His and Hers

His

Have you ever wondered what all of those people do for a living in larger places like San Angelo, Lubbock, Dallas and other large metroplexes? After touring Lubbock over the weekend during a visit with our son, I was appalled at so many people all doing their own thing. At the time I couldn't quite comprehend how they could possibly find the financial means to support their new cars, brand new homes and gasoline to cruise around the hundred miles or so of highway loop around the city! But, Lubbock seems to be thriving. Everywhere you look there are new buildings, new shops, new homes and most of all hundreds and hundreds of fast food eating joints, and most of those were fairly busy.

How can there possibly be enough free cash floating around in everybody's pocket to keep the doors open on most of these establishments? Surely the university student population doesn't support the whole package themselves; we saw too many men and women in their thirtys with a handfull of kids saturating themselves on hamburgers, pizzas and fries.

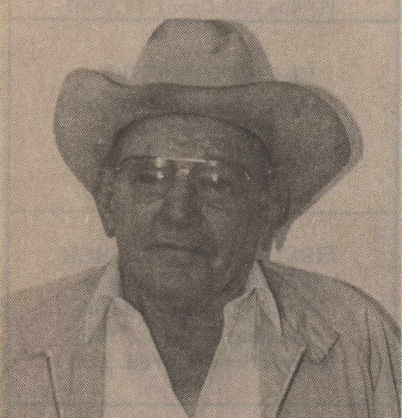

I think the answer to all of my questions is that they all trade at home. The money never leaves, but hangs around to be recirculated in one way or another. There are no larger places to run off to to buy their groceries or other items they find necessary. They even support their own daily newspaper, The Lubbock Avalanche Journal. The paper is cram full of ads from all walks of life and thousands of different business establishments. The banks and financial institutions all advertise to secure your trust in their ability to handle your money in the best way possible. Everything is advertised from new cars, boats, blue jeans, free kittens, motels, restaurants, hamburger and fries for only $1.50, and yes, even a few T.V. stations. They all support Lubbock in one way or another.

The money keeps circulating around. The employers have enough business to justify hiring employees and giving them a living wage. In turn the employees spend their paycheck, putting the money back into circulation, completing the cycle. You know, the funny thing about it is that Lubbock seems to be growing!

When you are in business for yourself, it's easier to understand why this cycle is a must for a thriving community, because your whole livelihood depends upon it.

I would like to close this sermon with a prayer. Please let's support our town and community. If we don't it will never grow, but remain stagnant and even possibly go downhill. (Maybe it already has.) The means justifies the end. Let's hope the end is a good one!

Williams announces for Constable

"I have announced for another term to the office of Constable for Crockett County," said incumbent Gene (Skineye) Williams. "With this term I have served 28 years as your Constable with a minimum of expense to the County.

"I was born and raised in Ozona and have lived here all my life, except four years in the U.S. Army.

"Due to the small population of Crockett County, I don't think we need a full paid Constable. If this meets with your approval, I would like to ask you for your vote," Williams said.

Florida couple says "No" to drugs

Walking across the Nation

Students at Ozona Junior High were visited last week by a Florida couple making their way on foot across the United States telling children why they shouldn't take drugs.

Randy and Peggy Polson began their trek from Citrus Springs to Los Angeles, CA Oct. 31 on a mission of education. The inspiration for the walk came after their six-year-old son was approached with the offer of drugs from a nine-year-old in his school.

The Polsons believe that children have to learn about drugs before they know why to say no to them. "This can best be accomplished by talking to them," Randy said.

After making arrangements for grandparents in Illinois to care for their two sons, Eason, age three, and Rhett, age six, they began their walk. The Polsons talk to civic organizations and anyone else who will listen, but their primary audience is in the elementary schools where they say drug and alcohol education is most needed.

Their route along I-10 with stops in all communities and side trips into larger near-by cities has inspired their theme of "The I-10 Commandments Why to Say No to Drugs".

Randy and Peggy walk 15 to 18 miles daily, taking turns walking and driving their van which is home on the road. "Occasionally someone will comp us a room in a motel," Peggy said, "and we have been told that perhaps it isn't safe to sleep in the roadside parks along the way, so now we are driving into the towns and parking the van there."

The first thing they do when entering a town is to go to the police department. "We are up front, we have nothing to hide, we don't want anything except the opportunity to speak to children and tell them why they shouldn't take drugs," Randy said.

"I don't have a PhD to show anyone and we don't relate a lot of gruesome stories, we just talk to the kids and listen to them. We are just normal parents who are concerned with the future not only of our own children but of all children.

"Everyone has a theory on curing drug addiction. We think there's an answer and that we can come up with a solution."

After reaching Los Angeles in late summer the Polsons plan to begin a petition carrying two million names to present to the Secretary of Education in Washington by 1991 or 92 making drug education a part of every school curriculum.

Much of the funding for the couple's expenses comes from Citrus Springs friends, but some of it is given along the way in small amounts by people who see the value in their mission. The Polsons fully believe in what they are doing and ask no one for help.

Randy and Peggy estimate that they have spoken to more than 4,000 young people along the way. They have received letters from more than 10 percent of the children they have spoken with. "We feel like they are listening, and the main message we leave with them is that we will listen. Communication-after all, isn't that what it's all about," said Randy.

Voter registration ends Feb. 5

Voter registration by personal appearance ends Friday, Feb. 5. Anyone who wishes to vote in the March Democratic Primary has until 5 p.m. Friday to register or report change of precinct at the office of Tax Assessor Tommy Stokes.

Mail-in applications must be post-marked no later than Feb. 7.

Environmental problem affects all

Local and worldwide environmental problems were discussed recently at a meeting of Ozona Woman's Forum. Gene Ingram of Richardson, Environmental Support Services, Inc., told her audience that waste amounting to one ton per person per year is created and must be disposed of. Hazardous waste amounts to 6.4 percent of the total.

Thousands of abandoned or inactive waste sites have been identified nationwide, many in environmentally sensitive areas.

Decontamination is a lot harder than expected, and cleanup of existing problems could cost 300 billion dollars over 50 years, Mrs. Ingram said.

"Can we economically afford to preserve our health?" is a question that may have to be addressed.

Estimates are that the U. S. Defense Department will have to spend 75 million more to clean up a site near Denver. Ten million has already been spent at the Rocky Mountain Arsenal outside Denver.

Cleanup is a monumental task with the Department of Energy looking at 600 sites that may contain toxic waste, some radio-active, that go back to World War II.

In addition to ground contamination, evaporating liquids can release toxic chemicals into the air, harming wildlife and plants and creating catastrophic climate changes.

In 1980, the Title III Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation Act was the first major response to the industrial waste problem. The Act (1) sets priorities for cleanup of the worst hazardous waste sites (2) makes responsible parties pay for cleanup wherever possible (3) establishes a 1.6 billion dollar hazardous waste fund called the super fund to provide an avenue to have cleanup at government expense.

Citizens must be protected and also must be prepared to deal with situations which might occur, Mrs. Ingram said. The Emergency Planning and Right to Know Act makes it a requirement for all communities to develop a program on how to respond to any incident that might happen in the area.

Possible explosions from petroleum facilities and transportation of hazardous materials on area highways were cited as the largest foreseeable problems for Ozona. Everyone should know how to act, not react, Mrs. Ingram said.

Businesses with hazardous chemicals must submit emergency and hazardous chemical inventory forms to their local planning committee, fire department and the State Emergency Response Commission. This information is open to the public.

Of close concern to many in Crockett and surrounding counties is the problem of dumping into rivers or along roadsides by trucks carrying petroleum products. Mrs. Ingram urged anyone witness to such activity to get as much information as possible on the vehicle and contact the Texas Water Commission or the Environmental Protection Agency Region 6 in Dallas. Sources of information do not have to provide their names, she said. Around the home or some business areas, lead leaking from batteries can leach into soil and groundwater, and children playing in the soil can be at risk. "State and federal laws prohibit that sort of thing," said the consultant. Seventeen percent of pre-school children have dangerous blood lead levels which affect mental abilities. Car batteries should be properly disposed of at a dump that is willing to take them.

Many household products result in hazardous waste. Consider pest strips, moth balls, antifreeze, rust removers, wood preservatives, metal polishes, deodorizers, degreasers, gasoline, bleach, drain cleaners, oven cleaners car waxes, nail polish removers and many more.

Indoor air pollution occurs from such things as asbestos, radon, cigarette smoke and formaldehydes.

"As responsible citizens, we must be aware and determine when we need to do something," Mrs. Ingram urged her listeners.

Gene Ingram holds a B. S. degree in science from Texas Tech University at Lubbock, a master's degree in science from the University of Texas at Austin and has done post graduate work at the University of Texas in Dallas.

She is currently managing environmental waste cleanups in Oklahoma and Utah estimated to cost 350 million dollars.

Gene is married to former Ozonan Don Ingram, son of Huey and Lu Ingram. The couple make their home in Richardson with their six-month-old son David.

Lions open second half with two victories

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Lions repeated last year's performance by winning the first half of district play outright. After doing so last year, the Lions then lost their next three games, and some had wondered about this year.

Despite these worries, the Lions have already picked up two more wins as of last week's beating of Iraan and Forsan and look down the road to a perfect district record.

"The guys are more intense," Coach John Curry said. "They remember last year and due to the experience, better understand how to handle it and not let the same thing happen again."

Tuesday, Jan. 26's game opened similar to the 101-51 pounding of Reagan County as the Lions scored almost every time down the court and stifled Iraan's momentum.

But by the quarter's end, another shot at the century mark had already been forgotten as the Lions led by only four, 23-19.

The difference in the game's outcome arrived in the second quarter when the Lions scored 16 points to Iraan's ten and took a 39-29 halftime lead.

In the third quarter, the Lions scored 20 points but Iraan followed right behind with 19 and an increasing momentum.

Within a matter of two minutes, the Lions went from 63-53 to 63-61. Ozona had to struggle to hold their lead as the final seconds ticked away, winning 70-64.

"That's one of those games where if it had been two minutes longer, we probably would not have won," Coach Curry said. "Iraan was getting better as the game progressed."

Leading scorers for the Lions included Will Seahorn with 22 points and Scott Denman with 19.

Denman also had ten of the Lions 26 rebounds. Seahorn and George Ybarra had eight and six assists respectively.

The Lions erupted in Friday's game as they stormed to a 21-4 first quarter lead and a 37-12 halftime lead.

"Our defense was very good," Curry said. "They (Forsan) just barely scored over ten points before halftime."

The second half proved fairly even as the Lions scored 26 points to Forsan's 25, but the damage had already been done as the Lions won 63-37.

Denman had 14 points and ten rebounds in this game. Seahorn and Oscar Galindo had 12 and seven points respectively while Mike Morrow pulled down six rebounds. Danny Sanchez and Lalo Rodriguez had five assists apiece.

The Lions next host Rankin on Friday, then travel to McCamey on Tuesday for their fourth and fifth games of the second half.

Coach Curry hopes to avoid a district playoff but points out that there are still four more games ahead.

"Those that still have a chance will be fighting for it, while those who are completely out could be loose and play above their heads on any particular night. I still figure it will be us and Stanton in the long run."

Hospital to have equipment auction

Crockett County Hospital will have an auction of used equipment on Saturday, Feb. 13. Proceeds from the auction will be put into a special fund used to upgrade hospital equipment.

This will be a silent auction, says assistant administrator Jacquie King. The hospital will be accepting mail-in bids through Friday, Feb. 12, and a list of items to be auctioned is available at the hospital.

Items range from lamps, chairs and desks to medical equipment. Viewing time will be at 11 a.m. Saturday in the back parking lot behind the hospital.

Bidding in person begins at 1 p.m.

Flu virus in Ozona

Ozona, along with other area West Texas towns, has been invaded by influenza. High fever, runny nose and coughing, generalized aching, and in some cases, abdominal cramping and diarrhea, characterize the illness.

The number of patients is beginning to decrease according to Dr. Robert M. Owensby. Few patients have suffered bad complications, Owensby said, and in Ozona, the intestinal symptoms have not been very prominent.

Simple home treatment is adequate unless fever gets too high, or pneumonia develops, said the doctor.

Younger people have not been affected as much from the illness.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN-Texas and the federal justice system -- it never seems to end these days.

The governor last week headed off a prison system crisis and the wrath of one federal judge, only to find the state faced with possible fines from another judge for violations of court-ordered mental hospital reform.

Governor Bill Clements, with Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby and Speaker Gib Lewis, used the new emergency provision to clear the way for construction of an additional prison which will keep Texas on schedule with prison reforms ordered by Judge William Wayne Justice.

But Judge Barefoot Sanders said his court also expects compliance from the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, which he said is understaffed.

Pro-reform advocates urged Sanders to levy huge fines against the state if the violations continue, and he issued a last warning statement.

Letter to the Editor

I was employed at Crockett County Hospital for 5 years. I knew of all the problems it had. Employees were laid off and this left one person doing several jobs. Many people thought that we were idle since we did not have many patients, but there was always paperwork; then along came clinic and hospital patients and not enough employees.

Everytime I mentioned to administration that the hospital needed new equipment such as an EKG machine or another cardiac monitor, I was told that "it could not be worked into the budget" and this equipment is not a luxury to a hospital large or small but a necessity. I'm glad that something is finally being done about getting the equipment and hiring more nurses now.

Right now I feel that Medicare for Crockett County Hospital is a dream in the future, but the goal is to work out something with Dr. Owensby since Ozona does need two 2 physicians. He is a fine person, a fine physician. He has been on call night after night and not many physicians would do this.

Other Highlights

The Republican Eleventh Commandment of speaking no ill of one another is shattered weekly, and the latest is an exchange between contenders for U.S. Senate.

After Amarillo Congressman Beau Boulter said he was the only qualified candidate, Houston's Milton Fox, a 14-year veteran of the Texas House, retorted that all Boulter has ever done is practice law and work in government, not business.

Texas has climbed to number four in the nation in the size of its electronics industry work force, behind California, New York and Massachusetts, in that order.

The Texas Capitol is a fire hazard and basic life-safety projects have been delayed in the present restoration, the State Preservation Board was told last week.

Recently-resigned Chief Justice John Hill joined the legal team representing the City of Austin against Houston Lighting & Power Co., the managing partner of the South Texas Nuclear Project.

Reports are that only a handful of applicants are seeking the job of commissioner for the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, an opening that was expected to draw scores.

The Texas Board of Health ignored protests of major drug companies and voted to require bids from suppliers of infant formula for a state nutritional program.

Social Security base increases for 1988

The annual earnings base - the maximum amount of earnings that counts for Social Security - will increase to $45,000 for 1988, up from $43,800 for 1987. In addition, the 1988 tax rate for employees and their employers will increase to 7.51 percent, up from the 1987 rate of 7.15 percent, Franklin H. Upp, Social Security manager in San Angelo, said recently.

The increase in the wage base is based on the change in average earnings levels from 1986 to 1987. The tax rate increase was already a part of the Social Security Law. The effective tax rate for self-employed people will rise from 12.3 percent to 13.02 percent for 1988.

The increase in the tax rate will amount to $7.20 a month for a person earning $2,000 a month.

Other Social Security figures are scheduled to increase in 1988 as well, Upp said. The annual exempt amount used in the annual earnings test will increase. The annual earnings test is the measure used to determine whether a person who works will receive benefits during the year.

The 1988 annual exempt amount for people 65 through 69 will be $8,400, up from the 1987 amount of $8,160. The 1988 exempt amount for people under 65 all of 1988 will be $6,120, up from the 1987 amount of $6,000.

A person whose earnings do not exceed the annual exempt amount will receive all benefits for the year. A person's benefit is reduced by $1 for each $2 of earnings above the exempt amount. The annual earnings test does not apply once a person reaches 70.

The amount of earnings needed to earn a quarter of coverage - the measure of Social Security work credit - will be $470 in 1988, up from $460 in 1987. In 1988, a worker will earn four quarters of coverage if his or her annual earnings are $1,880 or more.

More information about Social Security taxes and benefits can be obtained at the San Angelo Social Security Office located at 2214 Sherwood Way. The telephone number is 949-4608.

Scott recognized by professional assn.

Lane Scott, computer science teacher at Ozona High School, is the subject of a letter of commendation received by Principal Jim Payne. Written by Donna Milam Cooper, president of the Texas Computer Education Association, the message lauds Scott for his work with the association.

TCEA has 3000 members with memberships of students, classroom teachers, computer coordinators, administrators, college and university professors and commercial vendors. The organization supports educational computing instruction from pre-school through the university graduate level in both public and private settings.

"Because of our goals, it is necessary to find a 'Few Good Men and Women', which will give of their time and talents," said Cooper. "Lane Scott is such a person."

Scott serves the organization of public domain chairman. His responsibilities include much work and often little recognition, said Cooper. "Some of the activities include local area conference, student programming contest, teacher produced materials, teacher of the year contest, budgets for area meetings, conferences, state and local board meetings, organizational meetings representing their areas in position statements to, not only the Texas Education Agency, but national educational associations as well as technology developers.

"As president, I have had the privilege of working with TCEA elected positions and found Lane Scott to be outstanding!! Let me thank you, and congratulate you, and Ozona High School, for your support and the representation to Texas Computer Educators!" concluded Cooper.

Brad Harris buys laundry

by Susan Sheppard

If you've seen a familiar face at the laundromat on Ave. E, I'll bet it was a friendly one. Brad Harris, former Ozonan, has returned home to a new business in an old, familiar place.

Brad purchased the laundry from Fred Deaton on Jan. 1.

"I want to thank all of my former customers who made it such a worthwhile business," said Deaton, who has owned the business since 1982 when he purchased it from Bill Price who originally built the business eight years earlier.

A 1964 Ozona High School graduate, Harris attended Texas Christian University. He has lived on the West Coast and in Houston where he was employed as a social worker for the Texas Retardation Association for the past three years.

After a hectic move from Houston in icy weather, Brad is glad to be home. "I've had enough of the freeway life," he said. "The traffic here is refreshing."

With the help of his dad, Tommy, who opens the business at 8 a.m., the Harris Laundromat is open seven days a week.

Brad is on hand in the afternoons until 10 p.m. to help his customers in any way he can.

"Laughing At Time"

He's America's No. 1 family man, due in particular to an equally No. 1 television show, which, by the way, had syndication sales top one billion dollars and since he's entitled to one-third...gosh, he's rich.

He's also fifty. Bill Cosby has seemingly been know in practically every household for at least a decade. Adults may have been slow to recognize his talent in his I Spy and The Bill Cosby Show roles in the seventies but kids easily warmed up to his The Fat Albert Show and Jell-O commercials.

Now that his career has taken off with the enormously popular Cosby Show, he has explored the movie scene (Leonard Part Six), continued his nightclub acts at places such as the Hilton in Las Vegas for $250,000 a performance, and he has taken pen to paper and produced a best-selling book, Fatherhood, which set a hard-cover record of 2.6 million copies sold.

Of course that calls for a sequel. This time Cosby put forth another record-setter, a first printing of 1.75 million copies for his Time Flies.

Since October it has held the No. 1 spot (there's something about being Number One with Cosby) on the best-seller list, only recently falling to No. 2. Not bad for 150 pages of pen scribbles.

Expectedly, Cosby provides a humorous outlook on some aspect of life. This time it being the process of growing older: gaining weight; losing hair; gaining hair in unwanted places; losing the ability to hear, see and remember; etc.

The book opens with an introduction by Alvin F. Poussaint, M.D. He takes a serious look at growing older, providing the most informative part of the book with a logical explanation of why growing old is not so bad.

The book is broken up into six parts, and each of those is further processed into short anecdotes that very much sound like his tales he tells at live concerts.

In fact, much of the material Cosby, age 50, recites in Time Flies, appeared on the best selling videocassette, Bill Cosby: 49. On stage, Cosby is able to give these experiences life, something that surfaces infrequently in his book.

Occasionally, Cosby's writing style proves totally Cosbyish and produces a chuckle or even a hearty laugh. But a lot of the book's material reads more like filler than what is expected from No. 1.

In the end, the book seems to go nowhere at all, and Cosby turns the last part into more of a thank-you note than a conclusion to the previous selections.

However, perhaps that was Cosby's underlying intention: by providing a lighthearted reading, he could ease the burden of growing old for a few folks across America and the globe.

Further down the road Cosby will likely dish out another book on a new subject and set some more records, and learn a bit more of reaching the hearts of millions through putting the pen to the paper.

STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Ozona J.V. Lady Lions opened the second half of their district 6-AA season Jan. 26 by humiliating the Iraan Maidens in a game in which the score more closely resembled a football game. Relying heavily on guard Dottie Gonzalez, the Lady Lions won 43-14.

In the first quarter, the Lady Lions opened a seven point gap by taking a 13-6 lead. A foul shot by Iraan's leading scorer, Stone, was the Maidens' only offense in the second quarter as Ozona, tipped off nine more points. At the half, the Lady Lions held a comfortable 15 point lead.

The pace slackened a bit in the third quarter as Ozona managed seven points and held Iraan to two. With eight minutes of basketball to be played, the Lady Lions led by an impressive 27-9 margin.

In the fourth and final quarter, the Lady Lions pumped in 14 points while holding Iraan to five. This finally sealed the victory as Ozona took the game, 43-14.

Ozona's leading scorer was, unsurprisingly, Dottie Gonzalez with 11 points. Behind her was Tammy Arrott with 10 and Shannon Curry with six.

J.V. Boys remain undefeated

by Copie Davis
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Ozona J.V. Lions, hot off the heels of a 57-19 slam dunk of Iraan, took on the Forsan Buffalos Jan. 29, hoping to maintain their undefeated record in district 6-AA play. After weathering a cliff hanger of a first half, the Lions rebounded to take a 51-40 lead.

In the first quarter, the game's pace moved slowly. Ozona was able to outscore Forsan by a mere two points, hitting for eight points compared to the Buffalos' six. In the second period, things heated up. The Lions hammered out fourteen points, but Forsan kept right with them, hitting for 13 points. At the intermission, Ozona held a slim 22-19 lead.

The Lions matched their second quarter scoring output in the third quarter with 14 points and held Forsan to 12. By opening a five point cushion, Ozona could relax a little and play basketball. In the final quarter, the Lions reeled off 15 points while holding the Buffalos to nine. When the clock finally ran out, Ozona was on top 51-40.

Ozona's leading scorer was again Javier "Dr. X" Martinez. The good doctor made a housecall worth 18 big points. Bucking up Martinez was Pete Ramirez with 15.

Lions overpower Braves

by Copie Davis
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Ozona J.V. Lion basketball team traveled to Iraan Jan. 26 to play their first game of the second half of district 6-AA play. Just as they have in previous games in the first half, the Lions manhandled and mauled the overmatched Iraan Braves 57-19.

The game was really never a close contest. In the first quarter, the Lions jumped out to a 11-7 lead. The tempo picked up even more in the second quarter as Ozona's gun and run offense seemed to swamp the sluggish Iraan defense. The Lions pumped in 15 points while holding the Braves to only four. At the half, the Lions held a commanding 26-11 lead.

In the third quarter, Ozona upped the ante one more time by cranking out 17 points. On defense, the Lions held tough, once again holding Iraan to four points. Going into the final quarter, Ozona had all but iced the game with a 28 point lead.

The Lions put their game on cruise control in the fourth quarter. However, they still had enough momentum to score 12 more points and allow Iraan only four. The final score read Ozona 57, Iraan 19.

Ozona's leading scorer was Javier "Xavier" Martinez. Mr. X dazzled his way to 22 points on the night. He also dashed off a few assists, which paved the way to Pete Ramirez' 13 points and "Stereo" Fuentes' 12.

Cubs near end of season

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The 7th and 8th grade Cubs have but one game left to their season when they travel to Reagan County next Monday. In the past two weeks, they have not been idle as the teams faced Rankin and Sonora.

On Jan. 18 the 8th grade Cubs barely scooted past Rankin 23-22. After an even first quarter, the Cubs gained a one-point lead at halftime, then extended it to five points.

However, Rankin fought back, scoring nine points to the Cubs' five in the last quarter. It proved one point short though and the Cubs won 23-22.

Marcos Quiroz and Adam Alba had ten and eight points for the Cubs.

On Jan. 25 the same 8th grade crew headed to Sonora's turf and both teams came out firing.

Sonora grabbed a small lead in the opening quarter, but the Cubs roared back to a 19-18 halftime lead.

They scored 13 points in the third quarter along to take a 32-24 lead going into the fourth quarter. Sonora refused to give-up and this time the Cubs proved unfortunate in stifling the opposing team's momentum long enough to win. Sonora came out two points ahead, 44-42.

Adrian Vargas led Cub scorers with 14 points. Mark Ramirez followed with ten, Quiroz eight and Alba seven.

The 7th grade took two teams to Sonora and came away with a loss and...a tie?

The "A" team faltered in their quest for victory, falling before Sonora, 19-32.

Joe Hernandez had 11 points for the Cubs. Joe Mendoza had three. Eric Sanchez and Andy Borrego provided two apiece and Mathew Marshall had one to round out Ozona scoring.

The "B" team fared somewhat better as they finished their allotted quarter of playing time tied with Sonora 14-14.

Alex Borrego, Jacob Lara and Raul Rico each had four points while Alonzo Hernandez had two.

The Cubs travel to Reagan County Feb. 8 for their final games of the season.

The groundhog didn't see her shadow in Ozona Tuesday. Rebekah Harrison donned her costume to visit Mrs. Cotton's second grade.

Lady Lions near season's end

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Lady Lions have only two more games before this year's basketball season ends as the second half of district play is completed. So far, the second half has resembled the first in that the Lady Lions have been on the losing end time and time again.

On Tuesday, Jan. 26, the Lady Lions hosted a tough district girls' team Iraan and from start to finish they discovered why they were good.

Although Iraan led 8-2 in the first quarter, the Lady Lions were still in the ball game. However, as the second quarter progressed, Ozona found it hard to put the ball in the basket while Iraan continued out in front.

The Lady Lions sparked in the third quarter, outscoring Iraan 16-8 and pulled within three. This lasted only a few minutes though as Iraan refueled and sealed their victory, 39-29.

Lydia Pena and Sharon McCrohan each had nine points for the Lady Lions. Pena also had 14 rebounds as McCrohan had four assists.

Quarter by quarter, the Lady Lions stayed right with Forsan last Friday. But quarter by quarter, Forsan's one or two point edge eventually amounted to an 11-point win, 51-40.

Polly Villarreal and Stacy Lay had four points each in the opening quarter to keep the Lady Lions close while Pena's three free shots did the job in the second quarter. Forsan led 24-17 at halftime. Despite consistent shooting, the Lady Lions could not make any move on the lead and watched the game slip from their grasp.

Working inside, Pena had 13 points and nine rebounds. McCrohan had five assists, most of those to

7th Grade Cubs place second in tourney

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

Paced by Joe Hernandez and Eric Sanchez' scoring the 7th grade Cubs earned the second-place trophy at the McCamey Basketball Tournament held Jan. 21 and 23.

Together, Hernandez and Sanchez had 55 of the 'Cubs' total 70 points for the tourney. Ozona beat McCamey and Iraan to advance to the finals against Reagan County where they were defeated but still gained second place.

Hernandez had 12 points and Sanchez added six in the Cubs' first game of the event against McCamey 26-22.

Joe Mendoza had four points for Ozona.

The Cubs took to the court with Iraan on the second day of the tourney and came out with a victory resembling their McCamey match-up.

Despite the close score, the Cubs controlled the game most of the way, gradually building a slim lead, but nonetheless a lead, winning 27-23.

Sanchez put 14 points through the hoop for the Cubs while Hernandez contributed eight.

In the third and championship game, the Cubs found themselves taking orders as they fell behind Reagan County and never found any momentum for themselves, 17-31.

Sanchez again led Cub scoring, having 11 points. Hernandez added four and Terry House dished in two.

The 7th grade Cubs now one trophy richer, play their last game Feb. 8 at Reagan County with a chance for a pay-back. The game will begin at 5:00 p.m.

8th Grade Cubettes drop two at tourney

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

After losing to Sonora the previous Monday, the 8th grade Cubettes headed for Reagan County's tournament held last Thursday and Saturday and drew Sonora for their first-round game.

A quarter of play passed and things appeared slightly better than their prior match-up with the Cubettes down by only one.

However, in the second quarter, the Cubettes went dry and produced only two points while Sonora blasted out 12, taking a ten-point halftime lead.

The two teams played evenly in the third quarter but the Cubettes needed more than that to catch Sonora, but they would never gain any sort of momentum and lost, 18-31.

haley Carson and Ami Sewell scored four points each of Ozona.

The Cubettes' situation failed to improve in their second game of the tournament when they faced Eldorado.

The Cubettes managed five points in the first quarter as Eldorado had nine.

The following quarter came and went without the Cubettes producing any points where as Eldorado added six to their side of the scoreboard.

The Cubettes sparked briefly in the third quarter when Carson hit three baskets, Terrie Willmon two and Patricia Hartnett one to pace Ozona to a 12-8 outscoring of Eldorado.

Whatever momentum created in the third quarter died in the fourth as Eldorado held the Cubettes to only one point while they scored eight, winning 31-18.

Carson led Cubette scorers with nine points. Willmon and Hartnett added four apiece.

The Cubettes end their season at home against Reagan County on Feb. 8 with junior high games beginning at 5:00 p.m.

U.I.L. district changes

by T.C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The University Interscholastic League released its biennial realignments for athletic districts last week, and Ozona came out with little change in its district.

The results of the shuffling based on daily membership for grades 9-12 were made public on Wednesday, Jan. 27, to the usual cheers and grunts.

Ozona was one of 215 schools in AA classification due to a student attendance of 145 to 299 persons.

Ozona also remained in district 6-2A and will see almost the same faces the next two years in football, basketball and spring activities.

For football, district 6-2A will still have Ozona, Reagan County, Eldorado and Forsan.

Stanton was moved from district 6-2A to 5-2A where Iraan, McCamey, Marfa, Presidio and Van Horn reside. Rankin moved down from AA to A classification.

Added to Ozona's district were Wall and Winters. Ozona has met Wall on previous occasions, but Winters has usually stayed clear of this area.

Both Winters and Stanton are appealing their assignments.

Reagan County, Eldorado, Forsan, McCamey, Ozona and Stanton make up the district for basketball in the coming year.

Iraan was pulled and added to 5-2A where they will have Marfa, Presidio and Van Horn to contend with. As mentioned, due to their enrollment figures, Rankin dropped from AA to A.

J.V. Girls fall to Forsan

by Copie Davis
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Ozona J.V. Lady Lions took on the Forsan Lady Buffs Jan. 29, trying to hold on to the momentum they gained by scalping Iraan 43-14 on Tuesday. However, Forsan had other ideas and came out on top 42-31.

In the first quarter, Forsan jumped out to a 12-6 lead. Ozona rejuvenated enough in the second quarter to hit for 15 points while the Lady Buffs again scored 12. At the half, Forsan held a three point, 24-21 lead.

Ozona cut their deficit to one point by rolling out eight points and holding Forsan to six during the third period.

The Lady Lions got cold fast. Only two foul shots by Dottie Gonzalez and Stacie Winkley were Ozona's offense as Forsan outscored the Lady Lions by 10, 12-2.

The final score was Forsan 51, Ozona 42. The Lady Lions' leading scorer was Dottie Gonzalez who hit for nine points. Following her was Tammy Arrott with eight and Shannon Curry with seven.

Valentine's decorations were made in Monday morning's craft class. Residents putting their talents together were: Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Consuelo Sarabia, Doris Robnett, Moriama Perez, and Eva Dean. Volunteer Doris Karr shared some interesting ideas.

A game of ring toss followed a short wheelchair exercise routine Monday afternoon. Residents participating were: Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Lucia Rios, Louise Johnigan, Consuelo Sarabia, Elzy Bishop, Eva Dean, Srida Seene, Moriama Perez, Virginia Hoover, Edna Wallace and Doris Robnett.

Volunteers for Tuesday morning's bingo were: Sophie Kyle, Georgia Kirby and Mattie Cooper. Prize winners were: Alice Ross, Lucia Rios, Emma Taylor, Maudie Couch, Rebekah West and Lucy May Meinecke.

Muriel Gillit encouraged residents to sing-along while she played the piano Tuesday afternoon. Several requests were made, and Muriel played them with ease.

Volunteer Ruth Hester was kept mighty busy during Wednesday morning's ceramic workshop. A large number of residents attended the workshop, and she had helpful hints for them all. Residents attending were: Tomasa Ramos, Juana Hernandez, Consuelo Sarabia, Doris Robnett, Ethel Youngblood, Theo Burns, Hazel McDaniel, Maudie Couch and Alice Ross. Alice helped others by drying their ceramics between glaze coatings.

It was good to see Charles Huffman again Wednesday afternoon. We have missed his bi-weekly Bible lessons and friendly smile. The way Ruby Olson played the piano, no one would know it had been a month and a half since she played for us, and everyone was anxious to join in and sing hymns.

Thursday morning's beauty shop volunteers were: Vivian Hughes, Clara Byrd, Bobbie Light, Lola Rios and Audrey Smith. Thank you, ladies, you did a splendid job. Clara entertained residents with lots of ragtime piano music immediately following the beauty shop.

Thursday afternoon, Jim Gray of First Baptist Church conducted the mid-week Bible study. His lesson was uplifting, and the singing led by David McCarley was beautiful. Jerri McCarley played the piano.

Friday morning's bingo prize winners were: Juana Hernandez, Ramos, Srida Seene, Maudie Couch and Consuelo Sarabia. Juana and Maudie won two games each. Helpful volunteers were: Betty Moak, Yolanda Avila and Mattie Cooper. Popcorn was served and everyone had a good time.

Angie Marshall portrayed Vanna White Friday afternoon wearing a tea-length white lace skirt and a satin blouse adorned with sequins and silver beads along the neckline. Theo Burns was really on her toes; she solved all three puzzles, and walked away with an armload of prizes.

Sunday's worship service was conducted by Jim Gray of First Baptist Church. A short visitation followed.

Residents were delighted with a visit from the boys and girls of the Church of Christ who brought their pets and toys to share. Their visit really gave the residents a lift in spirits.

We would like to thank all the volunteers and visitors who helped make this week an enjoyable one. You are greatly appreciated.

Worth 98¢ Plus

An insurance agent is an interesting person. He will sell only so much insurance for your auto or house or business. But he will sell all the life insurance you can afford for yourself, your spouse, and all members of your family.

Now, he's a business man. He knows that an auto or house is worth only so much, and its worth can be calculated almost to the dollar.

But not so with the human being! No calculation can determine the worth of a person. No price is too great; no sacrifice too severe for one individual life.

Someone calculated years ago that "the human body contains:

- enough lime to white wash a chicken coop;
- enough fat to make two bars of soap;
- enough potassium to set off a toy cannon;
- enough sulfur to rid a dog of fleas;
- enough iron to make a twelve penny nail;
- enough phosphorous to tip a box of matches;
- enough gases to fill a few jars,
- and the rest is water.

Total worth at pre-inflation prices: 98 cents"

But we, along with the insurance agent, know better. We are created in God's image. Dust, yes, but dust that's been in Divine Hands.

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son . . ." (John 3:16)

From the County Agent's desk . . .
by Billy Reager County Extension Agent

Winter months historically are the worst for home fires, primarily because of faulty heating systems, says Billy Reager, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Reager suggests regular maintenance and following these tips to assure safe operation of your heating system:

- Check out all heating equipment--furnace, fireplace, stoves, portable heaters. Perform recommended servicing and repairs as appropriate to avoid unnecessary fire risk, excessive energy consumption and breakdown.
- Check flues and chimney. They must be clean and provide unobstructed exit of smoke and combustion gases.

If you burn wood, the chimney may need cleaning more often to avoid creosote build-up. Check all pipes and connections for leaks.

If you use a wood-burning stove, make sure it is installed according to directions supplied with the stove or from your fire department.

Provide adequate ventilation if you use an LP-gas, kerosene or oil-burning portable heater. In a "tight" room, oxygen depletion and accumulated products could be a hazard. Use only high quality fuel.

Set portable heaters away from combustibles and out of traffic ways so they won't be bumped or tipped over.

Use only heavy-duty extension cords with electric heaters.

Your Energy Dollars Could Be Going Up In Smoke!

Fireplaces are built to draw. Even when there's no fire, this massive column is drawing air from inside your home — air you have paid to heat.

Closing the damper in your fireplace when it's not in use keeps winter heat from escaping up your chimney. This reduces the natural draft created by warm air inside the house as it rises. It also prevents any down drafts.

A glass fireplace cover can also help save you energy and money by decreasing the amount of inside air going up the chimney. When selecting glass door covers check for the following:
air tightness, glass thickness (3/16" to 1/4"), frame strength, frame insulation and be sure they are heat tempered.
