Turnovers give Eagles victory over Lions

By Gary Davis

Turnovers were the major cause of the Ozona Lion's 32-7 loss to the Eldorado Eagles last Friday night. The Eagles took advantage of three Ozona fumbles within a 3-minute period to score 20 fourth quarter points and nail down the victory.

The Lions, now carrying a 1-4 record, will enter District 7-AAA play this week against the Ballinger Bearcats. Ballinger advanced to the 1983 class AAA state football quarterfinals last season.

Against Eldorado, the Lions took an early 7-0 lead with 9:22 remaining in the second quarter. Quarterback Harvey Fierro fired a nice pass to sophomore, James Sanchez for the 7-yard score. Senior Ed Borrego put the extra point through the uprights.

Eldorado lit up the scoreboard for the first time with 3:21 left in the third quarter. Fullback, Jay O'Harrow ran 31 yards for the score and Victor Gutierrez was unsuccessful in making the point after touchdown. Less than three minutes had expired when the Eagles scored again on a 46-yard run by Sophomore James Harlin. The extra point attempt by Jimmy Turberville was no good and the score remained 12-7 at the close of the third period.

In the final quarter, O'Harrow made a 17 yard score, a two-point conversion, and a 3 yard touchdown. Harlin scored from 10 yards out to round out the scoring.

The Eagles led Ozona in first downs, 18-3 and in rushing yards, 326-11. The Lions passed for 105 yards during the course of the evening, while Eldorado only had 39 passing yards.

Senior running back, Matt Gutierrez, led the Lions in rushing with 14 forward yards. Harvey Fierro had all of his team's passing yards. Senior Al Ramirez had 63 yards in pass receptions and was followed by Junior David Adams, who had 34 yards.

The Ozona-Ballinger game is slated for 8:00 p.m. in Lion's Stadium, Friday night. The Bearcats are coming fresh from a win over the Brady Bulldogs last week, which brought their season record to a perfect 5-0.

Emerald House marker dedicated

The first house in Ozona, moved from the townsite of Emerald and restored by the Crockett County Historical Commission received the final touch when an historical marker was dedicated at the site Monday evening. From

4-H members honored at awards supper

4-H members were honored at the Annual Awards Program and Hamburger Supper, Monday, October 8, at the Ozona Civic Center. Some 225 members, parents, leaders, and guests attended the event.

Julie Reager, 16 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Reager, received the "Mother Davidson Award" presented by Frank McMullan. This is the highest award given to a Crockett County youth each year. It includes achievement, leadership, citizenship and project work. Julie has been in the 4-H for 7 years and has excelled in lamb feeding, steer feeding, horse, horse judging, demonstration, share the fun, leadership and recordbooks. She has shown top placing lambs at major shows. She is active in sports and is a high school cheerleader. Susan Scott and Ira Childress were named Gold Star winners and presented gold pins by Brock Jones, District Judge. The Gold Star Award is the highest state award given on the county level.

Susan is the 17 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lane Scott. Susan has excelled in achievement, leadership, citizenship and her projects included foods and nutrition, clothing, share the fun and goats. She has been in 4-H for 6 years and is active in school activities. She is the head twirler in the Lion band. Ira is the 17 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Childress of Ozona and Mrs. Judy Black Childress of San Angelo. He is a high school senior and excels in achievement, leadership, and citizenship. His projects include Angora goats, horse, horse judging, lambs, and share the fun. He has exhibited top placing lambs at major shows and won numerous champion honors with his registered angora goats. He is active in school activities.

Both Susan and Ira and their parents will be honored at the District 6 Gold Star Banquet in El Paso on November 3.

Marker dedicated at Emerald House Monday

In spite of conflicting events, a nice crowd was on hand for the dedication of the Emerald House historical marker Monday evening. Crockett County Judge A. O. Fields unveiled and dedicated the marker, a restoration project of the Crockett County Historical Commission. Rev. Ken Harrison, pastor of Ozona United Methodist Church, gave the invocation.

The marker dedication was held outside on the grounds, which had been quaintly landscaped by members of the Myrtle Post Garden Club, at 7 p.m. The meeting of the Crockett County Historical Society followed inside the beautifully redone house.

Sandy Stokes, president of the Crockett County Historical Society introduced Dr. Curtis Tunnell, Executive Director of the Texas State Historical Commission, who spoke on the importance of preserving local history and restoration for future generations.

Dr. Tunnell was honored with a buffet supper Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Harrell. Mrs. Harrell has worked with the county commission for 20 years and has indicated she will resign when her term ends January 1, 1985. She was presented a certificate of appreciation from the State Historical Commission, signed by Gov. Mark White.

The marker tells an interesting story about the Emerald House and all history buffs and interested persons are invited to view the marker and tour the restored house.

The marker was installed in front of the house by the picket fence located at Fairgrounds Park, between I-10 and US 290. It reads as follows:

Mrs. Boyd said she expects the Catholic Woman's group to sell tamales as they have in the past. Also, some booths are still available including the bingo and concession stand. Anyone wishing information about the existing booths may contact Mrs. Boyd at the chamber office.

County court meets Monday

The Crockett County Commissioners Court met Monday in the law library in the courthouse, as the district courtroom was being used. It was cramped quarters as Dr. Curtis Tunnell, Executive Director of the Texas Historical Commission addressed the court, accompanied by Sandy Stokes, president of the Crockett County Historical Society.

Dr. Tunnell impressed on court members the importance of the county historical commission as well as the importance of historical preservation for localities. He also reminded the court the Crockett County Historical Commission is an arm of the local government as is the sheriff's department or the tax collector, and urged their support in the commission's endeavors. The commission is appointed by the county court in each county.

Dr. Tunnell outlined the many accomplishments a local historical commission could be responsible for and reminded the court that members serve on a volunteer basis. He said the local museum held a surprisingly fine collection and restoration of the historical junior high school building showed a remarkable job. He toured both facilities before attending the court meeting.

Stokes presented a financial statement on the Emerald House which showed a balance of about $27 in the checking account and an insurance bill of $305. He told the court the Emerald House must be closed without more assistance from the court. Several court members denied responsibility for the little house, but all with the exception of County Judge A. O. Fields were present when the county gave the commission a large sum of money to move the house to its present location after it was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Harrell.

Later in the afternoon meeting, the court agreed to allow the commission to use marker money for expenses and topped the marker allowance $100 per year.

Marilyn Cox, on behalf of the Crockett County Library Board, met with the court to present plans to begin the remodeling of the Perner home for the public library. After a study of the specifications court members decided they would need more time to approve them, but did agree to let bids and do the work under one contractor. The court made provisions for $50,000 from the general fund this year and put a total of $60,000 in the budget for next year for the library.

The annual fall clean-up was set for the last two weeks in October, when road department head Henry Elledge met with the court to give his report. He reported some damage to roads during recent rains, but said seal-coating and paving is finished for the season. Some discussion was held on the quality of rock or gravel being used.

Onesimo Ortiz, parks department, reported everything in good shape in parks and cemeteries. He asked for a $60 increase for the Lima Cemetery supervisor. The court voted to raise the vehicle allowance to $100. Dick Kirby, county auditor, reported the water bill for the cemeteries was $4,500 last month. This is caused primarily by citizens going on weekends and turning water on the lots, leaving it all weekend.

The court voted to hold next month's meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 13, since Monday, Nov. 12, is a holiday. They also signed a petition to the State Highway Department asking for better safety measures at the intersection of Hwy 163 and 190, where six persons have been killed in the past few years.

Garland Young, in giving the civic center report, said the Saturday night movies had been so successful, the board voted to have movies for the junior high once monthly. Young asked for improved lighting around the youth center building as well as a deputy to patrol the premises.

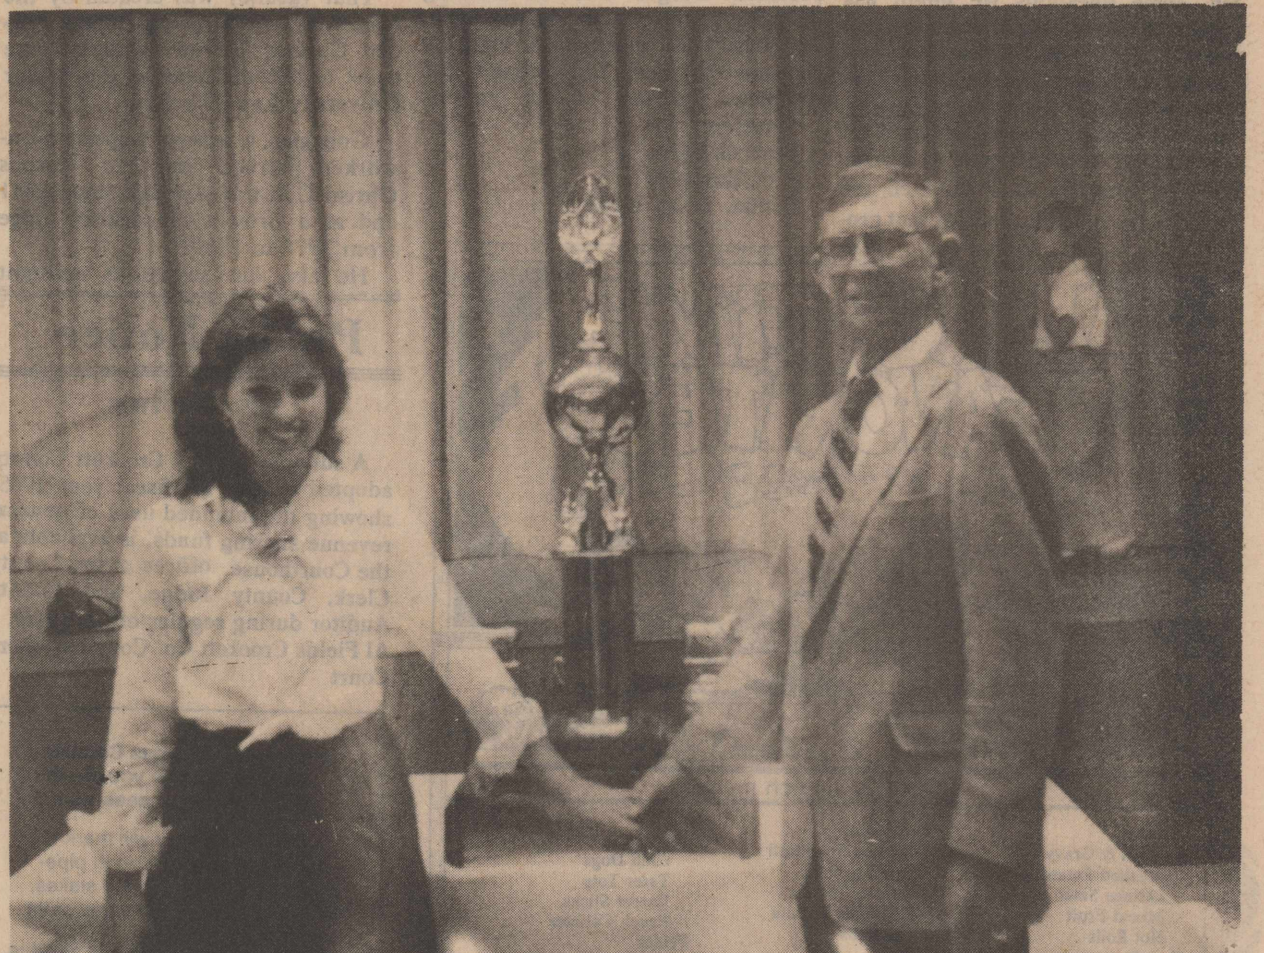

Don Hopkins, hospital administrator, reported the hospital well within its budget for the year, and pre-

Thunderstorm dumps rain on Ozona

A spectacular thunderstorm dumped .60 of an inch of rain on Ozona and up to 1.50 inches in the surrounding area early Tuesday morning. Ozonans were jarred out of bed shortly after 4:15 a.m. when lightning split the skies and resounding thunder split the ear drums. The storm caused many electrical troubles and television repair employees were3 until around 11 a.m. replacing all cable service.

Skies cleared at mid-morning, but by mid-afternoon clouds began to roll in from all sides and another bout with thunderstorm was expected Tuesday evening.

A total of .91 of an inch of rainfall was recorded in the water district official gauge during the night Wednesday and another shower Thursday recorded another .10. The recent rainfall in October brings the monthly moisture to 1.61 inches, the most recorded since January of this year.

Mother Davidson Award

The most coveted award in Crockett County 4-H work went to Julie Reager during the annual 4-H hamburger supper and awards program at the Civic Center Monday evening. Frank McMullan, a Davidson descendant, presented the award to Julie. [see story for other winners]

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—After 18 years of trying, United Parcel Service finally may be on the verge of gaining authority to begin intrastate package deliveries in Texas.

A Railroad Commission hearings examiner has recommended to the commission that the UPS application to initiate door-to-door service within Texas be approved.

The Connecticut-based company, whose dark brown delivery trucks already are a familiar site here, presently is limited to interstate deliveries in Texas. The company can deliver parcels that originate out-of-state or carry parcels that originate in Texas to other parts of the country, but it cannot pick up and deliver packages between two Texas cities.

The stumbling block for UPS has been a 1931 law that requires all intrastate package deliveries to be made along specific routes and schedules.

UPS did not want to be bound by that law because its service is on delivering parcels to any address in the state whenever the need arises.

Company officials said providing that type of service under the Texas law would have meant sending a truck to every city in the state every day regardless of whether there were any parcels to deliver there that day.

Still, the RRC steadfastly maintained that the 1931 law did not give the commission authority to consider the UPS applications.

That all changed when the Texas Supreme Court interceded and ordered the RRC to hold hearings on the request.

Now, it seems just a matter of time, probably just two or three months, before UPS gets the authority it has sought for so long.

The company now is handling 100 million packages each year in Texas in the interstate market. Intrastate deliveries could add up to 90,000 parcels a day.

Hispanic Judge

Gov. Mark White this week made history by appointing the first Hispanic ever to serve on the state's highest civil court.

White named Corpus Christi appeals court judge Raul A. Gonzalez to fill a vacancy on the Texas Supreme Court.

That vacancy was created by the resignation of Supreme Court Justice Charles Barrow, who left the court to become dean of the Baylor University Law School.

Gonzalez, a former migrant farmworker, served on the Corpus Christi Court of Appeals since 1981 and as a Brownsville district judge from 1978 to 1980.

He also has served as assistant

U.S. attorney for the Southern District of Texas and assistant city attorney for the City of Houston.

Though Gonzalez, 44, said he never aspired to serve on the state's highest court, he said he hopes his appointment will show young Hispanics that they can attain high office with hard work.

Bush A Texan?

And, while White was patting himself on the back for his Supreme Court appointee, he also took time out to poke a little fun at Vice President George Bush.

Bush, the former Texas congressman, has been maintaining that he still is a Texan despite maintaining a home in Maine.

However, on income tax returns disclosed recently, Bush listed his Maine address as his primary address, even though he still votes in Texas—giving the address of a Houston hotel as his voting address.

Despite the confusion over addresses, White said he is more than willing to personally deliver a voter registration card to Bush if the vice president is serious about being a Texan.

Even the use of a hotel address doesn't bother him, White said, because the vice president "obviously isn't a transient."

Education Board

The newly appointed State Board of Education was sworn into office this week amid the very vocal complaints by state officials who contend many school administrators, high school sports supporters, vocational education teachers and others are trying to sabotage this summer's education reforms before the board can even start implementation.

Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby particularly centered his criticisms on Education Commissioner Raymon Bynum.

Bynum has predicted that new competency testing requirements could cost the state some 25,000 teachers within the next year.

"Much to my disappointment, many of the leaders of the administration of public education around the state—some of them in the (Texas) Education Agency and some of them superintendents, most of whom I've known for many years—did little to help pass House Bill 72 and, in fact, sought to impede it," Hobby said in remarks to the new education board members.

"They tried before the passage of the bill and since the passage of the bill to sabotage this monumental piece of legislation that is going to, with your leadership, raise Texas from 45th among the 50 states in educational accomplishment to first," Hobby said.

White also chastised Bynum, stating that the education commissioner failed to consider the positive impact higher teacher salaries, better classroom discipline and other reform measures will have on teacher recruitment.

Bynum has indicated he plans to retire soon, and White, though not saying so directly, gave plenty of indication that Bynum's immediate resignation would not be displeasing to him.

Letters to the Editor

October 8, 1984

Dear Editor,

Electing a strong, effective president to lead our nation for four years is the most important challenge facing the American voters. In my opinion, voting for a person solely because of party label is tantamount to national suicide; therefore, I challenge my fellow voters to try to shift through the political smoke-blowing and examine the issues.

To decide on the right man for the job, some questions we might ask ourselves are these: Is lowering the inflation rate from 12.4 percent to 4 percent and interest rates from 21 1/2 percent to 13 percent "voodoo economics"? How are across-the-board tax cuts unfair? Could the poor and those on fixed incomes have survived the Democratic economic policies that promoted high inflation? After Mark White gets through raising state taxes and forcing school districts to raise taxes, can we afford Mondale's income tax increases. Won't economic growth and employment improvement be jeopardized by proposed Democratic tax increases for businesses? Will a bigger tax dollar result in better government or merely bigger government? Finally, while all of the nation's ills have not been remedied, hasn't President Reagan done an amazing job with an almost impossible task, and hasn't he earned the right to continue to lead us through the complete recovery of our nation?

Sincerely,
Frances Curry

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

Its later than you think, so with frost approaching do take time to enjoy the beautiful fall colors in so many of our city gardens.

Many of the towns around us are stressing a general fall cleanup in October so we don't want Ozona to fail to keep grooming yards and urging others to do so. Old trash may harbor insect pests or diseases, so should be placed where it can be hauled off. A sanitation program includes pulling up all of spent bedding plants, cutting off tops of browned perennials, raking the ground to collect the surface debris, and removing from the garden. Also, plants that are now being dug and divided, should be carefully cleaned and all injured, diseased or dead leaves and stems removed.

There is more time now than in the spring for garden construction, such as paths, rock gardens, terraces, and other features.

Your mums still need care with regular attention. Continue watering frequently to produce steady growth and buds. Also feed lightly each with one teaspoon fertilizer per gallon of water. Discontinue when color shows in flower buds.

While the days are cooler and nights are frost free, move your indoor plants outside for two or three weeks. Apply liquid fertilizer and water well to encourage strong growth. Don't make the mistake of repotting plants just because you are bringing them inside. Flowering house plants bloom more profusely when their roots are slightly crowded. Repot in larger size pots only those that were potbound last winter.

Divide big blue liriopse now so plants will have time to establish new roots before next spring. Consider planting it in place of lawn grass in areas that have become shady. It also makes an excellent border.

Instead of trying to bring large pots of geraniums indoors for the winter, take cuttings to root this month. The best method is to fill clean pots with a good, well-drained potting soil. Insert two or three cuttings 2 to 3 inches long directly into the pot and water thoroughly. Place in a warm, bright location, but not in direct sun. Rooting should occur within three to four weeks.

Ruthardt-Aldridge vows exchanged Saturday

Miss Tonya Delyn Ruthardt became the bride of Mr. Varlyn Kevin Aldridge in a 3 p.m. ceremony Saturday, Oct. 6, in Ozona First Baptist Church. Rev. Ray Aldridge, cousin of the bridegroom and pastor of the Pentacostal Church in Robert Lee, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Ruthardt and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Aldridge.

Miss Leslie Pamela Wilton of Alpine served as maid-of-honor. Ring-bearer was Eric Parker. Vaden Aldridge, brother of the bridegroom, of Gonzales was best man. Ushers were Larry Payne and Dale Perry. Candelighters were Latrice and Cameron Long, twin nieces of the bride, of Richland Hills.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white Chantilly lace with a fitted waist and high neckline, highlighted by full sleeves and ruffled tiered skirt. She wore a lace picture hat and carried a bouquet of blue and white roses with lily of the valley. She wore an antique watch, borrowed from her grandmother.

The bride's attendants wore gowns of blue satin with fitted waist and scoop neckline, with matching picture hats. They carried blue silk roses.

Hyacinth Long, niece of the bride, of Richland Springs took turns at the registry table with Jacque Aldridge, niece of the bridegroom, of Gonzales.

The church was decorated with a candle arbor entwined with English ivy, blue roses and lily of the valley. Miss Ninfa Cervantez furnished the wedding music at the piano.

A reception, hosted by the bride's parents, was held following the wedding at the Civic Center. Members of the houseparty were Joann Hearne, Dona Lilly, Dena Phillips, Debbie Stinson, Evelyn St Clair, Dinky St Clair, and Wanda Farris, aunt of the bride, of Odessa.

The bride is a 1984 graduate of Ozona High School and is a checker at Thornton's Supermarket. Her husband, a 1982 graduate of Ozona High School, graduated from TSTI in 1983. He is employed here in oilfield related business.

Following a trip to San Antonio, the couple will be at home in Ozona.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the parents of the bridegroom Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Inn of the West.

TALK

When does conversation come across? When do people really communicate? Really understand?

Big questions. Yes. And they demand big answers. Because unless people can speak to each other and be understood as well as merely heard, our world will continue to be a mess.

Communication. It's vital. And the Church, today, is trying to do something about it — locally, nationally, internationally. New efforts are being made, new doors are being opened.

Why not get in on the right wavelength?

Ready for dedication

Judge A.O. Fields, left, and Dr. Curtis Tunnell, Executive Director of the State Historical Commission, admire the historical marker dedicated at the Emerald House Monday evening. Around 25 history buffs attended the dedication.

Wildcat slated and producer gained in Crockett County fields

Tucker Drilling Co. Inc., San Angelo will drill the No. 1 University 44-11, a 9,600-foot wildcat in Crockett County, and also attempt to re-open Ellenburger oil production in the Block 44 (Shallow oil) field, one location north-northwest of the depleted Ellenburger opener, 1/2-mile east of a 9,335-foot failure and 10 miles southwest of Barnhart.

Location is 467 feet from the north and 2,088 feet from the east lines of 11-44-ULS. Ground elevation is 2,685 feet.

The Ellenburger opener, Pure Oil Co., No. 1-D University, was finished July 21, 1958 for 208 barrels of 42.2 gravity oil, plus 4.2 per cent basic sediment and water, through a 3/8-inch choke and perforations at 9,028-78 feet.

The Ingham multipay field of Crockett County gained its sixth Canyon 6400 gas producer and a 3/8-mile north extension to that pay with reclassification of Exxon Corp., Midland, No. 1 State University "EX", former Canyon 6400 oil producer, 22 miles west of Ozona, for a calculated, absolute open flow of 1,807,000 cubic feet of gas daily, with gas-liquid ratio of 412,935-1.

Production was through perforations at 6,605-7,451 feet.

Information on the original completion was not available.

Location is 660 feet from the south and 1,320 feet from the east lines of 5-30-ULS.

Emerald House-

structure is unrecorded, it is known that the house originally was built in the townsite of Emerald (9 mi. E). Established in 1889 as Crockett County's first settlement, Emerald was the colonization project of railroad agent T. A. Wilkinson. When Crockett County was organized formally in 1891, an election was held to determine the site of the county seat. Emerald lost its bid for the seat of government to a newly developing area that became the town of Ozona. Within a few years, many of Emerald's buildings, including this house, were moved to the new county seat. As a result, Emerald eventually disappeared.

Until 1981, when it was moved to this site, the Emerald house was located on one of Ozona's main streets. It had been owned by many of the town's prominent citizens, including E. M. Powell, an early area surveyor who gave the land for many of the town's public buildings and parks; pioneer merchant Phil Perner; newspaper publisher W. A. Cochran; ranchers George L. Harrell and J. W. Friend; and E. B. Deland.

As one of Crockett County's earliest structures and a survivor of its first settlement, the Emerald House is a significant reminder of the county's heritage.

Since the Emerald House opened for public use in November of 1983 a total of 18 events has been held in the restored historical house located in Fairgrounds Park. Groups or individuals may use the facilities for a $10 cleaning up fee.

Those wishing to use the house for small gatherings may make reservations at the chamber of commerce office.

Georgia Blaine Bissett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bissett, of Rock-springs, is here visiting her Mam and Granddad Bissett while her older brother, Nace, undergoes eye surgery at St. John's Hospital in San Angelo this week.

Crockett County Care Center News

BY ANN McCARTNEY
DIRECTOR OF ACTIVITIES & SOCIAL CARE

October is here and we are having an Oktoberfest Friday. If you have any articles or pictures of Germany that you will share with us that day, please call me by Thursday.

Sara Hignight came back on Monday to give us another lesson on stenciling. Several pictures were stenciled on sweat shirts and on pillow tops. Dorothy Doll assisted with the activity. We really appreciate people like Sara who shares new crafts with us!

Tuesday afternoon our residents were treated to a milkshake by Clayton's Village Drug. Those who could and would be treated at the store. Everyone else was sent one back. Wasn't that nice? Residents going included: Paul Cavin, Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Alice Ross, Nina Mayfield, Nila Turnell, Maude Pettit, Inez Biggs, Billie Whately, Minnie Karr and Johnny Henderson. Volunteers assisting included Mattie Cooper, Ruth Dorris, Earline Jones, Dorothy Doll and Bel Martinez.

The Knox band gave us a nice nighttime performance recently. Jamie Knox, Don and J.D. Kilgore, and Lonnie Longoria all generously shared their talents to the enjoyment of our residents.

Donuts, Etc. shared their talents in another way. They sent donuts for everyone to enjoy.

We recently received a memorial in memory of Dan Bean and Leona Harris.

Ceramics were directed on Wednesday by Ruth Hester and Dorothy Doll. Residents participating included Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Alice Ross, Hilda Dysart, Nina Mayfield, Ola Mills, Billie Whately, Moriana Perez and Johnny Henderson.

Wednesday afternoon we read the Ozona Stockman and the Big Lake Wildcat. We appreciate these two newspapers sending complimentary issues to our residents. Baggett Insurance sends several copies of the San Angelo Standard also. All these newspapers help keep our residents informed.

Thursday's beauty shop was manned by Clara Byrd, Lola Rios, Bel Martinez and newcomer Marg St. Clair who was welcomed and told to make it a weekly event.

Bible study this week was brought by Charles Huffman and fellow church members Phyllis Harms, Melissa Hintz, and Ruby Olson. Charlotte Trull played the piano for the group.

Spanish Hour of Praise volunteers Maria Vitela, Paulita Leal, Felipa Munoz, Hermiana Onofre, and Sulema Martinez brought some pretty Spanish music which could be heard from the dayroom.

IRAs more feasible than Soc. Security

Americans should be allowed to use Individual Retirement Accounts to save for retirement rather than being forced to contribute to the Social Security system, say two accounting experts.

Drs. Dennis Lassila and Karl Putnam of Texas A&M University's College of Business Administration maintain workers should have the option of investing for retirement in "Super IRAs" that could bring greater returns than Social Security, instead of paying Social Security taxes.

The Social Security system will not be self-supporting within the next 10-20 years and higher social security taxes or income taxes will be needed to raise additional funds, the professors explained. They said it would be fairer to let workers choose to invest in special IRAs for retirement and, if necessary, subsidize the Social Security system through income taxes.

Long-term credit that's productive.

MICHAEL W. SMITH
President
P.O. Box 397
Sonora, Texas 76950

Twelve members of the United Methodist Church came on Sunday for the afternoon church services. Rev. Ken Harrison conducted the services. Katherine Russell played the piano. Communion was served to all residents wishing to participate.

Bingo winners this week included Minnie Karr, first place winner of a gift certificate from Clayton's Village Drug, Moriana Perez, second place winner, and Maude Pettit, winner of the El Chato dinner for two. Volunteers included Mattie Cooper, Amalida Lumberras, Elodia Zapata, Dorothy Doll and Anna Bell Patrick. Twenty residents played both Tuesday and Friday.

Tulip bulbs were planted both inside and out by our residents. Alice Ross was definitely the leader. Also assisting was Maude Pettit, Moriana Perez, Hilda Dysart, Tomasa Ramos, Juana Hernandez, Ola Mills and Billie Whately. Dorothy Doll assisted these residents.

Dominoes were played this Monday by Paul Cavin, Maude Pettit and volunteers Tina Holmsley and Hillery Phillips.

Volunteers, keep coming!

Golf and band are class-loss leaders

Critics who have condemned football for robbing high school students of classroom time are barking up the wrong extracurricular activity, according to a Texas A&M University study.

Golf and marching band actually require more time away from the classroom during the normal school day, says Jack Dean Clemmons. Clemmons conducted one of the first studies of how much class time is actually consumed by University Interscholastic League (UIL) activities which include speech contests, journalism, literary and academic contests, drama, music and athletics.

Data for the study came from 82 4-A high school principals in Texas who responded to questionnaires asking how many students participated in different UIL activities and, on the average, how much time each year those activities took the students out of the classroom.

Clemmons analyzed the data in two ways. In looking at how much class time was lost per student due to an activity, golf ranked first with almost 29 hours a year out of the classroom, he said.

Clemmons also looked at an average "gross" number of hours an activity caused students to miss class which was computed by multiplying the average number of hours one student would miss class by the total number of students involved in the activity.

Marching band was the biggest "offender" with football ranking 10th.

Clemmons said that high school principals who responded to the questionnaires overwhelmingly support UIL activities and believe they are a positive contribution to students' overall educational experience.

Booklet on Social Security must be read

A booklet spelling out the rights and responsibilities of people who get Social Security or supplemental security income (SSI) checks given to them at the time their claim is approved is required reading. People need to know the information contained in the booklets to insure that their checks will continue to be delivered on time, at the correct address, and in the right amount.

The booklets contain information on the changes that may affect the beneficiary's eligibility to benefits or the amount of benefits. Changes must be reported to Social Security promptly to avoid overpayment of benefits.

People who don't take the time to read the booklets are running a number of risks, not the least of which is that they may get benefits they should not have gotten. Such overpayments must be repaid either in lump sum or by installment payments withheld from future checks.

A booklet entitled Rights and Responsibilities: Retirement and Survivors Benefits lists the following events that should be reported:

Change of mailing address, earnings of more than the annual limit if receiving retirement or survivors benefits, if a person intends to go outside the United States for 30 days or more, if a person works outside the United States, and Conviction of felony.

Dependents and survivors must also report:

Spouse or surviving spouse receives government pension, divorce or annulment, marriage, adoption of a child, child leaves the care of a parent, child nearing 18 is disabled or is a full-time student, change in school attendance for a student 18 or 19, if a person is unable to manage funds, and if a person getting benefits dies.

A similar booklet for people getting disability benefits lists the following additional events that must be reported:

If they go to work, receiving other disability checks, and if condition improves.

People getting SSI should report any change in circumstances which affects their income or resources since the payments are based on limited income and resources. A booklet, entitled Reporting Changes That Affect Your Gold SSI Checks, focuses on the most frequent changes in circumstances. These events include bank accounts, work, other income, living expenses, and entering an institution. More details on what to report is included in another booklet, What You Should Know About SSI.

People who do not have copies of the rights and responsibilities booklets should contact the San Angelo Social Security Office located at 2214 Sherwood Way. The telephone number is 949-4608.

Public Notice

WATER HEARING SET

Notice of the adjudication of all claims of water rights in the Pecos and Devils Rivers Watershed of the Rio Grande Basin, and in the Closed Basin;

Notice of the requirement for the filing of sworn water right claims under Section 11.307, Texas Water Code; and

Notice of the commencement of hearings on all water rights claims

Notice is given pursuant to Section 11.306, Texas Water Code, and Commission Rule 31 TAC §275.12(c) that all claims of water rights in the Pecos and Devils Rivers Watershed of the Rio Grande Basin, and in the Closed Basin, will be adjudicated pursuant to Section 11.301, et seq., Texas Water Code, and Commission Order of September 25, 1984.

The Pecos and Devils Rivers Watershed consists of: the Pecos River and its tributaries from the Texas-New Mexico state line to its confluence with the Rio Grande, excluding Barrilla Draw Watershed, but including all use of water under Permit No. 1217, as amended, of the Red Bluff Water Power Control District; and, the Devils River and its tributaries from their headwaters to the river's confluence with the Rio Grande.

The Closed Basin consists of that portion of the basin located within the State of Texas.

On or before December 27, 1984, all persons claiming a right to divert state water, except for domestic and livestock purposes, in the Pecos and Devils Rivers Watershed, and in the Closed Basin, shall file with the Texas Department of Water Resources a sworn claim in accordance with Section 11.307, Texas Water Code, setting forth the following: the name and post office address of the claimant; the location and nature of the right claimed, including a description of any permit or certified filing under which the claim is made; the purpose of use; a description of works and irrigated land; and, all other information necessary to show the nature and extent of the claim.

Instructions and forms for the filing of water rights under Section 11.307, Texas Water Code, may be obtained without cost from the Texas Department of Water Resources, P.O. Box 13087, Austin, Texas 78711, or from the Department's district office at 204A West 5th Street, Odessa, Texas 79761. Use of the Department forms is not mandatory.

Copies of the Department's investigation report, together with aerial photographs in the report's appendix, will become available on December 31, 1984 for inspection in the offices of the Texas Department of Water Resources in the Stephen F. Austin State Office Building, 1700 North Congress Avenue, Austin, Texas, and in the Department's district office at 204A West 5th Street, Odessa, Texas 79761.

Notice is further given pursuant to Section 11.308, Texas Water Code, and Commission Rule 31 TAC §275.12(e), of the commencement of hearings to receive evidence on all claims of water rights filed or asserted in accordance with Section 11.307, Texas Water Code, in the Pecos and Devils Rivers Watershed of the Rio Grande Basin, and in the Closed Basin.

At 8:30 a.m. on Monday, January 7, 1985, at the Large Community Hall in Rooney Park, Sanderson Highway, Fort Stockton, Texas, the Texas Water Commission, through a hearings examiner, will convene and commence public hearings in accordance with Commission rules. The hearing on January 7, 1985 will be to establish jurisdiction and to explain the adjudication process and procedure to be followed at the individual evidentiary hearings. Individual hearings to receive evidence substantiating claims will continue thereafter at the times and places provided by docket notice which will be sent to each claimant. The evidence received at the hearings will form the basis for the Commission's determination of all claims of water rights in the described adjudication area. Failure to appear and present evidence will jeopardize the right to divert and use water asserted in the claims.

Signed this 26th day of September, 1984.

Pesticide chemicals more important than product name

Garden enthusiasts combatting insects should look for the active chemical when buying pesticides rather than the product's name, says a Texas A&M University entomologist.

"You'll be better off looking for the active ingredients you want," said Dr. Rodney Holloway, "because products often contain the same ingredients but are sold by different companies which use their own marketing formula and charge different prices. The amount you pay doesn't always indicate how much pesticide you are buying."

In many cases different pesticides can be used in the same situation, he added. Diazinon, Malathion, Sevin and Dursban are the most popular insecticides and will kill fleas, mites, aphids and cockroaches inside and outside the house, Holloway said. Insecticides and will kill fleas, mites, aphids and cockroaches inside and outside the house, Holloway said. Chlordane is limited by the Environmental Protection Agency for termite control only.

1985 CALENDAR REFILLS NOW AVAILABLE AT THE OZONA STOCKMAN.

Quick, easy weight loss not long lasting, TMA says

Despite all the gimmicks for jumping rope, or aerobic dancing three times a week. "quick" and "easy" weight loss, the only safe and effective way to lose pounds is to cut back on high-calorie foods and exercise regularly, says the Texas Medical Association.

Each year more "new, revolutionary" diets are promoted. And every year thousands of people begin these diets and are disappointed when they fail to lose weight permanently.

Advocates of quick and easy reduction programs may suggest practices ranging from sweating off weight to starving it away. They may recommend pills, hormonal therapy, or diets emphasizing a single food such as grapefruit, bananas, or rice.

The real problem with many of these methods is that they are seriously lacking in essential nutrients. Not only will people on these diets be malnourished, but they often become bored with a diet's monotony and give it up. The pounds they managed to shed will come back as they revert to overeating high-calorie foods.

Fasting and very low-calorie diets like liquid-protein ones can be dangerous. Most people ultimately find fasting disappointing because weight regained after a fast is put on first as fat. Since fat tissue requires fewer calories to sustain itself than muscle tissue, it is harder for an individual to lose weight the next time.

In addition, the body responds to a drastic cutback in calories by lowering the rate at which it burns them. For many dieters, this means that even if they do not cheat on their diet, weight loss may halt.

Exercise, however, can change all of this. It conditions the muscles, helps to burn calories, lowers blood pressure, and allows a person to eat enough food to obtain required nutrients without gaining weight.

Recent research also suggests that exercise significantly increases the body's metabolism.

These benefits can best be achieved through a half-hour of vigorous activity like fast walking, jogging, fast bicycling, swimming, rollerskating.

Employers are hiring jobless Veterans

South Texas employers have hired 429 jobless Korean and Vietnam veterans, and have created over 2,437 training positions since the Emergency Veterans' Job Training Act became effective last October, the Veterans Administration has announced.

Under the legislation, the federal government will pay employers who hire or train veterans 50 percent of the vets' starting salaries, said Ted W. Myatt, Director of the Houston VA Office.

So far, 774 Texas businesses have participated in the program.

To qualify, veterans must have served 180 days or more on active duty and part of their service must have been during the Korean or Vietnam wars.

Korean veterans must have served at some point between June 27, 1950 and January 31, 1955 to be eligible. Vietnam veterans must have served at some time between August 5, 1964, and May 7, 1975.

Veterans must have been without work for at least 15 of the last 20 weeks before applying for placement assistance.

Employers who qualify under the program must have jobs available in a growth industry (one requiring new technological skills) or must have a position for which there are few trained workers.

Veterans or employers interested in the program should contact the nearest Texas Employment Commission Office or call the VA Regional Office's toll free telephone number 1-800-392-2200.

National 4-H Week

🍀 OCTOBER 7-13 🍀

JR. HIGH 4-H OFFICERS were elected last week. Shown above are the new officers. Left to right back row are Margaret Jones, sixth grade delegate; Tammy Arrott, seventh grade delegate; Cody Sutton, eighth grade

NATIONAL 4-H WEEK is October 7-13 and these third, fourth and fifth graders are busy making posters preparing for the activities.

County 4-H members learn communication skills

Communication is a common thread that runs through every 4-H project and activity in Crockett County, according to Rachel Hall.

She said that 4-H boys and girls improve their communication skills every time they express themselves at club meetings, build a public display, give a project demonstration, create a poster, or complete project record books.

In addition, said Mrs. Hall, about 225 local 4-H'ers are involved in formal communication activities, such as, photography, public speaking, and club reporting.

"The ability to communicate is important in every day living," she said. "It's through communication that we learn and understand others.

Whenever 4-H'ers have to organize and present their ideas for a demonstration, or a speech, they develop confidence and the ability to think clearly."

The public can see 4-H youth in action at all 4-H activities.

4-H is conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service. For more information on 4-H call the Extension office at 2-2721.

SR. HIGH 4-H CLUB OFFICERS and their leaders are shown above. They are Melody Stark, Sharon McCrohan, Julie Reagor, Jim McCrohan, Ira Childress, Ann Childress, Amy Jones, Sherry Scott, Susan Scott and Vickie Reagor.

Volunteers play important roles with Crockett County 4-Hers

4-H isn't just for kids. It thrives on adult volunteer leadership.

As the youth program of the Cooperative Extension Service and the U.S. Department of Agriculture, 4-H relies on the help, resources, and expertise of 100 volunteers locally who work with 225 4-H members. These volunteers are among the more than 620,000 volunteer leaders nationwide, who work with nearly five million 4-H members throughout the United States, Puerto Rico, Guam, and the Virgin Islands.

"In 4-H, adults also can gain valuable training and learn new skills," Rachel Hall said. "Youth learn by doing in 4-H. They plan what they want to learn and then put the plan into action through 4-H projects and activities under the guidance of adult volunteers and parents."

Volunteers need not be experts in a specialized subject. They just need a willingness and desire to work with youth in helping them learn life-long skills. Many training opportunities exist for leaders to learn new skills. The kinds of training available locally to leaders can be found out by contacting the Extension Office, 392-2721. On regional and national levels, volunteer leader forums provide 4-H leaders an opportunity to share ideas with others and learn skills related to specific project areas.

The most efficient, the most economical heating and cooling system for your home.

THE Electric heat pump.

It's part of "the plan" — the Energy Saving Plan

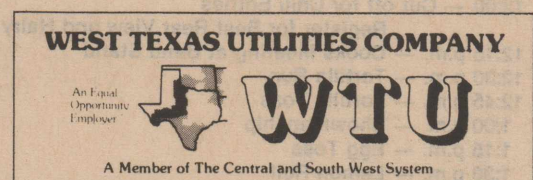

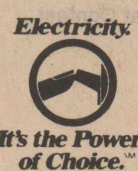

Here's how it works:

For Winter Heating

1. Heat is absorbed by refrigerant in the outside coils.
2. The compressor pressurizes the refrigerant and sends it to the inside coils.
3. The heat from the inside coil is circulated through the house by the fan.
4. The refrigerant flows outside and the cycle is repeated.

THE ELECTRIC HEAT PUMP: It can save you money on your home energy bills. And when it's used along with other WTU-recommended energy conservation measures according to the ENERGY SAVING PLAN, you can save even more. WTU will pay YOU money when you install an electric heat pump to meet the E.S.P. requirements that add to your home's comfort and energy efficiency. That's where the ELECTRIC HEAT PUMP comes in — it's part of "the plan" because it's the most efficient system for heating and cooling. During the winter it removes heat from the outside air and pumps it into your home. In the summer it reverses the process and becomes an air conditioner, so you get even comfort year-round. CALL YOUR LOCAL WTU OFFICE OR A FACTORY-TRAINED ELECTRIC HEAT PUMP DEALER TODAY TO FIND OUT MORE ABOUT SAVING ENERGY AND MONEY ON YOUR HOME ELECTRIC BILLS.

To Qualify, Your Home must be served by WTU and meet our Energy Efficiency Requirements.

This past Monday's (Oct. 8) 4-H Awards Program and Hamburger Supper was a real success with 225 people attending and 75 4-Hers honored for their 4-H accomplishments. The 4-H Parent and Leaders Association was responsible for the meal.

Susan Scott and Ira Childress did an excellent job in acting as masters of ceremonies for the evening. The Share The Fun Skit titled, "But, What About Me?" was entertaining and certainly a good example of what 4-H members can do with their talents.

Highlights of the Awards Presentation included the presentation of Gold Star Awards to Ira Childress, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Childress and Mrs. Judy Childress, and Susan Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lane Scott. Each have been active in their community, church, and school activities. The Mother Davidson Award, presented to an outstanding 4-Hers each year, was presented to Julie Reagor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Reagor. Also, "I Dare You" awards, which encourage youths to accept challenges, was presented to Vickie Reagor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Reagor and Brock Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brock Jones, Jr.

Groups deserving a special note of appreciation for Monday's 4-H Awards program include: The Senior Club's program organization, the Junior High Club's clean-up crew, the Intermediate's decoration talents, the Awards Selection Committee, the 4-H Parent-Leaders Association and all of the leaders' and 4-Hers time.  THE BEST SHOPPING IS HERE AT HOME

THE FABLE: Aesop, a famous fable teller is remembered for his story about the dog trotting home with a prize bone. On the way he saw what looked like a much larger one in the reflection of a stream . . . but, in grabbing for it, lost the bone he already had.

THE FACT: Many of us today are still risking and losing some of the good things we have by reaching for a tempting offer outside our own community.

By shopping elsewhere for "The bigger bone" we seriously undermine the economic structure that supports our schools, churches, businesses and everything else that makes our home town a great place to live and work.

This community could enjoy greater prosperity and many more social and civic facilities if out-of-town spending were kept in our local economic bloodstream. Shop At Home - Don't be a victim of a 1300-year-old fable.
