Kitty's Korner

By
Kitty Montgomery

"Don't believe anything you hear and only half of what you see." This was one of my grandmother's old sayings and it has come to my mind lately almost everytime I watch television news. It's a good rule of thumb to apply to the national news media when it comes to the recent reporting on hostages in Beirut, arms sales to Iran and aid to the Contras. It was hardly a month or more ago when they were castigating the President for not doing more to get the hostages out. Every day you could turn on the tube and see and hear an interview from a hostage's family. The president was declaring all the while he was doing all in his power to get the hostages out. As it turned out he was.

Now they are giving him hell for this very attempt and you don't see any interviews with hostage families complaining. Of course, I'm sure President Reagan now knows that negotiations in that part of the world are impossible. As far as the arms sale is concerned, most of America would like Iran and Iraq to have all the arms they need to annihilate each other. It is not possible to use reason with these people. The 25 years of progress under the Shah has been wiped out and chaos rules. The news media can certainly take its share of the blame for this one too. They worked day and night to get rid of the Shah and restore the wild man who is in charge now. Do you suppose any of them think Iran is a better place for their meddling?

This seems to drag on and on without end. They have made so many charges and quoted so many lunatics and given so much false information, is it any wonder the American people view them with skepticism. Responsible journalism seems to be dead in national television newscasts. Each network tries to out-do the next one in their attacks on the American government, and the CIA.

Most of us don't want to know what the CIA is doing, we can only hope they can be as ruthless as the KGB. If America can have no secrets, what chance does this nation have? It was a sad day for this nation when the Sandanistas seized power in Central America. Maybe those in the east do not realize this, but everyone along the Mexican border is concerned. We're just not that far removed from the carnage. With the networks, it's the East Coast or the West Coast, and damn the in-between.

Any American who stays in Lebanon of his or her own free will should be prepared to suffer the consequences, and expect no assistance from the American government. Forewarned is forearmed.

Filing open for two places on school board

Two places on the Crockett County Common Consolidated School Board of Trustees expire this year and an election has been called by the board for Saturday, April 4. The election will be held at the courthouse from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m.

The terms of Hank Sellers and Jeffrey Sutton expire, leaving two trustees to be elected for three-year terms. Sellers has announced he will not seek another term. Sutton, present president of the board, has indicated he will file for another term.

Those wishing to file for a place on the ballot must file with Judge A.O. Fields. Filing opened January 19, but as of Tuesday morning, Judge Fields said he had no applications filed. The filing deadline is March 4.

Following the filing deadline, there will be a drawing for positions on the ballot and ballots will be printed. Absentee voting is scheduled to get underway March 16, by personal appearance. The final day to receive applications for absentee ballots to be voted by mail is March 27, and the final day to vote absentee in person is March 31.

This quartet garnered the awards presented Thursday evening at the banquet. L. to R. they are Oscar Kost, outstanding citizen; Helping Hands, outstanding organization, accepted by Kathy Reavis; outstanding young citizen, Vickie Reagor, and Billy Reagor, unsung hero. The awards were presented by incoming and outgoing presidents, Dan Pullen and Steve Sessom.

Oscar Kost awarded Citizen of the year at Chamber event

The 23 annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet was held Thursday, January 29 at the Civic Center. Around 200 people turned out to hear guest speaker Mike Morrow and to honor the achievements of local citizens who were named for awards.

The Citizen of the Year award was given to Mr. Oscar Kost. Outstanding Young Citizen was Vickie Reagor. The Organization of the Year award went to Helping Hands for the Elderly and was accepted by the president of that organization, Kathy Reavis. Billy Reagor was named Unsung Hero.

A special recognition award was given to the Circle Bar Truck Corral. This award was accepted on the behalf of their parents by Lisa Wagoner and Gary Buck Mitchell.

The evening began with the meal served by Charles Hiway Cafe. Diner music was provided by Sara Hignight and Judy Reagor.

Charles Huffman gave the invocation and Dr. Steve Sessom welcomed local citizens and out-of-town guests.

Sessom recognized new Chamber members and spoke of the many accomplishments by the Chamber of Commerce throughout the year.

Dan Pullen was introduced as the new Chamber of Commerce president.

After a short speech and the introduction of the new and holdover directors, Pullen introduced guest speaker Mike Morrow.

Mr. Morrow spoke on change and mankind's inability to accept change. He emphasized the Chamber of Commerce commitment to make a nicer place to live through new ideas.

"Don't look for trouble," "develop an optimistic attitude," and "say what you mean" were three ideas presented by Morrow to pace change.

In closing his address Morrow said, "You can easily judge a person by how kind he is to the person who can't help him."

Mr. Morrow kept the audience laughing throughout the program with his light-hearted humor.

The culmination of events came with the presentation of awards.

A special recognition award was given to the Circle Bar Truck Corral. The business, opened in August 1977 by Tom and Tissee Mitchell, celebrates its 10th Anniversary this year. In addition to the truck corral, which employs up to 120 persons, Mitchell also owns Circle Bar Auto Racing, which has exposed Ozona to people from coast to coast. This, in addition to the Truck Corral, has helped to put Ozona "on the map." The Organization of the Year, Helping Hands for the Elderly, was started in April 1983. The non-profit, service organization is run by a board of directors dedicated to aid the senior citizens of Crockett county. Through the efforts of the directors, members and volunteers the organization provides meals to the elderly 5 days a week.

Vickie Reagor, recipient of the Outstanding Young Citizen award, is the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Reagor.

The Ozona High School senior has held many honors. Among these are National Honor Society member, class favorite, class officer, Christmas Dance queen, runner-up to Miss OHS, football homecoming queen, cheerleader and has won numerous awards in basketball and track. She has excelled in 4-H as well and recently received the Dan Bean Memorial Scholarship, Mother Davidson award and Gold Star award.

The Unsung Hero award went to Billy Reagor.

Reagor, a resident of Ozona for 12 years, is recognized as an agricultural and civic leader. He is an active Church member, past president of the Lions club and community center and is a past director of the Chamber of Commerce. He is currently director of the Ozona Lions Booster club and for many years was co-chairman of the Ozona Youth Rodeo.

The recipient of the Citizen of the Year award was a most deserving Oscar Kost.

Oscar came to Ozona in 1933 and worked for A.W. Jones at the Ozona Boot and Saddlery. He purchased the business in 1940 and sold it in 1976. He helped organize the cable television in 1955 and was manager of Ozona until it was sold in 1985. Oscar installed the first football scoreboard, maintained it for 22 years, worked for many years with the Quarter Horse shows and the rodeo club, provided the public address system for all types of functions, and announced football games and rodeos for many years. He played an active role in organizing the Chamber of Commerce and was its first president.

Outgoing directors of the Chamber of Commerce are Sandra Childress, Garland Davis, J.D. Brown, Fred Deaton, and Brock Jones.

Newly elected directors are Don Long, Steve Williams, Brian May, Jeff Stuart, and Richard Berry.

Holdover directors are Dr. Steve Sessom, Bobby Aycock, Jim Marks, Vince Huffman, Ken Harrison, Scotty Moore, Drake McKinney, Dan Pullen, Carol Hunnicutt, and J.B. Miller.

Winners of door prizes were Mary Hillman, Doug Meador and Drake McKinney.

Out-of-town guests were Jim Heath with the Chamber of Commerce in San Angelo, Jan Kenley of Shepperson's in San Angelo, and Charles Mabry and Mr. and Mrs. Mike McCary with WTU in McCamey.

Also visiting from McCamey was Gary Elliott, president of the McCamey Chamber of Commerce.

Each visitor received a cap with a newly designed Ozona logo on it. These caps will be on sale at the Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber of Commerce would like to thank members of the Ozona Garden Club who designed and furnished the beautiful table arrangements.

Ozonans attend Mohair & TS&GRA meets

Local man named to Mohair Council

Several Ozonans were in San Angelo the latter part of last week to attend the annual membership meeting of the Mohair Council of America and the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers tri-annual meeting.

promised the membership that the officers would live up to the council's motto, "Our only purpose is to promote United State mohair."

Sheep and goat producers discussed some serious problems affecting their industry Friday.

Meeting at the River Club Thursday, the Mohair Council elected new officers and approved a 14 percent increase in the 1987-88 operating budget.

Perry Bushong of Mountain Home was elected president of the council succeeding Joe David Ross of Sonora. San Angelo lawyer-rancher J. Mark McLaughlin was elected vice president, and Crockett County rancher Jeffrey Sutton was elected secretary-treasurer.

The budget for the 1987-88 fiscal year was set at $509,377, an increase over the present budget of $443,825. A major portion of the $66,000 increase includes an additional $36,000 in special domestic promotion.

On being elected president, Bushong observed that the new officers may have differences of opinion, but Bill Pfluger of San Angelo, the newly-elected president of the National Wool Growers Association was given a warm welcome by directors when he was introduced. Pfluger told growers the political work being done by the NWGA is vital to the salvation of the industry. He issued a plea for support in an effort to curtail imports and protect the sheep industry.

State Rep. Dudley Harrison of Sanderson, chairman of the house agriculture committee also spoke to the group on the state budget crisis.

Attending one or both of the meetings from Ozona were Brock and Camille Jones, Gene Perry, Janie and Jack Riggs, Pleas Childress, III, Bob and Ann Childress, Wade Richardson, Bryan and Patti May, and Jeffrey and Carmen Sutton.

BUDGET RAIN DANCE

By Edwin Feulner

President Ronald Reagan's trillion-dollar fiscal 1988 budget proposal has been sent to Congress, where it was ritualistically declared "dead on arrival" by the House and Senate leadership.

It seemed that everybody had some sort of complaint. Big city mayors, the higher education lobby, mass transit Trekkies, self-appointed spokesmen for the homeless, they huffed and they puffed and they posed and they pranced, all declaring that the defense budget was too high and domestic spending too low. They said this despite the fact that defense spending in the current fiscal year (FY 1987) will be $100 billion less than the Congress itself agreed to just a few years ago.

Still, administration critics say there is too much "fat" in the defense budget and too much lean in other categories, and propose putting the Pentagon on a new diet regimen—dreamed up, from the looks of it, by a microbiotic drill instructor at a Jane Fonda clinic.

The network television newscasters, of course, just love this budget rain dance, and willingly take part in the merriment.

I watched the newscasters carefully the evening the budget was sent to Congress, and without exception the budget was explained to the viewing audience in the most simplistic and dishonest terms, as if there were just two "line items" to be considered: defense spending and domestic programs.

In fact, the federal budget consists of dozens of categories and thousands of individual projects and programs.

There are budgets for national defense (category 050), international affairs (150), energy (270), natural resources (300), agriculture (350), commerce and housing credit (370), transportation (400), community and regional development (450), education, training and employment services (500), health (550), income security (600), the Veteran's Administration (700), the administration of justice (750), interest (900), federal pay (920), and a catch-all "other" category.

Within each of these budget "functions" are the thousands of individual programs we are asked to pay for with our hard-earned cash: the Export-Import Bank, Department of Interior land acquisitions, Strategic Defense Initiative (SDI) research, the National Sea Grant College program, Coastal Zone Management State Assistance Grants, Rural Electrification Administration, rural housing, Federal Housing Administration, U.S. Postal Service direct subsidies, the Small Business Administration, National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) civilian aeronautical research and development, Urban Development Action Grants, the Appalachian Regional Commission, the Economic Development Administration, "impact aid," bilingual education programs, WIN, Job Corps, Community Services Block Grants, Legal Services Corporation, trade adjustment assistance, and on and on and on, ad infinitum.

It is not the Pentagon against the poor, which is the question the liberal big spenders want us to believe. It is instead thousands of individual programs, many of them unnecessary, the majority of them unknown to most taxpayers.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

AUSTIN—The honeymoon is over early for Gov. Bill Clements and the Legislature, and Speaker Gib Lewis observed the activity among lawmakers is as thick now as it usually is at the end of previous sessions.

No one has it thicker than the prison system, except embattled Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower.

Prison directors have to keep the inmate population down with one hand while they help lawmakers search for $83 million for emergency prison construction.

All Hightower has to do is fight for his political life: the Republicans have Clements' blessing behind their legislation to change firebrand Democrat Hightower's office from an elected to an appointed one.

Meeting set to plan graduation activities

Ozona High School seniors and their parents will meet in the home of Joe Ybarra on February 9 at 7 p.m. The meeting will be held to discuss upcoming graduation activities. For more information call 392-2289.

Hightower called it a "cheap, political shot," and said if Clements wants a fight, "he's got one." Clements insisted the act wasn't political or personal.

Remember Mattox?

Privately, even some Democratic officials grin while Hightower squirms, since the bill is given little chance to pass in a Democrat-controlled Legislature.

House Agriculture chairman Dudley Harrison said he doesn't think the Texas agriculture community supports the change.

Indeed, others say that when Hightower was elected to this post after a failed attempt for the Railroad Commission, some regarded him as a political opportunist who knew little about farming. But since then, Hightower has proven to be a tireless promoter of Texas products and seeker of new markets.

Hightower, a populist, is often also viewed even by party cronies as a media showboat. What no one can figure out is if the Republicans are really serious or just keeping Hightower pinned down.

If they're serious, they might well remember how such acts can come back to haunt with a sympathy backlash at the ballot box. Five years ago, the GOP redistricted Jim Mattox right out of his congressional seat. He fought back and now he's beginning his second term as Attorney General.

Prison Bail-Out

One proposal to come up with the new prison money is to shift $83 million from the state contributions into the Teachers Retirement System, but one teachers' group doesn't like it.

Officials say the shift wouldn't hurt teacher retirement, but the Texas Federation of Teachers disagrees.

Mattox Sues

Attorney Gen. Jim Mattox and Texas have joined with New York and California in a lawsuit against a company alleged to have an illegal pyramid sales scheme.

The company, United Sciences of America, Inc. sells nutritional products for treating a myriad of diseases from AIDS to dandruff.

Mattox also filed suit to block a State Board of Insurance action from taking effect, calling a 17.7 percent rate hike for workers compensation insurance "unconscionable."

Bullock Warning

Comptroller Bob Bullock warned lawmakers that Texas could lose as much as $100 million in the next four years under a new federal court order affecting franchise tax collections.

He said Mattox will appeal the district court ruling which limits reserve accounts in company surpluses for the purpose of franchise tax calculations. For the present, Bullock is dropping the state's revenue estimates by more than $100 million.

Legislation Feted

Rockwall Sen. Ted Lyon and Fort Worth Rep. Mike Millsap cofiled legislation to ban abortions beyond the point a fetus could live outside the mother's body, even with life support systems.

McAllen Rep. Juan Hinojosa's new bill will change the Open Meetings Act to tape record closed-door meetings so a judge can determine later if the session violated any laws.

Other Highlights

• New Texas Secretary of State Jack Rains of Houston was sworn in by Texas Supreme Court Justice Raul Gonzalez.

• The original Goddess of Liberty will return to a special pedestal in the Capitol north foyer.

• A Clements' special panel unveiled 35 proposals to stimulate economic growth in Texas, including freeing about $250 million in state trust funds for venture capitalists.

• State and federal officials closed three Texas banks in one day last week, making four total this year. All three banks, located in The Woodlands, Houston and La Pryor, reopened the next day with new owners.

• Governor Clements plans to attend the inauguration of a newly elected Mexican governor next month, part of his program to improve relations with the Mexican states along the border.

• Former Arizona Gov. Bruce Babbitt, now on the presidential campaign trail, swung through Austin last week to address legislators and meet with Texas Democrats.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club
by Mrs. Bailey Post

Now that we are in transition between seasons, it is time to get busy in your garden on warm, sunny days.

Don't attempt to plant seeds of warm season flowers and vegetables too early; seeds planted at the wrong time are likely to rot in the ground before they can germinate. Instead, enjoy the plants that do thrive in cool weather, and set out some pansies, violas and calendulas this month if you haven't already done so. Calendulas are popular, semi-hardy annuals something like marigolds. They are prized for their large, bright flowers and ability to bloom outdoors one or two months before the true marigolds. Plant this month or nurseries may already have blooming plants that will provide instant color in your garden. Plant them in loose, well drained soil where they will receive full sun. Add peat moss, leaf mold or compost. Thoroughly water every three or four days with no rain during dry weather. Fertilize established plants monthly.

If you are anxious to get a start on the vegetable garden, February is a good month to plant cabbage, brussels sprouts, onion sets, lettuce, beets and the other cool season vegetables in our area. Some of you may want to plant lettuce for a pretty border in your flower beds.

For one of early springs finest displays, try a deciduous oriental relative of the (Southern magnolia grandiflora) the star magnolia. It is a profusely flowering tree with large buds that begin to unfold as the weather begins to warm. The bud scales are forced apart until the rays of the flowers open into a spectacular star-shaped, fragrant bloom. One of its features is its small mature size and its form which rarely exceeds ten feet in height and five feet across. The branch structure is informal and slightly irregular. It can be planted as an accent tree in a small garden, or trucked away in the shrubbery border of a naturalistic planting. The flowers are extremely showy if viewed against a dark backdrop like an evergreen shrub. The star magnolia prefers a moist, well drained, slightly acid soil and needs some shade to be protected from the direct rays of early afternoon sun.

CENTERPIECES for the annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet were arranged around a variety of game animal antlers.

League hears program on cosmetic surgery

The Ozona Woman's League met at the Crockett County Library on Tuesday, January 27. Refreshments were served by LuAnn Pierce and Helen Bean.

Nancy Vannoy introduced guest speakers, Dr. Lee Paul Fry, FACS from San Angelo and Dr. Terry Tubb, FACS from Midland and San Angelo.

The program began with Dr. Fry as he gave a brief summation of his credentials and experience. He pointed out certain things women consider when selecting a physician of this specialty as well as questions often asked and his belief in second opinions. As Dr. Fry began his "before" and "after" slide presentation, he elaborated more on his specific specialty, that of cosmetic surgery of the neck and facial area.

Explanation of surgical procedures as well as non-surgical procedures such as chemical peeling proved very interesting. Complication, required anesthesia and the recuperative period was also dealt with. Following the completion of Dr. Fry's talk many questions were answered.

Dr. Tubb was then introduced and also began with a list of his credentials experience and expertise. In an effort to avoid sounding repetitive, the doctor expressed his strong belief and support of items covered early in Dr. Fry's talk. His specialty was explained as being directly involved with breast and body reconstructive surgery by means of surgical reduction, enlargements or liposuction. As he began his slide presentation, Dr. Tubb also explained in more depth the procedures, complication, anesthesia and recuperation. In conclusion, members were invited to ask questions of which many did.

Both speakers were thanked very graciously and were presented with a gift in appreciation of their time and efforts shown to the Woman's League.

President Cathy Carson called the meeting to order. Officer's reports were given followed by special committee reports. Members were asked to consider the third weekend in March as a possible date for the League trip to Fredricksburg.

The meeting was then adjourned. Members present were Helen Bean, Tina Bean, Cynthia Berry, Tammy Bunker, Cathy Carson, Marilyn Chalmers, Ann Childress, Becky Childress, Susie Childress, Elizabeth Clark, Shelley Conner, Lou Deaton, Sharon Forehand, Debbie Glasscock, Jeannine Henderson, Karen Huffman, Carol Hunnicutt, and Camille Jones.

Also present were Barbara Malone, Mary Jo Mason, Susan McMullan, LuAnn Pierce, Jodie Sessom, Susan Slaughter, Vickie Stokes, Elizabeth Upham and Nancy Vannoy.

Sorority has program on investment planning

The Alpha Alpha Mu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met at the Crockett County National Bank Monday evening, Jan. 26th with Ellen Lipsey, Barbara Glosson, Patti May and Katrece Hale serving as hostesses.

Mrs. May introduced Mike Smith of Edward D. Jones & Co. who presented a program concerning investment and financial planning. Mr. Smith recommended different plans for different age groups and answered questions during the presentation.

The women presented a wedding gift to Rita Hensley before being served refreshments.

Those present passed a proposal by the Service committee to be a part of the State Department of Highways Adopt-A-Highway Program. Among the responsibilities of the organization as a part of this program are:

1. Hold a safety meeting with the workers prior to each cycle of work;

2. Develop a functional plan that will influence and encourage the public to improve the appearance of their adopted highway;
3. Plan for litter pickup a minimum of two times a year;
4. Assist the Department's Maintenance Supervisor, Mr. Cecil Hedrick, in carrying out the plan; and
5. Assist the Department in securing media coverage for the program.

The organization has adopted the section of Highway 163 2 miles to 4 miles north of Ozona.

A View of the World Through The Word

By Ralph O. Moore, Minister
Ozona Church of Christ

A few years ago I went on a tour through a major brewery. I remember the distinct smell of the place. The malts, grains, hops, and whatever other concoctions that are used, along with the fermentation process, produced a well-defined odor.

The other day I had the aroma of that experience come back to me. I didn't go to the brewery again, but I did get within twenty feet or so of a man who reeked of fermentation. In fact, the brewery smelled much better, as I recall, than did this pop-top man.

Some people stay in a continual state of inebriation. They drive on the streets, attend ball games, shop, talk, and work I suppose. You can recognize them by their staggered walk, glazed eyes, one syllable vocabularies, and rancid odor.

Our society has laughed at the drunk. Some comedians have made a fortune mimicking them. While there is a certain humor in the things that drunks do and say, the humor often turns to horror as their conduct depreciates. The trail left by those under the influence is littered by broken homes, lost jobs, wrecked cars, dead and maimed people, and a multitude of other tragedies. It's hard to laugh at divorce court, the hospital, or the graveyard.

Alcoholism is being broadcast as a disease. Empathy is solicited for the drunk on the grounds that he or she didn't have any choice in the matter. Their "illness" has invaded their bodies like a cancer, some say. Thus, the alcoholic is viewed by some as being "sick" - no different than others who suffer from some terrible malady.

The Word of God does not consider drunkenness as either humorous or as a disease. It is declared a sin (Gal.5:21; Rom.13:13). Many who like to define their own sin and defend their right to drink or whatever don't accept the mandate of God. It all boils down to accepting or rejecting the Word of God. One cannot serve two masters.

The plea from Scripture is that one should be controlled by the Spirit, not strong drink (Eph.5:18). Think of the difference that control would make. We would see kindness not killing, agreeableness not abuse, and wisdom not waste.

There is great diversity of thought concerning alcoholism. In a free society, if a person wants to drink that is their business - when they infringe on the rights of others, that's a different matter. I'm thankful for the organizations that fight against alcoholism. Our society needs to follow the command of God in condemning drunkenness, anyone who opts to use his common sense can see why.

I heartily agree that the alcoholic is sick, but his illness is caused by sin not genes or germs. The drunkard, through his sinful conduct, has physical complications that demand attention, but his ultimate need is God. Hospitals and half-way houses are havens on the road to physical recovery, but holiness is the help that must touch his soul before heaven will be his home.

He has served the community and is doing so as a hospital board member, volunteer ambulance service, EMT, and volunteer fireman.

Department. Before that he was assistant service manager at J.B. Miller & Co.

No segment of the economy has ever been challenged to change so fast and so completely as has the new agriculture. Never in American history have so many innovations been adopted in such a short time. When these changes have required capital, your Federal Land Bank Association has been a primary source of funds. We recognize the inevitability of change — except in the importance of the man and the land. We also believe that a free agriculture — based on the family farm—will continue to flourish in any new environment

WE DO WINDOWS

The other day I was following a truck that had its company name emblazoned in large letters on the back door. But then I spotted a smaller sentence underneath the company's name.

"We Do Windows"

I wanted to stop the driver, get out, and offer congratulations if not hug his neck.

"We Do Windows." You don't see that phrase on many cleaning-service trucks, and you don't hear it from the lips of many people.

What we usually hear is "We DON'T do windows." It has become a slogan that summarizes too well our society. Because "doing windows" (washing and cleaning them) is hard work.

Yet, it is one of the most important jobs in life, both literally and figuratively. Windows in the house need cleaning from time to time; and, windows of the soul need daily cleaning or we end up seeing life totally out of perspective. Everything becomes blurred, and we get wrong signals about people and life.

Cleaning windows gives focus, enabling us to see what life, love, duty and responsibility are all about. Plus, it simply feels good when you can see through clean windows.

Real people do windows. And doing windows make people real.

Monday morning small, wooden teddybears, kittens, and puppies were used to put the finishing touches on the pencil holders residents have been working on in craft class. Residents were well-pleased with the completed projects.

Monday afternoon's exercise class was attended by Lucia Rios, Francisco Lopez, Juana Hernandez, Doris Robnett, Inez Biggs, Moriana Perez Jesus Hernandez, Elzy Bishop and Edna Wallace. A game of ring toss followed.

It could be said that the number two was the most popular number in Tuesday morning's bingo. Not only because it was called so often, but because residents were winning two at a time, and two new games were played. Prize winners were Samuel Martinez, Juana Hernandez, Edna Wallace, Manuela Perez, Minnie Karr, Bertha Miller and Rebekah West. Sophie Kyle was the helpful volunteer.

The activity Tuesday afternoon was dominos.

Tuesday evening residents were entertained by the Levis and Lace Square Dance Club. Members present were Bob and Elaine Bell, Clare and John Babb, Peanut and Donna Sanders, Lillian and J.D. Brown, Jimmie and Pete Jacoby, and Marie Pierson. The costumes were bright and the dancing was great. We would like to thank them for coming by.

Ruth Hester and Marie Pierson were the volunteers for Wednesday morning's ceramic workshop. Residents participating were Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Moriana Perez, Hazel McDaniel and Theo Burns.

Movies viewed Wednesday afternoon were "Pandas, a Gift From China" and "Phillip and The White Colt." Both films were excellent.

Delightful organ music was played by Clara B. Freeman, and lively piano music was played by Clara Byrd immediately following our Thursday morning beauty shop. Beauty shop volunteers were Clara Byrd, Vivian Hughes, Joann Williamson, and Melinda Hokit.

Charles Huffman of the Lutheran Church conducted this week's mid-week Bible study. Ruby Olson played the piano.

Spanish speaking residents along with a large group of visitors attended the weekly Spanish Hour of Praise, Thursday afternoon. Herberto Gutierrez played the guitar.

Friday's bingo prize winners were Jesus Hernandez, Juana Hernandez, Edna Wallace, Emma Taylor, Rebekah West, and Bertha Miller. Emma and Bertha won three games each. Volunteers were Mattie Cooper, Dorothy Doll, Lillian Tambunga, and Ruth Hester.

Several business changes taking place in Ozona

Several business changes have taken place in Ozona over the past few months.

Following the liquidation of Spencer Welding and Construction, Donna and Peanut Sanders moved into the building with the ice company and yarn shop. Mrs. Sanders had opened the Happy Hands Yarn Shop near her home on Ave. G, several years ago. When she moved a couple of months ago, she added much to her inventory and installed some knitting machines. She now carries a full line of yarns, beads, trims, and pattern books. She is assisted in the yarn shop by her daughter, Marsha Cannon.

Richard and Cynthia Berry have purchased the old Graham home, where Cottage Collection is now housed, and plan to make that their family home.

Cynthia will move Antiques, Etc. from its present location to the old Foxworth building, where the truck lot is located for Buttery Motors. Patti Jones will also move the Cottage Collection inventory there, and they will share the large building.

Richard Berry has opened a car detail and cleaning center in the old Taliaferro building across from Whitehouse Gulf. The business, known as Kwik Klean, offers car wash and complete cleaning which includes washing the engine, shampooing the inside, washing and waxing.

Charlie Frazier, who opened the old

Hiway Cafe several months ago, has begun serving a noon lunch, consisting of an entree, two vegetables, salad and dessert for $3.75. He had previously been serving the noon meal buffet style.

Better Trims beauty salon recently opened fulltime and employees two operators besides the owner, Billy Tom Turland.

The past year saw several Ozona businesses leave or close doors. The first to go was Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber Co., one of the oldest Ozona businesses. Triple A Athletics moved out, as did the Flower Basket. Pepe's Pizza closed its doors during the year and several oilfield service companies moved. Spencer Welding liquidated holdings here. Pool Well Service moved its yard from the complex north of town, and Schlumberger also closed offices here. The All-American pipeline crew closed down and moved its people in April.

The Shell plant was sold to Citation, and its employees transferred or retired. Ray and Marie Pierson were transferred to Odessa, as was Forest Henderson. The Ray Hildebrands retired and moved from here to Oklahoma. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bell remain in Ozona, where he will still be in the employee of Shell and she is chief deputy in the county tax office. Mike Lowery was transferred with Shell to Fort Stockton.

CHECK YOUR FILTER

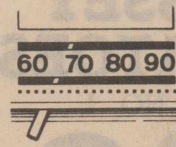

The purpose of a filter in your heating or air conditioning air blower is to catch dust or dirt before it can enter your unit. If your filter gets clogged, your unit will have to work harder to do the heating or cooling job required, and it will use more electricity.

To avoid damage to your unit and to save energy and money, be sure your filter is clean. WTU recommends checking your filter once every 30 days. Permanent types can be cleaned according to manufacturer's instructions, while non-permanent filters should be replaced.

A clean filter, along with other conservation measures you can do at home, will help you save energy and money!

Set Thermostat at 68°

Set your thermostat at 68 degrees or lower. Turn it down at night and use an electric blanket. Turn it down even lower when you leave home for an extended period of time. Every degree you lower your thermostat will help to increase your energy savings.

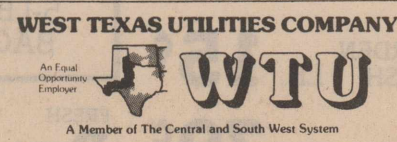

Keep Damper Closed

Tightly close the damper in your fireplace when you're not using it. The same draft that is needed to help make a fire burn could circulate through your fireplace and pull warm air out of your home.

For more conservation tips, call your local WTU office.

Remember REDDY Supplies the energy— but only YOU can use it wisely!

Junior Varsity wins and varsity teams lose to Iraan

By Lisa Collin

All four Ozona basketball teams played against Iraan last week. Both JV teams were victorious and both varsity teams were defeated.

The girls JV beat Iraan 38-16. Ozona took an early lead in the first quarter and dominated for the rest of the game. Shannon Curry led in scoring with fourteen points followed by Kriss Corley with twelve. Eileen Moran and Dottie Gonzales each scored six.

Ozona's JV boys controlled the game both offensively and defensively and completely demolished Iraan 56-34. The score was tied at the end of the first quarter but Ozona gained the lead and went on to win. Leading the scoring drive was Oscar Galindo with fifteen points and Lalo Rodriguez with eight. George Ybarra, Pete Ramirez, Javier Martinez, and Wolv Rutherford all contributed six. Others adding points to the score were Chris Denman with five, and Copie Davis and Roger Martinez each with two.

The varsity Lady Lions suffered a 43-29 loss to Iraan. Ozona fell behind early in the first quarter and a leading score was never accomplished by the Lady Lions. Stacy Lay scored the majority of the fifteen followed by Kelly Williams and Adriane Wilson with four. Others scoring for the team were Lydia Pena, Vickie Reagor, and Vickie Flores all with two.

Undefeated in district competition, the Lions' game resulted in a surprising defeat for Ozona. Ozona led throughout the first half but a refreshed Brave team came back in the third quarter and went on to win. High point for the team was Abel Lara with fourteen points and Scott Denman close behind with twelve. Sam Hightower contributed four points, and Danny Sanchez, Will Seahorn, and Roger Flores each added two.

Varsity girls take win, Lions are defeated for second time

By Lisa Collin

Friday night, the JV and Varsity teams played against Forsan at home. The two victories for the night were by the JV boys, who destroyed their opponents, and the varsity girls in a very close competition.

Ozona's JV girls suffered a 31-20 disappointing defeat to their opponents. The score was tied at 18 in the end of the first half, but Forsan gained the lead in the third quarter and Ozona never could make a comeback. Polly Villarreal scored six points followed by Kriss Corley and Griselda Hernandez with four. Dottie Gonzales, Lanessa Porter, and Shannon Curry all added two points to the score.

The JV boys appeared to have no competition whatsoever with the Forsan JV boys. Ozona destroyed their opponent 65-29 in what seemed to be an easy workout for the team. Leading in scoring was Wolv Rutherford with twelve points followed by Chris Denman with eleven. Oscar Galindo, Pete Ramirez, and George Ybarra each scored ten. Others scoring for the team were Lalo Rodriguez with six, Javier Martinez with four, and Robbie Tambunga with two.

The third game of the evening was a very close competition between the two girls varsity teams. The score was close and the game was exciting up until the final second ran off the clock. Highlights of the game occurred in the fourth quarter when Ozona went on to win 46-45.

Scoring for the Lady Lions were Lydia Pena with sixteen, Kelly Williams with eleven, and Vickie Reagor with ten. Others adding points to the score were Stacy Lay with seven, and Adriane Wilson with two.

The final game of the night handed a second defeat in district competition for the Lions. Ozona did not seem to be up to their usual playing status and Forsan took advantage of this for a 46-43 victory over the Lions. Overall, Ozona just did not have a good night and it was shown through most of the game.

Abel Lara led in scoring with ten points, followed by Danny Sanchez with eight. Scott Denman also contributed six, with Chi Flores right behind with five, Roger Flores, Sam Hightower, and Will Seahorn each added four points apiece to the scoreboard, while Bret Hood scored two.

Cubettes win against Sonora and take consolation in Big Lake

By Lisa Collin

Monday, January 26, the seventh and eighth grade Cubettes traveled to Sonora to compete against their teams. The eighth grade team also competed in the Big Lake Tournament on Friday and Saturday in which they won consolation.

In the seventh grade game against Sonora, the girls defeated the Colts 25-21. This was the girls' first victory over Sonora after being defeated by them twice. Ozona grabbed an early lead which they kept throughout the game's entirety. Leading the scoring drive was Kristi Porter with fifteen, followed by Patricia Hartnett with three.

The girls eighth grade was also victorious over Sonora 31-22. The girls fell behind early in the game but tied up the score 18-18 at the end of the third quarter. Then in the fourth quarter the girls took the lead and went on to win.

Friday and Saturday the eighth grade traveled to Big Lake to play in the Big Lake Tournament.

Their opening game against Iraan was a 18-9 defeat. Iraan established an early lead and Ozona never could take control of the game. The majority of the points were scored by Jennifer Colin, Valerie Flores, and Paula Galan each with two.

The second competition was a 30-13 victory over Stanton. The girls dominated particularly in the second half when Ozona scored fourteen points to Stanton's six.

Ozona's final game of the tournament was against Rankin. The Cubettes demolished their opponent 37-23 in what Coach Tucker called "their best mental game of the year." This brought them a consolation trophy and another victory for Ozona.

Ofie Rios led in scoring with eight points, followed by Teena Tambunga with six. Also contributing points were Christy Cotton with five and Letty Dominguez and Paula Galan each with four.

Freshmen girls win in Sonora

By Lisa Collin

Last week the Ozona Freshman girls won over Sonora with a 23-13 victory. The girls jumped to a 12-2 lead at the end of the first quarter. The rest of the game was a very even match, both teams scoring eleven more points.

Leading the scoring drive was Polly Villarreal with twelve points. Lanessa Porter also contributed six points followed by Tammy Arrott with five.

Crockett County Library Notes

By Louise Ledoux
Crockett County Librarian

THE BAD NEWS: FELONY CRIME

CCPL has had the cash from our cash box stolen twice. The first time, I think, was a spur-of-the-moment grab-the-cash-and-run thing. But, Tuesday night the Library was broken into, the cash drawer broken into, and this makes the crime a Felony Offense. For the record, there will be NO MONEY left in the Library at night from now on. All cash will be removed at night and the Sheriff and his Deputies will be keeping an eye on the Library.

THE GOOD NEWS: INTERFACE SURGERY

CCPL was the meeting place for the Ozona Women's League Tuesday afternoon. Speakers for the meeting were Dr. Fry from San Angelo and Dr. Tubb from Midland. The Doctors presented a program on Cosmetic and Reconstructive Surgery. Dr. Fry began with his specialty, the face and neck, and Dr. Tubb finished up with what he can do with the rest of the body. I was particularly impressed with his presentation of Interface Surgery.

Dr. Tubb began with a little history, defining reconstructive surgery as attempts to restore the individual to normal, and aesthetic (cosmetic) surgery as attempts to surpass the normal. Recently the term "Interface Surgery" has been coined as the interface between cosmetic and reconstructive surgery.

With the recent modification of silicones, new products are now available, in particular, tissue expanders. These silicone "balloons" were first used in the 1970's to expand normal skin so as to allow removal of birthmarks, tattoos, and ultimately covering the raw tissue with normal thick and healthy skin. Shortly thereafter silicone tissue expanders were used for soft tissue reconstruction to include expansion of remaining skin following mastectomy for breast cancer.

Dr. Tubb showed slides of a young girl depicting the classical treatment for skin and hair loss following a burn to the scalp, namely a skin graft. There was no hair. He then showed slides demonstrating tissue expanders, used under the skin of the scalp remaining. The slides illustrated correction of the cosmetic defect, after skin graft removal and sliding the stretched hair bearing skin to the mid scalp to replace the removed graft. This treatment is so important, because now children don't have to go through life bearing the disfigurement of abuse or accident. There is help.

These and similar techniques are now used for repair and reconstruction of a constellation of defects including breast restoration after cancer surgery, removal of birth defects, large scars, tattoos, birthmarks, and the reconstruction of noses or ears after loss from cancer or accident trauma.

Plastic and reconstructive surgery arose as a result of ravages of war by the determined effort of a small group of surgeons in Europe and America who refused to accept that horribly mutilated soldiers could not be restored to near normal appearance. Over one half of a century later, we are much nearer to accomplishing that ideal in the area of Interface Surgery by the use of tissue expanders.

If you have a child or know of one who needs Interface Surgery, call Dr. Tubb or come by the Library for more information. The problem of money can be worked out. There are several agencies set up just for this sort of medical aid. Terry D. Tubb, MD, is a Plastic and Reconstructive Surgeon, practicing in Midland, Texas.

Letters to the Editor

Ed. note: Senator Roy Blake from Nacogdoches and Representative M. A. Taylor from Waco have introduced legislation to repeal the Seat Belt Law passed last session. Two states, Nebraska and Massachusetts have already repealed their Seat Belt Law.] Dear Editor:

I do not believe the people who think the Seat Belt Law is a good idea have taken the time to think it through. Wearing a seat belt is a good idea, just like having regular medical check-ups, daily walks, smoke detectors in your home, dead bolt locks on your doors, not smoking and on and on. But is it the government's responsibility to place a fine on us if we do not? I say it is not.

There is no question the cost of medical care is on the backs of all of us either through insurance premiums or taxes. So if you support the Seat Belt Law for these reasons, then the rationale follows that you want laws requiring medical check-ups, daily walks, no smoking and all other known practices that might lengthen our years and make us healthier. The cost of us not adopting these practices are also passed on to us through increased insurance premiums or taxes. But who should make us adopt such practices? The government?

A law requiring the wearing of seat belts is not different in principle from a law requiring annual medical check-ups. If we can pass the one law - on the grounds that a particular practice is good for us - on what grounds could we spurn the other law? It is presumed by our government that we have too little sense to consider our own self interest and buckle up. So the government says let us accordingly, force them to do what we know is best for them. Let us do their thinking for them.

Let me tell you how the Seat Belt Law came about. By no means was it an outcry from our citizens to protect them from hurting themselves, but instead an outcry from the automobile manufacturers' lobby. The reason the auto lobby was concerned is because the federal government a few years ago said unless two thirds of the 50 states passed laws mandating seat belt use by 1989, it would order Detroit to equip all cars with expensive air bags. Not a single person in my district or the state of Texas asked me to pass a bill requiring them to wear a seat belt.

Many people are wearing the seat belts not just because of the law, but because of the national publicity pointing out the facts in case of an accident. Just as more people are having medical check-ups, more people are installing dead bolts on their doors, more are exercising and fewer people are smoking. They are doing it for their own health and safety and not because the government is saying do it or we will impose a fine. For every good cause, there is not necessarily a good law waiting to be passed.

Knowing all this makes you wonder why it will be difficult to repeal the Seat Belt Law. There are many people who feel the government should tell them what to do to keep them healthy and then make them do it. And then there are others who do not really care whether the law is on the books or not, since they are not going to abide by it anyway. They probably will never be ticketed for not complying unless they are stopped for some other reason. But there are many who are adamantly opposed to the law. I have heard from over eight thousand. They fall into two categories. Once, those opposing for the reasons discussed above, and two, those who have a fear of being strapped in should a wreck occur and feel their chances of survival are better without it. Such is the case of the parents of a 31-year-old son in West Texas. They were traveling in the car in front of their son's car and the last thing they saw him do was buckle up. They witnessed the accident and his last words were "get me out - get me out." His car was on fire and they could not get him out.

Our chances for repeal would be better if the law were strictly enforced or if automobiles were manufactured so they would not start until the seat belt was buckled. Then you would hear an outcry from the people all the way to the State Capitol that would overcome the special interest groups that passed the law.

So in the meantime, obey the law and wear your seat belt. But do not be surprised if this new session of the legislature comes up with more good ideas and passes more laws to take away some more of our human liberties. As Pogo said long ago: "We have discovered the enemy, and it is us."

Sincerely,
Roy Blake

EXTENSION OFFICE NEWS

By Rachel Hall

To keep up with today's active pace, quick and convenient dinner entrees are a must! Too often, however, cooks find that they have to sacrifice quality and flavor in exchange for speed.

But this is not always the case, as illustrated by Beef-Stuffed Tomatoes. You will find this a nutritious main dish, brimming with wholesome, nutrient-packed ingredients, including ground beef, cheese, and vegetables. With the help of your microwave oven, it can be quickly prepared.

Ground beef and the microwave oven are appropriately teamed for this time-saving entree as many consumers have come to rely on both to assist them on busy days. To eliminate the step of pouring off drippings, the ground beef is cooked in a microwave-sieve or colander placed in a bowl that collects the drippings as the beef cooks.

The tasty filling consists of ground beef combined with shredded zucchini, mozzarella and Parmesan cheeses and seasoned with garlic salt and oregano. Once the fresh tomato shells are filled, only five minutes in the microwave are needed to produce a hot, flavor-filled nutritious entree.

When selecting the meat for this and all ground beef recipes, be sure to check the lean to fat ratio. In general, the lower the percentage of lean, the more economical the price. Fortunately for the cook with an eye on the budget, most entrees, including this one, can be satisfactorily made with the less expensive ground beef containing 70 to 80 percent lean.

Beef-Stuffed Tomatoes

- 1 pound ground beef
- 1 small onion, chopped
- 4 large tomatoes
- 1 medium zucchini, shredded and drained
- 1/2 cup shredded Mozzarella cheese
- 1/4 cup grated Parmesan
- 1/4 cup soft bread crumbs
- 1 teaspoon garlic salt
- 1/2 teaspoon oregano leaves
- 1/8 teaspoon pepper

Combine ground beef and onion; arrange in a ring in an all-plastic sieve or small colander. Place sieve in bowl; microwave at HIGH for 2 minutes. Stir to break up beef. Continue cooking at HIGH 2 minutes; stir after removing from oven. Meanwhile, cut 1/2-inch slice off top of each tomato; scoop out tomato pulp, leaving a 1/4-inch shell. Combine beef, zucchini, mozzarella cheese, Parmesan cheese, bread crumbs, garlic salt, oregano, and pepper. Divide beef mixture into 4 portions; place one portion in each tomato cup, rounding the top. Place tomatoes in circle on a microwave safe plate. Microwave at HIGH 5 minutes, rotating 1/4 turn every 2-1/2 minutes. 4 servings.
