Santa Claus And Reindeer Coming Nov. 30

Because no Christmas Program is complete without Santa, the Lions Club, Rotary Club, Jaycees and Chamber of Commerce got together and asked Santa to appear in Muleshoe with his real, live, reindeer. So on November 30, 1953, at 10:00 a. m., Santa with Dancer, Prancer, Donder and Blitzen will make his annual visit to our fair city.

As usual, Santa Claus will be wearing his bright red suit, his reindeer will be gaily decorated with bright red harnesses and the name of each reindeer will be inscribed in brass nameplates so that the kiddies will be able to spellout and identify them one by one.

The appearance of Santa Claus promises to be exciting from the spectator standpoint, for kiddies and adults alike, so on behalf of the Lions Club, Rotary, Jaycees and Chamber of Commerce, we like to invite all children in the city, neighboring towns and communities to come to Muleshoe on November 30th, 10:00 a. m. and see Santa Claus.

There's restless reindeer feet in Texas today. Donder, Blitzen, Dancer and Prancer have tried on their parade harness and are anxious to begin their world wide trip. Right now they're resting at Grady Carothers ranch in Goldthwaite, Texas, they'll be fresh and ready to go. So you wait and see, Santa will be in Muleshoe to greet everyone, especially the kiddies on November 30th.

District Court Begins New Term Here This Week

District Court for Bailey County began the November term here Monday with Judge E. A. Bills presiding. The district attorney, Joe Sharp, was present to assist in the investigative work of the grand jury.

Sheriff Hugh Freeman had summoned a large number of witnesses in the investigation into several cases.

The grand jury was empaneled and began its work at once with Arnold Morris as foreman. Other members of the grand jury are:

Roy B. Young, Neal Smith, Woodie Goforth, Glen Williams, Buford Hunt, D. Warner, Roy Sheriff, W. B. Wagnon, Tobie Hatch, Tom Watson, and Sam Fox.

Judge Bills said he is arranging jury trial cases for hearings the week of December 7 and said criminal cases and such civil cases as require a jury will be called during that week.

It was thought one petit jury panel will be sufficient to try all cases, both criminal and civil.

Two Pound Baby At Green Hospital Is Doing Fine

Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Vaughn are the proud parents of a son, Gerald Wayne, born October 25, at Green Hospital and Clinic. Gerald Wayne weighed only 2 lbs., 11 oz. at birth, and at first was thought to be dead, but after application of oxygen he started breathing. Even then doctors and nurses gave him only a few hours to live, but he has fooled them and is now gaining weight and doing fine.

He will have to remain in the incubator two months.

Gerald Wayne has many visitors who come to see him, and he doesn't seem to mind them at all, just so long as his food comes by every two hours.

He is fed with an eye dropper.

Cpl. Haywood Vaughn, the baby's father, is stationed in Greenland with the U. S. Armed Forces.

Grand Jury Returns Twenty-Five Indictments, A Record Number

Bailey County grand jury, in session this week, returned 25 true bills, probably the largest number indictments ever returned by a grand jury in this county. Arnold Morris was foreman of the grand jury.

Five indictments for murder were found against Gordon Smith in connection with the automobile accident death of five members of a Latin-American family here June 28. The accident occurred on the Plainview highway near the north city limits of Muleshoe. Smith has been released on bond and his trial probably will be called the week of Dec. 7.

Jim Allen was indicted on four counts of forgery and knowingly passing. His bond was set at $1,000 in each case and in lieu of bond he is being held in custody.

Two men indicted on charges of theft pleaded guilty Tuesday before Judge E. A. Bills and were assessed 4 years in the penitentiary and were paroled on good behavior. One man indicted for felony theft was not in custody.

Mack McClarron, colored, indicted for forgery, pleaded guilty and was sentenced by the court to two years in the penitentiary. Cory Hammonds, indicted for theft by bailee of an automobile, was sentenced to four years in the pen on his plea of guilty.

Three others indicted for worthless check passing are not in custody, or their cases were disposed of.

The grand jury indicted Perry Armstrong on a charge of theft of an automobile. He is serving a term in a federal penitentiary. William Cato, indicted on two counts of forgery, is in an Arizona penitentiary.

Three more indictments for defrauding by worthless check completed the work of the grand jury. An unusually large number of witnesses had been subpoenaed in connection with the various investigations. Joe Sharp, Plainview, the district attorney and Norman Bays, county attorney, helped with the body's investigations.

Soldier In Korea Asks Santa Claus For The Journal

Pfc. Virgil W. Burris, of Muleshoe, who has been serving with the Army in Korea the last eight months, was very definite as to what he wanted Santa Claus to bring him this Christmas. He wrote his folks here that all he wanted was a subscription to The Muleshoe Journal.

And he's getting his wish, for a new subscription was started for him this week by his sister-in-law, Mrs. W. O. Burris, of Muleshoe. This week's issue was placed in an envelope along with a Christmas card from the family here, and mailed to the soldier in Korea.

Pfc. Burris entered the service Sept. 16, 1952. He is back in Korea now with his unit, after a week's rest in Japan. He is a son of Mrs. V. L. Burris, of Muleshoe.

Man Arrested Here Admits Stealing Auto

Sheriff Hugh Freeman Monday arrested an armed man who was lying drunk in a 1953 Buick stolen the day before at Levelland. The man had a .32 caliber revolver stuck in his belt when picked up and the sheriff found a quantity of dimes, quarters and nickels in rolls in the car.

After being questioned here the man was turned over to Levelland authorities. He told Sheriff Freeman he had stolen a pickup truck in Sundown, drove it to Levelland and abandoned it for the Buick.

Gilbreath's Tip Led To Arrest Of Armed Man

Rufus Gilbreath was credited by Hugh Freeman, Bailey County sheriff, with a valuable assist in the arrest Monday of an armed man who is still being checked by authorities investigating recent crimes.

Sheriff Freeman said Mr. Gilbreath observed the man, who was lying in a car drunk and notified the sheriff's office at once. Because of the tip, Mr. Freeman was able to go to the scene immediately and take the man into custody.

Sheriff Freeman asked The Journal to make the announcement of Mr. Gilbreath's tip, in the hope that other citizens will give the officers such cooperation. He said the help of the people in giving the officers a tip about a situation they see will go a long way in enforcing the law.

In this case, an armed man was taken into custody. A terrible crime had been committed Sunday in Clovis, when the assistant manager of Safeway Store was forced to open the store and safe for robbers and was then shot down. The officers took the gun found on the man arrested here and sent it off for ballistics tests to see whether he was implicated in the Clovis crime.

Lovelady Speaks To Lions Club

Karl Lovelady, Muleshoe barber, spoke to the Lions Club at their regular noon luncheon meeting Wednesday at Gerald's Cafe.

The theme of Karl's talk was the fight that free men have always had to attain freedom. Lovelady reflected on the past stating that the first free thinking men were the Greeks, and that the free thinking philosophies of the early Greeks have been handed down to us through the centuries.

He also pointed out that most people think that since the adopting of the Constitution that Americans have always been free and had all the privileges of free men as we know them today, but this was not true due to the fact that only the vested interests were permitted in the early days. This practice has since been wiped out through the generations, proving that man has to continually fight to remain free and to gain more freedom.

He concluded his remarks with the thought that only "free thinking men are free men."

The total amount of money after expenses from the Carnival was $25.45, which the Lions

Details Of Handling Disaster Related For Muleshoe Rotary Club

Plans for coping with any disaster which may come to Muleshoe, Bailey County, or this immediate territory were explained by Harvey Bass, Red Cross County chairman; Mrs. Dorothy Barron, secretary; and Tootie Middlebrook, disaster chairman, who gave the program at the Rotary Club meeting Tuesday. Woodie Lambert was in charge of the program.

Mr. Bass pointed out that the Red Cross in its short existence has handled no less than 4,800 disasters. In case of a disaster in this neighborhood, the disaster chairman and his various committee chairmen would need lots of volunteers, who should be trained.

He thanked the Bailey County Electric, Southwestern Public Service, and General Telephone Company for their cooperation in offering their facilities for communication; the city officials and county officials for their close cooperation; the Muleshoe Journal editor for publicity and others who have in any way helped.

Mrs. Barron pointed out that the Red Cross, which is "you" will give emergency relief and rehabilitation aid. A survey committee set up under the disaster chairman does its work and results are communicated to the St. Louis regional office.

In the recent explosion at the town of Plains, the Red Cross had been adequately organized and was able to cope with the situation.

Mr. Middlebrook reported that the county organization has set up 10 committees, each with a chairman whose occupation closely resembles the work he is able to carry out in case of disaster. Things which can bring on a disaster as he outlined them, epidemics, tornados, and explosions.

In case a tornado destroys many homes in a town and brings loss of life with ensuing confusion, the disaster organization is prepared to take over, with the full cooperation of the authorities to bring order again with a minimum loss of life and property. The Red Cross would set up emergency shelter, a canteen with hot coffee or tea, hot meals. The people in the direct path of the storm would be removed from the area as soon as possible. First aid would be administered.

Committee chairmen would be trained to restore needed public services, clear the areas of debris, control the curious, and direct the work of volunteers.

He then pointed out what the average citizen, who undoubtedly will want to volunteer his services:

"Volunteers," Middlebrook said, "do not go to the scene of the emergency. To do so would be to get into the way of someone who is trained to work and is doing his work. The thing for you to do is come directly to headquarters, which are in the Bailey County courthouse and a subsidiary location for headquarters is on the lower floor of the Masonic hall."

There, he said, those who want to work will be assigned their job and told where and to whom to report.

Some local citizens he said, are inclined to think that a mock disaster drill should be staged in Muleshoe, but this has not as yet been decided upon. Middlebrook thought perhaps committees should be thoroughly trained before trying to stage a drill.

He pointed out that the entire organization is composed of volunteers; that they are subject to call in case of an emergency, not only in Muleshoe and Bailey County, but in the surrounding counties, as far away even as Lubbock. He said the committees would respond to this call from a neighboring community and do whatever they could to help.

The Bailey County disaster organization was the first to be formed on the Plains. Lubbock County was organized for coping with disaster last week and other counties are being organized as fast as trained Red Cross people

FALL FERTILIZATION

If you expect to achieve maximum efficiency in the use of fertilizers for these 1954 crops, then you need to begin your fertilizer programs this fall.

The trend now is toward working the fertilizers into the soil during the fall season, after harvesting has been completed. But even if you don't follow this practice, now is the time to plan your fertilizer needs and locate your supplies for next year.

There are several reasons why fall applications are becoming more popular. They are:

(1) A better distribution of labor may be attained. Working in the fertilizers during the "slack season" after harvest will lighten the load of farm work next spring.

(2) Undesirable compaction of the soil may be kept to a minimum. Fields which remain fallow and unworked over an extended time begin to pack, especially if no cover crops are introduced.

Parmer County Farm Bureau News

By Ralph Smith

Parmer County Farm Bureau has grown and gained in prestige and influence with remarkable degree in the last three years. Part of this growth, of course, came quite naturally for an organization that offered something to its members and then began to make the offer good. At the same time, however, Bruce Parr became president and entered into the duties of office with a determination to see if such an organization could serve the farmer's needs. This spirit of determination resulted in a net increase of 325 memberships at the close of the first drive under his leadership. Since that time, membership has shown a marked increase each year. No one, except those closely associated with the projects on which he worked, knows how many hours he gave, and how many miles he drove to discharge his responsibility to the membership.

Aubrey Ellison of Bovina, assuming these responsibilities, is a man who has, particularly in the last year, spent much time in exploring the possibilities of Farm Bureau. He has attended conventions, committee meetings, training institutes, etc., whenever opportunity presented itself, in order that he might qualify himself to lead his community organization of which he was president. As president of Parmer County Farm Bureau, we feel that Mr. Ellison is destined to write another successful chapter in the activities of the Bureau. We are proud to have such men as these devote themselves to the task of assisting their fellow farmers in seeking to improve the lot of agricultural people, with full consideration for every other segment of our population.

T. E. Lovett, succeeding Carl Schlenker as vice-president, is another farmer of unsung interest in the welfare of all people. He was one of the high men (with the cooperation of Mrs. Lovett) in membership acquisition this year.

With few exceptions, every director elected from each community has performed his duty well. Remember, when one of them discusses a farm problem with you, he is interested in knowing your views, so that he may present them at meetings of import which everyone cannot attend—and all officers and directors serve without pay.

Consider This: Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that geteth understanding. —Proverbs 3:13.

(6) Lastly, a soil fertility "insurance policy" is provided. If fertilization is put off until spring, you may be caught by rains which make planting so late that you haven't time to fertilize beforehand.

Therefore, it may be a wise idea to make your purchases in the fall and put the fertilizer in the soil. Then you won't have to worry about storing it in buildings and can rest assured that your soil fertility for 1954 is well insured.

VISITED IN IDALOU

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Estep and Wanda and Bill, and Dorothy Giles, spent the weekend in Idalou and Lubbock, with Mrs. Estep's mother, and other relatives.

Sen. Johnson Questions Abolition Of Regional Conservation Offices

Senator Lyndon B. Johnson says that reorganization proposals abolishing regional offices of the Soil Conservation Service are "startling and difficult to understand."

"It is billed as a step toward efficiency and greater economy," Senator Johnson said. "It is difficult to find any economy in this plan."

The Texas Senator also disclosed that the Agriculture Department has rejected "by inference" a proposal to stabilize the market through purchasing cattle on the hoof. The proposal had been urged on Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson by Senator Johnson upon a number of occasions.

Senator Johnson read a letter from Secretary Benson's executive assistant, L. N. Hooper. "By inference, he rejects the proposal," Senator Johnson said. "In a sense, he leaves the door open by avoiding a direct answer."

Explaining the reorganization proposal which would abolish 7 regional offices of the Soil Conservation Service, including the one at Fort Worth, the Senator pointed out that Secretary Benson "says that no essential services will be eliminated."

"That can only mean that the functions now handled by 7 offices will be handled by 48 offices—one in each State," Senator Johnson said. "It has been my understanding that the function of the reorganization act is to consolidate overlapping agencies and to eliminate duplication."

"It is a strange sort of consolidation that begins with 7 offices and winds up with 48."

Senator Johnson also said:

1. That Texas lost at least $61,000,000 in income during the first six months of this year because of declining cattle prices.

2. That farm price supports on and wheat apparently are not responsible for current high retail prices paid by consumers for bread and cotton goods.

3. That the farmer's share of the consumer's dollar is 9 cents lower today than it was in 1945.

4. That it will be "Pretty hard to stay in business" if small ranchers have to live with current cattle prices.

In the old days, it took three or four blankets to keep the Chief warm when the wintry winds began to blow across the reservation. But, now that he's "wired for winter", with one electric blanket, he finds that one does the job—even better than a big pile of old-fashioned blankets did.

You, too, can enjoy complete winter-time sleeping comfort with one blanket—electric, of course. And don't forget, they come with dual controls, so that each sleeper can have the comfort setting desired.

BABSON DISCUSSES—

The 1953 Crop Situation

New Boston, N. H., Nov. 5. Early last summer I discussed the 1953 crop outlook, which then was more or less tentative. Now the over-all situation is more clearly defined. Despite the vagaries of summer and early fall weather, the outlook is for the third largest total production of record.

NATURE ALREADY HAS BEEN KIND

Most of my earlier crop forecasts have been well borne out. For instance, another billion-bushel-plus wheat crop already has been harvested, with much to spare. Total supplies for the 1953-1954 season would, in fact, prove extremely burdensome were it not for the Government support price of $2.21 a bushel (national average at the farm). Wheat farmers are taking good advantage of the loan, which means that prices may average somewhat higher. The gimmick, however, is this: An official curb on 1954 acreage! The piper must be paid!

Below-average crops of barley, oats, and rye have been harvested. Nevertheless, supplies of these grains should suffice for indicated requirements. Higher prices should rule over the longer term. The flaxseed crop of 39,011,000 bushels is slightly above the 10-year average and will prove fully adequate. Although drought sharply reduced soybean prospects, the indicated U. S. output of 259,483,000 bushels is 18% above the 10-year average. Including record farm stocks, total supplies will easily suffice for 1953-1954 requirements. Yet both flaxseed and soybean prices may work a little higher as the season advances.

A GLANCE AT FALL CROP PROSPECTS

Last summer's long, hot dry spell cut the nation's corn prospects, but not enough to cause real concern. The indicated crop of around 3,200,000,000 bushels is slightly under the 1952 output, but still 5% above the 10-year average. It should suffice, since the carryover was of average size. The support price of $1.60 a bushel (national average) will ease marketing pressure. Later in the season, the price support program and the prevailing favorable feeding ratio may result in somewhat higher average prices.

The edible dry bean crop this year probably will be in the vicinity of 17,730,000 bags (100 lbs. each), only slightly under the 10-year average, and will easily go around. Prices are under seasonal pressure, but should recover over the longer term. The U. S. potato crop of close to 374,000,000 bushels is about 9% below the 10-year average, but well above normal domestic consumption. My June forecast of a big

THE SAND HILLS PHILOSOPHER—

Hits On Novel Plan To Solve The Plight Of Busted Cattlemen In This Country

Editor's note: The Sand Hill Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has a bright idea this week on the cattle situation. There's a flaw in it somewhere, but we haven't got time to figure it out. Dear Editor:

Everybody these days is worryin about the price of cattle, it's sort of a depressing thing, not only on the cattlemen but on everybody else, as a non-cattlemar gets to think about what has happened to the cattlemen and he gets to figurin it could happen to him too and he starts clampin down on his spendin and before you know it business has begun to drag its feet.

Now I have been thinkin. There's not much anybody can do about the price of cattle, except deplore it, and cattlemen have already tried that and it doesn't help much.

On the other hand, lots of people have been figurin out how maybe the government can buy high feed and sell it cheap to the cattlemen, just to keep them in business, but to a man

U. S. rice crop is being well borne out; in fact, it will set a record high. Current price weakness in both potatoes and rice should be followed by some recovery over the longer term.

COTTON CROP

My earlier cotton forecast that a large crop would be planted, despite the Government's request for a shtrp cut, is being fully realized. The indicated yield of 15,596,000 bales compares with the 1942-1951 average of 12,215,000 bales. Including the August 1 carryover of 5,500,000 bales, total supplies for the 1953-1954 season will be around 21,100,000 bales, or about 10,000,000 bales above indicated domestic consumption and exports. A lot of cotton farmers will pay for this splurge by a sharp cut in the 1954 national cotton acreage allotment.

FARM PRICE OUTLOOK

Although I expect total cash receipts from farm marketing to decline moderately in 1954, they still will be sizeable. Farmers on the whole should continue to prosper. However, certain sections, like Kansas, the dairy states and parts of the Southwest, are suffering. The problems of farm surplus and a workable and fair price support program remain unsettled. Hard work, cost cutting, promotional programs, and a putting of the national interest above that of any one group will speed the solution. I will discuss the livestock situation in a later issue of this paper.

(These opinions of Roger W. Babson are published in this paper every week.)

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

The Golden Text of the Lesson-Sermon on "Reality" to be read in Christian Science churches this Sunday is from Philipians: "Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good reports; if there be any praise, think on these things" (4:8).

The Lesson stresses that purified thought comes as mankind drops a false material concept of existence for the spiritual understanding of man and his relationship to God, and that this understanding enables us to overcome all evil. From Matthew 5:8 this passage will be read: "Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God." Among the selections to be read from the Christian Science textbook by Mary Baker Eddy is the following: "One's aim, a point beyond faith, should be to find the footsteps of Truth, the way to health and holiness. We should strive to reach the Horeb height where God is revealed; and the corner-stone of all spiritual building is purity. The baptism of Spirit, washing the body of all the impurities of flesh, signifies that the pure in heart see God and are approaching spiritual Life and its demonstration" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, p 241).

After the government loans me the hay, I will know what to do with it, and after my cows make it through the winter, maybe enough of em will have passed on which, multiplied by losses among all the other herds throughout the country, plus the extra meat Sec. Benson wants everybody to eat this year, will bring the price of cattle back up to where it belongs.

Me and the rest of the cattlemen will then owe the government some hay. Just when we can pay it back is hard to say, but so long as the mortgage is against the hay only, the situation won't get out of hand, and I can't see why it wouldn't be just as well for the government to show a hay deficit as a dollar deficit.

The first year we have plenty of rain and everybody has more hay than he knows what to do with, we could all pay the government back, and the government could then store the hay against the next drouth. I don't know how long it'll keep, but I know it'll keep better than butter and the government's been storin that for years.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

that's out of money, there just ain't no such thing as cheap feed. When you're broke, a bowl of chili is about as far out of your reach as a steak.

Therefore, I have hit on a plan. Of course nobody wants the government to go any further in the hand-out business, nobody is askin and nobody has figured out how the latter can be avoided if price supports are established. Also, the government is already too far in on the money-loanin business.

Now my plan is to let the government go into the hay-loanin business. Instead of loanin me money to keep my cows alive this winter, why can't the government just loan me some hay?

After the government loans me the hay, I will know what to do with it, and after my cows make it through the winter, maybe enough of em will have passed on which, multiplied by losses among all the other herds throughout the country, plus the extra meat Sec. Benson wants everybody to eat this year, will bring the price of cattle back up to where it belongs.

Just when we can pay it back is hard to say, but so long as the mortgage is against the hay only, the situation won't get out of hand, and I can't see why it wouldn't be just as well for the government to show a hay deficit as a dollar deficit.

Littlefield Takes District Lead With 35 to 18 Victory Over Mules

The Muleshoe Mules scored minutes after taking the kickoff Friday night at Littlefield and then managed to hold the Wildcats to a 6-7 half time score. Muleshoe received the opening kickoff and after a few plays Bill Willis, quarterback, broke off left tackle and evaded the secondary men and raced 65 yards to pay dirt which climaxed a drive that started on the Mules 20 yard line. The extra point was blocked, as were the other two by the hard charging Littlefield forward wall. Littlefield was unable to score the first quarter and holding the Mules to one touchdown. At the start of the second quarter the Wildcats started a drive from their own 35 and with Bobby Orr flinging passes that didn't miss and little Milton "Rabbit" Vaughn, 140 pound workhorse of the Wildcats, doing the ground work, traveled 65 yards for a touchdown, with Vaughn going the last 5 yards for the tally. Vaughn also kicked the extra point, the first of six for him.

As the half ended the Wildcats had managed to pass and run the ball down to the Muleshoe 1 yard line. Bobby Orr passed to Dwain Hoover, left end for Littlefield, who ran the ball down to the Mules 1 yard line before being hauled in by a Muleshoe lad.

In the second half Muleshoe kicked to the Wildcats 32. From there, with Vaughn carrying the mail most of the way, Littlefield scored their second TD, with Vaughn going the remaining 11 yards to paydirt. Again his kick was true and Littlefield took a bigger lead of 14-6. After receiving the kickoff, the Mules couldn't get their offense working and had to punt. Again Muleshoe recovered a fumble on their own 40-yd line. After passing to Holt for 9, Willis again hit Jimmy Holt, left end, on the Wildcat 35 and from there Jimmy did some beautiful running evading no less than four defenders on his way for the Mules' second touchdown. Again the extra point try was blocked.

Muleshoe scored their last touchdown in the fourth quarter when Wayne Moore, left half, broke through the line for 12 yards and the final tally for Muleshoe for the night. Milton Vaughn, the Wildcat's fine back, scored four touchdowns, kicked five extra points and passed for the other marker.

Littlefield rang up their second conference victory in as many starts. Friday night the Muleshoe Mules travel to Tulla to take on the Tulla Hornets for their third conference game of the season.

Pleasant Valley Folks Preparing To Build A New Community House

Under the chairmanship of Prof. Shelby the Pleasant Valley Community has begun the work of preparing for the erection of a new community building. The proposed building will be used for various and sundry purposes by the people of the community. Their present building, being used for church services, meetings and social functions of the people in Pleasant Valley community is proving to be inadequate.

Plans are now being formulated and the presentation will be made on the evening of November 24th, at which time the people of the Pleasant Valley area will offer a good old-fashioned pot-luck supper.

The financing of this building will be voluntary. At a meeting of the group last Monday evening, it was decided that every businessman in Muleshoe will be offered the opportunity of participating in the development of this building and it was announced that everyone participating in the program will be recognized on a plaque that will be placed in the new building.

It was pointed out also that every farmer in the Pleasant Valley Community and business men in Littlefield will be given the opportunity of helping in the building of this Pleasant Valley Community House.

Plans for this building have been in the making for the past year and it was felt that now was the time to begin the physical work and make the new building a reality. A passing thought — the development of the Pleasant Valley Community is necessary to Muleshoe as Muleshoe is to the community. We hope you'll help us make this building a reality.

HERE IS HOW!

Sec. Benson Proposes To Reorganize Ag. Dept.

We are indebted to "The Nation's Agriculture" for a concise analysis of Sec. Benson's plan to reorganize the Department of Agriculture. Since some of his proposals have been the subject of considerable discussion pro and con, The Journal editors thought a summary of his ideas would be interesting at this time. Late news reports is that he is proceeding with the reorganization as outlined below.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson announced October 13 a proposed comprehensive reorganization of the U. S. Department of Agriculture designed for better service to farmers through placing operations of the Department on a more business-like, efficient and decentralized basis.

The reorganization proposal is made under authority of Reorganization Plan No. 2, enacted by the last session of Congress. That plan calls for advance notice of intention to reorganize. The proposal is scheduled to become effective after there has been opportunity for interested parties to comment on it. Suggestions should be submitted prior to November 1. The proposals have been made after consultation with Congressional agricultural leaders, the National Agricultural Advisory Commission, representatives of the Land Grant College, representatives of the President's Committee on reorganization of the Government, farm organization leaders, and others.

The new Department organization puts all of the service agencies of the Department under four main groups: (1) Federal-States Relations; (2) Marketing and Foreign Agriculture; (3) Agricultural Stabilization, and (4) Agricultural Credit. The four groups, the present Administrative Service group, and the Solicitor will report administratively to the Secretary.

"This reorganization streamlines the Department for better service to farm families and for simplified internal organization," Secretary Benson said.

"The Department of Agriculture as reorganized is designed to meet present day conditions, particularly in its emphasis on marketing. With this reorganization we are ready to administer the farm programs which our current day agriculture requires.

"We propose to continue and to use the community, county, and State farmer committees which have administered many phases of conservation and price support programs. These committees will be a part of the Agricultural Stabilization group and will have important responsibilities both in the agricultural conservation program and in the various commodity programs such as marketing quotas and price supports.

"The reorganization has been decided upon after the most careful study. It will be made effective without interrupting the vital services of the Department. It will give to the hardworking employees of the Department an opportunity to make their work even more effective than it has been. Our ultimate goal is greater decentralization to bring the programs closer to farmers."

Among major changes in the Department's structure the reorganization proposal would:

Regroup the various research bureaus in the present Agricultural Research Administration into an integrated Agricultural Research Service. Establish an Agricultural Marketing Service which will absorb a major part of the marketing, research and service functions of the Production and Marketing Administration and many of the functions of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Establish a Commodity Stabilization Service which will carry on adjustment and other functions formerly handled by the Production and Marketing Administration such as acreage allotments and marketing quotas, and carry on price support operations of the Commodity Credit Corporation.

Retain the present Community, County, and State farmer committees to carry out the programs of the Commodity Stabilization Service and the Agricultural Conservation Program in the field.

Transfer the functions of the Production and Marketing Administration and the Bureau of Agricultural Economics to other services.

Strengthen State Soil Conservation Offices and eliminate Regional SCS offices.

Other than the integration of the former ARA research bureaus and the transfer of functions of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics and the Production and Marketing Administration, most of the other existing agencies of the Department retain their major functions, although there have been numerous changes in nomenclature and concentration of related but widely dispersed work.

In view of the fact that the Farm Credit Administration will become an independent agency on December 5, as provided by legislation passed by the last Congress, it is not affected by this reorganization.

The proposals do not reflect recommendations just received from the Agricultural Information Advisory Committee concerning the information work of the Department. However, these recommendations will be considered in connection with the final plans for reorganization.

Emphasizing the "service" goal of the reorganization, a number of agencies have been designated as "Services". A number of Department agencies such as the Forest Service already have this designation.

The following are the four main groups provided for by the reorganization and the agencies which would be in each:

Federal-States Relations: Agencies in this group would include: Agricultural Research Service, Forest Service, Federal Extension Service, Soil Conservation Service, Agricultural Conservation Program Service, and Cooperative Service.

Marketing and Foreign Agriculture: Agencies in this group would be the Agricultural Marketing Service and the Foreign Agricultural Service.

Agricultural Stabilization: Agencies in this group would be Commodity Stabilization Service (including the administration of Commodity Credit Corporation programs), Federal Crop Insurance Corporation and Community, County, and State Committees.

Agricultural Credit: Agencies in this group would be Farmers Home Administration and Rural Electrification Administration.

Cecil Mardis, brother of the groom, served as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall. Mrs. Rob Martin served the cake, while Mrs. Cecil Mardis, and Miss Marlene Black presided at the punch bowl.

Following a wedding trip to

New Mexico, the young couple are at home at the State Line Farms, where Mr. Mardis is employed. Mrs. Mardis will continue her employment with the Muleshoe State Bank.

The bride is a graduate of Muleshoe High School and attended Texas Tech for two years. The groom graduated from Muleshoe High School and attended Texas Tech for three years.
