His and Hers

By Scotty and Linda Moore

Sunday afternoon an accident was reported west on I-10 at Howard Draw. The fire siren sounded, and the Ozona Fire Department, Crockett County Sheriff's Department and the DPS and EMS all responded to the call. According to the initial report, three people were injured, one seriously. I told myself, "it sure is a good feeling knowing that we have these folks around to respond to our cry for help in case we ever need it".

Then suddenly I remembered a call that came over the scanner several weeks back when all these public servants were called, putting their lives on the line in order to save someone else's. This time there were no victims, no wrecked automobiles, nothing but a clear highway and a starry night.

I can still remember the officers talking to each other on the radio, "did you see anything at the Y north of town?". And the response was "no, not a thing except a couple of ambulance chasers. I'll try Midway Lane".

Nothing was found; the call had to be the work of a prankster, and supposedly originated from a local convenience store telephone. But no such person was reported using the phone at that time.

The more I thought about the caller the madder I got. Whoever you are, you not only endangered the officers' lives, but ours, too. Others here in town and on the highways could possibly have needed their help at the same time your fun and games' wild goose chase was in progress.

Mr. Frankster, I understand from Chief Deputy Wilson that you were really pretty lucky! If one of the officers or volunteers had been involved in an accident responding to your call, you would be held responsible even to the point of being indicted for manslaughter. How about them eggs!

Some people said, "Ah, it had to be kids". I truly don't believe it was at all. More than likely it was some good old boy or gal who just got his or her third or fourth speeding ticket in a row and was not man or woman enough to take their medicine like the rest of us.

Whoever you are, I hope you are proud of yourself, because I'm sure not, and I know a few officers that have the same feeling, except with a little more punch!

Hers

After three weeks of getting out the paper from the office on the square, we've seen the courthouse with the sun coming up, going down, and all in-between. This morning, the view was through a spring rain in less than warm weather.

After last week's 99 degree weather (was that our Easter spell, or is this?) temperatures in the high 40's seem a bit chill.

Just goes to prove the old saying that "if you don't like the weather in Texas, hang around awhile. It will change."

Easter weekend weather was perfect for family outings or for homecomings. A number of visitors were seen out shopping in the old home town. Why is it you can always find something neat to buy in your hometown stores when you go back for a visit, but nothing was ever just quite what you had in mind when you shopped while you lived there? Funny how that works.

One newcomer to the community, Dewayne Bullard who hails from Florida, believes the Texas billboard law preventing advertising near the roadway is hurting Ozona and other Texas towns.

"You've got to tell 'em before you can sell 'em" is true for the tourist trade which passes Ozona daily on I-10

Crockett County bluebonnets were at their peak earlier this this week making a blanket of blue in many Ozona yards.

Board accepts resignations

Resignations from Mrs. Louise Taliaferro, Mrs. Patsy Sinclair, and Mrs. Judy Bradford were accepted by members of the Ozona School Board during the regular monthly meeting April 14.

Mrs. Taliaferro, Ozona High School business teacher for 33 years, and Mrs. Sinclair, Ozona Primary School first grade teacher for 17 years, will retire at the end of this school year. Mrs. Bradford and her husband will move to Tye when school is out.

The board was informed by Supt. Garland Davis of two requests for reassignment of teaching duties. Mrs. Margaret Spiller, Ozona Intermediate School third grade teacher, will teach business courses in Ozona High School next year, and Ms. Kathy Grendahl, Ozona Intermediate School special education teacher, will teach special education in Ozona Primary School.

Trustees also approved the employment of Rosalie Peacock, Robin Payne, Brenda Pool, and Nikki Sewell for 1987-88 teaching positions.

Mrs. Peacock is a 1979 graduate of Sul Ross State University and will teach special education in Ozona Intermediate School. Mrs. Payne received her B.S. degree in 1978 and will teach physical education in Ozona Junior High School. Ms. Renee Schulze, who is presently teaching physical education in the junior high, will teach sixth grade history next year.

Mrs. Pool, a 1984 graduate of Angelo State University, will teach mathematics in junior high, and Ms. Sewell, a 1983 graduate of Angelo State University, will teach third grade in Ozona Intermediate School.

Mark Duncan met with the board to make a presentation on his duties and responsibilities as athletic trainer for the school district and to discuss physical examinations for student athletes. He explained that physicals next year will be required of the following students:

- 1 Any student athlete entering the seventh, ninth, or eleventh grade;
- 2 Any student athlete who is new to the school system or does not have a physical on file;
- 3 Any student athlete who has been hospitalized within the last year because of injury or severe illness; and,
- 4 Any student athlete whose medical history form shows abnormalities.

Denman, Galindo and Sanchez qualify for regional Lions win district meet

by T. C. Tucker

For the first time since Coach Pete Maldonado has been coaching Ozona boys' track the Lions came home with a district championship. Amassing 102 points, the Lions beat out second place Stanton who had 91 points, and several will be going to regional competition. Those qualifying placed either first or second in an event.

Danny Sanchez, who placed third at state last year, will have a shot at returning there since he won both the mile and two-mile runs with times of 4:44.94 and 10:19.86.

Valdo Galindo continued with his domination in the 100 and 200m dashes. Galindo cruised to a 10.66 win in the 100 and clocked a 22.31 in the 200.

Robbie Tambunga, Roger Flores, Sanchez and Galindo will all participate in the regional mile relay event. They won at district with a time of 3:27.20. The team has a good chance to do well at regional since their times have ranked near the top in West Texas.

On Thursday field events were held. Galindo jumped 20'11 3/4" to place second in the long jump to earn another opportunity to compete at regional.

Scott Denman, who had a late start in the season, hurled the discus 135'9", enough to earn himself a trip to region.

Oscar Payne came close, but not close enough in the pole vault where he cleared 12' and placed third.

Ozona qualifiers will compete at the Region I-2A meet on May 1 and 2. The event will be held at Howard College in Big Spring.

"All of the kids that placed helped win the district championship," Coach Pete Maldonado said. "It's the total team effort that really counts, and that is what won the district championship for us."

Hospital Volunteer Week proclaimed

Gov. Bill Clements has proclaimed April 26-May 2 as Hospital Volunteer Week in Texas in recognition of the many men and women who volunteer their time and talent as a labor of love to enrich life in Texas hospitals.

Clements noted the value of hospital volunteers who provide meaningful services to both patients and hospital staff members. Volunteers contribute to hospital efficiency by performing tasks which allow staff members to concentrate on the more technical aspects of hospital operations.

"Hospital Volunteers... People Helping People," the theme for Volunteer Week in Texas, reflects the role of hospital volunteers in providing services and contributing financially to the hospital's mission solely for the gratification and satisfaction of helping others.

"Volunteers are the most valued asset a small community hospital and care center can have," said Jacquie King, assistant administrator and Crockett County Hospital. "We truly appreciate all our volunteers and are very grateful for the time and effort they spend in helping at the hospital and care center."

Duties of the volunteers include hair styling, bingo, care center resident birthday parties, holiday parties, ceramics, assisting with field trips and any other projects activities director Jo Ann Marshall has.

Four fund raisers are held annually. Three are sponsored by the auxiliary, and the fall holiday style show which benefits the auxiliary is sponsored by The Teacher Store and Small Fashions.

Public hearing scheduled on 65 mph speed limit

The State Highway and Public Transportation Commission has scheduled a public hearing to receive public views and comments on proposed action raising the maximum speed limit on rural portions of Interstate highways in Texas to 65 miles per hour.

The hearing is scheduled for 9 a.m. Friday, May 1, in the first floor auditorium (Room 101) of the Dewitt C. Greer State Highway Building, 11th and Brazos streets, Austin.

The public hearing is the first legal step necessary to consider changing the speed limit in Texas. After the public hearing, the commission will review testimony. If the commission decides to change the limit, the order would be filed with the governor. If he concurs with the order, he will issue a proclamation. The earliest effective date would be eight days after the filing of the commission order with the governor.

New Mexico was the first state to go 65 the day President Reagan signed legislation to make the 55 mph limit optional in rural areas.

Colorado, Illinois, Louisiana, Nevada, North Dakota and Arizona soon followed suit.

The new limit makes law enforcement easier because fewer drivers are in violation of the speed limit. By the same token, fine revenue to counties and states is reduced.

San Angelo man arrested on kidnapping charges

A San Angelo man was arrested on a charge of kidnapping last week after taking an Ozona woman from a local residence at knife point. Noe Gonzales Ramirez, age 21, was arrested two miles south of San Angelo by Department of Public Safety troopers and Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission agents as he attempted to take the woman to San Angelo.

Mary Alvarez, 21, a former girlfriend of Ramirez, was not injured in the incident. She was at the home of a friend when Ramirez arrived and forced her into a gray Datsun. Officers throughout the area searched for the vehicle after a regional bulletin was issued.

Ramirez was arraigned in San Angelo where bond was set at $5,000. He was brought back to Ozona and placed in Crockett County Jail. The case will be referred to the Crockett County grand jury April 22.

Construction begins on Ozona's wastewater facility

Construction on Ozona's new wastewater facility began last week 15 years after a search for a site began. Bill Cooper was manager of the Crockett County Water District manager when the long-range plans started in 1972.

Plant construction was first outlined in May of 1983 by the Texas Department of Water Resources and voters approved a $950,000 bond issue in August of 1985.

Funds for the project arrived in Ozona April 1 after the State Water Development Fund purchased bonds in the amount of $785,000.

Bids were let in January. Construction is expected to take 150 days for completion. Construction has been delayed pending settlement of a suit by Arlington Helbing who owns land below the site. Helbing's suit, which has been ruled in favor of Crockett County five times, claims the plant would pollute his property. He had originally agreed to let the district build the plant on his ranch if allowed use of wastewater for irrigation according to Dee Keilers, district manager.

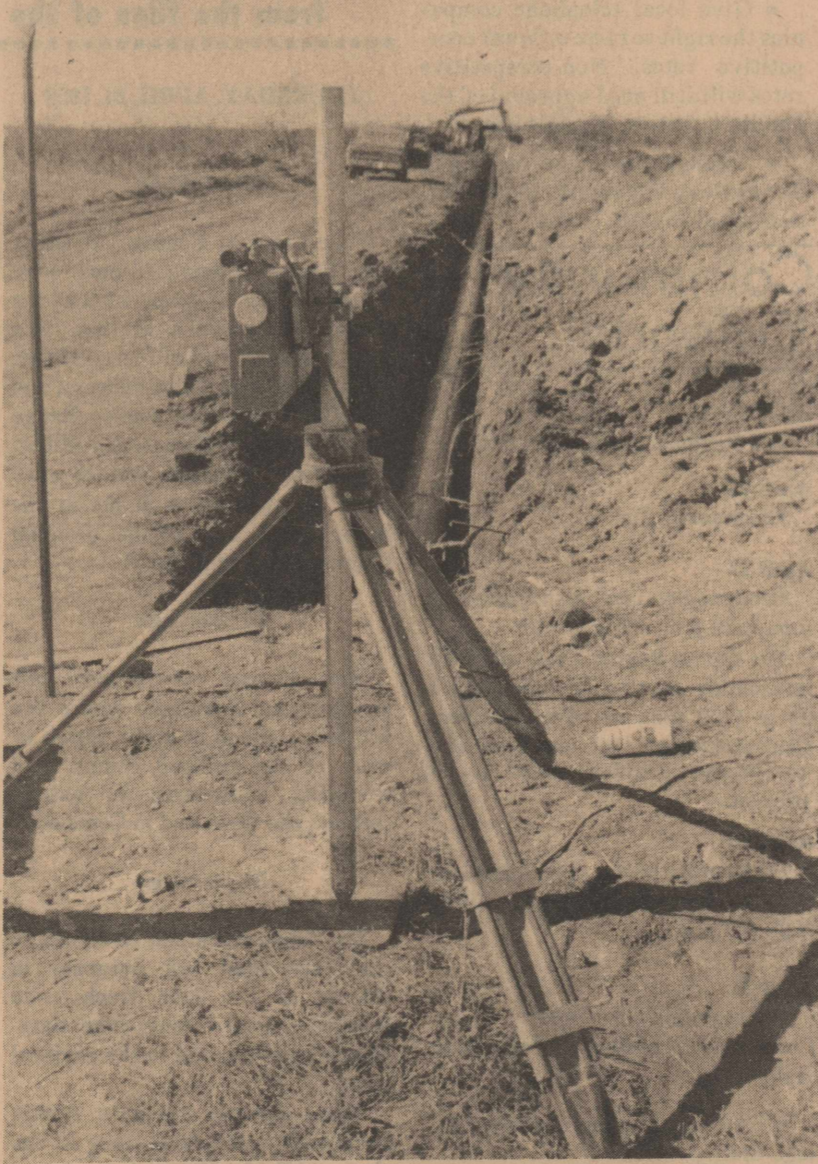

The facility will include the plant, line from town and a pump station to get the wastewater across Johnson Draw to the lagoon site on the Sarah Seay property.

Designed to handle one-half million gallons daily, the plant will have a net outflow of 300,000 gallons with a 24-acre ponding area. The sunlight, natural algae process will produce enough water to irrigate 50 acres.

The facility is engineered for a population of 5,040.

Crockett County's present waste system was named to the state's list of 10 worst polluters in 1986.

District board members include Dan Davidson, president; Gene Perry, vice-president; Harold Shaw, secretary; and members Dennis Clark and Pon Seahorn. Seahorn was appointed April 14 to fill the unexpired term of J. W. Johnigan.

Lazer technology is used to keep the pipeline straight at the new wastewater treatment facility 2.5

miles south of Ozona. Workmen began laying pipe for the project last week.

AUSTIN—The Texas Senate stepped off the sidewalk and into the street last week to challenge Gov. Bill Clements' threatened quick-draw veto.

Senators gave final approval to a $40 billion budget, knowing full well it was $3 billion more than Clements said he would allow without a veto. It will also require that amount in new taxes.

Clements, who earlier signed legislation allowing private companies and local governments to build and operate prisons, called their budget "a giant step in the wrong way."

The budget now goes to the House where representatives are expected to trim a little, but not enough to suit Clements.

Some predict the budget will be presented to the governor in the waning hours of the session, and if he vetoes it, time will run out before lawmakers can get to the bloody, bloody task of overriding with two-thirds votes in both chambers. The issue may well have to be decided in a summer special session.

The Senate

In other action, the Senate passed legislation to:

- Permit universities, colleges and athletic conferences the right to sue boosters whose actions bring on penalties. Court-awarded damages could be sought for lost television and ticket revenues.

- Help Texas compete for the federal supercollider project site by hiring a private consultant without red tape.

- Broaden the Open Meetings Act to cut down the number of closed-door meetings of public bodies and provide criminal penalties for violations.

- Give local telephone companies the right to raise or lower competitive rates. Non-competitive rates will still need approval of the Public Utilities Commission.

- Change the name of North Texas State University to the University of North Texas.

The House

In the House last week, lawmakers voted to:

- Prohibit public school students from smoking and chewing tobacco at school or at off-campus activities.

- Pass eight bills in an anti-crime package that give more flexibility to prosecutors fighting crime.

- Give the governor and other officials more authority to deal with emergency budget problems when the Legislature is not in session.

In Committees

New measures shaped in committees and moving to the floor for debate include proposals to:

- Modify the controversial no-pass, no-play rule by shortening the suspension period from six weeks to three weeks (Senate).

- Drop parental consent for abortions for unmarried teenagers from the anti-abortion bill (Senate).

- Overhaul funding of universities and revise accounting and management practices for higher education (House).

Speaker Blasts Governor

Speaker Gib Lewis last week ripped Clements for flip-flopping on a $1 billion tax initiative and referendum to fund prison construction.

The governor also opposed Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby's three-point "Build Texas" plan to be financed by bonds.

"The only reason we were trying some of these smoke and mirrors and bonds and things was to try to appease the governor. Now we get the floor cut out from under us," Lewis said.

Texaco, Pennzoil

The Texaco-Pennzoil legal battle reached the Legislature last week with the two oil companies hiring the top lobbyists to work lawmakers.

Texaco wants legislation to help it avoid putting up $11 billion in bond money while courts sort out their squabble. Texaco claims the amount is exorbitant.

Prison Reform

State attorneys last week argued that Texas was working to comply with federal court-ordered prison reforms and should not be fined $800,000 a day in contempt charges.

However, federal judge William Wayne Justice told them he wants everything resolved in the question of compliance before any fine amounts are decided. That will take about three more weeks.

Justice then toured a Texas prison unit to view facilities for handicapped inmates.

In a related event, the Texas Adult Probation Commission approved the state's first "boot camp prison" to be built in the Beaumont-Port Arthur area, if funds can be found.

Prisoners would be placed in a regimented program similar to military boot camp for a period before probation.

Last minute frills were put on Easter bonnets in last Monday's craft class. Doris Karr was the helpful volunteer.

The monthly residents' birthday party honoring Muaricio Hernandez was celebrated Monday afternoon. The delicious cake was made by Polly Mayes. Jo Davidson and Glenda Henderson were the hostesses. The highlight of the celebration was a visit from the cub scouts. Scouts presented each resident with a handmade party favor and entertained them by singing here "Here Comes Peter Cotton Tail". We would like to thank Cub Masters Esmi Barrera, Den Leaders Sara Highnight, Kim Squiers and Ronnie Bennett, and Cub Scouts Eli Hernandez, B. J. Cooke, Lando Pena-Alfaro, Slate Williams, Tres Bailey, Adam Onofre, Johnny Porras, Lynne Haire, Scott Squiers, Ronnie Bennett, Manuel Mendoza, Jason Highnight, Charlie Branch, John Paul Usener, Anthony Borrego, David Browne, Michael Nicks, Justin Weddle, Eric Ramos, Samuel Fuentes and Brandon Adams for making this celebration special.

Tuesday morning's bingo volunteers were Dorothy Doll, Mattie Cooper and Melinda Hokit. Prize winners were: Harry Blatchford, Samuel Martinez, Juana Hernandez, Edna Wallace, Doris Robnett, Ola Mills and Theo Burns.

The annual Easter party was presented by the Woman's Forum. The ladies uplifted residents' spirits and filled the halls with laughter. Barbara Wallace played the ukulele, and Katherine Russell played the piano while Glenda Henderson and Lu Ingram lead residents in a sing-along and rhythm band. Delicious refreshments were served, and the residents thoroughly enjoyed themselves. We would like to thank the Woman's Forum for presenting such a fine party, and we are looking forward to seeing them again next year.

Tuesday evening, residents were entertained by the Bob Bell Band. Band members present were John and Clara Babb, George Hester and Bob Bell. We would like to thank the band for sharing their time and talents with us; we loved it.

The last of the Easter pieces were worked on in Wednesday morning's ceramic workshop by Juana Hernandez, Ethel Youngblood, Hazel McDaniel, Moriama Perez and Manuela Perez. Ruth Hester and Mattie Cooper were the helpful volunteers.

Some of the residents enjoyed viewing two films Wednesday afternoon, compliments of Crockett County Library while others attended Mass conducted by Fr. Alberto Tijerina during the Spanish Hour of Praise.

Thursday's beauty shop volunteers were Vivian Hughes, Joann Williamson, Lola Rios, Melinda Hokit and the OHS Cosmetology

Class. Needless to say, the hair styles were stunning.

Lively piano music was played by Clara Byrd immediately following the beauty shop. Residents joined Clara in a sing-a-long.

Residents were really impressed by the flower show they attended Tuesday afternoon at the Civic Center. The arrangements were fantastic.

Jim Gray of First Baptist Church presented this week's mid-week Bible study. Glenda Henderson played the piano.

A performance by the Knox Band finished the day's activities on a pleasant note Thursday evening. Band members present were J. D. and Don Kilgore and Jamie Knox. The music was great, and we would like to thank them for coming by.

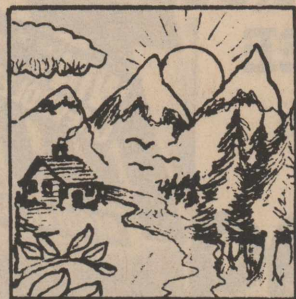

Friday's bingo volunteers were Dorothy Doll, Mattie Cooper and Melinda Hokit. Prize winners were Doris Robnett, Ethel Youngblood, Lucia Rios, Moriama Perez, Bertha Miller and Manuela Perez.

Friday afternoon the residents received a visit from the Easter bunny portrayed by Ken Harrison. The Easter bunny had the honor of judging the Easter bonnets. Winners were: Most Beautiful, Edna Wallace, Most Unique, Charles Watson, and Most Humorous, Moriama Perez. An egg hunt followed.

Sunday worship service was presented by Jim Gray of First Baptist Church.

Accidents and injuries

Fernando Garza of Ozona has reason to be proud of his seventh grade daughter, Rita. "She really kept her cool," said Garza. Mr. Garza was pinned under his International Scout and his wife, Marina, injured in an accident which happened Sunday afternoon after the right rear axle broke.

The accident happened at 4:09 at the Howard Draw exit on old U.S. 290 when the eastbound car spun around in the roadway and went in the ditch to overturn once.

Rita, who was not injured, and two passersby were able to lift the vehicle enough to place a barbecue pit underneath and relieve the pressure on Garza.

Fire Department volunteers went to the scene with the Jaws of Life mechanism, but it was not needed.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Garza were treated at Crockett County Hospital and released. His injuries included a broken collarbone, and Mrs. Garza had facial lacerations according to the accident report.

Richard Barton was the investigating officer.

Sally Turnipseed of Kirkland AFB, New Mexico was the driver of a 1987 Jeep Cherokee wagon which rolled over 34.2 miles west of Ozona Friday. The 10:45 a.m. accident occurred when the driver overcorrected after running off the road on the right. The driver and two passengers, ages 5 and 4, were taken to Iraan hospital for treatment of injuries.

Trooper Cliff Babbitt was the investigating officer.

Teen Council members are busy planning the all-night graduation party scheduled for May 29. Pictured with director Garland Young are: and seated, Gina McCollum, Scott Denman, Summer Shacklette and Peggy Knox.

All night graduation party planned

The Board of Directors of Crockett County Civic and Youth Center is making plans to honor the Class of 1987 with an all-night celebration May 29.

The annual event began in 1985 when the Crockett County Youth Center Board and Teen Council decided to honor the graduating class with an all-night celebration involving the entire high school.

The goal of providing an alcohol and chemical free alternative to the traditional graduation celebration was achieved, and the 1986 event was bigger and better.

This year activities will include movies, dance contests with music by KYXX in a live broadcast from the center, ping-pong, pool tournaments, darts, games and drawings for lots of door prizes.

No one will be allowed to leave the building after midnight. Breakfast will be served at 6 a.m.

Parents are asked to urge their teens to attend. A group of adult chaperones will be at the center all night helping with the food and games, and a check in list will be available so you may call to make sure your teen is present.

Any individual or organization wishing to donate money, food, gift certificates or merchandise to be used as gifts is asked to contact Garland or Joyce Young at 392-3266. Frances Denman at 392-3675 or Jan Miller at 392-2107.

The here and now

Nancy clasped her hand firmly in granddad's as they roamed the large forest on the back of his farm. He helped her through the underbrush, careful that no whipping limb lash her face as they fought the small trees struggling for a bigger place among the tall ones.

They came to a clearing in the dense woods and stopped. "Nancy," he said to the six-year-old "apple of his eye" as he stood gazing at the trees. "What is here now that was not here a hundred years ago?"

Nancy looked around, combing the little clearing filled with wildflowers and their backdrop of huge trees. But no answer came.

"Think, Nancy, think," he urged.

Then her eyes lit up. "Me!"

Whether that was the answer granddad had in mind, I don't know. But I do know that Nancy's answer is on target. She and all her friends are the new generation. They were not here a hundred years ago; not many of us were.

Nancy, you and the rest of us have a legacy, a heritage, and responsibility to do something good and great with all we have inherited.

We were not here a hundred years ago. But we are now!

Cubettes excel in district meet

by T. C. Tucker

The 7th grade Cubettes remained true to their track season performance and came away with the #1 place in overall team standings. The girls scored 135 total points while Iraan and Eldorado followed with 128 and 127 respectively at the meet held in Iraan on April 11.

The 7th graders only captured six first place wins out of 14 events, but they had enough persons place in the remaining five spots of each event to put them in first.

Kristi Porter and Claudia Avila led the way in field events. First, Porter won the high jump as Tamel West took third place. Then Porter had a jump of 28'2" to finish third in the triple jump.

With a leap of 15'4/2" Avila easily won the long jump, besting the runner-up by more than a foot. Avila placed second in the discus, missing out on first place by only ten inches.

Valerie Perez placed fifth and sixth in the shot and discus, with throws of 21' and 55'9" respectively.

points in the process.

Ann Trull opened things with her second place finish in the shot and a throw of 27'5 1/2". Sandra Fuentez cleared 4'4" to place third in the high jump.

Christy Cotton finished fourth and fifth in the long jump and discus respectively. Cotton needed only an inch and half more to tie for second place in the discus.

In what could have been called a photo-finish, Cotton placed third in the 100m dash with a time of 14.09. The two winning times were 14.06 and 14.08. Paula Galan brought up the rear in that race in sixth place. Melissa Moore squeezed by only

.02 of a second to win fourth place in the 200m dash. In the 300m dash, Tami Reagor finished fifth.

Moore and Fuentez finished almost side-by-side in the 100m hurdles as they placed fourth and fifth respectively.

Kimberlee Coy easily gained her fourth places in both the 600 and 1200m runs. Coy finished right behind third place but way ahead of fifth in both these races.

Cotton, Reagor, Moore, and Fuentez formed the team that placed third with a time of 57.42 in the 400m relay.

All of the above, minus Moore plus Coy, placed second as close as one could place second. Third place Eldorado and Ozona both had a clocked time of 2:01.13 minutes.

Seminar for women land owners in May

A special seminar on Farm and Ranch Business Management for Women Landowners will be held May 5, 6, and 7, 1987 at the Holiday Inn North, 6911 North I-35 in Austin, Texas.

Discussions will center on income taxes, farm leases, business organization, estate planning and oil and gas leasing.

"Farm leases and operating agreements take many forms," notes Hayenga, and many of these will be discussed at the seminar including benefits and restrictions to both landowners and tenants.

Regarding income tax planning, tax-saving opportunities will be explored for business growth, land sales, retirement income and helping out children and grandchildren.

"A session on estate planning will deal with wills, trusts, estate tax deferrals, gifts and property titles," Hayenga points out.

Estate planning tools which will be discussed include use of corporations we're just surviving." Grace and Dewayne Bullard could have spent their retirement years playing, he says, but their dream to involve the family in a long-range project led them another direction. "God will find us a place," Bullard told his wife when a South

Rachel's Reviews

by Rachel O. Hall

For years many active people have accepted myths about drinking milk. Is milk good for runners, walkers, aerobic dancers, tennis players and others who like vigorous exercise? Here are the myths and the facts.

1. Milk causes muscles to cramp. Milk may actually reduce rather than bring on, muscle cramps. Dairy products contain calcium which helps muscles to contract properly. A lack of calcium may contribute to cramping.

2. Milk causes "cotton mouth". Nerves cause that "cotton mouth" feeling -- not milk. You don't have to be an olympic star to feel nervous before an event. Participating in a local 12 kilometer run or a tennis match with a friendly rival can do it too. Dairy products have no influence on this.

3. Milk makes you tired. According to the rumors, the sugar in milk -- lactose -- converts into lactic acid and causes muscle tiredness. But the lactose in milk has no influence on the amount of lactic acid in the muscles. The muscular fatigue caused by lactic acid come from insufficient oxygen, not milk.

4. Milk is hard to digest. Milk is easier to digest than many foods. A light pre-exercise breakfast of cereal with low-fat milk is more desirable than the high-fat steak-and-eggs tradition. Fat will remain in the digestive system, but low-fat dairy products such as skim milk, low-fat yogurt and part-skim mozzarella cheese should cause no problems.
