Commissioners and board discuss personnel contracts in closed session

Commissioners met in executive session with hospital board members Monday night to discuss contracts with personnel. No action was taken when the court returned to regular session.

Judge Kathryn Mayfield did quickly itemize future plans for the hospital, which was a separate agenda item, before board members left the conference table.

Cutting expenses, becoming Medicare approved, straightening out doctors' contracts and providing a clinic setting for doctors were goals mentioned by the judge.

Establishing specialty clinics in the future was a goal put forth by board member John Daniels.

Mark White and Bobby Zesch of San Angelo were present to discuss self-funded workman's comp and health insurance with the court.

Stop loss and aggregate stop loss insurance to limit exposure and risk management teams were discussed.

The county's workman's comp premium will run $134,000 this year, said Sandy Stokes, auditor. A savings of up to $80,000 could be realized this year if the county were self-insured, Stokes said.

Court members agreed to seek more information on self-insurance from risk management firms.

Commissioners voted to:
-accept a bid from The Baggett Agency for airport liability and fire and extended coverage

-approve a resolution commending Elaine Bell for 15 1/2 years in the tax office

-advertise for a new assistant in the tax office

-amend the 1990 budget to increase Extension Agent Tedra Ulmer's travel allowance with funds allotted for the secretary's salary

-approve contracting with County Attorney Orlando DeHoyos to draw up an easement for water drain pipe at 115 Live Oak.

Sheriff Jim Wilson reported on multiple difficulties his department is having with a new car acquired in February. Any further mechanical problems are to be brought to the court's attention.

Judge Mayfield gave an update on the landfill feasibility study. The first phase of the study being conducted by Parkhill, Smith and Cooper of Midland shows the current amount of solid waste at 11,700 cubic yards annually. Landfill operating costs for the county alone are $97,000 for the year. This figure does not include expenses to the water control district.

4-H Food Show this Sunday

The 1991 Crockett County 4-H Food Show, slated for this Sunday at Ozona Junior High School's cafeteria, will feature the work of some of Crockett County's finest young chefs.

The 4-H members who have completed project lessons will be competing for honors at the annual event, which requires that they be able to communicate nutrition information to judges, prepare a day's menu, and prepare a recipe for the judges to taste on the day of the show.

4-Hers are judged on communication skills, nutrition knowledge, the quality of their dish and the quality of the menu they have planned. "All of these skills," noted County Extension Agent-Home Economics Tedra Ulmer, "are important for their growth - not only physically but personally."

Local donors fund the awards for the program, which will be given out at a public show following judging at 4 p.m. Judging will begin at 2 p.m.

More than 60 4-H members participated in the project this year, and a good turnout was expected for the food show at presstime.

Friends, relatives and donors are encouraged to attend the tasting tea and awards ceremony to support the 4-H members. For more information, contact the Crockett County Extension Office at 392-2721.

Lions whip the Badgers 24-7 in a second half comeback

by Scotty Moore and Justin Southern

The Ozona Lions remained undefeated in district play Friday night by defeating the McCamey Badgers in a second half comeback.

An offense crippled with mistakes and a defense unable to stop the Badger drives allowed McCamey to register first on the score board in the first quarter.

The Lions, winning the toss, started the ball game on offense, gaining two first downs and a 46 yard touchdown call back by Ruben Borrego due to a clipping charge. They were unable to convert a 3 down play and short kicked to the Badgers on their own 40 yard line.

McCamey later capitalized during this series of offensive plays by faking a 4th down kick and marching to Ozona's 26 yard line by quarterback Jimmy Salinas, leaving the Badgers in good field possession.

After several quarterback keeper plays, an offside penalty against the Lions and short gains by running backs Manuel Martinez and Billy Lynch the Badgers scored from the 3 yard line on fourth down from a short end zone pass to Chris Smith with 2:39 remaining in the first quarter. The P.A.T. was good leaving the Badgers in the driver's seat 7-0.

Ozona played out the second quarter with short gains by Ruben Borrego and Michael Ybarra. Giving up the football to McCamey on a third down fumble left the Badgers once again in good mid-field position at their own 39 yard line.

After short gains, the Badgers punted to Ozona from their own 47 yard line, recovering a Lion punt return fumble at the Lion 23.

The Badgers, plagued with a 15 yard personal foul penalty and good defensive tackling by Michael Ybarra and Albert Talamantez, gave the ball back to the Lions at the 17 on a completed 4th down pass, just short of first down conversion.

Ozona's offense was once again scuttled with two short quarterback keeper gains, an incomplete pass to Lonnie Martinez and two damaging penalties worth 20 yards leaving the Lions in a punting situation with 8:14 left in the 2nd quarter.

At this point in the game, the Lion defense finally fired up its engine with all 8 cylinders, stopping the Badgers in their tracks with 5 and 4 yard losses forcing a punt to the Lion 35 which was moved to the 40 after a fair catch interference call against McCamey.

The remaining minutes of the first half were scoreless with both Ozona and McCamey possessing the ball two sets each.

The Lions returned to the playing field after the half fired up ready to get some Badger hide for their trophy case, and Randel Wilson, Gilbert Rico, Albert Talamantez and Jimmy Williams did just that.

Ozona's defense forced the Badgers to dig a hole behind the line of scrimmage and punt after two zero gain tackles by Gilbert Rico and Albert Talamantez, a negative 5 yard tackle by Randel Wilson and a clipping charge.

The Lion defense took possession of the ball at McCamey's own 26, driving the ball to the 17 yard line on two keeper plays by quarterback Danny DeHoyos, a right end pitchout roll and a short through the line rush by Ruben Borrego. Left with 4th and 2 at the 17, the Lions came up short from a quarterback keeper and turned the ball over the Badgers at their own 17 yard line.

Again the Lion defense proved they are the mean purple fighting machine that they really are by stopping the Badgers cold and regaining control of the football with a Daun Williams fumble recovery at McCamey's 16 yard line.

Ruben Borrego's golden foot put the Lions on the scoreboard four minutes and 32 seconds left in the 3rd quarter by zeroing in on the uprights from 30 yards out.

Ozona's second score of the game came with 3:07 left in the third quarter when Domingo Perez intercepted a Badger pass and returned it for 35

Dolores Ramirez rips past champ for the top Pick'em slot

Dolores Ramirez tied with Jesse Castro with 15 good picks, but takes the money home with a tie breaker score 44 compared to Jesse's 51. Dolores picked Texas Tech over Rice, Miami over Notre Dame and Tampa Bay over Dallas. Jesse picked USC over Arizona, Tampa Bay over Dallas and Atlanta over the Rams.

Second place pickers this week with 14 correct checks were Rudy R. Martinez, Chris Martinez and the champ Keith Miller, the only one in the 1 and 2 slots to pick Dallas over Tampa Bay.

Past game statistics don't always pay off.

Ministerial Alliance reorganizes

The ministers of Ozona are reorganizing the Ozona Ministerial Alliance. The purpose of the Ministerial Alliance is to communicate and coordinate local church activities, to encourage cooperation between churches, to increase spiritual awareness in our community and to provide cooperative ministries such as community worship services and benevolent needs.

The president is Mr. Ralph Moore; vice-president-Rev. Fernando Charles; secretary-Rev. Tim Brewer; treasurer-Rev. Bill Fuller.

Meetings will be held on the first Tuesday of the month at the Hillcrest Restaurant at 10 a.m.

In other Ministerial Alliance action, the community Thanksgiving service was set for Sunday, Nov. 18, at 8 p.m. at Ozona United Methodist Church on 11th Street. All churches are invited to attend and participate in the service.

The Ministerial Alliance is also exploring the possibility of a group of six to 12 people who will be committed to a discussion group using materials from the Texas Agricultural Extension Service to study the special strengths and problems of life in a rural area. If you are interested, please contact Ralph Moore at 392-2717 or 392-2184.

waite, Dublin, San Saba, Wall, Eldorado, Junction, Mason, Coleman and Bangs.

Sylvia, a sophomore, will compete for the first time this year.

Regional marching contest, which has been held at Baylor Stadium in Waco in the past, will be held in Wichita Falls at Memorial Stadium Nov. 3.

"I'm well pleased with the degree of dedication in the past couple of weeks. I also feel we have a strong chance of receiving a Division I rating," said Director Kelly Glaze.

"The band has the very potential to reach regional and state competition," believes Norma Carroll, assistant director.

Rainfall records for the town of Ozona reveal interesting facts

by Scotty Moore

With the aid of the modern-day computer and rainfall records recorded by the Crockett County Water District from January 1931 to September 1990, a workable spread sheet including averages and totals has been compiled by board member Pon Seahorn.

These records indicate that Ozona's wettest year was in 1941 when a total of 37.99 inches fell, and the driest was 1951 with only 7.23 inches recorded. Most everyone that was around during the early fifties remember this period as the great drought which lasted through 1953 and part of 1954.

During these three dry years, 1951-53, the yearly averages were: 1951-7.23", 1952-8.27" and 1953-12.77", compared to the computed 60 year average of 19.05 inches.

The record shows that the years with the longest periods without rain were 1946 which left the rain gauges empty during the months of February, March and April, and 1950 for the months of October, November and December.

Ozona's wettest month between 1931 and 1990 was June 1954, when 12.46 inches fell from the leftovers of a hurricane, causing the great flood.

The averages column indicates that September is the wettest month of the year with a 60 year average of 2.60 inches, and the driest month is December with an average of .75 inches.

Those years that had four empty rain gauge months were 1946, 1950, 1952 and 1989.

So far this year we are well ahead of "old man weather" with a nine month, January-September average of 3.00 inches, compared to 1.69 inch average during the 60 year period for the same nine months.

Believe it or not, Ozona has received a total of 1151.06 inches or 95.92 feet of rain in the past 60 years.

Ozona's junior varsity boys also placed second in their division of the meet with 39 points. First place Coahoma had 28 points and third place Eldorado recorded 56 points.

David DeLaRosa placed third for Ozona with a time of 18:28. Close behind were: 6 Jose Martinez, 18:48; 7 Raul Rico, 18:50; 11 Adam Alba, 19:29; 12 Ruben Borrego, 19:32; 17 Isaac Hall, 21:00; 18 Steven Leal, 21:18; 19 Joe Jurado, 21:21; 22 Randel Wilson, 22:25; and 25 Gabriel Perez, 23:10.

Belia Vasquez and Elizabeth Esmerado ran for the girls' junior varsity. Belia's time was 17:53 and Elizabeth's was 24:19.

Wall won the girls' division with 27 points and Coahoma was second with 37. Eldorado had one runner in the meet.

Names and ranking of the junior high runners were not available at presstime.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
I am searching for any information you might have as to the publisher/editor of the old Courier Newspaper (circa 1890) prior to Claude Hudspeth taking charge.

I am trying to trace great-grandfather St. Clair Bacus Bacon or C. B. Bacon (born: 1859 - died: 1907 in Dallas) and the information I have is that he was editor of the Ozona newspaper, but I can't confirm this. I do know that he was living in Ozona in 1900 and was a member of the Odd Fellows, but that is the extent of what is known about this gentleman.

If you have no information on the old Courier Newspaper, could you give me someone's name at the library, historical society or maybe a local museum, that might be able to help.

Any information would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you,
Emma L. Butler

Crockett County Care Center News

By JoAnne Marshall

Black, orange, and white beads were strung on a long black cord to make unique Halloween necklaces in Monday morning's craft class. Residents designing the necklaces were Juana Hernandez, Moriama Perez, Chata Tambunga, Florencia Porras, Monnie Boyd and Frances Davis.

The quarterly Crockett County Care Center and Hospital Auxiliary meeting was held Monday afternoon. The upcoming fashion show was the main topic discussed.

Tuesday morning's lucky bingo winners were: Florencia Porras, Juana Hernandez, Hazel McDaniel, Theo Burns, Manuela Perez, Minnie Karr, Bertha Miller and Joe Connolly.

Joe is a new resident, and beginner's luck must have been with him. Sophie Kyle and Georgia Kirby were the helpful volunteers. Thank you, ladies.

A song service and short Bible study was conducted by Rev. Bill Fuller of First Baptist Church Tuesday afternoon. We would like to thank Bill for sharing his time with us.

It was a little noisy during Wednesday morning's ceramic workshop. One of the residents, Theo Burns, was trying a new technique called air brushing. Although the process is loud, the results one gets from using it are well worth the noise. Volunteers Ruthie Dorris and Ruth Hester instructed other residents on a variety of different techniques they were using on their ceramic pieces. Residents attending were: Juana Hernandez, Moriama Perez, Chata Tambunga, Florencia Porras, Hazel McDaniel and Joe Connolly. We would like to thank Ruth and Ruthie for their assistance and leadership.

Films furnished by the Crockett County Public Library were enjoyed Wednesday afternoon. The first film, "The Bear", was filled with adventure. The second film, "Autumn", had a lot of lovely scenery in it. As usual the library made a splendid selection of films for our viewing pleasure, and we would like to say thank you for an entertaining afternoon.

Much awaited beauty shop volunteers Vivian Hughes, Joann Williamson, Jo Davidson and Audrey Smith arrived Thursday morning bright and early wearing smiling faces as part of their apparel. Residents always look forward to their visits. Thank you, ladies. We appreciate you.

Thursday afternoon was devoted to the spiritual uplifting of the residents. Charles Huffman and Ruby Olson of Faith Lutheran Church conducted a Bible study and song service in the lobby while the Spanish Hour of Praise being conducted by members of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church was held in the Day Room. Both activities were enlightening, and residents thoroughly enjoyed them. Thank you, Charles, Ruby, Alicia Perez, Anita Fierro, Paulita Leal, Felipa Munoz, Heriberto and Lorenza Gutierrez and Chovela Ramirez for attending.

Joe really had beginner's luck during Friday morning's bingo. He won three games. Other winners were Frances Davis, Monnie Boyd, Manuela Perez, Minnie Karr and Elvira Pena.

Since this is coffee month, residents attended a Taster's Choice party Friday afternoon in which they tasted a variety of international coffees. The dining room was decorated with an elegant flare and butter cookies were served. Residents' voiced their opinions on the coffees they tasted, and listened to the history of coffee. The volunteer enjoying this activity with us was Joann Williamson. Thank you, Joann.

Sunday's worship service was presented by Bill Fuller of First Baptist Church. We would like to thank Bill and members of the congregation for sharing this hour with us.

Mule Food

Several years ago, while I was in school, our family was living on a tight budget trying to make ends meet until I could graduate. I came home one evening to a dinner of meatloaf. It was good, real good. I liked it. After we had finished our meal, Nancy told me that she had used a can of dog food rather than ground beef to make the meatloaf. She assured me that she had used a brand name, and she reminded me that I had wanted her to save money.

I hit the ceiling! I didn't bark mind you, but I ranted and raved, probably foamed at the mouth until she told me it was only a joke. She normally didn't pull pranks like that so it worked. I told her, "No matter how low our finances get, don't ever feed me dog food - don't even joke about it." To this day, she never has...I think.

I heard about a farmer who, in an attempt to cut costs, began mixing sawdust in his mule's food. He increased the amount gradually until the mule was eating 100 per cent sawdust. The farmer was really saving money until the mule died.

Jesus said, "Man does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God." Attempts to substitute God's Word with man's wisdom, even brand name products, or to mix it with cheap additives will leave one either ranting and raving or dead. Spiritual nourishment comes from the Word of God, not abject substitutions or blendings of worldly sagacities.

The Truth of God does come at a higher cost. It will cost you your life to feed at the table of the Lord, but you can trust in what you eat. For sure, you can substitute the message of scripture with words that will tickle your ears, but you will be disordered after you eat. And you can, with little effort on your part, start mixing the Word with the world's fluff until you are running on 100 per cent nothing. If you choose this easy, cheap route you will die spiritually.

The gospel of Jesus Christ is not man-made. All Scripture is God-breathed and profitable. It furnishes the only nutrients that result in salvation. As the wisdom and power of God, the gospel builds one up and sanctifies him or her for God's use and reward. Dining at the feast of inspired Scripture, you can have confidence that your soul is being nourished.

There is an array of substitutions and alternatives available in the religious world today. You can get by as cheap as you desire, but it's mule food. Be careful what you eat because it's no joke that many have died seeking the cheap way to be religious. Think about it.

"Get The Hell Out"

Read Luke 16:19-31

By Charles Huffman, Pastor
Faith Lutheran Church, Ozona
Hope Lutheran Church, Sonora

Over 100 years ago, when the American Version of the Bible first came out, a man went into an English book store and asked for a copy of "the new Bible without any hell in it". He expressed the attitude of many people today who want to GET THE HELL OUT of Christian theology and the teachings of the Church. And although the idea of hell is offensive to many people, God's Word is clear in pointing to the reality of an eternal punishment and separation for those who reject Him. Some people today say: "I just can't believe in a God who is supposed to be loving - yet sends people to hell". The truth of the matter is that God doesn't "send" anyone to hell. People "choose" to go there themselves by spurning His mercy and His orbit for their lives. In fact, the Scriptures tell us that God doesn't want anyone to perish eternally, but He desires all to be saved. 1 Timothy 2:4, 2 Peter 3:9, etc.

Those who want to GET THE HELL OUT of the teachings of Christianity probably have little idea of the enormous price God has already paid to remove the fact of hell from the lives of human beings. He did this when He became a Man in the Person of Jesus Christ - and suffered death on a cross to break the hold of sin, and its consequences upon the human beings He created. You see, there is such "Amazing Grace" from God - and still there is hell. The Good News is that there is deliverance from this hell. It begins when we acknowledge and confess our sin, so that as we read in 1 John 1 He who is "just and fair" may forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

God wants us to accept His acceptance of us in Jesus Christ, and to commit ourselves to His rule and control of our lives. This means that we must dedicate ourselves to God's purposes as well, to be His servants and communicators of His love and power in the "hellish" conditions that exist around us. All who trust in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord can eliminate forever any fear of hell, for He endured what we deserved - and rose again as the Victor over our enemies of sin, death and the forces of evil for whom hell was prepared (Matthew 25:41).

To GET THE HELL OUT of our lives, we simply trust in His promise of a glorious and everlasting life with Him in heaven - which is guaranteed by His death and resurrection on behalf of all mankind. And it is our crucified and risen Lord who speaks to us, as He did to John in Revelation 1:17-18, saying: "Don't be afraid, I am the First and the Last, and the One who is living. I died, but now you see I am living forever, and have the keys of death and hell".

His & Hers

by Linda & Scotty Moore

Hers

"It starts at Ozona, with flowers along the roadside and the desert turning to tree-covered hills. Home territory - that Steven Vincent Benet-place: 'bone of my bone'..."

"I came back to it one summer from the west - in June, after a month of soaking rains. Through Pecos, Fort Stockton, all the Texas desert towns, I had been content with sunlight and space: I was still pleased by the western absence of things. But at Ozona the mesquites began - miles of them, fresh and green and shiny as silk, with the white-ivory blooms of Spanish daggers scattered through them like cannon bursts - and it was there, at the sight of greenery and hills, that I knew I was home.

"For home country does not mean relatives, or city streets, or friends of the past. That is something else again: a world made by people, complex and painful. Home country is country - a place of rocks and trees and goats and sheep; of mourning doves and cypress-lined rivers; of hay fields; of pastures."

So begins This Favored Place the Texas hill country by Elroy Bode. The opening segment of Bode's book was sent to The Stockman by former resident Peggy Dodd who read it in a Fort Worth paper.

In This Favored Place, Bode puts into words feelings familiar to those who love and work the land. His word pictures turn even insignificant, everyday chores and happenings into momentous events, channeling the reader's thoughts back through layers of years to a more peaceful time.

Would that I could make a gift of This Favored Place to everyone I love.

Bode, a native of Kerrville, has been published in numerous magazines. His other books include Texas Sketchbook II, Alone in the World Looking, Home and Other Moments, and To Be Alive.

Lydia Pena in 3rd year of HPU basketball

Lydia Pena, a junior student at Howard Payne University in Brownwood, will be moving from forward to post in her third season with the HPU Lady Jackets basketball team.

Shortage of post players and her inside skills prompted the move according to Coach McMillan. Lydia averaged 3.7 points and 3.7 rebounds per game last season, has a good outside shot and is an effective passer.

A physical education major, she is the daughter of Ernestina Pena of Ozona.

The Lady Jackets have been working since early September in preparation for the upcoming 1990-91 season.

The team lost two key players from their 1989-90 TIAA conference championship team, and this year some of the returning lettermen as well as newcomers are going to have to fill those spots.

The ladies are working hard to meet that challenge and are looking forward to another successful year.

Only one-third of all eligible voters vote

by Texas Secretary of State, George Bayoud

Would you believe there is a great state in the world's greatest democracy where less than one-third of the people who are eligible to vote actually cast their ballots in important statewide elections every four years?

Would you believe, fellow Texans, the great state I'm referring to is Texas?

Such is the case in gubernatorial election years dating back to 1974. During those years, less than half of the state's registered voters went to the polls, while about one-third of voting age Texans did not even take the time to register to vote.

Here's the most recent example. In November 1986, almost 11.8 million people were eligible to register and vote. Of those, about 7.3 million were registered, but only 3.5 million actually took the time to vote. In other words, 29 percent of voting age Texans turned out at the polls.

For the sake of comparison, voters in California go to the polls at a much higher rate. In a California gubernatorial election year, it's not unusual for turnout rates to approach 70 percent of those people who are registered to vote.

Another important gubernatorial election year is upon us in Texas. Unless the historical trends abruptly reverse themselves, those national, state and local leaders who will guide us toward the 21st century will be chosen by less than one-third of the Texas electorate. What a shame when you consider the critical issues that confront our state and country.

Literally hundreds of important decisions at all levels of government will be made in this year's election. We will elect a U.S. senator, governor, lieutenant governor and scores of other statewide and local officeholders.

Also on ballots statewide is a proposed constitutional amendment to clarify the authority of the Texas Senate to consider certain nominees to state and district offices. If history repeats itself, however, a disturbingly small number of Texans will make those decisions.

Fellow Texans, beginning on Wednesday, Oct. 17 - the first day of "extended" absentee voting - we will be choosing people to represent our interests on vital issues. This is an extremely important election year, one that is much too important to watch from the sidelines.

The absentee voting period runs through Friday, Nov. 2., providing Texans with an extended voting period, instead of just an election day. If you are registered to vote, there simply is no excuse to stay away from the polls. This year's election period culminates on election day, Tuesday, Nov. 6. In other words, you have 18 days to exercise your constitutional right - the simple task of casting your ballot.

Recently, we have witnessed political freedom and democracy take root all over the world. It is my hope that these sweeping worldwide political changes will inspire more Texans to vote this year. We need to be a role model for these emerging democracies. We need to practice what we preach. If you don't take the time to vote, I believe you have no right to complain about your government or its elected officials.

Several years ago, the late Robert Smith of Austin, then the Travis County district attorney, captured what I believe to be the essence of civic participation in a so-called "you are the 'they'" speech he gave during the closing arguments of a trial.

In his remarks to jurors, Smith said: "Have you ever thought to yourself 'they' ought to do something about crime? Well, today, you are the 'they.'"

Remember, in this election and all future elections, you are the "they." You have the power to elect people who will make the decisions that affect your lives and our state.

Study the issues and learn as much as you can about the people who want to represent you on the county, state and national levels. Take advantage of the precious freedom you possess as a citizen of the world's greatest democracy. Take a few moments and get involved by casting your ballot.

Mrs. Hubbard celebrates 90th birthday Ozona schools mark red ribbon week with special activities

Mrs. Cecil (Lillian) Hubbard was honored on her 90th birthday with a twilight supper with Mrs. Lowell Littleton as hostess in the Littleton home.

Pink bows, ribbon streamers, nose-gays and ivy were used in the decor. The dining table had pink ribbon streamers from the chandelier to four focal points of pink and white nose-gays held in stemmed pink crystal glasses. The glasses were wedding gifts of Mr. and Mrs. Littleton more than 60 years ago.

The white birthday cake was centered with a tall white vase which held a nosegay of flowers with ribbon streamers marked with the golden numerals 90.

Mrs. Hubbard's orchid corsage was fashioned by her granddaughter, Connie Hall, of Del Rio.

The breakfast room table held an assortment of 10 homemade cakes.

Highlight of the evening was the music by a string band composed of Jamie Knox, Bob Hartman, Brock Jones, Jim Wilson, George Hester, Marsha Tomlinson and Sandy Stokes who played on the terrace while guests enjoyed music and food in the garden.

Those assisting with the hospitalities were: Geniece Childress, Lu Ingram, Jewel Bailey Luetta Kost, Mildred Fields, Gussie Schneider, Margaret Coates, Doris Hood, Willa Perry, Joyce Maness, Jean Conner, Audrey Glynn, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Nolan of Del Rio and Mr. and Mrs. Blake Brown of Del Rio.

"Proud to be Drug Free" is the 1990 theme for Red Ribbon Week, a national campaign to fight drug abuse in America. Students in Ozona schools are participating by wearing red ribbons and attending educational sessions on the dangers of drug use.

At Ozona High School, S.T.A.N.D., Students Trying To Attain New Dreams, will sponsor the special week Oct. 21-28.

Biology classes will focus on drug information during the week, and football players will wear red on their helmets Thursday and Friday.

S.T.A.N.D. is sponsored by Coach David McWilliams.

Activities at Ozona Junior High School also include the wearing of red on helmets by football players, a baseball tournament for the 150 members of Just Say No Club, and a video on drug abuse for the entire student body. Everyone is encouraged to wear red on Wednesday.

Teachers sponsoring Just Say No Club are Brenda Pool and Lloyd Winkley.

At Ozona Intermediate, students will design a drug awareness bumper sticker for the bumper sticker contest. Teachers will judge the bumper stickers, and prizes will be given for the most meaningful design.

During Red Ribbon Week students will be viewing videos about drug abuse and refusing drugs. Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Graham, drug liaisons for Ozona Intermediate, will be role modeling drug refusal skills for fifth grade students. Later in the week these students will practice the skills before a video camera.

Kim Coy, a high school cheerleader, will speak to Mrs. Probst's third grade class on Tuesday morning on the topic of drug awareness and peer pressure. Mrs. Jones's language arts class will be practicing writing poetry using couplets as anti-drug messages.

On Thursday, Oct. 25, the students of Ozona Intermediate will show their support of Red Ribbon Week by wearing red clothing on "Wear Red Day".

The purpose of Red Ribbons Week is to present a unified and visible commitment toward a drug-free nation. The grassroots effort to help change attitudes about drugs is sponsored by the National Federation of Parents.

Gov. and Mrs. William P. Clements are serving as the honorary chairpersons of the Texas campaign.

Red Ribbon Week was organized in 1985 by the family and co-workers of slain drug enforcement agent Enrique Camarena. The display of a red ribbon during the week proclaims an intolerance to drug abuse and to drug pushers.

yards plus a good Borrego P.A.T. put the Lions on top 10-7.

Once again the Lions defense, overpowering the Badgers, gave the ball back to their offense at McCamey's 49 yard line.

Late in the 3rd quarter Ozona's Ruben Borrego powered his way through the line for a 33 yard T.D. and a good P.A.T. topping the score board 17-7.

Lion safety Lonnie Martinez was spot lighted on McCamey's next series of downs by intercepting a first play out of the huddle Jimmy Salinas pass and returning it to the Badger 11 yard line.

Ozona offense was forced to give up the football at McCamey's 4 yard line on 4th down from an illegal procedure call.

The Badger offense seemed to come alive on their next possession, gaining 50 yards in 12 plays with 3 first downs, but were unable to score, giving up the football to the Lions on their own 44 yard line.

Ozona's last score of the game came from a Daun Williams 48 yard run and a good Borrego P.A.T. leaving them with a 4th district win.

Ruben Borrego carried 13 times for 84 yards and Daun Williams went 63 yards on six carries.

Coach Don Payne and Jim Green indicated that they were both satisfied with their defense. Albert Talamantez had his best game of the season by repeatedly sacking the quarterback. The Lions have given up only 29 points this year topped only by Iraan with 28 points.

"The longer the team plays together the more they roll as one," Coach Rod Schneider said

The Lions butt heads with the Wall Hawks this Friday in Ozona for their 5th district bout. "Wall is a great football team," said Head Coach Don Payne. "They would be a great football team in any class. They've got all the ingredients. They've got good size on the offensive line, skill at running back. Their passer (Shawn Box) is an all-district returner. And they have a lot of kids who can catch the ball, not just one or two. We'll have our work cut out for us. I think our kids gained a lot of experience early against some good football teams. We knew we were going to be a slow starter. We knew we had to stay in there and improve week by week. To their credit, the team responded. They came back after every game and worked hard in practice. And we steadily improved."

Fall is time for safety and special foods

Fall brings several things to mind: Halloween safety for children, popcorn (why does it always taste better in the fall?) and holiday parties - which mean holiday foods and unwanted calories for many of us.

Have a safe Halloween

Much of Halloween safety begins with everyday common sense. Go over the following safety points with your children and others who will be celebrating Halloween.

-Costumes should be made of flame-retardant materials. They should be large enough so warm clothing can be worn underneath if it's cold outside.

-Be certain costumes allow children to walk easily without tripping and entangling their feet.

-Children should wear comfortable, well-fitted shoes or sneakers. This is not the time to let them wear mother's high heels, while they're running around off curbs and over driveways and up steps.

-Use light colors, reflective tape or decals so children are visible at night to motorists. Many of the new costumes on the market have some of these features built right in.

-Masks should be properly ventilated with holes for nose and/or mouth, and large eye-holes for good visibility.

-The elastic should be permanently attached to the mask, with no sharp points on the ends of the elastic or the mask.

-Tell children to wear the mask on top of their heads when walking, and to pull it over their faces only when reaching their location.

-Remind children not to walk between cars, and it's a good idea to trick-or-treat only at friends' and relatives' homes.

For the best Halloween hint, try our downtown festival. It's fun, with bright lights and fun for the kiddies, it helps community organizations like Helping Hands and 4-H, and more people can see your little cutie all dressed up

National Popcorn Month

To celebrate this popular snack, the month of October has been named as "National Popcorn Poppin' Month" by the Popcorn Institute. Did you know the American Indians used popcorn for food as well as decorations in necklaces and headdresses? At the first Thanksgiving, they introduced popcorn to the Pilgrims - who promptly ruined a good thing by eating it with milk and sugar.

What makes popcorn pop? Inside each kernel is a tiny pocket of water. When the water becomes hot, it expands so much that it bursts open the hard outer shell.

For sensible eating, you can't beat plain, unsalted air-popped popcorn...but beware the commercial microwave and other brands which add lots of oil, butter and salt.

Cubs wip Badgers 26-8

By J. L. Tucker

Fullback Julio Martinez, who has scored seven touchdowns in the first five games, scored two touchdowns in the second half of play Oct. 18 as the Ozona Cubs captured their fifth straight victory with a 26-8 decision over the McCamey Badgers.

The Cubs (5-0) rolled up 161 yards rushing in securing their second straight winning season.

"We had a slow start, but we finished very strong," commented Coach Glenn Graham. "To win next week's game we will have to start out a lot stronger; it's always nice to beat McCamey, though."

In the second quarter, the Cubs started on the 44 yard line, and three plays later, J. J. Lozano ran in for the touchdown, putting the first six points on the board. The try for the extra point failed.

Late in the third quarter the Cubs gained control of the ball once again after having to punt early in the second half. Starting at the 47 yard line, the Cubs rushed 53 yards in five plays. Martinez scored from nine yards out to raise the score to 12-0.

In the fourth quarter, Martinez galloped 15 yards, adding to Ozona's score. Andreas De La Garza kicked the extra point. Just three minutes later Joe Esparza charged 21 yards to add six points to the scoreboard. DeLaGarza's kick brought the score to 26-0.

The Badgers returned the kickoff to the 32 yard line. With only three and a half minutes remaining, McCamey ran in for the touchdown, and the try for the extra point made the final score 26-8.

Lozano and Martinez led the Cubs with 59 and 44 yards rushing respectively. Esparza added 21 yards. Eddie DeLuna and Martinez racked up seven tackles each while Esparza, Luis Longoria and Anthony Sanchez each made four stops.

The Cubs will visit the strong Wall Hawks Oct. 25. Play will begin after the seventh graders finish about 6:30.

Badgers win over Cubs

By J. L. Tucker

The Ozona seventh grade Cubs battled with the McCamey Badgers Oct. 18 in Lion Stadium but came up short with a 20-8 loss, mainly because the Cubs were playing against seventh and eighth graders.

"I thought the seventh graders played well against a combination of seventh and eighth graders," commented Coach Glenn Graham. "McCamey had to bring some of their eighth graders down to play with the team because too many seventh graders failed."

Following the opening kickoff, the Cubs turned the ball over to the Badgers after four downs. This turnover caused the Cubs to fall behind because of a Badger touchdown. When the Cubs tried to punt, a hard hitting Badger defense blocked the punt, and McCamey picked up the loose ball and ran it back for another touchdown and a 12-0 lead.

The Cubs' defense, which did a remarkable task in holding the score in the second half, scored themselves in the fourth quarter with three minutes remaining. Joby Sanchez rushed seven yards off right tackle for the score. The try for the extra point was good as Sanchez ran over right guard to make the score 8-20.

Sanchez led the team with 54 of the team's total 55 yards rushing. John Usener racked up 10 tackles while Casey Upham made seven stops.

The Cubs will visit the Wall Hawks Oct. 25. Play will start at 5 p.m.

Gas.

It's A Natural Way To Protect Our World.

Leading scientists tell us that increased use of natural gas could dramatically improve the quality of our environment. Gas is the cleanest burning of all fossil fuels. So, unlike other fuels such as oil and coal, natural gas doesn't emit high levels of carbon dioxide into the atmosphere. These pollutants are believed to be a major cause of many of the environmental problems facing us today.

One way in which natural gas is now being used to help reduce air pollution involves the injection of gas into coal burning facilities. This procedure can result in reducing nitrogen oxide emissions by as much as 60%.

So, when it comes to heating your home this winter - or cooking your food or heating your water - natural gas is the way to go.

Natural gas. It's clean. Dependable. And environmentally friendly. That's why, gas is a natural.

Crockett County Public Library

By Louise Ledoux

News

State Library system membership

Crockett County Public Library was recently accredited as a member of the Texas Library System for fiscal year 1991, according to William D. Gooch, director and librarian of the Texas State Library.

"We are pleased to award a certificate of system membership in recognition of the efforts this community has made in providing public library services," said Gooch. "It is a symbol of having achieved a level of excellence."

CCPL is a member of the Big Country Library System and serves citizens in Ozona, Crockett County, Texas. CCPL had to meet strict criteria, according to Louise P. Ledoux, librarian, such as hours of access, professional staffing requirements, number of library materials and local per capita support to become an accredited member. Public libraries must apply and qualify for system membership annually. CCPL has been a member of the Big Country Library System since 1985.

Services available to member libraries include -- Collection Development Funds for books, a micro-computer and software, a 16mm film projector and film-strip projector, and most important, a voice in planning future system programs. We also get professional and technical help with library operations and library training through special workshops like the one held in Ozona Oct. 16. We also receive literacy materials and loans of books, films and special collections - such as Spanish language and large-print books.

As you can see from this impressive list of services, system membership is very important to our small library. Mrs. Lou Deaton is our lay representative to the Big Country Library System.

Authorized by the Library Systems Act of 1969, the Texas Library System was developed to improve library service in the state through cooperative efforts. Comprised of 10 regions, the statewide system provides an opportunity for local libraries to make the best possible use of both their own resources and those available elsewhere in the system. These cooperative efforts are made possible through state and federal funds appropriated to the Library Development Program of the Texas State Library. This year the Texas State Library will distribute about $8 million to the 10 library systems.

At the last system meeting held Sept. 11, Mrs. Deaton and librarian Louise P. Ledoux learned of two new programs that will replace the old 16mm film program. The videos will be available for spot-booking for specific showing dates just as the films were. The audiocassette program will consist of packets of materials that will be rotated among the member libraries. These two programs will greatly expand the materials available to our local patrons, and Mrs. Ledoux urges all clubs, organizations and individuals to take advantage of these new programs made possible by our membership in the Texas State Library System.

WTU holiday foods program slated for Monday, Oct. 29

Dreading those holiday gatherings because you don't have any exciting new dishes to bring? Fear no more - the West Texas Utilities Holiday Foods program by home economist Darolyn Moore is on the way.

Sponsored by the Progressive Extension Homemakers Club, the program will be held Monday, Oct. 29, at noon and again at 5:30 p.m. at the civic center.

This year's program will feature a potpourri of delightful recipes and craft ideas dreamed up by WTU's staff of professional home economists during the past year. Darolyn Moore often mentions to the audience that the women begin looking for new ideas the day after their last program.

For those who are interested in trying out new recipes, a "taste" of several of the featured foods will be available, thanks to members of Crockett County's 4-H foods and nutrition project groups.

There is no charge to attend the program, and all Crockett County residents and guests are welcome. For more information, call the Crockett County Extension Office at 392-2721.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or handicap.

Red Greer injured in fall

The old saying "you can't keep a good man down" was proven true again last week by 91-year-old Red Greer.

Greer broke an arm Friday in a fall downtown. Unaided, he drove himself home, and then, because of the discomfort, drove on to the hospital.

He was transported to San Angelo where doctors determined that the break was too near the shoulder for a cast. After having the arm immobilized, he spent the night with a relative and returned to his home in Ozona the next day.

ACU is the fourth largest private university in the Southwest and the largest university affiliated with the churches of Christ.

District Federation meeting held here

On Saturday, Oct. 20, the Ozona Woman's Forum and the Woman's League hosted the 31st annual fall board meeting for the Heart of Texas District of the GFWC/Texas Federation of Women's Clubs in the Crockett Room.

The Honorable Judge Brock Jones extended a welcome to everyone present. There were 60 women from the district in attendance.

Reports from all committees and divisions were presented.

The executive board meeting was held the evening before in the Jewel Bailey home. Eighteen members and guests were present.

High school 4-H riflemen participating in Saturday's match are: Dwayne Davee, Gary Thompson, Justin Southern, Fleet Worthington and Jason Moran. (See story page 10)

DeHoyos graduates at TSTI with associate degree

Olga M. DeHoyos of Ozona was one of 319 graduates awarded associate degrees and certificates of completion during annual commencement exercises at Texas State Technical Institute in Sweetwater.

Olga received a certificate in automation office technology.

TSTI is the largest residential technical college in the United States and the only state-supported technical college of its type in Texas. The Sweetwater campus and its satellites in Breckenridge and Abilene offer 17 different fields of study.

Joyce and Dee Keilers spent the weekend visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Karen and Jeff Kimball, in the Big Bend area. While there they devoted a great deal of time to playing with their grandson.

Mrs. Jewel Bailey and Mrs. Lucille Littleton traveled to Tahoka Tuesday where Mrs. Bailey presented a program to Tahoka's Federated Study Club. The program is a narration of her father's immigration from Ireland and his early pioneer days in Schleicher County. Modeling clothing from Mrs. Bailey's mother's trousseau during the program were: Mrs. Homer Hardburger of O'Donnell, Mrs. Gene Pirtle of Tahoka, Mrs. Billy Hardburger of Lamesa and Mrs. Littleton.

HARVEY Hilderbran
FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE
 protects our interests in the Texas Legislature

Looking out for taxpayers

In the current two-year budget, our state government will spend $43 billion of the people's money. So Harvey Hilderbran knows his first job as our State Representative is to make sure our money is spent wisely, keeping waste down to a minimum. For his efforts, Harvey was awarded an "A" rating by "Texans for Financial Responsibility," which is a coalition of over 5,000 Texans monitoring and pushing for better management practices in state government.

Helping to strengthen our economy's future

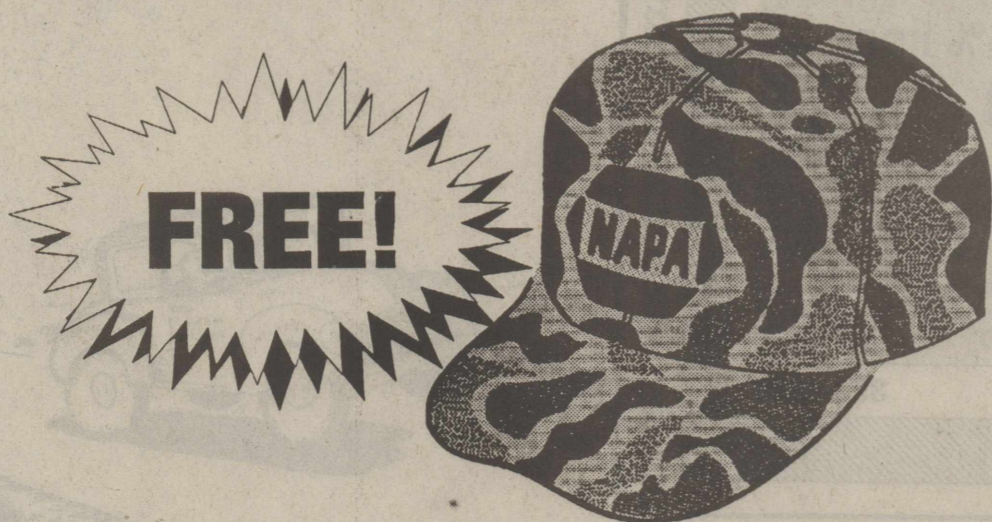

As someone who grew up on his family's ranch inside the District, Harvey appreciates the core strength of agriculture in the economy. As always, however, the future of our economy will greatly depend upon the availability of water. As an appointee to the Natural Resources Interim Study Committee dealing with the Edwards Aquifer, Harvey is working to ensure a fair resolution in any legislation which concerns that critical source of water.

Looking out for elderly citizens

Speaker Gib Lewis recognized Harvey's leadership abilities when he appointed Harvey to the Retirement and Aging and Public Health Committees. Harvey also serves on the powerful Budget and Oversight Subcommittee for Public Health. In these positions, Harvey makes sure the interests of the many elderly citizens who live in District 67 are protected.

ASU Homecoming through Saturday

Angelo State celebrates its annual homecoming the week of Monday, Oct. 22, through Saturday, Oct. 27, with the 1990 version of the festivities focusing around the University's 25th anniversary of its four-year college status.

Angelo State University officially joined the Texas Senior College System in September of 1965, making the transition from a county junior college to a four-year institution of higher learning. In the short 25-year span, the University has achieved dramatic gains in enrollment and the quality of its student body and is now considered among the elite regional universities in the West. The University now has over 12,000 graduates.

Among the highlights of the week are the student carnival at the Super Slab on Thursday evening, the torch light parade and bonfire on Friday night, the Exes Luncheon Saturday morning, the parade Saturday afternoon and the homecoming football game Saturday night in San Angelo Stadium.

Halloween Carnival set for Wednesday

The annual Halloween Carnival sponsored by Ozona Chamber of Commerce will begin Oct. 31 with a 6 p.m. parade. The parade will organize behind Ozona National Bank.

The chamber is also sponsoring a fall coloring contest for students in grades K through five. Entries must be picked up at the chamber office and returned for judging by Oct. 30.

Winners will be announced at the carnival, which is to be held on the square immediately following the parade.

Endangered birds affect cedar clearing projects

Addition of the Golden-cheeked Warbler to the endangered species list on an emergency basis in May brought a halt to a number of public and private development projects in the Austin area. At the same time, the action helped spotlight another endangered species, the Black-capped Vireo.

Crockett County has Black-capped Vireos and is designated as a county that has the warbler although none have been sighted here according to Vaden Aldridge of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service.

Soil Conservation personnel are being trained in identifying habitat critical to the warbler and vireo. When working with landowners, SCS employees must inform them if habitat for the two species will be disturbed through conservation practices such as brush management.

"We do control on redberry cedar. The 50-60 year-old blueberry cedar is what the Golden-cheek Warbler nests in," said Aldridge.

If the SCS determines that habitat will be disturbed, the landowner looks to the Texas Fish and Wildlife Department to verify or nullify the existence of the habitat. Then the decision is made whether to proceed with the practice through SCS assistance. Ultimately, the landowner must decide to proceed even though he may do so without benefit of cost share or technical assistance.

The possible presence of the birds led to a recent directive to the ASCS office prohibiting any new cedar control practices.

The three or four programs already underway through the ASCS are not affected, said Herb Schwertner. Funding for 1991 had not been allocated at the time the office was told not to approve any new cedar control.

The emergency listing gives protection to the warbler for 240 days. The Texas Highway Department, Chuck Nash, chairman of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission, Warren Pulich Sr. of Dallas, an expert on the warbler, in addition to developers, are asking the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service and Department and Department of the Interior to delay the permanent listing to allow for more studies.

Final determination as to whether to list the bird as permanently endangered or allow the emergency listing to expire was originally to be made by Dec. 31, 1990.

Permanent listing would affect landowners by preventing them from clearing their property of cedar.

The warbler is the only bird species whose entire nesting range is restricted to Texas.

The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service estimates the bird's habitat in Texas has shrunk by 15-45 percent in the past decade.

The vireo nests in northern Mexico, Texas and Oklahoma. Preliminary studies indicate that the vireo's population is down in the Austin area 20-40 percent from the previous year.

Rep. Smith named "Guardian of Small Business"

U.S. Rep. Lamar Smith of Texas has been named a "Guardian of Small Business" by the nation's largest small-business organization, the National Federation of Independent Business.

NFIB, which has more than 500,000 members in all 50 states, including more than 41,000 in Texas, presents the award to senators and representatives who vote favorably on key small-business issues at least 70 percent during a two-year session of Congress.

Rep. Smith's small-business voting record during the 101st Congress, rated on the 20 recorded votes, was 79 percent. Issues deemed crucial by NFIB's members included cutting government spending, reducing taxes, mandating benefits, limiting federal regulations and balancing the federal budget.

NFIB is a non-profit, non-partisan organization which lobbies on behalf of small firms in all state capitals and Washington, D.C. The typical company represented has 5 employees, is run by the owner-manager and has a gross annual income of about $250,000.
