For years Terry Neill swiped from Lottie Lee's "Snips and Quips" column and on occasion has quoted from this column while writing his "Revolver" at the Stanton Reporter, the Van Horn Advocate and presently at a bi-weekly in Ballinger. So, we have not the slightest qualm about swiping his latest little tidbit appearing in "Revolver." His latest is entitled SAY WHAT?

Facts can get adjusted somewhat in the telling. In fact sometimes it's hard to tell facts from rumors and out and out lies. The following is a good example:

If it rains then cancel the day's observation and have the classes meet in the auditorium to see a film about the Comet.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace are completing their 17th year of service as teachers in the school system.

Other action taken by the Board of Trustees included the renewal of teachers' contracts for the 1983-1984 school year who are completing one year or more of teaching experience in the school district. Teachers who have less than one year in the system and auxiliary employees will be considered at a later meeting.

The Board of Trustees also accepted the resignation of Mrs. Nesa Chandler from her teaching role in the Primary School.

The Board approved an extension of the local Leave Policy to include Death Benefits which will become effective in the 1983-1984 school year. It also gave preliminary approval to proposed policy changes affecting the high school grading system, offering incentives for enrolling in more difficult courses, increasing graduation requirements, and changing the application of course credits. These proposals will be considered for final approval after refinement by Principal Jim Payne.

Approvals were also given to the 1983 Textbook Adoption Report and to a Division Order to Lankford Oil Company.

The next meeting of the Board of Trustees will be Tuesday, March 29, 1983, at 7:30 p.m.

OLDEST CHURCH-The black and white reproduction of Mrs. Rosenberger's painting does not do it justice. The cards, which will also be used in the company's Christmas line, are as colorful as the painting which hangs in the mission. Jeanette Bailey of Ozona is Mrs. Rosenberger's sister.

31st Annual Ozona Relays

Tracksters break 7 records in relays

The field of entries at the 31st Annual Ozona Lion Relays broke seven records, four by the Lions, and gave the local fans quite a track show.

The Lions will be in San Angelo Friday and Saturday to take on the best of their classification at the San Angelo Relays. Coach Rip Sewell said the two-day meet will take the best effort possible if the Lions are going to top the field and defend their 1982 crown.

The relays got underway Friday in near perfect weather which saw the 400-meter relay team of Carlos Borrego, Robert Flores, David Badillo and Willie Payne breeze to a 43.99 win and a record. Other record breakers for the Lions were Marcelo Hernandez in the Clifford Crawford Memorial 800-meter dash with a 2:00.28 win.

Mark Vellejo topped the 110-meter hurdles in 14.7 for a record and Robert Flores won the 100-meter dash with a record-setting 11.09.

Other record setters were Eldorado's Ashley Niblett with a high jump of 6'4", and the great distance running of Sonora's Jose Escalante with records of 9:49.77 in the 3200 meter run and 4:40.45 in the 1600 meter run.

The Lions won the meet with 186½ points followed by Sonora with 127½. Eldorado came in a distant third with 80 points scored for the meet. Coahoma was fourth with 47½ and Colorado City fifth with 43 points. Iraan and McCamey were in the cellar with 27 and 26 points respectively.

Highlights of the meet were the crowning of the track queen, Miss Sherri Buckner, a junior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Buckner. Jana Lilly and Irma Ybarra were the other nominees.

Marcelo Hernandez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcelo Hernandez, was selected track king. Hernandez was also presented with the Clifford Crawford Memorial 800 meter dash award. Hernandez broke the old record of 2:01.37 by Enrique Sanchez of Sonora in 1980.

Other Lion winners were Harvey Huereca, winning both the shot and discus. He tossed the shot 48'5½" for the win and the discus 148' 11". Rowdy Holmsley came in fourth in the shot with 44'5" and David Tjerina was fifth with 44'½". Tjerina was also third in the discus with a throw of 124'5".

Hernandez placed fifth in the high jump with 5'8" and David Vargas and Mark Vallejo came in fifth and sixth in the long jump.

David Badillo got a fourth place in the pole vault with 11' flat. Lionel Munoz came in second in the 3200 meter run with a time of 11:08.78 and Paul Tambunga was fourth.

In winning the 400-meter relay, Borrego, Flores, Badillo and Payne broke the old record of 44.19 set in 1982 by Flores, L. Payne, Badillo and Willie Payne.

David Delgado came in second in the 800 meter dash with 2:03.86.

Hernandez got a first place in the 400 meter dash with 51.7. Delgado was second with 52.77 and Shannon Southern was third with 52.80. Vallejo got a first place in the 300 meter intermediate hurdles with 40.5, and Greg Fierro placed third with 41.83. Robert Flores came in second in the 200 meter dash with 22.99 and Willie Payne was sixth.

Gino Tambunga and Randy DeHoyos came in fifth and sixth in the 1600 meter run. The 1600 meter relay team of Badillo Delgado, Vallejo and Hernandez won with a sizzling 3:29.73.

As in past years, everybody helped with the track meet, and Coach Sewell expressed his appreciation for all the workers and help.

Mrs. Dowdy funeral here Mon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mina Dowdy, 82, were held Monday at 2 p.m. in Ozona First Baptist Church with Dr. Nelson Lanham, pastor, officiating. Burial followed in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Dowdy died at 2:35 a.m. Saturday, March 19, in St. Luke's Hospital in San Antonio. She had a fatal heart attack following surgery.

She was born December 28, 1900 in Hunt. She married Leon Dowdy, September 14, 1922, in Kerrville. He died in 1960. They moved to Ozona in 1940.

Mrs. Dowdy was a member of First Baptist Church, where she was active in church affairs until her death. She was a tireless volunteer worker and most active at the care center. Mrs. Dowdy quilted and crocheted, and most of the homes in Ozona have some of her handiwork.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Willa Joyce Thomas of Odessa; two sons, Richard Dowdy of Hobbs, N.M., and Martin Dowdy of Fort Worth; and three sisters, Mrs. Viola Hazlett of Kerrville, Mrs. Bertha Canterbury of Brenham, and Josephine Braun of Harlingen.

County Attorney Tom Cameron and District Attorney Bill Mason recently returned from San Antonio, where they attended a seminar on estates and wills relative to the new laws of taxation.

Crime of week is spotlighted

The spotlighted crime of the week is a burglary which occurred at Sonny's Drive-In Friday morning, March 11, between 1:15 and 5:55.

Someone entered the store by breaking out a rear window. The burglars then went to a knife cabinet located at the front of the store and took 31 knives from a display case along with some smaller items. The burglars then left the store by the rear door.

Anyone driving down the street during these hours and noticed anyone around the store, please call Crime Stoppers at 392-5000. It is not necessary to give a name, and a $100 reward will be given to the person whose information leads to the arrest and indictment of those responsible.

Has anyone offered to sell you a knife, or have you heard anyone else mention someone selling knives? If so, call Crime Stoppers at 392-5000. You do not have to give your name. You will be given a code and asked to call back in a month.

The Sheriff's Department was able to obtain a blood sample from the scene of the crime. Officials believe the sample belongs to one of the individuals responsible for the burglary. The sample is being analyzed by the Texas Department of Public Safety Laboratory in Austin. The name given by an anonymous caller could aid in the matching of the blood sample with the blood of the person responsible for the crime.

Ozona native's painting on greeting cards

A 1981 acrylic painting of the San Miguel Mission in Santa Fe, the nation's oldest church, by Fort Sumner Artist Betty Rosenberger, has been added to the new spring line of greeting cards by Sandstone Creations of Tempe, AZ.

Mrs. Rosenberger also has a collection of paintings of 40 parishes along the Rio Pecos on long-term loan to the College of Santa Fe's Fogelson Library Center. Sandstone Creations contacted Mrs. Rosenberger after seeing her collection and asked her to do a painting of the San Miguel Mission. A lithograph was made from the original painting, and Christian Brothers will sell the note cards in their gift shop. The original San Miguel painting will hang in the Mission.

Sandstone Creations, originated in Boulder, CO, 20 years ago. The company prides itself in using reproductions of noted Southwest artists. Although the paintings that Sandstone Creations use are regional in theme, the greeting card line is distributed nationwide.

Mrs. Rosenberger, the former Betty Grimmer, was born in Ozona, TX. When she was 10 years old her family moved to a farm in Iowa. She graduated from the University of Iowa in 1948 with a degree in Fine Arts. She then taught art in the Fort Sumner Municipal Schools for a few years. She and her husband, Duane, now raise and train thoroughbred Quarter Horses in the Valley just south of Fort Sumner.

Mrs. Rosenberger's paintings, many hanging in private collections, reflect the clear, natural light of her subjects, and her love for the country.

MURPHY'S TV LAW

By Edwin Feulner

I'm beginning to think we need an amendment to Murphy's Law. The fundamental principle is this: If something can go wrong, it will. So says Murphy.

Let me suggest an addendum: If the story is wrong, you probably saw it on TV.

Now that's a broad generalization, of course. But broad generalizations are the stuff that TV news is made of. And too often what emerges is not a clear picture of life and events as they are, but a clear picture of life and events as seen by people living in New York and Washington, whose salaries would be the talk of the town in Durham, N.C., Decatur, Ala., Bridgeport, Conn., or someplace else where people prefer pizza to quiche.

I was pushed onto my soapbox by a couple of recent magazine articles, one by political reporter Fred Barnes of The Baltimore Sun, appearing in the current issue of Policy Review, and one by freelance writer Randy Fitzgerald, appearing in a recent issue of Reader's Digest.

Barnes' article is aptly titled, "The Shock Horror Welfare Cut Show." Barnes shows in his article that all those massive welfare cuts we have seen reported nightly on the TV news — all the "furo and anguish" that has bombarded us each night in our living rooms — has been a bit overdone, at the very least. In fact, Barnes notes, most of the "cuts" weren't cuts at all, but were reductions from projected increases made in the past. "In program after program, the near-poor lost benefits, while the truly poor were fully protected, even against inflation," Barnes says. TV coverage of the cuts, however, "emphasized the exotic, the unrepresentative, and the emotional," he says.

Barnes maintains that no cut in social spending has been more vigorously covered than that in food stamps (which will lead us to the Fitzgerald article very shortly). And no cut has been less accurately portrayed, he says.

Spending for food stamps was indeed pared — from $11.4 billion in 1981 to $11.3 billion in 1982. "Hardly apocalyptic," Barnes argues.

"Television, however, made the cuts appear draconian," and often TV's tales of woe were wrong, he shows in his analysis.

More important, what television rarely showed was the side of the food stamp story explored by Fitzgerald in the Reader's Digest. The story Fitzgerald tells is one of a well-intentioned government program run amuck.

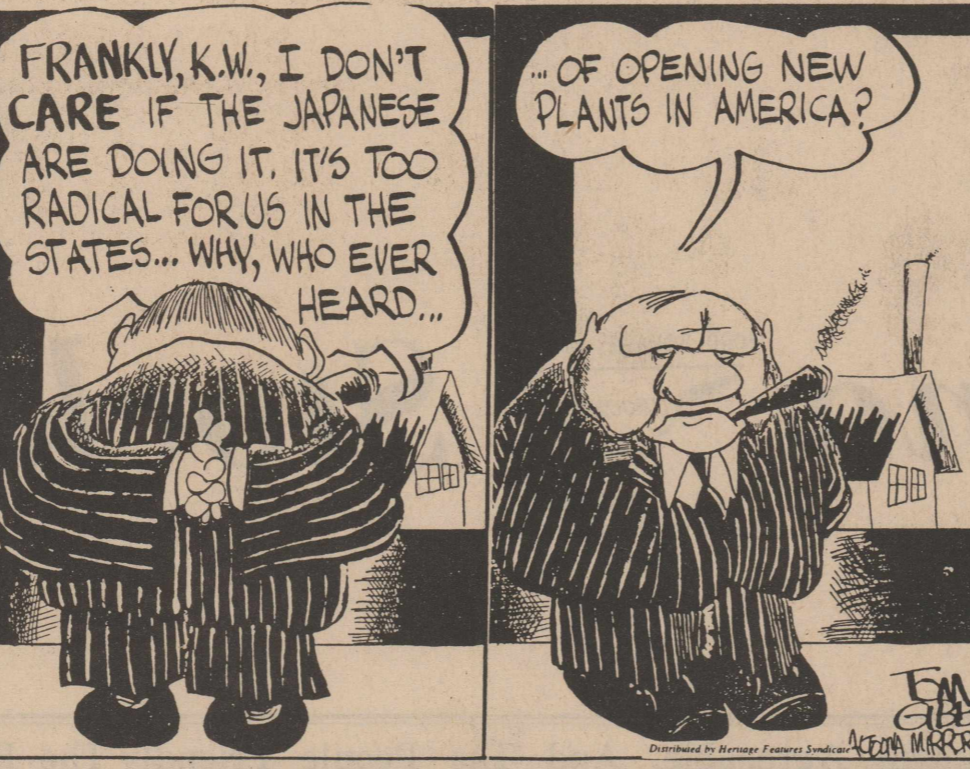

In 1964, Fitzgerald notes, approximately 367,000 Americans received food stamp assistance at a cost of $30.5 million. Today, the program has an $11.3-billion budget, with more than 22.5-million recipients. The program also is one of the most fraud-ridden and poorly run, he says, with perhaps $1.6 billion or more a year, by official estimate, lost as a result of fraud, administrative error, organized theft and even counterfeiting.

As Sen. William Armstrong (R-Co.) has noted: The abuses in the program "are not just a rip-off to taxpayers; they are a crime against the poor."

How badly managed is the food stamp monstrosity? To understand, we need only return to Barnes' analysis. Playing a key role in one of the TV reports Barnes criticizes is a woman identified as an assistant food stamp administrator in New York. Unfortunately, in explaining eligibility requirements, this food-stamp official "got it wrong." And, of course, the TV reporter either hadn't done enough homework to know that the woman was wrong, or didn't bother to correct the error.

Murphy had it only partly right. Which may be about as good as we can expect from TV news.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Within the length of a few minutes last week, the fates and ambitions of several Texas senators were made or unmade when the lawmakers drew lots for staggered election terms.

The Constitution requires that following each redistricting, senators will draw lots and 15 members will run in two years and 16 will run in four years.

In its own small way, the draw determines for many who will move up in the political world and who will not, depending upon the advantage gained or lost. Some senators, like Craig Washington of Houston, preferred to run in '84, a presidential election year, but most wanted to wait until '86, the next gubernatorial election year.

Foremost is the desire to get a "free shot" at some higher office, which means a lawmaker would not have to leave his present office in order to run higher.

Washington was, for the most part, in the minority because most senators were happy just to get two extra years of breathing time before hitting the campaign trail again. He was planning on trading to obtain a two-year term, which would free him up for a shot at a judgeship, but the Parliamentarian ruled trading was not allowed by the Constitution.

By the time the alphabetical draw reached his name, all the two-year terms had already been taken, to his political dismay.

All For Naught

Senators who probably won a reprieve by the draw included Glenn Kothmann of San Antonio, who drew four years and postponed the challenging plans of former San Antonio Rep. Tommy Adkisson; John Traeger of Seguin, whose district is being redrawn to enhance the chances of an Hispanic candidate; and Bill Sims of San Angelo, a Democrat who pulled a surprise victory from what was considered a Republican West Texas district.

Besides Washington, senators who probably lost an edge on the future include Lloyd Doggett of Austin, who will have to relinquish his seat if he follows through with his plans to challenge U.S. Sen. John Tower next year; Chet Edwards of Duncannonville, who could make a similar race against U.S. Rep. Phil Gramm; and Roy Blake of Nacogdoches, who angered his home Democrats last year by pulling for Republican Bill Clements.

The draw may be all for naught, if the Justice Department decides all senators must run again in two years because of negotiations to end a legal fight over boundaries in some new districts.

Appointments

Governor Mark White last week made history twice by appointing the first black as regent of East Texas State University and the first woman to the Texas Board of Corrections.

Herman Furlough, Jr. is a high school counselor and city councilman at Terrell.

Deralyn Davis of Fort Worth is vice chairman of the Texas Democratic Party and chairman of the Texas Coalition of Black Democrats.

Hunting, DWI

In the Legislature, the House passed the 60-day limit on voting and commenced floor votes, approving a bill removing a major loophole in hardship driver's licenses for 15-year-olds.

The Senate, following heated debate between Carl Parker of Port Arthur and Ted Lyon of Mesquite, passed the controversial Wildlife Conservation Act which gives a state agency control of wildlife management in all Texas counties.

The bill puts an end to the veto powers still resting with some 30 counties and is highly supported by sport hunters and fishermen groups.

The Senate also approved legislation designed to trigger early paroles if Texas prison population comes close to a court ordered limit. Non-violent offenders would be paroled if prison population approaches 95% capacity.

Unanimous approval went to expansion of the Veterans Land Program which includes a $500 million housing choice if voters approve an $800 million bond issue this fall.

The principal bill implementing DWI reform was also passed by the Senate. The bill increases penalties and prohibits deferred adjudication.

Odds And Ends

Texas Republican Party Chairman Chet Upham, who has caught flak from his party following the November defeats, said he will not resign and will serve out the rest of his term.

Upham was asked to resign by 37 members of the 64-member State Republican Executive Committee.

Upham backed Vice President George Bush in '80, and his supporters say the anti-Bush brethran want Upham out of the way if Reagan decides to step down.

Phil Gramm raised almost $1 million in 40 days and spent $750,000 winning last month's special congressional election in District 6. He outspent his closest rival, Rep. Dan Kubiak, by six-to-one, winning without a runoff.

you and the LAW
 PRESENTED BY THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Q: My daughter died two years ago leaving a child, my six year old grand-daughter. I haven't heard from the child or her father for over a year. What legal rights do I have and what steps should I take to be awarded visitation?

A: The Texas Family Code has several provisions affirming the rights of grandparents to visit a minor child in cases of divorce, loss of a child's parent, even of adoption.

I would first advise you to approach your son-in-law informally, by call or letter, asking for a specific visit. If you receive no reply, find the child's address so your attorney can begin a lawsuit under grandparent visitation statutes.

Q: Is there a law in Texas allowing a wife to file for separate maintenance, in a case of extreme mental cruelty and incompatibility? If not, what else can I do, short of divorce?

A: Texas does not have any provisions for enforcing separation and maintenance unless a divorce has been filed. Once the marriage is before the court, temporary orders can be entered for support, for use of the home, and for keeping the couple from interfering with each other. After the couple has been separated, the actual divorce can be postponed until final terms are reached or until the couple decides to reconcile.

Q: I live in a rural area not far from a major city. The city is now planning to annex an area that will include my property. Can they force me to pay for city sewers, garbage collection and other city services, even if I don't want them?

A: Yes, the city can force you to pay for city sewers, garbage collection, streets, and paving. Specifically for sewer and street improvements, the city will assess a landowner for the improved value of the land and the landowner may protest the assessment to the City Council. After an open hearing, the Council may lower the assessment. Other services, however, are not open to protest.

Send your questions to "You and the Law," State Bar of Texas, P.O. Box 12487, Austin, 78711. Answers may appear in columns in hypothetical terms; personal answers not possible.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

March 16, 1983

Dear Kitty:
 Dr. Brown and myself want to thank you for your interest in the outcome of the Commissioners Court meeting of Monday, March 14, 1983.

I do want to say that the apparent difference between the Carlisle Clinic Association and the Crockett County Hospital is not a real conflict. Over the past ten years, there have been no changes in the rules or bylaws of the governing board or the medical staff. This brings both groups into conflict with the current Texas Medical Practices Act; and in some cases, there appears to be conflict between Medicare and the Texas Medical Practices Act. These things must be settled, not only from a legal standpoint, which does require attorneys to represent all groups, but most importantly, rules and bylaws for both the hospital board and the medical staff need to be acceptable and effective to all groups combined.

The Carlisle Clinic Association has as of today 20 patients in the hospital. We need the hospital and the hospital needs us. We intend to see that the hospital does not close, not for the interest of the Carlisle Clinic Association, but also for any other doctor who may practice in this area. We do want it to be understood that the hospital is as important to us as to any other group in the county. We feel the hospital has done well; and we feel that with minor changes, it will continue to do well. As for the use of an attorney, I think this is explained above. The Texas Medical Practices Act needs to be reviewed by the doctors' attorneys, all doctors practicing at the hospital board and the county attorneys in order to have rules, regulations, and by-laws which conform to state laws, Medicare, and Medicaid but that are also acceptable to all persons. We feel that this is being accomplished at this time.

As stated above, the hospital is important to us, very important. It is important to all its patients, and it is important to the entire county. We have been fortunate to have the board, the board chairman, the judge, the county commissioners and the county attorney all working to help the hospital solve many of its problems. I do not believe there is any question in anyone's mind that the hospital will remain open. Certainly, everyone desires that, including Medicare. In the past, when the Crockett County Hospital has come in conflict with Medicare, we have had a great friend and supporter in both Representative Tom Loeffler and Senator Lloyd Bentson. So, not only are the people in Crockett County striving to keep the hospital open, but Crockett County Hospital has been cited as a representative rural hospital in Congressional speeches on the plights of small hospitals and the solutions of their problems. It is representative of small hospitals as a type of hospital in which it is essential to remain open as indicated in Representative Loeffler's Congressional Bill in reference to small hospitals and Medicare compliance and Senator Lloyd Bentson's similar Bill in Senate. So, it seems very unlikely that the hospital will suffer. For the reasons above, it is functioning near maximum capacity at this point.

Sincerely,
 Don L. Carlisle, M.D., and Anita L. Brown, M.D.

Myrtle Post Garden Club meets in Crider home

The Myrtle Post Garden Club met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Bob Crider. Mrs. John Hignight was co-hostess and created a right triangle arrangement of greenery and Easter eggs with accessories carrying out the Easter theme.

Opening the business meeting, Mrs. Hignight gave a brief review on gardening in small spaces. She also presented members with an April calendar sheet with planting dates marked for the month.

Mrs. T. R. Conner reported on the Arbor Day planting of the live oak tree at the Community Center.

Mrs. Ben Williams reminded members to be compiling their lists for the bud catalog.

Mrs. Jim Dudley suggested several pilgrimages for the club. They voted to take a tour of the Hill Country April 9, for viewing of the wild flowers.

Mrs. Lee Graves gave a report on the spring convention at Breckenridge, when she was installed District Director of District VIII Garden Clubs. She also listed the awards the club won for the year.

The program "Beauty in the Fruit of the Vine," was presented by Crockett County grape grower, Larry Williams. He gave an interesting and informative program on growing grapes in this area, explaining the types of grapes best suited for table use, making jams and jellies and for wine making.

Larry explained the propagation of plant from canes, planting methods, fertilization, pruning, training, disease and yield.

Following the business meeting a plant auction was held.

Other members present were Mrs. Phillip Smith, Mrs. Jack Brewer, Mrs. Hudson Mayes and one guest, Hudson Mayes.

Sorority pledges host a return to the '50s party

A return to the fifties was the theme Monday night as members of Alpha Alpha Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi were hosted by the pledges.

The party was hosted by pledges Billie Renfro, Stephanie Ruthardt, Ellen Lipsey, Tracy Preddy, Philda Morrison, Linda Hamar, Leslie Wilson and Linda Hubbard.

Members met at the Civic Center clad in regalia from the era of poodle skirts, bobby socks and penny loafers.

They enjoyed snacks and played Twister, Hool-A-Hoop, and all the old "slumber party" games as they listened to Elvis on the hi-fi.

Present were the above, as well as: Nesa Chandler, Jan Henderson, Lori Parker, Dena Porter, Debbie Glasscock, Linda Hubbard, Susie Deaton, Jeannine Perry, Vickie Stokes, Chris Weant and Melody Burks.

The next meeting is the Ritual of Jewels set for March 28 at 6:30 p.m. in the home of Chris Weant. Members are urged to attend.

4-H parents and leaders to meet

County 4-H Parents-Leaders Association will meet Tuesday night, March 29, at the High School Library. The awards committee for the County 4-H Livestock Show will meet at 7:00 p.m. Following this the Parent-Leaders Association will meet about 7:30.

Bobby Mayfield was recently elected Chairman of the District 6 Leaders Association and delegate to the State Volunteer Leaders Association of Texas. He will give a report on the district and state meetings. Other association business will be discussed.

Following the association meeting the livestock leaders need to decide on a livestock judge for 1984 and recommendations of the 4-H Livestock Show Awards Committee.

The final item on the agenda for the night will be planning the County 4-H Horse Program and the horse judging activities.

All 4-H parents, leaders and interested people are welcome to come to these meetings on Tuesday March 29, to support the county 4-H program.

Tips For Gardeners

From The Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

It seems we have been real lucky here in Ozona to miss a freeze up to now. With every fruit tree and others in bloom so beautifully we hope for a mild weather continuation. With a good soaking rain over our area. The red-buds have especially been so full of colorful blooms there should be one in every yard in our city.

All established lawn grasses should be cut closely as possible now and all debris and grass clippings removed. Make an application of pre-emergence weed killer if crab grass or weeds have been a problem in your lawn. Check with a garden supply dealer or county agent to be sure you purchase the correct chemical for your particular type of grass. After mowing, apply a complete fertilizer at the rate of 20 lbs. per 1,000 sq. feet of lawn area. Water well.

Finish thinning and pruning evergreens this month, and soon the cuts will be concealed by new foliage. This unusually warm weather has caused shrubs, trees and other plants to develop buds much earlier than usual. When the peony buds reach six inches in height, give them fertilizer if you haven't already done so. Spread around each plant and water well, or use liquid fertilizer. For large specimens for flower show exhibits, disbud your peonies by removing all side buds as they appear on the stem, leaving only one at the top that appears to be best.

Plants that are not to be re-potted will benefit from top dressing with fresh, rich soil after as much as possible of the old surface soil has been removed without doing too much damage to roots.

Water new roses regularly and deep. If you planted bareroot roses, they may be a little slower showing leaf growth than established plants. Keep the soil moist around the roots if rainfall is still scant. If some canes or stems die, cut each back to a point just above a healthy bud growing on the outside of the stem. Moistened peat moss will help to prevent stems from drying out.

Smaller tax forms indicated

A Texas economist says income tax forms for most Americans should be no larger than a postcard and easy enough to fill out without the help of a tax accountant or attorney.

"Our income tax system is an absurdity, better yet, a monstrosity," says Dr. M. L. Greenhut, who holds the rank of Alumni Distinguished Professor of Economics at Texas A&M University. "The system remains a disgrace and is in dire need of simplification and reform," he said.

Greenhut subscribes to a flatrate tax proposal that would tax individual incomes at a single rate. Indications are a flat rate as low as 19 percent of earned income without any deductions could generate the same amount of income taxes collected today, he said.

Under Greenhut's proposal, deductions would be allowed only for interest paid on mortgages, undue medical expenses and capital losses. He would eliminate deductions for consumer installment interest, union dues, moving and educational expenses.

Mrs. Adams is bridge hostess

Mrs. Clay Adams was hostess for bridge at the Country Club Thursday.

High score went to Mrs. Beecher Montgomery, and second high to Mrs. Sherman Taylor. Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Joe Couch tied for the club bingo and Mrs. Gene Williams won the Charlotte Phillips bingo.

Others playing were Mrs. John Childress, Mrs. Joe Friend, Mrs. Brock Jones, Mrs. Arthur Kyle, Mrs. J. J. Marley, Mrs. Buddy Phillips, Mrs. Evert White, Mrs. Charles Williams, Mrs. Byron Williams, Mrs. Jack Williams and Mrs. Gene Lilly.

THE CLOCK IS TICKING

"If I just had more time to do things," exclaimed a busy housewife. We all know this feeling of frustration that comes from not finding enough hours in a day. Time to kill is a luxurious sounding phrase to human ears.

Time, however, is one commodity that cannot be bought. Try as we will, we cannot crowd more than 24 hours into one day. Whether it's too much time on our hands or too little, we need a constant awareness of the importance of how we spend our time.

Someone remarked that after a hundred years, all of us would be gone. This thought makes current problems look awfully small. Lives that seek a balance of work, play and worship have given evidence of being happier lives.

Let God speak to your heart and bring new balance into your life. Attend the church or synagogue of your choice this week.

Consumer food votes vital to farmers

Every day, Americans cast votes in U.S. food stores. Consumers busily accept or reject foods as farmers grow raw products, says Billy Reagor, county Extension agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Farmers are becoming more interested in the outcome of consumer voting, since the consumer has an important voice in the future of a product," Reagor says.

When one farmer fed his own and one other family years ago, the farmers tallied the consumer votes. There was quick response if the butter was rancid, the milk had turned sour, or the sweet corn was not sweet. These responses came from the cash-paying customer as well as members of the farmer's family. At that time, the farmer had a personal involvement in how consumers voted.

Today, one farmer produc-

Consumers have big stake in food & fiber

Many American consumers get no closer to agriculture than the supermarket yet they still have a real stake in keeping the U.S. a leader in agriculture, contends Billy Reagor, agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The agent says farm and urban people depend on each other for products and services that are essential to modern business and living. One group can't live without the other. Together they make the best food and fiber team in the world.

The agent believes that a basic ingredient for the economic, political and social success of a country is a highly productive agricultural base, which gives a nation the capacity to feed its own people and to export for economic gain as well as humanitarian purposes.

"Food in this country is still an incredible bargain, with Americans spending about 17 percent of after-tax income for food and beverages.

Agriculture is this nation's leading employer, exporter, es enough food to feed 78 others, (50 at home, 28 abroad), the agent says.

The consumer vote is getting more attention from farmers than previously, because growers are more dependent on markets with less government assistance, explains the agent.

The consumer vote counting goes on continuously, with someone keeping records and counting the vote. Someone is getting the rewards for responding to the vote.

"Who is this someone? He is the supplier of the products available in the retail stores or restaurants. He is a processor or marketer. Because these people are sensitive to how consumers vote, some farmers feel they need not be concerned," Reagor says.

Consumers have several choices--either frozen, dehydrated, canned or combined with other foods. Consumers are increasingly concerned with taste and convenience than price. This includes more eating out.

These changes are responses to consumer votes and afford opportunities for farmers just as for the marketers. Farmers can become the innovators of new convenience foods. Even when they are not the innovators, efforts to put more convenience foods on the market by others also puts new demands on the farmer.

These demands include the need to produce new varieties, new flavors, new colors, greater uniformity, and a lot of other product features that get the vote of modern consumers," the agent says.

No matter how one views it, the consumer vote certainly counts, concludes the agent.

PBPA ENERGY REPORT

The 13 countries that make up OPEC have agreed to price and production figures for their oil. The agreement calls for the benchmark or base price to be 29 dollars a barrel. All countries have accepted production quotas, except Saudi Arabia. Sheik Yamani of that country said Saudi Arabia will be the swing producer and will raise or decrease production according to demand. The total OPEC production will be 17.5 million barrels a day.

The big question now is will all the OPEC countries stick to the plan?

In other news, the Texas Railroad Commission held its annual "State of the Industry" meeting in Midland on March 17th. Commission Chairman Mack Wallace called for repeal of the Natural Gas Policy Act and complete and total decontrol of natural gas as the way out of the current gas dilemma. Wallace added that he believes decontrol would lower natural gas prices. Wallace also said American companies should limit their foreign oil imports, bring some of their rigs home and expand their exploration and production base in the United States.

In the Permian Basin our rig count for this week is 242, an increase of 8 above last weeks 234.

Locker room notes ----

By-Ross A. Alexander

Vanessa Miller struggled with tears as she walked away from her third scratch in her long jump event. What was wrong, she wondered. This was the Ozona Relays... if she ever wanted to do well it was here. She was so hurt and disappointed. So what did she do? She went flying into the 200 meter prelims and ran the fastest time of anyone in the district this season, a blistering 27.62. Ozona's future is so bright with this marvelous athlete around for three more years.

Jana Lilly, beat all her District competition in the triple jump posting a 30'11" distance. She has great leadership qualities and her Coach, Pete Maldonado credits Jana with helping the team accomplish so very much. "Jana is definitely the leader of the girl's varsity this season," Coach Maldonado said flatly. "She gets a lot of respect from her teammates and her opponents. She is certainly a central personality on our team."

No one topped Sherri in the high jump. She has cleared 5'2" in an earlier meet this year and thus far, no girl in our district has beat it. I have said so many times that this girl is one of the best I've observed in the area. I think you can ask Sonora's speedy sprint star Ms. French and she'll tell you the same, after Sherri burned French and the rest of the field in the hurdles.

Buckner, Lilly, Maldonado and of course, Vanessa have teamed in the 800 meter relay event to post the fastest time in the district...1:53. That is simply incredible performance. I had to marvel at the magnificent Ms. Munoz. Ida posted a 5:56 in the 1600, and a very fine time of 12:30.01 in the 3200 meters. If you could see Ida in action, you'd marvel too. Little Donna posted a strong 2:35.03 in the 800 to place third. Keep in mind that this kid, like the incredible Vanessa, is only a freshman. Are we loaded with talent in this town?

Harvey Huereca destroyed the competition with a toss of over 148 feet in the discus. His next first place of the evening came when he heaved the shot some 48 feet into a stiff breeze. Wonder how far he'd have tossed the iron ball had there been a calmer wind situation?

I predict that Robert Flores will break Larry Payne's record in the 200 very soon. Marla and I have had a talk and she promised to help. It must be working, Marla, judging from the Bullet's time in the 100 yd. dash. Keep up the good work!

The eagerly awaited showdown between Mark and Nibblett came off very dramatically, with Nibblett aggravating Vallejo enough to cause the mild mannered Lion speedster to set a new mark in the 110 hurdles. Nibblett however simply out-classed the rest of the field in the high jump, posting a new record of 6'4" breaking the old mark of 6'3" which had stood since '71. David Baddillo walked with me for some distance after the relay squad had re-written the record in the 400 meters.

"You know, I was on the team that set the other mark last year. It was Felix, Larry Payne, Willie and me. This year, Carlos, and Robert are on it and there's no telling how fast this year's times might get." The Lion star smiled...he knew they were smoking...and good Lord willing, they will keep right on doing it.

The Ussery kid from Eldorado irritated Marcello with his rather strident and provocative radio promos last week. So the soft spoken Marcello simply set a new record time for the 800, simply running away from the pack in the process. I wonder how fast Marcello really is? With no one to push him around here, I'm afraid we may never know.

The Ozona High School faculty will take on the Big Lake faculty in a benefit basketball game to be played Monday evening at 6:00 o'clock in the high school gym.

Girl Scouts to hold fund raiser

Olga Borrego, 21 points, first in the 1200, second in the 600, third in the 1200 relay, sixth in the triple jump. Lacy Miller, first in the 600, sixth in the 300, third in the 1200 relay; Shona Cole, second in the 100 meter hurdles, sixth in 400 relay, sixth in the 800 relay; Lisa Mendez, 3 points, third in the 1200 relay; Lydia Pena, two points, sixth in the 400 relay, sixth in the 1200 run; Marcha Enriquez, 1 point, sixth in the 400 relay, sixth in the 800 relay; Melissa Vallejo, 1 point, sixth in the 400 relay, sixth in the 800 relay.

Other team members are Randi Thompson, Larisa Schoenhals, Julie Cantu, Leticia Longoria, Judy Flores, Angel Henderson, Lydia Rivera, Griselda Hernandez, Mimi Villarreal, Elizabeth Soto, Eileen Moran, and Opie DeHoyos. Managers this year are Staci Winkley and Katy Cameron.

The Cubettes have one more track meet before district. Next Saturday, March 26, the Cubettes will travel to Sonora to compete in the Colt Relays.

Crockett County Care Center News

BY ANN McARTNEY
DIRECTOR OF ACTIVITIES & SOCIAL CARE

Tuesday morning began, as usual, with bingo at ten o'clock. It was really Pearl Morris' week! She won the El Chato dinner for two on Tuesday plus enough games to make her the overall winner on Friday when she won a gift certificate from Watson's Department Store.

Second place winner of Friday was Paul Cavin. Seventeen residents played on Tuesday and eighteen played on Friday. Volunteers included Dorothy Doll and Alice Ross.

Tuesday afternoon Dorothy Doll assisted residents in the making of eight Egghead family figures. These Easter decorations were then placed on the piano.

Wednesday morning ceramics were led by Marie Pierson. Several more Easter decorations were made. Wednesday afternoon residents were treated to Easter poems and stories in the living room.

Thursday was Minnie Karr's birthday and she received her cake from Polly Mayes and C.O. Spencer Welding Services and her corsage from the Flower Basket. She also enjoyed dinner at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Karr.

Doris Karr also gave us some ceramic paints. Thanks goes to her and to Liz Mary Pipes for this donation.

Thursday morning beauty shop was manned by Arlene Clayton and Grace Dorsey. Thursday afternoon we had no volunteers for Bible study but we carried on with the program, reviewing the Easter story and singing religious songs. This was followed by Spanish Hour of Praise which included a Catholic mass conducted by Rev. Jim Chaumont and held in the Day Room. Other volunteers included Maria Vitela, Felipa Munoz, Ofilia Enriquez, Juanita Rebelez, Maria Torres, Lillie Cervantez, Olivia Sanchez, Francis S. Borrego, Bentriz Vargas and Lupe Maskill.

Thursday was St. Patrick's Day and in carrying out the theme Frances Borrego and Maude Pettit made all residents and staff members green crocheted shamrocks. Many thanks to both of you for sharing this talent!

Thursday night the Knox Band gave residents a very enjoyable program. Lillie Fierro and Mary Ruiz, daughter and granddaughter of Tomasa Ramos and both from Los Angeles, California, came and helped lead some dancing with our residents. Several of our residents really had a good time on the dance floor. Moriana Perez did a dance in her wheelchair even. Bertha Miller and Maggie Crawford both took a turn singing over the microphone. Many thanks goes to Jamie Knox, Don and J. D. Kilgore for furnishing this entertaining evening.

Friday, in addition to bingo, was once again decorating time with St. Patrick's over and Easter on the way.

Sunday services were conducted this week by the First Baptist Church of Ozona. Brother Lanham brought his guitar. Residents report an enjoyable song-service was given. Monday morning dominos were played by Paul Cavin, Maude Pettit, and volunteer Betty Lou Winslow from Arlington, Virginia, and daughter of Winnie Harvey.

We want to welcome Winnie Harvey to our home. She has been a friend and a volunteer for years. Now we are happy to be of service to her.

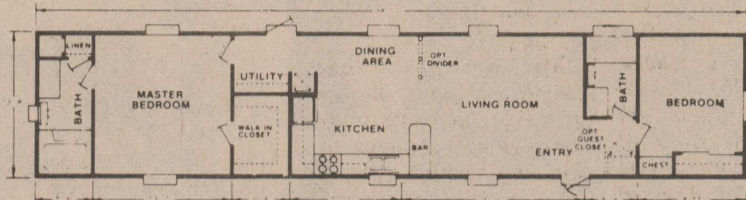

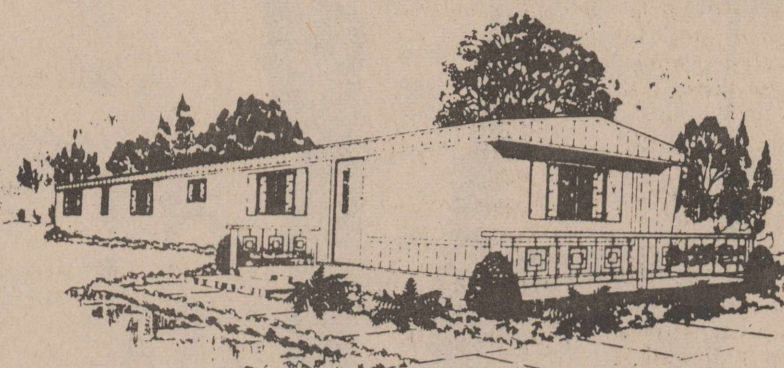

We are saddened by the loss of another friend this week. Mina Dowdy has provided the home with pillows, lap throws, and other special treats for years. She will be missed. Anna Bell Patrick gave us an Avon donation in memory of Mina. Judy Reagar has also recently given an Avon donation, and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Stewart donated some magazines. Thanks goes to all.

Local boy official aide at San Angelo pageant

Gary Davis, Ozona High School sophomore, spent a memorable day in San Angelo Saturday as an official aide to the Director's of Judge's at the Miss San Angelo Scholarship Pageant, a preliminary contest to the Miss America Scholarship Pageant.

Gary assisted Ms. Shirley Jean Keeling, the Director of Judges for the pageant, as interview timer, escort, host to the 1982 Miss Texas, and luncheon guest of the contestants.

Gary assisted with the transportation of Miss Texas, Gloria Gilbert, throughout the day Saturday as she made personal appearances at Sunset Mall and at the final session of the Miss San Angelo Scholarship Pageant. He also accompanied Miss Gilbert's party to a Saturday night reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Johnson and to her departure from Mathis Field on Sunday morning.

D. A. Mason reports on Texas weapons laws

The following article is a public service by the Ozona Stockman through the cooperation of Bill Mason, District Attorney and your local law enforcement authorities. Its purpose is to make you aware of a prosecutor's role, of your responsibility as a resident of Crockett County and how we can work together to alleviate some of society's problems. The following article is the first in a series of three articles which deal with the possession and carrying of weapons in Texas.

Since the law on the subject of ownership, possession and carrying of weapons in Texas is complicated, it is understandable that there is considerable confusion in this area. The objective of this series of articles is to help create a better understanding of where the lines are drawn, so as to assist the law-abiding citizen in staying within the law.

There are certain weapons whose possession and ownership are outlined altogether in Texas. According to the Texas Penal Code, the following weapons are considered illegal:

Bombs, incendiary devices, rockets, etc.,

Military equipment such as grenades, bazookas, artillery pieces, and mortars.

Machine guns, i.e. guns capable of shooting more than two shots without manual reloading, by a single function of the trigger.

Shortbarrel firearms, i.e. rifles with a barrel length of less than 16 inches, shotguns with barrels less than 18 inches long, and any sawed-off shotgun or rifle with an overall length of less than 26 inches.

Silencers for both handguns and longarms. Switchblades knives, which includes spring knives as well as knives that can be slung open.

Knuckles, i.e. finger rings or guards made of a hard substance and designed for the purpose of causing serious bodily injury or death. This specifically includes brass knuckles.

The weapons listed above are classified under Texas law as "prohibited weapons" and their possession in one's home or carried on one's person is a criminal offense. It should be noted, however, that Federal law may, in some instances, permit the ownership and possession of certain weapons which are otherwise prohibited. In order to comply with Federal laws on the subject, it is necessary to obtain a license from the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms of the U.S. Treasury Department. Licenses for such purposes are expensive and their possession is subject to very restrictive Federal regulation.

The next article in this series will discuss the unlawful carrying of weapons.

This article, which is provided by Bill Mason, your local District Attorney and Tom Cameron, your County Attorney.

Extension office news

Allergic illnesses affect an estimated thirty-one million people in the United States. Allergy victims are often prevented from leading normal lives. Many days of work are missed due to allergy-related illnesses.

The most common allergic diseases include eczema (allergic dermatitis), poison ivy (contact dermatitis), hay fever, asthma, hives (urticaria), and digestive disturbances.

Allergic diseases are a major cause of illness among children. Allergy symptoms usually appear during the first fifteen years of life.

Many parents believe their children will outgrow allergies, and therefore do not treat them. But allergies can become more severe without specific treatment, and should be identified early and treated adequately.

The physician makes a careful review of the patient's life for clues to the causes of the allergy. The medical procedure may include:

A complete medical and environmental history to detect the allergens involved.

A physical examination with appropriate laboratory tests.

Specific allergy tests to discover the substances to which the patient reacts.

Desensitizing treatments, such as injections, to gradually build up immunity.

A general care plan involving advice on living, supervision of the diet, drugs for temporary relief of symptoms, and other recommendations according to the patient's needs.

Certain treatments will relieve the symptoms but will not cure the allergy. Antihistamines provide relief from mild allergies, especially hay fever.

Severe allergies, such as asthma, usually require a more potent drug treatment. Examples of these drugs include the corticosteroid hormones, epinephrine for treating asthma, and aminophyllin for severe asthma.

Once they are determined, allergy causing substances should be avoided whenever possible. There may be times when allergens can not be avoided. Then the patient must acknowledge the limitations that allergies cause, and learn to live with them.

Allergy victims can expect to achieve favorable results by following their physicians advice, understanding their own case, being aware of their sensitivities, avoiding substances that cause trouble, regulating medication, and knowing when to seek help from their physician.

Mobile seafood lab launched

A two-ton mobile seafood quality lab has been launched by Texas A&M University to solve short-term problems for seafood processors and outlets that can't justify or support a full-time lab of their own.

"This unit can pull up, plug in and leave seafood processors with microbiological information and processing specifications after two or three days," said Ranzell Nickelson, a seafood technology specialist.

Mounted on a truck, the facility is equipped with microscopes, incubators, temperature records and other analytical tools.

The unit is supported by Texas A&M's Sea Grant College Program and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. It's services are free and can be scheduled by contacting Nickelson through Texas A&M's Marine Advisory Service, a part of Sea Grant.

As part of the Marine Advisory Services program, the mobile lab is available for workshops, demonstrations and for marine-related research along the coast.

Enjoy better health and reduced health care cost

Americans are being encouraged to adopt healthier lifestyles and thereby enjoy better health and reduce health care costs.

A massive, multi-media campaign, called "Stay Alive," was recently launched by Richard S. Schweiker, then secretary, Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). "Stay Alive!" is part of a broad-based health promotion effort which includes prevention information and activities in a variety of HHS programs, including Medicare and Head Start, plus state, local and private sector involvement.

Research tells us that by observing a few simple health habits...by not smoking, by using alcohol only in moderation, by eating three regular meals, by maintaining proper weight and getting enough sleep and regular exercise...a 45-year-old man can expect to live about 11 years longer than the man who does not follow these habits. A 45-year-old woman can expect to live about seven years longer than one who does not follow these habits. A 45-year-old woman can expect to live about seven years longer than one who does not make these choices.

There's a growing realization among Americans that we as individuals really can influence how long and healthy our lives are. HHS wants to mobilize the public and private sectors to help make preventive health care...wellness...the foundation of health policy in coming years.

The U.S. Public Health Service recently released its report, "Health, United States, 1982," which showed continued decreases in death rates for such diseases as cancer, heart disease and stroke. It showed that Americans continue to enjoy improved health...including higher life expectancy at birth, continued gains in immunization, and advances in prenatal care with lower infant mortality rates, as well as advances in fighting cancer and heart disease.

A significant part of the credit for better health goes to increased health promotion and disease prevention efforts.

The facts do indeed show that American medical science is continuing its extraordinary progress in treating people after they get sick.

Couches attend C.R. meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Couch attended the annual Community Relations Meeting of the Permian Basin Section of the Petroleum Engineers of Midland, Texas. The event was held at the Ranchland Hills Country Club, on Tuesday evening, March 15.

The Community Relations Meeting is held to promote understanding and communications between the petroleum industry and people living in communities in which the petroleum industry operates. Elected officials, community leaders and the news media from the Permian Basin are invited to attend the event of social hour, dinner, and program.

Mr. Michael T. Halbouty, earth scientist, engineer, and member of President Reagan's Energy Policy Advisory Task Force was the guest speaker of the evening, with his presentation on "Energy and Our Freedoms." Mr. Halbouty emphasized the fact that great civilizations have always been destroyed from within, not from without—that with liberty comes abundance; from abundance comes apathy; from apathy comes dependence; and dependence develops into bondage. He stated that he felt we were truly in a state of apathy in the United States, and becoming more and more dependent on our government to support us—which will surely lead to bondage if we cannot break the pattern.

Mr. and Mrs. Couch were invited to attend this meeting of Petroleum Engineers on behalf of Mr. Couch's affiliation with the Crockett County Consolidated Common School District in the capacity of School Board President. The Couches were met by Mr. and Mrs. David Boes, who acted as their personal hosts for the evening. Mr. Boes is a Petroleum Engineer for Aztec Gas Inc. of Midland.

Myrtle Post Garden Club gets awards

The Myrtle Post Garden Club received the following awards for work done in the previous year: Litter Control, first place; Scrapbook, first place; Yearbook, first place; Flower Show Schedule, second place; President's Report, first place; Awards of Appreciation for contributing to Presidents' Book, co-hosting the District VIII Workshop, and co-hosting the District VIII Fall Convention. Also reviewed was the Horticulture Citation with 3,134 points, the most points accumulated by any club in the District. Clubs compete with other clubs of the same rating, number in club membership, and city population.

By emphasizing wellness as much as we have traditionally emphasized treating sickness, we'll not only offer Americans longer, healthier lives but also ease rising health care costs, which reached $287 billion in 1981. The health promotion initiative marks the first time the Department of Health and Human Services has placed so much emphasis on a coordinated wellness campaign.

One important part of the effort is to correct common myths about wellness, such as the mistaken idea that it is too late to improve one's health after a certain age.

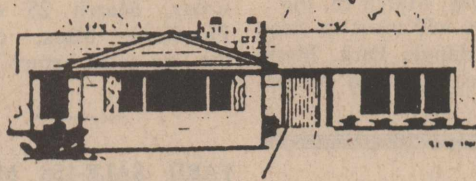

Among the numerous key elements of the plan are: a strong effort to reduce the 10,000 yearly highway deaths of teenagers and young adults, the result of alcohol abuse; coordination and encouragement of new health promotion activities by voluntary and professional groups at the state and local levels; improvement of nutrition, dental health, and medical screening for children in Head Start programs; and a series of "Eat Well, Be Well" television programs.

Glaucoma is caused by a buildup of pressure in the chambers of the eye and primarily affects persons over age 40. People can develop the ailment as young as age 20, said Dr. George C. Y. Chiou, head of medical pharmacology. Untreated, the pressure deadens the optic nerve and causes blindness.

Timolol inhibits formation of aqueous humor, a transparent liquid contained in the chambers of the eye, and reduces intraocular pressure, said Chiou. But large scale clinical studies have revealed that L-timolol eye drops can cause cardiovascular disturbances in patients with a history of asthma or bronchitis.
