His and Hers

By Scotty and Linda Moore

His

The Energy Chairman has given us a few wise words. I wish congress and the administration would listen to him. It would probably solve a lot of our economy problems!

"After listening to President Reagan's State of the Union speech, I was astonished that the President did not even mention energy in his address," said House Energy Chairman, Clint Hackney in Washington.

Hackney was in Washington to attend a meeting of the South/West Energy Council. The veteran Houston Lawmaker serves on the Executive Committee of that body of legislators from eight energy producing states.

"During our meetings, we heard Energy Secretary Herrington call for changing tax structures to provide incentives for oil and gas exploration and production. Yet the President does not even mention energy in his speech. Obviously, we cannot wait on this administration to close the window of vulnerability that is open due to a lack of national energy policy," commented Chairman Hackney.

"It is an undisputable fact that this country is dependent on foreign oil to run our transportation systems, keep our factories and schools open, and to heat and light our homes. That this country imports over 40% of its oil is a national tragedy that is only going to get worse," said Hackney.

"Last year we sent $10 billion dollars more than in 1986 to foreign economies to buy their oil. Think of it... $10 billion dollars more than we spent for imported oil in 1986. That is money that would have put Texans back to work and eased the strain on our struggling economy. Instead, the money went overseas to shiekdoms and in some cases even to our enemies. It's time to end this insane policy," said Hackney.

"As we are preparing to elect a new President and Congress, it is time to hammer out a national energy policy so these leaders will have something to work with when they take office next year. Accordingly, I agree with and applaud Senator Lloyd Bentsen's initiative of a bi-partisan energy summit to be held in the next few months. I also agree with Senator Bentsen that this energy summit should be held in Texas, the leading energy producing state in the country. The Bentsen Energy Summit could lay the groundwork for a national energy policy that will close this window of vulnerability once and for all," concluded Hackney.

Hospital in contract with Dr. Owensby

Hospital board members and Dr. R. M. Owensby came to a meeting of the minds during a one hour executive session Feb. 4 at a regular meeting of the board.

An agreement was finalized, and by Monday of this week, the document had been signed.

Wording of the agreement follows.

The Crockett County Hospital hereby agrees to pay Dr. Robert Owensby the sum of $5,000.00 per month to serve as Staff Physician for the hospital. This agreement may be cancelled by either party upon the giving of thirty (30) days written notice. This contract is effective March 1, 1988; ending December 31, 1988.

This agreement includes

1. Taking 50% of the calls (weekends and calls during the week other than 9-5) and all money during the calls goes to the hospital including patients admitted when on call.
2. Pay own malpractice.
3. Take all patients who need to be seen while on call.
4. Doctors cover for each other 6 weeks/yr. (Should be no need to bring in another doctor).
5. Physician is not an employee of the hospital.
6. Any revenue from care center patients while on call after 5:00 p.m. or on weekends goes to the hospital.
7. Coverage of Saturday morning clinics while on call with revenue going to the hospital.

The agreement was signed by Jo Davidson, Betty Perry, Raymond Borrego and Dr. Owensby.

Cost to Crockett County for outside medical coverage during 1987 was in the neighborhood of $129,000 according to assistant administrator Jacque King.

In other business Feb. 4, board members heard four proposals for an ambulance storage building. The board recommended that John L. Henderson of the E.M.S. and Bill Boswell, hospital administrator, take the proposals to the Commissioners Court with recommendations as to size and facilities.

Boswell reported that conversion of eight beds from the hospital to the Care Center should cost in the neighborhood of $40,000. The revenue from the added beds should pay for the conversion within a year, Boswell said.

The insurance investigator asked to look into a possible suit for sitter fees for Mrs. Ola Mills, suggested the county go ahead and settle the claim, Boswell said. Judge A. O. Fields concurred with this opinion, and the board voted to ask County Attorney Tom Cameron to proceed with settlement of the case.

Mr. Boswell handed out sheets with estimates for laundry equipment, supplies, and labor. Price quotes were not current, and he asked for additional time to bring current quotes before the board considered the matter further.

Mrs. King reported the hospital equipment auction has been postponed to February 13. She distributed a list of the items to board members. Mail-in bids will be accepted through Feb. 12. Items may be inspected at 11 a.m. Saturday morning with bidding to start at 1 p.m.

January revenues for Crockett County Hospital were $26,286.80 with cash deposits of $35,152.52 and disbursements of $80,462.78. There were 250 emergency room visits, 182 of which were clinic calls. 235 patients were released, nine transferred, four admitted and two deceased. There were 230 laboratory procedures, 69 x-rays. Ambulance runs totaled 16, with seven local runs and nine transfers. There were 60 inpatient days with an average daily census of 1.9. Care Center revenues were $47,822.64, with deposits of $46,100.16 and disbursements of $62,969.09. After discussion, bills were approved by the board.

Boswell submitted a year-end budget report on the hospital. Under cash accounting, the hospital was about $900 over budget. The ambulance service completed the year $1,819.00 under budget.

New pagers are needed for the ambulance service. If the Sheriff's Office will allow use of the department's frequency, at least one new pager should be a receiver that allows voice communication between the ambulance and the physician, should the physician on call be at home rather than in the hospital.

The board voted to dispense with the Price-Waterhouse mini-audit this year provided that the hospital audit, the county audit and the outside CPA audit are in balance and without question upon completion.

The board also voted to transfer rent payment for Bill Boswell directly to his salary check with Mr. Boswell being responsible for rent.

- Other items reported included:
- B&D information received on $65,000 x-ray machine
  - Hospital board room expected to be ready for March meeting
  - State still intends to pursue argument on hospital district legislation
  - Information produced on $18,000 heart monitoring equipment needed immediately
  - Alternate butane supply for emergency generator installed
  - Care Center rates increased $1.34 per bed per day as approved by Medicaid for vendor patients
  - Texas Licensing Law requires an assistant hospital administrator. Mrs. King commended on knowledge of overall hospital operation and handling of her position during past few years
  - Boswell completed nursing home internship and upon completion of testing in March, will be qualified as a nursing home administrator

A TWO CAR ACCIDENT was investigated by the DPS and Sheriff's Dept., Friday afternoon, Feb. 5, at the intersection of Ave. H and 3rd St. A four door sedan driven by Brenda Newton of Ozona was in collision with a white Buick 4 door sedan driven by Mrs. Harold Thompson. No injuries were reported. A detailed report from the DPS was not available at press time.

Commissioners tackle unplanned expenditures in regular meeting

Commissioners met unplanned expenditures head-on Monday, granting several requests and asking for bids on others.

A request for approximately $2,000 in improvements for Judge Brock Jones' office and reception area was approved. Judge Jones asked for carpet to improve heating and noise control and for book shelves. The need for a larger desk capable of accommodating the computer was mentioned for next year's budget.

Commissioners voted to amend Jones' budget by the amount of state reimbursement for telephone bills and postage amounting to more than $4,000 to cover the cost of the requested improvements.

Road Superintendent Eddie Moore presented information on a backhoe needed by his department. Don Willemin of Holt Company in Uvalde was present to talk to the court about the Caterpillar models available through his firm. Commissioners decided to advertise for bids.

Moore also spoke to the court about problems caused by pipelines being buried under county maintained roads. Above ground lines parallel to roads are also creating difficulty in blading the areas.

A discussion on requirements for pipelines ended with commissioners agreeing that each crossing case is different based on the road at that point. On a motion by Chuy Castro seconded by Jerry Hill, commissioners voted that pipeline permit requests must first be filed with the Road Department, a copy provided for the County Court to be filed in the court records.

John L. Henderson, representing the E.M.S., presented a proposal to construct a pre-fab metal building to be used for ambulance storage. The request for a 50'x40' heated building was presented to the hospital board last week and approved to be presented to the court. Actual construction would be done by county employees or E.M.S. volunteers, Henderson said.

Proposed location for the metal building is west of Dr. Owensby's office.

Commissioners voted to pursue the matter by advertising for building materials and doors.

Discussion of the appropriateness of a metal building at the location led the court to question the possibility of enclosing the area where ambulances are now parked. A need for more planning was expressed.

Commissioners Castro, Sostenes

Woman's league sponsors candidate forum

Ozona Woman's League is sponsoring a candidate forum for all local candidates Feb. 22 at 7 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

The event is open to the public and the community is encouraged to attend.

Each candidate will be given an opportunity to speak to the group.

DeHoyos and Hill voted to buy five .22 target rifles with adjustable stocks and sights for use by the smaller children in the 4-H riflery program. The program serves 100 or more youngsters each year, said County Agent Billy Reagor in making his request. Ammunition for the program is provided by Department of Civilian Military.

Reagor also asked the court to pay $650 for cedar shavings purchased for use at the 4-H livestock show last month. Hill, DeHoyos and Castro voted to pay the bill.

During a report by Jerry Hill on the Helping Hands Meals on Wheels program, Hill said 431 meals were served in January averaging 84 cents per day.

In January commodities were distributed to 137 families representing 399 people. There were 38 new sign ups last week.

Grand jury returns eight indictments

The grand jury returned eight indictments when it met Feb. 4.

The jury convened at 10 a.m. and dismissed at 9:45 p.m.

Indicted were: Jesus Manuel Fernandez, unauthorized use of a motor vehicle; Vince R. Ureigas of Uvalde, burglary of a vehicle; Lee Duane Deyoung of Venice, FL, credit card abuse; Adalberto DeHoyos of Big Lake, possession of a controlled substance, cocaine; Mario Flores, of Ozona, aggravated assault; Rudy Cortez Enriquez of Ozona, driving while intoxicated, felony; Russell Coldren Ernst of Boerne, possession of marijuana less than 50 pounds but at least five pounds; Jose Hernandez of Ozona, driving while intoxicated, felony.

An indictment means that the grand jury believes there is enough evidence for someone to be tried on a charge.

Commissioners reviewed voting precinct maps as requested by the Texas Legislative Council. One voting place location was corrected.

Shelton Oil and Gas received the fuel bid for the year. Other firms bidding were House Fuel and Sonora/Ozona Oil.

Judge A. O. Fields instructed County Clerk Debbi Puckett to place a letter in the court records from Sheriff Billy Mills requesting county communication equipment be relocated to Henderson tower.

Commissioners voted unanimously

School board filing to open Feb. 22

Candidates for school board may begin filing Feb. 22 at the office of county judge. Filing ends March 23 at 5 p.m. for the May 7 election.

The terms of Gary Buck Mitchell and Van Miller expire, leaving two trustees to be elected for three-year terms.

Following the filing deadline, there will be a drawing for positions on the ballot and ballots will be printed.

The election will be held at the courthouse from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m. on Saturday, May 7.

Hospital to auction old equipment

Crockett County Hospital's used equipment auction will begin at 1 p.m. Feb. 13. Viewing time starts at 11 a.m. in the back parking lot behind the hospital.

The hospital will be accepting mail-in bids through Feb. 12. Bids may also be brought to the hospital in person through Friday, said Mrs. Jacque King, assistant administrator. Anyone with questions about the auction is asked to contact Mrs. King.

Proceeds from the auction will be used to upgrade hospital equipment.

Rhea, new Texas Ranger

Crockett County's new Texas Ranger, Danny V. Rhea, comes from San Angelo where he has been a part of the State Criminal Intelligence Service for 1 1/2 years.

The former DPS Trooper was stationed in Snyder for five years as a license and weight patrolman and also in Odessa. He entered the DPS in 1976 and was also stationed in Cross Plains and Denton with the department.

Rhea is a four year veteran of the U.S. Navy and holds a degree from Stephen F. Austin in Nacogdoches.

A Ranger's duty is to assist local law enforcement in investigations, and Rhea will work a five county area including Crockett, Irion, Reagan, Sutton and Schleicher.

"I'm happy to be in Ozona," said Ranger Rhea. His wife Sue, a Kerrville native, their son Devin, 16, and daughter Carissa, 15, will join him here at the end of March during spring break.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

There still seems to be some confusion concerning Dr. Sims' relationship with Crockett County Hospital. Some people still believe that the hospital is just going to hand Dr. Sims a check for $8500.00 each month. That is not accurate. The hospital is only guaranteeing Dr. Sims a total of $8500.00 a month.

Dr. Sims will be conducting a clinic just like most other physicians who are in private practice. He will be charging all of his clinic patients his normal fee for whatever service he performs, just like any other physician. For those of you who have been to our Wednesday or weekend clinics, you already know how the system works. The only change will be that Dr. Sims will be here instead of an out-of-town physician. Dr. Sims will be holding clinic 40 hours per week beginning Monday, February 29, 1988.

The hospital is going to allow Dr. Sims to conduct his clinic out of the hospital building; the hospital is going to act as Dr. Sims' billing agent (send out his bills, receive his payments, and keep his books). By doing this, the hospital will know if Dr. Sims earned less than $8500.00 or more than his guarantee. By law, the hospital cannot keep the fees that Dr. Sims earns from his clinic patients. That revenue must be given to Dr. Sims. It is his money; he earned it.

Remember, the hospital has collected and deposited in Dr. Sims' account all of the revenue that he has earned during the month. If Dr. Sims only earns $7000.00 in one month, the hospital will give him the $7000.00 he earned plus a check from the hospital for $1,500.00. The expense to the hospital, in the above situation, was not $8500.00. It was only $1500.00.

Dr. Sims is not an employee of the hospital. Again, that is against the law. He is a private practitioner who has been given permission by the hospital to use the hospital facilities in his medical practice. He will expect patient payment at the time of service, just like all other physicians who are in private practice.

This contract is only for two (2) years. At the end of the contract period, Dr. Sims will move his office out of the hospital and continue his private practice here in Ozona without a guarantee from the hospital.

Let me say again, Dr. Sims is not an employee of the hospital. Dr. Sims is a physician who has a private practice but uses the hospital as his clinic. The hospital is not paying him a salary. The hospital is only guaranteeing Dr. Sims a level of income until he builds up his practice and can survive on his own. Dr. Sims will expect payment at the time of service and will participate in the Medicare/Medicaid programs. He is not obligated to admit anyone to Crockett County Hospital. He will build a referral base or refer you to your chosen specialist when the need arises. If you prefer, and we can accommodate you, he will admit you to Crockett County Hospital.

Sincerely,
Bill Boswell

VICE PRESIDENT BUSH, AFTER THE DAN RATHER EPISODE, PEOPLE STILL SAY YOU HAVEN'T COME CLEAN ... WHAT'S YOUR RESPONSE?

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—The slate of presidential candidates continue to pound the Texas campaign trail, and the media blitzes are due to begin here this week.

At the Capitol, the Senate leadership scrambled to fill the apparent loss to academia of Wichita Falls Sen. Ray Farabee.

Farabee's wife, Helen, said she will stand to replace him in the special election, if he resigns as expected to become vice chancellor and general counsel to The University of Texas.

Outside Capitol doors, Land Commissioner Garry Mauro unveiled his state vehicle converted to run on natural gas and urged other agencies to cut fuel costs.

Mauro pointed to two gas canisters in the bed of a General Land Office pickup, and said one unit of compressed gas equals nine gallons of gasoline, runs 40 percent cheaper and burns cleaner. If one-tenth of state vehicles were converted, government agencies could save a half-million dollars in fuel costs, Mauro said.

Mattox Backs Welfare

At a Washington committee hearing, Attorney General Jim Mattox named new welfare programs he thinks should be adopted, including birth control classes, enforced child support and job training for single parents.

Mattox said his number one recommendation would be to require the state to collect child support payments.

He also ripped Texas legislators for seizing $13 million of federal bonuses and money earned for welfare programs and using it to cover the state's general debts.

Mattox said Texas could have qualified for a higher amount of federal matching funds if that money had been left in welfare.

Supercollider Unity

Also in Washington, Gov. Bill Clements and Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby put party differences aside to urge the Texas congressional delegation to win the supercollider for Texas.

The pair took some Texas city officials with them to lobby for locating the huge atom smasher here.

The timetable calls for the Department of Energy to choose one of the seven finalist states in July and for President Reagan to make a final decision before 1988 ends.

Lenders Recovery Plan

While in the nation's capitol, Texas officials also learned federal regulators will spend up to $7 billion to clean up the troubled Texas savings and loan industry.

The recovery plan will close, merge or sell 143 firms and reduce the total number of S&Ls from 281 to about 150, probably by the end of next year.

Some 104 S&Ls are already insolvent, and the federal plan is designed to accelerate the shrinkage process currently under way.

Parole Review Begins

Still plagued by overcrowded prisons, the Board of Pardons and Paroles ran out of short-term, non-violent inmates to release and is taking a second look at more hardened criminals.

The board is reviewing nearly 4,000 prisoners denied paroles last year, as well as considering other measures such as electronic monitoring of risky parolees.

The prison system must admit 150 inmates a day while the board must release an equal number to comply with court-ordered levels.

Court Reporter Fired

A state district judge fired the court reporter who testified against him in the controversial case of death row inmate Clarence Bradley, sentenced for raping and killing a Conroe High School girl eight years ago.

The reporter testified at a follow-up hearing in Galveston last year that Judge John Martin had told her to keep her mouth shut about circumstances surrounding the disappearance of evidence.

Bradley's appeal has been aided by civil rights groups.

Other Highlights

- Hobby stumped the Templeto-Abilene district to help Sen. Grant Jones, who faces tough opposition from former state Rep. Temple Dickson, a Sweetwater Republican. Hobby also held a fundraiser at his Houston home to raise $30,000 for Jones' campaign.
- The State Board of Insurance approved a 3.9 percent average hike for auto coverage, effective May 1.
- The Texas Department of Corrections is being sued by nine black current and former employees who charge prison policies are discriminatory. The class-action suit seeks back pay, benefits and unspecified damages.
- In a head-to-head campaign with Pat Robertson in Iowa, Vice President George Bush referred to evangelicals as "cockroaches," which niffed Robertson to no end.

- A Bush aide elaborated later: "In Iowa, evangelicals are so prolific, they come out of the basements...an apt illustration for anyone who has lived in Texas."

Castaneda Artist of the Month

The Crockett County Library is proud to announce Lorenzo Castaneda as their artist of the month. Castaneda, a resident of San Angelo, has exhibited his Western art in Ozona before. Those who attend the Crockett County Arts and Crafts Guild fair have had the opportunity to appreciate and purchase his works for the last three years.

Castaneda began his art training at the age of eight at his public school and continued art classes in school until graduation. He then studied through the Famous Artists School of West Port, Connecticut. The prestigious correspondence school, now defunct, has many famous names accompanying it including Norman Rockwell as one of its founders.

Castaneda's fine training is apparent in the lifelike quality of his scenes. Typically, he uses real life scenes in history as his inspiration. You can feel the dust in the air as you see the history in his characters' faces.

Now painting fulltime, Castaneda exhibits his art in shows across the state, including San Antonio, Houston and Austin. With such a busy schedule, Lorenzo can only exhibit his paintings in Ozona for two weeks, so don't delay in coming in to enjoy his Western pleasure.

Geneology subject of study club program

The Pandale Study Club met Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m., February 6, 1988, at the Pandale Community Center Building.

Hostesses for the afternoon meeting were Opal Everett and Myrtle Malone. Thirteen members answered roll call: Lou Deaton, Ginger Perner, Bonnie Womack, Sue Arledge, Martha Gries, Opal Everett, Susan Mills, Sara Hargraves, Louise Rowland, Barbara Malone and Josephine Mills. Members-at-large attending the meeting were Judy Norsworthy of Del Rio and Lara Sue Baggett of Ozona. Guests present were Belle Borth of Austin, Elizabeth Gries of Pandale, Leana Sue Baggett of Ozona and Cindy and Ginger Mills of Pandale.

President Sue Arledge called the meeting to order. Scholarship to be given in May to a 1988 graduate was discussed and the membership voted to name the scholarship in memory of Lela Bunger for 1988. Lela was a long time member of the Pandale Study Club and passed away in July of 1987.

Committee reports were heard and in new business Lara Sue Baggett brought to the attention of the membership the needs of the Community Center in Ozona which support Kiddie Club and Tinyville. The Club decided to make a donation to the Community Center in the amount of $200.

Martha Gries requested clippings, pictures, etc. for the years 1981, 1983 and 1984 to complete the scrapbooks.

The meeting was adjourned and program chairman Susan Mills introduced her sister-in-law Belle Borth to bring the program entitled "Skeletons in the Closet". Belle has been an amateur geneologist for the past fifteen years and her enthusiasm carried over to all present.

She began her program by asking

"Do you know who you are? She encouraged everyone to know their descendants who make us what we are and pass the information on to our children. We owe it to them."

The first ingredient to become a geneologist would be to develop an interest in searching for your ancestors, otherwise, don't bother. "It is infectious, takes time and money and bores your friends to tears, but it is a lot of fun", lightly quips the speaker. Start with charting your own family. Talk to your relatives, ask every question you can think of and then write down all your data. County libraries, censuses, county court-houses, and cemeteries are good sources of information. Mormon Library in Utah is excellent source. Double check everything because records can be incorrect. Keep your sense of humor, be stubborn and keep at it, and it will keep you enthralled for a lifetime. Belle closed with telling the members about two very good books to start you out, Finding Your Roots and The Handy Book for Geneologists.

NEW TEMPORARY HOURS
Mon. - Fri. 9-12, 1-6
Mon. and Thurs. nights 6-9

February is the month to celebrate love and romance. Believe it or not, a good place to start is at the public library.

The library is full of romantic stories of love in the fiction room. Everyone can find their favorite - Danielle Steel, Barbara Cartland, Judith Krantz, or maybe the pure love of the West by Zane Grey or Louis L'Amour.

If your tastes lean more to non-fiction, come check out a selection by Billy Graham, Robert Schuller, or Helen Steiner Rice. The library has the complete works of Shakespeare, love sonnets by Pablo Neruda, and beautiful love poems by Emily Dickenson.

Love and romance are everywhere you look. Check out the February issue of Texas Monthly magazine called "Deep in the Hearts of Texas: A Celebration of the Ties that Bind". It contains a section for lovers, articles on family, stories about friends, and a special on the Texas community. In between are wonderful items on time-honored Texas rituals. It's a wonderful celebration of love. Don't miss it. Visit the public library today!

Forum meets in Dudley home

The Ozona Woman's Forum met Feb. 2, 1988 in the Dudley home with hostesses, Elizabeth Dudley, Lu Ingram, Modene Whitaker and Totsy Hagelstein.

Alleane Jones, president, presided over the business meeting. Madye Jo Humphrey led the group in prayer and the program continued with the pledge to the American Flag.

Ruth Class meets at Emerald House

The Ruth Class of First Baptist Church held its business and social meeting at Emerald House on the evening of Feb. 2 with Mrs. Audrey Glynn, Mrs. Mattie Cooper, Mrs. Joe Moak and Mrs. Letha Loudamy serving as hostesses. The Valentine theme was carried out with the table decorations and accessories.

As refreshments were being prepared, Mrs. Pleas Childress entertained the group by playing hymns on her "Fun Machine".

During the business meeting the class was reminded of the upcoming Senior Banquet to be held in March and asked for volunteers to serve in various categories in preparation for the event. It was also noted that volunteers are needed to deliver Meals on Wheels.

Mrs. Childress reported that W.M.U. is being re-organized and urged the ladies to attend. Meetings will be each Wednesday morning from 9:30 until 11 except the third Wednesday, which will be a luncheon served in the activities' building for the participation of the working ladies. Other meetings will be held in homes.

When the president, Mrs. Glynn, asked for prayer requests, Mrs. Joe Moak asked that Larry and Beth Wester be remembered. They are missionaries presently serving in Antigua, Guatemala as lay preachers and teachers. After a six months stay there, they will be home for a short stay and then posted in Escondido, Mexico. Larry is the son of Mrs. Nell Wester.

The group was reminded to keep

Terry and Patti Racher in their prayers, and Patti has asked for pen pals for her college age students. She also has a need for homemaking text books. This couple is stationed in Taiwan.

After all prayer requests were heard and voiced, the devotional was brought by Mrs. Jewell Bailey. Her topic was Christian love and Christian giving based on a moving and challenging book she reviewed, A Better World Begins With Me by Becky Burros.

Members present were: Mmes. Audrey Glynn, Joe Bean, Joe Moak, Mattie Cooper, Jim Gray, Marcus Tooke, Jewell Bailey, Huey Ingram, Marge Smith, Oscar Kost, Bob Falkner, Lonnie Dorris, Royce Hightower and Pleas Childress.

Ozona Garden Club plans Spring pilgrimage to Big Bend

Mrs. Graves suggested the club plant a tree in memory of Mr. O. D. West. After discussion, it was decided the tree will be planted on the grounds of Crockett County Public Library as an Arbor Day project and a memorial to Mr. West.

Schedules for the flower show were passed to members. The club has planned a home flower show with the theme "Flower Cade". Members were assigned areas for designs. ## Lions lose first district game

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Ozona Lions saw more than Stanton's shadow on Feb. 2; they also saw their dust as the Lions lost their first district game of the year.

Stanton proved up and ready for the game as they soared out to a 15-0 lead; however, the Lions rallied to pull within ten by the opening quarter's end.

In the second quarter, the Lions out scored Stanton 20-13 and were only down by three at halftime, 36-39.

The second half went all to Stanton, though, as the Lions only amassed 25 additional points the next two quarters while Stanton stirred up 41 to win 80-61.

"They were doing everything better than us," Coach John Curry said. "They hit their shots and got too far ahead."

"We made several good runs that would have wilted most teams, but Stanton held on."

Despite the loss, Scott Denman still tallied 18 points, 13 rebounds, three assists and steals each. Will Seahorn had 13 points and three assists. Mike Morrow scored ten points while George Ybarra had three assists.

The Lions make up a postponed game with Rankin this Thursday, then head for Reagan County on Friday. On the following Tuesday, the Lions close out the season at home against Eldorado. All games begin approximately at 8:00 p.m.

Ozona Junior High School students performed well during the U.I.L. practice meet held in Del Rio last week.

Photographed [l-r]: Jennifer Evans, second in 6th grade Oral Reading; Heather Hill, a finalist in 6th grade Oral Reading; Mindy Coates, fourth in 6th grade Oral Reading; Valerie Perez, fourth in 8th grade Oral Reading; Crista Chalmers, second in 6th grade Ready Writing; Whitney

Vannoy, second in 7th grade Oral Reading; Jennifer Lee, fifth in 7th grade Oral Reading; C'Jay McKinney, first in 7th grade Oral Reading and Impromptu Speaking; Martha Mayfield, sixth in 8th grade Oral Reading.

Not photographed were: Myra Wilson, second in 8th grade Oral Reading and Erika Kenison who placed in 8th grade Spelling.

Well, it happened. The Stanton Buffaloes remembered their loss to the Lions earlier this year and returned the favor on Feb. 2. Forget the groundhog, the Buffaloes were charged up for this matchup.

"It was just one of those nights," senior Mike Morrow commented. "We couldn't hit anything offensively, and they had everything going for them."

Coach John Curry's hopes for a clean sweep of district went up in smoke when the Lions lost 61-80, making for their first loss in the second half of district play.

The Lions have already clinched a playoff berth due to a 7-0 record for the first half of district.

The last time the two teams met, the Lions controlled the game's tempo and won 48-40. This time Stanton turned the tables.

The Buffaloes jumped out to a 15-0 lead before Ozona scored. The Lions fought back to a 36-39 halftime but failed to generate any considerable rally in the second half.

A deja vu situation already looks in the works since the Lions won the first half out-right last year, then Stanton claimed the second half to set up a district playoff.

If the Buffaloes take the second half this year, then the playoff game will again decide the district champion and runner-up.

The Lions could still avoid the playoff if they win their remaining games and Stanton were to lose a game.

"All we can do now is concentrate on our remaining games," Coach Curry said. "And hope."

Cubettes split with Iraan

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

As the season's end neared, the Cubettes hosted Iraan for their next to the last game on Feb. 1. The 7th grade came away with a nine-point victory while the 8th fell 11-32.

The 7th grade Cubettes' Myra Sanchez and Julie Childress had the entire bulk of Ozona's scoring with 16 and five points respectively. Twelve of those came in the first half when Iraan produced only three.

In the third quarter, the Cubettes pretty much put the icing on the cake as they grabbed a ten point lead while continuing to contain Iraan to under ten points. Where the 7th grade easily handled their opponent, the 8th grade Cubettes never found a hole as they lost soundly 11-32.

The second and third quarters did the most damage to the Cubettes. After a quarter of play they were down only 2-6, but Iraan racked up 24 points in the next two quarters while the Cubettes struggled to secure five.

In the final period, the Cubettes even out-scored Iraan 4-2 but this amounted to little in the end.

Haley Carson and Patricia Hartnett had the majority of the Cubettes scoring with four points each. Valerie Perez had two and Susan Pullen one.

Lady Lions fall to Stanton

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

Eliminate the first and last quarters and it would have been a closer ball game.

Such was the case in the Lady Lions' latest contest when they met Stanton at Stanton on Feb. 2. Stanton out scored the Lady Lions ten points each in the first and fourth quarters.

After the opening quarter, the Lady Lions found themselves down 15-5. In the following quarter, ozona scored eight points to Stanton's ten which still left the lady Lions a good ways behind.

"We put up more shots than they did," Coach Lyna Coleman said. "But their's fell in and ours didn't."

The Lady Lions played evenly in the third quarter but they needed more than even to cut Stanton's lead.

However, any hopes of a last quarter rally faded when Stanton collected 18 points to Ozona's eight.

"Offensively and defensively, we played better than they did," Coach Coleman said. When it came to shots in, though, Stanton held the upper hand, winning 50-27.

Stacy Lay had 14 points and 18 rebounds for the Lady Lions. Polly Villarreal scored six points and had four each assists and steals. Kristina Martinez had seven rebounds.

Due to the weather conditions last Friday, the games against Rankin were postponed until this Thursday as the Lady Lions finish out the season on their own court at 6:30 p.m.

Cubs lose overtime battle

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The 8th grade Cubs over came a second quarter deficit to eventually send the game with Iraan into overtime, only to lose by two in the end, 38-40.

The Cubs took a 3-2 first quarter lead in Feb. 1's game at Iraan. Iraan, though, stormed back in the second quarter to take a considerable 20-11 halftime lead. The Cubs scored 15 points to Iraan's four in the third quarter to re-take the lead at 26-24.

Iraan refused to go under as they tied the game at the fourth quarter's end, 34-34.

In overtime, the Cubs scored four points but Iraan had six, enough to win by two 40-38.

Mark Ramirez led Ozona scorers with 16 points. Marcos Quiroz and Adam Alba followed with eight and five points each.

Cubs win one, lose one at tourney

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The 8th grade Cubs faced three tough teams in the Reagan County Tournament held Jan. 29 and 31, and were only able to scrape one victory out of the three games.

The Cubs played Stanton for their opening game. A few minutes into the first quarter, the Cubs fell behind and failed to ever hold the lead.

Stanton extended a first quarter seven-point lead into nine by halftime. The Cubs fought back in the third quarter but Stanton coolly reacted and lead comfortably 29-21 going into the fourth quarter.

The teams traded buckets in the last quarter until the buzzer as Stanton won 42-31.

Mark Ramirez led Ozona scorers with 14 points while Adrain Vargas and Adam Alba followed with nine and six points respectively.

Matters looked better in the first quarter of the Cubs' second game where they led Rankin 6-0. However, Rankin rallied in the second period and stripped the Cubs of their lead, 11-10.

In the third quarter, the Cubs were able to add only two points to their score while Rankin added four.

The turn-about came in the last quarter as the Cubs exploded with 13 points, edging Rankin 25-23.

Vargas and Ramirez had nine and four points for the Cugbs.

In the consolation game of the tournament with Sonora, the Cubs held minute leads through three quarters of play before succumbing to Sonora in the final quarter, 34-40.

The Cubs led 13-12 after the opening quarter, then 21-18 at halftime.

In the third quarter, the lead fell back to one point at 27-26. From there, Sonora would score 14 additional points while holding the Cubs to seven.

Ramirez had 14 points in the Cubs' final game. Alba scored 11 and Vargas followed with seven.

4-H leadership - Strength for the future

4-H is designed to foster leadership, to help give direction to the lives of young boys and girls. The 4-H leadership program takes that charge a step further.

4-H'ers in the leadership program learn to develop their personal skills and talents so as to lay the groundwork for the future, points out Billy Reagor, county 4-H program coordinator with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

In the 4-H leadership program, youth learn to:

- Identify and understand roles, attitudes, tasks and functions necessary for effective leadership.
- Seek guidance in leadership development, which will provide opportunities to develop self-confidence.
- Strengthen local 4-H units by becoming involved in leadership responsibilities and encouraging other youth to do so.
- Actively participate in program planning, development and implementation, and help recruit new members and leaders.

The 4-H leadership program is supported by Reader's Digest, which provides numerous awards to top individuals. These include medals of honor, an expense-paid trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago each fall to one member per state, and nine $1,000 scholarships and two silver trays at the national level.

For additional details about the 4-H leadership program as well as other phases of 4-H, contact the county Extension office, says Reagor.

★ Post Office

average half-day each week with customer access to post office boxes, vending equipment and will-call service for packages continuing. Full service will continue at designated area facilities. Mail deliveries will not be affected.

"The retail window adjustments are part of a nationwide effort to reduce operating costs, and are necessary to comply with the deficit-reduction legislation passed in December," Hokit says.

Hours of operation will remain the same except on Wednesday when the retail operation will close at 12:30 p.m.

Postmaster Hokit says customers will continue to have usual access to post office boxes and urges customers to use vending equipment located in the lobby to purchase stamps and other products.

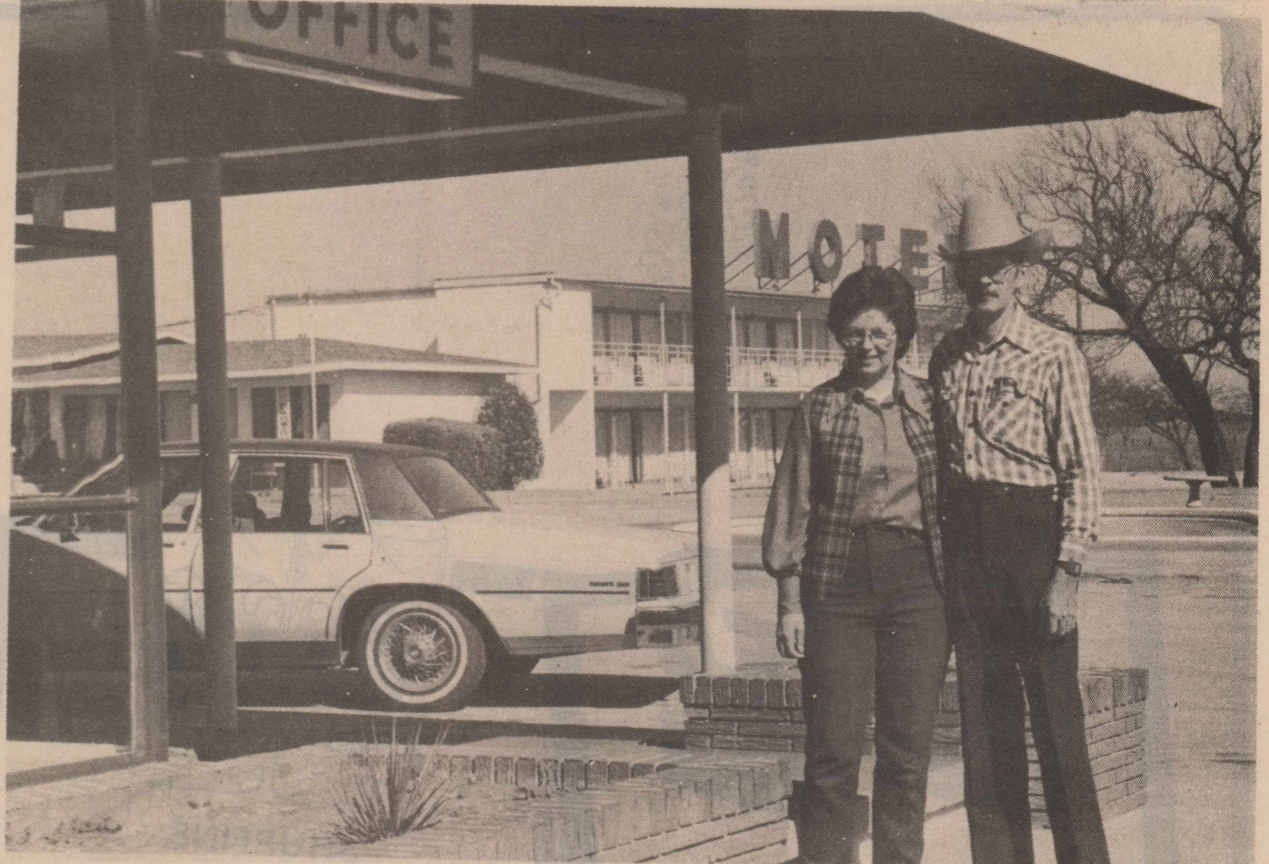

Hokit also suggested using Stamps by Mail, a free service available by completing an order form and sending a check to cover purchases. Order forms are available from letter carriers and retail clerks, Hokit adds.

"The decision to reduce the hours we are open was made after carefully examining all our operations to determine a reduction plan that will have the least adverse impact on our customers," Hokit says.

The deficit-reduction law requires the Postal Service to trim its budget by $1.245 billion over the next 21 months.

"The law limits both capital and operating expenditures," Hokit says. "Capital reductions require the immediate elimination of most building projects and equipment purchases around the nation."

"Two-thirds of the operating reduction costs are being absorbed internally, largely through administrative cutback," Hokit says. "A remaining third must be made through a 10 percent nationwide reduction in retail hours and other, less visible means."

Hillmans lease Flying W Lodge

The Flying W Lodge has been leased to Leonard and Mary Hillman of Ozona from Joe Williams. The Hillmans took over the operation Feb. 1 and have already begun making plans for a possible coffee shop and other additions that will be announced at a later date.

The attractive "AAA" rated lodge is located on the eastern part of town on old Hwy 290, and offers such extras as telephones and cable T.V. in all 40 rooms plus a swimming pool.

"We really enjoy the motel business. You meet all kinds of interesting people from all over the country and the world. We love Ozona and its people so come by and join us for a cup of coffee," said the Hillmans.

A Pretty Package

By Rev. Ken Harrison
Ozona United Methodist Church

There are over ten thousand items available on supermarket shelves, each calling out to the shopper, "Hey, buy me!" This has given rise, in our age of creeping consumerism, to a $35 billion a year packaging industry, whose purpose is to create and design packages which will influence consumers' point-of-purchase buying decisions. It is an industry that speaks in such jargon as "containerization", "visual impact", and "brand identity", while preaching a gospel of the power of positive packaging. It has been so successful that sometimes the package is of more value than the contents. You may recall the university study that found more nutrition in the cardboard cereal box than in the cereal itself.

There have, of course, been abuses in packaging by the unscrupulous and overzealous. This led to the legislation entitled The Fair Packaging and Labeling Act of 1966, as well as subsequent and more definitive laws in 1971. A major responsibility of consumer action groups has to do with deceptive packaging.

Humans can be deceptive in packaging, too. Jesus knew this and spoke about it in his warning about those who package themselves in long robes and parade themselves around like proud peacocks, positioning themselves in the best seats in the house at feasts and in the synagogue, who for a pretense make long prayers. He contrasted that kind of packaging with that of a "plain-wrapper" widow who made no pretense of her religion. See Mark 12:38-44.

A few years ago a manufacturer retained a packaging engineer to help him to dispose of several thousand coffee percolators which wouldn't sell, even at cost, around $20. The packaging engineer had the percolators gilded with a thin layer of imitation gold and then placed in a large white carton on an underlayment of cheap purple velvet. A glistening, dome-shaped plastic cover was placed on the carton, making the over-all aesthetic effect, to hear the engineer tell it, something akin to turning a sow's ear into a silk purse. Though the gilding and carton added less than a dollar to the cost of the percolators, the gaudy machines sold out in less than a month at $49.95.

Such falsifying of value through phony packaging is what Jesus exposed in pointing at the scribes in their long, showy robes and sham salutations. While such packaging purported to show piety and righteousness, it shined instead the by-products of pride: boasting, hypocrisy, scorn, arrogance, impudence, swelling of the heart, insolence, elation, impatience, strife, contumacy, presumption, irreverence, obstinacy, disobedience, and vainglory.

False packaging is as old as Adam and Eve, who sought to wrap themselves in divinity, to be like God. It is as modern as we are in our struggles with pretension. "Pride," as the author of the comic strip, Pogo, once quipped, "goeth over the falls". We must remember that whenever we are tempted to falsify package ourselves, even when, like the scribes in Jesus' day, we do it in the name and in the wrapping of religion.

Extention Service sponsoring Ranch Management school

In today's ranching business, profit is something everyone talks about, works for and looks forward to, but is rarely obtained.

Many ranchers are using their livestock and ranches for collateral just to meet operational expenses and often the ranchers blame their misfortunes on drought, poor markets and governmental policy, said Dr. Tom Troxel, livestock specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Dr. Troxel, of Uvalde, said, "In the past, lower interest rates and increasing land values were primarily responsible for the rancher's ability to continue operating."

However, due to higher production costs, lower market values of agricultural products, static or decreasing land values, and higher interest rates and taxes, traditional ranching is becoming a dying industry, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service has developed an educational program that addresses the future needs of ranchers.

The "Total Ranch Management" program emphasizes the organization and the use of all ranch resources to achieve total ranch goals and objectives, the livestock specialist explained.

"It differs from the more traditional ranch management approach, which tends to emphasize specific resources, enterprises or managerial functions while overlooking or neglecting other resources," he said.

The next Total Ranch Management workshop will be held March 22-26 and March 28-30 in Uvalde.

The workshop consists of eight days of instruction, including two field trips, a deer survey, and a one-night program demonstrating the use of computers in ranching.

The first day of the workshop will begin at 8:30 a.m. at the Texas A&M Agricultural Research and Extension Center.

Participants need to pre-register for the Uvalde workshop by March 15.

The registration fee is $300 for the first participant and $150 for each additional participant from the same ranch. This includes all workshop materials, a financial calculator, two evening meals and refreshments.

"Those ranchers wishing to evaluate their operations and who are willing to change their practices to meet the challenge of ranch survival will benefit the most from this workshop," Dr. Troxel said.

Those who can benefit from the program are ranch owners (family and/or corporate), managers, lessees, or lessors from any size operation. Participants are urged to attend as a team (husband and wife, or owner and manager). The entire ranch plan will be discussed, including ranch ownership goals as well as enterprise management and necessary record analysis.

"With the assimilation of appropriate technology into a complete management planning, evaluation, execution and re-evaluation package where profit is adequately considered, a Total Ranch Management approach will allow ranchers to better understand their economic situation and better plan their total operation for potential profits and management goals," Troxel said.

Further information may be received by contacting the Texas A&M Center in Uvalde, telephone 512/278-9151, or your local County Extension Agent.

Friends of the Library make plans

The officers for the Friends of the Crockett County Library had a meeting Wednesday, Feb. 3, to organize the year. New ideas and possible events were discussed. Members will be invited to a meeting later on to help discuss the matter further and help with their input.

Officers for the Friends are: Maricelle Long, president; Ginger Perner, secretary/treasurer and art exhibits project; Lisa Wagoner, children's programs; Jerry McCauley, projects chairman; and Cyn-di Simmons, publicity chairman.

A special family program for members of the Friends will be presented on March 17 at the Civic Center. Elizabeth Clark is the literary chairman for this program. A "Literary Dessert Feast" is planned. There will be many delicious desserts, so mark your calendar and plan to attend.

John Erickson, author of Hank the Dog series will be our guest speaker that evening. Mr. Erickson will also present an assembly to the Ozona Intermediate School and Junior High School earlier on that same day.

At this time Friends of the Library are encouraged to renew their memberships. Those who are not members are encouraged to stop by and visit the library and sign up.

Please understand that your membership will not require you to volunteer for any of the Friends' activities. While your involvement would certainly be welcome, we look to our members mainly to generate awareness of the library and its usefulness to our community. Through the influence of your membership, you will be helping to support the library's activities such as the literacy program, children's programs and art for the library. There will also be some "members only" activities such as the upcoming "Dessert Feast" on March 17.

We also would like to add that the library has a meeting room which is available to the public for meetings.

Memo to Crockett County livestock producers

A mohair quality, grading, preparation program will be held on Monday, February 15 at 7:00 p.m. in conjunction with the 4-H commercial angora doe kid fleece show at the county show barn. 15 4-H'ers have been feeding 65 kids from Crockett County producers since August.

The 4-H doe kids will be shorn on that day and Dr. Frank Craddock, Sheep and Goat Specialist will evaluate and place these fleeces. He will discuss mohair quality and preparation. We will have a group of goats in the barn and he will discuss and demonstrate chute sorting and grading. This is one easy and simple way to make a mohair clip more uniform and in-turn increase returns from hair. This will be a very informative program for goat producers.

A video teleconference on "Managing for a Hunting Lease Operation" will be broadcast March 1, 1988, 7:00-8:30 p.m. on satellite TV (Westar 4, channel 19). A public meeting will be held at the same time--March 1, 7:00 p.m. at the dining room of the Circle Bar Restaurant. Following the viewing of the teleconference, Rod Chalmers, Texas Game Warden, will lead a discussion and answer questions on lease hunting. Anyone interested in hunting in Crockett County is encouraged to come out to the Truck Stop and participate.

Ram Field Test and Sale--March 17, Sonora Research Center. Contact Butch Taylor (915) 387-3168 for details.

1988 Angora Goat Performance Test--will be conducted at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Sonora in the spring and summer. Delivery will be March 19-22, with the field day and sale August 18. Male kids born in spring of 1987 will be submitted for testing. For more information contact Don Spiller, Box 918, Sonora, Texas 76950 (387-3168).

Tax changes affecting 1987 return

Agricultural producers need to keep in mind the more significant changes of the Tax Reform Act of 1986 as they prepare to file their federal income tax returns, points out Billy Reager, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

These changes include the following:

1. Tax rates have been reduced and tax brackets have been expanded. For example, the marginal income tax rate for a married couple filing a joint return is 15 percent on taxable income between $3,000 and $28,000.
2. Personal exemptions have been increased from $1,800 to $1,900.
3. The standard deduction for a married couple filing a joint return has increased by $90 to $2,760, but is scheduled to increase to $5,000 in 1988.
4. A self-employed individual is allowed to deduct 25 percent of what he or she pays under an insured or self-insured family health plan. This is not available if the self-employed person participates in a health plan furnished by his or her spouse's employer.

5. Capital purchases of up to $10,000 on eligible property may be deducted in the year of purchase.

6. Limits have been placed on the amount of prepaid farming expenses that can currently be deducted if you use the cash-basis method of accounting. The limitation applies to prepaid expenses in excess of 50 percent of the nonprepaid farming expenses.

7. Deductions for IRA contributions are phased out for middle-to-high income individuals who are covered under another qualified pension plan.

Items that have been eliminated by tax reform legislation include the following:

1. Two-earner deduction for married couples.
2. Income averaging.
3. Capital gains exclusion. (There are special rules for participants in the dairy herd buy-out program.)
4. Land clearing expense. Conservation expenses must be part of an approved plan.
5. Dividend exclusion.
6. Charitable contributions. These must now be included with other itemized deductions.

Mandatory hunter education

In late January, a mandatory hunter education program was adopted which will affect many young hunters in Texas in the coming years. And although hunting is getting sort of stale in the minds of most folks these days, many would do well to take note of the new ruling and begin making plans to meet the requirements before they get caught in the last minute rush to get a "hunter safety course".

Effective Sept. 1, 1989, young people in the prescribed age bracket will be required to have passed the 10-hour minimum Texas Hunter Education Course and have a card to prove it, or they'll have to be accompanied by a licensed hunter 17 years of age or older while hunting in Texas.

Those affected, after Sept. 1, 1989, will be hunters whose date of birth falls between Sept. 2, 1971 and Aug. 31, 1973. By Sept. 1, 1990, the course will be required of those born between Sept. 2, 1971 and Aug. 31, 1974. And by Sept. 1, 1993, the requirement will apply to every hunter born on or after Sept. 2, 1971. Obviously, the system was set up by someone much smarter than me, to allow for a progressively larger number of young hunters each year requiring the safety training.

The Texas Hunter Education Course includes instruction in such topics as hunter responsibility and ethics, safe handling of firearms and archery equipment, wildlife conservation, management and identification, hunting regulations, landowner relations, survival and wilderness first aid. The course is available for anyone wishing to take it, young and old alike, but only those 12 years of age or older are eligible to receive a certificate of completion. Once a person has successfully completed the course, his or her certificate is good for life, and this applies to those who already took the course under the previously voluntary program. The Texas course is accepted by all states in the U.S. that require such training for hunters, including Colorado and New Mexico.

So what's all the excitement about? I'll get my kid in a course sometime later, right? Well, maybe. Look at the estimate of some 140,000 young hunters that have to find one of the 1,230 instructors giving a course somewhere nearby, and you should get the picture. Bear in mind that the course requires a minimum of 10 hours instruction (mostly classroom stuff), and that the rules don't permit cramming it into one day.

If you haven't ever heard of a "Hunter Safety Course" being offered in Crockett County before, it's because you haven't been reading "Crockett County Outdoors", or listening to the radio, or reading those flyers on the store windows in the early Fall each year. Your Game Warden and local volunteer hunter safety instructors have offered at least one course per year for the last four years, but seldom have more than three or four showed up to take it. For the last two summers, the Texas Game Warden Association has taken about 15 young folks from Crockett County to a summer camp patterned around the required course. And if you'll watch for this column in coming issues of the paper, you'll find an announcement for a Hunter Education Camp to be offered, probably in early June, right here in Crockett County. It will probably be in conjunction with the new 4-H Field and Stream program, which will also be explained in a later issue.

Now, I don't doubt there'll be lots of grumbling about this new requirement from young folks and possibly even their parents, but I'll bet there won't be any complaints from the others hunting on the same lease with them!

Don't wait! Watch for a course and sign up early to beat the rush.

President's Day

President's Day, celebrated on February 15, is a national holiday to observe the births of George Washington (Feb. 22) and Abraham Lincoln (Feb. 12), two of the greatest presidents in U.S. history.

As the first president of the U.S., Washington was a driving force behind the shaping of our Constitution. When elected, he was respected internationally and enjoyed bi-partisan support. "The basis of our political system is the right of the people to make and to alter their constitutions of government," he said in his farewell address.

President Lincoln, the 16th president of the United States, led the nation during the most turbulent years in its history. He is credited with the preservation of the Union during the Civil War and the emancipation of the slaves. "A house divided against itself cannot stand," said Lincoln, who valued above all else the preservation of the Union. ll
