Court Proclaims Fire Prevention Week

Judge A. O. Fields and commissioners Frank Tambunga, Freddie Nicks, Fred Deaton and Rudy Martinez signed a proclamation Monday declaring Oct. 9-15 as Fire Prevention Week. This year's theme is "Test Your Detector For Life", and the proclamation not only lauds the work of the local firemen, but urges the community to participate in fire prevention activities.

A large portion of the meeting was devoted to items concerning streets and roads. Tommy Gibbs was present with more information pertaining to his September request to open a portion of road turning off Hwy. 190 on the Clayton Smith Ranch.

Commissioners told Mr. Gibbs that district court would have to determine whether or not this is a county road. They voted unanimously to deny the request to open the road.

Dickie Ferro asked the court to remove a bumpgate and put in a cattle guard on County Road 310 on Hwy. 190 going into the Parker Ranch. There are two other persons affected and one does not want the bumpgate removed, she said.

Ms. Ferro, who lives at a ranch on the road, says the bumpgate prohibits visits from friends and creates problems for her bed and breakfast business.

Commissioners said they would put in a regular gate beside the bumpgate if the other two individuals are not agreeable to a cattle guard.

No action was taken on a request to lift requirements of casing pipelines running under county roads. Eddie Moore, roads and parks superintendent, is to check further on this.

Supt. Larry Taylor and Ray Don Myers talked with the court about the need for seal coating in three places adjacent to school property. Commissioners approved seal coating these areas. As in the past, the school district will pay for the material and the county will provide the labor.

Architect Jack Meek was present to give an update on the progress of plans for placement of an elevator in the courthouse.

No bids were received for renovation within the courtroom. The auditor was instructed to re-advertise for bids.

Commissioners voted to re-establish an adequate financing arrangement for the retirement plan for county employees. Because Crockett County has numerous employees who will have worked many years before they retire, the present plan is inadequate for the long term.

The law says there should be a 25 year amortization. Actuarial figures show the county with a liability for payout of $6,421,795. Of that amount, $2,117,973 is unfunded at present. Commissioners voted to increase the county's part of the retirement contribution from 8% to 9.74%. This will reduce future benefits by 24%. If the county's portion had been left at 8%, future benefits would have been reduced by 39%.

Janet McDaniel, Oscar Kost, J. B. Miller, Troy Williams and Dick Kirby, members of a committee to obtain a building for the senior citizens, were at court to ask for use of county land. Their request was for 200x200' on the corner across from Crockett County National Bank.

Approval was given on a four to one vote with Commissioner Fred Deaton opposed. Deaton said that residents of his precinct have contacted him and stated opposition to this building being placed on county land. He also said he believes there needs to be more community involvement before the county enters the project.

Accounts have been opened at both banks to accept donations for the building which will house the Helping Hands Meals on Wheels program in addition to being a meeting place for senior citizens.

R. L. Brown is also a member of the building committee.

A progress report on the Fair Park Convention Center was given by Pon Seahorn and John L. Henderson. They suggested the county agent's office as the booking location for the building. A reservation fee high enough to cover cleanup will be charged.

Commissioners voted to accept the responsibility of maintenance of the new building.

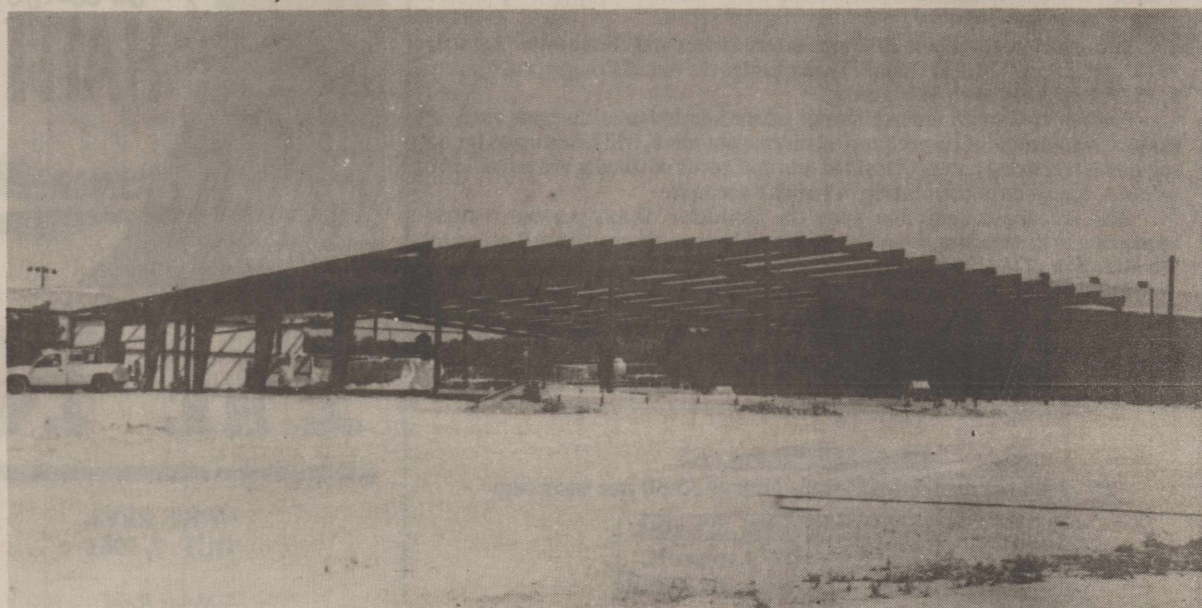

John Williams and Larry Williams of Williams Enterprises came before the court with a sample lease and a proposal that the county lease certain streets of Lima for drilling.

A motion by Frank Tambunga to take bids to lease died for lack of a second.

Paul Perner and Larry Williams directors of the Crockett County Soil and Water Conservation District, were present at the direction of the state office to ask the county for office space or rental assistance. Federal budget cuts led to the request, Perner said.

Judge Fields told them there is no room available and that the 1995 budget had already been set.

Commissioners denied a request for a $1,000 donation to the San Angelo AIDS Foundation and also denied a request by Debbie Tate of Area Wide Insurance Services to present a cafeteria insurance plan to county employees.

The court voted to approve a registration and title system agreement with the Texas Department of Transportation. Under the agreement, two computers connected to Austin will be placed in the tax office, enabling issuance of instant titles when vehicles are registered. The equipment is expected in February, Tommy Stokes said.

Auditor John Stokes was authorized to send a letter to the Association of Texas Counties withdrawing from the insurance program. The county will be a part of a self-funded insurance pool made up of counties of less than 5,000 population.

The court voted to approve a line item change to the district attorney's 1995 budget, heard reports from the auditor, from civic and youth center director Garland Young, hospital and care center administrator Gerry Phillips, Janet McDaniel of Helping Hands for the Elderly and Eddie Moore, roads and parks superintendent. A written report was received from the fire department.

4-H Club members Helena and Camelia Williams, JoLynn Vannoy and Justin Moran were there as part of 4-H Week activities and to thank the court for its support of the program. They gave each commissioner a 4-H mug.

Board Continues To Work For Expansion

Converting hospital rooms to care center residences was again a report topic at the hospital/care center board meeting Oct. 6. Administrator Gerry Phillips said that John Garry, an architect for the Texas Department of Human Resources, will give suggestions on cutting costs.

The board will request a waiver regarding window height regulations which specify a 36" height from the floor. Windows in the facility are 42" from the floor. No problem is expected as the waiver was obtained for four former hospital rooms currently in the care center on the south wing.

Handrails, two-hour rated fire walls, bed lights, overhead sprinkler system and nurse call system are among the things that will be taken into consideration for the renovation/extension, Phillips said. These things along with regulations regarding placement of the nurses' station and patient space will be dealt with by the architect.

Ambulance coordinator Doug Meador told the board he has received verification that a grant he applied for will be given for basic trauma life support training for EMS personnel. This will also be available for any licensed or certified employees in the hospital and care center.

The $3900 grant will cover 30 recipients at $130 each. Sign up will be required. Sonora, Eldorado and Big Lake will be notified so they can attend if spaces are available.

A Medicare volume adjustment based on the 1993 cost report should see the hospital receiving $90,703 from Medicare. This is an estimated amount and is subject to change. This adjustment is made because there was a decrease in discharged patients between 1992 and 1993.

In 1992 the hospital had 367 discharged patients. In 1993 there were 156 discharged patients. Medicare takes into consideration how this affects the facility, which in Ozona's case included a cut in costs and change in staffing, Phillips said.

The firm of Parish, Moody & Fikes, which is assisting in obtaining the funds, will receive 20% of whatever amount the hospital gets.

Phillips told the board that the drug cart has not been installed in the emergency room, but has been approved by consultant pharmacist Garry Lake. He said Meador has the page system for the ER and will arrange for someone to install it. This will be utilized for paging doctors and the ambulance and also will be a means of communication with both from the ER.

"The nurses have pagers now so they can take call due to staffing changes, and these seem to be working fine with no complaints at this time," Phillips said.

New Texas Department of Human Resources contract revision forms were presented to the board's treasurer for signature. In connection with this, the board voted to give Mr. Phillips or his successor the authority to represent the care center when negotiations are necessary or revisions occur that will affect the contract.

Three Honored At District Gold Star Banquet

Three Crockett County youths were among those honored at the 1994 District VI Gold Star Luncheon held at the Pecos Country Club in Pecos on Oct. 8.

Tara Wilkins, Justin Moran and Casey Upham were among 26 youths recognized by the highest honor given statewide in 4-H. To achieve the Gold Star, 4-H members must be at least 15 years of age and have completed at least three years in 4-H, including the current year.

He or she must submit an awards program record book to be considered for the award, and must have completed projects in three different areas, as well as participating in one or more activities in at least three of the following areas: Method Demonstration/4-H Presentation, Projects, Camps, Citizenship Activities, Contests, Project Exhibits, Leadership Labs, Public Relations.

During his/her years in 4-H, the member must have exhibited leadership skills by serving as a 4-H officer or committee chairman at the club, county, district or state level, and/or as a junior or teen leader in projects and activities.

The District Gold Star Luncheon is sponsored by the three utility companies which serve the 23-county District VI area. They are West Texas Utilities, TU Electric, and the Texas/

New Mexico Power Company. Representatives of the three companies were on hand to present award certificates and gifts to the Gold Star recipients.

The honorees were accompanied to the luncheon by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Wilkins, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Upham and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Moran. Also attending were County Extension Agents Billy Reagor and Tedra Ulmer and adult leaders Neal Ulmer and Nancy Vannoy.

District Council Secretary JoLynn Vannoy also attended and assisted with the program, as did District Council Parliamentarian Upham and Delegate-At-Large Moran. Vannoy and Upham read commentaries for each winner, while Moran introduced the speaker for the day, Pecos High School Principal Alice Duerksen.

The three recipients from Crockett County were honored last week at the annual county banquet on Oct. 3. "We are proud to have such outstanding young people representing our county as recipients of this prestigious award," said Ulmer and Reagor. "Their accomplishments, leadership and poise make them excellent examples of the young people who come up through the 4-H program, the agents stated, adding that parental support and involvement were critical in helping the youths achieve their potential.

Letters To The Editor

To the "Citizens" of Ozona,
Talk about protecting the people and enforcing the law. Saturday night (Sept. 24) may well have been the straw that broke the camel's back.

It started out as happy night for all invited guests of the Tomas Fierro's celebration of their daughters' fifteenth and sixteenth birthdays. The band that was playing cost the Fierro family around $1500, but wouldn't you know it? As with all Mexican celebrations at the rodeo platform, the "citizens" all over town, according to Deputy Dan, were complaining about the noise level being too high. And Mr. Fierro, some say, was told that if the sheriff deputies and the DPS officers, and God knows how many more it takes to silence the noisy Mexicans, came one more time to tell Mr. Fierro to turn the noise down, he would be thrown in jail.

Who are these "citizens" - Mr. Patel, who owns a motel and who certainly would be entitled to complain or is it Mr. Hubbard, who is well known for complaining about noise every time Mexicans use the rodeo platform? Are we Mexicans not citizens? Do the same "citizens" who have virgin ears complain when there is a rodeo and a rodeo dance (we have nothing against rodeos in and of themselves)?

We didn't understand what was meant by "selective law enforcement" but thanks to Sheriff Wilson and company we know now what it means to be singled out when it comes to "enforcing" the law and protecting" the "citizens".

I and the other inhabitants of Lima remain very disrespectfully
Your WATCHDOGS

Dear Scotty and Linda,
Enclosed is our check for our subscription renewal.

We really miss Ozona and all our friends, but are enjoying Ruidoso and our new business.

We had a very successful summer, but still have lots of work to do on the RV park this winter.

The nights are around 38-40 degrees and daytimes 70-75 degrees. We are enjoying these temperatures.

We hope to be in Ozona in October and see everyone.

Sincerely,
The Keiths

Dear Scottie and Linda

After reading the political ads the last two weeks, I couldn't resist bringing my limitless perspective to bear upon a couple of them.

The writer of one of the ads in particular would have you believe that the only time anything is ever accomplished is when a lawyer is perched upon the throne of judgment bestowing his unparalleled wisdom upon the masses. Hogwash! Don't fall for that pitch! What the county needs is a candidate who is young and brings a healthy dose of honesty, common sense and fiscal responsibility to the job.

For instance, fiscal responsibility required an analysis of the cost of installing 911 dialing for the County. The analysis was made and it was found that such an emergency number would require hiring at least two new employees to man a 911 switchboard on a 24 hour per day basis...the job classification requires that those persons have no other responsibilities. That would require two additional salaries and various other expenses which would cost an additional $120,000.00 in taxes, PER YEAR! Calling the sheriff's office or DPS gets the same response...just as fast! I speak with recent experience on this matter.

A regional airport? More taxes! More things to be accomplished? More taxes! Fiscal responsibility? A "must", unless you want to pay more taxes on your house and lot next year!

Let's talk facts. Out of the 254 Counties in the State of Texas there are ONLY 38 COUNTIES that have a lawyer for their county judge; that's only 15% of all the counties in the State. The State Constitution DOES NOT REQUIRE the County Judge to be a lawyer. This issue has been submitted to the people of Texas through proposed legislation and proposed constitutional amendments and each time it has failed.

I was privileged to know and work with two of the finest County Judges Dallas County ever had, Lew Sterrett, a Democrat and Frank Crowley, a Republican; neither man was a lawyer, yet each one did more to improve the County of Dallas than you can imagine.

When you go before a judge, you don't appear before a "diploma" or a "license"; you appear before a PERSON--seeking justice. Therefore you certainly want that person to be of good judgment. One who will be fair, impartial, honest and diligent in carrying out the duties of his office...a person whose experience in life allows him to deal with the problems brought before him in a compassionate, competent and completely honest manner. Believe me, if the people of this state believed it to be important that the County Judge be a lawyer, the qualifications for the office would require all candidates for County Judge to be licensed attorneys. SUCH IS NOT THE CASE.

At the risk of being excommunicated from the society and good fellowship of my fellow attorneys, I think there are too many of us. Lawyers should concentrate on being advocates, not politicians; they should focus only on those offices where the qualifications call for a licensed attorney. The layman or non-attorney should hold the rest. You can be sure that if I thought an attorney would have been best for the job of County Judge of this county, I would have tossed my hat in the ring. Last time I looked, it was still in the closet.

Thanks,
Bill Mason.

The executive board of each group was hostess for the evening. A get-acquainted game was played by getting a member or guest to sign beside a corresponding fact about themselves. It was a surprise to see who had a "bald husband", "a goat" or "lived on a hill". Winners were awarded a lucky wish troll.

The officers of each group joined to put on a program about the duties of each individual office. The vice-president of each group told a quick history of their chapter.

Members introduced themselves and their guests. Refreshments were Crockett County Public Library is celebrating fall in a big way. The cooler weather has re-awakened our gardening interest. It's time to plant a fall garden and prepare for winter. Get some color in your garden with fall blooming mums, shrubs and sunflowers! This is the time of year sunflowers reach glorious heights. According to folklore, the sunflower was given its name because it turns its head during the day to follow the sun. Its bright yellow blossom even resembles the sun. Native to North America, the sunflower was cultivated by the Native Americans for food and oil. Today, sunflowers are grown for a variety of reasons...oil for cooking, fodder for silos, feed for birds and poultry. Best of all, sunflowers are grown by home gardeners for the pure joy of watching such a stellar plant grow. The old-fashioned annual variety can be grown by seed in light, dry soil, perfect for Ozona. They will grow three to five feet tall with heads measuring three to 14 inches across. Check out our great gardening and plant collection for books with more information on sunflowers and other great fall plants.

Landowners' Rights Week Oct. 16-22

By Arthur W. Nagel, President Riverside & Landowners Protection Coalition, Inc.

Landowners' Rights Week, Oct. 16-22, 1994, is the time for everyone to reflect on and celebrate the bounty we enjoy because of the dedicated stewardship of landowners. Every acre of agricultural production, small business and high-rise office complex or shopping mall begins with a piece of land someone owns.

Texas comprises 130 million acres. And 97% of those acres are privately owned.

The central importance of private property is its linkage with the individual's exercise of liberty and freedom.

Arizona Governor Symington wrote with his signing of Arizona's Private Property Rights Act in June, 1992, "the right to hold and enjoy private property is as fundamental to ordered liberty as any right enumerated in the American Constitution. The right to property is a civil right, no less than the rights to freedom of speech and worship, and the rights to due process and equal protection under the law".

The rights of landowners have been compared to a bundle. The bundle is made of the many rights possessed by landowners.

Here are some. One is the right to refer to a piece of property as my land, my private property. You have the right to put a fence around it at your boundary lines. You have the right to erect "Private Property" signs and laws of the land and the courts will support you when a person ignores your signs and enters or stays on your land without your permission. You have the right to use your land as you deem appropriate stewardship so long as you bring no harm or damage or a nuisance to other persons and their property.

It is because of the right of compensation to the landowner (too expensive) that governmental regulatory agencies often refuse to recognize their acts as takings, claiming "public interest" or "police powers" of government in order to avoid payment of compensation.

But ask yourself, why should a landowner alone carry the burden of loss of economic use and income of some or all of his property in the "public interest", whatever that is.

Be thankful for landowners who, in owning and using their piece of Texas, recognize they are but stewards and that land ownership is a cherished right to be guarded constantly.

Texas is the giant among the states because of the vision and work of its landowners. Landowners who love their land, love freedom, and are proud of their abilities to handle life's situations.

Rural landowners accept migratory seasonal birds, and have been for decades. It's their human "protectors", persons unable to read PRIVATE PROPERTY signs that are not welcome.

Local Ombudsman Certified

Fred Baker recently completed training developed by the Texas Department on Aging and the Texas Department of Human Services and conducted in San Angelo by the Area Agency on Aging of the Concho Valley. Mr. Baker has been certified as a Volunteer Ombudsman, and has been assigned as Ombudsman for the Crockett County Care Center.

Mr. Baker is an Emergency Medical Technician - Intermediate and a Respiratory Care Practitioner. He has worked with the Crockett County Ambulance Service since 1992.

Each state is required by the Older Americans Act to conduct an Ombudsman program. The Ombudsman receives and investigates complaints by, or on behalf of residents of long term care facilities such as nursing homes and personal care homes. The Ombudsman then attempts to resolve the situation at the lowest possible level of intervention. Complaints are kept confidential, and no information is released without permission.

Typical duties of a Volunteer Ombudsman include visiting residents and being readily available to help them in resolving problems that arise in the course of daily living, particularly as it relates to residence in a care facility. Questions about medical treatment, food and staff attentiveness normally make up the bulk of the volunteer Ombudsman's caseload.

Volunteers do not investigate serious complaints involving abuse or neglect, but will refer them to the Regional Staff Ombudsman for further action and coordination with appropriate agencies. Stephanie Salyards is the Regional Staff Ombudsman for the AAA of the Concho Valley.

More information about the Ombudsman program is available by calling the Area Agency on Aging in San Angelo at 944-9666 or 1-800-728-2595; or by calling the Texas Department on Aging in Austin at 1-800-252-2412.

A Dream Grows In West Texas

By Jeffrey McDonald

For more than six years, a small dedicated group of volunteers has pursued the dream of building a memorial to the individuals of West Texas that served during the Vietnam Conflict.

On Nov. 12, at 3 p.m., that dream will become a reality. The initial vision, conceived by Randy Gilliam, a local vet who served with the 101st Airborne in 1969, has taken seed. With the architectural guidance of Pate & Associates of Midland, and under the watchful eye of Cecil Davis, also a local vet, of Campbell Construction, in Midland, a truly inspirational tribute is nearing completion.

The memorial will consist of a Texas shaped piece of polished sun-set-red granite, etched with 30 West Texas Permian Basin Counties and a masonry wall to serve as a backdrop. The site will include an 80-foot granite Lone Star set in the ground. The angular tip of the star will connect the star with the replica of the State of Texas and will be inscribed with the names of 225 veterans who were killed or listed as missing in action. Among them will be the name of U. S. Army Sgt. Gary D. Pagan from Crockett County.

The Star's center will be raised to form a pentagon with the symbols of the five branches of the military in bronze that will provide a base for an eternal flame. A "Walk of Honor" will be located in close proximity to the memorial. Brick pavers, purchased by friends and relatives, with personal inscriptions will provide a tangible connection with the project in memory of those who have served and those who have survived. The staffs for the United States, Texas and the POW/MIA flags will be constructed and positioned in the plaza to each side of the memorial.

The memorial is located in the 9900 block of Wright Drive, immediately north of Midland International Airport and west of the headquarters/museum of the Confederate Air Force. The memorial can be reached by taking the airport exit from U.S. Highway or Interstate Highway 20, halfway between Midland and Odessa. Immediately adjacent to the memorial site, a park will be constructed by local Rotary Clubs of both Midland and Odessa.

The memorial committee is in the process of creating a "keep-sake" for those who attend the dedication ceremony, a book of personal reflections of veterans from this area. "The response has been great," said John Philbeck, president of the committee,

"but we need more veterans to help us in creating this book. We hope each county will be well represented in this publication, and we feel certain that vets, family and friends will allow us to share their stories in words and personal photographs." Professional writers have volunteered their services to assist whenever needed.

For more information about the memorial and the dedication ceremony, to suggest additions to the list of West Texas KIA/MIA's that will appear on the memorial, to furnish information about any veteran for the memorial book (information deadline Oct. 15, 1994), or to purchase an inscribed brick in the Walk of Honor, you may contact John Philbeck at 915 682-0461 or write P. O. Box 2178, Midland, TX 79702.

Riches To Rags

By Dennis J. Prutow

The story of rags to riches can be told over and over again. Men and women work hard, see their businesses succeed, build large estates, and live comfortable lives. But men and women also lose fortunes as businesses fail and farms collapse.

The Bible tells the story of a young man who wanted to know how to inherit eternal life. Jesus set the Ten Commandments before this young man. And this fellow boasted, "All these things I have kept from my youth" (Luke 18:21). But Jesus was more perceptive. He showed this man the greed of his own heart. "One thing you still lack," He said, "Sell all you possess, and distribute it to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me" (Luke 18:22). The young man became "very sad." Why? "He was extremely rich" (Luke 18:23).

This is a story of riches to rags.

The rich man wanted to keep his earthly wealth. But he had to leave it all behind anyway. "For we have brought nothing into the world, so we cannot take anything out of it either" (1 Timothy 6:7). He also failed to gain heavenly riches. He didn't follow Jesus. And this same Jesus said, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life, no one comes to the Father, but through Me" (John 14:6).

Oct. 13 Rites For Ida Gentry^{DA}

Funeral services for Ida Marie Gentry, formerly of Midland, have been set for 1 p.m. Thursday at Ellis Funeral Home Chapel in Midland with Rev. Bill Skaggs of Kelview Heights Baptist Church officiating. Interment will follow at Resthaven Memorial Park. Arrangements are under the direction of Ellis Funeral Home. Mrs. Gentry died Sunday at a Springfield, MO, hospital.

Mrs. Gentry was born April 15, 1926, in Morgantown, IN, where she grew up. She moved to Brownwood in 1946, then to Midland in 1947. She married Archie Lee Gentry in 1972. They traveled extensively, living in South Africa and Saudi Arabia. After Mr. Gentry's retirement they ranched in Stiles for several years. They moved to a ranch outside of Mountain Grove, MO, in 1986, where they lived until the time of her death.

Mrs. Gentry was preceded in death by two daughters, Dorothy Gay Cox and Iris Kay Cox.

She is survived by: her husband, Archie L. Gentry of Mountain Grove, MO; step-sons Melvin Gentry and Norman Gentry of Jacksonville, FL, Wayman Gentry of Waco; daughters Kathy Washburn and Glenna Scarbrough of Midland; step-daughters: June Salters of Waco, Debbie Gentry and Mildred Gentry of Midland; a brother, William Lauderdale of Illinois; two granddaughters and many step-grandchildren; several great-grandchildren.

The family requests that memorials be sent to the charity of one's choice.

Chamber Info. . . .

Ask the next person you talk to "What is Halloween?". The only thing people do agree on is that any activity that targets the younger generation, parents should be responsible for their children. They should supervise their involvement and give direction and guidelines based on their age and maturity. On Oct. 31, 1994, in Ozona, Texas, Halloween will mean a time for families to plan activities that all can be a part of. The costume contest can be a family affair. The ribbons will be awarded to all age groups and a category for everything from cartoon characters to the best goblin.

The family can come as a group and enjoy the food and games provided by the area organizations. Don't want to dress up? Decorate a pumpkin. You can put your imagination to work and have Dad and Mom supervise the carving (you don't have to carve the pumpkin to decorate it) with the kids joining in with ideas and excitement for the project. Make this a family affair, know where your children are on Halloween night and show them the innocent fun you remember from your childhood.

We need games for the children to play while in the park. If you would like to participate in this event, please call the chamber office and sign up for Oct. 31, 5 to 10 p.m.

Rules: The price of the game is determined by the person running the games. The games can start as early as 5 p.m. and stay open to 10 p.m. The chamber will sell tickets for 25 cents each. After game operators have taken all the tickets for the night, you must count the tickets and turn them in to the chamber of commerce. We will subtract 10% from your total and write you a check for the balance. The advantages of the ticket selling will be that no one has to handle change at the booths. Younger people can help with the actual running of the games. This way you have more volunteers, at a younger age, that can have an active part in making the booth a success. All food booths may take cash. If you do take tickets for food, you will be reimbursed 100% of the tickets turned in. There is a charge of $15 for all food booths.

Any individuals wanting to volunteer, call the chamber of commerce at 392-3737. We need all the help we can get.

Don't forget the DeerFest, arts and crafts show, Shop Ozona for Christmas, Christmas lighting contest, etc.

New chamber members are: Sonat Exploration Co., 110 W. Louisiana, Midland; Monica's Hair & Nails-Tupperware, 206 Ave. E; Spirit Creek Taxidermy & Sporting Goods, 1008 Ave. E; Rio Pecos Water Transport Inc., 311 1st Street.

Lions Scalp Braves 28-14

By Neal Ulmer
Stockman Sportswriter

The Ozona Lions attacked and kept on attacking the Iraan Braves to a 28-14 District 5-2A win in last Friday night's game in Lion Stadium. Senior quarterback Chris Sanchez amassed a total of 117 yards rushing, 290 yards passing and was instrumental in three touchdowns.

"I feel like Chris is starting to feel comfortable at the quarterback spot and is getting where he can read defenses. He made several audibles at the line that turned into big plays for us," said Coach Don Payne.

The mighty Lion defense led by Travis Davidson and Juan Trujillo combined for a total of 19 tackles and held Iraan's offense to a total of 168 yards. The defense got busy after the first Brave touchdown and held them to a total of eight first downs; with three of those coming in the second half. Defensive Coach Rod Schneider said, "We shut them down when we had to! We had great team pursuit and a lot of people to the ball. Our secondary had an outstanding game."

Payne said, "I was real proud of our kids' effort. I thought our focus and mental preparation was a lot better this week."

Iraan, led by quarterback Lance Harvey, got in the first licks of the game starting on their own 32-yard line. An eager Lion defense jumped off side for their first penalty of the game. Nine plays later with runs of 7 and 12 yards by fullback Damon Drake and a 15-yard carry and a 26-yard touchdown by Harvey got the Braves into the end zone. A kick for the extra point failed, and Iraan led at the end of the first quarter 6-0.

A major turning point early in the second period was two big hits by Lion defensive players Adam Carroll and J.J. Lozano. Along with their teammates, they prevented the Braves from converting a third down play. This gave the Lion offense the needed spark to get the ball rolling.

Quarterback Sanchez led his team in the 62-yard drive by running 28 yards in three carries and completed two passes of 25 yards and 14 yards to Jesse Garza. Fullback Matt Ortiz plunged across the goal line from the two-yard line for the Lions' first score. Backup kicker Travis Davidson kicked the extra point with 10:43 to give the Lions a 7-6 lead.

Wide receiver Tony Valencia helped lead the Lion second touchdown drive. With the Lions starting on their own 20-yard line, Valencia caught passes of 19 yards and 17 yards and ended up with two of eight passes for 171 yards for the night.

Sanchez ran for a 12-yard gain after receiving a lateral from Garza on a no-gain screen pass. A good block by guard Elliott Barrera allowed running back Ortiz to cap off the drive with a 31-yard screen pass for a touchdown. The PAT by Davidson was good, giving Ozona a 14-6 halftime lead.

The excitement for the Lions' fans was just as high in the second half when Julio Martinez received the opening kickoff and ran it back for a touchdown. Unfortunately, the touchdown was called back due to an illegal blocking penalty, and the Lions had to start from their own 20-yard line.

Ozona's luck changed for the worse as a Chris Sanchez pass was intercepted. The Lion defense arose to the occasion several plays later, causing and recovering a fumble on their own 20-yard line. With several good contributions by the Lions' offense, the 80-yard drive resulted in a touchdown by Chris Sanchez's 7-yard roll-out scramble. The PAT was good, and the Lions led 21-6.

The Lion defense played hard and stopped the Braves again. They held the Braves to 18 yards in passing and only eight first downs in the game.

Defensively, "Again, we just played as a unit and everyone hustled to the ball," said Coach Payne. "All of the defense had a great night and played together. Our secondary did an outstanding job."

Late in the third quarter the Lion offense received the ball on their 29-yard line. Runs by Chris Sanchez, Matt Ortiz and a 17-yard pass to J.J. Lozano placed the ball on the Braves' 38-yard line. A pass in the flat from Sanchez to Valencia was good for a 38-yard touchdown at 11:51 in the fourth quarter. The extra point kick was good, and the Lions increased their lead 28-6.

The Braves' only other touchdown resulted from a weird fumble when Ozona's Anthony Sanchez received a quick pitch that went in and out of his hands into Iraan's Heath Copeland's hands for an 81-yard run. The score at that time was saved by safety Chris Sanchez's tackle on the Ozona 8-yard line.

After three incomplete passes, quarterback Harvey ran the ball in from the eight for the score with 37 seconds left in the game. Harvey also made a good run for the two-point conversion, making the final score Ozona 28, Iraan 14.

Coach Payne, in his praises of the team, said, "I'm proud of all our receivers for the catching the ball, and the offensive linemen did an outstanding job giving us time to throw. We just need to continue to improve every day and every week."

Having an outstanding game were Travis Davidson with 10 tackles, Anthony Sanchez and Juan Trujillo with nine tackles each and Justin Moran with seven tackles. Offensively, Chris Sanchez, Tony Valencia and Jesse Garza had an exceptional game.

Ozona, with a 4-1-1 record and a 1-0 district record, will be facing an unbeaten Eldorado Eagle team at 8 p.m. in Eldorado on Friday, Oct. 14.

The Ozona coaches are expecting a difficult game with the Eagles. "They are riding on a six game winning streak, mostly on the leg of Reagan Bownds, but also by playing great defense - they've allowed only one touchdown. They have a lot of team speed, and they can make a big threat play anytime," said Payne.

The pep rally will be held on Friday at 3:45 p.m. in Davidson Gym. Go out, "Back the Lions", and help bring back a victory.

Braves Tomahawk JV Lions 26-0

By Neal Ulmer
Stockman Sportswriter

The Ozona Junior Varsity Lions "played hard to the end but never gave up," according to Coach Rod Schneider of the Lions' 26-0 loss to the Iraan JV Braves in Iraan Oct. 6.

The Braves scored four touchdowns and one 2-point conversion in three quarters to win the game. The Lion defense had their hands full trying to control the Braves' running backs.

In the first quarter the Braves drove 70 yards in 12 plays for their first score. A try for the PAT was no good.

The Lions received the ball in the next series of plays and were not able to gain the necessary yardage, forcing them to punt the ball. A Brave player received the ball and ran it 60 yards for a touchdown. A run for the 2-point conversion was successful, making the halftime score Braves 14, Lions 0.

In the third quarter, Iraan wasted little time in getting on the scoreboard again. A Brave tight end caught a 25-yard pass for a touchdown. A run for the 2-point conversion failed, giving the Braves a 20-0 lead.

Iraan's last touchdown came in the fourth period on a 50-yard run. A run for the PAT failed, and the Braves won 26-0.

According to Coach Keith Hall, offensively Jon Sanchez had a great game, catching two good passes and knocking one pass down that could have been intercepted. Other players having a good game include: Brian Badillo, Gary Dominguez, Albert Flores and Manuel Mendoza.

"The kids played hard, did not get down, and had a real good attitude. We had a lot of calls (officially) that didn't go our way," said Hall.

The JV Lions will be playing Eldorado in Lion Stadium at 6 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 13.

Cubs Club Warriors In Two Games

By Neal Ulmer
Stockman Sportswriter

The Ozona Eighth and Seventh Grade Cubs mauled the Iraan Warriors in both games Oct. 6 in Ozona. The eighth grade won 14-0 and improved their season record to 3-1. The seventh grade won 16-14 and increased their season record to 4-1.

Commenting on the eighth grade game, Coach David Delgado said, "This has been one of our better games. We were consistent on offense and solid on defense."

"They played a good mental game," added Coach Rick Bachman.

Both the teams' offenses had a tough time in moving the ball down field in the first period. Each of the teams fumbled and recovered the ball but eventually punted the ball.

Ozona was finally able to take advantage of a Warrior turnover and attempted to turn it into six points. A gone wrong Iraan punt kicked from their own 22-yard line allowed the Cubs to recover the ball on the Iraan nine-yard line. Jason Alvarez and David Gutierrez ran the ball each for three yards, getting the ball to the 3-yard line. Gutierrez ran the ball in from the three-yard line, but unfortunately it was negated due to a Cub penalty.

The Cubs tried two passes but were unsuccessful and were forced to give up the ball on downs. Iraan was not able to move the ball, and Ozona received the ball on Iraan's 42-yard line.

Alvarez picked up seven yards on a run, and Mark Childress caught a 9-yard pass, reaching the 23-yard line. The Cubs scored on a 23-yard half-back pass from Matt Galindo to Mitchell Martinez. Galindo then ran the ball in for the 2-point conversion, giving the Cubs an 8-0 lead.

The Cubs made their last score on a 20-yard run by Galindo. A pass for the 2-point conversion fell incomplete, and the Cubs ended the game with a 14-0 win.

Having an outstanding game offensively were: Matt Galindo, Mitchell Martinez, Anthony Ortiz, David Gutierrez, Robert Kelly and Ricky Dominguez. Defensively having a great game were: Jesse Salazar - intercepting a pass, David Gutierrez, Jason Alvarez and Ryan Ramos.

The seventh grade game was quite exciting as the Iraan Seventh Grade Warriors came close to tying with eight seconds left in the fourth period. The Cubs' defense prevailed and held on to their two point lead to win last Thursday's game 16-14.

Coach David Delgado said, "The seventh graders have had a tougher opponent (Iraan) than we have faced. This is the best team we have faced."

Commenting on the last extra point conversion, Coach Rick Bachman said, "I was real impressed in us stopping the 2-point conversion - a true test for them."

The Cubs took control early in the first period after recovering an Iraan fumble on their 9-yard line. Running back Matt Castaneda ran three plays with the last play covering the four yards for a score. Castaneda also ran the 2-point conversion, making the score Ozona 8, Iraan 0.

The Warriors retaliated by coming back and scoring on the kickoff return, but fortunately for the Cubs, Iraan received a penalty. Iraan recovered and ran a 62-yard reverse play, getting the ball down to the 8-yard line. The Warriors took three plays, scoring on a 1-yard run. A pass for the 2-point conversion was good, and Iraan tied the game in the second period at 8-8.

The Cubs received the ball on their own 29-yard line. It took nine plays with Castaneda and Miguel Rios running the ball. Castaneda scored on a 14-yard run, and Rios ran the ball in for the 2-point conversion, making the score Ozona 16, Iraan 8.

No score was made in the third quarter, and with only eight seconds left in the game, the Warriors started making a desperate comeback. Starting on their own 49-yard line, the Warriors drove down the field in eight plays and scored on a 15-yard pass. The Cub defense did an excellent job in stopping the 2-point conversion to win the game 16-14.

Playing a good game on offense were: Matt Castaneda, Miguel Rios, Peter Rodriguez and Dustin Schaffer, K.C. Boyd and Dustin Schaffer had a great game along with the other defensive players.

On Thursday, Oct. 13, the Cubs will play at 5 p.m. in Eldorado. Be a Cub supporter and back them all the way.

Parents Can Make The Difference In Grades

The first milestone of the new school year has arrived - the report card. If grades need a little work, parental support can make a difference.

"Providing structure and expressing interest may be the keys to improving a child's grades," said Dr. Lou Ann Mock, a child psychologist at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

"Rather than punish a child after the first report card, parents might want to take a more positive attitude of 'how can we work together to fix this problem?'"

The first step is to talk with the teacher, and then begin to implement some change at home.

One essential at home is adequate study space with good lighting and few distractions.

"A desk in a room is fine if it isn't covered with clothes and belongings," Mock said. "Many times the dining room or kitchen table works well and makes parental supervision a little easier."

Mock also encourages parents to set a specific time in the evening for studies. "Allow some time for outside play or for an after-school snack, but make television off limits until after homework time," she said.

It might be necessary to sit with a young child just starting a homework routine, but parents should pull back as soon as possible so the child can learn to work independently.

"Let your child know you have other responsibilities to take care of, but check in occasionally," Mock said. "This provides structure, but keeps you from hovering over your child."

If grades are suffering because a child claims to have no homework, Mock suggests implementing a daily assignment sheet initiated by the teacher. This system allows parents to monitor assignments and reward their child for completing assigned work.

"A minimal reward for remembering assignments four nights out of five puts the focus on the positive, not the negative," Mock said.

There are also times when a child will need help with new concepts. In families where homework has been a previous source of conflict, Mock suggests using a tag-team approach with parents taking turns working with the child. Another option, she says, is to hire a high school student or someone else as a tutor.

And if grades do not improve?

"Meet with the teacher again, and make sure you are not expecting more than the child can deliver," she said. "Helping a child learn to put forth his or her best effort may be more important than a grade on a report card."

Bonilla Has Good News For Sheep Industry

WASHINGTON - In his continuing efforts to provide a voice for Texas ranchers, U.S. Rep. Henry Bonilla (R-Texas-23) was an original cosponsor of legislation to establish a national checkoff program which will provide funds for promotion, research and information programs to benefit sheep and wool growers. The House passed the legislation Wednesday night, Oct. 5, shortly after it was introduced.

"Last year, Congress passed a bill to phase out the Wool Act over the next two years," Bonilla said. "Tonight, Congress passed a bill which will help ranchers find a new way to do business so they can still provide for their families."

"This new 'self-help' checkoff program will be funded and run by producers who benefit from the research and marketing activities," Bonilla said. "The checkoff imposes no cost to the government, but it will help the more than 350,000 Americans in small communities who depend on income generated by the sheep industry."

The program will be administered by a 120-member National Sheep Promotion, Research and Information Board comprised of 85 producers with a prescribed representation from each of the 50 states, 10 feeder members and 25 importers. The board will work together to develop, finance and carry out a nationally-coordinated program for sheep and sheep product promotion, research and information.

"The Wool Act will be phased out by Dec. 31, 1995, and this new check-off program will kick in on Jan. 1, 1996," Bonilla said. "This is a big relief."

And in other good news, Bonilla successfully persuaded his colleagues on the Appropriations Committee not to slash funding for Animal Damage Control (ADC) operations. In fact, the Appropriations Committee slightly increased ADC funding in the bill which was signed into law Friday, Sept. 30.

"It seems that when it comes time to make budget cuts, some members of the Washington establishment always look for a sacrificial lamb," Bonilla said. "This year, for example, the administration proposed to cut Animal Damage Control operations by 12 percent."

"However, we made those spending cuts in other areas and will continue to help ranchers in their battle against predators," Bonilla said.

The ADC program was established more than 100 years ago to help solve problems that are created when species of wildlife cause damage to agricultural, industrial or natural resources, or when they present a threat to public health and safety. The program helps protect agricultural and natural resources, property and endangered species and prevents wildlife hazards at airports or other locations where there is a need to safeguard public health.

"The ADC program is extremely important to the livelihoods of sheep producers," Bonilla said. "In 1990, the state of Texas lost 107,000 sheep to predators at a cost of $4.4 million."

"I'm just delighted that in this era when finding common sense in government is harder than finding a needle in a haystack, Congress has the wisdom to help our wool producers with Animal Damage Control and the newly-established sheep checkoff program," Bonilla said. "This is great news for a lot of families across West Texas."

Flu Vaccines Urged For High Risk Persons

The Texas Department of Health warns each year that anyone who may be at increased risk of complications of influenza should be immunized before the flu season begins.

The U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) each year predicts which strains of influenza pose the greatest public health danger.

The vaccine CDC has recommended for the 1994-95 season is designed to combat the A/Shangdong, B/Panama and A/Texas (first isolated in Houston in 1991) strains of the disease.

Flu vaccines are subject to yearly change, and the effectiveness of the shots declines with time. Therefore, annual immunizations with the recommended vaccines are necessary for people most at risk.

People most at risk of severe or fatal complications of the disease include those 65 or older, anyone with chronic respiratory or heart problems and children weakened by disease.

"Yearly, usually between December through April, influenza kills about 20,000 in the U.S., most of them in high-risk categories," Robert D. Crider Jr., director of TDH's Immunization Division, said. Crider said that the elderly are among the hardest-hit by influenza and its complications.

"Fewer than 30 percent of Americans in high-risk groups heed our annual warnings to seek influenza vaccinations," he added. "We know that one reason some older people fail to be vaccinated is because of an unfounded fear that the vaccine can actually cause influenza. The truth is that a vaccinated person may still contract some strain of influenza, but not from the vaccine. If they do become ill, the vaccine usually helps lessen the severity of the case."

The categories of people who are most likely to develop influenza complications are:

- Persons 65 years old and older;
- Adults and children with chronic heart or lung disorders, including children with asthma;
- People under medical care for chronic metabolic diseases, kidney or blood problems or weakened immune systems; and
- Children (18 and younger) who already are receiving long-term aspirin therapy, which can place them at risk of developing Reyes syndrome after influenza.

"We strongly recommend influenza vaccinations for all people in high-risk groups, especially if they are international travelers or if they are pregnant," Crider advised. "People infected with the human immunodeficiency virus (the virus which causes AIDS) also may be at increased risk for flu complications." In addition, CDC recommends that physicians, nurses and other health professionals should be immunized against influenza to avoid spreading the disease to their patients. Residents and employees of nursing homes and other facilities treating chronically ill patients also should be immunized.

"We advise physicians to offer vaccine to their patients during routine clinic visits, beginning in September and throughout the influenza season," he said. "Children younger than 9 who have never received these influenza vaccines will need a first shot, followed a month later by a booster. Adults, however, will need only one shot in a season, since CDC has found no added benefit in a second shot for adults in a single season."

Crider explained that all unimmunized residents of chronic-care facilities, such as nursing homes, should be immunized during October and November. Since immunity by the vaccine may not be complete for a few weeks following vaccination, waiting until flu cases occur in the community can be a tragic mistake. He added that high-risk persons who are hospitalized any time from now through March and members of their households are encouraged to be vaccinated.

Small Changes May Improve Energy Level

When your energy level seems stuck at zero, changes in eating and exercise habits may be all it takes to recharge your battery.

According to researchers at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, most people experiencing chronic fatigue who are not clinically ill are suffering from unhealthy behaviors. Only about one percent of people experiencing overwhelming tiredness actually suffer from Chronic Fatigue Syndrome.

"The culprits are usually poor nutrition and lack of exercise," said Dr. Ken Goodrick, Baylor assistant professor of medicine and a behavioral psychologist. "Caffeine abuse may also cause fatigue rather than overcome it, and alcohol/drug abuse, stress and depression, or irregular sleep patterns can play a role."

Not eating enough, eating too much fat or not drinking enough water can cause a persons to feel fatigued, Goodrick said.

To help increase energy, poor nutrition habits should be replaced by a well-balanced diet that provides no more than 30 percent of total calories from fat. A healthy eating plan also includes five or more servings of fruits and vegetables and at least eight glasses of water a day.

Regular, vigorous (but not necessarily strenuous) exercise also increases energy and helps with sleep as well, Goodrick said. Experts from Baylor's DeBakey Heart Center Nutrition Research Clinic recommend 45 minutes of brisk walking three to five times a week as part of a healthy lifestyle routine.

Caffeine consumption should also be addressed. Drinking two or three cups of coffee or caffeinated beverages may be all right if they are consumed at least seven hours before bedtime, Goodrick said. More than that can sap energy and disturb sleep.

"People who use caffeine to combat fatigue are not doing themselves any favors. Caffeine blocks the "tiredness signals" normally sent to the brain to trigger sleep, so we ultimately become more tired," he said.

Research from sleep laboratories also shows caffeine disturbs quality of sleep, leaving the body tired.

CEU Credits To be Offered Across West Central Texas

West Central Texas pesticide applicators will have ample opportunity to meet U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) requirements in the coming months.

EPA requires that pesticide applicators be recertified. Requirements for applicators certified or licensed by the Texas Department of Agriculture are summarized as follows: Certified Private Applicators certified before Jan. 10, 1989, have two options: Option 1 - Obtain 15 continuing education units (CEUs) including two credits in laws and regulations and one credit in integrated pest management by Dec. 31, 1995, and repeat every five years thereafter; or Option 2 - On a one time only basis, take the Texas Agricultural Extension Service private applicator training course, pass the Texas Department of Agriculture private applicator test and make application for a private applicator license along with the required fee.

Certified Private Applicator's Licenses dated Jan. 10, 1989, through Dec. 31, 1989, will expire Dec. 31, 1994. If these individuals wish to continue spraying restricted use pesticides, they must take the Texas Agricultural Extension Service private applicator training course, pass the TDA private applicator test and make application for a private applicator license along with the required fee.

Since Jan. 1, 1990, License Private Applicators must obtain 15 CEUs including two credits in laws and regulations and one credit in integrated pest management every five years. These credits must be earned by Dec. 31 of the year preceding license expiration.

Licensed Commercial Applicators and Licensed Non-Commercial Applicators must obtain at least five CEUs each year for license renewal. Two of these must be in laws and regulations and one in integrated pest management.

Rep. Bonilla Here Monday

As he completes his first term in Congress, U. S. Rep. Henry Bonilla came to Ozona Monday to report on recent developments in the House of Representatives and to discuss the issues that are important to West Texans.

"It's amazing how quickly my first term as your representative has flown by," Bonilla said. "We've had a busy couple of years."

Bonilla said some of the highlights of his first term include battling agriculture opponents who wanted to pull the rug out from under wool and mohair producers, fighting to protect private property rights, helping to pass the sheep checkoff program and securing funds for the Animal Damage Control program.

"Last year, we were up against a powerful group who wanted to take all of the needed spending cuts out of the hides of farmers and ranchers," Bonilla said. "These forces tried to eliminate the Wool Act retroactively, but because of your phone calls and letters, we were able to convince my colleagues of the facts and at least allow producers time to adjust and find new ways to do business."

"Although we could not save the Wool Act, Congress last week passed a sheep checkoff program which could go into effect the day after the Wool Act expires," Bonilla said. "This new 'self-help' program will allow producers, feeders and importers to work together for sheep promotion, research and information."

"If it wasn't for the partnership with the people of Ozona, we couldn't have functioned as well on this," he said.

"I'm also happy to report that the private property rights movement in Congress is gaining momentum," Bonilla said. "More than 150 representatives have cosponsored the Private Property Owners Bill of Rights and the number is growing. I will continue to work hard to make sure your property rights are protected."

In addition, Bonilla said he was glad that his colleagues on the Appropriations Committee agreed not to slash funding for the Animal Damage Control program by 12 percent as requested by the president. "Instead, we restored funding to last year's level to help ranchers defend their livestock against predators," Bonilla said.

The congressman said he is working closely with Chet Edwards to keep any more species from being added to the Endangered Species Act until the bill is reauthorized next year. "This is a real big issue."

Rep. Bonilla reaffirmed his position that U.S. troops should have never been sent to Haiti.

"The accomplishments we've been able to realize have been because of your letters, phone calls and hard work," Bonilla said. "When you get involved in your government, you really do see results."

Eight schools competed with Comstock winning first place with a total of 27 points. Water Valley placed third with 52 points and Veribest took fourth place with 106 points.
