His and Hers

by Scotty and Linda Moore

HIS

After browsing through the Brownfield News, I came across a funny story only if it happens to the other fellow, and being a past ham radio operator it hit close to home.

The following describes an accident that happened to this unfortunate fellow, as he reported it to his insurance company:

"I am writing in response to your request for additional information for Block number 3 of the Accident Reporting Form. I put "poor planning" as the cause for my accident. You said in your letter I should explain more fully, and I trust the following details will be sufficient.

"I am an amateur radio operator and on the day of the accident, I was working alone on the top section of my new 80-foot tower.

"When I had completed my work I discovered that I had, over the course of several trips up the tower, brought up about 300 pounds of tools and hardware. Rather than carry the now un-needed tools and materials down by hand, I decided to lower the items down in a small barrel by using a pulley, which fortunately was attached to the gin pole at the top of the tower.

"Securing the rope at ground level, I went to the top of the tower and loaded the tools and materials in the barrel. I went back to the ground and untied the rope holding it tightly to ensure a slow descent of the 300 pounds of tools.

"You will note in Block Number 11 of the Accident Reporting Form that I weigh 155 pounds.

"Due to my surprise at being jerked off the ground so suddenly, I lost my presence of mind and forgot to let go of the rope. Needless to say, I proceeded at a rather rapid rate of speed up the side of the tower. In the vicinity of the 40-foot level, I met the barrel coming down; this explains my fractured skull and broken collarbone.

"Slowed only slightly, I continued my rapid ascent, not stopping until the fingers of my right hand were two knuckles deep into the pulley.

"Fortunately, by this time, I had regained my presence of mind and was able to hold on the rope in spite of the pain.

"At approximately the same time, however, the barrel of tools hit the ground and the bottom fell out of the barrel. Devoid of the weight of the tools, the barrel now weighed approximately 20 pounds. I refer you again to my weight in Block Number 11 of 155 pounds.

"As you might imagine, I began a rather rapid descent down the side of the tower. In the vicinity of the 40-foot level, I met the barrel coming up; this accounts for the two fractured ankles and lacerations on my legs and lower body.

"The encounter with barrel slowed me enough to lessen my injuries when I fell onto the pile of tools, and fortunately only three vertebrae were cracked.

"I'm sorry to report, however, that as I lay there on the tools, in pain, unable to stand, and watching the empty barrel 80 feet above me, I again lost my presence of mind.

"I let go of the rope!"

This has got to be the hottest summer in history with the temperature topping 109 degrees the past several days. Donald McCaleb from Houston, who is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. McCaleb, said that it was the first time that he could remember when even the wind was hot here in Ozona. Those of you who haven't shipped your lambs yet will surely notice a steady decrease in their weight with these super hot days.

Ozona was hit with a flag mutilator last Thursday. His or her piece of traitorous handiwork was performed on Lisa Wagner's flag in the front yard of Crockett Funeral Home. The scumbag that did it had to shimmy up the pole, hold on with one hand and perform his or her act with the other. He or she was probably light in weight and has the mentality of a six-year-old. One thing for sure, he is mighty lucky that a veteran didn't drive by and catch him in the act!

Chamber to sponsor blood drive

Ozona Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a blood drive with United Blood Services Wednesday, July 12. The drive will be held at the chamber office between 1 and 6 p.m. United Blood Services is this area's nonprofit community blood provider. The organization collects blood from volunteer donors, then tests, processes and distributes it to 24 area hospitals. To supply the needs of these hospitals, it requires 75 units a day.

Arson charge filed

Abel Galindo Villarreal, 18, of Ozona was arrested June 27 on a charge of arson in connection with a fire at Wool Growers. He was released June 28 after posting a $25,000 bond.

The arrest was the result of an investigation by Fire Marshal Steve Kenley, Texas Ranger Danny Rhea and members of the Crockett County Sheriff's Department.

Firemen responded to a fire in the hay barn at Wool Growers in the early hours of June 23.

Chamber 4th of July festivities draws large crowd

Rumbling thunder and a sprinkle of rain drops started Ozona's Fourth of July celebration on an optimistic note Tuesday afternoon. A strong breeze and temperatures in the low 80's made the afternoon on the square pleasant for booth operators and visitors to the event.

The raising of the United States Flag by Boy Scouts Elliott Barrera Jr., Doug Meador, Brandon Adams and John Paul Usener was attended by a group of citizens who clapped after the banner reached the top of the pole.

One booth contained a petition directed to President Bush expressing "pride and loyalty to our country and flag". The document continued by saying "we are proud to be citizens of the United States of America and that we appreciate and encourage your efforts before Congress to preserve the sanity of the Stars and Stripes; Old Glory; our Flag. May the Lord continue to bless your tenure as president, bless our country, and to convict our disloyal citizens of their mistake in refusing to uphold the great qualities upon which our country was built."

Animals of varying descriptions competed for top honors in the pet parade sponsored by Ozona Chamber of Commerce. Dogs, cats and several ranch animals paraded before the judges, while at another booth, show rabbits from Bar 4 Rabbitry awaited buyers.

Booths displaying country crafts were sponsored by Nelda Wagoner and T.K. O'Bryant, Choyda Squiers, Templo Siloe, Sara Hignight and Deana Porter.

Nancy Henry of Odessa added a touch of the Southwest with her display of handcrafted pottery and jewelry. Also displaying jewelry was Joella Graves with a silver collection.

Ozona Floral's Gloria Wilson operated a helium balloon booth which included flowers, cacti and a Southwestern collection.

Paula Hester displayed denim vests and dresses at her booth.

Games were sponsored by the chamber, EMS and 4-H with Jim House making a splash at the 4-H dunking booth.

Tracy Bullard and Leslie Berry entertained the younger set with their face painting abilities.

The western influence was evident in a collection of photographs made in Texas and New Mexico by Neal and Tedra Ulmer.

Food and drink booths were sponsored by Luis Longoria, Xi Sigma Omega, Knights of Columbus, Tem-plo Siloe, Ozona Volunteer Fire Department, George Ybarra, Child Welfare Board, Matilda and Rebecca Tasha Emery and Rebecca Martinez.

Jewel Bailey performs at Covered Wagon Theater

Ozona's Jewel Bailey will perform at the Covered Wagon Dinner Theater near Sonora July 7. Mrs. Bailey has entertained at the theater each year since it began in 1987. She, along with other Ozonans, provided the program for the season opener in 1987 and 1988.

This year, Mrs. Bailey represents Schleicher County and her family's history there. She will be gowned for her performance in the wedding dress worn by her mother Sept. 3, 1903.

Mrs. Bailey's story will relate hardships suffered by her father, Ambrose Roach, and his family in Ireland before coming to America in 1880. Roach was a teenager when his family left Ireland shortly after the Potato Famine. Arrival of the Roach family in Schleicher County and their adventures as pioneers plays an important part in her program.

Among those assisting in Friday night's performance is Mrs. Lowell Littleton who will wear one of five of Mrs. Roach's trousseau garments preserved by Mrs. Bailey.

One portion of the evening's entertainment includes a presentation on Sutton county pioneers by Nancy Brockman of Sonora.

Tickets for the show are $4 and may be obtained at the gate. Reservations are not necessary except for groups of more than 10 persons. Dinner is catered each evening by Sutton County Steakhouse and is priced at $4.95 per plate. The evening's activities begin at 6:30 p.m. and are usually over by 9.

The season runs through Saturday, Aug. 12, and shows are held each Friday and Saturday night during that time. The location at the Caverns of Sonora is eight miles west of Sonora, exit 392 off I-10.

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Texas lawmakers, hoping someone will blink in the special session standoff, left for the holiday weekend trusting a hot July Fourth will cool frustrations. Most action was behind the scenes with little results as House panel members debated a controversial workers' compensation reform package deemed crucial to the Texas economy.

Earlier, acting quickly, the Senate approved and sent the House its liberal version, and then lawmakers crisscrossed the rotunda all week bent on hammering out a compromise, with little progress.

At week's end, House Speaker Gib Lewis said, "greedy special interests" who wouldn't give an inch have snarled this issue worse than any issue he has ever seen.

The key issue is the Senate's insistence that jury trials be allowed to settle disputes, while the House adamantly seeks a non-trial solution desired by pro-business groups.

Special Interest Players

Alliances among the lobbyists pit labor groups and the trial lawyers against business, insurance and medical groups which argue that jury awards are too expensive and drive up insurance costs.

Newly entering the fray on opposite sides were the United Farm Workers and the Texas Farm Bureau, which seeks to cut protections for farm workers forged in a 1984 compromise.

Lame Duck Hobby

Pro-business groups want employers to be able to hire five employees before having to purchase mandated insurance. The 1984 deal limits farms and ranches to three workers without mandated insurance, but now the Farm Bureau wants it kicked up to five, same as other businesses.

Their proposal angered Mexican American Caucus lawmakers (who generally support the labor-trial lawyer position anyway), and drew concern from Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, who helped craft the 1984 pact.

Hobby doesn't want changes in farm workers coverage, and some observers wonder if this is the first bona fide challenge to Hobby as a lame duck.

Hobby, who has wielded the gavel longer than any Texan, has said he will retire from politics next year, but he wouldn't be the first to get mad and jump back in.

"MIT on the Trinity"

Meanwhile, Gov. Bill Clements widened the agenda to permit lawmakers to consider repeal of a measure on crime victim identity, to expand three state colleges, create a Department of Transportation and allow physicians to prescribe drugs to some terminally ill patients.

The new law, which allows police agencies to withhold the names of felony crime victims, has angered news organizations and confused law enforcement departments.

A bill upgrading the two-year, upper division University of Texas at Dallas to full-university status passed quickly.

Sponsors dubbed the new school

"MIT on the Trinity," a bow to famous Massachusetts Institute of Technology, to stress hopes it will become a world-class university in new technology.

Another Jim Wright?

An Aug. 12 special election was set by Clements to replace U.S. Rep. Jim Wright, who resigned his congressional seat last Friday. Democrats seem to be rallying behind Pete Geren, while the GOP leans to Dr. Bob Lanier, allergist and TV personality.

Meanwhile, James C. Wright 3rd, 44-year-old son of the former House speaker and a resident of Riconada, New Mexico, confirmed that he has been encouraged to return to Fort Worth and run for Congress.

Although he is not currently a Texas resident, the younger Wright could run for the office as long as he establishes a Texas residence by August 12, said Brad Gahm, Texas assistant secretary of state.

The door is also open for several state legislators to run without giving up their present office, including Texas House Speaker Gib Lewis, state Sen. Hugh Parmer, and others, assuming the special session is over by then.

On another front, Houston businessman Tommy Fatjo threw his hat in the race for Comptroller on the GOP ticket.

Fatjo, a new face on the political stage, is a successful entrepreneur who has ample pro-business support as a base.

Probst-Avery repeat vows

Jennifer Paige Probst and Lonny Kyle Avery were united in marriage Saturday, July 1, 1989, in Alpine.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Jack Probst of Ozona, was given in marriage by her father in a ceremony held in First Baptist Church. Bill Morrison, Church of Christ minister of Wheeler, officiated.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Avery of Marathon.

The radiant bride was dressed in a gown of bright white tuxedo taffeta featuring a triple bow bustle with streamers reaching to the edge of the chapel-length train-skirt. The boat-neck bodice with basque waist was made of Chantilly lace trimmed in beaded Alencon lace coming to a deep "V" and ending at the bustle in the back. Crisp, ruffled, short, full sleeves added to the summer design of the dress.

A halo of seed pearls and miniature daisies held the chapel-length veil.

She carried a bouquet of pink and white rose buds, daisies and baby's breath with streamers of country blue and pink ribbons.

The 1916 sanctuary of the First Baptist Church was simply embellished with country bows of bleached cornhusks with satin blue and mauve ribbons and lighted candleabras. The ring pillow was fashioned from pieces of a quilt made by the bride's great-grandmother.

Maid of honor Suzanne Franks of Iraan and bridesmaids Kathy Hicks of San Antonio, Mendy Clay of Center Point and Kristi Hooker of Cypress wore tea-length dresses of country blue and white striped chintz set off by shoulder-width white collars coming to a point at the waist. Each young lady carried a natural straw garden hat adorned with satin ribbons, rosebuds and baby's breath.

Flower girl Tiffany Avery of Levelland was dressed in a tea-length country pink and white striped chintz dress set off by the same style white collar as the bridesmaids. She also wore a wreath of baby's breath and miniature rosebuds and ribbons in her hair. She carried a natural basket encircled with pink ribbons and filled with watermelon potpourri.

The bridegroom was attired in a white tuxedo with tails. He was attended by: Buddy Cavness of Alpine as best man and groomsmen Bill Avery of Barnhart, Mike Avery of Levelland and Gary Boyer of San Angelo.

Ring bearer was Wesley Avery of Barnhart. Serving as candlelighters were Benjamin Boyer of San Angelo and Thomas Skinner of Alpine.

Ushers for the ceremony were Michael Glaze of Ozona and Clint Roberts of Marathon. John Skinner of Alpine was train bearer.

Each wore a white tuxedo. Special music was provided by organist Linda Boyer of San Angelo and flautist Melody Stark of Ozona.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Probst chose an eggshell two-piece accordeon pleated dress. The dropped waistline was edged in re-embroidered lace.

Mrs. Avery was dressed in a linen suit with a mauve skirt, white blouse and pastel-floral jacket.

The reception was held in the hospitality room of the Alpine Country Club. Stacy Lay of Ozona presided at the registry table which was covered with an antique crib quilt of blue and pink and held a basket of blue and white wildflowers and English ivy.

The bride's table, skirted in white, was covered with a blue and white quilt, a wedding gift to the bride's maternal great-great-grandmother. An immense basket of mixed garden flowers, enhanced with a double bow of blue and white chintz, centered the table.

The bride's cake appeared to float, as the three-tiers were not connected. It was an illusion of iced lace, leaves and rosebuds. The bridegroom's cake was a tiered mass of chocolate.

The beverage table, also skirted and covered with an antique quilt of amber and white, held the copper coffee service and antique amber glass punch bowl. A large natural basket of Scotch ivy and helium-filled white balloons dominated the table.

The gift table was the setting for Jennifer's life-long companion, Suzy Bear, who smiled over a basket of greenery and blue and white chintz bow while wearing a headpiece of ribbons, rosebuds and daisies.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery hosted a true country barbecue rehearsal dinner on their lawn in Marathon. The fountain and patio were brightened by twinkling lights with candles and pails centering each picnic table.

The bridesmaid's luncheon was hosted by Jennifer and her mother at the home of Mrs. LeRoy Hinkle in Alpine.

The bride is a 1987 graduate of Ozona High School and attends Sul Ross State University in Alpine. She is a professional cosmetologist.

The bridegroom is a 1984 graduate of Marathon High School. He has attended Sul Ross State University and is employed as overseer for Skinner's Well Service.

Following a wedding trip to Los Angeles, the couple will be at home in Alpine.

Lonnie

It's been four yours since you've been gone,
But never once have we forgotten.
Thoughts of you are with us daily,
Like an Angel on it's way
To cheer us up throughtout the day
We still miss you dearly, Lon;
But happy memories of you live on.
You'll be in our hearts forever,
And someday God will bring us together.
But for now we'll live our lives,
And remember all the good times.

DAIRY FOOD SAFETY CHECKLIST

Consumers can keep milk and other dairy foods safe by taking the following steps:

- When shopping, examine containers for leaks or other damages.
- Check "sell-by" dates. Products generally can be used for a few days after the sell-by date if they have been properly stored.
- Pick up milk and other perishable dairy foods just before checking out of the store, especially in hot weather.
- Take products home immediately after purchase and refrigerate them as soon as possible.
- Refrigerate milk, cream, cottage cheese and similar products in their original containers. After opening, close containers tightly.
- Refrigerate cheese in its original wrap until opened. After opening, rewrap the cheese tightly in moisture-vapor wrap or place in airtight containers.
- Store dry milk and canned milk in a cool dry place. Once reconstituted, milk should be refrigerated. Once canned milk is opened, pour into a clean container and keep refrigerated.
- Use milk in the order purchased.
- Serve milk cold.

"Do you not yet understand?"

Mark 8:14-21

Now they had forgotten to bring bread; and they had only one loaf with them in the boat.

And He cautioned them, saying, "Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod."

And they discussed it with one another, saying, "We have no bread."

And being aware of it, Jesus said to them, "Why do you discuss the fact that you have no bread? Do you not yet perceive or understand? Are your hearts hardened? Having eyes do you not see, and having ears do you not hear? And do you not remember? When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?"

They said to him, "Twelve."

"And the seven for the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?"

And they said to him, "Seven."

And he said to them, "Do you not yet understand?"

Deer hunting changes adopted

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission, in a public meeting in Austin recently, reduced the white-tailed deer bag limit in some counties for the 1989-90 hunting seasons and authorized a longer spring turkey hunting season for 1990.

All the proposed changes were discussed in public hearings across the state during May, and the new regulations will go into effect Sept. 1.

The general white-tailed deer season was set for Nov. 4, 1989, through Jan. 7, 1990, in most of Texas. In all or portions of 28 South Texas counties, the Whitetail season is Nov. 11, 1989, through Jan. 14, 1990. The special late antlerless-only season for South Texas will be Jan. 20-Feb. 4, 1990. The early antlerless-only season for Angelina, Houston, Nacogdoches (south of State Highway 7), Polk, Trinity and Walker Counties was shortened and set for Oct. 21-29.

The spring turkey gobbler season was lengthened by approximately one week. The dates are April 7-May 6, 1990. In the portions of East Texas where a spring season is authorized for turkeys, the season also will open on April 7, but closes April 22. A spring season was also authorized for Jackson and Matagorda Counties.

The commission voted to reduce the deer bag limit in 26 counties to three deer (one buck and no more than two antlerless). These counties are Anderson, Brazoria, Brazos, Callahan, Chambers, Eastland, Erath, Fort Bend, Freestone, Grayson (only on the Hagerman National Wildlife Refuge), Grimes, Harris, Hood, Houston (except on the Davy Crockett National Forest), Jefferson, Leon, Limestone, Madison, Morris, Orange, Palo Pinto, Robertson, Shackelford, Somervell, Stephens and Throckmorton. These counties will remain under the either-sex system of bag limits, with no landowner-issued antlerless permits required.

Whitetail hunting regulations will remain basically unchanged in the Edwards Plateau, South Texas, Trans-Pecos, Pineywoods, and the Coastal Prairie. However, Aransas and Refugio Counties were added to those South Texas counties having the Nov. 11-Jan. 14 regular season and the Jan. 20-Feb. 4 antlerless-only season.

The commission also altered the line dividing the South Texas zone for deer hunting from the remainder of the state. The dividing line in Kinney, Uvalde and Medina Counties will be U.S. Highway 90 instead of the counties' northern boundaries. This will in effect give hunters in the northern halves of those counties the earlier opening date, and would not permit them the late antlerless season authorized for South Texas.

Officials said the change was made because the terrain north of Highway 90 is more typical of the Edwards Plateau rather than the Brush Country type of habitat south of the highway.

Another change authorized eight counties that previously had either-sex deer bag limits in only portions of those counties to have the regulation county-wide. These are Bell, Williamson, Travis, Hays and Comal in Central Texas and Mitchell, Nolan and Taylor in the Rolling Plains region of West Texas.

Landowner-issued antlerless hunting permits still are required in a number of Texas counties where deer populations are low or confined to isolated areas. These counties are primarily in the Blackland Prairie, North Central Texas and the eastern part of the Panhandle and South Plains.

The mule deer season for Panhandle counties was set for Nov. 18-Dec. 3. The Trans-Pecos season is Nov. 25-Dec. 10. As in the past, the mule deer bag limit is two mule deer, no more than one buck, antlerless by permit only.

Archery season for mule and white-tailed deer is Oct. 7-Nov. 5.

Treasures

by Sandra Hancock Stark

There are things far more priceless
To be valued than gold.
Things far richer to have
And to hold.

There are things beyond value.
(Above that of men.)
A sweet lilting laugh,
The smile of a friend.

The leaves of the oak
That lazily fall.
The roar of the sea.
The boat in the squall.

The rain of the summer.
The bird in her nest.
The deer, fleet of foot.
The hill's green crest.

The sunset in evening.
The rise of the moon.
The shadows at eventide.
The silent lagoon.

These treasures are simple.
They are without fame.
Yet, they are the treasures
To which I can claim.

Powell signs with HJC

Roy Powell of San Angelo recently signed a letter of intent with Howard Junior College at Big Spring where he has been selected to receive a full scholarship as athletic trainer.

The 1989 graduate of Lake View High School was assisted in acquiring his scholarship by LHS trainer James Smith.

Powell will continue his studies under the scholarship at either Sul Ross State University at Alpine or Tarleton State University at Stephenville at the end of two years. He plans to major in physical education with

He will be the baseball team trainer at HJC under head trainer Everett Blackburn.

While at Lakeview High School, Powell was a member of the baseball, football and track teams. He also participated in non-school related rodeo and in 4-H.

Powell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Powell of San Angelo and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coates of Ozona and Mrs. Helen Owens of Stephenville.

Texas Geography tells more about Texas than we think

Why are Dallas and Fort Worth so close physically, yet so far apart philosophically? Why were cattle drives so much a part of Texas? Why did German emigrants settle in the hill country?

The answer is: geography. While Texas' geography isn't the most unusual in the United States - or even the most beautiful - there's plenty of it and it has greatly influenced our history. That's the opinion of Dr. John Coffman, associate professor at the University of Houston and an expert in Lone Star geography.

Coffman says scholars now shy away from the doctrine of environmental determinism, which says that human cultures develop because of specific land formations or local climates. But the impact of the land on an area's history cannot be ignored. And, sadly, Coffman says, most Texans study their state's history rather seriously, while giving its geography short shrift.

Coffman divides the state into three major areas. The first is the mountainous west Texas area traditionally called the Trans-Pecos.

The second area, the Great Plains, covers most of the state and includes four major sub-regions of plateaus, the High Plains, the Rolling Plains, the Cross Timbers and the Edwards Plateau.

The Coastal Plain in eastern and southern Texas, completes the major divisions of the state.

While our interpretation of our environment may not explain everything, Coffman says the land, and what lay beneath it, often influenced where people settled, how they made their living - or even their political affiliation.

For example, on what Coffman believes is the poorest land in Texas - the Gypsum Plains - geography and politics do mix: this desperately poor area of little oil, no water for irrigation and unfertile land is the only Texas region settled mainly by Anglos who have steadfastly supported the liberal wing of the Democratic Party.

The divide that separates Dallas and Fort Worth is more than metropolitan rivalry, Coffman says. Both cities are on the edge of different land masses and therefore, literally face in different directions.

"Dallas is at the edge of the Black Waxie Prairie, which basically extends east of I-35. This was the best cotton growing area, and Dallas on the Trinity River, became the mecca for merchants and banks catering of the cotton trade. Because it depended upon cotton, it tended to look eastward to the old South.

Fort Worth," Coffman continues, "faces west at the eastern edge of the Cross Timbers. West of here the land really does change. The Western Cross Timbers were one of the great sources of longhorns and this city became one of the major stops on the Old Chisholm Trail that ran right up through the region."

The cattle industry was also influenced by the Texas land: there was so much of it. Coffman explains that the Spanish, beginning in the 1500s, released their cattle to breed at random and to graze on the prairie grass of the South Texas Plains. This wild herd had grown through the centuries, so that after the Civil War, with northern cities clamoring for beef and the railroads to transport it, these wild herds were driven north through Fort Worth to rail connections in Kansas.

In one case, man even altered part of Texas' geography, thus, unwittingly, planning the future for inhabitants who followed them thousands of years later.

The Gulf Coastal Plains are humid lands which fall in a pattern of rugged hillslopes or questas, next to more gently rolling grasslands.

Fifty thousand years ago, these grasslands were forested, Coffman says, but during late winter when there was no food, man would burn the forests, driving all the small animals out and into traps. Eventually, in the period following the last Ice Age, man changed the land cover by killing off the seed cones which might regenerate the forest. By the time the Spanish arrived, the alternating pattern of forest and prairie was established on this rolling plain.

This was the land found by the German settlers and those from the

Judges attend seminar

Texas teacher salaries rank 31st

Texas' hopes for improving the education and skill levels of its citizens received a blow with the release of the latest nationwide figures ranking teacher salaries. The National Education Association report, Ranking of the States, 1989, reveals that in the past year, Texas fell four places to 31st in average teacher salaries. Only 19 states pay their teachers less than Texas does. The 1989 ranking exactly matches the previous low point of the decade recorded in 1980-81. Texas' ranking had climbed to 21st in 1984, but it has been slipping since.

Not only has the state's ranking fallen, but salary data compiled by the Texas State Teachers Association also reveals a disturbing fact: of 960 school districts reporting, 808 froze or reduced beginning teacher salaries this year. Only 152 raised starting pay, and most of the increases were very modest, ranging from 1 to 4 percent, well below the national average increase of 5.6 percent.

$180-a-Month Raise
 The Texas Legislature recently acted to improve teacher salaries by raising state minimum salary schedules by $180 a month. The raise represents a much needed step, but teacher pay remains inordinately low. Starting salary for beginning teachers is increased from $15,200 a year to $17,000 a year. Maximum salary is $28,400 after a teacher reaches step ten. A teacher with a bachelor's degree must work a minimum of 20 years to achieve the maximum salary; a teacher with a master's degree must work at least 14 years.

While recognizing the difficult challenge of precarious state finances, it is enormously important that the problem of low teacher salaries be addressed. Charles Beard, president of the Texas State Teachers Association, points out that investment in the future begins at the earliest levels of education. "It's our job to see that our kids get to the universities and other productive positions in the work force," he states. "Without a pay raise...it will be impossible to entice the best and the most capable young people to take the places of today's teachers when they leave. Forfeiting our children's future must not even be considered an option."

Faculty Salaries
 Meanwhile, the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board released figures on Texas' faculty salaries. Teachers at the state's institutions of higher learning received a 7.2 percent salary increase in 1988-89 to an average salary of $39,755. That came on top of a 10.5 percent salary increase in 1987-88 and moved Texas to within 2.7 percent of the national average. However, faculty salaries still lag 9.6 percent, or $4,207, behind the

Bree Dillard brings home honors

Laska Bree Dillard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Dillard, won honors in the state Our Little Miss Children's Beauty and Talent Pageant recently in Austin.

Laska Bree advanced to the state pageant by winning the crown as Pecos Trails Universal Beauty Baby Petite in Big Lake last February.

At the state pageant June 19-24, Bree competed with 21 Baby Petite contestants in close-up appraisal, party dress, sportswear and coloring session.

Contestants participated from Lubbock, Killeen, Coleman, Boerne, Midland, Brownwood, Big Lake, Anson, Stamford, Odessa, Cross Plains, Harker Heights, Garden City, Sterling City, Ozona and Kempner.

Bree was in competition all week and also attended banquets, parties and rehearsals.

On the final night, Bree received a trophy for being a Top Ten finalist in the Overall Baby Petite and also a trophy for Top Ten finalists Universal Beauty Baby Petite.

Newly crowned Texas state queens Overall Winner Baby Petite Krystal Thomason of Odessa and Universal Beauty Baby Petite Leslie Jones of Brownwood will advance to the World Pageant Aug. 1-8 in Las Vegas along with the winners in the Miss LaPetite, Our Little Miss and Ideal Miss divisions.

Our Little Miss is the oldest and largest scholarship pageant system. The purpose of Universal Pageants is to provide an outlet and to give recognition to beautiful and talented girls throughout the world. Winning the opportunity to advance to the fabulous state and world finals is important, but not as important as the lessons of friendship and sportsmanship.

The state pageant is dedicated to the girls and to the memories and experiences they may receive.

Remember, it is nice to be important, but it is more important to be nice," said Bree's mother, Becky Dillard.

Becky also won a medal in the parent talent show. She, along with other Big Lake district ladies, did a crazy fashion show.

Sponsoring Laska Bree in the state pageant were: Beta Sigma Phi-Alfa Alpha Mu, T & T Village Supermarket, Enriquez Chevron, Ozona Mercantile, Dee's Place, The Teacher Store, Childress Real Estate, Dina's Poco Taco, MaMaw's Kwick Marc, South Texas Lumber, Small Fashions, Perry Photography, LaCocina Restaurant, Preddy Funeral Home, Baker Jewelers, Ronda's School of Dance, Better Trims, J. Bree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Dillard, was accompanied to the Austin pageant by her mother and her grandmother, Joy Dillard.

Laska Bree Dillard gives her best winning smile for the photographer at the state Our Little Miss Pageant, held in Austin June 19-24. She placed in the top ten in the Baby Petite division. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Dillard.

national average paid in the ten largest states.

In raising professors' salaries, Texas has made a laudable commitment to quality higher education. The state is rapidly closing the gap between its salaries paid in comparable states.

Now there is a need to pay heed to the crying need for competitive pay for Texas elementary and secondary teachers. If Texas does not act soon, the lack of action could signal a wholesale retreat from the race for educational excellence and economic supremacy.

Redwood Motel closes its doors

The Redwood Motel, built by Dean and Peggy Phillips 22 years ago, closed its doors June 30.

Rising operation costs and the recently passed hotel/motel occupancy tax were cited by Phillips as the reasons for closing.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips have operated their business continuously during its existence.

The laundromat at the motel will remain open to the public, Phillips said.

The world's best source of borax, a water softener, is in the Mojave desert, California.

Cameron named to high honors list

Katy Cameron, a recent graduate from The Orme School, a college-preparatory co-ed boarding school 60 miles north of Phoenix, Arizona, has achieved the distinction of being named to the high honors list for the final term of the 1988-89 academic year.

Besides maintaining an A average, Katy has been involved in cheerleading, softball and basketball. Katy will be attending Texas A&M University in College Station.

Katy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cameron of Ozona.

Texas spending fewer tax dollars

State Comptroller Bob Bullock announced that a new study by his office shows that Texas collected and spent fewer tax dollars per person than any other state in 1987.

An agency analysis of census data reveals that Texas received $1,168 per capita in general revenue in 1987 and spent $1,148 per person -- in both cases, an amount about one-third less than the national average for all 50 states.

According to the study, Texas' total revenue collections per person are the lowest in the nation, largely because the state has no personal income tax.

"Our state government asks less from and basically gives less to each of its citizens than does any other state," said Bullock.

In all, the Comptroller's study indicates that, in 1987, Texas ranked:

- 50th among states in revenue collected per person;
- 50th in spending per person;
- 50th in per capita salary and wage expenditures;
- 49th in per capita welfare spending;
- 48th in health spending per person;
- 46th in per capita expenditures on interest for general debt;
- 37th in spending per person on corrections;
- 36th in spending per person on hospital;

--35th in highway spending per person;

--29th in per capita education spending; and

--25th in per capita motor fuels tax collections.

"Some people would favor a higher level of taxes and spending while others favor a low level of taxes and services. I think these figures speak for themselves," Bullock said.

Census Bureau figures are based on total dollars paid by each state's citizens. The bureau counts some revenue sources, such as motor vehicle registration, as taxes, while others are counted as fees. For the Comptroller's analysis, all such revenues were considered taxes.

Highlights of the study are summarized in the June issue of Fiscal Notes, a financial newsletter published by the Comptroller's office and available free by writing to: Bob Bullock, State Comptroller, Economic Analysis Center, P. O. Box 13528, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711-9831.

All night party well attended Former resident graduates

by Frances Denman

The Crockett County Civic Center held the fifth All Night Graduation Party for the Ozona High School students May 26. This seemed to be one of our better all night parties due to the great response from everyone. Our teen council worked extra hard, not just a few, but all of them. The community did a great job as usual, supporting this worthwhile project. We greatly appreciate this. It wouldn't work without your support.

We had 140 kids spend all night. There was lots to do. Dr. Tunes provided the music, drawing and giving away of the many prizes; there were games and contests held throughout the night, also a movie room provided for a little quieter atmosphere.

Food and snacks were provided throughout the night. Just after lock-in, pizza was served to everyone.

Holmsley named to Dean's list

Perry Arthur Holmsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rowden Holmsley of Ozona, is one of 702 Abilene Christian University students named to the Dean's Honor Roll for the spring 1989 semester.

To be listed on the honor roll, a student must be enrolled for a grade in at least 12 semester hours and earn a grade point average of 3.45 or higher.

ACU is the fourth largest private university in the Southwest and the largest university affiliated with the churches of Christ.

Spending the night and helping out were Mr. and Mrs. Garland Young, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Keith, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Galindo, Jonel Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. John Denman, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Landon, Judy Pridemore, Raymond Sanchez, Janie Chandler, Lu Morrow and Mary Capps. Last but not least are our morning cooks who came in about 3:30 to fix eggs, sausage and tortillas, Billy Reagor, Dan Pullen, Pon Seahorn and Jimmy Arrott. Special thanks go to all these folks. I hope I haven't forgotten anyone.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank each and everyone of you for your help and support of this night. Thank you notes are being mailed; hopefully no one has been left out, but things get pretty hectic, so please accept our apology and thanks if we left you out.

Crockett County Civic Center Board of Directors and Teen Council

Patricia Diaz, formerly of Ozona, recently graduated from North Caddo High School in Vivian, LA.

Miss Diaz has earned and been chosen for many honors during her high school career at North Caddo. She was vice-president of her senior class and held that same office during her junior and sophomore years. She was selected as class favorite four years, earned membership in the National Honor Society and was chosen to participate in Girls' State.

Pat was a JV cheerleader and has been active as a Rebel Stepper for three years, serving as junior co-captain.

She devoted much of her time to the Student Council, serving as senator, secretary and president of that organization.

Other honors include being chosen FBLA reporter, picked as wittiest and most spirited, second runner up in the Miss North Caddo Pageant for two years, served as Sophomore Class homecoming attendant, earned a first place rating in state chapter competition of DECA, and was chosen Homecoming Queen her senior year. Pat plans to attend Louisiana State University at Shreveport and become a physical therapist.

Things they never told you about a heat pump.

Fact # 4

When you hear a sales pitch for a heat pump this summer, you need to think ahead to next winter. A heat pump does such a poor job heating in our raw West Texas winters, they have to hook it up to a furnace to keep your family from being miserable when it gets cold. After all, if your furnace has done a good job keeping your family warm all these years, does it make sense to attach something to it that doesn't work anywhere near as well?

Sheriff's Report

Week Ending 07-04-89

ARRESTS:

6-27 18-year old Able Galindo Villarreal, of Ozona, was arrested by Sheriff's Deputies and Texas Ranger on charges of Arson. This arrest was the result of an investigation by the Crockett County Fire Marshal, Texas Ranger, and the Crockett County Sheriff's Department into the June 23 arson at Wool Growers Central Storage on Avenue H. Villarreal was released on June 28 after posting a $25,000 bond.

7-02 27-year old Phillip John Zapata, of Ozona, was arrested by Sheriff's Deputies and THP on charges of Driving While Intoxicated and Fleeing From a Police Officer. The suspect was observed traveling at a high rate of speed north on Avenue E. Officers gave pursuit and arrested the suspect at 5th and Ave. G. He was released, the next day, after posting bond on both charges. The case will be referred to the County Court for prosecution.

7-03 Johnny Borrell Villarreal, Jr., age 22 of Ozona, was arrested by Sheriff's Deputies on charges of Disorderly Conduct following a family disturbance. He is still in County Jail.

Firecrackers cause several fires

Volunteer firemen responded to two grass fires caused by firecrackers last weekend. The first was reported at Crockett Heights Saturday at 6:23 p.m. Two trucks, six volunteers and 300 gallons of water were required to douse the fire.

Sunday evening at 5:33 p.m. volunteers were called to a grassfire 2-3 miles west of Ozona on Hwy. 290. Two trucks, six volunteers and 475 gallons of water were required to extinguish that fire.

On Monday, volunteers extinguished a small grassfire caused by a cutting torch at Double C Enterprises on Hwy. 163. The blaze required 200 gallons of water.

Increased funding needed for Southern Border Patrol

Congressman Lamar Smith has called on Attorney General Richard Thornburgh to aid the underfunded U. S. Border Patrol Southern Region, which includes the El Paso, McAllen, Laredo, Del Rio and Marfa sectors. These areas face a 62 percent cut in their operational budgets this year.

In a letter to Mr. Thornburgh, Smith and five of his colleagues noted that the Southern Region sectors are already operating with 50 percent cuts in their third quarter operational budgets.

Smith noted that these cuts have resulted in gasoline rationing to five gallons a day in some cases. "These rations render necessary border patrol functions ineffective," said Smith in the letter.

The Southern Region Border Patrol supports local law enforcement officials in narcotics seizures and illegal alien apprehensions. So far this year, the region has posted record rates of narcotics seizures and illegal alien apprehensions.

"Further cuts in the fourth quarter operational budgets will result in the closing of several border checkpoints and could have unfavorable consequences to this region's war on drugs and outstanding border control efforts."

Smith, vice chairman of the House Immigration Subcommittee and co-chairman of the Task Force on Mexico, requested that funds be transferred from "non-essential" services to the Southern Region.

Also signing the letter were Reps. Joe Skeen (R-NM), Kika de la Garza (D-TX), Solomon Ortiz (D-TX), Ron Coleman (D-TX) and Albert Bustamante (D-TX). All signatories have districts bordering Mexico.

Permian Basin plans memorial

Plans were announced last week to build a memorial in Midland to those West Texans killed or listed as missing in action from the Vietnam War. The memorial is to be built on private land along La Force Boulevard leading to Midland International Airport.

The monument was designed by Randy Gilliam, a Midlander who served in Vietnam in 1969 with the 101st Airborne. The structure will be granite, carved in the shape of Texas approximately eight foot by 10 foot, mounted on a pedestal base. Men from 27 West Texas counties will be honored by the memorial with the names inscribed on their respective counties. A list of names has been compiled from various sources, the list totals 188. "The list is as accurate as we can make it at this point, but we need people's help in verifying the list and making any needed additions, deletions, or changes," said Rich Burns who compiled the list for the project.

The committee for the project, the Permian Basin Vietnam Veterans Memorial Committee, a non-profit group, is chaired by George Bakke, president of Bakke Communications. Bakke said, "This is something that is long overdue. It's something we've thought about for a long time, and this year everything just seemed to fall into place. This location is perfect, centrally located on a road heavily travelled by anyone from these counties. They all use the airport."

The committee will need to raise in the neighborhood of $150,000 to complete construction. Fundraising will be done through private donations and fundraising events; all contributions will be tax deductible. "We are open to anyone who wants to help through donating expertise needed in construction or in putting together fundraising events. This will all be done locally. There is no government money or subsidies for this type of project," Bakke said.

Dedication of the monument is set for Memorial Day 1990 with full military ceremonies and a parade. According to Bakke, "This date may be a little optimistic to raise the money." "At this point we feel that goal is attainable with a lot of effort and community support," Bakke said.

Sgt. Gary D. Pagan of the U. S. Army will be listed from Crockett County.

Other counties represented on the monument include: Andrews, Borden, Coke, Crane, Dawson, Ector, Fisher, Gaines, Glasscock, Howard, Iraan, Loving, Martin, Midland, Mitchell, Nolan, Pecos, Reagan, Reeves, Scurry, Sterling, Terrell, Tom Green, Upton, Ward and Winkler.

For further information about the project or to help with fundraising, contact George Bakke at 915-687-3838.

Card of Thanks

My wife fell and broke her hip here in Ozona. She was sent to Angelo Community Hospital in San Angelo. We brought her home on Friday, and had to take her back Saturday a.m. Infection had set in and a second surgery had to be done. She will be there eight weeks at least. Right now she is doing fine considering.

We have been here for seven years. I work for the Permian Corp. From the bottom of our hearts, we thank you, E.M.S., Sheriff's Dept., our hospital, doctors and nurses for quick reactions. And to those who were concerned by checking with me and offering their help.

If the time ever comes that someone needs us, and we know it, we will be here to assist in any way. A man told me one time he didn'tj ever need anyone. Wait till the time comes when a out-reached hand to cling to, means more than money could ever buy. There is no way, just to say thank you, that could show our feelings for the people here in Ozona, Texas.

God bless you

P.S. Blood was donated by many, but we only know the name of one that did. We wish we knew the names of the others who gave.

When it's time to carve the turkey, there are better things to use than a chain saw.

And when you need to heat and cool your home, there are better things than a heat pump.

A heat pump can't cool your home in summer as well as a high-efficiency air conditioner. And it can't warm your home in winter as well as a natural gas furnace.

Think of winter this summer. For comfortable efficient heating in your home, the most effective appliance ever made is a natural gas furnace. Period.

Franchise tax allocations sent to county & school

Crockett County and Crockett County schools were sent checks for their portion of bank franchise taxes in June according to State Comptroller Bob Bullock. They were among the 2,023 Texas taxing entities sharing the $34 million in bank franchise tax allocations.

"Bank franchise tax allocations have steadily declined from their peak of $72 million in 1986, due mainly to the continuing financial difficulties of Texas banks," Bullock said. "But I know local governments can use every nickel they get from this source," he added.

Crockett County received $19,855.03 in franchise tax dollars while the school district's portion amounted to $32,646.09. Bank franchise tax refund liabilities were created as a result of state court cases centering on taxes collected in 1985, 1986 and 1987. H. B. 3032, passed by the Legislature this session, states that beginning in 1990, banks can choose to take partial credit each year against their franchise tax, rather than pursuing immediate refunds of the contested amounts.

Bullock said the allocations represent franchise taxes paid by banks that do business in Texas. Banks must file a report with the Comptroller's office by March 15 each year.

The bank franchise tax rate is the same as the state's corporate franchise tax rate - $6.70 per $1000 of taxable capital and surplus, with a minimum tax of $150, according to Bullock.

The Texas Legislature authorized the bank franchise tax in 1984, and the tax was collected for the first time in 1985.

Bullock said that a portion of the tax goes into the state's general revenue fund, but most of it is allocated to local tax jurisdictions, such as cities, counties, and other local taxing units such as school, water and hospital districts.

Jose Villarreal enlists in Navy

Jose Ramirez Villarreal recently enlisted in the United States Navy for guaranteed training at the Navy's Airman Apprentice program.

Jose, the son of Beina Reyes of Ozona, enlisted under the Delayed Entry Program, and will report to Recruit Training Center San Diego, California in August this year for active duty, where he will undergo basic training.

Upon completion of basic training, Jose will begin four weeks of schooling at San Diego, California in the Airman Apprentice field.

Under the Airman Apprentice Program, persons who have not chosen a specific career field receive general aviation training prior to being assigned to a navy ship or squadron. Once at their first assignment, they may train in a job, or request additional Navy schooling in a field they are qualified for.

Petty Officer Lawrence Debeau of the San Angelo Recruiting Station, Jose's recruiter, noted that he may go on to additional schooling, or be assigned to any one of the Navy's duty stations around the world.
