Hers

Congratulations to the many young people in our community who have represented Ozona so well at various athletic contests and at regional competition in band.

The teenagers of today are the leaders of tomorrow, and it is always a pleasure to see these young people prove themselves by doing their best.

Some fell short of this goal Halloween night. I was trying hard to remember that tomorrow's leaders were just working off a little steam as I cleaned the dried egg off my car Sunday.

Anne Davidson wasn't too pleased to find that her new fence had fallen victim to Halloween when she got up Sunday morning.

I'm told that her home was one of the most cleverly decorated in town, and to go to that much work and have your fence knocked down does seem like a bit of an insult.

Oh, well, we can't all be leaders. And just as there are those who are prime examples of good citizenship, so are there those who don't attain that rank.

A glimpse at The Newsreel tells us that 29 years ago Sheriff Billy Mills said the kids were very well behaved on Halloween.

Moving of television equipment from the tower in town to the new tower at Circle Bar has caused some disruption in television programming. Everything isn't on all the time, and things aren't where they have always been on the channel selector, but this too shall pass. Just when we are not sure.

I was the first one to vote in my precinct Tuesday morning, and as in the past, I couldn't find my voter registration card. After signing three or four forms, I proceeded to the voting booth with a bedsheet-size ballot and unfolded my numbered list of for and against.

Crockett County voters favored Referendum No. 2 to legalize pari-mutuel wagering when they went to the polls Tuesday. Final count showed 327 for the measure and 249 voting against.

Childress, Sutton attend IMA meeting in London Oct. 29

The International Mohair Association held a special executive meeting in London, England on Oct. 29 and 30. Attending were product group chairmen from Japan, Spain, Holland, South Africa and many other countries.

Attending from Texas were Perry Bushong of Rocksprings, president of the Mohair Council of America; Jeff Sutton of Ozona, secretary-treasurer of the Mohair Council of America; Brian May of San Angelo, executive director of the Mohair Council of America; and Bob Childress of Ozona, president of the International Mohair Association.

"Although there is slight surplus of adult mohair in South Africa and some unsold yearling and kid hair in Texas, there is no need for immediate alarm," said Childress. "The market in velour and machine yarns and ladies' wear is very steady in Japan, West Germany and other user countries. The bulk of adult which was being used in hand knitting yarns is not being consumed as rapidly because of the more modern textured look which is not as bulky or brushed and does not use as much mohair. At Pitti Filati, Italy and Premier Vision, France, the two biggest yarn fairs and fashion trend shows in the world which were held in October, showed the 1988 winter trends using more mohair than in 1987, which included some brushed look coming back in 1988 and 1989.

"Our competition, alpaca, silk, cashmere and camel at this time are 3-8 times higher in price and encourages designers and spinners to use mohair, the only other natural luxury fiber.

"Many producers in the United States are concerned at this point with the 55 million pounds produced in the world being an over production.

"At this point, it was agreed, we are not over producing, but with very careful promotion through the Mohair Council of America and International Mohair Association, internationally, careful promotion has to be implemented as a safe guard. We do have expanding markets in new countries as well as expanding products and garments in Europe, United States of America and the Far East," Childress said.

Cross country teams regional bound

by T. C. Tucker

Defying state rankings, the Ozona cross country boys and girls' teams breezed by Eldorado at district to take first places and advance to regional competition.

The meet, held Oct. 26, pitted the third-ranked Ozona boys against number two Eldorado and the resulting finish may turn the rankings around now.

"I knew it would be us and Eldorado all the way to state," Coach Pete Maldonado said.

The Lions, led by first-place finisher, Danny Sanchez, ended the meet with 27 points, two below Eldorado (remember, the lowest score takes home the prize), and Stanton a way-behind third with 81 total points.

Following Sanchez were Luis Rico at fifth place, Jose Ramos at sixth, Jose Gutierrez placing seventh and Robby Tambunga rounding out the first five with an eighth-place finish.

John Sanchez and Ruben Borrego cruised to placed 10 and 13, respectively. All of the above personnel will make up the regional team.

The girls made the most surprising move of all, winning the meet and forcing Eldorado to a third place finish, only alternate to region when they were expected to win district.

Maria Sanchez beat out rival Julie Floyd of Iraan, crossing the finish line a good 30 meters ahead of Iraan's second place finisher.

"I'm real happy and excited both about winning and beating Julie," Sanchez said. "All the hard and extra work has paid off."

"The girls showed a lot of character and came through with a first place win," Coach Maldonado said. "We had been expected to place third while Eldorado was heavily favored."

Instead, Ozona won, having a total of 50 points while McCamey followed behind with 53. Eldorado missed out by eight points, tallying 61. Stanton and Iraan placed fourth and fifth, respectively.

Tricia Etheridge proved the only other top-ten entry for the girls as she placed tenth. Amy Graham came in at 14, Kimberlee Coy at 16 and Kriss Corley ended the race at 19.

"I was pleased overall, especially with the girls," Coach Maldonado said. "At regional we look to place a few individuals, but we're still stressing a team finish."

The top two teams in both girls and boys' divisions advance to the regional meet to be held Saturday, Nov. 7. Held in Lubbock, the girls begin at 8:20, and the boys follow at 9:40.

Last second field goal edges Lions past Rankin

by T. C. Tucker

In a game characterized by key punts, defense, and a tie score, Oscar Payne ended it classically: he kicked a 26 yard field goal with 36 seconds remaining in the game to give the Ozona Lions their second district victory of the season.

Besides their second quarter score to put them even with Rankin, the Lions came close enough to the end zone to attempt field goals; however, Payne's first try failed to get over Red Devil defenders while the second resembled a line drive and fell short.

Rankin initiated the game's scoring late in the opening quarter. By sending several ends wide almost every play, the Red Devils spread the Lions defense, allowing for ample running room.

On their second possession of the night, Rankin had three big plays with gains of 16, 13 and 20 yards to put them within three yards of scoring which they did on first and goal, taking a seven point lead after successfully kicking the extra point.

Kelton autograph party to benefit museum

Elmer Kelton of San Angelo will be in Ozona Nov. 9 for an autograph party featuring his latest book, The Man Who Rode Midnight. Sponsored by the Crockett County Museum and Historical Society, the event will be held at Ozona National Bank from 2 until 3:30 p.m.

Author of more than 25 novels, Kelton has won many awards including four Western Writers of America Spur Awards, the Border Regional Library Association's "Best Southwest Novel of the Year" for The Day the Cowboys Quit, the 1974 Western Heritage Wrangler Award for The Time It Never Rained, and the prestigious 1977 Saddleman Award for his distinguished body of work. In 1979 the Western Heritage Wrangler Award for the best novel of the year went to Mr. Kelton's The Good Old Boys, which was taken as a selection for the Reader's Digest Condensed Books, as was his book The Wolf and the Buffalo.

The well-known novelist was born on a Texas ranch and spent his formative years among cowboys and old-timers.

Proceeds from the sale of books will benefit Crockett County Museum.

Ozona's passing game still staggered as it had the week before and one rush play and two incomplete passes later, the Lions were punting the ball back to Rankin.

"Our passing game is off somewhat," Coach Don Payne said. "Due to having Ben Rios sick, we had to shuffle some people around and in doing so our pass-blocking lagged a little."

Throughout the night, again and again, the Lions' defense responded. An example arose when Ozona's punt coverage popped the ball loose from the returner and Armando "Sub" Fierro pounced on it.

On an earlier punt to Rankin, the same situation occurred but the Lions were charged with a penalty for not giving the returner enough room to field the ball.

Now, with 1:27 remaining in the first quarter, the Lions took over on Rankin's 40. Lalo Rodriguez, who led Ozona rushers with 53 yards, provided the ground game while quarterback, Chris Denman found Payne and Fierro to set up Harvey Dominguez's three yard touchdown run.

Payne connected with the ball extremely well on the extra point, sending the ball sailing out into the street and tying the score at seven apiece.

Little more took place than trading possessions and a few brief sparks. Rankin only crossed into Lion territory once more for the rest of the night and then only for a moment.

Following their score, the Lions held Rankin deep and sacked the punter on the ensuing punt attempt.

This gave the Lions only 10 yards to travel to score again, but all three of Denman's passes went incomplete and Payne tried his first field goal, which he missed.

Trading continued into the second half with both teams getting nowhere, then putting the other back in to their own end of the field.

The first break in the pace happened with 3:37 left in the third quarter as Sub Fierro's pressure caused Rankin's punter to boot one only six yards.

Two plays later, the Lions sat 11 yards away from the goal; however, Rodriguez had the ball knicked loose

Chandler pickup stolen

A pickup belonging to W. H. Chandler of Ozona was stolen Monday morning from the parking lot at Shot's No. 2.

The Sheriff's Department was notified and surrounding counties advised of the theft of the Ford.

A suspect was arrested in the vehicle at noon in Balmorea. The suspect and car were returned to Ozona where a $10,000 bond was set on the suspect.

The case will be referred to the Crockett County Grand Jury.

Officers issued two tickets for "minor in possession of alcohol" Halloween night.

In another incident on Oct. 31, deputies arrested four juveniles that were caught vandalizing cars at the high school. The suspects were painting band members' cars with shoe polish. The four juveniles were detained and finally turned over to their parents. Sheriff's deputies will make a full report to school authorities and the juvenile court.

A 40-year-old Ozona man surrendered to sheriff's deputies Oct. 27 to begin serving a three-day sentence for driving while intoxicated.

On Nov. 2, a 33-year-old Ozona man surrendered to sheriff's deputies to serve out a $140 fine for traffic tickets that he had been issued.

A 21-year-old Rockdale man was returned to Ozona from Pecos Nov. 2 on charges of unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.

Attending a special executive meeting of the International Mohair Association in London, England on Oct. 29 and 30 were: Jeff Sutton of Ozona, secretary/treasurer, Mohair Council of America; Perry Bushong, Mountain Home, president, Mohair Council of America; Brian May of San Angelo, executive director, Mohair Council of America; Bob Childress of Ozona, president, International Mohair Association of London and Tokyo; Authur Knight, executive director, International Mohair Association, London.

Check chimney before firing it up

One of the most important routine home inspections is also one that many Texas homeowners neglect—the chimney.

Wood-heating accounts for more fires, more fire deaths and greater property damage than any other kind of heating fuel, according to the Consumer Product Safety Commission.

Most wood heating fires involve ignition of creosote inside the chimney, points out Billy Reager, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System. (Creosote is a black tar-like substance that builds up inside the chimney in normal use). While most of these fires are contained within the chimney and cause no damage to the house, there is still much cause for concern since a potential hazard exists.

With the heating season approaching, the agent urges homeowners who have a wood-burning stove or fireplace to check the chimney for any damage that may have occurred in the past heating season. A chimney sweep or dealer can help with this effort. Have any damage repaired.

Most common causes of home fires involving chimneys are the following:

- Improper chimney installation too close to wood framing.
- Installation of thermal insulation too close to the chimney.
- Improperly passing the stove-pipe or chimney through a ceiling or wall, causing ignition of wood framing.

-Structural damage to the chimney caused by the ignition of creosote.

Structural damage to metal prefabricated chimneys can expose wood framing to excessive temperatures or can leak potentially toxic gases into the home's interior. Such damage can result from corrosion or rusting of the inner liners of metal chimneys or from buckling, separation of the seam or collapsing of the inner liner of metal chimneys.

Structural damage also occurs in masonry chimneys. This situation is often associated with chimney deterioration or improper installation. The tile inner liner and the surrounding brick or block structure may crack and separate, perhaps as a result of the ignition of creosote buildup in the chimney.

Tile liners should be installed in old chimneys that do not have a liner. Also, seal a clay liner with refractory cement.

A chimney should be checked frequently for creosote deposits, soot build-up and physical damage.

Crockett County Public Library

by Louise Ledoux

Researching the past

Crockett County Public Library has just received an outstanding new book about history and researching the past. This review comes from Texas Christian University Press. The book is titled, "The Search for Emma's Story, A Model for Humanities Detective Work" by Marian L. Martinello.

This imaginative and lovely book studies the life of a German-Texas farmwife near Fredricksburg in the first decades of the twentieth century and offers a clear model for those who would similarly reconstruct a life from the past. Four sign-post artifacts - a portrait, a wish list, a medicine bottle, and a Victorian-style house-lead to four chapters in Emma's story-her wedding, her school days, her days as a young bride, and her joy as a young mother moving into the house of her dreams. Charming photographs, both old and new, illustrate every aspect of Emma's story.

Marian L. Martinello, associate professor of education at the University of Texas at San Antonio, became fascinated by Emma when she used her story as a model to assist young students in studying history from primary sources.

Marinello details the questions she asked, the places she found answers, the clear steps of her research. A helpful guide for everyone from high school students to genealogists and historians.

Come check it out at the public library!

Genealogy seminar

★ Lions

The Lions began another drive early in the fourth quarter, only to have a pass intercepted for their second turnover of the night. They moved a little closer on their next possession but still came up 38 yards short.

Not until Fierro once again incited a fumble on the punt did the Lions really have a decent shot at scoring.

Ozona took possession on Rankin's 19, but a penalty pushed them back to the 29. Three plays later, Payne had another shot at the field goal, this time the clock adding a little more pressure as it ticked down to 1:41. This time the kick cleared the defenders but never gained enough altitude to go anywhere.

So Rankin took over with almost two minutes remaining and the score still tied at seven. Rankin held the cards and went for all the marbles.

"I knew they were probably going to go to the air," Coach Payne said. "And when that happens, there's always a chance of intercepting a pass."

Robby Tambunga did just that. For the second consecutive week, he intercepted a pass, his third of the season and his second to set up a Lion score.

Tambunga returned the interception five yards to Rankin's 35; the rest would have to depend on the offense.

Denman's first pass went incomplete, but his next three were right on target, edging the Lions 26 yards closer to the goal line.

Denman's next pass fell incomplete and Payne went out of the game to prepare for the possible field goal attempt. Denman passed again, and again was incomplete.

The field goal team set up. Payne hurriedly marked off his steps, the two previous attempts most likely reoccurring in his mind.

When it was all said and done, though, Oscar Payne kicked a near-perfect field goal, and the Lions went up by three, 10-7.

Kiddie Klub and Tinyville students at Ozona Community Center enjoyed Halloween parties Friday.

The game still lacked 30 seconds from being over, however. Rankin had no choice but to go to the air and the Lion secondary shut them down, Tambunga even came within inches of making another interception.

The game ended with the close score of 10-7 and the Lions had scraped past Rankin for the last home game of the season. "We had a lack of intensity usual to our other games," Coach Payne said. "We played just good enough to win."

The Lions' defense had a good night despite lacking a few key players and some just getting back into the swing of things.

Jeff Sanchez, Andy Stokes, and Robby Tambunga each had eight defensive plays while Jim Etheridge and Lalo Rodriguez had five apiece. Mark Fierro, suffering from a knee injury sustained several weeks ago, came through with four defensive plays despite the complications.

The Lions move on the Stanton this Friday for the last district game of the season; however, it might not be the last game of the season since Forsan fell to Eldorado last week.

The Lions must beat Stanton though to have any sort of chance and Stanton could prove to be a fairly tough battle.

"We won't change anything except try to play with more intensity," Coach Payne said.

The game begins at 8:00 p.m. at Stanton.

The world's most populous city is Shanghai, with about 11 million people.

Hospital sponsoring mobile breast cancer test unit

Ozona women who cannot or choose not to travel out of town to receive breast examinations have a mobile alternative. Crockett County Hospital is sponsoring a mammo-graphy clinic in Ozona from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 8. A mobile breast cancer detection unit from Odessa Women's and Children's Hospital will be located at Crockett County Hospital's parking lot for the convenience of women in Ozona. Appointments can be made by calling the clinic receptionist of Crockett County Hospital at 392-2671.

The mobile unit is "like a doctor's office on wheels" according to a spokesperson from the Regional Breast Care Center. "The bus includes a registration area, dressing room, x-ray room, darkroom and an area where self-examinations can be taught by a female technician."

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of every 10 women in the United States will develop breast cancer during her lifetime. More than 37,000 women die from breast cancer each year.

The Cancer Society says all women between the ages of 35 and 40 should have a mammogram. Women between 40 and 50 without symptoms should have a mammogram every one to two years. They also recommend that women over 50 years have an annual physical and annual mammogram.

The cost of the screening mammogram is $50, and payment can be made by cash, check, or credit card (Visa, Mastercard or American Express). The examination takes only about 15 minutes and is performed by a female technologist. Participants are requested to wear appropriate clothing to allow easy disrobing from the waist up.

After the examination, the films are interpreted by a radiologist. The results are then forwarded to the woman's physician. The physician provides the results of the study.

A spokesperson from Women's and Children's Hospital states, "The death rate from breast cancer could be drastically reduced if women would have mammograms done before a problem exists. A woman who is diagnosed with breast cancer when the cancer is the size of a grain of rice has a 90 to 97 percent survival rate. A woman who is not diagnosed until a lump can be felt has about a 50 percent survival rate in five years."

Personnel at Crockett County Hospital are encouraging local women to follow the example set by our First Lady, Nancy Reagan, in having a breast mammogram as a preventive measure to detect any potential suspicious growths.

Establishing rituals and traditions in families

One of the ways in which a family unit becomes strong is by the cultivating of family rituals or traditions. A ritual is any repeated, shared activity that is full of meaning and satisfying for all family members. Rituals have been described as "family keepsakes that live in your heart."

In many families, rituals develop or arise with the coming of children. Rituals are important not so much for what is said or done but the results they yield, the sense of "wholeness" that grows out of a shared experience and the feeling of rightness that comes from repetition.

Rituals differ from family to family. Commonly, rituals are thought of only around holidays or special days. However, rituals need not be limited to these occasions. Families that have strong ties have more frequent rituals—for example, a special meal on Sundays. These times are often described as "the way our family is."

Some people feel that today's busy life styles work against family rituals. But strong families maintain their rituals to provide the sense of continuity, understanding and love that strengthens family closeness. Set aside some time when the family is together and make a list of your rituals. Ask "what do we do that has special meaning to us?" "What do we do over and over again that makes each of us feel good?" "What do we do that is a special memory of our family?" How did the ritual start? Why is it important to the family?

K of C event works for scholarship

The Knights of Columbus held their annual fajita dinner sale Oct. 30 at the Civic Center. All proceeds from the event go toward the annual scholarship award. Several more fundraisers are planned by the Knights of Columbus before graduation.

The Knights thank all who purchased plates and the KC Ladies for all their help. Simon Hernandez reporting

Once the family is aware of the importance of rituals, it is easier to begin a new one or even consciously improve or continue an existing one.

Observing rituals can provide wonderful opportunities to build a rich family heritage.

In 1837, families living in the Republic of Texas had to grow their own grain and grind their own flour. They had to mix their homegrown ingredients to bake their own bread. Today, bread is baked in a computerized bakery, thin-sliced and plastic-bagged and delivered to the local grocery store.

This tribute to hard-working, early Texans, is to remind you that although the bakery can do your bread for you, no one else can do your family. The family is an indispensable part of personal growth and development. It should be encouraged, enlivened and enhanced. One way to strengthen your family is through planned "Family Time."

Most families today don't spend much uninterrupted time together. Families and family members must compete with ballgames, chores, television, meetings, school work....

Family Time is based on the idea that each family can benefit from spending time together. Family Time is spent in quality projects, events and happenings which deepen, enrich and bring joy to family life. Family Time is a planned event which occurs each week.

Family Time doesn't have to be an elaborate or costly event. For example, try a "how-to" night, where family members (especially children and teens) learn some useful new skill, like how to write a check or change a tire. A family service project, such as picking up litter in a park, or baking cookies and sending them to someone, is another type of family time activity, or you can play games, do puzzles or discuss a television program you have watched together. With some thought, your family can think of numerous activities or family time.

Be creative in planning Family Time and allow each family member to share in the planning. Remember, however, that what you do is less important than doing it together.

7th grade Cubs edge Eldorado 12-8

by T. C. Tucker

Down by seven after a quarter of play, the 7th grade Cubs responded with Leroy Martinez' 70 yard kick-off return for a touchdown, tough defensive play and a second midway through the fourth quarter to beat Eldorado 12-8.

The game, held last Thursday, started in the wrong direction on the opening kickoff. Eldorado's kick traveled only five yards and after the pile of players was uncovered, the Eagles had possession of the ball.

However, Eldorado failed to move any further than where they began at the Cubs' 49 yard line and set up to punt the ball to Ozona.

Joe Mendoza broke through the Eagle line and blocked the punt, giving the Cubs adequate field position. A penalty on the next play, though, sent the Cubs back to their own 34, too far for them to make any sort of movement and the Cubs punted back to Eldorado.

The Eagles sparked the first offensive fire as their quarterback and the rest of the backfield rushed for 52 yards in that single drive, setting up a 19 yard touchdown pass with 3:45 left in the second quarter.

The Cubs held on the two-point conversion attempt, but a penalty against Ozona allowed the Eagles to try again, and again. On their go, Eldorado scored the two points and went ahead 8-0.

Leroy Martinez, playing in his first game of the season, relieved a fellow player on the kickoff return and found himself holding the pigskin a few moments later.

Catching the ball at the Cubs' 30, Martinez headed up the middle, found only Eldorado persons there and slid to the left side and after avoiding several defenders, never looked back, accomplishing a 70 yard touchdown return.

The Cubs went for the two-point conversion for the tie, but Eldorado held them, leaving the score at 8-6 with the Eagles out in front.

On Eldorado's second play from scrimmage on their next possession, it appeared the Cubs had recovered a loose ball, which would have given Ozona great field position. But the game officials declared the ball dead and Eldorado retained possession.

For the next three minutes, Eldorado slowly drove downfield, reaching the Cubs' 39 with enough time on the clock to score.

Joe Hernandez and Joe Mendoza, who had 12 and five defensive plays on the night respectively, spurred the Cub stand, in fact dropping Eldorado for a ten yard loss on the last two plays of the possession.

Third quarter came and went as Eldorado failed to move out of their own end of the field as other defensive leaders, Manny Munoz, Jacob Lara, and Mike Kenison helped provide a stable defense.

On the other hand, the Cubs' offense took their first possession to Eldorado's 31 but the drive ended there.

Then Joe Hernandez entered the spotlight for four plays on the Cubs' next possession.

First, he returned the punt to Eldorado's 39. Then he rushed for 12 yards in two carries to place the Cubs' 27 yards away.

On the third play from scrimmage, quarterback Chad Upham pitched to Hernandez who, instead of running, faded back and hurled a pass to Andy Borrego who went untouched into the end zone, pushing the Cubs ahead.

The two-point conversion would have put the Cubs up by six, and in the case of Eldorado scoring again, the score would be tied unless the Eagles also added an extra point of some sort.

Which Eldorado came close to doing. Eating up the remaining three minutes of the game, the Eagles made it to the Cubs' 19 in 11 plays.

Once, an Eldorado runner had open field for a touchdown except Andy Borrego who pulled him down, and despite the 20 yard gain, stayed the touchdown.

Four plays later, the Cubs gained possession for the last time, ending the game with a 12-8 victory.

Hernandez led Ozona rushers with 48 of the total 54 yards rushing. Upham completed two of four passes for 22 yards but Hernandez' one pass to Borrego tacked on an additional 27 passing.

Other defensive players included Larry Sanchez, Alonzo Hernandez, and Keno Avila.

The Cubs return home for this Thursday's game, hosting Sonora, who earlier in the year beat the Cubs. The 7th grade game begins at 5:00 and the 8th will follow around 6:30.

How to assure good service from the Post Office

Customers rarely get the opportunity to add to the quality of service they receive. The Postal Service gives the following tips on how you can help them do a better job and give you the service you deserve.

To get the best service from your post office, be sure to address your mail correctly and legibly, use apartment numbers, use correct postage, and most importantly, USE ZIP CODES!

1. Mail early in the day for fastest delivery.
2. Keep all envelopes clean, with no unreadable information.
3. When you move, complete a change of address card available from the post office or your mail carrier.
4. When mailing oversized envelopes, be sure to mark them clearly if you are mailing them First-Class. Write "First-Class" on both the front and back of the envelopes so they will not be mistaken for Third-Class.
5. As an extra precaution, put your name and address on a slip of paper inside your packages, so that they can be returned if the address is illegible.

6. Use strong, reinforced tape on parcels, since string or twine can get caught in postal machinery.

7. It is not necessary to use wrapping paper on packages. On a clean box, mark out any confusing addresses and print the mailing address and return address in large clear letters.

8. If you are mailing a package that contains fragile or perishable items, do not hesitate to mark the parcel appropriately so that clerks know to handle it with extra care.

9. You don't have to use Registered Mail (minimum cost $3.55) when all you really want is a Certificate of Mailing (45 cents). Use Registered Mail to send irreplaceable items or items you want to insure beyond the $500 limit on regular insurance. Certified Mail will provide you with a record of delivery.

10. You can buy postage stamps and stamped envelopes through the mail by using a "Stamps by Mail Order Form" available at your post office or from your letter carrier.

11. You can buy 14-cent post cards at your post office, thereby paying only for the postage, and not the card.

12. Except for the purchase of money orders, the post office will accept personal checks for payment of postal services and products up to the amount of purchase.

13. And by the way, you can apply for a passport at about 950 postal facilities located nationwide. The passport is issued by Passport Services, U.S. Department of State. The passport fee may be paid in cash, check or money order.

From siding to main line

Among railroaders the "high iron" is paramount. That's the main line. That's where the action is. And every nerve in a railroad system is dedicated to keeping traffic moving swiftly and safely along the "high iron."

Yet sidings are important, too — for waiting... for coupling... for making up the trains that will roll on the "high iron."

There are lots of kids on sidings!

The Church depends on you — parents, leaders, citizens in this community — to bring them where the main line begins.

The future is limitless for that boy or girl who gains a vision of his or her destiny in life, and the spiritual stamina to achieve faithfully God-given potentials.

T.C.'s SPORTS Turf

by T. C. Tucker

"It's always nice to win." Ahhh, it sure is. Although many argue against Vince Lombardi's theory of "winning is the only thing", it proves a lot easier looking a win in the eye than a loss; besides, winning feels good.

The Ozona Lions may have just slipped by Rankin in last Friday's game, but they still won, and Coach Don Payne used the opening quote to capture the whole essence of the event.

The Lions lacked their usual fired-up tempo, even after scoring early in the second quarter to tie Rankin at seven-all. It seemed every time the Lions came within scoring range, the offense sputtered; Ozona's total offense yardage fell short of Rankin's rushing yards.

Already having proved themselves many times this year, the Lions' defense once again rose to the occasion and proved the key in Friday's victory over the Red Devils.

On punts to Rankin, Armando "Sub" Fierro caused three fumbles, recovering two of them. The first led to the Lions touchdown score while the second brought about a field goal attempt that ended short.

Later, with slightly over 30 seconds remaining in the game,

Oscar Payne would nail a 26 yard field goal to spark the 10-7 win.

However, a defensive play set up the score when Robby Tambunga intercepted his third pass of the year, stopping Rankin's drive and giving the Lions another last minute opportunity to score; which of course they did.

With the win, the Lions now rest at a 2-2 district record, at first not too impressive but consider last Friday's upset of Forsan from the hands of Eldorado. Suddenly, these two and the Lions have identical district standings.

If three IF's occur, then the Lions might end up in the playoffs:

1. The Lions win. Friday's opponent, Stanton, has the potential to win.

2. The Lions win on the road. The upcoming game takes place in Stanton and so far this year, the Lions have done their winning at home.

3. Rankin beats Forsan. There are variations and twists to this scheme in the case of ties and other district wins and/or losses, but the Lions only have control over the first two IF's.

Who knows? Their record may not be overly impressive, but it just might be good enough.

Cubs zap Eldorado Eagles 34-6

by Copie Davis

The Ozona 8th grade Cubs traveled to Eldorado Oct. 29 to do battle with the always competitive junior high Eagle squad. Thanks largely to Mario F. Mendoza's four touchdowns, the Cubs downed Eldorado 34-6.

Ozona drew first blood in the game as quarterback Adam Alba, who completed four out of eight passes for 45 yards, tossed a 29 yard touchdown strike with 4:42 remaining in the first quarter. The extra point was good, and Ozona led 7-0. From that point on, it was "The Girls' basketball saw their first action yesterday, traveling to Junction for a scrimmage. The girls next head to Sonora Tuesday, Nov. 10 for another scrimmage before playing the first game the following Tuesday; again, hitting the road.

Supposedly, the girls will not have the home advantage until the annual Ozona Tournament midway through December. Lots of late-night trips are in store for them.

Mario F. Mendoza Show". Mendoza, who gained 167 yards on 11 carries for an average of 15.2 yards a carry, scored Ozona's next four TD's in a row.

His first score came at the 7:27 mark of the second quarter on a 13 yard touchdown jaunt. The PAT was no good, and Ozona led 13-0. With 6:22 left in the half, Eldorado got on the board on a 41 yard touchdown. The point after was blocked, and the Cub's lead was cut to 13-6.

In the second half, Mendoza wasted no time at all in warming up. With a little more than three minutes left in the quarter, Mendoza took a handoff from Alba and sprinted nine yards for the TD. The PAT was no good, yet the Cubs' lead was upped to 19-6.

Although at the end of the third quarter the Cubs had a comfortable two touchdown lead, they still weren't satisfied. Once again, they turned to Mendoza to put points on the board. Sure enough, with 5:50 left to play, Mendoza trucked 30 yards for a score, then added the PAT to make it 26-6, Ozona.

Spook parade

Imagination knew no bounds when costumes were designed for the 1987 Halloween parade in Ozona. Ghosts and goblins, Zorro and gorgeous girls, fire-breathing dragons, terrible tigers and other assorted creatures gathered Saturday to stage the annual march around the square before carnival time.

Winners were: Debbie Glasscock as Aunt Jemimah, 13 and up; Megan Mitchell, peacock, 8-12; Justin Brown, gorilla, 5-7; Amanda Ramirez, Rainbow Brite, 2-4; and Jason Galvan, tiger, 2 and under.

Cutest couple recognition went to Ray and Britney Ramos for their Mickey and Minnie Mouse costumes. Ray is four-years-old and Britney 10-months.

Crockett County Care Center News

by JoAnne Marshall

Monday morning's craft class resembled an assembly line as residents and volunteers worked together to complete projects to be sold at the Arts and Crafts Guild Fair Nov. 14 at the 4-H barn. Residents participating were: Tomasa Ramos, Consuelo Sarabia, Lucia Rios, Moriama Perez and Doris Robnett. Volunteers lending a helping hand were: Vivian Hughes, Joann Williamson, Clara Byrd and Yolanda Avila.

The back yard Halloween carnival held Monday afternoon was a howling success. Residents and visiting children enjoyed trying their luck at such games as the skeleton shoot, bag a witch, balloon pop, putt-putt golf and jack-o-lantern ping-pong toss.

We would like to thank the ladies for decorating for this event, working at the booths, awarding prizes to winners and cleaning up afterward. They are: Josefina Dominguez, Olivia Castro, Noemi Gonzales, Faustina Tijerina, Racquel Zamaripa, Ann Maria Cervantes, Yolanda Avila and Irene Gonzales.

Tuesday morning's bingo winners were: Doris Robnett, Lucia Rios, Rebekah West, Lucy Mae Meinecke, Theo Burns and Moriama Perez. It was Moriama's lucky day. She won three times with one of the prizes being the first place prize of a Watson's gift certificate. Helpful volunteers were Georgia Kirby and Yolanda Avila.

Tuesday afternoon residents whipped up a batch of pumpkin bread during the bake day activity, using the meat that was removed from the jack-o-lantern pumpkin last Friday. The bread not only filled the halls with a tantalizing aroma for an hour and a half while it was baking, it tasted great when it was finished. Residents stirring in just the right ingredients were: Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Consuelo Sarabia, Doris Robnett, Nellie Harp, Moriama Perez and Virginia Hoover.

Tuesday evening residents were treated to a lively performance by the Bob Bell Band. Band members present were George Hester and Bob Bell with guest singers Jamie Knox, Charlie Beard from Big Lake and Bill Dane from Iraan. Guest guitarist Hal Sykes and pianist Diane Sykes from Iraan accompanied the band. The entertainment was fantastic.

Beth Stallings and Ruth Hester were Wednesday morning's ceramic workshop volunteers. Residents attending were: Tomasa Ramos, Juana Hernandez, Doris Robnett, Theo Burns, Hazel McDaniel, Moriama Perez, Ethel Youngblood and Consuelo Sarabia.

Clot poinsettias were constructed in Wednesday afternoon's craft class. We would like to thank Perry Brothers for donating some of the material used on this project. We appreciate their generosity. Residents being creative were: Doris Robnett, Moriama Perez, Consuelo Sarabia, Juana Hernandez and Ethel Youngblood. These flowers can be purchased at the upcoming arts and crafts fair.

Thursday morning's beauty shop volunteers were: Vivian Hughes, Clara Byrd, Joann Williamson, Lola Rios, Audrey Smith and Bobbie Light. Thank you, ladies, we appreciate your time and talents. Styling hair isn't the only talent Clara has. She shared another talent with us by playing the piano. A visitor, Miss Pinkie, from McCamey was persuaded to sing, and the residents loved it.

David McCarley of First Baptist Church presented this week's mid-week Bible study. Hymns were sung and a short visitation followed.

Fr. Alberto Tijerina conducted Mass during the Spanish Hour of Praise Thursday afternoon. After Mass, Heriberto Gutierrez played the guitar while visitors and residents sang hymns.

Friday morning's bingo winners were: Samuel Martinez, Virginia Hoover, Nellie Harp, Theo Burns, Manuelo Perez, Moriama Perez and Minnie Karr. Yolanda Avila and Lillian Tambunga were the helpful volunteers.

The annual Halloween party and costume contest were held Friday afternoon. Harry Blatchford, dressed as Rambo, was the winner. We would like to thank Vivian Hughes, Clara Byrd, Bobbie Light, Audrey Smith, Joann Williamson and Lola Rios for the party favors filled with candy. We would also like to thank Dorothy Doll and Glenda Henderson for their part in making this year's party a success.

Saturday morning residents were thrilled with a performance by Mary Angela Sedeno, age 10, from San Angelo, and Rosemary Flores, age 11, from Lubbock. The girls danced several Mexican and Spanish dances and had a beautiful costume for each number. The costumes were made by their mothers, Mary Frances Sedeno and Mary Jane Flores. A large number of visitors were present.

Saturday night residents handed out treats donated by T and T Village Supermarket to all the trick or treaters. They really enjoyed seeing the ghosts and goblins.

Sunday's worship service was presented by Ken Harrison of Ozona United Methodist Church. Communion was offered, and a short visitation followed.

A special thank you goes out to Donna Snyder's 4-H cooking class, Erika Kenison, Jennifer Totty and Gina Snyder, for the sliced fruit plate, and to Cathy Carson's 4-H cooking class, Haley Carson and Connie King, for the delicious cinnamon rolls. Thank you, girls, for thinking of us.

Cross country boys and girls' teams swept to first place and regional qualification last week. Team members and Coach Pete Maldonado will be in Lubbock Friday for regional competition.

Masonic Awareness

Last week's article and the following article were obtained from a book titled "The Texas Masons" published by Brazos Valley Masonic Library and Museum Assn. This week is about Bro. Mirabeau B. Lamar.

MIRABEAU B. LAMAR
Father of Education in Texas

Accomplished in horsemanship, fencing, painting and poetry, Mirabeau Buonaparte Lamar came to Texas and became one of its greatest political leaders. His inspired vision of what Texas could become lay the foundation for future greatness during some of its darkest years.

Born in Georgia on August 16, 1798, Lamar was educated at the academies at Milledgeville and Eatonton. He served as secretary to the Governor of Georgia from 1823 to 1826, and was elected state senator in 1829. Defeated in the elections of 1832 and 1834, he followed James Fannin to Texas to collect historical information. He became involved in the independence movement and, deciding to settle in Texas, hurried back to Georgia to settle his affairs.

Back in Texas, he was commissioned a colonel and commanded the cavalry at the Battle of San Jacinto. He was soon appointed Secretary of War and demanded the execution of General Santa Anna as a murderer and war criminal. In September 1836 he was elected Vice-President of the Republic of Texas, and in 1837 founded the Philosophical Society of Texas. In 1838 he was supported for President by the anti-Sam Houston faction. Both of his opponents' committed suicide before the election.

At Lamar's suggestion, the new capital city of Austin was built and occupied in 1839. His proposal to set aside public lands to finance public education earned him the title "Father of Education". As a lieutenant colonel during the Mexican War, he fought in the Battle of Monterrey. During the next ten years he traveled extensively and was U. S. Minister to Nicaragua and Costa Rica.

Shortly after returning to Texas he died at his plantation at Richmond on December 19, 1859, and was buried in the Masonic Cemetery. He was a member of Harmony Lodge No. 6 at Galveston.

Grace Galvan is the birthday girl at her house on Nov. 8.

JV slips past Eldorado 13-6

by Copie Davis

The Ozona J.V. Lions hosted the Eldorado Eagles Oct. 29 in a grudge match which would eventually decide who was the better team in the fourth quarter as Ozona scored twice in the final period to slip past the Eagles 13-6.

The Lions played a characteristic offensive game, relying heavily on freshman tailback Ruben Borrego who scored one touchdown and gained 141 yards on 23 carries. One uncharacteristic ploy by the Lions was quarterback Mingo Perez who scrambled, bootlegged and dodged his way past the Eldorado defense en route to 103 yards and one touchdown on only a mere five carries.

Eldorado took the ball on the opening kick-off, but could do nothing with it and punted to the Lions. In turn, Ozona ran three plays and punted the ball back to the Eagles, whereupon they decided it was time to play. After a 26 yard pass play that put Eldorado on the Ozona 21 yard line, tailback Emilio Brojas bulled over the Lion defense in four plays and finally scored on a seven yard rumble with 1:37 to play in the first quarter.

The second quarter proved to be a defensive struggle for both teams. Ozona began to drive early in the period, but a fumble by Borrego put a quick end to the offensive spurt. Eldorado then took over, only to have their attempt at a drive squelched when the Lions' defense allowed them only 22 yards on 10 second quarter plays.

The third quarter saw Ozona's defense smash Eldorado's offense and Ozona's offense began to flash. On Ozona's first play of the quarter, Perez ran for a 25 yard pickup, and on the Lions' second play, Borrego rambled 46 yards for a touchdown, only to have it called back on a clipping infraction.

On the other side of the ball, Eldorado's first five plays garnered them negative yardage. Although they did finally get back into positive digits, they could not put the ball in the end zone. Yet, neither could the Lions.

In the fourth quarter, the key to victory for Ozona was defense. In addition to the Sotero Fuentes fumble recovery in the third period, Ozona grabbed three more turnovers from Eldorado; two more fumbles, one by Fuentes and an interception by Danny De Hoyos.

With a solid defense to hold off the opposition, the Lion offense cut loose. At the 7:54 mark of the game, Borrego bulled over from the two yard line. He also added the point after, giving Ozona a 7-6 lead. A little more than three minutes later, with 4:11 left to play in the game, Perez called his own number and cruised 50 yards untouched down the left sideline for a touchdown. This time, the PAT was blocked, making the score 13-6, Ozona.

Eldorado regained the ball, and in a last gasp effort, heaved two long bombs deep into Ozona territory. The first was knocked down by De Hoyos. The second was intercepted. On the night, De Hoyos broke up five Eldorado passes as he enjoyed an impressive night in the secondary.

Defensively, Ozona was led by De Hoyos and Gilbert Rico, who had eight tackles. Following them were Jason Tumlinson with five tackles, Lonnie Martinez with five and Sotero Fuentes with two fumble recoveries.

Amanda Tambunga will celebrate her 18th birthday on Nov. 5.

Mary Bess Harris reports that husband Tommy is making a satisfactory recovery in Shannon Hospital following a heart attack last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Miller attended homecoming and a class reunion and other activities last weekend at Abilene Christian University. While there they visited their three grandchildren at A.C.U., Jarrott Robinson and Vanessa and Matthew Miller.

Belated birthday wishes go to Suzy King who was sweet 17 on Nov. 3.
