Sheepskins awarded to sixty 1990-91 OHS Seniors

The Class of 1991, 60 strong, graduated Friday, May 31 in the presence of proud parents, family and friends. As a brisk West Texas breeze blew their robes and ruffled carefully coiffed hair, the students took their places in Lion Stadium.

Welcoming the audience was salutatorian Gilbert Rico.

"Today I will make a difference" Kelley Porter told her classmates.

Teena Tambunga admonished the class to believe in themselves to fulfill their dreams.

Supt. James Payne told the class that while education does not guarantee success, it can be a great tool toward success. The greatest obstacle to success may be yourself, he said. Blaming others for your failures is another large obstacle.

Extension drug program to receive $16,000 Action Grant

A $16,000 ACTION grant has been awarded to the Crockett County office of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service to implement a Drug Abuse Prevention Education Program in the county.

The grant, which will begin on July 1, will provide for the following:

—A half-time program assistant to help with volunteer recruitment, training, and clerical tasks associated with the grant

—Training for parent volunteers in the Parent-to-Parent program

—Curriculum materials to be provided from the Extension Office to the school system. These include "It's Up to Me," which teaches self-esteem, decision-making, and other skills which help youth resist peer pressure.

—Other activities, including special workshops for junior high and high school youth.

County Extension Agent Tedra Ulmer, who is the project director for the grant, says $8,855 in local funds (35% of the grant total) will come from in-kind services, use of equipment and space, and matching salaries, in addition to $1,500 in cash which will be raised locally.

The federally-funded portion of the grant, which is administered by ACTION, is $16,200, or 64% of the total grant package.

Ulmer said, "The people of Crockett County made this grant possible through their support of anti-drug efforts for our youth and through their hard work to organize such efforts."

She said special thanks go to Steve Wilkins and the members of the Extension 4-H and Youth Committee and Extension Executive Board, who sponsored the "Making the Grade" meeting in 1989. Wilkins was chairman of the committee.

Also, the Crockett County school board, Mr. Jim Payne and Mr. Don Howard for their work to help put together the grant proposal and their cooperation in anti-drug efforts within the school system.

Letters to the Editor

To the Citizens of Crockett County:

I want to thank each of you for the trust you have placed in me as your physician and friend over the past few years. It is with mixed emotions that I announce my intentions to move my practice to San Angelo. The decision has been difficult for me, because my emotions tell me to stay in Ozona, but the economic facts presently indicate practicing in San Angelo is best for my family and I. The decision is based on economics. I have no conflicts with the administrator, hospital board, or commissioners.

It is my belief that Crockett County Hospital has an extremely qualified administrator. We also have a very dedicated hospital board which does a tremendous amount of work to see that Crockett County continues to provide the best possible medical service within our financial means. The hospital board members should be commended for their dedication and donation of time and energy, which often goes unnoticed by much of the community. Currently, the administrator and hospital board need continued community support and input as they try to improve the hospital and care center.

I also want to thank the original hospital board members that recruited me to practice in Ozona. Thanks very much to Bear Borrego, Jo Davidson, Don Long, Pete Maldonado, Betty Perry, and Jean Read.

In the three years I have practiced in Ozona, I have had the opportunity to develop many friends, and I have come to love living in Crockett County. Those of us living here are fortunate to be able to live in a place as uniquely scenic and beautiful as Crockett County. My present plans are to continue to live in Crockett County and commute to San Angelo. I will continue to support and be active in community organizations and affairs. I have recently had the occasion and pleasure to discuss health issues at both the Junior High and High School, which I will continue as the school faculty and administration sees necessary and appropriate.

My current plans are to work in the clinic on a part time basis through June. The days that I will be in the clinic are available through the receptionist at 392-3788. I will continue to care for my Nursing Home patients through August, 1991 at least. The place and time of where I will be working in San Angelo is also available through the office receptionist. I will continue to maintain staff privileges at Crockett County Hospital.

A very special thanks to Dr. Owensby for his support and flexibility. Dr. Owensby and I have always been able to work together. In the event that the pictures aren't so bright or the roses don't bloom, Crockett County is the place I would gladly return to practice.

Sincerely and Best Wishes to the present hospital staff and administration,

Marcus Sims, D. O.

Dear Linda and Scotty,
This is not exactly a letter to the editor, but more a letter to the people of Ozona. I am and many others are very upset that we are again losing another doctor. Ozonans, I don't believe this is just another "struggling small town hospital in a rural area" problem. There must be much more to this. We need to get to the core of this problem and do something to fix it. We need this doctor, but when he goes and if we are lucky enough to bring in another, the problem still remains and we will lose another and another. We need to get concerned. A lot of us can not get 82 miles for every medical need. What's going on people of Ozona?? We need to know.

Allie Mae Parker

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Moore,
Enclosed is a check, and mailing label from my paper, to re-new my Ozona Stockman for one year.
We have so much enjoyed the C. C. Golden Anniversary Historical Edition 1891-1991.
Please accept our thanks for helping to make the centennial celebration so outstanding. We are looking forward to the festivities.

Thank you so very much.

Sincerely,
Clara R. Dobson
(Mrs. Fred W.)

RE: Newsreel - Stockman, May 22, 1991

Dear Scotty and Linda,
I think this was our first grade picture-it was "some" year in the Class of '56. I can name some-ask Mike Clayton or Janice Spencer Marley about others. If we were in first grade it would have been 1944. I don't remember our teacher's name, but she sure was nice!

When I can get to Ozona, I may have everything written on the back of the picture.

In my Senior annual, I can count nine of us that went from kindergarten to seniors together. Carl Conklin was with us all the way, and I thought Ann Baggett and Carolyn Stuart did too, but I don't find them in the picture.

Seniors 1956 (in annual for sure!) - all the way from kindergarten were: Jerry Beasley, Mike Clayton, Carl Conklin, Earl Deland, Carol Friend, Sarah Hicks, Susie Schneemann, Lloyd West and J. R. Halydier.

I have enjoyed your reprints-these are the people that I knew when I lived in Ozona. Job well done. I've saved them for our kids.
See y'all in July!

Always

JoNel and Tommy Stokes and Andy pose for a picture with an English Bobby. Cameraman John Tom Stokes videoed the trip for his family.

England trip delights Stokes

JoNel and Tommy Stokes returned May 14 from a 10-day trip to England where they met new grandson James, 4-month-old son of John Tom and Paula Stokes.

The Texans headquartered in a hotel built in the 17th century in the town of Newbury where John Tom, Paula, Christopher and James live.

Daily tours helped put 1,600 miles on the rental car, JoNel said. "England is the prettiest country you've ever seen, green green and clean," she said. Hedge rows used as fences were neatly trimmed and even the fields looked manicured.

The Stokes visited Oxford, Stratford-Upon-Avon, Bath, and London. Bleimheim Castle with its 22-carat gold ceilings and library with more than 10,000 books was particularly impressive.

In Wales they toured the ruins of a Roman amphitheater at Careleon.

Tommy and JoNel traveled to the base where John Tom is stationed and also went to Newport where bombs from his base were shipped to the Middle East during the Persian Gulf War.

Andy Stokes joined the family May 10 after classes ended at Texas Tech and returned May 27.

Governor appoints Ozonans to Private Industry Council

Governor Ann Richards appointed two Ozona ladies to the Private Industry Council that covers the Concho Valley. Appointed were Cynthia Flores, owner of Cynthia's Beauty Shop, representing the private sector and Diane Myers, president of the Ozona Chamber of Commerce, representing economic development agencies. The newly constituted board consists of 16 members from the Concho Valley area.

On May 29th, both ladies, along with county judge, Kathryn Mayfield, attended an all day training session regarding the role of the private industry council and the chief elected officials in the service delivery area. Linda Bergron, program director from the Texas Department of Commerce, gave the training.

Responsibilities of the Private Industry Council along with the county judges include setting policy guidelines for using Job Training Partnership Act of 1982 provides federal funds to establish programs to prepare youth and unskilled adults for entry into the labor force and job training for economically disadvantaged individuals and other individuals facing serious barriers to employment who are in special need of such training to obtain productive employment.

Locally these funds are used for our Summer Youth Program which currently has 35 young people ready to start to work on June 3rd throughout the county. This brings back a little over $35,000 federal tax dollars to our community.

Other programs that have been successfully implemented are the PAYS and PAVE education programs which provided either GED training or high school education in a special setting for disadvantaged youth.

Plans for the coming year include implementing a computer program targeting those students at-risk of dropping out of school.

Both Cynthia and Diane expressed optimism in trying to see that the entire 13 county area received benefits from these programs. Their next meeting was set for June 11th at 3:00 p.m. in San Angelo.

Summer Children's Programs

CCPL will have our Summer Children's Programs again this summer, but we will only be scheduling programs in June because we don't want to conflict with all the Centennial programs in July. The Children's Programs will be every Monday morning in June with the older 6-14 year old kids coming from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. and the younger 3-5 year old kids at 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

The theme for this year is Camp Wanna-Read. The children will get to experience a trip to camp at the library! June 3, we will visit Camp Pow-Wow and learn about Indians with a film, crafts and stories. June 10 we will visit Camp Wood and explore nature. June 17 we will be at Camp Tra-La-La and make music, music, music! June 24 will feature Camp Yippi-Ti-Yo and the kids will find out all about cowboys. Think About It!

By Ralph O. Moore

"I do"

No question about it, this is the most popular time of the year to say, "I Do." For whatever reasons, more brides choose June than any other month. Maybe it's because school is out and young lovers are still thinking "homework." Whatever. It is THE time to marry.

Marriage is serious business. Far more serious than many today take it. With a divorce rate of near or over half that of marriages, it is past time to enter this relationship ill prepared.

I remember there was a movement toward "trial marriages" in the early seventies. A little later it was simply "live-in lovers." All of which is nothing more than common-law marriage, which, by the way, has the stamp of legality in some places.

Going into marriage without commitment is like going into a fire without proper equipment. When the flames get higher and hotter, and smoke fills the place, a fireperson needs the proper protection and tools - or he or she will get hurt or die. In a marriage, commitment is what extinguishes the trouble and clears the smoke.

I think commitment might play a more important role than love, at least initially. The Orientals arrange marriages, and couples, who do not necessarily love each other, are committed to make it work. It might seem strange to us, but don't laugh, their divorce rate is not nearly as high as ours.

We preach "love," but, really, love is such a vague term now. We "love" this, that, or the other. We love ice cream and our mother-in-law. We love to shop, play ball, and travel. When people enter marriage with that concept of love, the marriage is in trouble before they "tie-the-knot."

Commitment, I believe, is the necessary ingredient for any marriage to work. Commitment builds into love. Over the years, they are sealed together in a tight container. Remain committed, and you will love.

Marriage is a "uniting" in the presence of God. It is there, with the Almighty's endorsement that two become "one flesh." A man and woman must decide early-on to work at unity. Togetherness. Despite differences, cohesiveness. It takes commitment, not idle chatter or frail promises.

Commitment is not a mainstay in our society. The popular push now is immediate gratification or it's off to something else. That is why, I believe, many marriages fail today. At the first arrival of trouble, whether it be burnt toast or the sight of a more appealing body, many are off to find happiness somewhere else.

Yes, marriage is an institution that takes commitment. No, it's not a penal institution. No, it's not an insane institution. I can see now we need to talk about this some more next week. Until then,

Think about it.

The Act of Worship

By Charles Huffman, Pastor

Faith Lutheran Church
Hope Lutheran Church

Revelation 5:6-14

"Worthy is the Lamb who was sacrificed" - Verse 12

In the words of J. B. Phillips, "Worship is a declaration of God's worth". In fact, the word "worship" comes from the old English term of "worthship". Christians gather in God's house, the Church, to declare His worth - to each other and to the world. That's true because He has declared our worth as His creatures, and especially in the gift of His Son Jesus Christ - "the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world". John 1:29.

In the vision of the above reading, John reveals a gigantic worship service, where millions of God's creatures - from elders to angels, sing a new song: "Worthy is the Lamb who was sacrificed to receive power and wealth, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and praise". They are declaring God's "worth" - or more explicitly, the worth of His Son as the One who was slain and who lives again forever. The dominant note of John's vision is that of Celebration - something that is the proper theme for OUR Worship Services. Jesus died on the Cross for our sins, and arose from the grave as the Victor over sin and death - that we might celebrate, not only on Easter Sunday but throughout the church year.

"Worship" must also take other things into account - such as "relationships", the need to recognize and celebrate our unity WITH - and our need FOR each other as God's children. And "Worship" includes ACTION - as St. Paul indicates when he states that Worship is the presentation of our "bodies as living sacrifices, holy and acceptable to God - which is our spiritual worship" - Romans 12:1. If our Worship Celebration is genuine, as that of those in John's vision, it will lead to loving relationships and dedicated activities concerning God's will and purpose for our lives - and for all humanity.

God is indeed "worthy" of our Worship - so let's join together this Sunday, and every Sunday to declare His Worth. And by His grace, through the enabling power of His Spirit, may our lives be perpetual acts of Worship - until that day when we can join that gigantic Celebration in Heaven, through faith in His Son, Jesus Christ!

Shirley Kirby looks forward to retirement

After 25 years as an elementary teacher, Shirley Kirby looks forward to "being at home and doing what we want, when we want". Husband Dick Kirby retired three years ago.

"I started teaching in the jubilee year and finished with the centennial," said Mrs. Kirby.

The enthusiastic educator ended her career with a "super little bunch of kids". There is something special in every group of children, Mrs. Kirby said. Every child always had something good about them.

Mrs. Kirby taught second grade for two years and was elementary librarian and first and second grade Spanish teacher before moving to the third grade level. She has been a third grade teacher for 21 years.

Mrs. Kirby admits to being saddened by the necessity of throwing away many of the teaching materials she had built up through the years. Other faculty members benefited from the treasures, some of which were brought back from summer vacations across the country and in foreign lands.

"I had great teachers (to work with) when I started. Betty Killingsworth taught me how to laugh and enjoy with my children."

Others who helped get her off to a good start as a teacher were Thelma Janes, Jane Womack and Jimmie Jacoby. "They were there to steer you in the right direction when you hit a snag."

The world-wide problem of a lack of parental involvement worries this former teacher. Most classes don't have a lot of parental involvement, "but when you do, it just thrills you to death."

Parents have to help at home according to Mrs. Kirby. "I used to wonder if parents thought their children brought back packs full of books home every night just to build muscles."

"Every child is a unique individual. You've got to love every one of them. You can't not like one; you've got to like them all." Making the children like themselves and know that the sky's the limit, if they go for it, they can find it, is all important.

Seeing the improvement children made through use of the computer lab this year was a joy. "The programs are wonderful for the children and it was super to be a part of that," she said.

The highlight of her career was being selected by fellow teachers to receive the Ozona Chamber of Commerce Teacher of the Year award, Mrs. Kirby said. She was recognized at the annual banquet in February.

Infants can be immunized against Hib infections

Two new vaccines, recently approved for children as young as 2 months old, may spare thousands of Texas infants and toddlers illness or death from the most common cause of bacterial meningitis.

Local health departments and private physicians already have begun offering patients the new vaccines against Haemophilus influenzae type b, also called Hib disease.

At 2 months, infants can now be protected against Hib by a series of shots which health officials say are both inexpensive and highly effective. This use of the vaccine replaces the previous single-dose medicine which was not effective in children younger than 15 months.

According to Robert D. Crider, Director of the Texas Department of Health's (TDH) Immunization Division, the new vaccines, HibTITER and Pedvax, are "two of the safest vaccines available for children. They make it possible, for the first time, to immunize infants against Hib."

Crider said that about 20,000 Hib infections, mostly in young children, are reported in the U.S. annually. About one in every 200 children will have a serious Hib infection before age 5. The bacterium sometimes causes a form of meningitis, which can result in retardation, blindness, deafness and other neurological disorders. Hib also can cause severe ear, throat, sinus and upper respiratory infections, as well as pneumonia and septic arthritis.

Because the vaccines are not costly, TDH already has used state and federal funds to supply local public health clinics with HibTITER vaccine. Qualified public health clinic clients can have their children immunized without charge.

HibTITER is given in four doses (three doses at two month intervals and a booster at 15 months) while Pedvax is given in three doses (two doses, two months apart, and a booster at 12 months).

"With the availability of these vaccines," Crider said, "we hope to immunize virtually all the infants in Texas. Family physicians and pediatricians will manage their own patients, while TDH supplies are meant to reach low-income children beginning at between the ages of 2 months and 5 years."

TDH urges all parents of children in the 2 month to 5 year age group, or with chronic illnesses, to ask their family physicians or a local health clinic about Hib vaccinations. Like other childhood vaccinations, Hib immunization will be required by law for children less than 5 when registering for care or school in September.

Weatherization assistance funding available

Gov. Ann W. Richards announced May 6 that the Texas Department of Community Affairs has awarded Tom Green County Community Action Council $86,475 in funding for their weatherization assistance.

The council is one of 52 agencies - representing all of Texas' 254 counties - to receive funding. The organization serves Coke, Concho, Crockett, Irion, Kimble, Menard, Reagan, Schleicher, Sterling, Sutton and Tom Green counties.

Part of the funding derives from a $2,730,229 grant recently awarded by the U. S. Department of Energy to be used specifically for the statewide Weatherization Assistance Program (WAP).

The program helps eligible low income households, particularly the elderly and handicapped, save money through weatherproofing their home. By installing materials such as caulking, insulation and other minor home repairs, households can reduce their utility bill by 30 to 50 percent.

The average amount spent on weatherproofing each house will be $1,648.

For homes which require additional repair, up to $1,500 more is available under the Enhanced Weatherization Assistance Program. Enacted by the 71st state legislature, it is a two-year companion program to the WAP.

The program, funded by fuel overcharge funds, facilitates and protects improvements already rendered under the weatherization program.

In addition, it also allows for structural repair not included in the weatherization program.

Weatherizing homes not only benefits residents, but also contributes to the creation of jobs. Crews often employ participants in the Job Training Partnership Act and local school dropouts.

In addition, the program supports economic development through the use of community suppliers and manufacturers of weatherization materials.

For more information on the program, contact the Tom Green County Community Action Council at 653-2411 or TDCA at 512 475-3800.

TDCA was established by the Legislature in 1971 to assist Texas communities in achieving solutions to economic and social problems and to improve the effectiveness of their local government.

Child's good self image is important in sexual abuse prevention

While public awareness of the problem of sexual abuse of children has grown during recent years, the problem continues to be very real. One in four girls and one in eight to 10 boys will be the victims of sexual abuse before reaching the age of eighteen.

Dr. Constance Fournier, pediatric psychologist in the Department of Psychiatry at Scott and White in Temple, says there are several observable characteristics in both sexually abused children and in their families.

Signs

In the younger child, indications might include behavior that is aggressive, regressive, and/or sexual; sexual or violent themes in drawings or stories; or the appearance of being very mature or very immature for the child's age. Physical signs might include difficulty in walking, sitting, frequent urination, unexplained injuries, and/or neglect.

In older children, indications might include running away from home, engaging in sexually suggestive or promiscuous behavior, early marriage, withdrawal, social isolation, a dislike of family members, venereal disease or pregnancy or substance abuse.

Families May Be Isolated

Families of abused children may be isolated from the community, or may attempt to isolate their children, generally overprotecting them.

The family may have a strong paternal dominance. Roles may be reversed, with a son as "the man of the family" or a daughter as "the little mother".

Families of abused children may overreact to their children receiving sex education at school. A family member may be absent for prolonged time from the home. There may also be alcohol or drug abuse by either parent.

Dr. Fournier emphasizes that the most important step a parent can take to prevent a child from becoming a victim of sexual abuse is to make sure the child grows up with a healthy self concept.

What to Do

"Having a good self image can give the child the confidence to say no to such abuse," says Dr. Fournier. "Giving children the feeling that they have the right to say what happens to their bodies is perhaps the greatest single thing we can do to protect our children from sexual abuse. Children who feel good about themselves feel that they can say no to an adult in an uncomfortable situation."

Dr. Fournier offers these suggestions for helping to teach a child to say

Summer employment counts for S.S.

Many young people will take a summer job this year, many for the first time. If you are one of them, there are some things you should know about Social Security.

First, of course, you need a Social Security card. I imagine almost all of you have one already. But, if you do not, just contact Social Security.

While you work in 1991, a little over 7 1/2 cents is deducted from each dollar of your pay for Social Security taxes. Your employer pays a matching amount. These taxes help finance monthly retirement, survivor, and disability benefits for about 40 million Americans, as well as the hospital insurance part of Medicare for most older people as well as those with long-term disabilities or permanent kidney failure.

Someday, benefits may also be paid to you and members of your family if you have credit for enough work under Social Security. In 1991, you earn 1 Social Security credit (called a "quarter of coverage") for each $540 of your annual earnings, up to a maximum of 4 credits for the year if your annual earnings total $2,160 or more.

All of your covered wages and self-employment income are recorded under your name and Social Security number on a lifetime earnings record.

Your entitlement and the amount of your future benefits will depend on the accuracy of that record.

About every 3 years, you should request a personal Earnings and Benefit Estimate Statement (PEBES) to make sure your record is correct. You can get a free PEBES request form by calling Social Security.

There are special rules that apply if you receive cash tips in your job. They must be reported in writing to your employer within 10 days after the month ends if they amount to $20 or more.

to sexual abuse. For younger children, utilize the "bathing suit" rule. No one should touch the parts of their bodies that a bathing suit would cover except for medical reasons.

Teach children that if someone touches them in their "bathing suit" areas, they should tell someone and keep telling until someone listens. Emphasize that such touching problems are not the child's fault. "No child should ever be made to feel responsible for not saying no," Dr. Fournier emphasizes. "Abuse situations occur where the child is threatened, or is abused by someone they trust. The child may not be able to say no, or may be ignored or harmed if they say no."

Right to Make Decisions

Help children to understand that they have the right to make decisions about their own bodies. Help them understand that if they tell, they are not betraying anyone, but helping everyone to get the help they need.

If you suspect that a child you know is being abused, call your local office of the Texas Department of Human Resources listed in your telephone directory or the 24-Hour Child Abuse Hotline, 1-800-252-3515. A call today could help a child tomorrow.

Guest accommodations at The Blue Door Bed and Breakfast appeal to antique lovers. A second bedroom will be available in July.

A full breakfast is served each morning at the massive dining table at The Blue Door.

Bed and breakfast opens this week

The Blue Door Bed and Breakfast officially opened for business Monday, June 3, in the home of Cis and Nolan Conner.

A brick walkway leading from the street to the home lets guests know they are on the path to special accommodations even before their hosts swing the blue door open wide.

From the entry through the large parlor/dining area to the guest bedroom the home is filled with antiques, each with its own story. Soft colors and delicately patterned wallpaper add to the tranquil, relaxing feeling of the guest rooms.

Following a restful night, lodgers will have a full breakfast before leaving.

The Conner home at 210-12th Street was built by Homer Smith in 1915 where West Texas Utilities is now located. WTU bought the house and lot and moved the home to its present location.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hubbard moved into the home in 1932 and lived there 10 years. Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Littleton then bought the home. The house had last been used as offices for an oil company before Mr. and Mrs. Conner moved in four years ago and began renovations.

A second bedroom will be completed soon for bed and breakfast guests. The Connors also plan to continue operating their Antiques, Etc. business from the home.

$13,000 of free tests given at Crockett County Health Fair

Over 500 persons saved more than $13,000 on medical tests at the 1991 Crockett County Health Fair held May 16 at the Civic Center.

The fair, which is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, vice, Texas Department of Health, Crockett County Hospital and Crockett County Extension Home Economics Committee, featured 18 different organizations with free testing and educational exhibits.

County Extension Agent-Home Economics Tedra Ulmer said, "It would be impossible to put on an event of this type without the dedication and hard work of our volunteers and local organizations. The people of Crockett County owe them many thanks."

Volunteers who assisted with registration and other duties included Diane Martinez, Jo Baby Davidson, Tina Moran, Georgia Kirby, Lupe Martinez, Vicki Gonzales, Jean Read, Neal Ulmer, Lupe Galvan, Beverly Preddy and Adrienne Dickerson.

Those who brought snacks for exhibitors were Totsy Hagelstein, Jean Read, Tina Moran, Laurie Hale, Joyce Young, Helen Kennison, Nancy Hale, Jonesey Williams and Peggy Dickerson.

Special thanks for help with publicity distribution go to Edna Oliveras. Xi Sigma Omega sorority and Connie Jennings also deserve kudos for working with the blood drive, which netted 48 pints of blood, and for helping to publicize the health fair along with the blood drive.

Also vital in assisting with publicity at this year's fair was Vicki Gonzales, Home Economics Committee Chairperson, and her father, who translated flyers into Spanish.

Exhibitors at this year's health fair included Crockett County EMS and the Ozona Volunteer Fire Department, the Crockett County Water Improvement District, Crockett County Library, Crockett County Hospital, Dr. Joe Logan, Crockett County Sheriff's Department, Probation Office, Texas Department of Health, Belton, Family Shelter, Planned Parenthood, Concho Valley Council of Governments Senior Companion Program, River Crest Hospital, Shannon Medical Center

United Blood Services, and Angelo Community Hospital.

"And as always," said Ulmer, "very special thanks go to Joyce and Garland Young for their assistance in setting up and preparing for fair, as well as taking everything down afterwards."

The health fair, an educational activity sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, is an annual event open to all persons, regardless of age, socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or handicap.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (Company), in accordance with the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission), hereby gives notice of the Company's intent to implement a new schedule of telephone rates in Texas for residence Custom Calling Services, effective August 1, 1991, unless otherwise determined by the Commission. The Company has filed an application with the Commission to restructure and change the rates for certain residence Custom Calling Services.

The Custom Calling Services affected by the Company's application are optional telephone service arrangements that provide the following features: Call Waiting, Call Forwarding, Three Way Calling, Speed Calling 8 and Speed Calling 30.

The Company's proposal would increase the monthly rate for the individual Call Waiting feature from $2.10 to $3.10 for residence customers. Also, the rates for certain combinations of Custom Calling Features (Call Waiting, Call Forwarding, Three-Way Calling and Speed Calling-8) would increase or decrease depending upon the combination of features. In addition, the company proposes to obsolete the optional Custom Calling Service feature Speed Calling 30 for residence customers except for existing customers at their existing locations. Following are the feature combinations and their current and proposed rates.

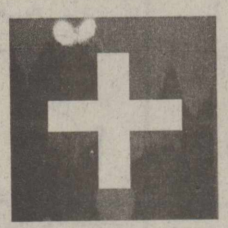

One Feature Per Line	Current	Proposed
Call Waiting	$2.10	$3.10
Call Forwarding	2.10	2.10
Three-Way Calling	2.10	2.10
Speed Calling-8	2.10	2.10
Two Features Per Line	Current	Proposed
Call Waiting, Call Forwarding	3.75	4.50
Call Waiting, 3-Way Calling	3.70	4.50
Call Waiting, Speed Calling-8	3.70	4.50
Call Forwarding, 3-Way Calling	3.70	3.50*
Call Forwarding, Speed Calling-8	3.70	3.50*
3-Way Calling, Speed Calling-8	3.70	3.50*
Three Features Per Line	Current	Proposed
Call Waiting, Call Forwarding and 3-Way Calling	5.30	5.90
Call Waiting, Call Forwarding and Speed Calling-8	5.30	5.90
Call Waiting, 3-Way Calling and Speed Calling-8	5.30	5.90
Call Forwarding, 3-Way Calling and Speed Calling-8	5.30	4.90*
Four Features Per Line	Current	Proposed
Call Waiting, Call Forwarding, 3-Way Calling, Speed Calling-8	6.90	7.30
Speed Calling 30	3.20	3.20

*denotes rate decrease
Southwestern Bell's application proposes to obsolete residence Speed Calling 30 except for existing customers at their existing locations.

Most of the Company's residence customers in Texas who subscribe to one or more of the Custom Calling Service features will be affected by the proposed rate restructuring. It is expected that the proposed rate restructuring of Custom Calling Services will increase the Company's annual revenues by $15.9 million, which is an increase of approximately one half of 1 percent in the Company's adjusted revenue for the twelve-month period ending December 1990. The restructuring will result in an increase in the Custom Calling Services rates for approximately 2.5 million residence customers and rate decreases for approximately 15,000 residence customers. Also, the obsolescence of the optional feature Speed Calling 30 will affect approximately 156,000 residence customers.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256 or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Energas requests rate increase

Lubbock, Texas — Energas Company filed May 30, 1991, with the Railroad Commission of Texas a request to increase its overall revenues by approximately 18 percent effective July 4, 1991 for its Ozona Distribution System. The company has also proposed to increase its service charges.

The annual increase to an average residential customer using 72 Mcf/year would be approximately $58.92 or 18 percent. About 1,240 customers are affected.

By law, Energas is entitled to recover its cost of service through its rates and charges to customers. Those costs include cost of gas purchased for distribution, operation and maintenance expenses, depreciation expenses, taxes and a reasonable rate of return on rate base.

The overall rate of return being requested by Energas in the current filing is 12.13 percent.

The last rate increase filed by Energas for the Ozona Distribution System was in 1983 and the subsequent increase of approximately 74 cents per Mcf was effective October 20, 1983.

While Energas has been able to hold cost increases to a level well below general inflation rates since the last rate request, the increased investment in plant additions made since 1983 and operating cost increases have created the need for additional revenue.

Eugene A. Ehler, president of Energas Company, noted that the company has been successful in its efforts at cost containment. "The company has worked diligently to contain its operating and maintenance expenses to a level that is well below the rate of inflation for the period. These efforts are largely responsible for the company's ability to operate nearly eight years without requesting a rate increase."

In its application to the Railroad Commission to increase its rates, Energas has proposed an effective date of July 4, 1991. However, the Railroad Commission has the authority to suspend the operation of the rates filed for a period not to exceed 150 days beyond this date in order to provide more time to study the filing.

"We feel the rate request is necessary and that the company has demonstrated a commitment to hold costs down," said Ehler.

Energas Company, a division of Atmost Energy Corporation of Dallas, provides natural gas service to over 310,000 customers in West Texas.

Texas gas production increases in March

Railroad Commission Chairman Lena Guerrero announced that Texas oil and gas wells produced 457,250,107 Mcf (thousand cubic feet) of gas in March, compared to the February gas production total of 423,233,910 Mcf. March's production was down .82 percent compared to March 1990's production of 461,051,521 Mcf.

The state's top producing counties, rank ordered by preliminary March production, were: Pecos, 28,848,762 Mcf; Webb, 21,839,984 Mcf; Zapata, 21,664,332 Mcf; Panola, 19,015,021 Mcf; Hidalgo, 15,047,445 Mcf; Crane, 12,196,663 Mcf; Hemphill, 9,274,787 Mcf; Crockett, 9,097,347 Mcf; Ector, 9,065,786 Mcf

Weldon Maness to open restaurant

Groundbreaking May 28 brought plans to open a restaurant closer to reality for the Weldon Maness family.

"We've had this in the back of our minds for several years and have been planning for the past couple of years," Maness said. The restaurant will be located on the lot east of Maness Texaco on the I-10 access road.

The establishment will serve family style food and should seat from 35 to 40 people. Completion is expected toward the end of summer, Weldon said.

Hours will be approximately the same as those of the service station/convenience store, 5 a.m. until 10 p.m. seven days a week. The restaurant will employ approximately 10 people.

Ozona Pony League beats Sonora

The Ozona Pony League team defeated a previously unbeaten Sonora team Saturday three to two.

The team will be in Junction June 8 for a double header. The next game scheduled in Ozona will be June 15 against Eldorado. Eldorado will play in Ozona again on June 29.

Ozona will host a tournament June 21-23.

Time capsule to be buried during celebration

A time capsule measuring 17" X 43" X 20" will be buried in the park during the Crockett County Centennial celebration. The capsule is scheduled to be opened in the year 2091.

Any individual, company or organization having an item which you deem suitable to be placed in the centennial time capsule should call

Jean Read at 392-3289 or mail the name, approximate dimensions, and description to Box 4060, Ozona, Texas 76943 before June 20, 1991. Items will be judged by the committee for durability, space considerations and relevancy to county life, industries, and interests. Items which have significance to only individuals or a family will not be considered.

Booklet available for making a will

The Salvation Army is offering a free booklet to assist the seven-out-of-eight people who have not prepared a will.

With this booklet, the Salvation Army is offering information to help control the distribution of an estate to family, friends and charitable organizations. With an up-to-date will, an estate is distributed by one's own wishes rather than legal formulas.

Some think only wealthy people need a will, or that drawing a will is too expensive or complicated. The Salvation Army wants people to know that, without a will, the state will determine the disposition of assets, the welfare of one's spouse, and the guardianship of one's children.

For this free booklet write: The Salvation Army, Planned Giving, P. O. Box 2785, Lubbock, TX 79408.

Mrs. Judy Probst's third grade class rests at The Ozona Stockman historical marker after a busy day learning about Ozona's early settlers.

Intermediate students savor history

Children in Mrs. Judy Probst's third grade ended the school year with a trip to the Mitchell Ranch to learn about early settlers and a tour of historical markers in Ozona.

The youngsters were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Mitchell where they learned that his great-grandparents were among the first settlers in Crockett County. The children went to an Indian mound and found such artifacts as arrowheads and scrapers. They also examined the Indians' corn grinding holes which were two to three feet deep.

Mr. Mitchell told the children the history of the Indians known as basket weavers who came to the area before the Apache and Comanche tribes.

In Ozona, the class made a walking tour of downtown Ozona to examine the historical markers around the square.

When temperatures are on the rise... help keep cooling costs down!

HERE'S HOW:

- Check your home for adequate insulation — R-30 is recommended in the attic.
- Help your cooling system's efficiency by caulking and weatherstripping. Infiltration of outside air is your air conditioner's greatest enemy.
- Help keep the cost of cooled air down by setting your thermostat at 78° or higher and clean your air conditioner's filter regularly.

- If your present air conditioner needs replacing, consider an all season electric heat pump. It cools in the summer and heats in the winter and saves you money on your energy bills.

Meat goat potential called unlimited

The potential for meat goat production in the United States is almost unlimited, according to a sheep and goat researcher with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

There are about 300 million acres in the U.S. that have either a brush, browse or invading brush problem, said Dr. Maurice Shelton of San Angelo. Meat goats can help alleviate that problem.

"I think goats can improve the environment, but it can be overdone," Shelton told 150 participants at a meat goat conference held in Uvalde recently.

"If the lands overgrazed, that's not the goat's fault, that's man's fault," he said.

"We still have not maximized our use of goats," for brush control, he said.

The meat, or Spanish, goat is distinguished from the Angora or dairy goat in that it is a dual purpose animal — used for its meat and sometimes for its hair (cashmere). Its bloodlines trace to every kind of goat brought into this country, he said.

Producers often find prejudice against their product because there are people who will never eat goat meat simply because it is goat meat, he said.

However, producers have an excellent opportunity to promote the meat's leanness in today's diet-conscious world, he said.

Marketing is a priority for any enterprise and meat goat production is no exception, he said. Producers must decide what their target audience is going to be and market accordingly.

"Someone has to buy our product," he said.

The most common methods are selling to friends or through private treaty, the roadside vending that's especially popular in South Texas, or through auctions. Restaurants are another possibility for marketing, but consumers may have to be educated before they will dine on goat meat while eating out, he said.

The most lucrative developing markets are certain ethnic groups that prefer goat meat and consumers in larger Texas cities, Florida and the northeastern United States. Some groups, because of religious taboos against other meats, will eat goat almost exclusively.

Whatever marketing scheme a producer chooses, he will have to examine his herd's breeding season in order to maximize his profits.

While keeping billies in year-round is often the easiest method of breeding nannies, kidding scheduled times of the year can enable producers to make the most of a lucrative market, he said. Normal slaughter ages are cabrito (kid goat), weaning, or older kid or yearling, he said.

Meat goat production, especially in South Texas, is severely impaired by predators. According to a recent survey of meat goat producers completed by several agencies including the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Texas A&I University, the major predators are coyotes, neighbors' dogs and bobcats, he said.

Fencing costs also are higher since goats are harder to contain than other livestock, Shelton said.

Another limitation to raising meat goats is average kid crops, he said. According to the survey, 37 percent of nannies presently in production have less than a 100 percent kid crop.

"We've got a long way to go...to bring up the kidding percentages," he said.

Herders or pastors who stay with the nannies during kidding increase kid crops, Shelton said. However, extra labor translates into higher costs, he said.

Some producers successfully pen nannies at night or use guard dogs. Supplemental feeding during breeding and gestation also can increase kid crops, he said.

Even though the meat goat's lack of uniformity is not always detrimental, producers could strengthen genetics in order to improve reproduction, growth rates and carcass values, he said.

Genetics can be improved by working with goats the producer already has, introducing the bloodlines of the husky Boer goat from Africa, or using the Nubian dairy goat in meat production schemes.

Centennial quilts to be displayed at Fort Concho

The Crockett County centennial and blue bonnet quilts will be displayed at Fort Concho later this month during the annual festival.

Any and all interested Crockett County residents are invited to go to San Angelo in a group June 15 to view these and other quilts. The group will leave from Ozona United Methodist Church at 10 a.m. June 15 and have a Dutch treat lunch in San Angelo before going to the fort.

Baby love line ties women to services

Women in Texas can now dial free 1-800-4-BABY-LOVE to find out about the state's many health programs for them and their children.

The toll-free number connects callers with the latest information about the state's various health programs for women and children, provided through the Texas Department of Health (TDH) and the Texas Department of Human Services.

Bilingual operators answer the line in English and Spanish from 8 a.m. - 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, at the TDH headquarters in Austin. They refer callers to the nearest location where services are available. Some programs are for low-income families and others are available to all.

"The information and referral line opens access to a variety of wonderful programs created to improve the health of all Texans," explained Dr. Beverly Koops, TDH Associate Commissioner for Family Health Services. "If these programs are to be effective, people must know what is available and how they can get the services they need close to home," she said.

BABY LOVE operators have information on child health clinic services, pregnancy testing, immunizations, family planning, maternity clinic services, health counseling, parenting classes and programs created to serve children with special needs.

Operators also will refer potential participants to the Special Supplemental Food Program for Women, Infants and Children; Chronically Ill and Disabled Children Services; Early Childhood Intervention Program; Children's Hearing Aid Loan Program; and the Texas Genetic Network.

In addition, information will be provided about Food Stamps, Medicaid and Aid to Families with Dependent Children.

The "800" number is funded by the Maternal and Infant Care Access grant, under the direction of the TDH Bureau of Maternal and Child Health.

Eric Parker plans future as Astronaut

Eric Parker

Eric Parker, 11-year-old grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Ruthardt and Mr. and Mrs. Von Parker of Ozona, made strides toward his goal of becoming an astronaut this spring. Eric attended Space Camp at NASA Headquarters at the Kennedy Space Center near Orlando, FL. The camp is a year-round program for exceptional students.

Eric and his parents, Rex and Lori Parker, learned about the camp two years ago and began making plans for him to go. His dad wanted him to earn his own way. The cost was $450 plus extras such as a space suit and other optional equipment. "My dad said if I would earn half the money, he would pay the rest," said Eric. The next two years Eric mowed lawns, did chores at home and for relatives, collected aluminum cans and saved his Christmas and birthday gift money for the trip.

The dream came true April 28-May 2 when Eric and 32 other boys and girls from across the U. S. formed teams of 10 and 11 to simulate sending a shuttle into space. Eric was placed on the Triton Team with the assignment of Mission Specialist. His duties included a simulated space walk in which he secured the payload bay.

Among the many other activities at the camp, Eric's team also built a model space station and each built his or her own 24-inch rocket from a kit. The launchings were exciting, but only one boy on the team got his rocket back in one piece, Eric said.

While at camp, Eric witnessed the launch of Discovery STS 39 on April 28. He also visited the Vehicular Assembly Building where construction is underway on an Endeavor Shuttle.

He plans to go to a more advanced version of the camp in a couple of years and has already begun saving for the trip.

Applicants for Space Camp must be honors students in science and math with above average grades in other subjects. Eric is an exceptional student and is home-schooled by his mother. He is classified as a fifth grader through the Christian Liberty Academy Satellite School, but has only one fifth grade subject. He is in the sixth and seventh grade level in all other studies.

If his schooling goes as projected, he will graduate at age 16 and attend a junior college for two years before entering the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (Company), in accordance with the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission), hereby gives notice of its intent to implement a new schedule of telephone rates in Texas for Directory Assistance Services, effective August 1, 1991, unless otherwise determined by the Commission. The Company has filed an application with the Commission to restructure and change the rates for Directory Assistance Service.

To help recover its costs, the Company is proposing to increase the rates for Directory Assistance calls from $.30 to $.40 per call (after the three-call allowance). Southwestern Bell is proposing that there be no change in the number of free Directory Assistance calls allowed each month (currently three) and that customers who qualify for exemption of Directory Assistance charges because of visual or physical handicaps continue to be exempt from these charges. If approved by the Commission, this proposed rate change for Directory Assistance will increase the Company's annual revenues by $15.4 million, which is an increase of approximately one half of 1 percent in the Company's adjusted revenue for the twelve-month period ending December 1990. This proposed rate change would affect approximately 900,000 residence customers, approximately 155,000 business customers, approximately 500 private pay telephone owners and all customers who make Directory Assistance calls from public pay telephones.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible.
