Annual ACS crusade to kick off here

"Close to one in every two patients diagnosed with cancer today will be alive five years after treatment," said Becky Childress, president of the American Cancer Society's Ozona unit. "That figure has improved dramatically in the last 50 years; in the 1930's less than one in five cancer patients survived."

Mrs. Childress announced plans today for the 1985 ACS Crusade in Ozona, outlining the goals for this year's Crusade. The annual campaign takes place during April, Cancer Control Month. Sharmen West is Crusade Chairman.

"The goals of this Crusade are to inform as many people in Ozona as possible about cancer prevention and early detection and to generate funds for the American Cancer Society's service, research and education programs," Mrs. Childress explained.

"The 1985 educational focus of the Crusade will be colon and rectum cancer, a possibly preventable and highly curable form of cancer."

Beta Sigma Phi sorority members will distribute a folder called "Your Colorectal Health Check" to Ozona residents during the April campaign. The sorority will be in charge of the residential drive which will be held on Thursday, April 11.

"Early detection and treatment are still your best defense against cancer," added Mrs. Childress. "Your local office of the American Cancer Society can give you information on cancer's seven warning signals, on dietary recommendations, testicular and breast self-examinations and other preventive practices. Contact ACS today. It could save a life!"

The door-to-door distribution of the colorectal folder is only one of many activities planned by volunteers in Ozona. Other special educational and fund-raising events will be held throughout the month.

Mrs. Childress named to chairmanship

During a meeting of the Crockett County Historical Commission at the Emerald House on Monday afternoon, February 25, Mrs. P.L. Childress was elected the new chairman of the Commission. She will serve a two year term.

Other officers elected were Mrs. R.A. Harrell, Vice-Chairman and Mrs. Lee Graves, Secretary-Treasurer.

Appreciation was expressed to all the members who have served for many years, and especially to Mrs. W.D. Cooper who has been Secretary-Treasurer since 1975.

Historical Commission members are appointed every two years, in every Texas county, by the County Judge and Commissioners.

Drug Essay Contest Winners

In observance of Drug Prevention Month, this group of second graders won the essay contest on the harmful effects of drugs. Three winners were chosen for each class. First, second and third place winners shown here were presented ribbons by school principal Walter Spiller.

Annual Ozona Relays held here Saturday

The Annual Ozona Relays were held Saturday at Lion Stadium with six boys teams, 11 girls and ten junior varsity teams competing in their divisions. Both the Lions and Lady Lions finished third, while the Lion JV came in sixth.

Iraan won the boys division in varsity competition and McCamey in junior varsity division.

The cool, windy day was filled with tough competition and special awards.

A special recognition award went to Charles (Chick) Womack, who retires from the school system this year as junior high principal. He was recognized as being the founder and organizer of the Ozona Relays. He spent over 25 years as head track coach and guided his teams to victory each of those years. Mrs. Womack was also recognized for her assistance in the 33 meets which have been held.

Track queen and beau were also presented by vote of the teams. Donna Sanchez was named track queen and Chuy Hernandez, track beau. The Clifford Crawford award went to Danny Sanchez, who also won the 800-meter run. The award is given each year as a memorial from Ozona High School Class of '77.

The Lady Lions captured third place in the Ozona Relays last Saturday, edging out rival Sonora 67½ points to 64½ points. The third place finish was very good against the tough competition that was present in the 11 team girls division.

Vanessa Miller won the long jump with a jump of 15'2½" and placed third in the discus with a throw of 103'. Vickie Reagor tied for sixth in the high jump (4'4").

Donna Sanchez placed second in the 3200 meter run with a time of 13:20.29. The 400 meter relay team (Donna, Olga Borrego, Melissa Vallejo, Regina Cervantez) placed sixth with a 55.44. Lacy Miller placed fifth in the 800 meter run with a time of 2:36.73. The 800 meter relay team (Regina, Olga, Lacy, Vanessa) edged out C-City to win the event with a time of 1:54.40. In the 200 meter dash, Vanessa placed third (27.73) and Regina placed sixth (29.14). The 1600 meter relay team (Donna, Melissa, Lacy, Vanessa) placed third with a time of 4:34.44.

Individual scorers for Ozona was Vanessa, 30 points; Donna with 11½, Lacy 10, Regina 6½, Olga 5½, Melissa 3½, and Vickie ½ point. Vanessa was the overall high point individual in the girls division of the track meet.

The Lady Lions will compete in the Cactus Relays in Iraan on April 6.

Windmills is topic for historical meet

The Crockett County Historical Society met at the Emerald House on Thursday evening, March 28 at 7:00 p.m. with John Stokes, president, presiding. There were 33 members and 3 guests present for an interesting program on windmills.

Following a report of the Nominating Committee Chairman, Mrs. Fred Hagelstein, the following officers were elected by acclamation: Judge Brock Jones, president; Mrs. Brock Jones, vice-president, and Mrs. R.A. Harrell, secretary-treasurer. The group expressed appreciation to Mr. Stokes and Mrs. Jeffery Sutton, vice-president, for their just completed two-year terms.

Mrs. P.L. Childress, Museum Director, announced the receipt of a "First Place Award" from the Texas Historical Commission, for the recent Veterans Exhibit at the museum. This award is for communities of 5,000 or less. Mrs. Harrell announced that an "Award of Merit for Historical Preservation" was also being given to Crockett County, based on the restoration of the School and the Emerald House. Both awards will be presented at the State Commission meeting in Fort Worth May 1-4.

Mrs. Jeffery Sutton presented Miss Billie Wolf, faculty member at Texas Tech University for the past 21 years, who gave a most interesting program on Windmills, a subject she has been researching for the past 15 years. Her slides showed many kinds of windmills from the first one, located at Cape Cod, to modern examples. She also shared her enthusiasm for harp music. A beautiful series on windmills has been composed and is now being played in various musical circles. A modern original composition by her brother was also enjoyed by the group. Mrs. Sutton is a former student of Miss Wolf's.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Sutton and her mother, Mrs. James Childress.

SS representative sets April visit

John Willis, representative of the San Angelo Social Security Office, has scheduled his April visit to Ozona. He will be at the County Courthouse on Wednesday, April 17 between 2:00 p.m. and 3:30 p.m.

Local students place in meet

The District 7-AAA UIL contest held at ASU Saturday, March 30, yielded 3 firsts, 3 thirds, and 6 fourth places to Ozona High School students.

Ann Hoover was Ozona's sole entry in the shorthand contest taking first in that event. Steve Sanchez lost in a tie for third and took fourth place in typewriting.

"Ann was just exactly where she should have been in her shorthand ability," said Louise Taliaferro, Ozona High School business teacher and co-director with Chesta Stuart of the typing and shorthand events. Mrs. Stuart is also an Ozona High School business teacher and English IV teacher.

Two 1st places were captured in journalism events with Haley Anderson placing first in editorial writing while Gary Davis took first place in headline writing. Feature writer Ellie Tijerina placed third in her event. Michael Glaze wrote his way to fourth place in both news and editorial writing.

Susan Scott placed third in prose interpretation and Amy Scoggins fourth in that event. Gary Davis advanced to the finals in poetry reading to place fifth.

Freshman Isabel Benitez finished fifth in spelling.

Darla Judd placed third in number sense while David Ledbetter took fourth in that event. Angela Dalby placed fourth in calculator applications. The first and third place winners will advance to the regional contest to be held in Odessa April 12 and 13. Fourth place contestants are district alternates who compete at regional when one of the top three in an event does not compete.

"It is encouraging to see the number of freshmen who were competing this year," said Jim Payne, Ozona High School principal. "Most of the students who did place this year were juniors and seniors however."

Thirty-two Ozona students competed in math, speaking and writing events.

Other Ozona High School students competing at the district contest were Mark Sanchez and Elizabeth Soto in persuasive speaking; Sandra Ramirez and Patsy Vasquez in poetry interpretation; Linda Villarreal and Mark Sellers in journalism events and number sense; Larisa Schoenhals in ready writing; Leisa Bell and Jesus Castillo in spelling; David Ledbetter in science and number sense; Barbara Clinton in calculator applications; Raedene Flores and Melody Stark in typewriting.

Also accompanying the students were Payne, David Porter, speech coach; Frank Reavis, math coach; Jacquelyn Shacklette, coach of journalism events; Louise Taliaferro, typing coach, and Chesta Stuart, shorthand coach.

First Baptist Church has 93rd birthday

The First Baptist Church of Ozona will celebrate its 93rd birthday next Sunday, April 7. There will be a brief memorial tribute to the 7 original charter members, a tribute to the men who served as Deacons over the years, a tribute to the former pastors and also recognition of other Church leaders over the years.

The speaker for the occasion will be the Reverend Glenn Edwards, pastor of the Ozona church in 1947-49. Rev. Edwards is well known in West Texas, for, in addition to his pastoring the First Baptist Church of Pecos for twelve years he served for a number of years as Executive Vice-President of Paisano Baptist Assembly of Alpine-Marfa and, since the death of Dr. W.R. White has served as president. He has been the Baptist camp preacher at Bloys Camp meeting near Ft. Davis for several years.

All members, former members, and friends of the Church are sincerely urged to attend both morning and evening services.

Glen Edwards, a native of Texas and a graduate of Howard Payne

University and Southwestern Theological Seminary, is Director of Church-Minister Relations Division of the Louisiana Baptist Convention. Prior to assuming his current position, Edwards was for ten years pastor of the Broadmoor Baptist Church in Baton Rouge. Earlier pastorates include the First Baptist Churches in Ozona, Grandview, Edinburg, and Pecos, Texas, and the Gambrell Street Baptist Church in Fort Worth.

The Church-Minister Relations Division, of which Edwards is the first full-time director, was designed to provide a support system for all vocational church staff members in the Louisiana Baptist Convention. Pastoral in character, the division functions as a resource agency for ministers and churches through its five departments: Church Personnel Information Services, Ministry to the Retired, Annuity and Retirement Services, Continuing Education, and Family Counseling Services.

Mr. and Mrs. (Helen) Edwards are the parents of one son and two daughters: Tim, Diane, and Jane.

TROUBLE DOWN UNDER

By Edwin Feulner

The recent decision by a U.S. ally, New Zealand, not to allow U.S. warships to use its port facilities has roused understandable concern in Washington.

Though U.S. officials are publicly trying to minimize the importance of the decision by New Zealand's newly elected Labor party government, the decision casts a dark shadow over the 33-year-old ANZUS mutual security pact between Australia, New Zealand, and the United States.

In fact, some say, it could affect the balance of power in the entire Pacific.

Under the terms of the ANZUS security treaty, U.S. warships have routinely called upon New Zealand's ports over the years for fuel, supplies, and rest. Recently, however, New Zealand's Labor party government announced it would no longer allow port calls by any naval vessel carrying nuclear weapons. For security reasons, of course, the United States will neither confirm nor deny whether any of its vessels are carrying nuclear arms. So for all practical purposes, New Zealand's ban on nuclear-armed ships is a ban on all U.S. Navy ships.

While Australia's prime minister, Robert Hawke, has reaffirmed his country's commitment to the ANZUS treaty, losing access to New Zealand's port facilities and territorial waters is not reassuring.

Especially not at a time when the Soviet presence in the region is growing. According to a recent study, the U.S.S.R. now has more than 800 warships in the Pacific, compared to only 212 U.S. ships.

These warships — about 40 percent of the entire Soviet Navy — are far more than the Kremlin needs just to guard its interests in the Far East.

Even more alarming is the fact that the Soviets are now stationing TU-16 Badger attack aircraft at the Soviet naval base at Vietnam's Cam Ranh Bay. From the Vietnam base, the Badger is capable of striking all the Asian capitals and northern Australia from Cam Ranh Bay.

As a modest Pacific counterpart to NATO, ANZUS has played an important role in regional security.

The ANZUS alliance is obviously at a crossroads. If New Zealand wants out, it should take the necessary steps to get out. But it should stop playing games; it can't be part of an alliance at arms length.

For the sake of its own security, and that of its neighbors, New Zealand should make its intentions known — and be willing to abide by its decision, for better or worse.

In the meantime, the U.S. and Australia need to prepare to go it alone. New Zealand has beautiful beaches, and a lousy economy. And if its new left-wing government doesn't want U.S. sailors spending their money in Auckland and Wellington, so be it.

(Feulner is president of The Heritage Foundation, a Washington-based public policy research institute.)

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS
By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—The Texas Legislature, over halfway through the current session, is still struggling to cut another $900 million from the state budget, and the going is getting rougher.

What one group of lawmakers take out, another group tries to put back in.

Last week, Houston State Rep. Paul Colbert got the House Appropriations Committee to abolish branch state universities at Galveston and Odessa, but legislators from those areas went into action and the cuts will not likely survive.

Two plans to raise tuition for state universities—one already passed by the House and the other advocated by Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby in the Senate—drew a veto hint from the governor concerning funds for scholarships.

In short, the two budget committees are finding political pressure whenever they attempt to cut a specific budget area, and they are burning the midnight oil to finish their task by Easter deadline.

Other Cuts

The Office of State-Federal Relations, the state's lobbyist in Washington, D.C., received a 20 percent budget cut, or about half a million dollars, a week after lawmakers forced the resignation of agency head Sarah Weddington for taking too much time off and too many trips.

Weddington's chief critic on the budget panel, State Rep. Bill Ceverha of Dallas, lost his bid to cut two-thirds of the funding.

The panel also voted to cut aid for students in private colleges by $6 million.

Senate Action

The Senate last week approved bills requiring motorists to wear seatbelts and easing farmers of the sole burden of notifying neighbors of pesticide use.

Tentatively, the Senate advanced a proposal to order judges running for election to report specific contributions from persons with cases pending on their dockets.

The seatbelt bill would provide a $25 to $50 fine for persons riding in the front seat of cars and pickups without wearing a seatbelt.

Changes in the pesticide regulations under Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower would add his agency or other agencies to notify nearby residents of impending pesticide use.

A&M Chair Quits

The Republican chairman of the Texas A&M Board of Regents resigned last week after regents voted in a new chairman.

H. R. "Bum" Bright, the multimillionaire owner of the Dallas Cowboys football team, accused Gov. Mark White of controlling the votes like puppets "on a string" and said he decided to leave after White pressured him for political support in '86.

Bright, who was appointed by White's nemesis and Republican predecessor Bill Clements, tells a story of not going along with the deal and having to sacrifice the gavel.

The new chairman, Dave Eller of Houston, is a former neighbor of the governor and has served on the board for two years. Other regents said Bright was probably being politically overdramatic to embarrass White.

Senator Quits, Too

Houston State Sen. Lindon Williams resigned his seat last week to take a justice of the peace appointment which will make him an estimated $100,000 a year.

Williams called for an early special election, and one rumored candidate is a former aide who is being courted to run as a Republican.

On that subject, speculation is that a handful of Democrats will convert to the GOP in unison once the Legislature adjourns in May.

Port Arthur Fracas

In Port Arthur, where the Jefferson County DA has won the indictment of hometown State Sen. Carl Parker on charges of cocaine dealing and promotion of obscene material and an unrelated bribery charge against hometown Rep. Frank Collazo, the verbal charges are flying.

Parker accused District Atty. James McGrath of waging corrupt law enforcement practices and McGrath has challenged Parker "to put up or shut up" in a court of inquiry into the allegations.

Earlier in the week, Parker had issued a statement alleging the existence of an underground clique of law enforcement unknown to decent citizens.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I would like to thank all the people of Ozona who support the I.C.D. Family Shelter. In my outreach work, I've worked with many people who have willingly contributed their time and energy to decreasing family violence in Crockett County. Volunteers are a precious commodity in West Texas, and no one knows better than I just how valuable they are. The county officials, the county extension office, the law enforcement officers, the media and many concerned citizens in the community have been very helpful, and I hope to have their continued support of the Shelter and its services to Crockett County. Thank you.
Sincerely,
Irene Page

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club
by Mrs. Bailey Post

Now that March is gone, we hope the cold winds are too, and that April will bring refreshing showers to help keep our beautiful countryside and yards green. If you want to see beautiful bluebonnets, drive up waterworks hill, for they are the prettiest I've seen anywhere.

I believe the flowering fruit trees and the redbuds have been lovelier than in several seasons. Now, if we can miss a freeze before Easter, maybe there will be a bountiful fruit harvest over our area.

Many of your dead looking oleanders should be pruned back to near the ground and watered well. I notice other shrubs should be also. Check your broadleaf evergreens for freeze damage. They may have dropped their leaves, but the full extent of damage will not show until new growth begins. Wait until then to prune out the dead branches. Cold-damaged plants will need extra care during the spring and summer. Pay particular attention to watering, mulching and fertilizing.

Now is the time to remove suckers that often grow on trees, shrubs and roses. They should be removed as soon as they are noticed, for they can weaken a plant in a short time. These suckers usually grow on the foot stock of the plant, and have foliage that is different from the foliage of the main plant. Dig soil from around these shoots and trace them back to their origin. If tender, they can be jerked out with your hand, or cut them out close to the root system.

Even though we are having warm days, the nights have been cool, so the ground is still not warm enough for seed to germinate well, or put out tender annuals.

When going to a nursery to buy plants, get full information on their growth, size, soil requirements, and if hardy for our area. He may have more time to give this information on a week day. Be sure and check to see if plants look to be disease and insect free.

Since the first Easter, the Cross has remained the one great and enduring symbol of Christianity because it best expresses the meaning of faith. Like a precious jewel, the Cross shines with many facets of truth.

The Cross signifies the hope of faith. It reveals God's love for us in the sacrifice of His Son. It is our assurance of His promise of salvation.

The Cross signifies the challenge of faith. It reveals God's love for all people which we must share. It is the motivation of Christian action.

The Cross signifies the victory of faith. It is the pledge of God's loving purpose in saving the world. It is the source of peace.

What does the Cross mean to you? On Easter--this greatest festival of our Faith, will you come to Church and discover its message?

Sinuses seem to have no useful purpose, only trouble

Sinuses seem to have no useful purpose. They probably did at one time, but now these air spaces in the bones behind the nose seem only to make many people miserable.

Problems arise when the mucous membranes of the sinuses become inflamed, a condition called sinusitis, says the Texas Medical Association.

The trouble usually begins when a common cold—a viral infection—is joined by a bacterial infection. These organisms move easily from the nose into the sinuses because the mucous membranes of the nose extend into and line the sinuses.

Most often affected are the pairs of sinuses in the forehead slightly above and between the eyes and in the cheeks.

Symptoms of sinusitis occur several days after a cold has begun—about the time it should be clearing up. The blockage in the nose may worsen and a greenish discharge may increase.

The discharge may stop if the passages between the nose and the sinuses become blocked. If that happens, the nose is more stopped up than ever. Breathing through the mouth becomes necessary, speech becomes nasal, and a generally ill-feeling sets in.

Depending on which sinuses are affected, a person may have a headache over one or both eyes, and one or both cheeks may hurt. The lower portion of the forehead just above the eyes may feel tender.

Sinusitis is common, but some people never get it. Others get it whenever they have a bad cold. Some people get sinusitis by jumping into water feet first. Damage to nasal bones or a foreign body caught in a nostril can lead to infection and an attack.

Self-treatment involves staying in a room with a fairly constant temperature and a vaporizer to add moisture. Blow your nose gently. To relieve pain, inhale steam from a sink of hot water.

A physician may prescribe an antibiotic, decongestant tablets, nose drops, or a nasal spray. Though further treatment is usually not necessary, a minor operation with local anesthesia can create a new passage-way between the nose and sinuses to relieve the blockage.

Marriage or divorce may stop benefits

Most Social Security benefits to dependents or survivors of retired, disabled, or deceased workers end if the person divorces or marries, Franklin H. Upp, Social Security manager in San Angelo, said recently. But, benefits to disabled widows and widowers 50-59, and to widows and widowers 60 or older can continue upon remarriage.

This same rule applies to disabled surviving divorced spouses 50-59 and to surviving divorced spouses 60 or older, Upp said.

Benefits to a child getting checks because he or she is under 18, or 19 if a student, or disabled will generally end if the child marries. Checks to a spouse getting benefits on the record of a retired or disabled worker will end if the marriage ends in divorce unless the spouse is 62 or older and the marriage lasted 10 years or more.

Checks for a widowed mother or father getting benefits because she or he is caring for an entitled child will end if the parent remarries.

There is an exception to these general rules, Upp said. If an otherwise eligible person receiving benefits as a widow, widower, or adult disabled in childhood marries a person also getting one of these benefits, she or he can continue to get benefits.

Benefits will also continue if a person receiving benefits as a widowed mother or father or adult disabled in childhood marries a person getting benefits as a retired or disabled worker. A retired or disabled worker's benefits are never affected if he or she marries or divorces.

More information about how divorce, marriage, or remarriage affect Social Security benefits can be obtained at the San Angelo Social Security Office located at 2214 Sherwood Way. The telephone number is 949-4608.

New brucellosis vaccine law needs close tabs by ranchers

With the new brucellosis vaccination regulation in effect, producers in Crockett County will need to keep close tabs on the ages of heifers in their beef herds.

As heifers approach one year of age, producers must decide how such animals will be handled, says Billy Reagor, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

This decision must be based on the following provisions of the brucellosis vaccination regulation, which applies to 113 eastern, coastal and northern counties:

Heifer calves born after January 1 of this year which are between 4 a.m. 12 months of age and acquired and used for breeding, grazing, dairying or confinement in a dry lot not under quarantine must be officially vaccinated according to the amended regulation.

Heifer calves born after January 1 of this year which are unvaccinated when they are over 12 months of age change ownership only after being sprayed or consigned to a livestock market to be sprayed or "S" branded prior to the sale; or consigned directly to slaughter, quarantined feedlot or quarantined pasture.

Since heifers born this spring will be a year old in the next few months, producers should start making plans now for vaccination of all eligible heifers, Reagor says.

State funds are available for free vaccinations. Producers should contact their own private veterinarian or their area Texas Animal Health Commission office for complete details.

CROCKETT COUNTY CARE CENTER NEWS

By Ann McCartney
Director Of Activities & Social Care

Another month has passed and the weather has been getting warmer. Some of our residents have been enjoying sitting out on the porch. It won't be long until we'll be having scheduled sunshine hour.

Thanks goes this week to Bobbie Jessup of Dryden for donating an afghan and to Clara Byrd who brought her granddaughter, Leslie Welch from Edmond, Okla., to sing while Clara played. What a nice surprise.

On Good Friday, which is coming up this week, we are having an Easter Parade of children. All mothers and grandmothers are to bring their loved ones, dressed in their Easter finery, and show them off. Our residents love children and this will be a chance for them to see them. Easter bunny prizes will be given to preschoolers.

Last week we decorated Easter cookies and then delivered them, along with some stuffed chickens and ducks, to the Community Center children. Volunteers Marie Pierson, Jo Davidson, and Dorothy Doll assisted residents Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramoz, Jean Beardmore, Bertha Miller, Alice Ross, Ola Mills, Inez Biggs, Billie Whatley, and Moriana Perez with the decorating. Jo Davidson and Glenda Henderson drove Juana, Nina Mayfield, Tomasa, Inez, and Hilda Dysart on the field trip.

Tuesday night the Knox Band came and entertained our residents. Many thanks goes to band members Jamie Knox, Don Kilgore, and J.D. Kilgore.

Lynette Davidson and Marie Pierson were directors of the ceramic class this week. Residents participating included Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramoz, Hilda Dysart, Ola Mills, Billie Whatley and Moriana Perez.

Reading session was held on Wednesday afternoon followed by music furnished by Katharine Russell.

Thursday morning beauty shop was manned by Vivian Hughes and Clara Byrd. The afternoon Bible study was led by Ted Turnley with Glenda Henderson playing the piano. This was followed by Spanish Hour of Praise led by Maria Vitela, Paulita Leal, Carmen Vargas, Felipa Munoz, Mariana Hernandez, and Norma Flores and by piano music played by Marilyn Chalmers.

Fifteen residents played bingo on Tuesday. Nina Mayfield was winner of the El Chato dinner for two. Volunteers were Dorothy Doll and Mattie Cooper. Seventeen residents played on Friday and Grace Cotter was the overall winner for the two days. She received $5 from Perry Brothers. Second place winner was Bertha Miller. Rebekah West won the monthly Baker Jewelers certificate. Volunteers included Dorothy Doll, Anna Bell Patrick, Alice Ross, Amalia Lumberras and Elodia Zapata.

Residents Council meeting was held on Friday afternoon. All the new programs coming up in April were discussed and residents decided what field trips to make and discussed the new T.V.

Sunday church was led by four members of the Calvary Baptist Church, Ken Eppler, preacher. Thanks, friends.

Thanks also goes to Donuts, Etc. for sending more donuts.

We have several things going on this pre-Easter week. Be sure and read all about it next week. Happy Easter!

Survey shows $810 million delinquent taxes statewide

The $810 million in reported delinquencies equals almost 14 percent of the 1983 property taxes levied statewide. These delinquent taxes are contained in 12.1 million accounts, which represents a very large recordkeeping burden for local taxing units.

The $810 million figure may not be completely reliable. Throughout the survey, many taxing units indicated their delinquent tax records were in such poor shape that they could not answer many of the survey questions with confidence.

The report concludes that the condition of tax records is perhaps the most significant obstacle to delinquent tax collections. Only in recent years have some taxing units engaged in a serious effort to organize and automate tax records.

Almost a third of the unpaid taxes reported—$255 million—involve personal property such as business inventories, business equipment, mobile homes, boats and automobiles.

The delinquency rate on personal property is far higher than on real property. School districts, for example, reported that personal property taxes represent 29 percent of all their delinquencies, but only 11 percent of their 1983 tax levies.

Personal property taxes are inherently difficult to collect. Since both the property and its owners are highly mobile, tax collectors find it hard either to seize the property or to sue the owners. Personal property also depreciates in value much faster than real property. Thus, if a taxing unit were to seize personal property for tax delinquency, it might not be able to sell the property for the amount of taxes due.

The survey indicates that a quarter of all delinquent taxes reported are owed in accounts of less than $100 each. There are at least 5.6 million of these small accounts with an average amount of under $20. Suits and seizure actions against these accounts could cost more in effort than they would produce in tax revenue.

However, the 20,000 delinquent accounts which each contain $5,000 or more represent one-eighth of all delinquent taxes reported.

Taxing units reported $46 million in delinquent taxes over 20 years old. The statute of limitations on tax suits, which is 20 years for real property and four years for personal property, can hinder collection of these old taxes if the taxpayer claims it as a defense. It's not known how much of the $255 million in unpaid personal property taxes may also be affected by the statute of limitations.

At least 338,000 tax suits are pending on $112 million in delinquent taxes, according to SPTB's survey. Thus, only a fifth of all delinquent taxes and only three percent of the delinquent accounts are involved in pending litigation.

Delinquent taxpayers owe counties, cities, school districts and other taxing units across Texas at least $810 million, according to a report to the legislature made this week by the State Property Tax Board.

About three-fourths of the state's 3,119 taxing units responded to a survey which the legislature directed SPTB to conduct. SPTB estimates that if all taxing units were able to report all their delinquent taxes, penalties and interest, the total would pass the $1 billion mark.

Governor White sets April 21 as UIL Week in Texas

Governor Mark White on February 21, 1985, signed a proclamation congratulating the University Interscholastic League on its 75th year and designating the week of April 21 as UIL Week in Texas.

The UIL, largest interschool organization of its kind in the world, sponsors academic, music and athletic contests for students in Texas schools. It operates through the Division of Continuing Education of The University of Texas at Austin.

More than one million contestants participate in UIL events annually.

The participation rate is so extensive that one out of every two Texas high school seniors will have competed in a UIL program before graduation.

Governor White's proclamation noted that the UIL "is recognized nationally for its diversity and scope, for its ideals of amateurism and fair play, and for its emphasis on the development of the mind and artistic talent as well as physical ability."

Attending the ceremony in the Capitol were Dr. Bailey Marshall, current director of the UIL, and two former UIL directors—Dr. Rhea Williams and Rodney J. Kidd. Dr.

Williams was director, 1968-77; Mr. Kidd, 1948-68.

The UIL began in 1910 as the Debating League of Texas High Schools and merged in 1912 with the Texas Interscholastic Athletic Association.

Through the years, UIL programs have attracted as student participants such notable Texans as John Connally (debate), former Governor of Texas; Bill Moyers (journalism), CBS News Commentator; Don Meredith (one-act play), former Dallas Cowboys quarterback; and Pat Hingle (one-act play), Broadway actor.

Earned income credit upped by new law

Earned income credit, a tax benefit for certain low income persons, has been expanded to allow for the effect of inflation and higher social security taxes, according to the Internal Revenue Service.

In 1984, qualified persons were allowed a maximum credit of $500, which was gradually phased out as income increased to $10,000. Beginning in 1985, the credit will equal 11 percent of the first $5,000 for a maximum credit of $550. If income is greater than $5,000, the credit continues to gradually phase out. With an income of $11,000 there is no benefit at all.

The credit may be computed only on earned income, such as wages or self-employment. Since it is refundable, it may be claimed even though income is so low that there is no tax liability. It may be entered on either Form 1040 or Form 1040A.

Earned income credit is available to low income persons who provide a home in the United States that they share with a child for an entire year. Married persons must also file a joint return and claim the child as a dependent.

Texas Medical Association supports seat-belt legislation

Proposed state legislation to require use of safety belts has received strong support from the Texas Medical Association.

"There are two important facts here," said Dr. E. Don Webb, a Houston family physician representing TMA. "First, safety belts save lives and reduce serious injuries. And second, the Texas Poll recently found that 62 percent of Texans support a law requiring the use of safety belts."

"It's time we take action to prevent these needless deaths and injuries," Webb said during a Capitol news conference announcing the legislation on Feb. 26. House Bill 941 is sponsored by Rep. Bill Messer (D-Belton), and Sen. Ted Lyon (D-Mesquite) is the sponsor of Senate Bill 500, the same bill.

The legislation would require front-seat occupants of passenger cars to wear safety belts. Back-seat passengers would not have to wear them. The legislation would not apply to trucks and off-road vehicles.

If passed, the law would take effect on Sept. 1, but the $25 to $50 fines would not be issued during a three-month grace period ending Dec. 1. The use or non-use of safety belts could not be admitted as evidence in a civil trial.

Despite Texans' support for safety belt legislation, about 60 percent do not use them, according to TMA. When seat belts are used, the chances of surviving a crash increase by more than 50 percent.

The 24,000-member association of physicians and medical students also strongly supported the new child safety seat law.

TMA cited these national statistics that point to the need for a safety belt law:

Between 12,000 and 15,000 lives could be saved each year if all passenger car occupants used safety belts at all times.

Every hour, five persons are killed in motor vehicle accidents.

Most motor-vehicle accidents occur within 25 miles of home—at speeds of less than 40 miles per hour.

Motor-vehicle accidents are the number one killer of persons ages 1 to 38.

Motor-vehicle crashes cost the United States an estimated $43.3 billion each year. Citizens pay for this through higher taxes for police services, emergency medical services, medical care and rehabilitation, public health and highway safety programs, higher hospital costs, and increased insurance premiums.

The TMA Committee on Emergency Medical Services and Trauma initiated the association's policy that strongly endorses mandating the use of seat belts or seat-shoulder belts.

TMA's support of safety belt use also includes free educational information on the topic. Almost 340,000 copies of a brochure, "Click—The Sound of Saving a Life," have been distributed. A poster with the same message also is available.

Prevent food poisoning from Easter eggs

The "Easter Bunny" will soon be making his annual spring visit, and the joys of hiding, finding and eating the colorful goodies are already uppermost in young children's thoughts. However, parents may want to take special precautions to help prevent food poisoning from contaminated or spoiled eggs.

Hard-boiled eggs that are cooled in water and not refrigerated can be a source of food poisoning, according to Dr. C. David Morehead, Director of Infectious Disease in the Department of Pediatrics, at Scott and White in Temple.

"Although unbroken and uncooked eggs are remarkably resistant to bacterial invasion," says Dr. Morehead, "the heating process breaks down the egg's natural defense mechanisms and creates an ideal growth medium for bacteria."

Dr. Morehead adds that reports of contamination of whole shell eggs are rare, but cases of staphylococcal food poisoning commonly occur with improper handling and refrigeration of a variety of egg products, such as salads, custards and deviled eggs.

"The bacteria can be transmitted to the cooling water or the egg by a cook with unwashed hands or by storing eggs at room temperature for more than 24 hours," notes Dr. Morehead.

Symptoms of staphylococcal food poisoning may include vomiting, abdominal pain and diarrhea within 12 hours after eating the eggs.

"We recommend that cooked eggs be handled as aseptically as possible," stresses Dr. Morehead, "and that they be properly refrigerated until they are consumed."

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lane were in Amarillo over the weekend to get acquainted with their new grandson, Jonathan Robert Lane.

Twenty-six 4-Hers have entered this year's 4-H Fashion Show. The fashion show and awards program will be Tuesday, April 9, at 7:30 p.m. at the Civic Center.

Contestants chose to enter one of the four clothing categories: daytime tailored, daytime non-tailored, active sportswear, and evening and specialty wear. Age categories include: 9,11, 12-13, and 14 and older.

ENERGY SAVING TIPS

Pay attention to your water heater—and it will pay you back

Did you know that nearly 30% of your household energy costs can be attributed to your hot water heater? That means if your water heater isn't performing at peak efficiency, you're wasting energy dollars. One way to get the most hot water for your money is simply to keep your tank clean. Naturally occurring sediment should be flushed from it once a month. A regular draining of several buckets of water from the valve near the bottom of the tank will stop sediment from building up.

Your energy dollars are also wasted by making your water heater work overtime! Leaky faucets lose more hot water than you'd imagine. A leak of only one drop per second adds up to over 2000 gallons of water in one year!

Now is the time to fertilize your lawn to insure healthy growth through-out the summer months.

Easy Egg Decorating Ideas

Decorate eggs with sugar crystals. Mix two teaspoons granulated sugar with two teaspoons of hot water. Stir until sugar is dissolved and then brush sugar syrup onto egg and immediately roll egg gently in sugar decoration. Repeat. More than one color can be used by applying all of one color crystal, letting them dry and then repeating the process with a second color.

Felt birds and animals are also fun. Cut out ears, wings, arms, feet and glue onto the egg. It's a good idea to let small children make a diagram on a sheet of paper first, so all the right pieces fit together.

Make one or more pretty little bows from scraps of ribbon and glue them into place. You can add bits of lace and little embroidered appliques for added effect.

Colored eggs make fun party favors. Find a small container for the base for each egg. These can be seashells, curtain rings, or any other object in the house small enough to hold the base of an egg. Use emptied eggs, decorated with the name of the party guest, and glue them to the container. Paint the base in matching or contrasting colors.

Rainbow eggs are easy to make and are very attractive. Wrap a slightly dampened cloth around one egg. With a teaspoon or eyedropper, sprinkle different colors on the cloth, being certain to rinse the spoon each time before dipping into a new color. Twist the cloth tightly (be careful don't break the egg) so the colors run together. Unwrap the egg. The effect will be similar to that of a tie-dyed tee-shirt.

Double-sticky tape is good for making geometric designs. Cut the designs from the tape, stick on eggs and roll eggs in finely crushed colored eggshells. The shells will stick to the tape, creating a colorful effect.

Organic matter should be added to garden soil

Adding plenty of organic matter to your soil is one of the keys to a successful garden, explains Billy Reagor, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System.

Organic matter improves the drainage and aeration of clay soils and helps sandy soils hold water and nutrients.

Spread a 2- to 4- inch layer of peat moss, hay, compost, leaves, manure or even shredded newspapers over the garden surface and work it into a depth of 6 to 8 inches. Before working in the compost, add the recommended rate of fertilizer so that it will become part of the soil mix.

Many gardeners prefer using a shovel or spading fork when working up the ground, but others like using rototillers. Reagor gives these tips to make the tilling job easier:

Till when soil is fairly dry and friable. Tilling wet soil leaves behind large clods and causes mud to cling to tiller blades, thus upsetting the tiller's balance.

Leave an untilled row between passes since wide turns are easier to make than "about faces." This also keeps the machine from pulling itself and you toward the next row.

Reduce engine speed when breaking new ground or when tilling heavy clay soil so the tiller will dig better and bounce less.

Set the brake stake half the desired depth when tilling ground the first time around. Then set it to full depth and go over the ground a second time.

Social Security benefits subject to income tax for 1984

Under the provisions of the Social Security Amendments of 1983, 1984 is the first year in which benefits received by taxpayers whose incomes exceed certain amounts will be included in taxable income.

The base amounts are $25,000 for a single taxpayer, $32,000 for married taxpayers filing jointly, and zero for married taxpayers who lived together sometime in 1984 and who file separately. Income for figuring the base amounts includes adjusted gross income (plus nontaxable interest) and one-half of Social Security benefits.

Social Security officials estimate only about 10 of every hundred beneficiaries will have to pay the tax.

The statement of benefits on informational Form 1099 will show the amount of Social Security benefits paid; any adjustments to benefits such as withholding of overpayments, Medicare premium deductions, worker's compensation offset, etc.; and the net benefits paid.

Total benefits (i.e., before adjustments) will be subject to tax only if modified adjusted gross income plus one-half of Social Security benefits exceed the base amounts. Modified adjusted gross income is determined by adding to the adjusted gross income any deduction for two earner married couples, any exclusions applicable to citizens or residents of the United States living abroad, and the amount of exempt interest received or accrued during the taxable year.

Questions about tax liability or tax computation should be directed to the Internal Revenue Service.

People with benefit questions can contact the Social Security Administration through a special toll free telephone number printed on the Form 1099.

Aliens not residing in the United States have the tax withheld from their benefit checks. They will receive an additional form, the 1042S, which contains withholding and refund information.

In past years, Social Security benefits were not subject to federal tax. With the passage of the 1983 Social Security Amendments, those persons with incomes above the amounts listed above are now subject to a 30 percent tax on no more than half their benefits. The Amendments were strongly endorsed by the President and Congress. The revenues from the tax will be deposited in Social Security trust funds and used to pay benefits.

Mr. and Mrs. Kip Nichols, Clifford and Derek, of Shive; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Preston, Trey and Hunter of Eldorado, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Applewhite of Kerrville, were visitors in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Applewhite, over the weekend.

Menu planning guide will aid in lowering cancer risk

Turning current research on diet, nutrition and lowering cancer risk into practical advice that individuals can use in planning daily meals, the American Institute for Cancer Research (AICR) has published "Planning Meals That Lower Cancer Risk: A Reference Guide," and is distributing the book to more than 30,000 health and nutrition professionals across the country. The reference guide was developed through the professional education program of AICR, and it has been made available to nutritionists in schools, hospitals and cafeterias with the aim of providing the most current information on nutritional planning in order to lower cancer risk.

Lou Gehrig's disease study underway

The effectiveness of the anti-rejection drug cyclosporine as a treatment for "Lou Gehrig's Disease" will be studied over the next year at Baylor College of Medicine.

Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS) commonly known as Lou Gehrig's Disease, is thought to be related to a defect in the immune system.

Cyclosporine is the major drug used to prevent heart transplant rejections because it suppresses the body's immune system.

ALS, which strikes about 30,000 Americans, destroys motor neurons, the cells in the spine that control muscles. Patients eventually lose control of their movements and usually die within 5 years from respiratory infection as their lungs cease to function properly.

Besides Lou Gehrig, a New York Yankees baseball star in the 1930's, its victims have included actor David Niven and Sen. Jacob Javits.

"There is increasing evidence that immunological abnormalities may be present in ALS patients, and may impair the nerves that control body movement," said Stanley H. Appel, M.D., chairman of neurology at Baylor, who is directing the study. Appel will administer cyclosporine to patients with ALS to try to alter their immune system in an attempt to halt progression of the disease.

"It's not a cure, but if we can attack the system that is attacking motor neurons, maybe we can help patients," Appel said.

Eighty patients will participate in the one-year study. Forty patients will receive the drug cyclosporine and 40 will receive an inactive substance. The patients will be monitored on a regular basis to determine if the administration of cyclosporine alters the progression of the disease.

Persons interested in participating in the study should contact Baylor College of Medicine at (713)799-5971.

Dan Moughon and Lisa Mangani, both of Dallas, spent the weekend here visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Evart White.

Lion golfers claim runner up trophy

The Ozona Lions won the runnerup trophy at the 18th Annual Reagan County Golf Tourney.

A very fine Stanton team edged the Lions 332 to 335. Colorado City was third with a 341 and Rankin fourth with 344. Other teams entered in the strong tournament were Kermit, Alpine, Big Lake, Sonora, Wink, McCamey, and Midland Christian.

Lion Diron Holt was the tourney medalist with his 39-37 (76). Ty McKinney fired a 40-42 (82), Bret Hood shot 45-38 (83), J.B. Green had a 46-48 (94), and Will Seahorn finished with a 49-48 (97).

This was the toughest tourney the Lions have played, and was a good preview of the district meet, with Sonora and Colorado City proving to be two very tough opponents.

Sonora will host the district meet April 19 and 20. Coach Sewell looks for a real battle from Sonora and Colorado City, but thinks the Lions can win the title.

The Scientists Tell Me...

Lean Beef Production Systems May Expand Markets and Profits

By Robert L. Haney
TAES Science Writer

Market research indications of a growing market for lean beef could offer real opportunities for Texas' biggest agricultural commodity, beef. This demand for lean beef is recognized as an enlarged market for beef, over and above the widely accepted choice product of our producers and feedlots.

The income from beef—over $4,400 million per year—has a strong impact on the State's economy. And all segments of the beef industry are represented, from the cow-calf operator to the packing plant and wholesale merchandizer.

Early and continuing research shows a growing need to develop the ability to produce a palatable lean beef product because of an increasing consumer demand, potential health benefits, lower costs of production, and increased profits.

Expanded beef research by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station will be in four main areas, all aimed at producing and delivering lean beef, consumer-preferred products, and reconstituted meats.

Lean beef production research will concentrate on genetic and breed traits for producing inherently lean animals. These traits can be related to meat and carcass composition, to identify crossbreeding systems for better end products.

Processing and carcass management will be researched to produce the desirable features and appearance for lean beef. Emphasis will be placed on slaughter-house methods of handling carcasses for consistent lean beef production and providing consumer-acceptable beef.

Tissue analysis, marbling and constituents for cooked product acceptance, assured tenderness, and essential functional properties of beef proteins will be researched.

Grading and market structure research will identify carcass traits, grading systems targeted to lean beef products, cutability, packaging and shipment of primal cuts. Consumer preference studies will be conducted, review of federal grade standards and potential for private grade/product identification will be required.

New products and utilization research will evaluate lower-valued cuts for use in reconstituted higher-value meat products. Protection of quality, shelf life, and sustained consumer demand are anticipated.

Potential to the cattle industry and the State, from lean beef production systems, are sizeable. For example, if the time in the feedlot was reduced by 30 days, the cost of production would be lowered by about $215 million.

In addition, through decrease yields of waste fat and increase carcass yields, net income would be increased by $135 million.

Researchers see the lean meat consumer preference as an opportunity to expand total beef sales. It is thought that lean beef can better compete with fish and poultry, among others, for a place in the menu of the diet-conscious.

Tennis teams compete in Garden City

The Ozona Tennis teams were in Garden City, March 22-23 for a tournament.

James Fierro took fourth place in the tournament after beating Lopez of Garden City 8-1, Beck of Forsan 8-2 and Stringer of Garden City 7-5, 6-2. Fierro got beat out in the finals to McAfee of Wall 0-6, 0-6, and to Turner of Garden City 1-6, 0-6.

4-H summer camping dates announced

The Texas 4-H Center, located on Lake Brownwood, in the heart of Central Texas announces summer camping dates for 4-Hers, ages 9-19. Camp dates for 9-11 year olds are June 23-26, June 26-29, and July 14-17. Camp dates for 12-14 year olds are July 7-10, 10-13, and 17-20. Special interest camp for 13-19 year olds will be June 17-22.

Each four day camp is designed to teach and improve a youth's skill in a variety of areas. Each day includes sessions in shooting sports, canoeing and sailing, high adventure, nature crafts, swimming, outdoor cooking and education. Additional night activities feature parties, folk games, movies and other entertainment. Total cost of the 4-day camp is $54.00 which includes meals, lodging, refreshments and insurance.

For the 13-19 age group, 4-H project camp offers more of a challenge. It is a five day camp, which offers in-depth training in a choice of computer, shooting sports, fitness and weight control, canoeing and sailing, livestock judging, food and nutrition or photography. This training is combined with the fun and excitement of camp life and evenings of group activities. Fee for the entire 5-day camp is $96.50 and includes meals, lodging, program materials and insurance.

Experienced resource teachers, qualified college-age counselors, county extension agents, and volunteer adult leaders supervise campers at all times. The Texas 4-H Center's philosophy of camping is to give youth chances to experience the out-of-the-ordinary, and give campers a taste and chance to be successful at some new things, with the hope that they develop their interests and become involved in other 4-H activities.

For information and application forms, contact the County Extension Office.

Names of Texas towns confusing

Telling someone where to go in Texas isn't the easiest thing in the world.

One of the best tools travel counselors have is the Official Highway Travel Map produced by the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

It remains, year after year, the most popular piece of travel literature produced by the department. About a million requests a year for the map are fulfilled by mail and at 12 tourist bureaus and visitor centers operated by the department.

But the map does pose some puzzles. For example:

Some of the logic our forefathers displayed in naming places in this big state was flawless. Dallas, the city, is in Dallas, the county. Victoria is in Victoria, El Paso in El Paso, Lubbock in Lubbock, Childress is in Childress and so on.

But wait. Houston, the city, is in Houston County, right? Wrong.

Houston is in Harris County. Crockett is the county seat of Houston County in East Texas, and Crockett County? It's way out in West Texas, surrounding the city of Ozona.

SS benefits reduced if under 65 years

The amount of each retirement check is permanently reduced if a person elects to retire under Social Security before age 65, Social Security manager in San Angelo, said recently.

Payments are also reduced if a spouse or a widow or widower begins receiving payments before 65.

The amount of the reduction will depend on the number of months the person receives checks before reaching 65. Those who start getting checks earlier will realize about the same total amount over the years; however, the amount of each check will be smaller because of the longer period during which they will be received.

Beginning in the year 2000, the age at which full benefits will be payable will gradually increase until it reaches 67; however, reduced benefits will still be payable as early as age 62, Upp said.

More information about Social Security retirement benefits can be obtained at the San Angelo Social Security office located at 2214 Sherwood Way.

Lilies perfume the scent of springtime, uplifting spirits to this special holiday. It is a time to cherish the miracle of regeneration and rebirth, and be thankful for all of life's blessings. The passing of Lent and the passion of Easter inspire every living thing to awake from Winter's rest and blossom in celebration of this holy occasion. Behold the joy of Christ's resurrection, and His message that internal peace is ours to share among the family of mankind. Your local bank preserves this tradition and extends to you warm wishes for a happy and healthy season.
