You could have fired a shotgun down Ave. E Monday morning and not hit a soul. The town cleared out for the Labor Day holiday, but by mid-afternoon, the local were back and stirring, and many nice boats were passing heading north.

Ozona seems ideally situated with Fort Lancaster on the west, Caverns of Sonora to the east, and Amistad Lake to the south. And if pari-mutual betting passes in the November election, Del Rio will also be drawing travelers other than fishermen and visitors to Mexico.

The entire West Texas area is a hunter's paradise, and satisfied visitor's will return to and through Ozona in the future.

A one day workshop on economic development for rural areas and small cities is being sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and West Texas Chamber of Commerce. The workshop will begin at 9:30 a.m. on Sept. 24 at the Ward County Community Center in Monahans.

In addition to the strategies for economic growth, two topics included in the seminar will be "Getting Your Community Fired Up" and the all important closing, "Now What? What Happens When We Get Home?"

For more information on the seminar, contact the county agent's office at 392-2721 or 392-2722.

Possibly the worst thunderstorm I've ever listened to dumped 1.5 inches (more or less depending on where you lived) on Ozona Sunday night.

The country is going into winter in the best shape ever in the memory of many, the bottom hasn't dropped out of any of the livestock markets, and if you believe some of what you read, the petroleum industry is in the beginning of an upswing.

The community made up of Ozona and Crockett County has the potential for economic health.

Let's put that potential to work. Ideas, anyone?

Sunday, Sept. 13, is Grandparent's Day. If you've got some, let them know they're special Sunday and every day. If you don't, adopt one for the day.

Manhattan Operating schedules Crockett 2,450-foot project

Manhattan Operating, Midland, has scheduled its No. 34-4 Shannon Estate "B", a 2,450-foot project, in an attempt to reopen Grayburg oil production in the Condo multipay field of Crockett County, 5/8-mile southeast of the depleted Grayburg opener and 14 miles east-northeast of Iraan.

Location is 1,787 feet from the south and 2,173 feet from the west lines of 34-1-GC&SF Survey. Ground elevation is 2,460 feet.

The Condo (Grayburg oil) opener, The Superior Oil Co., Midland, No. 3402 Shannon Estate "B", was finalized Aug. 8, 1985, to pump 23 barrels of 17 gravity oil, plus 33 barrels of water, with gas-oil ratio at 43-1, through perforations at 2,324-52 feet.

Wilbert Holub of Midland is the owner of this boat which failed to make the trip to Amistad last weekend. The boat and trailer came loose from its towing vehicle on Hwy. 163, ran across a yard and into the building at Thornton's Thriftway.

Full speed ahead ROBBIE TAMBUNGA Lion end is hauled down by an Eden defender, but not after making good yardage around the end.

Survey seeks reader input on news ads

What do you think of the news media and advertising?

Published in this issue of The Stockman is a 20-question survey in which the public is given the opportunity to answer the above question.

Those questions are seeking to determine advertising, reading and listening habits, as well as the public's opinion of the new media. And although it's not necessary to answer every question, there's space provided for local respondents to further detail their viewpoints.

The names of respondents are needed to verify the authenticity of returns, but the identity of each will be protected on a totally confidential basis.

Conducted by a statewide marketing interest, results of the poll could well determine the nature of advertising this area reads, sees and hears in the future.

Readers are requested to consider participating in this survey.

Bank franchise tax checks mailed

Checks totalling $9.4 million were mailed in this year's second allocation of the state's franchise tax on banks to 2,011 local taxing jurisdictions, State Comptroller Bob Bullock has announced.

Banks have paid franchise tax since 1984, when the legislature allocated receipts from the tax to cities, counties, school districts and other local taxing units where the banks are located.

Banks are taxed at the same rate as other state corporations and the tax is prorated among local taxing units based on their tax rates.

Taxing jurisdictions in Crockett County received $48,223.18. The school district received $29,936.03, up 3.71 percent from the 1986 payment to date of $28,862.50.

Crockett County's portion was $18,287.15, down 2.83 percent compared to the 1986 figure of $18,820.47.

Lions drop season opener 38-14

by T. C. Tucker

Plagued by a slack kicking game and mental mistakes in blocking, the Ozona Lions lost their first game of the season as the Eden Bulldogs won 38-14.

Eden blitzed the Lion defense, scoring 28 points alone in the first half and eventually adding 10 more later in the fourth quarter.

"Defensively we didn't get enough penetration for it (the defense) to work well," Coach Don Payne said. "Hopefully, we'll be able to correct that."

But defense did not prove to be Ozona's only problems. The Lions' overall kicking game hurt. First, the receiving team during kickoffs could not produce good field position, thus leaving the offensive unit to start deep in their own territory and having to rely on conservative playing.

"At first I thought that we were not blocking well on offense," Coach Payne said. "But after watching the film, I discovered that the line was doing well, but we always came up one guy short and that man would come through for the tackle."

Due to this leak in the blocking, Lion rushers found it difficult to get anywhere, gaining only two yards in the first half and finishing the game with 24.

"We started playing late in the second quarter," Payne said.

The Lions went into the locker room 28 points down, Eden's recent score coming off a blocked Oscar Payne punt that bounced into the end zone where the Bulldogs recovered it for an additional six points.

The fault lies with another area of the kicking game: punting. Having to start deep in their own territory so many times, the Lions ended up punting from there as well. Two shallow punts gave Eden great field position and eventual scores while blocking and recovering another for a quick score.

"Eden went after those punts from deep in our part of the field, and we failed to protect our punter," Payne said. "Later when we improved on our blocking and got off some good punts, we failed to cover properly and they returned the punts for good yardage."

However, the Lion defense picked up in the second half and contained Eden except for the two times the Bulldogs scored again.

"We began to move offensively, and anytime you do that it's going to help your defense play better," Payne said, pointing out the Lions' offensive movement in the second half.

The big break came with less than a minute remaining in the third quarter as Lalo Rodriguez picked off a Bulldog pass. A clipping call against the Lions hurt somewhat, but the interception itself had done enough to fire up the Lions.

After Bret Hood rushed for four yards, the teams traded ends of the field as the fourth quarter began. Then after an incomplete pass, Oscar Payne broke into the open behind the Eden secondary and caught a Chris Denman pass and continued down the field for a 60 yard touchdown pass.

Eden's next possession ended after Mark Fierro knocked the ball loose and Ben Rios recovered it. Fierro caused four fumbles, three of which the Lions recovered.

But the next score would come from Eden as their halfback broke away for a 50 yard touchdown run giving them a 35-6 lead.

The Lions then started a drive that would last nearly four minutes and take 10 plays until Denman went to the area again and found Robby Tambunga for Ozona's second touchdown. The Lions succeeded at the two-point attempt and upped their score to 14.

That would be the end of Lion scoring; however, Eden had not yet finished. They slowly drove down the field and were within 14 yards of the goal line with four seconds remaining. Instead of going for the TD, the Bulldogs opted for a field goal which their kicker, who had nailed all the extra points, sent through the uprights for the final score of the night and them on top, 38-14.

Although lacking in rushing, the Lions did gain 236 yards in the air via the arms of Denman and Copie Davis. But the few yards rushing could hurt the Lions later down the road unless corrected.

The Eden game is over and done, though. Ahead lies Wall who earlier tied Eden 1-1 in a pre-season scrimmage.

"They're a pretty good team," Payne said. "They have some really big guys, but they are not as quick as Eden."

Wall, who lost to Sonora last Friday 33-0, will probably use the option quite a lot as well as splitting two or three players.

The Lions have a good chance of winning this game in front of a home crowd. The game will begin at 8 p.m. in Lion Stadium.

Junior team members are: Copie Davis, QB; Harvey Dominguez, FB; Oscar Galindo, WB; Cody Sutton, T; Wolv Rutherford, T; Robbie Tambunga, SE; and Jerold Savala, SE.

Sims to hold town meeting

Sims wishes all to attend in order to be able to discuss and answer questions about recent changes in Texas law made during the regular and special sessions.

Loose boat rams Thornton Building

Crockett County has received a large amount of rain this summer, but a boat accident in Ozona?

Wilbert Holub of Midland was the unfortunate owner of a boat which came loose while passing through Ozona Sept. 4. The Holubs were Amistad bound at 9:45 a.m. when his 1987 Chevrolet pickup reached the dip 100 feet south of Third Stret on Hwy. 163 north.

According to investigating officer Trooper Richard Barton, the 1973 Arlington boat and trailer came loose from a 1984 Prowler travel trailer also being towed by Holub's pickup.

The boat crossed the street to the left, struck and tree and wooden wall in the yard at 303 Ave. D and came to rest against the metal wall at Thornton's Thriftway.

Officer Dale Burger investigated a 12:30 a.m. accident Friday in the edge of Val Verde County. Avery Sherrill Jones Jr. of Big Lake was the driver of a 1978 Ford Fairmount involved in a one vehicle accident.

The vehicle was southbound and ran off the right side of the road into loose gravel. Jones lost control and went through fence, creating about 50 feet of damage on the Mitchell ranch.

Undercarriage damage was reported to the car which came to rest against a large rock.

Trooper Dale Burger was the investigating officer.

A collision at the intersection of Mulberry and Pecan streets was investigated on Sept. 2 at 7:50 a.m.

Albert Borrego was the driver of a 1972 Ford pickup westbound on Mulberry.

A 1978 Buick stationwagon driven by Juan Esparza was southbound on Pecan and turned left onto Mulberry. The Borrego vehicle had pulled up to the stop sign and was continuing when the collision occurred.

Trooper Richard Barton investigated the accident.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—The 15-year-old case of the missing Governors Cup was solved last week while Texas officials tried to solve the Supercollider and school finance riddles.
The almost five-foot-tall trophy was presented by the Texas governor each year to the winner of the Dallas Cowboys-Houston Oilers preseason game. Along with it went official bragging rights, good for one year.
In 1973, the silver cup mysteriously disappeared, and the teams traded accusations instead.

The culprit? The Oilers left the boxed trophy behind when it moved offices that year. A cleaning man found it last week with some old programs and other memorabilia.
The Oilers had the trophy refurbished for last Saturday's preseason game.

School Finance Appealed
Officials with the Texas Education Agency announced last week they will appeal the lawsuit which could overhaul the way Texas finances its public schools.
Five months ago, state District Judge Harley Clark ruled the Texas system unconstitutional because of the differences between rich and poor school districts. He ordered the state to install a fair school finance system by 1989.

Last week, TEA attorneys filed notice of intent to appeal in the case which will drag on for months.
Supercollider Bid Sent
Which state will get the lucrative supercollider project the feds intend to build for high energy physics research?

Texas has sent its bid to Washington to build the project at sites near Dallas-Fort Worth or Amarillo, along with five "maverick" bids for two West Texas sites and three in Liberty County.

The official proposal from Texas filled 51 boxes and weighed more than a ton. In all, 43 proposals from 25 states were submitted.

High Court Politics
Departing Chief Justice John Hill will hang up his shingle with the Houston law firm of Liddell, Sapp and Zivley and the line to replace him on the State Supreme Court has gotten longer. Two sitting justices, Robert Campbell and Ted Robertson, announced they will run in next year's election. Both are Democrats.
Robertson pointed out he is not running in the middle of his term, while Campbell is. A midterm justice, by winning, gives GOP Gov. Bill Clements the opportunity to appoint a successor.
Clements is still searching for a successor to Hill who will make the race next year. San Antonio attorney Roy Barrera Jr. has withdrawn his name from consideration, citing a commitment to the George Bush for President campaign.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Moore,
Enclosed is a check to cover my subscription to The Ozona Stockman. Sorry for being so late in paying it. I have enjoyed reading the paper since I moved here to Arlington about 14 years ago. I now live in Grand Prairie, TX. You both are doing a great job. Keep it up.

KAYCEE LADIES TO MEET
The KayCee Ladies will hold a meeting Monday, Sept. 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the parish meeting room.

CHAMBER SPONSORS HAMBURGER SUPPER
The Ozona Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a hamburger supper Sept. 11 from 5:30-7:30 at the Civic Center. Tickets are $3.00.

LION BOOSTERS MEETING
Lion Boosters meet every Tuesday night at 7:30.
Jackets will be on sale between 6:15 and 7:15 p.m. on meeting nights in the basement of the old junior high.

Other Highlights
• Texas First Lady Rita Clements will co-chair Bush's steering committee and the governor's top aide, George Bayoud, will be vice chairman of the campaign.
• The governor, himself, is supposedly neutral. He will visit France next month to commemorate diplomatic relations between the French government and the Republic of Texas.
• Marta Greytok, who served Harris County in several ways, was sworn last week to the Public Utilities Commission.
Former commissioner Peggy Rosson used her departure as a forum for criticizing former Gov. Mark White for caving in to politics and bad staff advice and reneging on utility reform campaign promises.
• The first scheduled Republican presidential debate will be held in Houston next month.
• Texas Republican Party chairman George Strake took to the campaign trails last week visiting 12 targeted cities to blast Democrats for raising taxes.

9-4 An Ozona man reported the theft of a wheelbarrow from his front yard on Monterrey Street.

9-4 A citizen on 9th Street reported someone had shot three windows with a BB gun. Sheriff's deputies are investigating the case.

9-5 Three Ozona men tried to get into a family reunion party at the rodeo grounds. A fight occurred, and the three men were made to leave. Sheriff's deputies tried to arrest one of the men, but he fled from officers at high speed in his car. Later, he ran from officers on foot. All three men were charged with disorderly conduct, and the one who fled was also charged with fleeing from a peace officer. All three suspects have been arrested by sheriff's deputies.

9-7 A citizen on Mulberry Street reported two suspects trying to break into his home. Nothing was reported taken. Sheriff's deputies are investigating the case and are conducting close patrol in the area.

Writing your congressman

Surprisingly few people ever contact their legislators. This reluctance usually results from the belief that legislators have no time or inclination to answer their phones or read their mail, and that one single contact won't make any difference anyway.

In most cases, these views are wrong. Thoughtful, factually-persuasive contacts can change legislator's minds and cause them to review their judgments.

Although a telephone call can be a productive option, personal face-to-face contact is the most effective approach. Written communications should be used only when other forms of contact are not realistically available.

Be brief, specific and to-the-point. Many issues are complex, but your opinions and arguments have a better chance of being read if they are stated as concisely as the subject will permit. Remember that your letter will be competing for time and attention with countless others. Most viewpoints can be amply set forth in a carefully-written one-page letter.

Be Original

Communicate your own views, not someone else's. A personalized letter is far better than a form letter or resolution. Form letters often receive form replies.

Other Do's and Don'ts

Never threaten political or other consequences if the senator or representative refuses to see an issue your way. Few respond positively to blatant power plays.

Legislators are often caught in a cross-fire between conflicting interests and opinions. Consequently, their votes may be contrary to your opinion. Present your position logically and base it on facts. Emotional appeals do not influence a vote.

Your communication should be timely. Inform your legislators of your views while there is still time to take effective action.

Be sure to have accurate facts and good arguments about any issues you discuss with your legislators. Make sure you understand the particular bill in question.

Most controversial legislation is the result of compromise - that's the way the system operates. There will be times when it happens. Remember that you can disagree without being disagreeable.

Don't be argumentative. Make your point, but don't engage in a debate. Your objective is to convince your legislator of the correctness of your views.

Legislators are human too, and they appreciate an occasional "well done" from people who believe they did the right thing.

Recognize Their Problems

Your legislators represent all of the constituents in your area - liberal and conservative, business and labor. Their duty is to represent all of the people to the best of their ability.

There may be times when you think your legislators are on the wrong track, but they may have facts which are not available to you. Try to understand their problems, outlook and objectives.

Give Them Your Support

If you believe your legislators deserve re-election, don't hesitate to get involved when they are campaigning for another term. That's the time they need your help most of all.

Going out of business sales regulated

Going out of business sales can offer consumers quality merchandise at bargain prices. But a growing number of retailers are falsely advertising that they are going out of business, thereby taking unfair advantage of their honest competitors.

Only businesses that will end all operations in a county and all counties immediately adjacent to that county may advertise "going out of business" sales.

Businesses conducting legitimate sales must file an original inventory with the county clerk. It must include a detailed inventory and cost of all items offered at the beginning of the sale and of all items to be added after the beginning date.

Every 30 days, new sales inventories must be filed and a final inventory must be filed within 30 days of the last day of the sale.

Permits are good for 120 days and are not renewable. No person may conduct another going out of business sale until more than two years after the most recent sale conducted by that person.

The first illustrated daily newspaper in the United States was the New York Daily Graphic, 1873.

Testing your baby's hearing

If you suspect your child may have a hearing problem, it is never too soon to go to an audiologist for a hearing test. Because most language development takes place between birth and age three, accommodating for a hearing loss early in a child's life is critical. Fortunately, babies can be tested reliably at a very young age and can be fitted for hearing aides before they are out of the cradle.

If an infant less than three months old is suspected of having a hearing loss, an audiologist will conduct a brain stem test. Although a brain stem test will detect (or rule out) the absence of any useable hearing, it will not detect a minor, or even moderate, hearing loss.

In a brain stem test, electrodes are attached to the baby's head with an electrode gel. Clicks are played in the child's ears while electrical impulses in the brain are recorded. By analyzing the brain impulse patterns, an audiologist can recognize severe hearing loss. The child feels no pain with the test, but the electrodes are easily rubbed up, so the test is usually performed while the baby is asleep, or, if he is very active, sedated.

As the child grows older, more sophisticated tests are possible, and hearing loss can be measured more exactly. During a typical test for a four-to-six-month-old baby, the baby would be seated in his mother's lap in a booth well-insulated against noise. An audiologist would watch the baby from a neighboring booth through a one-way glass.

By altering the frequency and loudness of the sounds heard in the baby's booth and broadcasting them from right or left sides of the room, the audiologist can accurately measure a hearing loss.

Some parents like to put an amplifier in the baby's crib to pick up sounds from a microphone attached to the mother. The disadvantage with this arrangement is that the microphone also picks up other background noises.

Hundreds of hearing aides are on the market, and the audiologist will advise the parents on what kind would be suitable for the particular child.

Rachel's Reviews

Disability insurance

If you think you will never get a disabling injury, you may be right. Chances are more likely that you'll be wrong. According to a report in Sylvia Porter's Personal Finance, the odds of people under 65 suffering a disabling injury are greater than their odds of dying, and not many people are properly insured for a disability.

Only one in five employed people is covered for a long-term disability, and one in four is covered for a disability lasting up to two years by their present insurance policy. This could be a real problem if your other sources of disability income, liquid assets, and spouse's income don't provide up to 80 percent of monthly expenses.

Private disability insurance is available, but should be checked out very carefully before you decide to take out a policy. Typical policies replace 60 percent of your previous income. Their costs vary, depending upon age, occupational hazards, and the comprehensiveness of the coverage.

You should look for the following in a disability insurance policy before signing:

- The word disability should be clearly defined. If the policy covers inability to perform any occupation, you will only receive payment if you can no longer do any job whatsoever. Policies which define a disability as the inability to perform your own occupation may allow you to work at something else and still receive full or partial benefits.

- Policies should have a non-cancelable clause and a provision to keep the premium from being raised.

- Benefits should be payable up to age 65, or for life.

- If you aren't eligible for Social Security disability benefits, the policy should make up for it.

- Benefits should increase by percentage with inflation.

- If you go back to work at a lower paying job because of your disability, the policy should pay benefits proportionate to your loss of salary.

- Costs of policies vary depending upon when you would choose to begin drawing benefits. Some policies begin payments from the first day of injury, other policies begin up to two years later, and are less expensive.

Disability insurance may help you a great deal someday, but the various policies should be read carefully. You will need to look at your sick leave benefits, savings and other sources of income when making the decision of which type of policy is most appropriate for you.

Salad supper at Childress home

On Tuesday evening, Sept. 1, the Ruth and Fidelis classes of First Baptist Church gathered in the garden at the home of Geniece Childress for their first meeting of the year. Members brought salads and enjoyed sharing the meal and visiting in the lovely shaded yard.

A highlight of the evening was the cutting and serving of a cake in honor of the September Birthday Girls including Lucille Littleton and two guests, Wanda Dews and Vonda McMillan of San Angelo. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Littleton and Clara Freeman.

The program for the evening was brought by David Emler of San Angelo, nephew of Audrey Glynn. David is a member of last year's Lee Junior High Speech Class which wrote the script and acted in a documentary VCR tape of Afghanistan, "Who Will Save The Children?". This film was inspired by Dr. Preston Darby, a San Angelo physician, who spent time in Afghanistan, and carried through by the speech teacher, Mrs. Carolyn Underwood.

David's mother had prepared a typical Afghanistan dish of rice and vegetables as a special treat.

Business was conducted by the incoming class president, Audrey Glynn, and new officers were presented. These are: teacher, Lu Ingram; outreach leader, Betty Moak; secretary-treasurer, Darolyn Webster; and group captains, Donna Hightower, Colleen Everett, Maxine Brown and Marolyn Bean.

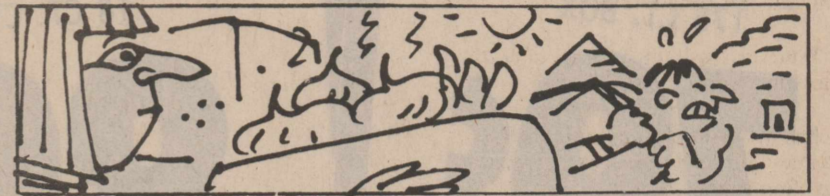

Work by members of the late Charlotte Phillips' art group is on display during September at Crockett County Public Library. Pictured are: Cabin by Polly Perncr, Morning Mist by Joan Nicholas and Indian Girl by Beth Marks. Other artists represented in the exhibit are Joyce Maness, Louisa Pearson, Vonnie Womack, Katey Jones and Marge Smith.

There was discussion of ongoing and immediate projects for the class for the year.

Other members present were: Letha Loudamy, Joyce Maness, Kay Grey, Nell Davee, Luetta Kost, Virginia Hubbard, Jerry McCarley, May Lay, Betty Tumlinson, Ruth Hester, and guests Dianne Myers, Crystelle Childress, Wanda Dews, and David and Florence Emler and Mrs. McMillan of San Angelo.

The first record of the use of spices dates from the age of the pyramids of Egypt—approximately 4,600 years ago—when onions and garlic were fed to 100,000 laborers.

A friend of ours is worried about the drug scene... and vandalism... and what he calls "eroding moral standards." He asked some questions we'll pass on to you:

Does it make a difference if parents have firm principles and values they want to transmit to and through their children?

Does it make a difference if boys and girls from the earliest ages are involved in the program of religious education provided by our churches?

Is the message of God's concern and man's responsibility made clearer when parents bring rather than send their youngsters to church?

Will it be a better world if we all strive to be the kind of folks God wants His children to be?

J. V. Lions punish Iraan

by Copie Davis

The Ozona Junior Varsity Lion football team took a young and inexperienced squad to Iraan Sept. 3 to battle the Iraan Braves in their 1987 debut. The Lions took control early and won the opener 7-0.

In the first quarter, neither team could get its offense untracked. Ozona spent much of the opening period on defense as Iraan controlled the ball with a clock consuming ground game. When the Lions finally gained possession of the ball, they could only accumulate a measly nine yards of offense.

The Lions began the second quarter impressively with a 44-yard scoring drive. The drive took five plays and was capped off when freshman tailback Ruben Borrego rambled 11 yards for the game's only touchdown. The PAT was good, and Ozona led 7-0.

Defensively, the Lions shut down Iraan for the entire period, allowing only 11 yards by the Braves on nine plays. Another blow to Iraan's offensive output was a big fumble recovery by sophomore linebacker Sotero Fuentes.

In the second half, the Lion defense again rose to the occasion by allowing only 33 yards total on 17 offensive plays by Iraan. Ozona also took another fumble away from Iraan late in the third quarter to further protect their lead.

Offensively, the Lions didn't move the ball well until late in the fourth quarter when they drove down to Iraan's two yard line, only to be denied a touchdown on the fourth and goal. From there, the Braves could only attempt several desperation passes before the clock ran out and Ozona had the victory in hand.

"We played a great defensive game," said J.V. Head Coach David McWilliams. "There were a lot of times where they came close, but our defense finally shut them down. Overall, I'm extremely pleased."

Statistically, the Lions outgained Iraan 140 to 82 in total offense. 130 of Ozona's yards came on the ground led by freshman Ruben Borrego with 33 yards, and Lonnie Martinez with 18 yards. Quarterback Mingo Perez completed one of six passes for 10 yards.

Leading the defensive charge for the Lions was linebacker Sotero Fuentes who punished Iraan with 10 tackles and a fumble recovery. Right behind Fuentes was defensive tackle Jason Tumlinson with eight tackles.

Sept. 17 the J.V. Lions face the Sonora Broncos in their second '87-'88 contest here at 6:30 p.m.

Members of the Lion J.V. team are: Danny DeHoyos, QB; Domingo Perez, QB; Oscar Gutierrez, QB; Isaac Leal, WB; Ruben Borrego, RB; Lonnie Martinez, RB; Daun Williams, FB; Michael Ybarra, FB; Anthony Vasquez, FB; Ed Chipman, T; Gus Garza, C; Jay Haire, C; Ricky Burger, G; Albert Talamantez, G; Jason Moran, G; Jason Tumlinson, C; Lee Galan, G; Bruce Beasley, G; Randy Judd, T; Victor Trujillo, G; Danny Vasquez, T; Joe Teague, T; Cody Morris, T; Angel Hernandez, T; Aristeo Duenes, T; Feliciano Esmerado, G; Jason Vitela, E; Gilbert Rico, SE; Robert Dominguez, SE; Sotero Fuentes, E; and Martin Urbina, E.

More about your taxes

AUSTIN - Many local governments are in the process of adopting property tax rates - important to property owners because these taxes are the basis for revenue to fund county, city and school budgets each year.

The Texas Property Tax Code contains "truth-in-taxation" laws which ensure that taxpayers will be informed of tax increases. For example, advertisements in local newspapers notify taxpayers of public meetings they can attend to become involved in the tax rate adoption process.

The first step in the truth-in-taxation process is calculating an effective tax rate. The tax assessor for a taxing unit usually calculates this rate and publicizes it.

The effective tax rate is a key element of the truth-in-taxation process because it is a benchmark by which tax increases are measured. Generally, the effective tax rate will produce sufficient funds to retire the taxing unit's debts and approximately the same revenue as last year for maintenance and operation purposes.

"The effective tax rate prevents tax bills from rising automatically after a reappraisal or due to increasing property values," said Ron Patterson, executive director of the State Property Tax Board. "In those situations, the effective rate will decrease to offset property value increases.

"Conversely, the effective rate increases when the property values in a taxing unit decrease," Patterson explained. "In 1987, many taxing units have less taxable property value than they had in 1986. Taxpayers in those units could easily see a higher effective tax rate than in the past."

The effective rate calculation uses current-year taxable property values to generate approximately the same revenue as last year.

Around Aug. 7, or soon after, the unit's tax assessor calculates the effective tax rate using property values which the appraisal review board has approved and the chief appraiser has certified. The assessor will publicize this rate, the calculations used to figure it and an estimate of the unit's unused funds (called its "unencumbered fund balance") from the most recent fiscal year.

After publicizing the effective tax rate, governing bodies of taxing units must decide the type and level of services on which to base their budgets and what tax rate will be needed to provide these services.

Members of the taxing unit's governing body (school board, commissioners' court, city council, board of directors) have two choices: 1) adopt the effective tax rate, plus an optional increase of up to three percent or 2) adopt a tax rate more than three percent greater than the effective tax rate.

If they decide to keep the tax rate within three percent of the effective tax rate, the governing body is not required to notify the public.

If the governing body intends to raise taxes by more than three percent above the effective rate, they must publicize their intent and hold a public hearing for taxpayers to air their views on the proposed tax increase. They will do so by publishing a quarter-page newspaper ad before the public hearing and before the meeting to adopt the tax rate.

Cities and counties who are increasing taxes to provide additional indigent health care services to their citizens will use a special quarter-page newspaper advertisement specifying the percentage of increase needed for these services.

If the governing body adopts a tax rate which exceeds the effective rate by more than eight percent, voters in the taxing unit can petition for an election to roll back the tax increase.

After a successful election, any taxing unit other than a school district would have its tax rate reduced immediately to eight percent above the effective tax rate. A school district would have its tax rate limited to the eight percent level in the following tax year.

New legislation has extended the rollback protection for increased indigent health care costs. Taxing units who are budgeting for additional costs will have the amount above the eight percent threshold protected from a rollback election. In addition, those funds will be dedicated to only indigent health care. The property tax system in Texas gives all property owners several opportunities throughout the year to influence the amount of property tax they pay.

"Open meetings and budget hearings allow taxpayers to express opinions about how their tax dollars are spent," Patterson said. "Appraisal review board hearings give them the opportunity to make sure that their property appraisals are fair compared to other property in the taxing unit. And, truth in taxation and the rollback election provision allow taxpayers a say about tax rate proposals that may increase tax bills."

More detailed information is available for taxpayers through a pamphlet called "Taxpayers, Rights, Remedies, Responsibilities." Copies are available at local appraisal district offices or from the State Property Tax Board in Austin.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing agreements between the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation and the Texas Turnpike Authority and the governing bodies of counties with a population of more than 400,000, adjoining counties, and cities and districts located in those counties to aid turnpikes, toll roads, and toll bridges by guaranteeing bonds issued by the Texas Turnpike Authority."

Senate Joint Resolution 9 proposes a constitutional amendment to provide that a state legislator is eligible to serve in another state office even if the compensation of the office was increased during his legislative term or even if the appointment is made in whole or in part (including Senate confirmation) by the legislature. The legislator could not, however, receive the increased compensation approved during his legislative term.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide that a member of the legislature is eligible to be elected or appointed and to serve in a different state office but may not receive an increase in compensation granted to that office during the legislative term to which he was elected."

PROPOSITION NO. 10 ON THE BALLOT

Subsections (d) and (e) of Section 1 of Senate Joint Resolution 12 propose a constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to exempt from ad valorem taxation all tangible personal property except structures which are used as residential dwellings and property held or used for the production of income. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to exempt from ad valorem taxation certain personal property not held or used for the production of income."

PROPOSITION NO. 11 ON THE BALLOT

Section 1, Subsections (f) and (g) of Senate Joint Resolution 12 propose a constitutional amendment to exempt from ad valorem taxation goods, wares, merchandise, and ores other than oil, gas and petroleum products. These items would be exempt from taxation only if they originated outside the state and were located in the state for a period of 175 days or less for purposes of assembly, storage, manufacture, processing, or fabrication. Such property could be taxed by a county, school district, or municipality if the governing body of the political subdivision took official action to provide for the taxation of the items while they were located in the political subdivision. If the governing body of a political subdivision took official action to tax the items before January 1, 1988, the tax would be effective for the 1988 tax year. If the action were taken after January 1, 1988, and before April 1, 1988, the tax would become effective January 1, 1989.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing for the exemption from ad valorem taxation of certain property that is located in the state for only a temporary period of time."

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to allow for the creation and establishment, by law, of special districts to provide emergency services."

"The constitutional amendment giving the state a limited right to appeal in criminal cases."

PROPOSITION NO. 15 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 35 proposes a constitutional amendment to abolish the office of county treasurer in Gregg County and transfer the duties of that office to the county auditor or an elected official designated by the commissioners court. The amendment would also abolish the office of county treasurer in Fayette and Nueces counties if a majority of the voters in those counties vote in favor of the amendment. In Fayette County, the functions of the treasurer would be transferred to the county auditor or the officer succeeding to the auditor's functions. In Nueces County, the powers, duties, and functions of the treasurer would be transferred to the county clerk.

This authorization would apply to laws passed by the 70th Legislature, 1987, and by future legislatures in regular or special session. Definition of such functions by the legislature would clarify the liability of a municipality in civil lawsuits filed against it.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to define for all purposes the governmental and proprietary functions of a municipality."

PROPOSITION NO. 18 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 18 proposes a constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to provide for the creation, operation, and financing of jail districts. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment relating to the creation, operation, and financing of jail districts."

PROPOSITION NO. 19 ON THE BALLOT

Under current law, the legislature is not allowed to exercise any powers in executive matters under Article II of the Texas Constitution, which provides for the "separation of powers" into three distinct departments.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment permitting the legislature to include the speaker of the house of representatives or the speaker's appointee in the membership of an executive agency or committee."

PROPOSITION NO. 22 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 53 proposes a constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to limit the term of office of a gubernatorial appointee to a vacancy in a state or district office to a partial, temporary term if the appointment is made on or after November 1 of the last year of the governor's term and the governor is not reelected. Of the $400 million authorized, $200 million would be designated for conservation and development of water resources, $150 million would be designated for water quality enhancement, and $50 million would be designated for flood control. The amendment also authorizes the legislature to provide for review and approval of the issuance of the bonds and the use of the bond proceeds.

The governmental entity must be located wholly or partly in the county, and the governing body of the governmental entity must file a written work request with the commissioners court.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to permit a county to perform work, without compensation, for another governmental entity."

PROPOSITION NO. 25 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 5 proposes a constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to authorize Randall County to levy a tax for the benefit of the Amarillo Hospital District. Any such tax could be levied only on property located outside the City of Amarillo and outside the South Randall County Hospital District. The tax could not be more than 75¢ per $100 property valuation and would be effective only upon approval by the voters in the area to be taxed. If the proposition fails, the members will be elected from these districts.

The referendum will appear on the ballot as follows:

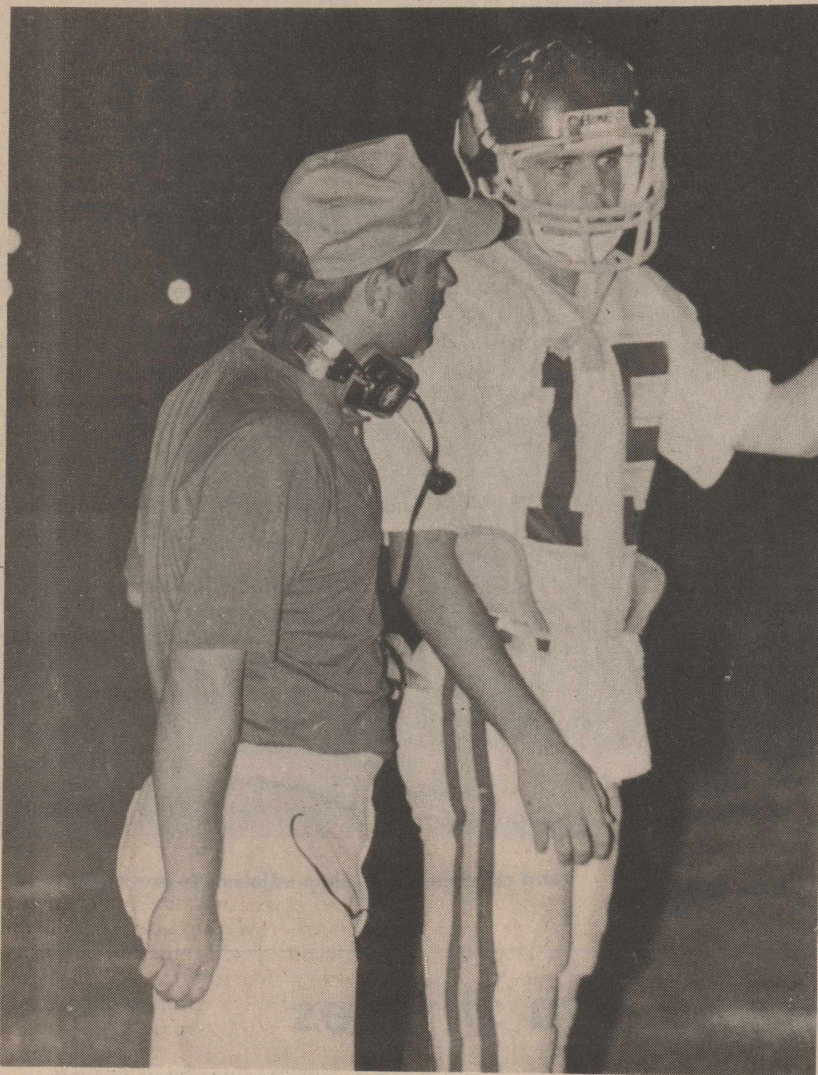

"The State Board of Education shall be composed of members who are appointed from districts instead of elected, with equal representation throughout the State of Texas."

The referendum will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The legalization of pari-mutuel wagering under the Texas Racing Act on a county-by-county local option basis."

Back to school

By Larisa Schoenhals

The persistent ring of the alarm clock sent the frightening chill of back-to-school jitters through the minds of students in Ozona High School. Sleepy-eyed teenagers made their way to the school entrance as the eight o'clock bell rang loud and clear. The two biggest questions running through the mind of every person were "where did the summer go?" and "Why am I here so soon?"

To begin the day, high school principal Mr. Jim Payne gave his annual speech of welcome to Ozona High School.... "there are certain rules to follow..."

Seniors, after hearing the same lecture the preceding three years, fidgeted with their new school supplies or semi-secretly signed each other's yearbooks. Freshmen, on the other hand, sat wide-eyed, taking in every word Mr. Payne had to deliver.

After the do's and don'ts were read through, the new faculty members were introduced. The three new faces at O. H. S. this year are Mr. Dan McClung, physical science teacher; Ms. Lynn Coleman, English teacher and head girls' basketball coach; and not really new to Ozona, but new to O. H. S., Mrs. Margaret Spiller, business management instructor.

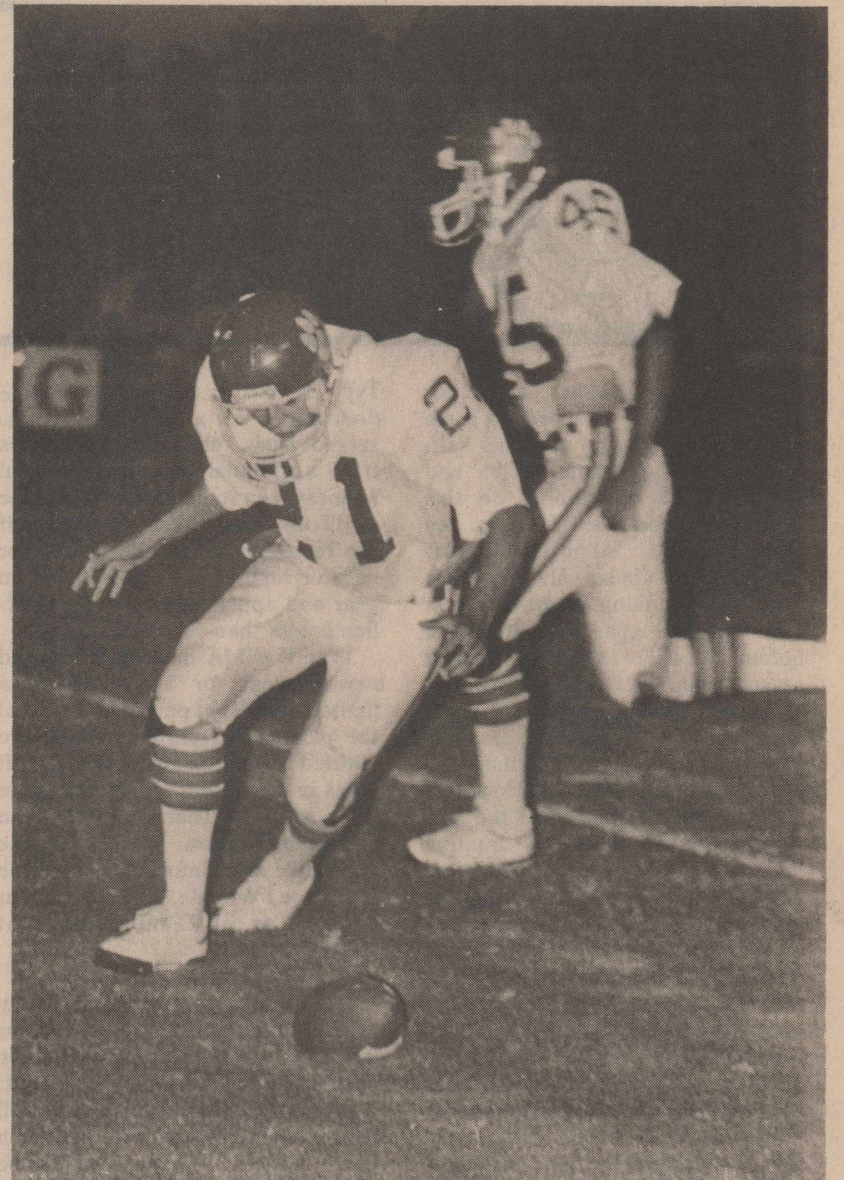

The next item on the agenda was the tremendous, outrageous task of actually going to class. Flustered freshmen nervously asked various upperclassmen where different classes were. Sophomores, juniors and seniors passed through the halls with ease, remembering the good ol' days and looking toward the future - namely graduation.

Although the first day of classes is usually considered a "let's meet the teacher" and discussion day, some students' minds were jolted at the idea of homework. Various teachers assigned reading, math problems, or simply puzzles just so the students could get back on the track of studying. After the brutal shock had sunk in, students realized that the summer was really over and it's back to work for nine more months.

In the course of mid-afternoon, each class gathered in different quadrants of the campus to choose school sponsors. Teachers secretly crossed their fingers and wished that they wouldn't be chosen as a sponsor for a class with the dreaded concession stand duty. Selected were: Freshman Class sponsors, Mr. Kelly Glaze, Mr. Jim White and Mr. Jim Green; Sophomore Class sponsors, Mrs. Janice North, Mr. David McWilliams, and Mr. Cliff McMullan; Junior Class sponsors, Mrs. Chesta Stuart, Mr. Thomas DeHoyos and Mr. H. O. Hoover; and last but not least, Senior Class sponsors, Mr. John Curry, Mr. Ruben Pena-Alfaro and Mrs. Emma Franco.

Student Council officers were also

OHS officers elected

Class officers and sponsors and Student Council officers and representatives were elected last week at Ozona High School.

Senior Class officers are: Danny Sanchez, president; Kelli Landon, vice-president; Jim Etheridge, secretary; Randi Thompson, treasurer.

Sponsoring the class are: John Curry, Emma Franco, Brent Pool and Ruben Pena-Alfaro.

Elected as officers for the Junior Class were: Tommy Tucker, president; Ben Rios, vice-president; and Gina McCollum, secretary/treasurer.

The sponsors are Chesta Stuart, H. O. Hoover and Thomas DeHoyos.

tary and Stacy Berry, treasurer.

Elected to serve as sponsors are: Cliff McMullan, David McWilliams and Jan North.

Freshman officers include: Domingo Perez, president; Valerie Flores, vice-president; Oscar Gutierrez, secretary; and Lonnie Martinez, treasurer.

Class sponsors are: Jim White, Jim Green and Kelly Glaze.

Student Council officers are: Stan Winkley, president; Oscar Galindo, vice-president; Lalo Rodriguez, secretary; Shannon Curry, treasurer.

Yearbooks available at OHS

As of Friday, Sept. 4, the following people have not picked up their 1987 yearbook from the high school office. There are still several yearbooks left chosen by secret ballot during the same meeting. Stanley Winkley was named president while Oscar Galindo received the vice-presidential honor. Lalo Rodriguez was voted in as secretary, and Shannon Curry as treasurer.

As the day came to a close, students went home to recover from the exhaustion. The Village Drug seemed to be a popular place to beat the heat as several teens ventured there for a cool drink or ice cream sundae.

All in all, students seemed to refer to the first day as a fun or exciting day, proving that life at O. H. S. isn't all that bad.

CROCKETT COUNTY OUTDOORS

by Rod Chalmers

That time of year has arrived for your State Game Warden to come out of mothballs and earn his salt, and that includes information and education for his public. So this article will be the first in my Semi-Biweekly Almost Regular Column that almost always starts with the beginning of dove season and appears spasmodically until before or after the end of deer season, whichever comes first!

I'll not use a lot of space to cover dove hunting regulations, as The Stockman staff did a very thorough job of that in the last issue. However, I would like to emphasize the fact that everyone needs a hunting license to hunt in Texas, regardless of where or what you're hunting, or how young or old you are (hunters under 17, or 65 or over, and certain disabled veterans can buy a reduced fee license, but they still need a license). Think of it this way: if you want to see the show, you have to pay your quarter. And a quarter is about all it's worth if you're strictly after doves in Crockett County these days, because recent rains have done a whole lot of scattering the birds over most of the county. Unless you have access to a cultivated field south of McCamey, you shouldn't need too many shells, unless you like to practice on grasshoppers.

Those of you who grumble that you don't have a place to hunt 'cause you can't afford a lease should check into public hunting on one of the TPWD's Wildlife Management Areas. Choice hunting is available on Type I WMA's, either by public drawing or on a first-come, first-served basis, and the cost varies from a minimal fee for successful applicants on some areas to no charge at all on other areas. However, if you're interested in gun hunts for deer or turkey, you have to get in gear and apply today, as the deadline is less than two weeks away.

Type II WMA hunting is a brand new concept for Texas, where a limited number of permits are sold to the public, and permit holders are entitled to hunt on any of the Type II areas in the state for whatever game is in season. That's probably an over-simplification, but if anyone would like more information on Type II or Type I WMA's, give me a call at 392-3972, or call TPWD in Austin at 1-800-792-1112.

If anyone needs a hunter safety course, to go hunting in Colorado or for any other reason, your only chance in Ozona this fall will be Sept. 21-23. Dorris Haire and myself will hold classes from 7:30 to 10:30 on those nights at the Courthouse Annex, and attendance all three nights is compulsory for certification. Everyone 12 years of age or older is welcome, and the cost is one whole dollar per person. A phone call to 392-3972 any evening this week will assure you a slot in the course, but don't start looking for another course in Ozona this year if you miss this one.

ASU has planetarium weekly shows

Angelo State University's Planetarium will present the star program "Impact" beginning Thursday, Sept. 3, at 8 p.m. and running every Thursday and Saturday through Nov. 21.

Dr. Mark Sonntag, University Planetarium director, said the new star program will provide the audience with a view of the effects of a cosmic impact on Earth.

"The earth is constantly sweeping up tiny celestial dust along its path with no apparent ill-effects on us," said Sonntag. "But occasionally a really large piece of space debris collides with our planet. What effects can such an event have on life on our planet? Some of the answers are the central theme of the show."

"Impact" also explores the possibility of a cycle of reoccurring cosmic collisions and its implications for life in the future.

The ASU Planetarium, is located in the Nursing-Physical Science Building, just off the corner of Johnson and Vanderventer streets.

Showtimes for "Impact" are Thursday at 8 p.m. and Saturday at 2 p.m. Tickets are $2 for general admission and $1 for student, senior citizens, and ASU faculty and staff. To make reservations, call 942-2188 between 3 p.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Judy Baker's Sew-n-Sew is one of Ozona's newest businesses. Judy does custom sewing for men women and children at the shop adjacent to her home.

Sew-n-Sew keeps Judy in stitches

Judy Baker has been preparing for opening her new business a long time. "Sewing is my hobby," Judy says when you ask her what she likes to do besides sew. Quilting and crafts also occupy the talented lady at her home north of Ozona.

Judy's business, Sew-n-Sew, is located adjacent to her home in a shop Judy and her husband, Jim, built. The shop contains everything Judy needs to construct clothing for men, women and children. She does non-tailored men's wear.

Twenty-five years of experience qualify Judy as a seamstress. She also was a 4-H leader for many years, and her daughter, Kim, began sewing at age nine.

Kim, a student at Abilene Christian University, helped decorate the shop, and son J. J. assisted with the construction. Nephew Jason Ford is helping with finishing touches. The blue building interior is wallpapered in a delicate floral on white. The flooring echoes the pattern of the wall paper. Focal point of the sewing room is an antique spool bed covered in a crocheted spread made by Mr. Baker's mother. Judy's parents started housekeeping with the bed, which she has refinished.

Bicycle safety hints

Whether you drive an old clunker with coaster brakes or an ultralight, high performance bicycle, safety should be your top priority. A well-maintained bike is the first step in safe cycling, cautions Texas Safety Association (TSA).

- Be sure tires are properly inflated; the correct pressure should be embossed on the tire's sidewall. Caution: over-inflation can make the tire explode and cause serious injury.
- Make certain tires do not rub against the bike frame and the tire rims do not rub against brake pads.
- Replace missing, bent, or broken spokes.
- Check to see that brakes are working properly. Tighten loose brake cables, and replace them if they are frayed or rusty.
- If yours is a multi-speed bike, check to see that the gearshift levers shift smoothly -- any problems should be serviced by an authorized dealer.
- If buying a new bike this spring, be sure it "fits." When seated, you should be able to place one foot flat on the ground without leaning.

Additional safety tips to remember include wearing bright-colored clothing during the day and light-colored clothing at night. Add a headlight and taillight at night to improve your bike's visibility to motor vehicle drivers.

Wear a helmet every time you get on a bicycle and make sure child passengers do, too. About 75 percent of all bicycle-related fatalities are caused by head injuries. Each year, about 1,000 people are killed in bicycle accidents nationally.

Remember maintenance and safety precautions and avoid becoming one of those statistics.

Candlelight ceremony unites Miss Dickinson, Mr. Winkley

Miss Aimee Melissa Dickinson became the bride of Lloyd Russell Winkley Aug. 15, 1987, at 2:00 in the Brentwood Oaks Church of Christ in Austin.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Dickinson of Austin. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Winkley of Ozona.

The double-ring service was performed by Roger McCowan, minister of the Brentwood church. Vows were said before spiraled candles and flowers with a unity candle in the background.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a formal wedding gown of white bridal satin and Chantilly lace. The Alencon lace edging the neckline was filled with seed pearls. Leg o' mutton sleeves of Chantilly lace had mother of pearl closures.

The V-shaped waistline flowed into a Chantilly lace skirt with cathedral train.

A tiara of lace and seed pearls held a silk illusion veil which was accented with seed pearls.

Mrs. Denise Rhodds of Arlington attended her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Stacie Winkley of Ozona, sister of the bridegroom, Lori O'Neal and Stephanie Koury of Austin.

The attendants wore identical long blue dresses with V-necklines and bouffant sleeves. Each carried a white hat trimmed with blue silk flowers and white streamers.

The bridegroom was attired in a white tuxedo. Stanley Winkley of Ozona served as best man for his brother. Groomsmen were Curt McPherson of Amarillo, cousin of the bridegroom; Jerry Decena of Corpus Christi and Steve Atkins of Greenville. All were dressed in grey tuxedos.

Music for the ceremony was provided by Mrs. Gary Vannoy at the piano and soloist RaeAnn White. She sang the "Anniversary Song" and "Follow Me".

Special guests attending the ceremony were grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Moore of Andrews and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Winkley of Durant, OK.

Guests also attended from Ozona, Dallas, Hutto, Abilene, Ennis and Kerrville.

Mrs. Winkley is a graduate of Pflugerville High School. She attends Abilene Christian University where she is studying elementary education with a specialty in physical education.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Ozona High School. He also attends Abilene Christian University where he is studying communication and psychology.

After a wedding trip to Jamaica, the couple will live in Abilene.

RECEPTION
 The bride's three-tiered cake was placed on a round table covered with a floor-length white cloth. Blue spun sugar roses decorated the confection, and a Precious Moments bride and bridegroom were centered on the bottom tier.

Two heart-shaped chocolate cakes were placed on the rectangular bridegroom's table. Precious Moments figures of a new husband carrying his bride decorated the cake.

Blue and white mints, nuts, cheese and assorted crackers and pink punch were also served. Attending the registry table was the bridegroom's cousin, Cassie McPherson of Amarillo.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Winkley hosted the rehearsal buffet Friday night at the Kamada Inn. Approximately 50 persons gathered for the meal at tables decorated with baskets holding blue silk flowers.

Economic development for rural areas

A one-day workshop on economic development for rural areas and small cities is being sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and West Texas Chamber of Commerce. The workshop will begin at 9:30 a.m. Sept. 24 at the Ward County Community Center in Monahans. A registration fee is $30 if paid before Sept. 11 and $40 after that date.

"All across Texas, County Extension agents and citizen task forces have recently completed studies to identify crucial concerns and plan long-range Extension programs to address these issues," said Crockett County Agent Billy Reagor.

"One critical issue which emerged throughout the state was the sagging economy of local businesses and agriculture," the agent noted. This workshop is specifically designed to address this issue. The target audience is chamber of commerce executives, mayors, city council members, bankers, county officials, school board members, business leaders and other community leaders, he said.

According to the county agent, the program is designed to help these leaders understand why and how economic development occurs, develop a feasible and workable strategy for community economic growth and initiate viable development programs.

Participants will be welcomed by Lloyd Stoeber, chairman of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Economic Development Committee and Bob Miller, president of the Monahans Chamber of Commerce.

Strategies for economic growth will be addressed by Dr. Don Stebbins and the impact of agriculture on area economies will be explained by Dr. Greg Taylor. Both of these speakers are from Texas A&M University. Retail trade and revitalizing Main Street will be discussed by Donna Porter, manager of the Sweetwater Main Street Project.

An examination of tourism as a development option will be led by Phil Davis from the Texas Tourist Development Agency. "Getting Your Community Fired Up" is the luncheon topic of James Roberts, president of Roberts Publishing Company in Andrews.

Retention of existing industry will be discussed by Mike McElrath from Southern Union Gas Company in El

Spinning, weaving topic of study club meeting

The Pandale Study Club met Thursday, Sept. 3, at the Pandale Community Building for their first meeting of the 1987-88 club year. There were 10 members present.

Jocelyn Graves gave an interesting and informative demonstration on the cording, spinning, dyeing and weaving of wool and the use of native plants in weaving.

Vonnie Womack and Ginger Perner served delicious cake and punch for refreshments.

Those present were: Sue Arledge, Sarah Hargraves, Lou Deaton, Myrtle Malone, Martha Gries, Opal Everett, Josephine Mills and Judy Norsworthy.

Paso. Harold Smith, Community Development Representative of TU Electric in Fort Worth, will lead a discussion on community industrial development teams.

Rural health care and its impact on economic development will be discussed by Gary Shreve, Ward County Hospital Administrator.

Where to find industry is the question to be addressed by Terry Beck, coordinator of Area Development for Texas-New Mexico Power Company. Financing industry in small towns will be covered by Rosa Rios-Valdez, coordinator of Business Expansions Finance Department with the Texas Economic Development Commission.

The program will conclude with a discussion entitled "Now What? What Happens When We Get Home?" led by David Scott, supervisor for Area Development at West Texas Utilities Company.

County agent Reagor says, "the program will include just enough theory to see how and why economic development occurs and will concentrate on the practical." Registration information is available from the county agent's office. Call 392-2721 or 392-2722.

4-H'ers learn citizenship

Citizenship means many things to many people and is hard to pin down. It is something like trying to define happiness.

The 4-H program, however, can help youth learn what citizenship is all about, says Rachel Hall, county 4-H program leader with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

For some people, citizenship means participating in government, holding an office, campaigning and voting. For others, it is patriotism, defending the country, displaying the flag, and singing the national anthem.

Citizenship also may be holding a job, making money, paying taxes, owning property and obeying the law. Still others see citizenship as simply being born or naturalized as a "citizen" of the country and that's it.

Citizenship demands participation, involvement and contribution, and this is where 4-H can play a major role.

America will be only as great as its people, the people who occupy this land, have the vision, the will and the determination to help her be great. Unlimited opportunity awaits the young American with enough love, courage and sense of direction to rise to the challenge of good citizenship. The 4-H program can help young Americans to do just that.

A community is built by close relations between citizens. The individual good of every citizen depends upon the harmonious working of all the community. The 4-H Club is a functioning group that promotes community activity, Rachel points out. 4-H'ers see themselves as highly individual, but at the same time, as responsible citizens using organized action to improve this living environment.

Citizenship education through 4-H provides for three-fold learning:

- Understanding: Using our heads for clearer thinking, getting information and understanding issues.
- Attitudes: Using our hearts to appreciate our rights and feel our responsibilities.
- Skills: Using our hands and healthy bodies and minds to put into practice what we understand and feel we should do.

Through 4-H, youth can learn to become more active citizens working toward a better America.

Common frauds aimed at older texans

Many businesses offer special services to older Texans. Most are legitimate, but a growing number of unscrupulous operators are profiting unfairly.

Some common frauds involve the following:

- Home improvements, especially those claiming to cut fuel costs or provide security;
 - Business opportunities, especially work at home schemes that promise to make money with little effort, or investments;
 - Self improvement programs like dance lessons;
 - Medical/Health items such as hearing aids, miracle drugs or insurance;
 - Burial plans;
 - Charitable solicitations.
- You can protect yourself by:
- Being suspicious and checking identification and references;
 - Wait a day or two before signing anything;
 - Don't make any payments until you are completely satisfied.
- And remember: in general it is best to comparison shop before buying anything and to deal with established firms.
