Two men due rabies shots here

Trey Bivins and Greg Oines were in Ozona Monday to begin a series of shots due to their contact with a rabid fox on the Armond Hoover ranch 42 miles southwest of Ozona, Friday.

Hoover reported the incident to the Stockman Monday, when he got word the fox was rabid. He said many believed the first hard freeze caused the rabies germ to lie dormant and he feels the public should be aware this is not the case.

Hoover said Bivins, his ranch foreman, and Oines told him the fox was acting strange and when it charged them they shot it. However, they also reported skinning it and Hoover felt it wise to send the head for examination. They sent the head to a laboratory in Abilene, and a technician called Hoover Monday to tell him the fox was rabid and the men who skinned it should take the shots. The lab tech said by skinning the animal the men had as much contact with the disease as if they had been bitten.

Daylight burglary here Tues.

The Junior McCartney home at 909 Angus was burglarized here Tuesday morning between the hours of 9 a.m. and noon. Mr. McCartney returned to his home just before noon to find the front door had been forced open and a dead bolt broken where the intruder had gained entry.

Mrs. McCartney had left the house around 9 a.m. and the break-in occurred after that time. The burglar rifled the house, emptying drawers and clearing closet shelves. The scene resembled tornado destruction, according to McCartney.

Officers went to the scene and lifted several good fingerprints, but other than that they had no clues at press time.

Missing, according to Mr. and Mrs. McCartney, were an undetermined amount of change and about $30 in bills, along with a new .410 pump shotgun. The intruder created such a mess, they were unable to determine if anything else was missing.

The McCartneys have asked that anyone in the vicinity who saw anything suspicious Tuesday morning in their area, to please inform the authorities.

Ozonans attend funeral

Mrs. Sherman Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Couch were in San Angelo Friday morning to attend the funeral services of their cousin, H. W. (Brookie) Broome, which were held at 11:00 a.m. in Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd with burial in Fairmount Cemetery.

Mr. Broome collapsed after receiving "Citizen of the Year" award at the annual Chamber of Commerce event Tuesday evening and died at 9:10 in St. Johns Hospital.

AUTOMOBILES HAD TROUBLE NEGOTIATING at the height of the snow storm here last Wednesday morning, but it was nothing to compare to the ice the previous day. Snow fell in varying amounts throughout the day with the heaviest fall in the morning hours. The flakes were so dry, a high wind in the afternoon created the effect of a white sand storm.

School Board eyes plan to enlarge building

Crockett County School Board members met January 13, in the first meeting of the new year and tentatively approved a plan by San Angelo architect Louis Drake to enlarge the administration building.

Drake met with the board and presented schematic drawings of possible additions to the back of the building. Primarily, plans call for a larger board room which will be used for school board meetings and other meetings which might come up from time to time, plus additional office space. All together approximately 1200 square feet would be added to the present building. The board approved one of the drawings and Drake will draw up specific plans and return to the February board meeting.

The board called a school board election for Saturday, April 3, 1982. They agreed to contract with David Weant, county clerk, to hold absentee voting in his office and appointed Bobbie Fatout as election judge. Incumbents are Joe Bean, present board president, and Sam Perner, vice president, neither of which have indicated whether they will ask for another 3 year term. Anyone wishing to file for a place on the ballot may see Judge Johnny Jones prior to 30 days before the election. There will be one voting place on the day of the election, the courthouse. Polls will open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

Superintendent Foy Moody's contract was extended to July of 1985, with six school board members voting for the action and one against.

In other action, the board accepted the resignation of Pete Maldonado, auto mechanics instructor and coach, as of May 21, 1982. They also approved hiring Debbie Davidson, speech therapist.

Moody presented the board with the Texas Assessment of Basic Skills scores, showing relationship of state, region 15, and local scores. In the math division, local ninth grade students consistently out scored students in the state and the region. Local ninth graders fell down in the reading division, but by very little. The ninth graders also fared well in the writing division of the test, outscoring local and regional students in four categories and falling behind in two.

Local fifth graders also did well in math, falling behind in only three of the nine categories, solving word problems and sequence of numbers. The fifth graders

Cold weather grips Ozona

The weather in a word for Ozona has been "wretched" throughout last week and the weekend. The mercury climbed to 79 degrees Monday afternoon and the town and inhabitants began to thaw out.

After the ice storm thawed Tuesday, another front hit and Ozonans shivered through another bitterly cold night and awoke to find the ground covered with sleet. Shortly after daylight snow began to fall and fell intermittently throughout the day. High winds whipped the dry snow in the afternoon and the chill factor was much below freezing. The remainder of the week saw the mercury plummeting below shortly after sundown and hovering around 37 for the high. A dry front over the weekend saw the mercury plunge again and although Saturday was bright with sunshine freezing temperatures prevailed. Sunday dawned with a bit warmer temperature, but biting winds kept Ozonans with their coats on and heaters going full blast.

Several minor accidents were reported Wednesday due to the weather, but not as many as during the ice storm the previous day. Estimates of snowfall ranged from one inch to three inches. The official gauge at the scored better than the ninth graders in the reading division, but here again scored lower than in other divisions of the test. In the writing division they excelled, outscoring state and regional students by large numbers in the six categories.

Third graders' scores compared exceptionally well. They outscored the others in all categories of the writing division, all but one in the eight-category reading division and all but two of the ten category math division. Moody presented enrollment figures as of January 13, 1982. A grand total of 1133 students are enrolled in the four schools, with the primary school having the most enrollment with 318. Of this number 133 are in first grade, a record for the school. Enrollment figures are important in deciding the number of teachers to be hired for the following year.

The school calendar was amended to make up for last Tuesday when schools were dismissed due to the ice storm. The in-service day for teachers, scheduled for February 5, has been amended to a regular school day. The March 12, holiday was changed to an in-service day, with a day off for students.

Aliens no longer to report to ASCS sign up period under way

The sign-up period for agricultural conservation program practices is currently underway at the local office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. Applications will be accepted on a continuous basis, according to ASC official Norma Jo Love.

"We ask ranchers to sign up as soon as possible because their practices must be approved by the county committee before the work can begin," she said. Ranchers who start conservation practices before approval are ineligible for cost-shares.

Program funds are available for shrub control, livestock water wells and livestock water pipelines. Ms. Love said these practices will provide enduring solutions to the problems of rangeland being a source of the agricultural pollution or land affected by wind or water erosion.

water district office registered .35 of an inch of precipitation for the week, which marked the first moisture for the year.

The Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) will no longer require aliens in the United States to report their addresses to the agency each January. The requirement has been in effect since 1952. The annual address report requirement was eliminated by Congress from the Immigration and Nationality Act.

Congress left subsequent reporting programs to the discretion of the Attorney General. Dropping the program will save the government $1.2 million annually. However, all aliens residing in this country are still required by law to report a change of address within ten days of such change to the nearest INS field office. Such notification should be submitted on form AR-11, which can be obtained from any INS office.

Because the information traditionally obtained from the address report program has several planning uses for the federal government and for state and local governments, INS is exploring more efficient methods of obtaining the information on a regular basis.

Elections on tap during the year

The new year brings election year to Ozonans and other Texas voters. There will be a full slate of candidates on the general election ballot, with the exception of presidential and vice-presidential candidates.

Kicking off the new year was the election Saturday of two directors for the Water District. This election traditionally draws little interest, as there are no opposed spots. J. W. Johnigan, incumbent, got 19 votes and Duane Childress, in his first out, polled 17 votes, to fill the two places on the board.

Coming up April 3, are two openings on the school board for three year terms. Members whose terms expire are Joe Bean and Sam Perner. Those wishing to file for a place on the ballot must do so with County Judge Johnny Jones prior to 30 days before the election.

Several county offices are up for election this year including county judge, county treasurer, district-county clerk, justice of the peace, and commissioners for precincts 2 and 4. The filing deadline for these offices is February 1. Those wishing to file must do so with County Democratic Chairman Steve Kenley and pay their filing fee at the same time, or with Joe Couch, County Republican Chairman. County Judge Johnny Jones has authorized the Stockman to announce his candidacy for another term. He has served one full elected term and was appointed to fill out a term when Judge Troy Williams was appointed to the District judgeship prior to that time. He ran unopposed on the Democratic ticket.

County Commissioner Jesus Castro has also filed for another term of office and authorized the Stockman to announce his candidacy. Castro is asking for a third term in the office. Castro ousted longtime commissioner Glenn Sutton for his first term in office and ran unopposed for his second term.

The Democratic Primary will be held May 1, as will the Republican Primary if necessary. Traditionally in Crockett County the Democratic Primary tells the tale for winners of county offices and the November general election is a mere formality. On the national scene, Senator Lloyd Bensen is asking for a third term as Senator from Texas. He has fielded several opponents, both Democrat and Republican. Congressman Tom Loeffler is also running again for his seat in the 21st District, of which Crockett County is a part.

The state scene is cloudy due to a lawsuit filed over the re-districting. However, Crockett County will have a new state senator and state representative regardless of how the court rules. State Senator for the 25th District Pete Snelson declined to run again for that office and opted instead to run for Railroad Commissioner. Susan McBee, State Representative for the past several terms, will retire at the end of this term. Whether Crockett County will remain in these districts is up to the courts and according to county clerk David Weant, the matter is still up in the air.

New voter registration certificates are going out this week from the tax office to eligible voters. The new certificates need to be signed and held for use in any election which takes place after March 1. The new certificates will take the place of the white certificates now being used and need not be returned to the tax office. Those voters not presently registered in Crockett County need to go to the tax office and register. A voter must be registered in the county thirty days prior to any election to be eligible to cast a ballot.

Presently Crockett County has a total of 2634 registered voters. Precinct 1 has 900 eligible voters; Precinct 2, 401; Precinct 3, 705 and Precinct 4, 627. According to law, the number of eligible voters in each precinct must not be more nor less than ten percent. This is certainly not the case in Crockett County, but when the matter came up last August, the commissioners court declined to take any action.

CITADEL OF THOUGHT ON THE ROCK RIVER

By Edwin Feulner

It's good for those of us in the Washington public policy arena to step aside occasionally and look at things from the real world outside the Capital Beltway, which rings the federal city. When we do that, we realize that many of the "life-and-death" political battles in which we have been involved are transient.

For this reason, I try to get out of Washington often to meet with people who are not obsessed with the latest flicker in public opinion polls or the latest tidbit of Capitol Hill gossip.

That's what took me, on a recent blustery Wednesday, through the rich Illinois cornfields, past the hope of Chrysler's future at its modern Belvidere plant, and over the Rock River into Rockford.

Built by hardy Swedish pioneers, until recently Rockford was best known as the political base and home of John Anderson. Now, we ask, "who's John Anderson?" Rockford is important for other reasons, and should be known far and wide as the home of the Rockford Institute.

The Rockford Institute is a small organization, but one which abounds in intellectual capital. In five short years, this young and vibrant organization has become one of the citadels of the preservation of western values and standards. As an educational establishment concerned with "the defense of property, propriety, the family and hard work," it has expanded its reach far beyond the shores of the Rock River.

Its director, Dr. John Howard, gave up a successful career and pleasant life as president of Rockford College, one of the better small colleges in the Midwest, to assume the difficult position of guiding an institute devoted to "the study and support of the systems that enable people to live and work together in a free society."

In the brief span since beginning the Institute, Dr. Howard has produced an avalanche of publications, seminars, speeches, and contributions to scholarly events.

Persuasion at Work, one of their publications, tells how we might work more effectively to counter the spoilers of the American system. Chronicles of Culture is rapidly becoming the sensible alternative to the decidedly left-leaning and often outrageous New York Review of Books.

While their work does not immediately influence the political drama of Washington it is nonetheless doing more than its share to re-establish traditional moral and cultural values within the United States!

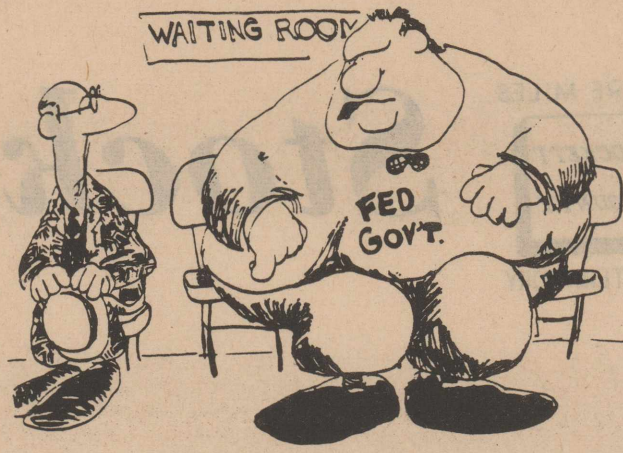

As I told Howard in a letter marking the Institute's fifth anniversary, "For those of us involved with public policy issues here in the Nation's Capitol, the Rockford Institute plays a vital — and unique — role in keeping our economic and national security activities in their proper perspective."

Politics without perspective has cursed Washington far too long.

David Hume in his First Principles of Government wrote: "Nothing appears more surprising to those who consider human affairs with a philosophical eye than the easiness with which the many are governed by the few."

Increasingly, those of us in Washington can thank John Howard for keeping our "philosophical eye" open and clear.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Sub-freezing temperatures, sleet and snow slowed the pace of state government this week, but the inclement weather didn't stop the political scene from continuing to heat up.

Austin's bad weather forced the state offices to shut down for a day, but Gov. Bill Clements and other political contenders didn't take a day off.

Clements, the first Republican governor in Texas since Reconstruction, has let it be known that he intends to make things as difficult as possible for his Democratic challengers. The GOP incumbent says those Democrats—who will be going to the "same trough" for funds—will find it very hard to raise enough money to combat his high name identification level.

On the other hand, the governor says his record in office, favorable rating in the polls and long list of supporters and contributors will make it easy for him to raise the money he needs.

The prospect of a hard fought Democratic primary, however, hasn't kept Clements' Democratic opponents from continuing their attacks on him.

Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong, who is challenging Attorney General Mark White and Tyler Sen. Peyton McKnight for a chance to tackle Clements, has criticized the governor's stand on the recent Texas Employment Commission firings.

Armstrong says Clements was wrong in praising the lay offs. He says the cuts "will not serve the interests of this state."

Campaign Announcements

Meanwhile, a number of the state's lawmakers and leading officeholders were officially announcing their plans to seek re-election.

State Sens. Kent Caperton of Bryan and Ed Howard of Texarkana, both Democrats, have announced they will seek another term in their present positions. Howard is a member of the Sunset Advisory Commission, which will review the Public Utility Commission in 1983, while Caperton was a staunch supporter for more stringent radioactive waste regulations during the 1981 session.

Others announcing their candidacies for re-election included Reps. Irma Rangel of Kingsville, Gary Thompson of Abilene and Bo Crawford of Beaumont.

Longview Republican Mike Martin, who still faces felony charges for alleged lying to a Travis County grand jury, has paid his filing fee to seek a second term in the Texas House. Martin goes to trial on aggravated perjury charges in April in Fredericksburg.

Land commissioner candidate Garry Mauro and Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, both Democrats, also have paid their filing fees. Hobby's GOP opponent, former Secretary of State George Strake, meanwhile, has picked up the endorsement of the National Alliance of Senior Citizens, Inc., which reportedly found Hobby "lacking" in leadership.

Gas Deregulation

Gov. Clements joined Louisiana Gov. Dave Treen in urging President Reagan to move swiftly to lift the remaining price controls on natural gas.

Following a meeting with Reagan at the White House, the two governors reported that they were optimistic that Reagan would move "aggressively" to end controls. Texas Sens. Lloyd Bentsen and John Tower, however, have indicated it will be difficult to lift the regulations without passing a windfall profits tax similar to the one imposed on oil.

Before his trip to Washington, D.C., Clements told Austin reporters he opposed any windfall profits tax on gas.

More TEC Layoffs

The Texas Employment Commission has decided that 500 employees—not the expected 400—will have to go in the latest round of layoffs which become effective Jan. 31.

Those cuts are among some 1,300 employees expected to get their pink slips because of federal budget cuts in job placement programs. TEC says the cuts will be done on the basis of seniority, and one TEC spokeswoman says she narrowly escaped with her job, which she has had since 1977.

The commission, meanwhile, gave its remaining employees more bad news with the announcement that the budget cuts will be harsher than expected, possibly requiring the closure of another 10 to 15 regional job placement offices. Some 59 of those local offices already are being shut down.

Home Care Project

In one piece of good news, the Reagan administration announced that Texas will receive $2.2 million to conduct pilot projects aimed at helping both welfare recipients and elderly and disabled Texans.

The program is being funded by the federal Health Care Financing Administration and will use mothers receiving payments under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program to provide home care services to elderly and disabled persons who otherwise could not afford them.

The women will receive training and minimum wage for their work, while the elderly and disabled will receive services that will enable them to remain in their own homes rather than moving to institutions.

Texas production down

Railroad Commission Chairman Jim Nugent announced that Texas oil and gas wells produced 537,717,923 Mcf of gas in September 1981, down 4.04 percent from field runs a year earlier.

Marketed gas production totaled 442,448,632 Mcf and reflected a 6.30 percent decrease from the September 1980 volume. Marketed production is the total gas to transmission lines, carbon black and plant fuel and lease use.

Gas exported from Texas in September totaled 238,135,537 Mcf. El Paso Natural Gas Co. was the month's largest exporter, moving 58,058,117 Mcf of gas of which 32,707,740 Mcf was Texas-produced gas.

Exports of Texas-produced gas in September totaled 166,090,466 Mcf, and reflected a 15.84 percent decrease from the year-earlier month.

Texas gas production in September came from 218,021 oil and gas wells.

In August 1981, Texas wells produced 578,751,846 Mcf of gas. Marketed gas production in August totaled 487,701,061 Mcf. August exports of Texas-produced gas totaled 171,365,087 Mcf.

you and the LAW
PRESENTED BY THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Q: My insurance contract excludes pre-existing conditions, and the company has denied coverage for my pregnancy. It is true that my pregnancy pre-dates the coverage, but in a recent telephone conversation, my agent assured my doctor I would be covered. Is that telephone call binding on the insurance company?

A: No, your agent's promise contradicting the contract does not bind the company. You may be able to collect, however, on a fraud or deception theory based on the agent's misrepresentation to your doctor.

Q: Some time ago I had a lawyer draw up my will. I'm pleased with the job she did, but I object to a line of the document that named her the executrix. I did not tell her to do that. I can't afford another lawyer. Can I delete this statement and initial the change before a notary? Will this hold up in court?

A: If the document has not been executed, that is, signed, ask your lawyer to make the necessary changes. You should not attempt to change the will by marking or erasing on it. There are formal procedures to change a part of a will, and unless these steps are observed, your attempted change will have no effect.

Q: I am due to inherit an estate. The problem is that debts from the estate far outweigh the assets. Will I be responsible for these debts? Who will pay the debts if I don't?

A: As a named beneficiary in someone's will, you do not automatically assume the debts unless you were the spouse and the debts were community debts. As a first step, all debts will be classified according to the Texas Probate Code and the non-exempt assets will be sold. Using all available cash, debts enjoying priority will first be paid, either entirely or so many cents on the dollar, until the funds are exhausted. Lower priority debts will lapse and simply not be paid.

Q: I have been taking care of a man for nearly 15 years. When I took this man into my home, we agreed to share expenses and companionship. We never considered marriage. Now my companion wants my money. He claims under Texas law he can just announce we are married and we will be. I don't want this to happen. What can I do to stop this from happening?

A: He cannot have your money unless you give it to him. I advise you to evict him from your home; change your locks and telephone; protect your bank accounts and investments; then wait for him to file for divorce. It will be his burden to try to prove to the Court there was a marriage and that he has any claim. In the meantime, do see an attorney to prepare for a possible divorce suit.

Q: My husband and I are planning on a divorce but he refuses to leave our home and rent an apartment. Can he be forced to leave? What procedure should I take?

A: Once the divorce is final, the court will hear the party dispute concerning occupancy of the residence and will award temporary possession of the home to one spouse. The court can then, upon motion filed by your attorney, enjoin your husband from occupying or coming about your home during divorce proceedings.

Your rights and the specific procedures in divorce should be discussed with an attorney. There are many remedies available to you once a divorce is begun.

Q: My boyfriend and I have a common law marriage and we will soon marry formally. I want to change my son's name to match my new married one. Do I need permission from my first husband for this change?

A: The change of a minor's name must be agreed to by both parents and all parties who have a continuing legal relationship to the child. If your first husband still has parental rights, you must get his consent, and if your son is 12 or older, his written consent must also be filed with the Court.

Send your questions to "You and the Law," State Bar of Texas, P.O. Box 12487, Austin, 78711. Answers may appear in columns in hypothetical terms; personal answers not possible.

Citrus Fruits

The early explorers were menaced by outbreaks of a disorder called scurvy, which is a nutritional disease caused by a severe deficiency of Vitamin C. Americans have not seen this problem in many years but we still know the importance of getting adequate amounts of Vitamin C every day. Citrus fruits are still one of the best and most favored ways of getting the daily dose. Here is one way to add citrus fruit to meal time in a very enjoyable way.

Tips For Gardeners

From The Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

After the severe freeze of last week, new buds on shrubs and trees should be set back enough to keep them from bursting forth too early as they often do. We hope this one will be our last heavy freeze.

If you haven't already moved your container-grown evergreens to a southern exposure, try to do so before another hard freeze. Cluster the plants so the leaves overlap to trap air beneath the canopy of the plants, insulating them against temperature changes. Also remember that these plants are exposed to drying on all sides, so check the soil moisture several times a week. Always cover frost-sensitive plants.

Now that many of you may be making plans for new plants in your landscape, I would like to recommend my favorite for a showy single specimen. This is the leather leaf mahonia (mahonia bealei). Its a tall plant, though slightly slow in growth, with coarse leaves. Its bluish, burgundy spiny foliage is this mahonia's contribution to the winter garden. Spring brings graceful clusters of yellow flowers at the tip of the upright stems.

By early summer, the blooms are replaced by bountiful clusters of chalky blue berries. This mahonia prefers partial shade, and like the nandina, this plant is most effective when the stems are pruned at staggered heights which create a layered look, showing off the whirled clusters of foliage. Its foliage is especially long lasting to use in arrangements. Southern Living has a most interesting article on mahonias in the January issue. This variety does well here.

Another article you may enjoy in the January Better Homes & Gardens is "Just For Fun" Houseplant Ideas that might be a project for these winter months. Suggestions given are: plant a saucer garden, grow a table-top bog, start a hibiscus, arrange flowers in a log and create a fern garden.

Don't forget January 21 is Arbor Day. Other holidays repose upon the past, Arbor Day proposes for the future. Plan now to plant at least one new flowering shrub or tree. Oleanders and the crepe myrtle or redbud should be planted where they may be seen for a colorful display.

Debra Says

By Debra Price

The Extension Service has recently published a new flyer on "Entertaining in a Hurry". The publication is designed to make entertaining easier. Simple meals and refreshments can provide delicious and trouble free meal preparation.

Company meals or refreshments should be planned early and carefully. Try to eliminate last minute preparation. Foods like meat loaf, scalloped or casserole dishes, baked ham or turkey, salads and desserts, and fresh vegetables can be prepared and stored in the refrigerator.

Grocery list should be flexible enough to take advantage of bargains. Buying in quantity can save money and shopping time.

Effective use of small appliances helps make entertaining quick and easy. Research shows that a homemaker using both the microwave oven and a conventional oven save up to 9 hours a week.

PARTY MIX

2 cups cheese cracker squares
2 cups bran cereal squares
2 cups rice cereal squares
2 cups pretzel sticks
1 cup salted cocktail peanuts

1/2 cup butter or margarine
1/2 teaspoon onion salt
1/2 teaspoon celery salt
1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce

Combine crackers, cereals, pretzels, and peanuts in large 3-quart glass mixing bowl. Mix well. Microwave butter on high in small glass dish for 30-60 seconds until melted. Stir in salt, garlic powder and Worcestershire sauce. Drizzle evenly over cracker mixture. Mix to coat evenly. Microwave on high, uncovered, for 8-9 minutes or until mixture starts to toast, stirring two or three times. Turn into shallow basket or serving bowl. Serve warm or at room temperature. Makes 2 1/2 quarts.

POTATO CHEESE WEDGES

1/2 cup dry bread crumbs
1/4 cup Parmesan Cheese
1 1/4 teaspoons onion salt
1 teaspoon paprika
1/4 cup butter or margarine

3 tablespoons flour
Combine bread crumbs, cheese, onion, salt and paprika in plastic bag. Microwave butter on high in small dish for about 1 minute or until melted. Drain potatoes. Coat potatoes with flour, shaking off excess. Dip into butter and then shake in bag with crumbs to coat evenly. Arrange on lightly-buttered glass plate. Cover with paper towel. Let stand 2-3 hours at room temperature. Microwave on high for 10 to 12 minutes or until tender, rotating plate twice. Serve warm or cold on toothpick.

Calling All Homemakers

Brought To You By Brown Furniture

Some years ago, reclining chairs were all right to sit in, but many of them weren't very nice to look at. Many were bulky, and not decorator oriented.

But now something has happened. Recliners today are scaled and styled so that they are good looking and can be used in any room, adding to, and not detracting from the overall decorating scheme.

One reason for the change is that in the old days, recliners were made to conform to the reclining mechanisms, but now the chairs are designed to look right first, and then the mechanisms are made to fit the chair style, instead of the other way around.

And compared to the old days, the variety of reclining chairs today is amazing. There are both masculine and feminine looking recliners in all kinds of fabrics right up to dressy decorator chairs. Some are so well proportioned that you could actually use two of them together in a room.

It's worth your while to see all that's new in recliners because they do offer a great way to relax, and they can please your sense of beauty as well. And to see a good selection of all kinds of furniture, this is a good place to browse.

FAITHFUL FRIEND

A true friend is one of life's richest treasures. Sooner or later, we discover who our real friends are... and we cherish them.

Many years ago an old shepherd died. His dog was at the train depot when the man's casket was placed aboard the train. For years after the dog lived at the depot...

he met every train, watching each passenger, always disappointed in not finding his master. Everyone loved the dog and after he died a monument to him was built on a hill above the depot.

We all need to know that we have the kind of friend who really cares about us. The man who walked the dusty roads of Galilee 2,000 years ago wants to be your lifelong friend. Nothing can separate you from His endless love and concern.

Rediscover the warmth of a friendship that never fails. Worship this week.

FFA Show on tap for Saturday

The annual Ozona FFA commercial livestock show will be held Saturday, Jan. 23, at the 4-H barn. The show will start at 9:00 a.m.

Seven trophies will be awarded, a trophy for Grand Champion finewool and Grand Champion crossbred, and one for each of the class winners.

Deadline near for incentive

Crockett County ranchers are urged to file their wool and mohair sales documents for 1981 in the ASCS office as soon as possible. It is possible that there will be a mohair incentive payment for mohair sold in 1981, therefore it is very important that the ranchers come by the ASCS office to file for their incentive.

LUNCH BREAK QUESTION PONDERED

By-Erika Lee and Gail Hunnicutt

The bell rings. People stampede down the stairs, dash for their lockers, hurl their books anywhere and fly out the doors heading for lunch. This is a typical everyday scene at Ozona High School.

The reasoning for this mad rush is that students and teachers only have 30 minutes for lunch.

Jim Payne, principal at Ozona High School states, "The school administration has very good reasoning behind the 30 minute lunch period."

Mr. Payne explained that the lunch period is based on "simple arithmetic." If the lunch period was longer, it would throw buses running earlier in the morning and later in the evening. Students involved in extra-curricular activities would have to stay at school later than they do now.

Also, Mr. Payne believes that the longer the lunch period, the harder it is to get back in the right frame of mind for school. According to Mr. Payne, a 30 minute lunch period cuts down on vandalism, fights, mischief, and other problems involving high school students. Another reason he gives is that it cuts down on traffic congestion and accidents.

Stacy Chapman, senior, disagrees with one aspect of Mr. Payne's reasoning. Chapman says that in order for her to get home she finds herself driving recklessly without using caution. Chapman also feels that even after high school these hurried eating habits may cause health problems.

Mrs. Stuart backs Chapman's reasoning.

New film series to show

A new film series featuring family expert James C. Dobson, Ph.D. will be shown at the Ozona Community Center on the third Wednesday of each month, beginning January 20, at 7:00. Entitled "Focus on the Family," the series presents seven of Dobson's most popular presentations, all of which were filmed live at family life seminars.

Titles of the films are: "The Strong-Willed Child", "Shaping the Will Without Breaking the Spirit", "Christian Fathering", "Preparing For Adolescence"-Part 1: The Origins of Self-Doubt, Part 2: Peer Pressure and Sexuality. And "What Wives Wish Their Husbands Knew About Women"-Part 1: The Lonely Housewife and Part 2: Money, Sex and Children.

A dollar for admission will be charged to help pay for the cost of the films.

James C. Dobson, Ph.D. is Associate Clinical Professor of Pediatrics at the University of Southern California School of Medicine. He is a licensed psychologist in the State of California, a husband, father, and author of several best-selling books man up by saying that these bad eating habits continue into adulthood.

Mr. Spiller agrees with the students that the lunch period is too short, but he believes it does save teachers and administration lots of problems. Mr. Spiller would like to see no more than 10 minutes added for travel time.

Senior Wendy Hood says that 30 minutes is long enough to eat, but we need extra time to get to and from school.

The following senior students share these attitudes toward the lunch period. Marilyn Wester thinks it should be longer because she has to gulp her food down, hurry back to school, and then she feels bad all afternoon. Jana Harris says that in 30 minutes, students have to rush home, wolf down their food and then fly back before the bell rings; 45 minutes would be ample time, she believes. Jon Adams feels that by the time students get home they have to inhale their food so they can get back and get a parking place. Dale Perry believes that 30 minutes is not enough time to eat. He has a definite solution to the problem. He feels we could have 45 minutes for lunch by cutting down each class 2 minutes.

Another possible solution to the problem would be to have a homeroom period from 11:00 to 11:45, thus adding 15 minutes to the lunch period.

"LILY DAW AND THE THREE LADIES"

By-Stacy Chapman

Last Thursday night at 7:00, around 30 ambitious, high school students met in the auditorium for the U.I.L. One Act Play try-outs. Mr. David Porter, the speech teacher, was there to judge the try-outs. The students chose parts they wished to play and got into groups to act out small episodes of the play.

The play Mr. Porter chose for the competition is "Lily Daw and the Three Ladies."

There are seven parts for girls and three for guys. The play is about a young girl named Lily whose mind is in another world most of the time. She is sheltered and overlooked by three overbearing women who are determined Lily should be sent to a home for the mentally unbalanced. Lily tries to convince the ladies she is getting married but the ladies think she is making it up.

The results of the try-outs will be posted on the bulletin board Monday morning. The U.I.L. district meet will be held March 23 in Big Lake. Mr. Porter said he was very pleased with the number of participants this year.

The play will be put on for the school when Mr. Porter feels it has been practiced to perfection. So you all come down to see how Lily gets out of her predicament.

JUNIORS HONOR SENIORS

The Junior Class and their sponsors met on Thursday and Friday to begin preparations for the annual Jr-Sr Banquet and Prom. This banquet will begin at 6:00 p.m. Juniors and seniors of Ozona High School, along with the faculty and school board members are invited. The catering this year will be buffet-style by Southern Seas of San Angelo. The theme of the banquet and prom will be "The Best of Times," with decorations in a blue and white motif. Servers for the event are sophomores Kristal Williams, Lydia Maldonado, Jennifer Justiss, Sherri Buckner, Katrina Burger, Ninfa Cervantez, Pam Wilton, DeNeil Payne, Jo Ann Hearne, Leonore Muñoz, Bobbie Acton, and Maria Moreno. These girls were chosen by the junior class.

Several members of the junior and senior class will present the program. Junior class president, Randy DeHoyos, will serve as toastmaster. The class prophecy, written by the juniors, will be read by Michelle Couch and Harvey Huereca. The history of the Class of 1982 will be read by Sue Ellen Black and Jack Thompson. Varlyn Alldridge and Mercy Stratis will read the class will.

A formal dance will be held at the Civic Center following the banquet. All Ozona High School students and their dates are invited to dance to the music of DeJa-Vu, a disc jockey from Austin. The dance will be held from 8:30 p.m. until 12:30 a.m.

ACT REGISTRATION

Jim Williams, counsellor at OHS, reminds all juniors and seniors that the deadline for their ACT forms to be mailed in is Friday, January 22. The test will be given in the high school library on February 20.

This is the last time the ACT test will be given in Ozona. This test is required by many colleges for entrance into that school.

Any senior planning to apply for financial aid needs to pick up the forms from Mr. Williams. These forms need to be filled out if the student expects to receive a scholarship of any kind, a grant, or a loan.

SOPHOMORE FAVORITES

By-Sue Ellen Black

Sheri is fifteen years old and the president of her class. She is also a member of the Student Council. Cheerleading and basketball practice keep her pretty busy, and she is planning to run track. Some of Sherri's favorites are navy blue, steaks, and Mexican food. She plans to go to college and hopefully get a good paying job.

Arnold is also fifteen and the treasurer for the Sophomore class. Football is Arnold's favorite sport to participate in and his favorite food is Mexican. At the present time, graduating from high school is Arnold's main goal and he is not planning to go to college.

UIL IN McCAMEY

By-Jana Harris

Ozona participated in the McCamey UIL speech tournament January 8 and 9. Contestants for Ozona were Arnold Rios and Rhonda

Smith who competed in Ex-temporaneous Speaking. They were both qualifiers for the semi-finals.

"The students did a fantastic job, this was also Rhonda's first time in competition," said Mr. David Porter.

The next meet will be on February 11 and 12 in Del Rio. This will be for all UIL events.

UIL provides a challenge and an opportunity to meet people as well as the chance to learn and discover your abilities. We need more enthusiasm and participation in UIL contests. Try it!

Miss Valentine wed to Mr. McMullan

Miss Susan Fay Valentine became the bride of Clifton Lowell McMullan in a ceremony January 9, at 8 o'clock in the evening, in the First Presbyterian Church of Uvalde.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles William Valentine of Uvalde and Mr. and Mrs. Frank McMullan, Jr. of Ozona.

The cross was the focal point in church decorations with a large brass arch and an arrangement of white gladioli, crysanthemums and white tapers at the foot flanked by comador trees. Large single white candles on brass standards flanked the steps leading to the altar. Greenery outlined the altar and choir railings with candelabra placed on either side of the altar.

Mrs. Wayne Coleman presented nuptial music at the organ. Katy Capt was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a pale ivory gown iced with white lace, designed with a Queen Anne collar and empire bodice. Long tapered sleeves of English net and Alencon lace were touched with Venise flowerettes. The molded skirt of silk was highlighted with lace appliques. Lace marked the hemline which flowed into a chapel length train. The bride's full-length mantilla veil was caught with an ivory satin cap trimmed in lace. Her bouquet was a cascade of white roses.

The bride's sister, Sarah Lynn Valentine of Seminole was maid of honor. Courtes-may Capt. Ginga Graves of San Antonio, Sally Graves of Dallas, Jody Patton, Kathleen Smyth, Katy Stewart, the bridegroom's sister of Lubbock, and Kelly Tindol were bridesmaids.

The attendants wore emerald green satin gowns, fashioned with bateau necklines and short sleeves with floor-length bell shaped skirts. They carried cascades of white glameillas.

Danny Sewell of Ozona was best man. Groomsman were Douglas Bean, Ed Hale, Lane Scott, all of Ozona. Also, Jim Gates of Cotulla, Mitchell McMullan of San Antonio, Tom Stoner of Camp Wood and Charles Williams Valentine, the bride's brother.

Ushers were Will M. Black and Louis Bunger of Ozona, Gene Buckner of Uvalde, and Eddie Stewart of Lubbock.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents hosted a reception at the Uvalde Country Club.

Following a wedding trip to Ruidosa, N.M. the couple will be at home in Alpine.

The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner the previous Friday evening at the Uvalde Country Club.

It is the membership meeting of the Mohair Council of America to be held at the River Club (800 West Avenue D) in San Angelo. ## Girl Scout cookie sale to start

An annual American tradition continues in our community—the Girl Scout Cookie Sale. Girl Scouts between the ages of six and seventeen will take orders for cookies from January 22 to February 5 in Ozona.

This year, seven cookie varieties will be available from local girls in the El Camino Girl Scout Council. Registered Girl Scouts will be taking orders door-to-door at fixed points around town, and over the phone from local Cookie Manager Terry Adams, 392-3028 from 1:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.

Since 1936, cookie sale funds have helped neighborhood girls participate in national and international Girl Scout events, to purchase equipment and property for campships and recreational activities, and to sustain a year-round program of learning and growing through community service and troop projects.

Every penny earned by the annual cookie sale remains in our council.

in the mohair industry to attend this meeting.

Election of 1982 directors will be one of the most important items of business. Any producer who has paid dues on his/her mohair sold in 1981 is eligible to be a director. Also, officers for 1982 will be elected, and the budget for 1982/83 will be presented for approval.

Texas producers have also been invited to attend the annual conference of the International Mohair Association to be held in Port Elizabeth, South Africa, June 21-24, 1982. A special meeting for those interested in making the tour will be held at the River Club immediately following adjournment of the Mohair Council meeting. At this time, a list of producers planning to go to South Africa will be made and forwarded to IMA officials so that they can make plans for the conference.

Therefore, anyone interested in this trip should either attend this meeting, or contact the Mohair Council office by no later than January 29.

If overnight accommodations are needed, please call the Mohair Council office (915-655-3161)

Crockett County Care Center News

BY ANN MCCARTNEY
DIRECTOR OF ACTIVITIES & SOCIAL CARE

Sunday church services this past week were given by the Catholic Church. Bible study on Thursday, was given by the Lutheran Church and Spanish Hour worship, also on Thursday, was led by Maria Vitela.

Dominoes on Monday were played by Paul Cavin, Bertha Miller, Maude Pettit, and Ola Mills. Louise McWilliams joined the group in a game on Saturday.

Ceramics were enjoyed by Maude Pettit, Ola Mills, Tomasa Ramos, and Gertrude Daniels. Grace Dorsey came as a volunteer to assist.

Bingo was played on Tuesday and Friday. Juana Hernandez won the dinner for two at El Chato's. A first place gift certificate from Watson's Department Store was won by Paul Cavin. We want to thank Bill Watson for increasing this certificate to $10. Second place was won by Maggie Crawford. Others enjoying the game include:

- Frances Borrego, Grace Cotter, Gertrude Daniels, Seferino Garcia, Leona Harris, Ramona Lugo, Bertha Miller, Louise McWilliams, Jesus Hernandez, Frank Jefferson, Maude Pettit, Tomasa Ramos, Virginia Russell, Verna Talley, Nila Turnell, Hilario Cortez, Ola Mills, Maggie Crawford, Max Schneemann, and Alice Locke. The snow kept away all volunteers on Tuesday except Maria Vitela but we played away. Things were back to normal on Friday. Nothing like a break in routine to prove how one has grown to depend on volunteers! We appreciate them all.

Tuesday afternoon Blanche Walker came with our birthday cake made and donated by Polly Eppler and our corsages made and donated by Maxine's Flowers. Birthday honorees were: Nina Mayfield, Cora Webb and Nautie Tatum.

We had reading on Wednesday and beauty shop on Thursday. Helpers were Maria Vitela, Frances Borrego, Blanche Walker, Doris Hoffman, and Ruth Dorris.

The snow and ice again kept all volunteers away except Maria Vitela but we had our monthly sing-along with Maude Pettit and Leona Harris playing the piano and our other residents playing the rhythm band.

Many thanks goes to Dr. and Mrs. Carlisle for monies that bought blood pressure cups and Mary Friend for monies that bought four new wheelchairs. Support of friends like these make our home a unique and wonderful place to live and work.

Mary Jo Patrick returned home Sunday after undergoing surgery last week in a San Angelo hospital.

A squirrel may scrounge as much as twenty bushels of nuts and roots and seeds and put them in a number of caches scattered around his territory. However, squirrels have terrible memories and are often unable to find even a tenth of these caches later on.

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW
By Jerry Lay

Did you know that the Underdog has won the Super Bowl more than one-third of the time in Super Bowl history. The underdogs who have won the Super Bowl were Baltimore over the Jets in 1969, Kansas City over Minnesota in 1970, Baltimore over Dallas in 1971, Miami over Washington in 1973, Pittsburgh over Minnesota in 1975 and Oakland over Philadelphia last season.

Although the National Football League now proudly uses the words "Super Bowl" to describe its title game each year, it's interesting to note that until the 5th Super Bowl, the NFL used a different official name for the game. Up to that time, people in the NFL didn't like the name "Super Bowl", and they used the term "AFC-NFC World Championship Game" instead. The 5th Super Bowl, played in 1971, was the first to be officially called the Super Bowl.

Of all the men who've ever played pro football, which one has scored the most total points in a career? The man who holds the record is George Blanda, who, in his career, scored 2,002 points. No one else, before or since, has come close to Blanda's total.
