Lions claim district, bi-district honors

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Lions basketball team held off rally after rally Tuesday, Feb. 23, to win the district 6-2A title, then overcame a slump Friday to defeat Van Horn in the bi-district game.

With last Friday's victory, the Lions advanced to the area playoffs.

The match-up between the Lions and Stanton was a repeat of last year as the game proved tension-filled until the last second clicked off the clock and the Lions came away with a 74-70 win.

Stanton led the way at the start, clinching a 22-20 first quarter lead; however, the Lions rallied late in the second quarter to take a 38-34 halftime lead.

In the third quarter, the Lions looked as if they might secure the lead, but Stanton refused to bow down and despite an 11-point deficit after three periods, the Buffaloes threatened twice in the closing minutes.

Stanton outscored the Lions 24-17 in the last period but Scott Denman's three-point play in the waning seconds put the Lions up for good and entitled them to the district crown.

"We played well and probably had one of our best games of the year," Coach John Curry said. "We had some down spots, but I was proud of the guys being able to hold off Stanton at the end."

Denman had a good night, tallying 23 points and pulling down 10 rebounds.

Will Seahorn scored 14 points. Danny Sanchez had eight assists while Oscar Galindo collected six.

On Friday, the Lions faced Van Horn for bi-district as the post-season playoffs began. From here on out, a loss ends the season.

The Lions started out well against Van Horn, grabbing a 19-13 first quarter lead, but Van Horn moved back in the second quarter to arrange a 33-30 halftime score.

In the third quarter, the teams played evenly, each scoring eight points. The difference arrived in the fourth quarter as the Lions amassed 22 points to Van Horn's 15, winning 63-53.

"Van Horn had a good ball club and we did not play very well," Coach Curry said. "This made the game close."

Denman tallied more than half of the Lions' total score as he had 34 points. He also had nine rebounds.

Seahorn grabbed eight rebounds and assisted in scores five times.

If the Lions beat Coleman Tuesday night, then they will play Friday night at the Dorothy Garrett Coliseum in Big Spring.

Final countdown to Super Tuesday, March 8, underway

The final countdown to Super Tuesday, March 8, is underway locally and across the nation as candidates strive to press home their points to voters. Absentee judge Jean Connor had received 78 mail ballots and had 320 personal appearance voters by mid-morning Monday. "I believe the change in the absentee law has caused more people to vote absentee," said Mrs. Connor. Those wishing to vote absentee no longer have to give a reason for doing so, a fact which Mrs. Connor feels is responsible for about half of the early turnout locally.

Anyone wishing to vote absentee may do so at the Law Library in the courthouse until 5 p.m. March 4.

Voting hours on March 8 will be 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. Polling places are: Precinct 1 - Courthouse Law Library with Estella Valadez as judge;

Precinct 2 - Ozona Junior High with Donna Sanders as judge; Precinct 3 - Civic Center with Bobbie Fatout as judge; Precinct 4 - Ozona Primary with Concha Zapata as judge; Box 36 - WTU Power Plant with Mark Barton as judge.

Results will be posted in front of the courthouse on election night according to County Clerk Debbi Puckett.

Hunter education camp deadline March 1

4-H members who failed to sign up for the Field and Stream project by the March 1 deadline can still do so, but Crockett County youths no longer have priority according to Game Warden Rod Chalmers.

Participation in the program was opened to young people from neighboring counties after the March 1 deadline.

The new 4-H Field and Stream program is designed to develop understanding, appreciation and basic skills in hunting, fishing, camping, outdoor cooking, firearms safety, wilderness survival and first aid, boating and water safety, wildlife management and identification along with dozens of other areas.

To sign up for the program, go by the Extension office or call 392-2721.

Public School Week March 7-11

Public invited to visit . . .

The Crockett County Consolidated Common School District will be among 1,100 public school systems in the state which will be observing Texas Public School Week on March 7 through March 11.

"Although parents and the public are invited to visit our schools throughout the school year, a special invitation is being extended during Public Schools Week," said Garland Davis, superintendent of schools. "All of our four schools will host open-house activities during this week, and everyone is invited to see first-hand how the school district operates."

Texas Public School Week activities will be held at Ozona High School on Tuesday, March 8, with an 8:00 p.m. performance of "I Never Saw Another Butterfly", O.H.S.'s one-act play which will be presented during zone district competition in Eldorado on Tuesday, March 15. At the conclusion of the 40-minute play, the Ozona High School teaching staff will be available for informal visits with parents and other visitors.

Open house activities will be held at Ozona Junior High School, Ozona Intermediate School and Ozona Primary School on Thursday, March 10. Ozona Junior High School's open house will be from 6:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. and special activities include a Book Fair, a "Just Say No To Drugs" booth, and a OJH Student Council booth.

Ozona Intermediate School will present a 30-minute play at 6:30 p.m. for guests, and classrooms will be open for visits from 7 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. Open house will be held at Ozona Primary School from 7 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.

Texas Public School Week is an annual event, and everyone is welcome to attend the activities," Superintendent Davis said.

Baggett named outstanding 1987 conservation rancher

W. R. Baggett Jr. has been chosen as the recipient of the 1987 outstanding conservation rancher award by the Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District. The award was presented to Bill at the San Angelo Area Awards Banquet at Angelo State University on Feb. 23.

Bill has spent most of his life ranching in Crockett County and realizes that resource conservation is essential to our continued existence. Bill received his indoctrination in the importance of our natural resources early in life from his father, who was one of the authors of the original Conservation Program and Plan of Work for Crockett County.

Bill, along with his son, Penn, operates a 7,595 acre ranch in Crockett County. They run primarily a cattle and sheep operation realizing that good range management practices and conservation go hand in hand.

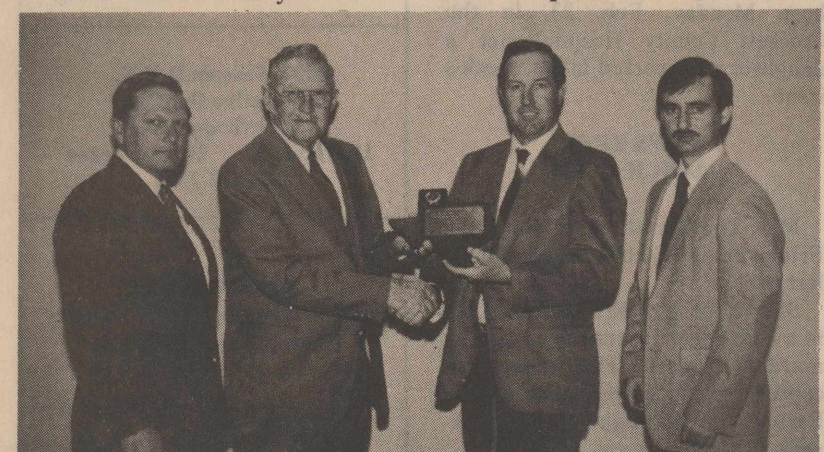

The ranch has been under the Great Plains Conservation Program in the past with good, sound conservation practices being applied. Brush control and water development, along with well executed management practices have been applied. These improvements have not only been beneficial to his livestock operation and provide soil erosion protection, but have also improved his wildlife habitat. Deer and turkey are the predominant wildlife species on the ranch and provide supplemental income.

Bill has been a strong influence in educating the local youth about our natural resources. He was one of the individuals instrumental in initiating a sixth grade conservation field day that is held on his ranch each year. He is also a strong supporter of the local 4-H and Girl Scout programs. He has developed an area on the ranch that is utilized each summer by the Girl Scouts for a week-long outdoor education and recreation camp.

Bill has been a director of the Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District for 20 years. He has been elected chairman of the district board of directors since 1976. He was also influential in initiating the Johnson Draw Watershed Project after the flood of 1954 devastated the town of Ozona. Two of the seven floodwater retarding structures are located on his ranch.

W. R. Baggett Jr. has demonstrated his knowledge and skill in applying the principles of range management for many years. Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District is proud to present the 1987 outstanding conservation rancher award to an individual who has been so interested and involved in the conservation of the natural resources of Crockett County.

Bill Baggett was presented the outstanding conservation rancher of 1987 award by Crockett Conservation District at a banquet last week in San Angelo. Making the presentation is

Opinion

by Scotty Moore

After spending five years of my life teaching kids in high school and junior high and coaching girls' basketball on the side, plus another five just to get certified for the task qualifies me to an opinion based on experience on the subject of parent-teacher-administration-kid relationships.

Let's face the music. The teaching profession is not what it used to be by any means of measure, and the kids are the ones getting the short end of the stick.

All the teachers seem to talk and worry about now is what kind of review they are going to get from their superiors instead of what could be done with the children that need special help. The profession seems to be full of nails, frowns, indecisions and age spots. The sad part about the whole matter is that it's not their fault.

I wonder what has happened to the yesterdays when the teacher was "Boss" of his or her classroom, and nothing stood in the way of the learning process between teacher and students except the everyday problems that teachers have confronted since the profession began. The days are gone when the principal and teachers presented a united front to preserve and maintain that fine line of authority established by the teacher between herself and her students. And without this feeling of working together of a common cause, the classroom becomes a total shambles.

In my opinion, House Bill 72 has been a disastrous piece of legislation. It has lowered school spirit, caused chaos, insecurity, bad judgments on the part of administrators in trying to follow their job outlines and descriptions. It has forced excellent seasoned teachers to check it in with disgust. Teachers are being spied upon, accused without being informed of their accusers and threatened with decertification without a trial. It reminds me of the Third Reich.

When I first began teaching, I was called into the office one day and coached onto the right track by the principal who had many years of teaching experience. The whole matter was handled with finesse and professional courtesy with a little wisdom thrown in. I'll never forget the guy nor the lesson that he taught me. He turned out to be one of my best friends.

Thank goodness my two kids have finished school already. I know for sure that it would make my blood run cold if one of them came home reporting that he had been hauled into the office and questioned about his own teachers he is supposed to respect and remember for a lifetime as "my teacher".

Let's support the overworked, underpaid public servants called teachers who are caretakers of our children. After all, if they are not respected and allowed to teach in realms of professional courtesy, then who in Sam Hill will!

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN-Texas voters are responding to candidates crisscrossing Texas with what some experts predict may be a record primary turnout and continued realignment of the Texas electorate.

In other action last week related to Texas government:

- Gov. Bill Clements agreed with a federal decision to postpone choosing a site for the supercollider until after the presidential election;
- A trio of legislators unveiled a compromise plan to install a merit system for selecting Texas judges;
- State officials reconsidered their plans to take liens against the homesteads of medicaid recipients after they die.

Texas Secretary of State Jack Rains has predicted a record turnout. He believes the Republican primary for the first time in history will draw as many voters as the Democratic primary.

First Massive Battle

For one thing, the Super Tuesday strategy has brought campaigning here early; Texas voters now know they will help decide the first massive battle of this campaign.

For another, a Texan is running and stirs the hopes of Texans troubled with a struggling economy.

A litmus for realignment, as the election unfolds, is how well Albert Gore's campaign fares in the Democratic primary, highlighted by the controversial endorsement of party chairman Bob Slagle and some 60 party financial heavy hitters.

Old, New Mind-Sets

Heading towards Election Day, the polls show Gore fourth in Texas behind Michael Dukakis, Jesse Jackson and Richard Gephardt.

Unless Gore makes some kind of fantastic finish, the exposed differences can not be overlooked between the follow-me-boys Democratic Party leadership and the party's rank-and-file precinct organizers, who followed their own mind-set and split behind Dukakis and Gephardt.

Gore's candidacy in many ways is a youthful appeal to the old ways, to conservative rural Democrats, just as Jesse Jackson appeals to black voters, Dukakis to urban liberals. More than the others, how Gore and Jackson fare at the convention will indicate the party's future in Texas.

Realignment, Conservatives

The argument about realignment begins with those rural conservatives, who at one time were the heart of the Texas Democratic Party.

Have they had enough of the Texas Democratic Party's pell-mell bolt towards urban liberalism in hard times? Will they continue to defect in droves to the Republican primary?

Or do they think the Texas Republican Party's urban conservatism is so uncaring that they will accept a diminished roll in the Democratic Party?

For your answer, see if rural counties pick a winner.

Republican Action

The Republican slate, for awhile there, had a wide range of appeal, but in the primary endgame, most candidates are conceding Texas to Vice President George Bush with his favorite son flair.

Frankly, while purists shudder at the damage done to the Eleventh Commandment, "Speak no ill of fellow Republicans", the hammer-and-tongs action has its own appeal to those who think a good political fight is a healthy by-product of democracy.

Certainly, it has brought the Republican image out from the country club backrooms, and, some say, made it more human.

Some say the public scrappings are natural growing pains which cannot be avoided by an expanding party, one which gives candidates a lot to gain and a lot to lose.

Other Highlights

- The state welfare agency is rethinking its plan to file liens on homes of some 8,000 Medicaid recipients to recoup expenses after their deaths. The Department of Human Services board will act on the new state law next month.
- Gov. Clements applauded the "wise" decision to postpone choosing the supercollider site, while others predicted the next president will decide where to build it. Thus, the $4.4 billion supercollider becomes a rather large political plum for the state which guesses right in the presidential sweepstakes. If it's ever built.
- In a preview of things to come, Rains and Democratic Attorney General Jim Mattox debated before the Houston-based Hispanic Political Action Committee. Both are eyeing the Governor's Mansion for 1990.

Historical Society meets

The Crockett County Historical Commission and the Crockett County Historical Society met together in the Emerald Room of Ozona National Bank Monday evening, Feb. 29, at 7 p.m. Twenty-eight members and guests heard a most interesting program given by Don P. Whited, Park Ranger at Fort Lancaster.

As part of the early movement westward, a number of forts and camps were established for the protection of travelers. Fort Lancaster was located on what was known as the Lower Road, leaving from San Antonio. The fort was in existence for only a short time, 1855 to 1861. This was at a time when there were no facilities such as we take for granted today: electricity, automobiles, roads. "But," said Mr. Whited, "people do not miss what they have never had."

Getting supplies to the fort, including wood for burning, was never an easy task. One story states that a ranchman would not let the men cut oak trees off his land. Fortunately those trees are still standing today.

The soldiers had only mules to ride - horses were much too expensive to feed and care for. It seems amusing for them to try to protect their territory against the country's best mounted horsemen, the Indians.

Twenty-five foundations for permanent buildings have been identified and marked. Since becoming a part of the Texas State Park System in 1968, the policy has been to stabilize and protect what remains rather than to attempt reconstruction.

Life at Fort Lancaster was boring for the men stationed there - a skirmish with Indians was at least a diversion. "Only one real battle was fought at Fort Lancaster," Mr. Whited said. More than a thousand Indians attacked the few soldiers. But when their chief was killed, the Indians withdrew. "Indians fought to gain what they considered glory," Mr. Whited continued, and "when their chief fell, the glory was gone."

Interesting slides were shown of the site as it appears today. Mr. Whited stressed that artifacts are important only when the exact location they were found can be identified and documented. So much of our local history disappears every day when such items are picked up, carried off with no proof of their origins at all.

Mrs. P. L. Childress, chairman of the Commission, presided, and she and Mrs. Harrell served refreshments to the group.

Mark Henry Sellers of Ozona is among students named to the Dean's Honors List at Texas Christian University for the 1987 fall semester. This recognition cites undergraduate students for academic achievement.

In order to be eligible, a student must have been enrolled for 12 or more semester hours of study and have achieved an exceptional grade-point average.

Mark Sanchez receives nomination to West Point

Congressman Lamar-Smith has nominated three West Texans for appointment to the nation's military service academies.

"The competition this year was extremely intense," the Congressman said in announcing his nominations.

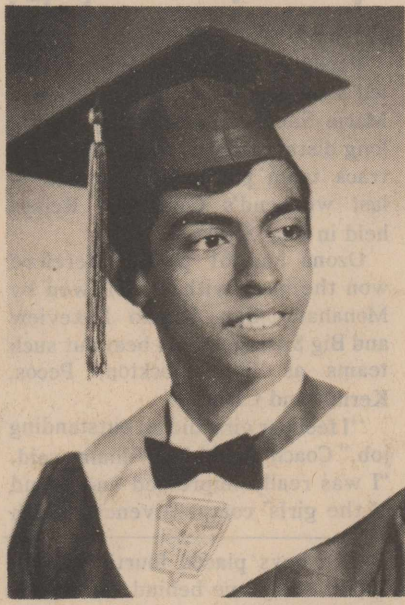

"Almost all of the applicants who were considered by my Service Academy Screening Board were superbly qualified," he said. "The board had a difficult time choosing the very best."

Smith nominated Mark Sanchez of Ozona for a spot in the Class of 1992 at the U. S. Military Academy in West Point, New York; William D. Cravy III of San Angelo for admission to U. S. Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs; Jerry L. Garnett of Marfa for admission to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland.

The nomination process begins in the junior year of high school according to Sanchez. First a questionnaire is completed and submitted. If certain qualifications are met, an application is received and the student is told to seek a nomination from his U. S. senator or representative. Recommendations, an essay and transcripts of high school grades are required, also. Then a senator reviews the file. The representative is in charge of personal interviews and 10 applicants are nominated per academy.

"There is a lot of paper work. I'm still filling out papers," said Sanchez. The OHS senior was in San Antonio in December to go before the review board. He then underwent a physical at Goodfellow AFB and a physical fitness test in Abilene.

Because of a complex set of admissions rules, however, only a total of five of the final appointments will go to those specifically nominated by the Congressman.

Mark plans to study aeronautical engineering whether at West Point or elsewhere. He is also pursuing admission to the Air Force Academy prep school in Colorado Springs, Colorado, and has considered Texas A&M.

UIL literary events have occupied many of Mark's spare hours during high school. He has participated in persuasive speaking, Lincoln-Douglas debate, number sense, science, calculator, headline and editorial writing.

He has been a member of the Lion's Roar staff, was student trainer for the football team for two years, plays UIL tennis and is a member of the National Honor Society.

Mark is the son of Ramon and Ana Sanchez.

"I would like to thank the people who were kind enough to offer to write letters of recommendation and those who did write the letters. I will receive final notification in April," Sanchez said.

One act play performance planned for March 8

The Ozona High School one-act play cast and crew will present its performance of "I Never Saw Another Butterfly" by Celeste Raspanti as part of Ozona High School's open house on Tuesday, March 8, at 8:00 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

"I Never Saw Another Butterfly" is a one-act version of a longer play by Raspanti and is published by Dramatic Publishing Company. It is based on a book of poems and drawings of the same title and covers the years 1942-1945 in the Jewish ghetto Terezin in Poland.

Over 15,000 Jewish children passed through Terezin, and only about a hundred were still alive when Terezin was liberated at the end of the war. These few then went back to the scattered pieces of their lives, their homes and families. Raja, the main character, lived through it all at Terezin, teaching the children and giving them hope when there was little reason for hope. This play is her story and is snatches of her memory of the years in Terezin. It is history as much as any play can be history, showing the best and the worst of which the human heart is capable.

Included in the cast and crew of the play are the following students: Jennifer Colin, Rene DeLaRosa, Margaret Jones, Copie Davis, Stacie Winkley, Tanna Bixby, Isabel Benitez, Sarah Pullen, Amy Graham, Bruce Beasley, Travis Burks, Shawna Newton, Sandi Phillips, Julie Carson and Candace Williams. The play is under the direction of Frances Curry.

Zone one-act play contest is scheduled for March 15 in Eldorado. From this contest, the plays will advance to district in Big Lake on March 22.

STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Ozona Lady Lion golf team traveled to Fort Stockton last weekend for their competing debut performance of the 1988 season. Competing against several conference AAAA and AAA teams, the Lady Lions shot rounds of 388 and 369 to take home third place.

On Friday, Ozona's first player, senior Randi Thompson, paced the Lady Lions with a round of 90 that put her in third place overall in the medalist race. Right behind her was junior Gina McCollum who fired a 94. Rounding out the scoring for the Lady Lions were seniors Loretta Ledbetter and Tanna Bixby with rounds of 101 and 102 respectively. The total of 388 put Ozona in third place; 15 shots behind AAAA Andrews and 13 shots behind AAAA Fort Stockton.

Boys compete in Blue Ribbon Invitational Golf Tourney

by Copie Davis
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Ozona Lion golf team began the 1988 season last weekend in Fort Stockton at the Blue Ribbon Invitational Golf Tournament. Competing against several larger schools, the Lions used the surprisingly sharp games of freshman Jay Haire and Copie Davis to manage a sixth place finish.

On Friday, Davis and Haire fired identical rounds of eight over par 80 to complement rounds of 92 by Shane Pridemore and 93 by Brian Harms for a first day total of 345. Davis and Haire ended the day in a pack of 18 players within five shots of the lead.

On Saturday, Haire played the rounds of his life. Riding the

Book Fair to be held at Junior High Library

The Ozona Junior High School Library will be having a book fair from 8:30 a.m. to 3:45 p.m. and 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in conjunction with Public School Week. Students will be able to browse and purchase books. Books will be on display in the library.

Everyone is invited to attend the fair. The fair will encourage student interest in reading and in building home libraries, and will also contribute to a worthwhile project. All profits will be used to purchase more books for the library.

The book fair display will include attractive new books from many major publishers in all popular price which they felt they needed to overcome the first two places.

Although they didn't reach their goal, they did improve. Gina McCollum fired one of the lowest rounds of the day, an 86, which moved her into third overall in the medalist race. The Lady Lions' second score was shot by senior second player Trebie West who improved 14 shots from her previous round to fire a 92. Randi Thompson added a solid round of 95, while Loretta Ledbetter shot a 76. Ozona's 369 was the lowest score of the day by any team, but wasn't low enough to move out of third place.

Even though the Lady Lions didn't bring home the gold, their showing in the Fort Stockton Blue Ribbon Invitational was extremely impressive. And, they totally demolished their only district 6-AA competition, Rankin, by an astonishing total of 109 shots.

The Lady Lions' next tournament will be Saturday in Stanton at the Stanton Invitational.

strengths of four birdies, (three of which came on par three holes) Haire fired a four over 76. Playing immediately behind him, Davis birdied two of his first four holes en route to a six over par 78. Harms added an impressive round of 88 while Fleet Worthington carded a gutsy 106 as the Lions ended day Day Two with a total of 348.

Stan Winkley, substituting for the vacationing Shane Pridemore, cranked out a 98, which could've moved the Lions as high as fourth place.

Individually, Haire's two day total of 156 put him in a tie for 17th overall and Davis' 158 put him in 13th. These were out of 85 golfers at the tournament.

The Lions' next tournament will be Saturday at Big Lake for the Reagan County Invitational.

Ozona netters capture first places in Garden City

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

Backed by Summer Shacklette's championship win in girls' singles and Sylvia Flores and Stacie Winkley's second place finish in girls' doubles, the Lady Lion netters came away with an overall first place finish in last weekend's Garden City Tennis Tournament.

The Ozona boys' team finished fourth overall, tallying points from Travis Burks and Tommy Tucker's first place showing in doubles and Mark Sanchez' winning of consolation in singles.

Shacklette did not lose a set in all her matches and only dropped eight games during the tourney.

In the finals, Shacklette sealed her victory with a decisive 6-0, 6-2 match.

"Summer improved her game by coming to the net and volleying a few times, something she often avoids in most matches," Coach Jerry Tucker said.

Usually Flores takes to the court with Suzy King; however, due to an illness, King bowed out and was replaced by Winkley.

The newly acquainted duo quickly set about establishing winning ways as they cruised to the semi-finals before facing a tough Forsan bunch.

Flores and Winkley made the finals after a tough, three-set battle, 6-2, 6-7, 6-3, then fell in the finals but still took second place.

"Sylvia and Stacie did well for being together the first time," Coach Tucker said.

Burks and Tucker made the semi-finals where they overcame an Irion County duo 7-5, 7-6. In the finals, they beat Irion Co.'s other doubles team 6-4, 6-2, to claim the championship in the event.

"Travis and Tommy are reaching a new level of play," Tucker said.

Both boys' singles players, Sanchez and Cody Morris, lost their first-round matches but rallied in the consolation bracket, winning match after match until they met each other in the consolation finals where Sanchez beat his teammate 8-2.

"Mark is hitting the ball better," Tucker said. "In fact we all are. As we continue to work hard, we all will hit the ball with more power and control."

In further girls' singles action, Janet King won her first match 6-1, 6-2, before falling to the number one seed.

Scotty Burks and Brian Cook lost two matches and were eliminated from play.

Jennifer Colin and Eileen Moran claimed a 7-6, 6-2 victory in girls' double before falling in the second round.

Tanya Ramos and Elvia Vasquez lost their first match then made the consolation finals where they fell after a tough pro-set, 7-9.

"We finally became excited about winning," Coach Tucker said. "We found out we could get through some tough matches."

The girls amassed 36 points to win the overall award. Second-place Garden City followed with 25 points and Grady finished third with 15.

Lady tracksters have good showing at Ft. Stockton

Paced by Kristina Martinez' varied showings in several events and Maria Sanchez' consistency in the long distance races, the Ozona girls' track team placed fifth overall in last weekend's Comanche Relays held in Fort Stockton.

Ozona had 61 points. Hereford won the meet with 94, followed by Monahans, San Angelo Lakeview and Big Spring. Ozona beat out such teams as Fort Stockton, Pecos, Kermit and Crane.

"I feel our girls did an outstanding job," Coach David McWilliams said. "I was really impressed and proud of the girls' competitiveness which

The boys placed fourth with 24 points, only one behind third place finisher Irion County, four less than Forsan, and six points behind first-place Garden City.

This Friday and Saturday, the team travels to Junction for a usually highly competitive tournament.

"If we all continue to enjoy the competition, then we'll all continue to improve," Tucker said.

helped them perform well against bigger schools."

Martinez took second in both the 100m hurdles and 400m dash. She also placed third in the long jump and fourth in the high jump as well as running on the sprint relay team.

With a time of 13:10.04, Sanchez finished third in the two-mile event as teammate Kimberlee Coy took sixth place with a time of 13:50.78.

Sanchez then placed third in the mile as she clocked a 5:56.48 running.

Regina Cervantez, Martinez, Bibi Cervantez and Lacy Miller teamed together to place second in the 400m relay. R. Cervantez, Miller, Coy and Sanchez finished fourth in the 800m relay.

The girls team travels to Rankin this weekend.

Lion tracksters take second at Comanche Relays

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

Supported by a younger crew and key veteran showings, the Ozona Lions' track team totaled 74 points to finish second behind Rankin in last weekend's Fort Stockton Comanche Relays.

Michael Sanchez' winning the high jump was the only first-place showing for Ozona, but their other placings were enough to earn the overall second place standing.

"Michael has worked all these years and it's finally paying off," Coach Pete Maldonado said. "Hopefully, his results will be an example for the younger boys on the team."

"The guys were able to go into the meet without any pressure and just make a competitive performance," Coach Maldonado said. "I was extremely pleased with the younger guys."

Freshman Ruben Borrego placed fourth in the 100m dash. He also served on the sprint and mile relay teams.

Ernest Castillo and Richard Borrego finished fourth and fifth in the 400m while Robbie Tambunga claimed fourth place in the 200m dash with a time of 23.98.

Jose Gutierrez had a 4:59 mile to place third in that event. He also finished fourth in the two-mile run and Luis Rico followed in fifth place.

John Sanchez had a 2:10 half-mile, enough to earn him a fourth place finish. Gilbert Rico's 2:15 placed him in sixth place.

Both Borregos, Tambunga and Martin Urbina teamed together for the 400 relay race where they placed second with a time of 45.60.

The same bunch (minus Richard Borrego, add J. Sanchez) took second in the mile-relay in a time of 3:41.88.

Rankin had 103½ points, much of that coming from three persons, to win the meet. Ozona followed and Irion finished third with 66 points.

"I think our all-around performance is an indication for a good track season ahead," Coach Maldonado said. "I think we're going to do well in the future due to our depth-every point counts."

The Lions next head for Rankin this weekend.

I would like to use this means of expressing the thanks and appreciation of Francis Curry, Jill Crawford, Chesta Stuart, Margaret Spiller, Thomas DeHoyos, Jackie Shacklette, Frank Reavis, Dan McClung, Jan North and myself to the many townspeople, students and out-of-town people who helped make our First Ozona Literary Meet a tremendous success. Without their help we could not have had such a successful meet.

Our sincere thanks to the following people.

Accidents reported

Trooper Richard Barton investigated three accidents in Crockett County during the two day period of Feb. 15-16.

Georgia Alvarez Manning of Ocala Florida was the driver of a 1987 Peterbilt truck tractor involved in a 1:30 .m. accident at Circle Bar Truck Stop parking lot Feb. 15.

Manning was leaving the parking lot to turn right toward Taylor Box Road when the vehicle's trailer collided with the left front of a parked 1987 White truck tractor.

Two roll-overs were investigated on Feb. 16.

Jorge Luna of Los Angeles was the driver of a 1978 Datsun which overturned 37 miles west of Ozona on I-10 at 7:40 a.m. The westbound vehicle drifted to the right shoulder as Luna looked at a road map. According to the accident report, he overcorrected, and the vehicle turned over one-half time onto its roof.

A deer was the cause of a 12:05 p.m. accident 30 miles west of Ozona on Mitchell Blacktop. Sue Hoover, northbound in a 1978 Lincoln, swerved to miss a deer, ran onto the shoulder in a sharp curve. The vehicle began skidding sideways and overturned one-half time onto its roof. Mrs. Hoover was taken by private car to Hudspeth Memorial Hospital in Sonora for treatment.

Crockett County Care Center News

by JoAnne Marshall

Do you ever have left over craft supplies after finishing a project? If you do, you can help keep the Monday morning craft class going by donating those odds and ends. Such things as glue, artificial flowers, yarn, pipe cleaners, craft ribbons, and glitter can always be used. No matter what the items might be or how few in number, they will be appreciated and put to good use. Our latest project is a St. Patrick's Day decoration. Juana Hernandez, Consuelo Sarabia, Tomasa Ramos, Maudie Couch, Moriana Perez and Doris Robnett combined their skills and made paper flowers using green and white printed tissue. The flowers were attached to a horseshoe shaped piece of styrofoam, and phase one of the project was completed. Doris Karr was the busy volunteer. Thank you, Doris.

Monday afternoon residents aimed for the bullseye while playing a game of target ball that followed a short exercise routine. Residents testing their skills were: Edna Wallace, Nellie Harp, Tomasa Ramos, Virginia Hoover, Consuelo Sarabia, Doris Robnett, Louise Johnigan, Moriana Perez, Srida Seene, Lucy May Meinecke and Lucia Rios.

Tuesday morning's bingo prize winners were: Harry Blatchford, Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Virginia Hoover, Nellie Harp, Moriana Perez, and Lucy May Meinecke. Helpful volunteers were: Georgia Kirby, Sophie Kyle and Violet Blatchford. Thank you, ladies. We appreciate your help.

Tuesday afternoon, Muriel Gillit played the piano and led the residents in a sing-a-long. Floy Clare Short and Theo Burns made several requests, and Muriel played them with ease.

Ruth Hester and Ruthie Doris gave expert advice in Wednesday morning's ceramic workshop. Residents attending were: Theo Burns, Hazel McDaniel, Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Consuelo Sarabia, Moriana Perez, Ethel Youngblood and Maudie Couch. We would like to thank Ruth and Ruthie along with Letha Loudamy for their help in cleaning the ceramics and getting them ready for the residents to glaze.

Charles Huffman of the Faith Lutheran Church conducted a short Bible study Wednesday afternoon. Ruby Olson played the piano. Home-made cookies were served, compliments of the Lutheran Ladies' Bible Class. Thank you, ladies. The cookies were delicious. Beauty shop volunteers Vivian Hughes, Bobbie Light, Audrey Smith, Lola Rios and Joann Williamson were here bright and early Thursday morning to start beautifying the ladies.

After watching the Myrtle Post Garden Club's planting Wednesday afternoon, several of the residents took a leisurely stroll in the backyard to admire the fountain and flowers. The garden has received nothing but complimentary comments from all who see it. We would like to thank the Garden Club for a job beautifully done. We would also like to say thank you for the beautiful Spanish Oak that was donated in memory of Bailey Post.

Jim Gray of First Baptist Church presented the midweek Bible study. David McCarley led the singing, and his wife, Jerri, played the piano.

The Spanish Hour of Praise finished the day's activities with Rev. Bill conducting Mass.

Freshly popped corn was served during Friday morning's bingo. Betty Moak and Yolanda Avila were the friendly volunteers. Prize winners were: Tomasa Ramos, Santos Martinez, Emma Taylor and Lucy May Meinecke. Lucy May won three games.

Volunteer Matthew Marshall kept the ball in bounds during a game of volleyball Friday afternoon. An inflatable beach ball was used instead of a volleyball. Residents had a lot of fun and were reluctant to stop for dinner. Those teaming up were: Doris Robnett, Srida Seene, Lucy May Meinecke, Moriana Perez, Virginia Hoover, Juana Hernandez, Consuelo Sarabia, Nellie Harp and Edna Wallace. Who says one can't have fun while exercising!

Sunday's worship service was presented by the Church of Christ. We would like to thank them for sharing their time with us.

Circle Bar sweeps San Angelo Winston Cup

Circle Bar Truck Corral won four first places, one for each of its entries, in the Winston Cup Car Show last weekend in San Angelo. There were approximately 125 cars in the seven division show which was sponsored at the San Angelo Coliseum by a San Antonio group.

Bobby Reneau of Circle Bar exhibited a 1987 Ford pickup, a Cobra, and 1947 Ford pickup and a 1927 Ford Sprint-T for owner Tom Mitchell. Each entry received a trophy.

The Mitchell vehicles also received a plaque for best street achievement (the second year to win the award) and a plaque for best motor.

"It was a good success for us," said Reneau who expects some of the vehicles to be entered in the Odessa Winston Cup Car Show next month at the Convention Center there.

Circle Bar Truck Corral cars brought home four trophies and two plaques from the Winston Cup Car Show last weekend in San Angelo. Pictured with his 1985 Ford is Tom Mitchell.

The 1987 Ford pickup, a replica of Mitchell's 1947 Ford, was damaged by gunfire earlier this year after being stolen from the truck stop.

Repairs were made to the truck body, and the radiator and air conditioning were replaced in preparation for the show.

Newcomers to Ozona are C. R. and Julita Otwell and their three sons, Julio, Felipe and Christopher. C. R. attended grade school in Ozona.

He is employed by Pool Company and was transferred here from Sonora.

"B.W." is qualified for County Judge of Crockett County.

Give him a chance, he will listen and get other opinions.

The legal basis for the office of County Judge rests in Article V, Sections 15-18, of the Texas Constitution: "There shall be established in each county in this state a County Court, which shall be a court of record; and there shall be elected in each county, by the qualified voters, a County Judge, who shall be well informed in the law of the state; shall be a conservator of the peace; and shall hold office for four years, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified..."

The County Judge is the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court, which is the policy-determining body of the county. The County Judge is a voting member of the Commissioners Court although in many counties, by custom, the Judge votes only in case of ties. A County Judge in Texas is usually the Judge of the County Criminal Court, County Civil Court and Probate Court. If the County Judge is an attorney, he may also serve as the judge of the Juvenile Court. The County Judge is also head of civil defense and disaster relief, county welfare, and in counties under 225,000 population the judge prepares the county budget along with the County Auditor or County Clerk.

As an administrative official, the County Judge handles such widely varying matters as hearings for beer and wine license applications, hearings on admittance to state hospitals for the mentally ill and mentally retarded, waivers for marriage of persons under age, juvenile work permits and temporary guardianships for special purposes. The judge is also responsible for calling elections, posting election notices, and for receiving and canvassing the election returns. The County Judge is a Notary Public and may perform marriages.

Where is your destiny ?

While you're getting comfortably settled and fastening your seatbelt the captain and his crew are busy with their checklist. While you're watching the movie they'll be studying instruments, monitoring radio signals, following charts. It's wonderful to relax, confident the people up front know what they're doing and where they are going.

In the excitement of welcoming the beginning of the New Year don't overlook the fact that YOU are the chap with the checklists and charts. We aren't passengers on this spinning globe. We are pilots and navigators and members of the crew -- all responsible for reaching safely a destiny God has set for us.

Long before Kitty Hawk generations were finding in the Bible their checklists and charts. In its earliest days the world recognized Christianity as a new "plan for living" and called it the Way.

"Happy New Year" puts all the emphasis on take-off. Those up front who know what they're doing always say "Happy Landing."

Travel Beckons Mrs. Brown

February 29 was the last day of work outside the home for Maxine Brown. Mrs. Brown, a clerk at the Office of the Justice of the Peace, has been in that office for nine years.

"I've worked with three different J.P.'s, and they've all been very easy to work with," said Mrs. Brown.

She began her work in the office under A. O. Fields in March of 1979. She then worked for the late Raymond Davee and for the current Justice of the Peace, Mrs. Christine Davee.

Her job has included typing, filling out warrants, filing, entering complaints in the docket book, monthly reports and serving as acting J.P.

The greatest change in the office has been an increase in court costs, Mrs. Brown said. Court costs have increased from $6 to $13.50 during the nine year period.

Prior to her employment with Crockett County, Mrs. Brown was with the Ozona Chamber of Commerce for 1 1/2 years. She also worked at the school cafeteria for a number of years.

Maxine and R. L. Brown moved to Ozona in 1971 when the DPS office opened here. Mr. Brown retired from the DPS in August of 1984 and is also retired from the state and from the Air Force after 22 years.

The Browns have two married daughters and five grandchildren.

Tom and Joyce Hambleton of Washington, PA have two sons, Merle and Tim, and a daughter, Regina.

Teresa and Ken Krisa live in Midland.

Other grandchildren are Larry Brown and Freddy Brown of Austin.

Now that she will have more free time, the Browns hope to travel. She also has plans to "catch up at home". The two attend First Baptist Church. They enjoy getting together with friends at 42 Club and Canasta Club.

Co-workers honored her with a party Monday.
