The beginning of school usually indicates the summer has gone. This is not necessarily so here in Ozona, where the mercury has climbed above the 100-degree mark all this week.

Speaking of school, there are going to be several changes this year, thanks to the newly passed School Reform Bill. Crockett County schools stand to lose around $800,000 in revenues and implementation of the new law is going to cost the district more. So higher taxes are a necessity and the school board has notified property owners by way of a public notice in this week's edition of the Stockman that their taxes are going up. We all hope this makes for smarter students, but have some serious doubts.

Speaking of taxes, we got our new state sales tax tables this week. They go into effect October 2. The 4 1/8c tax on the dollar is going to be hard to keep up with. Incidentally, single copy newspapers and subscriptions will come under the tax. In order to avoid it be sure to get your subscription renewed before that date.

YOU'D NEVER RECOGNIZE GRANDMA

Where did the grandma of yesterday go.
The grandma who took all the kids to the show,
Who stopped by to chat, and before we could ask it
Had tackled the laundry that spilled from the basket,
Who offered to mend and to make the girls' dresses,
And pitched in to help clean up toddler-made messes,
Who came on the run when the kids needed sitting,
And brought along storybooks, cookies and knitting?
Today's grandma knows how to run a computer,
She watches the market and buys stocks that suit her,
She dons a pink smock for the hospital lobby,
Has taken up skydiving, just for a hobby,
She's gone back to college to get a degree,
And zips around town in her bright-yellow Z.

Grandma's still here, and there's no one to match her,
But call before eight, or you simply won't catch her!

Courthouse to be subject for artist

Hugh Riker, artist in residence at Fort Concho in San Angelo, is in the process of doing a print of the Crockett County Courthouse. Riker's historical courthouses of Texas prints are available on heavy quality paper ready for framing. All prints are available in limited editions, signed and numbered.

Riker was born in Michigan and grew up in Flint where he attended the Flint Institution of Arts during his public school days. He attended the Layton School of Arts in Wisconsin, School of Practical Arts in Boston, and the Chimmard School of Design in Los Angeles.

After a career in advertising, he launched his art career with a one-man exhibit at the U.S. Embassy in Mexico City in 1961.

Friends of J. P. Pogue honored him with a reception Friday at L-B Motor Co. on the occasion of his 47th year as Ozona's top car salesman. Several former Ozona car dealers were on

Arts & Crafts Guild membership drive

Crockett County Arts & Crafts Guild held its first annual membership drive meeting Thursday, August 16, at the Civic Center auditorium. Many of the Guild charter members were there to welcome visitors and new members. A great variety of talent was displayed through arts and crafts exhibits ranging from paintings and photography to quilting and woodwork. Refreshments were served. The membership drive was well attended by members and visitors alike. Guild officers expressed their appreciation to everyone who helped make this event a success.

The Guild currently has 43 active members, 14 honorary members and 3 associate members. Anyone interested in arts and crafts who lives or works within Crockett County is eligible for membership. Teenagers and senior citizens are especially encouraged to participate.

Plans are being implemented for the Guild's winter arts & crafts show for 1984. Membership is not required for participation. In addition to this show, classes and demonstrations are currently being scheduled in a wide variety of activities. The first project meeting is scheduled for Saturday, August 25 at the Chamber of Commerce. Hal Harris will be demonstrating plaster sculpture. There will also be "free-time" for members to work on individual projects in their own medium while sharing ideas and enjoying the companionship of other artists and craftspersons.

Anyone interested in joining the Crockett County Arts & Crafts Guild or participating in the winter show can obtain more information by calling or writing Billy Kiser at 392-3638, Box 1021, Ozona or Patsy Hester, 104 Avenue K, Box 3177, Ozona.

Lions to hold first scrimmage Friday

The Ozona Lions of 1984 kick off the season with a scrimmage with Wall. The contest will be at 6:00 p.m. Friday at the Lion's Stadium. The scrimmage will be a controlled type. There will be no kicking game. The J.V. teams will compete prior to the Varsity competition.

At the scrimmage the Lions Booster Club will have a booth where those wishing to may join. Following the scrimmage the Wall team will be treated to hamburgers prepared by the boosters. The local teams-because of UIL rules-will have to purchase their hamburgers for $1.00. The burgers will be available at the same price to parents and the general public.

Coach Green has been very pleased with the attitudes and enthusiasm of the Lions. He feels that they will do much better than most people are predicting. Green said that the members have increased from fifty-two to fifty-nine since school has started and he is hoping to increase them even more.

There will be a scrimmage at Lion Field on Thursday evening also. Sanderson and Irion Co. will meet here at 6:30 p.m.

Annual Girl Scout Roundup is Monday

The annual Girl Scout roundup will be held Monday, August 27, at 7:00 p.m. at the Ozona Civic Center. All girls who wish to be a Girl Scout may register for the entire year for $3. Interested girls are urged to attend and join in the Roundup to find how to get involved in meetings, camping, earning badges and making new friends. Girls attending must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Girls are more than welcome to register at the Roundup. You are never too old to be a Girl Scout. Anyone who cannot attend the Roundup but are interested in joining Girl Scouts, please call Terry Adams at 392-3028 after 5 p.m.

Hearing set for sewer plant

The construction of a new sewer plant for Ozona seems to be slightly closer to becoming a reality than it has been in the past. The application for the permit has been filed with the Texas Department of Water Resources and the site for the plant has been secured. However, a protest has been filed by an absentee land owner below the site, and a hearing to settle the matter has been set for 10 a.m. August 30.

A Texas Water Commission hearing on the application was recessed March 26, 1984, in order that the Water District board and the protestant could negotiate the differences, but that has failed to come about and the new hearing date has been set.

Efforts to move the present plant and build a new, more efficient plant, began in 1974, and have been going on since that time. Several locations have been considered through the years, but negotiations failed at the last minute. In August of 1983, the board of directors of the Water District directed the engineer and attorney for the board to select a site on the Seay property 2 1/2 miles south of Ozona, and proceed with the permit application.

Negotiations with the Seay family have been completed and the site secured. The new plant has been designed according to State specifications and the permit applied for. The only hold-up is the protest by members of the Helbing family, who own land to the south of the Seay property. The objection is the treated water running down the draw on their property.

Water Superintendent Dee Keilers and members of the Water District Board will be in Austin, August 30-31, for the hearing. As soon as the permit is secured, bids will be advertised for construction of the plant. Construction should be underway for from 3 to 5 months before the plant is operational, according to Keilers.

Lion booster club to kick off the season

The Lions Booster Club will have a kick off membership drive, Friday, August 24, when the Ozona Lions scrimmage with the Wall Hawks. The game will start about 6:00 p.m. and be over around 8:00. We will have hamburgers for all athletes and fans who wish to join them. This will be a great time to get acquainted with the boys and coaching staff. Hamburgers will sell for $1.00 each and membership cards will sell for $5.00 per family and $10.00 per business. All fans purchasing a membership card will be in a drawing for a "Texas" size pecan pie donated by one of the coaches wives.

The Lions Booster Club is for all sports played by boys and girls in both Junior High and Senior High School. We have a brand new year with some brand new kids, coaches and fans, so lets all come out and participate to make this the best year yet for the Ozona Lions.

Board asks name for remodeled building

The members of the Ozona Board of Trustees, in their monthly meeting on August 16, have voted to request the Crockett County Historical Society officially name the old Ozona Junior High building that is currently being renovated by Stein Construction Company of Fredricksburg. The building is the first "permanent" school building in Ozona and was constructed in 1910. It has remained vacant since 1979.

The Board accepted the resignation of Carol Sessom, physical education instructor in Ozona Intermediate School, and approved the employment of Martha Sims for that position. Approval was also given for the following personnel: James Cox, high school special education; Alicia Leal, district E.S.L. programs; Roylan Sullivan, special education aide in Ozona Middle School; and Margaret Porras, part-time special education aide in Ozona Primary School.

Board approval was also given for the addition of Elizabeth Clark and Gloria Renal to the 1984-1985 substitute teacher list, and the members voted their approval for the employment of Tony Fierro and Jesse Fierro as school bus drivers. Rudy Zapata was also hired for the school maintenance department.

The Board of Trustees voted to accept the bid of Deaton Spraying for spraying school trees, and they accepted the bid by Gandy's Dairies of San Angelo on dairy products for the 1984-1985 school year. The Baggett Agency was awarded the contract for insurance on school-owned buildings.

The meeting was adjourned after reports were given by Superintendent Garland Davis on paving needs at the school bus maintenance facility and Ozona Intermediate School, progress on the Ozona Junior High Renovation Project, and school policies in regard to student absences for extracurricular or other activities.

Scholarship recipient

A scholarship of $500.00 is being presented to Peggy Skains, a May graduate of Ozona High School. The scholarship comes from District VIII of Texas Garden Clubs, Inc., and is given in even numbered years to encourage the study of Horticulture, Landscape Design, Floraculture, Botany, Natural Resources Conservation, or Plant and Soil Science. Miss Skains will be entering Sul Ross University this Fall where she plans to major in Soil Conservation. Mrs. Ben Williams is President of the Myrtle Post Garden Club who sponsored Peggy, and Mrs. Lee Graves is Director of District VIII.

COURTING CRIMINALS CURTAILED

By Edwin Feulner

The recent Supreme Court decision to allow "improperly" seized evidence in the courtroom finally proves that the Burger Court is on the side of the American people — instead of the criminal.

In 1921, the Supreme Court first established the so-called "exclusionary rule" to preclude improperly obtained evidence from federal trials — what the Court called "fruit of the poison tree." This was done to insure that the Constitutional guarantees against illegal search and seizure were protected. In 1961, the Warren Court extended the rule to other criminal courts. Ever since then, it has been broadly used to suppress crucial evidence necessary to convict often obvious criminals... many guilty of the most heinous crimes. The result: untold numbers of criminals have gone free because technical problems were found in the warrants used to obtain evidence against them.

The recent change of heart by the Supreme Court is long overdue. According to Frank Carrington, a former advisor to President Reagan, the growing perversity of the exclusionary rule had caused the courts to "engage in judicial gymnastics to protect criminals from law enforcement officers" rather than "protect society from murderers, rapists, dope smugglers and the like."

In the thoughtful monograph titled, Crime and Justice, Carrington, executive director of the Victims' Assistance Legal Organization and chairman of the American Bar Association's Victim's Committee, notes that the "duty of government to protect us is not optional." What is needed, he says, is a coherent strategy to protect the American people from violent criminals.

All other questions, Carrington believes, should be subordinated to the most fundamental one: "Did the accused commit the crime?"

The recent decision by the Supreme Court provides a clear signal that a majority on the Burger Court doesn't believe in suppressing important evidence from criminal trials, just because a police officer may have accidentally taken a short-cut in obtaining it, or may not have bowed and scraped enough to the defendant during the booking process. As long as there was no intent on the part of the police to deny the defendant his constitutional rights, the evidence is now admissible.

At long last, the Court has acknowledged the injustice that was being committed in the name of justice and has instructed the criminal courts to return to their primary duty: uncovering the truth and punishing the guilty.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Texas Attorney General Jim Mattox last week mailed over $10 million in checks to victims of a fraudulent insurance sales plan. Additional checks were on the way.

The money sent to the 1,600 Texans was the settlement Mattox wrestled from Academy Life Insurance Co. of Pennsylvania, and it might be the largest consumer settlement in state history.

Mattox said the company used high-pressure tactics to sell the product to rural, elderly clients, many of whom thought they were buying an investment plan to avoid high taxes.

In some cases the buyer would pay more in life insurance premiums after two years than his survivors would be able to collect upon death, according to Mattox.

Reform Funds Wrong

Earlier, Mattox released a long-awaited legal opinion which held that a legislative committee may not legally accept contributions from private organizations. The opinion was requested by the House Administration on behalf of a committee contemplating a study on child care.

More recently, the public education reform committee chaired by Dallas multimillionaire H. Ross Perot was reportedly funded, in part, by contributions from Perot.

Mattox's legal conclusion might lead one to ask whether those contributions were legal, or if Perot's gesture which led to public education reform in Texas will ever be duplicated again.

Food Stamp Crisis

When a computer foul-up delayed food stamps to some 3,000 Houston families, the state rushed surplus commodities such as flour, beans and milk to Houston.

The food was diverted from other parts of the state to Houston warehouses for distribution to food banks.

A spokesman for the Texas Department of Human Resources said all food stamp cards would be back on mailing schedule by the weekend.

Agency officials plan to ask the Legislature for a budget increase of more than $1 billion, with some of the money going to a 33 percent boost in basic welfare payments.

Pollution Control

And as state agencies jockey these days in preparation of January's legislative session, three environment-related agencies eye the power to fine polluters as much as $25,000 a day.

Environmentalists want those powers for the Department of Water Resources, the Department of Health and the Air Control Board.

These agencies now have the power to fine violators, but the fines are so small that they're easily ignored.

Veterans Land Program

Texas Land Commissioner Garry Mauro last week told the Sunset Commission that more Texas veterans could participate in the Veterans Loan Program if the requirements were lowered from 10 acres to five.

Rising land costs have put 10-acre tracts out of reach for many veterans who might otherwise participate for a smaller tract.

Mauro also wants to change wording in the Veterans Housing Program which has the effect of excluding active military personnel.

Prison Guard Raped

On the heels of the furor over prison violence emerged a story last week of a female prison guard who was raped while being held hostage by a prisoner early this month.

The incident was kept under wraps, according to prison system spokesmen, because she did not want the story out.

Upon her rescue, she apparently said she was not hurt, then later reported it with a request for privacy.

Early Texas Arsenal

The site of the first Republic of Texas arsenal, operated from 1837-39 in Wharton County, may have been discovered in a sorghum field.

Dozens of cannon and musket pieces, balls and parts of swords and bayonets have been found scattered over two acres. Some are Brown Bess models purchased from England by Mexico and may have been used against the Alamo.

Many Mexican weapons were captured at San Jacinto and stored at the arsenal. Location records were lost in an Austin fire in 1857.

Thursday, August 25, 1955

Bobby Maxwell of Big Spring was winner in the Ozona Golf Meet over the weekend. T. J. Bailey won the championship flight consolation by turning back Joe Williams of Ozona, 1-up on 20 holes. Eddie Bower of Dallas annexed the first-flight title beating Doug Newton of Del Rio. Bob Whitaker of San Angelo took out Tom Montgomery of Ozona in the semifinals 1-up then beat Stanley Franks of San Angelo 3 and 2 for the championship of the consolation round. Bill Cooper was second flight champion. George Helton took the third flight.

Heavy rains again visited the Crockett County area the past weekend bringing flooded draws in some sections and new hopes of continued recovery from drought in favored areas. The rains were spotted, as all have been this summer but the falls covered a considerable area of the county in two days of thunderstorms. Ozona received 1.85 inches of rain Sunday. West of Ozona 3 and 4 inches were recorded.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

Even though we haven't had a good rain to better condition our soil, you may want to begin planting to have a good fall vegetable garden and many late blooming flowers.

From now until blooming time give special attention to your Chrysanthemums. For large exhibition mums, leave only four well developed canes that form at the arxle of each leaf. Pinch others out leaving only two if extra large blossoms are wanted. Plants should be staked as they grow, in order to have straight stems. Go over plants regularly and pinch off all laterals as they form and white tender. When buds begin to form, which should be soon, give them a feeding of a balanced fertilizer or liquid manure water. Water well after each feeding every ten days or until color shows in the bud, then stop the feeding. As soon as buds form in clusters pinch or rub off carefully all except one bud to each cane, always leaving the center or terminal bud if well formed. This method gives you large beautiful blooms.

Healthy vigorous plants need plenty of water but not overly wet soil. During very hot weather, the foliage of mums should be sprayed daily to increase atmospheric moisture and check for red spider.

The small flowering types or cushion mums, should have tops pinched out when 6 inches tall to encourage branching and a well formed mound. Do not pinch out tops any later, as they should be ready to set buds. These buds should not be pinched or rubbed out as the large mums, but left to form a mass of blooms.

The dream books from seed houses and nurseries are arriving to help you choose bulbs, seed, roses, trees and shrubs. Look them over carefully make a list of those that grow well in our area. Most will be available in nearby nurseries.

The variety of clematis blooming now is the hybrid clematis paniculata.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED-Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Ruthardt announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Tonya Delyn to Varlyn Kevin Aldridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Aldridge. The couple plans to be married October 6 in the First Baptist Church of Ozona.

Myrtle Post Club holds its monthly meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Myrtle Post Garden Club was held Monday, Aug. 20, in the home of Mrs. John Hignight. Assisting as co-hostess was Mrs. Scottie Houston. The flower arrangement, a mass design, was made by Mrs. Hignight. It consisted of lemons, limes, peppers, bourdax apples, lilies and daisies. Mrs. Grace Williams opened the meeting receiving several reports from committees. Mrs. Jack Brewer gave the horticultural tip-place a tac on the tips of newly pruned rose bush stems to prevent bores. Members discussed a living memorial for the Emerald House in memory of Mrs. Billie Jo Hayes. Mrs. Hayes was a charter member of the Myrtle Post Garden Club. Members were made aware of a recent article of the Emerald House in the magazine Southern Living. Also the dedication program planned for Oct. 8. Mrs. P.K. Smith reported she had passed her final three tests of Flower Show School II. Mrs. John Willingham, member of the Senisa Garden Club and the New Timers Garden Club of San Angelo, Master Flower Show Judge and Past Director of District VIII spoke on "Growing in Flower Show Procedure." Following the meeting refreshments were served and a plant auction was held.

Phillips family has reunion at ranch home

On August 11, 1984, the descendants and extended family of the late Lela and Samuel Byrd Phillips gathered at the Phillips ranch home, south of Ozona, for a barbecue supper hosted by Arthur and Bernice Phillips to celebrate the approaching centennial of the building of the house and to honor their heritage.

The property has been in the Phillips family since 1900, when Samuel Byrd Phillips and Roy Hudspeth bought the ranch from F. W. Schwalbe, who built the house in 1888. S. B. Phillips obtained the Hudspeth interest in 1904.

Arthur Byrd Phillips was born in the ranch house in 1901, and S. B. Phillips died there in 1924. Arthur B. Phillips has owned and ranched there since 1927.

The surviving children are: Arthur B. Phillips, Hillery M. Phillips, Emma Lou Phillips Adams, and Lela Phillips Nussbaumer.

Also attending were: Arthur Byrd Phillips, Jr. and daughter, Elizabeth Phillips Carleton and Toby Carleton of Midland; daughters, Cathy Carleton of Midland; Diane Phillips of Greeley, Colorado; Benny Gail and John R. Hunnicutt, Rick and Carol Hunnicutt, Cody and Lacey Hunnicutt; H.M. (Buddy) Phillips, Jr. and Elaine Phillips; Wade Garlitz of San Antonio; Camille and Brock Jones, Jr. and Margaret Jones; Maycee and Tom Collins of Pumpville, Jan Frazier of Colorado Springs, Colorado, Susie and Cliff Atkins and sons, Todd Nussbaumer and Brandon Atkins of Fort Stockton; William W. Collins, Thelma Collins, and son Mark, of Chesapeake, Virginia; Wilma C. Courtney and son, Bob Courtney of New Boston, Texas.

Also Effie Mae Petry Davis and Jeff Davis; daughter, Doris Goodman, and granddaughter, Alexis Hatt, of San Antonio, were in Ozona last week visiting Phillips relatives.

CARD OF THANKS
The family of Douglas Smith wishes to express great appreciation to all of those who helped bring comfort and love in our time of loss. May God Bless each of you.

Time To Think

It isn't a very long sentence. As the judge said: "It will give you time to think...to make some long-overdue decisions about your life."

But there are better times and places to do our thinking.

This young man and his parents realize today why our churches and synagogues place so much emphasis on early and continuing religious education. Learning of God, of his will and his way, guides our thinking and our growing in the right direction.

Worship and religious training should have priority in your family's life.

Reddy's Safety Reminders:
Most of us take electric power for granted. We just flick a switch and there it is — doing all those things we've come to expect. That SAME power can be dangerous if we don't learn to treat it with respect. Here are a few reminders on how to live more safely — electrically — from Reddy Kilowatt:

Never Pull on the Cord!
When disconnecting electric appliances and equipment, be sure to pull on the plug — not the cord! If you pull on the cord, you'll eventually wear it out and expose hazardous wires. Also, don't overload extension cords and outlets.

Install Antennas Away from Power Lines!
If you have a TV or CB antenna to install or repair, make sure there's plenty of clearance between it and the nearest power lines. Working too close to a power line can be hazardous.

Don't Shoot at Power Lines!
Also remember not to shoot at power lines or the insulators that hold them. The severed line could cause a serious electricity outage and the downed line itself could be very dangerous.

Extension Office News

By Rachel Hall

The dual-career lifestyle for families has created a unique set of challenges. Many are related to socialization and role expectations, to work-role and family-role conflicts. Individuals involved have generally been socialized for roles very different from those which they are apt to experience as a part of a dual-career lifestyle. Two people try to meet the demands of careers, build a family life together, and maintain a home and family.

While the difficulties of implementing relationships based on equal sharing cannot be ignored, the potential rewards are high.

For a man, sharing the breadwinner role lessens his pressure to succeed in a particular position. He is able to seek satisfaction both at home and at work, not make life choices for economic reasons alone. He no longer must serve as the primary source of meaning or happiness for a partner.

A wife's professional interest gives a husband knowledge of related fields, doubles his contacts, and enlarges his circle of potential friends and clients. He has a partner who understands his job pressures.

The biggest benefit for women seems to be the opportunity for self-expression. A woman develops a personal identity that is associated with her professional role. Husband and wife relate as two individuals, each having a separate identity. As couples, these men and women experience sharing of experiences, and pride in each other's accomplishments.

In recent research on dual-career families, respondents overwhelmingly favored the choice of a dual-career lifestyle. Both spouses supported the decision and saw real benefits for the family. They also saw real problems. As couples they managed to change role patterns related to income and child-care needs. The lacks were in transferring these abilities to share to other home responsibilities.

The wife, in most cases, in spite of an equally demanding job and relatively comparable salary, still carried the load at home. The research showed that for many of the tasks described, the husband and wife accepted joint responsibility, but the wife usually and husband occasionally actually performed these tasks. The husband may support his wife's desire for a career and encourage her to pursue one, but his behavior at home is best described as helpful husband, not equal partner.

Project Pay-up to collect child support

Attorney General Jim Mattox kicked off "Project Pay-Up" on Wednesday, August 1st, and Prosecutors Bill Mason, 112th Judicial District Attorney and Tom Cameron, County Attorney for Crockett County, say it is an especially appropriate time to bring the needed attention to the absent parent's obligation to pay child support.

The Texas Senate and House of Representatives passed resolutions declaring August "Child Support Month" in Texas.

Both prosecutors stressed that it is important that these parents meet their responsibilities, especially with the school year about to begin, that the kids who need support deserve it, and that parents are obligated to pay.

Mattox said that failure to pay child support is a form of child abuse. "We must start 'Child Support Month' in Texas off with a clear signal that the responsibility for child support belongs to both parents," Mattox said.

"Child support in Texas must improve, and I am committed to its improvement," Mattox added. "I will use all of the enforcement tools of the Attorney General's Office to enforce child support laws."

The Attorney General's Office took over the Child Support Program in September 1983. Since that time, Texas collections have increased 41 percent.

More remembering

By Evert White

Mr. Will Baggett was a meticulous man. Mr. Will was a thorough man. He was also a very careful man. When he built a fence it would not only stand from now on but it would hold the nearest thing to an elephant a West Texas ranch might produce. And when he built a gate it would swing free and solidly until time runneth out.

And when Mr. Will planted a tree and that tree grew and grew until it encroached on his neighbor, this meticulous and careful man was all for trimming it back to a degree of containment. The neighbor happened to be Mr. John Bailey, another careful man, and neighborly in the finest traditions of the West. Mr. Bailey also happened to be a great lover of trees as most West Texans are.

Well, this tree that Mr. Will planted grew a long, sturdy limb that reached out over Mr. John's house, which pleased him no end because it was a very pretty tree and at the same time provided a lot of shade against the afternoon sun.

Mr. Will happened to notice the menacing limb and told John he would cut it off before it fell on his house.

"Aw, naw, Will, you don't need to cut it off. Let it go, it won't fall," John protested.

"Oh, no. It's gotta come off. It might crash down on your house any minute," Will declared.

"It's a good heavy limb and I don't think it will ever fall," John persisted. "I wouldn't care a lot if it did."

"Oh, no," Will was adamant. "It's got to be cut off before it falls."

Social Security officer sets Sept. visit

John Willis, representative of the San Angelo Social Security Office, has scheduled his September visit to Ozona. He will be at the County Courthouse on Wednesday, September 19th between 2:00 p.m. and 3:30 p.m.

Anyone who wants to file a claim for benefits, get information, or transact other business with the Social Security Administration may contact him at this time.

People who file for Social Security retirement, disability, survivor, or Supplemental Security Income benefits by telephone are urged to return the applications and requested documents promptly.

This will enable the Social Security Administration to process your claim quicker. If you have any questions about any aspect of your claim, call the office for clarification. Remember, don't delay, mail today.

on your house. I'll get that done tomorrow."

And tomorrow, the limb came crashing down. But not on John's house. That meticulous, careful, thorough man saw to that.

And if you promise not to ask questions, I'll tell you another tale about a couple of Crockett County ranchers. One was a Baptist deacon and the other an elder in the Church of Christ. This is Houston Smith's story. Un-voiced-for.

One day, A was visiting on B's ranch. Mrs. B was in town for the day and the two "boys" were on their own. Mrs. B had some ducks she let run the place and swim in the dirt tank. Mr. A and Mr. B had just bottled off a batch of brew and dumped the mash out where the ducks could find it--and they did.

When Mrs. B came home she was perturbed because her ducks seemed to have developed a strange and debilitating malady. They were going blind, she thought, since they bumped into things in the yard, waddled with unusual stress on the waddling parts, and almost drowned when they plunged into the water of the dirt tank.

Regular exercise helps heart

Regular exercise may be the key to keeping your heart going strong past age 70, according to a geriatrics researcher at Houston's Veterans Administration Medical Center.

Robert J. Luchi, M.D., chief of medicine at the VA and professor of medicine at Baylor College of Medicine is conducting a study to determine how the heart ages in exercisers and non-exercisers past the age of 70.

"It may not be the process of aging itself that causes the heart to pump less efficiently, rather it may be the lack of regular exercise as people age," said Luchi. "We think that with proper conditioning, the heart may work as well for many people at 80 years as it did at 20 years."

Luchi cautions that before anyone begins an exercise program, they should get a thorough physical examination from their physician.

A healthy heart beats 100,000 times a day pumping blood through 60,000 miles of vessels. Oxygen-rich blood is taken from the lungs into the left side of the heart and pumped through the arteries to the body. The blood then goes to the right side of the heart where it is pumped back to the lungs and the process begins again.

Luchi is testing the heart efficiency of elderly patients by measuring the amount of the blood pumped out of their hearts with each contraction, or "beat." The blood volume is measured by injecting a harmless substance into a patient's bloodstream. The marker substance is detected by a sophisticated camera and a computer determines the percent of blood pushed out of the heart at rest and during exercise.

"A healthy heart pushes 50 percent of the blood out with each contraction and with exercise the amount can increase to 60 percent," said Luchi. "A heart with poor function only pushes out 30 to 40 percent of the blood per contraction and that percentage goes down when the person exercises."

Regular exercise such as brisk walking is especially important for older people, Luchi said, and it may play an important part in slowing the process of osteoporosis, the thinning and weakening of bones, as well as atherosclerosis, known as hardening of the arteries.

"We believe that everyone, regardless of their age, can perform some type of exercise that will be beneficial to their cardiovascular system," Luchi said. "Swimming is especially good for older exercisers because there is no stress on the joints or muscles and it can be done without getting over-heated."

Luchi offers these recommendations for people over the age of 40 beginning an exercise program: Get a complete physical including an exercise electrocardiogram, begin any exercise program slowly and with a doctor's advice, exercise regularly.

Sutton County days celebration scheduled

The Sutton County Days Association and the Chamber of Commerce will co-host the Sutton County Days Celebration again this year, August 23, 24, 25.

A PRCR Rodeo will kick-off the celebration Thursday evening, beginning at 8:00 p.m. in Sonora, the stock for this rodeo will be furnished by the Bad Company Rodeo Company, which was formed by Mack Altizer, being a famous roper himself and is currently the youngest stock contractor in the PRCR. Not only is the Altizer a famous name in the rodeo circuit, but also some of the stock is well known. Bad Company's "Rojo" was recognized as the Lone Star Circuit Bucking Horse of the Year, and "Velvet Outlaw" was named reserve Bull of the Year, there will be three nights of rodeo during Sutton County Days Celebration and with such famous participants, it will certainly be a rodeo worth coming to see.

Two nights of dancing under the stars, the dance Friday night will feature "Texas Gold" and Saturday night the famous "Dotsie" will be featured, good music and a lot of fun for everyone.

The parade will be held Friday afternoon at 5 p.m. with entries from far and near, Miss Sutton County will lead the parade along with other dignitaries, after the parade a barbecue will be served at the 4-H Barn serving delicious barbecue, beans, salad and other good things to eat.

Saturday will be the day for downtown celebration, "Arts and Craft shows," Live Music, "Old Timers Reunion," "Class Reunions," "Little Mister and Miss Contest," "Fun Run," "Pet Show," a "Queens Contest" from which Miss Sutton County will be named to reign for a year. Food booths will be available and games for the children. A 3-wheeler Honda will be given away to the lucky winner, the proceeds from the tickets will go to the Christmas decorations fund.

The hospitable people of Sonora welcome you to come join in the fun and good entertainment during Sutton County Days Celebration, eat, dance and see a good rodeo, welcome. Call the Chamber of Commerce for information-915-387-2880.

Letters to the Editor

Ozona Stockman
The Organizers and the Steering Committee of the West Texas Masters Track Meet would like to express our appreciation to you for your generosity and support in making this year's benefit track meet an overwhelming success. Your cooperation and interest in such a project has enabled us to succeed in an attempt to plan an event that would cover many benefits for Ozona. (1) A Fund for a youngster in Ozona who is victim of an accident or illness. (2) Help the economy by bringing people to Ozona. (3) Show West Texas (Ozona) hospitality. (4) To bring attention to Ozona by way of the media. (5) An event in Ozona to include participation, activity, and involvement.
Respectfully,
Bobby Aycock

Dear Kitty:
Sorry I had to be reminded of my subscription. I have a fit when I get mine a few days late!
I have something to say in regards to Cedar Hill Cemetery. We were there recently and I can truthfully say it is beautiful and personally we thought well kept. Compare it to any you find and you'll be proud of it. I'm sure it has problems-doesn't everything-but for the caretakers, county, and Billie Jean Baggett, I say "Thank You" for a job well done.
Sincerely,
Jessie Baccus

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank my many friends for their concern, friendship and gifts of food and flowers during my recent illness. The knowledge of that concern and friendship made the illness that much more bearable.
I want to especially thank Dr. Robert Owensby both personally and professionally for caring for my patients, to thank him for taking care of the extra work placed on him by my illness and for his giving up his own plans in order to cover the medical problems of the county during this two month period.

Crockett County Care Center News

BY ANN McCARTNEY
DIRECTOR OF ACTIVITIES & SOCIAL CARE

This was the week for our monthly birthday party. Birthday honorees were Ola Mills and Granny Carter. Ola's family furnished a large birthday cake, Polly Mayes decorated it as always, and Granny's daughter, Lottie Davis, fixed and served a delicious punch. She was assisted by Vivian Hughes. Clara Byrd furnished piano music for the occasion and Maxine's Flowers donated corsages to our two honorees. Pictures were taken and everyone agreed we had a good party.

During bingo on Tuesday we played a tie-breaker from a previous week. Billie Whatley won the gift certificate from Clayton Village Drug and Maggie Crawford won second place. Alice Ross was lucky at four-corners bingo and won the Baker Jewelers certificate. Johnny Henderson won the El Chato's dinner for two certificate. Mattie Cooper was our volunteer that morning.

Tuesday afternoon Jacquie King gave our residents a speech concerning the newly formed Crockett County Arts and Crafts Guild. She delighted residents by informing them that Guild members would assist our residents with the selling of ceramic and craft items during their bi-annual sales. We wish this new group continued success and appreciate their "adopting" our resident.

A big thank you goes to Diana Padilla for donating two water lily plants. They look so nice in our bird pond.

Tuesday night the Jamie Knox band performed. Band members Jamie Knox, J.D. and Don Kilgore, Larry Petron, and Lonnie Longoria gave a very enjoyable program.

Resident volunteers Alice Ross and Maude Pettit were our only helpers for ceramics Wednesday morning. Other residents participating included Tomasa Ramos, Hilda Dysart, Nina Mayfield, Ola Mills, Billie Whatley, Juana Hernandez, and Moriana Perez.

Sunshine Hour volunteers were Bonnie Warth and Mary Leigh Jones. The clouds were out so all stayed inside but everyone enjoyed their cake and banana plate and their visitation.

Lucille Littleton came by with a copy of Psalms on record for our library. Thanks, friend!

Thursday morning beauty shop was manned by Lola Rios, Clara Byrd, and Vivian Hughes. Clara and Vivian will be on vacation this next week. We invite you, dear reader, with a little free time on Thursday morning, to come and help Lola. Ted Turnley led Bible study on Thursday afternoon. Spanish Hour of Praise which followed was led by Maria Vitela, Paulita Leal, Carmen Vargas, Felipa Munoz, and Maria Torres.

Another treat received this week came in the form of donuts donated by Donuts, Etc. What a nice surprise!

Friday morning bingo winners included Rebekah West, winner of a gift certificate from Watson's Department store and second place winner Max Schneemann, winner of Avon donated by Anna Bell Patrick. Volunteers included Patrick, Amalia Lumbreras, Elsa Ramirez, Angelita Pena, Sophia Tijerina, Carmen Funatoz, and residents Maude Pettit and Alice Ross.

Friday afternoon Massie West furnished yellow meated watermelon to all residents. Thanks also goes to Amalia for delivering them.

We had a new activity also Friday afternoon. We made "Kick-the-Can Ice Cream." We mixed the ingredients ourselves, then placed the mix in a one pound coffee can. This was placed in a three pound coffee can and covered with ice and ice cream salt. Then it was out to the front porch where the cans were tossed and kicked about for quite some time. Then, believe it or not, frozen ice cream was served to all participants. Residents enjoying this new summertime event, included Carol Reed, Juana Hernandez, Paul Cavin, Tomasa Ramos, Rebekah West, Alice Ross, Bertha Miller, Nila Turnell, Maude Pettit, Ola Mills, Inez Biggs, Billie Whatley, Moriana Perez. Helpers included all these residents plus sitters Lola Rios and Linda Vasquez.

Billie Whatley went on a field trip Saturday to see her gift certificate and to see Shot's opening.

Maude Pettit, Paul Cavin, Ola Mills, and Johnny Henderson along with Tina Holmsley played dominoes this week.

Sunday afternoon services were brought by Rev. Nelson Lanham. Music was brought by Jerry Racher and his son Danny. Everyone really enjoyed the service.

Monday our new curtains were hung. My, how nice to have a new look!

Love is ageless, volunteers are appreciated!

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Adcock last week were her niece, Missy Brooks, of Sonora; her sister, Corene Franks of Virginia Beach, Va. and her mother, Mrs. John Proctor of Brownfield. The Adcocks daughter, LaDawn Goff of Sanderson was also a visitor.

Yogurt replaces milk as lactase substitute

People who suffer from milk intolerance can reap the nutritional benefits of milk-without side effects by eating yogurt, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist.

Lactase deficiency is a fairly common problem, especially among non-Caucasians and one in ten Caucasians experience the problem she adds.

Lactase is an enzyme which breaks down lactose, or milk sugar. For people with a lactase-deficiency, the lactose from milk remains undigested in the intestine and can cause discomfort, explains the nutritionist.

This milk intolerance is usually recognized between the ages of ten and 20, the years when active teenagers need four servings of dairy products daily, she notes. Yogurt can provide a solution to this problem.

One cup of plain yogurt provides about the same amount of protein, calcium and riboflavin as one cup of milk, she says.

However, low-fat yogurt may not be fortified with Vitamins A and D.

Isn't it rather ironic that some business people will get up in the morning... clean their teeth with an advertised brush and advertised toothpaste... wash with advertised soaps and shampoos... put on advertised underwear, innerwear, outerwear and footwear... sit at the breakfast table and eat advertised tea, coffee or orange juice... read an advertised newspaper... drive to work in an advertised car... answer calls on an advertised telephone system... and turn down a proposal to advertise on the grounds that advertising doesn't pay.

SALE! SALE NOW! FANTASTIC CLEARANCE

Nicknames abound Ozonans called by many names

EDITOR'S NOTE--Shortly before his death, Tom Ed Montgomery was doodling at his desk in the Stockman office and, thinking like a newspaper man, touched on a possible feature story topic--nicknames. Nicknames of Ozonans, nearly eighty of them he jotted down and from that beginning this writer took over and came up with the little piece that follows, recently salvaged from among papers on Tom's desk. -w e w

Call the roll of Ozonans, now and a few generations back. Perhaps more than in most communities the list will include many, nicknames, some of whose origins are already shrouded in antiquity but productive of much imaginary speculation.

Run over the list today and you'll find Horses, Dogie, Critter, Hop, Spot, Slick, Snuffy, Tomcat, Rip, Bottle, Baby (female) and Babe (male).

Take the last two, for instance. The first is easily understandable in Baby (Hokit) Harrison. The Babe is Babe Philips and will stand a little explaining. When Babe was growing up, it took him a longer time than most and he carried his bottle to school with him through several grades--milk bottle that is, complete with nipple. Another Bottle (Sherman Taylor) may have had something to do with a bottle but only his contemporaries knew for sure its origin. He had a brother R.T. whose nickname was Sodie, again a matter for speculation.

Perhaps the best known nickname in the community was Hop--a name that was even passed on to succeeding generations. The original Hop was Hop Hoover (Armand to his mother). The reason for the name may go deeper, but to observers not in the know, it might have come from his gait, a little hint of a half step that could have been called a hop. Far more attention, however, was focused on Hop Hoover for his razor sharp wit, which was ever present with him, in even the most casual comments and movements. He never bought an item in a store without sending the clerk into gales of laughter with his description of what he wanted. A box of matches, for instance, entailed a repeated forefinger drawing of a box of matches before the words finally came out in his inimitable deep-voiced drawl. And the stories he told and the stories that were told about him would have made fascinating reading had they been collected and published, though much would have been lost in the absence of the story teller himself whose style could not be described.

But on to some nicknames. Dogie Harrell was Alvin. Ask some one closer to the companions of his youth, but to look at him now it could well have been that his lanky build brought on the moniker that means an orphan lamb--hence, sometimes an underfed lamb. Spot Friend (Bill) may have earned the moniker from his sparse freckles. Snuffy Smith is obvious as would be "Fats" for Eddy Alford or Carl Thurman.

The subject of nicknames came about when Tom Montgomery (Big T, his is) began musing about Ozona nicknames and jotted down more than eighty that came to mind rapidly. Of course, Tom started out with the town's most gifted and popular nickname, his wife Kitty, editor and publisher of this newspaper, whose proper name, of course, is Kathryn. Son, Jim didn't come up with a nickname but did change his to Doctor Clifton James Montgomery, San Angelo dental surgeon.

Ozona's Williams brothers are the champs when it comes to nicknames. Sister Mary (Mrs. Joe Clayton) was spared but the Williams boys all had pet monikers. Charles, the oldest, is Horses; Jack, the County Commissioner, is Seck; Gene wears the nickname Skineye, Gene Junior is Sooner, Byron is Mustard, and the youngest, Joe is nicknamed Sacahuista. There are two Coons in town, W. H. Chandler and Douglas Moore. Neither is so named because of a resemblance. Two other Ozonans are known by the handles of "Yank". Both were wartime imports from "up-north" to marry Ozona girls--Dick Webster and Bill Clegg. At least three still wear the youthful "Sonny" their parents called them. They are Bob Bailey, William Meinecke and John Lee Henderson, Jr.

A top sergeant in the U.S. Air Force, John W. Walker perhaps earned the name Bull Walker among the underlings in his command. Bull and wife "Toots" retired from the service to settle in Ozona.

Most nicknames were acquired in youth. Dilly Dockery (Mrs. James Dockery) was named Daphne June Meinecke by her mother, Coralie Meinecke. Kid companions came up with Daffy Dilly, finally refined to just Dilly. Rosie Seahorn (W.P. Jr. or Bill) was so named, no doubt by his compadres because of his strawberry blond hair and rosy complexion. Perry Hubbard was nicknamed Critter; Martin Harvick was Scratch; Morris Lee Coates was Moose; Hillery Phillips was Link; Duane Childress was Chili; Joe S. Pierce, III, was Pie; Lloyd Coates was Boochie; Joe Friend was Broomweed; two Franks, (McMullan and James) were Pancho; Wayne West, Jr. was Cap; Floyd Hokit was Hot Cake; Marbury Morrison was Chapo; T.A. Kincaid, Jr. was Teke; Eugene Miller became Jake; J.B. Miller was Buster; Robert Augustine was Freckle Eye; J.W. Johnigan was Junie; Jack Chapman was Chongo; Robert Williams was Buck; J.B. Parker was Beatus; and Clifford Robertson was Tangleeye.

Among the girls list Hazel Hagelstein as Totsy; Hazel Friend as Punk; Marsha Mitchell as Tissie; Edna Harvick as Brownie; Alleane Semmler as Susie; Mary Alice Williams as Toots; Jeanette Bailey as Pinkie; Gem Ella Stokes as Baby Girl; Elizabeth Davidson as Happy; Ada Pierce as Chink; Mary Friend as Sister; and Willena Holden as Red.

Of course, there's C. O. "Lefty" Walker, T. J. "Jater" Bailey, S.E. "Mutt" Carnes, Earl "Tooter" Malone, Charles E. "Charlie Boy" Davidson, Henry "Hank" Sellers, John "Sandy" Stokes, J.W. "Red" Howell, T.C. "Cotton" Goodman, W.C. "Itsie" McKinney, "Rocky" Armentrout, Boyd "Bood" Clayton, Charles "Sugar" Schneider, "Red" Greer, Joe B. "Brute" Chapman, Joe "Frijole" Bean, Wes "Tige" Berry, Welton "Shot" Bunker, "Rowdy" Hoover, Bennie "Tite" Bishop, Robert "Bear" Threadgill, O.R. "Tex" Blanton, Beecher "Till" Montgomery.

And on and on--you'll think of dozens more, perhaps. They are endless. This compilation was stolen from Big T's work by:

Hunter safety course urged here

Anyone requiring a Hunter Safety Course for certification is urged to contact Rod Chalmers, State Game Warden, 392-3972, as soon as possible.

Persons born after Jan. 1, 1949, hunting in Colorado and some of the other Rocky Mountain states are required to be certified before they can purchase a non-resident hunting license.

We need students for a course to be held before Sept. 1. This will be the only course offered in Ozona this year.

Applications for pageant are being accepted for Miss Teen Applications are now being accepted from girls 13 thru 19 for the Miss Texas U.S. Teen Pageant.

The Texas winner will receive $250 in cash, 1 year college scholarship, all expense trip to the national pageant including airfare, jewelry, color portrait, crown, banner, trophy, and a host of gifts and products.

In addition to the state title, awards will be given in leadership, friendship, and photogenic categories.

The Texas pageant will be held at the North Park Inn in Dallas. Judging is based on poise, personality, school, and community involvement.

Over $100,000 in cash and tuition scholarships will be offered at the national pageant. Miss U.S. Teen will receive a 4 year college scholarship, Caribbean vacation, $1,000 in cash, watch, jewelry, perfume, makeup, complete modeling portfolio, TV and personal appearances, crown, banner, trophy, and a year of travel and excitement. The national pageant will be video taped for television.

For further information contact: Carole Clements, National Director, Miss U.S. Teen, P.O. Box 1229,

Monday marks first day of school here

Monday marked the first day of school and the end of summer vacation as 969 students enrolled in Ozona Public Schools for the 1984-85 term. The total enrollment figure showed a significant decline of forty students from the opening day last year when 1,009 students reported for classes.

School officials feel that a more accurate enrollment picture will emerge after Labor Day, but it is generally felt that, due to decreased employment opportunities in Crockett County, particularly in oil and gas production, student enrollment will remain less than last year.

The 1984 and 1983 enrollment for each school is as follows: Ozona Primary, 237-241; Ozona Intermediate, 241-274; Ozona Junior High, 232-248; and Ozona High School, 259-246.

Auburn, AL 36830 or call (205) 745-6875 IMMEDIATELY.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the people of Crockett County, and the area Game Wardens for the wonderful retirement party that was given for Christine and me. We will cherish the gifts for the rest of our lives.

Thanks to everyone.

Their education is too important...

to let money stand in the way.

The cost of a quality college education is rising. Sometimes the immediate cost of tuition, books, room and board and other necessities are overwhelming.

We can help you spread those college expenses over a more reasonable, affordable time period with an educational loan. The interest rate is low, but the value of education to your child is too great to calculate.

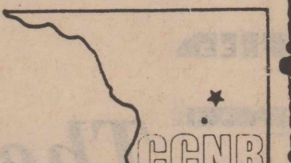

To learn more, stop in and see one of our loan specialists today. We can give you the financial key to opening your child's mind to a greater tomorrow!

Activity picks up in Crockett county gas and oil fields

Texaco Inc., Midland, completed its No. 4 M.A. Shannon Estate "A" NCT-2 as a dual discovery (probably Simpson) and as the sixth producer and a location east extension to the Seright (Strawn oil) field of Crockett County, 18 miles northwest of Ozona.

It was finished from the Simpson to pump 52 barrels of 38.9 gravity oil, plus 10 barrels of water, with gas-oil ratio of 981-1, through perforations at 6,258-70 feet, which had been acidized with 500 gallons and fractured with 1,000 gallons.

It was finished from the Strawn for 14 barrels of 46.4 gravity oil, plus three barrels of water, with gas-oil ratio of 23,857-1, through perforations at 5,927-6,000 feet, which had been acidized with 300 gallons.

The following tops were picked on kelly bushing at 2,431 feet; San Andres, 1,631 feet; Strawn, 6,000 feet; Simpson, 6,200 feet and Ellenburger, 6,300 feet.

Drilled to 6,285 feet, where 5 1/2-inch was casing set, it is plugged back to 6,272 feet.

Location is 467 feet from the south and 2,200 feet from the east lines of 11-10-GC&SF.

Texaco Inc., Midland, will drill the No. 5 M.A. Shannon, a 6,300 foot project in Crockett County, to test as a wildcat and also as a 3/8-mile north and slightly east stepout to the Seright (Strawn oil) field, 1 3/8 miles north of the opener and lone producer in the Todd, Northwest (Grayburg oil) field, 1 1/8 miles southwest of an undesignated Grayburg gas discovery, one mile west of a 6,500 foot failure and 18 miles northwest of Ozona.

Location is 1,800 feet from the south and 1,980 feet from the east lines of 11-10-GC&SF.

The Todd, Northwest opener, Texas Co., No. 2-A-NCT M.A. Shannon, was finished Sept. 7, 1957 for a daily flowing potential of 118.22 barrels of 33.9 gravity oil, no water, with gas-oil ratio of 515-1, through a 20-64-inch choke and perforations at 1,440-48 feet.

The undesignated Grayburg gas discovery, Holly Energy Inc., Dallas, No. 4 Todd Ranch, was finished July 12 for a calculated, absolute open flow of 290,000 cubic feet of gas, daily, through perforations at 1,342-432 feet.

Women of the 80's program set for next month at center

Women today face many pressures as they juggle many responsibilities in their lives. This is especially true of women employed outside the home. A majority of women are satisfied about working, and feel the family supports their choices, while others continuously struggle with time, personal expectations about women's roles, and new responsibilities. Practical coping and managerial skills are necessary to balance work, family, and community endeavors.

The "Women of the 80's" seminar will be held September 4 and 6, 7:30-9:30 p.m., at the Ozona Civic Center Auditorium. Admission is free.

September 4, Nancy Granovsky, Family Resource Management Specialist, College Station, will present "Balancing It All" and concentrate specifically on time management.

housework simplification, and economic values. Janice North, Ozona Home Economics teacher will then concentrate on "Quick Easy Meals."

September 6, Jody Sessom and Becky Childress, Teacher's Store managers will present "Investment Dressing" with emphasis on wardrobe coordination and buying tips. Stan Lambert, Crockett County National Bank president, will present "Your Money Identity" with emphasis on credit and investment. Ralph Anderson, Church of Christ minister, will conclude the seminar with "Family Communications" a positive approach to daily family interactions.

The "Woman of the 80's" seminars are sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Crockett County Family Living Committee. More information available at 392-2721.
