Chamber honors Mills as outstanding citizen

Former sheriff Billy Mills was recognized as Ozona's outstanding citizen during the 25th annual chamber of commerce banquet Jan. 26. The recently retired Mills was taken by surprise as the announcement was made by Stephen Williams, chamber president.

Chamber accolades also went to Shannon Curry, outstanding young person; David McWilliams, teacher of the year; Crockett County Care Center and Hospital Auxiliary, organization of the year; and Doug Meador, unsung hero.

Each was presented with a plaque by outgoing president Dan Pullen. Pullen himself received a plaque in appreciation of his service to the chamber from first vice-president Betty Perry.

Mills was lauded for dedicating most of his working life to Ozona and to making it a better place for everyone.

"He has helped more people than most of us will ever realize," said Williams in recounting Mills' impressive service record.

OHS senior Shannon Curry is a Van Horn native and has attended Ozona school since sixth grade. She has participated in girls' basketball, UIL spelling, typewriting and accounting, band and annual staff. She has served as Sophomore Class president, Student Council vice-president and is a member of the National Honor Society. She has been a cheerleader, class favorite, Football Sweetheart candidate and Miss OHS runner-up.

She is a member of Ozona United Methodist Church and is active in youth fellowship and choir. She has also served as a youth representative on the Administrative Board of the church.

Following graduation, the chamber's outstanding young person plans to attend McMurry College in Abilene. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Curry.

Teacher of the Year David McWilliams spent his early childhood on a ranch near Stiles before moving with his family to Tripoli, Libya for six years.

McWilliams graduated from high school at Notre Dame International in Rome, Italy where he was active in basketball and track. He excelled in soccer and was on the All-Mediterranean League team.

He earned a B.S. degree, magna cum laude, from Angelo State University in 1976. He holds a masters degree in biology and is working on a thesis for which he is collecting flora of Crockett County.

The teacher/coach is active in local civic organizations, has been recognized academically and is a member of Ozona Church of Christ.

Glenda Henderson accepted the organization of the year award on behalf of the hospital and care center auxiliary.

Organized by the Woman's Forum in 1975, the volunteer group provides extra services that make patients and families more comfortable. The organization has donated beds, televisions, music tapes, VCR, whirlpool bath, a van, carpet, yard beautification and many furnishings at the facility.

The projects are funded by an annual barbecue and style show along with other events.

Unsung hero Doug Meador is a graduate of Matador High School and attended Clarendon Junior College. He was superintendent of the water department for the City of Matador before moving to Ozona in 1984 with his wife Barbara and son Doug. Meador is water and waste water superintendent for the local district.

Lions Club, volunteer fire department, Scouting and EMS are organizations claiming Doug's time and interest. He excelled from Basic EMT to Special Skills EMT to become a paramedic. He is now EMS coordinator.

"The unsung hero is an award given to someone who does a lot for the community and often with little praise," Williams said in an-

Lions tie for district's first half

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Lions' 65-48 victory over Forsan Tuesday, Jan. 24, sealed a 4-1 record, tying them with Eldorado for the first half of district play.

Ozona followed up by defeating Regan County last Friday and starting the second half off right in 1-0 fashion.

Despite their efforts, the Lions could not shake Forsan from their tails through the first three quarters. Ozona looked to pull away after gaining a 32-24 halftime lead, but the Buffaloes charged early in the third quarter and came within three at one point.

At this time, the Lions worked to hold the lead, then extend it. By the quarter's end, they had stretched the margin past its previous mark to 48-36.

"Our tempo was beneficial to us," Coach John Curry said. "Eventually we just wore them down."

The fourth period progressed in similar manner and Ozona claimed the win, 65-48.

Oscar Galindo and Lalo Rodriguez scored 16 and 14 points respectively for the Lions as Chris Denman added 11 of his own.

As quickly as the first half finished, the second began and the Lions headed to Reagan County for the first of three road games.

Though only up by three at the first-quarter's end, Ozona held the momentum and carried it into the second period. Reagan County looked out of the picture but retaliated and fought back to within two by halftime.

Finally, in the third period, the Lions began to soundly extend their lead and, despite another rally from Reagan County in the fourth quarter, picked up another victory, 50-44.

"We did a good job defensively," Coach Curry said. "Our press and half-court defense worked well."

Rodriguez contributed 18 points to lead Lion scorers.

Another ten days or so will see the end of regular district play. Ozona could take the championship out right if they win the second half or tie with any one besides Eldorado.

"If we tied with Eldorado again, a playoff would be needed between us to decide first and second place finishes," Curry noted.

But for the moment, the Lions are concentrating on each game.

"All eight of our members are contributing to the team effort."

Ozona faces both McCamey and Eldorado at home this coming Friday and Tuesday. Games begin at 6:30 Friday, and 5:00 Tuesday.

K of C host bi-district dinner

The Ozona council of the Knights of Columbus was host the 1989 bi-district banquet Saturday, Jan. 28. The event began with a Mass at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church at 5 p.m. Fr. Bill Du Buisson and Fr. Ferran Braun were escorted by fourth degree Knights from Ozona and San Angelo.

A social hour at the hall was followed by the awards banquet and a dance.

Approximately 300 Knights were represented from two districts. The largest delegations were from Ozona and St. Lawrence. Other town represented were San Angelo, Rowena, Wall, Olfen, Winters and Miles.

Guest speaker for the evening was Scott McDonald, treasurer of the state office. Other special guests were: Fr. Bruan of San Angelo, Tony Fierro of Arlington and Paul Fiest of San Angelo.

Steve Williams, president of the Ozona Chamber of Commerce, was present to welcome the visitors to Ozona. Romaldo Cervantez was host Grand Knight and Pete Maldonado served as master of ceremonies.

Jimmy Ortiz was recognized as "Knight of the Year", and a council membership award was presented to Past Grand Knight Pete Maldonado for membership from the past year.

"A lot of out-of-town Knights left with a very positive impression of Ozona after the weekend was over," said Maldonado. "This function was a great happening for the council of Ozona and the town of Ozona. We hope to hold this function again in the future with a bigger and better banquet."

Maldonado expressed appreciation to merchants who helped with door prizes and arrangements, to the chamber of commerce, Kay Cee Ladies and New Creation youth group.

Court hears detention plan

A proposal to make the former radar base east of Ozona into a detention center valued at 4.97 million dollars was heard by commissioners' court Monday. John Grice of Diversified Municipal Systems Inc. and John Neville, representing Crockett Detention Center Inc., outlined their plans to turn the property into a 300-350 bed minimum security facility.

Under Grice's proposal, Crockett Detention Center Inc. would sell the property to DSM. The property would then be lease/purchased by Crockett County with CDC contracting to manage the facility.

County funds would be budgeted for the estimated $58,700 per month payments. The same amount would be paid to the county monthly by the managing company. An additional $1.00 per day per prisoner would be paid to the county.

No debts would be contracted in the name of Crockett County or the management company, Grice said. Financial liability to the county would be limited to the amount appropriated for payments during a contract period.

"If we built it...never put one prisoner in there, your maximum exposure would be six months at $58,700," Neville said.

Cost of obtaining the property was reported at 1.5 million. Renovation is expected to cost 3.188 million.

Estimating a 10 million dollar annual economic impact here from salaries and spin offs, Neville said the center would employ a maximum of 40 people when operating at peak capacity.

During a question-answer period, several residents of Crockett Heights, a residential area adjacent to the radar base, voiced their concerns.

"I don't want a prison in my back yard," Don Kilgore told the court. Kilgore questioned whether or not the existing water supply and sewage system would handle the increased usage.

"You all are our only protection," Kilgore told commissioners. He later asked if the Heights homeowners needed to petition to express their disagreement over the proposal.

Possible decline in property values was another concern of residents.

Former Crockett Heights homeowner Mrs. John Bohannon spoke in favor of the center. "I thought it would be a good thing for Ozona when I first heard of it... and I still think that the good of the community should come first, rather than the

by Lottie Lee Baker

When you can think of yesterday without regret and tomorrow without fear, you are near real contentment.

Fear of what is called consequences keeps most of us sober, true and DULL.

We are like beasts when we kill; we are like men when we judge; we are like God when we forgive.

If freedom is important when we don't have it, why shouldn't it be just as important when we do have it?

Don't let the future frighten you - you only face it a little at a time.

The young people of the United States squander over ten billion dollars a year on games of chance. This does not include weddings, starting a business, passing cars on a hill, or buying a television set.

A visitor to Las Vegas received the "cook's tour". He was baked in the sun, stewed at the bar, and burned at the crap tables.

From the amount that some people give to the Lord, they must be positive that it's the little things that count.

Many men hire someone to mow their lawn so they can play golf for exercise.

The reason some people can't mind their own business is because they have very little mind and no business.

Separation of church and state could hardly be more complete. The church teaches that money isn't everything and the government keeps telling us it is.

Grandparents are people who come to your house, spoil the children, then go home.

Knowledge has to be improved, challenged, and increased constantly or it vanishes.

Middle age is when you have given up all your bad habits and still don't feel good.

Serious trouble comes when the New Year's resolutions collide with the old year's bad habits.

Happiness is not something you have in your hands; it is something you carry in your heart.

The Power of Surrender

By Ken Harrison
Ozona United Methodist Church

Maurice Chevalier, the late French actor, once explained to an interviewer that pleasing an audience in the theater was like feeding hungry squirrels. No matter how hungry they might be, you couldn't foist your treats upon them. You couldn't call to them, urge them, or make an obvious offer. You had to pretend to be absolutely indifferent, perhaps even coming to feel something like indifference, before you could reach rapprochement. Once you'd settled down quietly and seemed to promise nothing, they would come comfortably to you.

It would seem that there are certain experiences in this perverse life of ours that will not yield to command; they will yield only to surrender and submission. We have all known desires which can be satisfied only after being suppressed. Often, going to a party bent on having a good time provides just the opposite result. A great meal can be ruined by exaggerated expectations and gluttony. Setting up a specific time to share quality moments with children often proves unrewarding. There are times in which we must back off a bit and submit our intensity to feed and nurture to the slow process of passiveness.

This seems to be the truth Jesus presented in the Sermon on the Mount on dealing with enemies. "Do not resist...turn the other cheek... if someone wants your coat, let him have your cloak as well...if you are forced to go a mile, go two... if someone begs from you let him borrow too." In modern vernacular, give in, back off, cool out, don't push it.

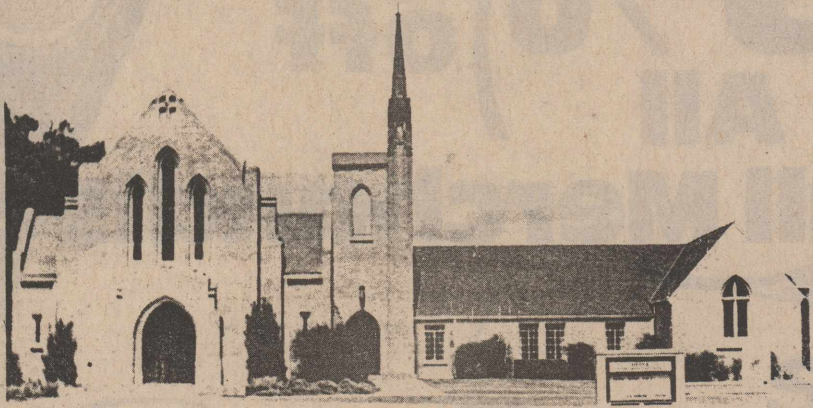

This is not an easy concept to grasp. It is not just non-violence. It is not passive aggression. It is not wimpishness. It is not doormat thinking. It is not being taken advantage of. It is, conversely, a brilliant strategy of using the more powerful forces of good and grace to overcome the evil used against us.

It is the lot of all of us to be insulted and assaulted. WE all have to deal with those who would use us and treat us shamefully. The common response is to retaliate in kind, an eye for an eye, to press our case, to force the issue, to pressure our adversaries. Jesus introduced a better way, a graduate-level response; the disarming way of love. His disciples are to endure rather than to inflict, withstand rather than attack. Back off and play it smart, Jesus says. Turn the cheek, go the extra mile, give the cloak as well as the coat.

This collection of antitheses in the Sermon on the Mount is one of the key elements to the gospel of Jesus, the Christ. To comprehend and practice it is to see beyond the person confronting us, to the evil that possesses that person, and to deal with the evil rather than the personality. Not many of us master this, but those who do have a rare and privileged vision of the Kingdom of God.

Learning to accept others

There's an old saying, "No one will like you unless you like yourself." Well, to change it around a little, "You won't like anyone until you like yourself."

Researchers have found a definite link between a person's self-esteem and their ability to get along with and accept others.

They've found that adults with high self-esteem are not as pre-occupied with themselves, and they make friends more easily than those persons with low self-esteem. They also have less difficulty in speaking their minds and are less sensitive to criticism.

In short, liking oneself is an essential part of caring about others and giving to them.

As people appreciate their own talents and strengths—a big part of self-esteem—they are more likely to be able to appreciate the talents and strengths of someone else.

That's why it's important to help your child develop a strong sense of yes-self-esteem. Without respect and liking for himself, the child can never feel safe in respecting and liking others.

Teaching tolerance and respect for others' feelings is largely a matter of setting examples. "Do as I say and not as I do" doesn't work any better in teaching non-discrimination or respect for others, any better than it works in teaching anything else.

The importance of accepting others should be plain to all of us—we live in a true melting pot, and we each have to be willing and able to get along with every person, regardless of their race, religion, beliefs, or whatever. In fact, how much richer we become when we embrace and understand one another, learning from each other's cultures and taking the best of each culture and lifestyle for adaptation in our own!

Remember, self-esteem is the basis for opening those doors to others, and to a richer, more productive world.

Educational programs and information from the Texas Agricultural Extension Service are available to anyone, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or handicap.

For further information about family life and other concerns, contact the Crockett County Extension Office at 392-2721. We're located on the second floor of the courthouse annex, and we're open Monday-Friday from 8 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Speaking of self-esteem, that's the topic for our Progressive Extension Homemakers Club meeting this month. The program "Increasing Your Self-Esteem" will be presented on Thursday, Feb. 16, at the Civic Center.

Anyone is welcome to attend the club meetings, which last from noon to 1 p.m. There is no obligation to join, and women who are employed outside the home are invited to come and enjoy the fellowship on their lunch hour.

So bring a sack lunch and a guest, and we'll find out how you can feel better about yourself—or teach your children that very important skill!

Clothing workshop Feb. 4

Computer-designed sweatshirts will adorn 4-H members, parents and leaders from around the Far West Texas area this Saturday, Feb. 4, following the District Six 4-H clothing workshop at Ozona's Civic Center from 8:30 until 3:00.

According to County Extension Agent-Home Economics Tedra Ulmer, persons from many of the 21 counties in the Extension District will be attending the event, which is designed to familiarize adults and youth with the 4-H clothing project and associated opportunities.

Crockett County 4-H members, parents, and leaders are urged to attend. Ulmer noted, "This is an excellent opportunity for 4-H leaders and parents to sharpen their clothing skills, and for new 4-H parents to learn more about the opportunities we offer in this program."

Sessions will include purposes of the project, how to take advantage of opportunities such as scholarships and trips through record books and method demonstrations, how state fashion show rules affect fashion shows at the district and county level, and much more.

More, according to Ulmer, includes the designing of customized sweatshirts using a computer graphics program. "Each participant will go home with a unique shirt they have created themselves using the computer and printer," she said.

Those who attend the event will also get a "sneak preview" of the upcoming District Fashion Show, to be held Thursday, July 6 in Ozona's High School Auditorium. This year's theme, said Ulmer, is "Simply Irresistible Fashions," with an "MTV look."

Any 4-H member, parent or leader may attend the workshop on Saturday. There is no charge, but participants are asked to bring a salad for lunch. Everything else will be furnished. "They also need to bring a washed, light-colored sweatshirt or t-shirt for the hands-on experience," the agent noted.

"If you're not currently enrolled in 4-H but are interested in the 4-H clothing program why not come by our office and sign up?" said Ulmer. All Crockett County youth ages 9 (or in the third grade) through 19 are eligible to join, and there are no membership fees.

The 4-H clothing program has something for everyone, including not only the traditional sewing projects, but a new "consumer buying" aspect where the 4-H member learns to comparison shop, puts together an ensemble, and models it in a fashion show. "It's a great option if you hate to sew," stated Ulmer.

"It's not mandatory to be in the fashion show to complete a project," Ulmer noted, "but many of our 4-H members enjoy the modeling experience most of all." Another activity which is being considered this year is a class exploring different types of handwork—from quilting to cross stitch to embroidery—for 4-H'ers with some sewing experience.

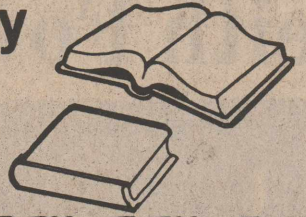

Leaders are also needed for clothing. No experience is necessary—just like kids and help them learn!

For further information about the workshop or the 4-H clothing project, contact the Crockett County Extension Office at 392-2721, or come by the office, located on the second floor of the Courthouse Annex.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or handicap.

Kimble Co pushes school tax downward

by Jacquelyn Shacklette

A 25-cent increase per $100 valuation is too much was the message Kimble County voters sent the Junction Independent School District recently when the 1988 increase was rolled-back.

The school responded immediately by scheduling an all district employee meeting last week to discuss some options to effect cost-cutting.

Superintendent George Wright told the school board in a special meeting later the same day that $153,000 needs to be cut. He said most of the proposed cuts would take place in the 1989-90 budget year but savings should begin as soon as possible.

Personnel and programs were targeted as big dollar savers. Possible cuts include two of four kindergarten aids, a PEIMS clerk and another aide.

An elementary principal's position may be eliminated as well as that of a K-8 counselor, effecting savings of $59,498 for those two positions alone.

One of the three art teachers could be cut also. The superintendent recommended one fewer athletic coaches.

Cuts in programs include consolidating seventh and eighth grade athletics or abolishing athletics for seventh graders, doing away with a transitional first grade, eliminating art for fourth and fifth grades and abolishing high school baseball.

Costs could be cut in transportation by consolidating bus routes and eliminating services on non-paved roads. Other transportation savings could be made by requiring directors and coaches to drive as part of their jobs without extra pay.

All meals for students and school personnel on out-of-town trips may be cut completely thereby saving almost $15,000 annually.

A savings of $4,500 may be saved by not paying for tutorials. Cheerleaders may lose $1,500 which has been budgeted for uniforms.

Over $9,000 may be saved by requiring students to bear the costs of their own football insurance. Three department heads may not continue receiving increments totaling $4,500.

Coaches may be allowed only one conference per year.

School trustees will be forced to make decisions soon because teacher contracts will be considered for renewal in February. Teachers are required by state law to be informed as to renewal of contracts before April 1.

Tax rates will be rolled back in 1989-90 to an estimated $1.0669 per $100 valuation. Voters favored the roll-back 598 to 357. A failure to cut school costs may drain reserves by $200,000.

Crockett County's school taxes were set at $ .98 in the fall of 1988, coming up a nickel from the previous $ .93 per $100 valuation.

The San Angelo Stock Show and Rodeo will be held March 8-12. For the past 22 years the Creative Arts Department has been a part of the stock show and rodeo.

The nine divisions this year are: clothing, foods, hobbies and crafts, needlework, flower arrangements, art, handpainted china, ceramics and plaster art, and photography.

The two special contests are pies and cakes and "For Men Only". There is a $1.00 entry fee per entry in the special contests.

There is no entry fee for the other competitions, and entries are open to men, women and children. Deadline for entries is Saturday, Feb. 4. Entry forms will be accepted at the stock show office and the community booth at Sunset Mall on Saturday, Feb. 4, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

For more information, contact the San Angelo Stock Show and Rodeo Office at 200 West 43rd in San Angelo.

An organizational meeting for a local chapter of Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) was held Thursday, Jan. 26.

A few of the topics discussed were the goals and responsibilities of MADD. Plans were begun for researching local problems. These were followed by discussion of solutions to these problems once defined.

The group will be meeting every fourth Thursday of the month in Crockett County Public Library at 7 p.m.

Anyone interested in joining MADD is welcome to attend the next meeting to be held on Feb. 23. For more information, call 392-3878.

Tina Moran recently attended the University of Texas Health and Science Center at San Antonio for a review of fundamental principles of dental radiography. TSBDE revised rules effective Jan. 1, 1989 require dental personnel taking x-rays to meet certain criteria in x-ray function, radiographic film and image formation, radiation biology and protection, radio-graphic recognition and identification and quality assurance. An examination for certification in dental radiology will be available soon through TSBDE.

A very informative course taught by clinician John W. Preece, DDS, was attended by dental assistants from all over Texas.

Childresses go to sheep meet

Pleas and Sandra Childress attended the American Sheep Industry Convention in Las Vegas Jan. 18-21. The convention was jointly sponsored by the National Wool Growers Association, National Lamb Feeders Association and the American Sheep Producers Council. Childress served on the budget and finance committee and the lamb advisory committee meeting at the convention.

Landmark of the convention was the merger of the organizations to form the new American Sheep Industry Association.

"Meeting the Challenge" was the convention theme. The keynote speaker, Dr. William M. Boast, noted educator and administrator, international consultant and author, spoke on capitalizing on change. He challenged participants to adjust as necessary to make change an opportunity.

Some of the nation's leading experts in lamb, wool, international trade and marketing spoke during the convention. The industry trade show was well attended, and the Make It Yourself With Wool fashion show was a highlight of the convention.

"Meeting the Lamb Marketing Challenge" featured Drs. John Allen and Tom Pierson of Michigan State University and representatives of the Sterling-Rice Group in Boulder, Colorado. Speakers discussed the importance of effective marketing programs and how to reach the consumer with the most effective message.

A team of Texas A&M and Colorado State University researchers reviewed the latest research on "Meeting the Challenge in Lamb Feeding and Product Distribution". They took lamb through product stages to the meatcase. Dr. Russell Cross and Dr. Jeff Savell of Texas A&M and Dr. Daryl Tatum of Colorado State University were the speakers for this session.

"Meeting the Management Challenge" featured Dr. Wayne Purcell of Virginia Tech, Dr. Charles Parker of Ohio State University and a panel on the National Sheep Improvement Program. A wool marketing panel and Thomas Drummond of the Australian Wool Corporation addressed "Meeting the Challenge in Wool Marketing".

Annual meetings of the three sponsoring organizations took place during the convention. Other groups holding meetings at the American Sheep Industry Convention included: Sheep Industry Development Program, National Sheep Improvement Program, Columbia Sheep Breeders Association, National Wool Marketing Corporation, Western Range Association and National Live Stock Producers Association.

Scout executive, Boy Scouts of America.

Other Scouts receiving badges during the evening were: Tooter O'Bryant, Bruce Beasley, Ricky Burger, Keith Sessom, Michael Gray, Elliott Barrera Jr., John Vasquez and John Usener.

County Auditor Sandy Stokes was told the county "would have access to every number that involves that facility" by John Neville.

Judge Mayfield assured the audience the court will independently research information on other detention centers. Grice had talked briefly about centers in Zavala, Uvalde, Clayburg and Maverick Counties and at Pecos in Reeves County.

Should Crockett County commissioners decide in favor of the project, it could be open as early as next fall, Neville said. He estimated a 60 day period to get the money in place after approval, and 180 days for renovation.

Lemons can't always be sour

A lemon is a lemon is a lemon isn't always so learned 6th grade entrepreneurship students recently.

Can a lemon be a "friend"? It can if you're in the sixth-grade entrepreneurship class at Ozona Junior High school.

Tedra Ulmer, County Extension Agent-Home Economics, says the sixth-graders each chose a lemon, gave it a name, and were told to study its appearance so they could recognize it again.

"Then all the lemons were taken up and put back in the grocery sack," Ulmer said. "At the end of class they were told to find their lemon again."

Ulmer noted that some of the sixth-graders were successful, some were not.

The idea behind the activity was that each of us is a human being. We each have some recognizable features, but essentially, we all look the same under the surface, and we all live together and work together to make a society--much like all the lemons could be put together to make lemonade.

A second activity with the lemons involved the students taking the lemons with them overnight. They were to introduce the lemons to their friends and give them faces or clothing, if they wished.

"The purpose of this exercise was to teach them how important it is to be self-confident in what you're doing, and also to teach them the value of friendship," Ulmer said. "Some of the students were pretty creative with their new 'friends'."

Along with the lemon exercise, each student made a "thumbkin," using a thumb print and original artwork to make a little "critter," which each student then named.

"The idea, again, was that each of us, while being very similar to others, is still an individual with special features," Ulmer said.

A third exercise the students enjoyed was directly related to self-esteem. Each student had a blank card taped to his or her back, and other students wrote compliments on the cards.

Compliments ranged, according to Ulmer, from "A #1 Tuba Player" to "good basketball player" to "sweet girl." Each student was encouraged to save his or her card, and take it out to review when it seems everyone is "picking" on them.

"It's a pretty good lift for your spirits to see the nice things your peers think about you," Ulmer said.

The entrepreneurship class project on self-esteem is being carried out jointly by the Junior High School under the direction of Principal Buddy Hooper and teachers Renee Schultze and Craig Cooke, and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or handicap.

Failure to register may earn prison term

Young men who will turn 26 in 1989 will be reaching an important milestone, according to the Selective Service System.

Beginning on January 1, 1989, men who were required to register with Selective Service in 1981 will be turning 26. Selective Service does not have the authority to accept late registrations after a man reaches his 26th birthday.

Selective Service State Director Harold D. Doyle warned that, with few exceptions, a man who fails to register before turning 26 will permanently forfeit his eligibility for certain federal benefits such as student aid, job training, and most federal employment, in addition to facing possible prosecution as a felon.

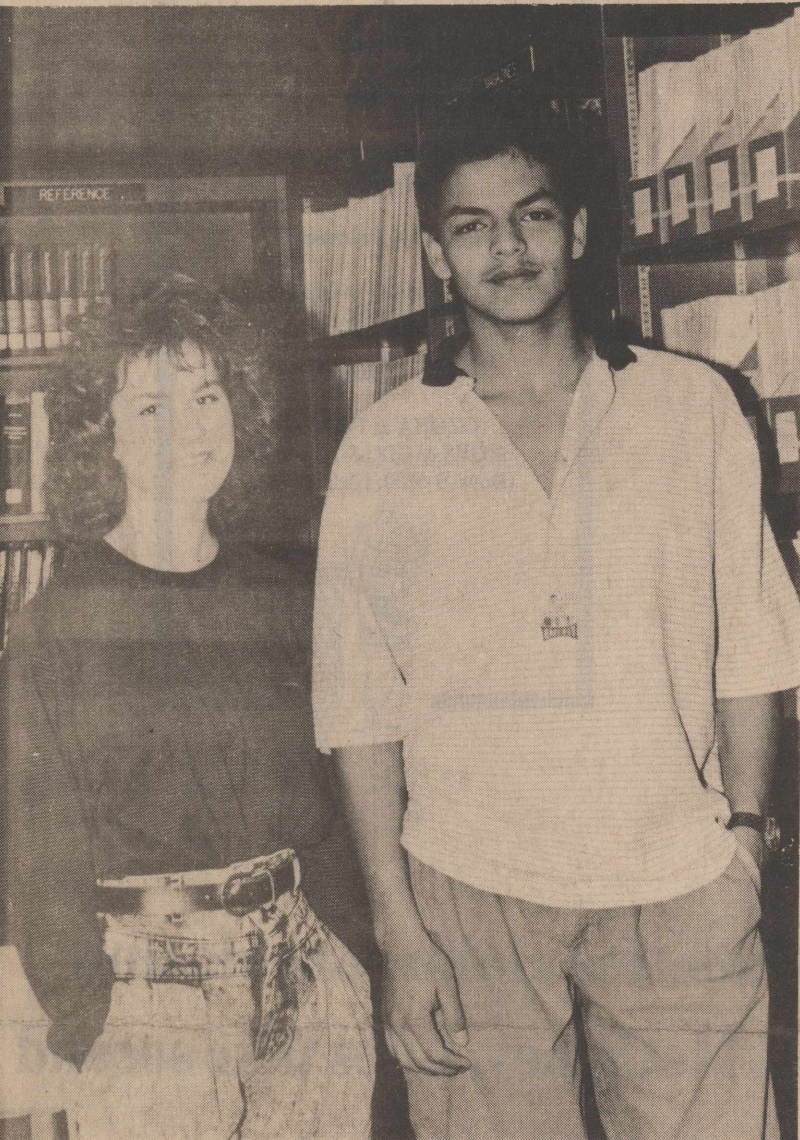

Some states also require registration for state student aid, entrance to state-supported colleges and universities, state employment, and permission to practice law.

Many of the men who have not registered may be unaware of the requirement or do not understand the importance of the obligation to register. Some may even have served in the military but failed to register either before entering the armed forces or after leaving active duty. Others may have been institutionalized or incarcerated at the time of their 18th birthday and did not realize they were required to register if released prior to age 26. State Director Doyle points out that men age 18 through 25 who have not yet registered can avoid the risk of prosecution and loss of benefits by registering promptly at any local post office. Failure to register is a felony punishable by a fine of up to $25,000, up to 5 years in prison, or both.

For those men born in 1963 who have registered, 1989 also marks the year that ends their eligibility for selection for induction under present law.

Over 21 million men have registered with Selective Service since registration was reinstated in 1980. Currently, over one million Texas men age 18 through 25 are registered.

Miss OHS of 1988-89 is Stacie Winkley. Oscar Galindo was chosen Mr. OHS.

Ladies end half with Forsan loss

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

A second-half splurge prompted the Ozona Lady Lions to a 40-25 district victory over Forsan Tuesday, Jan. 24. The Ladies game with Reagan County the following Friday did not go as well.

A 6-4 lead in the first quarter faded as Forsan fought back to tie matters at 11-all by halftime; however, the Ozona collected 19 points to Forsan's nine in the third quarter to lead 30-20 going into the final quarter.

Never touching the brakes, the Lady Lions won 40-25.

Stacy Lay and Dottie Gonzales led Ozona scorers with 11 and eight points respectively.

Though they snatched an early significant lead, the Lady Lions fell behind Reagan County by the opening quarter's end last Friday. Reagan County used the early push to win 72-49.

In the second quarter, Regan County extended their lead to 43-20. Ozona kept pace with their opponents in the second half, each scoring 29 points, but the first-half deficit could not be overcome by any means.

Lay and Gonzales again provided the Ladies major scoring, tallying 16 and 14 points respectively.

The girls host McCamey this Friday, Feb. 3, with games beginning at 6:30. Next Tuesday, they host Eldorado. Games then start at 5:00.

J.V. Lions start half with loss to Big Lake

by Copie Davis
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Ozona Lion J.V. began the second half of District 6-2A basketball action Friday in Big Lake against Reagan County. However, it wasn't the start they were looking for as the Owls used a huge first quarter to hand the Lions a 50-47 loss.

The first period turned out to be the nail in the coffin for Ozona as it was the only quarter in which they were outscored. Reagan County poured in 13 points in the quarter while their stingy defense held the Lions to only six.

In the second quarter, both teams played at the same speed. Although Ozona was able to break through Reagan County's defensive well, the Owls had a few wall breakers of their own as each team hit for 16 points in the period.

At the half, Reagan County led by a safe margin of seven points, 29-22.

In the third quarter, the Lions grabbed a little momentum and put it to good use, outscoring the Owls by two and coming within striking distance of the lead. With eight minutes to go, Ozona was down by five.

During the fourth quarter showdown, the Lions made a desperate attempt to snatch the game away from Reagan County. Although the Owls slowed the game to a walk, Ozona outscored them 11-9. However, this wasn't enough to steal away a win, and Reagan County prevailed 50-47.

Michale Ybarra led all scorers with nine while Danny Dehoyos put in eight. Behind them were Shane Pridemore and Ruben Borrego with six each.

Primary to hold annual book fair

Cubs claim two victories

The Cubs played here in Ozona against Sonora Jan. 23. The 7th and 8th grade squads both won.

The first quarter had the 7th grade Cubs up 21-7, and they never looked back, winning 40-24.

Both Daniel Caldera and Gerald Ortiz scored 12 points for Ozona's efforts.

The 8th grade Cubs, led by Joe Mendoza and Manny Munoz' scoring, won by five points after being tied with Sonora for the first half before taking the lead for good in the third quarter.

Mendoza and Munoz each contributed six points.

Lions stampede Buffalos 63 - 46

by Copie Davis
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Ozona J.V. Lions' basketball team took on the Forsan Buffalo J.V. Jan. 24 in an attempt to regain their winning ways after having a mid-season streak ended two Firdays ago. Led by Lonnie Martinez, the Lions stung the Buffalos 63-46.

The game began as a hotly contested battle with both teams fighting for the lead. At the end of the first eight minutes, Ozona had taken a slim two-point advantage, 12-10.

In the second quarter, the Lions hit full stride, burning the Buffs for 19 points. However, this did not stop Forsan from lighting up their side of the scoreboard as they stuffed in 13 points of their own.

At the intermission, Ozona led by eight, 31-23...and they were far from finished.

After the half, the Lions began to blister Forsan once again. Ozona cranked out 16 points in the third quarter compared to 12 pumped in by the Buffalos. With one quarter to play, the Lions had a "turn out the lights" type 47-35 lead.

In the final period, Ozona finally slowed the tempo of the game just a little bit, but not enough to let the Buffalos back in. The Lions ended the game by stuffing in 16 more points while their bend-but-don't-break defense allowed Forsan only 11. The final score was Ozona 63, Forsan 46.

Ozona's leading scorer was Lonnie Martinez who sizzled his way to 23 points in the game. he was followed by Michael Ybarra with 10 and Danny DeHoyos with eight.

Lady Owls squeak by Lady Lions

by Copie Davis
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Ozona J.V. Lady Lions traveled to Big Lake Jan. 27 to try and start the second half of district play with a win. However, after leading for three quarters, the Lady Lions dropped their guard and let Reagan County slip by them 26-25.

In the first quarter, the Lady Owls hit one more shot than Ozona and took a 5-3 lead. However, in the second quarter, the Lady Lions unleashed their brand of offensive fury, reeling off 11 points while allowing Reagan County a mere total of two.

At the halftime intermission, the Lady Lions had established a comfortable 14-7 lead.

In the third period, Ozona outscored Reagan County once again. This time the tally was six points to four. Going into the final period, the Lady Lions led by nine 20-11. Then, everything went up in flames.

The flames were ignited by Reagan County's run and gun offense which reeled off 15 points compared to only five by the Lady Lions. When the smoke finally cleared, the Lady Owls had stolen a one-point victory away from the Lady Lions 26-25.

Kim Coy led Ozona in scoring with seven while Offie Rios, Misty Fowler and Letty Dominguez each had four.

Cubettes take win, suffer loss to Sonora Colts

The 7th and 8th grade Cubettes played in Sonora Jan. 23, to take one win and one loss.

The 7th Cubettes had a slow start while Sonora did just the opposite. In the final quarter, the Cubettes scored nine points while holding Sonora to only five, but despite their efforts, lost 14-18. Diana Ramirez and Maribel Dela Garza added six and five points respectively.

The 8th grade Cubettes took another victory over Sonora 16-13. Behind two points at half, the girls claimed control in the following half and cruised to their win.

Julie Childress, Hollie Williams and Jennifer Payne scored four points apiece.

"Sonora's defense was excellent," Robyn Payne said. "The Cubettes have learned how to handle the pressure well.

"Also the girls have more confidence in themselves, and consequently we have more people scoring. I am pleased with their improvement since the Christmas holidays."

J.V. girls lose to Buffs

by Copie Davis
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Ozona J.V. Lady Lions took on Forsan Jan. 24 in the final game of the first half of district play. The Lady Lions would probably like another shot at this one, as they lost to Forsan 24-21.

The Ladies took the early lead in the game as they outscored Forsan eight to six in the first quarter. However, that lead could not last very long.

In the second quarter, the Lady Buffalos gained control of the game and took the lead as they poured in eight points compared to three by Ozona. At the half, the Lady Lions found themselves trailing by three, 14-11.

Ozona shut out Forsan completely in the third quarter. However, they could only score two points of their own. With eight minutes to play, Forsan led by one.

In the final period, the Lady Buffalos rediscovered their offense and cranked out 10 points while holding Ozona to only eight. When time ran out, the Lady Buffalos had held on to a 24-21 victory.

The Lady Lions' leading scorers were Kim Coy with eight and Sandra Fuentes with five. Right behind was Misty Fowler with four.

The Midland County Livestock Show will dedicate its 40th annual show next week to Jane Schweitzer, a Midland rancher who worked with youth in Midland County 4-H Clubs and Future Farmers of America projects.

Mrs. Schweitzer died at age 57 in a traffic mishap last March when she was driving to her family ranch south of Bakersfield in Pecos County.

The rancher had been working with young people in the livestock show since the late 1960s, when she enrolled her son, Lee, now 29, in the 4-H Club.

"It was pretty evident she was interested in working with young folks," recalled Charlie Green, president of the livestock show and a retired Midland County agricultural agent.

"I don't know anybody who put in as much dedication time and service - for the benefit of youth than she did," Green said. "I don't mean to downplay anybody else. She was particularly interested in the livestock program and ranching interests."

Mrs. Schweitzer's roles in the livestock show included the coaching of grass-judging teams and the classifying of lambs.

"She always was just brimming with vitality and was outgoing, optimistic and friendly," Green said.

Mrs. Schweitzer's son, Lee, said his mother was a "good lady. I guess she brightened the lives of a lot of guys and girls my age."

Mrs. Schweitzer, who "had more skillsets in the fire," expanded her interests from youth and ranching to archaeology and genealogy, he said. And she "was pretty good" at running her family's Augustine Ranch.

"Everybody has their time to go," he said. Mrs. Schweitzer is survived by her husband, David George Schweitzer; a daughter, Jana Lynn Lane of Bryan-College Station; the son, and grandchildren.

Editor's Note: Tribute was paid to Mrs. Schweitzer, daughter of Mrs. Walter Augustine of Ozona, during the stockshow which began Jan. 11.
