Lions pound the Bulldogs 13-12

by J. M. Moran

A barrier of Lions stopped a late fourth quarter rally by Coahoma Friday night as Ozona kept a short leash on the Bulldogs to a 14-12 win in Lion Stadium.

Ozona ended their 1990 regular season 5-5 overall and 5-2 in district play, while Coahoma fell to 6-4 and 4-3 in district.

Ozona won the coin toss and elected to kick, as Coahoma's Mike Mendez returned Ruben Borrego's kick for 7 yards.

On the first two plays, Ozona was plagued with two penalties for off-sides giving the Bulldogs another first down.

The Bulldogs completed two short runs by their leading rusher Shane Walker when quarterback Brent Elmore went to receiver Matt Coates for 20, and setting themselves in Lion country.

Walker gained another rushing 20 to set up 1st and 10 on the 20, however, they were penalized 5 yards for illegal motion on the next play.

Quarterback Elmore went to the air again for a short 6 yard pass to Matt Coates, then on 3rd down he tried to run to the right, but got a taste of the Lion crunch by Lee Galan for a loss of two. Coahoma was yet to lose another 5 on an illegal procedure call.

The Bulldogs faced 3rd and a long 16 when quarterback Elmore tried to connect to Mendez, who collided with a Lion defender as Ozona was called for pass interference to set Coahoma with a 1st and 10.

With 5:21 left in the first quarter and 2nd and a long 16, Ozona's Mike Kenison blitzed and sacked the quarterback to give Coahoma another 7 yard loss. With less than five minutes left Ozona finally grasped the pig-skin.

With 4:48 on the clock, Ozona's Danny DeHoyos connected to Lonnie Martinez on the first play for a 64 yard pass touchdown while Ruben Borrego added the P.A.T. to give the Lions a 7-0 lead.

Bulldog's offense came out of the Kennel to run to the end zone and with 25 seconds left in the first quarter from Quarterback Brent Elmore's pass to Eric Drewery for a 16 yard touchdown. Kicker Mark Arguello added the extra point to tie the game 7-7.

The second quarter started with Ozona in Bulldog territory, only to be forced to punt on a fourth and long.

Daun Williams and Gilbert Rico led the mighty Lion defense to shut down Coahoma's threat, who had to settle for a Mark Arguello 32 yard field goal to pull the Bulldogs ahead 10-7 with 5:00 left before half time.

Ozona's next thirteen plays produced 26 yards rushing and 22 yards passing to elapse four minutes off the clock before Ruben Borrego tried a field goal but failed to thread the uprights.

Coahoma's first try with less than a minute ended when quarterback Brent Elmore threw an interception to Domingo Perez to end the first half.

Third quarter action opened as Ozona fielded the kick-off, ran two short plays and was intercepted by Bulldog Marty Phillips on a floating Danny DeHoyos pass to Borrego.

Time ticked off the clock for Coahoma, who faced a fourth and long, when Ozona got control after a punt and Daun Williams fumbled on 1st and 10 to give the Bulldogs yet another chance to control the ball.

Third quarter closed with Ozona in possession when Lion defense shut down the Bulldog's offense by stuffing quarterback Elmore behind the line on fourth and long.

Early in the fourth quarter, Ozona moved into enemy ground to Coahoma's 45, when DeHoyos found Ruben Borrego for a good 20 yard pass to set the Lions with a 1st and 10 on the Bulldog's 15.

DeHoyos then scrambled for 13 when he then handed off to Ruben Borrego for a 2 yard touchdown. Borrego's golden foot pulled the Lions ahead 14-10.

Coahoma ran the next four minutes off the clock to set 3rd and 2 on Ozona's 7 yard line when Coahoma's Brent Elmore exchanged to Shane Walker, who busted through Lion defense for a then-maybe 2 yards.

Officials measured and then called 1st and goal on the five.

Coahoma's Walker then went to pound on the mighty wall of the Lion defense in four plays, but fell short of the end zone.

Ozona got control after the Bulldogs failed to gain first down yardage in three plays, when Ozona's Danny DeHoyos was sacked in the end zone for a Coahoma safety, pulling them to within two points of the Lions with 1:34 left in the game.

With 14 second left in the ball game, Ozona's Danny DeHoyos picked off a pass attempt by Bulldog quarterback Elmore to secure a 14-12 win for Ozona.

Clinic plans reviewed

Hospital and care center board members examined two floor plans in preparation for renovation of the doctors' clinic when they met Nov. 8.

The building, which was originally designed for five offices, now houses medical quarters for Dr. Joe B. Logan, Dr. Robert Owensby and Karen Huffman, state health nurse.

Proposed changes will include space for a reception area, office and examining rooms for Dr. Marcus Sims.

Board members agreed on a need to walk through the facility and talk with medical personnel before deciding on any changes. A special meeting will be called at a later date to discuss the building changes.

Dr. Sims, in his capacity as medical director, told the board the ambulances were examined last week by an agent of the State Department of Health. The doctor expressed confidence that the ambulances had passed.

A demonstration of a new model ambulance should be held at the hospital one day this week. A new ambulance has been budgeted for the 1991 fiscal year.

Board member Martha Gries reported that lawyers have been hired to write doctors' contracts. The board expects to have the completed contracts for review by Dec. 1.

Three mixing valves in care center bath rooms have yet to achieve correct water temperatures. Mrs. Doris Hull told the board. Members voted that the problem should be remedied immediately.

Marilee Robertson, director of nurses at the care center, explained the new admitting process and talked about federal regulations regarding admissions.

Mrs. Robertson presented quality assessment and assurance program information to the board and discussed changes in job descriptions which are necessary to comply with guidelines.

Bill Boswell explained the benefits of joining the Texas Association of Hospital Governing Boards. He recommended that the board join if members desire to serve two terms. A decision to join or not was tabled until the next meeting.

A state association is currently being organized for nurses who work in small hospitals.

Advertisements in area and regional papers for personnel needed at Crockett County Hospital have resulted in only two inquiries, Boswell said. Citing the pay scale and remote location, Boswell told the board "it's going to be very difficult to get the people we need out here".

During her portion of the report, Mrs. Hull, care center administrator, told the board a check had arrived from the Department of Human Services in the amount of $32,229.16. The money was owed the facility for care of Medicaid residents.

There are 39 residents in the care center at present with open beds for one male resident and one female resident in semi-private rooms.

Statistics show 186 emergency room visits for October, 168 patients released, nine transferred, eight admitted and one deceased.

Clinic visits during October amounted to 439. There had been 3,892 visits for the year to date with 3,174 during the same time period last year.

Ambulance runs totaled eight for the month with 71 to date compared to 98 the previous year.

Senator Sims to sponsor internship program

State Senator Bill Sims, D-San Angelo, will sponsor the internship program again this next session. The program will be for the 72nd Legislative Session which starts January 8, 1991 and ends May 28, 1991.

This program will be offering one-to five-day internships in Sims' Capitol office on a first-come first-serve basis for residents of the 25th Senatorial District. Duties will include auditing committee hearings in the House and the Senate. The internship positions are unpaid and completely volunteer.

"I started this program in 1985 and it has been a tremendous success," Senator Sims said. "I believe everyone who participates learns a great deal on how state government works."

Because of limited space in the Senator's office, internships are restricted to residents of the 25th Senatorial District which includes the following counties: Bandera, Bexar north of Loop 1604, Blanco, Brewster, Coke, all of Comal except the city of New Braunfels, Crane, Crockett, Culberson, Edwards, all of El Paso except the city of El Paso, Gillespie, Glasscock, Hudspeth, Irion, Jeff Davis, Kendall, Kerr, Kimble, Loving, Mason, Medina, Menard, Midland, Pecos, Presidio, Reagan, Real, Reeves, Schleicher, Sterling, Sutton, Terrell, Tom Green, Upton, Val Verde, Ward and Winkler.

Flores retires from Highway Dept.

Halloween was a significant day for Leandro Flores, Jr. It was then that many friends and co-workers met at the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation maintenance office to wish him a happy retirement.

Flores has served the people of the State of Texas more than 30 years by doing many jobs—from cutting weeds from around bridges to general highway maintenance work—to make the highways in Crockett County smoother and safer.

Leandro's fellow employees gave him gift certificates for a shopping spree to buy things he had always wanted, but would never buy.

San Angelo District Engineer Walter McCullough, P.E., presented Flores with a retirement plaque, and a 30 year service award. Flores completed 30 years with the department in March of this year.

Winston Koerth, maintenance supervisor for Crockett County, read Leandro's new job description and job performance plan to him and those present. Any thoughts he may have of fishing or hunting trips may have to be postponed for the present time. Leandro's wife, Norma, is owner of Norma's Kitchen, a local restaurant. She has several things in mind for Leandro to do to occupy his time.

After all the speeches and presentations were made, everyone got down to the serious business of disposing of the barbecue, beans, potato salad, rice, and iced tea, which was prepared by George Ybarra, assistant foreman in Crockett County.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

This is in reference to the letter that was published on last week's paper criticizing our hospital and medical staff because of prejudice practices. I for one, as a Mexican American, feel obligated to comment on my personal views on this matter. I have always been taken care of in a very cordial and respected manner. Sometimes I have even been called in front of white people for the fact that I have had to get back to my job or back to my little girl. As far as I know I do not detect any discrepancies. On top of all this, if one of my family members was very ill I would definitely go through the emergency room and not set an appointment.

Sincerely,
Evelyn Lozano

Rural hospitals receive grants

Gov. Bill Clements has announced that 25 rural Texas hospitals will receive federal grants to beef up their services.

These grants, made by the Health Care Financing Administration, will provide up to $50,000 annually for up to three years for such projects as establishing rural health clinics and physician recruiting.

The Texas Department of Health, which Gov. Clements designated as the lead state agency in securing the grants, said 36 hospitals applied for funding. Of those, 25 hospitals received 17 grants, with several hospitals combining forces for a single application. One hospital, Golden Plains Hospital in Borger, received two grants.

The grants are restricted to rural hospitals with less than 100 beds. This is the second consecutive year the federal grants have been awarded to Texas hospitals. Last year, 14 hospitals received federal assistance.

Brewster Memorial Hospital in Alpine received a grant to increase ambulatory services and access to outpatient care by opening same-day surgery unit, establishing case manager position and participating in telecommunication education project to serve Brewster, Jeff Davis and Presidio Counties.

A combined application by hospitals in Pecos, Monahans, Fort Stockton and Kermit resulted in a grant to identify need for and recruit two physician specialists and purchase related equipment to serve Pecos, Reeves, Ward, Winkler and Loving Counties.

A grant for a combined application by hospitals in Friona, Van Horn, Denver City and Tahoka was approved to expand the existing MEDNET telecommunications system to serve Parmer, Lynn, Yoakum, Culberson, Hudspeth and Jeff Davis Counties.

Grants were awarded in other places for such improvements as: developing and implementing a comprehensive rehabilitation program including physical, speech and occupational therapies and cardiac rehabilitation; develop and implement hospital-based skilled nursing unit; establish a mobile community health education program; establish a hospital-based primary health care clinic; develop and implement a multi-county rural health clinic system; plan and implement a hospital-based home health program; plan and implement swing bed and skilled nursing facility.

Dr. Sims stressed that there is no discrimination nor intent to discriminate against anyone visiting the clinic. The board instructed Mr. Boswell to place a bilingual sign in the hospital lobby requesting that all clinic patients register with the receptionist upon arrival at the clinic.

Names for two new board members are to be presented at the next meeting. To be replaced are Armando Arredondo whose term expires and Fred Deaton, a new member of commissioners' court effective Jan. 1.

Addresses needed for Centennial

A centennial committee preparing mailouts to descendants of early settlers is currently working on getting addresses of those related to persons on the first tax roll.

The assessment of property in Crockett County owned and rendered for taxation for 1890 was signed Aug. 28, 1890 by Val Verde County Judge W. K. Jones.

"There was very little land declared - a few owned one section," said committee member Lucile Harrell. "Some of the names 'missing' on this list are also not on the 1892 tax list," she said.

Descendants of the below named people who believe the committee does not have an address for their family are asked to contact Mrs. Fred Haglestein at Box 657 or Mrs. Alvin Harrell at Dr. B. Ozona, TX 76943.

In this filing, GTE-SW proposes to modify its existing 9-1-1 tariff and to add more than 200 new service offerings. Crockett County Care Center News

By JoAnne Marshall

Activities were fast and furious these past two weeks. Monday mornings were spent getting ready for an upcoming Halloween party and then for a wedding. There were lots of things to do and little time to do them in, but we made it.

To help us relax a little, local talents entertained us with lively country music on one of the evenings. We would like to thank Marsha Tomlinson, Bob Hartman, Bill Dane, Jamie Knox and George Hester for sharing their time and talents with us.

Tuesday morning's bingo winners for the past two weeks were: Florencia Porras, Juana Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Frances Davis, Jeff Owens, Hazel McDaniel, Manuela Perez, Minnie Karr, Elvira Pena, Virginia Hoover and Joe Connolly. Florencia tried to get a new record, winning four games in one sitting. Helpful volunteers for the games were Sophie Kyle and Georgia Kirby. Thank you, ladies. We appreciate your help.

Bill Fuller of First Baptist Church conducted a short Bible study on one of the Tuesday afternoons. Maxine Brown was kind enough to play the piano and keep everyone on key during the sing-a-long that followed the lesson. Thank you, Maxine and Bill.

Tuesday evenings were busy. A Halloween carnival was held the first Tuesday with lots of children attending. The spook house was the favorite attraction, and all the children left the care center with lots of goodies. Volunteers for the carnival were: Terry and Merry Marshall, Matthew and Angie Marshall, Kathy and Jerry Marshall, Vivian Hughes, Joann Williamson, Beverly Preddy, Doris Hull, Jim and Janet Wilson and Edna Olvera. They all worked hard to see that the kids had a good time and deserve a big thank you.

A wedding joining Myra Jones and Otis Nester took place the second Tuesday evening. Bill Fuller conducted the ceremony and provided the music. Residents, family members and friends attended a reception in the dining room following the wedding. Colors for the wedding were white and several shades of pink. Residents can hardly wait to see the pictures that were taken.

Wednesday mornings were spent in our weekly ceramic workshop. Residents attending were: Juana Hernandez, Moriana Perez, Florencia Porras, Chata Tambunga, Joe Connolly, Theo Burns, Frances Davis and Hazel McDaniel. Ceramic volunteers were: Jeannie Fuller, Ruthie Dorris and Ruth Hester. Thank you, ladies. We enjoyed your company.

A Halloween costume party was held on one of the Wednesday afternoons. Cookies and soda pop were served. The best part of the party was when residents told of the tricks that they played on Halloween night when they were kids. Some of the staff members enhanced the party by coming to work in Halloween costumes. Residents used the next Wednesday afternoon to sit and relax in front of the television.

Activities scheduled for both Thursdays were beauty shop in the mom-ings and Bible study in the afternoons. Beauty shop volunteers were: Vivian Hughes, Joann Williamson, Audrey Smith, Jerri Pesson, Yolanda Avila and Diane Luckie. Thank you, ladies. We appreciate your time. Bible studies were conducted by Charles Huffman of Faith Lutheran Church and members of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church. We would like to thank Charles, Ruby Olson, Alicia Perez, Anita Fierro, Paulita Leal, Lupe Gutierrez, Chele Fuantoz, Germana Hernandez, Herbierto and Lorenza Gutierrez, Chelva Ramirez, Alejos Tambunga and Meche Tambunga for sharing these activities with us. You make them special.

Bingo winners for Friday mornings were: Florencia Porras, Tomasa Ramos, Jeff Owens, Monnie Boyd, Hazel McDaniel, Theo Burns, Moriana Perez, Minnie Karr, Elvira Pena, Myrtle Post, Bertha Miller, Virginia Hoover and Santos Martinez.

Residents spent one Friday afternoon playing dominoes and the other one attending a sandwich party. Since this month is sandwich month, residents celebrated by selecting their favorite meats and trimmings to put on a homemade sandwich. Chips and soda pop were added to the taste of the meal. Residents said they thoroughly enjoyed the activity.

November 4th's Sunday worship service was conducted by Tim Brewer of the United Methodist Church. Madeline Stokes played the piano. November 11th's Sunday service was presented by members of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church. We would like to thank them all for sharing their inspirational messages with us. We appreciate their time.

When one is facing what seems to be a hopeless, impossible, insurmountable situation, there are three things which one should do: The first thing is to pray. The second thing is to pray. And finally, the third thing is TO PRAY. God may not always change things for you. But in his infinite wisdom, He may change you for something even better than you could ever imagine.

A Preacher's Pondering

By Ralph O. Moore

Noise

I read an interesting article about noise recently. Citing studies done by the scientific community, the author concluded that noise "can cause heart trouble, ulcers, and indigestion. It might lead to insanity," he said, "or even death."

I think any parent who has a teenager that listens to rock music would agree. A stereo (or car radio) that belongs to a teen has one volume: LOUD! The noise generated in the rooms and automobiles of young people exceeds that of jet airplanes.

Teenagers listening to this loud music appear to be insane. One cannot speak to them in normal speech because they can't hear you. Parents, and even folks on the street, have headaches and indigestion - and even parents might go insane (temporarily).

Sound is measured in decibels. The average conversation is approximately 60 db; a jet airplane flying 100 feet overhead is about 130 db; and, yes, you guessed it, rock music on a teen's stereo sometimes reaches 140-145 db. Huh? Yes, that is correct. Surely, if the ears of airport personnel need protective coverings, there needs to be some relief for those subjected to rock music.

Teens and their rock music are not the only sources of noise. Politicians are guilty, too. Have you noted, now that the elections are over, that it is relatively quiet around the tube? The rhetoric and mud-slinging has abated a bit, so has voter's headaches. Some people even say that preachers are a source of noise, but there is absolutely no valid proof of that.

Loud noises raise blood pressure, impair manual dexterity, causes irritability, insomnia and fear. Its most common danger is deafness. Yes, turning up the sound leads to no sound at all.

Solomon said, "The quiet words of the wise are more to be heeded than the shouts of a ruler of fools" (Eccl. 9:17). The noise level of the world is constantly rising. Satan screeches in a deafening roar. People have shouting matches in arguments, threats, and cries for worldly pleasures. The noise level in the world makes it very difficult to hear God.

David said that his Shepherding Lord led him beside quiet waters and restored his soul. I think that is the key: let God lead you to places where you can hear Him speak. It's always good to hear God.

A reducer is needed to diminish the level and intensity of noise in the world. We have such a devise in the Scriptures. Listen...in the quietness and calmness of the World, headaches and anxieties go away. God speaks to calm a soul.

Think about it.

Looking For Good Advice

by Rev. Fernando Charles

No matter how much education we might get or how well-read we might be, there are times when we are going to feel like we don't have wisdom or experience to solve our own problems.

In fact, there are times when those who are highly educated lack some of the common sense that it takes to make a correct decision. Sometimes the most complex problems can be solved with a very simple solution.

Many times we become so involved in all the intricacies of a certain problem that we can't see the forest for the trees. This is when we definitely need to step back and take a look at things in a calm manner, rather than getting all worked up and nervous to the point where we can't think straight.

Some of the best solutions to our problems come from another source besides our own ability and the advice of others.

But we can't be inspired with the kind of wisdom we need to solve our problems when we are worried and upset, and not at peace inside.

First we must be at peace with ourselves and with others, and with our God, before we can hope to obtain the kind of wisdom that comes only from God. In James 1:5, we read, "If any of you lack wisdom, he should pray to God, who will give it to him; because God gives generously and graciously to all."

What a wonderful promise that is to all of us! If we pray for wisdom, God promises to give it to us. This wisdom is available to the uneducated as well as the educated. God promises you wisdom—not knowledge, but wisdom.

A good deal of wisdom can be obtained by years of experience, but true wisdom and spiritual insight must come from another source—the mind or spirit of God.

In the Old Testament book of I Kings we read that Solomon, King of Israel, was asked in a dream by God, "What shall I give you?" (I Kings 3:5) Instead of asking for power, a long life, riches or the life of his enemies, Solomon only asked for one thing—wisdom or understanding, so he could justly rule his people.

God was so pleased with Solomon God told him "Behold, I give you a wise and discerning mind, so that none like you has been before you and none like you shall arise after you".

All of us need to ask God for wisdom and understanding daily in our prayers.

And God promises to grant us wisdom, "because God gives generously and graciously to all".

State education requirements subject of program Nov. 20

Crockett County PTA will meet Tuesday, Nov. 20, at 7 p.m. in the junior high cafeteria.

The scheduled program will be given by Elizabeth Clark who is the dyslexia teacher for the Ozona school system.

At the October meeting, PTA members heard a panel discussion from teachers Vicky Stokes, Tommy Pena-Alfaro, Darolyn Webster, Katrece Hale, Lloyd Winkley, Chesta Stuart and counselor Jack Probst. The panel gave a presentation on state requirements for education and what parents can do in the home to help their children.

The PTA had two booths at the Halloween Carnival. Members sold hot chocolate and had a petting zoo.

October activities of Xi Sigma Omega

On October 8th, Barbara Wallace served as hostess for the regular meeting and Exemplar Ritual held in her home. Lisa Branch, Leslie Wilson, Betty Koerth and Marsha Kirklen received the Exemplar Degree.

On October 22, Nancy Hale served as hostess for the meeting held in the Crockett Building. Business items discussed were: the Girls' Pledge Party, new members, Halloween carnival and arts and crafts booths, and a gift boxes to sisters serving in Kuwait.

On October 29, the executive board hosted a Halloween party at the Emerald House. Halloween luminaries lined the walk and the interior was decorated with pumpkins and Halloween spooks. After a get-acquainted game, members and guests were served a full course dinner from the ghouls' grill. It included such specialties as gremlin crunch, ghost roll, bone marrow casserole, green goblin guts, and jack-o-lantern surprise.

Teacher exchange program agreement made with Germany

An agreement under which teachers from the unified Federal Republic of Germany will teach in Texas public schools as part of a teacher exchange program was announced recently by Texas and German education officials.

Under the agreement, teachers from the newly unified German republic will be chosen to teach for a year in Texas public school districts. The teachers will work as full-time teachers with duties and responsibilities similar to those of Texas teachers beginning in the 1991-92 school year.

In exchange for every German teacher selected to teach in a Texas school, the German government will grant a scholarship to the participating school district for an educator from that district to attend a three-

Homeowners 65 or over may pay home taxes in quarterly installments

Homeowners 65 or older may now pay the taxes on their current homesteads in four installments. Most elderly homeowners received their home tax bills this month.

Leon Willhite, executive director of the State Property Tax Board, explained the purpose of the new installment payment option authorized by state law beginning this September.

"In past years, older homeowners had to pay their entire home tax bill before the normal February 1 delinquency date or pay a penalty and interest on the unpaid amount. This was a hardship for many elderly homeowners with fixed incomes," Willhite said. "This new provision gives them the option of spreading out that payment," he said.

To set up installment payments, 65-or-older homeowners must pay at least one-fourth of their 1990 residence homestead taxes before the February 1 delinquency date. Then, three equal installments are due before April 1, June 1, and August 1.

If all installments are paid on time, homeowners will not be charged penalty or interest for late payment, Willhite said. However, those who fail to pay an installment on time must pay penalty and interest on that installment.

Homeowners 65 or over who are interested in arranging installments need to contact the tax collection office for each taxing unit — county, city, school, or special district — at the address on their tax bills.

This new provision does not apply to any past home taxes already delinquent or other types of property.

week educational enrichment program which will be conducted in Berlin and other other areas of Germany. The program will be designed to bolster and enrich the skills of Texas educators, who will be able to receive advanced academic training (AAT) credit for the program.

Texas has had a teacher exchange program with West Germany for four years. However, under a new agreement signed October 17 by Texas Commissioner of Education W. N. Kirby and Sybille Volknoz, Berlin secretary for education, professional training and sports, teachers from schools throughout Germany will be eligible to participate in the exchange program.

Housing, per diem, local transportation and transportation from Texas for Texas educators selected for the enrichment program will be paid for by the German government.

German teachers will be nominated for the program by the German government and selected, employed and supervised by Texas school districts which participate in the program.

Texas school districts interested in participating in the program should write to Dr. Ernest Roberts, assistant to the commissioner, Texas Education Agency, 1701 North Congress Avenue, Austin, Texas 78701-1494, or call (512) 463-8985.

Leave the Pack behind Nov. 15

American Cancer Society volunteers around the state are readying efforts to challenge smokers to "Leave the Pack Behind" during the Society's 14th Annual Great American Smokeout Nov. 15.

Sponsored by the American Cancer Society, the Great American Smokeout is a fun-filled, light-hearted celebration held each year on the third Thursday in November to encourage smokers and tobacco users to quit the habit for 24 hours. The effort is the largest health promotion event in the country.

Last year's Smokeout triggered 10.5 percent of the nation's smokers - 5.2 million Americans - to give up cigarettes for 24 hours. One to three days later, according to a Gallup poll, 3.9 million were still abstaining from tobacco. According to the poll, 17.9 million smokers participated in the Smokeout by quitting or cutting down for the day.

Judy Oskam of Austin, chairman of the Texas Smokeout campaign, said, "The American Cancer Society is hoping this 14th annual Great American Smokeout will help smokers across the state to stop smoking. We especially are working to help women, teens and underserved populations quit their tobacco habits."

The Smokeout helps advance the Society's ongoing battle against cancer. "Smoking is responsible for 87 percent of lung cancer cases, and that means 87 percent are preventable by choosing not to smoke," Oskam explained. "We hope at least one in five Texas smokers will join the Smokeout this year. Texans could make a big step toward better health on Nov. 15."

"Each year the Smokeout grows more successful in involving tobacco users in the day's activities," Oskam said. "In Texas, the Smokeout is a winner because we have hundreds of American Cancer Society volunteers in large and small communities around the state working to make sure that the Smokeout day is filled with fun, exciting and supportive events."

For tips on quitting, call the American Cancer Society at 1-800-ACS-2345.

Gonzales honored by fellow students

Dotie Gonzalez was chosen first runnerup to the homecoming queen at Sul Ross State University. The sophomore political science major from Ozona was sponsored by the cheerleaders.

The top five finalists from a field of 21 candidates were selected by the student body in mid-October. These court members were introduced at a reception for the homecoming court Oct. 25. Students voted a second time, selecting Leah Foxworth, a graduate student from Warren, as homecoming queen.

Dotie is a 1988 graduate of Ozona High School and the daughter of Mari Vargas.

911 system needs location

Possible answering points for a 911 emergency telephone system were considered by commissioners Tuesday with no solution found. The system is scheduled to go into effect in Crockett County next July.

Sheriff Jim Wilson told the court he has problems with operating the system from the jail. "I can't do it with the personnel I've got now." The sheriff suggested a countywide communications center as the best alternative.

Three more employees would be necessary for the jail to be the primary location for the system, Wilson said.

Hospital board members agreed at their meeting Nov. 8 to allow the hospital to be the secondary answering site for 911.

Court members voted to table selection of a location with Judge Kathryn Mayfield emphasizing that a decision needs to be reached next month so the telephone company can plan for Ozona's needs.

Approval was given to a request by

Tax Assessor Tommy Stokes that he be allowed to appoint Shio Tambunga as chief deputy of vehicle taxes and Rhonda Shaw as chief deputy of property taxes.

Advertisement for bids on vehicle liability insurance will be made for opening on Dec. 10 at 11 a.m.

The court does not expect to have a second meeting in November.

In other action, the court voted to:

-approve payment of a bill for work on water mixing valves at care center

-use of fire department budgeted funds for purchase of bunker gear amounting to $5,000 and use of $3,000 in budgeted funds on completion of new fire truck

-buy material for fencing of 3.1 miles of road along Bud Cox property on Howard Draw Road. Cox will provide labor and give right-of-way to county

-overhaul 1980 Chevrolet pickup used at landfill

-provide $500 for county employee appreciation Christmas party Dec. 21 -table action on purchase of a brush chipper and or street sweeper until next month

-appoint Camille Jones, Flint Henderson, Jill Seahorn and Mary Jo Mason as new library board members

-transfer $700 from public library's repair fund to book fund

-adopt investment policy as required by state

-table action on hiring a professional consultant for self-funded workman's comp insurance and self-funded medical insurance.

Monthly reports were heard from: Sandy Stokes, auditor; Bill Boswell, hospital consultant; Doris Hull, care center administrator; Eddie Moore, road department supervisor; Onecimo Ortiz, parks department supervisor; Janet Hill, Helping Hands for the Elderly; Louise Ledoux, librarian; Garland Young, civic center; Bob Falkner, fire chief; and Sheriff Jim Wilson.

Get a check-up during November to guard against diabetes

Cutting down on salt, fat and sugar is a major concern for all health-conscious Texans, but even more important to those with diabetes.

More than 800,000 Texans suffer from diabetes mellitus—and over half of the cases are undiagnosed, according to the Texas Department of Health.

"November is national diabetes month and a good time for those in high-risk categories to check with their physician to determine if they are diabetic," said Dr. Mary Kinney Bielamowicz, nutritionist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Complications from uncontrolled diabetes can be debilitating," she said. "If left untreated, this disease can lead to blindness, heart disease, kidney disease, limb amputations and even death."

Mexican Americans are three to five times more likely to develop diabetes than Anglos, and blacks experience a 33 percent higher rate of diabetes than Anglos, Bielamowicz said. The majority of these high-risk populations that are afflicted with the disease have the non-insulin type of diabetes, which can stem from inherited traits as well as ethnic dietary habits.

"About 90 percent of all Texans with diabetes have the non-insulin kind or type II, formerly known as the adult onset type," she said. "The pancreas produces some insulin, but the body is unable to use it properly. This causes glucose to build up in the blood, leading to the high blood-glucose or blood-sugar levels that are characteristics of untreated diabetes."

Type II diabetes usually occurs in adults 35 or older. Symptoms are blurred vision, excessive tiredness, weight gain or loss, or scratches that will not heal properly.

In most cases, symptoms can be controlled by weight loss, good diet and exercise, she said. Carrying around extra weight can lead to a host of problems. It can drain energy, cause heart and lung problems and diminish self-esteem.

Fewer people have the insulin-dependent or type I diabetes, which usually occurs in early childhood. The pancreas does not produce enough insulin to meet the body's needs, Bielamowicz said. Insulin injections allow the body to use glucose produced from foods for energy. However, the type of insulin taken must be balanced with food and activity.

"Symptoms in children include fatigue, extreme thirst, frequent urination, and nausea and vomiting," said Dora McDonald, coordinator of the Texas Diabetes Council. "These symptoms can cause the child to go into a coma, if not diagnosed soon enough."

The body produces glucose from the foods consumed, Bielamowicz said, so eating right is the first step in controlling diabetes.

Because the majority of people with non-insulin diabetes are overweight, most are advised to lose extra pounds, she continued. Even slight weight losses have dramatically improved blood-glucose levels by helping the body use its own insulin more efficiently.

According to the Texas affiliate of the American Diabetes Association, people without diabetes stand a greater chance of developing the disease if they are overweight. On the other hand, people with diabetes who are overweight may be able to improve their diabetes control, prevent or delay complications—even increase life expectancy—if they lose weight.

Bielamowicz said a physician can provide a referral to a dietitian who can help design a meal plan that will match a person's eating habits with diabetes management goals.

New test developed to detect heart attacks

Doctors can now determine more quickly if a patient suffering chest pains has had a heart attack using a new test developed by researchers in the DeBakey Heart Center of Baylor College of Medicine and The Methodist Hospital.

Until recently it could be more than 12 hours before a diagnosis could be confirmed with a blood test that detects an enzyme released by injured heart tissue.

Dr. Peter R. Puleo, assistant professor of medicine, said the test he developed with colleagues Dr. Robert Roberts and Dr. Benjamin Perryman provides a reliable heart attack diagnosis after only four hours. It is 100 percent accurate after six hours.

Tests used previously are less than 50 percent accurate after five hours and may require 12 hours or longer to match the accuracy rate of the new test, Puleo said.

Having a positive diagnosis sooner not only enables doctors to prescribe appropriate therapy, but also saves patients money if the test shows they have not had a heart attack.

"We could then stop administering the expensive clot-dissolving drugs given to help prevent heart damage," said Puleo, director of coronary care at Ben Taub General Hospital. "Patients also can be transferred from cardiac care or emergency room beds to other less costly care areas."

When a heart attack is suspected, doctors act quickly to start medication that dissolves the clot blocking blood flow to the heart muscle, thus minimizing damage. Patients are placed in specialized care units for observation and monitoring with sophisticated equipment while physicians wait for test results.

"Waiting 12 hours for results is expensive," Puleo said.

The new test provides accurate results faster because it detects two forms of the enzyme MB Creatine Kinase, which is released by injured heart tissue. The amount of the enzyme in the bloodstream increases gradually for as long as 18 to 30 hours after a heart attack begins.

"If a patient with symptoms has not actually had a heart attack, we want to know it as quickly as possible so that we can determine the problem and then treat it," Puleo said. "Everyone who arrives in the emergency room with chest pain benefits from this new test."

Notice of REWARD
 I AM OFFERING $500 REWARD for apprehension and conviction of guilty parties to every theft of livestock in Crockett County - except that no officer of Crockett County may claim the reward.
Jim Wilson
 SHERIFF, CROCKETT CO.

Ozona's newest mural by Jack Feagan was hung several weeks ago on the J.W. Motors Building. Gene and Betty Perry commissioned the artwork which depicts a dog working stock.

Operation Game Thief callers receive rewards

Members of the Operation Game Thief Committee met Oct. 24 to consider rewards for callers whose information resulted in conviction of game and fish law violators during the past six months and to monitor the Operation Game Thief Fund.

The 24-hour OGT hotline (1-800-792-GAME) received 495 calls the past six months, 48 of the calls resulting in 122 cases being filed against 84 violators, said Captain Wayne Chappell, OGT coordinator. Committee members authorized payment of $1,800 for 13 callers who requested a reward (35 did not request a reward). The courts assessed $15,936.40 in fines in those cases.

The OGT Committee meets in April and October each year to administer the OGT program. Funds to support the program are derived solely from contributions by private individuals, sportsmen's clubs, corporations and other private sources.

The program was first authorized by the Texas Legislature in 1981. Since its inception, OGT has received 10,173 calls. Of those calls, 993 resulted in the arrest of 1,937 violators. More than 98 percent of the cases filed resulted in convictions with the courts assessing $438,350.79 in fines. Rewards totaling $80,630 have been authorized for callers who requested rewards.

Although not reflected in the October meeting, three recent calls to OGT have resulted in the apprehension of 68 violators who illegally caught and sold more than 1,000 fish, including striped bass, white bass and paddlefish, which is an endangered species in Texas. The courts assessed $92,450 in fines for these violations. All apprehensions were made in the same area of North Texas, and none of the callers reporting these violations requested a reward for their assistance.

"These calls are classic examples of the value of the Operation Game Thief program," Chappell said.

Contributions to OGT may be made by mailing a check payable to Operation Game Thief to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, ATTN: Operation Game Thief, 4200 Smith School Road, Austin, Texas 78744, and all contributions are tax-deductible. For more information on the program, contact any TPWD law enforcement office or call Chappell in Austin at 1-800-792-1112, ext. 4626, or 512-389-4626.

Comptroller remits mixed drink tax

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Friday sent checks totaling almost $12 million to 219 counties and 441 cities that tax mixed drink sales.

The checks represent the counties' and cities' share of the state's mixed drink tax collected during July, August and September 1990.

Bullock said that the state collected $54.6 million in state and local mixed drink taxes during the third quarter of 1990 with the state's $42.8 million share deposited into the state's general revenue fund.

Counties received more than $6.1 million compared to $5.8 million received during the same three-month period of 1989. Cities received more than $5.7 million, up from the $5.4 million received last year during those months. The state's general revenue fund received the balance.

The mixed drink tax is collected by the Alcoholic Beverage Commission. City and county tax rebates are sent out quarterly by Bullock's office.

Crockett County drinkers paid $7,641.88 mixed drink tax and the county received $850.75 rebate from those taxes. Reagan County and the City of Big Lake drinkers paid $2,811.52 tax each and received $318.13 rebate for each taxing unit. Sutton County and the City of Sonora drinkers paid 4,298.04 tax each and each taxing unit received $484.17 rebate. Val Verde County and the City of Del Rio drinkers paid $63,043.92 tax each and both taxing units received $7,080.19.

Traveling Texans

Students in Shirley Kirby's third grade class can't help but be enriched this year by their teacher's summer vacation experiences. Shirley, along with her husband Dick, her father Oscar Kost, and his wife Luetta, traveled in England and France for 10 days, absorbing the history and beauty of the two countries.

Small children taking notes while on a field trip to the Tower of London gave pause to the career teacher as she considered the scarcity of opportunities for classes in local schools to broaden horizons through excursions.

The trip to the Tower of London where the crown jewels are kept was an opportunity to photograph the uniformed Beefeater guards and learn that the world's largest diamond, 530 karats, is part of a scepter stored there.

Changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace became more meaningful to the Texas group when a retired guard in the crowd added comments based on his knowledge and experiences. Although approximately 20,000 people view the 11 a.m. ceremony seven days a week, Oscar was fortunate enough to reach the vantage point of the fence and take several excellent photographs.

"We did all the touristy things," said Shirley of their stay in London. St. James Park, Trafalgar Square, Windsor Castle and 10 Downing Street were but a few of the impressive sights. All were interested in the exhibits at the underground Wartime Museum. A boat ride on the Thames presented the city from still another perspective.

Learning to ride the tube, London's underground railway, was a challenge. Finding one's way through London's many unmarked streets proved even more challenging. Cab drivers train for two years on motorbikes, taking monthly tests, to learn their way about the city before they are approved to drive a cab.

From the White Cliffs of Dover the travelers went by ferry to Calais, France, then on to Paris.

A night excursion to the Eiffel Tower revealed a magnificent view of the city. The famous tower was visible from their hotel rooms.

Their London hotel had been shared by many Iranian guests who were less than courteous, Shirley said.

Luetta and Shirley were awed by the beauty of Notre Dame Cathedral's Rose Window which was dismantled and hidden for safety during the war.

The Mona Lisa and Venus de Milo were among many attractions for the travelers during a stop at the Louvre. "You would have to visit every day for six months to see everything there," Luetta said.

Versailles' gardens and fountains and the massive palace itself were a source of wonder on an tour away from the heart of the city.

No trip to Paris could be complete without a stroll down the Champ de Elysee to view the Arc de Triomphe or a boat ride on the Seine to see the model for the Statue of Liberty.

Even the return flight was filled with excitement. Atmospheric conditions allowed passengers to see and photograph Greenland, a highly unusual experience according to the pilot.

Trooper Ben English checks the VIN number on this 1982 Ford Club Wagon van that overturned on Interstate 10 last Wednesday morning. The driver, Susan McGrain, fell asleep and overcorrected causing the vehicle to veer off the highway and roll one time.

Accident injures two

Susan McGrain and her daughter Rebecca McGrain were injured in a one vehicle accident Nov. 7 on Interstate 10. Mrs. McGrain reportedly fell asleep while driving approximately eight miles east of Ozona Wednesday morning.

The 1982 Ford van went off the road, and when the driver overcorrected, the vehicle completely overturned one time. The accident was investigated by Trooper Ben English.

Both women were taken by ambulance to Crockett County Hospital and transported to a San Angelo hospital. Rebecca suffered severe injury to an arm which apparently went through a side window, Trooper English said.

The Kansas residents were traveling from an antique glass show in San Francisco to another glass show. The van was filled with glassware.

Change made in medicare claims process

If you have Medicare medical insurance, you should know about an important change in the way your claims will be handled.

Starting September 1, 1990, your medical insurance claim must be prepared and submitted by the service provider — the doctor, laboratory, medical supply company, or other party providing the service.

In the past, you had to submit a Form 1490s (Patient's Request for Medicare) unless your doctor or service provider accepted "assignment." (Assignment means that the doctor or other service provider accepts the Medicare-approved charge as the total charge.)

But, now, the doctor or other service provider must send in your claim even if they don't accept assignment.

The service provider can't charge you for preparing and submitting the Medicare claim. If a service provider refuses to prepare and submit your Medicare claim or charges you a fee for doing it, you should contact your Medicare carrier.

The carrier's address and phone number are listed in your copy of the Medicare Handbook.

National farm-city week is November 16-22

As consumers, we may not give much thought to where our food comes from, other than the supermarket. But perhaps we should, says an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Dr. Carl Anderson said that Nov. 16-22 will be observed as National Farm-City Week.

"This is an appropriate time to recognize achievements of the risk-takers of the nation's food and fiber crops," he said.

Anderson said that farmers, rural townspeople and city residents who work in some phase of agribusiness all help to make the nation's agricultural production system a big success.

"This annual activity marks the seven days leading up to and including Thanksgiving Day and is an observance to honor the country's greatest resource — its people," Anderson said.

He said the income of about 23 million Americans — roughly, about one job in every five — depends on efficient production on farms and ranches.

"This makes agriculture and agribusiness the nation's number one employer," Anderson said. "Together, these people comprise the agribusiness complex, which reaches far beyond the farm gate to impact all consumers."

Anderson said U.S. Department of Agriculture figures show that American consumers spend more than $375 billion annually on foods produced by our nation's farms and ranches.

"This money buys more than 400 million tons of fruits and vegetables, meat, poultry and dairy products a year," he said. "But only about one-fourth of this amount actually pays for the raw food product and represents the farmer's share of the food dollar."

Anderson said about $280 billion, or three-fourths of each food dollar, pays for having the food assembled, inspected, graded, stored, processed, packaged, transported, wholesaled and retailed. This is often termed the marketing share of the food dollar, he said.

In Texas, Anderson said, farmers and ranchers in 1989 rounded up $11.2 billion in agricultural receipts, up 2 percent from 1988.

"This has kept Texas in second place nationally in cash receipts, behind California, which had farm receipts of about $17.7 billion," he said.

Farmers and ranchers often are at risk, however, and droughts or late freezes reduce yields. Last year, Anderson said, Texas producers saw net income decline by 2 percent, from $3.67 billion in 1988 to $3.60 billion.

Anderson said Texas continues to rank first among all states in sales of cattle and calves, sheep and wool, goats and mohair, cotton, farm acreage and values and number of farms and ranches.

Farm-City Week has been observed nationally for the past 36 years, said Warren Newberry of Waco, the Texas representative to the National Farm-City Council Inc.

Newberry said more than 15,000 communities across the U.S. took part in the Farm-City Week observance last year. Newberry had a long career with the Texas Farm Bureau before his recent retirement.

Gas.

It's A Natural.

When it comes to doing things better for less, nothing works like gas. Naturally. Nothing heats your home, heats your water, cooks your food, or dries your clothes as efficiently. Or as cost-effectively. Or as cleanly.

What's more, no other form of energy helps to protect our environment — or our economy — quite like natural gas. Leading scientists state that the use of natural gas can guard against many of the environmental problems facing us today. And, virtually all of the natural gas we consume in the United States is produced right here in North America.

As for reliability, when's the last time your natural gas went off?

Use natural gas for your household energy. For cleanliness, cost-efficiency and reliability, it's a natural.

'Tis the season to be cautious

If you are planning a trip for the holidays, here are some tips to help make traveling with young children safer and more enjoyable.

*Insist that each child be buckled up anytime the car is moving.

*Use the time in the car to educate, interact or simply communicate with the children.

Many parents complain that they have trouble keeping children happy in the car safety seat, booster seat or seat belts. However, the seats or belts are not uncomfortable for most children and they will adjust to them with encouragement, enforcement and positive reinforcement.

Parents can also help the children accept restraints by making sure the children's physical needs are satisfied, by planning ahead, by providing creative toys and entertainment and by ensuring comfort:

*Adjust child in seat with back flat (especially the infant).

*Encourage older child to look out front window to help avoid motion sickness.

*Keep fresh air flowing into the car (smoking should be forbidden).

*Make sure the safety seat and straps fit the child for safety and comfort.

*Do not allow a child prone to motion sickness to read while riding in the car.

*Keep the child fed and dry.

*Support an infant's head with rolled diapers, etc.

*Cover infant's seat to increase warmth in winter.

Planning ahead:

*When you know the child needs attention (feeding or diaper change), try to stop before the baby starts to fuss.

*Require safety seat use from the start and the child will accept it as part of life.

*Plan enough time for long trips to allow rest stops at least every two hours.

*Make rest stops productive. Arrange stops so children can "re-ally" stretch, run and play with limited restrictions.

*Carry a supply of easy-to-eat snacks that will not mess up the car.

*Plan long trips at nap time if possible.

*Travel during the evening, so children can sleep; or start very early in the morning on a long trip.

Entertaining ideas:

*If two other people are traveling in the car, one and the baby should ride in the back seat (with baby facing rear).

*If the child has a favorite blanket, place it next to him within his reach.

*Teach the child about his world through conversation (Example: "John, see that big, red fire truck? What do firemen do? The light on top is red...what else is red?"). Conversation should be appropriate according for the child's age.

*Personalize safety seats with stickers, the child's name or racing stripes.

*Allow the child to select two or three toys to take on the trip.

Positive reinforcement:

*Anytime the baby is asleep, do not disturb the child, especially on long trips.

*Anytime the baby is awake and behaving nicely (either quiet or jabbering), make sure there is interaction with the baby such as humming songs, singing or talking.

*Ignore yelling, screaming and begging. Stop car if you must. Do not take the child out of the safety seat if crying continues, assuming all physical needs are met. This would only teach the child to cry more.

*Older brothers and sisters should be expected to behave in the car and to ride restrained at all times.

*By frequent praise and pleasant conversation, the child will remain interested and busy and will not spend time crying.

*The child should be required to ride in a safety seat at all time, even in friends' and grandparents' cars.

*Reward the child with 5 to 10 minutes of your time immediately after the ride.

*Allow children to play with the safety seat outside the car, buckling in dolls and teddy bears for imaginary rides.

Game dinner Nov. 16 in Del Rio

The Del Rio Chamber of Commerce will host an authentic wild game dinner Friday, Nov. 16, at 6:30 p.m. in the Eagle Room located at 1990 Bedell Ave.

Partakers will be treated to an assortment of wild game, including venison, black buck, sika, hog, dove, rattlesnake and deer chili, served with all the trimmings.

Guests will be entertained by the music of Dan Peterson, and numerous door prizes will be given away throughout the evening.

Tickets are on sale at the Del Rio Chamber of Commerce for $7.50. For additional information, call the chamber office at 775-3551.

Public invited to game calling seminar

On Wednesday, Nov. 14, Gerald Stewart, maker of Stewart Game Calls, will give a slide show and demonstration on game calling. This will be a 4-H Field & Stream meeting that is open to the public. The meeting will be held at the civic center from 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

This program should be of particular interest to varmint hunters and wildlife photographers. Included in his program will be segments on fur bearing animals, deer and various songbirds.

4-H reschedules phone book delivery

Crockett County 4-H Club members are reminded that the 4-H phone book delivery originally scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 4, has been rescheduled for Sunday, Nov. 18, from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m., with the group meeting at Ozona Wool and Mohair.

All 4-H members and their parents are asked to help. Senior 4-H'ers with drivers' licenses are especially welcome. According to Billy Reagor, County Extension Agent-Agriculture, this is a good way for 4-H members to gain community service and help out the adult leaders' association at the same time, since the group will raise over $300 by delivering the directories. The money is used for awards to pay for leader training, and to pay 4-H entry fees for some district and state events.

Each group will be given a map of a certain area to deliver, and the agent noted this will be on a first-come, first-served basis. He said last year's effort took about one hour to complete.

For more information, contact the Crockett County Extension Office at 392-2721. Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or handicap.

Emergency farm loan applications being accepted

Applications for emergency farm loans for losses caused by drought and storm damage are being accepted at the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) office located in the Eden ASCS Building said FmHA County Supervisor Ben T. Rucker.

Crockett County is one of 17 in Texas recently named by Secretary of Agriculture Clayton Yeutter as eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from the drought and storm damage.

Ben T. Rucker Jr. said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business or $500,000, whichever is less. Farmers must be unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, to be eligible. The interest is 4.5 percent on emergency loans.

"Also a farmer must have suffered at least a 30 percent loss of production to be eligible for an FmHA emergency loan," Ben Rucker said. Farmers participating in the PIK or Federal Crop Insurance program will have to figure in from those programs in determining their loss.

"Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until 6-17-91, but farmers should apply as soon as possible. Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possibly over into the new farming season," Mr. Rucker said.

FmHA is a credit agency of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. It is authorized to provide disaster emergency loans to recognized farmers who work at and rely on farming for a substantial part of their living. Eligibility is extended to individual farmers who are U. S. citizens and to farming partnerships, corporations or cooperatives in which U.S. citizens hold a majority interest.

The FmHA office in Eden is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Crockett County office day is the fourth Thursday of each month from 10:30 a.m. to 12 p.m. in the ASCS office.
