a lower court prohibition on reporting the statistics. Minority groups have legally challenged the validity of the census statistics and sought to delay their release.

Texas Atty. Gen. Mark White had asked for Stewart's action to prevent delay of release of the Texas statistics.

The Legislature is scheduled to receive the census report sometime in early April, leaving only a scant two months to redistrict Texas before the Legislature adjourns June 1. State law allows a redistricting board to complete any work left unfinished by the Legislature, but the work must be initiated during a regular session of the Legislature. Thus, a two month delay in reporting the figures to Texas will set back redistricting here by two years.

School Budget

State budget planners have proposed that Texas spend $7.2 million on elementary and secondary education during the next biennium. The bill will be footed by both state and local government.

The Legislative Budget Board also recommended the state can avoid more civil rights lawsuits by appropriating an additional $20 million to predominantly black universities.

A worried Mark White told the board that a $53 million cut in the budget request by two black universities was being viewed by federal officials as a retrenchment by the state in its commitment to compliance with civil rights laws.

White predicted that if the budget cuts remained, it would be only a matter of days before a formal accusation of racial discrimination would be filed.

Q: After the airline lost my baggage I filled out the proper claim forms and was told my suitcases would be delivered. Later when they called to tell me they had located my missing luggage, I threw away the baggage tickets. Only two of my three bags were delivered. Now they tell me I can't have my third bag because I don't have the claim ticket. It contains my diamond earrings and wedding ring among other valuables. What in the world can I do?

A: Because of the high value of your luggage, you should have your attorney file suit against the airline and request the court take custody of the property until your case is decided. If less expensive items were involved, you should write to the office of the airline and offer to identify the goods. Send a copy of that letter to the Civil Aeronautics Board, Bureau of Consumer Protection, in Washington, and request that they investigate your claim.

Q: In 1970 a large estate was settled in court here in Texas. I am one of 56 heirs who will receive income from non-participating royalties. The attorney refused to give us the papers describing our property because there are too many locations to identify. How can I get a complete listing of the land involved?

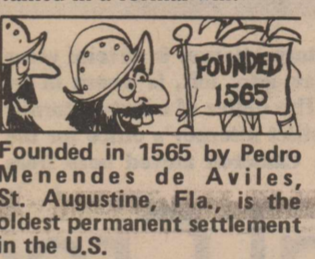

A: A legal identification of the property is contained in the inventory filed in the County where the estate is administered. You may obtain a certified copy of this inventory from the County Clerk if you furnish the correct name and approximate date of death of the decedent.

Q: The church that I attend was granted a loan for its construction in 1962. Since then all the members of the board who agreed to the loan have departed. Should the loan company be notified of this fact and is there a state board that should be contacted?

A: If the Board of Directors, at the time the loan was obtained, properly filed a resolution binding the corporation to the terms of the loan and properly recorded it in the corporate minutes, then the church itself is bound to pay the loan under the terms that the Board of Directors created. The fact that there are new Board members has no bearing on the legal responsibility of the Church, and there is no need to notify the lender of the changes of Board membership.

Q: I am preparing to have my will drawn up. Is it possible to specify that my Executor serve without a bond?

A: Yes, you may specify that your Executor serve without bond, which would probably save your estate a substantial cost. If you provide for a substitute Executor, you should specify that he or she, also, shall serve without bond. In addition, a Will may direct the Executor to serve independent of court approval for all the certain steps of probate. Both of these provisions, available under Texas' liberal probate laws, can only be obtained in a formal will.

This is the last column of "SNIPS, QUIPS AND LIFTS."

I have written this column since Christmas of 1965. I have never missed writing this column each week for fifteen years.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

After another beautiful snow last week that left us welcome moisture, we can now look forward to many native flowers along our highways this spring. The blue bonnets are already coming up in places over our area.

January and February are the most favorable months for planting bare-root roses. There will be more varieties now, they cost less than when potted later in the year, and become better established planted without soil around their roots. If already potted take them out yourself and shake the soil from the roots. Plant the next day, but to be sure the roots haven't dried out, soak them overnight in a pail of water. Dig an ample hole and add a slow-acting fertilizer into the soil in the bottom of the hole. Form a cone of the soil and other amendments and spread the roots over it so they will be supported by the soil. Make sure the rose is at the proper depth. Spot the old soil line at the base of the rose. Fill in with amended soil and tamp it down to bring the roots firmly in contact with the soil. Mound up a watering basin with any excess soil, then water gently. Keep just damp enough that the roots won't dry out.

Many of the early blooming shrubs and trees are beginning to show buds. Branches of Pussy Willow, Forsythia, Spirea and fruit trees may be brought indoors soon. Stand in a container of water in a warm room and in no time at all it seems they will be in full bloom. Watch for the buds to swell enough to almost show color.

There are many old roses that do well in Ozona, but most all new varieties will adapt and grow here if properly planted and cared for, especially the first year. Prune your vines, fruit trees etc., before they begin to bud.

FEBRUARY PLANTING DAYS

Above-ground crops - 6, 7, 10, 11, 15, 16. Root Crops - 1, 2, 3, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25.

"Answer sheets" for the public to use during the upcoming nationally televised National Health Quiz are available at the County Extension Office.

Viewers who participate will test their general medical knowledge and special risk factors. During the test it isn't absolutely necessary to use the answer sheets, but they do help make the scoring easier.

Cheryl Tiegs, a "cover girl" and a health and beauty reporter, will co-host the National Health Quiz with actor Peter Graves on Sunday, Feb. 15 at 9 p.m. CST on most public broadcasting stations.

Check your local listings for any differences in broadcast times.

National Health Quiz developers explain that the quiz will try to help viewers detect any risk factors they may have concerning the four leading causes of death: heart disease, cancer, stroke and auto accidents.

Although the test cannot tell viewers if or when they

DUPLICATE BRIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. Evert White and Mrs. Sidney Millsbaugh and Mrs. Buddy Phillips tied for the top spot in Duplicate Bridge Club play Saturday afternoon at the Country Club. Mrs. Ann Mayfield and Mrs. Clay Adams were third.

In play Sunday, Mrs. Robert Cox and Mrs. Sherman Taylor were high, with a tie for second between Mrs. Joe Friend and Mrs. J.J. Marley and Mrs. Buddy Phillips and Evert White.

might be victims of these causes of death, the test can alert viewers to ways they can reduce the risks of early death from them.

Part of the test will include tabulating your "body age," which may be more or less than your actual age depending upon your physical condition, medical history and behavior patterns.

For example, a man age 41 might have a "body age" of 46 - maybe because he is overweight, has high blood pressure or smokes cigarettes. On the other hand, that same man could lower his "body age" to 38 if he changed his behavior.

It's important to take the National Health Quiz, because with the results, each viewer can identify their own risks and change them to extend their useful-life expectancy.

Brought To You By Brown Furniture

There are 3 words to remember when you go to buy furniture - and if you keep these 3 words in mind, you'll be happier with your purchase, and you'll eliminate the confusion and indecision some people are troubled with.

You can use these 3 words as a sort of check list before you buy. The 3 words are: comfort, style, construction. Let's look at them individually.

It's amazing how many people fail to consider comfort when buying a bed, chair or sofa. They fail to realize that comfort is the basic purpose of these pieces. Be sure you take this into consideration.

The next thing to consider is style. Which pieces will look best in your decorating scheme?

The third thing is construction. Unfortunately, this is something you can't always see or know about for sure. That's why it's important to deal with someone you trust. You must take the dealer's word on construction. It's good to know, however, that good dealers carry only well-constructed furniture and you may put your trust in us.

By following the above tips, your furniture shopping will be easier, you'll be able to get more for your furniture dollar, and you'll be surer to have furniture you like.

C of C banquet will feature Justin Wilson

The annual Ozona Chamber of Commerce banquet will be held February 12, at 7:30 at the Civic Center. Famed Cajun humorist Justin Wilson will be the guest speaker. The tickets will be $10 per person and may be purchased from the chamber office, members of the board of directors or at the door. A barbecue dinner will be catered by members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Distinguished Cajun raconteur Justin Wilson has been widely acclaimed as one of America's foremost humorists, but it would be an understatement to say that he was only one of the most versatile. Where else are you going to find a talespinner who can tickle your funny-bone and your palate at the same time, meanwhile vocalizing a lilting ballad in his mellow baritone or articulating his views on the state of the Union.

Wilson does not imitate, impersonate or patronize his subjects. He literally steps into their shoes and minds and thinks, speaks and acts as they do. This he achieves through his intense sympathy for the Cajuns, as well as the fact he has grown up in their midst (he is part Louisiana French himself) until he has absorbed their speech, philosophy and even their personality - if such diverse people can be said to have a collective personality. His stories are refreshingly devoid of smut or appeal to prurient interests. A humorist of truly Olympian stature, Justin Wilson cuts an imposing figure in his platform appearances and as an after-dinner speaker. Erect of bearing, his silvery mane adding a touch of distinction to his leonine head, he impresses his audience even before he opens his mouth. And if his commanding appearance is impressive, his fey greeting is even more so. His gambit: "How ya'll are?" with the "are" uttered in a soft-spoken drawl, and then his coup de grace: "I'm glad fo' you to see me, I ga-ron-tee!" further breaks down the defenses of his listeners.

His modus operandi, although variable to suit the occasion, usually commences with his droll comments on the origin of the Cajuns, those compassionate, fun-loving folk who settled in South Louisiana and whose progeny have spread throughout the country. Wilson tells that in their wanderings after their expulsion by the British from Nova Scotia they first attempted to settle on the East Coast of America, "but those good church-goin' people wouldn't let 'em." Then, alluding to his own Louisiana French origin he adds wryly: "An' I sure am glad. I'd hate like hell to be Cajun from Hyannisport."

If his audience isn't eating out of his hand by now, their defenses should crumble when he begins to spin his inimitable yarns - stories that take on a new dimension with his shucklesome asides and his rib-tickling distortion of words and phrases as he proceeds to the denouement. Justin Wilson's yarns afford an instant introduction into the Cajun "language." The average time required to "educate" a non-Cajun listener varies between one minute for the astute and five for the slow learners.

JUSTIN WILSON

Texas industrial production

Industrial production in Texas rose in October to an estimated 9.8 percent seasonally adjusted annual rate to a level 2.0 percent above a year earlier. The gain reflected increased output in all major components of the index.

Production increases in durable goods manufacturing led the gain in total factory output. Increases were posted in the furniture; primary and fabricated metals; nonelectrical machinery; and stone, clay, and glass products industries. However, production of lumber, electrical machinery, and transportation equipment was down. In nondurable goods manufacturing, output of chemicals was up substantially and accounted for the gain as all other industries in that sector registered declines in output.

Mining output rose on the strength of increased drilling activity. Production of crude oil and metal, stone, and earth minerals declined.

Reflecting the gain in factory output, the manufacturing capacity utilization index rose in October to 101.2 percent of the 1972 base.

THE FIRST CENTURY

More than a thousand photographs in a new picture book will bring to life the past events of The University of Texas.

Photographs in "The University of Texas: A Pictorial Account of Its First Century" range from the first eight-man faculty in 1883 to the Tokamak fusion research device in 1980, from a 1911 Varsity Circus parade where women students carried signs "No votes-no babies" to a panty raid in the 1950's.

The book was compiled and written by Dr. Margaret Berry and published by The University of Texas Press.

Retired taxpayers get break

A retired taxpayer who does not wish to make estimated tax payments can file a special withholding statement to have tax withheld from annuity checks, the Internal Revenue Service says.

Just as they had tax withheld from salary while actively employed, retirees can have Federal income tax withheld from their pensions. All that's necessary is to file a form W-4P, "Annuitant's Request for Federal Income Tax Withholding," with the payer of the annuity.

If the retiree does not have a sufficient amount withheld from his or her annuity, an estimated tax must be paid in installments, which are due for 1981 payments on April 15, June 15, September 15, 1981, and January 18, 1982.

Supplies of Form W-4P and information on filing requirements and tax benefits may be obtained by calling the IRS forms/tax information number listed in the telephone directory.

TEXAS CURRY DIP--A delicious dip that is simple and easy to fix, notes the Texas Department of Agriculture's home economist. The dip can be made ahead of time and served with a variety of "dippers" like ham or turkey chunks.

"DON'T PUT IT OFF" FLASH-FLASH-FLASH

Have you been putting off buying that new car because interest rates are too high? Well, take a good look: sure, the bank prime rate is way up. Sure, home mortgage costs are up. But the cost of financing your car with GMAC hasn't rocketed up like everything else.

L-B Motor Co. who uses GMAC not only has money available, right now, but at rates that haven't changed that much in the past few years.

So come on into L-B Motor Co. and check out that new Chevy, Pontiac, Olds, Buick or Cadillac today.

Results of FFA Livestock show

The Ozona FFA annual Commercial Livestock show was held last month, about four weeks earlier than usual for the year. The change was made to better accommodate the goals for this year's FFA feeding program.

The goal of the feeding program was to enable students to prepare their livestock for the slaughter market. The feeders were not only required to feed their animals but also were required to keep records of the animal's performance during the feeding period and to prepare a summary analysis for the show judge. The judge this year was Don Barrett, Voc. Ag. instructor at Iraan.

The FFA chapter wishes to thank the people of Ozona who attended the show and supported the FFA. A special thanks to the merchants who donated the awards and trophies for the show, Nathans Jewelers, Ozona Boot & Saddlery, Ozona Wool & Mohair, Ozona National Bank, Baker Jewelers, Ranch Feed & Supply, Ozona Stockman and Ozona Lions Club.

Fire Department report for 1980

The Ozona Fire Department ended the year of 1980 with a total of 143 calls. This figure was up 15% from 122 calls in 1979. Several runs were made over the holiday period, but none resulted in any major damage. The monthly average was 12 runs with 12 to 14 responding to the fire station.

The busiest month for the fire department during the year was April with 22 calls. No deaths were reported as a direct result of fires. Fire occurring in structures remained the same as 1979 with 22 fires. There were 58 grass fires, 21 automobile and truck fires, 12 oilfield related fires, 9 rescue calls, and 9 public service calls among the 143 calls answered.

Fire Department men and equipment went outside the county to assist other area fire departments 6 times during 1980. The local department was assisted by surrounding fire departments 12 times during the year. A special thanks to the Big Lake Fire Department which answered many calls in the north part of the county. If the total number was known it would probably double the number of times that area fire departments assisted Crockett county in controlling a fire.

The department wants to thank those who gave their support during the year. Also a reminder to never hesitate to call, as it is usually when we hesitate that the situation worsens.

BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By Jerry Lay
It's amazing how many of the biggest college football games of 1980 were won by the visiting team--destroying the myth of the home field advantage..For example, Notre Dame beat Alabama at Alabama..Michigan beat Ohio State at Ohio State..Oklahoma beat Nebraska at Nebraska..Pitt beat Penn State at Penn State.

Here's the story of one of the most incredible fights in the history of professional boxing..It happened in Paris, France, on April 17, 1909 when Sam McVey met Joe Jeannette..Jeannette was knocked down 49 times in that fight--but despite being knocked down all those times, Jeannette--amazingly--won the fight!..McVey was so tired, he failed to answer the bell for the last round.

Who was the youngest quarterback ever to start a Super Bowl game?.. Answer is Joe Namath who set the record when he started the 1969 Super Bowl at age 25... Surprisingly, no younger quarterback ever started in a Super Bowl, before or since.

I bet you didn't know... L-B Motor Co. has a variety of new cars and pickups for you to view when you are ready to buy or trade. Come by and we will help you in your selection.
