THE OZONA STOCKMAN

and the Crockett County News

"Out In The West, Where The Air Is Pure, The Climate Agreeable, And The People Friendly ---- The Best Place On Earth To Call Home."

Volume 76 Number 21 Wednesday, July 13, 1988 Ozona, Crockett County, Texas 76943 USPS 4168-2000 30¢ per copy

"Figures don't give true picture," doctor says

Earnings reported in The Ozona Stockman for Doctors Owensby and Sims during the first three months of their contracts with Crockett County don't give the real picture according to Dr. Robert Owensby. The doctor appeared at Commissioners Court Monday with a copy of his contract agreement and written explanation of the way earnings are credited.

The month by month report prepared at the hospital for commissioners has consistently shown both physicians as earning less than their contracts guarantee for professional component fees.

Critics of the figures are reminded of the $129,000 spent on out-of-town doctors during budget year 1987 to maintain 24-hour coverage. This expenditure is no longer necessary as Owensby and Sims cover for each other.

Owensby's contract provides that he take 50 percent of the calls (weekends and calls during the week other than 9-5) and all money during the calls goes to the hospital including patients admitted when on call. Any revenue from care center patients while on call after 5 p.m. or on weekends goes to the hospital. Coverage of Saturday morning clinics while on call with revenue going to the hospital.

In his written statement, Owensby listed earnings for the hospital of $13,072.57 in June and $13,306.85 in May. Documentation sheets were also provided.

The amounts include earnings generated for the hospital during his private practice hours as well as contract time.

"I am only given credit for charges I make at emergency room and Saturday A.M. clinic. The administrator records show me not making the $5,000.00 guarantee each month. This makes me look like the bad guy and worse yet, when 'projected' this year and next year. My agreement is different from Dr. Sims.

"He runs the clinic for the hospital during the week. I don't.

"Of course, the most meaningful records would show the actual cash collected and not the charges which are shown in the records, but this is not available."

Owensby told the court, "I'm doing the work, not under budget, making more than I'm being paid."

Bill Boswell followed Dr. Owensby with a recap of the current figures which again show a deficit in physician earnings. When asked for a copy for The Stockman, Boswell replied, "I got so much flack because you put it in the paper, I'm not going to give you one."

With a pat on the shoulder for Owensby, Boswell explained that monies earned by the doctor for the hospital through lab work during his private practice hours have not been included in the totals because it is not new money generated through the contract situation, but funds which Owensby has been earning for the hospital all along. "I didn't mean to make you look bad," Boswell said.

"I don't have to keep furnishing this sheet if you don't want it, but I'm going to continue keeping it for myself," Boswell told the court.

The four-month cumulative total presented by Boswell Monday shows Sims' earnings $5,944 under guarantee and Owensby's $13,950 under for a total of $19,894. Even multiplied by three, the total deficit is less than half the expense of replacement doctors last year.

According to Boswell's report, Sims has earned a total of $40,081 for the hospital in four months and Owensby $34,869, totaling $74,950.

Commissioners approved the application of Tetra L. Ulmer of Grandbury for the position of County Extension Agent-Home Economist. Mrs. Ulmer was introduced by district director Mona Jameson as holding a B.S. degree in home economics from Tarleton and a M.A. degree from North Texas. The new agent will begin work Aug. 1.

Judge Kathryn Mayfield announced that County Auditor Dick Kirby has submitted a letter of resignation effective Sept. 1. Kirby has served in that position for 33 years.

Kirby reviewed the 1988 budget expenditures for six months and told the court the county is in good shape, overall. Budget planning for 1989 does not have to include a tax increase, Kirby said. At the same time, he warned that no increase will use up any surplus on hand for unexpected expenditures, laying the groundwork for a potentially large

Oscar Kost receives 50 year Masonic pin

Masons and their families from Sonora, Eldorado, Big Lake and Sprayberry lodges gathered with Ozonia Masons July 11 for an installation of officers of the District 55 lodges. Installing officer was Graham H. Childress of Sanderson, Worshipful Master of the Grand Lodge of Texas.

The Ozonia native presented a 50 year pin and certificate to Oscar Kost of the Ozonia lodge. Childress expressed special pleasure in conferring the award. He commented that Kost had given him leather scraps from his boot and saddle shop as the young Graham passed that way going home from school as a child.

Kost's record was read by lodge secretary Woody Phillips. Kost entered apprentice, fellowcraft and master's degrees in 1938 and was made master of the Ozonia lodge in 1942.

Presented with Kost at the ceremony were his wife, Luetta, son-in-law and daughter, Dick and Shirley Kirby, and their daughter and son-in-law, Karen and Vince Huffman. Installed as Worshipful Master of Ozonia Lodge 747 was Mike Ledoux. Ledoux replaces Mike Sadler. Other Worshipful Masters installed were: Pete Anderson, Sonora; Gene Jones, Eldorado; Kenneth M. Soles, Big Lake; and H. Ketchum, Sprayberry. All other officers of the lodges were also duly installed.

Assisting with the ceremony were L. P. Bloodworth, master of ceremonies, and Bailey Rogers, installing marshal.

Many were recognized for contributions to Masonry, but few introductions gave the audience more pleasure than when the popular Childress introduced his wife, Marjorie; mother, Mrs. Hugh Childress of Ozonia; and aunts, Mrs. Miller Robison of Baird, Mrs. Mary Hagelstein of Fort Stockton and Mrs. Catherine Coates of Ozonia.

Ted White of the Ozonia lodge was recognized for being the Mason with the most years of service, 57.

Rodeo weekend coming soon

The first weekend in August will be "super charged" with activities as Ozonia kicks off its big rodeo weekend.

Things will begin to move on Friday, Aug. 5, as all local businesses and citizens are encouraged to set the stage for the weekend by dressing western. When 5 p.m. rolls around, the rodeo parade will make its way through downtown Ozonia.

The barbecue plates will begin being served after the parade at 6 p.m., and "those Lions Club boys do know how to cook." Tickets will be just $3.50. The 32nd annual running of the Ozonia Lions Club Youth Rodeo will start at 6:30 on that Friday.

There will be some rodeoing on Saturday morning, Aug. 6, for slack to get all youth rodeo contestants qualified. The "Rodeo Country Arts Fair" will open in the fairgrounds barn at 10 a.m. and run until 4 p.m. The Arts and Crafts Guild sponsored booths will have all kinds of great items to see and buy. The Lions will serve another great barbecue plate on Saturday beginning at 6 p.m. The Youth Rodeo will start its Saturday night performance at 6:30 p.m. A good West Texas band will entertain dancers on the covered slab by the arena from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. Saturday night.

Sunday, Aug. 7, at noon, the Jay Miller Memorial Calf Roping and the Dan Bean Memorial Team Roping will be held. A saddle will be given away to the top money winner in team roping and a belt buckle to the calf roping winner. The "Rodeo

High water claims lives of four Californians

by Michael Glaze

Heavy rains and flash flooding claimed the lives of four Californians and injured another Sunday night when their vehicle was swept off Texas 349 3.3 miles south of Sheffield. The vehicle, a 1979 Mercury station wagon pulling a small utility trailer, was traveling south at 9:30 p.m. when it entered Perkins Draw which was running eight to ten feet deep in water.

The heavy runoff carried the station wagon one quarter mile and washed two of the victims a mile down the draw.

Injured was 46-year-old Ciprano Rodriguez of San Jose, CA.

The lone survivor of the accident, Rodriguez was washed from the vehicle and clung to a tree all night until he was able to escape and walk to the highway. He was picked up at 6:30 a.m. Monday and reported the accident.

Suffering from shock and exposure, Rodriguez was treated and released at the scene.

Killed were the man's wife, Maria Rodriguez, 55; their son-in-law, Pedro Ruiz, 30; and two grandchildren, seven-year-old Pedro Ruiz, Jr. and twelve-year-old Jovanna Rodriguez.

According to the accident report, the Texas Highway Department had been notified of the high water, and crews were en route to place warning signs along the draw at the time the accident was reported.

Inquest into the deaths was conducted by Judge Elsie Mirike of Sheffield, and the bodies were taken to James Dennis Funeral Home in McCamey.

The accident was investigated by DPS troopers Jess Malone and Troy Hogue.

This stationwagon was carrying five California residents who were swept away in flood waters 3.3 miles south of Sheffield Sunday night. One of the passengers, Ciprano Rodriguez, survived the ordeal.

Rain!!

by T. C. Tucker

Sudden weekend rains caused floods, damaged roads, took four lives in neighboring Pecos County and gave Crockett County its wettest month of the year, making ranchers happy.

Reports from throughout the county ranged from two to more than seven inches when the drenching downpour ceased Monday.

The north and western parts of the county claimed the heaviest rains. Amos Owens reported four to five inches and Bean's Pike's Peak Ranch more than six. The Shannon West Ranch received 7.5 inches.

Water District figures for the weekend came to 2.28 inches. Adding the .60 on July 2 and .20 July 8 makes this the month of highest precipitation for Ozonia this year, almost as much as the previous six months' combined. June had been the former month topper with 2.45 inches, all but a tenth of that coming in one day's time.

As for this month, the recent rains came down so quickly that draws filled and spilled, Howard, Liveoak, Johnson, Gurley and Savell Draws were all reported running and crossings impassable.

The flash flooding took its toll on some roads, including Pike's Peak, 09, Powell Field, Farmer's Field and Harris. It also claimed the lives of four Californians south of Sheffield at Perkins Draw when their vehicle was swept away in water eight to 10 feet above the road.

In Ozonia, some streets were flooded and Gurley Draw crawled out of its banks and neared the Catholic Church.

Area rainfall amounts include: Water District 2.88, County Barn 2 7/8; Eddie Hale 3.5; Sam Perner 4 to 5; Buddy Moore 4; Nat Read 2.5; Bob Bissett 3.5; Bill Baggett 2.75; Mike and Jackie Womack .75 to 2; B. B. Ingham, 4 plus; Amos Owens 4 to 5; Roger Dudley 4 plus; Bean's Pike's Peak Ranch 6 plus; Shannon Ranch northwest headquarters 3.2; Deer Canyon on Shannon West Ranch 7.5.

"Country Arts Fair" will open again on Sunday from 2 p.m. until 4 p.m.

This rodeo weekend is shaping up to be "the big event" for Ozonia this year. It is a weekend being made possible by the hard work of several organizations. The Ozonia Lions Club, Chamber of Commerce, Arts and Crafts Guild, the Extension office, the memorial events organizers, and many other individuals, groups, and businesses are working to make this weekend a success. Posters have been delivered for display at about two hundred area locations, and many fliers and entry blanks have also been delivered.

"We need everyone's help to pull this big event off as this is a huge undertaking for Ozonia. It's a good opportunity for us to show what a fine community we are," said promotions chairman Stephen Williams.

Ozonia 4-H'ers earned first and second place awards in the District 4-H fashion contest last week in

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN - When Vice President George Bush promised a Dallas LULAC convention he would appoint a Hispanic to his cabinet, Capitol Democrats immediately ripped him publicly for catering to one of their traditional voting blocs.

Obviously, Bush is trying to make inroads with Hispanic voters, while Democrats are determined to keep their territory intact.

It's a rare sight to see a Republican campaigning in Texas with innovation. Liberal Democrats who regard Hispanics as "ours" may be in for a surprise.

Bush's son married a Mexican national, and his grandchildren are bicultural. And as he pointed out, no Hispanic has ever served in the cabinet, and it's about time.

Certainly, Mike Dukakis is intelligent enough to correct that inequity should he win the election, so Hispanics stand to get a seat in the cabinet no matter who prevails.

Appointments Blocked
After Gov. Bill Clements' appointees to the board of regents fired Southwest Texas State University president Bob Hardesty last month, Austin state Sen. Gonzalo Barrientos warned of retaliation to future Clements appointees.

Barrientos, a friend of Hardesty, seems to be keeping his word. Last week he rattled his power of senatorial courtesy by blocking the appointment of Moak Rollins, a former commissioner, to the Public Utility Commission.

When Clements, acting on tradition, sent Rollins' name to his hometown senator for approval, Barrientos asked to see alternatives and didn't explain.

Rollins served on the board from late 1979 until March 31, 1983. Appointed during Clements' first term, he resigned after Mark White was elected governor.

An opening was created on the three-member commission last May 31 when chairman Dennis Thomas resigned. The remaining two members have reached an impasse on several issues.

Marketing Scams Eyed
State Rep. Billy Clemons announced plans last week to sponsor legislation to tighten up regulations on lake lot sales and condominium time-share programs.

The Pollok Democrat said he wants to halt giveaway programs that advertise free three-man bass boats and instead award consumers an inflatable raft.

At a Capitol press conference, Clemons showed stacks of direct mail offers that promised customers expensive prizes and instead awarded cheap merchandise. "They go out and tell you that you are going to win a BMW and $10,000 in cash," he said.

Clemons showed reporters examples of prizes consumers have received after listening to sales pitches. An "executive refrigerator" was a small plastic cooler; a combination washer-dryer was a plastic container with a spinner inside.

Public School Funding
The state's appeal of a ruling that the public school funding system is unconstitutional continues, but Atty. Gen. Jim Mattox, who will run for governor in 1990, is not arguing the state's case.

Instead, Kevin O'Hanlon, an assistant AG, is defending the constitution in the lawsuit filed by poor school districts seeking more state funding.

In a legal brief, O'Hanlon asserted that framers of the Texas Constitution knowingly created a system that allows school districts to spend unequal amounts of money educating children.

"It is apparent the framers of the constitution intended to create a system of school finance which allowed unequal property tax wealth between school districts," O'Hanlon wrote.

Investigation Ends
The Travis County district attorney's office has ended its investigation into possible misapplication of state funds by state Rep. Charles Staniswalis, D-Amarillo. "We will not be filing any criminal charges or seeking prosecution of Mr. Staniswalis, said Rosemary Lehmburg, director of the Public Integrity Unit.

The inquiry began when a former House staff member alleged that she was given pay raises by Staniswalis with the agreement that some of the extra pay would be returned to the lawmaker. He has repeatedly maintained his innocence.

In explaining why the case was never presented to a grand jury, Lehmburg said, "We examined bank records, campaign reports and many other documents, and we interviewed everyone we could find who might know anything about it."

Other Highlights
• Helen Farabee, who withdrew from a North Texas state senate race after Democratic county chairmen backed another candidate, is hospitalized in Austin with lung cancer and phlebitis.

She is the wife of former state Sen. Ray Farabee, now vice chancellor and legal counsel for the University of Texas System.

• The Legislative Budget Board ordered a review of a plan to buy a mostly vacant luxury office building for use by the attorney general and Supreme Court.

The Austin building near the Capitol complex is owned by one of former Gov. White's closest advisors, Robert Baldwin III.

Garden Club studies Bonsai

The Myrtle Post Garden Club held its July meeting on Monday evening of the 11th at the Civic Center.

Hostesses for the event were Miss Leta Powell and Mrs. Scottie Houston. Mrs. Houston did the design for the meeting using gladioli foliage, ivy and bois d'arc apples she had sliced and dried, creating an interesting effect with shapes and patterns.

Mrs. Bill Mason led the group in the study of Bonsai, explaining the five basic forms now used and giving a very interesting background of the ancient art form. She had several on display she is growing and explained the intricate procedure of pruning both the root system and foliage to maintain its shape and miniature size. Soil mixtures and potting procedure as well as general care were included in the lecture.

The president, Mrs. John Hignight, opened the business meeting and asked for special reports.

Mrs. Jim Dudley reported on the progress of the Myrtle Post Rose Garden at the care center and the report on the maintenance of Emerald House grounds was given by Mrs. Grace Williams.

Mrs. Hignight encouraged the group to solicit new members for the club.

A letter of appreciation was read for the contribution to the chamber of commerce for the sign being erected outside Ozona to help promote tourists' interest in the area.

A fun time was had during the White Elephant Blind Auction. Bids were made on articles concealed in bags, and the highest bidder showed off her "prize" when it was purchased.

Other members present were Mrs. Alan Smith, Mrs. Jack Brewer, Mrs. Marion Stroud and Mrs. Marge Smith.

Card of Thanks

The family of Jerrel Standridge wishes to thank everyone who so lovingly stayed in touch while Jerrel was in the hospital in Ft. Worth and Decatur, Texas. Thanks for all the calls, cards, encouragement, and flowers as well as the neighbors who took care of our yard. To James Kilgore who never failed to keep the grass and flowers watered, thanks James. Thanks for the help since I have been home, for the food, and the comfort of knowing someone really cares.

A special thanks to Freddie Nicks, Bill Ivy, and Bill Wagoner for driving that long distance to honor Jerrel as being a pallbearer. Thank you, Lisa, Billy, and Melda, also—your show of love overwhelms me. Ozona certainly has some good people. Thanks to all the utility companies for the continuation of service. We shall always be grateful to you all.

For God to bless each of you would be Jerrel's wish.

My hat is off to any funeral home who is so loving as to take time and effort to travel to another city far away.

So a special thanks to a special place. Thanks Wagner Funeral Home. Mildred and family

The bridal gown was of white taffeta, lace and iridescent pearls and featured short puffed sleeves, low front and back neckline and a long, flowing train trimmed with bows, lace and pearls. The bridegroom was attired in a traditional full-dress white tuxedo.

The bride's attendants wore jade satin, formal designer gowns with short, puffed sleeves, scalloped necklines and short, flowing trains. Groomsmen were attired in silver, full-dress tuxedos with jade bowties and cummerbunds.

Organist Gwen Merka of San Angelo accompanied Judy Sayes of Little Rock, Arkansas, singing "Always", "Just You and I", and "The Wedding Prayer".

RECEPTION

The reception dinner was held in the Knights of Columbus Hall in San Angelo. The hall was decorated with mini-white lights twinkling from the ceiling, and a flowing fountain of champagne punch. The bride's table featured a large, white cake with two satellites, cherubs, cascading ribbons, jade roses and traditional bride and bridegroom figurines on top. A white trellis centered with a large "W" and "Coralie" and "Doyle" on either side, all outlined with hundreds of jade carnations, served as a backdrop for the bride's table and was further enhanced with large bows of ribbon and flowers.

The cherry chip bridegroom's cake formed a large football field complete with football balanced on top. A John Deere tractor with cotton bales and wheat stalks served as a centerpiece for his table.

A dinner of ham, beans, potato salad and cole slaw was served to approximately 750 guests. Those attending from Ozona were Mr. and Mrs. James Dockery, Bud Meinecke, Mrs. Kitty Montgomery and Mrs. Frank McMullan Jr.

Coralie graduated in 1984 from Wall High School and is a travel consultant and assistant manager of Odyssey Travel in San Angelo.

Doyle graduated from Wall High School in 1984 and is attending Angelo State University. He is a free agent with the NFL Green Bay Packers and will leave for training camp later this month.

After a wedding trip to Oahu and Kauai, Hawaii, the couple will live in San Angelo.

COURTESIES

A luncheon honoring the bride was held at F.L.'s Bar and Grille in San Angelo preceding the wedding. Hosting the event were Mrs. James Dockery, Stacy and Shannon, Mrs. Marshall Montgomery, Mrs. Bill Meinecke and Mrs. Robert Lanzini of Houston, Mrs. Logan Counts of Castle Rock, Colorado and Mrs. Bob Mapes of Walsenburg, Colorado.

REHEARSAL DINNER

An outdoor hamburger supper honoring the wedding party followed the rehearsal Thursday night, was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Melton. They were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Olen Weishuhn. The tables were centered with arrangements of cactus, candles and bandana ribbon. The trellis backdrop for the serving table featured a corn husk bride and bridegroom, rope and bandana ribbon. One hundred guests enjoyed the festivities.

Read labels carefully for saturated fat content in oil

Reducing your intake of saturated fat can help lower blood cholesterol levels and reading labels carefully can help you regulate your levels of saturated fats, says Dr. Alice Hunt of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Even if a label states, "Made with 100 percent pure vegetable oil," the oil may not be low in saturated fatty acids, she warns.

"Although all vegetable products are cholesterol free," says Hunt, a nutrition specialist, "the fact is palm palm kernel and coconut oils are highly saturated. They contain more saturated fatty acids than soybean, cottonseed, safflower and corn oils. They actually contain twice the saturated fat of animal fats."

Dr. Al Wagner, an Extension food technologist, says palm kernel and cottonseed oils contain between 51 and 87 percent saturated fatty acids. Soybean oil has 14 percent, cottonseed has 23 percent, corn oil has 13 percent and sunflower is the lowest with 10-11 percent.

"It is easy to confuse fats and oils," says Wagner. "One must remember that all oils are 100 percent fat."

Fats that contain mostly saturated fatty acids are solid at room temperature and fats that contain mostly unsaturated fatty acids are liquid.

"The exceptions are coconut, palm and palm kernel oils which are mostly saturated and liquid at room temperature," Hunt says.

Hunt reports palm, palm kernel and coconut oils are frequently used in processed foods.

★ Sheriff's Report

ARRESTS

07/06/88...A 21 year old Ft. Worth man was arrested by sheriff's deputies on warrants out of Tarrant County charging "theft of cable service". He was released to Fort Worth officers on 07/07/88.

INCIDENTS

07/06/88...An Ozona family reported their 16 year old daughter as a run-away. The child has been entered in the National computer as a run-away and officers are continuing to investigate the incident.

07/09/88...A citizen on Perez street reported someone entering his residence at about 3:00 a.m. The suspect apparently fled when he discovered that the residence was occupied.

07/09/88...A similar incident occurred on Perez street at about 3:45 a.m. at a nearby residence. A suspect attempted to take a window screen off, but was scared away when occupants yelled at him. Deputies are investigating the two incidents.

07/10/88...A family on Live Oak Street reported their 14 year old daughter as a run-away. The child was later located at a relative's house.

4-H Congress studies legislation

4-H members attending the 1988 Texas 4-H Congress in Austin July 19-22 will get a firsthand look at the legislative process and will actually develop bills to present to the Governor.

This year's Congress is aimed at helping our youths get a better understanding of how legislation is developed and how it moves through the Senate and the House of Representatives, said Billy Reagor, county 4-H program coordinator with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

More than 500 4-H members between the ages of 15 and 19 are expected to attend the Congress, which will be at the Capitol Marriott.

Attending the four-day event from Crockett County will be Margaret Jones, John Williams, Cody Sutton, Tamie Reagor and Tammy Arrott. The annual Congress is designed to be a leadership and citizenship development experience for older 4-H members, said Reagor.

In addition to developing legislation, the youths also will learn about the lobbying process. Along with a complete tour of the capitol, they will also spend some time at the LBJ Library.

Tara Wilkins wins in Brenham

Tara Wilkins was in Brenham last week to compete in the Texas Junior Brahman Association State Show. There were more than 300 entries shown by 156 exhibitors.

Tara placed her bull, "Baby", first in the September to December 1987 class and her heifer 10th in the April 1 to April 30, 87 class.

She was accompanied on the trip by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Wilkins.

Timber marketing techniques

In order to market quality timber, it must be dried, a wood technologist with the Texas Forest Products Lab said in Junction

Ken Rogers of Lufkin, said, "If you don't dry it correctly, you're wasting your time cutting it."

Rogers was one of the speakers at a 2-day Conference on Timber and Nut Production from Native Pecans, organized by Dale Brandenberger, Kimble County Extension Agent, in cooperation with the Texas Forest Service.

cultural Extension Service; Dr. Loy Shreve of Uvalde, Extension horticulturist; James Leo Greer, Jr. and Horace Brown, pecan producers from Rocksprings; and John Boyette, wood technologist with the Texas Forest Products Lab., Texas Forest Service.

Rogers told the group that drying wood reduces weight and thereby lowers shipping and handling costs.

Yandells to appear at Calvary Baptist

The Yandells, a Christian music group, will be appearing one night only, July 20, at Calvary Baptist Church. There will be no admission charge for the 7:30 p.m. service.

The home church for the six young people is Cameron First Baptist Church, Cameron, Oklahoma.

Their music ranges from the oldest of gospel music to the Southern Gospel sound of today to the field of contemporary and inspirational Christian music.

Museum to sponsor field school

An archaeological field school sponsored by Crockett County Museum will be held July 29 and 30 for anyone between the ages of 8 and 18.

On Friday, participants will attend a two hour classroom discussion on the Trans-Pecos Indians with various artifacts shown from this region. The session will be at Emerald House from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

A field trip to a Crockett County Ranch for a surface collection and documentation of an Indian campsite will depart from the museum at 8 a.m. Saturday. Return is scheduled for 4 p.m.

Anyone interested in participating may obtain an information sheet and parental consent form at the museum between 2 and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Consent forms should be signed and returned to the museum no later than Thursday, July 28.

There is a $5.00 fee for the class which will be limited to the first 20 persons to return their signed consent forms.

For additional information, contact Rick Bachman after 5 p.m. at 392-2973.

Lucho Fierro was the driver of a 1979 Mercury Stationwagon involved in a July 7th accident in Ozona. Fierro was traveling north on Hwy.

163 when he lost control of his car. It crossed the center stripe into the southbound traffic lane and went off the shoulder before striking a pickup. The impact forced the pickup through a chain link fence and into a street lamp pole. Fierro and a passenger were treated at Crockett County Hospital.

Travel outlook brightens

Caliche work on the Barnhart Highway has been completed, says Winston Koerth, local Highway Department head. Ozonans traveling north won't have to fight the caliche since completion of that phase of the work on Saturday. A second course of asphalt will be put down on the road.

The improvement project began last August. Koerth said.

County youth to compete at state

Shane Cooper, 4-H member from Crockett County will be competing at the 1988 State 4-H Horse Show in Abilene July 25-30, said Billy Reagor, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Cooper will compete in judged calf roping and break-a-way roping.

The state show, to be held in Taylor County Exposition Center, annually attracts Texas' top youth horsemen who compete in a wide range of events. The show this year will be the 26th annual one to be staged, said Reagor.

The weeklong program will start with the open show Monday through Wednesday and will be followed by a qualifying show Thursday through Saturday.

Some 850 youths and their horses are expected to participate in the summer youth activity.

Dr. Sims appointed medical director for EMS

The Crockett County Hospital Board met July 7 in the hospital conference room with members Betty Perry, Joe Galvan, Don Long and Jean Read present. Others attending were: Dr. Robert Owensby, Dr. Marcus Sims, Bill Boswell, Jacquie King, Peggy McWilliams, Elvira Caldwell, Zoe Green, Doug Meador, Dub O'Bryant, Kathryn Mayfield and Tim Thorpe.

Minutes from the June meeting were read and approved as corrected. Tim Thorpe gave a presentation on the virtues of his laundry service. Boswell reported that the hospital district legislation is still stalled in Washington, D.C.

Boswell reviewed areas in which we need to comply before we can proceed with the conversion of the four hospital rooms to care center rooms. We will try to get the 36" window height requirement waived since ours are 42" set in brick. He will write for written confirmation or denial of acceptance of our kitchen range hood.

After hearing reports from EMS personnel, the director of nursing and both doctors on the threat of Hepatitis B, the board voted to offer to pay one-half of the approximately $120 cost of administering vaccine to high exposure personnel in the EMS and the hospital staff.

Boswell reported that he has surveyed area ambulance services to see how they determine replacement needs. He found that many replaced engines or transmissions several times before replacing with new equipment. He also found there is a viable market in used ambulances.

Estimates received from A. E. Morris and Gene Lilly for enclosing the ambulance garage were reviewed, and it was decided to advertise formally for bids to submit to the commissioner's court.

Equipment lease proposals for an on-premise laundry were reviewed and deemed unfeasible due to lack of a favorable service policy. It was decided to put the item of our own laundry in next year's budget if we decide to have one.

Boswell reported Dr. Jackson will not bill us for the old X-rays. It was decided that in the future only major things and cases referred by the attending physician will be sent on to the radiologist.

June bills were reviewed and it was moved that they be approved for payment.

Dr. Sims was appointed medical director for the EMS.

It was decided to offer a flu-shot clinic this fall at a cost of $4.50 per person.

Boswell was asked to get information on specifications for pagers for the doctors. Revenues for June showed $22,232.01 with deposits of $35,021.49 and disbursements of $66,576.55 for the hospital.

Care Center revenues were reported at $43,542.23 with deposits of $46,125.90 and disbursements of $61,604.88.

There were 78 emergency room visits and 209 clinic visits.

Inpatients admitted were three. There were four observation patients for a total of 68 inpatient days. Year to date figures include 18 inpatients, 26 observation patients for a total of 333 inpatient days.

The meeting was adjourned. Jean Read Secretary Pro-Tem

Crockett County Care Center News

by JoAnne Marshall

Janet Wilson helped residents celebrate Independence Day by playing patriotic music on the piano Monday morning. Residents joined her in a sing-a-long.

A gorgeous watermelon basket filled with tantalizing fruit was the highlight of a special picnic lunch. Although the threat of rain altered the plans for a backyard picnic, residents appreciated the extra work that went into the preparation of a delicious meal and would like to say thank you to the kitchen staff for a job well done.

Monday afternoon, residents continued the celebration with cake and juice. The cakes were decorated to resemble the first American flag and the modern American flag.

Tuesday morning's bingo winners were: Theo Burns, Minnie Karr, Srida Senne, Emma Taylor, Moriana Perez, Tomasa Ramos, and Consuelo Sarabia. Emma won the special prize of an El Chato's gift certificate. Sophie Kyle, Georgia Kirby and Mattie Cooper were the helpful volunteers. Thank you, ladies.

A few of the residents tested their skill at ring toss Tuesday afternoon. Rings were made by Consuelo Sarabia, Nellie Harp, Tomasa Ramos and Lucia Rios.

A performance by the Bob Bell Band ended Tuesday's activities on a pleasant note. Band members present were: Jamie Knox, Jim and Janet Wilson, Tina Skyes, Bill Dane, George Hester and Bob Bell. In-between the foot tapping and the hand clapping, residents found time to pet an adorable two-month-old baby opossum that Janet just hap-pend to bring by. We enjoyed Janet's surprise and would like to thank the band members for a heart warming performance.

Wednesday morning's ceramic workshop was led by volunteers Mattie Cooper, Ruth Hester and Ruthie Doris. We would like to thank these ladies for making things move along smoothly. Residents attending were: Theo Burns, Hazel McDaniel, Moriana Perez, Ethel Youngblood, Lucia Rios, Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos and Consuelo Sarabia.

Residents gathered on the front porch for a little sunshine Wednesday afternoon. Ernest Tubb cassettes were played and the local newspaper was read and discussed.

Thursday morning's beauty shop volunteers were: Vivian Hughes, Lola Rios, Joann Williamson and Audrey Smith. Your weekly visits are really looked forward to with anticipation, and after seeing the lovely hair styles I can see why. Thank you.

Muriel Gillet entertained residents with lively piano music Thursday afternoon, and they just loved it. We hope she will play for us again real soon.

Alicia Perez and Herbert Guiterrez played the guitar during the Spanish Hour of Praise Thursday afternoon. Mass was conducted by Rev. Bill Du Buisson.

Friday morning's bingo volunteers were Yolanda Avila and Mattie Cooper. Popcorn was served. Prize winners included Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Elvira Pena, Minnie Karr, Santos Martinez and Bertha Miller.

Sunday's worship service was presented by Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church.

Supplemental food program aids needy women and children

The Special Supplemental Food Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC) is designed to improve the health of financially eligible pregnant, breast-feeding and postpartum women, infants and preschool children at nutritional risk. WIC services will be offered in Crockett County for the first time beginning Aug. 1, 1988. The Texas WIC income guidelines are 185% of poverty. All women, infants and preschool children are encouraged to go by the Ozona Field Office at 908 First Street for an appointment.

All WIC applicants are screened for their height and weight, and all applicants over six months old are given a finger stick test for anemia. The Public Health Nurse will evaluate the results of the physical assessment and determine the applicant's nutritional eligibility. While attending a monthly nutrition education class to learn the relationship between health and good nutrition. WIC participants will receive vouchers redeemable at WIC approved community grocers. The vouchers are redeemable for milk, cheese, eggs, dried beans, fruit juice, iron-fortified cereal and iron-fortified infant formula.

At no time in life is nutritious and adequate food as critical as during pregnancy when the fetus is developing, and throughout the initial years of a child's life. Malnutrition at this stage can lead to mental and physical retardation or at least to a body more prone to illness and a mind less able to develop to its capacity.

The benefits of good prenatal nutrition, achieved through the WIC Program, have been documented in a study conducted by Harvard. The study found that every $1.00 spent to aid pregnant women avoided $3.00 in hospital costs that would have been spent for treatment of their babies. Since the program is delivered through health care agencies, WIC encourages early and frequent prenatal and child health care.

Clowns headline Calvary Bible school

Family Enrichment Week is the theme of vacation Bible school planned July 24-29 at Calvary Baptist Church. The sessions will be held from 7 until 9 p.m.

Clowns for Christ, Uncle Bob-O and Aunt Alice, will present illustrated Bible messages, songs and clowns' tricks. Appearing with them will be Princess, the super dog, and the monkey Skipper, the only gospel monkey known.

Children and parents are invited to attend together.

Representative candidate Currie here Friday

David Currie of Paint Rock, candidate for representative of the 67th District, was in Ozona Friday morning for a get-acquainted breakfast.

During his informal talk, Currie stressed that he wants the job and feels that he will be good at it.

Currie comes from a ranching background, having leased his first ranch when he was 15. He is a graduate of Howard Payne University and holds a Master of Divinity degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. He has spent two years in the ministry and expressed a need to feel that he is making a contribution to people.

For the past four years Currie has ranched and worked for the Texas Department of Agriculture. He stressed that he understands things get done by building bridges, not walls.

Currie is proud of the fact that he is "the only taxpaying candidate on the ticket".

The candidate said he has no intention of voting for a state income tax. He also believes that school systems should have the right to decide how much to spend on students.

Recognizing that it is a long time until the November election, Currie said "if I had a Jeffery Sutton in every town, I'd win this race in a landslide". Sutton hosted the campaign breakfast.

In addition to ranching and petroleum industry concerns, Currie mentioned the problems with Workman's Compensation in Texas and discussed the problem of overcrowding in Texas prisons.

"I've got to run on who I am," Currie said.

Simple Satisfaction

Following the healing of a crippled man at Lystra, the folk in the crowd believed that Paul and Barnabas were gods. They even wanted to offer sacrifices on behalf of the two evangelists. But, Paul and Barnabas would have none of it. Instead, they used the opportunity to call attention to the one true God. In Acts 14:17, we read about a living God, faithful over the years, giving rains and fruitful seasons, "satisfying your hearts with food and gladness." This is the God who provides a double satisfaction; the material satisfaction of food, and the spiritual satisfaction of gladness. Only God can provide this double satisfaction, and God can only provide it when we bring our wants into accord with our needs.

A certain brand of cigarettes (Chesterfield) had at its one and only slogan over the years: "They satisfy." It was printed on every package and in every advertisement. Since it is the nature of things addictive not to satisfy, it is doubtful that the product could ever deliver on its promise, but the manufacturers and advertisers were clever enough to know the strong appeal of the word satisfy. Every business wants to have satisfied customers. Many even say, "satisfaction guaranteed."

Satisfaction is an end, a result, the bottom line. You purchase a home and you expect that home to bring you satisfaction. You purchase an automobile, and you expect satisfaction. What you are really buying is not a house or a car or a boat or a wardrobe or anything else. What you are really trying to get is satisfaction. When we marry, we want a satisfactory marriage. When we pursue pleasure, we want to be sensually satisfied. When we go to school, we want to be satisfied with knowledge. When we eat, we want to be satisfied with food.

Our problem is that the things for which we strive often produce a short lived satisfaction. Many of our goals, when reached, leave us still wanting. Even when surrounded by material possessions galore and success beyond our fondest hopes, we are often left with the gnawing feeling that there is still something missing.

Norman Vincent Peale once described the island of Bali as one of the most beautiful and peaceful and untense places on this turbulent earth. But, Dr. Peale was more interested in the people than the place. They, too, seemed beautiful, peaceful, and untense. He set about to discover the reasons behind the evident tranquility on the island.

"The Balinese people seem happy and satisfied. I tried to find out why, and generally got five answers: (1) 'We have nothing,' (2) 'Our life is simple,' (3) 'We like each other,' (4) 'We have enough to eat,' (5) 'We live on a beautiful island.'" (from Norman Vincent Peale, You Can If You Think You Can, Prentice-Hall).

An ancient allegory has a gardener entering his garden one morning to find everything dying. He asked an oak that stood near the gate what the trouble was. The oak, he learned, was sick of life and determined to die because it was not tall and beautiful like the pine. The pine was disheartened because it could not bear grapes like the vine. The vine was dying because it could not stand erect and have as fine a fruit as the pomegranate. And so it went throughout the garden.

Coming to a daisy, the gardener found its bright face lifted up as full and cheerful as ever. The gardener said, "Well, daisy, I'm glad to find one brave little plant in the midst of all this devastation and dying. You don't seem one bit disheartened."

"No, sir," the daisy replied, "I know I am of small account; but I concluded you wanted a daisy when you planted me. If you had wanted an oak or a pine or a vine or a pomegranate in this spot, you would have set one out. So I am satisfied to be the best daisy that you ever set eyes on."

We will find our satisfaction, I believe, not in things or power or prestige, but in enjoying becoming the persons we have been created to be by the living and faithful God who gives rains and fruitful seasons, "satisfying your hearts with food and gladness."

Bryan Poco Taco, new name, same good food and service

Mr. and Mrs. Luis Martinez have retired from Dina's Poco Taco after 15 years in business. New owner, Tola Valdez, began operation of the restaurant July 1. Re-named Bryan Poco Taco, the business is managed by Blanca Martinez. The newly painted front is the beginning of remodeling for the store, Mrs. Valdez said. The establishment specializes in Mexican food, offering sit down service or drive-in window pick-up. Customers may order breakfast burritos from 7 a.m. until 11 a.m. Included are potato and egg, chorizo, and bean burritos and huevos ranchero. The lunch menu includes burritos, guacamole, chili and hot dogs, tacos, a variety of Mexican style gorditas and lots more. Hours for Bryan Poco Taco are 7 a.m. until 8 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday. Blanca and her staff welcome the opportunity to serve you from the kitchen at Bryan Poco Taco.

Marriage, divorce may stop S.S. benefits

Most Social Security benefits to dependents or survivors of retired, disabled, or deceased workers end if the person divorces or marries, Franklin H. Upp, Social Security manager in San Angelo, said recently. But, benefits to disabled widows and widowers 50-59, and to widows and widowers 60 or older, can continue upon remarriage.

This same rule applies to disabled surviving divorced spouses 50-59 and to surviving divorced spouses 60 or older, Upp said. Benefits to a child getting checks because he or she is under 18, or 19 if a student, or disabled will generally end if the child marries. checks to a spouse getting benefits on the record of a retired or disabled worker will end if the marriage ends in divorce unless the spouse is 62 or older and the marriage lasted 10 years or more.

Checks for a widowed mother or father getting benefits because she or he is caring for an entitled child will end if the parent remarries. There is an exception to these general rules, Upp said. If an otherwise eligible person receiving benefits as a widow, widower, or adult disabled in childhood marries a person also getting one of these benefits, she or he can continue to get benefits.

Benefits will also continue if a person receiving benefits as a widowed mother or father or adult disabled in childhood marries a person getting benefits as a retired or disabled worker. A retired or disabled worker's benefits are never affected if he or she marries or divorces.

More information about how divorce, marriage or remarriage affect Social Security benefits can be obtained at the San Angelo Social Security Office located at 2214 Sherwood Way. The telephone number is 949-4608.

Fish find nets $12,000

Ozona's James Montgomery won the West Texas Bass Classic July 9 at Lake Spence near Robert Lee with a black bass weighing 6.27 pounds. First place isn't everything, however. Along with the title came a $12,000 prize.

This was the second time for Montgomery to fish Lake Spence. The winning bass was caught off the dam riprap in about six feet of water, Montgomery said. His bait, a purple worm, also won Montgomery $450 three years ago in the High Sky Bass Club tournament at Lake Amistad.

Montgomery was one of 549 contestants in the tournament sponsored by the Pinkerton family of Snyder. The tournament has grown from a first year field of 174 contestants in 1986 to this year's 549.

First prize was originally guaranteed at $10,000, but was increased to $12,000 because of the large number of entrants. Other prizes were: $1,100 2nd, $600 3rd, $500 4th, $400 5th and $300 6th. Placings 10 through 15 received $100 and 16 through 20 took home their $50 entry fees.

Mrs. Ruth Gilliam, Artist of the Month at Crockett County Public Library, has an exhibit of paintings and quilts for viewing by the public. Her love of nature spills over into both these creative outlets.

Mrs. Gilliam artist of the month

July's Artist of the Month at Crockett County Public Library, Ruth Gilliam, plans to devote her time to painting - if she ever retires.

The smiling silver-haired lady shares a number of oils and charcoals with library visitors along with an exhibit of her quilts.

Windmills are the subject of many of the works shown. A charcoal drawing of the Pecos River High Bridge was made from a photograph taken in 1951 or '52. The bridge was destroyed in the flood of 1954.

A windmill scene hanging over the fireplace was done from a photo by Richard Flowers. This picture belongs to Bill Baggett, but one done by Mrs. Gilliam for herself has been exhibited elsewhere. The picture was shown at Texas Tech University and went on to be one of 12 chosen for exhibit at the University of Texas. The picture was never returned.

Ruth Gilliam's landscapes have the power to take the viewer into the mountains or a West Texas pasture.

Also on exhibit are a painting of poppies, which belongs to Carolyn

Harris, and a closeup of yellow mums.

Mrs. Gilliam's talent for art surfaced during her late husband's illness.

"I was sitting in the waiting room at a hospital, picked up a Sports Afield and began drawing the geese on the back."

An art teacher sharing the waiting room encouraged her to develop her talent. She has studied under Lee Parkinson of Utah, J. D. Keel of Seagraves, George Maxwell of San Angelo and Irma Wright of Andrews.

Most of the quilts made by Ruth Gilliam have been done since her husband's death. Her children and grandchildren have at least one; the quilts exhibited belong to daughter Janie Chandler and her family.

Hanging at the head of the stairs is an elaborate iris patterned quilt of Carri's. The Ohio Star done in blue tones and the Dresden Plate pattern in browns belong to Janie and Erby. Leigh's pink dogwood quilt is displayed, also.

The quilt tops are made by Ruth with quilting done by her niece, Linda Tatum of Fort Worth, and by Ruby Olson of Ozona. The Ohio Star was quilted by women of the Menard Country Store a number of years ago.

"I can quilt, but I don't have time," said the enthusiastic Cameras Two employee. A resident of Ozona for 44 years, Ruth has worked at Cameras Two for six years, was an aide at Ozona Primary School for two years, and worked with her husband at the Sinclair Station for 15 years. Two years of retirement convinced her she was meant to work.

Yard work, gardening and visiting those who are unable to get out much fill any spare hours she may have.

In addition to her daughter and family, Ruth has two sons, Jerry and Charlene live in Houston. Their daughter makes her home in Tulsa. John and Jean are in Andrews. Their son lives in Brownfield and a daughter is completing her degree work at Angelo State University.

Don't miss a chance to see Ruth Gilliam's work at Crockett County Public Library during July.

Lucy and Calvin Humphreys and son Stephen of Tip City, Ohio have been here for a visit with her parents, the Sam Perners, and other family members. A fishing trip to the Devil's River just before the rain resulted in a good catch.

Happy 13th birthday, Connie King, July 18th.

tax increase the following year. Tax Assessor Collector Tommy Stokes and Elaine Bell presented a plan from the accounting firm of Prichard and Abbott for computerizing their office. An additional employee will be necessary soon if the office does not go on computer, Stokes said. Currently, data entry for Crockett County is done by the firm. If the office became computerized, that work would be done in the tax office.

The equipment used would belong to Prichard and Abbott with the county buying the required software, Stokes explained.

Commissioner Jack Williams suggested that Stokes see if the cost of software could be spread over a two year period and if two terminals would be adequate rather than three.

Court members voted unanimously that county equipment and personnel will not be used to mow on private property. The vote was taken after Onecimo Ortiz, parks supervisor, said he is receiving complaints about overgrown vacant lots.

If areas are determined to be a fire hazard, owners may be notified of the need to clean up. Failure to comply is a misdemeanor.

During a report from Eddie Moore, road supervisor, the court discussed the need for a new engine for a pull truck and agreed to send the truck to be repaired.

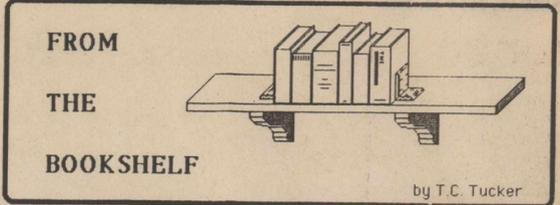

Librarian Louise Ledoux announced the resignation of her assistant, Ninfa Fierro. Once Mrs. Fierro leaves and until a replacement can be found and trained, the library will not be open during the noon hour or at night.

The Helping Hands report given by Commissioner Janet Hill showed that 386 meals were served in June. Commodities were given out to 163 families totaling 474 individuals.

Next distribution date is July 21 and will include 180 sacks each of powdered milk and flour.

In other business, the court: amended the May 20 minutes to reflect bids of approximately $14,000 for malpractice insurance and approximately $3,300 for premises liability

- placed doctors' contracts in the minutes
- voted against appointing a county health authority at this time
- learned that the care center received no unsatisfactory write-ups during a recent semi-annual inspection and that the dump was written up during its inspection because of blowing trash
- discussed a cover proposed by the Fair Association for the grandstands
- discussed and tabled a proposed resolution to join the Concho Valley Council of Governments.

Picture perfect

"For some time now I have noticed that something strange is occurring in our region."

So begins Walker Percy's The Thanatos Syndrome, a compelling, sometimes wacky, often far-out, but nonetheless, "picture postcard" of life.

For 372 pages, Percy holds a mirror to life better than any novelist has recently and creates good reading. The fact the book made the bestseller list is only icing on the cake.

Centered in the Louisiana town of Feliciana, the book's story is told by Dr. Tom More, a psychiatrist of average intentions (I won't bother you if you don't bother me) who has just returned home on parole after serving two years in prison for illegally dishing out pills without a prescription while under the influence. Due to this arrangement, More finds himself walking on thin ice while in the care of his parole officer and "friend" Dr. Bob Comeaux, who More notices, seems to be preoccupied with something. This is the least of the changes More observes.

Wondering if it is he who has changed, More is startled by the obtuse sexual actions of his women patients, increased logical computation exhibited by townfolk (they can tell the exact distance to a certain town or the result of 86x57 immediately after being asked), and his own wife's new, subdued behavior and her success in major bridge tournaments.

Though it quickly becomes obvious something is wrong, More takes his time in digging up clues and tends instead to fly paper airplanes at the birdhouse located outside his office. In this, Percy points out a true human facet: the lack of interest in something that might get oneself in a heap of trouble. Also, with More's lagging impatience, Percy is able to keep the book going at a steady pace rather than it taking off too quickly and turning into a regular action-packed stereotype.

After awhile, More can no longer deny the facts and, with the help of his not-so-kin cousin, he stumbles on the most odd bit of news: it seems the people of the doctor's lovely town are gaining their subdued intelligence through their drinking water, which has been spiked with sodium ions; of course without their knowledge.

Even when More learns the truth and who is involved, he holds back, this time mainly because the water tappers have their thumbs on him.

Besides the intoxicating water supply, More also has to deal with a local priest that's gone batty in the belfry (in a literal sense) and a gang of child molesters and pornographers.

Percy again exemplifies real life by adding the after-bits. Life may go on "happily ever after", but what is the process used to attain this happiness? Percy unveils the climax, which in a way is not really the climax, then continues for 70 more pages as resolutions of previously presented problems are worked out - not always for the better.

Throughout the book's length, Percy gives slices of life. Even the subtle, but serious, humor reflects life, which may not be a big party, but neither is it solid-serious.

NEW SUMMER HOURS
Crockett County Public Library is announcing new summer hours through July and August. The library will be open from 9 a.m. until noon and from 1 p.m. until 6 p.m. Monday through Friday. The library will close during the noon hour.
Library aide Mrs. Ninfa Fierro is going on to a new job with Ozona Public Schools, and Librarian Louise Ledoux will operate the library alone until a new aide can be hired.

THANK YOU AND GOOD LUCK
I want to take this opportunity to say THANK YOU to a wonderful worker and friend. Ninfa and I have worked long and hard together to get the public library open and running smoothly, and I know I could not have done it without her. Ninfa is one of those wonderful, friendly and helpful people that make it such a joy to work with and to know as a friend. The public schools are getting a great employee. I want to send my best good wishes with Ninfa to her new job. Don't forget us at the library!

Ozonans return from South Africa

The Mohair Council team consisting of Perry Bushong, president; Mark McLaughlin, vice-president; Jeffrey Sutton, secretary; and Brian May, executive director, has returned from the International Mohair Association Annual Conference in South Africa.

While at the conference, the MCA team was able to attend meetings in which reports were given on hand and machine knitting, ladies and menswear, velours, and grower production. It was found that the ladies and menswear groups were having a very good year, while machine and hand knitting are still depressed. Worldwide production of mohair in 1988 will remain about the same as last year at 56.4 million pounds. The U.S. production was quoted at 15.5 million pounds. The outlook for fall mohair is not as bright, Sutton said. There is not as much demand and the price is down whereas the wool is almost all gone. There will be more mohair in spring fashions.

During the conference, participants toured a mohair warehouse and wool warehouse in Port Elizabeth where the South African marketing procedure was explained. Visitors were able to attend one of the mohair sales.

Four to five days were spent driving to goat and sheep farms between Port Elizabeth and Cape-town. This area is where the majority of these animals are raised. Much of the ranching area looked a lot like the country between Sheffield and Fort Stockton, and some of the Marfa area, said Sutton who was accompanied by his wife, Carmen, and son, Cody.

Although it was winter in South Africa, temperatures reached highs of 70 with 25 degree lows. Barrel cactus, tall ant hills, thorn-covered trees, monkeys running free and guineas were some of the sights of the countryside.

Sutton returned to America with the belief that the South African political situation is not as dangerous as reported. "The colored situation presented to us (through the news) is not really as it is," Sutton said. "The communists seem to be backing colored unrest." Sutton learned that there are three political parties among the blacks, the communist party and two communist affiliated parties.

Sutton did see a large gathering of workers as they began a "walk-away" at a Volkswagen plant. Riot police were surrounding the crowd.

South Africans are making a big effort to educate, clothe, house and feed the people, Sutton said. Houses are being built around factories to aid workers in addition to other public housing.

"Ranchers have cheap labor, but are obligated to feed, clothe and educate" the workers' families, Sutton said.

The Crockett County school board president learned that 75% of the population has a sixth grade education.

Sanctions against South Africa by the United States and other countries cause a greater expenditure to obtain such things as arms, oil and gas and autos, Sutton was told. Funds used for these added costs would be better spent on programs to help the people, South Africans believe.

"At one meeting, the Minister of Finance went into detail about how we had hurt them."

The sanctions also create difficulty in flying to South Africa. Americans attending the conference first flew to Frankfurt, Germany where they were able to board a South African airline, adding ten hours to the trip.

During their first few days in South Africa, the Americans looked for copies of USA Today to get news of home. They soon learned that South African newspapers are censored. The papers had very little news or weather, mostly stories about movie stars, Sutton said. "The news about a U.S. boxer killing a South African was all over the paper."

It is illegal to own or bring satellite TV into the country, Sutton said.

The IMA also voted to restructure at this conference. This change will make the IMA more effective by funding of promotion through one main channel. This promotion money will be overseen by a promotion committee. In addition, the executive committee of the IMA was reduced to four growers and four processors which will be called a board of directors. The two growers representing the U.S. will be Mark McLaughlin and Bob Childress, who is the current IMA chairman.

Other Texans in South Africa for the conference were: Bob Childress of Ozona, Dr. Gil Engahl from Angelo State University, mohair growers Pat Jackson of Christoval, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Lockhart and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lockhart of Barksdale.

Bob Bullock scheduled to address Sheep & Goat Raisers

State Comptroller Bob Bullock is expected to perk up plenty of ears when he addresses the 73rd annual convention of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Assn. Friday morning, July 15.

Bullock will speak before TS&GRA's Tax and Labor Committee, which meets at 9 a.m. at the San Angelo Convention Center. He will discuss his plan for dealing with the school funding dilemma posed by State District Judge Harley Clarke's decision in Edgewood vs Kirby. Clarke pronounced the state's entire school financing system unconstitutional because it allows some wealthier districts to spend more on education than do other districts.

Some state officials have predicted that Clarke's ruling could force consolidation of the state's many independent school districts into a few "super-districts" under even more centralized bureaucratic control than that imposed in recent years. Bullock has promised that his plan would avoid that, preserving the remaining level of local control. Primarily rural residents, livestock producers, have traditionally shown a strong interest in local control of education, recognizing the central role that schools play in the social and economic life of small communities.

Joining Bullock on the Tax & Labor Committee agenda will be Bob Leonard, director of Texans for Equity in Workers' Compensation. Judge Clarke is responsible for agriculture producers' heightened interest in this issue as well, having also overturned agriculture's long-standing exemption from workers' comp coverage.

Allen Ray Moody, executive director of Texas Ranchers Labor Assn., will round out the committee schedule with an update on TRLA's effort to obtain a workable H2A labor program for sheep and goat producers.

TS&GRA's Marketing & promotion Committee, meeting at 4:30 p.m. Thursday, July 14, will hear from a number of speakers including Angus McColl of Yocom-McColl Testing Laboratories, Denver. Yocom-McColl is the only lab whose objective wool and mohair measurements are currently accepted by both buyers and sellers.

Another committee speaker will be Rick Wetheimer, market specialist for the American Sheep Producers Council. Wertherimer is expected to put recent wool and lamb market moves into perspective.

Texas Agricultural Extension Service specialist Georgia Lockridge will discuss the recent Lamb and Wool Country Tour in San Angelo, and Mohair Council of America executive director Brian May will report on current MCA activities.

A recent addition to the agenda for the Natural Resources Committee meeting at 3:00 p.m. Thursday will be Arthur Nagel, Boerne, president of the Riverside and Landowners Protection Coalition. Nagel will discuss the rapidly growing young organization's formation and intentions. It currently boasts members from river systems throughout the state, united in opposition to a proposed Texas "wild and scenic rivers" plan pushed heavily by environmentalist groups.

TS&GRA's Woman's Auxiliary will be hosting a coffee and western art show from 1-5 p.m. Thursday and 9:30 to 2:30 Friday at the association office. Featured artists are Duward Campbell, Lubbock; Terry Gilbreth, Clyde; Allen Kinney, Kerrville; Travis Keese, Kerrville; George Kovach, Arlington; Garnet Buster, New Braunfels; and Herman Walker, Jr., Eldorado.

Mark Childress and Mason Wilkins read on the steps of Crockett County Public Library during story hour.

All about folks you know

Louise and Mike Ledoux have just returned from a two-week vacation. They traveled to Nashville, TN and enjoyed Opry land Park where they saw the Grand Ole Opry and Nashville Now.

Traveling on through the Smokey Mountains, the Ledoux made their way to New Orleans, LA where they attended the Imperial Shrine Convention. Shriners from all across American converged at New Orleans for a week of fun Louisiana style. The Ledoux stayed with family and enjoyed the food and atmosphere of the French Quarter. They were pleased to meet many SUEZ Shriners from the San Angelo Temple and especially Worshipful Sir Graham H. Childress, Grand Master of Masons in Texas, who was attending the convention.

Louise and Mike are glad to be back home after a great trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Freeman have sold their home on Owens Street to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wallace and will be moving to Mertzson by August first.

The Freemans will be moving into the house that Mrs. Freeman's grandfather, the late Dr. E. O. Deal, built 50 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Noah and daughter Amanda have returned from Lone Elm, Kansas, where they attended a reunion of her family, the Wools.

Judy Boykin of San Antonio visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Brown, on July Fourth.

Newcomers to Ozona, Fran and Don Smith, like Ozona so well they are working on getting Fran's grandmother, Iris Slotto of Akron, Akron, Colorado, to move here, too. The Smiths have begun a subscription to The Stockman for Mrs. Slotto.

Carnes celebrate Golden Anniversary with sparkle

Fifty years to the day of their marriage, Mutt and Mena Carnes celebrated at a reception given by their children July 2 at Hoover Hall. Joining their parents in the receiving line were Ron, Don Nell and Marjorie.

Welcoming guests were Ann Shaw, Janet Wilson and George Hester. The entry was decorated with arrangements of pink carnations while gold balloons and green plants with gold streamers gave the party room a festive air.

Music for the afternoon was provided by Christina Carnes, and Laurie Moyer registered guests.

An exquisite anniversary cake was served by Betty Moak and Ann Shaw. The four-tiered confection was decorated with spun sugar gold leaves and ivory roses, fresh roses and carnations. The golden wedding punch was served from a crystal bowl. Also on this table was a heart-shaped dish filled with gold butter mints.

Centering the bride's table was an arrangement of purple leatrice, rubrum, yellow daisies, Queen Anne's Lace, carnations and roses.

The bridegroom's four layer chocolate fudge cake had the names Mutt and Mena in the center. Trimming the cake were chocolate butter cream roses surrounded by chocolate mints in the shape of miniature western boots.

Serving were Elaine Bell and Thelma Hyde.

Guests were invited to partake from a bountiful food table by Ismie Moran, Margaret Coates and Gace Dorsey. The selection included fruit juice, bacon and egg salad in cream cheese shells, finger sandwiches, turkey and ham salad, melon balls, cherry cheese tarts, ribbon jello, fresh fruit, vegetable tray with ranch dressing dip, shrimp mold with crackers and an assortment of homemade cookies.

Tables for guests were decorated with pink and white silk arrangements, gold streamers and gold balloons.

The menu for the 7 p.m. dinner included: brisket, barbecued ham, salads, homemade ice cream and cake.

Members of the house party were: Elaine Bell, Margaret Coates, Ismie Moran, Betty Moak, Ann Shaw, Janet Wilson, Thelma Hyde, Grace Dorsey and Ruth Hester.

Attending from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Norman Carlton, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Johnson, Hamlin; Mr. and Mrs. Dennie Cypert, Keri & Chris Cypert, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pierson, Donnie Sisk, Odessa; Mrs. Matthew Mayer, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Carnes, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Christopher and daughter Melissa, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. A. W.

Carnes, El Paso; Heath Carnes, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Freese, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Carnes, Andrews; Mr. and Mrs. Ron Carnes, Christina, Brooke, Rivka and Caleb Carnes, Easton, Penn.; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Riggs and daughter Sarah, Los Angeles, Calif.; Indy Wylie, Baird; Mr. and Mrs. Millard Pierce, Electra; Cliff Townsend, Merrietta, Georgia; Mr. and Mrs. Steve Townsend and daughters Sara, Rachel and Rebeka; Mr. and Mrs. Allen J. Hinton, Eldorado; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Woodall, Troup; Mrs. John Folsom, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Townsend, Bryan Townsend, Orange; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fox, Allan Townsend and Lori Hinkson, Houston.

secretary of the association, presented the check to Della Moore, secretary/treasurer of Ozona Chamber of Commerce.

TARRAGON CHOPS DENIAUDE

- 1 or 2 shallots, minced
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1½ tablespoons chopped tarragon
- Butter
- ½ cup vermouth
- ½ cup white wine
- ½ cup lamb or other meat broth
- Salt, pepper
- 12 to 18 baby lamb chops
- 1 teaspoon chopped thyme

Saute shallots, half of garlic and 1 tablespoon tarragon in 2 tablespoons butter until shallots are translucent. Add vermouth and wine and reduce by half. Add lamb broth and reduce by half. Add 1 tablespoon butter and simmer until butter melts. Pour into blender container and blend until smooth. Add salt and pepper to taste. Set aside.

Sprinkle lamb chops with remaining garlic, thyme and remaining half tablespoon tarragon. Saute chops in 2 tablespoons butter until browned on both sides and done as desired.

Pour sauce on platter and arrange lamb chops over. Allow 2 or 3 chops per person. Makes 6 servings.

Office supplies, rubber stamps, business cards and all types of printed forms are available at THE STOCKMAN.

Wiring in a breaker box was the culprit Monday morning when firemen were called to Brown Furniture Company at approximately 9 a.m. A side street near the two-story business on Ave. E was quickly blocked off to aid in gaining access to the building.

D.C.P., INC., Defendant, No. 467 in said court, the undersigned did on June 23, 1988, 10:50 o'clock a.m., levy upon the following real estate consisting of an oil and gas lease situated in Crockett County, Texas, as the property of said D.C.P., INC.:

Assignment of Oil and Gas Lease between Westar Royalty, Inc., as assignors, and D.C.P., Inc., 243 Central Park Mall, San Antonio, Texas 78316, as assignee, dated September 29, 1987, recorded in Volume 0426, Page 583, Oil and Gas Lease Records of Crockett County, Texas, covering:

South Half of the Southwest Quarter to Northeast Quarter [S/2 of SW/4 to NE/4] of Section 2, block FF, Abstract 4500, A. C. Hoover, Original Grantee, down to a depth of 2,500 feet below the surface.

You are further notified that on August 2, 1988, being the first Tuesday of said month, between the hours of 10:00 o'clock a.m. and 4:00 o'clock p.m. on said day, at the courthouse door of said county, all the right, title, and interest of said C.C.P., INC. in and to the above-described property will be offered for sale and sold at public auction, for cash selling all of the property as an entirety or in such parcels as the Sheriff acting may elect.

Witness my hand this 8th day of July, 1988.

BILLY MILLS, Sheriff
Crockett County, Texas

By: Jim Wilson, Deputy

A penny saved earns interest!

Benjamin Franklin has represented wisdom and practicality to Americans for years. More than 200 years ago, he knew the value of saving money.

We at Ozona National Bank do too. We realize it's important these days to anticipate and prepare for future needs. And we help you. At the Hometown Bank on the Square your money earns high interest and is insured by FDIC.

We have a wide variety of savings plans and services which you may not know about. IRA's, CD's, Money Market, Now & Now Plus accounts, come in and find out which is right for you. You worked hard for your money, now put it to work for you. It's never too soon. After all, as Ben used to say, "A penny saved..."

Get your money ready to earn interest with us.
