Coyotes fall prey to ranchers

The recent shooting of two adult coyotes on the Mike Clayton Ranch still leaves two half-grown predators on the loose according to Dwight Childress.

Since marking, Childress has lost 100 lambs, Brock Jones has lost 40, and 25 yearlings ewes belonging to David Bean have fallen victim to the adult pair.

John Dorsett of the Animal Damage Control out of San Angelo flew a helicopter for the ranchers pursuing the coyotes. "We flew 15 hours before having any luck," said Childress. Catching marauding coyotes is a lengthy process. "You have to start at 4 a.m. every morning and keep after it until you get him," Childress said.

The coyotes invading this part of the county are moving down from northern ranches which raise only cattle. "Those things are real selective," Childress said. The coyotes like certain pastures better than others and return to the same area.

"They're coming through Pleas (Childress) and killing on me and Brock."

The hunters could hear the four coyotes calling from the hills about one-fourth of a mile apart. Guillermo Rios, a ranch hand for Pleas Childress, and his dog, Pecos, have a feel for the coyotes. "Pecos can tell when those coyotes are out there, and Rios reads him like a book," Childress said. The dog chased a coyote out of the brush within 10 feet of Rios.

Local ranchers paid for the flying time when the helicopter came to Crockett County. Although there is no official trapping club here, some ranchers are associate members of the Schleicher County group.

About six or seven years ago 12 coyotes were killed on the Joe Clayton Ranch. That stopped it for awhile, but the coyotes are starting to move back in and "getting worse all the time," said Childress.

A successful kill of two coyotes was made northeast of Ozona a quarter mile from the Mike Clayton ranch house. Displaying their trophies are [l. to r.] Guillermo Rios, Martin Childress, Brock Jones, Dwight Childress and Todd Jones.

GTE upgrades service

GTE has four projects costing about $280,000 currently underway in and around Ozona to upgrade telephone service in Crockett County.

Most of the work is anticipated to be completed by the end of the year, according to company spokesman Hayne Hamilton of San Angelo.

Work near the local GTE office and along Avenue F is designed to replace old lead cables and to provide a growth margin.

"Mainly we're replacing old lead-sheathed cable with new," said Bob Harris, Ozona communication technician. "The wires that hold the lead cable up sometimes cut into it or squirrels may chew a hole in it. Then when it rains water gets into it and your phones go out."

Ninety-four thousand dollars is being spent on the downtown project. In conjunction another $10 thousand is being spent extending cables along Jones and 14th Streets.

"We're rehabing (rehabilitating) the whole town," communication technician Gene Fowler said.

Two jobs are underway involving the Circle Bar Truck Corral complex.

The primary reason for the Circle Bar work is to replace an older type transmission facility using analog carriers with a new digital carrier. A new carrier site is to be built near the Circle Bar also. These projects will cost about $35 thousand dollars, according to Hamilton.

"We're running new cable to the Circle Bar and down Taylor Box Road," Fowler said. "We're building a brand new little house for equipment at the Circle Bar."

The Taylor Box Road project will replace the present analog carrier with a modern carrier to the Henderson carrier.

The Taylor Box Road project may spill over into 1989, according to Hamilton. It will cost $141 thousand dollars.

Although not yet approved, the removal of additional lead cable is planned for 1989. Sixty thousand dollars would be spent on that project.

"We're going to replace some of the lines on the west side of town eventually," Fowler said. "They're (GTE) spending a lot of money."

Lions lose close game

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

Although their defense had an outstanding game, the Lions had trouble moving the ball offensively in last Friday's game against Reagan County and never were able to put any points on the board, losing by only ten.

"Our guys displayed great effort," Coach Don Payne said. "The defense had a great game."

The Owls ended the night with 251 yards total offense, all coming from their rushing game, but they continually found themselves restrained throughout the game.

While the Lions never stepped into Owl territory until late in the first half, Reagan County edged near a touchdown area several times; however, Ozona's defense rallied each time to keep them at bay.

Until the second quarter's waning minutes that is. Starting a possession on their own 33, the Owls spent seven minutes traveling to Ozona's six yard line where they attempted a field goal that missed. A penalty, though, took priority over the play, forcing Reagan County back five yards but giving them another field goal opportunity.

This time they didn't miss and took a 3-0 lead into halftime.

An interception early in the third quarter put the Lions on the Owl's 37. Ozona moved as close as the nine before a ten-yard loss set up fourth down and a field goal try which failed.

With 3:45 remaining in the third quarter, Reagan County began the drive that would put them up for good.

The Lion defense seemed about to stifle another drive when fourth down-and-two arose, but a 23-yard scramble not only guaranteed the Owls a first down, it also led to a touchdown two plays later. With the successful extra point, Reagan County held a 10-0 lead.

Ozona's offense still had difficulty moving the ball as backs found little running room and quarterback Chris Denman had little time to find a receiver much less pass the ball.

"Offensively, we had trouble blocking. Reagan County has a lot of quickness on the line," Coach Payne said. "Once they took away our passing game, 50 percent of our offense was crippled."

A recovered fumble gave the Lions their biggest offensive break of the night, placing them on the Owl 31 with 6:37 remaining in the game.

Two runs by Harvey Dominguez pushed Ozona to the 19, but a quarterback sack three plays later pulled them back nine. The fourth-down pass fell uncaught and ended Lion hopes of scoring.

The loss gave the Lions a 1-2-1 district record; still, their overall record rests at 4-4-1. A win against Wall this Friday would clinch a winning season for Ozona.

"Wall's a pretty good team with young, good athletes," Payne said. "They're capable of good football, depending on their emotions, which is typical of a young team."

"We'll have to play another great defensive game and be able to move the ball offensively."

Election Day

Tuesday, Nov. 8, will be election day across Texas. Local voters have turned out in good numbers during the absentee portion with 308 voting by personal appearance and 163 by mail as of Tuesday afternoon.

Absentee voting will end at 5 p.m. Friday, Nov. 4.

The polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. on Nov. 8.

Pct. 1 polling place is the courthouse. Voters in Pct. 2 will cast their ballots at the junior high, and at the Civic Center for Pct. 3. The primary school is the location for Pct. 4. Box 36 will vote at the WTU Power Station.

County ranches top calf sale

Crockett County ranchmen took a large slice of the limelight with four pens of calves taking the top honors for Angus calves at Monday's Special Feeder Calf Sale at Producers Livestock Auction.

The champion pen of Angus steers were consigned from the 4-D Ranch, owned by Joe Bean and sons, David and Douglas. The 14-head lot averaged 620 pounds and sold for $84 per cwt.

The reserve champion steers were sold by the Bean Ranch also. These steers averaged 609 pounds and brought $85 per cwt.

Both the champion Angus heifers and reserve champion Angus heifers were from the Bean Ranch. The 19 head of champions weighed 528 pounds and sold at $80.50. The 14 reserve champions averaged 470 pounds and brought $77.50.

The visit of this Halloween spook was a surprise to the Stockman staff. We couldn't guess her identity at first. Can you? Look on the classified page for her name.

Court upholds convictions

Appeals for two Crockett County criminals cases were returned last week with both rulings affirming the judgment of the lower court. The appeals were heard by the 8th District Court of Appeals in El Paso.

James L. Strange was convicted in December 1987 of aggravated sexual abuse by the 112th District Court in Ozona. Strange's case involved sexual abuse of an 11-year-old girl who was his step-daughter at the time.

Strange is currently serving a maximum sentence of 99-years at the state prison in Huntsville.

"If he had won his appeal he would have wanted the whole works," said 112th District Attorney J. W. Johnson, referring to the possibility of a re-trial. "It would be a $30,000 to $40,000 trial."

A conviction for third-degree felony theft for Bill Lyttlon Black was upheld. Black with two other men entered Baker's Jewelers in May 1985. While Black and one of the other men distracted the clerk, the third man removed a tray of diamond rings from a showcase and left the store. All three men were apprehended and arrested.

Food show contestants demonstrate abilities

A crowd of relatives and friends looked on as 4-H Food Show participants were recognized for their achievements in the foods and nutrition project at the county level.

Twelve of the contestant's advance to District competition on Saturday, Dec. 3 in Ft. Stockton, including four Seniors (ages 14 and older), four Junior II contestants (ages 12 and 13), and four Junior I contestants (ages 8 through 11).

Placings in the contest were as follows: Senior Breads and Cereals, John Williams, first place; Julie Childress, second place (Childress will advance to district because Williams will be attending National 4-H Congress in Chicago at that time.). Senior Fruits and Vegetables, Myra Wilson, first place; Tammy Arrott, second place; and Erika Kenison, third. Senior Main Dishes, Jennifer Davidson, first place; Candace Williams, second place. Senior Nutritious Snacks and Desserts, Tamie Reager, first place; and Margaret Jones, second.

Junior II Breads and Cereals, Katharine Durham, first place; Justin Southern second place; and Elliott Barrera, third place. Receiving participation awards were Mike Kenison and Hollie Williams, Junior II Fruits and Vegetables, Lisa Herring, first place; Jennifer Jones, second. Junior II Main Dishes, Leesa Haire, first place; Adrienne Dickerson, second place; Martha Mayfield and Stefny Sutton, third place tie;

In his appeal Black asserted that he had not known his companion was going to take such valuable merchandise in such a blatant manner.

In affirming the conviction, the Appellate Court ruled that "the fact-finder may look to the conduct of the subjects before, during and subsequent to the offense."

The court noted that Black's suggestion that they not enter the store until it was less crowded, and also, his false story concerning the presence of a third party in the store "was clearly sufficient to demonstrate Appellant's (Black's) culpable participation" in a scheme to commit theft at the jewelry store.

Black is serving a 10-year sentence in the state penitentiary and was fined $5,000 for his part in the theft.

"A re-trial for Black would probably cost $25,000," Johnson said. "Both men received maximum sentences and a maximum fine in the case of Black. We are asking for and getting maximum sentences in our (112th District) court. All our appeals have been upheld too."

Nancy Arrott, Matthew Marshall and C'Jay McKinney received participation awards. Junior II Snacks and Desserts, Whitney Vannoy, first place.

Junior I Breads and Cereals, Courtney Phillips, first place; Dana Berry, second place; Angela Glasscock, third place. Jennifer Wheeler, Camellia Williams and Shelia Yates Received participation awards. Junior I Fruits and Vegetables, Melissa Childress, first place; Tara Wilkins, second; Dana Bishop, third; Tres Bailey received a participation award. Junior I Main Dishes, Haley Holden, first place; Loretta Stewart, second; Maria Quiroz, third; Sunny Jon Bailey, Bobbie Jo Cuevas, and T. J. Young received participation awards. Junior I Nutritious Snacks and Desserts, Jo Lynn Vannoy, first place; and Lauren Wilkins, second place.

Awards were presented by Senior 4-H members Myra Wilson, Erika

Massie grant to benefit museum's 'trunk show'

The Crockett County Museum has received a $5,000 Massie Memorial Foundation grant to be used for a "trunk show" of county history, according to museum director Genece Childress.

The "trunk show" will include a video production depicting the development of Crockett County and the surrounding area from prehistoric times to modern times. Oral histories and the operation of a modern Crockett County ranch will be a part of the video.

The video will be used by local schools in teaching local history. To augment the video program, a handbook is planned for students in grade three and up.

"It will be exciting to work up a video show and publish a handbook on the history of Crockett County," Childress said.

The research, writing, and art work used in the production of the video and the handbook will be done by museum staff and other volunteers.

The grant funds will be used only for printing costs and for equipment. The estimated cost of the project is $5,989.

"This will be a work that will be a credit to the memory of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Massie," Mrs. Childress said. "We are profoundly grateful for this generous gift."

The Massie Foundation was established as a trust as provided by the wills of Robert and Mary Massie, pioneer ranchers in Crockett County. Since 1932, 3,068 Massie scholarships have been awarded to West Texas youth. Two residence halls at Angelo State University have been named for the Massies -- Massie Residence Hall for Men and Massie Residence Hall for Women.

Other beneficiaries include the Junior League of San Angelo, the Ozona Youth Center and Crockett County Library.

District Judge Brock Jones presents a check to Genece Childress, Crockett County Museum Director, on behalf of the Massie Foundation. The check is in the amount of $5,000. It will be used for a "trunk show" of county history to be used in local schools.

may follow.
A typographical error on the ballot might lead a voter to unknowingly void his own ballot by simultaneously voting for Bush for president and Bentsen for vice president.

Valley Voting Crucial
Ever since history turned up the story of how LBJ won his statewide election with mysterious votes from a Duval County graveyard, vote tallies from South Texas have always been suspect — whether rightly, wrongly or hypocritically — by at least a few polls in other parts of Texas.

Historically, South Texas has been a Democratic bastion, growing stronger with each election and placing more and more of their number into the political State Capitol establishment.

Some observers speculate, perhaps naively, that South Texas is now strong enough to divide into a two-party region.

However, if South Texas imitates other regions which went from Democrat to Republican, it will first develop a large block of independent voters, or ticket-splitters.

That could happen as early as this year, because Republicans are wooing Hispanics more ardently than ever before.

But the wooing could be undone somewhat if Hispanics react negatively to the Spanish-language radio ads which advise that citizenship papers will be checked for first-time voters.

Perhaps more than any other voting pattern that will reveal itself this year, the Democrats need for South Texas to remain solid and the Republicans need it to crack. What it does will very much decide who will win state offices in '90.

Possible Conspiracy?

Rains' office said the design may be a conspiracy to defraud certain absentee voters in Hidalgo County. He's ordered all paper ballots reprinted and asked the Texas Rangers, the FBI and the U.S. Attorney to check.

Sharp thinks that's baloney, that Republicans are trying to paint a vote-stealing conspiracy out of a simple typographical error. He defended the county clerk there as already taking steps to correct the misprint.

That's when Republican partisans pointed out the Hidalgo County clerk is also a state co-chairman for the Dukakis-Bentsen campaign.

And it goes on and on from there. Likely, the implication of conspiracy will never be proven, but it is useful in staining the credibility of one's opponent for victory purposes.

After all, if you'll recall when Bill Clements beat Mark White in '86, an election bug was found in a Clements' campaign office shortly before the election.

No suspect was ever named but the incident played against White, who was already behind at that point. Some Democrats later suggested it was planted for Watergate-style headlines.

Like much of what goes on behind the scenes every election, we'll never know the truth, and the incident will become a footnote in Texas political lore.

Other Highlights

• Political campaigns continued to use the broadcast media almost exclusively in their candidate advertising, virtually ignoring daily and weekly newspapers.

Chapman service

Joe B. Chapman of Del Rio died Saturday, Oct. 29, 1988 in Del Rio at the age of 64. Graveside services were held at Cedar Hill Cemetery in Ozona Tuesday, Nov. 1, 1988, at 2 p.m. Bobby Forehand officiated.

Services were under the direction of George Cox Funeral Home of Del Rio and Crockett Funeral Home of Ozona.

Chapman was born Feb. 25, 1925 in Bisbee, Arizona.

He is survived by a daughter, Candy Chapman of Del Rio; two sons, Craig Chapman of Germany, USAF, and Clay Chapman of Ozona; his mother, Estelle Chapman of Del Rio; mother-in-law, Mrs. Jessie Mae Henderson of Del Rio; and a brother, Frank Chapman of Del Rio.

Porras buried here

Paula Soto Sanchez Porras, age 77, of Ozona died at Crockett County Care Center Tuesday, Oct. 25, 1988. Graveside services were held Thursday at 11 a.m. in Cedar Hill Cemetery under direction of Preddy Funeral Home.

Mrs. Porras was born Jan. 2, 1911 in Del Rio. She was a Catholic and had lived most of her life in Ozona.
Survivors include one son, Rudolfo Sanchez of Ozona, and two brothers, Francisco Soto and Mauricio Soto, both of Del Rio.

Garden clubs send delegates to fall garden convention

Mrs. Lee Graves and Mrs. Marge Smith were delegates from both Myrtle Post and Ozona Garden Clubs when Texas Garden Clubs Inc. held its 60th anniversary fall convention in Odessa Oct. 25-27.

The Council of Odessa Garden Clubs hosted the event, using the theme "A Taste of West Texas", which was carried out throughout all luncheons and dinners with table designs made of native plant materials.

On Monday evening, the beginning dinner was in honor of all judges: student, life, master and emeritus, and all Texas Flower Show schools and symposium instructors.

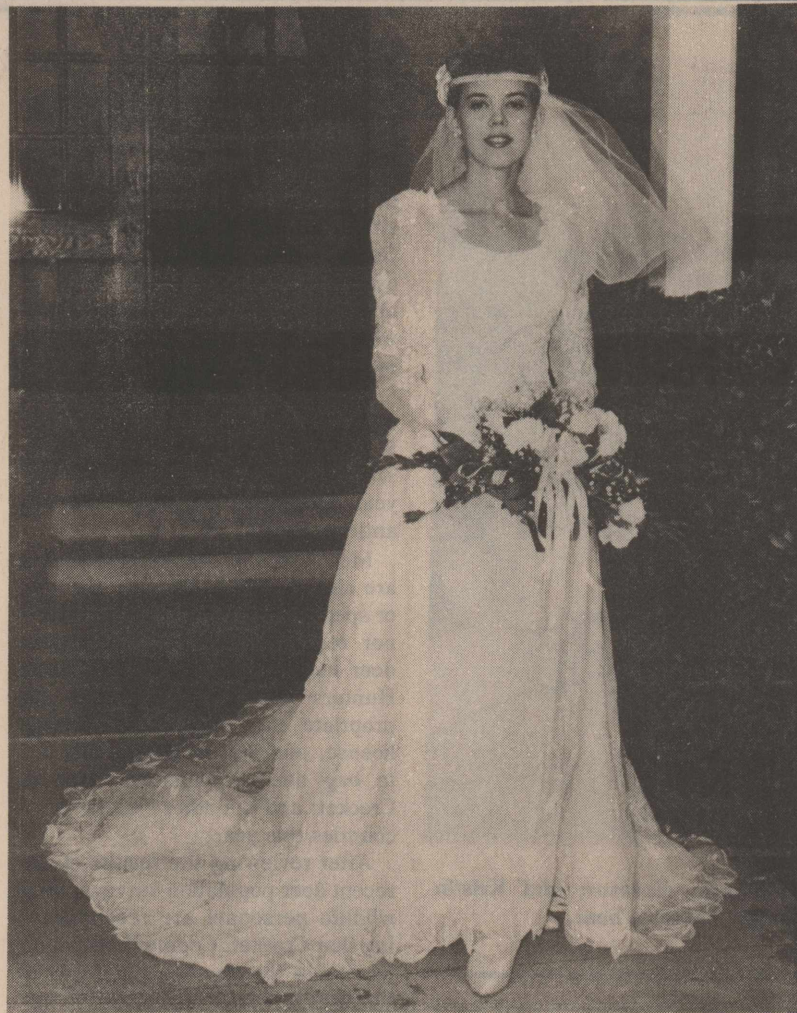

The program for this dinner was designs done in the parallel and sculptural forms. These are two of the new designs introduced in the new handbook for flower shows.

Other designs displayed during the meetings were: "Tables of Yesterday and Today" by Mrs. C. L. Spartman and "Spirit of West Texas" by Mrs. C. P. Lunson of Fort Stockton. There was also a slide program by Mrs. Zoe Kirkpatrick using her personal slides to present "Wildflowers of the Southwest".

Officers the nominating committee selected earlier this year were elected during the business meeting and will be installed at the spring convention in 1989, which will be held at South Padre Island. Mrs. Lee Graves is among this group and will be serving as recording secretary for Texas Garden Clubs for the next two years.

The goals of State Garden Clubs were reaffirmed: the preservation and protection of natural resources, combatting pollution and litter, beautifying roadways with wildflowers and protecting native plants.

Lilly, Wilson exchange vows

At a small family wedding, Jana K. Lilly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Lilly became bride of Airman David A. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wilson of Apple Valley, Minn. The ceremony took place Saturday, Oct. 29, 1988, at Ozona Methodist Church at 7 p.m. officiated by Rev. Ken Harrison.

Dona Lilly of San Angelo was maid of honor for her sister. Serving his brother as best man was Jonathan Wilson of Apple Valley.

Amanda Guerra of Ozona was flower girl and Ron Dorman of San Angelo served as usher.

The bride is a 1983 graduate of Ozona High School. David graduated from Parkway High School in Rockford, Ohio and is presently in the U. S. Air Force, stationed in San Angelo.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Out of town guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wilson, Tammy, Trisha and Jonathan.

Candlelighters were sisters of the bridegroom Trisha Wilson of Apple Valley and Tammy Wilson of Eagan, Minnesota.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown with cathedral train. Sheer long sleeves were puffed at the shoulder and decorated with lace motifs in a leaf pattern. The lace decorated the bodice, which had a rounded neckline, and swirled around the skirt and along the hemline. She carried a bouquet of white roses, carnations and baby's breath with white satin streamers.

The couple will make their home in San Angelo.

Eastern Star plans fair booth

Chapter 287 Order of Eastern Star met in regular session Tuesday evening with Worthy Matron Jean Conner and Worthy Patron Raleigh Conner presiding.

Plans were made to prepare meals for serving at the Arts and Crafts Fair on Saturday, Nov. 5.

Beginning at 10 a.m., sandwiches, barbecue on a bun, pickles, cookies and candy will be on sale at the Eastern Star booth. A delicious carrot cake will be given away as a door prize.

Members present for the OES meeting were Jean and Raleigh Conner, Mary Hillman, Polly Mayes, Chris and Mike Saddler, Mary Leigh Kerby and a visitor, Marie Gerlach.

A salad supper is planned to honor the Deputy Grand Matron of District 5, Section 2 for the ensuing year of 1988-89. Her name will be released later.

McSwain speaks on history

Meeting in the Emerald Room of Ozona National Bank at 6 p.m. on Tuesday evening, Oct. 25, the Crockett County Historical Society, the Museum Board of Directors and the Historical Commission met together to hear a most interesting program by Ross McSwain.

Mr. McSwain is a regional editor and columnist for the San Angelo Standard Times. His column, "Out Yonder", is widely read, and his latest book, "Out Yonder Revisited", was published early last spring.

"We are the last frontier in this country," Mr. McSwain said. "Less than 100 years ago Indians were still in this area."

With recent changes in the economy, small towns are looking for new ideas for development. Tourism is one possibility. History attracts people. People will travel to learn of local history and to visit museums. "Fredericksburg with its emphasis on local history is now one of the five most visited towns in Texas," he said.

A slide presentation of the restoration of the Beckman Farm and many of its daily activities, now a part of the LBJ Historic Park at Johnson City, was most interesting. Also included were pictures in Pontotoc, Fredonia, Doss and other nearby settlements. "We, too, are making history," Mr. McSwain said -- "rockets, space ships, television". But are we losing it also? How many remember the tinkling front door bells, the creaking windmill, milk coolers and flower beds outlined with upside down bottles?

Mr. McSwain was most complimentary of the local museum while noting the serious need for facilities in which to expand what has been started. Other possibilities for the Emerald House were also noted.

Mrs. P. L. Childress, museum chairman, expressed appreciation to Mr. McSwain for sharing his understanding and experience with the 38 members and guests who were present.

Refreshments were served by several members.

Deer Harvest recommendations

Wildlife personnel with the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department recently completed annual deer population surveys here in Crockett County. The resulting population estimate, 58 deer per 1,000 acres or about 103,000 deer county wide, represents a slight increase over last year's estimate.

This year in Crockett County the deer season opens on Saturday, Nov. 5, and runs through Sunday, Jan. 1. The bag limit is the same as last year, four deer, no more than two antlered bucks.

Most Crockett County landowners are already aware that doe permits or special doe tags will not be issued nor required to harvest antlerless deer here in the Edwards Plateau. Hunters will need only the appropriate tag from their hunting license, and landowner permission, to bag doe or antlerless deer in Crockett and the other "either-sex" counties this year.

After reviewing the results of the recent deer population surveys, local wildlife personnel are recommending that Crockett County landowners located in the western two-thirds of the county try for a harvest of one doe or antlerless deer for every 150 acres and one buck for every 500 acres. Those landowners in the remaining one-third of the county should try for a harvest of one doe for every 50 acres and one buck for every 200 acres. The recommended rates result from the need to better balance the sex ratio observed in the herd and from a desire to produce a healthier deer population that is properly matched to the existing supply of deer foods in the county.

These general harvest rates are based on county averages and may not be completely suitable for each individual ranch in the county. Landowners interested in closely managing their local deer herd need to conduct their own on-site fall population surveys, with resulting harvest recommendations that meet their specific management objectives.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Scotty and Linda,
I just consulted my "Better Late Than Never" list and found that I'd never said "Thank You" for the lovely article you wrote for Amanda's citizenship ceremony in May. Thought you would like to know that our "little Hometown paper" is read by some of the rest of the world! Ha!

We received a nice letter from state representative candidate David Currie who said his uncle retired last year as director of State Missions of Texas Baptists.

Yours truly,

A Proven Conservative for State Representative District 67

SAN ANGELO STANDARD TIMES ENDORSES CURRIE

The 35-year-old Paint Rock native—an active rancher, a businessman and an ordained minister—is campaigning tirelessly and can boast a broad bipartisan base of support in his race to succeed the retiring Gerald Gelstweidt, R-Mason.

As the Democratic nominee, Currie faces Republican Harvey Hilderbran 28, of Uvalde, a former aide to Panhandle Congressman Beau Boulter, who is now seeking Lloyd Bentsen's U.S. Senate seat.

Currie has the better credentials, based on maturity and experience. In addition to his hands-on involvement in ranching in Concho County, where his family settled many years ago, he is a partner in a real estate firm.

As a former marketing specialist for the state Department of Agriculture, Currie helped develop markets for agricultural products and served as liaison to the Texas Sheep & Goat Raisers' Association, all beneficial to a candidate who hopes to represent 13 counties.

Currie is self-described as a "conservative West Texas Democrat" who understands the people of those counties and should be an effective representative for them in Austin.

He merits their votes.

DEAR CROCKETT COUNTY VOTER:

It has been an honor to campaign for State Representative in Crockett County. I have met so many wonderful people, in addition to the many friends I already had in Crockett County. It has been a privilege I'll always remember.

I ran for State Representative for two reasons: One, I thought I'd be very good at it. I enjoy problem-solving and working with people—that's what the legislative process is. Two, I thought I'd enjoy it. It's important to me to stand up for principles, values, and beliefs, and it's important to me to be in a position of service. Serving in the legislature fulfills those needs.

Now I have a third reason that I hope you'll vote for me next Tuesday, November 8th. That reason is you - the wonderful people I've met in Crockett County. I care deeply about people, their hopes and dreams, joys and struggles. I want to serve you, be a part of your community, help you protect your property rights, water rights, and gun ownership rights, improve your economy, strengthen your school systems, and help you to care for your children and senior citizens. I want to win, so I can continue to be a part of your lives.

I believe I offer the best combination of experience, maturity, and ability to effectively represent you in Austin. I'd be honored by your vote.

Rifle match finishes 4-H shooting

The fall 4-H shooting activity ended Saturday with the 1988 county rifle match held at the 4-H Barn. Students in grades three through high school worked through the program with the top four in each group eligible to compete in the finals.

Goals of the program are teaching safety and marksmanship, said Rod Chalmers, shooting coordinator for the program along with Dorris Haire. The marksmanship training reaps added benefits of concentration and mental self-discipline, Chalmers explained.

"Each youngster is a winner to get to come to the meet," he said. Rifles for the program are furnished by the 4-H Club. Ammunition and targets are provided to the club by the National Rifle Association Director of Civilian Marksmanship. "All these kids furnish is their ability," said Chalmers.

Championship trophies went to Shane Cooper for the high school division, Justin Southern in junior high and Lynn Haire as intermediate champion.

Competitors and their placings were:
 3rd Grade - 1 Wesley Bean, 2 Rusty Bishop, 3 Justin Brown, 4 Melissa Childress
 4th Grade - 1 Michael Nix, 2 Toby Sadler, 3 Tres Bailey, 4 Jason Hignight
 5th Grade - 1 Lynn Haire, 2 David Brown, 3 Tara Wilkins, 4 Dana Berry
 6th Grade - 1 Anthony Sanchez, 2 Justin Moran, 3 Elliott Barrera, 4 Travis Davidson

First place winners in the 4-H shooting match Saturday are: front row Gary Thompson, Justin Southern, Anthony Sanchez, Shane Cooper; second row, Wesley Bean, Michael Nix and Lynn Haire. Dorris Haire and Rod Chalmers are co-ordinators for the shooting program.

Let's take a look at proposals

[Editor's note: The following information was gleaned from Texas Legislative Council Information Report No. 88-1, ANALYSES OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS]

All too often we citizens who vote arrive at the polls only to find that we are not as informed about the issues as we thought we were.

A few minutes looking over the proposed amendments prior to election day would do much to alleviate those moments of anxiety at the polling place when we try to make intelligent choices with only the abbreviated forms of the proposals on the ballots to guide us.

Texas voters will be faced November 8 with decisions on only three constitutional amendments. Let's take a brief look at the background and pros and cons of each of those.

AMENDMENT NO. 1 relates to the dedication of certain funds for highway purposes.

This amendment would add Section 7-b to Article VIII of the Texas Constitution. Section 7-a was adopted by the voters in 1946 and dedicates proceeds from motor vehicle registration fees and taxes on motor fuels and lubricants for acquiring rights-of-way and constructing, maintaining, and policing public roadways.

This and other fees has meant the consistent availability of state money for the state highway system.

The federal program of aid for public highways requires states to pay almost all planning, land acquisition, and construction costs on highway projects. The state may then be reimbursed for a major portion of its expenses (generally 90 percent of all costs of an interstate highway).

These reimbursements have traditionally been used to replenish the state highway fund.

FOR:
 1. The status quo will be retained and the quality of transportation projects and services Texans expect can be maintained.

2. Projected state population growth may cause greater need for new highway facilities and maintenance of existing ones.

3. If federal reimbursements for highways were not dedicated to this purpose, the money might be completely spent each year which would cripple long-range budgeting.

AGAINST:
 There is no reason to believe that the legislature will abandon the state's history of commitment to its highway program, but the hands of the legislature would be tied in regard to setting fiscal priorities.

2. Constitutional dedications of money do not guarantee that money will be appropriated for the designated purpose; they only prevent it from being used for something else.

3. Since the federal government does not restrict its grants or rebates, the state should leave it unrestricted.

AMENDMENT NO. 2 relates to the establishment of an economic stabilization fund in the state treasury.

This fund has been called a "rainy day" fund. It would be used primarily to prevent or eliminate temporary cash deficiencies for the state's general revenues. Briefly, it would consist of:

- 50 percent of left-over unused general revenue from the previous fiscal biennium;
- 75 percent of state oil or gas production taxes in excess of the amount received in the 1987 fiscal year;
- interest and investment income credited to the fund; and
- additional amounts appropriated by the legislature.

Certain adjustments would be allowed the comptroller as well.

This proposed amendment is designed to off-set problems resulting from the decline of Texas' oil-based economy. These problems became so acute in 1986 that the governor had to call a third special session of the legislature to enact a new appropriation bill.

FOR:
 1. This would in effect be an enforced savings plan for unexpected shortages.

2. Although the Texas Constitution provides a pay-as-you-go philosophy, the fund would provide a cushion against an inaccurate estimation of the state's future income and cash revenues.

AGAINST:

1. It would be too little, too late as no money would be likely to remain unencumbered at the close of each fiscal biennium. The legislature would still need to appropriate money.

2. In times of economic crises, the legislature needs greater flexibility to divide up available money.

AMENDMENT NO. 3 relates to the establishment of a Texas growth fund and the investment of certain state funds in business in Texas.

This amendment is designed to provide an alternate source of capital for business having difficulty obtaining financing from usual sources.

Certain restrictions as to the amount which would be invested and the phasing out of the fund after 10 years are provided.

The Texas growth fund would use money from the permanent university fund, permanent school fund, Teacher Retirement System and Employees Retirement System of Texas.

FOR:

- Many new ideas go to waste because of lack of financing.
- The state's economy would be helped to recover by giving business an economic shot-in-the-arm.
- This amendment would help diversify the oil-based economy of Texas.

AGAINST:
 1. Adequate private sources of financing exist.

2. The state is obligated to protect financial contributions held for students, teachers, and employees. The state should not make risky investments.

3. The state should not use public funds to benefit private entities.

There. You have it. Make an informed choice. See you at the polls on election day.

Leadership that works...

During his first term, Congressman Lamar Smith:

- Led the fight against illegal drugs.
 - Gained approval for a radar balloon to track drug smugglers crossing the border.
 - Amended the drug bill to guarantee funds for local drug task forces and to shut down illegal drug labs.
- Persuaded House Energy Subcommittee colleagues to redirect funding and establish a new, comprehensive geoscience research program.
- Authored first House bill to apply Ethics Act to Congress and helped pass landmark ethics legislation.
- Introduced and took lead to guarantee ranchers equal access to workers under H-2A Program.
- Helped obtain a final agreement to build a new 450-bed Brooke Army Medical Center.
- Wrote and pushed through to enactment legislation that transfers 104 square miles to Big Bend National Park.

Glittering butterflies were made in Monday morning's craft class by Moriama Perez, Juana Hernandez and Consuelo Sarabia. These works of art and others can be seen and purchased at the Crockett County Arts and Crafts Guild fair being held this weekend at the 4-H Barn.

Monday afternoon was spent relaxing in front of the television and visiting with fellow residents.

Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Thelma Yaw, Theo Burns and Elvira Pena were Tuesday morning's bingo winners. Elvira won three games. It was good to have volunteers Sophie Kyle and Georgia Kirby back with us. We sure have missed them.

A jack-o-lantern's face was stenciled Tuesday afternoon. Residents giving the pumpkin a little character were Nellie Harp, Edna Wallace, Consuelo Sarabia, Lucia Rios, Moriama Perez and Juana Hernandez.

Delightful country music filled the halls Tuesday evening thanks to members of the Bob Bell Band. Members present were Mike, Joe and Dian Teague, Jim and Janet Wilson, Mike Tomlinson, George Hester, Bob Bell and guest singer Ed Pruitt of San Angelo. Ed is Dian's father, and residents could tell in an instant where Dian got her talent. We would like to thank the band for an evening of enjoyment and laughter.

Wednesday morning's ceramic workshop was in good hands thanks to volunteers Ruth Hester, Ruthie Doris and Mattie Cooper. Residents attending were Theo Burns, Hazel McDaniel, Moriama Perez, Tomasa Ramos, Juana Hernandez, Consuelo Sarabia and Ethel Youngblood.

A backyard carnival was held Wednesday afternoon. Residents and visiting gulls had a good time trying their luck at such games as beach ball bowling, ring toss, skeleton shoot, bucket ball, bag a pumpkin, beginners' golf and darts. Prizes of fruit and candy were given at each booth. We would like to thank members of the Templo Jerusalem Baptist Church for their assistance. You did a splendid job, and we appreciate it.

Residents enjoyed a friendly visit with lots of interesting conversation Thursday morning during their stay at the center's beauty shop, thanks to volunteers Vivian Hughes, Joann Williamson, Lola Rios, Audrey Smith, Bobbie Light, Yolanda Avila and Martha Tijerina. Thank you, ladies. You make Thursdays special.

Thursday afternoon song leader David McCarley started the mid-week Bible study with old familiar hymns. Jim Gray, preacher for the First Baptist Church, not only presented a fine lesson, he also sang a lovely solo. We would like to thank Jim, David and visitors for coming.

Mass was conducted during the Spanish Hour of Praise by Rev. Bill Du Buisson. Inspiring hymns were sung and sweet sounding music was played by Herberito Gutierrez and Aicia Perez. A short visitation followed. We would like to thank the many members of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church for attending this activity.

Friday morning's bingo winners were: Harry Blatchford, Nellie Harp, Srida Senne, Lucia Rios, Minnie Karr, Bertha Miller and Consuelo Sarabia. Volunteers assisting were Mattie Cooper and Betty Moak. Thank you, ladies.

This month's It's A Small World featured Germany. Souvenirs made complete by a native costume were furnished by Katie Maney and Roberta Schoenhals. Refreshments were made and served by Jo Davidson, Glenda Henderson and Jonesy Williams. The October Fest table was full of goodies. We would like to thank these ladies for making this activity a huge success.

Sunday's worship service was presented by Calvary Baptist Church with Ken Eppler, preacher. Lovely hymns were led by the Copeland family.

Revival set for Nov. 6 - 10

This coming Sunday, Nov. 6, will mark the beginning of the "Share Jesus Now" revival at First Baptist Church, Ozona. Worship times on Sunday are 11:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Services will continue Monday through Thursday with worship beginning at 7:30 p.m. nightly.

Rev. Mike Eklund, pastor of First Baptist Church of Tuscola, will be the guest evangelist. Prior to entering the pastorate, Rev. Eklund served as a youth evangelist for several years preaching youth revivals, rallies and summer camps. His messages will appeal to all ages.

Providing the revival music will be Bill and Vicky Murphy from Abilene. The Murphys provide a blend of contemporary and traditional Christian music which will minister to the hearts of young and old. Prior to entering fulltime music evangelism, Bill served the Lord as a music-youth director for 15 years in churches in New Mexico and Texas.

Joining this evangelism team will be Billy Graham from Fort Worth. Billy will be teaching at 12 noon daily Monday through Thursday in the church's Activities Building. Billy is a gifted teacher and will be teaching on spiritual growth. A light lunch will be provided. On Wednesday Billy has been invited to speak to a joint assembly of high school and junior high school students.

Besides the noon Bible study luncheons, there are other special activities planned. On Monday, Nov. 7, there will be a corn dog supper for children 1st through 5th grades at 6:30 p.m. in the Activities Building. On Wednesday, Nov. 9, there will be a chili dog supper for all high school and junior high students at 6:30 p.m. in the Activities Building.

Members and staff of First Baptist Church extend a general invitation for you to join them for a week of revival and spiritual renewal. A nursery will be provided.

Bill and Vicky Murphy of Abilene are the music evangelists for the revival next week at First Baptist Church.

The junior high football teams play their last games here Thursday. The 7th grade will open action at 5:00 with the 8th grade following thereafter.

The Lions close their football season as well this Friday looking for a winning year. A victory over the Wall Hawks would give the Lions a 5-4-1 overall record.

The game starts at 8:00. Refreshments are available at the concession stand; yelling and screaming in the press box.

Both girls and boys' cross country teams head for Lubbock for Saturday's regional meet. The boys, looking to repeat last year's state-qualifying effort, face stiff competition with the likes of fellow, state-ranked teams Eldorado, Boys Ranch and Coleman vying for the top two team placings that advance to state.

Last year the girls finished sixth with Maria Sanchez qualifying for state as an individual.

WTU Christmas program slated for Monday, Nov. 7

West Texas Utilities Company's popular annual Christmas program is just around the corner, reports Crockett County Extension Agent-Home Economics Teda Ulmer.

Ulmer said that WTU's Electric Living Consultant, Darolyn Moore, will be presenting this year's program on Monday, Nov. 7 at noon and 4 p.m. in the Ozona Civic Center.

"The WTU home economists work for months gathering delicious recipes and creating different types of packaging and decor for busy homemakers to recreate in their own homes," said Ulmer.

"If you've never attended a WTU Christmas program," Ulmer continued, "You're in for a real treat-Darolyn always has a wonderful presentation."

For more information about the program, or about the Progressive Extension Homemakers Club, contact the County Extension Office at 392-2721. The program is free and the public is welcome to attend.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or handicap.

Seventh grade Cubs win 14-8 Eighth grade faced loss to Reagan County

by Clint Landon
STOCKMAN SPORTS

Ozona's 7th Grade Cubs won a hard fought victory over the Big Lake Owls, Thursday, Oct. 27th in Lion Stadium; unfortunately, the 8th grade Cubs suffered a resounding loss to Big Lake's 8th grade team.

The 7th Grade Cub offense and defense were both playing at their peak Thursday night. In the first quarter, Cubs Ryan Morris and Joey Flores with the rest of the 7th grade defense refused to allow Big Lake even a first down.

During the second quarter, Michael Fay ran the ball downfield into the end zone for a 62 yard touchdown. Shortly afterwards, Fay handed the ball off to Sammy Hinostrroza, who made his way into the end zone for the successful two point conversion.

By the end of the first half, the Owls had also gained one touchdown and Ozona's 7th Grade Cubs went into half-time with the score tied- 8 to 8.

During the second half, the Cubs played even better. Fay's third quarter pass to Hinostrroza paved the way for another Ozona touchdown. Less than a minute into the third quarter, Hinostrroza ran 20 yards for the Cubs second touchdown of the night. The 7th Grade Cubs now led the Big Lake Owls and could smell the scent of victory.

By the end of the fourth quarter, there was no way the 7th grade defense was going to allow the Owls to catch up. Playing tough and hard even up to the last second, Ozona's 7th Grade Cubs defeated the Big Lake Owls with a score of 14 to 8.

Ozona's 8th Grade Cubs however, could never get their momentum going against Big Lake's 8th Grade Owls.

Even with Chad Upham's 45 yard gain in three carries and Jason Yeagor's 21 yard gain in first quarter, the Cubs couldn't seem to find the combination that worked against the Owls.

The Cub defense played tough, but couldn't seem to hold on to Big Lake's number 28. Everytime he got the ball, he seemed to find a way of slipping away from the grasp of the defense. When the half-time whistle sounded, Ozona's 8th Grade Cubs were trailing the Owls-34 to 0.

During the second half, Yeagor added another 59 yards rushing to his total to the night. However, even the tough offensive penetration of the Cubs couldn't lessen the spread on the scoreboard.

By the end of the game, the Big Lake Owls handed the Ozona 8th Grade Cubs a 42 to 0 defeat in Lion Stadium.

J.V. Lions suffer defeat by Reagan County

by Copie Davis
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Ozona J.V. Lions traveled to Big Lake Oct. 27 to take on perennial District 6-AA powerhouse Reagan County. On the strength of nearly 300 total offensive yards, the Owls thundered over the Lions 25-6.

Reagan County wasted no time in getting on the board. After a drive of nearly 80 yards, the Owls first hit pay dirt with 8:27 left in the first quarter on a 20 yard sweep. The PAT was wide to the right, making the score 6-0 in favor of Reagan County.

After exchanging punts on each of both teams' next two possessions, the Owls found the end zone again. With :59 left in the period, Reagan County scored on a 28 yard pass play straight up the middle of the field that caught the Lion secondary totally off guard. The PAT was good this time, and at the end of the first quarter, Ozona trailed 13-0.

In the second quarter, the Lions fell prey to a disease that has paralyzed them all year long --- fumbelitis. In the second period, Ozona fumbled three times. The second resulted in a Reagan County scoring drive. With 5:56 left in the half, the Owls hit on a 30-yard scoring strike that surprised the Lion secondary again. The PAT was no good, making the score 19-0 Reagan County.

After the half, the Owls picked up right where they left off. After the R.C. defense forced Ozona to punt, they mounted a drive of 39 yards, culminating with a one yard run with 6:27 left in the third quarter. Once again, the PAT was muffed, and Ozona trailed 25-0.

The Lions' only bright spot came with a little less than five minutes to go in the game when Ozona tailback Daun Williams took a handoff from quarterback Danny DeHoyos and churned and burned his way 15 yards for Ozona's sole touchdown. The PAT was no good, making the score 25-6, Reagan County.

For the rest of the game, the Owls kept the ball on the ground and ran out the clock. When the final horn sounded, Reagan County had garnered a solid and decisive victory.

Statistically, Reagan County totally overwhelmed Ozona. The Lions gained 185 total yards, but gave up 287 yards.

In passing yardage, Ozona platoon quarterbacks Danny De-

Hoyos and Jimmy Williams to complete six of 17 passes for 66 yards. However, the two also threw three interceptions.

The Owls completed fewer passes on fewer attempts than Ozona; however, they accumulated 150 yards and two touchdowns.

On the ground, Reagan County outgained Ozona 131 yards to 119 and scored two touchdowns compared to the Lions' one.

Ozona's leading rusher was work-horse running back Daun Williams who accounted for 70 percent of the Lions' rushing yards. Williams gained 86 yards on 19 carries and scored one TD.

On defense, Ozona's leading Lion was defensive lineman Aristeo Duenes, who racked up nine tackles on the night.

TWO THINGS TEXANS DON'T LIKE ARE BAD HIGHWAYS AND BROKEN PROMISES.

The money we send to Washington every time we fill up our cars comes back to Texas. The government promises that this money will be spent to build, repair and maintain our highways.

Diverting those Federal Highway Trust dollars to some other purpose could devastate our highway system for years to come.

- It would halt vital road construction;
- Cancel needed safety improvement;
- End repairs to roads and bridges.

Texans can stop this threat by voting for Proposition One which makes certain that highway dollars are spent on highways. Let's keep the promise to Texans.

On Election Day look at the bottom of your ballot and find Proposition One, the Highway Amendment. Proposition One continues the Texas plan for good jobs, economic growth and safe roads without raising taxes and most importantly . . . keeps your family safe.

A lot is riding on the promise of good Texas roads.

Keep highway money for highways and the jobs they create. Proposition One is endorsed by the Texas Highway Commissioners, local and state-wide officials of both political parties, and hundreds of civic groups because they know that building good roads keeps Texas moving.

Keep Texas Moving.

HARVEY

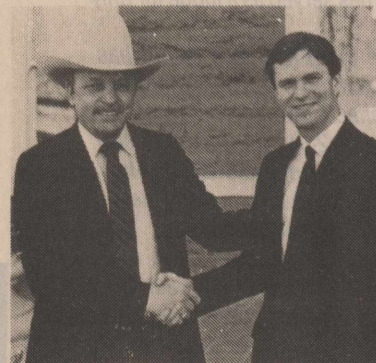

Hilderbran FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Let's get the job done right

Experience we can count on

Harvey Hilderbran has the experience our next State Representative will need to get the job done right. After completing college at Texas Tech, Hilderbran went to Washington D.C., where he worked for U.S. Congressman Beau Boulter as his Legislative Assistant in charge of Agriculture and Small Business issues.

In 1986, Harvey returned to Texas to work for the Texas Farm Bureau in Austin. There he served as the organization's Assistant Director and Legislative Liaison. In that position, Harvey worked with the Texas Legislature on matters involving water issues and landowner rights.

Gerald Geistweidt endorses Harvey Hilderbran

Now that Gerald Geistweidt has decided to not run for re-election, we need to make sure our next State Representative has the same conservative values as Gerald had in the Legislature. No one knows that better than Gerald Geistweidt himself. Also, Gerald Geistweidt realizes how important it is for our next State Representative to know how to get things done in the Texas Legislature.

Harvey has the two qualities Gerald Geistweidt believes his replacement in the Texas Legislature needs: principles and legislative experience. That's why Gerald has endorsed Harvey.

Tom Loeffler endorses Harvey Hilderbran

Tom Loeffler knows leadership when he sees it. So it wasn't too difficult to decide who he was going to support in the race to replace Gerald Geistweidt as our next State Representative. Harvey Hilderbran.

On November 8, let's elect a State Representative who will make us proud... Harvey Hilderbran

4-H Food Show winners display ribbons

Kenison and Tamie Reagor, as well as Food Show chairmen Kathryn Mayfield and Karen Childress. Senior 4-H member Margaret Jones gave the welcome and recognition of leaders and donors was given by Jennifer Davidson and Julie Childress. John Williams gave the closing prayer, and Candace Williams introduced the tasting tea. Tammy Arrott led the pledge of allegiance and the 4-H motto and pledge.

Each division winner received a $50 savings bond and blue rosette, along with a selection of Adams spices or extracts, donated by the Adams Extract Company. Senior participants also received a food show medal. Each second place winner received a set of spices or extracts and a red rosette, and third place winners received gold rosettes. Every participant was awarded a blue ribbon, and all received a copy of this year's food show cookbook, "Goodies for Goblins," and a vegetable peeler. Local donors provided funding for this year's show.

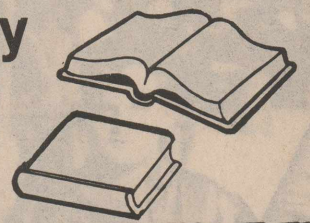

Chairmen for the event were Kathryn Mayfield and Karen Childress. Committee Chairmen included Sadie Davidson, awards; Belinda Wilkins, decorations; Judges Assistants, Carmen Sutton; Game Room, Debbie Arrott and Debbie Phillips; Judges Cart, Karen Bishop, Seating and Registration, Marandy Keith; Tabulation, Helen Kenison and Sandra Childress; Microwave, Sadie Davidson; Tabulation Runner, Lou Whitley; and Refreshments, Peggy Dickerson. Mothers of the contestants assisted with the production of the show, which County Extension Agent-Home Economics Tedra Ulmer noted, "was one of the smoothest I've ever been involved with because of the dedication and professionalism of the parents and leaders who helped."

She added, "The judges were most impressed by the food displayed and by the nutrition knowledge exhibited by the contestants. Several said they had never seen such a uniformly superior group of contestants, and I have to agree—our Crockett County 4-H'ers are terrific!"

Crockett County Public Library

by Louise Ledoux

LIBRARY SERVICES

This is the third in a series of library services. CCPL offers various services to the citizens of Crockett County. Many of these services are provided through our membership in the Big Country Library System of Texas. Two such services are the Extension Loan Program and the Film Service.

Extension loan books are collections of books that CCPL can borrow for extended lengths of time from the BCLS in Abilene. These books might be large-print books for the elderly or sight-impaired, children's books for our summer reading programs, or maybe a collection of Spanish language books for our Hispanic readers. These loan books are a wonderful addition to our own permanent collection of books.

The film service gives CCPL patrons access to a large film library and a projector and screen. This is for the public to use. All you have to do to use this service is come by the public library and choose a film from the extension catalogue. Then just sit back and relax. We'll get the film in about a week and let you know when you can pick it up. There is a ten dollar deposit for the use of the projector and screen, but it will be refunded when the equipment is returned in good condition. We now furnish monthly films to the Crockett County Care Center.

Come check it out!

FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE

For those candidates with no legislative history, the rating is based primarily on his or her response to the detailed questionnaire sent to all candidates. For those candidates with public records, their rating will reflect their voting record, legislative proposals, public statements, news releases, letters to constituents, etc. Finally, in some cases we have weighed additional key factors such as proven leadership, dedication and effectiveness. Here's what the scores mean:

- A+ — An incumbent who is not only pro-gun and pro-sportsmen, but also has gone far above and beyond the call of duty in defense of the Second Amendment and hunting rights.
- A — Solidly pro-gun, pro-sportsmen, opposed to additional controls on firearms or legislation restricting hunting and would vote for pro-gun reform legislation.
- B — Basically on our side, but might vote for some additional restrictions or might not support pro-gun, pro-sportsmen reform legislation.
- C — Would probably vote in favor of more restrictive controls and/or would not support pro-gun, pro-sportsmen reforms.
- D — Would definitely vote for restrictive controls on firearms and/or hunting rights.
- F — Favors restrictive legislation such as banning handguns, some firearms or hunting; actively opposed the NRA.
- ? — Refused to answer/complete questionnaire—often an indication of indifference, if not outright opposition, to sportsmen's issues.
- BOLD— Candidates in bold face type have been endorsed by the NRA.

This year, in a poll conducted by the Texas State Bar Association, Judge Ward Koehler received an overwhelming endorsement. Seventy-five percent of all attorneys polled found him to be the clear choice for Justice, 8th Court of Appeals.

The votes of these attorneys reflected an appreciation for a judge who knows how to keep the judicial system moving. For the last eight years, Judge Koehler has one of the best records on completed jury trials in our District Courts. His opponent has served as a judge for only two years.

Judge Ward Koehler's record has shown, time after time, that he is thoroughly dedicated to effective jurisprudence. He has practiced law for 24 years, handling civil, criminal, trial, and appellate cases. His opponent has less than one-third the experience of Judge Koehler.

In 1981, he was selected in a Bar Association poll as Outstanding Judge in El Paso County. A newspaper survey in 1986 named him as one of three best district judges.

Now, in 1988, it's time to put Judge Ward Koehler's experience and determination to work in the 8th Court of Appeals...the court of last resort in most cases for the citizens of 22 West Texas counties.

It's an important position. And for you, it's an important decision. Make the right choice. On November 8th, vote for Judge Ward Koehler, Justice, 8th Court of Appeals.

Sheriff's report

WEEK ENDING 11-1-88
ARRESTS:

10-26 Two Ozona men, ages 18 and 21, were arrested by sheriff's deputies on charges of criminal mischief. The arrests resulted from an investigation into damage to numerous traffic signs around town. The two subjects were arraigned by Judge Christine Davee and bond was set at $500 each. The suspects were released on bond, and the case was referred to the county court for prosecution.

10-27 A 26-year-old Ozona man was arrested by sheriff's deputies on charges of public intoxication and disorderly conduct. This resulted from a disturbance at the corner of Santa Rosa and Monterrey. Judge Davee set a $100 fine on each charge. The suspect chose to lay out the fines and was released on Oct. 31.

10-30 THP arrested a 34-year-old Ozona man on charges of driving while intoxicated. The suspect was released the next day after posting bond.

10-31 A 43-year-old Ozona man was arrested on charges of assault following a family disturbance on Corto Street. He is currently in county jail.

INCIDENTS:

10-26 Sheriff's deputies investigated damage to 13 traffic signs around Ozona. The investigation resulted in the arrest of two Ozona men, ages 18 and 21. Bond was set at $500 on each suspect, and the case has been referred to county court.

10-27 Sheriff's deputies investigated a person passing a $5.00 bill that had been altered to look like a $50.00 bill. The suspect, described as red-headed and wearing a mustache, entered an Ozona convenience store at about 8:15 p.m. and passed the bill. Investigators believe that the suspect is a traveler, but no vehicle description could be obtained.

10-30 A citizen on Ave. F reported that someone had broken a parking light on their car and painted on the vehicle with white shoe polish. The case is still under investigation.

10-31 Sheriff's deputies investigated a family disturbance on Corto Street. The husband and wife were having an argument, and a 19-year-old daughter tried to intervene. She sustained injuries to her left eye. The 43-year-old man was arrested and placed in county jail on charges of assault.

Boosters review performance

Band Booster Club held its monthly meeting Oct. 25. President Nancy Moore reported that the Poor Man's Supper was a success due to the support of the community.

The band received a Division I rating at marching contest in Brady on Oct. 22. The Booster Club declared Friday night, Oct. 28, Band Appreciation Night. All members were urged to bring their band banners to the football game.

Several fund-raising projects were discussed. Members were assigned to gather information on the projects with one to be chosen at a future meeting.

November and December meetings were scheduled for the second Tuesday of each month.

Guild to host crafts fair Saturday

Crockett County Arts and Crafts Guild will host its fall fair Nov. 5 at the 4-H Barn. Local and out of town exhibitors will offer a variety of handcrafted items for shoppers from 42 booths.

Wood crafts, fabric and sewn items, handpainted clothing, hair accessories, ceramics, tole and folk art, collar crochet, pen and ink drawings, oil and acrylic paintings, rugs, pillows, quilts, stained glass, semi-precious stones, silk plants, hand knitted leather sweaters, custom crafted knives, rattlesnake skin belts and jewelry and porcelain dolls are just a few of the items to tempt the shoppers.

Ozona exhibitors are: Tasha Emery, Helen Kenison, Peggy Dickerson, Crockett County Care Center, Nancy Bennett, Lynn Harris, Martha Beasley, T. K. O'Bryant, Billie Rose Bailey, Lupe Longoria, Sara Hignight, Alicia Wheeler, Debbie Bangeman, Tony Stewart, Chodya Squiers, Dena Porter, Alma Longoria, and Mary Layman.

Out-of-town exhibitors include: Dan and Bea Houck, Sheffield; Beth and Robert Seale, Marsha Riley, Harry Hunt, Richard Cline, Nell Owen, Dean Murr, Theresa Simmons, Barbara Michaels, Patti Strauch, Karen Farr, Jaquie Davios and The Strawberry Patch of San Angelo; Debbie Frerich, Midland;

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Reich, Sandra Lawson, Odessa; Joy Kline, Carlsbad, New Mexico; Tommy McKissack II, Cindy Fields, Sonora; Vernon Harlan, Del Rio; Clair Tankersley, Mertzon; Thelma Reynolds, Big Spring; Sherry Hadnett, Marilyn Read, Coahoma; Gay and Andy Anderson, El Paso.

Eastern Star will have a food booth, Helping Hands a bake sale and Beta Sigma Phi will have a drink booth.

"We have a lot of good ones this year," said guild president T. K. O'Bryant of the exhibitors. "Some are old favorites and some new have been added."

Seen any helicopters here lately?

Noticed groups of Army helicopters flying around Ozona lately? You are likely to see many more during the next few days.

Ozona has become a temporary stop-over for some of the 1,500 Army personnel from Fort Hood involved in a large-scale Field Training Exercise in Terrell County.

The helicopters cannot fly direct from Fort Hood to Sanderson and have enough fuel left over for maneuvers without refueling en-route. More than 100 aircraft, mostly helicopters, are involved.

These aircraft are refueling at various airports along the route, including Ozona Municipal.

Three helicopters, a Blackhawk and two Apaches, stopped Thursday morning and stayed on the ground longer than planned because of fog. The same three returned to Ozona for refueling before flying back to Fort Hood that night.

Realizing that Thursday's helicopter crews would not have eaten since a very early breakfast, Ozona Airport Managers Jim and Mary Jo Hearn surprised them with an impromptu hamburger supper on their return from Sanderson in the evening.

A number of local citizens turned out to see the helicopters at close hand. Some viewed the helicopters from inside the cockpits when crewmen allowed them to climb inside one of the aircraft for a closer look. Some Ozonans may have been a little surprised to note two of the 18 crewman were actually crewwomen.

The Blackhawk carries a crew of 14 while each of the Apaches is equipped for two persons. The Apaches, the army's newest, is a flying arsenal with various kinds of weapons used for both day and night fighting.

Terrell County was chosen for the training exercise because of its remoteness and because the crewmen become too familiar with the area around Fort Hood and begin to fly by recognizable landmarks rather than relying on their instruments, according to a spokesman for the group.

The aircraft fly at night using infrared sensors at altitudes of 50 to 100 feet.

The Terrell County airport will be the headquarters for the 120 aircraft while they are engaging in the training exercise. Some outposts will be set up on several area ranches as well.

Local ranchman Joe Pierce IV said the army had asked the Pierce family for permission to set up one of these outposts on the Pierce's Sanderson area ranch, but the Pierces had declined because they thought the large amount of noise associated with the aircraft would be disturbing to livestock.

The exercise will take place Nov. 1-9 and will involve three other types of helicopters besides the Blackhawks and Apaches. Chinooks, Kiowas and Hueys will also participate. The 120 helicopters will use about 35,000 gallons of fuel per day.

Some helicopters are refueling at San Angelo, Fort Stockton, Sonora, and other airports where jet fuel can be obtained besides Ozona.

DeHoyos for County Attorney
 Abogado del Condado on Nov. 8

On November 8, consider the following:

- ★ My campaign has remained free of gimmicks, negative comments and handouts, instead focusing on positive issues.
- ★ In my campaign speeches, I have elaborated on the duties and responsibilities of the County Attorney's office and on ways to improve upon these duties.
- ★ In my campaign speeches, I have elaborated on my intentions, desires and goals as a County Attorney.
- ★ My sole interest is to be a public servant serving the best interests of Crockett County and Ozona.
- ★ My past accomplishments have given my candidacy the necessary qualifications and the right type of experience to be an effective County Attorney

"Our system can only be strengthened when the voting public is truly informed and enlightened and votes accordingly. I wish to once again thank all the organizations and individuals of Crockett County who have given me the opportunity to speak on the issues. I expect to be an energetic, hard-working and fair-minded public official who can and will bring a spirit of cooperation and understanding, yet carry out the prosecutorial duties in an efficient manner."

Beware of diet miracles

Do miracles really happen? They do if you believe the folks involved in the multi-million-dollar business of diet scams!

Overweight people are particularly vulnerable to claims of fast, permanent weight loss, no matter how far-fetched the products' claims seem to be. Unscrupulous promoters of these products sell as much as they can before being shut down by agencies like the Food and Drug Administration and Better Business Bureaus.

One product currently making the rounds in West Texas and Ozona is under investigation by both these groups. It's a food spray that claims to "mist away your unwanted pounds and inches." A small bottle sells for over $30.

Products such as this one combine factual information with unproven claims and quotes by "experts" taken out of context to make their advertising more convincing. Scientific studies are often misinterpreted to provide "evidence" of the efficacy of the product.

How do you spot a diet rip-off? First, beware of someone who uses only anecdotes to support his or her claims. The mind is a powerful tool in weight-loss programs, and if you expect to lose weight, you probably will unconsciously do some things to make that happen—at least for a short period of time and to some extent. In evaluating claims, look for controlled, long-term studies.

Second, beware of products that promise to "detoxify your body," "release your energy," "boost your immune system," or "balance your body's chemistry." If the promise sounds too good to be true, it probably is. The product currently making the rounds even promises to "tighten and tone skin," and to "protect muscle and organ tissue."

One claim the manufacturers of the product have implied or made is that the product is "approved by the Food and Drug Administration." Actually, according to a spokesman I talked with last week, the FDA is currently collecting evidence to bring suit against the company making the spray, and the spray is not approved by the FDA as a weight-loss product. In fact, the spokesman said he had no idea what the company was referring to in its literature as "being FDA approved," unless the company meant the list of ingredients—all listed by the FDA as "generally recognized as safe" for human consumption, but which have no effect on weight control.

The brochure for the product mentions the American Heart Association several times, regarding the "eating plan" users are supposed to follow. Someone casually reading the information might be led to believe that the product is approved by the AHA, or that there is some connection between the company and the Heart Association, but there is none.

What the diet plan recommends loosely follows the AHA guidelines and recommends eliminating fats, sugar and other rich foods from the diet. Naturally, if one follows those suggestions weight loss will probably occur simply because of consuming fewer calories.

If miracles don't really happen, how can you lose weight? The best way, and the only way to keep weight off permanently, is to reduce calorie consumption and eat a balanced diet from the four basic food groups—the dairy food group, the fruit and vegetable group, bread and cereal group, and the meat group (which includes red meat, poultry, fish, beans, nuts and eggs). For the latest in research-based information on diet and health, contact the County Extension Office at 392-2721, or come by the office, located on the second floor of the courthouse annex.

Remember—there isn't any easy, magical way to lose weight and keep it off. If there were, all of us would be wearing a size seven! But through education and taking responsibility for your own eating habits, you can save that money you'd be throwing away on diet products and spend it on all those new clothes you'll be needing for your healthy new body.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Pursuant to Procedural Rule 21.24 (c) (1) of the Public Utility Commission of Texas, West Texas Utilities Company herewith gives notice that it has requested a Certificate of Convenience and Necessity from the PUC for the construction of 4.25 miles of 69 kV transmission line with an associated substation within Upton and Crockett Counties of Texas. The proposed line route originates in Upton County at a tap in the existing Rio Pecos-McCamey 69kV line. This tap is approximately 5 miles west-southwest of McCamey and one-half mile south of U.S. Highway 67/385 near the Upton-Crane county line. The proposed line route travels in a south-southeasterly direction for about 1.3 miles where it crosses the Upton-Crockett county line approximately one-half mile east of the Upton-Crane county line. The proposed line route continues in this same direction for about 2.9 miles, traversing the El Cinco Oil Field, where it terminates at the proposed South Cross 69/4kV Substation. The proposed substation will be located in the El Cinco Oil Field at a point lying approximately 3.7 miles west of Farm to Market Road 1901, 2.7 miles south of the Upton-Crockett county line and 0.9 miles north of the Crockett-Pecos county line. The estimated cost of this project is $385,655.

Persons who wish to intervene in the proceeding, or comment upon action sought, should contact the Public Utility Commission of Texas at 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757, or call the Public Utility Commission Public Information Division at (512) 459-0223, or (512) 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221 for teletypewriter for the deaf within 15 days of this notice.
