As the old saying goes, "doctors bury their mistakes and newspapers print their mistakes." This was brought home to us last week as the papers hit the streets. Dr. Taylor called to point out some errors in the Commissioners Court story, one of which we claim and the others we don't take credit for.

We made a typographical error when we said Dr. Taylor's resignation from the Crockett County Hospital was effective January 1, it should have read January 31. We deeply regret any inconvenience this might have caused the doctor or his patients, and we have gone to great lengths to correct this by placing signs around town. However, this may be considered our official correction.

The other parts of the story the doctor took exception to appears to be a matter of semantics. While the cost of securing Dr. Taylor's services for Ozona, cost the county $30,000, the doctor was not the recipient of this sum, nor did we indicate so in our story. While the county secured a residence for the doctor, it was not purchased by the county.

We quoted the hospital administrator in giving the doctor's reason for leaving Ozona. The doctor told us this was untrue and said his reason for leaving was purely financial.

This should clear up any misunderstanding. When we attend a public meeting we give an unbiased report on what goes on, or at least we think we do and if this ruffles feathers, we are sorry.

We try to make corrections on every inaccuracy, but it's nearly impossible to do so until the next edition. We can't bury this fact, so here we are with egg on our face.

Elmer Haire service held here Sunday

Funeral services for Elmer L. Haire, 71, were held Sunday at Ozona Church of Christ at 2 p.m.

Mr. Haire died at 11:40 a.m. Wednesday, Jan. 12, in Angelo Community Hospital in San Angelo, following an illness.

He was born January 10, 1912 in Eldorado. He married Beatrice Slaughter May 8, 1937, in Ozona. He was a retired truck driver.

Survivors include his wife of Ozona; two daughters, Olive Evans of Ozona, and Bettie Ann Bruce of Del Rio; two sisters, Reba Houston of Ozona and Lila Mae Jones of Memphis; two brothers, Arvel Haire of San Angelo and Wayne Haire of McLean; seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Registration set for GED

The GED registration will be held Monday, Jan. 24, at the Ozona Community Center at 7 p.m. Around 60 persons have responded, indicating they would like to get their high school diploma.

Anyone interested is urged to attend, as the course will begin Feb. 1, and students must be registered before being able to take the course. There will be two instructors.

LONG TIME OZONA EDUCATOR RETIRES—Foy Moody tendered his resignation as Superintendent of Schools at the regular meeting of the school board recently. Moody spent his entire 28-year tenure in public school education in the Ozona schools. He has been superintendent for the past eight years. Before that he served as English teacher, elementary school principal and high school principal. Moody had been given a new three-year contract earlier this year, but opted for early retirement.

Moody resigns from superintendent's post

Foy A. Moody, long-term educational leader of the Ozona Public Schools, submitted his resignation to the School Board of Trustees at the January regular meeting of the board. Mr. Moody, who became the District Superintendent in 1975, requested to be released from his present contract effective June 30, 1983.

Moody expressed gratitude to the Board of Trustees for many enjoyable years in the local school system and expressed appreciation to the principals and teaching staff for their cooperation and dedication for all the children of the community.

June 30, Mr. Moody will complete the first year of a three-year contract and is exercising an option for early retirement with the Teacher Retirement System of Texas. His future plans are undetermined at this time but will include pursuit of employment in some area outside public school education.

Moody is pleased with the fact that his entire twenty-eight year tenure in public school education was spent in the local school district. His service includes 11 years as English teacher, 2 years as elementary principal, 7 years as high school principal, and 8 years as superintendent.

The Board of Trustees, after accepting Moody's resignation, named his assistant, Garland Davis, to become the Superintendent, effective July 1, 1983.

In order to effect a smooth transition of duties and responsibilities in the Superintendent's office, Moody and the Board of Trustees agreed to have Davis assume the role of Acting Superintendent for the remainder of the present school year, while Moody will serve as the Consulting Superintendent.

As Superintendent Moody brings his long tenure to a close, he expresses a strong belief that Ozona Public Schools will continue to progress with the times and believes his staff exhibits high quality and strong professionalism.

In other action taken, the Board gave support to the Board of Directors of the Ozona Community Center, for its proposed program in adult basic education and preparation for taking the high school equivalency examination.

The Board also accepted the resignation of Robert Keathley, a high school teacher, and approved the appointment of Helen Cameron to replace him for the remainder of the year.

A committee of faculty members was appointed to recommend textbooks for 1983, and a committee of board members was appointed to review school-owned teacherages.

The Board called for an election to be held on Saturday, April 2, 1983, for the purpose of electing three board members. Terms of Joe Couch, Cecil Buckner, and George Ybarra will expire on April 30, 1983. Candidates for positions on the election ballot must make application with the County Judge. The period for making application begins immediately and ends thirty days prior to the election day.

Also discussed at the meeting were cafeteria operations, a review of the proposed renovation of the "old" junior high building with architect Ron Barbutti, purchase of equipment for the junior high and high school gyms, review of drug policies which were previously submitted, and transportation.

Garland Davis, Superintendent-Elect, was appointed to represent the district on the Joint Committee of the Region XV Education Service Center.

The next regularly scheduled meeting of the board is set for Wednesday, February 16, at 7:00 p.m.

Lions Roar staff to publish school paper

"The Lions Roar," an official publication of Ozona High School news, written and edited by the journalism department will no longer appear in the pages of the Stockman.

Future issues of the publication will be published by the Lions Roar staff, under the supervision of Jan Henderson. Mrs. Henderson teaches English and journalism in Ozona High School.

The Lions Roar will have a new look, as it will be produced by the staff in a tabloid size. All print and lay-out will be done by members of the staff, and the first publication will be a monthly journal of the high school activities. As production improves, the publication will become bi-monthly and perhaps weekly by next year.

The Stockman has published the Lions Roar weekly during the school term since its inception. Quality has had its ups and downs through the years, with a swing up the past two years. Mrs. Chesta Stuart, high school English teacher, took over the "Lions Roar" last year and giant strides were made in the improvement of the school newspaper. Mrs. Henderson, who is a journalism major, took over supervision of the paper this season and even more improvement has been made.

Mrs. Henderson, a graduate of Ozona High School and Angelo State University, competed at State UIL newspaper events, such as headline writing, news writing and other related contests, while a student at Ozona High School. She has worked for the Ozona Stockman and the San Angelo Standard while completing her education.

Previously the Lions Roar staff has had no hand in the real makeup and lay-out of a newspaper. They have an exciting and challenging future in creating their own newspaper and the Stockman staff is excited for them. We will have some copies on hand for those who would like to pick one up, and will announce the initial publication.

Water Dist. directors elected

A total of 143 votes was cast in the Crockett County Water District election Saturday for three places on the board of directors. Of this total, 25 absentee ballots were cast.

Gene Williams was returned to the board with 105 votes. Mary Friend, the other incumbent director, was returned for another term with 82 votes. Dan Davidson was elected to the other spot on the board and polled the most votes with 113.

Bob Childress received 77 votes and Andrew Galindo polled 23 votes. There were four write-in votes.

Trounce Coahoma in Dist. opener

Lions win first district game Fri.

By-Ross A. Alexander

After the Ozona Lions trounced the Coahoma Bulldogs 82-65 Friday night, Head Coach John Curry still was somewhat concerned at the number of mistakes the Lions continued to make with passing and ball-handling errors. Despite the pensive quality about his nagging concern, Ozona did manage to have quite a game, according to Coach Curry.

"Our ability to press successfully accounted for the difference in the game," he said matter-of-factly. They were forced to commit 49 turnovers and couldn't seem to adjust to our unrelenting pressure which we'd been working on extensively in our gym workouts recently. Initially they came out in a 1-3-1 zone, but we of course drew them out and they had difficulty re-adjusting to an altered game tempo."

When asked about the performances of the Lion front-court personnel, Coach Curry's face brightened into a beaming, delighted look.

"We got a good game out of Zeke, Dan and Robert Massey tonight. They simply dominated tonight with Dan having one of his finest games so far. With Zeke further out in our set up, Massey and Dan must be there for us on the boards, and the two of them played magnificently."

Big Dan Bean had 22 points and pulled down 13 rebounds. Massey led all rebounders with 14, while chipping in 11 points. Martinez, having a typically fine ball game had 18 points and countless blocked shots.

"Our guys coming off the bench helped considerably and I feel that the job they did is the kind we need and will expect from them as the district season continues. Sanchez did a really fine job as did Reneau and Hokit."

The inside play, however, of Zeke Martinez was simply super.

"Zeke wreaked his special brand of havoc tonight," Coach Curry said with a wide grin breaking through. "They had this big kid Cagle, 6'2", 250 lbs... he had 14 in the first half, but Zeke held him to just 3 in the second. He had a terrific game."

Looking ahead to this

Jewelry thieves get away

Officers were searching for three black females in their mid-twenties Tuesday afternoon, who allegedly took $22,000 worth of diamond watches and bracelets from a locked showcase at Baker Jewelers.

The theft occurred shortly after one o'clock Tuesday and area towns were alerted after the owner of a nearby store reported he saw the three get into a small white car with California license plates and make a hasty exit south.

There had been no return from area towns at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, but local officers were still working on the case. One officer expressed the opinion the three may make their living hitting jewelry stores in small towns and making a fast get-away.

week's clash with the Colorado City team, Coach Curry shook his head.

"They are very rugged and physical, but with a strong scoring punch that we will have to get right after early. We are going to have to keep them off the boards... they like to put on a lot of pressure and we will have to be ready for that. They will send a lot of people to the boards, and for that reason I would consider this to be a key game. If for some reason we are not rebounding particularly well, we won't hesitate to intensify our press. It should be quite a game." Tip-off is slated for 8 p.m. Friday night at the high school gym here.

Energas to aid in bill paying

Responding to a request by the chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission, Energas Company announced today that the company will expand its efforts to aid low-income people in paying their energy bills this winter.

Last month, TRC chairman Mack Wallace wrote to all natural gas utility companies in Texas, urging them to create winter energy assistance programs for the disadvantaged in Texas, similar to some pilot programs instigated by utility companies in other states. The Railroad Commission is the state agency that regulates the oil and gas industry in Texas.

Energas is establishing a program to supplement existing programs of financial aid to people in its service territory who would otherwise not be able to pay their heating bills this winter. Energas representatives have been involved on national industry committees studying the results of the pilot energy assistance programs.

The program that Energas is devising will rely on seven charitable organizations throughout the company's service territory to receive and distribute money for heating assistance. Energas will contribute money itself to those organizations for use in the program and will encourage its employees, its customers and the general public to make contributions.

Energas officials are working with representatives of the seven regional charitable organizations to establish agreements for the operation of the program. When those agreements have been made, Energas will give a donation to each non-profit organization, based on the number of customers the company has in the region served by the organization. The company will then publicize the details of the program, so that those needing help will know how the program operates and others will know how to make contributions.

Livestock marketing meet in Ozona today

Major issues facing Texas agriculture will be addressed during the 1983 Livestock Outlook and Market Strategies Conference here today beginning at 9 a.m. The conference is set to be held in the Ozona Civic Center.

Billy Reager, Crockett County Extension Agent, notes that prospects for economic recovery and the 1983 legislative implications will be discussed. "Important policy decisions, such as farm program participation will also be outlined and decision criteria presented," said Reager.

Reager said emphasis of the program here will be on the sheep and goat industry and specific problems faced by producers. "We're trying to present this in a positive light," he said. "The producers know what the problems are, we are just trying to propose some possible alternatives which might be tried."

The conference got under way following a welcome by Crockett County Judge John Jones, with a video tape presentation on the attitude toward agriculture in Washington delivered by Senator Bill Sims. At 9:45 a.m. Dr. Ernest Davis, Extension Economist in Livestock Marketing at Texas A&M presented a general outlook on the General U.S. Agricultural Economic Situation.

Following Davis was Edward Smith, Extension Economist in Grain Marketing.

Smith presented a talk entitled Outlook Implications for Agriculture.

After a short break the conference resumed with an agricultural trade outlook delivered by Fred Campbell and Clinton Hodges. Campbell is the Executive Director of the Mohair Council of America and Hodges is a rancher in the Sterling City area.

A barbecue lunch is being served at noon. Following lunch an update on the predicament 1080 will be delivered by Dr. Dale Wade, Extension Wildlife Specialist based at San Angelo.

This afternoon sessions will include presentations concentrating on livestock production in the area. These will include Increasing Sheep and Goat Reproduction Efficiency, Dr. George Ahlschwe, Extension Sheep and Goat Specialist, San Angelo; Wool and Mohair Production and Outlook, Jack Groff, Extension Sheep and Goat Specialist at Kerrville; and Guidelines for Increasing Beef Production Efficiency, Dr. Nelson Adams, Extension Livestock Specialist at Fort Stockton.

Concluding comments will be given by Jim Talbot, President of the Sanderson State Bank. Master of Ceremonies for the Conference is Judge Peggy Garner Upton County Judge.

The conference will adjourn at 3:15 p.m.

BLACKS IN THE BOARD ROOM

By Edwin Feulner

The experts seem to have discovered a new problem to worry about: whether blacks are getting their "fair share" of top corporate jobs.

As usual, there are two competing schools of thought. One group argues that much progress has been made; others suggest that the black people one finds in corporate board rooms are either janitors or mirages. And both sides can produce an impressive array of statistical and anecdotal information to prove their point.

One recently published book, co-authored by an employee of Xerox Corporation and (understandably) a fiction writer, is glibly titled, Black Life in Corporate America. In the book, authors Glegg Watson and George Davis argue that black progress has been slow, and that the corporate board room has not been hospitable to black managers. Whether it's the old-boy network in action, subtle prejudice, or what have you, the authors conclude the road to the top is full of potholes and detours, bumps and curves that white executives don't have to negotiate.

A different view comes from columnist and social critic Walter Williams. Dr. Williams, a professor of economics at George Mason University, Fairfax, Virginia, argues that whatever potholes and detours stand in the way of black progress have been put there by government do-gooders. Moreover, Williams argues persuasively, on an age-adjusted basis, college-educated black women are doing better than their white contemporaries, and white college-educated black men lag behind their white counterparts. This is largely due to their distribution in the job market, rather than any other factor, hidden or observable. The problem: many college-educated black men turn to lower-paying careers in teaching, while a much greater proportion of whites go into high-paying careers in industry engineering, architecture, and so forth.

When jobs are compared — white and black teachers with the same education and experience, for example — blacks and white are almost indistinguishable, Professor Williams finds in his important new book, The State Against Blacks (McGraw-Hill, 1982).

The Bureau of Labor Statistics can't make up its mind. Commissioner Samuel Ehrenhalt has compiled evidence showing that the number of black professionals, technicians and managers increased to 2.3 million between 1970 and 1980, more than doubling. In some job categories, blacks far outgained whites during the decade, the Ehrenhalt study shows. A report by BLS economist Diane Westcott, meanwhile, argues that workplace progress during the 1970s was slower than in the 1960s.

Which only goes to show that you can prove anything with statistics.

Rounding out the new literature on this subject is a lavishly printed volume you are unlikely to find in any bookstore: Who's Who in Black Corporate America, published by a young Washington entrepreneur, William Reed. The book is fascinating because Reed doesn't fool around with statistical analyses, sob stories, juicy quotes, pictures, or any other literary or academic device. The book just gives us 268 pages of biographical profiles of black men and women — largely out of the public eye — who have parlayed their talent, education, and determination into positions of corporate responsibility: manufacturing, marketing, and sales executives; scientists; engineers; presidents and vice presidents of various companies; corporate board members; entrepreneurs.

These aren't affirmative action officers, minority recruitment specialists, or OEO compliance officials who were chosen because of their blackness. These are people who have quietly made it in corporate America, and are on their way up — even while others like Davis and Watson suggest it can't happen.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Amid the hail-fellow-well-met bustle of opening day legislative ceremonies last week, House members almost unanimously voted Gib Lewis as speaker — and Texas senators pondered in back rooms whether to honor or reject Gov. Bill Clements' lame duck appointments.

And taking advantage of the waves of television crews that swarmed the Capitol, Comptroller Bob Bullock said state revenue estimates weren't up to snuff before announcing he would run for governor in four years.

Bullock's announcement, which came a week before Gov.-elect Mark White's inauguration, puts White between a rock and a hard place. One week before taking his oath, the conservative Democrat White found himself pressured by Clements' Republican forces from the right, and Bullock's liberal Democrats from the left.

White did not have an easy week.

Clements had taunted him by naming several anti-White politicians to positions of power, including strong bosses John Connally and Billy Clayton and members of Clements' own staff, and then daring White to come up with the votes to bust them in the Senate.

Bloody Fighting

A handful of Democratic senators were maneuvering for the 16 necessary votes to reject all of Clements' appointees, so that White could replace them with his Democrats. Only 11 senators were needed to block any given appointment, and they claimed the votes were there, but a blanket rejection would avoid perhaps two weeks of bloody floor-fighting that could scar the Senate for months to come.

Meanwhile, Clements was saying the votes weren't there, that he would whip White on this issue, even as he departed the Governor's Mansion. White maintained silence publicly, but lobbied hard for the magic votes.

No Competition

In the House, members elected Gib Lewis, D-Fort Worth, as the new speaker by a vote of 144-2. The almost unanimous election was the highest vote total in anyone's memory, and left Lewis as the first urban speaker in more than 30 years.

House members immediately voted to give Lewis broader powers, including handpicking all members of the Appropriations Committee and the prerogative of firing committee chairmen and vice chairmen.

State Rep. Carlyle Smith, D-Dallas, who opposed Lewis for the speakership, criticized the action as weakening the limited seniority system that was enacted following the Sharpstown Scandals to weaken the power of the speaker.

New Beginning

For his part, Lewis said he gets along very well with White, and then promised the House will investigate alleged expense voucher abuses by Houston Rep.

Ron Wilson.

Even though the Travis County district attorney said his office found no basis for prosecuting Wilson, the new speaker said the House will continue the probe into the case.

Wilson's committee budget was overspent by some $9,000 last year, largely because of some $17,000 in expenses claimed by Wilson. Phone records revealed that while Wilson was claiming travel expenses to Austin, his telephone credit card was used to charge calls from other cities.

Although he represents a Houston district, Wilson lives in Austin, where he attends law school.

Ten Face Gramm

The controversial Bryan Congressman Phil Gramm, who switched political parties and resigned his seat to deliberately set up a special election to his advantage, now finds himself facing nine Democrats and a Libertarian in what was supposed to be an easy battle.

State Democratic Party Chairman Bob Slagle, meanwhile, may have really hampered Gramm's plan for a short election by focusing on a legal technicality that might extend the election's duration, giving Gramm's opponents more time to raise money against his already-filled war chest.

Secretary of State David Dean is expected to rule on Slagle's contention this week.

Meanwhile, former State Rep. Dan Kubiak and television humorist John Henry Faulk of "Hee Haw" fame are given the best chances of emerging to oust Gramm, still the favorite in many eyes. Faulk is well-known for his "Hee Haw" television appearances, and Kubiak, who was narrowly edged out of the Land Commissioner primary last May, nevertheless carried the counties in Gramm's district by about 80 percent.

you and the LAW

PRESENTED BY THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Q: I am 15 years old; my parents are separated. I earn my own spending money and buy my own clothes. I would like to know what I have to do to be declared an adult.

A: You will be declared an adult on your 18th birthday. Alternatively, if you marry as a minor, with your parent's consent, you will be considered an adult for most purposes.

You may also petition the Court to remove the disabilities of minority. If you are at least 16, living away from your parents, self-supporting and managing your own financial affairs, you may seek to be declared an adult. Except for specific constitutional and statutory age requirements, such as voting, a minor whose disabilities have been removed for general purposes has the power and capacity of an adult.

Q: I am in the service. I am trying to change the registration on my car to my home state, not Texas. However, to do this I need the title to the car and the finance company refuses to relinquish the title for this purpose. What can I do?

A: I assume you've been in touch with the motor vehicle bureau in your home state to determine its requirements. If the original certificate of title had not been required, the state in which your car is currently registered may be able to provide a non-negotiable copy of the certificate. However, since the original is required, a letter from the vehicle bureau to the finance company could request the original title be forwarded to the bureau for vehicle registration and for recording of the company's lien.

Q: When I moved into my apartment complex, I signed a long lease. I didn't take time to read the lease, and even if I had, I would not have understood the effect of all the clauses. Now a dispute has arisen. It doesn't seem fair that I am bound by a contract I didn't read and can't understand. Am I bound?

A: The answer is usually "yes". The law charges a person to read and understand any contract before he signs it. While this rule can sometimes be harsh, it is often necessary. Otherwise, any party to a contract could always avoid reading it and claim that since he didn't understand, he shouldn't be bound. However, there is one very important exception to this rule. If someone deceives you into signing a contract without giving it careful attention, you may not have to observe its terms. For example, if your landlord had tricked you into signing a contract by telling you that it only had to do with where you could park your car, when actually it increased your rent, then you would not be bound.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

January 12, 1983

Dear Kitty,

This letter is in answer to the letter by Beth Boyd in the Ozona Stockman, particularly the situation concerning the doctors of Ozona.

Since I first came here, I believe there have been a total of 15 doctors. There are currently three. The impression is given that only two remain. This is false. Dr. Anita Brown has associated herself with the Carlisle Clinic Association. She sees patients daily in the clinic and is developing a rather good practice.

The current hospital census at this date is at its maximum capacity with 22 patients in the hospital, 20 of these being patients of the Carlisle Clinic Association.

Dr. Brown is an outstanding doctor and is certified by the Medical Boards in many fields, some of them the most difficult in all areas of medicine and surgery. She is board certified in anesthesiology and her second certification is in intensive care medicine. She also has residency training in obstetrics. She was offered the job as chief of obstetric anesthesiology at Community Hospital in San Angelo but preferred to remain here because this is her home, and she wishes to practice in a rural community. She is becoming associated with groups that work in rural environments such as Dr. Michael DeBakey's American College of General Practice and the American College of Emergency Physicians.

The Carlisle Clinic Association plans to do obstetrical work and is so doing at this time. We feel it can be more safely done with two doctors present, one taking care of the anesthesia and baby while the other takes care of the mother.

I will point out once again that if the county brings a doctor in and pays his way, the doctor has little incentive to stay. I worked hard for many years, and, in fact, continue to do so, as is Dr. Brown; and this ensures the county that we will remain in the county. As for the problem of conflict between Dr. Taylor and myself, a large number of doctors came and left as did administrators at a time that I was not associated with the hospital for the exact reason mentioned above. It is difficult for some people to understand that it is hard financially for three hard working doctors. The census falls off tremendously during certain seasons of the year. It would be nice if people could be treated by the doctor of their choice at any time they wanted, but there must be a practical point. If your house is on fire, you don't ask which fireman will help put out the fire. I feel no personal problem with Dr. Taylor. I like him and consider him to be a good doctor. I think that any doctor offered the position here has been in Sonora, where there is only one doctor caring for the town, would be foolish to reject that offer, especially after having been in a town where four practi-ing physicians are caring for the sick and the economy is down.

Finally, I ask only this of the people of Ozona, to work and work well with the hospital staff of Crockett County Hospital, praising the good points instead of the constant bitterness of how ill-prepared they are, and what a sorry hospital it is, and other "street talk." Actually, the nursing staff is good and frequently rises to states that would rival the care in teaching hospitals. Believe me, I know how it feels to be in a hospital due to my experiences as a patient in both government and civilian hospitals. The people at the hospital, the nurses, aides, pharmacy, dietary, housekeeping, business office, lab, respiratory therapy, all, are working hard, hard, hard to make this hospital a value to the county.

The bleak picture presented to the Commissioners Court on Monday is false. The hospital has many faults, but they can and will be corrected. It has a heavy patient load and has people working for it that are dedicated to their jobs.

Also, I do not want to forget the County Judge and the Commissioners Court for their constant help in hospital matters. The hospital staff realizes that there are other branches of the county that need money as much or more than we do. We have always been able to find financial aid from the court when it was needed.

Thank you, Kitty, for the chance to present my feelings on the state of the hospital and its ability to perform its job; and a second thank you for the accurate, unprejudiced reporting of news relative to the hospital.

Sincerely,
Don L. Carlisle, M.D.

January 17, 1983

Dear Kitty,

I, too, am quite curious as to why everytime a good doctor comes to try and better things here, not only with his outstanding doctoring, but also his full attention and understanding towards his patients, we end up having him for such a short time and then losing him.

I have been privileged to know Dr. Taylor and his wife Margie. It is my understanding that they have nothing but the people's best interest at heart. To him his patients are, and I quote him: "like a part of my family." Everytime that I have had to see him, he has taken time to sit and listen to me and make me feel cared about, as far as my health is concerned.

I know that if I had some power or say so over this I would try my darndest to make him stay and make us all proud to have him here in our community. Maybe for once a person's health would come first before money.

Thank the good Lord he will be somewhere near and reachable.

Sincerely,
Angie P. Daniels

Hearty Beef Stew

Winter time meals are times for the hearty stews, soups and casseroles with hot breads. One of my favorites is this savory beef stew with lots of hot rolls and butter...

Savory Oven Beef Stew

- |                                   |                                   |
|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 2 lb. Chuck Roast                 | 1 (15oz.) can tomato sauce        |
| 1/4 tsp. pepper                   | 1 (16oz.) can tomatoes            |
| 1 tsp. salt                       | 4 med. carrots, sliced            |
| 1/4 c. flour                      | 1 (10oz.) pkg. frozen bay leaves  |
| 2 med. onions, peeled & quartered | 2 med. potatoes, peeled and cubed |
| 1 c. sliced celery                | 2 c. water                        |

Combine flour, salt and pepper. Dredge meat in flour. Brown in small amount of hot fat. Add remaining ingredients. Cover and bake in 300° oven for 2 1/2 to 3 hours. Remove bay leaves, adjust seasoning if necessary. Cut meat into small pieces. Thicken with small amount of flour if desired. Serves 6.

By Debra Price

Getting enough essential amino acids from the diet is critical for replacing and renewing body cell tissues.

Essential amino acids are used to form proteins for this tissue growth. The body can manufacture many of the amino acids required to produce protein for growth, but certain others come only from the diet.

These are the "essential" amino acids. Foods that provide essential amino acids come from the food group labeled protein, which includes meat, eggs, seafood, dairy products, certain grains, nuts, and beans.

These food sources of protein vary in quality. Quality of protein is judged by the level of essential amino acids the food provides.

The protein in eggs is considered "perfect," and milk and meat are close seconds. These foods provide all the essentials in the right amounts. Vegetables also contain proteins, but the quality is lower than that of animal sources.

The protein quality can be improved by combining two or more plant proteins in the same meal, to form a complete protein. This is called "protein complementing."

An example of protein complementing is to eat beans and whole grains together. The combination creates a complete protein that helps protect against protein shortage.

A good diet is the body's "blueprint" for obtaining the essential amino acids that it needs.

EGG CUSTARD

- 12 eggs
- 6 cups milk, sweet
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 cups sugar
- 1/2 stick butter

Mix milk, sugar, and butter in a boiler and let it come to just a bubble boil. Beat eggs then add vanilla. Pour the milk mixture into the eggs, beating constantly. Place a Pyrex baking dish into a large shallow baking pan that has about an inch of water in it. Pour the custard mixture into the Pyrex dish. Bake at 375°F or 400°F for 40 minutes, or until knife inserted in center comes out clean.

SWEET AND SOUR MEATBALLS

- 1 pound ground meat
- 1 small jar grape jelly
- 3 tablespoons bread crumbs

- Dash pepper
- 1 bottle chili sauce
- 2 green onions
- Dash salt
- Dash oregano

In medium saucepan, pour whole bottle of chili sauce and jar of grape jelly. Over low heat, stir occasionally until jelly melts. Pre-heat oven to 350°F. Combine meat, finely chopped onions, bread crumbs, and spices. Form into small balls and place in deep baking dish. Pour sauce mixture over balls, making sure all are covered. Bake about 35 minutes. Serves 25 people.

Mrs. Deaton is hostess for bridge club

Mrs. Buster Deaton was hostess for Country Club Bridge at the club Thursday.

High score went to Mrs. Sonny Bailey and second high to Mrs. Gene Lilly. Mrs. Billy Carson won the club bingo and Mrs. Kirby Moore, the Charlotte Phillips bingo.

Others playing were Mrs. Clay Adams, Mrs. Bill Baggett, Mrs. Charlie Black, Mrs. Joe Couch, Mrs. Brock Jones, Mrs. Arthur Kyle, Mrs. J. J. Marley, Mrs. Bill Mason, Mrs. Buddy Phillips, Mrs. B. W. Stuart, Mrs. Sherman Taylor, Mrs. C. O. Walker, Mrs. Evert White, Mrs. Charles Williams and Mrs. Oscar Kost.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE

Winners in Duplicate Bridge Club play Saturday at the Country Club were Mrs. Robert Cox and Mrs. Sherman Taylor. In second place were Mrs. Gene Williams and Mrs. Kirby Moore.

In play Sunday, Evert White and Mrs. Bill Baggett won the top spot and Mrs. Evert White and Mrs. Taylor were second.

Update wardrobe with creative accessories

Accessories are an easy way to update a wardrobe, but can become expensive, reminds Becky Saunders, clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"They are also a creative way to express your personality, and add versatility to any wardrobe," Saunders says.

She explains that accessories can be used to emphasize your best features, camouflage an unfavorable one, or even just to add some flare to your everyday clothes.

"Today's clothing guidelines are more relaxed than those of the past. This provides us with a wider range of fashion options to fit any lifestyle," Saunders says. "This means we are no longer confined to matching accessories."

The overall fall 1982 fashion emphasis is toward the prairie, country-western, or menswear looks. Important colors will be wine, green, brown, navy or cinnamon. Take time to look through local stores for the current accessory trends. Consider structured hand bags, mid-calf flatter heel boots, plaid mufflers or scarves as accessory choices.

When choosing accessories, consider color, texture and shape that can add variety and interest. Work around a central focal point with closely related items to create a pleasing "together" look, the specialist suggests.

"Many accessories are sensitive to change in fashion, so for the sake of your budget, avoid accessories that are seasonal. Also keep a running total of your purchases so they don't overload your budget," Saunders says.

Many outdated accessories can be recycled. For instance, costume jewelry can be restrung, belts recovered, buckles changed, scarves resized or re-shaped, in order to create a newer look.

Students make ASU honor roll

Area students attending Angelo State University in San Angelo, are listed on the Dean's Honor Roll for the fall semester at the University.

Those listed on the 3.00 to 3.49 Honor Roll include Kaye Elaine Thompson, an accounting major, and Bill T. Williams, a business major.

Those listed on the 3.50 to 4.00 Honor Roll include Jacquelyn Sue Shacklette, an English major; Nikki Lee Sewell, a finance major; Linda Lu Carroll, an accounting major, and Carl Jay Hufstetler, a health & physical major.

Members of the Charlotte B. Phillips Art Group taking the course were Joyce Maness, Polly Perner, Beth Marks, Katie Jones and Joan Nicholas.

Others were Ruth Dorris, Dorothy Montgomery, Barbara Burnett, Mozelle Miers, Jackie King, Jonnie Johnson, Ella Clegg, Maggie Moore and Billie Morris.

The group studied in the home of Billie Morris and three paintings were completed, namely a seascape and two landscapes.

Mr. Keel has agreed to come to Ozona to give another workshop next November.

Tips For Gardeners

From The Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

Perhaps you have already made plans to plant a tree in your landscape or giving a lasting gift to a public park. Whenever possible, choose a tree that is native to our area and adapted to our local growing conditions. Too, native trees help preserve the character of our region. One of the choices is the Texas red oak (Overcres Texas) and others. If you are adding some fruit trees or pecans obtain this information from our County Extension Agent. Also consider space requirements when making your choice. Standard fruit trees require fairly large areas while dwarf selections work better in compact spaces. You will need to supply a well-drained planting location where the trees will receive full sun for most of the day.

Gardeners in our area with alkaline soil need to inquire about the origin of balled-and-burlapped specimens. Those grown in acid soil and shipped to our alkaline soil area often become chlorotic and slowly die. Container-grown landscape plants from California generally have a better survival rate in West Texas. Planting dates for bare-root roses for our area should be by February 15. If roses arrive before you can plant, store them in a cool, dark place where they will be protected from freezing. Leave the original packing material around the roots, and check every 2 or 3 days to make sure that the material stays moist.

Again let me remind you that if freezing weather is predicted, be sure your trees and shrubs are well watered. Winter injury often results when plants are subjected to cold temperatures in combination with insufficient soil moisture.

Get your gladiolus corms on hand for February planting. Glads are not heat loving plants, so early blooming selections like Coral Seas and White Lilac generally perform best in our area. Two new gladiolus selections designated as 1983 All-American Selections--Flash is an early bloomer with maroon-red flowers edged in silver. Golden Years enfolds its golden-yellow blossoms in midseason. If you get these corms before planting time, place them in a paper bag (punch holes in the bag) and store in the vegetable compartment of the refrigerator.

New books listed at library

A list of new books in the Crockett County Library was announced by Sherry York, librarian.

Some of these books are: Border Healing Woman by Jewel Babb, Captain Lee Hall of Texas by Dora N. Raymond, Free Fall in Crim by John D. MacDonaid, German Artist on the Texas Frontier by William Newcomb, National Directory of Addresses and Telephone Numbers 1983, 1001 Texas Place Names by Fred Trapley, Texas Graveyards by Terry Jordan, 21 Texas Short Stories by William Perry, ed.; The Way I Heard It by Walter Fulcher and Elton Miles.

On Top Of The World

A little child doesn't understand big-ness. Nor does he understand height and depth and length or any other proportions. But he knows love. He has trust.

Nestled in Mother's arms or held in Father's strong hands, he knows complete faith and security.

Man lives his span of life trusting, believing, hoping. Otherwise, he is no different than a stone—his life is empty.

Why must we have faith? Because it gives us reason for living. Faith in the Creator who fashioned us in His own image is increased by prayer and meditation. What better place to find love and understanding—and hope for a better life—than in the church or synagogue of your choice?

Ag prices expected to be poor again this year

Agriculture is at a crossroads due to large supplies and low prices, and farmers have few options to improve their situations in 1983.

Just how long farmers can hang on financially is the big question," says Dr. Carl Anderson, economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. "Right now many are scraping the bottom of the barrel as far as their financial resources are concerned—thanks to three consecutive years of poor prices. And they can't last much longer. Only those who are virtually debt-free will be able to make it."

Returns to assets of debt-free farmers will average in the range of minus 3 to minus 7 percent in 1982, says Anderson, while returns to farmers with a heavy debt load will be a negative 14 to 18 percent. "With that kind of figures, it's easy to see that farmers must depend less on debt financing," he adds.

Farmers generally are victims of overproduction in recent years coupled with a major slowdown in farm exports and domestic demand. This has led to growing stockpiles of most crops. Present farm programs designed to reduce these stockpiles have been a flop, points out Anderson. So farmers and farm policymakers must soon decide whether or not to do something about the increasingly critical farm dilemma.

"Among options are mandatory production control and possible marketing quotas to bring supplies in line with effective demand," notes the economist. "Strong supply management likely will improve current low farm income in a couple of years. With voluntary programs, it will take much longer." Regarding the dilemma of farmers, Anderson offers a number of observations:

For 1982 net U.S. farm income is projected at $19 billion, down from $25 billion in 1981. Cash receipts will be about equal to farm expenditures this year, so virtually all net income will come from government payments and non-money income. Income could improve some in 1983 depending on what direction farm programs take.

Farmland markets are expected to remain sluggish. In some areas of the U.S. and Texas, land prices likely will decline.

Farm exports are facing major setbacks. No noticeable progress has been made in trade negotiations with major U.S. foreign market countries such as the European Common Market, Japan, Mainland China or Russia. When economic conditions are bad, countries want to export more and import less. A big setback to Texas cotton growers is that China intends to grow more cotton and import less from the U.S.

Although credit is available, farmers have difficulty in qualifying unless they still have adequate collateral. Debt restructuring will continue. Loan delinquencies, foreclosures and bankruptcies will be up although lenders seldom benefit from liquidating a borrower.

Getting enough sleep is important to good health

Getting enough restful sleep is important if a person is to feel good and function properly. Sleep patterns can be interrupted, however, by factors such as age, food or alcohol intake, and sleep aids.

Many sleep disorders have been associated with poor lifestyle habits, according to Dr. Mary Ann Shirer, health education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

These poor lifestyle habits include lack of exercise, inadequate meals and ineffective handling of stress. "Positive changes in these habits will improve sleep, and may even completely alleviate the problems associated with sleep," says Shirer.

Heavy meals before bedtime can interfere with sleep, since digestion is such a demanding physiological process. Food allergies can cause insomnia and caffeine can disturb sleep, because it acts as a stimulant.

Shirer says evidence indicates that heavy alcohol intake causes less total sleep time, less deep sleep, and less dreaming sleep.

Sleep medications, when used on a short-term basis under a physician's supervision, are frequently beneficial and worthwhile," says Shirer.

The recommended dosages of over-the-counter sleep aids should not be exceeded. Overdoses can cause confusion, memory disturbances, worsening of glaucoma, and, in rare cases, death.

Sleep aids prescribed by physicians are usually either barbituates or benzodiazepines. Both of these drugs are physically addictive, Shirer warns.

Barbituates, when consumed in large doses, can cause kidney failure, breathing difficulty, coma, and

SS sets visit

Garland Gregg, Social Security representative for the San Angelo Social Security office, has scheduled his February visit to Ozona. He will be at the county courthouse on Wednesday, February 16, from 2:00-3:30.

Anyone who wants to file a claim for benefits, get information, or transact other business with the Social Security Administration may contact him at this time.

VA rehab program launched

The Veterans Administration has launched a special effort to contact all seriously disabled Vietnam-era veterans who could but still haven't taken advantage of its vocational rehabilitation program.

Those efforts include appeals through the news media and by letter, telephone and personal visits, said Ted W. Myatt, Director, Houston VA Regional Office.

Vietnam-era veterans with disabilities incurred during, or aggravated by, military service may be eligible for such vocational rehabilitation and counseling.

In order to apply for those benefits, veterans should contact the nearest VA Office.

Notes from the locker room-

A preview of next season

By-Ross A. Alexander

I had quite a start the other day. I saw super talented Sharon McCrohan limping severely as she crossed the street. Responding to an inquiry on the extent of the injury, the sure fire future star smiled and reassuringly predicted it would be right in time for her next game. Some tough kid.

Can you see the Ozona backfield next season with Johnny Rod at running back out of the I formation...with Rowdy at the upback spot? Wouldn't that be the "power backfield supreme?" How about Rowdy as a fullback being the first back to receive the motion from the option attack? Can you picture some 175 lb. linebacker trying to step up into that hole to plug against Rowdy? If you thought that the Ozona Hurricane used to literally blow people out, stop long enough to consider the suicide mission entailed in trying to halt Rowdy.

Coach Abbott has to remember that only the mercurial Diego Leal had a faster time in the 40 yard dash than Rowdy...Leal at 4.92 edging Rowdy's 4.93. The fearless prediction from this corner is that if he feet footed giant really wants to, and if he's up to the challenge to being a punishing runner like a Campbell, or a Czonka, then Ozona will repeat their surprise offering for area opponents again this year... Rowdy will lead the team in rushing...in carries...and in touchdowns. (if he really is up to it, that is) District opponents certainly hope not.

While I was sitting here picturing Rowdy pulling away from some poor safety who realizes too late that he simply can't catch this big guy...I recalled an earlier conversation with Coach Abbott during which he indicated that his concern was in filling the vacancy created by Massey's graduation, and that of his two college-quality kickers, Harvey Huerreca and Will Mason.

Once again, to the rescue with an innovative suggestion.

Robert Flores as wide receiver...can fly...has intelligence enough to comprehend and then run precise patterns...has good hands...and is a super threat to score after the downfield completion. Coach Abbott simply smiled. "I might put him at a wingback. He'll be out there to receive a pass, or for the occasional reverse option we have. We already have considered Flores as a wide receiver, and he could make the transition if we just have to ask that of him. He's quite a multi-talented, multi-faceted individual whose sheer versatility will be most valuable."

Diego, Whitehead (yes, Gary the basketball player) can both kick exceptionally well for two guys who don't practice at all on it. I bet Diego Leal could kick a forty yard field goal if he'd go out every week and kick at least 40 or 50. His punting average would be among the best in this part of the country if he'd work on his punting another day of the week. I know what Diego can do having played plenty of tennis with him. His coach shouldn't have that worry on his mind during the off-season...not if Diego wants to excel at those jobs his school will ask him to do well this year. Ozona will be watching to see how well he handles the specialties vacated by the aforementioned stars.

Speaking of football, freshman sensation Steve Sanchez might give Delgado a real challenge for the starting QB spot, if Diego doesn't want to. David has a pretty good arm, but can he effectively fulfill the field general role like a Shannon Southern or a Sanchez conceivably could? Maybe so, maybe not. Don Abbott requires a very intelligent quarterback who can think quickly, read defenses and is a constant threat to run on you. But just as important, he must be a leader, someone the team will follow. If David is the man, we'll know soon enough I suspect. Just remember that Shannon and Steve are able, David. Very able.

Jana Harris makes dean's list at WTC

Jana Lynn Harris of Ozona has been named to the President's List for the 1982 fall semester at Western Texas College.

The President's list gives special recognition to students who made no grade lower than A, a 4.0 grade point average, while enrolled for at least 15 semester hours exclusive of physical education.

WTC began the 1983 spring semester Jan. 19. Commencement exercises are scheduled May 13, with the spring semester to end on that day also.

Crockett County Care Center News

BY ANN McCARTNEY
DIRECTOR OF ACTIVITIES & SOCIAL CARE

Second Sunday Church services were furnished by the Catholic Church. They also gave our residents a large box of fruit.

Sunday began another new event in the life of our residents. It was the day of our first resident birthday of the year and the beginning of a new program furnished by three new donors. C. O. Spencer Welding and Construction Company and Polly Eppler of Polly's Cakes brought a birthday cake to our honoree, Nina Mayfield, and Robin Reneau of the Flower Basket brought her a lovely corsage. We welcome these new volunteers and appreciate this individual treat to be presented to each of our residents on their birthday.

Dominoes were played this week by Maude Pettit, Ola Mills, Paul Cavin, Johnny Henderson, and Hillery Phillips. Games were played on several days.

Monday afternoon, the second Monday of the month, was the time for our monthly birthday party. Ladies Auxiliary member Dorothy Doll was in charge of the party. She was assisted by Alice Ross and Mattie Cooper. The cake was donated by Polly Eppler and each honoree wore a corsage donated by Maxine's Flower Shop. Maude Pettit played the birthday song and Jerri Lee furnished the background music for the occasion. Honorees were Nina Mayfield, Nautie Tatum, and Hillery Phillips.

Alice Ross and her sister Cloma Trotter donated toilet articles for our residents use this week.

Tuesday morning's winner of the El Chato dinner for two was Jesus Hernandez. Friday mornings winner of the week was Nila Turnell. She won a gift certificate from Watson's Department store. Second place winner was Maude Pettit. Volunteers for the games were Dorothy Doll, Alice Ross, and Anna Bell Patrick.

Tuesday afternoon residents viewed slides taken of themselves around the Care Center during activities.

Wednesday morning was once again time for ceramic classes. Volunteers Ruth Hester, Marie Pierson, and Dorothy Doll assisted residents Maude Pettit, Ola Mills, Tomasa Ramos, Juana Hernandez, and Morima Perez.

Thursday morning beauty shop was manned, as usual, by Bonnie Warth, Arlene Clayton and Madye Jo Humphreys.

Thursday afternoon the Faith Lutheran Church group were here for Bible study. Maude Pettit played the piano and Phyliss Harms sent a large supply of cookies to be enjoyed with the afternoon juices. All this was followed by Spanish hour given by Maria Vitela, Paulita Leal, Sulema Martinez, Telipa Munoz, Alicia Perez, and Blanca Castro.

Friday afternoon residents were once again treated to a milkshake, compliments of Clayton's Village Drug. All residents received one, either at the store or in the Care Center. Residents going to the store included Maude Pettit, Nila Turnell, Tomasa Ramos, Ola Mills, Paul Cavin, Juana Hernandez, Carol Reed and Virginia Russell.

Ozona coaches off to Corpus football clinic

By-Ross A. Alexander

Coaching football involves more than devising offensive and defensive strategies for Head Football coach Don Abbott and his staff. There are countless rap sessions between his staff and players, films to be analyzed and an extensive off-season program to administer.

This weekend, Coach Abbott will journey to the Coastal Bend Football Clinic to be held in Corpus Christi, where he and his fellow state high school and college coaches will have an opportunity to discuss matters pertinent to their concerns and interests.

This will be an excellent opportunity for various coaches to get together and compare observations and to more or less experience a shared cross-fertilization of ideas on various aspects of the game with one another. "Actually, it's in the motel room bull sessions where coaches really harvest the bulk of the fruit from such coaches' conferences. There may be a room full of coaches asking one another questions. 'How did you contain Kermit's wide sweeps to the weak side,' or 'show me what you did using a 4-3 so successfully against McCamey.' The coaches get to share some of the more successful coach's formulae...at least as much as they can get him to give up." The Lion Chief smiled, his eyes showed a twinkle of sorts.

"It should be fun as well as beneficial for the participants," he added.

Coach will be accompanied by his defensive coordinator Coach Milby Sexton and assistant coach David McWilliams, Ozona's Super Scout.

Our coaches could hold a seminar of their own at this year's conference. Don, Milby, and young David can expect a lot of traffic in their motel room.

Garza rites held here Monday

Funeral services for Thomas M. Garza, 68 were held Monday at 4:30 p.m. in Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church with burial in Lima Cemetery.

Mr. Garza died Friday evening in St. John's Hospital in San Angelo, following a lengthy illness.

He was born in Sonora, Feb. 14, 1914, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gemesindo Garza. He had lived in Ozona most of his life. He married Herminia Ramirez in Ozona, April 13, 1935.

He was a veteran of World War II, and an employee of Crockett County.

Survivors include his wife of Ozona; three sons, Edward Garza of Miami, Fla., Thomas Garza, Jr. of Burleson, and David Garza, Pensacola AFB, Fla.; four daughters, Olivia Tijerina, Edna Tambunga, Simplicia Cervantez, all of Ozona, and Corina Villarreal of Amarillo; two sisters, Aurora Rios and Martina Sanchez, both of Dallas; three brothers Eljio Sanchez and Fidencio Sanchez of Dallas and Antonio Sanchez of Gilroy, Calif.

Ramirez services Saturday

Funeral services for Tibucia P. Ramirez, 77, were held Saturday at Ozona Church of Christ with burial in Lima Cemetery.

Mrs. Ramirez died Wed. Jan. 12, in Crockett County Hospital where she had been a patient for three months.

She was born October 19, 1905, in Llano. She married Ponciano Ramirez in Ozona in 1929. He preceded her in death.

Survivors include four sons, Ponciano Ramirez, Jr., Salvadore Ramirez, Jose Ramirez and Armando Ramirez; and four daughters, Maria Perez, Celia Munoz, Erminia Fierro and Felicita Ramirez.

Home food production up

More and more Americans are growing their own groceries.

"Home food production continues to increase--the growth is really phenomenal," says Dr. Sam Cotner, horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

According to Cotner, more than half the households in America--and in Texas--grew food for their tables last year. Citing figures from a recent survey by the Gallup Poll and Gardens for All, the national association for gardening, Cotner says that some 53 percent of American households grew some or all of their own produce in 1982--a record number for the second consecutive year.

"People are growing vegetables and fruit wherever they can find space," notes Cotner. "They are using backyards, flowerbeds, patios and rooftop containers. Community gardens are popular in many locations across the country but really

Take stock of health habits for new year

With a new year at hand, this is a good time for families to "take stock" of health habits for all members.

Good health habits are easy to establish and should be practiced all year long, reminds Dr. Mary Ann Shirer, health education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"The most important reason for establishing healthy habits is to improve the quality of life, as well as its length," Shirer adds.

Health experts suggest the following practices as a way to stay healthy:

Learn to manage stress and enjoy life more. Emotional and physical stresses should be handled daily. Outside interests and an exercise program help relieve stress.

Practice good nutrition--eat three balanced meals a day and try to reduce salt, saturated fat and sugar intake. The average adult consumes up to 100 pounds of sugar a year and high intakes can cause obesity, diabetes, heart disease and tooth de-haven't caught on yet in Texas." Some 2 million acres are devoted to home and community gardening across the U.S.

"Interest in home and community gardens has risen sharply the past few years, triggered by rising food prices and the desire to return to nature," points out Cotner.

"Although food prices have declined recently, home vegetable production has remained steady because folks have found it to be enjoyable and healthful as well as profitable activity. Also, gardening can be a family affair."

The recent Gallup-Gardens for All survey found that vegetable gardening has become the nation's number one outdoor leisure-time activity.

More people would likely take to gardening if they had adequate space, says Cotner.

Normal weight should also be maintained.

Get regular exercise and proper rest. Consistently walk, jog or do other exercises suitable to your individual needs. Get plenty of sleep in the winter because the body's defenses need to be at their peak, particularly during this season.

Avoid substance abuse like smoking and drinking excessive amounts of alcohol--neither is a safe or healthy habit.

Be sure immunizations are up-to-date, including booster shots. Use seat belts when traveling--auto accidents are among the leading causes of death in Texas.

"Develop a sense of health awareness--learn basic first aid procedures and cardiopulmonary resuscitation. Practice good health habits every day for a happier and more fulfilled life for all family members," Shirer suggests.

Many, especially those in urban areas, would like to have permanent sites set aside for community vegetable gardens. No doubt community gardens will soon become popular in Texas.

Girl Scout cookie sale to begin

It's Girl Scout Cookie time again, and Ozona Scouts will begin the cookie sale Friday, Jan. 21, at 4 p.m. and continue through Feb. 4.

This year the Scouts will be selling cookies door-to-door instead of taking orders as they have done the past couple of years.

The seven different varieties of cookies are fresh and delicious and will freeze well. Varieties offered are Hoedowns, Kookaburras, Thin Mints, Chocolate and Vanilla Cremes, Savannahs, Dutch-such and Scot Teas. The cost is $2 per box.

Anyone wishing to buy cookies who has not been contacted by a Girl Scout may call Terry Adams, cookie chairman, after 5 p.m. at 392-3028.

PHONE NEWS TO THE OZONA STOCKMAN.

YOU MAY BE LOSING ENERGY DOLLARS UP YOUR CHIMNEY!

How many times a year do you open and close your Fireplace damper?

Many people leave it open all the time -- so it's always ready when they build a fire in the fireplace. A fireplace damper that's always open is allowing winter heat and summer air conditioning to leave through the chimney in a continuous flowing stream. And with that loss of conditioned air goes higher electric bills. Be sure to close your fireplace damper when not in use.

A fireplace screen can help to save a lot of Energy too! With your damper closed, when not in use, and with an air-tight glass screen in front of your fireplace you can keep ENERGY DOLLARS from escaping up the chimney.
